MATCH NOTES

SERIES HISTORY:

Minnesota leads the all-time series against the South Dakota State Jackrabbits with a record of 24-5 in a series that dates back to January 30, 1950. The Golden Gophers have won the last eight matchups against SDSU, with the win streak spanning across 55 seasons. Minnesota was victorious in the most recent matchup, defeating the Jackrabbits by a score of 27-13 inside Maturi Pavilion last November.

LAST MEETING:

Minnesota hosted South Dakota State for a home dual on November 28, 2021, where the Golden Gophers claimed seven of ten bouts en route to a 27-13 victory. Bonus-point victories proved to be the difference in the contest as Isaiah Salazar, Gable Steveson, Patrick McKee, Jake Gliva, and Brayton Lee all won by bonus points. Michael Blockhus and Michial Foy rounded out the rest of Minnesota's wins, as Foy headlined the dual with a 9-3 victory over No. 6 Tanner Sloan at 197 pounds. The dual win was also Minnesota's 1000th win in program history.

POTENTIAL MATCHUPS:

>>> #3 Jake Bergeland and #6 Clay Carlson could square off in a potential feature bout at 141lbs.
>>> Andrew Sparks looks for revenge against Tanner Cook at 165 pounds in a ranked showdown.
>>> Bailee O'Reilly would face a tough test in top-15 opponent Cade DeVos at 174 pounds.
>>> Michial Foy could get his name called for a Daktronics Open rematch with #27 Cade King.
>>> Garrett Joles could see yet another big opportunity at 197 pounds against #11 Tanner Sloan.

TEAM NOTES

LIGHTWEIGHTS LEAD GOPHERS WIN

After trailing 12-6 at halftime, Gopher lightweights won four of the final bouts of the evening to clinch a 19-15 victory over the Binghamton Bearcats. Coming out of the break, it was true freshman Troy Spratley getting the nod at 125 pounds as he earned a 3-2 decision over former NCAA qualifier Micah Roes in his first career start. At 133 pounds it would be Aaron Nagao, who's coming off a fifth-place finish at the U23 World Championships, that would make his first career start in Maturi Pavilion, rolling to an 8-2 decision win. After yet another debut in redshirt freshman Vance VomBaur fell short at 141 pounds, the Golden Gophers would sweep the final two matches of the night to secure the comeback victory. Michael Blockhus continued his hot start to the season with a 5-3 victory over Michael Zarif to move to 5-0, before Brayton Lee would make his long-awaited season debut with a 14-5 major decision in his first competition since last February.

A NEW-LOOK LINEUP

Heading into the season opener, the Gophers rolled out a handful of fresh faces into the lineup, as four members of the Maroon & Gold, Troy Spratley, Aaron Nagao, Vance VomBaur, and Keaton Kluever, all made their first career starts inside Maturi Pavilion. Following the Binghamton dual, that now a total of 19 members of the current Golden Gopher roster that have made at least one career start for the Maroon & Gold, an element of the roster that the Gophers will look to continue to use to their advantage as the season rolls on.

FOY ROLLS TO DAKTRONICS OPEN TITLE

After moving down a weight class for his final season in the Maroon & Gold, grad student Michial Foy has gotten off to a hot start in the 2022-23 campaign which includes a Daktronics Open title last weekend. Michial Foy went 3-0, including his second ranked victory of the season over #26 Cade King in the finals. Going into the third period of his finals match knotted up at 1-1, Foy was clearly the aggressor as he drew a stalling point to take a 2-1 lead, then converted a third-period takedown to ice it. With the 184-pound title this past weekend, Foy moves to 5-1 in his new weight class, with his only loss coming to fellow Gopher teammate Isaiah Salazar. Foy led the charge of ten total placewinners for Minnesota at the Daktronics Open, with the Gophers' only other finalist coming by way of Jake Gliva at 133 pounds, who fell by 10-1 major decision to place second.

PATRICK'S PIN PARTY AT THE ALL-STAR CLASSIC

Gopher lightweight Patrick McKee showcased with he is one of the top 125-pounders in the nation on Tuesday evening, as he dominated Iowa State's Kysen Terukina with a second-period fall in the opening match of the NWCA All-Star Classic. McKee opened the match with the opening takedown and closed out the frame with 55 seconds of riding time. After choosing bottom to start the second, McKee immediately got the escape, then blasted a double-leg on the edge straight to Terukina's back, where he would settle in and secure the fall. McKee's pin was the only bonus-point victory in the 11-match freestyle slate at the All-Star Classic, and it pushes the Gophers record to 17-16-1 at the event.

BUSY OFFSEASON TRANSLATING TO IN-SEASON SUCCESS

A summer full of wrestling is proving to pay dividends for Minnesota's U23 World Team members, as both Michial Foy and Aaron Nagao have gotten off the excellent starts this season with a 9-1 start to the year. The pair had themselves an eventful offseason this past summer, as they each traveled overseas to compete in the U23 World Championships in Pontevedra, Spain. Grad student Michial Foy competed at 86-kilograms in the Greco-Roman U23 World Championships after going 5-1 at the World Team Trials to punch his ticket to Spain. Aaron competed in the freestyle division at U23s, going 1-2 to place fifth at 61-kilograms. He earned his spot after going 7-0 in the World Team Trials, defeating fellow Gopher teammate Jake Gliva in straight matches in the 61-kilogram best-of-three finals. Now into the folkstyle season, both have found their winning ways, as Nagao continues to climb the ranks at 133 pounds with an undefeated start, while Foy already has earned two ranked victories at his new weight of 184 pounds.
