SERIES INFORMATION

Minnesota leads Rutgers, 9-2, and Wisconsin, 52-34
Last Meeting: 2019 (RU) and Oct. 1, 2021 (UW)

First Meeting: 1983 (RU) and 1975 (UW)

HEADING INTO THE MATCH

- The Gophers (17-7, 12-4 Big Ten) have gone 16-4 since starting the season 1-3. Minnesota was on a six match winning streak before falling at home in four sets to Purdue on Sunday.
- With five conference games to play, Minnesota is just one-game back of Wisconsin (13-3) for first. The Gophers will get their second shot of the season vs. UW on Sunday.
- Minnesota entered the 2021 season ranked as the No. 7 team in the country (AVCA). It was Minnesota's seventh straight season being ranked in the preseason top-10, including the eighth time in the ten years of the Hugh McCutcheon era. The 'U' came in at No. 9 in the Nov. 15 AVCA rankings.
- Four-time AVCA All-American and 2020-21 Big Ten Player of the Year Stephanie Samedy returned for her fifth year in the maroon and gold. The preseason All-Big Ten selection won B1G Player of the Week 4x (Sept. 13/27, Nov. 1/8) and B1G Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 11. She currently ranks in the top 10 nationally in points (5.27) and kills (4.74) per set. She leads the Big Ten in both categories and she looks to be one of the nation's frontrunners for player of the year.
- DS/L CC McGraw won Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week Sept. 13 after notching 59 digs in two wins over Stanford (19) and Oregon (30). She ranks second in the conference and in the top 50 nationally in digs per set (4.61).
- Sophomore Jenna Wenaas is in the midst of a breakout season in the maroon and gold. She ranks second on the team in kills per set (3.22). She has double digit kills in 18 of 24 matches this year and won B1G Player of the Week Sept. 20.
- Minnesota leads the conference in digs per set at 16.81 while ranking sixth in blocks per set at 2.48. The Gophers also rank sixth in hitting percentage (.241) and fifth in assists (12.36).
- The 2020-21 season marked the 25th year the Golden Gophers advanced to the NCAA tournament. Minnesota has also advanced to the tournament in six-straight seasons and eight of nine seasons under tenth-year head coach Hugh McCutcheon. Minnesota has had a top-10 seed the past six seasons. The Gophers were the No. 2 seed in 2015, 2016 and 2018, No. 3 last year, and the No. 7 seed in both 2017 and 2019. They're on pace to host the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament once again.
- Minnesota went 16-3 (15-2 Big Ten) in the 2020-21 spring season and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 3 seed nationally. The Golden Gophers defeated Georgia Tech in round one before falling to Pittsburgh in five sets in the Sweet 16. Under McCutcheon, the Gophers have made it to three NCAA Final Fours, three Sweet 16's and an Elite Eight in just nine years. He holds a 249-63 (.798) collegiate coaching record and has led Minnesota to two Big Ten Championships.

THE 20-2021 POSTSEASON

- All 48 teams participating in the Division I Women's Volleyball Championship gathered in Omaha, Nebraska, which had been scheduled to host the NCAA national semifinals and finals.
- Kentucky, Texas, Washington and Wisconsin went to the Final Four, with Kentucky topping Texas for the title.
- Minnesota fell to Pittsburgh in the Sweet 16 (3-2) after besting Georgia Tech in the second round.

LAST TIME OUT

- The then No. 8 Minnesota Golden Gophers fell to the No. 9 Purdue Boilermakers in four sets, 12-25, 25-14, 16-25, 22-25 on Sunday afternoon at Maturi Pavilion.
- The Golden Gophers (17-7, 12-4 Big Ten) were led by redshirt senior Stephanie Samedy, who had 23 kills to go with 13 digs. Jenna Wenaas had 10 kills and seven digs while Katie Myers had four kills and six blocks.

QUOTABLE

- "I thought we were in there and battled hard in the fourth set," said head coach Hugh McCutcheon. "At the end of the day, it just didn't go our way. That's the nature of sports sometimes. Purdue is a good team and they're playing well right now."

FOUR SENIORS TO BE HONORED VS. RUTGERS

- Minnesota will hold a post match ceremony on Friday after its game against Rutgers at Maturi Pavilion. Four seniors, Bayley McMenimen, Airi Miyabe, Katie Myers and Stephanie Samedy, will be honored.
- These seniors have a combined record of 115-26 at Minnesota. McMenimen, Miyabe and Samedy were all on the 2019 Gophers team that made the Final Four.

GOPHERS WINNING BIG TEN/AVCA PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Oct. 11 -- Stephanie Samedy; Defensive Player of the Week
- Nov. 1 -- Stephanie Samedy; AVCA and Big Ten Player of the Week
- Nov. 8 -- Stephanie Samedy; Big Ten Player of the Week

SCOUTING RUTGERS

- The Rutgers Scarlet Knights (8-19, 0-16 Big Ten) are searching for their first conference win this weekend when they take on Minnesota and Nebraska. RU is led by second-year head coach Caitlin Schweihofer.
- RU had several Big Ten first last year. Among the Scarlet Knights' spring 2021 accomplishments were the first-ever All-Big Ten honoree, first-ever home-opening Big Ten victory and first-ever Big Ten series sweep.
- They are led by Beka Kojadinovic, who averages 2.79 kills and 2.63 digs per set.

SCOUTING WISCONSIN

- The No. 5 Wisconsin Badgers (21-3, 13-3 Big Ten) have been to back-to-back Final Fours in addition to winning the last two Big Ten regular season titles. Led by Kelly Sheffield, UW is looking to stay ahead in the race for the conference championship this weekend.

Blocks	223.0 (2.5 ps)	195.0 (2.1 ps)	205.5 (2.4)

- One of the most efficient hitting teams in the country, Wisconsin ranks No. 7 nationally at .292. Fifth-year senior Dana Rettke ranks third the nation in hitting % (.455) and is a four-time All-American.
- Senior setter Sydney Hilley leads the nation with 11.94 assists per set. She has over 5,000 career assists. Defensive specialist Izzy Ashburn ranks third in the Big Ten in aces per set at 0.42.

SAMEDY AND WENAAS COMBINING AS LETHAL DUO

- Minnesota opposite Stephanie Samedy and outside Jenna Wenaas have combined for 699 of Minnesota's 1210 kills (.578). They've reached double digit kills a combined 39 times this season while Samedy has hit the 20-kill mark in 10 of her 23 matches. Statistically, they're the top attacking duo in the Big Ten Conference.

TIME TO DIG IT OUT

- The Gophers lead the Big Ten and rank No. 26 nationally in digs per set (16.81). CC McGraw leads the team (4.61) while Samedy (3.76) and Melani Shaffmaster (2.75) are right around four and three per set.
- CC McGraw ranks sixth in the conference in digs (415) and second in digs per set (4.61).
- The Gophers had a season-high 107 digs on Oct. 30 vs. Nebraska, their most digs since they had 108 on Feb. 5, 2021 at Purdue. The 107 digs was a Big Ten match high for the season.

BLOCK PARTY IN MINNESOTA

- The Gophers rank No. 6 in the Big Ten and No. 47 nationally in blocks with 368 as a team and 2.48 per set.
- Ellie Husemann ranks eighth in the conference with 1.22 blocks per set while Katie Myers is right behind her at 1.20 (10th). Shea Rubright ranks third at 0.83.

HAPPY HUGHVEMBER

- Now in year 10 under Hugh McCutcheon, Minnesota has been a team that gets better throughout the course of the season. Under Hugh, the Gophers are 56-17 (.767) in the month of November. Since 2015, Minnesota is 37-8 (.822) in November, including a 19-4 (.826) record at home and an 18-4 (.818) record on the road.

SHE IS NUMBER 1

- Stephanie Samedy now has 1,897 career kills at Minnesota, which puts at her at No. 1 in school history in the rally scoring era. She passed Hall of Famer Chris Schaefer (1986-89) for fourth all-time Sunday. Assuming Minnesota plays at least two NCAA tournament games, she would need to average 17.2 kills over the next six to reach 2,000.

SAMEDY RANKS AMONG ACTIVE NCAA ALL-TIME LEADERS, 2021 LEADERS

- Stephanie Samedy currently ranks sixth among NCAA active leaders in career kills (1,897), eighth in total attacks (4,946), 20th in matches played (138) and 55th in digs (1,454). She also ranks 18th in kills per set (3.84).
- In 2021, Samedy ranks 13th in the nation in points per set (5.27), 10th in kills per set (4.74) and 12th in attacks per set (12.23). She leads the Big Ten in each offensive category.

Statistic	MN All-Time Rank	Number

MEDIA PROTOCOLS DURING COVID-19

MEDIA CREDENTIALS: Requests for working media credentials (newspaper, radio, TV, photo) for Minnesota home games must be made on-line at gophersports.com/media. All credentials for the 2021 season will be given out on a single-game format. No season-long passes are allowed this year. Please contact the Athletic Communications office for more information regarding the on-line credentialing system.

FACE COVERINGS: All media will be required to wear a face covering while they are at Maturi Pavilion. The face covering needs to cover both the nose and mouth at all times. The lone exception is when an individual is eating or drinking; however, physical distancing practices must still be observed. Media and personnel who do not have a face covering will not be granted access. Individuals who do not comply with Minnesota's face covering policy while inside Maturi Pavilion will be asked to leave.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: Media must enter Maturi Pavilion through west lobby, which is at the main ticket office and between University of Fourth Street. Individuals - who have completed their COVID-19 questionnaire - will have their temperature taken upon arrival. Media will then be issued a credential, which will grant them access to the press area.

PRESS AREA: Print media are asked to remain in their seats for the majority of the time. Media should use restrooms located off the concourse.

PHOTO LOCATIONS: Tier 3 photogs are allowed to shoot in bleacher sections on the south side, 25 feet away from the court and higher. Please adhere to the safe social distancing in those sections. Photographers must stay within the Tier 3 photo area, no exceptions.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: As pf now, postgame interviews with coaches and student-athletes will take place via Zoom.

PRESS AREA CLOSING: Press area will close 75 minutes following the last conducted interview.

SAMEDY TAKES HER GAME TO ANOTHER LEVEL IN 2021

- Stephanie Samedy had a phenomenal 2020-21 spring season, winning Big Ten Player of the Year in addition to being named a First Team AVCA All-American for the third time in her career. She had five 20+ kill performances and averaged 4.15 kills per set and 2.48 digs per set.
- She's taken her game to another level this fall, upping her numbers in almost every statistical category. She's averaging a Big Ten best 4.74 kills per set along with 3.76 digs per set. She's also had 10 20+ kill performances this season in 23 matches. No one else in the Big Ten has more than six 20+ kill matches and no other Power 5 player has more than nine.

GOPHERS SIGN FOUR IN CLASS OF 2022

- Another top-15 ranked recruiting class will land in Minneapolis for the 2022 season as The Golden Gophers welcome middle blocker Carter Booth (Denver, Colo.) and outsiders Julia Hanson (Savage, Minn.) and McKenna Wucherer (Brookfield, Wis.) to the program.
- The No. 1 player in Colorado, the 6-foot-7 Booth should immediately help the Gophers in the middle. She's a 2021 Second Team AVCA All-American and finished her high school career with 346 blocks (86 solo).
- Julia Hanson is an outside from Prior Lake, Minn. She's also a Second Team AVCA All-American and comes to the Gophers after winning 2021 Star Tribune Metro Player of the Year.
- Brookfield, Wis., native McKenna Wucherer is the No. 1 2022 recruit out of Wisconsin. She was a First Team AVCA All-American this fall and competed internationally on the USA U-18 team that finished third at the FIVB World Championships this past summer.

CC CONTINUES PLAYING AT A HIGH LEVEL

- Senior libero/ds CC McGraw, who was named First Team All-Big Ten and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention in 2019, has already earned her bachelor's degree at the 'U,' and is enrolled in a two-year master's program in sport and exercise science.
- After missing the team's final eight games last year, she's having a great 2021, ranking first on the team and second in the B1G in d/s (4.61). She ranks No. 52 among active NCAA leaders w/1,460 digs.
- CC was B1G Defensive Player of the Week after a 30-dig match at UO. She tallied her second 30+ dig match vs. UM Sept. 24 with 32. Only one other Big Ten player has 30 digs in a match in 2021.
- She has six 20+ dig performances this year and two 30+ dig performances.

SHAFFMASTER SETS THE TABLE

- A rare 6-foot-3 setter, Melani Shaffmaster was spectacular as a freshman. The New Castle, Ind., native averaged 9.69 assists per set.
- The sophomore leads Minnesota with 941 assists in 2021, averaging 10.57 per set. She ranks No. 4 in the Big Ten in assists and already ranks No. 12 in program history (1,590).
- She committed to Minnesota as an eighth grader in April of 2016 and shut down her recruitment.

NO. 1 RECRUITING CLASS BUILDING OFF SOLID 2020-21

- Minnesota's 2020 recruiting class was ranked No. 1 in the nation, according to VolleyballMag.com. It marked the first time head coach Hugh McCutcheon has recruited the nation's top class and second time in school history.
- Minnesota's top recruiting class included four freshmen and a graduate transfer. The Golden Gophers' class had Taylor Landfair (6-4 outsider from Plainfield, Ill.), Melani Shaffmaster (6-3 setter from New Castle, Ind.) and Jenna Wenaas (6-1 outside from Frisco, Texas). The Gophers added grad transfer Katie Myers (6-2 middle from Westerville, Ohio) to strengthen their roster.
- Landfair was ranked VolleyballMag.com's No. 1 recruit, while Wenaas was named the fifth-ranked recruit and Shaffmaster was No. 6.

BIG TEN KEEPS STACKING ATTENDANCE NUMBERS

- 11 Big Ten teams among the top 30 in the latest NCAA attendance rankings with the next closest conference having only six in the top 30 (Pac-12). As it has all season, Nebraska leads the nation at 8,190 fans per match, with Wisconsin second (7,540) and Minnesota at No. 3 (5,120).

STANDINGS UPDATE

- Minnesota is one game back of Nebraska and Wisconsin (13-3 Big Ten) for first place in the conference. The Gophers fell 3-0 to UW on Oct. 1 in Madison but will get a second shot at the Badgers on Sunday. The Gophers (12-4 Big Ten) are in a three-way tie for third with Purdue and Penn State with four matches to play.

GOPHER NOTES TO KNOW

GOPHERS HISTORY AGAINST RUTGERS AND WISCONSIN

- Minnesota is 9-2 all-time against Rutgers, including an 8-0 record under Hugh McCutcheon. The Gophers have won eight of the nine matchups against RU in three sets. They last met twice in 2019, when the Gophers won in four at home and in three on the road. At home, the 'U' is 5-0 vs. RU.
- Minnesota is now 52-34 against Wisconsin all-time, including 11-7 under Hugh McCutcheon. The Gophers had won eight in-a-row against UW from 2015-18 but the Badgers have won four straight in the series. At the Pav, Minnesota is 6-3 vs. Wisconsin under Hugh.

GOPHERS IN BIG TEN PLAY

- Under Hugh McCutcheon, Minnesota is 144-41 (.778) in Big Ten competition. In his 10 seasons prior in charge, the Gophers have had nine seasons above .500 in conference play. In eight of those seasons, the 'U' went 15-5 or better in conference play, with the best being 19-1 in 2018. They need to win three of their final five Big Ten matches to finish at least 15-5 in 2021.
- The Gophers won Big Ten titles in 2016 and 2018 and have finished either first, second or third in eight of the last nine seasons.

MINNESOTA THRIVES AT HOME

- Under coach McCutcheon, Minnesota is 129-16 (.890) at home, including an 84-12 (.875) record during Big Ten home matches.

DIFFICULT SCHEDULE AWAITS MINNESOTA TO FINISH 2021

- The No. 12-ranked Gophers have a gauntlet of schedule once again. In addition to playing 20 conference games in the always difficult Big Ten slate, they played eight non-conference matches, including five against AVCA top-25 ranked teams.
- Minnesota is set to take on seven teams ranked in the AVCA preseason top-10 (second most top-10 games in the country). The Gophers have 14 ranked opponents out of 28 games on their schedule.
- In their final 12 matches of this season, the Gophers will face eight ranked opponents. So far in the 12-match stretch, Minnesota is 6-2, with a 4-2 record against ranked opponents.

GOPHERS IN THE PROS

- Minnesota has had a total of 11 Gopher alums that played professional volleyball this past season.
- Lauren Gibbemeyer, Samantha Seliger-Swenson, Taylor Morgan, Molly Lohman, Erica Handley and Dalianiz Rosado are all a part of Athletes Unlimited. In partnership with USA Volleyball, Athletes Unlimited launches the first pro indoor women's league in the U.S. on February 27, 2021. Paige Tapp was training with Athletes Unlimited, but tore her ACL and missed the season.
- Daly Santana (Turkey), Sarah Wilhite (Turkey), Hannah Tapp (Japan) and Alexis Hart (Germany) are all playing internationally. Tori Dixon completed her international competition (China) earlier this year. Gibbemeyer also competed internationally (Sweden).
- Gophers alumnae Tori Dixon ('14), Hannah Tapp ('16) and Sarah Wilhite ('16) were alternates for the USA Women's Volleyball team, which won its first-ever gold medal at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics.

FINAL FOUR SUCCESS

- Since 2015, Minnesota is one of just FOUR teams in the country to have made at least three Final Four appearances in the past six seasons.
- The Gophers went to the Final Four in 2015, 2016 and 2019. Texas, Minnesota's opponent in the home opener, has also been to three Final Fours in the past six years.
- Stanford and Nebraska have been four times each in the past six seasons, the only programs to make the national semifinals more than the Gophers in that span.

BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARD RUNS THROUGH MINNEAPOLIS

- In the past six seasons, Minnesota has dominated the Big Ten Player of the Year award race. A Gopher has won the conference's most prestigious award four times since 2015. Redshirt senior opposite Stephanie Samedy is the frontrunner for the award again this year. If she wins, that would make it five times in seven years for a Gopher to win.
- All-time, seven Gophers have won Big Ten Player of the Year since its debut in 1983. Martie Larsen (1983), Nicole Branagh (2000) and Cassie Busse (2003) were the others.

BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE YEAR:

2015: Daly Santana
2016: Sarah Wilhite
2017: Simone Lee (PSU)
2018: Samantha Seliger-Swenson
2019: Dana Rettke (WIS)

Hugh McCutcheon enters his tenth season at the helm of Golden Gopher Volleyball program in 2021. Named the 2015 AVCA National Coach of the Year and 2015 Big Ten Coach of the Year, McCutcheon continues building Minnesota into a perennial powerhouse. Since arriving on campus in 2012, McCutcheon has led the Gophers to three NCAA Final Fours, two Big Ten Championships, four Sweet 16 finishes and an Elite Eight appearance in just nine years. He enters the 2021 spring season with a 216-53 (.808) collegiate coaching record.

Last year, during the COVID-19 pandemic shortened 2020-21 spring season, McCutcheon guided the Gophers to a 16-3 (15-2 Big Ten) record and a No. 3 national seed in the NCAA Tournament. Minnesota earned Big Ten runner-up honors, losing just two conference matches in a year with COVID stoppages and untimely injuries. Senior opposite Stephanie Samedy earned her fourth straight AVCA All-American honor in addition to becoming the fourth Gopher in the past six seasons to win Big Ten Player of the Year. Freshman Taylor Landfair and senior Regan Pittman also earned All-America honorable mention as the Gophers made their fourth Sweet 16 in the last nine seasons under Hugh.

Under McCutcheon's guidance, the Golden Gophers advanced to their third Final Four appearance in just five seasons in 2019. As the Golden Gophers were riddled with injuries during the 2019 regular season, McCutcheon guided the Gophers to a 17-3 Big Ten Conference record, which tied for second place. With a healthy team by postseason play, the Gophers advanced to the program's sixth NCAA Championship in program history. Minnesota finished 2019 with a 27-6 record as McCutcheon was named the AVCA North Region Coach of the Year. Regan Pittman, Stephanie Samedy and Alexis Hart all garnered All-America honors this past season.

McCutcheon and the Gophers earned a 19-1 record in Big Ten play action in 2018. The Gophers broke their school record of most wins in a conference season and longest conference win streak in program history, bettering their 15-match run in 2015. Overall, the Gophers went 27-4 in 2018 and held a Sweet 16 berth. Three individuals received All-America honors in Samantha Seliger-Swenson, Stephanie Samedy and Regan Pittman. In fact, those three also received First Team All-Big Ten honors, while Seliger-Swenson was named Big Ten Player of the Year.

The 2018 calendar year also marked a special accolade as he was inducted into the International Volleyball Hall of Fame, the first New Zealander to ever be inducted into the hall.

Coming off back-to-back Final Four appearances and graduating six 2016 seniors, Minnesota remained one of the top programs in NCAA Division I and Big Ten standings during the 2017 campaign. The Golden Gophers advanced to the Sweet 16 and finished third in the Big Ten with a 28-6 overall record and a 15-5 mark in league action. The Golden Gophers had three individuals garner All-America and Big Ten honors, including First Team All-American Stephanie Samedy. She became Minnesota's first-ever freshman to receive First Team All-America honors in school history. Minnesota finished 10th in the final AVCA poll, with a team that relied on five underclassmen that saw significant action.

Minnesota went 29-5 and 17-3 in league action during the 2016 campaign. Finishing in a tie for second place in the Big Ten, the Gophers were the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. Minnesota also went 17-0 at home during 2016, marking 36-straight wins at the Sports Pavilion, spanning back to the 2014 campaign. Under the direction of McCutcheon, Minnesota garnered its first-ever AVCA and ESPNW National Player of the Year when Sarah Wilhite received the award. With McCutcheon's guidance, Wilhite went from never receiving any yearly awards, to become the top player in the nation. Along with Wilhite, Samantha Seliger-Swenson and Hannah Tapp were named AVCA All-Americans. Wilhite was named the Big Ten Player of the Year, the second-straight Gopher to don the honor, while Seliger-Swenson was named Big Ten Setter of the Year.

Paige Tapp received the Senior CLASS Award, which goes to one graduating individual who excels on the court, in the classroom and in the community. Tapp also was named a First Team Academic All-American, her second honor in two years. The Gophers also added 10 Academic All-Big Ten selections during 2016.

Completing a historic year in 2015, McCutcheon led the Gophers to an impressive 30-5 overall record, a league-best 18-2 Big Ten mark, a perfect 15-0 on their home court and an unprecedented 15-match Big Ten win streak. Under McCutcheon's guidance, Minnesota garnered four All-Americans and three First Team All-Big Ten selections, as Daly Santana was named the Big Ten Player of the Year. Samantha Seliger-Swenson was also named Minnesota's first Big Ten Freshman of the Year in over two decades. With McCutcheon leading the way, the Golden Gophers won their second Big Ten Championship in school history in 2015 and earned their first trip to the NCAA Final Four since 2009.

McCutcheon came to Minnesota after an illustrious career with USA Volleyball as he earned two medals with the United States Men's and Women's Olympic teams. Immediately following his commitment to Team USA, McCutcheon arrived in Minnesota in August of 2012. In his first season, McCutcheon led Minnesota to a 27-8 record in 2012 and just two sets shy of a Final Four appearance. With the Gophers advancing to the NCAA Elite Eight, McCutcheon coached Minnesota to a tie for second in the Big Ten Conference standings, while Katherine Harms and Tori Dixon earned first and second team All-America citations. He followed with a Sweet 16 appearance in 2013, was named the regional coach of the year, all while Dixon was named a First Team All-American as Ashley Wittman donned second team honors. Under McCutcheon's guidance, the Gophers finished the 2013 campaign with a 29-7 overall record and 15-5 mark in the Big Ten, which was third in league standings.

USA VOLLEYBALL

McCutcheon guided both the men's and women's indoor volleyball teams to Olympic medals, the only United States coach to ever do so. McCutcheon mentored the U.S. Women's National Volleyball Team to a 106-39 record in his four years after leading the U.S. Men's National Volleyball Team program to the 2008 Olympic Games gold medal. Counting his 107-33 record leading the U.S. Men's program from 2005 to 2008, McCutcheon held a combined record of 213-72 with USA Volleyball.

In his final three seasons with the women's program, McCutcheon guided the U.S. to an 88-25 record with podium finishes in 10 of 12 tournaments. In 2012, Team USA captured its second consecutive Olympic Games silver medal with a 7-1 record. In addition, the U.S. captured FIVB World Grand Prix gold medal for the third consecutive year.

COACHING RECORDS

Team USA was 14-0 in the 2012 edition, including victories over Olympic Games bound Brazil twice (No. 2 in the world), Italy (No. 4), China (No. 5), Serbia (No. 6), Dominican Republic (No. 9) and Turkey (No. 11).

The U.S. finished the 2011 season with a 39-10 record. Among the team's highlights were picking up the silver medal at the FIVB World Cup, their second consecutive FIVB World Grand Prix title, capturing the NORCECA Women's Continental Championship and winning the bronze medal at the Pan American Cup. Overall, the U.S. scored an 11-match victory improvement over 2010 and a 21-victory improvement from two years ago.

Team USA finished the 2010 season with a 28-13 record - a 10-match improvement in the victory column from the previous year. The U.S. claimed the silver medal at the Montreux Volley Masters and the bronze at the Pan American Cup in June 2010. The 2010 season was capped by a fourth-place finish at the FIVB World Championship.

In his first year leading the squad, McCutcheon was able to evaluate 30 players in international competitions, along with training several other players who were new or returning to the program. With the mix of youth and veterans, Team USA finished 2009 with an 18-14 record and provided vast experience for a young roster. The squad qualified for the 2010 FIVB World Grand Prix and 2010 FIVB World Championship based on results in 2009. The U.S. won the FIVB World Championship - NORCECA Group G third-round pool to advance to the FIVB World Championship at the end of 2010.

Less than four months after leading the U.S. Men's Olympic Volleyball Team to a gold medal at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing en route to being named the 2008 USOC National Coach of the Year, McCutcheon accepted the head coach position of the U.S. Women's National Team for the 2009-2012 Olympic quadrennial.

As the head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team at the 2008 Olympic Games, McCutcheon and Team USA went undefeated in Beijing to claim its third Olympic Games gold medal and its first podium finish since 1992. He compiled a 107-33 record in four years with the U.S. Men's National Team program, which ended 2008 ranked second in the FIVB World Ranking.

The U.S. Men's National Team enjoyed one of its best seasons ever in 2008 under McCutcheon's guidance as the team won all three of its major tournaments of the year. Team USA secured its first-ever FIVB World League championship in July 2008 after a bronze medal finish in the same event in 2007, the first time the Americans earned back-to-back medals in the annual event. The U.S. started the 2008 campaign in dominating fashion by sweeping all five matches at the NORCECA Men's Continental Olympic Qualifier to earn its berth in the 2008 Olympics.

McCutcheon started coaching the men's team in 2005. That season, the U.S. Men's Team flourished in going 27-6 and winning five medals in five tournaments. The team earned a silver medal at the USOC International Sports Invitational in San Diego, Calif., gold medals at the Americas' Cup in Brazil, the FIVB World Championship Qualifying Tournament in Puerto Rico and the NORCECA Continental Championship in Canada and another silver medal at the FIVB World Grand Champions Cup in Japan.

McCutcheon, a former Brigham Young University assistant coach, joined USA Volleyball as a full-time assistant coach for the men's national team program in April 2003.

Prior to that, in the summers of 2001 and 2002, respectively, he served as a volunteer assistant coach for the men's national team, helping out during the 2001 World League, the 2002 World Championships and on five international tours.

He has also served as the head coach of the U.S. Boys' Youth National Team in 2000 and 2001. McCutcheon was the top assistant coach and recruiter for BYU men's team from 1995-2001 under head coach Carl McGown. During that time, the Cougars posted a record of 138-44 and captured two NCAA championships (1999 and 2001).

After leaving BYU, McCutcheon was the head coach of the Vienna Hotvolleys in Austria for two seasons. In his first season there, the Hotvolleys won the 2001-02 Inter-Liga, Austrian Cup and Austrian League championships. He also coached the first Austrian team to ever beat an Italian A1 opponent.

McCutcheon's love for volleyball developed in New Zealand where he played on the junior and senior national teams from 1986-90 before coming to the United States. He was also a member of New Zealand's national team in 1996 and represented his country on the FIVB Beach Volleyball World Tour in 1997.

He played for BYU from 1991-1993 after transferring from the University of Canterbury in New Zealand. In 1993 he earned honorable mention All-America honors. In 1992 he earned Academic All-Conference honors from the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in physical education from BYU in 1993, McCutcheon played professionally for two years in Finland and Japan before returning to BYU to complete his master's degree in 1998. In 1999, McCutcheon received an MBA from BYU's Marriott School of Management.

Married to former U.S. Olympian Elisabeth "Wiz" Bachman, the couple has two children, Andrew and Annika.

COACHING RECORDS

Team USA was 14-0 in the 2012 edition, including victories over Olympic Games bound Brazil twice (No. 2 in the world), Italy (No. 4), China (No. 5), Serbia (No. 6), Dominican Republic (No. 9) and Turkey (No. 11).

The U.S. finished the 2011 season with a 39-10 record. Among the team's highlights were picking up the silver medal at the FIVB World Cup, their second consecutive FIVB World Grand Prix title, capturing the NORCECA Women's Continental Championship and winning the bronze medal at the Pan American Cup. Overall, the U.S. scored an 11-match victory improvement over 2010 and a 21-victory improvement from two years ago.

Team USA finished the 2010 season with a 28-13 record - a 10-match improvement in the victory column from the previous year. The U.S. claimed the silver medal at the Montreux Volley Masters and the bronze at the Pan American Cup in June 2010. The 2010 season was capped by a fourth-place finish at the FIVB World Championship.

In his first year leading the squad, McCutcheon was able to evaluate 30 players in international competitions, along with training several other players who were new or returning to the program. With the mix of youth and veterans, Team USA finished 2009 with an 18-14 record and provided vast experience for a young roster. The squad qualified for the 2010 FIVB World Grand Prix and 2010 FIVB World Championship based on results in 2009. The U.S. won the FIVB World Championship - NORCECA Group G third-round pool to advance to the FIVB World Championship at the end of 2010.

Less than four months after leading the U.S. Men's Olympic Volleyball Team to a gold medal at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing en route to being named the 2008 USOC National Coach of the Year, McCutcheon accepted the head coach position of the U.S. Women's National Team for the 2009-2012 Olympic quadrennial.

As the head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team at the 2008 Olympic Games, McCutcheon and Team USA went undefeated in Beijing to claim its third Olympic Games gold medal and its first podium finish since 1992. He compiled a 107-33 record in four years with the U.S. Men's National Team program, which ended 2008 ranked second in the FIVB World Ranking.

The U.S. Men's National Team enjoyed one of its best seasons ever in 2008 under McCutcheon's guidance as the team won all three of its major tournaments of the year. Team USA secured its first-ever FIVB World League championship in July 2008 after a bronze medal finish in the same event in 2007, the first time the Americans earned back-to-back medals in the annual event. The U.S. started the 2008 campaign in dominating fashion by sweeping all five matches at the NORCECA Men's Continental Olympic Qualifier to earn its berth in the 2008 Olympics.

McCutcheon started coaching the men's team in 2005. That season, the U.S. Men's Team flourished in going 27-6 and winning five medals in five tournaments. The team earned a silver medal at the USOC International Sports Invitational in San Diego, Calif., gold medals at the Americas' Cup in Brazil, the FIVB World Championship Qualifying Tournament in Puerto Rico and the NORCECA Continental Championship in Canada and another silver medal at the FIVB World Grand Champions Cup in Japan.
