Game Week Media Schedule

New Mexico Media Junket
In the fall, the New Mexico Media Luncheons return on Tuesday (let us all rejoice), starting at noon. Coach Jason Eck is available after the other fall sport coaches (Coach Eck will go last). Audio and video clips are available from the UNM communications office and also at www.golobos.com. The press conferences are also available on GoLobos.com by LoboTV about an hour after they happen. Please note that the Mountain West no longer conducts a football coaches teleconference. The junket is on the third floor of the Tow Diehm Football Complex.

Jason Eck Interview Opportunities
Coach Eck is available after practice and during game week. After road games, Coach Eck will be available via ZOOM (links will be sent to participating media).

New Mexico Player Interview Opportunities
The UNM athletics communications office will assist in arranging all student-athlete interviews. In the fall, the main time for interviews is after practice. Interviews will be on Tuesday and Wednesday, with Wednesday being the last day for player interviews. For extended interviews, please get in touch with the Communications Office to arrange a more convenient time. Players are not off-limits unless they have done something that would cause them to be off-limits. Monday interviews can be arranged as long as the student-athletes aren't in class and we know ahead of time. If we practice on Mondays, we will have players available after that practice as well. Our goal is to secure the interviews you need, not to say no. Please ask, and we will do our best to make it happen.

Postgame: The UNM locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the weight room in the Tow Diehm football building and outside the locker room for road games. UNM communications will have Coach Eck and two players address the media, and other requested players will be available for one-on-one interviews. The student-athletes will be available after the press conferences for one-on-one opportunities. For road games, we will have ZOOM press conferences. For UNM media not in the stadium, Zoom links will be sent on the day of the game. There is no ZOOM for the Rate Bowl.

Wireless in the Press Box
The press box at University Stadium has WiFi capability. Access is free, but users requiring access must have their own internal or external wireless cards. Phone lines are available. The new WiFi installed in 2019 has worked great, but we finally updated the password. I asked Charley Bickell, our intern, and he knows how to do that better than I do, so you will need to check the password on the gameday placesetting card.

www.collegepressbox.com
CollegePressBox.com provides the media with a one-stop access to updated contact information, media guides, game books, photos, quotes, links, and more for each of the league's schools and the Mountain West office. The MW office will provide log-in information to accredited media, or you can apply for a password by sending an email to password@collegepressbox.com.

Live Stats
The University of New Mexico will utilize StatBroadcast in 2025, and Geoff Grammer may once again take joy in it. Media members for any game (home/road/neutral/the ISS) can visit www.golobos.com/fbstats.

Ticket Information
- online at www.golobos.com/tickets
- by calling 925-5858 or toll-free at 800-955-HOWL.
- Lobo Ticket Office inside the Pit at the NW corner of University & Cesar Chavez boulevards from 8:30-5 Monday-Friday
- UNM Bookstore (Bookstore Ticket Office is closed on Mondays). For more information, call the New Mexico Athletics Ticket Office at (505) 925-5626 or 1-800-955-HOWL (4695). Call (505) 925-5500 to purchase group tickets and ask to speak with a customer service representative.

On Game Day, the northeast box office at University Stadium opens four hours before kickoff, and the Lobo Ticket Office at University Arena opens three hours before game time. The Northwest University Stadium box office opens 90 minutes before kickoff.

Lobo Talk & The Lobo Coaches Show
In the fall, host Robert Portnoy and coach Jason Eck discuss UNM football at Lobo Talk on Tuesdays. The show airs from 7–8 pm at The Sports Bar/Book at Sandia Resort and Casino. Fans can call 866-350-4309 to ask Coach Eck a question. Also in the fall, the Lobo Coaches Show will be produced by LoboTV and air on Wednesdays at 6:30 pm on KOB.

Game Credentials
Regular UNM media will receive game credentials before the start of the season. Media members with season credentials will also receive a parking pass for the Baseball East lot, located across from the stadium.

Visiting team media should request single-game credentials through their team's media relations office. Media passes work as parking passes for the Baseball South lots.

Media members not directly associated with a team can submit requests via our media request link, located near the top of the football page on GoLobos.com.

For media members picking up credentials at the will-call location without parking passes, it is located in the Northeast corner of the stadium, near Gates 7 or 8. With parking passes, credentials will be located at the University Drive entrance to the Baseball South lot, where you will meet the parking attendant. This should allow you to get your credential without having to wait in line or deal with parking on the north side of the stadium.

Parking
Media parking is located across and just south of the stadium off University Drive. Media members can park in the Baseball East lot, which is located next to University Drive. The Baseball East lot entrance is off University Drive south, directly across from the Stadium West lot entrance, and it's the driveway between Santa Ana Star Field and the Davalos Practice Center.

Visiting Radio
The visiting radio booth is located on the fourth level of the main press box, next to the main media area.

The Opening List

It's December, and we are still typing away and having fun. Look at us.

Jason Eck did something no other Lobo head coach has ever done, and that is get the Lobos into a bowl game in his first season. Of course, you needed six wins (well, five for a couple of teams ... thanks, Iowa State, Kansas State, and Notre Dame), but Eck picked up nine wins, the most ever for a first-year Lobo head coach. But right now, we are focusing on the bowls.

Of the coaches who started at their schools in 2025, only Dan Mullen (UNLV) and Jerry Mack (Kennesaw State) have won more games, with 10 each. Mullen would have won 11 except for that 40-35 loss that the Lobos handed UNLV on November 1.

All told, 11 coaches led their teams to bowl games in their first year, and eight of them had winning records. Of those eight, five of them missed bowl games a year ago, and Eck is in that group. The coaches who led their teams to a bowl in year one are the subject of a very exclusive Opening List.

Dan Mullen, UNLV*	10-2	Frisco
Jerry Mack, Kennesaw State	10-3	Myrtle Beach
Jason Eck, New Mexico	9-3	Rate
Matt Entz, Fresno State*	8-4	Arizona
Jake Dickert, Wake Forest	8-4	Duke's Mayo
Charles Kelly, Jacksonville State*	8-5	Salute to Vets
Matt Drinkall, Central Michigan	7-5	GameAbove
Willie Simmons, FIU	7-5	First Responder
Bronco Mendenhall, Utah State	6-6	Famous Potato
Dowell Loggains, App State	5-7	Birmingham
Scott Abell, Rice	5-7	Armed Forces

Spence Nowinsky's Glasses Need an Instagram Page

Defensive Coordinator Spence Nowinsky is sort of an everyman. He cooks on a Blackstone, and at times, in the immortal words of Spock in Star Trek IV: The Voyage Home, he uses colorful metaphors.

When UNM was on CBS Sports Network during the Air Force game, Nowinsky's defense was featured heavily, along with his color-coordinated reading glasses, which were cherry red, just like UNM's jerseys. Nowinsky has also worn Lobo silver, and maybe he breaks out turquoise for the Rate Bowl. Who knows.

What we do know is that the Lobo defense has been terrific against the run in 2025. Four times this season, UNM allowed double-digit rushing yards, including a season-low by Colorado State, which had just 13 yards on November 15. That's 13 yards more than Rate Bowl communications directors Scott Leightman and Marena Sever got, and they don't play football.

Additionally, New Mexico State had just 15 yards, Nevada had just 55, and UNLV had 88. The last time UNM held four opponents to under 90 yards rushing in a season was in 2012, when UNM also achieved this feat four times (Wyoming 55, Texas State 32, New Mexico State 78, Southern 78). The last time UNM did it five times was in 2006.

New Mexico features the most improved rushing defense in the nation. Don't believe me? Check out this brick wall of a top-10 list.

Jack Layne Can Do Something Funny

In 1982, David Osborn started all 11 games in his only season as a starting quarterback, going 10-1. That's the most wins in a season by a starting quarterback, and at the Rate Bowl, junior quarterback Jack Layne has a shot at his 10th win of the season.

While that would tie Osborn for the most wins in a season, Layne has another year left, meaning he will start climbing the career wins list next year.

We're Going Streaking Through the Quad

New Mexico has won six straight games, and they are certainly streaking right now. The Lobos have a chance for seven straight wins, so here is the lowdown on what the streak represents.

The six straight wins within a season are the most since winning the first six games of the 1997 season.

If UNM gets a seventh win, UNM will have its first seven-game winning streak since winning the final game of the 1996 season before those six to start 1997. It would be the longest in-season winning streak since ... ever. That's right, UNM has never won seven straight games within a single season (the squad has quite a few six-game streaks).

It Just Means More?

In doing some bowl record book research (of note, there is now a bowl record book), we came across a truly wild tale involving SEC football, Paul "Bear" Bryant, World War II, and a general lack of rules in the 1940s.

denotes Defensive TD

The Lobo record for touchdown receptions in a bowl game is two, set once on January 1, 1946, in the Sun Bowl, by Dick Moser. Except Dick Moser didn't exist. The two touchdowns were caught by William Moseley. Moseley played and lettered at Kentucky in 1942 before joining the Air Force as a gunner. After World War II ended, Moseley was stationed at Kirtland Air Force Base in 1945 and decided to take classes at UNM and play football. The catch was that by doing that, he would no longer be eligible at Kentucky. So, when he was asked his name by a reporter on the first day, he said his name, which was misheard as "Dick Moser". Moseley went with it, and he was Dick Moser for the year.

"Moser" caught touchdown passes of 37 and 47 yards in the 1946 Sun Bowl, a record that stood for a ridiculous 63 years, until 2009. Moseley, his service time up, opted to return to Kentucky, lettering in 1946 and 1947 for coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, and he was a captain for the Kentucky Wildcats in 1947 when he helped the Wildcats to their first bowl victory, 24-14 over Villanova in the Great Lakes Bowl.

Moseley went on to become a high school football coach in Alabama at Sidney Lanier High School, where his quarterback was Bart Starr, the eventual Super Bowl I and II MVP. Moseley finally admitted the ruse in a UNM Alumni Magazine article in 2007. Interestingly, the 1998 media guide has William Moseley listed in the letterwinners section, but the recap of the Sun Bowl has Bill Moser with the two touchdown catches (not ever Dick Moser). However, after the Alumni Magazine article came out, the recaps and records were fixed to reflect that William Moseley, and not Dick Moser, was the Lobo who led the team to its first bowl win, 34-24, over Denver in the Sun Bowl, doing that two seasons before leading Kentucky to its first bowl victory. Fun fact, we have the original media guide where the name Bill Moser is crossed out in red pen and "Williams Moseley" is written in red with an arrow. Absolutely amazing stuff.

So yeah, we need someone to tie that record because that is WILD. The SEC ... it just means more.

Remember the Crazy Titanic Lady?

If you ever want to go down a wild YouTube rabbit hole, go there and search "Titanic Alternate Ending". Trust me ... it's bonkers, and it centers around Rose Dewitt Bukater. There is a scene in the movie where she says, "It's been 84 years." Well, for this note, imagine elderly Rose saying, "It's been 86 years".

Figuring UNM was going to be in the New Mexico Bowl, we had a hold on this, but now that UNM is playing in Phoenix, we can officially go with it. The Lobos went a perfect 6-0 at home, the first undefeated home season since 1963. But that season was only five home games. The 6-0 home season was the first 6-0 home season since 1939 under Ted Shipkey (not 1934 as we originally thought). Overall, it was the 11th undefeated home season, but just the fourth at 6-0. Two of the undefeated seasons were 1-0 seasons in which that was the only game, in 1904 and 1907.

Overtime Stat

UNM's all-time record in overtime after beating San Diego State 23-17 in the 2025 regular season finale. UNM is 3-3 on the road, 3-3 at home, and 3-5 in single OT.

Jason Eck Is No. 1

Out of UNM's 34 head coaches, only one, Jason Eck, will coach his team in a bowl game in year one. Eck also has the most wins ever by a first-year Lobo head coach, surpassing Gwinn Henry, and yes, that is spelled correctly. Gwinn Henry is the most famous person with the first name Gwinn in history, primarily because he is listed on Wikipedia as the only notable person with that name. It is he who went 8-1 in 1934.

What do Gwinn Henry and Jason Eck have in common? Amazingly, both were 47 years old when they became head coach of the Lobos. Henry started his career at Howard Payne and then coached the College of Emporia (then known as the Fighting Presbyterians), Missouri, UNM, and finally Kansas, compiling a 100-78-16 record over 23 years. Fun fact, Henry's first season as head coach at Howard Payne in 1912 is considered the first season on modern college football as it marked the first year for the following rules: four downs instead of three, six points for a touchdown instead of five, a 100-yard field instead of 110 yards, with 10-yard end zones instead of whatever a team wanted, and kickoffs from the 40 instead of the 50.

After his time at Kansas, Gwinn Henry became a successful real estate agent in Albuquerque from 1943 until he passed in 1955. If Jason Eck were selling houses, Albuquerque would be buying ... just saying.

Weird Neutral Site Stat of the Day

That's the number of consecutive neutral site wins that New Mexico has, which is tied for the 12th-longest streak in the FBS. Both of those wins were in 2020 when UNM played its "home games" in Las Vegas at Sam Boyd Stadium. The No. 1 team for consecutive neutral-site wins is Minnesota with 7.

It's Been a While (National Poll Edition)

One of the things we type for teams is a national ranking, and sometimes, we type an "RV" for receiving votes. We never type that for UNM.

Until now. Just call it the Jason Eck Effect. Or the Jason Eff-ECK-t. There, that's better.

First, the history of Eck. When he got to Idaho, the program had had only two winning seasons in the previous 22 years and had won 15 games in the previous four seasons. In his three seasons, Eck led Idaho to the postseason each year, and in all three, the Vandals finished nationally ranked. In 2022, they finished No. 18. In 2023, they finished No. 8, and in 2024, they finished No. 7. New Mexico has won 16 games in the previous five seasons, but this year the Lobos have nine wins, and Eck is again in the postseason.

But, after a sixth straight win and tying for first place, the Lobos got 20 points in the Associated Press poll to sit as the fifth team in the "others receiving votes" section. It marked the most points for UNM in the national poll since December 1, 1997, when UNM got 26 points and was the first team outside of the poll. In the final poll of 1997, UNM got six points.

From that point until December 1, 2025, UNM got no votes. None. Not one. The Lobos, who have never been ranked in the AP Poll, are currently the fourth team listed in the "others receiving votes" section with 21 points. With a win, UNM under Eck could really do something that, at the start of the year, was unthinkable: get ranked for the first time in school history.

Scoring Is Fun

2024 was a good year for UNM, as it set a record for total offense per game at 484.5 yards. However, the name of the game is scoring points, and the Lobo offense is doing just fine in that department as well. Last year's squad scored 402 points and averaged 33.5 points per game, which was second and third, respectively, on the all-time list.

While UNM will not land inside the top-10 for scoring average unless the Lobos score 56, which is highly unlikely, the Lobos are sitting at 335 points and need just six points to break into the top-10 all-time for UNM single-season points. UNM is on pace for over 368 points over 13 games, which would be the ninth-most in school history.

Bowl Game Stat of the Day

That's the number of field goals all-time for UNM in bowl games. The Lobos didn't hit a field goal until the 2006 New Mexico Bowl, and if Luke Drzewiecki hits a field goal, it would be the first field goal in a bowl game for UNM outside the state of New Mexico.

In a Related Note, UNM is Also 9-0 When Scoring More Points

For most teams, there are significant clues to the formula for success. You hear coaches talk about it all the time, but after 12 games for New Mexico, some fundamental trends sense.

Lobo Rushing Yards:
This one makes the most sense, but the Lobos are 9-0 this season when rushing for at least 100 yards, and 0-3 when not.

UNM Interceptions Thrown:
Also, it makes a lot of sense: the Lobos are 9-0 this season, when they don't throw two or more interceptions, they are 0-3 when they do.

Opponent Rushing Yards:
This makes sense again, but UNM is 8-1 when allowing fewer than 152 rushing yards, and 0-3 when allowing more than that. In fact, whichever team wins the rushing battle is 8-1, and the loser of the rushing battle is 0-3. The outlier for both was San Diego State.

The Silly Defensive Stat of the Day

That's the number of interceptions for Austin Brawley, which is tied for the third-most interceptions for Lobo over the past 16 seasons, as only Jerrick Reed II (4, 2020) and Cranston Jones (4, 2015) have more. The kicker is that Brawley has only played in four games. Among the 100-plus players in the FBS with at least three interceptions, the fewest games played after Brawley's four is nine.

Stat You Wouldn't Think Stat of the Day

That's the number of games in which the Lobos have allowed 20 points or fewer in a game this season, exactly half of the games. It's the most games allowing 20 or fewer since doing it six times in 2007. The last time UNM had more than six such games was in 2004, when the Lobos had seven in 12 games.

Playing the Percentages

Luke Drzewiecki was named Honorable Mention All-Mountain West, but he's got a pretty good argument for being at least second team. Drzewiecki has missed one kick all year, and he is currently tied for fourth nationally in field goal percentage.

	Tyler Robles, Texas St. (Sun Belt)	So.	5-7	K	12	19	21	0.905

Among all kickers with at least 15 made field goals, only Vladimir Borombozin has a better percentage at UNM than Drzewiecki, and Luke can tie him with a 2-for-2 day.

Getting Up There

The single-season record for wins for UNM is 10. The Lobos have done that once, in 1982. Here are the top seasons

Wins	Seasons	Season (Record)
10	1	1982 (10-1)
9	5	2025 (9-3), 2016 (9-4), 2007 (9-4), 1997 (9-4), 1964 (9-2)

UNM vs. Ranked Teams

New Mexico is 7-62 all-time against ranked opponents dating back to the 1940 season. UNM is 5-26 at home vs. ranked opponents, 2-35 on the road and 0-1 on neutral fields. UNM's last win over a ranked opponent was on November 16, 2024 when the Lobos won over No. 18 Washington State 38-35. UNM's last win over a top 10 program was against Utah, a 23-21 win on November 5, 1994. UNM is 1-18 all-time against top-10 teams and 0-5 vs. top-five teams. UNM had lost 26 straight to ranked foes until the Wazzu win.

UNM's last road win over a ranked team was October 25, 2003 when UNM beat No. 23 Utah 47-35 in Salt Lake City. UNM's only other road win over a ranked opponent was on the same date in 1975, a 44-34 win over No. 17 Arizona. That win is the highest-ranked opponent UNM has beaten on the road.

An Omnipresent Tattoo

Daniel Hughes got a Ray Guy tattoo on him (among the 100 or so) because his goal is to win the Ray Guy Award. Well, the Lobo punter made a run at it. Just three weeks after getting on the Ray Guy Watch List, he was named one of 10 punters named as semifinalists for the Ray Guy Award.

Hughes has quite a story. He played professional Aussie Rules (that's Australian Rules Football) with the Northern Bullants in the VFL. Now, you are more than welcome to look up what a Bull Ant looks like, but know it's an ant from Australia that can grow to an inch in length, it has tremendous vision (unlike basically any other ant in the world), and they are very aggressive and are known to sting humans. Also, Australia is great, but the weird critters down there can stay down there.

Hughes, after his turn with the Bull Ants, opened his own successful construction business, but decided to give American Football a shot. With that, he sold the company, had some adventurous life experiences typical of Australians (such as bungee jumping and whitewater rafting—basically, things you'd see in a Tom Cruise movie), and moved to America.

He was a very late addition to the Lobo roster, and he has been a revelation. Hughes has punted only 37 times and has a 45.9-yard average. He has had seven punts of 53 yards or more, one of those in seven of the 11 games he has punted in. He has punted twice in a game, and once didn't punt at all.

So far this season, his 45.9-yard average would rank 15th nationally if he had enough attempts. He would have to punt seven times against Minnesota to qualify for the national stats.

UNM's net punting for the season is 43.6, as Hughes has two touchbacks (on a 60 and a 50-yard punt) and has allowed just 55 return yards all season. That 43.6 yards of net punting is good for sixth nationally in the FBS. The UNM record for net punting was in 2019 when the Lobos, with Aussie Tyson Dyer doing the punting, averaged 42.1 yards per punt. Hughes' 45.9 average would be the third-best in school history for a single season, behind current Cleveland Browns punter Corey Bojorquez and fellow Aussie Tyson Dyer.

Again, Two Seasons ... Never Had a Pass Thrown to Him

Watching Dorian Thomas play tight end is really fun. It also makes us wonder how he managed to play two seasons in college, tallying only three games and one snap on offense. That's right, he had one snap on offense in his entire career before coming to New Mexico.

For the year, Thomas has 53 receptions and four touchdowns (and a two-point conversion catch), four catches behind teammate Keagan Johnson. Thomas, in the last game, broke UNM's record for catches by a tight end.

About All Those Receptions

Thomas currently ranks fourth among all FBS tight ends, and overall, he is tied for 88th with 4.4 receptions per game (his teammate Keagan Johnson is tied for 40th at 5.2 catches per game.

The Frank Hates Updating Stat of the Day

5,910

That's the number of days since UNM's last blocked punt (October 31, 2009, to December 26, 2025). The Lobos have the longest streak in the FBS. Overall, opponents have punted 915 consecutive times without a Lobo block. The next longest streak? It belongs to Tulane, which last blocked a punt on November 26, 2016. Tulane and UTEP actually were together for the second-longest stretch, but UTEP blocked a punt this season to get off the list, its first blocked punt in nine years.

The "Punter USED to be the MVP" Stat of the Day

That's the number of punts per game attempted by UNM through 12 games. Over a 13-game season, that's 39 punts.

The fewest punts per game in a season is 3.42, last year, when UNM punted 41 times in 12 games. It is very possible that UNM's punt totals for the last two seasons will be fewer than the 83 in 2021, when UNM was last in the nation in offense, or the 82 in 2022, when they were last too.

Series History vs. Minnesota

This is easy. The two teams have never played each other. UNM is 1-1 this season against the Big Ten, and overall, the Lobos are 1-6 all-time against the current configuration of Big Ten.

The Best Football Players are Smart Football Players

New Mexico has set several departmental academic records over the last few seasons. Still, whenever a coach changes, administrators worry about the impact on academics. Couple that fear with the worry that you never quite know how the academics will work with transfers, and the Spring of 2025 had the makings of trouble: a new coaching staff and more than half the group in spring ball being newcomers and transfers.

But that's Jason Eck in charge of things, and turned out there was no reason at all to worry.

All New Mexico did in the spring was turn in a program-record GPA of 3.36, which marked a third straight 3.0 or better. However, this GPA was so high that it made Lobo Football the most improved men's team in the department, with a GPA improvement from fall to spring.

First Team All-Scrabble

One of UNM's five starters returning from last year was kicker Luke Drzewiecki, who could be First Team All-Scrabble with a 29-point last name (and that's not counting the 50-point bingo for using all your letters). Drzewiecki started his career in 2022 as the backup kicker. He took over in the third game of the 2022 season against UTEP, but went just 1-for-3 and reverted to being the backup kicker. He then moved back into the top kicking spot in game seven of the season, and he has been UNM's kicker ever since. In that game against New Mexico State, Drzewiecki hit the first of seven straight field goals.

Despite being the starting kicker since midway through the 2022 season, Drzewiecki was a walk-on through the 2024 season. However, enter the people's coach, Jason Eck. Eck loved the discipline and leadership shown by Drzewiecki throughout the 2025 spring season, and Drzewiecki excelled throughout camp. After the Spring Game, Eck awarded the special teams hammer to Drzewiecki, announcing to the team that he was now on scholarship. The celebration concluded with Drzewiecki being carried off the field by his teammates.

It's fitting that he is on scholarship, as Drzewiecki is the all-time leader in career extra points, and more importantly, he is the all-time leader in kick-scoring at New Mexico. He's also second in career field goals.

He has was named Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Week three times in November, and he is second in the league in field goal percentage.

James Laubstein, Nevell Brown, Israel "Mook" Mukwiza, Isaiah Sillemon, James Bailey, RJ Adams, Keyshawn James-Newby, Gabriel Lopez, Darren Agu, Brian Booker, Dimitri Johnson, Abraham Williams, Albert Nunes, Tavian Combs, and Okiki Olorunfunmi all graduated prior to the season.

Special Teams Stat of the Day

30

That's the number of seasons that UNM has had both a punt return for a touchdown and a kickoff return for a touchdown in the same season.

This year, Damon Bankston has a 100-yard kickoff return, and D.J. McKinney has a 49-yard punt return for a touchdown.

The last time UNM pulled off that feat (and we believe it's the only other time) was in 1996.

Layne Change

Against San Diego State, Jack Layne was 14-for-25 with 127 yards and a touchdown, his 13th on the season. Overall, through 12 games, Layne has a completion percentage of 65.9, and his quarterback efficiency rating is 140.8, both of which would get him on the single-season top 10 lists. While the efficiency rating would be good for fourth, his completion percentage would absolutely obliterate the previous single-season record of 62.3% by Kole McKamey in 2005. As long as Layne completes 10% of his passes in the bowl game, he will set the single-season record, and when you look at the number of attempts, his 65.9 mark is light years ahead of Donovan Porterie's .584 for the best percentage with a minimum of 300 attempts.

An Eck of a Game (Again) for Jaxton

Jaxton Eck led UNM in tackles against San Diego State, marking the ninth time in 12 games that Eck led the team in tackles in a game. Eck now has 126 tackles, and Tavian Combs is next with 67. Listen, having a linebacker with almost double the tackles of a safety leading the team is way better than previous years.

The Unstoppable Force vs. the Immovable Object

What makes bowls fun is the differences in the teams, and this might be the most interesting difference. New Mexico and Head Coach Jason Eck haven't met a fourth down they didn't like, going for it 30 times (the 30th-most in the FBS), converting 20 of them (tied for 11th), with a 66.7% mark that is tied for 16th.

Minnesota barely faces one a game. No team has seen fewer fourth-down attempts than the Minnesota Golden Gophers, who faced 13 fourth downs, the fewest in the nation. Opponents have converted eight of them, and that 61.5% mark is tied for 105th nationally.

Like Father, Like Son (Part I, James-Newby Edition)

Keyshawn James-Newby was named First Team All-Mountain West in 2025 after earning First Team All-Big Sky last year for Idaho. He is just taking after dear old dad. His father, Ernie James, was named First Team All-Big Sky in 2002 and 2004 as a corner, and Second Team All-Big Sky as a safety in 2003 at Idaho State.

Ernie actually missed a few days of camp in 2002 to be there for Keyshawn's birth. The odd piece of this is that Frank Mercogliano, the UNM associate A.D. for communications and the football media contact for Keyshawn, was the assistant A.D. for media relations and the football media contact for his father, Ernie, during those years.

Captains

Head coach Jason Eck announced UNM's 2025 captains in mid-August, and for the season, the Lobos will have six captains, four on defense and two on offense.

2 - Jack Layne
Quarterback

78 - Richard Pearce
Offensive Line

1 - Keyshawn James-Newby
Defensive End

6 - Jaxton Eck
Linebacker

9 - Gabe Lopez
Defensive Tackle

21 - Austin Brawley
Safety

Like Father, Like Son (Part II, Eck Edition)

Jason Eck was named the Mountain West Coach of the Year, and Jaxton Eck was named the Mountain West Co-Defensive Player of the Year to highlight a host of honors for New Mexico. Other first team honors went to defensive end Keyshawn James-Newby, tight end Dorian Thomas, kick returner Damon Bankston, and Eck at linebacker.

The Ecks are the first father-son duo to both earn major postseason conference awards in Mountain West history. They are the first pair to do so in Division I since 2022, when Deion Sanders was the SWAC Coach of the Year and Shadeur Sanders was the SWAC Offensive Player of the Year at Jackson State. They are the first FBS father-son duo to do it since Rick Stockstill of Middle Tennessee State was the Conference USA Coach of the Year and his son Brent was the CUSA Player of the Year as a quarterback in 2018.

The only other time it is believed to have happened in Division I was in 1985, when Fresno State coach Jim Sweeney was the PCAA Coach of the Year, and his son Kevin was the Offensive Player of the Year as a quarterback. The Ecks are believed to be the first father-son duo to have the Coach of the Year/Defensive Player of the Year combo.

Fun Defensive Stat of the Day

33 & 77

That's the number of sacks and TFLs for the Lobos. It's the most sacks for UNM since the 2005 team had 36. Should UNM get four more, it would be the most since the 2004 team had 42 sacks.

UNM's 6.08 TFLs per game leads the Mountain West, ahead of Boise State with 5.92.

Reminder: No One is Really Born in Florida...

If it feels like the United Nations is interested in Lobo Football, well, they should be. Everyone should be, but the U.N. should be even more so. The Lobos have players who hail from seven countries. While the most represented country is the good ol' USA, UNM also has student-athletes from Japan (Rei Iwai), Mexico (Michael Buckley), Germany (Max Lanztsch), France (Malik Aliane), England (Darren Agu), and Australia (Daniel Hughes)

New Mexico is one country ahead of Boise State and Temple, which have players from six countries.

School	No.	Countries Represented
New Mexico	7	(U.S., Canada, Mexico, Germany, France, Japan, England, Australia)
Boise State	6	(U.S., Australia, Canada, Ireland, Germany, The Netherlands)
Temple	6	(U.S., Australia, Canada, England, Germany, Tonga)
Troy	5	(U.S., Germany, New Zealand, Australia, Ireland)
Old Dominion	5	(U.S., Canada, The Netherlands, Estonia, Egypt)
Hawai'i	5	(U.S., Australia, Canada, Japan, Samoa, American Samoa*)

*American Samoa is not a country, but the southernmost territory of the United States, and it is the only inhabited territory of the U.S. south of the equator (Jarvis Island, all 1.7 square miles of it, is the other).

Again with the Old Guy?

Last season, New Mexico's Colby Brewer was the oldest position player in the FBS, and the fourth-oldest player in the FBS overall. Brewer is out of football, so that seemingly was the end of UNM having a player on an "oldest player in the FBS" list. But, as Bobby Finn would say, teaching English, "NOOOOOO"

New Mexico needed more than one punter (OK, every team needs more than one, but New Mexico only had Charles Steinkamp). Enter Daniel Hughes, who joined the Lobos right before the start of Fall camp. Hughes, a former Australian Rules Football player who played for the Northern BullAnts of the VFL, came to UNM after a year at San Francisco City College. Hughes, who is very active on social media, is the fifth-oldest player in college football and the fourth-oldest punter (Monte Harrison, a former Miami Marlin, is the oldest position player).

Here are the 10 oldest players in the FBS this season.

Pl.	Age	Name	School	Class	Position	DOB
1.	30	Jack Murley	Southern Miss	Fr.	Punter	4/23/95
2.	30	Monte Harrison	Arkansas	So.	Wide Receiver	8/10/95

That's the number of players who have thrown and completed a pass, despite UNM starting just one quarterback all season. Along with Jack Layne, James Laubstein, D.J. McKinney, Michael Buckley, and Jaxton Eck have completed passes.

I read about it in Redbook. And I tell you what, it really works, too.

We Are Marshall is a great movie that tells the story of how the town of Huntington, West Virginia, and Marshall University bounced back after the horrific plane crash in 1970 on the way back from a road game.

In the movie, head coach Jack Lengyel meets with his three players that he has, he uses an odd technique to remember their name, saying "I read about it in Redbook. And I tell you what, it really works, too.", but later during practice, he mentions that Redbook will only get him so far, and so they put names on helmets.

Head coach Jason Eck didn't need to do all that. However, he could have used Lyngel's Redbook quote, as the Lobos are still likely learning everyone's name and introducing themselves to each other. The Lobos under Jason Eck had just 34 players return from the 2024 season. That means UNM has to have a lot of new players, and boy, is that ever true. The Lobos have the fewest returning players in the FBS, the most four-year transfers, and the most total newcomers.

Rio Grande Rivalry Coaching Stat

Consecutive UNM coaches to win their initial Rio Grande Rivalry games as Jason Eck added his name to the list. Bronco Mendenhall won his 50-40 in Las Cruces, Bob Davie won his 27-14 in Las Cruces in 2012, and Danny Gonzales won his 34-25 in 2021 to give UNM four in a row. Prior to that, five straight Lobo coaches lost their initial Rio Grande Rivalry games (in order, Mike Sheppard 1987, Dennis Franchione 1992, Rocky Long 1998, Mike Locksley 2009, George Barlow 2011). Before Davie won in 2012, the last time a Lobo coach won his Rio Grande Rivalry debut game was Joe Lee Dunn in 1983.

Jason Eck, Mr. Consistency?

This is weird, but Jason Eck's first season as a head coach was in 2022, and his Idaho Vandals went 6-2 in the Big Sky. In 2023, Idaho went 6-2 in the Big Sky. In 2024, his final season at Idaho, the Vandals went 6-2 in the Big Sky.

At UNM, in his first season with the Lobos, he started 0-2, but won six straight and went 6-2 in Mountain West play.

Just a Reminder

New Mexico was selected 11th in the Mountain West preseason poll, one point ahead of Nevada (UNM had 84, Nevada had 83).

Been A While, Part 4,642

It is a running joke around here about how many things have been accomplished this year that haven't happened in a while, and here is another good one. From 1999 to 2003, over the first five seasons of Mountain West football, a Lobo led the league in sacks three times. Brian Johnson had 9.5 in 2000, Gary Davis had 8.0 in 2001, and Daniel Kegler had 7.5 in 20003. No Lobo has led the league since, but UNM might end that streak, too. Keyshawn James-Newby led the Mountain West with 8.0 sacks, just a half-sack ahead of John Miller of Utah State and Jackie Johnson III for Hawai'i. Brett Karhu is tied for fourth with 7.0 sacks, and he is also in range of the league title for sacks.

Only Tavian Truly Remembers

Tavian Combs is the final Lobo Football player who can tell war stories about the 2020 COVID season, when New Mexico moved to Las Vegas, Nevada, to practice and play games due to COVID-19 restrictions in the state.

In all, UNM spent 43 days living at the Lake Las Vegas Spa and Resort, ironically the same hotel where Snookie and The Situation stayed for MTV's Jersey Shore reunion shows. UNM didn't have a weight room, but they did have several treadmills and ellipticals. However, only four could be in use at a time to avoid overloading the extra power brought in (and if you needed the community microwave in the adjoining team room, two of the four had to power down until the food was heated). At least the rooms had a balcony, but eating pregame meals on an abandoned casino floor was something to behold.

The fun part for Tavian is that 2020 doesn't count, as 2022 was a redshirt season following an injury, and 2024 was a medical redshirt season due to an injury that limited him to just seven snaps. That means he will play as a senior this season (technically his fourth consecutive season as an upperclassman) and then return after his waiver (which we know will be granted) and receive a seventh season and a third senior year.

Lobos in the NFL

Jason Sanders Miami Dolphins Kicker
Sanders is entering his eighth season with Miami after getting drafted in the seventh round by Miami. Over his first seven seasons he was 259-for-268 on extra points in his career and 187-for-221 on field goals, with a long of 57. He has hit 426 of 554 kickoffs for touchbacks. He was named to the PFWA 2018 All-Rookie Team and is Miami's all-time leader in field goal accuracy. He has seven game-winning field goals in the final two minutes and in overtime, and he also has a touchdown reception in his career. He led the NFL in field goals and points in 2020.

Corey Bojorquez Cleveland Browns Punter
Bojorquez is in his fourth season with Cleveland after one year with Green Bay and his first three with Buffalo. He spent the 2018 camp with New England after earning an invite to tryout camp and then getting signed to a free agent contract. He was snagged off waivers by Buffalo and started for three seasons. He then signed a free agent contract with the L.A. Rams, but was traded to Green Bay right before the 2021 season. He has played in 107 career games with a 47.3 career average. In 2020 Bojorquez led the NFL with a 50.8-yard average, just the fourth 50.0-yard average in NFL history. In 2021, his 82-yard punt was the longest in the NFL and his 84-yard punt in 2024 was the NFL's longest.

Jerrick Reed II Seattle Seahawks Safety
Reed is in his third season with the Seahawks after being drafted by the team in the sixth round in 2023. Entering 2025, has played in 15 career games with nine tackles, mostly seeing time as a special teams ace. He is currently on the practice squad

D'Angelo Ross Houston Texans Defensive Back
Ross is in his sixth season after signing a free agent contract with the Houston Texans. After two years on New England's practice squad, he was activated for New England's final game of the 2020 season and then played three games in 2021. In 2024 he saw action in 10 games in the regular season, starting two, as well as both Houston playoff games. Overall he has played in 26 NFL games with three starts, and has 19 tackles and two PBUs to his credit. In the 2024 Wild Card game vs. the L.A. Chargers, Ross scored his first career points on a two-point blocked extra point return.

Dylan Horton Houston Texans Defensive End
Horton is in his third season after being drafted in the fourth round by the Houston Texans. Horton, who played at UNM from 2018-19 before transferring to TCU, missed part of his rookie season with Stage IV Hodgkin lymphoma, which he completed treatment for in May of 2024, and he is active on the Texans roster.

Jacory Croskey-Merritt Washington Commanders Running Back
Croskey-Merritt is in his first season after being drafted by the Washington Commanders in the seventh round of the 2025 draft. Croskey-Merritt

Bayron Matos Indianapolis Colts Offensive Line
Matos is in his first year in the NFL and is on the Indianapolis practice squad. He originally was with Miami. Matos is a former Lobo basketball player and never did play football at UNM.

Tens Unit

A TENS Unit is used by athletic trainers to send electronic impulses to muscles to help reduce pain, and it treats conditions such as osteoarthritis, tendinitis, and fibromyalgia. It's also used by 55-year-olds who sleep on their arms and suddenly develop weird shoulder muscle pain, or so we hear.

The TENS unit is an acronym, much like the word laser, which actually stands for "Light Amplification by Stimulated Emission of Radiation". The TENS in the TENS unit stands for "Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulation". It doesn't mean 10. However, UNM is looking to use a TENS unit to send an electrical impulse to a streak that it wants to end.

The Lobos had one season with 10 wins in 1982. The Lobos, with a win, will break the streak of 43 straight seasons without a 10-win season, and only one other FBS program has a longer current streak.

From the Big Ten (naturally), the Purdue Boilermakers last had a 10-win season in 1979.

Pearce Gives Back

Richard Pearce and his wife have embraced Albuquerque, even as a transfer offensive lineman who came to the school in 2024. The community welcomed Pearce to the extent that he is the lone returning starter on offense for UNM this season. However, if you are only going to have one, get the guy who, as a team captain, loves his adopted community so much that he was willing to put his money where his mouth is. Literally.

Last year, during UNM's bye week, Pearce got the idea to donate some of his NIL to buy turkeys for needy families in Albuquerque. Now, we aren't saying Richard is ambitious, but he wanted to give away 100 turkeys, and well, he doesn't get THAT much NIL. So, he got some of his offensive linemates involved, and they jumped in, donating their NIL earnings or, in some cases, their own money to buy turkeys to give away for Thanksgiving.

And then came Lobo Nation. The call went out to help these guys raise money to purchase turkeys and meals, and in just 48 hours, the money poured in. Between the NIL money and donations from the Lobo fan base over 48 hours, the offensive line was able to purchase 200 frozen turkeys, along with enough sides (corn, green beans, mashed potatoes, and cornbread) to provide 200 complete meals. Then turkeys got donated to the group, along with bags to pack everything in, and the O-Line Turkey Drive was ready. The O-Line went to a few stores, armed with several pickup trucks and a whole lot of lifting power, and hit the wholesale stores, picking up turkeys, mashed potatoes, cornbread, and assorted vegetables. They might have stopped for a picture or 50 in the stores as well, as indeed the sight of a bunch of behemoths hauling shopping carts and pallets piqued the interest of even the casual shopper.

On Sunday, the players' day off, the O-Line gathered in the parking lot near the University Stadium press tower to meet fans and distribute turkeys and meals. With the added donation of more frozen turkeys and sides, they were able to help so many people have a memorable Thanksgiving. The final rundown of the drive, which featured cars lining up before 8 am for the 9 am start and continuing for over two hours, was the following:

*500 - bag donated by Sprouts for bagging everything
*278 - turkeys distributed by the offensive line
*210 - bags of fixings and sides distributed
*86 - total cardboard cases broken down
*37 - cars with fans that wanted pictures
*6 - fans walked to the turkey drive

Revisiting the Last Time UNM Played a Big 10 Opponent

The Lobos are 1-1 against the Big Ten this season, with a loss to No. 14 Michigan 34-17 and a win over UCLA 35-10. The irony, of course, is that both of those teams are now looking for coaches.

UNM's 35-10 opened some eyes around the country with its dominating performance over the Bruins. Entering that game, New Mexico had lost 21 straight Power-4 games since a 36-28 win over Arizona of the Pac-12 on September 13, 2008. UNM's last road win over a Power-4 opponent was also against Arizona, winning 29-27 in Tucson on September 15, 2007.

UNM's 10 points allowed in the game were the fewest allowed to a Power-4 team since September 14, 2002, when UNM defeated Baylor in Albuquerque 23-0. In 2024, the Lobos allowed 10 points in a quarter 26 times during the season (out of 48 quarters), let alone the 10 in the game against UCLA.

The win marked the largest margin of victory for a Mountain West team over a Big Ten team since September 7, 2002, when Utah defeated Indiana 40-13. The win was New Mexico's first ever against a Big Ten team. The win was the largest margin of victory in a road non-conference game for UNM, outside of games with New Mexico State since October 17, 1931, when the Lobos defeated New Mexico Military 25-0 in Roswell.

It was also the first and only game in Jason Eck's coaching career played on grass, and the Rate Bowl will be the second.

On This Date

Friday, December 26, is the 360th day of the year, with five days remaining in 2025. Never thought I'd type that one. Use them wisely, please.

While technically this could be every single day in December, December 26 is National Candy Cane Day, so let's hope the Rate Bowl spent money on the big versions. If you are happy UNM is in the Rate Bowl (and why wouldn't you be?), write a thank you note as it's National Thank You Note Day. Why this next one exists is beyond me, but it's National Whiners Day, presumably for the folks who didn't like their gifts.

This week is Kwanzaa, and it's the second day of the Twelve Days of Christmas. Also, as it is the fourth day after the Winter Solstice, December 26 is a part of Halcyon Days, which isn't a holiday, but a Greek Myth in which the seven days before and after the solstice feature unusually calm seas.

The Lobos have never played a game on December 26. Overall, in December, UNM is 10-14-1, making this the 26th game all-time in the month.

Jason Eck
Head Coach
Wisconsin, 1999
LaCrosse, Wisc.

Jason Eck

Jason Eck joined the Lobo Family in December of 2024 as head coach of the football program. He comes to the University of New Mexico with 26 years of experience at the FBS, FCS, and Division II levels, including 3 years as a head coach at the University of Idaho. He led the Idaho program to a national ranking and a FCS playoff berth in all three of his seasons there. Idaho increased its win total each season under Eck. In the 22 years before he arrived in Idaho, the Vandals totaled just two winning seasons.

Heading into 2024, Eck had to reload the Vandals after they lost over 80% of their offensive production to graduation or the transfer portal after the 2023 season. They reloaded in a big way, as Eck led Idaho to a 10-4 record and a second straight FCS Playoff quarterfinal appearance. The success came despite starting three quarterbacks throughout the season due to injuries.

After opening the season by putting a scare into then-No. 1 Oregon, losing just 24-14 in a game where Idaho trailed 17-14 late in the fourth quarter, Eck led the Vandals to a second straight Mountain West win, defeating Wyoming in Laramie 17-13. Three of Idaho's four losses on the season were to teams ranked #1 in the country at the time of the game.

In 2023, the Vandals improved to 9-4, again finishing 6-2 in the Big Sky, tying for second place. The Vandals played two FBS programs, falling to California 31-17 after taking a 17-0 lead and defeating Nevada 33-6 in Reno, allowing only two field goals as Idaho outgained the Wolf Pack 463-266. The Vandals went 4-2 against ranked opponents and advanced to the FCS Quarterfinals. Once again, the Vandals ranked in the Top 20 in a host of categories including passing efficiency (12th at 154.7), scoring offense (14th at 32.3), total defense (14th at 306.8), red zone offense (4th at 92.6%), net punting (11th at 40.1), punt returns (3rd at 18.4), kickoff returns (7th at 24.2), and time of possession (3rd at 33:48).

Two players, receiver Hayden Hatten and defensive back Marcus Harris, were both named All-Americans. For Hatten, it marked his second straight All-American nod.

In his first season as head coach in 2022, Eck led the Vandals to a 7-5 overall record and a 6-2 mark in the Big Sky Conference, finishing third. That season included wins over rival No. 3 Montana, a first for the program since 1999, and the team broke the 40-point mark five times. Two of the losses were to Washington State (24-17) and at Indiana (35-22). The team qualified for the postseason for the first time since playing in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in 2016, and for just the fourth time since 1995 when the program last played in the FCS Playoffs.

Eck's quarterback, Gevani McCoy, won the Jerry Rice Award, presented to the most outstanding freshman in the FCS, throwing for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns.

Idaho ranked in the Top 20 in the FCS in passing efficiency (5th at 168.1), scoring offense (13th at 35.9), fewest passing yards allowed (19th at 190.0), turnover margin (9th at +0.83), red zone offense (5th at 92.3%), punt returns (13th at 13.9), kickoff returns (13th at 24.1), and time of possession (2nd at 35:07).

Overall, in his three seasons with Idaho, Eck coached 16 First Team All-Big Sky players, 12 Second Team All-Big Sky players, four Third Team All-Big Sky players, and 16 Honorable Mention All-Big Sky players.

Before becoming Idaho's head coach, Eck spent six seasons with the South Dakota State Jackrabbits as offensive line coach and the final three as offensive coordinator. In 2019, he was named the American Football Coaches' Association FCS Assistant Coach of the Year.

At South Dakota State, he helped lead the Jackrabbits to four FCS Playoff semifinal appearances and a national championship game appearance in the spring 2021 season. In three years as the offensive coordinator at SDSU, Eck's teams averaged 32.5 points per game, including 37.5 in his final season in 2021. The Jackrabbits were eighth in scoring offense, seventh in team passing efficiency, and eighth in rushing offense behind the FCS's leading rusher, Pierre Strong.

In the 2021 spring season, freshman quarterback Mark Gronowski was the runner-up for the Jerry Rice Award as the FCS freshman of the year before being injured on the first series of the National Championship game. The Jackrabbits fell just 23-21 despite missing Gronowski.

The 2021 spring team showed off Eck's experience. The Jackrabbits were seventh in the FCS in rushing and fourth in the FCS for tackles for loss allowed, despite playing some of the most physical defenses in the country in the Missouri Valley Football Conference. Sophomore offensive tackle Garret Greenfield was a near-consensus All-America selection, and sophomore guard Mason McCormick also received All-America recognition.

During Eck's first season with the Jackrabbits in 2016, SDSU featured one of the most prolific offenses in the MVFC and the FCS, averaging 33.2 points and 437.5 yards of total offense per game. In league contests, SDSU ranked second out of 10 teams in allowing only 11 total sacks and ranking first in five different offensive categories.

Before his time at SDSU, Eck was the offensive line coach and run-game coordinator at Montana State in 2015. The Bobcats were 18th in the FCS for rushing offense and 23rd in the FCS for sacks allowed. MSU led FCS in yards per play during his one season in Bozeman.

He was the offensive coordinator for the record-setting offense at Minnesota State, Mankato, during back-to-back Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference championships in 2013 and 2014. He served as the offensive line coach in 2013 and added offensive coordinator duties in 2014 as the Mavericks advanced to the NCAA Division II championship game. The 2014 season saw Mankato finish 14th in Division II in rushing offense.

Eck has also served as an assistant coach at Western Illinois (2012), Hampton (2011), Ball State (2009-10), and Winona State (2007-08). He had a previous stop at the University of Idaho as an assistant coach from 2004 to 2006.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Eck played on the Badgers' 1998 Big Ten Championship team, which went on to win the Rose Bowl. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Wisconsin under head coach Barry Alvarez and later moved on to Colorado.

Eck and his wife Kimberly have five children: Quentin, Jaxton, Palmer, Maverick, and Lola. Kimberly was formerly on the Board of Directors of the American Football Coaches' Wives Association.

Game 1: 8/30/2025
Ann Arbor, Mich
Att: 110,648

ANN ARBOR, Mich. --- The University of New Mexico Lobos stood tall against the No. 14 Michigan Wolverines, trailing by 10 entering the fourth quarter before falling 34-17 in front of a crowd of 110,648, the 324th consecutive Michigan game with over 100,000 in attendance.

The game marked the debut of head coach Jason Eck, who was leading the Lobos after three seasons at Idaho. With the Vandals, he built a reputation for playing well against FBS teams and nationally-ranked opponents, and he continued that against one of the most storied programs in college football.

The Wolverines didn't put the game away until 6:54 left in the fourth quarter when UNM was down 34-17 and quarterback Jack Layne got hit as he threw, resulting in an interception at the Michigan 3-yard line. That was the third of three interceptions for the new Lobo quarterback, but Layne showed his grit, going 31-for-47 for 208 yards. The Lobos got a fourth-down stop in Lobo territory and drove to the Michigan three, but Layne was sacked as time ran out.

Down 24-10 at the break, the Lobos got the second half kickoff but couldn't muster anything, and Michigan was able to drive for a 39-yard field goal by Dominic Zvada to make it 27-10. The Lobos responded with a 15-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. The big play was a 20-yard diving catch right on the Michigan sideline by Michael Buckley to convert a third-and-9. UNM also converted a third-and-6 with a 9-yard catch by Thomas.

Layne and Thomas converted a final third down on third-and-goal as Layne hit Thomas in the back of the end zone to make it 27-17 with 1:34 left in the third. The Lobos then forced a three-and-out and took over at its 41-yard line, but UNM couldn't get a first down, and Layne threw deep and was intercepted on fourth down. Michigan then took over and went 80 yards in six plays, keyed by a 59-yard run by Justice Haynes to the 1-yard line. Haynes punched it from a yard out with 10:14 to go for a 34-17 lead that ended the scoring.

Things did not start well for New Mexico as Michigan scored touchdowns on its first two drives. The Wolverines took the opening kickoff and got an explosive play to finish off the opening drive as Haynes took a handoff, cut right, and went 56 yards for a touchdown. After a three-and-out, Michigan went right back to work. After a 53-yard punt that was muffed and nearly recovered by UNM, the Wolverines went 73 yards in 13 plays, capped off by a second Haynes touchdown, this one from six yards out.

UNM survived a potential disaster after a Jack Layne pass hit offensive lineman Richard Pearce's helmet, bounded in the air, and was picked off at the Lobo 17-yard line. The defense held and forced a field goal, making the score 17-0 in favor of Michigan.

However, after that, the offense got on track. Taking over at their own 12, the Lobos put together an 82-yard scoring drive. Jack Layne hit Dorian Thomas and Keagan Johnson for first downs, and then UNM converted a third down on a free play that turned into pass interference on Michigan.

The Lobos got inside the red zone but faced fourth-and-1 at the Michigan nine. Head coach Jason Eck and offensive coordinator Luke Schleusner dipped into the back of the playbook and got a 9-yard touchdown pass from a direct snap to D.J. McKinney that resulted in a touchdown catch by Dorian Thomas.

On the ensuing kickoff, Randolph Kpai forced a fumble that kicker Charles Steinkamp recovered, and the Lobos turned that into a 44-yard Luke Drzewiecki field goal.

Michigan made it 24-10 at the break after a two-minute drill resulted in a Bryce Underwood to Marlin Klein touchdown pass.

Game 2: 9/6/2025
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 17,639

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico got back-to-back touchdown drives in the fourth quarter, giving New Mexico a hard-fought 32-22 win over a pesky Idaho State squad, the same squad that nearly knocked off one of the conference favorites in UNLV in Week 0. The win was the first at UNM for head coach Jason Eck, who is now 27-14 all-time after three seasons at Idaho.

For the Lobos, UNM got a big game from Scottre Humphrey, who rushed for 141 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Defensively, Jaxton Eck was everywhere with 15 tackles, a forced fumble, and a quarterback hurry.

Up 14-10 at the half, Idaho State opened the second half with a surprise onside kick, which Aaron Smith recovered. However, UNM went four-and-out, missing a fourth-down conversion. Idaho State converted that into a Trajan Sinatra 56-yard field goal, tying for the longest field goal in University Stadium history.

The Lobos went three-and-out after that, and Idaho State got a third Sinatra field goal, this from 33 yards, and the Bengals took their first lead at 17-16 with 5:25 to go in the third. UNM answered right back, getting started with a 49-yard kickoff return from Damon Bankston to give UNM the ball in ISU territory. The Lobos couldn't punch it in on first-and-goal, but Luke Drzewiecki got the lead back with a 21-yard field goal.

Tytan Mason capped a 75-yard scoring drive for ISU as the Bengals retook the lead at 22-17, but they failed on the two-point conversion. Down 22-17 with 10:40 to go in the game, UNM's offense went to work. Jack Layne opened the go-ahead drive with a 22-yard completion to Dorian Thomas, and after a pass interference, UNM faced fourth-and-1 from the Bengal 29. Scottre Humphrey bullied his way for the yard that was needed, and Layne followed with a 25-yard completion to Thomas on a brilliant sideline snag.

Two plays later, Bankston scored, and Layne hit Thomas for the two-point conversion, and UNM led 25-22. After a three-and-out, the offense went to work. D.J. McKinney went for 17 to open the drive, and Bankston had 18 a few moments later.

Humphrey converted a third-and-2 to the 1-yard line, punching it in to give UNM a 32-22 lead. The team then forced a turnover on downs and kneeled out the clock.

UNM led 14-10 at the break after Layne opened the scoring with a 7-yard run. That capped a 98-yard touchdown drive. UNM's longest since a 99-yard touchdown drive against San Diego State last season.

After Sinatra's first field goal, Humphrey scored untouched from 61 yards out for a 14-3 lead. Idaho State got a Harsin touchdown pass to Michael Shulikov to make it 14-10 at the half.

Game 3: 9/12/2025
Pasadena, Calif.
Att: 31,163

PASADENA, Calif. --- New Mexico pounded the ball and it dominated on defense in a 35-10 win in the iconic Rose Bowl over UCLA, pushing the Lobos to 2-1 on the season and giving Head Coach Jason Eck a signature win in just his third game with the program.

The win marked the largest margin of victory for a Mountain West team over a Big Ten team since September 7, 2002, when Utah defeated Indiana 40-13. The win was New Mexico's first ever against a Big Ten team. The win is believed to be the largest margin of victory in a road non-conference game for UNM, outside of games with New Mexico State since October 17, 1931, when the Lobos defeated New Mexico Military 25-0 in Roswell.

The Lobos dominated the game pretty much from the outset, but the score was just 14-7 at the break. UNM had a chance in the third quarter inside the five-yard line to put more points on the board, but UNM's Deshaun Buchanan burst through the line on a fourth-and-1, securing a first down, but lost the ball, turning it over. UNM pitched a three-and-out and turned the ball over a second time in under a minute when Michael Buckley muffed a short punt.

However, it really didn't matter thanks to a massive defensive effort that saw UNM limit UCLA to just 326 yards and 10 points. UCLA took the ball after the muffed punt and converted it into a 51-yard field goal to make it 14-10, but the Lobos put on an offensive clinic after that.

Jack Layne orchestrated a time-consuming touchdown drive that took 7:52 off the clock, moving 75 yards in 13 plays. D.J. McKinney and Damon Bankston did the heavy lifting on most of the drive, with Bankston scoring from two yards out for a 21-10 lead.

UNM that forced a turnover on downs when Abraham Williams broke up a fourth-down pass. UNM turned that into a 28-10 lead with just 7:06 to go, Layne hit Bankston on a screen pass, and he somehow evaded everyone for a touchdown that clearly had the Lobo faithful in attendance in full roar.

UCLA drove into UNM territory to try to get back in it, but Tavian Combs picked off a pass after Jaxton Eck broke it up, giving UNM the ball again. The Lobos attempted to run the clock out, but the offensive line and the running game were too much for UCLA, and McKinney scored from three yards out after a 54-yard run by Bankston, and UNM had itself a 21-point fourth quarter and a 35-10 win.

After an exchange of punts to open the game, UCLA's coming after a David Murphy tackle for loss, the Lobos went to work, mainly on the ground, to open the scoring. Scottre Humphrey opened the drive from the UNM 35 with 36 yards on four straight runs. After McKinney converted a third-down run, the Lobos got a short pass to Dorian Thomas to set up UNM on first-and-goal.

After backup quarterback James Laubstein ran it to the 1-yard line, Humphrey pumped it in from a yard out behind a Jaymar Tasi block to give UNM a 7-0 lead. After a UCLA, the Lobos went to work again.

Keyed by a 43-yard run by Bankston to the 11-yard line of UCLA, the Lobos faced fourth-and-goal, and Jack Layne found Simon Mapa alone in the back of the end zone for a touchdown. The catch was Mapa's first of his career, and the ensuing Luke Drzewiecki extra point made it 14-0.

UCLA finally answered when Nico Iamaleava hit Titus Moklao-Atimalala for a 12-yard touchdown pass. That led to a wild finish to the half. The Lobos drove all the way to the UNLV three-yard line, but Layne was stuffed on fourth-and-1. That gave the Bruins the ball with just 1:09 to go. After getting to midfield and getting a favorable review to put one second on the clock at midfield, UCLA elected to run a draw play, which advanced all the way to the Lobo 20-yard line before true freshman CJ McBean made the stop to end the first half with UNM up 14-7.

Game 4: 9/27/2025
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 37,440

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico football team turned in a dominant second-half performance and a record-tying defensive effort to defeat rival New Mexico State 38-20 in the 15th edition of the Rio Grande Rivalry before a sell-out crowd of 37,440 fans Saturday afternoon at University Stadium.

The Lobos (3-1) outscored the Aggies 24-3 after halftime, fueled by a defense that tied the program's single-game record with nine sacks while limiting NMSU to just 15 rushing yards on 30 attempts.

Quarterback Jack Layne paced the offense, completing 23 of 30 passes for 303 yards and four touchdowns without an interception. Layne connected with Cade Keith, Shawn Miller, Dorian Thomas, and Scottre Humphrey for scores, while receiver Michael Buckley added a 41-yard touchdown strike to Keagan Johnson in the fourth quarter.

Johnson proved nearly unstoppable on offense, going for 135 yards on seven receptions. He had a pair of 40+ yard receptions, including his 41-yard touchdown grab. His reaching 48-yard catch in the third quarter set up UNM's go-ahead touchdown late in the third quarter.

That was the first of three straight touchdown drives that sealed the win for UNM as Layne threw for two and Buckley one in the run. Overall, UNM outscored New Mexico State 31-3 after trailing 17-7.

Trailing 17-14 at the break, the Lobos opened the third quarter with a Luke Drzewiecki 44-yard field goal to even the score. Layne's 24-yard touchdown pass to Thomas late in the period gave UNM its first lead, and the Lobos never looked back. The defense stifled NMSU throughout the second half, forcing four punts and a turnover on downs, while the offense added three more touchdowns to put the game out of reach.

The Lobos had the better of play in the first half, but trailed as the Aggies scored on an option pass from Donovan Faupel and on a 42-yard fumble return for Bernock Iya. Up 17-14, New Mexico State had drives in the second quarter that started at the Lobo 19-yard line and the Lobo 41-yard line, but neither resulted in points. A missed field goal off the upright from 51 yards ended one drive, and an interception ended the other.

UNM outscored New Mexico State 24-3 a week after outscoring UCLA 21-3.

Defensively, Keyshawn James-Newby led the pass rush with 2.5 sacks, while Jaxton Eck, Gabriel Lopez, Elijah Brody, Brett Karhu, Clint Stephens, and Ky'won McCray also reached the quarterback. Xavier Slayton recorded an interception late in the first half to halt an Aggie drive. In total, the Lobos broke up 11 passes and held NMSU quarterback Logan Fife to 20-of-37 passing with one interception.

New Mexico finished with 476 yards of total offense and converted 7-of-14 third downs while holding the ball for more than 32 minutes.

The victory ended with Head Coach Jason Eck taking possession of "The Chile Roaster" a new rivalry trophy made in a joint effort by the two student organizations.

Game 5: 10/3/2025
San Jose, Calif.
Att: 12,109

SAN JOSE, Calif. --- The University of New Mexico football team's three-game winning streak came to an end Friday night in a 35-28 loss at San Jose State in a game that UNM never led but had another strong fourth quarter that came up a little short. Receiver Keagan Johnson had a career night with 11 receptions for 145 yards.

Johnson's 11 receptions tied for the 11th-most receptions in a single game in UNM history. The junior repeatedly gave quarterback Jack Layne a reliable target, moving the chains on crucial downs and keeping the Lobos within striking distance. Through just four games played this season, Johnson now has 26 receptions for 326 yards, solidifying himself as one of the top receiving threats in the Mountain West.

The Lobos (3-2, 0-1 Mountain West) entered the matchup riding momentum from three straight victories, including a commanding rivalry win over rival New Mexico State. But San Jose State struck quickly, building a 14-0 lead in the second quarter as the Spartans tallied touchdowns on their first three drives. UNM responded behind its ground game, as Damon Bankston scored from four yards out and Scottre Humphrey added a one-yard touchdown to pull within 21-14. A Luke Drzewiecki 25-yard field goal on the final play of the half sent the Lobos into the locker room down just 21-17.

The third quarter proved costly for New Mexico. UNM opened with the ball and a chance to take the lead, but two third down attempts were wiped out by penalties. One was a hold that offset a pass interference call, and the other was a hold that negatved a 21-yard catch and run for a first down by Shawn Miller. Instead, UNM punted and the Spartans eventually scored two touchdowns to stretch the margin to 35-17. Still, the Lobos mounted a fourth-quarter comeback. Layne engineered a fourth-quarter drive capped by his own three-yard rushing touchdown, followed by a successful two-point conversion pass to Shawn Miller, cutting the deficit to 35-25 with 11:02 to go. After forcing a punt, the Lobos drove from their own 6-yard line to the San Jose State 14. Michael Buckley nearly pulled in a third-down conversion for a touchdown. Instead, that pass was broken up, and he suffered an injury on the play. Drzewiecki drilled a 31-yard field goal with 3:41 to play, making it a one-score game at 35-28.

UNM squib-kicked with 3:41 to go, but the Spartans were able to run out the clock, sealing the narrow victory with three first downs.

Offensively, the Lobos finished with 420 total yards, including 344 passing yards from Layne, who completed 28-of-40 attempts. The 344 yards were a career-high for Layne. New Mexico outgained San Jose State in first downs (29-24) and matched them stride for stride in total offense, showing its balance with three rushing touchdowns and Johnson's record-setting performance through the air. Frankie Edwards III led the way with seven tackles.

The loss marked New Mexico's first setback since the season opener at Michigan and its first defeat in Mountain West play. New Mexico heads right back out on the road next weekend for another key Mountain West matchup, as the Lobos will face off with the preseason pick for the conference title, Boise State. That game will kick off at 7:45 p.m. Mountain Time on FS1.

Game 6: 10/11/2025
Boise, Ida.
Att: 32,982

BOISE, Idaho. --- For three quarters, New Mexico hung within striking distance of Boise State, but Boise State scored 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to hand the Lobos a 41–25 loss Saturday night at Albertsons Stadium in front of a sell-out crowd.

The defeat dropped New Mexico to 3–3 overall and 0–2 in Mountain West play, while Boise State improved to 4–2 and 2–0 in conference action.

Boise State dominated time of possession in the game, holding the ball for more than 40 minutes to New Mexico's 19. The Broncos ran 86 plays to the Lobos' 54 and finished with a 397–231 edge in total offense. Still, New Mexico managed to keep things tight until the final quarter thanks to opportunistic plays and timely scores.

After falling behind 10–0 in the opening period, the Lobos struck quickly to start the second. Damon Bankston returned the kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown, tying a school record. It was the first kickoff return for a touchdown by a Lobo since September 9, 2022, when Christian Washington turned the trick against Boise State, and overall, it was the 10th 100-yard kickoff return in school history.

New Mexico took its only lead minutes later when Jack Layne capped an eight-play, 58-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass to Dorian Thomas, making it 14–10. Boise State responded with a 75-yard march that ended in a Maddux Madsen-to-Ben Ford touchdown connection to reclaim a 17–14 halftime advantage.

Both teams traded field goals in the third quarter — Luke Drzewiecki connected from 29 yards for UNM — and Boise State clung to a narrow 20–17 lead heading into the final 15 minutes. From there, the Broncos took advantage with the help of a lucky break.

Boise State scored on three straight drives in the fourth quarter. Sire Gaines punched in his second rushing touchdown from four yards out to make it 27-17. UNM's defense then held and forced a field goal, and that's when fortune favored the Broncos. Holder Oscar Doyle bobbled the snap, and it looked like UNM was going to get a blocked kick. Instead, he rose up, scrambled, and threw a wobbly pass that Troy Grizzle caught for a back-breaking touchdown and a 34-17 lead. After a turnover on downs, Madsen hit Ford again — this time from 25 yards — to put the game out of reach at 41–17 with just over five minutes left.

Backup quarterback James Laubstein came on in relief late and led a 15-play, 75-yard drive capped by a 4-yard touchdown pass to Keagan Johnson with 1:16 remaining. Laubstein ran in the two-point conversion for the final margin. It was Laubstein's first career touchdown pass.

Bankston finished with 188 all-purpose yards, including 118 on kick returns, while Johnson caught five passes for 38 yards and a touchdown. Thomas added four receptions for 61 yards and his second touchdown in as many games. Layne went 7-of-17 for 115 yards and one score, while Laubstein completed 8-of-11 for 67 yards in relief.

Boise State leaned on its run game and ball control. Dylan Riley ran for 101 yards on 18 carries, and Gaines added 65 yards and two scores. Madsen completed 21 of 31 passes for 226 yards and two touchdowns, spreading the ball among seven receivers.

Defensively, Jaxton Eck led New Mexico with a career-high 18 tackles, and Keyshawn James-Newby recorded two sacks among the team's four. But the Lobos couldn't get off the field often enough — Boise State converted 6-of-7 fourth-down attempts and went 7-of-18 on third down.

Boise State had seven possessions of nine plays or more and controlled the ball for over 12 minutes in the first quarter alone.

Game 7: 10/18/2025
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 18,233

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The New Mexico Lobos leaned on a dominant ground game and clutch fourth-down defense to outlast Nevada 24–22 on Saturday night at University Stadium, securing their first Mountain West victory of the season in front of 18,233 fans.

The Lobos (4–3, 1–2 MW) rushed for 210 yards, led by a balanced attack from Scottre Humphrey, D.J. McKinney, Damon Bankston, Jack Layne, and James Laubstein, while the defense came up with a pair of crucial fourth-down stops to preserve the win.

New Mexico set the tone immediately, driving 75 yards on the opening possession and converting two fourth downs before McKinney plunged in from two yards out to make it 7–0. After a Nevada field goal, the Lobos extended the lead in the second quarter when Humphrey capped a 91-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run for a 14-3 advantage.

Nevada (1–6, 0–3 MW) closed the gap with a pair of late second-quarter scores, including a short touchdown run by Caleb Ramseur after a Lobo fumble, trimming the margin to 14–12 at halftime. Nevada went for the tie, but freshman C.J. McBean broke up the two-point conversion pass, and that forced Nevada to play catch-up the rest of the game.

New Mexico responded immediately after the break. Following a defensive stand that turned away Nevada on downs, UNM started at the Nevada 34-yard line. McKinney sprinted 22 yards for his second touchdown of the night, pushing the lead to 21-12. After a Wolf Pack touchdown by Caleb Ramseur that capped a 75-yard drive, Luke Drzewiecki drilled a 29-yard field goal as time expired in the third quarter to make it 24-19.

The fourth quarter turned into a defensive battle. Nevada connected on a 41-yard field goal by Joe McFadden with 10:55 left to pull within 24-22, but the Lobo defense rose up from there. Linebacker Brett Karhu recorded a key third-down sack, and Jaxton Eck led all defenders with 11 tackles as New Mexico repeatedly denied the Wolf Pack on key drives, including a pivotal fourth-down stop near midfield with under three minutes remaining.

On third-and-7 at the 50, Carter Jones was hurried by Darren Agu, and Drew Speech knocked away a pass intended for Jett Carpenter. On the next play, Jones misfired looking for Dakota Thomas, and UNM took over with 2:28 to go.

Needing one final conversion to seal the win, Layne and the offense delivered, converting on fourth-and-1 near the Nevada 40 as Scottre Humphrey bullied his way for two yards to clinch the win. Layne took a pair of knees to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

Layne finished the night completing 14 of 22 passes for 138 yards while adding 71 rushing yards, including the 54-yard keeper that helped set up a field goal. Humphrey ran for 58 yards and a score, and McKinney totaled 82 all-purpose yards with two touchdowns. Dorian Thomas led the receiving corps with five catches for 56 yards.

In total, New Mexico outgained Nevada 348–257 and went 3-for-4 on fourth downs, including the game-clincher. The Lobos' defense limited the Wolf Pack to just 2.0 yards per carry and only one touchdown drive longer than 40 yards.

The win improves New Mexico to 3–0 at home this season and gives the Lobos their fourth win overall. UNM is 4-3 and over .500 after seven games for the first time since 2016, when UNM was also 4-3.

Game 8: 10/25/2025
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 20,097

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico football team turned in its most complete performance of the season Saturday afternoon, scoring on offense, defense, and special teams in a convincing 33–14 victory over Utah State at University Stadium in front of 20,097 fans. The win pushed the Lobos to 5–3 overall and 2–2 in the Mountain West, putting them just one victory away from bowl eligibility for the first time since 2016. Utah State dropped to 4-4 and 2-2 in the Mountain West.

The game also marked the return of UNM's turquoise jerseys, which the team wore from 1973-79 when turquoise was an official primary color. UNM had won its last outing in turquoise, beating Wyoming 17-3 in 1979.

It was pretty much all New Mexico from the start. After a Daniel Hughes punt pinned Utah State at its own 4-yard line, the Aggies went backwards in three plays and had to punt from the back of the end zone. Sophomore D.J. McKinney, UNM's fourth punt returner of the season, made an instant impact when he fielded a first-quarter punt at midfield, spun out of a tackle, turned left and sprinted 49 yards for a touchdown—his first collegiate return. The score electrified the crowd and sparked a Lobo onslaught that carried through the first half.

McKinney's day only got better. In addition to his special teams highlight, scoring on a one-yard touchdown run, making the score 14-0 in the second quarter. That drive came off the heels of a CJ McBean interception in the end zone.

After an exchange of punts, the Aggies started at its 1-yard line after another perfect punt from Hughes. That's when the defense got in on the scoring. Linebacker Jaxton Eck burst through the line and dropped Utah State running back Noah White in the end zone for a safety—the program's first in seven years—to make it 16–0.

Luke Drzewiecki tacked on a 41-yard field goal after the ensuing free kick to make it 19-0. Utah State finally got on the board when Miles Davis scored on a 64-yard run, but UNM answered right back. Tight end Cade Keith, who turned in a career day with seven receptions for 104 yards, scored on a 40-yard touchdown late in the second quarter that extended New Mexico's lead to 26–7.

After Utah State closed within 26–14 early in the fourth quarter, New Mexico's offense delivered the final blow, with a bit of help from Deshaun Buchanan. Facing fourth-and-1 at its own 34, UNM faked a punt with Buchanan racing 14 yards for a first down to keep the drive going. Running back Damon Bankston capped that seven-play, 75-yard drive with a 41-yard touchdown run in which he seemingly was stopped in traffic, sealing the win and sending the Lobos to their fifth victory of the year. Bankston finished with 84 yards on 13 carries as part of a rushing attack that piled up 224 yards on 42 attempts, marking the team's second straight game over 200 yards on the ground.

Quarterback Jack Layne orchestrated a balanced and efficient attack, completing 17 of 22 passes for 183 yards and a touchdown, spreading the ball among seven different receivers.

While the offense rolled, the Lobo defense stifled a Utah State unit that entered the game averaging 34.0 points per contest. New Mexico's front controlled the line of scrimmage, limiting the Aggies to 306 total yards—just 142 on the ground and 164 through the air—and forcing their high-tempo offense out of rhythm. Utah State was averaging 428.3 yards per game of total offense entering the contest.

Defensive end Darren Agu led the charge up front with a sack and two tackles for loss, while McBean intercepted a second-quarter pass that set up another scoring drive. The Lobos also recorded three sacks and seven tackles for loss overall, continuing a midseason surge from a defense that has allowed just 18 points per game over its last two outings.

40 Game 9: 11/1/2025 Las Vegas, Nev. 35 Att: 25,972

LAS VEGAS, Nev. --- New Mexico never trailed until there was 6:35 left in the game, and like it has done all year long, the Lobos responded, delivered, and now UNM is bowl eligible for the first time in nine years. Down 35-34, Keagan Johnson caught three passes for 19, 25, and 15 yards to set up D.J. McKinney's 13-yard touchdown with 2:57 to go as New Mexico beat UNLV 40-35 at Allegiant Stadium.

The win pushed UNM to 6-3 overall and 3-2 in the Mountain West, while UNLV dropped to 6-2 overall and 2-2 in the Conference.

The winning score came after UNLV finally took a lead, coming all the way back from a 21-0 second quarter deficit. The drive was set up when UNM had a first down negated by a penalty, and was forced to punt from its own 3-yard line. The Rebels opened the go-ahead drive at the Lobo 34 and were able to convert a fourth-and-4 at the UNM 28-yard line. Two plays later, Anthony Colandrea hit Nik Elksnins from 14 yards out for a 35-34 lead after Ramon Vallela hit the extra point.

Down for the first time, UNM, and Keagan Johnson went to work. Facing a quick third-and-12 after a sack, Layne hit Johnson for a 19-yard gain and a first down. Two plays later, Johnson was interfered with and still came down with a diving 25-yard catch on the sidelines to put UNM on the fringe of field goal range.

After a short run, Johnson again made a wild, leaping catch near the sideline for a 15-yard gain to the Rebel 13-yard line. That set up McKinney for the game-winning 13-yard run with 2:57 to go.

UNLV couldn't cross midfield and turned the ball over on downs with 1:56 to go, but UNM couldn't quite kill off the clock. Daniel Hughes punted from the Rebel 38 to the 2-yard line, where McKinney raced to down the ball. UNLV eventually was forced into a lateral play, which Ky'Won McCray recovered for UNM's third fumble recovery on defense, and that ended the game, sent the UNM sideline into bedlam, and moved UNM into official bowl territory.

The first half was a wild affair that saw UNM bolt to a 21-0 lead, only to see UNLV tie the game before UNM scored the final 10 points to take a 31-21 lead into the locker room.

The Lobos got the scoring started after a turnover on downs, as Jack Layne found Damon Bankston on a wheel route for a 30-yard touchdown pass. After UNM's Brian Booker recovered a fumble, the Lobos got a 58-yard run by change-up quarterback James Laubstein to move into the red zone at the end of the first quarter.

On the first play of the second quarter, Laubstein threw a touchdown pass to a wide-open Simon Mapa for a 12-yard score and a 14-0 lead. After a punt to the Lobo 16, Layne found Bankston on a screen pass and Damon did the rest, racing 84 yards for a 21-0 lead.

The Rebels, however, came right back. First, Anthony Colandrea scrambled and found Daejon Reynolds from seven yards out to make it 21-7. After a punt, Keyvone Lee finished a drive with a 5-yard run to cut the lead to 21-14.

Layne then threw a pick-6 two plays later to Quandarius Keyes of UNLV for a 25-yard touchdown, and it was suddenly tied. With all the momentum on UNLV's side, Layne bounced back, finding Keagan Johnson for an 80-yard touchdown pass, and UNM had the lead back at 28-21. UNM then recovered a Colandrea fumble and turned that into a season-long 46-yard field goal for Luke Drzewiecki. Drzewiecki missed his first attempt off the right upright, but UNLV had called a timeout to nullify the miss.

17 Game 10: 11/15.2025 Albuquerque, N.M. 20 Att: 27,526

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- For the first time in 14 tries over 16 years, New Mexico walked off the field against Colorado State a winner, grinding out a hard-fought 20-17 win that moved UNM into second place in the Mountain West. The Lobos did it with a stellar defensive effort and another patented fourth-quarter surge. The win snapped a 13-game losing streak in the series and sets UNM up for a shot at a Mountain West title-game berth with a bit of help.

The victory, New Mexico's fourth straight, lifted the Lobos to 7–3 and 4–2 in league play, tying them for second place. UNM moved to 5-0 on the season at home, the first 5-0 start at home since 1962.

The game certainly showed off UNM's resilience, as the Lobos won despite losing four fumbles, the first time UNM has ever won a game despite losing four fumbles in the Mountain West era. The Lobo defense was terrific, holding CSU to just 13 rushing yards and intercepting quarterback Darius Curry three times, two of them in the fourth quarter to set up UNM's 10 fourth-quarter points.

After a scoreless first quarter, New Mexico got moving in the second. The Lobos mounted a 12-play, 77-yard march, leaning on running backs D.J. McKinney and Damon Bankston. McKinney finished the drive by slicing into the end zone from one yard out with 6:17 left. To end the half, quarterback Jack Layne moved the offense into field-goal range over eight plays and 52 yards, setting up Luke Drzewiecki for a 45-yard field goal that sent UNM into halftime up 10–0, and made Drzewiecki the all-time leading kick scorer in Lobo history.

Colorado State climbed back into the contest during a third quarter littered with Lobo mistakes, mainly three lost fumbles. After UNM fumbled but forced a punt that pushed UNM to its own 5-yard line, Scottre Humphrey fumbled, and CSU's Andrew Laurich recovered for his third fumble recovery. CSU got into the end zone on fourth down and then added a field goal to make it 10-10.

Amazingly, UNM lost a third fumble in the quarter, and as the fourth quarter started, CSU moved to the Lobo 27. On third-and-9, Brett Karhu knocked a Darius Curry pass up in the air, and Austin Brawley snagged it for his second interception of the game, and he returned it to the Ram 21.

Jack Layne then gave UNM the lead with a terrific designed run on fourth-and-1 for a 12-yard touchdown, giving UNM a 17–10.

Barely a minute later, the defense delivered again. Caleb Coleman snagged a Curry throw and returned it 24 yards to the Rams' 20. Drzewiecki drilled his second field goal, this from 35 yards, to push the margin to 20–10 with 8:27 remaining.

CSU cut the lead to 20-17 with a 41-yard touchdown on a swing pass, but UNM effectively ran most of the clock out, giving CSU the ball at the Ram 19 with 15 seconds left. CSU's last-second desperation play ended in a fumble recovered by Jon Johnson, fittingly sealed by the UNM defense that had owned the day.

Layne finished with 226 passing yards and a rushing score, and UNM overall rushed for 122 yards. Keagan Johnson led all Lobo receivers with five catches and 65 yards.

But it was the defense that defined the afternoon. The Lobos held CSU to under 300 total yards and delivered four takeaways as CSU averaged 0.5 yards per rush.

20 Game 11: 11/22/2025 U.S.A.F.A, Colo. 3 Att: 20,218

LAS VEGAS, Nev. --- The University of New Mexico's defense dominated for a second straight game, limiting Air Force to just 110 yards rushing and 161 total yards as UNM ended a 25-year losing skid at Falcon Stadium with a 20-3 game that was never in doubt.

The point total is the lowest ever for Air Force in the series, and the rushing yards and total offense numbers for the Falcons were the fewest in the history of the series, which dates back to 1957.

The Lobos scored on three of its first four drives of the game to open up a 17-0 halftime advantage in a half that saw each team only have four possessions apiece.

UNM opened the game going right down the field, covering 75 yards on nine plays. Damon Bankston got things going with a 22-yard run on an end-around off a wildcat formation, and Jack Layne finished it with his legs. After he couldn't find anyone open, he directed traffic and scored from 12 yards out for a 7-0 lead.

UNM then forced a punt after one first down, and UNM went right down the field again, this time 82 yards over 15 plays, chewing up an Air Force-like 8:33 off the clock. UNM converted three third downs on the drive, twice off Layne's scrambles before Damon Bankston finished the drive off. He bullied his way from the 11 to the 2-yard line, and then bowled over from there for a 14-0 lead.

Brett Karhu gave the ball right back when he strip-sacked quarterback Kemper Hodges, who was making his first start. UNM got the ball at the Air Force 14, but mustered a Luke Drzewiecki 27-yard field goal for a 17-0 lead.

Air Force crossed midfield to the Lobo 35, but on fourth-and-6, Hodges was sacked for a 10-yard loss, and the half ended after two short possessions each way.

Air Force finally got on the board in the fourth quarter after a quarterback switch, as Josh Johnson led the Falcons into a first-and-goal situation. Still, the Lobo defense broke up a pair of passes, and then Jaxton Eck chased Johnson out of bounds for no gain, and Air Force settled for a 27-yard field goal by Reagan Tubbs to break the shutout attempt.

UNM answered with a 23-yard Drzewiecki field goal, and on the first play after that, Jon Johnson picked off Josh Johnson for UNM's second takeaway of the game, and the Lobos ran the clock out from there.

UNM scored 20 points for the second straight game, but this time UNM did it on just seven drives after having 14 against Colorado State the week before. The 161 yards allowed was the fewest against an FBS opponent for UNM since October 23, 2004 when the Lobos allowed just 146 yards to San Diego State in a 19-9 win

17 Game 12: 11/28/2025 Albuquerque, N.M. 23 Att: 30,575

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- In front of a wild, boisterous Senior Day crowd of 30,575 at University Stadium, New Mexico capped one of its most memorable regular seasons in decades with a dramatic 23–17 double-overtime victory over San Diego State, securing a 9–3 finish and a 6–2 mark in Mountain West play. The win, UNM's sixth straight, kept the Lobos perfect at home, but UNM didn't get the help it needed from an old friend.

Utah State, which passed up a short field goal earlier in the quarter that would have given it an eight-point lead, lost 25-24 when Boise State capitalized on a failed fourth-down attempt in its own territory with 5:22 and scored the winning touchdown with 2:30 to go.

Now, UNM will wait, along with Boise State and San Diego State, and potentially UNLV if it beats Nevada on Saturday night, for the computers to spit out the two teams in the Mountain West Championship Game. UNM entered the weekend fourth out of four, with San Diego State first, Boise State second, UNLV third, and UNM fourth, but everyone was close. UNM should get a nice boost after the wild win.

After four quarters in which UNM struggled to move the ball and San Diego State was unable to capitalize on good field position, the game went to overtime, tied at 17. Austin Brawley opened the first extra frame with an interception after Jon Johnson broke up a pass, halting SDSU's attempt to score on the first possession and setting up UNM for a win with a field goal. James Laubstein, who scored in the second quarter for UNM on a 40-yard run, got UNM to the San Diego State 4-yard line.

One play before a field goal attempt, Laubstein was stripped by Dwayne McDougle at the 3, and the game went to a second overtime. UNM's offense didn't waste its second chance. In the second overtime, Jack Layne found Cade Keith, who made a stretching, one-handed grab and raced into the end zone for a 23-17 lead. UNM converted the two-point conversion, but a penalty forced UNM to try it again, and it missed.

San Diego State needed to score to tie, but it never got closer than the 10-yard line. On first-and-goal, the Lobo crowd was rocking and forced three straight false starts to push the ball to the 25. After a short run, back-to-back sacks by Keyshawn James-Newby and Darren Agu made it fourth-and-goal from the 30-yard line, and SDSU's Jayden Denegal overthrew everyone in the back of the end zone to set off the celebration.

New Mexico set the tone immediately, marching 55 yards on the opening drive before Luke Drzewiecki put the Lobos ahead 3–0 with a 37-yard field goal at the 7:25 mark of the first quarter. After a punt, UNM faced fourth-and-2 at the Aztec 40, and James Laubstein bounced outside for his first career rushing touchdown, pushing the lead to 10–0.

San Diego State responded, putting together back-to-back scoring drives to take a 14–10 lead into halftime. Lucky Sutton powered in a 1-yard touchdown run before quarterback Jayden Denegal connected on a 46-yard pass to Donovan Brown in the final minute of the second quarter.

UNM's counterpunch came quickly after halftime. UNM faced fourth-and-1 at its own 46, and lined up to go for it, and D.J. McKinney took a handoff, zipped outside untouched for a 54-yard touchdown, reclaiming a 17–14 lead.

SDSU tied the game late in the third with a 44-yard field goal one drive after a 52-yard miss, and from there is was a veritable war of attrition as San Diego State owned the field position battle but could never get in field goal range. Tavian Combs recorded 12 tackles, and Jaxton Eck added 11 af UNM limited the Aztecs to 355 yards of offense.

Offensively, Layne completed 14-of-25 passes for 127 yards and the game-winning score. The Lobos rushed for 181 yards and scored two touchdowns against an Aztec defense that entered the game ranked, having allowed just three rushing touchdowns. Laubstein posted 70 yards on 10 carries, while Damon Bankston added 56 on the ground.

In total, UNM produced 308 yards of offense and overcame seven sacks to grind out its most dramatic win of the season. The victory secured New Mexico's first six-win conference season since 2016 and preserved a perfect 6-0 home record.

Bowl History

1939 SUN BOWL
Jan. 2, 1939 • El Paso, Texas
Utah 26, New Mexico 0

Playing in its first bowl game, the New Mexico Lobos were shut out by the Utah Utes 26-0 in the 4th Annual Sun Bowl at Kidd Field in El Paso.

(Note: The remainder of this story was written by Albuquerque Journal Sports Editor Paul Weeks and edited by UNM Media Relations.)

Like a kite that had flown too high, New Mexico's far-famed "dipsy-doo" football circus blew up and out of control before 13,000 disappointed Sun Bowl fans with a powerful tribe of Utah Indians (as they were called at the time) pouring on a humiliating 26-0 defeat.

The Utes matched their conservative style of the game as taught by Coach Ike Armstrong against the once-colorful attack of the Hilltoppers (as the Lobos were sometimes called) to claim gridiron superiority as Big Seven champions over the Lobos, co-champs of the Border league.

Never did New Mexico fall so miserably during the entire season as against the white-shirted tribe. Observers declared the team had conquered foes with power equal to the Utes, but there were no alibis for the Sun Bowl loss. It was on the same field that the Cherry and Silver met their first defeat of the season against Texas Mines (now UTEP).

Placed on equal ground before the fray, the two teams were as unevenly matched as a flyweight in the ring with a heavy. The Utes smashed across two touchdowns in the first quarter and followed it up with a 20-0 margin at the half. When New Mexico did not take advantage of the breaks given to them in the last periods, the Utes coasted in to another score, using two teams with equal results.

Though the bowl was not filled to capacity, more than 500 perched on the barren hills surrounding the field. The crowd stripped off overcoats and concessionaires did a rush business in sunglasses because of the summery temperature. The tang of autumn football weather was entirely lacking.

1944 SUN BOWL
Jan. 1, 1944 • El Paso, Texas
Southwestern 7, New Mexico 0

(Note: The following story was written by A.V. Gullette from the Associated Press and edited by UNM Media Relations.)

A final quarter forward pass, starring tailback R.W. MacGruder of San Marcos, gave Southwestern of Texas a 7-0 victory over the University of New Mexico in the 9th Annual Sun Bowl.

The 37-yard toss from fullback R.L. Cooper clicked after the underdog New Mexico Lobos had beaten back the highly-touted ground game of Southwestern's Pirates through three quarters and eight minutes of the final period. The Pirates took the ball at the start of the fourth quarter on the 13. A pass, MacGruder to Cooper, made 27, and the two backs hit the line for a first down, and MacGruder broke loose for 22 yards to the New Mexico 19.

Here, New Mexico held and took the pigskin, punted to the 46. Cooper passed to Hollon, Pirate end, for a first down and then to MacGruder for the winning tally.

The Lobos threatened only twice, in the second and third periods, but could not get beyond the Southwestern 16.

The game started under cloudy skies, but the sun broke through in the second half, and playing conditions were nearly ideal.

The vaunted Southwestern defense held the Lobos to just four first downs and 48 yards total offense.

1946 SUN BOWL
Jan. 1, 1946 • El Paso, Texas
New Mexico 34, Denver 24

(Note: The following story was written by the Associated Press and Albuquerque Journal writer Clayton Byers. It was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

Don Rumley, a 19-year-old Navy reservist from Princeton, Ill., led New Mexico to a 34-24 victory over Denver University in the 11th Annual Sun Bowl. The 180-pound halfback passed for three touchdowns and rushed for another in the highest scoring game in the 11 years of this New Year's Day football event.

A crowd of 15,000 was on its feet throughout a 28-point fourth period in which New Mexico came from behind to capture its first bowl victory in three attempts. It was also the first victory for a Border Conference team in the El Paso game's history.

Denver, Big Seven champion, rolled up 10 points before New Mexico countered, and remained dangerous, scoring its final touchdown with less than two minutes to play.

A 63-yard dash with an interception sent fullback Rudy Krall over with UNM's first score in the second period. Krall and Rumley engineered a 70-yard drive to set up the next score when Rumley scooted in from nine yards for a 13-10 Lobo lead.

Then, after a scoreless New Mexico third period, when Denver had regained the lead at 17-13, Rumley whipped out two aerials for touchdowns to substitute end William Moseley and a third to Lavon McDonald.

One reason the Lobos were Sun Bowl champs is a story of gridiron heroism. It's about Fred Doar, UNM's star center, chief linebacker, and kicker.

The 210-pound Navy trainee was at the bottom of a heap in the first play of the game. After that, he played outstanding ball, stopping Denver backs time after time. But teammates noticed their captain wasn't "talking it up" as usual. In fact, he was silent. X-rays after the game showed that Doar had broken his jaw in two places on the first play.

Blue skies and a blazing sun made it baseball weather for the game. Nearly 16,000 short-sleeved customers heard a minister intone a prayer dedicating this game to the nine members of the Lobos' 1939 Sun Bowl team who left the football field to die on the battlefield during World War II.

1947 HARBOR BOWL
Jan. 1, 1947 -- San Diego, Calif.
New Mexico 13, Montana State 13

(Note: The following story was written by the Associated Press and was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

The University of New Mexico Lobos came from behind to earn a 13-13 tie with Montana State College in the first San Diego Harbor Bowl before a crowd of 7,000.

Both teams displayed a flashy brand of football, which kept the fans on edge throughout.

New Mexico opened the scoring soon after the game started when Hubert Hackett connected on a 26-yard pass to Lou Cullen. Hackett's place kick was wide.

Montana State surged back shortly after the second period started, sparked by Neil Brooks' 48-yard dash from scrimmage to paydirt. The placekick was blocked, but Gene Bourdet picked up the ball and ran over for the extra point (allowed at this time).

Bill Nelson set the stage for the next score when he took Bourdet's short pass at midfield and streaked 42 yards down the sideline to the Lobo 8. After three plays netted just one yard, Bourdet passed to Ken Card on fourth down, putting the Bobcats in front. The kick was again blocked.

The Lobos tied the count early in the fourth quarter as Cullen and quarterback Bryan Brock combined to engineer a 75-yard drive on the ground and through the air. Brock scored from two yards out, cutting over tackle. Hackett's kick was good to knot the score.

The Lobos had a chance to win the game in the final minutes. UNM drove to the Montana State 12; however, Brock was thrown for a 12-yard loss. Hackett eventually tried a field goal from 35 yards out but failed.

1961 AVIATION BOWL
Dec. 9, 1961 -- Dayton, Ohio
New Mexico 28, Western Michigan 12

(Note: The following story was written by Albuquerque Journal Sports Editor Dan Russell and was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

New Mexico struck for early touchdowns in both the first and third quarters to defeat Western Michigan, 28-12, in a chilled Aviation Bowl football game.

Freezing weather, including sleet and snow, nearly grounded the inaugural (and only) Aviation contest and limited the contest to approximately 4,000 fans even though advance sales had surpassed 5,000.

New Mexico drove for two touchdowns to open the game and to also open the second half. Then it capitalized on Western errors to add the two other touchdowns.

Two fumble recoveries in the first quarter helped set up the second touchdown of the game. Chuck Cummings intercepted a pass and streaked 43 yards for the final Lobo touchdown.

Quarterback Jim Cromartie plunged for three yards for New Mexico's first touchdown. Halfback Bobby Santiago picked up the second touchdown from 10 yards out, and Bobby Morgan also went over from the 10 for the third score.

Santiago, who suffered bruised ribs at the end of the first half and saw only limited action in the second half, was voted the top back of the game. Santiago gained a total of 86 yards and had a 60-yard touchdown run nullified by a clipping penalty. Cummings was voted the outstanding lineman.

"Our kids were really up," said UNM head coach Bill Weeks. "They came to play, and they hit hard and executed well throughout. Santiago and Cummings were outstanding, and I felt that Bobby Morgan had his best game of the year."

1997 INSIGHT.COM BOWL
Dec. 27, 1997 -- Tucson, Ariz.
Arizona 20, New Mexico 14

New Mexico would lose its first bowl game in 36 years, 20-14, on Arizona's home field. The Cats struck first, scoring on Kelvin Eafon's 15-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter.

UNM took almost no time in the second stanza to knot the score. Graham Leigh ran 17 yards for a first down, then tossed a 15-yard TD pass to senior Milton Thomas. Colby Cason's PAT tied the score at 7-7 and completed the eight-play 69-yard scoring drive.

On Arizona's next possession, quarterback Brady Batten threw for 51 yards, and Trung Canidate ran for 13 more, including a three-yard touchdown, which allowed the Wildcats to reclaim the lead, 13-7. UA missed the PAT.

The Lobos marched right back down the field, reeling off a 14-play, 45-yard drive. UNM could not cash in on its possession, however, as Colby Cason missed a 37-yard field goal.

The second half began in a disastrous fashion for the Lobo offense, as it went three-and-out on its first possession, then Leigh threw two consecutive interceptions. The resiliency of the UNM defense was the only thing preventing Arizona from increasing its lead, as the Lobos forced the Wildcats to punt on each of their first two series.

After Leigh's second interception of the quarter - his third of the game - UA capitalized. Canidate rushed for 30 yards, culminating with Eafon's 1-yard TD. The score upped Arizona's lead to 20-7 with 2:07 left in the third quarter.

Once again, UNM would not allow Arizona to keep its momentum. Leigh found Brian Messer for a 35-yard gain on the Lobos' first play from scrimmage. Two plays later, Leigh found Chris Shelton over the middle for an 18-yard gain to the Wildcat four. Leigh found paydirt on the next play, and with the five-play, 60-yard drive, New Mexico was right back in the game, trailing only 20-14.

New Mexico would get one more chance to stage a rally, taking over at the UA 48 with 5:31 remaining. On second-and-nine, Leigh dropped back and spotted Pascal Volz flashing across the middle downfield. His pass sailed just a bit, however, landing right in the arms of Wildcat DB Kelly Malveaux to seal it for the Cats.

Bowl History

2002 LAS VEGAS BOWL
Dec. 25, 2002 -- Las Vegas, Nev.
UCLA 27, New Mexico 13

The Lobo football team did more giving than receiving on Christmas Day, turning the ball over three times, which the UCLA Bruins turned into 17 points, as UCLA beat New Mexico 27-13 in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl.

Following a DonTrell Moore fumble, UCLA got on the board first with a Nate Fikse 49-yard field goal. UNM then took a 6-3 lead when senior cornerback Desmar Black picked off UCLA QB Drew Olson's pass in the flat and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown at the 8:20 mark of the first quarter. Junior kicker Katie Hnida then made her first career appearance, but had her extra point blocked. Already the first and only woman to dress for an NCAA Division I bowl game, Hnida became the first woman to make an appearance in an NCAA Division I bowl game.

"I made the decision to let Katie (Hnida) kick the first extra point," head coach Rocky Long said. "She has been a vital part of this team all year, and I felt that she deserved the opportunity to make a play."

The Lobos had a chance to increase their lead in the second quarter after driving to the UCLA 17, but Kenny Byrd's 34-yard FG attempt sailed wide right, ending a UNM streak of 19 straight scores in the red zone. Fikse connected on his second field goal from 39 yards out to knot the game at 6-6 with 6:21 remaining in the second quarter. The kick was set up by a questionable pass interference penalty on the Lobos in the end zone.

The UCLA special teams rose to the occasion when Craig Bragg took a punt back 74 yards early in the third to give the Bruins a 13-6 lead. More bad luck followed in the fourth quarter as QB Casey Kelly's throw bounced off the back of TE Zach Cresap into the waiting arms of Jarrad Page. Page returned it 29 yards for a touchdown to give UCLA a 20-6 advantage.

On the next Lobo possession, WR Joe Manning caught a pass from Kelly only to be stripped of the ball. New Mexico's third turnover of the game set up a 1-yard leap by freshman Tyler Ebell, handing the Bruins a 27-6 lead. Kelly found Manning in the back of the end zone for a touchdown that brought the Lobos to within 27-13, but New Mexico would get no closer.

Kelly finished with a season-high 237 yards. Moore, hobbled by a sprained right ankle late in the second quarter, was limited to 17 yards on 14 carries. The defense certainly did its part, holding the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards. UCLA only had to travel 76 yards for its three offensive scores, two field goals, and a touchdown.

2003 LAS VEGAS BOWL
Dec. 24, 2003 -- Las Vegas, Nev.
Oregon State 55, New Mexico 14

Steven Jackson tied a bowl game record with five touchdowns, leading Oregon State to a dominant 55-14 win over mistake-prone New Mexico. Jackson ran for 149 yards on 28 carries, catching a 34-yard TD from Derek Anderson early and adding four rushing touchdowns of 3, 11, 6, and 1 yards. Oregon State's defense controlled the game throughout.

This achievement tied Jackson with notable performances by former NFL star Barry Sanders, who scored five touchdowns for Oklahoma State against Wyoming in the 1988 Holiday Bowl, and Sheldon Canley of San Jose State, who had five against Central Michigan in the 1990 California Bowl.

As for the Lobos, their scores came on a 27-yard pass from Casey Kelly to Hank Baskett in the first quarter and a 17-yard toss from Kole McKamey to Dwight Counter in the fourth.

Unable to run or pass against OSU's defense, the Lobos had only one first down in the first half and 21 total yards through the first three quarters. The stats also included 6 yards rushing, seven first downs, and 127 total yards.

New Mexico got its second first down with a 46-yard pass from wide receiver Baskett to Counter, with just over 10 minutes left. DonTrell Moore, the Mountain West Conference leader with 1,438 yards this season, finished with 12 yards on 10 carries. His second-quarter fumble at the New Mexico 15 led to Jackson's third TD, his second in 1:39.

Despite New Mexico's fourth-best national rushing defense, Jackson found success after a slow start, exposing holes and scoring opportunities as the game progressed.

Oregon State scored on its first two possessions, with Jackson catching a 34-yard screen pass from Anderson on third-and-19 and Kirk Yliniemi booting a 21-yard field goal. New Mexico kept the Beavers' touchdown drive alive with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty for celebrating too long after stopping Jackson for a 2-yard loss on third down at the OSU 40. The Lobos next sacked Anderson for a 10-yard loss, but were offsides on the play.

Additionally, both teams entertained the Christmas Eve crowd of 25,437 with first-half trick plays that produced a touchdown for the Beavers and set up New Mexico's first score.

The Beavers scored on the final play of the first quarter on a 42-yard flea flicker. Anderson handed off to Jackson, who tossed it back to the quarterback for a pass to Mike Hass, who had beaten cornerback Brandon Payne. New Mexico used a pass from wide receiver Michael Brunker to backup quarterback McKamey to set up the Kelly-to-Baskett score.

2004 EMERALD BOWL
Dec. 30, 2004 -- San Francisco
Navy 34, New Mexico 19

Aaron Polanco ran for three touchdowns and passed for another, and Navy capped the academy's best season in 99 years with a 34-19 win over New Mexico in the Emerald Bowl.

Polanco scored on runs of 14, 1, and 27 yards and completed a 61-yard touchdown pass to Corey Dryden, the longest of the season by Polanco and the first career score by Dryden. The Midshipmen's defense was impressive, too, despite the rain-soaked field at SBC Park.

The unit forced two first-half turnovers that led to TDs and staged a goal-line stand late in the third quarter. Then Navy kept the ball for the next 14 minutes, 26 seconds, and held New Mexico to only seven plays in the fourth quarter.

The Midshipmen (10-2) tied for the most wins in school history, last accomplished when Navy went 10-1-1 in 1905. It was a fitting end for the Mids, some of whom will head off to war in the coming year. Only two months ago, Navy's players dealt with the death of former teammate JP Blecksmith in a military operation in Fallujah, Iraq.

Polanco finished the season with 16 rushing touchdowns, a record by a quarterback this year. Temple's Walter Washington ran for 15. Polanco gained a Navy bowl record 133 yards on the ground for his fourth 100-yard rushing game and threw for 101 yards. He even caught a 17-yard pass from Frank Divis to set up his second TD - and his two receptions were the most by any Navy player.

New Mexico quarterback Kole McKamey had nearly as big a day after the Lobos (7-5) lost star tailback DonTrell Moore to a torn left ACL late in the first quarter.

McKamey threw for 207 yards and also rushed for 138, the first Lobos player to accomplish the feat since Graham Leigh in 1997. But McKamey threw two interceptions.

Moore, who has rushed for more than 1,000 yards in each of the past three seasons and came in averaging 108.3 yards per game, was carted off the field after catching a shovel pass and taking a hard hit from cornerback Vaughn Kelley that caused Moore to fumble with 3:52 left in the first quarter. Linebacker Lane Jackson pounced on the ball for his first fumble recovery this year, and Polanco scored five plays later. Jackson also made an interception as time expired in the first half.

Navy built a 21-7 lead eight seconds into the second quarter on Polanco's 61-yard touchdown pass to Dryden.

The Lobos couldn't stop Navy's impressive triple-option offense. The Midshipmen snapped New Mexico's five-game winning streak and kept the Lobos from their first bowl victory in 43 years.

New Mexico lost in the Las Vegas Bowl the past two years and hasn't won a postseason game since beating Western Michigan 28-12 in the 1961 Aviation Bowl. The Lobos had won 11 straight games when they scored first.

2006 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 23, 2006 -- Albuquerque
San Jose State 20, New Mexico 12

San Jose State linebacker Matt Castelo saw New Mexico halfback Rodney Ferguson hit the hole near the goal line and prepared for a collision.

"I saw the running back get the ball, and it was like in slow motion," Castelo said. "I got down low, and I think he tried jumping over me. Tried to put the ball out for a touchdown."

Ferguson never made it to the end zone.

Castelo hit Ferguson, and his helmet knocked the ball out and right into fellow linebacker Damaja Jones' hands. In a season where San Jose State's defense carried the Spartans to their first bowl game in 16 years, Castelo and Jones teamed up for what may have been the biggest stop of the year.

Adam Tafralis threw three touchdown passes, and San Jose State beat New Mexico 20-12 on Saturday in the inaugural New Mexico Bowl, extending the Lobos' postseason drought to 45 years.

One big pass play by Tafralis and that costly fumble by Ferguson — both in the first half — set the tone for the Spartans' first bowl win outside of California.

Jones returned Ferguson's fumble 57 yards to the New Mexico 37. Although the Spartans didn't score on that drive, they had the momentum for good.

"I saw Matt set him (Ferguson) up," Jones said. "He tried to jump over Matt, and Matt put his helmet right on the ball. I was trying to get over the top, and the ball fell right in my hands."

For the Spartans (9-4), the win provided a final highlight in a season in which they won more games than they had in the three previous seasons.

Tafralis, who was 11-of-18 for 209 yards, threw scoring passes of 36 and 24 yards to James Jones and 76 yards to John Broussard. The pass to Broussard on the first play of the second quarter — in which New Mexico's defense totally blew the coverage — got the Spartans' offense rolling.

New Mexico's only touchdown came with 15 seconds left in the game on a 15-yard pass from Chris Nelson to Marcus Smith. The rest of the Lobos' scoring consisted of a 40-yard field goal by Kenny Byrd with 1:11 left in the second quarter and a safety when San Jose State punter Waylon Prather stepped out of the end zone with 1:08 left. Byrd's field goal was his 25th straight from 40 yards or closer and the first made field goal by New Mexico in 10 bowl appearances.

San Jose State struck first after the teams combined for seven punts in the first quarter.

Tafralis found Broussard 20 yards behind the nearest Lobo. Broussard caught the pass at the 35 and easily scored.

New Mexico came right back with a drive that started with DeAndre Wright's kickoff return to the San Jose State 40. Eight plays later, the Lobos had a first-and-goal at the 1. The Spartans' defense toughened, and on third-and-goal from the 2, Ferguson fumbled.

The Spartans made it 13-0 on Tafralis' 36-yard pass to James Jones with 3:59 left in the first half. James Jones caught the ball near the sideline at the New Mexico 16 and slipped out of the grasp of Wright. Matt Strubeck missed the extra point.

The Lobos' offense had 377 total yards but was stagnant most of the day. Neither freshman quarterback Donovan Porterie, who started, nor Nelson, who played in the second half, could sustain drives. What plays did work often were erased by holding penalties and three second-half fumbles, including one by wide receiver Travis Brown at the San Jose State 1 with just over 3 minutes left.

Ferguson, who led the Mountain West Conference in rushing this season, had 102 yards on 22 carries.

2007 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 22, 2007 -- Albuquerque
New Mexico 23, Nevada 0

For coach Rocky Long, it was just the next game, another brick in the ongoing construction of his program. For delighted New Mexico fans, it marked the end of a 46-year skid.

Paul Baker ran for 167 yards in his first start, and Donovan Porterie threw for a career-high 354 yards and two touchdowns to help New Mexico beat Nevada 23-0 in the New Mexico Bowl. The Lobos (9-4) ended a 46-year span without a postseason victory and gave Long, the team's 10th-year coach, his first bowl win in five tries.

"It gets it off our backs. We don't have to listen to it anymore," Long said. "But this program was good before we won today."

John Sullivan made field goals from 53, 39, and 37 yards, but give credit to New Mexico's defense, which delivered just the second shutout loss for Nevada under Hall of Fame coach Chris Ault.

The Wolf Pack (6-7) hadn't gone scoreless since losing 10-0 to Weber State on Sept. 27, 1980, a span of 329 games -- the longest current streak in college football and the second longest in history. It's the first time Nevada has been shut out since moving to Division I-A in 1992.

"It's certainly a compliment to their defense," Ault said. "They played a great game. At the other end of the spectrum, we played as poorly on offense as we've played in a long time."

It was New Mexico's first bowl win since beating Western Michigan 28-12 in the 1961 Aviation Bowl. The Lobos also posted just their fourth nine-win season in school history.

"I'm very proud of our team," Long said. "I thought they were as focused as they've been all year long for any game."

New Mexico's defenders pestered redshirt freshman quarterback Colin Kaepernick all afternoon and made Nevada's

Bowl History

"Pistol" offense look more like a pop gun. The Wolf Pack averaged 36.2 points and 488.9 yards during the season. Nevada had logged 23 scoring plays that covered at least 25 yards -- second only to Oklahoma's 25 big-play TDs.

This time, Nevada had 210 total yards, with only 73 yards rushing. On a chilly day, with the temperature at kickoff 34 degrees, Kaepernick finished 13-of-31 for 137 yards. He had 10 carries for 40 yards rushing.

"Everybody was locked in," linebacker Brett Madsen said. "They have a really explosive offense. The quarterback can really run. We knew we had to contain the quarterback, and he didn't do much with his legs."

Madsen, despite not starting, was selected the defensive player of the game after recording two sacks, two tackles for lost yardage, and four total tackles. But he agreed the award could have gone to any New Mexico defender.

Baker made the most of his chance. He moved into the starting lineup this week when Rodney Ferguson, New Mexico's leading rusher over the past two seasons, was ruled academically ineligible.

"My team believed in me, and that was enough," Baker said. "I knew I could get it done."

The Wolf Pack blocked two field goals, Sullivan missed another 43-yard try, and the Lobos failed to score after having first-and-goal at the 4 late in the third quarter. But Nevada just couldn't take advantage.

"We didn't do a good job with any consistency on the run game or the pass game," Ault said. "Colin Kaepernick didn't have a chance to get into a type of rhythm. We just shot ourselves in the foot."

Despite the cool weather, Porterie had no trouble warming up. He threw a short slant pass on the third play from scrimmage to Marcus Smith, who raced to the end zone for a 66-yard scoring play. Later in the period, Brown got behind the Nevada defense, and Porterie found him on a 39-yard TD pass.

2015 GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 19, 2015 -- Albuquerque
Arizona 45, New Mexico 37

It was nearly one of the greatest comebacks in school history. Nearly. In the end, the Lobos whittled an 18-point second half deficit down to five, and then, with a chance to go for the tie, threw an interception as the Arizona Wildcats defeated New Mexico 45-37 in a highly entertaining 10th Annual Gildan New Mexico Bowl in front of a crowd of 30,289.

Both teams combined for 1,025 yards of offense, with UNM gaining 333 on the ground and 189 in the air. Arizona was the opposite, with 174 on the ground and 329 by air. Things looked bleak when Lamar Jordan threw an interception on a play starting at his own 1-yard line that led to a short touchdown run and a 42-24 Wildcat lead with 7:35 left in the third quarter. Jordan, who played well with 135 yards rushing and 110 yards passing, got UNM back in it with his third rushing touchdown to make it 42-31.

Jason Sanders then hit a perfect surprise onside kick that Donnie Duncan recovered for New Mexico. Jordan got hurt on the drive, leaving the game for good, and Austin Apodaca came in and scored his first career rushing touchdown on an option keeper to make it 42-37. The Lobos went for two and missed the conversion.

UNM got the break it needed on a missed field goal, but UNM turned the ball over on downs. On second-and-3 at the Wildcat 18, DaVonte' Neal broke up a pass intended for Carlos Wiggins, and then Chris Davis fumbled an option pitch for a loss of seven yards. On fourth-and-13 in no-man's land, UNM went for it, but Apodaca was sacked. That led to a field goal and a 45-37 lead for Arizona, leaving UNM with one last chance.

Taking over at the 26 with 1:29 and no timeouts, UNM picked up two first downs to get to the Arizona 36, but there were just 35 seconds left. Looking for a gain hitter, Apodaca was pressured, and his pass missed Dameon Gamblin and fell into the waiting arms of Cam Denson for a game-ending interception.

UNM opened the scoring with a 37-yard Zack Rogers field goal, but Arizona used a couple of long passes to go up 14-3. Jordan had his first rushing touchdown of the day to cut into that lead, but Arizona answered on an Anu Solomon run.

UNM scored an unlikely touchdown on a 92-yard pass from Jordan to Delane Hart-Johnson, the second-longest in UNM history and the fourth-longest in bowl history. Hart-Johnson outraced his brother Will Parks to the pylon for the score.

However, Arizona scored just before and just after halftime to boost the lead to 18, setting the stage for UNM's near-comeback.

2016 GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 17, 2016 -- Albuquerque
New Mexico 23, UTSA 20

The University of New Mexico Lobos got plenty of stops on defense, just enough offense, and one heck of a big-time field goal as the Lobos defeated the UTSA Roadrunners 23-20 to win their first bowl game since 2007, and just their second in the last 55 years.

Quarterback Lamar Jordan won Offensive MVP honors by rushing for a game-high 81 yards on 13 carries, and then hitting 3-of-4 passes for 77 yards, while Dakota Cox won Defensive MVP honors with 10 tackles, including 1.5 for loss and a pass break-up.

The win gave the Lobos a final mark of 9-4, the second-most wins in school history, and tied the record for 16 wins in back-to-back seasons. For head coach Bob Davie, it marked his first bowl victory as a head coach in five tries.

Despite being held to its lowest offensive output of the season, the Lobos moved the ball when it needed to. UTSA actually opened up the scoring with a 27-yard field goal from Victor Falcon, but UNM answered right before the end of the first quarter with a 9-play, 66-yard drive capped off by Richard McQuarley's 1-yard run. UTSA scoring first was probably good, as the team that has scored first in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl has lost the last five games.

Late in the first half, UTSA got down inside the Lobo 1-yard line for a first and goal but couldn't get a touchdown. Back-to-back penalties moved the ball just outside the 10-yard line. Dalton Sturm then threw two incompletions.

Bowl History

After the second, a personal foul made it 3rd-and-goal from the 26. UTSA moved it closer for another Falcon field goal.

UNM then got the ball back with 1:32 left in the half, and got a first down at the Lobo 47 with 12 seconds left as Jordan scrambled on 3rd-and-2. Jordan then threw his first pass of the game, completing a pass to Teriyon Gipson to the UTSA 35. Jason Sanders then trotted out for a 52-yard field goal into the teeth of a 26 MPH wind. Sanders drilled it, and it cut through the wind like a knife for a career-long kick and a 10-6 lead. UNM then got the ball to start the second half and scored on a 10-yard Teriyon Gipson run after converting on 4th-and-1 at the 12. The extra point was blocked, making it 16-6, and that's where it stayed until the fourth. In the fourth, UTSA cut the lead to 16-13 when Sturm hit Trevor Stevens for a 16-yard pass, and with 9:43 to go, UNM needed a drive. They got one.

Starting at the Lobo 25, Jordan went to work. On 2nd-and-12, he lofted a perfect pass to Dameon Gamblin for 34 yards to the 'Runner 43-yard line. McQuarley then converted a 3rd-and-6, and followed with a 15-yard hitter around the edge. All the while, the clock was ticking down as UNM ground down the field. From the 12, McQuarley ran for two, Gipson followed with six, and McQuarley rushed for one to the 3-yard line, setting up fourth down. Head Coach Bob Davie went for it, and McQuarley barreled to the 1-yard line. He would score on the next play to make it 23-13 with 2:22 left. That was all UNM needed. UTSA did score with 25 seconds left to cut it to 23-20. Chris Davis grabbed the onside kick, and UNM took three knees for the win.
