YEAR REVIEW

- A new era began at the University of Minnesota men's basketball program when Niko Medved was hired on March 24, 2025, to lead his alma mater. Starting his career as a Gopher student manager under Clem Haskins, the Roseville, Minn., native returned to Minnesota after a seven-year stint at Colorado State. Due to the coaching change, Minnesota returned two and added 13 athletes to the roster in the 2025-26 season.
- Minnesota completed the 2025-26 season with a 15-18 overall record and 8-12 in Big Ten play. Minnesota finished 11th in the league standings in Niko Medved's first year at the helm of the Golden Gopher men's basketball. The Gophers went 13-4 at Williams Arena this past season, including six Big Ten wins at home.
- Minnesota was one of eight teams selected for the post-season's College Basketball Crown (CBC), April 1-5 in Las Vegas. Minnesota faced Baylor on April 1 and fell 67-48, ending its season. Cade Tyson ended his Gopher career with 19 points, while Langston Reynolds also completed his collegiate career with 13.
- The Big Ten sent nine teams to the NCAA Tournament and two to the CBC. During the regular season, Minnesota defeated ranked teams Indiana, Iowa, Michigan State and also defeated NCAA-tourney-bound UCLA. Michigan went on to earn the Big Ten's first NCAA title since 1999 in a 69-63 win over UConn.
- Minnesota went through three different lineups during the course of the season due to injury. The Gophers' most consistent lineup contained Langston Reynolds, Isaac Asuma, Bobby Durkin, Cade Tyson and Jaylen Crocker-Johnson as the Gophers went 6-8 in that span. However, a foot injury sidelined Crocker-Johnson at the end of the season as Grayson Grove took over the starting center spot. Minnesota went 4-5 during that time.
- Due to injuries this season, Minnesota has shortened its bench to six players since mid-February. In that span, however, the Gophers went 4-5, with a road win at Oregon, split with Rutgers, and won over the UCLA Bruins and Northwestern to end the regular season on senior day. Of the five losses, three came on the road at Washington, then-No. 3 Michigan and Indiana, while the last two came in the Big Ten Tournament (Rutgers) and at the CBC (Baylor). Isaac Asuma was the only Gopher to start in all 33 games, while he, Langston Reynolds and Bobby Durkin were the only individuals to play in all games this past season.
- Minnesota honored its senior class in the regular season finale vs. Northwestern. Cade Tyson, Langston Reynolds, Maximus Gizzi and RJ Spencer were honored with their families. Tyson finished his career playing in 124 games and 1,621 points, while Langston Reynolds played in 125 collegiate games and scored 1,171 points. Maximus Gizzi joined the Gophers

In the 2024-25 season, Anderson ranked second on the Trojans' team in scoring, where he averaged 17.7 points, 7.3 rebounds, and hit 90 threes to shoot 43 percent. He enters his senior year with 1,132 career points. With D1 Minnesota this past summer, Anderson turned heads when he helped his team finish as an Adidas 3SSB national runner-up. He was named to the All-Circuit Second Team following that performance. Anderson was also named a Prep Hoops all-state selection. Anderson is the second person in his family to play in a Golden Gopher uniform, as his grandfather, Marlo Miller, played for Minnesota from 1957-60.

MEDVED ON ANDERSON:

"Nolen is a great combination of size and skill," head coach Niko Medved said. "He's a big wing that has won at a high level both in high school and in the AAU circuit. He's a great shooter who has continued to improve each year. Nolen plays with a chip on his shoulder and is an outstanding competitor. We're thrilled to have him as a Gopher."

CHADRACK MPOYI

F • 6-11 • 240 • LIKASI, CONGO DRC

Mpoyi, a 6-foot, 11-inch center from Likasi, Democratic Republic of the Congo, plays in California with Crean Lutheran. Playing only five years of basketball, Mpoyi came to the United States from the Congo and gained attention. He played for All In Elite at the Under Armour Circuit where he played in 11 games and averaged 8.3 points and 6.5 rebounds. He shot 57 percent from the field, had four double-digit point games and two double-digit rebound games. His highest scoring performance came against Atlanta Xpress where he scored 16 points and collected nine rebounds, while he registered 11 points and 11 rebounds vs. Arizona Select. He also helped Crean Lutheran to an ASEC Section 7 championship this past summer.

MEDVED ON MPOYI:

"Chadrack has an incredible upside, has a great motor and is athletic," Medved said. "One of the first things we noticed was how well he moves for his size and his ability to move his feet and protect the rim. He's only been playing the sport for five years, but we're excited to see what he can do here. Off the court, he's a great young man and fits what we're looking to build here."

CED TOMES

G • 6-1 • 170 • WOODBURY, MINN.

TOP 10 MINNESOTA MR. BASKETBALL FINALIST

Tomes, a 6-foot, 1-inch guard, plays with East Ridge High School and D1 Minnesota. As a junior last year, Tomes averaged 27.2 points per game, 4.0 rebounds per game and shot 84 percent from the charity stripe. Tomes set East Ridge's single-game (42) and single-season (735 points) scoring records. He enters his senior year with 1,644 points. Last year, Tomes led the Raptors to a 21-7 record as he was named the Suburban East Conference Player of the Year. Tomes was also a multiple all-conference selection, Prep Hoops all-state honoree and Star Tribune's All-Minnesota boys basketball team. With D1 Minnesota this past summer, Tomes helped his team reach the Adidas 3SSB national title game, finishing as runner-up. A standout athlete, Tomes also plays football for East Ridge.

MEDVED ON TOMES:

"Cedric is a versatile point guard who is a true leader and a great decision maker," Medved said. "He's a three-level scorer and understands how to win. Ced continues to improve each year and has really built his game throughout his career. A great athlete from an athletic basketball family, we're really excited to have Ced in the maroon and gold."

A new era in Golden Gopher Basketball started when Niko Medved was named the University of Minnesota men's basketball coach on March 24, 2025. Medved, a Roseville, Minn., product and Minnesota graduate, is the 19th head coach in program history.

Medved completed his first year with the Gophers and 13th season as a head coach marking a 237-190 career record. In his first year with the Gophers, Medved constructed a roster of just two returners and 13 newcomers and guided the Gophers to a 15-18 overall record. Minnesota established an 8-12 record in the Big Ten, which placed the Gophers 11th in the league standings. Of those eight wins, three came against ranked opponents. In addition, Cade Tyson was named All-Big Ten honorable mention and NABC all-district honors. Minnesota was also invited to postseason play as the Gophers competed in the College Basketball Crown in Las Vegas.

Medved, who earned both a bachelor's and master's degree from Minnesota, returned to his alma mater after a seven-year head coaching stint at Colorado State. It marks the second time Medved has been a coach at Minnesota, as he was an assistant coach during the 2006-07 season. Medved started his collegiate basketball career at Williams Arena when he served as a student manager under former Gopher coach Clem Haskins.

Medved completed a historic run at Colorado State, as the Rams competed in the NCAA Tournament three of the last four years he was there. In the 2024-25 season, Medved led Colorado State to a Mountain West tournament championship and automatic NCAA Tournament berth, where they advanced to the Round of 32 with a First Round win over Memphis. Nique Clifford went on to be drafted 24th overall in the 2025 NBA Draft by the Sacramento Kings and became Medved's second player drafted in three years.

In 2023-24, Medved led Colorado State to its highest ranking in school history, as the Rams reached No. 13 in the Associated Press poll and No. 12 in the Coaches Poll. The Rams earned an NCAA Tournament at-large bid and defeated Virginia for the program's first NCAA Tournament win since 2012. Medved's first NCAA Tournament appearance came in 2022, which was the program's first in nine seasons. Medved was also the College Insider's recipient of the 2023-24 Skip Prosser Man of the Year award, which is presented annually to the Division I coach who wins with integrity, on and off the court.

In his time with the Rams, Medved recorded the second-most wins (143) in program history and was the fifth coach in school history to reach 100 wins. He was Colorado State's only coach to record 20 or more wins in a season five times. Medved was named the United States Basketball Writers Association's District Coach of the Year in 2022 and 2021.

During Medved's time, Colorado State had a first-team All-Mountain West selection for seven consecutive years: Nico Carvacho (2019, 2020), David Roddy (2021, 2022), Isaiah Stevens (2023, 2024) and Nique Clifford (2025). In all, there were 18 all-conference selections, including Roddy as the 2022 Mountain West Player of the Year. In addition, the Rams also had five NABC and USBWA all-district honorees under Medved's watch. Roddy was named a 2021 All-America selection and went on to be the 23rd overall pick in the 2022 NBA draft and currently playing with the Toronto Raptors. Stevens became Colorado State's all-time leading scorer and assist leader at 2,350 points and 853 assists, respectively. He is currently on a two-way contract with the Sacramento Kings.

Before his time at Colorado State, Medved spent the 2017-18 season at Drake, where the Bulldogs went 17-17 overall and were 10-8 in the Missouri Valley Conference. That mark placed the Bulldogs third in the league that season, a five-game league win improvement from the previous year. Their 17-win season placed the Bulldogs in the Collegelinsider.com Tournament, which was Drake's first postseason competition in six years.

Medved began his head coaching career at Furman, where he led the Paladins from 2013-17. His stint there was capped off by a 2017 Southern Conference regular season championship and Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors. It was Furman's first regular season championship in 26 years and first 20-win season since 2011. Medved twice coached the Southern Conference Player of the Year in Stephen Croone (2015-16) and Devin Sibley, Jr. (2016-17). After taking over a seven-win team, Furman improved each year under Medved with nine, 11, 19 and 23-win seasons, including two Collegelinsider.com Tournament appearances in 2016 and 2017.

After serving as a Gopher student manager, Medved began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Macalester College from 1997-99. He then was an assistant coach at Furman from 1999-2006 before returning to Minnesota for the 2006-07 season. Medved was also an assistant coach at Colorado State from 2007-13 before beginning his head coaching career at Furman in 2013.

Medved earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology (1997) and his master's in sport management (1999) from the University of Minnesota.

He and his wife, Erica, have two daughters, Aly and Taylor.
