OPENING TIP-OFF

• Minnesota (8-8, 1-3 B1G) is headed on the road to take on Wisconsin (3-11, 0-4 B1G) in a mid-week matchup on Wednesday night. The Jan. 12, matchup can be streamed on B1G+ and can be found on KFAN+ with Justin Gaard and Lynnette Sjoquist on the call.

• Minnesota's matchup with Wisconsin is the first of two meetings this season with the second coming later this month on Jan. 30, at Williams Arena. The last time the Gophers and Badgers faced off was on Feb. 14, 2021, when Kadi Sissoko dropped a team-high 20 points while Sara Scalia (17) and Jasmine Powell (15) also scored in double figures on the way to the win in Minneapolis. Wisconsin brings back three starters from that 68-63 loss to the Gophers with it's scoring leader Imani Lewis (27) not a part of those returners.

• The Golden Gophers are coming off a respectable performance against a top 10 team in Maryland (12-4, 4-1 B1G). Without All-Big Ten guard Jasmine Powell (family matter) and head coach Lindsay Whalen (appendectomy) the Gophers had strong performances from Deja Winters (20), Sara Scalia (19) and Kadi Sissoko (15) to hang with the high powered Terrapins. Carly Thibault-DuDonis served as acting head coach for the second straight game.

• Sara Scalia extended her double figures scoring streak to six with her performance against No. 10/9 Maryland. In her last six games Scalia has averaged an impressive 20.2 points per game, has shot 46.3 percent from three and has averaged 6.0 rebounds per game. This season Scalia ranks 13th in the Big Ten in scoring average (15.3) and is fifth in 3-point percentage at 42.2 percent and is third in threes made per game at 2.94 and has made the second most total threes at 47.

• As a team this season Minnesota has the second-best three-point field goal percentage in the Big Ten at 37.2 which is also good enough for 14th best in the NCAA. On average the Maroon and Gold make 8.6 threes per game, good enough for the 30th best mark in the nation and the third best in the conference. In total the team's 138 made threes is the most in the Big Ten and the 10th most in the country.

• Minnesota will welcome back guard Jasmine Powell on Wednesday as the junior has distributed the basketball at the best rate of her career so far this season. The junior guard is third in the Big Ten this season in assists per game at 5.7, good enough for the 22nd best rate in the country. She is one of just 10 players in the country to average 13.5 points per game and 5.7 assists per game, in that list, just three are on Power 5 teams, all of which are in the Big Ten conference.

• Since joining the starting lineup on Dec. 12, vs. Michigan, Alanna 'Rose' Micheaux has pushed her rebounding average significantly up, averaging 5.2 rebounds including an average of 3.2 on the offensive glass. She also has averaged 5.6 points per game while shooting 70 percent from the floor.

• On the road this season Powell has been Minnesota's steady scorer at 17.3 points per game, nearly four points higher than her season average. Minnesota's perimeter defense has been outstanding on the road, allowing just 26.9 percent on the road. On the flip side the Gophers have had no issues shooting from beyond the arc on the road, shooting 37.5 percent, nearly identical to their season average of 37.2.

Deja Winters' 20 points vs. Maryland marks the fifth different Gopher to score 20 or more points in a game this season.

FACING WISCONSIN

- Minnesota and Wisconsin meet for the 82nd time on Wednesday. It is the Gophers most played series, tied with Iowa.
- Minnesota has two Wisconsinites on its roster in freshmen Erin Hedman (New Berlin; Eisenhower HS) and Caroline Strande (Racine; Racine Lutheran HS). Conversely, Wisconsin has two Minnesotans on its roster: freshman Sacia Vanderpool from Byron, Minn. (Byron HS) and Sara Stapleton from Blaine (Centennial HS).
- Losers of two straight the Badgers have not won a game since Dec. 16, when the team defeated Illinois State 70-60 at the Kohl Center. Since then the team has also had two games canceled against Eastern Illinois and Purdue.
- Junior Julie Pospíšilová and sophomore Brooke Schramek rank among the top Big Ten players for most improved scorers. Pospíšilová ranks sixth, upping her scoring from 8.9 last season to 14.5 this season, an improvement of 5.6 points per game. Schramek ranks eighth, improving her scoring from 2.9 as a freshman to 7.0 this season.
- Head coach Marisa Moseley is familiar to Minnesota as she previously served as an assistant for the Golden Gophers from 2007-09 under then head coach Pam Borton. In two seasons the Gophers were 40-24 and 22-14 in the Big Ten, making the NCAA Tournament both years and winning a tournament game in 2009.
- Individually, Sydney Hilliard is fourth in the Big Ten in steals per game this season at 1.92 while she also ranks fourth in the conference in field-goal percentage at 56.3, which is 31st best in the NCAA. Katie Nelson plays the most minutes per game in the conference at 37.74, which is the ninth-highest rate in the country this season. Nelson also does a good job handling the ball for the Badgers, holding the fifth-best assist-to-turnover ratio in the Big Ten at 2.38 this season.
- As a team, Wisconsin's best statistic amongst Big Ten teams is the Badgers' sixth-best turnovers per game rate at 15 per game. The Badgers' are respectable in fewest fouls and fewest turnovers this season, both ranked seventh in the conference and are eighth in scoring defense at 66.4 per game.

WHAT'S ON THE LINE VS. WISCONSIN FOR THE GOPHERS

GOPHER NUMBERS TO WATCH

- After moving into the program top 10 in career threes, Sara Scalia now needs just four threes to pass Sari Noga (2010-14) for the eighth-most threes made at Minnesota. Scalia is also 10th in career threes attempted and is 49 away from moving into ninth at Minnesota.
- Gadiva Hubbard moved into eighth at Minnesota in total minutes played and is now 69 minutes away from moving to seventh all-time. Hubbard is also 19 points from passing Debbie Hunter (1979-93) for the 14th most points in program history.

POWELL LEADS GOPHERS TO FIRST BIG TEN WIN OF 2022

- Paced by Powell's 19 points, the Gophers also got 11 points from Kadi Sissoko, all coming in the fourth quarter, to keep Rutgers at bay in the wire-to-wire road victory.
- Without head coach Lindsay Whalen (appendectomy) it was Carly Thibault-DuDonis who filled in as acting head coach for the Gophers. Thibault-DuDonis and the rest of the Gophers' coaching staff led the Maroon and Gold to the program's first win at Rutgers (previously 0-6 in Piscataway).
- The Jan. 6, matchup between Rutgers and Minnesota marked the first time in Big Ten history that both teams were coached by 'acting head coaches'

- Scalia's 37 points are the most in program history without making a free throw.
- Scalia's 69.2 percent (9-of-13) shooting night from beyond the arc is the best percentage by any player in the NCAA this year when making nine or more threes.
- Scalia's nine threes tied her for the second most threes made against a non-conference opponent in Big Ten history and is the second most threes in a single game by any Gopher ever (men's or women's).
- Scalia's 37 points is the most any player has scored under head coach Lindsay Whalen.
- Scalia scored 13 points in the second quarter vs. Ohio and another 12 in the third quarter giving the Stillwater, Minn., native, five different quarters this season where she has scored 11 points or more. No other Gopher has scored more than 10 points in any other quarter this season.

MICHIGAN RALLIES TO DEFEAT GOPHERS IN ANN ARBOR

On her 8-of-10 shooting, Micheaux secured the most points by a non-starter for the Golden Gophers since Gadiva Hubbard scored 28 points off the bench against Maryland in 2017.

They are going to make an impact that will last for years to come."
- As a group the 2022 Signing Day class of Braun, Battle, Heyer and Holloway is the best in program history. According to Jr. All Stars the Gophers bring in the No. 4 ranked class in the nation and, as of Oct. 31, ESPN had Minnesota as the No. 7 ranked class in the country.

- Hubbard — who is working on her master's degree in sport management — is one of 12 players returning from last season's 8-13 team. The 5-9 Virginia Beach native averaged 11.1 points, 3.5 rebounds, 1.9 assists and 1.1 steals per game last season. She led the Gophers in free-throw percentage (92.1).
- "I am honored that my jersey hangs in the rafters of Williams Arena and am grateful for the impact the 'U' has had on my life," she said. "Moving forward, however, I would like to have the No. 13 available for others that come to the university and represent the Gophers on the court."

- None of the six numbers and seven jerseys (Debbie Hunter also wore No. 13) that have been raised to the rafters of Williams Arena have officially been retired. However, out of respect for Whalen and the impact she has had on the program, no player has been given her number since her career ended.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT WHALEN

"The University of Minnesota's decision to hire Lindsay Whalen as its women's basketball coach is a phenomenal one. Lindsay is a winner; she's a four-time WNBA champion, a two-time Olympic gold medalist and led her Gopher team to the Final Four. I have no doubt that she will continue to excel as a leader."
Cheryl Reeve
Minnesota Lynx Head Coach
Team USA Assistant Coach

"Having been around Lindsay for a long time, I can certainly speak to the kind of competitor and person she is and the passion that she brings to the game. She has been really well coached from college through the pros - she's played for some great coaches. I don't think it'll take Lindsay long to get caught up. She's got some great stuff to work with at Minnesota, and she's a smart kid."
Geno Auriemma
University of Connecticut Head Coach
Former Team USA Head Coach

"The University of Minnesota hired a gem in Lindsay Whalen. Her basketball IQ is off the charts, and her ability to connect with people is unmatched. The impact on the community is already in full effect."
Dawn Staley
University of South Carolina Head Coach
Team USA Head Coach

HEAD COACH LINDSAY WHALEN FOURTH SEASON - MINNESOTA, 2004

One of the most decorated players in women's basketball history, Lindsay Whalen returned to her alma mater as the 12th head women's basketball coach at the University of Minnesota on April 13, 2018.

In her three seasons guiding the Golden Gophers, Whalen has led the team to a 45-40 mark (.534) with a trip to the WNIT in 2018-19. In addition, she has coached one WNBA draft pick, one All-American, nine All-Big Ten honorees, two members of the Big Ten All-Freshman team, one Big Ten All-Defensive Team player and 18 Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

The 2020-21 campaign, which took place amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, saw a young Gophers squad improve their conference win total from five to seven as they went 8-13 on the season and 7-11 in conference play. With 10 of its 13 players either freshmen or sophomores, no team in the Big Ten had a higher percentage of its roster comprised of underclassmen than Minnesota. In fact, of the 13 Gophers on the roster, six were playing in their first season of collegiate basketball and three transfers were playing in their first year at Minnesota.

Jasmine Powell was named Second Team All-Big Ten by the league's coaches and Honorable Mention All-Big Ten by the media covering the conference. Meanwhile, Sara Scalia was chosen Honorable Mention All-Big Ten by the coaches and media.

In Whalen's second season the Gophers went 16-15, including winning 11 straight games at one point, which was the sixth longest win streak in program history. During the stretch, they won four straight on the road, the seventh longest such streak at Minnesota. Included in the 11-game streak was an 80-66 upset of then-No. 19 Arizona State.

Five members of the team took home season honors from the Big Ten. Taiye Bello was a consensus All-Big Ten Second Team selection by the league's coaches and media, while Powell was a consensus pick for both All-Big Ten Honorable Mention and the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. Gadiya Hubbard was an All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honoree by the media, as was Scalia, who also earned a place on the media's Big Ten All-Freshman Team.

In her first season at the helm of the Gophers, Whalen guided the team to a 21-11 record overall, a 9-9 mark in league play and a spot in the second round of the WNIT. She became the fifth coach in program history to lead the team to 20 wins in their first season. The Gophers enjoyed a 10-week run in the AP Poll, their longest stretch since the 2005-06 season.

Minnesota began the 2018-19 season by winning its first 12 games, tied for the third best streak in team history.

With the 12-0 start, Whalen tied her former coach, Pam Borton (2002-03), for the best undefeated start by a coach in their first year at a Big Ten school since the incorporation of women's athletics in the conference in 1982-83. The only coach at a Big Ten school with more wins in his or her first year there was Ohio State's Debbie Wilson, who started 14-0 in 1972-73.

Under Whalen's tutelage, Kenisha Bell earned honorable mention All-America honors from the AP, was a semifinalist for the 2019 Naismith Women's Defensive Player of the Year Award, garnered consensus First Team All-Big Ten honors from the league's coaches and media and was a member of the All-Big Ten Defensive Team. In addition, Destiny Pitts was named First Team All-Big Ten by the league's coaches (second team by the media), and Taiye Bello was an All-Big Ten honorable mention honoree.

Whalen returned to the Gophers after destroying the program's record book in the early 2000s, finishing her career as Minnesota's all-time points leader, along with being second all-time in assists and third all-time in steals. A four-time all-state selection at Hutchinson High School, about an hour west of Minneapolis, Whalen went on to become the catalyst for the most successful seasons in the history of Gopher women's basketball.

In international competition, Whalen was a key piece to dominant performances by Team USA in world championship and Olympic competition. Whalen played for two gold medal teams at the World Championships (2010, 2014) and has also won two Olympic gold medals (2012, 2016).

As part of Whalen's agreement to become head coach, she continued to play for the Minnesota Lynx before retiring at the end of the 2018 season. Previously, Whalen announced in February of 2018 that she was retiring from international competition. She had played for the U.S. National team since 2002, joining Team USA following her sophomore season with the Gophers.

CZINANO NOTES

- Made Gopher debut against American, playing two minutes and grabbing one rebound
- Scored her first collegiate point vs. UTSA (11/28/21) at the free throw line, also handed out two assists in six minutes of action
- Played in two of the three games in the Bahamas vs. No. 2/2 UConn and Oklahoma

- Was a three-time all-conference honoree and named all-state as a junior as she averaged 21 points, 2.2 steals and 2.1 assists per contest
- Helped her high school to a pair of conference championships, a section championship and a third-place finish at the 2017 state tournament
- AAU team is the Minnesota Fury, which won back-to-back state titles in 2019 and 2020 and finished second at the 2019 UAA Nationals
- Earned five high school letters each in soccer and track and field
- Was a two-time all-conference honoree and a 2018 all-state honorable mention in soccer and finished second in her conference in the 200 meters and 4x200 relay
- "For sure, the coaches. Obviously during recruiting you talk to a lot of coaches, you talk to even a lot of players, and the Minnesota coaches were so relatable and they really asked about you, instead of basketball. They wanted to get to know you instead of just you as a basketball player. That really stuck out for me in the long run."
- Coach Whalen: "Maggie is another home grown talent with championship level experience. Her ability to play on the wing, as well as some stretch 4, set her apart for us during her recruiting process."

There were a lot of variables to consider but ultimately I knew it would give me the greatest chance to become a better basketball player. It was difficult to leave my high school career unfinished, but the uncertainty of this year is what helped me make my decision. I love the game of basketball and I'm very grateful for this opportunity. I'm going to take advantage of the extra time I get with this amazing team."
- Coach Whalen: "We know Katie has the ability to score and create assists at an elite level. We are looking forward to her providing depth in our backcourt."

I think their vision and their foundation and standards that they hold the team and people within the program to is something that aligned with what I was looking for. I'm just really looking forward to growing the program this year and keep improving on the foundation that they've set and continued to instill in the players."
- Coach Whalen: "We are thrilled to bring Bailey back home to our Minnesota women's basketball family. Joining us as a graduate transfer, she will bring immediate experience and size to our roster. She is not only a great presence in the paint at 6'5, but she will be a great fit for our culture and growth of the program. We are looking forward to her joining us this summer."
