FIVE THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

1 The Gophers take to the road for the first time this season when they visit Fresno State for a night game in California. Minnesota is 1-0 all-time against the Bulldogs as the Gophers posted a 21-14 home victory last season. The loss was one of only two on the year for Fresno State, as the Bulldogs finished the season with a 12-2 record and a No. 18 ranking. Last season was the first time that Minnesota recorded a win (21-14 vs. No. 18 Fresno State) against a team that finished ranked in the final poll of the season since 1999. Minnesota, which finished the 1999 season ranked No. 18, beat No. 2 Penn State (finished season No. 11) and Illinois (finished season No. 24) in the regular season.

2 Minnesota will play a late Saturday night game - kick is slated for 9:30 p.m. CT - on the West Coast for the second time under head coach P.J. Fleck (Gophers are 7-3 in night games under Fleck). The Gophers played at Oregon State on Sept. 9, 2017, and that game kicked off at 9:05 p.m. CT. Minnesota prevailed 48-14 against the Beavers and the 48 points were the most the Gophers scored on the road since they beat Northwestern 49-21 in 1980. The Oregon State game was the last time that Minnesota played a game in the Pacific Time Zone. The last time Minnesota played a game in California was Sept. 3, 2011 (Minnesota lost 19-17 at No. 25 USC).

3 Minnesota beat South Dakota State 28-21 to start the season. The Gophers have now won 16 straight nonconference games, which is the longest streak in the nation. Minnesota's last loss in a nonconference game was on Sept. 3, 2015, when it fell 23-17 at home to No. 2 TCU. The Gophers are 20-1 in their past 21 nonconference home games and have won 11 straight nonconference home games.

4 Minnesota started 2019 the way it finished 2018 - with a victory. The Gophers finished last season strong, as they won three of their final four games. Minnesota beat Purdue, Wisconsin and Georgia Tech and their only loss during that span was to Big Ten west champion Northwestern. During that four-game stretch, Minnesota averaged 31.5 points on offense, while allowing only 14.75 points per game. Minnesota also held Purdue to season lows in points (10) and yards (233), beat Wisconsin for the first time since 2003 and the first time on the road since 1994 and beat Georgia Tech 34-10 in the Quick Lane Bowl (24-point margin of victory was largest ever bowl win in school history).

5 Rodney Smith and Tyler Johnson eclipsed career milestones against South Dakota State. Smith passed 3,000 career rushing yards and now ranks seventh in school history with 3,051 rushing yards in 40 career games. Johnson passed 2,000 career receiving yards and now ranks seventh in school history with 2,015 receiving yards in 37 career games.

ROW THE BOAT

The OAR = The ENERGY! The symbol of strength and purpose. The amount one brings to their life Academically, Athletically, Socially and Spiritually! The only tool that can move the boat forward!

The BOAT = The SACRIFICE! What are you willing to give up for something that you've never had? The more you serve and give, the bigger your boat gets. The bigger your boat gets, the more people you can actually influence. Influence is about the messengers, not just the message.

The COMPASS = The DIRECTION! This is set by the leader of the boat! Whomever you surround yourself with is who and what you will become. Where is the bow of your boat pointed? Your boat will go where you have directed your energy towards!

The "NEVER GIVE UP" mantra known as ROW THE BOAT came to life from tragedy, sorrow and heartbreak. This mantra can apply to all walks of life and can be used in every aspect of your life. Everyone, not just athletes and athletic teams can share, use and live the ROW THE BOAT lifestyle in their personal and professional lives. By applying ROW THE BOAT, one can have the proper perspective to overcome adversity and humble success by living a lifestyle dedicated to serving and giving.

FUTURE: When rowing a boat, as in life, you aren't able to see what is coming your way. Your back is actually facing the future, unable to see what's coming next. Facing the opposite direction can be a very scary and uncomfortable position to be in. However, as in life, worrying about the future only prohibits you from being your absolute best in the present. You aren't able to control the future, but you can control how you react and prepare for it with every stroke you take.

PRESENT: You are rowing in the present, which is the ONLY thing you can actually control while rowing a boat. You determine whether you take your oar out of the water or keep rowing. You control whether you ROW fast or slow, confident or hesitant, efficient or rushed and whether you ROW for yourself or others! If you stop rowing, you will not go anywhere. As a team, you control whether all of you want to ROW together with purpose, or ROW because you have to. If you ROW on just one side of the boat, you will go in circles. ROW in unison with everyone else in the boat, no matter the circumstance (chaotic storms or calm seas), you will come out on the other end better and more experienced for never quitting. Getting everyone in the boat to ROW, no matter what circumstances life throws you, can be very difficult; however... keep ROWING!

PAST: When rowing the boat, the only thing you can actually learn from, but can't change, is the horizon you are looking at. With every passing stroke you learn, but can never go back! You aren't able to change the past, only learn from it and take with you the lessons to make you better today. You must embrace and learn from your past to create your future! Changing your best daily will take you places you thought were impossible!

ABOUT THE BULLDOGS

Fresno State opened the season with a 31-23 loss at USC and will now host the Gophers in their home opener on Saturday.

Fresno State dropped only two games in 2018 and won the Mountain West conference championship game against Boise State and then defeated Arizona State in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Fresno State was picked to win the West Division in the 2019 preseason poll released by the Mountain West (selected by the media). The prediction pits the Bulldogs to face Boise State in the title game for a third consecutive year.

Senior Jorge Reyna made his first career start under center for the Bulldogs at USC. He was 19-of-39 for 256 yards and two touchdowns. Reyna, who added a team high 88 rushing yards, was named the starting quarterback during the spring.

The Bulldogs return only three starters on offense from last season in senior tight end Jared Rice, offensive lineman Syrus Tuitele and running back Ronnie Rivers who are both juniors. Rivers rushed 14 times for 53 yards against USC.

Senior receiver Derrion Grim caught two passes for 86 yards and one touchdown at USC, while sophomore Chris Colman snagged three receptions for 71 yards and a touchdown. Both have moved into key roles after Fresno State lost eight wide receivers from last year's team.

Fresno State's offensive line allowed only 12 sacks last season, which ranked sixth-best in the FBS. They allowed only 22 in the past two seasons combined but USC was able to notch three sacks in the season opener.

Four Bulldogs had double-digit tackles at USC. Senior linebacker Mykal Walker led the way with 15 including one for a loss. Sophomore defensive back Chris Gaston notched 12 and senior defensive back Juju Hughes had 11. Redshirt junior linebacker Justin Rice registered 10 tackles, one sack, one forced fumble and one interception with two pass breakups.

Head coach Jeff Tedford leads the Bulldogs. He inherited a 1-11 football program when he took over the team. Fresno State is 22-7 under Tedford, 2-0 in bowl games and won the 2018 Mountain West championship. The Bulldogs finished the 2018 ranked No. 18 in the nation after going 12-2.

The Bulldogs (12-2 in 2018 and 10-4 in 2017) posted consecutive seasons with double-digit wins for just the second time in program history. Fresno State became the first team in FBS history to record consecutive seasons with double-digit wins following a season (Bulldogs were 1-11 in 2016) with double-digit losses.

HEAD COACH // THIRD SEASON

P.J. Fleck was named head football coach at Minnesota on January 6, 2017. Fleck, 38, is the 30th head coach in the program's history. He has a career record of 43-35 and is 13-13 at Minnesota.

In 2018, Fleck led Minnesota to a 7-6 record and regular-season wins against Wisconsin, Purdue, Indiana, Fresno State, Miami (Ohio) and New Mexico State. The Gophers beat Georgia Tech 34-10 in the Quick Lane Bowl and the 24-point margin of victory was the largest bowl win in school history.

Minnesota also made history when it won the final game of the regular season (Wisconsin) and its bowl game (Georgia Tech), as that was the first time ever that the Gophers won the final game of the season and a bowl game.

Under Fleck, a young Minnesota team beat rival Wisconsin for the first time since 2003 and for the first time on the road since 1994 to reclaim Paul Bunyan's Axe. The Gophers also downed Purdue's potent offense, as they held the Boilers to a season low in points (10) and yards (233). Minnesota also beat Fresno State, which finished the season ranked No. 18, to give the Bulldogs one of their two defeats on the season. The win against Fresno State also marked the first time that Minnesota beat a team ranked in the final AP poll since 1999.

The Gophers had 112 players on the roster and 58 (51.7%) were freshmen, which was the most in the nation in 2018. The Gophers had 78 underclassmen (69.6%), which ranked tenth in college football.

Fleck played two freshmen quarterbacks (Zack Annexstad, Tanner Morgan) and both threw for more than 1,200 yards and seven touchdowns. Minnesota's two leading rushers (Mohamed Ibrahim, Bryce Williams) were both freshmen and three of Minnesota top-four receivers (Rashon Bateman, Chris Autman-Bell, Demetrius Douglas) were freshmen. On defense, freshman Terrell Smith led Minnesota with eight pass breakups.

Minnesota set a program record as eight Gophers were named Big Ten Player of the Week, and Tyler Johnson became the first Minnesota receiver ever to record 78 catches, 1,169 yards (single season school record) and 12 (single season school record) touchdowns in a season.

In 2017, Fleck led a young and inexperienced Gopher squad, as 49 of Minnesota's 110 players (44.5%) were freshmen and 76 (69%) were underclassmen. Fleck guided Minnesota to a 5-7 record and those five wins were the most by a first-year Gopher head coach new to the program since the legendary Murray Warmath won seven games in 1954.

Fleck won his Gopher debut against Buffalo, which made him the school's first head coach to win his debut since John Gutekunst in 1986 (before Fleck, Minnesota's six most recent head coaches all lost their first game). Minnesota then posted a dominating 48-14 win at Oregon State, which made Fleck the first Gopher coach to win a true road opener since 1954 when Warmath and the Gophers won 46-7 at Pittsburgh.

Minnesota's 34-point win at Oregon State was the Gophers' tenth largest margin of victory in a road game since 1920 and largest since 2006. The 48 points were the most the Gophers scored on the road since they beat Northwestern 49-21 in 1980.

Minnesota posted three 30-point wins in 2017, as it beat Oregon State by 34, Nebraska by 33 and Middle Tennessee by 31. The last time Minnesota won three games by 30 points in the same season was 2005 when it started the year with three straight with three straight 30-point wins.

The Gophers beat Nebraska 54-21 in Fleck's first season. The 54 points were the most that the Gophers scored in a Big Ten game since they beat Indiana 63-26 in 2006. The 54 points were the 14th most scored by Minnesota since 1946 and the fifth most against a Big Ten opponent in the same timeframe.

Off the field, Fleck and his team can often be found at the University of Minnesota Masonic Children's Hospital and annually give back to the community by hosting a diaper drive, canned food drive, school supplies drive and turkey drive. In the classroom, Minnesota has posted program record GPAs under Fleck.

Fleck came to Minnesota after spending four years as the head coach at Western Michigan, where he was 30-22 overall and 21-11 in the Mid-American Conference. While leading the Broncos, Fleck authored one of the most memorable turnarounds in college football history. The Broncos were 1-11 in his first year in 2013, but ended the 2016 season with a No. 12 ranking, a 13-1 record, a conference championship and a berth in the Cotton Bowl.

The Broncos were 12-0 in the 2016 regular season and posted wins against Big Ten opponents Northwestern and Illinois. Fleck then led his team to a 29-23 win against Ohio in the Mid-American Conference championship game before ending the season with a narrow bowl game defeat to Wisconsin. Fleck was named MAC Coach of the Year in 2016 (2014 as well) after leading the Broncos to their first MAC Championship since 1988.

Prior to his time at Western Michigan, Fleck served as the wide receivers coach for the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012 and coached the receivers at Rutgers from 2010-11. He coached receivers and was the recruiting coordinator at Northern Illinois in 2009 and tutored the receivers for the Huskies from 2007-08. Fleck's coaching career began at Ohio State as a graduate assistant in 2006.

Fleck played receiver at Northern Illinois from 1999-2003 and helped lead the Huskies to a No. 10 ranking, a 10-2 record and wins against Maryland, Alabama and Iowa State in his final season.

Fleck played the 2004-05 seasons with the NFL's San Francisco 49ers. He signed with the 49ers as a free agent in 2004 and spent most of his time on the practice squad before seeing action against New England late in the season. He spent the 2005 season on the injured reserve roster and in 2006 he stopped playing professionally and started his coaching career.

Fleck and his wife, Heather, have four children, Gavin, Carter, Paisley (P.J.) and Harper.

A LOT COMING BACK

- Minnesota returns nine starters on offense (graduated center Jared Weyler and tackle Donnell Greene) this year after posting sneaky good numbers in 2018. This year, Minnesota returns 100% of passing yards (QB Zack Annexstad is sidelined with an injury), 99% of rushing yards and 99% of receiving yards. Last year, the Gophers averaged 28.9 points per game (T7 most all time since 1955), scored 46 touchdowns (T5 in school history since 1955), totaled 4,935 yards of offense (6th most in school history since 1955), recorded 269 first downs (3rd most in school history since 1955) and threw for 2,714 yards (8th most in school history since 1955). In 2018, freshman accounted for 98% of passing yards, 73% of rushing yards and 49% of receiving yards.

NO GIMMIES

- The Orlando Sentinel reported that Minnesota had the toughest 2019 nonconference schedule among Big Ten teams and it is hard to disagree. Minnesota's three nonconference opponents finished the 2018 season with a combined record of 32-8 and all three teams won at least 10 games, as South Dakota State was 10-3, Fresno State was 12-2 and Georgia Southern was 10-3.

LONG DRIVE

- Minnesota's first scoring drive of the season covered 91 yards in 18 plays and took 10:05. The Gophers' longest drive of 2018 was a 17-play drive versus New Mexico State. The last 18-play drive had been on the opening drive of the 2008 season versus Northern Illinois (18 plays, 90 yards, 8:57), while Minnesota's last drive of 10+ minutes was a 19-play, 87-yard, 10:07 drive versus Northwestern on Sept. 25, 2004.

SLINGING IT

- Minnesota entered the 2018 season as the only team in the nation with all freshmen quarterbacks on its roster and only had one scholarship quarterback in Tanner Morgan. They now have four. In addition to Morgan, Zack Annexstad was put on scholarship last winter and Jacob Clark and Cole Kramer both joined the program in January 2019.
- Signal-callers Zack Annexstad and Tanner Morgan combined to pass for 2,678 yards and 18 touchdowns in 2018 and were poised to battle for the starting quarterback role before Annexstad went down with a foot injury early on in camp and is now out indefinitely.
- Tanner Morgan guided Minnesota to a 28-21 win to open the season against South Dakota State. Morgan is now 5-2 as a starter, as he paced Minnesota to a 4-2 record in the final six games of the 2018 season. With Morgan starting under center, the Gophers have won the time of possession battle in all seven games and have averaged 31.85 points per game. The last season that Minnesota averaged 31.85 points per game was 2005 when the Gophers averaged 35.8 points per game. Morgan led Minnesota to a 4-2 record to end 2018, which included victories against Indiana, Purdue, Wisconsin and Georgia Tech. It was the Gophers first road win at Wisconsin since 1994 and last season was the first time ever that Minnesota won its final game of the regular season (Wisconsin) and a bowl game (Georgia Tech).
- Tanner Morgan played in nine games last season and threw for 1,401 yards (second most ever for a Gopher freshman quarterback) and nine touchdowns (tied for third most ever for a Gopher freshman quarterback). He ended the season with a completion percentage of 58.55%, which ranks eighth in school single-season history. His pass efficiency rating of 147.62 ranks first in school history for a career and is second in school single-season history behind Asad Abdul-Khalik (162.31 in 2003).
- Zack Annexstad started seven games and played in eight last season and threw for 1,277 yards (third most ever for a Gopher freshman quarterback) and nine touchdowns (tied for third most ever for a Gopher freshman quarterback). He ended the year with a pass efficiency rating of 117.63, which ranks 11th all-time in school history for a career.
- Zack Annexstad threw for 135 yards and one touchdown in the first half at Nebraska last season, but was injured right before halftime. Tanner Morgan replaced Annexstad for the second half at Nebraska and would throw for 214 yards in the second half.
- The backup quarterback role will now be settled between true freshmen Jacob Clark and Cole Kramer who both enrolled in January. Clark threw for 6,232 yards and 60 touchdowns in 23 varsity games at Rockwall High School in Rockwall, Texas. Kramer played quarterback down the road at Eden Prairie High School where he helped lead his team to a state championship. He threw for 1,700 yards and 14 touchdowns as a senior.

NORTHSIDE PRIDE

- Minneapolis North product Tyler Johnson, who was named First Team All-Big Ten (first U receiver since Eric Decker in 2009), is back in Dinkytown for his senior season. Johnson put the Big Ten on notice last year when he made 78 catches (second most in a season) for 1,169 yards (single-season school record) and 12 touchdowns (single-season school record). He had six 100-yard games, which tied for first in school history in a season and became the first Gopher ever with four straight 100-yard games in Big Ten play.
- Tyler Johnson's legacy as one of the best to ever wear the Maroon and Gold is already established, but he has a chance to leave as the school's most productive receiver ever. Johnson ranks seventh in career receiving yards with 2,015. Eric Decker is the school record holder with 3,119 career yards and is the only Gopher ever to eclipse 3,000 yards. Johnson needs 985 more yards this season to join Decker in Club 3,000. Johnson ranks tied for eighth in school history with 130 catches and again is chasing Decker who had 227 career receptions. Johnson ranks fourth in school history with 20 receiving touchdowns. Ron Johnson (no relation) is first with 31 and is followed by Ernie Wheelwright (26) and Decker (24). If Johnson were to duplicate his 2018 season (78 catches, 1,169 yards and 12 touchdowns) in 2019, he would leave Minnesota as the program holder in receiving yards (3,156) and touchdowns (32) and would rank second all-time in catches (205).
- Tyler Johnson has caught a pass in 24 straight games, which ranks eighth in school history. Ron Johnson's record of 46 straight games is not reachable, but Tyler Johnson could finish second all-time (Decker and Tutu Atwell are second with a catch in 34 straight games). Tyler Johnson has played in 37 career games (he missed the final two games of the 2017 season with an injury) and has nine 100-yard career games on his resume. The school record is 11 and is held by Decker and Atwell.

I AM BATEMAN

- ▶ Rashod Bateman shook up college football with a spectacular one-handed, 42-yard touchdown catch against South Dakota State. Bateman ended the game with five catches for 132 yards and one touchdown and now has three career 100-yard receiving games. Bateman set freshman program records in 2018 for receptions (51) and yards (704). His six touchdowns – which all came in Big Ten play – tied for the second most ever by a Minnesota freshman. He started all 13 games and caught at least one pass in every game.

AUTMAN-BELL, DOUGLAS

- ▶ Chris Autman-Bell made 28 catches (fourth all-time for a Minnesota freshman) for 449 yards (third all-time for a Minnesota freshman) and led the team with a 16.03 yards per catch average in 2018. He caught two passes for 17 yards against South Dakota State.
- ▶ Demetrius Douglas caught one pass against South Dakota State, after catching nine passes for 87 yards and one touchdown in 2018. Douglas was the team's primary kick and punt returner last year. He returned 24 kickoffs for 594 yards (24.75 average) and his long return was 87 yards at Nebraska. Douglas returned seven punts for 113 yards (16.14 average), which included a 69-yard return for a touchdown at Wisconsin. The legacy Gopher (son of Omar Douglas) finished third on the team – behind Mohamed Ibrahim and Tyler Johnson – with 794 all-purpose yards (594 kick return, 113 punt return and 87 receiving).

BACKS GOTTA EAT

- ▶ In 2018, freshmen running backs Mohamed Ibrahim and Bryce Williams were heavily featured as upperclassmen Shannon Brooks and Rodney Smith missed most of the season with injuries. Ibrahim and Williams did not disappoint and played beyond their years. The duo combined for 1,662 yards and 13 touchdowns as Minnesota won four of its last six games.
- ▶ Mohamed Ibrahim and Bryce Williams are both back for the 2019 season and so are Rodney Smith and Shannon Brooks. Minnesota kicked off the 2019 season with a 28-21 win against South Dakota State. Between Smith, Brooks, Ibrahim and Williams, Minnesota has 1,361 carries on its roster for 6,631 yards and 53 touchdowns. Those eye-popping numbers do not include receiver Seth Green, who has added 283 yards and 9 touchdowns as a wildcat quarterback since 2018.

- ▶ Rodney Smith started the first two games of 2018, but missed the rest of the season with an injury (was granted a sixth year of eligibility by the NCAA). He rushed 24 times for 153 yards against New Mexico State and earned 34 all-purpose yards against Fresno State before leaving the game with an injury. Smith started Minnesota's game against South Dakota State and led the team with 21 carries for 92 yards. Smith has rushed 672 times (third all-time in school history) for 3,051 yards (seventh all-time in school history) in 40 games. He has scored 21 (2 in 2015; 16 in 2016 and 3 in 2017) career rushing touchdowns, which ranks tied for ninth in school history and his career long 70-yard rushing touchdown came at Maryland in 2016. He has 11 career 100-yard rushing games, which ranks eighth in program history and his career high is 153 yards, which he has reached twice (New Mexico State in 2018; Purdue in 2016). Smith has 4,165 all-purpose yards (3,051 rushing, 451 receiving and 663 kick return) to rank sixth in school history.

- ▶ Shannon Brooks returned from an injury sustained in February 2018 to play against Indiana last season. It was his first game action since Oct. 28, 2017. He rushed 22 times for 154 yards and one touchdown against the Hoosiers, but missed the rest of the season when he was injured in the fourth quarter. Brooks has rushed 358 times for 1,882 yards in 29 games, which ranks 18th all-time in program history. He has rushed for 18 career touchdowns (five career touchdowns are 37 yards or longer) and Minnesota is 12-2 when he scores a touchdown. His career long was a 75-yard rushing touchdown against Illinois in 2015.
- ▶ Mohamed Ibrahim scored the game-winning touchdown against South Dakota State and now has 10 career touchdowns in 11 games. Ibrahim rushed 202 times for 1,160 yards (second most ever for a Gopher freshman) and nine touchdowns in 2018. His 1,160 yards ranked 30th in the NCAA and were the second most in the NCAA by a freshman (Jermar Jefferson at Oregon State had 1,380 yards). Ibrahim averaged 116 yards per game in 2018 and rushed for more than 100 yards five times to become the first Gopher freshman to do so since Laurence Maroney (five 100-yard games) in 2003. He ended 2018 with a 5.74 yards per carry average, which ranks fifth all-time in school history. He also set a freshman single-game record with 224 yards against Georgia Tech (most by a Gopher in a single game since Maroney ran for 258 yards against Wisconsin in 2005) in the Quick Lane Bowl (12th-best rushing game in school history).

- ▶ Bryce Williams played in all 13 games in 2018 and started two. He rushed 117 times for 502 yards and four touchdowns. Williams gained 87 yards on 25 carries against Fresno State in relief of an injured Rodney Smith and then rushed 33 times for 141 yards against Miami. Williams rushed eight times for 50 yards and scored two touchdowns at Wisconsin.

GREEN LINE

- ▶ Seth Green was the Gophers do everything guy in 2018 and that continues in 2019. Green scored Minnesota's first touchdown of the season, a 1-yard burst against South Dakota State. After transitioning from quarterback to tight end in the spring of 2017 and tight end to wide receiver the following fall camp, Green found his niche in the offense as a Wildcat quarterback. In 2018, he rushed 76 times for 282 yards (had only one negative rush all season) and eight touchdowns. He also completed 4-of-5 passes for 36 yards and two touchdowns and also threw for a successful 2-point conversion. As a receiver he caught two passes for 37 yards.

PIECE OF THE PIE

- ▶ The Gopher tight ends graded out as elite blockers in 2018 and helped Minnesota rush for 23 touchdowns in 2018, but they are still looking for a piece of the pie in the passing game. Veterans Ko Kieft (redshirt junior) and Bryce Witham (redshirt junior) as well as up-and-comers Jake Paulson (redshirt sophomore) and 6-7, 270 pound Brevyn Spann-Ford (redshirt freshman) all figure to be in the rotation.

MINNESOTA MOVERS

- ▶ Minnesota returns four offensive line starters from the Quick Lane Bowl in Blaise Andries (6-6, 325), Curtis Dunlap Jr. (6-5, 345), Daniel Faalele (6-9, 400) and Conner Olson (6-5, 305). The lone loss being Jared Weyler who graduated and is putting his double major in Accounting and Entrepreneurial Management to good use in the business world.

- ▶ Sam Schlueter (6-6, 325) started at left tackle against South Dakota State, which means Minnesota's five starting linemen are all 6-5 or taller and combine to weigh 1,700 pounds (340 pound average).
- ▶ In 2018, the offensive line blocked for a Minnesota offense that averaged 28.9 points per game (tied for second most in a season since 2005) and one that rushed for 23 touchdowns and threw for 20 touchdowns (first time since 2006 Minnesota reached 20 passing and rushing touchdowns in a season).
- ▶ The line also played a significant role in why the Gophers scored 46 touchdowns (tied for fifth in school history since 1955), totaled 4,935 yards of offense (sixth most in school history since 1955), totaled 269 first downs (third most in school history since 1955) and threw for 2,714 yards (eighth most in school history since 1955).

MINNESOTA MADE

- ▶ A trio of Gopher defenders – Thomas Barber, Carter Coughlin and Kamal Martin – are in for their final season in the Maroon and Gold. Barber and Coughlin are legacy Gophers, while Martin is from Burnsville, Minn.
- ▶ Carter Coughlin has made 113 career tackles in 37 games and 30.5 of them (26.9%) have been a tackle for loss and 18.0 of them (15.9%) have been a sack. Coughlin already ranks ninth in career tackles for loss with 30.5 (Willie VanDeSteege is first with 43.5) and fifth in career sacks with 18.0 (Karon Riley is first with 29.0). If Coughlin were to duplicate 2018 (15.0 TFLs and 9.5 sacks) he would end his career first in tackles for loss with 45.5 and second in sacks with 27.5.
- ▶ Thomas Barber has a chance to notch his name in the Minnesota record book at well. After five tackles against South Dakota State he has 213 career tackles and is just 87 stops shy of reaching 300 for his career. Barber, who had 12 tackles in 2016, 115 in 2017 and 81 in 2018, would be the 11th Gopher ever to reach 300 career tackles and the first since 1999 Jim Thorpe Award winner Tyrone Carter (Carter ranks first in school history with 528 tackles from 1996-99). Barber has also recovered five career fumbles. One more will rank him tied for eighth in school history, while Stephen Thompson holds the school record (recovered eight career fumbles from 1967-70).

- ▶ Kamal Martin will return to action against Fresno State after missing the South Dakota State game. He enters his final season with 111 tackles in 37 career games. He has made 10.5 tackles for loss and totaled 2.5 sacks. In addition, he has two career interceptions and has forced two fumbles and recovered three.

78 PERCENT

- ▶ P.J. Fleck's staff conducted a study of the last 50 years of football at the professional and FBS levels and identified three statistics that have a significant impact on the outcome of games: turnover margin, explosive plays, and missed tackles. They determined that if you can come out on the positive end of those three battles in a game, you are going to win at least 78 percent of the time. When the Gophers won the 78 percent battle in 2018 they were 7-0 and when they lost they were 0-6.

UP FRONT

- ▶ Minnesota lost a few members of the defensive line in the offseason, but returns the following individuals who saw game action in 2018: Mayan Ahanotu, Carter Coughlin, Jamaal Teague, Ezezi Otomewo, Boye Mafe, Noah Hickcox, Tai'yon Devers, Winston DeLattiboudere and Sam Renner. In January, the Gophers also added Notre Dame graduate transfer Micah Dew-Treadway, junior college transfer Keonte Schad and welcomed newcomers Rashad Cheney Jr. and Logan Richter.
- ▶ The Gophers did not have a tackle for loss until the fourth quarter against South Dakota State, but once they finally got home they did so in a major way. Micah Dew-Treadway recorded a tackle for a loss of three yards and Ezezi Otomewo and Tai'yon Devers combined for a fourth down, game-sealing sack.
- ▶ A new wrinkle on third down by defensive coordinator Joe Rossi grabbed attention against South Dakota State when four defensive ends – Carter Coughlin, Ezezi Otomewo, Boye Mafe and Tai'yon Devers – all came in together to rush the passer.

LAST LINE OF DEFENSE

- ▶ Minnesota has one senior – Chris Williamson – in the secondary, but the Gophers return experience in the back end. Williamson shook off some early injuries and totaled 34 tackles in 11 games last year. However, 23 of those tackles – along with one sack, one interception, one forced fumble and four pass breakups – came in the final five games. He kept that going in the first game of 2019 with a 43-yard pick six against South Dakota State.
- ▶ Kiondre Thomas saw action in 10 games last season as a sophomore. He ended the season with 32 tackles (29 solo), one tackle for loss, one forced fumble and four pass breakups. He opened 2019 with a career high eight tackles against South Dakota State.
- ▶ Jordan Howden was a true freshman walk-on in 2018 (since awarded a scholarship) and played in all 13 games last season. He recorded 45 tackles, broke up three passes and made one interception. He led the Gophers with a career high 12 tackles against SDSU.
- ▶ Terell Smith played in 11 games as a true freshman in 2018 and notched 43 tackles (34 solo), 2.5 tackles for loss, one interception and broke up a team-high eight passes. Smith brings elite speed to the secondary. His personal record in the 100m is 10.32 and in the 200m is 20.84, which made him the fastest Big Ten corner commit since 2010 when he signed with Minnesota.
- ▶ Coney Durr was named to the Pro Football Focus Preseason All-Big Ten team. He played in all 13 games in 2018 (started 9) and recorded 36 tackles (31 solo), including 4.5 for loss to go along with five broken passes and two interceptions. He started off 2019 with two pass breakups against South Dakota State.
- ▶ Antoine Winfield Jr. entered 2019 as a fourth-year sophomore. He has proven to be an electrifying difference maker when healthy but has been plagued by early season injuries the past two years. He was granted a waiver request for a sixth year of eligibility from the NCAA and has three years of eligibility (2019, 2020 and 2021) remaining. After a breakout freshman campaign in 2016, which included an interception returned for a touchdown, he made 20 tackles in 2017, blocked a field goal and broke up two passes before missing the final eight games with an injury. Early on in 2018, Winfield found himself going viral in back-to-back weeks with a highlight reel punt return for a touchdown against New Mexico State and a game-clinching interception against Fresno State. He would suffer an injury in the fourth game of the season and would miss the rest of the year. Winfield was a comforting presence against South Dakota State, and he notched four tackles with one pass breakup.

SOMETHING SPECIAL

- ▶ Minnesota lost two all-time greats with the graduation of long snapper Payton Jordahl and kicker Emmit Carpenter. Jordahl started 51 career games and snapped 507 times (270 punt, 149 PATs and 88 FGs). He made 10 tackles and recovered one fumble. Carpenter left Minnesota as the most accurate kicker in school history at 79.1% (made 53-of-67 field goals). He finished his career with 276 points (second all-time in school history among kickers and all players).
- ▶ Brady Weeks was the No. 1-ranked long snapper in the nation and enrolled at Minnesota in January. The Gophers also signed highly ranked kicker Michael Lantz. Both Weeks and Lantz started against South Dakota State. Lantz went 2-3 on PATs in his debut, as Minnesota did not attempt a field goal. Sophomore Grant Ryerse saw game action for the first time in his career as kickoff specialist. He kicked off five times for 316 yards and two touchbacks.
- ▶ Punter Jacob Herbers is back for his senior season. In 2018, he punted 51 times (fewest for the Gophers in a season since they punted 38 times in 2005) and averaged 41.24 yards per punt (13th most in school history). He did not attempt a punt in the final 101:48 of the season (final Minnesota punt of the season came at Wisconsin with 11:48 remaining in the second quarter). His puntless streak ended during Minnesota's first possession of 2019 when he punted with 11:36 left in the first quarter. Herbers was a big reason why Minnesota yielded only 10 punt return yards on nine punt returns last season. Herbers, who is an early season favorite for the Mortell Award, held on 23 field goal attempts and 43 point-after attempts last season.

A NEW STANDARD

- ▶ Minnesota had a school record eight players named Big Ten Player of the Week in 2018. The players recognized were Antoine Winfield Jr. (special, defense), Emmit Carpenter (special), Mohamed Ibrahim (freshman), Tanner Morgan (freshman), Rashod Bateman (freshman), Blake Cashman (defense) and Demetrius Douglas (special).

WATCH LIST SZN

- ▶ The Gophers racked up the preseason recognition this summer. Tyler Johnson was named to the Bilentikoff Watch List for the country's best wide receiver and is one of only 12 receivers named to the Maxwell Award Watch List for America's College Player of the Year.
- ▶ Carter Coughlin earned spots on the Bronko Nagurski Preseason Watch List and the Chuck Bednarik Award Watch List, both for the best defensive player in college football. Nagurski was a Minnesota standout who had his No. 72 retired by the program.
- ▶ Mohamed Ibrahim and Rodney Smith were named to the Doak Walker Watch List for the nation's top back.

- ▶ Linebacker Kamal Martin represents the Gopher defense with a spot on the Butkus Award Preseason Watch List for the sport's best linebacker.

SERVING AND GIVING

- ▶ Off the field, the Gophers have received attention as well. Winston DeLattiboudere was named to the Wuerfell Trophy watch list (College Football's Premier Award for Community Service). He recently put on his own school supply drive to support a primary school in Jamaica and Hmong International in Minneapolis. His friend and teammate Seth Green is a nominee for the 2019 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.
- ▶ Minnesota hosted a diaper drive at its open Aug. 3 practice at TCF Bank Stadium. Gopher fans donated more than 21,000 diapers and in three years the football team has helped collect more than 50,000 diapers for the Diaper Bank of Minnesota. The Gophers also host a Turkey Drive every year and have hosted a canned food drive as well.

SCHOLARSHIP!

- ▶ Since P.J. Fleck was hired on Jan. 6, 2017, he has awarded 12 scholarships to walk-ons. The latest was awarded to receiver Clay Geary who was asked to throw out the first pitch at a Minnesota Twins game with his four roommates Carter Coughlin, Thomas Barber, Kamal Martin and Antoine Winfield Jr. After Geary delivered the pitch, he Minnesota Twins Kyle Gibson, who caught the ceremonial throws, trotted back to the mound and presented Geary with a ball that had a handwritten message from coach P.J. Fleck letting him know he was on scholarship.
- ▶ In addition to Clay Geary, Fleck had previously given scholarships to walk-ons Jacob Herbers, Zack Annexstad, Jordan Howden, Calvin Swenson, Bailey Schoenfelder, Brock Annexstad, Sam Renner, Blake Cashman, Emmit Carpenter, Justin Juenemann, and Conor Rhoda.

SQUEAKY CLEAN

- ▶ A staple of any P.J. Fleck team is one that controls the ball and doesn't hurt itself. The Gophers ranked first in the nation in fewest penalties (39), fewest penalties per game (3.25), fewest penalty yards (340) and fewest penalty yards per game (28.33) in 2017 and fifth in fewest penalties (51), fourth in fewest penalties per game (3.92) and fifth in fewest penalty yards per game (39.08) in 2018. Minnesota was only penalized three times for 40 yards against South Dakota State. The three penalties was the fewest in the Big Ten and ninth fewest in the country during opening week.
- ▶ Minnesota has been one of the least penalized teams in the nation under head coach P.J. Fleck. In 26 games under Fleck, the Gophers have been penalized a total of 93 times for 888 yards. In 2016 – the season before Fleck got to Minnesota – the Gophers were penalized 88 times for 743 yards in 13 games. Under Fleck, the Gophers have taken fewer penalties than their opponents in 21 of 26 games. However, Minnesota is 3-2 when it has taken more or the same amount of penalties as its opponent under Fleck.
- ▶ The Gophers were 26th in time of possession in 2018 at 32:09. The Gophers won the time of possession battle in 11 of 13 games last season. Against Wisconsin, Minnesota held the ball for 35:06 and had a 15-play 9:16 long drive in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Gophers also won the time of possession battle against a Georgia Tech team that went into the bowl game ranked sixth in the country in terms of possession. The Gophers won the time of possession battle against South Dakota State to open 2019, as they held the ball for 32:12.

STILL YOUNG

- The Gophers had 112 players in 2018 and 58 of those players – or 51.7 percent – were freshmen. Minnesota had 78 underclassmen, which was 69.6% of the roster. This year, Minnesota's roster is comprised of 117 players and 83 of them are either a freshman or sophomore, which is 70.9 percent of the roster. Minnesota has 48 freshmen, 35 sophomores, 19 juniors and 15 seniors/grad transfers on its 2019 roster.

NEWCOMERS

- While Minnesota was one of the youngest teams in the nation last year, there are still quite a few new faces – players and coaches – on the sideline this spring. Minnesota welcomed a school-record 14 new student-athletes who enrolled in January and 31 overall true freshmen. In addition, the Gophers have seven new coaches in Maroon and Gold in Rod Chance (cornerbacks), Joe Harasymiak (defensive backs/safeties) and Jim Panagos (defensive line).

SENIORS

- The Gophers have 11 seniors and four graduate transfers (Micah Dew-Treadway, Alex Melvin, Benjamin St-Juste and Michael Tarbutt) on the roster. Minnesota has only three seniors on offense in Shannon Brooks, Tyler Johnson and Rodney Smith. On defense, the Gophers have seven seniors in Thomas Barber, Carter Coughlin, Winston DeLattiboudere, Tai'yon Devers, Kamal Martin, Sam Renner and Chris Williamson. Minnesota's one additional senior is punter Jacob Herbers.

DEGREE IN HAND

- Minnesota has 12 players who have already earned their degree. They are Thomas Barber, Winston DeLattiboudere, Micah Dew-Treadway (grad transfer from Notre Dame), Seth Green, Jacob Herbers, Alex Melvin (grad transfer from SMU), Samuel Pickerign, Sam Renner, Rodney Smith, Benjamin St-Juste (grad transfer from Michigan), Michael Tarbutt (grad transfer from Connecticut) and Bryce Witham.

EXTRA POINTS

- In middle school, sixth-year Gopher Rodney Smith, who is affectionately called grandpa by his teammates, played the tuba. He claims his teacher thought he was so good that he wouldn't let him play anything else. Smith, who is the son of a high school head football coach, was a standout baseball player and plays football with type 1 diabetes.
- Winston DeLattiboudere wanted to be a disc jockey growing up, but had those dreams diminish fast. He got some turntables for his 11th birthday and after two months of trying to learn how to use them, he gave up. "I regret it every day," DeLattiboudere said.
- Tyler Johnson played hockey when he was 7 and baseball until seventh grade but the future high school basketball and football star realized neither sport was for him. He led Minneapolis North to a state title in basketball and a runner-up finish in football.
- Speaking of hockey, that is Thomas Barber's first love. He played through high school and many people said he played the game like a football player.

- Tanner Morgan embraces being ollicly challenged. He knew it was his destiny as he claims four of five men in his family are bald.

- Blaise Andries is an aspiring actuary (professional who compiles and analyzes statistics) and does math paradoxes for fun.

- Phillip Howard loves poetry.

- Jonathan Santaga has a wall of guitars at his place and loves to jam. The all-over-the-field athlete can also kick effectively with both legs.

- Boye Mafe spent a year in a boarding school in Nigeria, while Micah Roane lived in India from ages 3-7.

- Clayton Witherspoon doesn't walk around with the typical backpacks his teammates do, as he actually hand crafted his own.

- Ezezi Otomewo who goes by, "Big O" is 6-6 and 275 pounds, but he used to skateboard when he was younger.

- Demetrius Douglas is an aspiring amateur photographer.

- Justus Harris and Josh Aune enjoy drawing.

TCF BANK STADIUM

- TCF Bank Stadium has hosted Gopher hockey, Monday Night Football (Minnesota vs. Chicago), NHL Stadium Series (Minnesota vs. Chicago), international soccer (Manchester City vs. Olympiacos), MLB All-Star concert, U2, Rolling Stones, Beyonce, One Direction, Luke Bryan and Florida Georgia Line. The Minnesota Vikings (2014-15) and Minnesota United (2017-18) at TCF Bank Stadium, while their stadiums were being constructed.

- Minnesota is 42-29 all-time at TCF Bank Stadium as the Gophers celebrate 10 years at TCF this season. Minnesota is 13 games over .500 at TCF Bank Stadium, which is its best mark at the stadium. The Gophers opened the on-campus facility with a 20-13 win against Air Force on Sept. 12, 2009, but then dropped to 7-13 at home after 20 games. Since then (Nov. 26, 2011), Minnesota is 35-16 at home (68.6% win percentage).

- In 71 games at TCF Bank Stadium, the Gophers average 27.22 points and allow 24.09. In non-conference games, Minnesota averages 29.10 points and give up 19.76. Under Fleck, Minnesota is 10-5 at home and has averaged 28.46 points and has allowed an average of 20.06. In six non-conference games under Fleck, those numbers are 29.00 points for and 9.66.

- Minnesota is 23-7 at TCF Bank Stadium in non-conference games. However, the Gophers are 20-1 in their last 21 non-conference games and have won 10 in a row. Minnesota's last home loss to a nonconference opponent was to No. 2 TCU in 2015.

- The Gophers greet fans and enter TCF Bank Stadium along with the spirit squad and the band three hours prior to kickoff. The route brings the team into the stadium through the Lake of the Woods entrance on the east (closed bowl) end of the stadium.
