NOTING THE WOLFPACK

The History with Each Opponent

- Notre Dame: Friday's marks the 18th meeting with the Fighting Irish since the joined the ACC in 2013. The Pack leads the all-time series, 11-6 and has won four of the last five meetings. In 2025, Notre Dame defeated the Wolfpack in five sets. Rebecca Ring led the offensive efforts with 14 kills and Talia Francom added 5.0 total blocks on the defensive side.
- No. 5 Louisville: Sunday marks just the 13th meeting with the Cards who lead the all-time series 10-2. The last time NC State won was in 2023 when the Pack stunned the No. 5 Louisville in four sets in Reynolds Coliseum to mark the first ever win over a top-5 program. The 2025 meeting saw the Cardinals win on straight sets with Rebecca Ring helping lead the offensive efforts with nine kills while Jordan Smith led the defensive command with 3.0 total blocks.

That Run Was How Long?!

- While massive scoring runs are common in basketball, stringing together 12 unanswered points in volleyball is a rarity. In the fourth set against Virginia, the Wolfpack opened the frame with a 12-0 run fueled by tough serving from freshman Eva Long. During the surge, NC State tallied four kills, four blocks, and a service ace, while forcing six consecutive Cavalier attack errors.
- As of Tuesday, Nov. 17, NC State is just the third team to mount a scoring run of 10-0 or greater in a set this season, joining Villanova and Western Michigan.
- This marks only the second time since at least the 2000's that NC State has achieved a 12-point run. The last instance occurred in a 2018 win over Wright State, when the Pack broke a 10-10 tie in the second set and took the lead with 12 straight points. NC State ultimately held Virginia to just 14 points in the fourth set, mirroring the dominant 2018 squad that held Wright State to 12.

Something about Five

- Five-set thrillers have become a hallmark for the Pack this season, as NC State improved to a flawless 6-0 in five-set matches following week six of conference action.
- The squad earned back-to-back five-set victories for the second time this year, showcasing a dramatic shift in fifth-set poise compared to prior seasons where decision sets proved troublesome.

Not a Long Track to the History Book

- Freshman setter Eva Long has proven to be one of the top setters in the conference—and arguably the nation—putting her on pace for a historic career in program history.
- Through 21 matches, the Fenton, Michigan, native has recorded 784 assists, averaging 37 per match and 9.82 per set, while maintaining a setting percentage above .300 all season.
- She posted a career-high 53 assists in back-to-back five-set matches against Wofford (Sept. 5) and LSU (Sept.

8), adding 10-plus digs in each to pick up a pair of double-doubles.
- She recorded her 1,000th career kill against Virginia on Nov. 15.
- If Long maintains this pace, she will etch her name across several categories in the program record book.

Honor of a Lifetime
- On Oct. 16, Head Coach Megan Wargo-Kearney was inducted into the Gettysburg College Athletic Hall of Fame. Although she was in California coaching the Pack, her parents and sisters attended the ceremony on her behalf, and MWK delivered a pre-recorded acceptance speech.
- She was introduced by Kelly Kim, her former head volleyball and assistant softball coach at Gettysburg. MWK highlighted the strong bond they formed during her time in the 'Burg and noted that they have maintained a close connection over the years.

The Great Wall of Talia
- Sophomore middle blocker Talia Francom has emerged as an offensive force for the Pack to complement her elite defensive presence.
- Francom posted a career-high 14 kills on 28 attempts without an error (.500 hitting percentage) against Syracuse before adding 11 kills against Boston College.
- She also recorded 15.0 total blocks across the two matches, earning ACC Defensive Player of the Week honors for Week 3 of conference play.

History Made in the Triangle
- On Friday, Sept. 25, Wolfpack Nation helped sell out Reynolds Coliseum for the first time in volleyball program history. A record crowd of 5,500 fans filled the arena as NC State took on No. 24 UNC at 7 p.m.
- The atmosphere inside Reynolds was electric. UNC head coach Mike Schall praised the environment, noting, "Hats off to [PackVball] for a great match and selling out Reynolds. 5,500 people—a great day for volleyball in [North Carolina]."

Not The Same Pack
- The 2026 Wolfpack has shown remarkable grit early on, posting a 4-0 record in five-set matches—including three straight victories. That's a stark turnaround from last season, when NC State struggled in tight contests, going 3-4 overall in five-setters and 2-4 when trailing 2-1 (in five-set matches).
- A relentless freshman class has injected a bold expectation to win; while navigating that learning curve takes time, that fearless mindset is quickly becoming NC State's biggest asset.
- You don't want to be in the path of Jordan Smith or Britni Silver when they are fired up ... their swings become more powerful and their determination is unmatched.

Dishin' Dimes (data as of Sept. 18)
- Freshman setter Eva Long has quickly proved she is a key engine for the Pack's offense and a natural leader on the court. Since joining the team, she has impressed both coaches and fans with her unflappable composure and standout athleticism.
- By the Numbers
  10.30: Long's average assists per set heading into week four, ranking 7th in the ACC and 28th nationally.
  Top-10 ACC: She is one of just three freshmen ranked in the conference's top 10 for assists per set, alongside Cal's Anna Flores and SMU's Hannah Beaufort.
  Top-30 NCAA: She is one of only two freshmen in the entire nation ranking in the top 30 in assists per set.
- Historical Context
  First since 2018: Long is on track to become the first Wolfpack setter to average over 10.00 assists per set since All-American Kylie Pickrell posted 10.81 in 2018.
  Freshman Milestone: The last freshman to cross the 10.00 assist mark was Lauren Markowski (10.31 per set) in 2004—four years before Long was born..

Takes a Pack to Tame a Tiger
- NC State battled past LSU in five sets at the 2026 ACC/SEC Showdown at the Net in Baton Rouge, securing the program's first-ever win over the Tigers and its third straight five-set victory.
- Stat Leaders: Eva Long - 53 assists, 23 digs; Brinti Silver - 22 kills, 11 digs (Second 20+ kill match in four day), Jordan Smith - 14 kills, 11 digs (first double-double of her career)
- The trio's performance marks the first time three Wolfpack players recorded a double-double in the same match since facing Notre Dame in 2021 (Taylor Rowland, Melissa Evans, Jade Parchment).

Statistically Speaking (as of Sept. 7)...
- The Pack is off to a stellar start in 2026, dominating both the scoreboards and the stat sheets.
- National Standing (NCAA D1): Ranked 15th nationwide in both blocks per set (3.11) and kills per set (14.56).
- Conference Dominance (ACC): Ranks first in kills per set and second in blocks per set.
  Talia Francom (MB): Leads the ACC and sits 3rd nationally with 2.11 blocks per set—the highest national ranking by a Pack player in any statistical category over the last five seasons.
  Eva Long (S): Ranks 2nd in the ACC in assists per set (10.56), trailing the leader by less than 0.20.
  Zuzia Maciejewicz (L/DS): Ranks 3rd in the ACC in digs per set (4.11), also within 0.20 of the top spot.

Somethin' About Saturday (Sept. 5)
- Saturday's match against the Wofford Terriers featured several career milestones for individual members of the Pack, alongside a few notable team achievements...
- Zuzia Maciejewicz posted a career-high 35 digs, which ranks first in the nation for the most in a single match this season.
- Britni Silver recorded a career-high 25 kills, tying for the sixth-most in a single match in program history.
- Eva Long notched a career-high 53 assists—the most by a Pack setter since 2021—and registered her third double-double in five matches.
- Talia Francom set a career high with 12.0 blocks.
- Team Performance: The Pack tallied 84 digs (their most in a match since November 2025 against Syracuse) and 65 kills (their highest total since facing Old Dominion last season).

Young Bucks Shine
- The freshman class made an immediate impact during opening weekend, combining for 96 assists, 53 kills, 16 blocks, and three aces while leading all hitters and setters in kills and assists across the trio of matches.
- Outside hitter Britini Silver paced the Pack in the season opener with 15 kills, becoming just the fourth rookie in the last five seasons to tally 12 or more kills in her collegiate debut. She recorded two double-doubles over the weekend.
- Setter Eva Long launched her career with a standout 34-assist, 10-dig, three-kill performance against Stony Brook—the most assists by a Pack setter in a opener since Kristen McDaniel logged 44 in 2021. Long also notched a double-double in her debut. She earned a spot on the Black & Gold Classic All-Tournament team for her performance.
- Middle blocker Norah Busch and opposite Makenna Kowren rounded out the rookie contributions, each securing the first kills of their collegiate careers.

645 Days Away from the Net
- Fifth-year middle blocker Sophie Groom tore her ACL during the opening set against SMU on Nov. 22, 2024. She missed the entire 2025 season while rehabilitating her knee, but remained vital to the program. Stepping into a key off-season leadership role, Groom earned a spot on the Wolfpack's leadership council over the summer.
- She finally returned to action 645 days after her initial injury, appearing against both Robert Morris and UCF. Groom made an immediate impact, tallying 14 kills and five total blocks while capping the weekend with a team-leading .423 hitting percentage.

2026 Roster
- Returning Core: NC State returns 11 players from the 2025 roster, matching the retention total from the previous season.
- Fresh Class: The Pack added five freshmen this offseason: January enrollees Eva Long, Britni Silver, and Makenna Kowren, followed by Norah Busch ahead of June's foreign tour and Callie Combs later in the summer.
- Transfer Addition: Libero Kate Kilpatrick joins the Pack after three seasons at Old Dominion. Kilpatrick previously faced NC State last season at the VCU Invitational.
- Staff Update: Assistant coach Jeremiah Burden joins the staff after serving as a graduate assistant at Pepperdine last season. A former libero at Juniata College, Burden was an NCAA Elite 90 Award recipient.

The Pack Got Young
- Youth Movement: The 2026 roster is comprised of over 50% underclassmen, bringing the team's average age down to just 19.4 years old. Only five members of the Pack are 21 or older:
  21 Years Old: Vondran, Kerr, Kilpatrick
  22 Years Old: Groom, Villar
- Embracing the Shift: Head Coach MWK knew heading into this season that outsiders would categorize this squad as a younger group or perceive their youth as a potential disadvantage.
- Freshman Foundations: To open last season, the Pack featured four freshmen in the game one starting lineup: Ring, Smith, Francom, and Maciejewicz.
- Next-Gen Lineup: Given the depth of young talent, it is entirely possible the Pack could roll out a starting lineup composed exclusively of underclassmen this season.

Pack vs. Power 4
- NC State is no stranger to top-tier competition outside of ACC play. This season, the Wolfpack will face at least one non-conference opponent from each of the other Power Four conferences.
- Over the program's 52-season history, NC State has played 810 of its 1,680 total matches against Power conference opponents.* Under the current Power Four realignment model, the Pack holds a 261-542 all-time record (.325 winning percentage) against active Power Four schools.
- Historical data accounts for former and current Power conference members (ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, SEC, and former Pac-12), including past matchups against Maryland (ACC), South Carolina (ACC), Texas (Big 12), Texas A&M (Big 12), and Missouri (Big 12) during their previous respective Power conference tenures.*

vs. ACC: 222-449	vs. SEC: 27-53	vs. Big 12: 4-18	Big 10: 8-23	vs. Pac 12: 2-5*	Total: 263-548 (.325)

Replacing the Kills Leader
- Despite returning 62.9% of its total kills from last season (862 of 1,375), the Pack must replace its top offensive producer for the second consecutive year following the graduation of Courtney Bryant. NC State faced a similar challenge in 2025 after graduating All-American Amanda Rice following the 2024 season and in 2024 after Ava Brizard hit the transfer portal after the conclusion of the 2023 season.
- Sophomore Rebecca Ring steps into a primary role after finishing second on the team last season with 2.92 kills per set and 283 total kills. Fellow outside, freshman Britni Silver, is expected to make an impact for the Pack offensively this season.

Young is NOT an Excuse
- The Pack added five freshmen to its roster during the offseason — three who enrolled in January and two who joined the program during Summer 1 — falling just one shy of last season's freshman class of six.
- Head coach Megan Wargo-Kearney often refers to her team as "young bucks," but within the program, youth is seen as a baseline rather than a crutch.
- With five incoming freshmen joining last year's five returning sophomores, every practice and match serves as a crucial learning opportunity. Mistakes are treated as essential steps in development, but expectations remain high as the Pack focuses on daily growth and continuous improvement.

Ranked Prospects
- MWK and company have built a habit of landing elite talent, signing at least one nationally ranked prospect in each of the last three recruiting cycles. Four current Wolfpack players earned top-200 national rankings from PrepDig during their high school careers, including a pair of top-65 recruits.
- The 2026 incoming class features Eva Long (No. 65) and Callie Combs (No. 167), following a strong 2025 group that brought in Jordan Smith (No. 61) and Rebecca Ring (No. 149).

A League of Their Kin
- Six members of the Wolfpack have siblings competing at the collegiate level, including four with sisters in the college volleyball ranks.
- Sophie & Anika Groom: Fifth-year Sophie Groom will face off against her younger sister, Anika (AN-i-kuh), a pin for Clemson, later this season. The duo previously went head-to-head last year while Anika was at Georgia Tech.
- Rebecca & Natalie Ring: Sophomore Rebecca Ring's older sister, Natalie, plays outside for Texas A&M and was an All-American at Marquette.
- Elaisa & Camila Villar: Fifth-year Elaisa Villar's younger sister, Camila (kuh-MILL-uh), is a setter at Division II St. Leo.
- Alyssa & Lauren Forelli: Junior Alyssa Forelli's younger sister, Lauren, is set to join Michigan State's volleyball program in January.
- Britni & Kylah Silver: Freshman Britni Silver's older sister, Kylah, plays basketball for Providence after three years at UNC-Wilmington.
- Eva & Kaiden Long: Freshman Eva Long's older brother, Kaiden, is an offensive lineman at Division II Northwood.

Rocket Success
- Senior aerospace engineering major Laurna Kerr earned her Level 1 High-Power Rocketry Certification over the summer. With assistance from two NC State High-Power Rocketry Club members, Kerr built a rocket powered by a Class I motor with the goal of launching and recovering it in a same-day relaunchable configuration.
- She named the rocket SPITfire in honor of her grandfather's Navy service—SPIT standing for the aircraft he worked on: Skywarrior, Phantom, Intruder, and Tomcat. Kerr will pursue her Level 2 certification this spring using the same rocket equipped with a Class J or K motor.

Trip of a Lifetime
- The Pack spent 12 days abroad (10 exploring, two traveling) in early June for the program's first foreign tour since 2017. Joined by support staff in performance analysis, sports medicine, strength and conditioning, academics, communications, and creative video, the team visited four countries: four days in Italy (Rome, Bologna, Venice), two in Slovenia (Ljubljana, Lake Bled), one in Croatia (Zagreb) and four days in Greece (Nafplio, Athens).
- The Pack went undefeated (4-0) during the tour, facing top European club teams and a U18 national team while building team culture and camaraderie off the court.

Pack Pro's
- The Pack currently has four alumni playing professionally - two in the US, one in switzerland and one in South Korea.
- Former Wolfpack teammates, outside Julia Brown ('18) and setter Maggie Speaks ('16) signed with the Dallas Pulse of the MLV and will be reunited on the court this year. Brown previously played for LOVB Houston and Speaks played with UNI Opole in Poland.
- Opposite Vanja Bukilic ('22) has returned to South Korea to play with Dawjon Jungkwanjang Red Sparks after spening the 2025-26 season in Italy with Il Bistone Firenze.
- Setter Naomi Cabello ('24) recently moved to Switzerland to play for Volley Lugano after spending the 2025-26 season in Cyprus with Robomarkets AEL Limassol. She was selected first overall in the 2024 Puerto Rican draft by Valencianas de Juncos.
