A CLOSER LOOK AT THE SLATE

- The EIVA is now a six-team conference -- Charleston (WV), George Mason, Harvard, NJIT, Penn State, and Princeton. There will be a 10-match conference schedule with each team playing the other five teams two times each. The Lions play Princeton and Charleston (WV) at home and travel to play NJIT, Harvard, and George Mason.
- Penn State's non-conference slate includes 17 matches against 14 opponents. Fifteen of those matches are against teams that appeared in the AVCA Preseason Poll -- No. 1 Hawaii, two matches against No. 2 UCLA, No. 3 Long Beach State, No. 5 Pepperdine, No. 8 UC Irvine, No. 9 Stanford, No. 10 USC, and two matches against No. 13 Ohio State.
- Unlike last season when Penn State had to go to the west coast to compete against some of the nation's best, the Lions will have feature matches this year at Rec Hall. The Lions host Long Beach State on Jan. 25. They host USC and UCLA for the Big Ten/Pac 12 Challenge on Feb. 3-4.
- The 2023 EIVA Tournament will take place April 19, 20, and 22. The top-seeded team in the tournament will host every round (quarterfinal, semifinal and championship).
- George Mason will host the 2023 national semifinal and championship matches at EagleBank Arena on May 4-6.

Involved in all aspects of the Penn State men's volleyball program as a player, assistant coach and head coach and one of the winningest and well-respected coaches in the sport, Mark Pavlik enters his 29th year at the helm of the Nittany Lion men's volleyball program in Happy Valley in 2022-23.

The 2022 season provided special moments for the Nittany Lions in Pavlik's storied tenure as head coach of the program. The Nittany Lions completed the season with a 23-4 overall record, marking the 23rd season that Pavlik has reached 20-or-more wins in a season. The Nittany Lions also had a program-record-tying five AVCA All-Americans in Brett Wildman (1st Team), Cole Bogner (2nd), Cal Fisher (2nd), Will Bantle (HM) and Toby Ezeonu (HM) and the team ranked as high as 2nd in the AVCA coaches' poll and number one in the Off the Block media poll. Penn State completed the regular season 16-0 in EIVA action, its most wins unbeaten in conference play in program history.

Helping to build the Nittany Lions into one of the premier men's volleyball powers in the nation with the 2008 NCAA National Championship and 22 NCAA Tournament appearances, Pavlik has compiled a career record of 629-214, winning over 74 percent of his matches. He leads all active National Collegiate Division (DI-II) head coaches with his win total and ranks fifth all-time among all collegiate men's volleyball coaches. Pavlik was also named 2008 AVCA National Coach of the Year and the 2008 Volleyball Magazine Coach of the Year.

Within the EIVA, Pavlik's teams have been even more dominating, racking up 309 wins with only 24 league losses in 27 years. The eight-time EIVA Coach of the Year has led the Nittany Lions to 23 EIVA titles after winning the latest in 2021. In 2020, Pavlik's Nittany Lion squad was undefeated in league play (7-0) before the abrupt end to the season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

As a player, he was a setter under legendary coach Tom Tait. For five years prior to his promotion, Pavlik served as coach Tom Peterson's top assistant. During that time, the Nittany Lions compiled a 111-39 record and made four NCAA Tournament appearances, highlighted by the 1994 national title.

Pavlik has guided some of the nation's greatest student-athletes during his tenure. In 1997, he coached Ivan Contreras to the AVCA Player of the Year accolades and, in 2008, Matt Anderson earned the same award, the first two times an Eastern player has earned the prestigious honor.

He has coached 30 different players (Ivan Contreras, Jason Kepner, Kevin Hourican, Ed Josefoski, Carlos Ortiz, José Quiñones, Zeljko Koljesar, Zach Slenker, Carlos Guerra, Ricky Mattei, Keith Kowal, Nate Meerstein, Matt Proper, Matt Anderson, Luke Murray, Max Holt, Max Lipsitz, Will Price, Dennis Del Valle, Joe Sunder, Edgardo Goas, Aaron Russell, Nick Goodell, Chris Nugent, Calvin Mende, Cole Bogner, Cal Fisher, Brett Wildman, Will Bantle and Toby Ezeonu) to 55 All-America awards. At least three of Pavlik's players have earned first- or second-team All-East/All-EIVA accolades in each season of his tenure as head coach of the Nittany Lions.

Pavlik's coaching experiences have spanned more than just the collegiate level with Penn State. His coaching career began, as many do, at the high school level, but he climbed the ladder into the collegiate and international ranks in addition to taking on administrative roles within the sport.

He was a member of the AVCA Board of Directors as well as chairman of the AVCA All-America committee. Pavlik was also named EIVA Coach of the Year from 1995-97 and served as the Head of Delegation for the defending Olympic champion USA men's volleyball team at the America's Cup in Brazil in September 2008.

During the summer of 1995, Pavlik was a member of the coaching staff of the World University Games team that competed in Japan and finished eighth out of 30 teams. Former Nittany Lion captains Ed Josefoski and Kevin Hourican were team members. Pavlik coached the U.S. National Team at the NORCECA competition in Edmonton, Alberta, in the fall of 1995. The USA took home the silver, losing to Cuba in the final.

Pavlik was also a member of the U.S. staff at the World University Games in Buffalo, New York. In the summer of 1994, he directed the East team to a silver medal at the U.S. Olympic Festival.

Pavlik again joined the World University Games staff in the summer of 2001 when he served as the U.S. Head of Delegation for the Games, which were held in Beijing, China. Pavlik and the U.S. team brought home the gold, the first-ever gold medal won by the men's World University Games team, and the first men's gold medal at any level since the 1988 Olympic Games gold. Current Lion assistant coach Colin Mc-Millan was a player on that WUG team.

A native of Derry, Pa., Pavlik served as an assistant to Derry High School coach Rich Schall from 1985-88. Derry won two state titles (1986, '88) and finished second in 1987 and third in 1985. As head coach of a 17-and-under junior boys team in the York, Pa., area (1985-86), he led the team to a fourth-place finish at the national tournament.

From 1986-88, Pavlik worked with the South-Central Pennsylvania Girls Volleyball Association. He also served as an assistant coach for the women's teams at Indiana University of Pennsylvania and Juniata College.

Pavlik resides in McAlevys Fort, Pennsylvania, with his wife, the former Heather Blough, and their son Jackson. Heather, a three-time AVCA First Team All-American setter for Juniata College, is now the head coach for the Eagles women's volleyball team that won the Division III National championship in 2004 and 2006 under head coach Larry Bock.

ASSISTANT COACHES

COLIN
McMILLAN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
16th Season
Ohio State, '00

Beginning his 16th season at Penn State in 2023, associate Head Coach Colin McMillan continues to be an invaluable asset to the Penn State men's volleyball program as one of the top volleyball minds in the sport. He is involved in all aspects of the program, including video analysis, training the middle hitters and defensive strategy.

Penn State's 2022 team reached the top of the Off the Block media poll rankings much in part to the emergence of its middle-blocker duo Toby Ezeonu and Sam Marsh and its excellent defensive execution as a team, much in credit to McMillan's coaching. The Nittany Lions completed the 2022 season with a 23-4 overall record that included a 16-0 mark in EIVA regular season action, its most wins unbeaten in conference play in program history.

McMillan was promoted to associate head coach during the summer of 2016 following nine years as an assistant coach for Mark Pavlik and the Nittany Lions. He arrived in fall 2007, prior to the program winning its 2008 National Championship, and has contributed to 10 EIVA titles, including the most recent in 2021, and eight trips to the NCAA Final Four.

A former Ohio State standout (1997-2000), McMillan trained within the United States National pipeline and competed internationally for various clubs around the world. A 6-11 middle hitter, McMillan was a member of the 2001 United States team that captured the gold medal at the World University Games in Beijing, China, and also was a member of the U.S. World League team in 2001. From 2000 to 2005, he was the starting middle hitter for the Besiktas Volleyball Club in Istanbul, Turkey, and also played for Castelo da Maia in Portugal, Marseille 13PVB in France, and Los Rebeldes de Moca in Puerto Rico, winning the Superior League Championship in 2000.

McMillan has also coached internationally with USA Volleyball. Most recently, he served as an assistant for the USA Volleyball U19 Team at the FIVB World Championships in the summer of 2019. He assisted the Junior Men's National Team in winning the NORCECA qualifying tournament in Gatineau, Canada, in 2010. McMillan was an assistant coach for the U.S. Junior National Team which finished fourth in the 2011 World Junior Championships in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

A four-time All-MIVA selection and a four-year scholar athlete at Ohio State, McMillan was named to the 2000 National Collegiate Championship All-Tournament Team. He led the Buckeyes to a national runner-up title that year and finished among the top five in hitting percentage all four years. He is the career record holder at OSU in hitting percentage (.481), block assists (473) and total blocks (548) and sits eighth in aces (59), second in blocks per game (1.56) and seventh in kills (1,206). During McMillan's tenure, the Buckeyes accumulated a 90-21 overall record with three first-places finishes in the MIVA.

A graduate assistant coach for Ohio State during the 2003 season, McMillan has served as a club coach for several programs, including the Excel Volleyball Club 18 boys program in Glenview, Illinois. He guided the Next Level 16 boys program in Franklin, Wisconsin, in 2005 and 2006 and coached and supervised the Stellar Sports LLC 15 girls club team in Colorado Springs, Colorado, with duties including practice and match coaching as well as travel and on-site supervision.

McMillan graduated from Ohio State in 2000 with a double major in international business and marketing and has worked outside of the volleyball community with such corporations as DePuy Orthopedics and Cosentino North America.

PAT SHAWARYN

ASSISTANT COACH
1st Season
Juniata, '04

A Pennsylvania volleyball product with several accolades as both a coach and student-athlete and ties to the USA Volleyball development program, Pat Shawaryn joined the Penn State men's volleyball coaching staff midseason in 2022 and begins his first full season at Penn State in the 2022-23 school year.

Shawaryn took over as an assistant coach for the Nittany Lions after a stint as the Princeton men's volleyball assistant coach and recruiting coordinator from 2017-22, where he helped develop the Tigers into one of the top programs in the EIVA.

Shawaryn was an integral asset to the Tigers' 2019 EIVA Tournament championship team, the first Tigers team to capture a title in 21 seasons. The Tigers also went on to win their first NCAA Tournament contest that year.

Prior to Princeton, the Lancaster, Pa. native had a very successful tenure as both the head coach and assistant coach at his alma mater, Juniata College, from 2011-16. He was named the 2013 AVCA Division III men's volleyball national assistant coach of the year before taking over as head coach in 2014.

The Eagles had a 47-23 record in his three seasons at the helm, which included a pair of conference titles, an appearance in the 2014 national championship match and rosters featuring five All-America honorees.

Shawaryn has also been heavily involved within the USA Volleyball coaching pipeline for several years in various roles, including his most recent position as an assistant coach for the 2021 U21 National Training Team.

As a student-athlete at Juniata, Shawaryn won the 2004 Molten Division III national championship with the Eagles as the squad's libero. Shawaryn is a graduate of Hempfield High School.

IRVINE, Calif.; May 3, 2008 — Behind a career night from senior setter Luke Murray, the top-ranked Penn State men's volleyball team captured its second National Championship title in school history with a four-game win over No. 2 Pepperdine (27-30, 33-31, 30-25, 30-23).

Junior outside hitter Matt Anderson was named the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Championship and joined Murray, junior middle hitter Max Holt and sophomore middle hitter Max Lipsitz along with Pepperdine's Paul Carroll, J.D. Schleppenbach and Jonathan Winder on the NCAA Championship All-Tournament Team. Anderson became Penn State's second NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player, joining Ramon Hernandez, who earned the honor in 1994.

In the final match of his career, Murray was nothing short of outstanding. The 6-foot setter recorded his first collegiate triple-double with a season-high 63 assists, a career-high 12 digs and a career-high 11 blocks while leading the Nittany Lions to a team hitting percentage of .407. For the NCAA Championship, Murray directed the Nittany Lions to a combined .409 hitting percentage and for the season, Penn State shattered the previous team hitting percentage record of .384 set by the 1994 National Champions, attacking at a .399 clip for the 2008 campaign.

Anderson led the Nittany Lions with 29 kills on .451 hitting against Pepperdine while Lipsitz set a career high with 17 kills on .500 hitting. Holt added in 12 kills on .417 hitting while junior opposite Ryan Sweitzer contributed 10 kills.

The unsung hero of the match, freshman libero Dennis Del Valle recorded a match-high and career-high-tying 16 digs and for the NCAA Championship, Del Valle racked up 30 total digs.

Penn State is the only school outside of California to have its men's and women's programs both capture a national championship. The Nittany Lion women's squad won the title in 1999 and then outlasted Stanford in five games at Arco Arena in Sacramento on Dec. 15, 2007. The Nittany Lions join Stanford, Long Beach State, UCLA and USC as the only programs to accomplish the feat.

FORT WAYNE, Ind.; May 7, 1994 — Penn State men's volleyball accomplished what many thought would be impossible in 1994 when it became the first team from anywhere other than California to win a national title. Teams from the Golden State had claimed the previous 24 NCAA titles.

Not only was Penn State the only program in men's volleyball from the East to win a national title, no women's team east of the Mississippi River had ever won a national title. After qualifying for nine NCAA Tournaments since 1981, Penn State had proven themselves as the top team in the East but defeating a California team to win the title still seemed like a dream.

The dream became a reality on April 3, 1994 when the Nittany Lions outlasted perennial powerhouse and 14-time NCAA champion UCLA 9-15, 15-13, 4-15, 15-12, 15-12 at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum in Fort Wayne, Ind. A record-setting crowd of 7,908 witnessed Penn State come back from an 11-4 deficit in the fourth game to outscore the Bruins 11-1 down the stretch to force a fifth game and seize the momentum. Penn State then jumped out to a 8-4 lead in the final frame, saw UCLA rally to tie at 12-12, but didn't wilt, scoring the final three points. Senior co-captain Byron Schneider posted the match-winning kill and the Lions had made history.

Ramón Hernandez recorded one of the most clutch performances in NCAA Tournament history in the championship match by recording 38 kills, a .444 hitting percentage and 10 digs. Ed Josefoski and Schneider each chipped in 18 kills, while Josefoski posted a team-high 12 digs. Both were named to the All-Tournament team. Just a freshman, Ivan Contreras added seven blocks and 14 kills while Kevin Hourican led the team with 11 blocks. Setter Carlos Ortiz recorded 87 assists, seven kills and 10 digs.

The NCAA title capped off a 25-3 season that also saw the Lions take the EIVA crown. Penn State recorded victories over some of the top programs that season, defeating Stanford twice, Ball State, Brigham Young and Ohio State three times. The Lions had four players finish the season with over 300 kills, led by Hernandez with 440. Hernandez, Contreras, Josefoski and Ortiz were named All-Americans.

Penn State also became just the fifth school in NCAA history and the first from the East to have its men's and women's volleyball programs reach the championship match in the same season.

PENN STATE ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

TOM
TAIT
HEAD COACH
12 Seasons
1977-89
Record: 336-97

The father of the Penn State men's and women's volleyball programs. After leading one of the best club teams in the country, he turned Penn State to Division I status in 1977. Was also the first coach in Penn State women's volleyball history from 1976-78, with a record of 51-43-4. He led the Nittany Lions to four NCAA Championships and coached 20 All-Americans during his tenure.

TOM
PETERSON
HEAD COACH
Six Seasons
1989-94
Record: 134-53

Led Penn State to a shocking national title in 1994, becoming the first non-California school to take the NCAA crown. Named the AVCA Coach of the Year in 1994, he coached his players to 19 All-America awards during his tenure. Peterson went on to coach BYU in 2003-06 and currently leads Southern Virginia (2017-2020).

NITTANY LION ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Head coach Mark Pavlik, as well as his predecessors Tom Tait and Tom Peterson, have produced many of the nation's top players during their time at the helm of the Penn State program. However, the successes of the Penn State players and staff continue after graduation and throughout their careers. A great number not only have successful professional volleyball careers, but also pursue coaching careers at high schools, clubs and universities across the country and around the world. Below are the names of former staff and players who have entered the coaching ranks after their time at Penn State.
