Cal Poly Faces No. 13/14 Idaho Saturday in Moscow

FCS Preseason All-American Defensive End Elijah Ponder Headlines the 2024 Roster

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Facing a ranked opponent for the second consecutive week, Cal Poly football stays on the road this week as the Mustangs head over to Moscow, Idaho to take on No. 13/14 Idaho on Saturday at 1 p.m.

The game will air live on ESPN+ and locally on ESPN Radio 1280AM/101.7FM and GoPoly.com. Links to all those all well as live stats can be found on the football schedule page. You can also follow Cal Poly Football on Instagram (@calpolyfootball) and on X (@calpolyfootball) for live updates throughout the game and for behind the scenes content.

The Mustangs (2-4, 1-2 Big Sky) will be looking for their first ever win over the Vandals (4-3, 1-2 Big Sky) as Idaho has won all four all-time meetings. This will be Cal Poly's second to last road game of the year as after this week they will be at home for three straight games.

Cal Poly has found its run game the last three games as they have gone for 290 rushing yards, 295 rushing yards, and 112 rushing yards in those games. Running back Aiden Ramos leads the rushing attack with 294 yards while backup quarterback Richie Watts leads the team in rushing touchdowns with four.

Cal Poly's defensive front seven have been extremely strong in each of the first six games of the season as the Mustangs rank third in the Big Sky and 37th in the nation in rushing defense.

CAL POLY VERSUS IDAHO: Saturday's matchup is just the fifth between Cal Poly and Idaho all-time, and third as Big Sky Conference opponents. Idaho has won all four previous matchups, edging Cal Poly in 2023 (42-14), 2019 (21-9), 2007 (20-13) and 1996 (38-33).

PONDER LEADS THE DEFENSE: After leading the Big Sky and being top five in the FCS in sacks in 2023, redshirt senior defensive end Elijah Ponder racked up all kinds of accolades: First Team All-Big Sky, FCS All-American. Heading into the 2024 season, Ponder continues to garner all kinds of pre-season accolades and draw the attention of numerous NFL scouts. So far this pre-season, Ponder has been named an FCS Pre-season All-American, Preseason All-Big Sky, Shrine Bowl Watchlist and Reese's Senior Bowl Watchlist.

In the first six games of 2024, Ponder ranks 24th in the FCS in tackles for loss with 7.5 and 32nd in sacks with four. He also has 26 tackles, seven quarterback hurries, and two pass breakups.

In 2023, Ponder had 10 sacks, 52 tackles, 13 tackles for loss, and 17 quarterback hurries, which tied the program record for most in a season. He heads into his final season seventh all-time in career sacks in school history with 20. He needs just three more sacks to move into third all-time in Cal Poly history.

INTO THE WOODS: Cal Poly's leading receiver from last season Giancarlo Woods

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Oct. 19 (Idaho)

Saturday's football game is the 997th in Cal Poly school history and the 337th game Cal Poly will have played since moving to the Football Championship Subdivision (previously Division I-AA) level in 1994. The Mustangs currently are 160-176 as an FCS program. The 100th game at the FCS level was a 34-13 win at Texas-El Paso (Sept. 6, 2003) while the 200th game was a 41-10 triumph at South Alabama to end the 2011 season. Game No. 300 was a 48-14 loss to South Dakota (Sept. 18, 2021). The 100th FCS win was at Old Dominion, 50-37 (Oct. 9, 2010), and the 100th loss was to Eastern Washington, 35-22 (Nov. 16, 2013). Cal Poly earned its 500th overall win overall at Portland State in October 2017 and is playing its 105th overall season and 29th in the FCS this fall. Cal Poly was a member of the now-defunct American West Conference (Southern Utah, Sacramento State, CSUN) before becoming an independent in 1996. After eight years as an FCS Independent, the Mustangs became a charter member of the Great West Football Conference in 2004. Following eight seasons in the Great West (and four titles), Cal Poly moved to the Big Sky Conference in 2012, capturing the title in its first season.

returns in 2024 after ranking 15th in the Big Sky in 2023 in receptions and receptions yards per game. He had 50 receptions for 498 yards and four touchdowns on the season. Woods caught seven balls against both Lincoln (Sept. 16) and UC Davis (Sept. 30). His performance in the Lincoln victory also included 77 yards and a career best three touchdowns.

Through the first six games of 2024, Woods leads the team in receptions with 22 for 313 yards and a touchdown.

Junior receiver Michael Briscoe leads the team in receiving touchdowns with three and in receiving yards with 359. is also second in the FCS in yards per reception at 23.9 yards per catch.

THE WULFF OF CALIFORNIA BOULEVARD: Head Coach Paul Wulff enters his second season as Cal Poly's head coach. Cal Poly's 2023 27-10, season-opening win against San Diego provided Paul Wulff his first victory as Cal Poly head coach and first triumph as a collegiate head coach in 12 years. Having led Eastern Washington to three FCS Playoff appearances (2004-05, 2007) before serving as head coach at Washington State (2008-11), Cal Poly's victory was Wulff's first as a head coach since guiding the Cougars to a 37-27 victory against Arizona State on Nov. 12, 2011. Named the Cal Poly program's 18th head coach on Dec. 6, 2022, Wulff – a near three-decade collegiate coaching veteran – is a three-time Big Sky Coach of the Year recipient at Eastern Washington (2001, 2004-05) while having directed the Eagles to a share of two Big Sky titles. Wulff's other Big Sky coaching stops include Sacramento State (2016-18) and UC Davis (2019). The 2024 season marks Wulff's 14th as a collegiate head coach.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING: Saturday's game is the 997th in university history and the 337th game Cal Poly will have played since moving to the Football Championship Subdivision level in 1994. The Mustangs are currently 160-175 as an FCS program. The 100th game at the FCS level was a 34-13 win at Texas-El Paso (Sept. 6, 2003) while the 200th was a 41-10 triumph at South Alabama to end the 2011 season. Game No. 300 was a 48-14 loss to South Dakota (Sept. 18, 2021). The 100th FCS win was at Old Dominion, 50-37 (Oct. 9, 2010), and the 100th loss was to Eastern Washington, 35-22 (Nov. 16, 2013). Cal Poly earned its 500th all-time win at Portland State in October 2017 and is playing its 106th overall season and 30th in the FCS this fall. Cal Poly was a member of the now-defunct American West Conference (Southern Utah, Sacramento State, CSUN) before becoming an independent in 1996. After eight years as an FCS Independent, the Mustangs became a charter member of the Great West Football Conference in 2004. Following eight seasons in the Great West (and four titles), Cal Poly moved to the Big Sky Conference in 2012, capturing the title in its first season.

LOOKING AHEAD: Cal Poly will have its final bye week of the season

PAUL WULFF • HEAD COACH

SECOND SEASON • WASHINGTON STATE, 1990 • 5-12 @ CAL POLY • 67-92 (14th SEASON)

Paul Wulff, former Eastern Washington and Washington State head coach and Cal Poly's offensive line coach and running game coordinator the last three years, was elevated to his third head coaching job on Dec. 6, 2022.

Wulff, who was promoted by former Mustang head coach Beau Baldwin to the position of associate head coach in the summer of 2022, has coached at the collegiate level for 28 years, including 12 as a head coach. He was head coach at Eastern Washington from 2000 through 2007 and at Washington State from 2008-11.

In his first season in 2023, had three All-Conference Players, safety Donovan Saunders, offensive lineman Garrett Weichman, and defensive lineman Elijah Ponder. Helped to lead the team to three victories against, University of San Diego, Lincoln University, and University of Northern Colorado. Had 16 players make the Big Sky All-Academic list.

"Personally, this position as head football coach at Cal Poly is one that I and my family have dreamed about for several years," Wulff said. "Having an opportunity to lead a football program that offers elite academics and a commitment from administration, alumni and boosters that will allow for our coaches and student-athletes to compete on the field of play for conference and national championships. Currently, Cal Poly is one of the few universities in the western United States that offers these opportunities."

The 1990 Washington State graduate served as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Sacramento State from 2016-18, coaching the offensive linemen. He also coached at UC Davis in the fall of 2019.

Wulff also has spent time in the National Football League. He joined Jim Harbaugh's staff with the San Francisco 49ers in 2012 as a senior offensive assistant. The 49ers advanced to Super Bowl XLVII during his first season and made a trip to the NFC Championship game the following year.

Wulff returned to college football in 2014 as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at South Florida. He was an offensive consultant at Iowa State for the final five games of 2015 before returning to the Big Sky.

Wulff played collegiately at Washington State and began his coaching career as an assistant at Eastern Washington in 1993. He was elevated to offensive coordinator in 1998 and became the Eagles' head coach in 2000. In his eight years at the helm, Wulff guided EWU to a 53-40 overall record, a share of two Big Sky championships and three NCAA FCS playoff berths. He was named Big Sky Coach of the Year following the 2001, 2004 and 2005 seasons and was a finalist for National Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2007.

Wulff coached 23 players to FCS All-America honors, including 15 offensive linemen. His teams also featured quarterback Erik Meyer, who was the Big Sky Offensive Player of the Year, the Walter Payton Award winner and set the FCS record for pass efficiency. Meyer currently is the quarterbacks coach at Cal Poly.

Wulff earned the head coaching job at Washington State in 2008. In his four seasons, the Cougars' offense improved its production each year. In 2011, his final year at WSU, Washington State ranked ninth in the FBS in passing offense (322.25 yards per game) and 33rd in total offense (422.42 ypg). The Cougars were the only team in Division I to improve in total offense, total defense, offensive scoring and defensive scoring from 2010 to 2011.

A native of Woodland, Calif., Wulff graduated from Davis HS before heading to Washington State. With the Cougars, he was a four-year letterman and earned second-team all-Pac 10 and honorable mention All-American honors as a center in 1989.

He signed with the New York Jets as an undrafted free agent in 1990 and went on to play for the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks and the New York/New Jersey Knights of the NFL World League.

Wulff and his wife, Sherry, are the parents of three children: Katie, Max and Sam.
