Evan Wick placed third at 165 pounds in 2022 NCAAs, his fourth All-American finish.

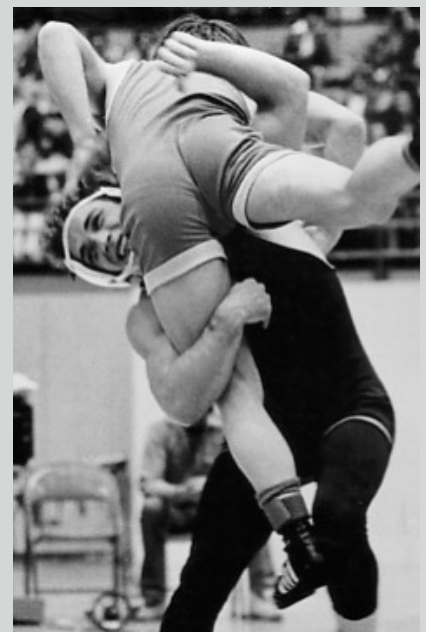

Cal Poly's 1968-69 wrestling team hosted and captured the NCAA Division II national championship, the third of eight titles from 1966-74.

CAL POLY WRESTLING OLYMPIANS

BORIS NOVACHKOV

The Cal Poly wrestling program has produced two Olympians. Pat Lovell qualified for the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo in the light heavyweight division of Greco-Roman wrestling. A Mustang wrestler in the late 1950s, Lovell has been inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame, the California Wrestling Hall of Fame and, in 1989, the Cal Poly Athletics Hall of Fame.

Lovell, who split his two matches in Tokyo, passed away in Santa Cruz, Calif., on Nov. 29, 2018, at age 81 after a long coaching and administrative career.

Second Mustang wrestling Olympian is Boris Novachkov, who competed in freestyle wrestling at the 2016 Summer Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Competing for his native Bulgaria, Novachkov split his two matches in his first Olympic appearance.

At Carioca Arena 2, Novachkov opened his bid for the 65-kilogram (143-pound) freestyle title with a 10-7 triumph over Meysam Nasiri of Iran. Novachkov jumped to a 4-0 lead in the first period and scored a pair of misdirection takedowns in the second period en route to the win.

In the Round of 16, Novachkov fell 7-4 to Franklin Gomez of Puerto Rico. Novachkov trailed 1-0 after the first period but scored two takedowns in the second period for a 4-1 lead. Gomez, however, rallied late with six unanswered points — a takedown, turn and double — for the victory.

Gomez, who like Novachkov has dual citizenship and was an NCAA national champion at Michigan State, lost in the quarterfinal round, eliminating Novachkov from competition. He finished eighth in the field of 21 wrestlers.

To earn his spot in the Olympics, Novachkov earned a gold medal at the Last Chance Olympic Qualifier at the Bagcilar Sports Complex in Istanbul, Turkey, in May.

On the way to the gold medal, Novachkov defeated 2012 NCAA national champion and four-time NCAA All-American Frank Molinaro of Penn State 5-2 in the quarterfinals.

Novachkov, who holds dual citizenship in Bulgaria and the United States, trained at the University of Illinois under former Cal Poly assistant coach Mark Perry.

Novachkov was Cal Poly's first three-time NCAA Division I All-American with his third-place finish in the 2012 NCAA National Championships at 141 pounds. He was runner-up in 2011 and placed seventh at 133 pounds as a sophomore in 2010.

During his four years as a Mustang, Novachkov posted a 121-33 record and was a two-time Pac-12 champion in 2010 and 2011. He was also named Cal Poly's Male Athlete of the Year for the 2011-12 school year and shared the Mustang's Most Outstanding Wrestler Award.

A 2007 graduate of Fremont High School in Sunnyvale, Calif., Novachkov was a two-time state champion, once at 103 pounds (2006) and once at 125 (2007). He compiled a career record of 145-21 as a prep, including a 90-3 record spanning 2006 to 2007. Novachkov also was a two-time National Freestyle champion and two-time Greco-Roman National champion.

In April 2016, two-time NCAA All-American Chase Pami, another former Mustang wrestler, finished third at 65 kg in the U.S. Last Chance Olympic Qualifier held in Des Moines, Iowa.

Former Cal Poly wrestling coach John Azevedo, a graduate of CSU Bakersfield, qualified for the 1980 Summer Olympics in Moscow. The United States boycotted those Games and Azevedo did not get a chance to compete.

Pat Lovell in the early 60s.

MUSTANG RUNNERS-UP AT NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

Chad Mendes, 2008

Chad Mendes completed one of the most storied seasons by a Cal Poly wrestler in the program's history in 2008, tallying a 30-0 record before dropping a 5-2 decision to Ohio State's J Jagers in the NCAA Championship bout at 141 pounds.

Mendes will be remembered as one of the all-time greats to walk the halls of Mott Athletics Center. The Hanford, Calif., native recorded seven falls, eight major decisions and one technical fall in 2008. He pinned Paul Moseman of CSU Bakersfield in just 13 seconds at the Fullerton Open and wooed a large crowd at Cal Poly by pinning the No. 2-ranked 141-pounder in the nation, Minnesota's Manuel Rivera, in 1 minute, 34 seconds. At the NCAA Championships, Mendes won his first match by fall in just 34 seconds.

Among his many accomplishments, Mendes won a Pac-12 title in 2008 and was also named the conference's Wrestler of the Year. He also won tournament titles at the Michigan State Open and Fullerton Open and became the eighth wrestler in program history to navigate an undefeated dual slate.

Mendes finished his career with an impressive 64-14 record. He was an All-American at 125 pounds with a sixth-place finish in 2006 before bulking up to 141 for his senior year in the 2007-08 season.

On Jan. 15, 2008, Mendes became the first Cal Poly wrestler to earn a No. 1 ranking by pollsters since Scott Heaton and Rick Worel did so together in 1980.

After graduating from Cal Poly in the spring of 2008, Mendes embarked upon a professional fighting career with the Palace Fighting Championship circuit. After winning all five fights, he signed with the WEC (World Extreme Cagefighting) in October 2009, posting a 4-0 mark before the WEC merged with the Ultimate Fighting Championship in 2010.

Following a loss to Alexander Volkanovski on Dec. 29, 2018 at UFC 232, Mendes retired from the sport with a 9-5 record in the UFC, 18-5 overall. His only other losses were to UFC featherweight champion Jose Aldo in January 2012 and October 2014, to Conor McGregor of Ireland in 2015 and to Frankie Edgar, also in 2015.

"It was a great opportunity and a great honor to be competing in the UFC," said Mendes. "This is where I've always wanted to fight and it was awesome to be a part of such a huge organization."

Mendes signed with Bare Knuckle Fighting Championship in August 2021, but announced his retirement from competition three months later.

Chase Pami, 2010

Cal Poly's Chase Pami became the sixth NCAA Division I runner-up in Mustang wrestling history in March 2010. Trying to become the third Division I national champion, Pami led 2-1 early in the first period, but eventually fell 6-4 to top-seeded and four-time NCAA All-American J.P. O'Connor of Harvard in the 157-pound final at the Qwest Center Omaha.

Pami closed out his Cal Poly career with a 29-7 record as a senior and a 100-35 career mark.

Pami, the lowest seeded wrestler in the championship finals, tried to become the first Cal Poly wrestler to capture a Division I national title since Mark DiGirolamo accomplished the feat in 1976. Tom Kline won in 1969. Pami earned his 100th career win in the semifinals with a 13-5 major decision against Justin Lister of Binghamton.

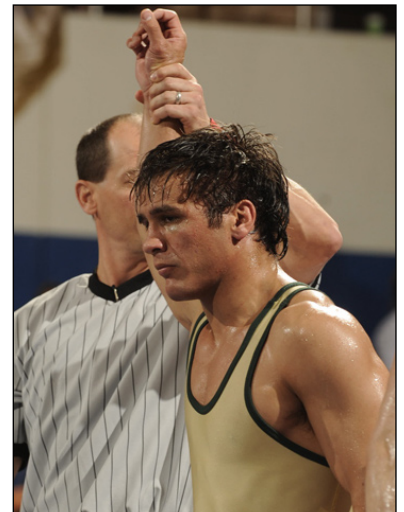

Pami placed seventh in the 2009 NCAA meet.

Pami also joins Kline (1968), John Woods (1969), Cliff Hatch (1975), Montano (1983) and Chad Mendes (2008) as the only Mustangs to earn second-place finishes at the Division I nationals.

Pami captured back-to-back Pac-12 titles at 157 pounds in 2008 and 2009. He was an NCAA qualifier all four seasons at Cal Poly, finishing 27-9 as a junior, 24-6 as a sophomore and 20-13 as a freshman.

He was a two-time Nevada state champion and four-time high school All-American while wrestling at Cimarron Memorial High School in Las Vegas. He was 185-14 in his prep career. In December 2011, Pami qualified for the U.S. Olympic Team Trials, which were held in April 2012 at Carver-Hawkeye Arena in Iowa City, Iowa. Pami placed fourth at the Trials.

Pami, who has trained at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo., recently finished third at the U.S. Open Freestyle Championships at 70kg and won gold at the Paris International in January 2017 before retiring from competition in early 2019. He was a volunteer assistant coach at Air Force for the 2015-16 season and served three seasons in the same capacity at Penn while also serving as a coach for Pennsylvania RTC. He currently owns Gold Rush Wrestling in Las Vegas.

Boris Novachkov, 2011

In 2011, for the third time in four years, a Cal Poly wrestler captured second place in the NCAA Division I National Championships. At Philadelphia, junior Boris Novachkov, seeded third, won four matches to reach the 141-pound final, but for the second time in the 2010-11 season, he dropped a 3-2 decision to Kellen Russell of Michigan. Those were Novachkov's only losses against 31 victories that season.

Novachkov, who placed seventh at 133 pounds and earned NCAA All-American honors a year earlier, earned a 6-1 decision over Buffalo sophomore Andrew Schutt, followed by a 4-2 decision over Matthew Bonson of Lock Haven on the first day of competition at the nationals. The next day, he shut out No. 6 Andrew Alton of Penn State 2-0 in the quarterfinals and earned a 9-3 victory over second-seeded Michael Thorn of Minnesota in the semifinals.

In 2012, Novachkov became the first four-time Division I national qualifier at Cal Poly and first three-time All-American, placing third at 141 pounds in St. Louis. The two-time Pac-12 champion finished his Mustang career with a 121-23 record.

A graduate of Fremont High School in Sunnyvale, Novachkov went 4-2 in the 2010 nationals, with both losses decided in overtime. Prior to the 2011 nationals, he won the Fullerton Open as well as the Mid-lands and placed second at the Las Vegas Invitational.

Four of his wins in the 2010-11 season were by fall and Novachkov also won four matches by technical fall and five by major decision. He posted a spotless 11-0 record in dual meets and was 10-2 against nationally ranked wrestlers.

Novachkov was 13-0 in duals and 34-4 overall as a senior with four falls. He placed first in the Cowboy Open and Reno Tournament of Champions.

He has trained with the Titan Mercury Wrestling Club and at Stanford at the California Regional Training Center. Novachkov wrestles for his native Bulgaria, competed in the 2015 World Championships in Las Vegas and qualified for the 2016 Olympics in May 2016 (see previous page). He lost his only match as a member of Bellator MMA in 2019 and, together with his brother Filip, runs Bulgarian Muscle, which provides wrestling training and medical services.

VICTOR GLOVER: ASTRONAUT AND WRESTLER

In the fall of 2020, Victor Glover traveled in space for the first time, seven years after he and seven others were named to NASA's 21st astronaut class.

In mid-November, the 1999 Cal Poly graduate in general engineering and former Mustang wrestler joined three other astronauts -- NASA's Mike Hopkins and Shannon Walker and the Japanese Space Agency's Soichi Noguchi -- in a six-month journey on the International Space Station, conducting research and performing other tasks.

Launch of the SpaceX Crew Dragon aboard a Falcon 9 rocket from Cape Canaveral took place on Nov. 15, 2020, and he returned to earth in May 2021.

A Cal Poly-trained engineer and active-duty Navy aviator, Glover is the fourth Cal Poly graduate to serve as a NASA astronaut, joining Robert L. "Hoot" Gibson (B.S., Aerospace Engineering, 1969), Greg Chamitoff (B.S., Electrical Engineering, 1984) and Frederick "Rick" Sturckow (B.S., Mechanical Engineering, 1984).

Glover is serving as the pilot of the SpaceX Crew Dragon.

A Mustang wrestler in the mid-1990s, Glover spoke at the university's Spanos Theatre in July 2015. Glover discussed the benefits of STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) education as part of Cal Poly's Engineering Possibilities in College summer camp. He returned to campus in April 2022 with souvenirs from his trip into space.

The Navy lieutenant commander was among eight candidates named to NASA's 21st astronaut class in 2013 while serving as a legislative fellow in the United States Senate.

Glover was selected from the second largest number of applications NASA had ever received -- more than 6,100. His class received a wide array of technical training at space centers around the globe in preparation for missions to low-Earth orbit, an asteroid and Mars.

The California native holds a Master of Science in flight test engineering, a Master of Science in systems engineering and a Master of Military Operational Art and Science. Glover is a Naval Aviator and was a test pilot in the F/A-18 Hornet, Super Hornet and EA-18G Growler.

Though an engineering graduate, Glover also credits his role as a member of the Cal Poly wrestling team during the 1994-95 season with helping prepare him for work as an astronaut.

"Wrestling was one of the most indelible influences in my life," he said. "Someone asks me about being in the pool at the Neutral Buoyancy Laboratory and doing the EVA (Extra Vehicular Activity) training. I compare it to wrestling and how you have to be able to think in 3-D and think moves ahead if you want to go from good to great.

"Wrestling had just as much of an impact on me as the things I was learning in the lab or in engineering."

On April 3, 2023, Glover was announced as the pilot of the Artemis II mission, which is currently planned to flyby the Moon no earlier than September 2025.

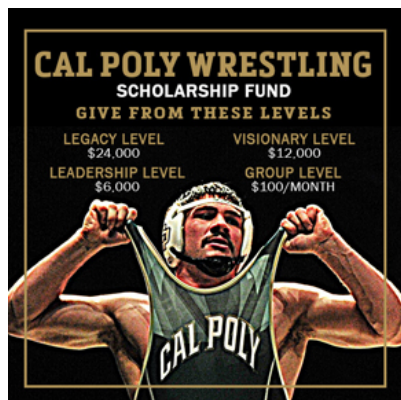

Glover currently serves on the Cal Poly College of Engineering Advancement and Advisory Board and the Cal Poly Athletic Directors Council.

In November 2018, Glover was presented the Sandra Gardebring Ogren Leadership Award.

Former Mustang wrestler Victor Glover, a member of NASA's 21st astronaut class, completed a six-month mission to the International Space Station in May 2021.

CAL POLY WRESTLING SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Cal Poly wrestling program officially launched its scholarship fund campaign in 2017.

The Wrestling Scholarship Fund provides Cal Poly wrestling with additional scholarship support to reach the goal of becoming a fully-funded program per NCAA regulations. Scholarship gifts require a five-year commitment to the specified amount, and can be used by the coaching staff immediately for recruitment and retention needs.

"Over the first few months with a soft launch of this campaign, we received $150,000 in total commitments toward our scholarship fund," head coach Jon Sioredas said. "This shows the excitement level from our alumni and supporters."

For more on the Cal Poly Wrestling Scholarship Fund and other ways to get involved, go to the Mustang Wrestling Foundation website at: gopoly.com/MWF.

"We would like to thank the Mustang Wrestling Foundation for its continued commitment to advancing our program," Sioredas said. "They have been a driving force in the quest to bring the Cal Poly wrestling program back to the national spotlight.

"And, a special thanks to president Bob Whitaker ('73) and our board members Ken Bos ('69), Jon Talbott ('73), Scott Heaton ('81), Jeff Barksdale ('83), Anthony Romero ('90), Joe Dansby ('94), Dan Lashley ('95), Kelan Bragg ('12), and Kyle Chené ('14) for their efforts in securing commitments to the fund," Sioredas added.

All gifts toward the Wrestling Scholarship Fund are fully tax deductible through the Cal Poly Foundation. Those interested in making a gift should contact Sioredas at jsioreda@calpoly.edu or 805-756-1348.

CAL POLY WRESTLING IN-STATE DOMINATION

From 1962 through 1980, Cal Poly compiled a streak of 159 consecutive matches without a loss in dual meets against wrestling teams from California.

The lone blemish during the run under head coach Vaughan Hitchcock was a draw against San Diego State in the 1963-64 season.

The streak came to an end on Jan. 22, 1981, when San Jose State earned a 20-16 victory the Mott Athletics Center.

Hitchcock was 175-14-1 against California schools in 23 seasons as head coach at Cal Poly.

IN MEMORIAM: VAUGHAN HITCHCOCK

Vaughan Hitchcock, who coached the Cal Poly wrestling program to eight NCAA Division II national championships in the late 1960s and early 1970s during a 23-year coaching career with the Mustangs, died Sept. 30, 2018, in San Luis Obispo, Calif.

Hitchcock was 84.

Hitchcock compiled a 355-112-4 record from 1962 through 1985 at Cal Poly, including a streak of over 150 consecutive victories against California opponents.

"Hitch was obviously an outstanding coach and was like a father to most of us during our wrestling days," said Lennis Cowell, who succeeded Hitchcock as head coach at Cal Poly. "He definitely had a tremendous influence on our lives. He will long be remembered."

"Great memories with Coach and Cal Poly," added Larry Morgan, an NCAA Division II national champion in 1973 and three-time Division I qualifier, finishing fifth in 1972 for All-American honors. "He was a very positive influence on many young athletes."

"I am sad, he was a giant of a man," said Ken Bos, who placed first and third in the NCAA Division II National Championships and was a two-time Division I qualifier, placing fourth in 1969. "He represented California and West Coast wrestling at a time when we were emerging as a national power."

"I was pretty tight with the guy. I wrestled for him three years and worked at his camp for almost 20 years," Bos added. "He had an impact on a lot of guys. About 66 of his former wrestlers have coached in California, Nevada and Arizona. Quite profound."

"Very sad. He was like a father to me when I really needed it," added John Woods, first- and second-place finisher in the Division II nationals and a two-time Division I qualifier and second-place finisher in 1969.

"I most remember Coach Hitchcock as a tough and intense competitor, but what impressed me about him were the times when kindness, compassion, and thoughtfulness showed through his hard exterior," said Scott Heaton, a four-time Division I national qualifier and third-place finisher in 1978. "I will miss him as a mentor and a friend."

After Cal Poly won eight NCAA Division II titles, including seven straight from 1968 through 1974, Hitchcock guided Cal Poly in its elevation of the wrestling program to Division I in time for the 1974-75 season.

Seven of his teams finished among the top ten teams nationally in the NCAA I Nationals.

Hitchcock's wrestlers won 18 NCAA Division II national championships and earned All-American honors 67 times. At the Division I level, two Mustangs claimed national titles and 22 earned All-American honors. Twice Hitchcock was named NCAA Division II Wrestling Coach of the Year.

Born Jan. 1, 1934, Hitchcock (middle of front row, surrounded by 11 of his former wrestlers in photo at left taken during Scott Heaton's induction into the California Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2015) was an outstanding football player and three-time Northern California wrestling champion at Hayward High School, where he posted a 101-2-0 career mark.

He went on to excel in both sports at Washington State in the mid-1950s. In wrestling, he was 97-4 overall with two Pacific Coast Intercollegiate titles while, in football, the full-back, guard and linebacker was selected to play in the 1956 East-West Shrine Classic. He was named Washington State's Athlete of the Year in 1956 and the football team's Player of the Year in 1955, also earning All-Pacific Coast honors.

Hitchcock coached high school wrestling at Castro Valley and Hayward high schools, posting a combined record of 72-1, winning five league championships, four CIF Section

Cal Poly hosted and won the 1969 NCAA Division II National Championships. Head coach Vaughan Hitchcock is in the back row on the left. Championships, two Northern California Invitational team titles and the 1959 state championship while at Castro Valley. He also coached football to a 16-7-1 record while at Hayward.

Hitchcock served the NCAA Division II and the sport of wrestling in many leadership capacities and coached Team USA in numerous international competitions. He was team leader of the 1976 USA Olympic Greco-Roman team and team leader and coach of the 1979 USA Freestyle Team.

Hitchcock was inducted into the Helms Amateur Wrestling Hall of Fame in 1994, the NCAA Division II Wrestling Hall of Fame in 1998 and the California Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2000. He received the National Wrestling Hall of Fame's "Lifetime to Service Award" in 2002.

He launched the Vaughan Hitchcock Wrestling Camp in 1967 and managed the annual camp until 2001.

Hitchcock is survived by his wife Patricia and four children, sons Terry and Steve and daughters Pamela and Tracy. Steve Hitchcock was a two-time NCAA Division I national qualifier in 1975 and 1976 while wrestling at Cal Poly.

ICEMAN: MY FIGHTING LIFE

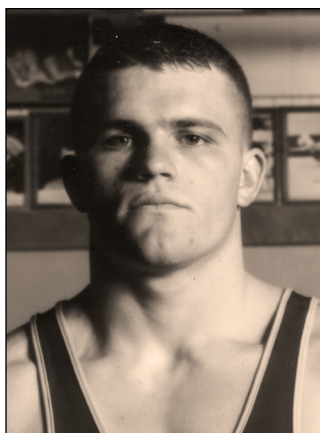

CHUCK 'THE ICEMAN' LIDDELL CAL POLY 1988-93

Chuck Liddell ranks as one of, if not the, most famous Cal Poly graduates in the school's history. For two years Chuck "The Iceman" Liddell reigned as the UFC light heavyweight champion, but before that, Liddell starred in Mott Athletics Center as a 190-pound wrestler.

Liddell released a book that chronicles his life as a fighter. Iceman: My Fighting Life debuted on February 17, 2008, and spent multiple weeks on the New York Times Bestseller list.

Liddell started training for his career at the age of 12 in Santa Barbara. He was a four-year starter on the football team at San Marcos High School, and became a Division I wrestler at Cal Poly in 1988. After spending five years on the wrestling squad, Liddell would complete his degree while pursuing a career as a professional fighter, graduating in 1995 with a B.A. in business. As a graduation gift to himself, he had his iconic tattoo inked on his scalp which reads "Koei-Kan" ("prosper with happiness.") He would then transition to mixed martial artist when he earned a purple belt in Brazilian jiu-jitsu under John Lewis, ultimately aiming for a career that would take his fame and fortune to a new level.

Liddell made his UFC debut in 1998 with a decision victory over Noe Hernandez. He soon established his reputation as a devastating striker with victories over Tito Ortiz, Renato Sobral and Wanderlei Silva over the next few years. On May 26, 2004, he knocked out Randy Couture in two minutes to win the Light Heavyweight Title. He defended his titles successfully five times, all ending with either a knockout or a TKO. He surrendered his belt after losing in a matchup with Quinton "Rampage" Jackson, three years to the day of being crowned champion.

Liddell came out of retirement in 2018 to fight Ortiz once more and, on Nov. 24 in Inglewood, was defeated in a first-round knockout (4:24).

Despite his busy schedule as a fighter and a world-renowned celebrity, Liddell still takes time to remember his roots as a Cal Poly Mustang. Liddell can often be seen matside at Cal Poly matches and is an avid fan of the team. He was inducted into the Cal Poly Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009.

Chuck Liddell "faces off" with Cal Poly 197-pound wrestler Ryan Smith during a practice session in 2008.

CAL POLY WRESTLING RECORDS

Cal Poly's only NCAA Division I national champions are Mark DiGirolamo (left), who won in 1976, and Tom Kline, the 1969 champ.

MUSTANG WRESTLING CAMP

2024 Mustang Wrestling Camp

At Camp San Luis Obispo

Week 1: June 24-28, 2024

Week 2: July 29-August 22, 2024

MustangWrestlingCamp.com

The 11th annual Mustang Wrestling Camp will take place in June and July at Camp San Luis Obispo just outside San Luis Obispo on the central coast of California.

This is a great opportunity for the wrestler in your family to spend time learning the sport of wrestling while parents can spend time at the beach, shopping, wine tasting or enjoying any of the area's outstanding restaurants and other attractions. If you are a central coast wrestler, this is a chance to attend an outstanding wrestling camp without paying the additional costs for travel and lodging.

For the fourth time, a technique camp ($6775 residential, $625 commuter), a girls wrestling camp ($625 commuter only) and a beginner wrestling camp ($495) will be offered.

The camp has sold out each of the last seven years, so we encourage everyone to register and make the deposit as soon as possible to reserve your spot. Two sessions will be offered in 2024. Go to MustangWrestlingCamp.com to sign up.

PAC-12 ALL-ACADEMIC TEAMS

Four members of the Cal Poly wrestling program were named to the Pac-12 Conference's 2022-23 Winter All-Academic Honor Roll.

Redshirt freshman Jed Campos, sophomore Abe Hinrichsen, redshirt junior Trae Vasquez and graduate student Brawley Lamer were honored for their work in the classroom.

A year earlier, senior Brawley Lamer, redshirt freshman Jack Lenox and Vasquez were honored by the conference. All three earned the same award during the 2020-21 academic year as well.

Any student-athlete on their respective team roster with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.30 or above, and who has served at least one year in residence at the institution, is eligible for the distinction.

In addition to Lamer, Lenox and Vasquez, Wyatt Cornelison and Antonio Lorenzo were honored by the Pac-12 Conference during the 2020-21 academic year.

In 2018, junior heavyweight Spencer Empey landed on the first team for the third time. Ryan Farina also earned a spot on the third team while Ryan Anderson was an honorable mention.

National qualifier Colt Shorts earned honorable mention praise in 2017. Five Mustangs were honored in 2016. Jacob Leon earned a spot on the third team for the third consecutive year. Empey joined Leon on the first team with a 3.46 GPA in mechanical engineering. Blake Kastl landed on the second team while Colt Shorts and Xavier John-son earned honorable mention praise.

The Cal Poly wrestling team also excels in the classroom according to Academic Progress Rate scores.

In 2019, the Mustang matmen earned a Public Recognition Award from the NCAA after scoring in the top 10 percent of their sport. In 2020, the Mustangs had the second-highest score in the Pac-12 Conference with a 997 APR.

1979-80: MUSTANGS TOPPLE NO. 1 IOWA

David Jack, Leonard Branzuela Score Falls in 27-12 Victory

David Jack, below, and Leonard Branzuela (inset at right) won by fall to lift Cal Poly to historic 27-12 upset of No. 1 Iowa in December 1979.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif. -- More than 40 years ago, on Dec. 8, 1979, Cal Poly set the collegiate wrestling world abuzz.

The University of Iowa, ranked No. 1 in the country and defending NCAA Division I national champion, arrived at Mott Athletics Center with a 34-match winning streak and a plethora of nationally ranked wrestlers coached by Dan Gable, the legendary Olympian.

Cal Poly, however, was not fazed that evening, as Leonard Branzuela and David Jack earned wins by fall and Gary Fischer, Scott Heaton and Rick Worel won by decisions in a 27-12 Mustang victory before

Scott Heaton, ranked No. 1 in the nation at 167 pounds, earned a 6-1 decision.

1,547 fans.

Gable, a two-time NCAA champion, world gold medalist and Olympic gold medalist, was 182-1 combined in his high school and University of Iowa careers. His only defeat came in the NCAA finals in his senior year.

Iowa would go on to claim the third of nine consecutive national team championships while injuries and illness to several key wrestlers kept Cal Poly from making a legitimate run at the title.

But on that night, 40 years ago today, Coach Vaughan Hitchcock's Mustangs parlayed three decisions, two falls and a forfeit into an historic victory.

Cal Poly, actually ranked No. 1 for a couple weeks that year, had a pair of top-ranked wrestlers in the lineup that evening -- Heaton at 167 pounds and Worel at 177.

Heaton earned a 6-1 decision over Mark Stevenson and Worel was an 8-5 winner over Ed Banach, giving Cal Poly a 21-9 lead with two bouts remaining. After an Iowa win at 190, Jack put the exclamation point on the Mustang victory with a fall in 6 minutes, 3 seconds, over Dean Phinney.

Cal Poly won the first two bouts of the dual meet and never looked back. Fischer was a 7-6 winner over Dan Glenn at 118 and Branzuela's fall in 3:31 over Jeff Kerber gave the Mustangs a 9-0 advantage.

Randy Fleury picked up the forfeit win at 150 and Cal Poly won three of the final five matches to win going away.

Fischer went on to finish fourth in the NCAA finals while Jeff Barksdale placed eighth at 142.

The 1979-80 Mustang team was honored during the Annual Alumni Weekend and Crab Feed on Jan. 17-18, 2020. Cal Poly wrestled Stanford on Jan. 17, with the crab feed held the next day inside the Recreation Center's Multi-Activity Center.

Hitchcock, who passed away Sept. 30, 2018, at the age of 84, coached the Cal Poly wrestling program to eight NCAA Division II national titles in the late 1960s and early 1970s during a 23-year coaching career with the Mustangs. He compiled a 355-112-4 record from 1962 through 1985 at Cal Poly, including a streak of over 150 consecutive victories against California opponents.

THE MUSTANG WAY

The privilege of being a Cal Poly Mustang must be earned daily and celebrated for a lifetime.

As student-athletes, we take pride in achieving athletic and academic excellence.

We are ambassadors of Cal Poly, honoring those who came before us, and inspiring those who follow.

When Mustangs support Mustangs, the Cal Poly community is strengthened.

In the spirit of our charging Mustang, we face challenges head-on with optimism and enthusiasm.

We embrace the uniqueness of each individual, and we celebrate our differences as a growth and learning opportunity to improve ourselves and the Mustang community.

Integrity and character shall guide all our decisions and actions.

We value and respect our supporters and competitors.

A strong work ethic and commitment to the Mustang team shall define how we compete.

Active involvement in the Cal Poly community is the cornerstone of a rewarding collegiate experience.

We embrace the student-athlete lifestyle, caring for mind, body and spirit.

Learn by Doing makes us unique, and separates Mustangs from the herd.

A MUSTANG IS NEVER CONQUERED.

Welcome to San Luis Obispo

Unmatched beauty that comprises miles of sandy coastline and rocky ocean outcroppings, world-class wineries and rolling hills, historic landmarks and celebrated shopping and dining opportunities that stretch from coffeehouses to diverse and award-winning cuisine are all factors that make San Luis Obispo one of the most breathtaking and impressive places to reside within the United States.

One of the oldest cities in California, San Luis Obispo was founded in 1772 with the establishment of the fifth of California's 21 Spanish missions. The city has grown and flourished since the Feb. 16, 1856 incorporation and is now a bustling college town that offers a quality of life unlike few places in the United States.

Endless hiking and biking trails along pristine lakes and mountains provide the perfect training for outdoor enthusiasts. Surfers flock to the 80 miles of continuous coastline in San Luis Obispo County. In 2009, U.S. News and World Report ranked San Luis Obispo No. 8 on its top-10 list of Best Places to Live. San Luis Obispo features a year-round climate that includes an average of 315 days of sunshine per year and a median temperature of 73 degrees.

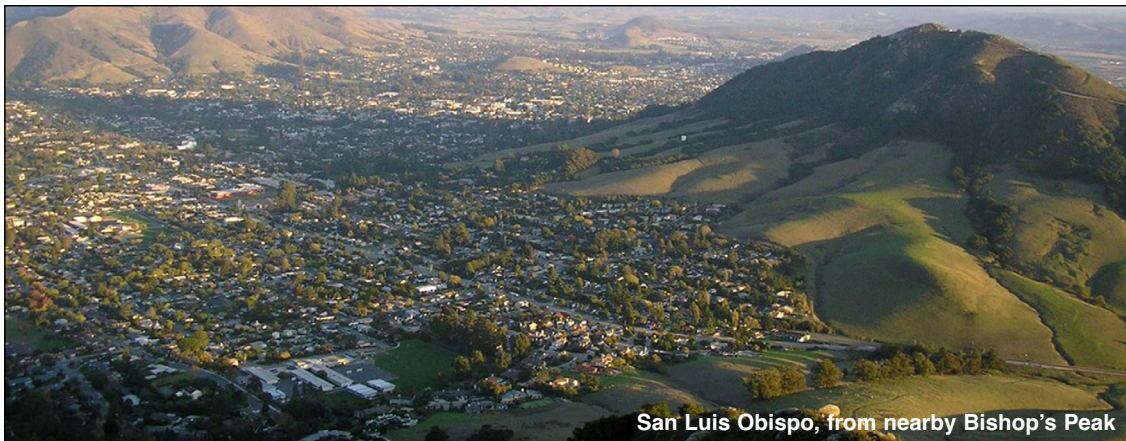

Located along U.S. Highway 101, San Luis Obispo is roughly halfway between San Francisco and Los Angeles. The city features a regional airport serviced by two carriers with daily connecting flights to San Francisco, Los Angeles and Phoenix. A second regional airport is located 35 miles south in Santa Maria.

MOTT ATHLETICS CENTER

The Home of the Mustangs
'Mott Mania' and 'The Asylum!'

Built in 1960, Mott Athletics Center is home to the Cal Poly men's and women's basketball, wrestling and volleyball programs. In the fall of 1998, the MAC was upgraded with chair-back seats replacing the original wooden bleachers. New seats were installed behind both backboards in 1998, giving the MAC an arena feel to it. A new floor was installed in 2011 and repainted in the summer of 2014. Twin videoboards were installed prior to the 2014-15 basketball season.

Named after Robert A. Mott, a physical education faculty member and department head from 1946-78, Mott Athletics Center houses the athletic department offices, athletic training and strength and conditioning rooms. While working at Cal Poly, Mott also was the coach of the Mustangs baseball and men's basketball teams before he was named Physical Education Department head after World War II.

Cal Poly hosted the 1969 NCAA Division II National Wrestling Championships, capturing the second of seven straight team titles. The 1968-69 team was led by national champions Terry Hall, John Woods, Ken Bos and Tom Kline. In 2005, Mott Athletics Center hosted the Pac-12 Wrestling Championships. Teams, officials and fans from Arizona State, Boise State, Oregon, UC Davis, Cal Poly, Oregon State, CSU Bakersfield, Cal State Fullerton, Stanford and Portland State flocked to the MAC with the total attendance for the two-day event reaching 7,738. The Mustangs finished the meet in fourth place and crowned one individual champion, Vic Moreno at 125 pounds.

In 1995, the Golden State Warriors held their preseason camp in Mott Athletics Center. Chris Mullin, Latrell Sprewell, B.J. Armstrong and No. 1 pick Joe Smith put on a show during an open practice to the public, drawing a standing-room-only crowd of over 4,000. Two years later, the Sacramento Kings conducted their camp at Cal Poly, opening the doors to the public for an intrasquad scrimmage to climax the one-week camp.

Mott Athletics Center has been home to numerous NCAA playoffs — most recently the first and second rounds of the 2006 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship with sellout crowds each night -- and championships over the years, as well as hosting various concerts, exhibitions and sporting events.

Names like Eddie Money, The Pretenders, The Doors, Ike and Tina Turner, the Los Angeles Lakers and Bill Cosby are just a few of the names that have performed inside the Mott Athletics Center.

In 1980, the men's basketball team hosted New Hampshire College in a Division II NCAA Championship quarterfinal. The 1998-99 season marked the first nationally televised game inside Mott Athletics Center as ESPN2 carried the Cal Poly vs. Idaho game. Other men's basketball games have been televised by Fox Sports and KSBY-TV before capacity crowds CBS Sports Network televised a neutral-court men's basketball game between Saint Mary's and San Diego State in December 2020.
