CREDITS

This edition of the Cal Poly Women's Soccer History and Record Book was researched, edited and designed by Cal Poly Athletics assistant communications director Donovan Aird (daired@calpoly.edu).

CAL POLY WOMEN'S SOCCER HONORS

Note: The program started as an NCAA Division II independent in 1992, and played the 1993 season in the California Collegiate Athletic Association.

Cal Poly then moved to the Division I level before the 1994 season, again playing as an independent, before joining the Big West Conference prior to 1996.

Kolleen Kassis set several Cal Poly records. A member of the first four Mustang squads, Kassis helped lead Cal Poly to the 1993 Division II national championship match (above, left) in Miami Shores, Fla.

She earned Most Outstanding Offensive Player honors for the tournament.

After the program moved to the Division I level, Kassis was an NSCAA All-West Region first-team selection in both 1994 and 1995.

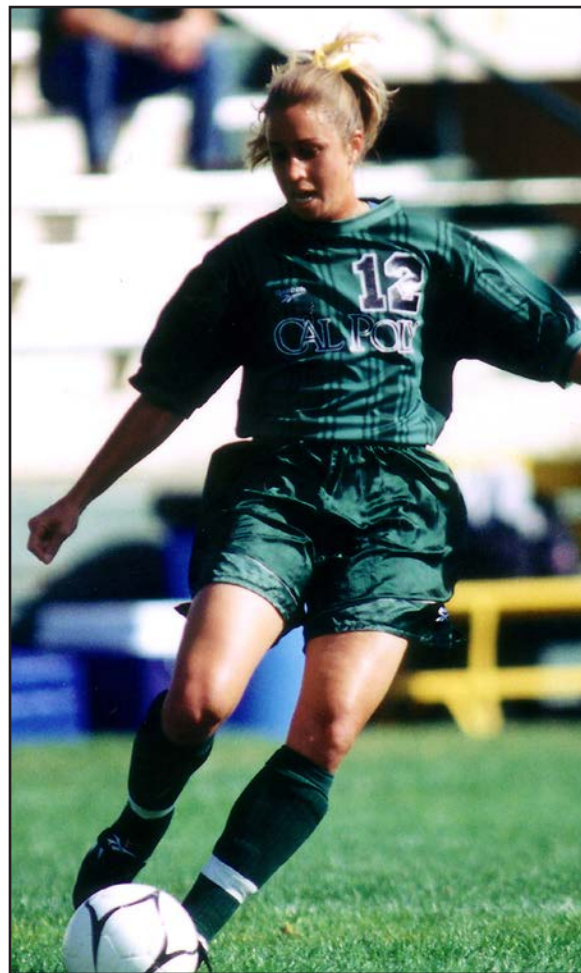

In 1995, the Mustangs finished the year ranked No. 21 in the nation in the Intercollegiate Soccer Coaches Association of America poll.

Kassis (now Kolleen McNamee) was inducted into the Cal Poly Athletics Hall of Fame in 2004.

CAL POLY WOMEN'S SOCCER RECORDS

INDIVIDUAL (CONTINUED)

In the summer before her senior season at Cal Poly, Gina Ocegüera played in three matches during the 1999 World Cup as a sweeper for Mexico.

A former Big West Conference Player of the Year, Ocegüera was later chosen in the fifth round (with the 35th overall pick) by the San Diego Spirit in the 2000 Women's United Soccer Association Draft.

She also played for the Bay Area CyberRays in the WUSA's inaugural 2001 season, and started at defender in the league championship match against the Atlanta Beat at Foxboro Stadium in Massachusetts.

In front of a crowd of 21,078, the CyberRays won the first WUSA title on penalty kicks, 4-2, following a 3-3 draw through overtime.

NOTE REGARDING OVERTIMES: Through 1996, in the regular season, there were two 15-minute supplements that were fully played out. However, in the postseason, if the game was not followed the next day by another game, the two 15-minute supplements were followed by — if necessary — two ensuing 15-minute golden goal periods, followed by penalties.

In the event that there was a game the next day, the only difference is the pair of sudden-victory periods was skipped, and it went to a penalty kick session immediately after the first extra 30 minutes.

From 1997 to 2001, for regular-season matches, there were two 15-minute golden goal periods, but the postseason format remained the same as it had been in previous years. Then in 2002, the current format was implemented: two 10-minute golden goal periods, followed by penalties in the postseason only.

In 2008, Carrie Andrews helped lead the Mustangs to a 2-1 overtime win at No. 24-ranked Santa Clara on the way to winning the Big West Conference Defensive Player of the Year award.

Julianne Grinstead (25) put away the golden goal in the 104th minute of this 3-2 win at UC Irvine on Oct. 4, 2009.

She won the Big West Defensive Player of the Year honor as a senior that year.

Shandon Rovetta played all 90 minutes when the Mustangs held Boise State without a shot on goal during a 3-0 win on Sept. 11, 2011 (at Portland State).

Rovetta, shown during a 1-0 shutout win over UC Santa Barbara on Oct. 28, 2012, was an all-conference defender as a senior.

COACHING

ALEX CROZIER, 1992-PRESENT

- Ranked No. 31 all-time nationally in career victories entering the 2015 season (No. 4 among active coaches at California universities)
- Has the most career victories among Big West coaches, both in Big West play (99) and overall (272-159-47)
- Has helped the program earn the most All-Big West Conference selections (122) of any school since the league formed in 1996
- Has led Cal Poly to six NCAA Tournament appearances, three Big West Tournament championships and eight regular-season conference titles

Alex Crozier, a 1984 graduate of Cal Poly, has been the head coach of the Mustangs since the program started at the intercollegiate level in 1992.

He has been named the Big West Conference Coach of the Year four times. Additionally, in 1993, the program's last year before moving up to the Division I level, he was honored as the NSCAA's National Division II Coach of the Year.

ATTENDANCE

Nov. 3, 2000 — vs. UC Santa Barbara — 3,016

Cal Poly's single-game home attendance record is 3,016 — at the 1-0 overtime regular-season finale win over UC Santa Barbara on Nov. 3, 2000.

The Mustangs had outshot the Gauchos 11-8 (and earned six corners to UCSB's three) before the 94th minute, when Sandy Ocegueda found Megan Schlegel (pictured below), who dribbled up the left side and fired inside the far post.

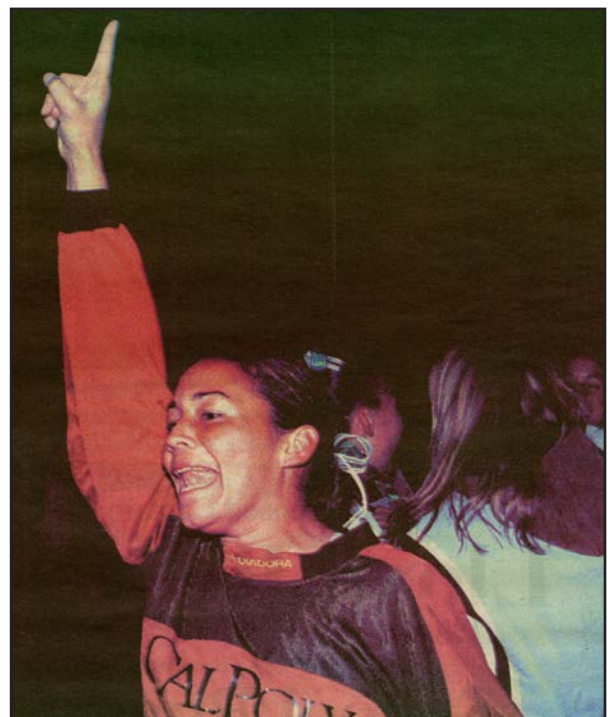

Mustang head coach Alex Crozier deemed it "the most exciting way to win a game." Cal Poly's Natalia Garcia (shown at right) made four saves in the shutout.

"It was definitely my most emotional goal ever," Schlegel told the Mustang Daily of her ninth of 10 goals that season.

"One of the biggest factors was the crowd," Cal Poly midfielder Katie Kassis commented. "When we stepped on the field in overtime, we felt like we had to win just to hear the crowd go nuts."

CAL POLY WOMEN'S SOCCER AT NCAA TOURNAMENT

Mustangs head coach Alex Crozier has led his teams to the second-most career wins of all active Division I coaches in the state of California.

Note: The program started in 1992 as an NCAA Division II independent, and played the 1993 season in the California Collegiate Athletic Association.

Cal Poly then moved to the Division I level before the 1994 season, and joined the Big West Conference in 1996.

Haley Walker earned second-team All-West Region status as a midfielder in 2013, when she helped direct the top-scoring attack in the Big West.

She won two conference titles during her career.

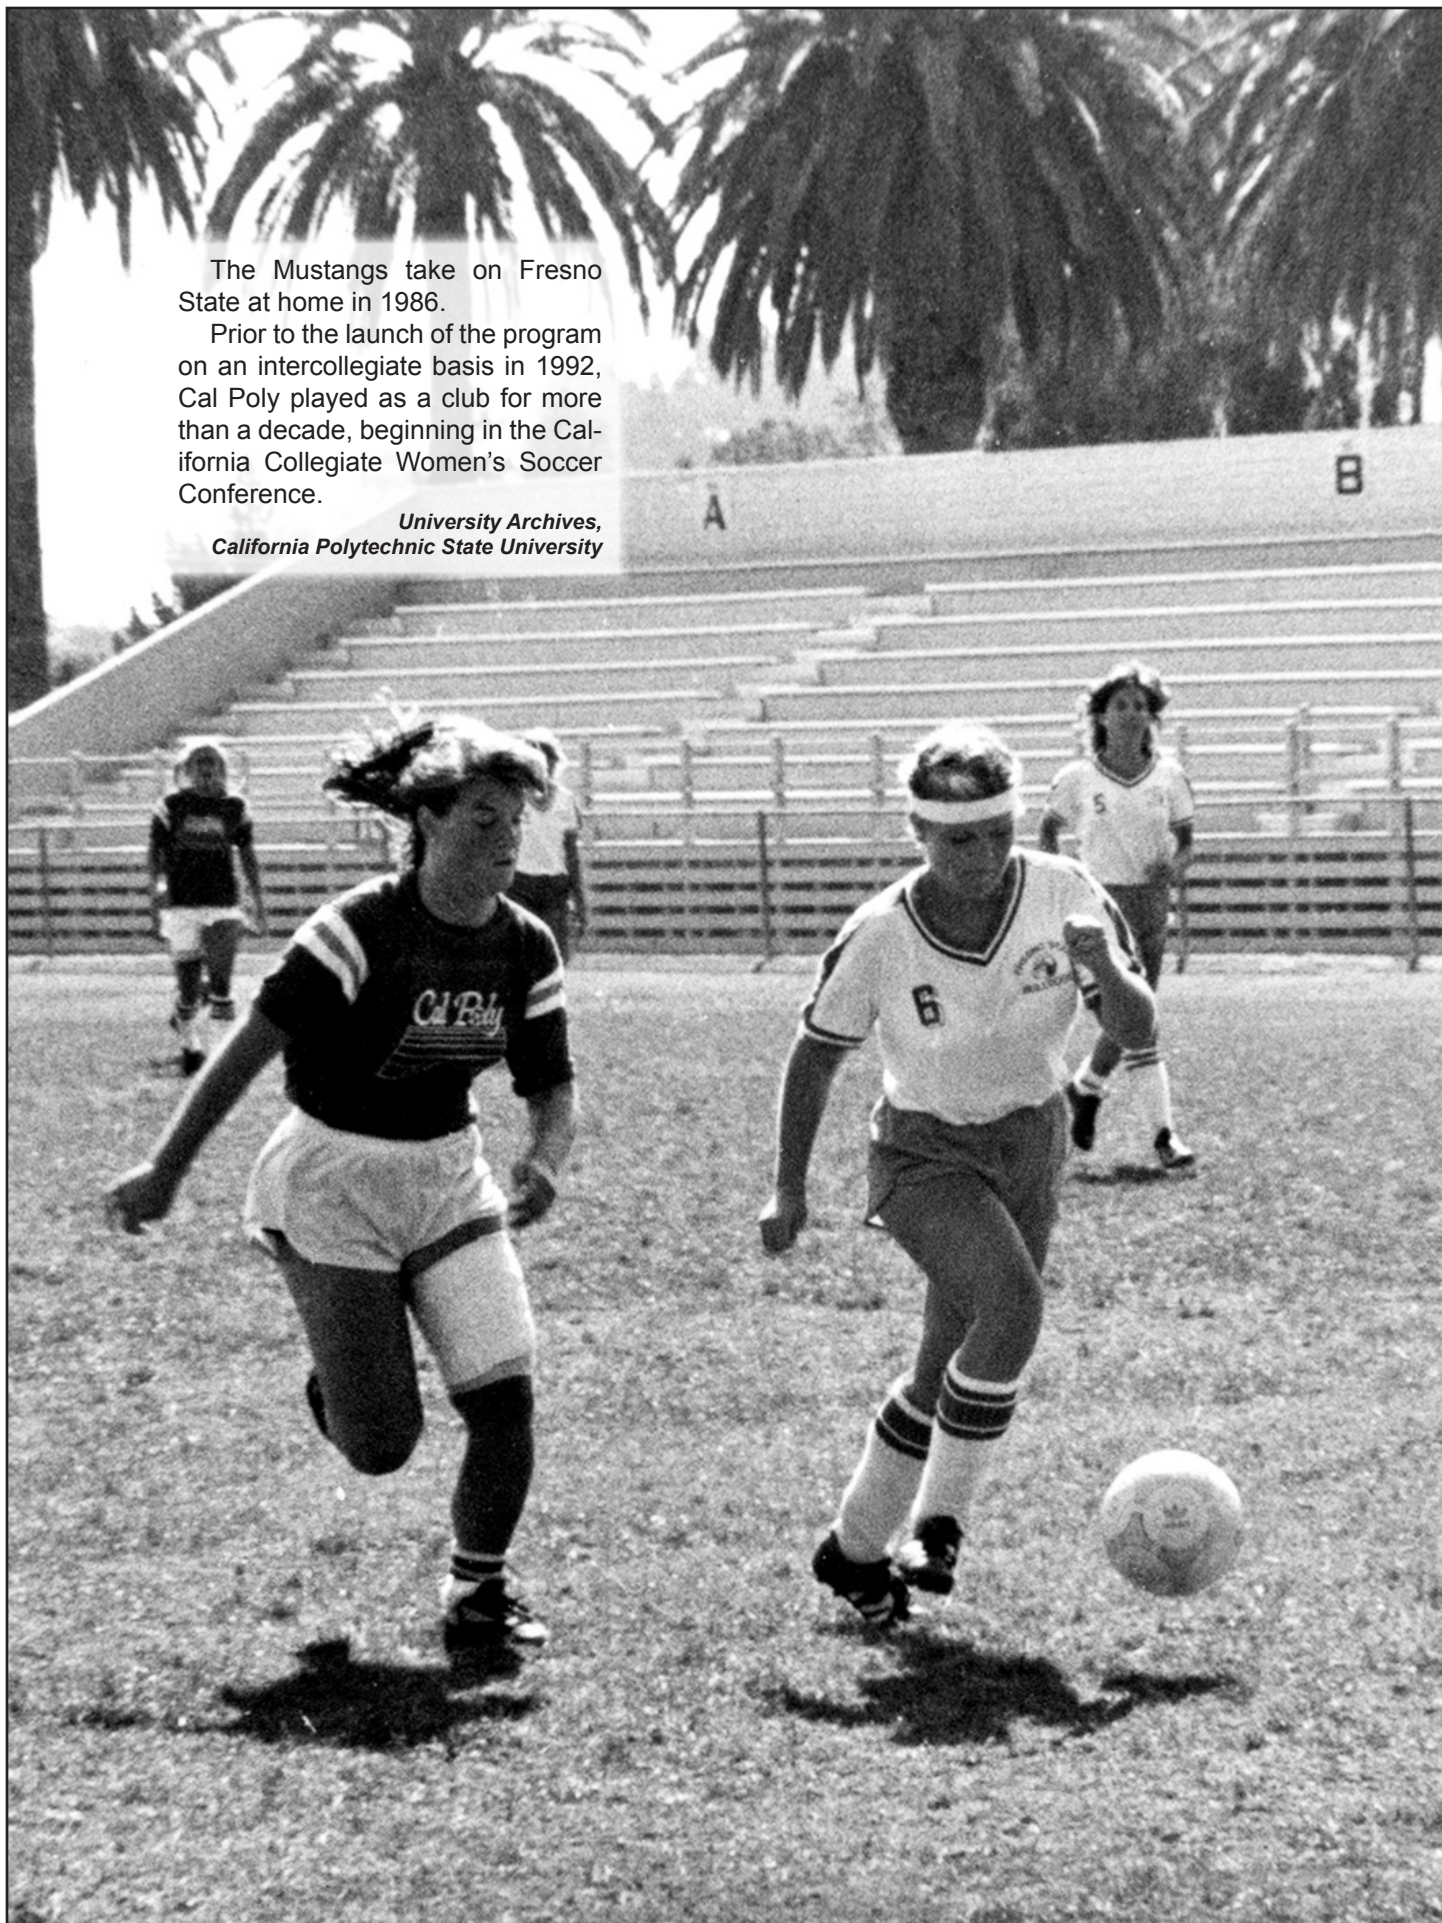

Cal Poly center back Robin Mertens was an all-conference first-team honoree as a senior after accomplishing the rare feat of playing every minute all season (1,828'), becoming the first Mustang since 2011 to never come off the field.

The Mustangs take on Fresno State at home in 1986.

Prior to the launch of the program on an intercollegiate basis in 1992, Cal Poly played as a club for more than a decade, beginning in the California Collegiate Women's Soccer Conference.
