RECENT SUCCESS

THREE IN FOUR YEARS

Penn State was one of just eight teams to play in a New Year's Six Bowl game in three of four seasons between 2016-19. The Nittany Lions capped off the 2019 campaign with a trip to the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic. Penn State ended the 2016 season with an appearance in the Rose Bowl and closed out the 2017 season in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl.

Jesse Luketa & Micah Parsons

TWO NY6 BOWL WINS

The Nittany Lions earned two wins in New Year's Six Bowl games over three seasons from 2017-19. Penn State was one of just seven teams to accomplish that feat. The Nittany Lions racked up 529 total yards on their way to a 53-39 win over Memphis in the 2019 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic. Two years earlier, Penn State earned a 35-28 win over Washington in the 2017 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl, highlighted by a 92-yard touchdown run by Saquon Barkley.

BACK-TO-BACK NEW YEAR'S SIX BOWLS

The Nittany Lions made appearances in consecutive New Year's Six Bowl games when they played in the 2017 Rose Bowl and 2017 Playstation Fiesta Bowl. It marked the first time Penn State played in back-to-back New Year's Six Bowl games since the 1985 Orange Bowl and 1986 Fiesta Bowl.

PRODUCING NFL PICKS

With eight selections in the 2022 NFL Draft, Penn State is one of only four schools to produce at least five picks in each of the last five NFL Drafts. The Nittany Lions had six players drafted in 2018, 2019 and 2021 as well as five players picked in the 2020 draft. Penn State also had five players selected in 2016.

Since 2016, the Nittany Lions have had 37 players selected in the NFL Draft. Seventeen of the 37 selections were taken on the first two days of the NFL Draft, including 2018 No. 2 overall pick, Saquon Barkley, 2021 No. 12 overall pick, Micah Parsons, 2021 No. 31 overall pick, Odafe Oweh and 2022 No. 16 overall pick Jahan Dotson.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

SUCCESS WITH HONOR

The true greatness of a program is measured over the long haul and since 1887, Penn State has demonstrated consistency and quality on and off the field. The nation's second-largest stadium is home to a powerhouse that ranks among the elite programs in producing NFL Draft choices and All-Americans, while ranking among the leaders in graduation rates and community service.

B1G SUCCESS

INTO THE B1G

An offer was extended in 1990 from the oldest and most storied athletic conference to the iconic Blue & White. Since that day the Big Ten Conference and Penn State have been a perfect match. After playing the first 106 seasons of football as an independent, Penn State opened Big Ten play on the first day of the 1993 season vs. Minnesota and enters its 30th season as a marquee player in the conference.

B1G'S BEST PUNTER

Jordan Stout (left) was named the Big Ten Eddleman-Fields Punter of the Year. He is the 10th Penn State player to win a major conference award under James Franklin. Stout owns Penn State's career punt average record (44.54) and holds PSU's best season punt average (46.01). He averaged at least 50 yards per punt in five games in 2021 and recorded 25 punts of 50 or more yards. He landed 34 punts inside the 20, including 18 inside the 10 and six inside the 5.

CATCHING TOP HONORS

Allen Robinson won back-to-back Big Ten Richter-Howard Receiver of the Year awards in 2012 and 2013. The wideout was the first player to lead the Big Ten in receptions and yardage since 1985, compiling 2,445 yards on 174 receptions over the two seasons. Robinson's 97 catches and 1,432 yards in 2013 are both Penn State single-season records.

AND THE AWARD GOES TO...

In 30 seasons in the Big Ten, Penn State has claimed 30 individual awards, including six Defensive Player of the Year honorees and six Offensive Player of the Year winners. The list also includes three Freshmen of the Year and 15 positional award winners. Pat Freiermuth (above) became Penn State's first student-athlete to win the Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year. His 16 career touchdown catches are the most by a PSU tight end.

MAKING STOPS

In 2007, Penn State had the top two tacklers in the Big Ten, with Dan Connor (11.2, above right) and Sean Lee (10.6, above left) each averaging more than 10 tackles per game. Connor earned All-American first team honors that season - the second of his career - while Lee was named All-Big Ten second team.

DOMINATING DE'S

Arnold Ebiketie (above, left) became Penn State's third first-team All-Big Ten selection at defensive end in the last two seasons. In 2020, Jayson Oweh (above, middle) and Shaka Toney (above, right) both earned first team All-Big Ten honors. Oweh and Toney became the first Penn State defensive end duo to receive first team honors since Courtney Brown and Brad Scioli in 1998.

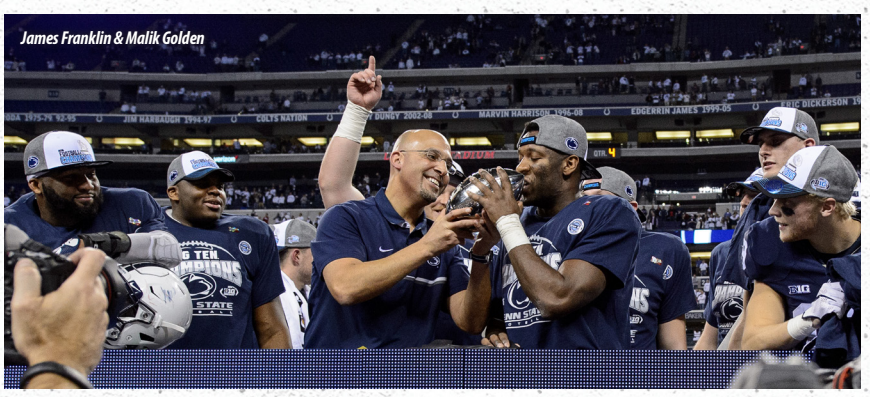
ATOP THE B1G

Jason Cabinda & Brandon Bell

HEART OF A CHAMPION

The shoulders never slumped after Wisconsin built an early double-digit lead, instead the chinstraps were only cinched tighter and focus locked in by the Blue & White. Like they had all season, the Nittany Lions leaned on one another, offense supported defense and the sideline did everything possible to turn the game in favor of the Blue & White. Outscoring the Badgers, 24-3, in the second half, Penn State rallied to notch its fourth Big Ten crown since joining the conference in 1993.



James Franklin & Malik Golden

ADDING A FOURTH

Since winning its first Big Ten championship in 1994 - its second season in the conference - Penn State has consistently performed on a high-level in Big Ten play, ranking among the leaders in conference championships. The Nittany Lions brought their fourth Big Ten crown back to Happy Valley in 2016 with a victory over Wisconsin in the Big Ten Championship Game, making them one of just four teams to win at least four Big Ten titles since 1993.

GET UP, IT'S GAMEDAY

ESPN's "College GameDay" was on site for a Penn State football contest at the 2016 Big Ten Championship Game. In front of thousands of blue and white-clad supporters, Penn State alum Keegan-Michael Key represented the Nittany Lions as the show's guest picker and it was no surprise that he picked his Nittany Lions as the victor.

AIR RAID

Quarterback Trace McSorley lit up the Indianapolis skyline to the tune of a Big Ten Championship Game-record 384 passing yards and four touchdown passes, also a championship game record. It started with a scoring strike to Mike Gesicki, followed by a pair of touchdown passes to Saeed Blacknall and an 18-yard drop-in-a-bucket to Saquon Barkley on a wheel route that gave Penn State the lead for good.

Blacknall accounted for 155 of McSorley's 384 yards passing, setting a Big Ten Championship Game record. On Penn State's final offensive play of the first half, Blacknall hauled in a 40-yard touchdown reception and, on PSU's next offensive play, caught a 70-yard scoring strike from McSorley to start the second half.

POSTSEASON PROWESS

THREE NEW YEAR'S SIX BOWLS IN FOUR YEARS

Playing on New Year's Day is a dream of any college football student-athlete and Penn State has a track record of being among the last teams on the annual bowl schedule. With an invitation to the 2019 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic, Penn State played in its 23rd New Year's Six Bowl game. It marked the third time in four years that the Nittany Lions competed in a New Year's Six Bowl, joining appearances in Rose Bowl, to end the 2016 season, and the Fiesta Bowl, to close out the 2017 season.

Journey Brown

DOMINANCE IN DALLAS

Penn State finished the 2019 season with a 53-39 victory over Memphis in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic. The Nittany Lions set or tied program bowl records for points (53), points in a half (35, first), points in a quarter (28, second) and rushing yards (396). Penn State racked up 529 total yards and scored five rushing touchdowns, tying a Cotton Bowl record.

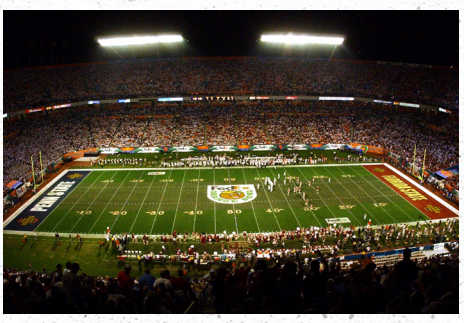
Journey Brown rushed for a career-high 202 yards, breaking the Penn State bowl record previously set by Saquon Barkley (194 yards in 2017 Rose Bowl). Brown scored on runs of 32 and 56 yards. Micah Parsons tied a career high with 14 tackles and set career highs with three tackles for loss, two sacks and two forced fumbles. Parsons and the Nittany Lion defense held Memphis to 63 rushing yards.

FIFTY & COUNTING

The tradition began in 1923 with a trip to the West Coast and a berth in the Rose Bowl and continued in 2017 with Penn State's fourth appearance in the "Granddaddy of Them All." The 2022 Outback Bowl marked the 51st overall appearance in the school's bowl history. Penn State's 51 bowl appearances are 10th in NCAA history.

SEVEN VICTORIES

Penn State is one of only two teams with an unblemished record in the desert (with at least three games played). The seven wins in the Fiesta Bowl are the most by any team in the bowl's history.



THAT TOOK A WHILE

The first triple overtime contest in BCS history ended with Kevin Kelly's 29-yard field goal, as Penn State toppled Florida State in 2006, 26-23, in the longest game in Orange Bowl history.

Two came against Oregon in the 1995 Rose Bowl, with Ki-Jana Carter breaking an 84-yard touchdown run and Jon Witman rumbled in from 9 yards out after a Ducks turnover for the scores. In the 2017 Rose Bowl, Trace McSorley found Chris Godwin for a 72-yard scoring strike, before McSorley converted a USC turnover into six points on the next snap.

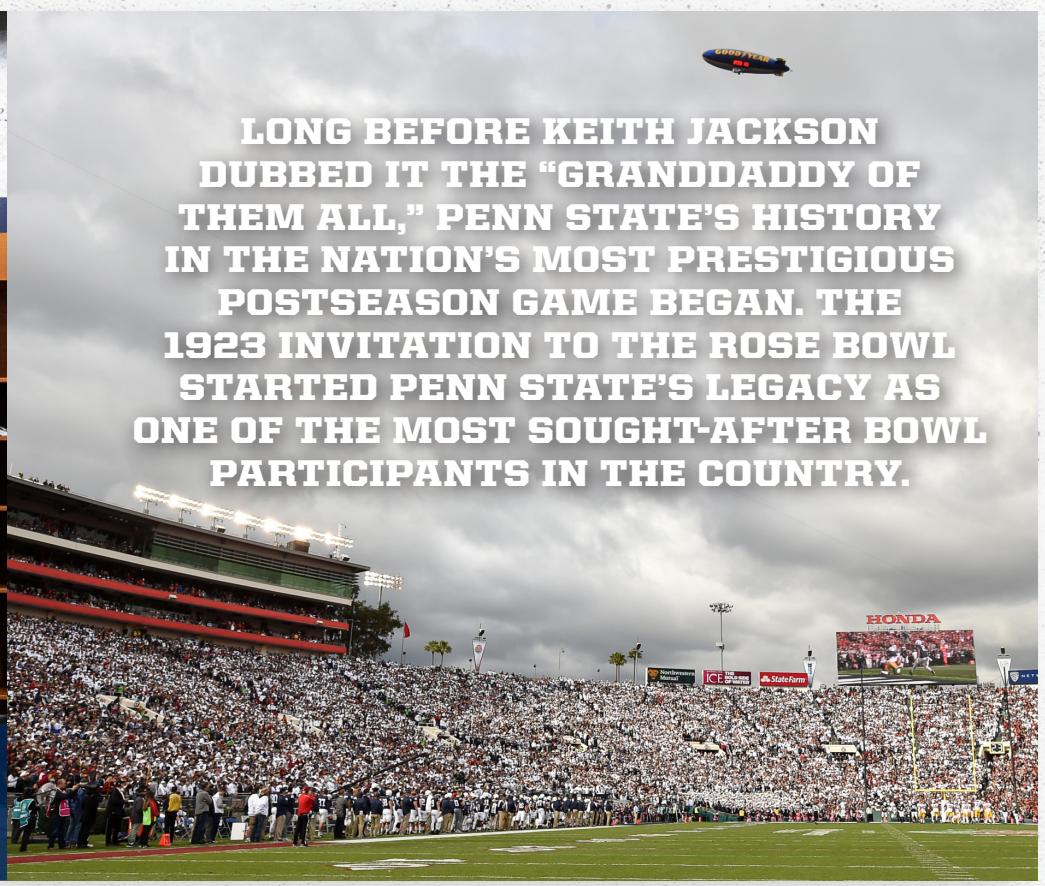
On Jan. 2, 2017, the Nittany Lions, with Farmer starting at linebacker, gave him a homecoming he will never forget.



QUICK STRIKE

In four appearances, Penn State's offense has been as fast at scoring as any other program in Rose Bowl history. Of the 15 fastest scoring drives, the Nittany Lions own five of them. The Blue & White and Georgia are the only programs with multiple scoring efforts in 15 seconds or fewer, with Trace McSorley's 5-second touchdown run in the 2017 contest the fastest score in the event's history.

A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN

Since Elgie Tobin won the first NFL Championship in 1920, Penn Staters have dotted NFL rosters. With 375 players drafted all-time, Penn State is among the top-10 NCAA institutions in producing professional talent. There has been a Nittany Lion in 51 of the 56 Super Bowl games, with 62 total rings won by football lettermen.

Being prepared in life is paramount to success, and when polled by Sporting News, NFL General Managers and Player Personnel Directors ranked Penn State the clear-cut winner as the collegiate program that best prepares pupils for the NFL.

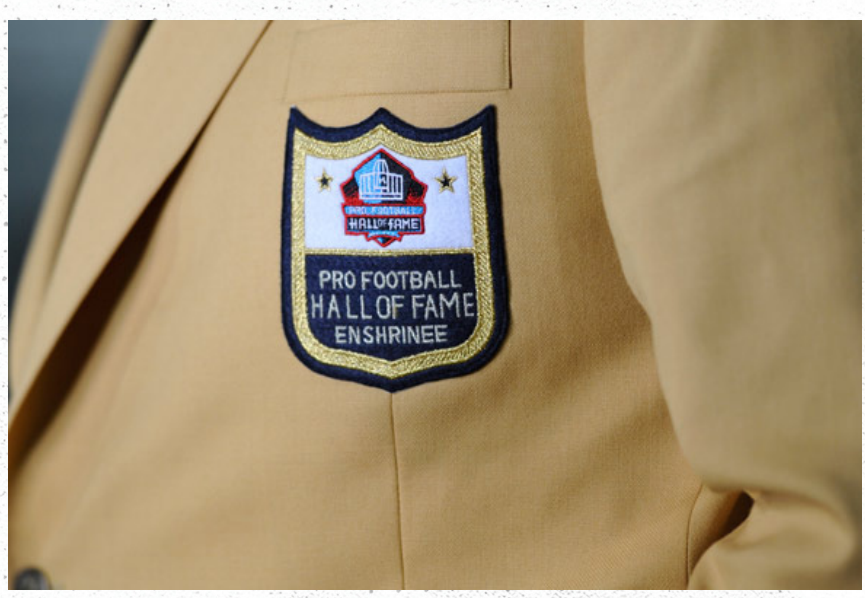
THOSE HALLOWED HALLS

When you walk around the Pro Football Hall of Fame, you will find the bronze profiles of six Nittany Lions. Inside the College Football Hall of Fame, you will view 25 individuals with Penn State ties.

Penn State is one of 12 schools to have six or more representatives in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Jack Ham, Franco Harris, Mike Michalske, Lenny Moore, Mike Munchak and Dave Robinson are all enshrined in Canton, Ohio for their accomplishments on the field of play.



THE LEGACY CONTINUES

With Kerry Collins a member of the 2018 class, Penn State now has 24 players and coaches who are members of the College Football Hall of Fame. Five coaches and 19 players have earned their way into college football's Hall of Fame, with five of them being running backs and four more playing on both offense and defense during their careers.

The 25th inductee with Penn State ties was former Nittany Lion Bill Bowes, who was enshrined in 2016 for his accomplishments as the head coach at New Hampshire.

LaVar Arrington

NEW INDUCTEE

Penn State national award winner and first-team All-America linebacker LaVar Arrington has been elected to the College Football Hall of Fame as part of the 2022 class. He will be inducted into the Hall of Fame on December 6, 2022 at the 64th National Football Foundation (NFF) Annual Awards Dinner.

BIG TIME IN THE BOWLS

One of the nation's most sought after postseason programs also has its fair share of student-athletes enshrined in bowl game Halls of Fame. Most notable are Ki-Jana Carter (Rose), Lydell Mitchell (Cotton), Wally Triplett (Cotton) and Dave Robinson (Gator). Penn State also has five honorees in the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame, including Joe Paterno, who is also a member of the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame.

TOP OF THE LIST

Penn State ranks among the top-10 college programs in producing both College Football Hall of Famers and Pro Football Hall of Famers. The Nittany Lion program is tied with four other programs in College Football Hall of Famers, while they are all square with Illinois, Oregon and UCLA in Pro Football Hall of Fame inductees.

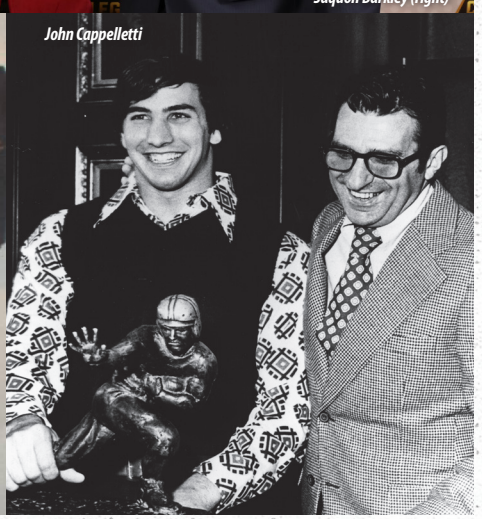
Carl Nassib



John Cappelletti

A STANDARD OF SUCCESS

When Richie Lucas claimed the Maxwell Award, given to the outstanding player in college football, in 1959, he set the standard for success at Penn State. Since that season, 39 Nittany Lions have either won or been named finalists for 71 major college football awards.

NASSIB ADDS TO HARDWARE

In 2015, Carl Nassib exploded onto the college football scene, as the former walk-on led the NCAA in sacks and forced fumbles, setting the school standard for sacks in a season with 15.5. For his efforts on the field and in the classroom, Nassib claimed a trio of national awards, winning the Lott IMPACT Trophy, Rotary Lombardi Award and the Ted Hendricks Award. He was named a finalist for six awards in 2015, the second-most all-time by a Penn State football student-athlete.

HEISMAN INSPIRATION

A running back built in steel country, Pennsylvania, John Cappelletti's 1973 season was highlighted by winning the Heisman Trophy. In what is considered the most moving speech ever given at the ceremonies, Cappelletti spoke from the heart about his brother, Joey, who was battling leukemia at the time. "A lot of people think I go through a lot...Only for me it is on Saturdays and it's only in the fall. For Joseph, it is all year round and it is a battle that is unending...He has always been a great inspiration to me."

Penn State is one of three FBS programs that boasts a Davey O'Brien Award winner (Todd Blackledge, 1982; Kerry Collins, 1994), a Doak Walker Award winner (Larry Johnson, 2002) and a Biletnikoff Award winner (Bobby Engram, 1994).

SEVEN-TIME FINALIST

Paul Posluszny made things happen on the field for the Blue & White and for that he was named a finalist for national awards a school-record seven times. He was a three-time winner, twice claiming the Bednarik Award for Defensive Player of the Year and earning one Butkus Award for the nation's top linebacker.

THREE FOR THREE

Running back Larry Johnson broke the Penn State single-game rushing record on three occasions in 2002, helping him win all three major awards in which he was named a finalist — Doak Walker, Maxwell and Walter Camp. He also finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting that season behind a pair of quarterbacks in Carson Palmer (winner) and Brad Banks.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Offensive linemen don't often get the credit they deserve on or off the field. John Urschel changed that, as he earned a pair of the most distinguished awards a college student-athlete can attain. He was named the William V. Campbell Trophy winner, the academic Heisman, and earned the James E. Sullivan Award, bestowed by the AAU upon the nation's top amateur athlete.

OVER THE CENTURY MARK

With Micah Parsons' selection as a first-team All-American in 2019, the Penn State All-American tree grew, as he was the 101st Nittany Lion to earn first-team honors in program history.

In 133 years of playing football in Happy Valley, 87 different student-athletes have combined for the 101 first-team All-America selections.

The 1978 team watched as a school-record six student-athletes were named first-team All-Americans. Ken Dorney earned his second-straight first-team nod, while Bruce Clark earned his first of two selections. Matt Bahr, Chuck Fusina, Pete Harris and Matt Millen also garnered the most heralded distinction in college football.

MULTIPLE FIRST-TEAMERS

Having one first-team All-American is a big deal, however, on 11 occasions the Penn State football program has placed three-or-more student-athletes on the top All-America squad. It first happened in 1969 and last occurred during the 2002 campaign.

The list reads like a veritable who's who of college football lore. From W.T. "Mother" Dunn in 1906 to Glenn Ressler in 1964. Ted Kwalick in 1967 and 1968 to Kyle Brady in 1994. It's names like Arrington, Bahr, Barkley, Collins, Mauti and Zordich. The list goes on and on, and college football's best continually put on the blue and white uniform to play for those who have come before them and continue laying the foundation for one of college football's most storied programs.

LIVING UP TO THE MONIKER

Many times when college athletics are mentioned, the term "student-athlete" is used and at Penn State that is held with the highest regard. Seventeen different Penn Staters have earned both Academic All-America honors and on-field All-America honors (1st, 2nd or 3rd team) during their respective careers.

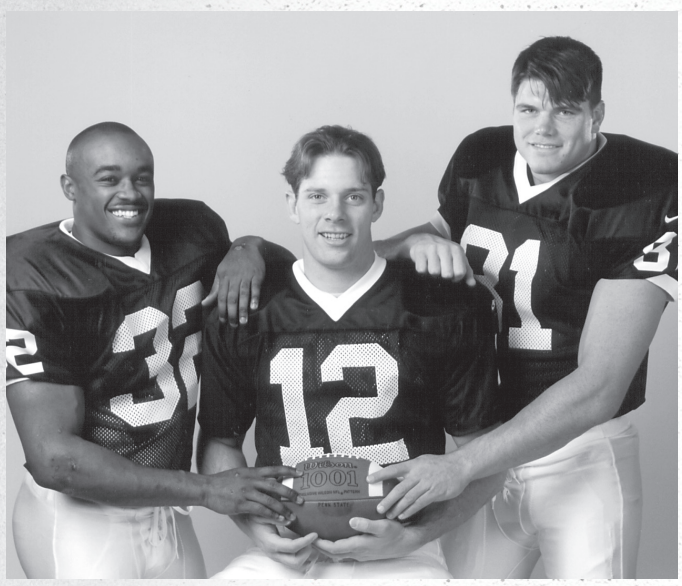
W.T. "Mother" Dunn led Penn State to an 8-1-1 record, as the center captained a team that shut out nine of its 10 opponents. Dunn was selected a first-team All-American by Walter Camp at the age of 29.

THREE IN A ROW

The latest in the line of two-time first-team All-Americans is Dan Connor, who earned the honors in 2006 and 2007. A year after he watched teammate Paul Posluszny win the Bednarik Award in 2006, Connor claimed the award given to the Nation's Defensive Player of the Year in 2007.

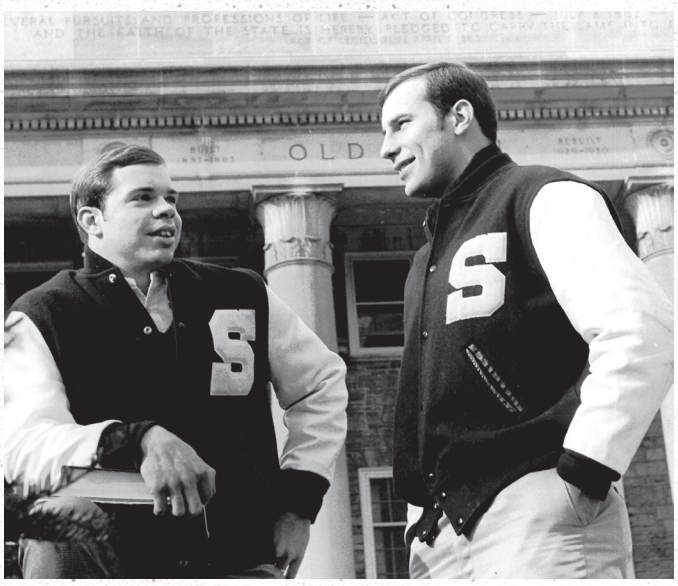
FORTY

Penn State has seen 40 different student-athletes named consensus All-American for 43 honors, including 10 since 2000. Of those 40, there have been 14 Penn Staters to earn unanimous All-America selection, with Saquon Barkley doing so in 2017.



HIGH FIVE

The 1994 squad placed an NCAA-best five student-athletes on the All-America first team, including unanimous pick Ki-Jana Carter, consensus selection Kerry Collins, along with Kyle Brady, Bobby Engram and Jeff Hartings.



DEFENSE AND OFFENSE

Linebacker Dennis Onkotz and tight end Ted Kwalick each earned All-America first-team honors in 1968 and both were two-time first-team selections in their respective careers. Kwalick earned his second nod in 1967, while Onkotz was also a first-teamer in 1969.

GAME DAY IN HAPPY VALLEY

"IF THIS ISN'T ONE OF THE BEST PLACES IN AMERICA, I DON'T KNOW THE OTHER ONE."

– Lee Corso, ESPN's "College GameDay"

IT TAKES A VILLAGE

It isn't just about the team arrival or the battle on the field; game day is about the cumulative efforts of everyone involved. From Nittanyville to the Penn State Blue Band, the spirit squads to the 'S' Zone, or the tailgaters to the ticket takers, every Penn Stater has a hand in making Happy Valley the best show in college football.

NITTANYVILLE

It's not the postal service, but Nittanyville's dedication to make Beaver Stadium the toughest venue in college football is unmatched. No matter sun, rain, snow or dead of night, Nittanyville is always there to create an avalanche of sound.

James Franklin and the College GameDay crew

GAMEDAY BUILT IN HAPPY VALLEY

ESPN's "College GameDay" made the trek to Happy Valley for the first time in 1999 for the season-opening contest between No. 3 Penn State and No. 4 Arizona. The Nittany Lions have hosted the GameDay crew on 10 occasions, including the 2021 Penn State White Out game vs. Auburn.

Sports Illustrated dubbed it the "Greatest Show in College Football," however Penn State fans refer to it simply as Saturday. Other than packing the nation's second-largest stadium with nearly 107,000 screaming fans, many more make the trek to campus to enjoy tailgating and camaraderie and maybe some of the famous Berkey Creamery ice cream.

When 107,000 fans reach full throat inside Beaver Stadium, the defense must have forced a third down or the Nittany Lion is dancing around celebrating a score. However, with so many fans, tickets are not easy to come by. More than 85,000 seats are sold on a season ticket basis each year, including 21,000 student season ticket holders.

2007

THE TRADITION CONTINUES

As they have for years, the Penn State football team arrives at Beaver Stadium via the classic Blue Buses, however, they no longer take the left-hand turn onto Curtin Road. The team now exits the caravan at the corner of Porter and Curtin and the team walks through a sea of cheering fans on the way into Beaver Stadium.

2017

COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S UNRIVALED SETTING

107K STRONG

Penn State fans fill Beaver Stadium to the brim every fall, providing an electric and exciting atmosphere for the Nittany Lions each Saturday inside the nation's second-largest venue. The eruption of 107,000 blue and white clad fans fill the valley as the team emerges from the South Tunnel and the steel foundation of the stadium shakes when "Zombie Nation" pumps through the speakers on a pivotal third-down stand.

The University Park campus becomes the third-largest city in Pennsylvania on game days, contributing to the local economy to the tune of $40 million annually.

PENN STATE WHITE OUT

On October 9, 2004, 21,000 students clad in white set the wheels in motion for one of the most replicated experiences in college sports, the Penn State White Out. The phenomenon evolved from a student-only event into a full stadium White Out in 2007.

GONE IN A FLASH

The No. 1 student section in the nation [NCAA.com, 2014] has sold out consistently for over four decades, with many of those sellouts occurring in just minutes. The 2022 allotment sold out, with the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes each taking under 22 minutes to gather up nearly 21,000 tickets.

HAPPY VALLEY

PLAN AN ADVENTURE

Looking to add some adventure to your life? State College was named one of National Geographic's Top 100 Adventure Towns. From the Waffle Shop to Mt. Nittany, local music and fly fishing, Penn State's central Pennsylvania positioning makes Happy Valley a hidden gem.

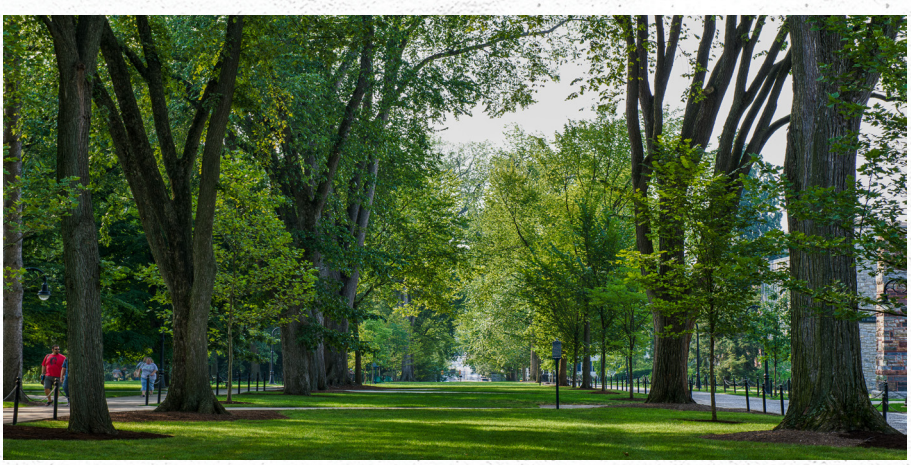
The Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts (Arts Fest) brings more than 125,000 people to Happy Valley over five days each July. The Festival is one of the nation's premier outdoor fine art events made possible by tremendous community support to produce a unique cultural experience.

WE ARE... A COLLEGE TOWN

Using a matrix of a dozen factors, including livability, education, safety and activities, Reviews.org rated State College as the No. 6 College Town, including the top campus in the Commonwealth. The University Park campus is also known as a top-25 public university and one of the top destinations for student-athletes in the country via Niche.com.

THERE FROM THE START

"The Corner Room" located on the corner of South Allen Street and College Avenue has been a State College staple since 1855. Originally named "Jack's Roadhouse," the establishment became the "The Corner Room" in 1926 and has been going strong ever since.



"Old Willow," planted in 1859 by William Waring, was revered for its ties to several campus traditions and lived on The Mall until 1976. Though the original tree perished in 1921, it was replaced multiple times by cuttings grown from it, until disease took the last tree at the spot in 1976. A Penn State historical marker sits at the site of "Old Willow" to highlight its place on the National Register of Historic Places.

16,000+

Fans pack the Bryce Jordan Center for special events and athletic contests. Acts have included Garth Brooks, Brantley Gilbert, Billy Joel, Kevin Hart, Bruce Springsteen and Jay Z. In 2013, a then-NCAA record crowd of 15,996 spectators watched the three-time defending National Champion Penn State wrestling squad take down Pittsburgh in the venue.

From Eisenhower Auditorium to Beaver Stadium, Penn Staters flock to every speaker, performance and event on campus. The Nittany Lion faithful enjoy some of the most historic venues, like Rec Hall, while laying claim to the most state-of-the-art buildings, like Pegula Ice Arena, as well.

A classic college town located in the Nittany Valley, State College is renowned for its beauty, charm and youthful lifestyle.

Quaint shops and popular restaurants share the cozy downtown area with contemporary retail stores and gathering spots for locals and students alike.

And it all lies in the shadow of the legendary Mt. Nittany in what is affectionately known as "Happy Valley."

TRUE COLORS

Penn State's student-athletes are instantly identified by their blue and white uniforms — but those weren't the original school colors. In October 1887, the student body unanimously chose dark pink and black. After the pink faded to white on many of the uniforms, the students opted for blue - in place of black - and white as the official school colors. The iconic blue and white became official on March 18, 1890.

In 1999, the Penn State Lion Ambassadors, the student alumni corps, revived one of the oldest traditions in college football - the Block 'S' - in the student section at Beaver Stadium. Now, 700 underclassmen don coordinated blue and white t-shirts to create the giant block 'S' each home Saturday. On Homecoming, the 'S' Zone bears the school's original colors of pink and black to pay homage.

THE LION SHRINE

Penn State's Lion Shrine was dedicated on Oct. 24, 1942, during Homecoming weekend. The 13-ton block of Indiana limestone was molded into the most recognizable symbol of Penn State by renowned sculpture Heinz Warneke. A gift of the Class of 1940, it rests in a natural setting of trees near the Recreation Building (Rec Hall) and is the second-most photographed landmark in the state of Pennsylvania.

The Lion Shrine's home was improved and enhanced thanks to a gift from the Class of 2012.

WE ARE

In the 1970s, the cheerleaders sought out a new cheer and so was born, "We Are... Penn State." The cheer didn't catch on right away, but it caught hold in the early 1980s and now echoes through Beaver Stadium each Saturday in the fall. The cheerleaders later added "Thank You...You're Welcome."

The first use of the phrase "We are Penn State" is often attributed to football All-American Steve Suhey. A captain on the 1947 Cotton Bowl team, Suhey used the phrase as the team, an early racially-integrated unit, was faced with several situations in which Penn State's African-American players were not welcome to participate. Pointing at all of his teammates, Suhey said "We're Penn State and we play together, or we don't play."

The Class of 2013 chose to have this slogan immortalized with a sculpture serving as a visual representation of what it means to be a Penn Stater. Created by Penn State alumnus Johnathan Cramer, the sculpture is made out of mirror-polished, stainless steel. The 12-foot-tall sculpture rests on a stone base and is located in the shadow of Beaver Stadium at the corner of Curtin Road and University Drive.

PENN STATE STAPLES

Old Main: Originally erected in the 1850s, the current Old Main has been in use since 1930. Used as student and staff housing in the early days, Old Main is now the administrative hub of the University Park campus. The clock tower was a gift from the Class of 1904 and was moved from the original building to the top of Old Main.

Protecting Our Turf: It is often said that the sun never sets on Penn State turfgrass surfaces. This is made possible through the Penn State Center for Turfgrass Science, a program that has been at the forefront of cutting edge research in its field since 1929.

Berkey Creamery: Dairy research began at Penn State in 1865, and the Creamery has been setting milestones ever since. From Baskin-Robbins to Haagen-Dazs, industry pros flock to Penn State to learn how to craft ice cream perfection.

THON: A student-run philanthropy committed to enhancing the lives of children and families impacted by childhood cancer, the Penn State IFC/Panhellenic Dance Marathon is a year-long effort, which culminates with a 46-hour dance marathon. The event has raised more than $180 million in its history for Four Diamonds at Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital.

The HUB: Since the 1920s, Penn State students had been clamoring for a central gathering place, but it wasn't until 1953 that vision became reality in what was known as the Hetzel Union Building. After a handful of temporary locations, the University broke ground on what is now named the HUB-Robeson Center, the most highly trafficked building on campus, spanning 305,000 square feet.

ON THE COVER

A PICTURE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS

When a dramatic image graces the cover of a national publication, you no doubt find yourself immersed in the story. Penn State football is among the select few universities to have the staying power to continually see its images grace the covers of numerous national publications, creating memories for its student-athletes and all of Nittany Nation.

22

THE SPREAD

Penn State was a spread team well before the offensive scheme became mainstream, gracing the pages of ESPN The Magazine, Sporting News and Sports Illustrated with some of the most polarizing figures and stories on the national scene.

LOCAL COVERAGE

Along with national attention, Penn State is covered extensively throughout the state and region. Among the 80+ credentialed media outlets that cover the Nittany Lions when at home, the program also boasts the largest traveling media contingent in the Big Ten, with 15-20 daily newspapers, along with multiple radio and television outlets following the Blue & White around Big Ten country.

Posluszny was a two-time first-team Academic All-American and earned a pair of first-team All-America nods on the field, doing so in 2005 and 2006.

Sean Clifford

PREMIER SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

Sean Clifford was honored as a member of the 2021 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete Class at the 63rd NFF Annual Awards Dinner Presented by Las Vegas. Clifford was one of 13 finalists for the William V. Campbell Trophy, which is college football's premier scholar-athlete award, recognizing academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership. Clifford is Penn State's 19th all-time member of the Scholar-Athlete Class.

GIVING BACK

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Penn State football program has long prided itself on being active in the community and giving back to those that give so much to Penn State University. From participating in THON and Special Olympics, Penn State also volunteers countless hours to making sure the community knows their daily efforts are appreciated.

2022 THON

RECORD-BREAKING SERVICE

In 2016-17, the offensive unit claimed Penn State's CHAMPS Cup for community outreach for the second-straight year. As a team, the Nittany Lions have compiled more than 10,000 hours of community service-related activities since head coach James Franklin arrived on campus, including a program record 2,200 hours in 2015-16.

In each of the last five seasons, Penn State has accumulated more than 2,000 hours of community service.

HELPING OTHERS WITH NEEDS

The initiatives that Penn State football student-athletes are active with include Special Olympics, THON, United Way Day of Caring and Giving Tuesday. Along with those - and many others — the Blue & White consistently host groups at Lasch Building as a way of reaching out to the local community.

STILL GIVING

Staying connected is also something Penn Staters do and that is no different with football alumni. Devon Still and his daughter, Leah, came back to THON in 2016 to speak to the crowd. Leah was diagnosed with stage 4 neuroblastoma in 2015. She battled and beat cancer.

LIFT FOR LIFE

A CALL FOR ACTION

When Scott Shirley's father was diagnosed with kidney cancer in 2003, his family was told the disease didn't typically respond to traditional treatments, which made it rare and therefore didn't attract research and development. That wasn't good enough for his teammates, who used the platform as student-athletes to give the fight against rare diseases a voice — and thus Lift For Life was born.

Lift For Life is organized and run by Uplifting Athletes, a non-profit organization that inspires the rare disease community with hope through the power of sport. The national network of chapters is run by current football student-athletes, providing them with an opportunity to gain practical job skills while learning how to leverage their assets and abilities to make a positive and lasting impact.

RAISING THE BAR

For 17 summers the Penn State football team has gathered for Lift For Life, and though the format has changed from strictly weight lifting-based to a team fitness test format, the fans continue to come out and support. A program-record $150,990 was raised during the 2014 event. After bringing in $51,344 in 2019, the all-time total has been pushed to nearly $1.5 million raised to benefit patient-focused programs and rare disease research.

MAN BEHIND THE MISSION

With a master's in engineering, Scott Shirley (3rd from left) began his professional career designing buildings - his dream job - but upon his father's passing from kidney cancer in 2005, Uplifting Athletes became his mission. First, as a hobby, Shirley soon realized that the cause needed full time attention, so he packed up and moved home to get the non-profit off the ground in 2007. From two schools in 2007, Uplifting Athletes now has 24 chapters from coast-to-coast.

While the event was fun to watch, the Uplifting Athletes leadership thought there might be a way to get the younger fans more involved. So, in 2015 they decided to add the first ever Kids Combine, where the newest Nittany Lions - incoming freshmen - interacted with boys and girls, while running them through an NFL Combine-style event.

NATION'S LARGEST

The Penn State Alumni Association ranks as the largest organization of its kind among colleges and universities. There are more than 740,000 Penn State alumni worldwide. They are active in their University and they love football.

Penn Staters have distinguished themselves in a wide variety of professions. Former Nittany Lions are company presidents, business owners and leaders in the financial world. Others are lawyers, doctors, dentists, engineers, teachers, coaches, computer and technology specialists, administrators, consultants, supervisors and members of the media, to name just a few of the professions.

In 2018, LinkedIn named Penn State University as the No. 2 institution in the country for graduating CEOs. Penn State has three current CEOs of Fortune 500 companies.

KEEGAN-MICHAEL KEY

Earning his Master of Fine Arts degree from the University Park campus, Keegan-Michael Key may have done his best impression when playing head coach James Franklin during a team meeting in 2015. Key returned to campus as the Grand Marshal of Penn State's Homecoming in 2015 and again mimicked Coach Franklin during the 2018 Blue-White Game, leading the team out of the tunnel from halftime. The actor, writer and comedian is best known for his roles on "MADtv" and "Key & Peele", while also appearing on shows like "ER," "Fargo"and "Whose Line is it Anyway?".

LEADER OF THE PRIDE

PENNSYLVANIA KID WITH A PENN STATE HEART

From Langhorne, Pennsylvania, a Philadelphia suburb, James Franklin spent many summers in Pittsburgh during his youth, and graduated from East Stroudsburg University. He was a two-time All-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) selection at quarterback, breaking or tying 23 school records during his career. Franklin coached one season at his alma mater and one year at Kutztown University, another PSAC institution.

The passion and vision that Franklin has for the Penn State program is built on a foundation of four core values: a positive attitude, unrivaled work-ethic, compete in everything you do and the willingness to sacrifice for the good of the group.

Just days before he was named the Nittany Lions' head coach, the engaging Franklin was in Pasadena, California, appearing on multiple ESPN platforms throughout the day during the network's coverage of the BCS National Championship Game in the Rose Bowl. Franklin began 2015 in Fort Worth, Texas as a part of ESPN's College Football Playoff National Championship Game coverage on College Football Live. He also provided analysis for the FOX's pregame, halftime and postgame coverage of the Big Ten Championship Game in 2015.

FAMILY MAN

When you are a football coach, you spend a lot of time at the office and on the field, however, James Franklin likes to say he has two daughters - Shola & Addison - and 125 sons and every decision he makes is based on that premise.

Franklin still owns the single-game record for rushing yards by a quarterback at East Stroudsburg, piling up 150 yards on 28 carries vs. Southern Connecticut State in 1994. Franklin left as East Stroudsburg's single-season total offense (3,129) and passing yardage (2,586) record holder. He finished his career as the all-time leader in quarterback rushing yards (1,077), becoming the first quarterback in school history to ever rush for 1,000 yards.

HEAD COACHING SUCCESS

In his 11 years as a head coach, Franklin has guided his teams to the postseason in 10 seasons, including a victories in the 2017 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl and 2019 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic. In 2014, Franklin led Penn State to an overtime victory in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl, claiming a 31-30 victory inside Yankee Stadium, he guided the Blue & White to the 2016 TaxSlayer Bowl and arrived at the 2017 Rose Bowl as the Big Ten champion. The Nittany Lions concluded the 2018 season at the VRBO Citrus Bowl and the 2021 season at the Outback Bowl. Additionally, Franklin led Vanderbilt to three bowl appearances, including consecutive bowl wins for the first time in program history, winning the Music City Bowl over NC State and the BBVA Compass Bowl vs. Houston. The Commodores had played in four bowl games in the 121 seasons prior to his arrival; none in consecutive years.

Franklin has been instrumental in bringing success to every stop in his coaching career. His tenure as head coach at Vanderbilt was historic, as he led the Commodores to consecutive Top 25 finishes, a pair of nine-win seasons and two bowl victories, all for the first time in school history. During the 2013 season, Vanderbilt defeated Florida, Georgia and Tennessee all in the same season for the first time in program history. At Maryland, he helped the Terrapins improve from 5-6 the year before he arrived to a 10-plus win team in his second, third and fourth years on the coaching staff.

Franklin enters his 28th season in coaching, and 27th at the collegiate level, including 11 years as a head coach at Penn State and Vanderbilt. He also spent one season with the NFL's Green Bay Packers as the wide receivers coach.

BUILDING THE PRIDE

Defensive coordinator and linebackers coach Manny Diaz brings 24 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 13 seasons as a defensive coordinator, to Penn State. Defenses under Diaz have finished in the Top 10 nationally in tackles for loss in six consecutive seasons. In six years at Miami, Diaz coached eight NFL draft picks, including two first round selections.

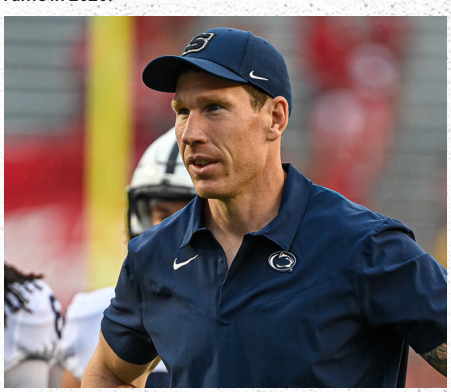
Offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Mike Yurcich's first season in Happy Valley included an offense featuring Jahan Dotson, who earned first-team All-Big Ten and third-team All-America honors. In 15 years as an offensive coordinator, Yurcich's offenses have averaged 6.49 yards per play, first among OCs since 2013.

Special teams coordinator, outside linebackers and nickels coach Stacy Collins joins the Nittany Lions after spending the 2021 season as Boise State's special teams coordinator and edge coach. In 2021, the Broncos blocked three punts, tied for seventh in the nation, and four kicks overall. Boise State finished fifth in the nation with a 15.77 punt return average.

Co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach Anthony Poindexter's first season at Penn State featured second-team All-America honoree Jaquan Brisker and third-team All-Big Ten selection Ji'Ayir Brown. As a player at Virginia, Poindexter was the ACC Defensive Player of the Year. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2020.

Tight ends coach Ty Howle returned to his alma mater before the 2020 season, serving as an Offensive Analyst. He was a four-year letterman for the Nittany Lions, starting at center and left guard and appearing in 47 career games. Penn State's tight end room combined for seven total touchdowns in 2021.

Wide receivers coach Taylor Stubblefield guided Jahan Dotson (91 receptions, 1,182 yards) and Parker Washington (64, 820) as one of five receiving tandems in the country to have at least 64 receptions and 820 yards in 2021. Stubblefield was a consensus All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist at Purdue, where he set a Big Ten record with 325 career receptions.



Offensive line coach Phil Trautwein has guided 16 All-conference lineman over the last four seasons between Penn State and Boston College. Trautwein was named to the American Football Coaches Association class of 2021 "35 under 35" list and was the only Big Ten coach and only offensive line coach on the list. He was a two-time All-SEC selection as a left tackle at Florida.

Co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach Ja'Juan Seider arrived on the University Park campus in 2018 and immediately made his mark on the field and recruiting. Rated as the No. 8 recruiter in 2019 by 247Sports.com, Seider guided Miles Sanders to a 1,000-yard season and an All-Big Ten selection.

Defensive line coach and run-game coordinator John Scott Jr. mentored three first-team All-Big Ten defensive ends Arnold Ebiketie, Odafe Oweh and Shaka Toney in his first two years at Penn State. Ebiketie was an FWAA Second-Team All-American in 2021. Prior to Penn State, Scott brought seven years of experience coaching at the Power Five and NFL levels.

As a player and coach, Terry Smith has spent 12 years with the Blue & White.

Smith tallied 108 receptions and scored 15 touchdowns as a student-athlete before being drafted by the Washington Redskins in 1992.

Associate head coach, defensive recruiting coordinator and cornerbacks coach Terry Smith played for the Nittany Lions from 1988-91 and remains as one of the program's most decorated wide receivers. His passion for the Blue & White shows in his coaching and recruiting, working with nine All-Big Ten selections and helping secure five-consecutive Top 25 recruiting classes.

LASCH FOOTBALL COMPLEX

THE LASCH LEGACY

The Mildred & Louis Lasch Football Complex is the headquarters for Penn State football. The complex houses everything that the coaching staff and student-athletes need to be successful - on and off the field - on a daily basis. From the pristinely manicured outdoor practice fields to the Morgan Academic Center and everything in between, the Lasch Football Complex is a one-stop shop.

SECOND TO NONE

The Lasch Football Complex houses two full-size natural grass surfaces, one full-sized turf field outdoor and a full-sized turf surface inside Holuba Hall, as well as a newly-renovated player's lounge, fully-stocked nutrition bar, coaches offices, meeting rooms, athletic training facilities, whirlpool therapy room and a recently-renovated team locker room.

UPGRADING THE LAIR

Opened in 2000, the Lasch Football Complex has received a face lift each year since 2016. In 2016, modern updates were completed in the lobby, team locker room, athletic training facilities and various other corridors of the structure. The 21st century design features powerful and progressive themes that keep in line with the clean, classic Penn State tradition. The locker room concept continues the classic Penn State theme and features a new ceiling design with an integrated logo and new multi-functional lockers. The team auditorium was upgraded during the spring of 2018 and showcases the Penn State football core values with imagery displayed throughout the room, along with branding and a display for Penn State's National Championship trophies, which is a visual reminder of the on and off field expectations that head coach James Franklin has for his program. Recent projects have included renovations to the players' lounge, position rooms and hallways, as well as the addition of an influencer chamber.

IRON LIONS

THE SAYING GOES...

As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another, and the Nittany Lions lay the foundation for success on the field. The veterans lead the newcomers in showing them exactly what is expected on a daily basis.

FOLLOWING A MASTER

Chuck Losey was named Penn State's Assistant Athletics Director for Football Performance Enhancement in January 2022, succeeding Dwight Galt III, who announced his retirement after the 2021 season.

In eight years at Penn State, Losey has trained 16 top-three round picks, including Jaquan Brisker, Jahan Dotson, Arnold Ebiketie, Pat Freiermuth, Odafe Oweh and Micah Parsons.

HITTING THE WEIGHTS & REFUELING

More than 20,000 pounds of free weights stack on 24 stations inside the walls of the strength and conditioning center. Each station is prepared for every rep and set and contains equipment for full body workouts.

Master Strength and Conditioning coaches on Penn State's football staff.

Associate Director of Performance Enhancement Alvin Futrell earned the distinction as a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association in 2021, joining Assistant Athletics Director for Football Performance Enhancement Chuck Losey III on the Nittany Lion football staff.

PURSUING A DEGREE

"GROUP STUDY, PRIVATE TUTORING AND SOMETIMES A GOOD KICK IN THE REAR IS AVAILABLE TO EVERYONE. WE ARE VERY PROUD OF OUR ACADEMIC SUCCESS AND WORK HARD EVERY DAY TO MAKE SURE IT CONTINUES AND OUR STUDENT-ATHLETES LEAVE HERE WITH A VALUABLE EDUCATION AND A DEGREE."

– Todd Kulka

Garrett Taylor

The Morgan Academic Center is a vital component in keeping Penn State's academic services and the academic performance of its 800 student-athletes at the forefront among the nation's premier Division I institutions. Todd Kulka and his staff keep the Penn State football program among the nation's top performers in the classroom with an 85 percent graduation rate.

UNDER ONE ROOF

The $7.2 million renovation of the former Greenberg Ice Pavilion gave the building new life and now serves as the 32,000-square-foot Morgan Academic Center. The academic services and support hub and its staff serve all 800 Penn State student-athletes in one physical location for the first time.

Among the numerous features in the new Morgan Academic Center are: staff offices for the student-athlete development and welfare unit, academic counselors, learning specialists and a sports psychologist; 15 collaborative learning rooms; two conference rooms; classroom space; three large study rooms; two open reading rooms; computer lab; student lounge; fueling station and displays of student-athlete academic recognition through the years and benefactor recognition.

Jahan Dotson

"STUDENT-ATHLETES TAKE MANY DIFFERENT ACADEMIC AVENUES AND HAVE SO MANY INTERESTS, SO WHAT THE OUTSTANDING STAFF IN THE MORGAN CENTER DOES IS WORK WITH YOU TO FIND THE PERFECT FIT TO HELP YOU ACHIEVE YOUR GOALS. FOR ME, THAT IS WORKING AS FBI/DEA AGENT, SO THE STAFF HELPED SET UP MEETINGS WITH DEANS, PROFESSORS AND ADVISORS TO PUT ME IN CLASSES THAT WOULD PREPARE ME FOR THAT CAREER PATH. I TOOK GRADUATE CLASSES FROM ALL FROM ALL DIFFERENT COLLEGES THAT WERE AIMED AT GIVING ME THE SKILLS NEEDED ATTAIN MY DREAM."

2022 OUTLOOK NOTES

THIRTY-THREE LETTERWINNERS RETURN FROM 2021

- Penn State returns 33 lettermen from last year's squad – 14 on offense, 18 on defense and one on special teams.
- A total of 38 lettermen are returning for the Nittany Lions. In addition to the 33 lettermen returning from 2021, Hakeem Beamon, Caziah Holmes, Adisa Isaac, Jake Pinegar and Marquis Wilson also have letterman status.
- The Nittany Lions lost the services of 22 lettermen – 12 on offense, nine on defense and one specialist.

TWELVE STARTERS RETURNING

- The Nittany Lions return 12 starters – six on offense, five on defense and one on special teams.
- Twelve additional Penn Staters have starting experience – four on offense, seven on defense and one specialist.
- Among returners is 2021 All-Big Ten second team honoree PJ Mustipher, third team honorees Ji'Ayir Brown and Joey Porter Jr., and honorable mention selections Sean Clifford, Curtis Jacobs, Juice Scruggs and Brenton Strange.

PENN STATE NUMBER CHANGES

- Four Nittany Lions are wearing new numbers in 2022: KeAndre Lambert-Smith (1), Christian Veilleux (11), Mason Stahl (17) and Nick Dawkins (53).

POSITION CHANGES

- Redshirt senior Jonathan Sutherland made the switch over to linebacker after spending last season at safety and linebacker.
- Redshirt freshman Zakee Wheatley made the move to safety after spending his true freshman season at cornerback.
- Redshirt sophomore Mason Stahl is now a wide receiver after spending the previous two seasons at quarterback.
- Redshirt junior Marquis Wilson made the switch from athlete to cornerback. Wilson spent his first two seasons with the program as a corner before moving to athlete in 2021.

LIONS WELCOME 10 EARLY ENROLLEES

- The Nittany Lions welcomed 10 scholarship student-athletes, who enrolled in classes in January and participated in spring practice.
- The January early enrollees were: quarterback Drew Allar (Medina, Ohio), running back Kaytron Allen (Norfolk, Va.), tight end Jerry Cross (Milwaukee, Wis.), defensive tackle Zane Durant (Lake Nona, Fla.), wide receiver Omari Evans (Killeen, Texas), offensive lineman JB Nelson (Pittsburgh, Pa.), quarterback Beau Pribula (York, Pa.), wide receiver Kaden Saunders (Columbus, Ohio) and running back Nicholas Singleton (Shillington, Pa.).
- In addition, Penn State welcomed a scholarship transfer in wide receiver Mitchell Tinsley (Western Kentucky).

NINE BOWL TEAMS HIGHLIGHT SCHEDULE

- The Nittany Lions will face nine teams who participated in a bowl game during the 2021 campaign.
- Purdue earned a 48-45 victory over SEC foe Tennessee in the TransPerfect Music City Bowl.
- Auburn took on Houston in the Birmingham Bowl, falling by a score of 17-13.

2022 OUTLOOK NOTES

MINNESOTA IS HOMECOMING FOE

- When the alumni return to Happy Valley for the 2022 Homecoming game, the Penn State faithful will cheer their Nittany Lions on against Minnesota on Oct. 22.
- This is the fourth time Penn State will square off against Minnesota in a Homecoming game. The Nittany Lions are 2-1 against the Golden Gophers in those games with wins in 1997 (16-15) and 2009 (20-0) and a loss in 1999 (24-23).
- Penn State owns a 72-24-5 record all-time on Homecoming, including wins in 12 of its last 16 games.
- Penn State Homecoming will celebrate the 2022-23 Guide State Forward award winners during the game. The annual Homecoming Parade will once again return to campus and downtown State College on Friday night, October 21.
- Penn State will once again turn back the clock for a special "Generations of Greatness" game. The Nittany Lions will don uniforms with designs elements from uniforms past.

SUSTAINED EXCELLENCE

- Prior to 2020, Penn State and Wisconsin were the only Big Ten teams to have posted a winning season the last 15 consecutive years.
- Penn State was one of five teams (Boise State, LSU, Oklahoma, Wisconsin) in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) to have a winning record each of the last 15 years.
- Penn State holds the FBS record for most consecutive seasons without a losing record at 49 (1939-87).

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

- The Nittany Lions had 38 players selected as Academic All-Big Ten in Fall 2021.
- Sean Clifford was a 2021 National Football Foundation (NFF) Scholar-Athlete and finalist for the Campbell Trophy, known as the "Academic Heisman." He is the 19th Nittany Lion to be selected as an NFF Scholar-Athlete.
- The Nittany Lions currently have five graduates on the roster: Barney Amor (two degrees: sociology and education at Colgate University), Sean Clifford (advertising/public relations), Chris Stoll (kinesiology), Jonathan Sutherland (labor and employment relations) and Nick Tarburton (labor and human resources).

Defensive end Nick Tarburton earned the team's Tim Shaw Thrive Award in 2021 and made 13 appearances with eight starts.

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

- The Nittany Lion coaching staff will have three new faces for the 2022 season.
- Penn State added defensive coordinator/linebackers coach Manny Diaz, special teams coordinator/outside linebacker/nickels coach Stacy Collins and assistant athletic director for football performance enhancement Chuck Losey.
- Diaz, who has 24 years of collegiate coaching experience, including three as a head coach and 13 as a defensive coordinator, joins the Nittany Lions after spending six seasons (2016-21) at the University of Miami, including three seasons as head coach (2019-21).
- During Diaz's tenure in Miami, the Hurricanes ranked in the top 10 nationally in tackles for loss each year. Miami is No. 9 in 2021 (7.75 per game) and was No. 4 in 2020 (8.6), No. 4 in 2019 (8.3), No. 1 in 2020 (10.5), No. 4 in 2017 (8.5) and No. 5 in 2016 (8.3).
- Collins, who has 24 years of collegiate coaching experience, joins the Nittany Lions after spending the 2021 season as Boise State's special teams coordinator and edge coach.
- During the 2021 campaign, Collins' special teams unit blocked three punts, which tied for seventh in the nation, and four kicks overall to rank ninth in FBS. Of the three blocked punts, two were returned for touchdowns.
- Losey, who was previously associate director of performance enhancement for football, will lead the performance enhancement staff for football. He replaces Dwight Galt III, who retired.

FOREVER BLUE & WHITE
Athletic Endowments

Join Penn State's proud athletic tradition. This is an opportunity to link your name in perpetuity with the accomplishments of all of Penn State's athletic teams.

By endowing a specific playing or coaching position on a team of your choice, you will help ensure that the University will always have funds available for expenses such as room and board, tuition and books; and that Penn State will be able to employ a first-rate coaching staff that will set a positive example for our young men and women.

As of July 2022, 28 benefactors already have seized the chance to endow a football position for the White Squad (see diagram below). Most of the Blue Squad remains available.

This program is open to all positions on any of Penn State's 31 intercollegiate athletic teams in consideration of a gift of $300,000 and for a minimum commitment of $50,000 you can establish a named endowed scholarship to support the team of your choice.

Coaching endowments also are available in all 31 sports, with gift levels for assistant coaches starting at $500,000 and head coaches starting at $1 million. Patrick and Candace Malloy previously created the Malloy Paterno Head Football Coach Endowment at Penn State.

The Malloys' gift will provide important resources for the football program. Income from the Malloy Paterno Head Football Coach Endowment will be directed, at the head coach's discretion and with approval from the Vice President of Intercollegiate Athletics, to purposes ranging from academic support and special medical care for team members, to recruiting and coaching expenses, excluding salary supplements. Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics receives no state support for its programs and must cover the cost of fielding 31 varsity teams from ticket revenues and private giving.

The University invests endowed gifts in perpetuity and uses a portion of the annual income for the purposes intended by the donor. The remaining income is added to the principal to protect it from inflation and ensure its growth.

For more information on becoming a part of Penn State's proud athletic tradition, please call the Nittany Lion Club office at 814-865-9462.

James Franklin, a 27-year football coaching veteran, was appointed Penn State's 16th head football coach on January 11, 2014 and enters his 12th season as a collegiate head coach. Franklin's career head coaching record is 91-49 and is one of only five active FBS coaches to lead his team to a bowl game in each of his first nine seasons as a head coach. Franklin attributes his success on the field to the strength of his teams' dedication to four core values: positive attitude, great work ethic, compete in everything you do and must be willing to sacrifice.

Under Franklin's direction, Penn State has finished in the top 12 of the final College Football Playoff rankings in four of the last six seasons, has earned berths in three New Year's Six bowl games with two wins and won the 2016 Big Ten Championship. Franklin has guided the Nittany Lions to an 86 percent graduation success rate, a perfect single-year 1,000 APR for the 2018-19 school year and record-breaking performances in the classroom.

CAREER AT A GLANCE

- Franklin was named the 16th head football coach in the storied history of the Nittany Lion program on January 11, 2014.
- Franklin is one of five active FBS head coaches to lead his teams to a bowl game in each of his first nine seasons as a head coach and one of nine to do so in 10 of their first 11 seasons.
- Franklin is one of four current Big Ten coaches (Ryan Day, Kirk Ferentz, Jim Harbaugh) to have won a Big Ten Championship and became the first African American head coach to win a Big Ten title after Penn State's 2016 victory.
- He owns an 91-49 career record, with a winning record in nine of 11 seasons at the helm.
- Franklin has led his teams to three Top 10 finishes (3 at Penn State) and six Top 25 finishes (2 at Vanderbilt; 4 at Penn State).
- In the last six seasons under Franklin, Penn State is one of six teams to rank in the top 12 of the CFP final rankings at least four times, joining Ohio State, Alabama, Georgia, Clemson and Oklahoma.
- From 2016-19, Franklin led PSU to three New Year's Six bowls - 2016 (Rose), 2017 (Fiesta) and 2019 (Cotton) - making Penn State one of eight teams to accomplish the feat during the four-year span. It also marked the first time Penn State as a program went to three New Year's Six bowls in four years since 1980-83 (1980 Fiesta, 1982 Fiesta ,1983 Sugar).
- Franklin's squads won two New Year's Six bowl games in three years (2017-19), making the Nittany Lions one of seven teams to do so. It also marked the first time PSU has won two New Year's Six bowl games in a three-year span since 1995 (Rose) and 1997 (Fiesta).
- Franklin guided Penn State to back-to-back New Year's Six bowls in 2016 (Rose) and 2017 (Fiesta) for the first time since 1985 (Orange) and 1986 (Fiesta).
- Penn State was ranked in the AP Top 25 for the 63 consecutive polls in which it was eligible from 2016-20, marking the third-longest streak in program history and longest streak since 1993-2000 when PSU was ranked for 121-straight weeks.
- From 2016-19, Franklin led Penn State to 42 wins, the most in program history for the Big Ten era in a four-year span, and 28 league wins, a program record.
- Franklin has 27 years of coaching experience at the collegiate and NFL level.
- In his first 11 years as a head coach, Franklin mentored 90 players who have gone on to the NFL ranks.
- Thirty-one Penn State players have been selected in the last five NFL Drafts, the most in a five-draft span since 1992-96 (36 players drafted). In addition, five-plus Nittany Lions have been drafted in five consecutive years, the longest streak for PSU since 1978-84.
- Franklin has secured top-25 recruiting classes each of his last 10 seasons, including a top-5 class at Penn State in 2018 and the No. 6 class in 2022.
- Franklin is second all-time in winning percentage by an FBS African American head coach (minimum 80 wins) and is third in total wins.
- Franklin's victories in the Fiesta Bowl, Pinstripe Bowl, Music City Bowl and Birmingham Bowl (formerly the Compass Bowl) marked the first time in each bowl's history an African American head coach earned the win.

NITTANY LIONS ON THE FIELD

2021 Season

- The Nittany Lions earned a spot in a New Year's Day bowl with an Outback Bowl berth.
- With wins over No. 12/15 Wisconsin and No. 22/20 Auburn, Penn State tallied two wins over ranked teams within the first three games of the season for the first time in program history.
- Penn State's defense allowed just 17.3 points per game in 2021, good for sixth in the country.

- The Nittany Lion defense allowed opponents only a 66.7 percent conversion rate in the red zone, which ranked third nationally.
- Penn State gave up just 11 passing touchdowns on the year, ranking fourth in the nation, while yielding 199.8 passing yards per game, ranking 23rd.
- The special teams unit was strong on punt and kick coverage, as the Nittany Lions ranked second in the country in net punting (44.5), fifth in kickoff return defense (14.0) and ninth in punt return defense (2.79).
- The Nittany Lions earned 18 All-Big Ten selections across offense, defense and special teams, led by four first-team honorees - wide receiver Jahan Dotson, safety Jaquan Brisker, defensive end Arnold Ebiketie and punter Jordan Stout.
- Stout was named the Big Ten Eddleman-Fields Punter of the Year, becoming the first Penn State player to win the award and the 10th conference major award winner in the Franklin era.
- Safety Ji'Ayir Brown tied for the nation's lead with six interceptions, the most for a Penn State player since 2006, and became the first Nittany Lion with six interceptions and two fumble recoveries in a season since 2005.
- Defensive end and second-team All-American Arnold Ebiketie paced the Big Ten with 17.0 tackles for loss and was second among Power Five defensive linemen in tackles for loss and tied for seventh in sacks.
- Third-team All-America wide receiver Jahan Dotson was a Biletnikoff Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year semifinalist and finished his stellar career third all-time at Penn State in career receiving touchdowns (23) and fourth in receptions (175) and receiving yards (2,620).
- Stout, a Ray Guy Award finalist, set Penn State's school record for career punt average (44.54) and season punt average (46.01) and became the second specialist in Big Ten history to earn Special Teams player of the Week in a season four times.

2020 Season

- With Franklin's emphasis on safety, along with the precautions he, the coaching staff, medical team and support staff established, the Nittany Lions were one of only two Big Ten teams to play all nine of its scheduled games during a shortened 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Penn State paced the Big Ten in first downs (223) and were second in total offense (430.3).
- Tight end Pat Freiermuth was selected as the Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year, becoming Penn State's first tight end to win the award.
- Despite missing five of PSU's nine games due to a season-ending injury, Freiermuth led Big Ten tight ends in receiving yards (310). Prior to his injury, Freiermuth led all FBS tight ends with 5.8 receptions per game and ranked fifth averaging 77.5 receiving yards per game.
- Wide receiver Jahan Dotson led the league in receiving yardage (884; 19th nationally) and was tied for the nation's lead in catches of 60-plus yards (4). Dotson also finished the year averaging 24.6 yards per punt return, a school record.
- Penn State ranked third in the Big Ten in total defense (328.8; 17th nationally), second in in passing defense (198.6; 24th), second in tackles for loss (6.7 per game) and fourth in rushing defense (130.2).

- With a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Lamont Wade vs. Illinois and an 81-yard punt return for a score by Dotson vs. Michigan State, PSU was one of four Power Five schools in 2020 to have a kick and punt return for a TD.
- The Nittany Lions earned 16 All-Big Ten honors (six on offense, nine on defense, one on special teams), including first-team laurels for Freiermuth, defensive end Jayson Oweh and defensive end Shaka Toney.
- Oweh and Toney became the first Penn State defensive end duo to receive first-team honors since Courtney Brown and Brad Scioli in 1998.
- Penn State had an emergence of true freshmen skill players on offense in running backs Keyvone Lee and Caziah Holmes, wide receivers Parker Washington and KeAndre Lambert-Smith, and tight end Theo Johnson, with true freshmen accounting for 1,486 of Penn State's 3,873 yards (38 percent), marking a school record for most combined scrimmage yards by true freshmen in a single season.

2019 Season

- Penn State earned its third 11-win season in the last four years with an 11-2 record, including a win over No. 17 Memphis in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.
- Penn State posted its fourth-straight top 12 finish in the final CFP rankings, coming in 10th.
- The Nittany Lions were ranked ninth in the final Associated Press and Amway Coaches polls to earn their 25th AP Top 10 finish.
- The Nittany Lions ended the season in the AP Top 25 in four consecutive seasons for the first time since a seven-year stint from 1993-99.
- Franklin was a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year award for the second time at Penn State (2016) and third time in his head coaching career.
- Defense was dominant for the Nittany Lions, finishing in the top 10 in FBS in yards per rush (1st; 2.55), forced fumbles (1st; 22), rushing defense (5th; 95.0), sacks (7th; 3.46), scoring defense (8th; 16.0) and fumble recoveries (10th; 12). Penn State was also 11th in tackles for loss (7.8).
- The Nittany Lions' 22 forced fumbles were the second-most in program history behind the school standard of 25 set in 1968 and the 2.55 yards per rush is seventh in the program record books.
- Offensively, the Nittany Lions continued to put up big numbers, ranking 15th in FBS in scoring offense with a 35.8 average, which ranks eighth in program history. The 58.8 completion percentage by Penn State quarterbacks sits seventh and the 141.78 passing efficiency is 10th in the program annals.
- The Penn State special teams unit made big gains in 2019, recording three blocked punts to finish third in the nation and four blocked kicks overall, which was sixth.
- Jonathan Sutherland led the way with a pair of blocked punts in the season-opener against Idaho, marking the first time since 2000 the Nittany Lions had two blocks in a game.
- The Nittany Lions had 19 players garner All-Big Ten accolades, including two first-team selections in Micah Parsons and Yetur Gross-Matos.
- Parsons was also selected as the Big Ten Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year to become the third Nittany Lion to claim the award, joining Mike Hull (2014) and Michael Mauti (2012). Parsons was the first sophomore to win Big Ten Linebacker of the Year.
- In addition, Parsons became the 101st first-team All-American and 43rd consensus All-American in Penn State history. He collected first-team accolades from Associated Press and American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and second-team laurels from the Football Writers Association of American (FWAA), Walter Camp and Sporting News.
- Tight end Pat Freiermuth was a finalist for the John Mackey Award for the nation's top tight end and also took home All-America accolades with a bid on the AFCA second team.

2018 Season

- The Nittany Lions posted their third-straight season with at least nine wins in 2018 with a 9-4 overall record.
- Penn State finished No. 12 in CFP rankings and No. 17 in the AP and Amway Coaches polls.
- The defense led the way for the Nittany Lions in 2018, finishing in the top 20 in team passing efficiency (8th; 106.10), red zone defense (11th; .750), passing yards allowed (15th; 181.5) and third down conversion defense (19th; .336).
- The Penn State defense was a permanent fixture in the opposition's backfield, leading the country in sacks (3.62) for the second time in the last four years and ranking fourth in tackles for loss (8.2).
- On the offensive side of the ball, the Nittany Lions posted their highest rushing average (204.9) since 2008 (205.8) and were No. 16 nationally in red zone offense (.897).
- The Nittany Lions had 15 players garner All-Big Ten accolades, including two first-team selections in Amani Oruwariye and Yetur Gross-Matos.
- Quarterback Trace McSorley capped his Penn State career as the program's career record holder for passing yards (9,899), completions (720), 300-yard passing games (10), 200-yard passing games (28), rushing yards by a quarterback (1,697), rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (30), passing touchdowns (77), total offense yards (11,596), touchdowns responsible for (107), wins as a starting quarterback (31) and consecutive games with a touchdown pass (34).
- In addition, McSorley set eight season records during his time in the Blue & White - passing yards, passing touchdowns, completions, 200-yard passing games, 300-yard passing games, rushing touchdowns by a quarterback, total offense yards, touchdowns responsible for - and the game record for yards of total offense.
- Gillikin set the Penn State record for punting average in a season with a 44.00 mark, besting the previous record of 43.55 set by Ralph Giacomarro in 1981.

2017 Season

- Penn State continued to be among the nation's elite in 2017, climbing as high as No. 2 in the rankings and appearing in a second-straight New Year's Six bowl, earning a 35-28 win over No. 11 Washington in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl.
- The Nittany Lions earned back-to-back 11-win seasons for the fifth time in program history and first time since 2008 and 2009 with an 11-2 record.
- Penn State finished the season No. 8 in the Associated Press and Amway Coaches polls and No. 9 in the final CFP rankings.
- The Nittany Lions used a balanced attack with a high-scoring offense and a stingy defense to lead FBS in scoring differential with a +24.6 margin.
- Offensively, Penn State finished seventh in FBS with a 41.1 scoring average, the third-highest in program history, and 19th in total offense with a 460.3 average, which also ranks third in PSU history.

- Defensively, the Nittany Lions were seventh in FBS in scoring average (16.5 ppg) and sacks (3.23 spg), while coming in 17th in total defense (329.5).
- Running back Saquon Barkley finished a stellar collegiate career by winning the Paul Hornung Award for the nation's most versatile player, three major Big Ten awards – Graham-George Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, Ameche-Dayne Big Ten Running Back of the Year, Rodgers-Dwight Big Ten Return Specialist – and the Chicago Tribune Silver Football for the second-straight season. Barkley is just the fifth player since 1924 to win two career Silver Football honors.
- Barkley became the 100th first-team All-American in program history with Consensus All-America honors and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting.
- The Nittany Lions had 18 players garner All-Big Ten accolades, including four first-team selections in Barkley (running back and return specialist), Marcus Allen and Mike Gesicki.
- McSorley, who was the Offensive MVP of the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl, followed up his record-breaking 2016 campaign with another outstanding season. In 2017, McSorley broke the Penn State single-season record for completions (284), total offense (4,061), touchdowns responsible for (37), 300-yard passing games (5) and 200-yard passing games (11).
- McSorley also became the second player in Big Ten history with 25 passing touchdowns and 10 rushing scores in a season, joining Ohio State's J.T. Barrett (2014, 2017).
- Wide receiver DaeSean Hamilton ended his Penn State career as the program's career receptions leader (214) and second in school history in receiving yards (2,842).
- The Nittany Lions sent nine players to senior all-star games, which is the most since 2003 when nine student-athletes were in postseason games (Senior Bowl: Allen, Gesicki, Hamilton, Christian Campbell; East-West Shrine Bowl: Hamilton, Jason Cabinda, Curtis Cothran, Parker Cothren, Grant Haley; NFLPA Collegiate Bowl: Troy Apke). Apke was the MVP of the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl.

2016 Season

- The Nittany Lions surged in 2016, winning nine consecutive games en route to the Big Ten Championship, a Rose Bowl berth and an 11-3 overall record.
- Penn State finished the season ranked No. 5 in the College Football Playoff rankings and No. 7 in the Associated Press and Amway Coaches polls. It was Penn State's highest finish in the polls since 2005.
- The Nittany Lions claimed their fourth overall Big Ten Championship and first outright title since 1994 with a thrilling 38-31 comeback win over Wisconsin in the Big Ten Championship Game.
- In 2016, Franklin was honored as Sporting News National Coach of the Year and the Woody Hayes National Coach of the Year, as well as the Dave McLain Big Ten Coach of the Year and Associated Press Big Ten Coach of the Year.
- Franklin was also a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant, Eddie Robinson and Associated Press National Coach of the Year awards.
- The 2016 season brought record-breaking performances from the Nittany Lions as the offense set marks for total offense (6,056), passing yards (3,650), points scored (526) and double-digit comeback wins (4).
- The Nittany Lions' +14.4 scoring improvement in 2016 ranked fourth in FBS and second among Power 5 schools.
- Barkley was selected as the Graham-George Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, Ameche-Dayne Big Ten Running Back of the Year and Chicago Tribune Silver Football winner for the conference's top player.
- McSorley was named the Grange-Griffin Big Ten Championship Game MVP, as well as earning Maxwell Club Tri-State Player of the Year and All-Big Ten second-team honors. He was the first Penn State quarterback to win all-conference honors since Daryll Clark in 2009.
- Defensively the Nittany Lions finished seventh in FBS in tackles for loss (8.1) and 19th in sacks (2.86).

2015 Season

- Franklin guided the Nittany Lions to a 7-6 record in 2015 and a berth in the TaxSlayer Bowl.
- Under Franklin's tutelage, Carl Nassib claimed a trio of national awards – Lombardi Award, Lott IMPACT Trophy and Ted Hendricks Award – and became Penn State's 13th unanimous Consensus All-American.
- Nassib also led the nation in sacks with a school-record 15.5.
- The 2015 season also saw Christian Hackenberg break every Penn State career passing record, including passing yards, passing touchdowns and completions, and true freshman Saquon Barkley set the freshman season rushing record with a 1,000-yard campaign.
- Barkley earned Big Ten Network's Freshman of the Year and claimed second-team All-Big Ten honors, while wide receiver Chris Godwin (second team) and defensive tackles Austin Johnson (second team) and Anthony Zettel (third team) also earned All-Big Ten accolades.

2014 Season

- Franklin's first season was bookended with a pair of thrilling victories for the Nittany Lions. The Penn State head coach's inaugural season began with a final-play 26-24 victory over UCF in Dublin, Ireland, in Penn State's first-ever international game and ended with a comeback, a 31-30 overtime win over Boston College in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium. The Nittany Lions overcame a 14-point deficit late in the third quarter, tying the largest comeback in Penn State's bowl history.
- With the Pinstripe Bowl win, Franklin became just the third Penn State coach to lead the team to at least seven wins in his first season, joining Dick Harlow (1915) and Bill O'Brien (2012).
- Franklin guided the Lions to a 4-0 start, joining Harlow as the only first-year Penn State coaches to win their initial four games.
- In Franklin's first season at Penn State, he helped Mike Hull to the Butkus-Fitzgerald Big Ten Linebacker of the Year award to carry on the "Linebacker U" tradition.
- Zettel earned All-Big Ten first-team honors, while receiver DaeSean Hamilton garnered All-Big Ten second-team accolades after pulling in 82 catches for 899 yards.

NITTANY LIONS IN THE CLASSROOM

- The Nittany Lions posted their first 1,000 single-year APR in program history in 2018-19, topping the previous high of 993 in 2014-15.
- Sean Clifford (2021) and Trace McSorley (2018) were selected as National Football Foundation (NFF) Scholar-Athletes and finalists for the Campbell Trophy, known as the "Academic Heisman." They are the 18th and 19th Nittany Lions to be selected as an NFF Scholar-Athlete.
- In 2019, punter Blake Gillikin took home CoSIDA Academic All-America® first-team honors for the second-straight year to become the 12th two-time first-team selection in Penn State history. He graduated with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in May 2020.
- Gillikin's two first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors increased Penn State football's total to 67 honorees, which ranks second in Division I football history (FBS and FCS).
- Tyler Yazujian collected a berth on the CoSIDA Academic All-America® first team in 2016 after an appearance on the second team in 2015.
- A program-record 10 Nittany Lions were named 2020-21 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars, besting the previous mark of nine set a year earlier.
- Penn State had a program-record 38 student-athletes claim Academic All-Big Ten honors in the fall of 2021, besting the previous mark of 35 set by Franklin's squad in 2017.

- In the 2020 fall semester, five student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0 grade-point average (GPA), 37 made Dean's List (3.5 GPA or higher) and 86 posted a 3.0 GPA or higher with the University's alternative COVID-19 grading system in place. The team posted a 3.39 mark with 29 players earning Academic All-Big Ten recognition.
- In the 2020 spring semester, 14 Nittany Lions posted a perfect 4.0 GPA and 89 squad members with at least a 3.0 GPA with the alternative grading also in effect.
- A total of 56 Nittany Lions earned a 3.0 GPA or higher during the 2015 fall semester, which set a school record.
- Fifty-two squad members compiled at least a 3.0 GPA in the fall of 2019, which was the second-highest semester total in program history.

NITTANY LIONS IN THE COMMUNITY

- The Nittany Lions are active in the community, participating in activities such as Uplifting Athletes, THON, Pennsylvania Special Olympics Summer Games, State College Area Food Bank and Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital visits.
- On June 15, 2020, Franklin was named to the Big Ten Equality Coalition, which includes student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family representing all 14 member institutions.
- Franklin and his wife, Fumi, established the Franklin Family Educational Equity Scholarship to help make the Penn State experience affordable for students who haven't had access to enroll in the past.
- As part of the Cotton Bowl festivities in 2019, Franklin and his family made a $10,000 financial commitment to the Dallas Children's Hospital.
- In August 2019, Franklin was named a Penn State University Renaissance Fund honoree, which awards outstanding community members for helping students in need.
- Quarterback Sean Clifford (2021) and linebacker Brandon Smith (2017) were selected to the Allstate AFCA Good Works team for their selflessness and community service. Clifford and Smith are the fourth and fifth overall winners of the award in Penn State history.
- The football team's 2,100 hours of community service in 2014-15 equated to nearly 40 percent of the 5,300 community service hours by Penn State student-athletes.
- The engaging and enthusiastic Franklin is a popular speaker and media interview subject. He was a guest analyst on ESPN's coverage from the site of college football's National Championship game, spending a day appearing on various ESPN platforms in 2013 and 2014. In 2015, Franklin joined the FOX studio crew for pregame, halftime and postgame coverage of the Big Ten Championship Game.

Heather Crowder Photography

- In February 2015, Franklin was the lone college head coach among the speakers and panelists at the prestigious MIT Sloan Sports Analytics Conference in Boston. He was a panelist for the session, "The Formula to Win: College Football Analytics," which was moderated by ESPN reporter Rachel Nichols.
- Franklin has also been an ardent supporter of "Be the Match," encouraging community members to join the national bone marrow registry.

RECRUITING SUCCESS

- While at Vanderbilt, Franklin assembled a class that finished as high as 19th in 2014.
- In each of his three seasons in Nashville, Franklin signed classes that finished in the top 50 nationally. Prior to Franklin's arrival, the Commodores average class rank was 64.6 since 2000 (based on 247Sports composite).

HELPING THE COMMODORES GET THEIR STRIPES

- Franklin directed Vanderbilt to consecutive Top 25 finishes for the first time in the 124-year history of the program (No. 23/24 – 2013 & No. 23/20 – 2012).
- The Commodores finished 23rd in the final 2012 Associated Press poll, marking their first AP final ranking since 1948.
- Franklin's 24 wins tied Dan McGugin for most by a Vanderbilt coach in his first three seasons.
- Franklin led Vanderbilt to a bowl game in each of his three seasons in Nashville, with the last two years resulting in wins over NC State (Music City Bowl) and Houston (BBVA Compass Bowl). The Commodores had played in four bowl games all-time in the 121 seasons prior to his arrival, none in consecutive years.

- Vanderbilt had posted four nine-win seasons in program history, with Franklin's last two teams comprising half of the total.
- Over the last 20 games during the 2012-13 seasons, the Commodores' 16-4 record was second-best in the SEC to Alabama's 17-3 mark.
- Franklin guided the Commodores to a 6-6 regular-season record and earned a berth in the Liberty Bowl during his first season after inheriting a Vanderbilt team that finished 2-10 in both 2009 and 2010, with a combined mark of 1-15 SEC play.
- The 2011 bowl berth was Vanderbilt's second since 1983 and running back Zac Stacy broke the Commodores' season record with 1,193 rushing yards.
- The Commodores had a breakthrough campaign in 2012 under Franklin, finishing on a seven-game winning streak (longest since 1948) to post a 9-4 mark, Vanderbilt's most wins in 97 years, and a berth in the Music City Bowl, in which VU defeated NC State, 38-24.
- A victory at Missouri sparked an 8-1 finish, which included three consecutive SEC road wins for the first time in program history.
- The Commodores were 5-3 in SEC play, winning five SEC games for the first time since 1935, and posted two shutouts for the first time since 1968.
- Franklin was among five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year award in 2012.
- Stacy became the first player in Vanderbilt history to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons, gaining 1,141 yards to finish his career with a school-record 3,143 yards and 30 rushing touchdowns.
- Wide receiver Jordan Matthews broke the Vanderbilt season receiving record with 1,363 yards on 94 catches.
- Vanderbilt continued its historic rise under Franklin during the 2013 season, capping a school-record 9-4 campaign with a 41-24 win over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl.
- The Commodores defeated Florida, Georgia and Tennessee in the same season for the first time in program history, winning in Gainesville and Knoxville.
- Franklin helped Matthews develop into a two-time All-American and the SEC's career leader in receptions (262) and receiving yardage (3,759). Matthews broke the SEC season record with 112 receptions for 1,477 yards and seven touchdowns in 2013, becoming the first SEC receiver to make 100 catches in a season.

RISING UP THE RANKS

- Franklin began his coaching career as the wide receivers coach at Kutztown (Pa.) University (1995) and was a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University in 1996, working with the secondary.
- He then was the wide receivers coach at James Madison (1997), a graduate assistant (tight ends) at Washington State in 1998 and the wide receivers coach at Idaho State (1999).
- In 2000, Franklin was named the wide receivers coach at Maryland under head coach Ron Vanderlinden, who would go on to coach the Penn State linebackers from 2001-13.
- Franklin continued in that role under new head coach Ralph Friedgen in 2002 and 2003 and helped the Terps to three consecutive 10-win seasons, including an appearance in the 2002 FedEx Orange Bowl. In 2003, Franklin added duties as recruiting coordinator and directed back-to-back recruiting classes ranked in the Top 25 nationally. Franklin and former Nittany Lion head coach Bill O'Brien (running backs) were Maryland assistant coaches in 2003 and 2004 under Friedgen.
- After five successful years at Maryland, Franklin was named wide receivers coach on Mike Sherman's Green Bay Packers staff in 2005. During that season, Green Bay ranked third in the NFL in receptions (383) and seventh in receiving yards (3,766). Donald Driver was among the top receivers in the NFL, ranking second in receptions and eighth in receiving yards, with a then-career-high 86 catches for 1,221 yards.
- Franklin served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kansas State during the 2006-07 seasons under head coach Ron Prince. In 2006, he helped the Wildcats to their first winning season in four years. Franklin coached quarterback Josh Freeman and oversaw an offense that produced a 3,000-yard passer (Freeman), 1,500-yard receiver (All-American wide receiver Jordy Nelson) and 1,000-yard rusher (James Johnson) during the 2007 season, a first in school history. Freeman would go on to become the Wildcats' highest NFL offensive draft pick since 1954 when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected him 17th overall in the 2009 NFL Draft.
- Franklin returned to Maryland in 2008 as the Terps' assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He helped the Terrapins to victories in the 2008 Humanitarian Bowl and the 2010 Military Bowl. The 2010 squad was among the national leaders in scoring offense at 32.2 points per game and was led by ACC Rookie of the Year quarterback Danny O'Brien. He threw for 2,438 yards, 22 touchdowns and only eight interceptions in 2010, with All-ACC receiver Torrey Smith making 67 catches for 1,055 yards and 12 scores.
- In 1998, Franklin began his participation in the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, starting with a stint with the Miami Dolphins and working with Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Franklin also worked with Donovan McNabb of the Philadelphia Eagles (1999) and Minnesota Vikings (2008) in the NFL program.

PLAYING CAREER

- Franklin was a four-year letterman at quarterback and a two-time All-PSAC selection at East Stroudsburg.
- Franklin graduated having broken or tied 23 school records.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT JAMES FRANKLIN

"I've had the chance to work closely with Coach Franklin and I can't say enough good things about his approach, his work ethic, his passion for the game and his ability to teach the game. He's a tireless recruiter and one of those coaches who can get the most out of his players and is excellent at making and maintaining relationships."
- Darrell Bevell, Quarterbacks Coach and Passing Game Coordinator, Miami Dolphins

"To this day, the most rewarding opportunity in my career was getting to be a graduate assistant for Coach Franklin at Penn State. It changed my life. So much of who I am as a coach is because of him. No one taught me more about the importance of making relationships meaningful and intentional. He pushed me as a coach and I grew because of him. His attention to detail from day one is unlike anyone I've been around, and his strong belief in his core values, all of which are still engrained in me today, speaks to the man and coach he is. It was privilege to work for and learn from Coach."
- Joe Brady, Quarterbacks Coach, Buffalo Bills

"Coach Franklin has a lot of energy. He has a great vision. He's a terrific coach. He's an outstanding recruiter. You've got to be able to get both players who are talented and ready to go, and players who can develop into elite level players. James has been able to do both. His staff has coached them well and they've established expectations and standards for the program. He's developed a culture that really is a championship level culture at Penn State."
- Rece Davis, ESPN

"What else can you say about James? He won the Big Ten Championship in his third year following what was the most difficult time in Penn State's football history. Here's what else you can say - He's a student of the game, highly organized, coach's his coaches and is one of the best recruiters in the country."
- Gerry DiNardo, Big Ten Network

"It was an honor to have James Franklin as a coach. He brings out the passion and the love for the game in everyone. He is a leader, he knows how to win, and he brings a relentless work ethic. He is a tremendous motivator on and off the field. He's done an amazing job and will continue to be an asset to the Penn State campus, community and football program."
- Donald Driver, Former Green Bay Packers Wide Receiver and Player of Franklin

"Coach Franklin was an outstanding player and has been an outstanding coach. James is the type of individual who has a great passion for the game of football. He has goals and aspirations. He is enthusiastic and has an outstanding work ethic. He applied those attributes as a player and has applied them to his coaching and that is why he has been able to have so much success everywhere he has been. He is an outstanding communicator and that parlays into being a great recruiter. He brings as much enthusiasm and passion for Penn State as the fan base does."
- Denny Douds – Franklin's College Head Coach at East Stroudsburg

"I think right now Coach Franklin has proven to be one of the three best coaches in college football because of what he's accomplished the past decade. What he did at Vanderbilt was remarkable. He led the Commodores to Top 25 poll finishes in two of his three seasons. Keep in mind, that was a program that hadn't finished in the Top 25 for more than 60 years before his arrival. I don't think he gets anywhere near enough credit for that transformation. Then, he takes over a Penn State program that was still reeling from hefty sanctions and also was thrust into arguably the toughest division in college football, stacked with top coaches. By his third season, Franklin led the Nittany Lions to a Big Ten title."
- Bruce Feldman, The Athletic/FOX Sports

"Coach has meant so much to me, both on and off the field. One of the best things that ever happened to me was getting to work with Coach Franklin. I was very raw, and needed development in really every area. Coach taught me proper footwork, how to better understand pass routes and schemes, just how to play the position. Truly, to this day, my fundamental foundation as a quarterback came from the time with him."
- Josh Freeman, Former NFL First Round Pick/Kansas State ('09) Quarterback and Player of Franklin

"Coach Franklin embodies all of the characteristics you want in a head football coach but also a mentor of young men. He was instrumental to our team success as well as my individual success throughout my four years with the program. I am so happy for his continued success and wish him and Penn State Football nothing but the best moving forward."
- Mike Gesicki, Miami Dolphins/Penn State ('17) Tight End and Former Player of Franklin

"There are a few things that I believe make Coach Franklin one of the best in the business — his relentless passion for wanting the very best for his program, whether it's the video department, weight room, academics resources...you name it. Coupled with his leadership and coaching acumen, Coach Franklin continues to keep Penn State as one of the premier programs in America."
- Howard Griffith, Big Ten Network

"Coach Franklin and is a great person and a great coach. He transformed the program and my career during my time at Vanderbilt. He took us from the bottom of the SEC to the upper tier of college football's toughest conference and a national contender. It was amazing to see what he was able to do at Vanderbilt. For him, there is only one goal in mind; a National Championship. I feel like he has the right mindset as a coach, can put the right coaches around him and with the student-athletes, resources and fan base at Penn State, he will continue to do a tremendous job."
- Casey Heyward – Los Angeles Chargers/Vanderbilt ('12) Cornerback and Former Player of Franklin

"James Franklin is an elite coach. This is one of the best coaches in the game of college football. He did it at Vanderbilt. He's doing it at Penn State."
- Gus Johnson, FOX Sports

"Coach Franklin has a lot of energy, a lot of passion for the game, and obviously knows what he is doing. He cares about his players and is a great family guy. He is intense, but yet has fun and like I said, he has his passion for the game, his love for the game and a love for his players, and he cares about his players like family."
- Jordy Nelson, Former NFL/ Kansas State ('09) Wide Receiver and Player of Franklin

"Coach Franklin took a personal interest in me. He and the staff knew I had a lot of potential and made me into the person I wanted to be. The environment he's built is tremendous. The relationship he builds when he's recruiting you, he tells you this is a forever relationship, and he truly means it. He's one of the smartest people you will meet on and off the field. When you have a guy who cares about what you are going to be doing 20 years from now, that's someone you want to have in your corner."
- Micah Parsons, Dallas Cowboys/Penn State ('19), 2019 All-American and B1G Linebacker of the Year

"James is a great coach, a great leader and tireless worker. His players play tough, but they are old-school and disciplined. He brings new approaches to the field for the players and offenses, and he is an innovator and a cutting-edge type of coach. You would love to have that type of guy be your son. He is a wonderful person with great character and great integrity. He is a wonderful husband and a wonderful father. He's a great friend, who never forgets where he came from, and his friends. He's just a wonderful human being."
- Mike Price, Former Washington State Head Coach

"Coach Franklin is a builder. I think sometimes people minimize in their heads the impact of some things that happened from the NCAA on the program. The impact of that and what Coach Franklin has done to overcome that, normally it is something that takes years to overcome, and I applaud him for the way he has done it without making any excuses. When they won the Big Ten Title in 2016, I thought that was one of the best coaching jobs in Penn State history. He has always optimized the team and has got the most out of his teams."
- Matt Rhule, Carolina Panthers Head Coach/Penn State ('97) Linebacker

"I think the greatest thing about Coach Franklin is he makes you believe in yourself more than you believe in yourself. I think he's the greatest maximizer of your individual capacity that I've ever been around. He made us believe in things that we didn't believe in ourselves. He made us become of what he saw of us and were that good because of what he did."
- Jordan Rodgers, ESPN Analyst/Vanderbilt ('13) Quarterback and Former Player of Franklin

"I have always believed Penn State is one of the most spectacular college football environments. James Franklin's recruiting panache and on-field energy has continued that tradition to make it a special place to be. I can't wait to see what he continues to build."
- Holly Rowe, ESPN

"James worked for me at the Green Bay Packers. I noticed early on that he always saw the big picture. He didn't just coach his players on the field, but saw the need for them to be accountable off the field as well. He took an interest in every aspect of their lives and coached not just the player, but the person."
- Mike Sherman, Former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M Head Coach

"James Franklin is one of the best football coaches in America – his record speaks for itself. However, I'm more impressed with his character and the family atmosphere he creates that permeates through the program. Coach Franklin's biggest attribute is that he loves his players like they are his sons and prioritizes their academic development, so they're well prepared for life after football. Coach brings a unique mix of enthusiasm, determination, and authenticity, which inspires everyone around him. We're lucky to have James Franklin as our coach."
- Brandon Short, Penn State ('99) Linebacker

"Coach Franklin has earned the opportunity to be a leader at a program like Penn State. I had a greater appreciation for him after I left (Maryland). He wants you to be the best you can be as a student and a player and brings a family environment. He is very passionate about what he does and has all the tools to be successful."
- Torrey Smith, Former NFL/Maryland ('10) Wide Receiver and Player of Franklin

"I got to know James when he was at Kansas State and I enjoyed being around him a great deal. I think he is a quality person and is a very fine football coach. I liked his integrity and the way he carried himself. He is a coach that does things the right way and treats people with respect. He truly cares about the student-athletes that he coaches and he is a guy that seems to get along with everyone he interacts with."
- Bill Snyder, Former Kansas State Head Coach

"I have known Coach Franklin for almost a quarter of a century. His dedication to the development of his student athletes competitively, through community service and in the classroom is admirable. His intensity and attention to detail in regards to game preparation always impressed. In summary, he is a terrific role model in every regard."
- Debbie Yow, Former Director of Athletics at N.C. State and Maryland

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Manny Diaz, who owns 24 years of collegiate coaching experience and 13 as a defensive coordinator, joins the Nittany Lions after spending six seasons at the University of Miami, including three seasons as head coach (2019-21).
- During Diaz's tenure as head coach at Miami, the Hurricanes tied for the second most ACC wins in the league, only trailing Clemson.
- Diaz coached the Hurricanes to three bowl appearances in his three seasons at the helm, which included an 8-3 record and 7-2 mark in ACC play in 2020. It was the second time with Diaz on staff as well as the second time in program history Miami won seven ACC games.
- Miami finished 18th in the final 2020 College Football Playoff rankings.
- Defenses under Diaz have been a force behind the line of scrimmage. From 2018-20, Miami's defense featured at least one player with 15 tackles for loss: Jaelan Phillips (15.5) in 2020, Gregory Rousseau (19.5) in 2019 and Jonathan Garvin (18.0) in 2018.
- During Diaz's time in Miami, the Hurricanes ranked in the top 10 nationally in tackles for loss each year. Miami was No. 9 in 2021 (7.75 per game), No. 4 in 2020 (8.6), No. 4 in 2019 (8.3), No. 1 in 2018 (10.5), No. 4 in 2017 (8.5) and No. 5 in 2016 (8.3).
- Diaz, who has coached in 19 bowl games (13-6 record), has led defenses known for taking the football away. Since 2017, Miami is 11th nationally among Power Five teams in takeaways per season (20.6).
- Miami's 2021 squad finished the regular season winning five of its last six games, including wins over Top 20 opponents NC State and Pitt, and finished second in the ACC Coastal division with a 5-3 conference record.
- Prior to taking over as head coach, Diaz ran a Hurricane defensive unit which ranked fourth nationally in total defense (278.9) in 2018, while also finishing first in tackles for loss (10.5 per game), third down conversion percentage (.253) and passing defense (135.6).
- Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets in 2018, while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC first team - one of eight all-conference picks on the defensive side of the ball for the Canes.
- During the 2017 campaign, Miami was first nationally in sacks (3.38 per game), third in tackles for loss (8.5 per game), eighth in fumble recoveries (14) and 15th in interceptions (17).
- A total of eight Hurricanes earned All-ACC honors on defense in 2017. The Hurricanes won the ACC Coastal Division and earned a berth into the Capital One Orange Bowl.
- Diaz joined Miami as a defensive coordinator in 2016 and led an impressive turnaround to the unit in his first season. The Hurricanes ranked fifth nationally in tackles for loss (up from 105th in 2015), tied for eighth in touchdowns allowed (up from 61st), ninth in yards allowed per play (up from 86th), 12th in scoring defense (up from 77th), 20th in total defense (up from 69th) and 22nd in sacks (up from 70th).
- Prior to Miami, Diaz spent the 2015 season as defensive coordinator at Mississippi State. The Bulldogs finished with a 9-4 record, held opponents to 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.
- Diaz was the defensive coordinator during the 2014 season at Louisiana Tech, where the Bulldogs led the nation in takeaways (42), including 26 interceptions and 16 fumble recoveries.
- Prior to Louisiana Tech, Diaz was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas from 2011-13. His 2011 defensive unit ranked ninth in FBS in total yards per play.
- During his first stint at Mississippi State in 2010 running the defense and coaching linebackers, MSU ranked 13th nationally in red zone defense (.730), 17th in rushing defense (214.9) and tackles for loss per game (7.0), and 22nd in scoring defense (19.9) and takeaways (28).
- Diaz spent six seasons on the NC State staff as a graduate assistant (2000-01) and a full-time assistant (2002-05).
- A 1995 graduate of Florida State, Diaz began his coaching career with the Seminoles in 1998 and 1999 as a graduate assistant. He was part of Florida State's national title-winning coaching staff in 1999.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

MIKE YURICH

@Coach_Yurcich

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Mike Yurcich, who has 23 years of college coaching experience and 16 years as an offensive coordinator, enters his second season as Penn State's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.
- In his career as an FBS offensive coordinator, Yurcich's offenses have averaged 6.36 yards per play, ranking first among OC's since 2013 and 13.79 yards per completion, also first in the time frame.
- Since 2013, Yurcich's offenses have scored 50 or more points 26 times and 40 or more points 52 times (45.2 percent of games coached), both of which are tops among FBS offensive coordinators since 2013. His teams average 58.7 touchdowns per year.
- During Yurcich's first season in Happy Valley, Penn State's offense featured a first-team All-Big Ten wide receiver in Jahan Dotson, who also earned third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press.
- Quarterback Sean Clifford finished sixth in the Big Ten in total offense (251.5) in 2021, while Dotson (91 receptions for 1,182 yards) and Parker Washington (64 receptions for 820 yards) were one of only five receiving tandems in the country to each have at least 64 catches and 820 yards.
- In 2020 when Yurcich was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas, the Longhorns ranked eighth in FBS in scoring offense (42.7 ppg; second in Texas history), 16th in passing efficiency (156.2) and 19th in total offense (475.4 ypg).
- Under Yurcich's guidance, Longhorn quarterback Sam Ehlinger completed 60.1 percent (184-306) of his passes with a Big 12-leading 25 touchdowns, earning second-team All-Big 12 honors.
- Prior to his time in Austin, Yurcich served as the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Ohio State in 2019.
- The Buckeyes posted a 13-1 record and earned a trip to the College Football Playoff, while quarterback Justin Fields was the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Davey O'Brien Award.
- Yurcich was the architect of one of Oklahoma State's greatest offensive eras as the program averaged 38.0 points and 478.3 yards per game in his six-year stint as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. OSU scored 40 or more points 35 times and 50 or more points 15 times.
- Oklahoma State finished 10th nationally in total offense (500.2 ypg) and passing offense (309.8 ypg) in 2018. Yurcich developed walk-on quarterback Taylor Cornelius into a top-10 ranked player nationally in passing yards (4th; 3,978 yds), touchdowns (8th; 32), total offense (6th; 337.3 ypg) and points responsible for (5th; 252).
- The 2017 Oklahoma State offense featured 4,000-yard passer Mason Rudolph, two 1,000-yard receivers in James Washington and Marcell Ateman and 1,000-yard rusher Justice Hill. The Cowboys led the country in passing yards (389.2 ypg), finished second in total offense (568.9 ypg) and fourth in scoring offense (45.0 ppg).
- In 2017, the Cowboys set eight single-season school records in total offense, yards per play, passing yards, first downs and passing efficiency.
- In 2016, Oklahoma State was one of two Power Five teams to produce a 4,000-yard passer (Rudolph), a 1,000-yard rusher (Hill) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Washington). OK State ranked in the top 20 in four categories.
- With a two-quarterback system in 2015, OK State threw for 34 touchdowns and ranked seventh in FBS in passing yards per game (353.2 ypg) and 14th in scoring offense (39.5 ppg). Yurcich produced the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year in Tyreek Hill in 2014 and Oklahoma State was 14th nationally in scoring (39.1) in his first season in 2013.
- Yurcich, who served as the offensive coordinator for two seasons (2011-12) at Shippensburg University, oversaw a unit which led NCAA Division II in total offense (529.2 ypg) in 2012 and was second in scoring offense (46.9 ppg) and passing (387.7 ypg). Under Yurcich's tutelage, quarterback Zach Zulli won the 2012 Harlon Hill Trophy as the top player in Division II. Zulli tied the NCAA Division II record with 54 passing scores.
- The native of Euclid, Ohio coached for six seasons at Edinboro University, including five seasons as offensive coordinator from 2006-10.
- Yurcich also coached at Saint Francis (Ind.) from 1999-2002 and was an offensive graduate assistant at Indiana University in 2003 and 2004.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Stacy Collins, who has 24 years of collegiate coaching experience, joins the Nittany Lions as special teams coordinator/outside linebacker/nickels coach after spending the 2021 season as Boise State's special teams coordinator and edge coach.
- During the 2021 campaign, Collins' special teams unit blocked three punts, which tied for seventh in the nation, and four kicks overall to rank ninth in FBS. Of the three blocked punts, two were returned for scores.
- Under Collins, the Broncos finished fifth in the nation and led the Mountain West Conference in punt returns (15.77). In addition, Boise State's kickoff defense was second in the MWC and 36th in FBS (19.03).
- Boise State kicker Jonah Dalmas was a first-team All-Mountain West honoree and a Lou Groza semifinalist under Collins after going 26-for-28 on the field goals, including a school-record 26 consecutive attempts, and 38-of-39 on extra points.
- Boise State punt returner Stefan Cobbs earned All-Mountain West second team honors. He posted an 81-yard punt return for a touchdown.
- Prior to Boise State, Collins spent five seasons (2016-20) at Utah State, including the 2020 season as the co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. He held the role of special teams coordinator and running backs coach in 2019, he mentored inside linebackers in 2017-18, and served as the special teams coordinator in 2016.
- During the 2019 campaign, kicker Dominik Eberle was an All-MWC first team selection and a Pro Football Focus All-America honorable mention. He set 14 school records in his career and signed a free agent contract with the Las Vegas Raiders.
- Savon Scarver was an All-MWC first team honoree in 2019 as a return specialist while Collins was named the Mountain West Special Teams Coordinator of the Year.
- Utah State led the nation in takeaways (32), interceptions (22) and three-and-outs forced per game (5.69) in 2018, and was ranked third nationally with six defensive touchdowns. Collins mentored sophomore David Woodward, a Pro Football Focus All-America first team honoree and the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year.
- Collins served as the Aggies' defensive coordinator for the New Mexico Bowl, a 52-13 victory over North Texas, in 2018 and Utah State finished No. 22 in the Associated Press poll.
- In 2017, Utah State ranked 19th nationally in passing yards allowed (182.5 per game) and was in the top 10 in defensive touchdowns, forced fumbles and turnovers forced. During the 2016 season, Collins helped Utah State rank third in the Mountain West in kickoff return defense (19.47 yards per return).
- Prior to Utah State, Collins was the head coach at Division II South Dakota School of Mines for four seasons and led the Hardrockers to winning seasons in 2013 and 2015.
- In 2014, South Dakota School of Mines set single-season school records for first downs, passing yards and total yards. Over the 2014-15 seasons, 14 student-athletes earned all-conference honors.
- Collins spent the 2011 season as the special teams coordinator at Portland State when placekicker Zach Brown was an All-American.
- From 2008-10, Collins was the special teams coordinator and linebackers/defensive line coach at Central Washington. Placekicker Garrett Rolsma was an All-American and two-time all-conference selection for the Wildcats.
- Other stops in the journey for Collins include Southern Oregon (defensive coordinator, 2007), Idaho State (linebackers, 2005-06), Western Washington (linebackers, 2003-04/special teams coordinator, 2004), South Dakota School of Mines (defensive coordinator/safeties, 2002) and Western Oregon (linebackers, 1998-2001).
- At Western Washington, Collins coached punter Mike Koenen, who played 10 seasons with the Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.
- In addition to his collegiate experience, Collins coached three national championship seasons (1999-2001) for the Vienna (Austria) Vikings of the European Federation of American Football.

@CoachTHowle

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Ty Howle enters his second season in 2022 as Penn State's tight ends coach and third season overall on the staff.
- A four-year letterwinner on the Penn State offensive line (2009-13), Howle made his return to Happy Valley in 2020.
- The Penn State tight end room of Brenton Strange, Theo Johnson and Tyler Warren combined for seven total touchdowns during the 2021 season (Strange -3, Warren - 3, Johnson - 1).
- Strange earned All-Big Ten honorable mention laurels during the 2021 campaign.
- Howle served as an offensive analyst for the Nittany Lions in 2020, working closely with offensive line coach Phil Trautwein and tight ends coach Tyler Bowen.
- During the 2020 season, the Nittany Lions paced the Big Ten in first downs (223) and were second in total offense (430.3).
- Tight end Pat Freiermuth was selected as the Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year, becoming Penn State's first tight end to win the award, while four Penn State offensive linemen earned All-Big Ten honors including Will Fries (second team), Mike Miranda (second team), Michal Menet (third team) and Rasheed Walker (third team).
- Prior to his return to Happy Valley, Howle spent four seasons on the coaching staff at Western Illinois.
- He was hired by then-WIU head coach and former Penn State quarterbacks coach Charlie Fisher to coach the offensive line in 2016.
- After adding recruiting coordinator to his title in 2017, Howle was elevated to assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator in 2018.
- During the 2018 season, Howle was the play caller for a WIU offense which ranked 21st nationally in passing offense.
- In 2017, Western Illinois' offensive line led the Missouri Valley Conference in fewest sacks allowed per passing attempt (16 total out of 408 attempts), paving the way for an FCS Playoffs appearance for the Leathernecks.
- Howle tutored Jacob Judd, who earned All-American laurels in 2017 and was a two-time all-conference selection.
- Offensive tackle Josh Baldus also earned All-MVC honors twice in 2016 and 2017.
- Judd and Baldus were part of a 2016 offensive line that helped the offense rank 17th nationally in passing and 12th in time of possession.
- Howle spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons at North Carolina State as a graduate assistant with the offensive line, working with current Pittsburgh Steelers offensive coordinator Matt Canada.
- During his two-year tenure with the Wolfpack, Howle worked with four linemen that went on to be either drafted or signed a free-agent contract with an NFL team.
- In 2015, Joe Thuney was the first Wolfpack offensive lineman to earn All-America honors since 1979 and did not allow a sack in 589 snaps during 2015 ACC play from his left tackle spot.
- NC State had one of the more balanced offenses in the country in 2014, as the Wolfpack averaged 204.5 yards rushing and 204.0 yards passing.
- Howle played a role in helping the NC State offensive line decrease its tackles for loss and sacks allowed, going from 102 TFLs and 36 sacks in 2013, to 59 TFLs and 29 sacks in 2014.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Anthony Poindexter, a College Football Hall of Fame inductee, enters year two with Penn State as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach.
- During his 19-year coaching stint at the collegiate level, Poindexter has also made stops at Virginia, UConn and Purdue.
- He's spent eight seasons with either a defensive coordinator or co-defensive coordinator title, including three years as the defensive coordinator at UConn (2014-16).
- Penn State's defense allowed just 17.3 points per game in 2021, good for sixth in the country, and just 11 passing touchdowns, ranking fourth.
- Safety Jaquan Brisker was named a 2021 second-team All-America honoree by the AFCA, Associated Press, FWAA and Sporting News.
- Ji'Ayir Brown teamed up with Brisker at the other safety spot in 2021 and earned third-team All-Big Ten honors after he tied for the nation's lead with six interceptions.
- During his four-year stint at Purdue, Poindexter tutored a Purdue safety duo of Navon Mosley and walk-on Brennan Thieneman, who finished second and fourth on the team, respectively, in tackles in 2018, while Thieneman finished second on the team with five sacks. That was followed by Mosley and Thieneman finishing fourth and fifth, respectively, for Purdue in tackles in 2019 and Thieneman finishing fourth in 2020.
- Thieneman went on to earn All-Big Ten honors three times (2017, 2018 and 2020) while Cory Trice also earned All-Conference laurels in 2020.
- In his first season with the Boilermakers, Poindexter helped lead the defensive unit to a 17.7-point improvement in scoring defense from 38.2 points allowed per game in 2016 to 20.5 in 2017.
- Thieneman (80) and Mosely (65) finished third and fifth on the team in tackles, respectively, in 2017, and Thieneman secured Purdue's victory in the Foster Farms Bowl with an interception on Arizona's final drive.
- Prior to his time at Purdue, Poindexter was the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at UConn for three seasons. During the 2016 campaign at UConn, Poindexter coached Senior Bowl-bound safety Obi Melifonwu to All-American Athletic Conference (AAC) honors. Melifonwu paced the Huskies with 118 tackles, including 73 solo stops, and four interceptions.
- In 2015, UConn earned a berth in the St. Petersburg Bowl, thanks in large part to its efforts on defense. Poindexter guided a defense which led the American Athletic Conference in total defense (33rd in FBS), red zone defense (7th), scoring defense (15th) and passing yards allowed (20th).
- Safety Andrew Adams earned second-team All-AAC honors under Poindexter's watch in 2015, as he led the team in tackles with 103. The Husky defense had a total of five players earn all-conference recognition.
- Prior to joining UConn, Poindexter was a member of the Virginia coaching staff for 11 seasons, spending the final five seasons coaching safeties.
- He joined the Cavaliers' coaching staff in 2003 as a graduate assistant, was UVA's running backs coach from 2004-05, running backs coach and assistant special teams coordinator from 2006-08, defensive backs coach and assistant special teams coordinator in 2009, safeties coach and special teams coordinator from 2010-12 and safeties coach in 2013.
- During the 2012 season, Poindexter mentored safety newcomers Anthony Harris and Brandon Phelps, who started all 12 games and finished among the team's top five tacklers. Harris was third for the Cavaliers with 87 tackles while Phelps accounted for 48 stops.
- In 2011, Poindexter's unit helped hold opponents to a completion percentage of just 53.7 percent, the second-lowest mark in the ACC. Rodney McLeod led the team with four interceptions and earned honorable-mention All-ACC accolades in 2011.
- Under Poindexter in 2009, UVA's defensive backs helped the defense rank fourth in the ACC and 21st nationally in pass defense. Highlighting the group of defensive backs was second-team All-ACC honoree Ras-I Dowling and Chris Cook, who was chosen by the Minnesota Vikings in the second round (34th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.
- As running backs coach at Virginia, Poindexter coached Cedric Peerman, a nine-year NFL vet, to 1,749 career rushing yards and 15 touchdowns.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS AS A PLAYER

- Regarded as one of the fiercest hitters in the game during his collegiate career (1994-98), Poindexter was a two-time consensus first-team All-American as a safety (1997, 1998).
- He also was chosen the 1998 ACC Defensive Player of the Year and is one of only three players in school history to earn first-team All-ACC recognition three times. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2020.
- He finished his career with 342 career tackles, the ninth-most in school history and tops among ACC defensive backs. He is tied for fifth in school history with 12 interceptions.
- Poindexter's senior season ended prematurely when he injured his left knee in the seventh game of the season and later underwent reconstructive surgery.
- He was selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the seventh round of the 1999 NFL Draft and spent two seasons with the Ravens, who he won a Super Bowl title with, before ending his pro career with the Cleveland Browns.

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE LINE

JOHN SCOTT JR.

@CoachJScott_DL

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- John Scott Jr. enters his third season in 2022 as Penn State's defensive line coach and his first season as run game coordinator.
- Over his last three seasons, Scott has coached six defensive lineman who have gone on to be drafted, including three who have been taken within the first two rounds.
- During his first two seasons at Penn State, Scott has tutored three first-team All-Big Ten defensive linemen and a second-team All-American.
- Scott took in Arnold Ebiketie, a transfer, during the 2021 season and helped develop him into an first-team All-Big Ten selection and an FWAA second-team All-American.
- Ebiketie finished the year first among Power Five defensive linemen in tackles for loss (17.0). He also paced the Big Ten in blocked field goals (2), was second in tackles for loss and third in sacks (9.5).
- Defensive tackle PJ Mustipher (second team) and linebacker converted to defensive end Jesse Luketa (third team) also earned all-conference laurels in 2021 for a defensive line unit which helped Penn State finish sixth nationally in points allowed (17.3).
- In his first season, Scott tutored Jayson Oweh and Shaka Toney, who became the first Penn State defensive end duo to receive All-Big Ten first team honors since Courtney Brown and Brad Scioli in 1998.
- Oweh and Toney each earned 2021 NFL Combine invitations while Toney accepted an invitation to the Reese's Senior Bowl.
- Oweh was picked in the first round (31st overall) by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2021 NFL Draft, making him the first Penn State defensive end selected in the first round since 2009 (Aaron Maybin).
- Toney was selected by the Washington Football Team in the seventh round (246th overall) as he and Oweh became the first defensive end duo to be drafted in the same year for Penn State since 1975 (Mike Hartenstine and Greg Murphy).
- Scott came to the Nittany Lions after spending the 2019 season at South Carolina as the defensive line coach, where he helped guide Javon Kinlaw to a first-team All-SEC selection by the coaches.
- Kinlaw went on to be drafted in the first round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers while defensive tackle Kobe Smith signed a rookie free-agent deal with the Tennessee Titans.
- Prior to South Carolina, Scott spent two seasons at Arkansas as the defensive tackles coach in 2018 and defensive line coach in 2017.
- Two Razorback defensive linemen earned NFL opportunities in 2020, as McTelvin Agim was selected in the third round by the Denver Broncos, while T.J. Smith inked a free-agent deal with the Los Angeles Chargers.
- The native of Greer, South Carolina worked with the NFL's New York Jets in 2015 and 2016.
- The Jets led the NFL in rushing scores allowed and red zone defense, and were second in rushing defense and fourth in total defense in 2015.
- In 2016, the Jets finished fifth in the AFC in rushing defense and rushing touchdowns allowed. Defensive tackle Leonard Williams earned Pro Bowl recognition that season.
- As the defensive line coach at Texas Tech (2013-14), Scott guided Kerry Hyder and Branden Jackson to the NFL Combine.
- Hyder earned All-Big 12 second-team accolades in 2013.
- Scott spent three seasons as the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at Georgia Southern (2010-12), where he helped the Eagles to a pair of FCS semifinal appearances.
- He mentored Brent Russell, who was a three-time All-American under Scott and finished as the GSU career sacks leader.
- Scott led Roderick Tinsley to All-America status and helped John Douglas earn All-Southern Conference laurels in 2011.
- Tinsley was also a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award for FCS's top defensive player in 2010.
- Scott also spent time at Missouri State (2009; outside linebackers), Western Carolina (2006-08; defensive ends/outside linebackers), Norfolk State (2005; defensive line), Louisiana-Lafayette (2002-04; defensive graduate assistant) and Western Davidson (N.C.) (2001).

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Ja'Juan Seider is in his fifth season as the running backs coach at Penn State and his 15th season as a collegiate coach.
- After serving as the run game coordinator since 2020, Seider took on co-offensive coordinator duties following the 2021 season.
- Seider earned top 10 recruiter rankings from On3 in 2022 and 247Sports. in 2019.
- After Journey Brown was forced to retire from football prior to the 2020 season and Noah Cain was lost for the year after being injured on the first drive in the opener at Indiana, Seider was tasked with mentoring a young running back group that consisted of one sophomore (Devyn Ford) and two true freshmen (Caziah Holmes and Keyvone Lee).
- With a youthful rushing attack, Penn State ranked fifth in the Big Ten in rushing, with Lee leading the way with 438 yards and four touchdowns in 2020, averaging 4.9 yards per carry (team high).
- In 2019, Brown posted 202 rushing yards in the Cotton Bowl, the most in a Penn State bowl game, breaking the record of 194 yards set by Saquon Barkley in the 2017 Rose Bowl.
- Brown ended the 2019 season with 11 rushes of 20 or more yards, including seven of 30 or more yards, three rushes over 40 yards, and two rushes over 50 yards.
- In 2018, Penn State posted its highest rushing average (204.9) since 2008 (205.8), led by second-team All-Big Ten selection Miles Sanders.
- Sanders posted the 26th 1,000-yard rushing season in program history, finishing with 1,274 yards to rank 11th on the single-season chart.
- Sanders became the 28th player in program history to rush for 200 yards against Illinois (9/21/18) and is one of six players in program history (nine occasions) to rush for 200 yards and three touchdowns in a game.
- Seider came to Happy Valley after serving as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida in 2017, where he guided a running backs room that finished with more than 1,500 rushing yards, including a pair of 500-yard rushers, with 13 touchdowns.
- As a unit, the Gator running backs averaged 4.0 yards per carry with freshmen Malik Davis (6.7 ypc) and Adarius Lemons (7.2 ypc) leading the way. Davis earned SEC All-Freshman honors for his efforts.
- Prior to Gainesville, Seider spent four seasons at West Virginia University as the running backs coach where he coached a pair of NFL backs.
- In 2015, Seider guided Wendell Smallwood as he led the Big 12 with 1,519 yards on the way to second-team All-Big 12 accolades. Smallwood was drafted in the fifth round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Eagles.
- Seider was part of a staff which helped the Mountaineers finish ninth in FBS in passing, 12th in total offense and 34th in scoring in 2014.
- In his first season at WVU, Seider recruited Charles Sims to Morgantown for his final collegiate season. Sims garnered first-team All-Big 12 honors and was the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year after rushing for 1,095 yards and 11 touchdowns, while catching 45 passes for 401 yards and three scores. Sims was the first Mountaineer to rush for 1,000 yards since 2009. He was drafted in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.
- During his tenure at Marshall, Seider helped the Thundering Herd win the Beef O'Brady's Bowl in 2011 and recruited quarterback Rakeem Cato, who was the 2012 Conference USA Player of the Year and two-time Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year.
- Seider also mentored two Conference USA Freshmen of the Year Kevin Grooms (2012) and Corey Tindal (2013).
- Seider worked with quarterbacks Jarrett Brown, Geno Smith and Pat White during his first stint in Morgantown. All three quarterbacks spent time in the NFL with White being a second-round selection in the 2009 NFL Draft and Smith going in the second round of the 2013 NFL Draft.
- Seider spent seven seasons as a high school football coach in Florida. He was the quarterbacks coach at Lake Worth High School (2006-07), offensive coordinator at Palm Beach Lakes High School (2003-05) and running backs coach at Glades Central High School (2001-02).

- Seider started his collegiate playing career at West Virginia University, before transferring to Florida A&M for his senior season.
- He won the Doug Williams Award for National Offensive Player of the Year, Jake Gaither Award (considered the Heisman Trophy of Historically Black Colleges) and earned All-America honors after throwing for 2,622 yards and 27 touchdowns, and rushing for 740 yards and 14 touchdowns in 1999.
- Seider, who was the 1999 MEAC Offensive Player of the Year, was selected in the sixth round of the 2000 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers.
- He was inducted into the Palm Beach County Hall of Fame in 2017.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE RECRUITING COORDINATOR/CORNERBACKS

TERRY M. SMITH

@CoachTerryPSU

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- A standout wide receiver at Penn State, Terry M. Smith is in his ninth season as the Nittany Lions' defensive recruiting coordinator and cornerbacks coach.
- Smith added the title of associate head coach following the 2020 season after being assistant head coach the previous five years.
- As the defensive recruiting coordinator, Smith has helped the PSU secure nine consecutive top-25 classes, including a top-5 class in 2018, a top-6 class in 2022 and top-15 classes in six of the last eight seasons.
- Over the last five years, Smith has played a pivotal role in helping develop seven Nittany Lion defensive backs that were drafted, tied for second most in the nation during that span.
- Penn State's defense allowed just 17.3 points per game in 2021, good for sixth in the country, and just 11 passing touchdowns on the year, ranking fourth.
- The cornerback room had a pair of All-Big Ten honorees in Joey Porter Jr. (third team) and Tariq Castro-Fields (honorable mention), while nickel corner Daequan Hardy finished 12th in the league in passes defended.
- Both of Penn State's starting cornerbacks earned All-Big Ten honors in 2020, as Porter picked up third team recognition and Castro-Fields earned honorable mention laurels from the league.
- During the 2019 season, Penn State's secondary allowed just 10 passing touchdowns (T-3rd nationally) and broke up 52 passes (T-23rd). The secondary contributed to 11 of PSU's nation's best 22 forced fumbles.
- Cornerbacks John Reid and Castro-Fields earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in 2019.
- In 2018, the secondary limited opponents through the air, finishing fifth nationally in yards per pass attempt (5.67), eighth in team passing efficiency (106.10) and 15th in passing yards allowed (181.5).
- Cornerbacks Amani Oruwariye (first team) and Reid (honorable mention) each earned 2018 All-Big Ten honors.
- The Nittany Lions held three opponents to 60 or less yards through the air (Pittsburgh, 55; Wisconsin, 60; Rutgers, 46) in 2018. It was the first time since 1976 that PSU has held three teams to 60 or less passing yards.
- Both of Smith's starting cornerbacks, Christian Campbell and Grant Haley, earned 2017 All-Big Ten honorable mention accolades and were invited to the NFL Combine.
- In addition, Oruwariye collected second-team All-Big Ten honors in 2017 after grabbing a team-high four picks to go with eight pass breakups.
- The defense finished in the Top 25 in FBS in scoring defense (7th; 16.5), total defense (17th; 329.5) and team passing efficiency defense (21st; 114.88) in 2017. Penn State's 16.5 points allowed per game were the fewest since the 2009 squad gave up 12.2 tallies per contest.
- In 2016, Haley scooped up the blocked field goal attempt and returned it 60 yards for the game-winning touchdown in the win over No. 2 Ohio State. Haley also made the game-sealing tackle on fourth-and-1 on Wisconsin's final drive of the Big Ten Championship Game.
- Reid earned All-Big Ten honorable mention accolades in 2016 after leading the Nittany Lions with 10 passes defended.
- Smith's second season saw the secondary rank eighth in the FBS in passing yards allowed (173.5), while cornerbacks Trevor Williams and Haley each earned honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades in 2015.
- In his first year back at Penn State, he developed a secondary that pushed the Nittany Lions to finish No. 2 nationally in pass efficiency defense.
- Smith was the wide receivers coach at Temple in 2013, where the Owls set a school record for passing yards (2,996) and tied the school standard with 23 receiving touchdowns in 2013, with current Carolina Panther Robby Anderson gaining a school game-record 249 yards.
- A standout player at Gateway High School near Pittsburgh, Smith was a highly successful head coach at his alma mater from 2002-12, compiling a record of 101-30 and posting four WPIAL AAAA runner-up finishes.
- Smith coached in three U.S. Army All-American and Semper Fidelis All-America games, and also coached at Duquesne University (four years) and Hempfield (Pa.) High School.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Taylor Stubblefield enters his third season in 2022 as Penn State's wide receivers coach and second season as offensive recruiting coordinator.
- During the 2021 season, third-team All-America wide receiver Jahan Dotson was a Biletnikoff Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year semifinalist and finished his stellar career third all-time at Penn State in career receiving touchdowns (23) and fourth in receptions (175) and receiving yards (2,620).
- Under Stubblefield's guidance, Dotson (91 receptions for 1,182 yards) and Parker Washington (64 receptions for 820 yards) were one of only five receiving tandems in the country in 2021 to each have at least 64 catches and 820 yards.
- In Stubblefield's first season leading the Nittany Lion receivers, Dotson earned honorable mention All-America honors from Phil Steele after leading the Big Ten in receiving yardage (884; 19th nationally), finishing third in receptions (52) and fourth in yards per reception (17.0).
- Dotson also tied for the nation's lead in catches of 60-plus yards (4), as he caught at least one pass of 20 or more yards in eight of Penn State's nine games.
- Dotson's three-touchdown performance against Ohio State was a PSU receiver's first three-touchdown game since DaeSean Hamilton vs. Indiana in 2017, while his 75- and 70-yard touchdown receptions vs. Illinois marked the first time a Penn State player has had two catches of 70 or more yards in a game.
- Additionally in his first season, Stubblefield was tasked with tutoring a youthful receiving corps, which included true freshmen KeAndre Lambert-Smith and Washington, who became the first pair of true freshmen receivers to start in a game for PSU since Saeed Blacknall and Chris Godwin in 2014.
- Washington, who earned freshman All-America honors by The Athletic, set a true freshman record for Penn State with nine receptions in the win at Michigan.
- Washington finished the season tied for second nationally among true freshmen receivers in touchdowns (6) and sixth in receptions per game (5.0). Overall, he was tied for fifth in the Big Ten with the six touchdowns, 10th in yards (489) and tied for 11th in receptions (36).
- Stubblefield came to Penn State following the 2019 season where he was the wide receivers coach at the University of Miami, helping the Hurricanes to the Independence Bowl.
- Prior to his time at Miami, Stubblefield spent two seasons at the Air Force Academy where his receivers averaged 17.7 yards per reception.
- Marcus Bennett finished his career averaging 21.6 yards per catch, which was fifth in Falcons history.
- The native of Yakima, Washington was the wide receivers coach for the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Toronto Argonauts in 2016 and was at Utah from 2014-15.
- Toronto wide out Kenny Shaw posted a 1,000-yard season with 77 receptions under Stubblefield's guidance.
- Stubblefield tutored three receivers at Utah who went on to professional careers in the NFL in Kaelin Clay, Dres Anderson and Tim Patrick.
- During the 2013 season as the wide receivers coach at Wake Forest, Stubblefield mentored Michael Campanaro to second-team All-ACC honors with 67 receptions for 803 yards and six touchdowns.
- Campanaro went on to be a 2014 NFL Draft seventh-round pick by the Baltimore Ravens.
- Stubblefield also had coaching stops at New Mexico (2012), Central Michigan (2011), Illinois State (2009-10), Eastern Michigan (2008) and Central Washington (2007).
- While at CMU, he coached three third-team All-Mid-American Conference receivers in Titus Davis, Courtney Williams and Cody Wilson. Davis also earned Freshman All-America accolades from Phil Steele.
- While at Illinois State, Stubblefield led Eyad Salem to first-team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors as he set the school records for receptions in a season with 92 catches.

PHIL TRAUTWEIN

@CoachTrautFB

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Phil Trautwein enters his third season in 2022 as Penn State's offensive line coach.
- Trautwein was named to The American Football Coaches Association Class of 2021 "35 Under 35" list, recognizing the top-35 football coaches under the age of 35.
- He was the only Big Ten coach featured on the 2021 list as well as the only offensive line coach.
- Over the last four seasons between Penn State and Boston College, Trautwein has mentored 16 All-Conference offensive linemen.
- Penn State had three All-Big Ten offensive linemen during Trautwein's second season including Rasheed Walker (third team), Mike Miranda (honorable mention) and Juice Scruggs (honorable mention).
- Two Trautwein-coached offensive linemen were selected in the 2022 NFL Draft, with Zion Johnson (Boston College) going in the first round to the Los Angeles Chargers and Walker being picked in the seventh round by the Green Bay Packers.
- In his first season where the Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten in total offense (430.3), four Penn State offensive lineman earned All-Big Ten honors including Will Fries (second team), Miranda (second team), Michal Menet (third team) and Walker (third team).
- Fries (Indianapolis Colts) and Menet (Arizona Cardinals) went on to get drafted in back-to-back picks in the seventh round of the 2021 NFL Draft.
- Trautwein previously served as the offensive line coach for two seasons at Boston College, helping the Eagles to a pair of bowl berths.
- Trautwein guided all five of his starting offensive linemen to 2019 All-ACC honors in John Phillips (first team), Zion Johnson (second team), Ben Petrula (second team), Alex Lindstrom (third team) and Tyler Vrabel (honorable mention).
- In addition to earning All-ACC honors, Vrabel was named a Freshman All-American by The Athletic.
- The Eagles allowed just 11 sacks in 2019, which was the third-fewest in FBS, and 57 tackles for loss, which was 13th in FBS.
- In addition, BC averaged 267.8 rushing yards per game to rank fifth in FBS in rushing offense.
- According to ESPN's Bill Connelly, Boston College was first in FBS in blitz down sack rate and third in power success rate (percentage of runs on third or fourth down with 2 yards or less to go that achieved a first down or touchdown) in 2019.
- SportSource Analytics also rated the Eagles sixth in offensive line efficiency that season.
- In his first season as BC's offensive line coach, Trautwein mentored Chris Lindstrom to All-America accolades and first-team All-ACC honors as BC's top offensive lineman.
- Lindstrom, who did not allow a sack and just three hurries in his final season, went on to be the first guard and second offensive lineman selected in the 2019 NFL Draft with the 14th overall pick.
- In addition to Lindstrom, he guided Aaron Monteiro, John Baker and Ben Petrula to All-ACC laurels. Monteiro also signed with the NFL's Miami Dolphins in 2019.
- Trautwein spent two seasons (2016-17) as the tight ends coach at Davidson College. He also served as special teams coordinator in 2017.
- The native of Voorhees, New Jersey, broke into the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant for three seasons (2013-15) at Boston College.
- During his time as a GA, he worked with the offensive line, tight ends and fullbacks.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Chuck Losey was named Penn State's Assistant Athletics Director for Football Performance Enhancement on Jan. 18, 2022.
- Losey succeeds Dwight Galt, III, who announced his retirement following the 2021 season.
- Losey joined the Penn State staff as assistant director of performance enhancement in January 2014 and was promoted to associate director in 2017.
- He has played a significant role the last eight seasons with the Nittany Lions, including a 2016 Big Ten Championship run, as well as six, nine-plus win seasons under head coach James Franklin (4 at Penn State; 2 at Vanderbilt).
- At Penn State's 2021 Pro Day, linebacker Micah Parsons and defensive end Jayson Oweh put together top performances as they became the first set of PSU defensive players to be drafted in the first round since 2003.
- Eight Nittany Lions trained by Galt, Losey and staff participated in the 2018 NFL Combine and posted jaw-dropping numbers, which included top-5 positional finishes in 16 categories with top positional performances in 12.
- Losey and the performance enhancement staff design and administer dynamic and diverse strength and power training, speed enhancement, flexibility, conditioning, and agility training programs to maximize each athlete's athleticism.
- To bridge the gap between preparation and competition, Losey and his staff also focus on sport specificity, nutrition, and injury prevention to aggressively prepare each athlete for competition.
- Prior to his arrival to Happy Valley, Losey spent three years serving in the same role at Vanderbilt University.
- Losey also served as Tennessee State University's director of speed, strength and conditioning for six years from 2004-10.
- During his time at TSU, Losey managed all aspects of program design and implementation for 11 men's and women's collegiate sports.
- Losey holds certifications as a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength & Conditioning Association and is Strength & Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) through the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA).
- In 2017, Losey was named a master strength and conditioning coach (MSCC) by the CSCCA, the highest honor that can be achieved as a strength and conditioning coach.
- He also holds a sports performance coach status with the United States Weightlifting Federation.

2021 SEASON IN REVIEW

ARRINGTON ELECTED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

- Penn State national award winner and first-team All-America linebacker LaVar Arrington was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame as part of the 2022 class
- Arrington will be inducted to the Hall of Fame December 6, 2022 at the 64th National Football Foundation (NFF) Annual Awards Dinner.
- Arrington and the 21 inductees (18 players, 3 coaches) will also be recognized at their respective collegiate institutions with NFF Hall of Fame On-Campus Salutes, presented by Fidelity Investments, during the fall. Their accomplishments will be forever immortalized at the Chick-fil-A College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta.
- Arrington is the 26th member (20 players, 6 coaches) of the Penn State football family to be elected to the College Hall of Fame. Quarterback Kerry Collins was the most recent player inductee in 2018.

PENN STATE VS. THE BIG TEN

- Penn State is 36-18 in the Big Ten since 2016.
- PSU won 13 consecutive games against Big Ten opponents from 2016-17, breaking its record of 12 from 1993-94.
- Penn State owns a 230-115-3 mark against Big Ten Conference teams since the Nittany Lions first opposed Ohio State in 1912.
- The Nittany Lions began play as a member of the Big Ten Conference in 1993 and have a 147-91 mark.
- Penn State played 109 games vs. the current Big Ten alignment when either or both Penn State itself (prior to 1993) or the opponent (Nebraska prior to 2011; Maryland and Rutgers prior to 2014) was not yet a member of the Big Ten. The Nittany Lions went 80-26-3 in those games.

ON THE TUBE

- Penn State has had 334 of its last 336 games televised, including 221 consecutive games.
- Over the last 15 seasons, every Penn State game has aired on either ABC, BTN, NBC or an ESPN or FOX channel.
- Penn State has made 315 regular season TV appearances since 1995, which is second nationally.

HOME SWEET HOME

- With a 304-79 all-time record in Beaver Stadium, Penn State owns the sixth-best winning percentage (.794) in its current home venue amongst current FBS schools and leads the Big Ten.
- Penn State averaged 106,799 fans in seven home games this season, the seventh-highest average in program history and best season average since 2009.
- Only Alabama (.837) and Oklahoma (.817) have higher winning percentages in facilities older than Beaver Stadium.

HISTORIC SERIES

- The Nittany Lions have played 21 teams 20 or more times in the 135-year history of the program.
- Penn State owns a winning record against 16 of the 21 teams that it has met 20 or more times.
- Nine of the 21 teams were on the 2021 schedule, including Wisconsin (20), Indiana (25), Iowa (31), Illinois (26), Ohio State (37), Maryland (45), Michigan (25), Rutgers (32) and Michigan State (36).
- Sixteen of the 21 programs are currently members of NCAA Division I FBS. Bucknell, Lehigh and Penn are in NCAA Division I FCS, while Gettysburg and Lebanon Valley are in Division III.

LIONS UNDER THE LIGHTS

- The 2021 season marked the 21st-straight with at least one regular-season night game on the schedule.
- Penn State is 57-32 at night all-time. The figure breaks down to 18-11 at home, 27-14 on the road and 12-7 in neutral site games. Penn State is 1-1 at regular season neutral sites, 11-6 in bowl games and 1-0 in conference championship games.
- In 2019, Penn State played its most regular season night games in program history with four primetime tilts.
- On Oct. 12, 2013, the Lions claimed the longest game in Big Ten history when they edged Michigan under the lights, 43-40, in four overtimes in front of a sellout Beaver Stadium

NATIONAL AUDIENCE

- Penn State is annually one of the most watched teams in college football.
- Penn State's game at Ohio State, on ABC, drew 7.051 million viewers, the second-most watched game on October 30.
- The Nittany Lions' game against Illinois, on ABC, had 3.765 million viewers, ranking third among October 23 games.
- The Nittany Lions' game at Iowa, on FOX, drew 6.904 million viewers, the second-most watched game on October 9.
- Penn State's shutout win over Indiana, on ABC, drew 3.996 million viewers to rank third among October 2 games.
- Penn State's win over Auburn, on ABC, drew an audience of 7.606 million viewers. It was the second-highest viewed game on September 18.
- The Nittany Lions' opening week win over Wisconsin, on FOX, drew an audience of 5.409 million viewers. It was the third-highest viewed game on September 4.

WINNING WAYS

- Penn State is 53-22 over the past six seasons (2016-21), which is the ninth-best record in FBS and the third-best in the Big Ten (Ohio State, 66-9; Wisconsin 54-20; Michigan 51-20).
- Dating back to 2015, Penn State has won 39 of its last 47 home games.
- Penn State's 138-65 record over the last 16 years (2006-21) ranks 18th in FBS and third in the Big Ten (Ohio State, 179-29; Wisconsin, 153-55).
- Head coach James Franklin guided his teams to a winning record each of his first eight seasons (2 at Vanderbilt, 6 at Penn State).
- Since 2016, Franklin's 70.7 percent (53-22) winning percentage ranks ninth among current FBS coaches.

GAME RECAP

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – The No. 19/20 Penn State football team opened its 2021 campaign with a 16-10 road victory against Big Ten foe No. 12 Wisconsin.

The Nittany Lion defense shined in the game, tallying three takeaways in the contest including two in the game's final minutes. Linebacker Ellis Brooks led all players with a career-high 11 tackles. He also recorded a sack. Arnold Ebiketie was strong off the edge, adding a sack, two tackles for a loss and a blocked field goal. Penn State sealed the victory with key interceptions by Jaquan Brisker and Ji'Ayir Brown.

Penn State gained 297 total yards, with 247 yards coming from its passing attack. Quarterback Sean Clifford completed 18-33 passes for 247 yards and a touchdown. Senior Jahan Dotson had a big day on the outside, highlighted by a 49-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter and a 42-yard grab in the fourth that led to Penn State's second touchdown of the game. Noah Cain capped off that drive with a two-yard TD run in his first game since Penn State's season opener in 2020.

How It Happened

The Nittany Lions struck first on their opening drive of the second half when Sean Clifford found Jahan Dotson deep down field for a 49-yard touchdown. Penn State went 86 yards on just four plays for its first score of the year.

Wisconsin would even the score on the ensuing drive, capping off a 10-play, 75-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown run by Chez Mellusi.

The Badgers took their first lead of the game early in the fourth on a 43-yard field goal by Collin Larsh to make it 10-7.

Penn State followed with a field goal of their own, when Jordan Stout knocked a 24-yarder through the uprights. The drive was highlighted by a 34-yard carry by Noah Cain.

The Nittany Lions jumped back in front, 16-10, with 9:17 remaining in the fourth on a 2-yard touchdown rush by Cain. Clifford and Dotson once again connected on a big play on the drive, this time on a 42-yarder to get Dotson over the 100-yard receiving mark.

The Penn State defense continued to make big plays to close out the victory. With Wisconsin threatening inside the 5-yard line, the Nittany Lion defense stood strong with three consecutive stops, capped off by an interception by Jaquan Brisker on fourth down.

The Badgers would get the ball back with 1:10 remaining and quickly got into the red zone again. The Nittany Lions closed out the game with two big defensive plays, first a sack by Ebiketie, followed by a game-sealing interception by Ji'Ayir Brown to clinch the 16-10 victory.

Notes

- Penn State is now 11-9 all-time against Wisconsin. The Nittany Lions have won their last five contests over the Badgers.
- The Nittany Lions snapped Wisconsin's 25-game win streak in home openers.
- Penn State improved to 3-1 all-time when opening the season against a Big Ten opponent.
- The Nittany Lions climbed to 8-5 all-time when opening against a ranked opponent.
- The Nittany Lions earned a road win over a ranked Big Ten opponent for first time since October 12, 2019 against Iowa (17-12).
- Both teams were scoreless at halftime. It marked the first time a Penn State game has been scoreless since October 29, 2011 against Illinois.
- WR Jahan Dotson earned his seventh career 100-yard receiving game (102 yards). It was his third-straight 100-yard receiving game dating back to the Michigan State game in 2020.
- Dotson now has eight career touchdown receptions of 40 or more yards.
- With 1,677 career receiving yards, Dotson sits 16th all-time at Penn State, passing KJ Hamler (1,658).
- QB Sean Clifford now has 4,979 career passing yards, moving into sole possession of 10th all-time at Penn State, passing Todd Blackledge (4,812; 1980-82).
- The redshirt senior now has 42 career passing touchdowns, breaking a tie for fifth all-time at Penn State.
- S Jaquan Brisker recorded an interception in the fourth quarter, his fourth career interception.
- S Ji'Ayir Brown intercepted a pass to seal the victory in the fourth quarter. It was his first career interception.
- LB Ellis Brooks tallied 11 tackles to match a career best. Brooks also had 11 tackles against Ohio State in 2020.
- K/P Jordan Stout averaged 53.9 yards per punt, on seven punts, ranking second-best in a game at Penn State.
- Stout hit five punts of 50+ yards, including a 76-yard punt, in the third quarter, which is the longest of Stout's career. It's tied for the third-longest punt in program history with Chris Clauss (vs. Rutgers, 1987).
- DE Arnold Ebiketie blocked a Wisconsin 25-yard field goal attempt in the second quarter. It was Penn State's first blocked field goal since Shaka Toney against Michigan State on October 26, 2019.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – For the first time in 22 months, fans filled the seats of Beaver Stadium as the Penn State football team opened its home schedule with a 44-13 victory over Ball State. It was Penn State's 300th win in Beaver Stadium.

The crowd of 105,323 saw a strong offensive performance from the No. 11/13 Nittany Lions, as Penn State complied 493 yards of total offense on the day.

Quarterback Sean Clifford completed 21 of 29 passes for 230 yards and a touchdown. He also added 66 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

Penn State was also strong on the ground, as the Nittany Lion rushing attack compiled 240 yards with three different players tallying 60-plus yards.

The ball-hawking Penn State defense added two interceptions on the day, highlighted by a 16-yard interception return for a touchdown by Jesse Luketa.

How It Happened

The Nittany Lions methodically marched down the field on their opening possession, driving 13 plays on 78 yards resulting in a Noah Cain 5-yard touchdown run.

Penn State would double its lead on its ensuing drive, highlighted by 20-plus yard completions by Clifford to Parker Washington and Keyvone Lee to set the Nittany Lions up inside the five-yard line. Clifford completed the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run to give Penn State a 14-0 lead.

After each team exchanging field goals, the Nittany Lions would score once more in the first half, when Clifford found Jahan Dotson for a 25-yard catch and run to make it 24-3. Ball State would end the half with a 23-yard field goal as time expired.

The Penn State defense got the scoring started in the second half with 5:56 remaining in the third quarter when Jesse Luketa intercepted a Drew Plitt pass and returned it 16 yards for a touchdown. It was Penn State's first pick-six since John Reid intercepted a pass for a touchdown in 2019 against Buffalo.

Stout would add three more to the scoreboard in the closing minutes of the third on a 26-yard field goal to give Penn State a 34-6 lead.

The Nittany Lions got another takeaway on Ball State's next drive on Daequan Hardy's first-career interception.

Penn State would add another field goal with 9:59 to go in the fourth when Stout connected on a 22-yarder.

Ball State scored its first points of the second half on a 6-yard touchdown run by Carson Steele with 6:58 to go.

Penn State would add one final score with 2:10 remaining in the game when Ta'Quan Roberson tossed his first career touchdown pass, a 23-yarder to Theo Johnson to cap off the 44-13 victory.

Notes

- Penn State is 300-77 all-time in Beaver Stadium. The Nittany Lions are one of just nine FBS teams with 300 wins in their current stadium. Penn State is sixth in winning percentage in the current stadium (.795).
- Penn State welcomed 105,323 fans to Beaver Stadium. It was Penn State's highest attendance for a home opener since 2008 vs. Coastal Carolina (106,577).
- Penn State won its first meeting against Ball State.
- The Nittany Lions moved to 30-2 all-time against MAC teams and 28-3 against current members of the MAC.
- Penn State has won 13 consecutive games against teams that are not members of a Power Five conference.
- Penn State has won 11 consecutive games against non-conference teams during the regular season.
- Penn State has won 17-straight non-conference home games.
- The Nittany Lions had nine different players record at least one catch in the first half. That's the most since 10 players caught a pass in the first half at Maryland in 2019.
- ATH Marquis Wilson played snaps on offense and defense, making him the first Penn State player to earn snaps on both sides of the ball in the same game since Justin King in 2005 against Florida State in the Orange Bowl.
- With 35 passing yards on the first drive, QB Sean Clifford became the 10th Penn State quarterback to reach the 5,000 career passing yards mark.
- Clifford had 21 completions, jumping him into eighth place on the Penn State career list with 385 completions.
- Clifford had 296 total yards vs. Ball State (230 passing, 66 rushing) moving him into sixth place on the Penn State all-time list with 6,014 total yards (5,209 passing and 805 rushing).
- WR Jahan Dotson turned a screen pass into a 25-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter. It was Dotson's 15th career touchdown reception, tying him for 10th all-time at Penn State with Terry Smith (1988-91), Joe Jurevicius (1994-97) and Mike Gesicki (2014-17).
- With 65 receiving yards, Dotson now has 1,742 career receiving yards, good for 15th at Penn State and just two yards from passing Derrick Williams (2005-08) for the 14th spot.
- LB Jesse Luketa recorded his first career interception in the third quarter. Luketa returned it 16 yards for a touchdown, Penn State's first pick-six since John Reid against Buffalo in 2019.
- CB Daequan Hardy recorded his first career interception in the third quarter.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The No. 10/12 Nittany Lions celebrated the annual Penn State White Out game with a 28-20 win over No. 22/20 Auburn.

The Nittany Lions have defeated two ranked opponents in their first three games of the season for the first time in program history. The win was Penn State's first regular-season victory over an SEC opponent since the Nittany Lions defeated Alabama, 9-0, in 1990.

Quarterback Sean Clifford completed 28-of-32 passes for 280 yards and two touchdowns.

Wide receiver Jahan Dotson hauled in a career-high 10 catches for 78 yards and a touchdown in the contest. Tight End Brenton Strange also put together a career-best performance, setting a new high mark with 71 yards on four catches and a touchdown.

How It Happened

Trailing 3-0, the Nittany Lions got the offense going on their third possession. Sean Clifford delivered two long passes to his tight ends on back-to-back plays, first a 23-yarder to Brenton Strange and then a 37-yarder to Theo Johnson, to set Penn State up inside the five. Penn State scored on the next play when Clifford hit Jahan Dotson in the back of the end zone for a 4-yard touchdown to give Penn State a 7-3 lead.

Auburn would reclaim the lead on its ensuing drive on a 4-yard touchdown run by Tank Bigsby.

In the closing minutes of the second quarter, Penn State would go on a 14-play, 91-yard drive to jump back in front. The long scoring drive was capped off by a 4-yard TD pass from Clifford to Strange to put the Nittany Lions ahead 14-10 at the half.

On the first play of the second half, a botched trick play by Auburn resulted in Derrick Tangelo falling on a loose ball to set Penn State up at the Auburn 20 yard-line. The Nittany Lions would extend the lead on Tyler Warren's first career rushing touchdown to give Penn State a 21-10 advantage.

Bigsby would reach the end zone for the second time in the game with 5:52 remaining in the third, cutting the Penn State lead to 21-17. The Tigers would add three more on the first play of the fourth quarter when Carlson converted on a 43-yard field goal attempt.

Penn State would fire back on the following drive, highlighted by a 40-yard connection between Clifford and Strange that put the Nittany Lions inside the five. Noah Cain would find the end zone for the third time this season with a 5-yard TD run to give Penn State a 28-20 lead.

The Nittany Lion defense would put the finishing touches on the victory, forcing Auburn to turn the ball over on downs at the Penn State 2 yard line with 3:08 remaining in the game.

Notes

- With wins over No. 12/15 Wisconsin and No. 22/20 Auburn, Penn State had two wins over ranked teams within the first three games of the season for the first time in program history.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. –The Penn State passing attack was on display as the Nittany Lions defeated Villanova 38-17 at Beaver Stadium.

Quarterback Sean Clifford recorded career numbers in the contest, reaching the 400-yard passing mark for the first time with a total of 401 yards. He also matched his career-high with four passing touchdowns.

The offense was spread evenly among the Penn State receiving corps, with both Parker Washington (148 yards) and Jahan Dotson (117 yards) reaching the century mark. KeAndre Lambert-Smith also added 88-yards receiving, marking the first time since a 2017 contest against Michigan State that three Penn State wide receivers recorded 80-plus yards in a game. Washington and Lambert-Smith recorded career highs with their yard totals.

As a unit, Penn State accumulated 500 yards of total offense for the first time this season with 509 total yards.

The Penn State defense produced a solid overall performance, with 24 different players recording a tackle in the game.

How It Happened

The Nittany Lions struck quickly on their first drive, as Clifford hit Dotson for a 52-yard touchdown on Penn State's first offensive play.

Villanova got on the board in the final minutes of the first quarter on a 39-yard field goal by Cole Bunce.

Penn State struck right back on the first drive of the second when Clifford once again connected on a long TD pass, this time to Washington for a career-long 52-yard score to put the Nittany Lions up 14-3.

Clifford would find Washington again for a long gain on Penn State's next drive for a 67-yard catch and run to set the Nittany Lions up inside the ten. It would set up a 29-yard field goal from Jordan Stout. They would lead 17-3 at the half.

The Nittany Lions would once again score on a long play to open the second half when Clifford hit KeAndre Lambert-Smith for a season-long 83-yard touchdown.

Penn State forced the game's first turnover on the ensuing drive when Ji'Ayir Brown corralled a tipped pass by for the interception.

Clifford and Washington would add another score in the final minutes of the third, a 23-yard grab for Clifford's fourth TD pass of the game.

They would add to the lead in the opening minutes of the fourth when Tyler Warren carried the ball up the middle for a 3-yard score, his second of his career.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – No. 4/6 Penn State held Indiana's offense scoreless in two trips to the red zone, culminating in a 24-0 shutout win at Beaver Stadium in the annual Penn State Stripe Out game.

Quarterback Sean Clifford threw for three touchdowns, including two to wide receiver Jahan Dotson for the duo's 18th-career passing touchdown, the most in Penn State history.

The Penn State defense produced its first shutout in two years, its last also coming in Big Ten play at Maryland in 2019. The defense held Indiana over 100 yards below its season average in total offense, and nearly 100 yards below its season average in rushing yards.

How It Happened

The Nittany Lions struck first on their second drive of the game, as Clifford found tight end Brenton Strange in the end zone for the 10-yard score.

After a defensive red-zone stop at their own four yard-line, running back Keyvone Lee used a career-long 44-yard rush and another 21-yard rush to get the Nittany Lions in the red zone. Clifford then connected with wide receiver Dotson for an 8-yard touchdown to put Penn State up 14-0. With the score, Clifford and Dotson have connected on 17 career touchdown passes, tying Todd Blackledge and Kenny Jackson (1980-82) for the most by a Penn State QB-WR duo.

The Penn State defense recorded its first takeaway of the game with about four minutes to play in the second quarter as cornerback Joey Porter Jr. grabbed his first career interception. The Nittany Lions would take a 14-0 lead into halftime.

Clifford and Dotson linked up again in the third quarter for a 30-yard touchdown to give Penn State a 21-0 advantage. It marked Clifford and Dotson's 18th career touchdown pass, officially passing Blackledge and Jackson for the most by a Penn State QB-WR duo in program history.

On Indiana's next drive, the Hoosiers marched down the field to the Penn State 13 yard-line but were held to a field-goal attempt in hopes of finding their first points of the game. Linebacker Brandon Smith got a hand on the 30-yard attempt for the Nittany Lions' second blocked field goal of the season as the score would remain 21-0 at the end of the third quarter.

Penn State added to its lead in the fourth quarter with a 50-yard field goal from Jordan Stout to make it 24-0. It was Stout's first 50-plus yard field goal of the season and the fourth in his career.

The Nittany Lion defense had their second takeaway of the game, an interception in the fourth quarter by safety Ji'Ayir Brown, his third of the season.

Notes

- Penn State improved to 23-2 all-time against Indiana.
- The Nittany Lions improved to 19-10 in Big Ten home openers.
- The Nittany Lions recorded their first shutout both overall and in a Big Ten game since a 59-0 win over Maryland in 2019.
- The last time Penn State recorded a shutout at home was in 2017 vs. Georgia State.
- Penn State handed Indiana its first shutout since a 2000 loss to Michigan (58-0), a span of 246 games.
- With two touchdowns in the game, Sean Clifford and Jahan Dotson have connected on 18 career touchdown passes, passing Todd Blackledge and Kenny Jackson (1980-82) for the most by a Penn State QB-WR duo in program history.
- WR Jahan Dotson completed a 21-yard pass to Parker Washington in the fourth quarter. Dotson has completed 2-of-2 passing attempts this season. The other was a 22-yard pass to Tyler Warren against Auburn.
- Clifford reached the 6,000-career passing yard mark. He became the fifth Penn State quarterback to reach 6,000 passing yards, finishing the night with 6,068 passing yards.
- On his 30-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter, Dotson reached the 2,000-career receiving yard mark. He is the 10th Nittany Lion to earn 2,000 career receiving yards. Dotson finished the night with 84 receiving yards, boosting his career total to 2,021 receiving yards.
- Dotson has a touchdown reception in six-straight games dating back to last season. It's the longest receiving touchdown streak by a Penn State player in school history.
- With a stop on fourth-and-goal in the first quarter and a blocked field goal in the third quarter, the Nittany Lions have held their opponent without a score for seven times in 15 red-zone possessions.
- LB Brandon Smith recorded his first career blocked field goal in the third quarter.
- The Nittany Lions blocked a 30-yard field goal attempt in the third quarter. It was Penn State's second blocked field goal of the season. It marks the first time Penn State has blocked two or more field goals in a season since 2004 (five blocked field goals).
- K/P Jordan Stout hit a 50-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. It marked his fourth career 50-plus yard field goal.

GAME RECAP

IOWA CITY, Iowa – The No. 4 Penn State football team fell to No. 3 Iowa 23-20 in a Big Ten showdown in Iowa City.

The Nittany Lions got off to a quick start in the game, jumping out to a 17-3 lead in the first half, but the Iowa defense would hold Penn State to just three second half points as the Hawkeyes came from behind for the victory.

In a defensive affair, the Penn State defense held Iowa to 305 yards of total offense. Linebacker Ellis Brooks led the unit with a career-high 14 tackles in the contest. Jaquan Brisker tied a career-high with nine tackles while adding an interception and a pass breakup. Arnold Ebiketie was a force off the edge for Penn State, recording 3.5 tackles for loss and a sack to go along with his season-high nine tackles.

Both of the Nittany Lions' offensive touchdowns came on the ground, with Noah Cain punching in a 2-yarder and quarterback Sean Clifford scoring from four yards out. Clifford completed 15-of-25 passes for 145 yards before leaving the game late in the second quarter.

How It Happened

Iowa capitalized off a turnover to get on the board first. After a Jestin Jacobs interception set the Hawkeyes up inside the 5 yard-line, the Penn State defense stood strong to hold Iowa to a field goal in the game's opening minutes.

The Nittany Lions quickly moved down the field on their ensuing drive, moving 75 yards in just 2:31 to set up a 2-yard touchdown run by Cain.

Brisker would give the Nittany Lions their first takeaway, intercepting a tipped pass to give Penn State the ball in Iowa territory. After Clifford connected with KeAndre Lambert-Smith for a 30-yard gain deep into the red zone, the quarterback would score on his own with a 4-yard touchdown run.

Penn State would extend its lead in the opening minutes of the second quarter on a Jordan Stout 32-yard field goal to make it 17-3 Nittany Lions.

Iowa cut into the lead on its next position as Spencer Petras found Charlie Jones for a 9-yard touchdown to cut the Penn State lead to seven.

Stout would push the Nittany Lion lead back to double-digits midway through the third with a 44-yard field goal.

Iowa's Caleb Shudak would cut Penn State's advantage back to single digits in the closing minutes of the third quarter with a 48-yard field goal. They would add another three points minutes later on a 36-yarder from Shudak.

The Hawkeyes would jump ahead with a quick strike late in the fourth quarter when Petras hit Nico Ragaini for a 44-yard touchdown to give Iowa a 23-20 lead that would hold as the final score.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The No. 7/8 Penn State football team fell to Big Ten foe Illinois, 20-18 in nine overtimes, in a noon contest at Beaver Stadium.

After the sides traded field goals in the first two overtimes, the game would head to the two-point conversion portion of overtime. After the defenses held in the first five rounds, teams would trade rushing conversions in the eighth overtime. Illinois would clinch the walk-off victory when Brandon Peters hit Casey Washington in the back of the end zone.

The Nittany Lions leaned on a bend but don't break defense in the contest, winning the turnover battle, 3-0. Ten different Penn State athletes recorded at least five tackles in the game, with Ji'Ayir Brown leading the way with a career-high 13 tackles.

Sean Clifford returned to action after missing the second half of Penn State's game in Iowa two weeks ago, completing 19-of-34 passes with 165 yards and a touchdown. He connected with KeAndre Lambert-Smith on a 42-yard touchdown strike to open the scoring for the Nittany Lions in the first quarter.

How It Happened

Penn State got the passing game going in the final minutes of the first. Sean Clifford connected on back-to-back long strikes to put the Nittany Lions on the board. He first hit Jahan Dotson deep down the right sideline for a 36-yard gain and then found Lambert-Smith over the middle for a 42-yard catch-and-run for the touchdown.

The Penn State defense added another turnover in the opening minutes of the second when a Brandon Smith strip-sack was recovered by Dvon Ellies in Illinois' territory. They would extend the lead to 10-0 on the ensuing drive on a 35-yard field goal by Jordan Stout.

Illinois would follow with its first points of the day, capping off an 8:20 drive with a 1-yard touchdown run by Chase Brown.

The Illini would tie the game in the opening minutes of the fourth on a 37-yard field goal by James McCourt.

The teams traded defensive stops throughout the fourth, sending the game to overtime.

Penn State got the ball first in OT, jumping out in front on a 31-yard field goal by Stout. Illinois would answer with a field goal of their own, a 38-yarder by McCourt.

McCourt would once again convert in the opening drive of the second overtime, this time from 22-yards. Stout matched his counterpart with a 40-yarder, sending the game to two-point conversion triple overtime.

Illinois would clinch the win in the ninth overtime when Peters hit Washington in the back of the end zone.

Notes

- Penn State is now 8-7 all time in overtime games, including a 5-5 record at Beaver Stadium.
- Penn State leads the all-time series, 20-6 against Illinois, including a 10-2 mark at home.
- The nine overtimes are an NCAA record for most overtimes across all divisions. The previous NCAA football mark was an eight-overtime game between Bethune-Cookman and Virginia State in 1998.
- The nine-overtime game came under the NCAA's overtime format, adopted before the 2021 season, which includes teams trading 2-point conversion attempts beginning in the third overtime.
- Penn State's previous longest overtime game was a four-overtime win over Michigan (43-40) in 2013.
- WR Jahan Dotson has at least five catches in nine-straight games. That is the longest five-reception streak by a Penn State player since at least 2000.
- The Nittany Lions held Illinois to 38 yards passing, the second-lowest mark under James Franklin.
- Dating back to the Nebraska game in 2020, Penn State has forced a turnover in 13-straight games (20 total, 14 interceptions, 6 fumbles). It is the sixth-longest active streak among FBS teams and the third-longest among Power Five teams.
- DE Arnold Ebiketie recorded a season-high 10 tackles, matching his career best.
- Ebiketie's 10 tackles were the most by a Penn State defensive end since Yetur Gross-Matos recorded 10 at Indiana in 2018.
- S Ji'Ayir Brown tallied a career-best 13 tackles. His previous high was five, in two games, with the last time coming at Iowa.
- LB Curtis Jacobs made a diving catch for his first career interception in the first quarter.
- LB Ellis Brooks collected 11 tackles. It was his fourth career game, and third this season, with double-digit tackles.
- K/P Jordan Stout tied his career high with three field goals made.
- Stout hit four punts of 50+ yards.
- Stout dropped six punts inside the 20, a career high.

GAME RECAP

COLUMBUS, Ohio – The No. 20/17 Penn State football team fell to No. 5/5 Ohio State, 33-24, in a road contest at Ohio Stadium.

In a primetime slugfest, the Nittany Lions and Buckeyes combined for 860 yards of total offense in the game.

Penn State quarterback Sean Clifford completed a career-high 35 passes on the night for 361 yards and a touchdown. The Nittany Lions had a pair of 100-yard receivers for the second time this season, as Jahan Dotson tallied a career-high 11 catches for 127 yards and Parker Washington tied a career-high with nine catches for 108 yards. Penn State's defense showed their grit throughout the night, holding Ohio State to just one red zone touchdown on six opportunities. Linebacker Brandon Smith led the unit with seven tackles in the contest.

How It Happened

The Nittany Lions would get on the board first, going 89 yards on 13 plays en route to the game's first touchdown. Clifford went 5-6 for 72 yards on the drive, capping it off with a 5-yard touchdown pass to Brenton Strange.

Penn State's red zone defense would hold Ohio State to a field goal on the ensuing drive, as the Buckeyes got on the board with a 35-yard field goal by Noah Ruggles.

Ohio State would take its first lead in the closing minutes of the second when C.J. Stroud found Chris Olave deep for a 37-yard touchdown to put the Buckeyes ahead 10-7.

The Buckeye defense would force a turnover to extend the lead on the ensuing drive on a 53-yard scoop and score by Jerron Cage.

Penn State would cut the deficit back to one possession going into the half with a 47-yard field goal by Jordan Stout.

The Nittany Lions would even the score on their first drive of the second half, finishing off a 75-yard scoring drive with Dotson's first career touchdown rush.

Penn State's defense would record another trademark goal line stop, forcing Ohio State into a field goal inside the five-yard line. Ruggles 23-yard field goal gave Ohio State a 20-17 lead.

Ohio State would extend the lead to 27--17 their next drive. After TreVeyon Henderson set the Buckeyes up inside the five on a 68-yard run, the freshman would score on a 1-yard rush two plays later.

Clifford would once again drive the Nittany Lions down the field on the following drive, putting Penn State inside the red zone with five straight completions. The Nittany Lions would pull within 27-24 on a 1-yard touchdown run by Keyvone Lee.

Penn State would hold the Buckeyes to a red zone field goal once again, a 24-yarder from Ruggles to extend the lead to 30-24. They would repeat this later in the fourth with Ruggles tacking on three more with a 26-yarder.

Notes

- Penn State trails the all-time series, 23-14, against Ohio State, including a 7-14 record in road matchups.
- Penn State threw for 361 yards, the eighth-most in a game in the James Franklin era.
- The Nittany Lions completed 35 passes, the most in a game under Franklin, and attempted 52 passes, the second-most in a game under Franklin.
- QB Sean Clifford tied a Penn State record with 35 pass completions, matching Matt McGloin's 35 completions against Northwestern in 2012.
- Clifford's 52 pass attempts rank fourth-most in a game at Penn State.
- WR Jahan Dotson (11 receptions, 127 yards) and WR Parker Washington (9 receptions, 108 yards) both went over 100 receiving yards in a game for the second time this season. They both had 100+ receiving yards against Villanova (Dotson 117, Washington 148).
- Clifford earned his fifth career 300-yard passing game. He sits in sole possession of fourth all-time at Penn State, breaking a tie with Kerry Collins (1991-94). It was Clifford's second game with 300+ passing yards this season.
- Clifford raised his career passing total to 6,740 yards. He moved past Matt McGloin (6,390; 2009-12) for fourth all-time at Penn State.
- WR Jahan Dotson made a career-high 11 catches for 127 yards. His previous catch career best was 10 against Auburn.
- Dotson recorded his ninth career 100-yard receiving game, and third this season. His nine career 100-yard receiving games are tied third at Penn State with Chris Godwin (2014-16), DaeSean Hamilton (2014-17) and Joe Jurevicius (1994-97).
- WR Parker Washington tied a career high with nine catches for 108 yards.
- The Nittany Lions stopped Ohio State on 4th-and-3 at the PSU 13 to hold their opponent without a score the ninth time this season.
- LB Curtis Jacobs recorded a career-high seven tackles. Jacobs tied a career best with two tackles for loss.
- S Ji'Ayir Brown forced and recovered a fumble on Ohio State's opening drive. It was Brown's first career forced fumble and first career fumble recovery.
- K/P Jordan Stout converted a 47-yard field goal to close out the first half. Nine of his 16 career field goal makes are from 40 yards or longer.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – Led by a career day for wide receiver Jahan Dotson, the Penn State football team defeated Big Ten foe Maryland, 31-14.

Dotson set the Penn State single-game receiving record with 242 yards, breaking Deon Butler's record of 216 set in 2006 vs. Northwestern. Dotson also tied career highs with 11 receptions and three touchdowns.

Quarterback Sean Clifford tallied his third 300-yard game of the season, completing 27-of-47 passes for 363 yards and three touchdowns. Clifford and Dotson connected for Penn State's longest pass of the season early in the fourth quarter when Clifford hit Dotson for an 86-yard touchdown to give Penn State the lead.

The Penn State defense also recorded a score when Ji'Ayir Brown intercepted a Taulia Tagovailoa pass and returned it 87 yards for a touchdown. He also recovered a fumble in the game and tied for the team lead with nine tackles.

How It Happened

The Nittany Lions struck first midway through the first quarter when Clifford found Dotson deep for a 38-yard score to put Penn State up 7-0.

Maryland would get on the board in the closing minutes of the half on a 2-yard run by Challen Faamatau. Penn State remain in front at the half as Maryland missed the extra point.

Dotson paced the Nittany Lion offense with 5 catches for 77 yards and a touchdown in the first half.

Dotson and Clifford would connect for another score on PSU's opening drive of the second half, capping of a 95-yard scoring drive with a 21-yard touchdown.

With Maryland threatening in the red zone on the ensuing drive, the Penn State defense would collect the game's first turnover when Ji'Ayir Brown recovered a mishandled snap at the Penn State 15-yard line.

The Terrapins would strike back on the first play of the fourth quarter when Taulia Tagovailoa hit Corey Dyches for a 13-yard touchdown. Tagovailoa then connected with Chigoziem Okonkwo on a successful two-point conversion attempt to tie the game 14-14

Penn State would regain the league less than a minute later when Clifford and Dotson connected again, this time on a season-long 86-yard touchdown pass to give Penn State a 21-14 lead.

Dotson would break free for another long gain to set up another scoring drive for Penn State, as his 42-yard catch in the fourth quarter set up a 24-yard field goal by Jordan Stout. Dotson set the Penn State single-game receiving yardage record on the play.

The Penn State defense would extend the lead late in the fourth when Brown jumped in front of a Tagovailoa pass and returned it 87 yards for the touchdown to extend Penn State's lead to 31-14.

Notes

- Penn State leads the all-time series, 41-3-1, against Maryland and holds a 15-1 advantage in road matchups.
- Penn State has won each of the last 14 road matchups against the Terrapins. The Nittany Lions have won seven of the last eight matchups between the two teams.
- Penn State scored on a 14-play, 95-yard drive covering 5:43 in the third quarter. It was Penn State's fourth scoring drive of 90+ yards this season.
- QB Sean Clifford and WR Jahan Dotson connected for an 86-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. It's tied for the fourth-longest pass play in program history matching Steve Joachim to Jim Scott at Navy in 1971.
- Dotson tallied a career-best 11 receptions for a career-high 242 yards and three scores. Dotson's 242 receiving yards are the most in a game at Penn State, bettering Deon Butler's 216 yards against Northwestern in 2006.
- •Dotson is the only Power Five receiver with at least 240 yards and three touchdowns in a game this season and one of two in the FBS, joining Northern Illinois' Trayvon Rudolph (14 rec, 309 yds, 3 TD vs. Kent State).
- Dotson earned his first career 200-yard receiving game and 10th career 100-yard receiving game.
- Dotson now has 2,507 career receiving yards, moving into fourth all-time at Penn State.
- Clifford completed 27-of-47 passes for 363 yards and three touchdowns.
- It was his sixth career 300-yard passing game and third this season.
- Clifford now has 7,103 career passing yards, becoming the third Penn State quarterback to reach the 7,000 career yards mark.
- The Nittany Lions held Maryland to 48 rushing yards, the 38th time Penn State has held their opponent under 100 rushing yards since 2014.
- Penn State forced three red-zone stops, holding Maryland to two-of-five in their red-zone trips. The Nittany Lions have held opponents without a score in 12 of 34 red-zone possessions.
- S Ji'Ayir Brown returned an interception 87 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter. The 87-yard return is the fifth-longest in school history.
- Penn State has two pick sixes in a season for the first time since 2019 (John Reid vs. Buffalo and Garrett Taylor vs. Memphis).

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The No. 23/23 Penn State football team fell to No. 9/8/6 Michigan, 21-17, in a Big Ten matchup at Beaver Stadium.

In a close defensive contest, the teams remained within one possession for the entirety of the matchup. Penn State tied the game and take the lead midway through the fourth quarter, before Michigan pulled ahead in the closing minutes to earn the victory.

Several members of the Nittany Lions defense had strong games, highlighted by Ellis Brooks who led the unit with a career-high 16 tackles and Arnold Ebiketie who recorded 7 tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble.

Quarterback Sean Clifford completed 23-of-43 passes for 205 yards and a touchdown. Tyler Warren was on the receiving end of the score, the first receiving touchdown of his Penn State career. Parker Washington was the team's leading receiver with 92 yards, while Keyvone Lee tallied 88 yards on 20 carries on the ground.

How It Happened

Special Teams trickery set the Nittany Lions up in the red zone on their opening drive when punter Jordan Stout completed an 18-yard pass to linebacker Curtis Jacobs. Stout later put Penn State on the board with a 42-yard field goal.

The Wolverines jumped in front in the second quarter on a 21-yard touchdown pass from Cade McNamara to Roman Wilson.

After the Penn State defense forced Michigan to turn the ball over on downs late in the fourth, Clifford found Washington deep over the middle for 44-yards to set Penn State up in the red zone. Stout connected on a 52-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-6 at the half.

Michigan extended its lead on the opening drive of the second half on a 1-yard pass from McNamara to Wilson.

Midway through the fourth quarter Penn State fought to even the score, going on a 15-play scoring drive that was capped off with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Clifford to Warren. The Nittany Lions tied the game at 14 when Clifford found Jahan Dotson in the end zone for the 2-point conversion.

The Penn State defense forced a turnover on the following drive on a strip sack by Ebiketie that was recovered by Derrick Tangelo at the Michigan 16-yard line. The Nittany Lions jumped ahead, 17-14, on a 31-yard field goal.

Michigan regained the lead on the ensuing drive on a 47-yard touchdown pass from McNamara to Erick All. The Wolverines would hold on to win 21-17.

Notes

- Penn State trails the all-time series, 14-11, against Michigan.
- Each of the last three matchups in the series have been decided by 10 or less points.
- QB Sean Clifford recorded his 18th career 200-yard passing game, tied for third with Matt McGloin (2009-12).
- WR Jahan Dotson caught a 2-pt conversion in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 14-14 with 7:35 remaining.
- Dotson had 61 receiving yards, giving him 993 for the season and moving him into sixth place at Penn State.
- Dotson's nine receptions on the day boosted his career total to 172, putting him in fourth place in the Nittany Lion record books, and his season total to 80 grabs, good for third place at Penn State.
- On a 24-yard catch in the first quarter, WR Parker Washington became the 36th Penn State player to reach the 1,000 career receiving yards mark.
- TE Tyler Warren caught a 2-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter. It was his first career touchdown reception at Penn State.
- LB Ellis Brooks had a career-high 16 tackles.
- Brooks' 16 tackles are the most by a Penn State player since Brandon Bell recorded 18 against Michigan State on Nov. 26, 2016.
- Brooks recorded his 200th career tackle in the first quarter.
- DE Arnold Ebiketie forced a fumble on a strip-sack in the fourth quarter. It was his fourth career forced fumble and first at Penn State.
- LB Brandon Smith tied a career high with 10 tackles.
- K/P Jordan Stout hit a 52-yard field goal in the second quarter. He added a 42-yard kick in the first quarter and a 31-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.
- Stout tied his career high for field goals made in a game with three.
- Stout now has five career field goals of 50+ yards. He is second all-time at Penn State behind Chris Bahr (6; 1973-75).
- Stout has two field goals of 50+ yards this season. He hit a 50-yard kick against Indiana.
- Stout completed an 18-yard pass to Curtis Jacobs on a fake punt in the first quarter. It was his first career completion and attempt.
- Stout averaged 51.0 yards on four punts and dropped all four punts inside the 20.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The Penn State football team closed out its home schedule with a 28-0 win over Big Ten foe Rutgers at Beaver Stadium.

After quarterback Sean Clifford left the game in the first quarter, true freshman Christian Veilleux saw his first action as a Nittany Lion. Veilleux shined in his debut, completing 15 of 24 passes for 235 yards and three touchdowns.

Three different receivers found the end zone on the day for the Nittany Lions on Saturday. In his final contest at Beaver Stadium, senior Jahan Dotson had three catches for 52 yards with an 8-yard touchdown. Freshman Malick Meiga recorded his first collegiate touchdown, connecting with Veilleux on a 67-yard score in the third quarter.

The Penn State defense shut down the Rutgers offense throughout the afternoon, holding the Scarlett Knights to just 165 yards. Jaquan Brisker led the unit with seven tackles. Senior captain Jonathan Sutherland capped off the victory with his first career interception in his final game at Beaver Stadium.

How It Happened

The contest remained scoreless for the first 29 minutes of play before Christian Veilleux connected with Dotson on an 8-yard touchdown pass to put Penn State up 7-0. It was the first touchdown pass of Veilleux's career.

Penn State held Rutgers to just 72 yards of total offense in the first half.

The Nittany Lions extended the lead with 3:32 in the third when Veilleux found Parker Washington in the end zone on a 17-yard score.

Later in the third, Veileux would find Meiga on a 67-yard catch and run for the score. It was the first touchdown of Meiga's career.

Keyvone Lee would extend the Penn State lead to 28-0 midway through the fourth, scoring on a 7-yard run.

The Penn State defense would force the game's first turnover with 6:20 remaining when Sutherland picked off a Gavin Wimsatt pass.

Notes

- Penn State leads the all-time series, 30-2, against Rutgers, including an 8-0 mark since the Scarlet Knights joined the Big Ten.
- Penn State has won each of the last 15 matchups against the Scarlet Knights.
- Penn State averaged 106,799 fans in seven home games this season, the seventh-highest average in program history and best season average since 2009.
- The Nittany Lions recorded their second shutout of the season, having previous held Indiana scoreless. The last time that Penn State had two shutouts in a season was in 2017, when the Nittany Lions defeated Akron 52-0 and Georgia State 56-0.
- The result marked the first time Penn State has shut out two conference opponents in a single season since joining the Big Ten for football in 1993.
- Penn State has held Rutgers to less than 10 points in all eight meetings since the Scarlet Knights joined the Big Ten Conference in 2014, including two shutouts (2016, 2021).
- In eight meetings as Big Ten Conference foes, Penn State's defense has held Rutgers to a 4.9 scoring average.
- QB Christian Veilleux completed 15-of-24 passes for 235 yards and three touchdowns.
- Veilleux is the first Penn State true freshman QB to throw a TD since Christian Hackenberg at Wisconsin Nov. 30, 2013.
- WR Jahan Dotson's 52 receiving yards on the day give him 1,045 for the season, marking the sixth time (fourth player) a Nittany Lion receiver had at least 1,000 receiving yards in a season.
- Dotson's touchdown grab in the second quarter gives him 23 career receiving touchdowns, putting him in sole possession of third place all-time at Penn State.
- Dotson's touchdown catch was also his 10th receiving touchdown of the season, moving him into a tie for fifth with Joe Jurevicius (10; 1997).
- WR Malick Meiga reached the end zone for the first time in his career, on a 67-yard strike from Veilleux in the third quarter.
- DE Arnold Ebiketie recorded 1.5 tackles for loss, giving him at least one tackle for loss in seven-straight games.
- S Jonathan Sutherland grabbed the first interception of his career in the fourth quarter.
- K/P Jordan Stout landed five punts inside the 10 and six inside the 20, while hitting two 50+ yard punts.

GAME RECAP

EAST LANSING, Mich. – The Penn State football team fell to No.12/13/12 Michigan State, 30-27, in a Big Ten matchup at Spartan Stadium.

Under snowy conditions, Penn State fought back to tie the game and take the lead on two different occasions, but Michigan State relied on its ground attack to close out the game in the final minutes.

Quarterback Sean Clifford completed 23 of 34 passes for 313 yards and three touchdowns. Jahan Dotson continued his tremendous senior campaign with eight catches for 137 yards and two touchdowns. It marked the fifth time in his career that Dotson tallied 100+ yards and two touchdowns. Keyvone Lee paced the Penn State rushing attack with 79 yards on 15 carries.

Ji'Ayir Brown led the Nittany Lion defense with 10 tackles. The defense also found the end zone in the contest when Daequan Hardy intercepted a pass and returned it 17 yards for the score. It was the Nittany Lions' third interception return for a touchdown this season, the most by a Penn State team since 2003.

How It Happened

Michigan State got on the board on its opening drive, capping off a 76-yard drive with a 5-yard touchdown run by Kenneth Walker III.

The Spartans would extend the lead on their next drive on a 9-yard pass from Payton Thorne to Tre Mosley.

The Nittany Lions cut the lead in half on their ensuing drive when Clifford connected with Dotson on two long passes, first for 19 yards and then for a 27-yard touchdown.

The duo would even the score on Penn State's next drive when Clifford found Dotson for a 30-yard touchdown.

Michigan State would jump back ahead midway through the second quarter on a 22-yard field goal by Matt Coghlin. The Spartans led 17-14 at the half.

The Penn State defense would give the Nittany Lions their first lead in the opening minutes of the second half when Hardy took an interception 17 yards to the end zone to put the Nittany Lions ahead, 20-17.

The Spartans would reclaim the lead with two minutes to go in the third, finishing off a 15-play drive with a 1-yard touchdown run by Thorne.

They would extend the lead with five minutes remaining when Thorne found Jayden Reed for a 20-yard touchdown to make it 30-20.

Penn State would cut the deficit to three in the closing minutes when Clifford found Parker Washington for a 15-yard score. Michigan State would hold on for a 30-27 victory.

Notes

- Penn State is 17-18-1 in the all-time series against Michigan State.
- With two touchdown passes to WR Jahan Dotson, QB Sean Clifford has connected with Dotson for 23 career touchdowns, the most in school history for a quarterback-receiver duo and the most of any FBS quarterback-receiver duo.
- QB Sean Clifford finished 23-for-34 passing for 313 yards and three touchdowns, his seventh career 300-yard passing game, now sitting third all-time at Penn State.
- Clifford has four 300-yard passing games this season, tied for second in a single season at PSU with Matt McGloin (2012), Christian Hackenberg (2013 and 2014) and Trace McSorley (2017).
- Clifford owns 8,495 career total yards (7,644 pass, 851 rush), moving him past Christian Hackenberg (8,215) for second all-time at Penn State.
- With 137 receiving yards, Dotson moved into second place on Penn State's single-season receiving yards list passing Bobby Engram (1,084; 1995) and Chris Godwin (1,101; 2015).
- Dotson turned in his 11th career 100-yard receiving game to move into sole possession of second place on Penn State's all-time list. He was tied with Allen Robinson (10; 2011-13) entering the game.
- Doston has five career games with 100+ receiving yards, 2+ rec TDs
- The Penn State defense had its third interception returned for a touchdown when Daequan Hardy returned a pick 17 yards for a score.
- The three pick-sixes are the most since 2003 (3) and marks the eighth time with three or more interception returns for a TD in a season.
- DE Arnold Ebiketie has at least one tackle for loss in eight-straight games.
- S Ji'Ayir Brown led Penn State with 10 tackles, marking his second career double-digit tackle game.
- CB Daequan Hardy grabbed his second career interception and returned it 17 yards for a touchdown. The pick is also his second of the season with the first coming against Ball State.
- With a 52-yard punt in the first quarter, P/K Jordan Stout now has 28 career 50+ yard punts, including 25 this season.

GAME RECAP

TAMPA, Fla. – The Penn State football team fell 24-10 against No. 22/24/21 Arkansas in the Outback Bowl in Raymond James Stadium.

The Nittany Lions went into halftime with a 10-7 lead, but a strong rushing attack by Arkansas helped the Razorbacks to a victory.

Sean Clifford completed 14-of-32 passes for 195 yards and a touchdown and added 47 rushing yards. Parker Washington hauled in seven catches for 98 yards, while KeAndre Lambert-Smith had three receptions for 74 yards, including a 42-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

Ji'Ayir Brown led the Penn State defense with two interceptions, both in the first half, and six tackles. Curtis Jacobs recorded a career-high 10 tackles, including a sack, and Nick Tarburton had a career-best seven tackles with two for loss and a sack. Smith Vilbert set a Penn State bowl record, and tied the Outback Bowl record, with three sacks.

How It Happened

Penn State found themselves in the red zone on its first drive after Clifford hit Washington deep for a 42-yard gain. Arkansas would force Penn State into a missed field goal attempt.

The Penn State defense forced a turnover on the ensuing drive when Ji'Ayir Brown intercepted a KJ Jefferson pass in the end zone.

Arkansas followed with a turnover of its own when Clifford was intercepted by Greg Brooks Jr.

The Razorbacks got on the board in the closing seconds of the first quarter on a 3-yard touchdown run by Raheim Sanders.

The Nittany Lions evened the score with 10:53 remaining in the second when Clifford found a wide open Lambert-Smith downfield for a 42-yard touchdown.

Penn State took its first lead of the day later in the second on a 33-yard field goal by Jake Pinegar.

After Penn State turned the ball over on downs on a failed fake punt attempt, Ji'Ayir Brown recorded his second interception of the game to close out the first half. Penn State led 10-7 at halftime.

Arkansas re-took the lead on the opening drive of the second half on an 8-yard touchdown run by Jefferson. The Razorbacks extended their lead to seven midway through the third on a 36-yard field goal by Cam Little.

The Razorbacks pushed the lead to 24-10 with 2:08 to go in the third on a 1-yard touchdown by Sanders. Arkansas got a key turnover in the opening minutes of the fourth on an interception by Joe Foucha in the end zone.

Notes

- The Nittany Lions fell to 3-2 in Outback Bowl appearances.
- Penn State is 12-9 in bowl games against current SEC teams.
- The Nittany Lions are 14-11-1 when playing on New Year's Day.
- The Nittany Lions are 30-19-2 (.608) all-time in bowl games, ranking sixth in bowl victories.
- OT Olu Fashanu, DE Smith Vilbert, DT Dvon Ellies and CB Kalen King all made their first career starts. Penn State has 13 players who made their first collegiate start this season and 16 who made their first Penn State start.
- WR Parker Washington's seven receptions are tied for third-most by a Penn State player in a bowl game. He's tied with seven players, most recently Saquon Barkley in the 2017 Fiesta Bowl.
- WR KeAndre Lambert-Smith's 24.7 yards per reception (three receptions, 74 yards) rank fourth by a Penn State player in a bowl game.
- The Nittany Lions held Arkansas to 90 passing yards, marking the 16th time Penn State has limited an opponent to less than 100 passing yards since 2014.
- Penn State recorded nine tackles for loss and five sacks on the day.
- With two red-zone stops, including an interception in the first quarter, Penn State ended the season with 16 stops on 48 red-zone possessions. Penn State's 16 red-zone stops are the most in the FBS in 2021.
- With an interception in the first quarter, Penn State extended its takeaway streak to 19-straight games, dating back to the Nebraska game in 2020. Penn State has forced 28 turnovers during the streak (19 interceptions, 9 fumbles).
- DE Smith Vilbert's three sacks are a Penn State bowl record. Nine previous players had two sacks, most recently Micah Parsons in the 2019 Cotton Bowl.
- Vilbert's three sacks tied an Outback Bowl record. He equaled the mark set by David Pollack, Georgia (2005), Kalimba Edwards, South Carolina (2001), Srecko Zizakovic, Ohio State (1990) and Craig Ogletree, Auburn (1990).
- S Ji'Ayir Brown recorded two interceptions. He tied the Penn State bowl record. Thirteen previous players had two interceptions in a bowl game, most recently Derek Fox in the 1999 Alamo Bowl.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

BIG TEN CHAMPIONS

1994

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 120 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of six men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, and current commissioner Kevin Warren in 2020.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produced over $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 1,800 events across all platforms each year. BTN is in almost 60 million homes in the U.S. and Canada via the nation's major video providers and more than 300 additional video providers across the country. BTN is also available through the majority of OTT providers, and via the Fox Sports App, which delivers live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. In addition, the BTN+ platform streams hundreds of events each season.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011. The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively.

Warren and his staff work to meet the educational needs of student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 27 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 2,000 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel, and remains a vital resource for media and fans seeking information on the Big Ten.

More than 125 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

LAND GRANT TROPHY

The Land Grant Trophy, established in 1993, is awarded to the winner of the Penn State-Michigan State game. It honors the universities as the nation's two pioneer land-grant schools. Each was founded in 1855: Michigan State on February 12 and Penn State on February 22. The schools were the prototypes after which the land-grant system was patterned.

The trophy features images of the schools' landmark buildings - Penn State's Old Main and Michigan State's Beaumont Tower - and replicas of the Nittany Lion and the Spartan, the schools' mascots.

GOVERNOR'S VICTORY BELL

Commissioned in 1993 by Pennsylvania Governor Robert Casey and Minnesota Governor Arne Carlson, the Governor's Victory Bell is presented to the winner of the Penn State-Minnesota contest.

Acting Governor Mark Singel of Pennsylvania and Carlson of Minnesota established the Governor's Victory Bell on Sept. 4, 1993, the date of the first Minnesota-Penn State game.

The trophy features a brass bell bearing the medallion of the Big Ten Conference, the state seals of Minnesota and Pennsylvania and the athletic logos of each institution.

BROWN, KWALICK BIG TEN TROPHIES

The Big Ten initiated the presentation of 18 trophies following the 2011 season and honors some of its all-time premier football student-athletes with the newly named awards, including Penn State's Courtney Brown and Ted Kwalick.

The Big Ten awards the Smith-Brown Defensive Lineman of the Year, recognizing the Nittany Lions' Brown and Michigan State's Bubba Smith. Brown was a consensus first-team All-American in 1999, breaking school records in career tackles for loss (70), career sacks (33) and season TFL (29). The 1999 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, Brown was a three-time all-conference selection. Brown was the first overall pick in the 2000 National Football League Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

The conference also presents the Kwalick-Clark Tight End of the Year, honoring Penn State's Kwalick and Iowa's Dallas Clark. Kwalick was a first-team All-American in 1967 and '68 and finished fourth in balloting for the 1968 Heisman Trophy. A first-round draft choice by the San Francisco 49ers and a three-time All-Pro, Kwalick was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

BIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The winners of the East and West divisions will play in the Big Ten Conference Championship game in primetime on Saturday, December 3, at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. FOX Sports is the official television partner of the Big Ten Championship game. Kickoff time is 8 p.m. for the contest.

Lucas Oil Stadium has been the site of the Big Ten Championship game since 2011 and will continue to host the game until 2022.

The winner of the Big Ten Championship game will play in either the Rose Bowl game or the College Football Playoff.

The winning team in the Big Ten Football Championship game will receive the Stagg Championship Trophy. The trophy pays homage to Amos Alonzo Stagg, who won 199 games at the University of Chicago when the Maroons were Big Ten members.

HALL OF FAME SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame honors the nation's outstanding scholar-athletes annually with graduate school fellowships.

A recipient must be a senior and in his final year of eligibility, have shown outstanding football ability and performance, exhibited academic application and performance, demonstrated outstanding leadership and citizenship, and be a candidate for graduate study and must not have received his diploma.

Recipients of the prestigious honor receive an $18,000 fellowship. Penn State is tied for third nationally with its 19 NFF honorees.

WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY

John Urschel

Considered the "Academic Heisman," the William V. Campbell Trophy is given annually the National Football Foundation to the nation's premier college football scholar-athlete. Candidates must be a senior or graduate student in their final year of eligibility, have a GPA of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale, have outstanding football ability as a first-team player or significant contributor and have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship. Twelve finalists for the Campbell Trophy receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class with the winner earning a $25,000 postgraduate scholarship.

NCAA POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Forty-six Penn State student-athletes, including 18 football players, have received NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships. The award carries a $7,500 scholarship for postgraduate study at the university or professional school of the student-athlete's choice.

To qualify for consideration, each recipient must have earned at least a "B" cumulative average (3.0 on Penn State's 4.0 grade-point scale) and also must have performed with distinction in his or her sport, thus epitomizing the term "student-athlete."

LAMBERT-MEADOWLANDS TROPHY

Penn State won an unprecedented 31st Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy in 2017 as Eastern football's top team. Penn State has won more Lambert-Meadowlands trophies than any four schools combined.

In 1936, the Lambert brothers, Victor and Henry, of the distinguished New York City jewelry house that bears their name, established a memorial to their father, August — a trophy to be awarded to the outstanding Division I college football team in the East. In 1957, the Lambert Cup was instituted for Division II teams and, in 1966, the Lambert Bowl was added for Division III schools.

Outside linebacker, 1985 and 1986, Frewsburg, New York, selected by Newspaper Enterprise Association in 1985 and by Walter Camp Football Foundation, The Football News, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, United Press International and College and Pro Football Newsweekly in 1986. The sixth Penn State two-time All-American, Conlan led the 1986 squad in tackles with 79, including a team-high 63 solo stops. In the 1986 National Championship game with Miami (Fla.) in the Fiesta Bowl, Conlan's second interception and his 38-yard return to the five-yard line, set up the Lions' winning touchdown. The 1987 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and No. 1 draft pick of Buffalo, Conlan played with the Bills (1987-92) and the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams (1993-95). He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2014.

CHRIS CONLIN

Tackle, 1986, Glenside, Pennsylvania, selected by the Football Writers Association of America. Although he missed two games with a knee injury, Conlin was one of eight players nominated for the Outland Trophy as the nation's top lineman. A three-year starter, he was chosen by Miami in the fifth round of the 1987 NFL Draft. He played with the Dolphins (1987) and Indianapolis (1990-91).

D.J. DOZIER

Halfback, 1986, Virginia Beach, Virginia, selected by Walter Camp Football Foundation. It was Dozier's 6-yard TD run in the 1987 Fiesta Bowl that brought the Lions their second National Championship. Dozier became the first back to lead Penn State in rushing four consecutive seasons when he posted 811 yards on 171 carries. Dozier was selected in the first round of the 1987 NFL Draft by Minnesota, where he spent four seasons (1987-90). He played with Detroit in 1991. He also played baseball in the New York Mets' farm system.

TIM JOHNSON

Defensive tackle, 1986, Sarasota, Florida, selected by Walter Camp Football Foundation. Johnson led the defensive linemen in tackles with 33 and made five sacks for 30 yards in losses. He was a sixth-round pick by Pittsburgh in the 1987 NFL Draft. He played with the Steelers (1987-89), Washington (1990-95) and Cincinnati (1996).

STEVE WISNIEWSKI

Guard, 1987 and 1988, Houston, Texas, selected by Sporting News in 1987 and by Sporting News and the Football Coaches (Kodak) in 1988. The third Penn State offensive lineman to win two-time All-American honors, Wisniewski was a three-year starter and capped his senior season by playing in the Hula and the Japan bowl games. Selected by the Dallas Cowboys as the first pick overall in the second round of the 1989 NFL Draft, he was immediately traded to the Los Angeles Raiders. Wisniewski played his entire career with the Raiders (1989-2001).

ANDRE COLLINS

Inside linebacker, 1989, Cinnaminson, New Jersey, selected by the Football Writers Association of America. One of five finalists for the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, Collins' season total of 130 tackles is fourth-best in school history. He also tied Jack Ham's season and career records for punt blocks with three and four, respectively. A second-round pick of the Washington Redskins in the 1990 NFL Draft, he played with the Redskins (1990-94), Cincinnati (1995-97) and Chicago (1998-99).

BLAIR THOMAS

Tailback, 1989, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, selected by Walter Camp Football Foundation and The Football News. Thomas was the first back in Penn State history to gain 1,300 or more yards in two seasons. His lifetime totals are 3,301 rushing and 4,512 all-purpose. Thomas came back from major reconstructive knee surgery to turn in a brilliant senior season with eight 100-yard games, including six straight to close the campaign, and 1,341 yards on 264 carries. He finished 10th in voting for the 1989 Heisman Trophy. As the No. 2 pick overall by the New York Jets in the 1990 NFL Draft, Thomas became the highest drafted Penn State player at the time since the first combined NFL-American Football League Draft in 1969. Thomas played with the Jets (1990-93), New England (1994), Dallas (1994) and Carolina (1995).

DARREN PERRY

Hero, 1991, Chesapeake, Virginia, selected by the Football Writers Association of America. Perry led the team with six interceptions, pushing his total to 15 for a share of second place on Penn State's career list. He had back-to-back touchdown interception returns (Boston College, Temple) to tie the Lions' season and career marks. Perry was a Top 20 finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He was an eighth-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1992 NFL Draft and played with the Steelers from 1992-98, after winning a starting spot as a rookie. He also played for Baltimore (1999) and New Orleans (2000). He was the safeties coach for the Green Bay Packers and has served as an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2003-06), the Oakland Raiders (2007-08) and Green Bay Packers (2009-17).

O.J. McDUFFIE

Wide receiver, 1992, Warrensville Heights, Ohio, selected by the Associated Press, United Press International, American Football Coaches Association, The Football News, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Athlon Publications. McDuffie broke or tied 15 Penn State receiving, return and all-purpose yardage records. He had a record 63 receptions for 977 yards in 1992. His career total of 125 catches and his season all-purpose yardage (1,831) were records at the time. McDuffie, the first wide receiver to make the list, is 12th on Penn State's all-time chart with 3,817 all-purpose yards. McDuffie played in the 1993 Japan Bowl. He was selected in the first round of the 1993 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins, the 25th player selected overall. He played nine seasons with the Dolphins (1993-2001).

LOU BENFATTI

Defensive tackle, 1993, Green Pond, New Jersey, selected by Walter Camp Football Foundation. Started all 49 games in his career and was Penn State's first semifinalist for the Lombardi Award since Sean Farrell in 1981. He was the 60th Penn Stater to earn first-team All-America recognition and the 45th under coach Joe Paterno. Benfatti recorded 64 tackles, six tackles for loss, five sacks, an interception, three pass breakups and one fumble recovery. He also forced a fumble in each of the last four regular-season games. Benfatti made 179 career tackles (109 solo), including 25 tackles for loss, 10 sacks and two interceptions. A team captain, he played in the 1994 East-West Shrine and Senior Bowl games. He played three seasons for the New York Jets (1994-96) after being selected in the third round of the 1994 NFL Draft.

KYLE BRADY

Tight end, 1994, New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, selected by American Football Coaches Association and College Sports Magazine. Brady made his farewell season his best with 27 receptions for 365 yards and an average per catch of 13.5 yards — all career-highs. His intimidating blocking was an important element of Penn State's exceptional rushing attack, which ranked No. 6 nationally with 250.9 ypg. Brady was named first-team All-Big Ten for the second consecutive year. With 76 career receptions, Brady was second only to two-time All-America and Hall of Famer Ted Kwalick among Penn State tight ends at the end of his career. Brady, a first-round pick by the New York Jets in the 1995 NFL Draft (ninth player overall, third Nittany Lion in the first nine picks), played from 1995-98 with the Jets. He played eight seasons with Jacksonville (1999-2006) and one (2007) for the New England Patriots.

KI-JANA CARTER

Running back, 1994, Westerville, Ohio, selected by the Associated Press, United Press International, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation, American Football Coaches Association, Sporting News and College Sports Magazine. Carter staked a claim to being one of the most decorated Penn State running backs of all time with a junior season in which he was fourth nationally in rushing (139.9), second in scoring (10.8 ppg) and fifth in all-purpose yardage (158.4). Carter led the Big Ten Conference in all three categories. His 7.8 yards per carry easily was the best among the nation's Top 25 rushers. Carter enjoyed a career game in the season-finale with Michigan State by piling up 227 yards on 27 carries and scoring five touchdowns. Carter was runner-up to Rashaan Salaam of Colorado for the Heisman Trophy and a finalist for the Maxwell Award. His 1994 statistics included 1,539 yards rushing, the then-No. 2 season total in Penn State history, and 23 touchdowns. Carter was named co-MVP of the Rose Bowl with 156 rushing yards on 21 carries, including an 83-yard touchdown bolt on the Nittany Lions' first offensive play. Carter opted to forego his final season of eligibility to enter the pro draft, but still earned a position among Penn State's all-time Top 10 in rushing, ranking No. 5 at the time with 2,829 yards in his three seasons. When the Cincinnati Bengals selected him as the first overall player picked in the 1995 NFL Draft, Carter became the first Nittany Lion to be chosen No. 1. He spent six seasons with the Bengals (1995-2000), two years with Washington (2001-02) and two seasons with the New Orleans Saints (2003-04).

KERRY COLLINS

Quarterback, 1994, West Lawn, Pennsylvania, selected by the Associated Press, United Press International, The Football News, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Sporting News in 1994. He also captured two of college football's major postseason prizes - the Maxwell Award (nation's outstanding player) and the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback). Collins finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting and garnered Player of the Year honors from ABC-TV/Chevrolet and the Big Ten. Collins posted the fourth-best season passing efficiency mark in NCAA history (172.8). At the end of his career, he had broken Penn State season records for total offense (2,660), completions (176), passing yardage (2,679), completion percentage (66.7), yards per attempt (10.15) and passing efficiency (172.86). He also set the mark with 14 consecutive completions at Minnesota, which was broken by Trace McSorley in 2017. Collins was the linchpin of an explosive offense that shattered 14 school records and led the nation in scoring (47.8 ppg) and total offense (520.2 ypg.). The first-round pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 1995 NFL Draft and the fifth player selected overall, Collins enjoyed a 17-year career in the NFL. He played for Carolina (1995-98), the New Orleans Saints (part of the 1998 season), the New York Giants (1999-2003), Oakland Raiders (2004-05), Tennessee Titans (2006-10) and the Indianapolis Colts (2011). He capped the 2000 season by leading the Giants to Super Bowl XXXV. He will be inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 4, 2018.

BOBBY ENGRAM

Wide receiver, 1994, Camden, South Carolina, selected by the Walter Camp Football Foundation. Was the first Penn State receiver to amass more than 1,000 yards in a season, Engram was the initial recipient of the Biletnikoff Award, presented to the nation's top receiver. A three-time first-team All-Big Ten selection, Engram finished the 1994 season with 52 receptions and a record 1,029 yards. He ended his career by making 63 receptions, tied for most in school history, for 1,084 yards (breaking his own mark) and 11 touchdowns in 1995. He capped his career with his selection as the MVP of the 1996 Outback Bowl. Penn State's finest receiver, Engram held 12 school records upon his graduation. The Chicago Bears' second-round pick in the 1996 NFL Draft, he has played with the Bears (1996-2000), Seattle Seahawks (2001-08) and Kansas City Chiefs (2009). He is an assistant coach with the NFL's Baltimore Ravens.

JEFF HARTINGS

Guard, 1994 and 1995, St. Henry, Ohio, selected by the Associated Press and Walter Camp Football Foundation in 1994 and the American Football Coaches Association, United Press International, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Sporting News in 1995. Hartings was the cornerstone of a Penn State offensive line that surrendered only three sacks in all of 1994 and helped the Nittany Lions lead the nation in scoring and total offense, setting 14 school records. A starter in the final 31 games of his career at long guard, Hartings was the 11th Nittany Lion to twice earn first-team All-America honors. He was a three-time first-team All-Big Ten choice and a semifinalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award. Hartings also was just the fourth Lion selected to the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America first team on two occasions and was chosen a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete. Hartings was selected by the Detroit Lions in the first round of the 1996 NFL Draft. Now retired, he played for the Lions (1996-2000) and the Pittsburgh Steelers (2001-06), earning All-Pro honors in 2004 and 2005.

KIM HERRING

Free safety, 1996, Solon, Ohio, selected by Sporting News. A three-year starter, Herring's seven interceptions in his senior season led the Big Ten and were tied for third nationally. Also chosen as an Associated Press second-team All-American and first-team All-Big Ten, his 13 career interceptions are the third-highest total in school history. He made 212 career tackles. Selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 1997 NFL Draft, he played with the Ravens (1997-2000), the St. Louis Rams (2001-03) and Cincinnati Bengals (2004-05).

CURTIS ENIS

Tailback, 1997, Union City, Ohio, selected by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America and Walter Camp Football Foundation. Enis also was chosen a second-team All-American by Sporting News and was the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year. In becoming the 12th Nittany Lion running back named a first-team All-American, Enis rushed for 1,363 yards on 228 attempts (6.0 avg.), a 123.9 ypg. average, and 19 touchdowns. He also made 25 catches for 215 yards and one score. He rushed for more than 100 yards in each of his last eight games to break Blair Thomas' school record. At the end of his career, his 17 career 100-yard games were tied for second-best in school annals. Enis became only the fifth Lion to rush for more than 1,000 yards twice in a career and had 3,256 career rushing yards, good for third place. Enis was selected in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears, the fifth pick overall. He retired after the 2000 season.

Bobby Engram was the first Penn State receiver to amass more than 1,000 yards in a season and was the inaugural winner of the Biletnikoff Award.

LaVAR ARRINGTON

Outside linebacker, 1998 and 1999, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, selected by Sporting News in 1998 and by the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Sporting News and The Football News in 1999. He also was a second-team All-American choice of the Associated Press and The Football News in 1998. In 1999, he was selected winner of the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker and Chuck Bednarik Award as the country's top defensive player. He also was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award. The 12th Nittany Lion selected a two-time first-team All-American, Arrington finished ninth in balloting for the 1999 Heisman Trophy. Was the first sophomore selected Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year in 1998. In 1999, he made 72 tackles, with 20 TFL, nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries (one TD) and two blocked kicks. His leaping tackle over the offensive line of an Illinois runner was selected the 1998 Compaq Defensive Play of the Year. Arrington was selected by the Washington Redskins as the second overall pick of the 2000 NFL Draft and played with the Redskins (2000-05) and the New York Giants (2006), earning Pro Bowl honors in 2001, 2002 and 2003.

COURTNEY BROWN

Defensive end, 1999, Alvin, South Carolina, selected by the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Sporting News and The Football News. He also was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Rotary Lombardi Award and Chuck Bednarik Award. Brown shattered school records for career tackles for loss (70) and sacks (33) and the season mark for TFL (29). A three-year starter, he was tied for third in Big Ten career TFL and was named 1999 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. He was the fourth Nittany Lion selected All-Big Ten three times and finished his career by earning the Hall Foundation Award as the team's Senior MVP. He made 55 tackles (33 solo), with 29 TFL (minus-150), 13.5 sacks (minus-107), an interception (TD) and three forced fumbles. The Cleveland Browns selected Brown as the first overall pick of the 2000 NFL Draft. He played with the Browns (2000-04) and Denver Broncos (2005-06).

BRANDON SHORT

Middle linebacker, 1999, McKeesport, Pennsylvania, selected by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America and Walter Camp Football Foundation. He also was chosen a second-team All-American by Sporting News and third-team by The Football News. A finalist for the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, he and LaVar Arrington were the first teammates to be finalists for the honor. Chosen a team co-captain prior to the season, Short was a four-year starter and two-time first-team All-Big Ten pick. He concluded his superlative career second on the school's career tackles for loss list with 51, the 17th-best total in Big Ten annals. He also was sixth on the school career tackles list with 273. Just the 12th Nittany Lion to crack 100 tackles in a season, he had 10 or more stops six times in '99. Short led the Lions with 103 tackles (62 solo), including 12 TFL, four sacks, three pass breakups, a fumble recovery, an interception and a blocked kick. He was the North squad's Defensive MVP in the Senior Bowl. Short was selected by the New York Giants in the fourth round of the 2000 National League Draft and played with the Giants (2000-03, 06) and the Carolina Panthers in (2004-05).

MICHAEL HAYNES

Defensive end, 2002, Columbus, New Jersey, selected by the Football Writers Association of America. He also was a second-team All-America selection by the Associated Press and Sporting News. Haynes was one of four finalists for the inaugural Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award and was the 2002 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. He led the Big Ten in sacks (15.0 for minus-126 yards), tackles for loss (23 for minus-140 yards) and with a school-record seven forced fumbles. Haynes recorded 80 tackles, recovered one fumble, made four pass breakups and logged at least one tackle for loss in every game. His 15 sacks tied Larry Kubin's school season record and ranked fifth nationally. His 25.5 career sacks were good for third place at Penn State. A first-team All-Big Ten selection, his 23 TFL on the season were tied for second-best at Penn State. In the 2003 Senior Bowl, Haynes was selected the North's Defensive MVP. The Chicago Bears selected Haynes with the No. 14 overall pick in the first round of the 2003 NFL Draft. He played three seasons (2003-05) for the Bears and one year for the New Orleans Saints (2006).

LARRY JOHNSON

Running back, 2002, State College, Pennsylvania, selected by the American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Football Foundation. Johnson also was the recipient of the Maxwell and Walter Camp Player of the Year Awards and the Doak Walker Award, presented to the nation's top running back. He was third in balloting for the Heisman Trophy and was the Chevrolet National Offensive Player of the Year. A unanimous first-team All-Big Ten selection, Johnson became just the ninth player in NCAA Division I-A history — and the first in the 107-year history of the Big Ten Conference — to rush for more than 2,000 yards in the regular season. He finished the season with 2,087 yards on 271 carries, for an outstanding 7.7 average, and 20 rushing touchdowns. Johnson led the nation in rushing (160.5 ypg) and all-purpose yardage (204.2) and was fourth in scoring (10.8 ppg). He became the first Nittany Lion to lead the nation in rushing or all-purpose yardage. Johnson shattered the Penn State game rushing record three times and blew by the 200-yard mark on four occasions. His final record-breaking effort was a spectacular 327 yards at Indiana. He also tallied 279 yards against Illinois, 257 against Northwestern and 279 yards — all in the first half — in his home-finale with Michigan State. His 2,655 all-purpose yards in 2002 shattered the Penn State record by more than 800 yards and were the fifth-highest total in NCAA history. His 5,045 career all-purpose yards also were a school record. Johnson was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round of the 2003 NFL Draft. He played six seasons (2003-08) with the Chiefs and was selected All-Pro in 2005 and 2006. He set a NFL record in 2006 for the most carries in a season. Johnson joined the Cincinnati Bengals in 2009 and was with the Washington Redskins in 2010 and the Miami Dolphins in 2011.

JIMMY KENNEDY

Defensive tackle, 2002, Yonkers, New York, selected by Sporting News and Walter Camp Football Foundation. He also was a third-team All-America choice by the Associated Press. A four-year starter, Kennedy was named the 2002 Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year and was a two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection. He recorded 87 tackles during the 2002 season, second on the squad, and the most by a Penn State defensive tackle since starting Big Ten play in 1993. A semifinalist for the Lombardi Award, he ranked fourth in the Big Ten with 16 tackles for loss, made 5.5 sacks and broke up three passes in 2002. Kennedy finished his career with 39 tackles for loss. He tied the Penn State record with four sacks and made five tackles for loss in a win at Wisconsin. The St. Louis Rams made Kennedy the No. 12 overall selection in the first round of the 2003 NFL Draft. He played for the Rams (2003-06), the Chicago Bears (2007), split the 2008 season between the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Minnesota Vikings, and played for the Vikings in 2009 and 2010. He helped the New York Giants win Super Bowl XLVI during the 2011 season.

TAMBA HALI

Defensive end, 2005, Teaneck, New Jersey, selected by the American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Football Foundation. Hali was a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, presented to the nation's top defensive player, and the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award. Hali was a unanimous selection as the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year and first-team All-Big Ten. He led the conference with 11.0 sacks and 17.0 tackles for loss. Hali made 65 tackles, with 17 TFL (minus-86), 11 sacks (minus-79), four pass breakups and a forced fumble, which the Lions recovered in the waning minutes to preserve a 17-10 win over Ohio State. Hali's 36 career TFL are tied for 11th in program history. The first-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2006 NFL Draft, Hali played 12 seasons (2006-17) for the Chiefs. He led the AFC in sacks in 2010 and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015. He is also a two-time second-team All-Pro selection.

PAUL POSLUSZNY

Outside linebacker, 2005 and 2006, Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, selected by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Football Foundation in 2005 and the Associated Press and Walter Camp Football Foundation in 2006. Posluszny became just the second two-time winner of the Chuck Bednarik Award, presented to the nation's top defensive player, in 2006. In 2005, he also won the Butkus Award, presented to the nation's top linebacker and was a finalist for the 2006 honor. The 13th Nittany Lion to be named a two-time first-team All-American, Posluszny also was a two-time finalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award. He was selected Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week a conference-record five times in his career. The Nittany Lions' first two-time team captain since 1968-69, he became Penn State's career tackle leader with 372. A starter in the last 37 games of his career, Posluszny became the first Nittany Lion to lead the team in tackles three times and to post three 100-tackle seasons, recording 116 in 2006. Posluszny also was a two-time first-team ESPN the Magazine Academic All-American and was selected the 2006 Academic All-American of the Year among Division I football players. He and Jeff Hartings (1994-95) are the only Nittany Lions to earn first-team All-America and Academic All-America honors twice. The Buffalo Bills' second pick of the second round in the 2007 NFL Draft, he played four seasons (2007-10) with the Bills and seven seasons for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2011-17).

DAN CONNOR

Linebacker, 2006 and 2007, Wallingford, Pennsylvania, selected by Sporting News in 2006 and the Associated Press, Walter Camp Football Foundation and ESPN.com in 2007. Connor was the recipient of the 2007 Chuck Bednarik Award, presented to the nation's top defensive player, giving Penn State three consecutive recipients of the honor. He also was a finalist for the Butkus Award and was a semifinalist for Walter Camp Player of the Year and the Rotary Lombardi Award. The 14th Nittany Lion to be named a two-time first-team All-American, Connor finished his career as Penn State's all-time leader with 419 tackles. A tri-captain, Connor was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week four times in his career and Walter Camp National Defensive Player of the Week twice in 2007. A starter in the last 33 games of his career, he made 145 stops in 2007, the second-highest total in school season history. Connor was a third-round pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 2008 NFL Draft. His first season with the Panthers was cut short by a torn ACL. He played for Carolina through 2011, with the Dallas Cowboys in 2012 and the New York Giants in 2013 before re-signing with Carolina for the remainder of the 2013 season.

AARON MAYBIN

Defensive end, 2008, Ellicott City, Maryland, selected by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America and Walter Camp Football Foundation. Sporting News and SI.com named him a second-team All-American. Maybin was one of three finalists for the Bednarik Award, presented to the nation's top defensive player, and was selected the 2008 National Defensive Player of the Year by the Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C. He also was among the six finalists for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award. A first-team All-Big Ten selection, Maybin was seventh in the nation with 12 solo sacks and was tied for ninth nationally with 20 tackles for losses. He made 49 tackles (30 solo) and also recorded three pass breakups during the 2008 season. He was the No. 11 overall selection, by the Buffalo Bills, in the 2009 NFL Draft. He played with the Buffalo Bills in 2009-10, the New York Jets (2011-12) and the Toronto Argonauts in the Canadian Football League (2013).

A.Q. SHIPLEY

Center, 2008, Coraopolis, Pennsylvania, selected by ESPN.com, the Football Writers Association of America and the Walter Camp Football Foundation. He also earned second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press and SI.com. Shipley was the recipient of the Dave Rimington Trophy, becoming the first Nittany Lion to be selected the nation's outstanding center since the award's inception in 2000. The 2008 Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year, Shipley anchored Penn State's offensive line, helping the Lions lead the Big Ten in total and scoring offense, ranking second in rushing and third in passing offense. He played a major role in helping Penn State lead the Big Ten (No. 4 in the nation) in fewest sacks allowed in 2008. A co-captain and first-team All-Big Ten selection in 2007 and '08, Shipley started the final 39 games of his career at center. He has played eight seasons in the NFL, including stints with the Indianapolis Colts (2012, 2014), the Baltimore Ravens (2013) and the Arizona Cardinals (2015-19).

Paul Posluszny was a two-time winner of the Bednarik Award and was the first Nittany Lion to lead the team in tackles three times.

JARED ODRICK

Defensive tackle, 2009, Lebanon, Pennsylvania, selected by the American Football Coaches Association and CBSsports.com. He also received All-America honors from the Associated Press, Sporting News and Rivals.com. Odrick became the sixth Penn State defensive lineman to earn first-team All-America accolades since 1999. The Big Ten coaches selected Odrick the 2009 Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Lineman of the Year. He became the first interior defensive lineman selected for the Big Ten's top defensive honor since Dan Wilkinson in 1993. Odrick garnered first-team all-conference honors in consecutive years (2008, 2009). Odrick was fifth on the team with 43 tackles and had 11.0 tackles for loss (minus-72), a blocked field goal in the win at Northwestern during the 2009 season. Odrick played five seasons with the Miami Dolphins after being selected in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft. He played for Jacksonville for two years (2015-16).

STEFEN WISNIEWSKI

Guard, 2010, Bridgeville, Pennsylvania, selected by the American Football Coaches Association. He also received All-America honors from the Associated Press, Walter Camp Football Foundation, CBSsports.com, Rivals.com and Scout.com. Wisniewski became the 11th Penn State offensive lineman to receive first-team All-America honors under Joe Paterno. He was first-team All-Big Ten in 2009 and 2010 and became the Nittany Lions' eighth three-time all-conference honoree. A starter in 38 of the last 39 games of his career, Wisniewski became the program's first three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, earning first-team honors in 2009 and 2010. He also was selected a National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete and was named to the AFCA Good Works Team. Wisniewski, a second-round pick by the Oakland Raiders in 2011, played four seasons with the Raiders before moving to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2015. He was a member of the Super Bowl LII Champion Philadelphia Eagles, whom he played for from 2016-18 and the Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs in 2019. He joined the Pittsburgh Steelers this offseason.

DEVON STILL

Defensive tackle, 2011, Wilmington, Delaware, selected by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, CBSsports.com, ESPN.com, SI.com, Rivals.com, FoxSportsNet.com and Yahoo! Sports. Still became the sixth Penn State defensive lineman to earn first-team All-America accolades since 2002. Still was a finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Outland Trophy. A two-year starter, who overcame two serious injuries early in his career, Still was selected the 2011 Big Ten Smith-Brown Defensive Lineman of the Year and the conference's Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year. He was second in the Big Ten in solo tackles for loss with 15, made 4.5 sacks (minus-36) and recorded 55 total tackles, with one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. He was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft and played three seasons with the Bengals. He also spent one season with the Houston Texans (2016).

MICHAEL MAUTI

Linebacker, 2012, Mandeville, Louisiana, selected by ESPN.com. He was a semifinalist for the Butkus Award and was the Big Ten Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year. Returning to the field after his second serious knee injury, Mauti earned first-team All-Big Ten honors. A passionate leader and team co-captain, Mauti was the only Big Ten player ranked in the top 10 in the conference in tackles (6th, 96), interceptions (7th, 3) and forced fumbles (3rd, 3). He also led the Big Ten in interception return yards (125). Mauti recorded 4.0 TFL, 2.5 sacks (minus-25), three interceptions, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and two pass breakups in 2012. He was selected Penn State's 2012 Outstanding Senior Player. He played for the Minnesota Vikings (2013-14) after being a seventh-round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft. He joined the New Orleans Saints from 2015-17.

ALLEN ROBINSON

Wide receiver, 2013, Southfield, Michigan, selected by Sporting News and CBSsports.com. Robinson also earned second-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America and SI.com and third-team accolades by the Associated Press. The 2012 and 2013 Big Ten Richter-Howard Receiver of the Year, Robinson was the first player since at least 1985 to lead the conference in receptions and receiving yardage in consecutive seasons. His combined 174 receptions and 2,445 receiving yards in 2012-13 rank No. 3 in Big Ten history for consecutive seasons. A semifinalist for the 2013 Biletnikoff Award as a junior, Robinson attained first-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and media in 2012 and '13. He led the Big Ten with school season records in receptions (97) and receiving yardage (1,432) for the second consecutive year. He made six TD catches in 2013 (17 career, fifth place). At the end of his career, Robinson ranked second in school history in career receptions (177) and career receiving yardage (2,474 yards), with numbers compiled almost entirely in the 2012 and 2013 seasons (3 catches for 29 yards in 2011). His eight 100-yard receiving games in 2013 also were a Penn State season record. Allen played for the Jacksonville Jaguars, who selected him in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft, for four seasons (2014-17). He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015. Robinson signed with the Chicago Bears in 2018.

CARL NASSIB

Defensive end, 2015, West Chester, Pennsylvania, selected first-team All-American by American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Associated Press, Sporting News, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSsports.com and Athlon Sports. Nassib became the 13th unanimous consensus All-American in program history and the 41st overall after a superb senior campaign. He was also the winner of the 46th Rotary Lombardi Award for the nation's top lineman (offense or defense) or linebacker, the 14th Ted Hendricks Award for the nation's top defensive end and the Lott IMPACT Trophy for the top defensive player that represent the qualities embodied by Hall of Famer Ronnie Lott – Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. He was named the CBSSports.com National Defensive Player of the Year, as well. Nassib was also a finalist for the Burlsworth Trophy (top player who started his career as a walk-on), the Nagurski Trophy (nation's top defensive player) and Bednarik Award (nation's top defensive player). The West Chester, Pennsylvania native was picked as the Big Ten's Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year and earned first team All-Big Ten honors. Despite playing only four snaps in the last two regular-season games due to injury, Nassib led FBS in sacks (15.5) and forced fumbles (6) and was 11th in FBS and second in the Big Ten in tackles for loss (19.5). He became the first Nittany Lion to lead the nation in sacks and forced fumbles and joined placekicker Matt Bahr (1978) and running back Larry Johnson (2002) as the only Penn Staters to lead the nation in two statistical categories in the same season. He was the first Nittany Lion to lead the country in a statistical category since Larry Johnson's 2002 rushing title. With one sack at Northwestern, Nassib broke the Penn State single-season sacks record by upping his total to 15.5. He surpasses the mark of 15 sacks set by Larry Kubin (1979) and Michael Haynes (2002). Nassib was selected in the third round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns. He played for the Browns from 2016-17, before moving to the Tampa Bay Buccaneer (2018-19). This offseason he signed with the Las Vegas Raiders.

SAQUON BARKLEY

Running back, 2017, Coplay, Pennsylvania, became the 100th first-team All-American in program history after being selected as first-team All-America running back by American Football Coaches Association and Walter Camp Football Foundation and first-team all-purpose player by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, CBSSports.com, ESPN.com, Phil Steele, Sports Illustrated and The Athletic. Barkley became the 14th unanimous consensus All-American in program history and the 42nd overall. He was the recipient of the Paul Hornung Award, as major college football's most versatile player, and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest finish by a Penn State player since 2002. Barkley was also a finalist for the Maxwell Award, Doak Walker Award, Lombardi Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award. He won his second-straight Chicago Tribune Silver Football for the conference's top player, becoming the fifth student-athlete in Big Ten history to win the honor twice since the award's inception in 1924. Barkley also claimed the Big Ten's Graham-George Offensive Player of the Year and Ameche-Dayne Running Back of the Year awards for the second-straight season. In addition, he claimed the Rodgers-Dwight Big Ten Return Specialist of the Year. Barkley finished his career as Penn State's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (43), total touchdowns (53), all-purpose yards (5,538) receiving yards by a running back (1,157), receptions by a running back (102) and finished second in rushing yardage (3,843) and scoring (318). He is the only player in Penn State history and just the fourth Big Ten student-athlete to gain 3,000 rushing and 1,000 receiving yards in a career. Barkley was the No. 2 overall selection in the 2018 NFL Draft by the New York Giants. He was the highest Nittany Lion selected since Courtney Brown was the No. 1 overall pick of the 2000 NFL Draft. He was selected as the NFL's Rookie of the Year in 2018

MICAH PARSONS

Linebacker, 2019, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, tabbed first team All-American by the Associated Press, USA Today, ESPN, the AFCA, Sports Illustrated, Bleacher Report and Pro Football Focus. Parsons became the 43rd overall consensus All-American in program history. The sophomore was voted the Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year in the Big Ten, becoming the first sophomore in Big Ten history to win the award. Parsons was additionally a finalist for the Butkus Award and a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award. During the 2019 campaign, Parsons finished the season with 10 or more tackles in three straight games and six of the final seven games. He ranked fifth in the Big Ten averaging 8.4 tackles per game, while ranking third in the league and sixth nationally forcing 0.31 fumbles per contest. In the Cotton Bowl victory over Memphis, Parsons tied a career high with 14 tackles with 10 of those coming in the first half. He registered a career-high three tackles for loss , two sacks and two forced fumbles against the Tigers. He reached the 100-tackle mark, becoming the first Penn State player since Marcus Allen in 2016 to reach the feat. Parsons finished his career tied for seventh all-time at Penn State with six forced fumbles. Parsons was selected 12th overall in the 2021 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. He was the highest drafted Penn State defensive player since Aaron Maybin went 11th overall to the Buffalo Bills in 2009. Additionally, Parsons was the first Nittany Lion defensive player drafted in the first round since Jared Odrick (2010; 28th overall to the Miami Dolphins) and the first PSU linebacker selected in the first round since LaVar Arrington (2000; second overall to the Washington Redskins).

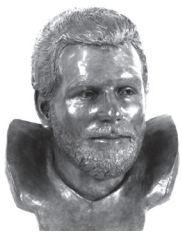
PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES



Jack Ham

Linebacker
Inducted: 1988

Penn State, 1968-70
Pittsburgh Steelers, 1971-82

A second-round draft choice in 1971, Jack Ham played on four Super Bowl title teams and was voted to the All-Pro team nine consecutive seasons in his career in which he made 32 pass interceptions. A unanimous choice for the NFL Team of the Decade for the 1970s, Ham was the 1975 National Football League Defensive Player of the Year.

August Michalske

Guard
Inducted: 1964

Penn State, 1923-25
New York Yankees (AFL), 1926
New York Yankees (NFL), 1927-28
Green Bay Packers, 1929-35, 37

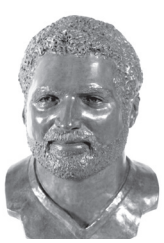
August "Mike" Michalske, who was born in Cleveland, Ohio, joined the New York Yankees of the American Football League after a distinguished career with the Nittany Lions. When the Yankees switched to the National Football League in 1927, he played two more seasons in New York before being traded to the Green Bay Packers, where he was a member of three NFL championship teams (1929-31). Although only 6-0 and 206 pounds, Michalske was an outstanding lead guard on running plays and a feared defender, whose blitzing technique was ahead of its time. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's All-Pro team of the 1920s, Michalske died on Oct. 26, 1983.

Mike Munchak

Guard
Inducted: 2001

Penn State, 1979-81
Houston Oilers, 1982-93

A standout guard for 12 years with the National Football League's Houston Oilers, Mike Munchak was a nine-time Pro Bowl choice in his career (1982-93). From Scranton, Pa., he was the eighth player selected and the first offensive lineman chosen in the 1982 draft. In his third year in the NFL (1984), he was named to the first of his seven American Football Conference all-star teams and was selected All-Pro for the first time. Munchak was the centerpiece of an offensive line which helped the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93), including AFC Central Division titles in 1991 and '93. He retired in 1993 after playing in 159 regular-season games. He joined the Oilers coaching staff in 1994 and was head coach of the Tennessee Titans from 2011-13. Munchak served as the offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2014-18 and is currently the offensive line coach for the Denver Broncos.



Franco Harris

Fullback
Inducted: 1990

Penn State, 1969-71
Pittsburgh Steelers, 1972-83
Seattle Seahawks, 1984

In 13 NFL seasons, Franco Harris rushed for 12,120 yards on 2,949 carries and scored 91 touchdowns. He ranks No. 15 in the NFL in all-time rushing. He topped the 1,000-yard mark eight times and totaled more than 100 yards rushing in 47 games. The Most Valuable Player in Super Bowl IX, Harris was elected to play in nine Pro Bowls. He was the 13th player chosen in the first round of the 1972 NFL Draft. Harris joined teammate Jack Ham on the Pro Football Hall of Fame All-Pro team of the 1970s.

Lenny Moore

Running Back
Inducted: 1975

Baltimore Colts, 1956-67

Lenny Moore's high-stepping style as an offensive centerpiece of the Baltimore Colts' title teams of the late 1950s earned him the nickname "Spats." In 12 seasons, he was a five-time All-Pro, played in seven Pro Bowls and set an NFL record by scoring at least one touchdown in 18 consecutive games. He missed most of the 1963 season and was voted the 1964 Comeback Player of the Year, racking up more than 1,000 yards rushing and receiving and scoring 20 TDs. He had career-highs of 649 rushing yards (7.5 ypc) as a rookie in 1956, and 50 catches and 938 receiving yards in 1958. He scored 113 TDs and gained 12,451 yards of offense in his career. Moore was selected for the Hall of Fame All-Pro squad of the 1950s.

Dave Robinson

Linebacker
Inducted: 2013

Green Bay Packers, 1963-72
Washington Redskins, 1973-74

Dave Robinson was enshrined on August 3, 2013. From Mount Laurel, N.J., Robinson was a 1962 first-team All-American and a three-year letterman, helping Penn State to a 24-8 record from 1960-62, including wins in the 1960 Liberty Bowl and the 1961 Gator Bowl as an offensive and defensive end. The Green Bay Packers selected Robinson in the first round of the 1963 NFL Draft (14th overall). He played linebacker for the Packers from 1963-72 and the Washington Redskins in 1973-74. A three-time Pro Bowl pick (1966-67, 1969) and two-time first-team All-Pro (1967, 1969), he was a starter on three NFL title (1965-67) and Super Bowl (I and II) winning teams. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade team, he intercepted 27 passes in his 12-year career. Robinson, who resides in Akron, Ohio, was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1997 and the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame in 1982.

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

HUGO BEZDEK

Born in Prague, Czechoslovakia on April 1, 1884, Hugo Bezdek was head coach at Penn State for 12 years (1918-29), compiling a 65-30-11 record, including undefeated seasons in 1920 and 1921. A four-year All-American at the University of Chicago, he played fullback in football and second base in baseball. Bezdek enjoyed a 24-year collegiate coaching career in which he also served as head coach at Oregon (1906, 1913-17) and Arkansas (1908-12). His 1917 Oregon squad defeated Pennsylvania, 14-0, in the Rose Bowl. He later managed the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club (1917-19). Bezdek, who died in 1952, was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954 and the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1960.

BILL BOWES

Bowes was a team captain for Hall of Fame coach Rip Engle during the 1964 season. The 1962 squad finished 9-2 and ranked ninth in the Associated Press (AP) and United Press International (UPI) polls, while the 1963 team was 7-3 en route to a final ranking of 16th in the UPI poll. In his senior season, Bowes and the Nittany Lions finished 6-4 and voted down the opportunity to play in the Gator Bowl despite a stunning 27-0 over second-ranked Ohio State and a 28-0 win over Pitt to end the season. Following his graduation, Bowes served as a graduate assistant for the Nittany Lions for the 1965 season before joining the UNH coaching staff. A native of nearby Blanchard, Pennsylvania and Lock Haven High School, Bowes is the winningest coach in Yankee/Atlantic 10 Conference history, posting a 175-106-5 record during his 27 seasons (1972-98) as the head coach at the University of New Hampshire. Bowes took the reigns for the Wildcats in 1972, becoming the youngest head coach in program history. He led UNH to four Yankee Conference championships and guided the Wildcats to the NCAA playoffs four times. Bowes was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame as a coach on December 6, 2016.

JOHN CAPPELLETTI

The 1973 Heisman Trophy winner, John Cappelletti helped the Nittany Lions to a perfect 12-0 season and No. 5 national ranking in both of the major polls. A consensus All-American, Cappelletti rushed for 1,522 yards and 17 touchdowns in 1973. The Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, native put together three straight 200-yard rushing games in the final month of the season, including a high of 220 against NC State. Cappelletti also received the Maxwell Trophy and was selected as Player of the Year by ABC-TV, United Press International, the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association, the Walter Camp Foundation and the Washington Touchdown Club. He played in the Hula and Senior bowl games. Cappelletti's career yardage total of 2,639 still ranks him No. 12 on the Lions' all-time rushing list. His 1973 rushing total is fourth on the school season rushing list to Larry Johnson (2,087), Lydell Mitchell (1,567) and Ki-Jana Carter (1,539). A first-round draft choice of the National Football League Los Angeles Rams, Cappelletti played 10 seasons in the professional ranks, six in Los Angeles and four with the San Diego Chargers. Cappelletti was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 7, 1993.

KERRY COLLINS

A native of West Lawn, Pennsylvania, Kerry Collins was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 4, 2018. He was selected an All-American by the Associated Press, United Press International, The Football News, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp and Sporting News in 1994. He also captured two of college football's major postseason prizes - the Maxwell Award (nation's outstanding player) and the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback). Collins finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting and garnered Player of the Year honors from ABC-TV/Chevrolet and the Big Ten. Collins posted the fourth-best season passing efficiency mark in NCAA history (172.8). At the end of his career, he had broken Penn State season records for total offense (2,660), completions (176), passing yardage (2,679), completion percentage (66.7), yards per attempt (10.15) and passing efficiency (172.86). He also set the mark with 14 consecutive completions at Minnesota, which was broken by Trace McSorley in 2017. Collins was the linchpin of an explosive offense that shattered 14 school records and led the nation in scoring (47.8 ppg) and total offense (520.2 ypg.). The first-round pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 1995 National Football League Draft and the fifth player selected overall, Collins enjoyed a 17-year career in the NFL. He played for Carolina (1995-98), the New Orleans Saints (part of the 1998 season), the New York Giants (1999-2003), Oakland Raiders (2004-05), Tennessee Titans (2006-10) and the Indianapolis Colts (2011). He capped the 2000 season by leading the Giants to Super Bowl XXXV.

Halfback John Cappelletti led Penn State to a 12-0 season in 1973 and won the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Walter Camp awards as the nation's outstanding player. Cappelletti ran for 1,522 yards as a senior and is the only Nittany Lion to rush for 200 yards in three consecutive games. An emotional Cappelletti dedicated the Heisman Trophy to his younger brother, Joey, who was battling leukemia, during a moving acceptance speech that has become part of Penn State and college football lore. Cappelletti was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1993.

SHANE CONLAN

Shane Conlan, the leader of Penn State's outstanding defenses in 1985 and '86, was enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2014. A two-time first-team All-American, Conlan became the 18th former Nittany Lion player and 23rd member of the Penn State football family to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. A senior co-captain in 1986, Conlan was instrumental in Penn State's 23-1 record his last two seasons, with two National Championship game appearances. Conlan capped his career by leading a superlative defensive effort in the 1987 Fiesta Bowl to earn the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player, recording eight tackles and two interceptions to lead Penn State past previously unbeaten Miami, 14-10, for the 1986 national title. A four-year letterman and a three-year starter for Hall of Fame coach Joe Paterno, Conlan was a consensus first-team All-American in 1986. The Buffalo Bills selected Conlan with the No. 8 overall pick in the first round of 1987 NFL Draft and he earned NFL Rookie of the Year and Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. Conlan played nine years in the NFL, attaining three Pro Bowl selections and helping the Bills win three consecutive AFC Championships.

KEITH DORNEY

Keith Dorney, a two-time All-American at tackle for the Nittany Lions in 1977 and 1978, was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in December 2005. He is the 16th former Nittany Lion player so honored and the 20th member of the Penn State football family to earn college football's highest honor. Dorney was selected an All-American by the Football Writers in 1977 and in 1978 by the Associated Press, Football Writers, the American Football Coaches Association, NEA, Sporting News, United Press International and Walter Camp. A native of Allentown, Pennsylvania, he played nine seasons with Detroit (1979-87) of the National Football League.

CHARLES "RIP" ENGLE

Charles A. "Rip" Engle achieved national prominence as Penn State's 13th head coach. A native of Salisbury, Pennsylvania, he was a four-sport standout at Western Maryland College, graduating in 1930. Engle began his coaching career at Waynesboro (Pennsylvania) High School, where he compiled an 86-17-5 mark in 11 years, including three unbeaten seasons and eight conference championships. He joined the staff at Brown in 1942 and was promoted to head coach two years later. Engle was named head coach at Penn State in 1950 and guided the Lions to a 104-48-4 record in 16 years, winning three of four bowl games and three Lambert Trophies. In 1970, Engle won the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for his contributions to football. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1974. Engle died March 7, 1983, in Bellefonte, Pennsylvania. He was born March 26, 1906.

JACK HAM

An All-American in 1970, Jack Ham became the 10th Nittany Lion to be enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame when he was inducted in 1990. Ham was the first Penn State product in both the college and professional football halls of fame (Dave Robinson). A nine-time All-Pro linebacker for the National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers, Ham was enshrined at Canton in 1988. As a senior co-captain in 1970, Ham had 91 tackles and intercepted four passes. He still shares a pair of defensive records for blocked punts: four in his career, three in his final season. He had 251 career tackles (143 solo). A second-round draft choice of the Steelers in 1971, Ham developed into one of the NFL's most outstanding linebackers. He is a Penn State Distinguished Alumni Award recipient.

DICK HARLOW

A Penn State graduate, Dick Harlow served as the Nittany Lions' head coach for three seasons (1915-17), compiling a 20-8 record. A two-year letterman, he also was a member of the baseball and track teams. After leaving Penn State, Harlow was the head coach at Colgate (1922-25), Western Maryland (1926-34) and Harvard (1935-42, 45-47). At Harvard, Harlow was voted Coach of the Year in 1936 and a year later was chosen as the Ivy League Coach of the Year. He was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. A native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Harlow died in 1962. He was born Oct. 19, 1889.

BOB HIGGINS

Bob Higgins, a native of Corning, New York, came to Penn State as a student in 1914 and became one of only five players in the history of Nittany Lion football to earn five letters. An end on Walter Camp's All-America team in 1919, he served as captain as a senior. Higgins also lettered in baseball, boxing and wrestling and played two years of professional football with the Canton Bulldogs. His coaching career included stays at West Virginia Wesleyan University and Washington University in St. Louis, before he returned to Penn State in 1928 as an assistant. Higgins was appointed the Lions' head coach in 1930 and compiled a 91-57-11 record in 19 seasons. His 1947 team was unbeaten in the regular-season and tied SMU, 13-13, in the 1948 Cotton Bowl. Higgins, who died in 1969, was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. He was born Nov. 24, 1893.

GLENN KILLINGER

Glenn Killinger was named to the 1921 Walter Camp All-America team at quarterback after leading Penn State to two straight undefeated seasons. He earned nine letters in football, basketball and baseball. He also coached at Penn State, Dickinson, Rensselaer and Moravian and played professional football with the New York Giants. Killinger joined the faculty at West Chester (Pa.) State College in 1934 and served in various capacities, including head football and baseball coach, athletic director and dean of men. A native of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Killinger died July 25, 1988 in Stanton, Delaware. He was born Sept. 13, 1898.

Ted Kwalick was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

TED KWALICK

Penn State's second two-time All-American, tight end Ted Kwalick was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1989. In his three-year career (1966-68), Kwalick caught 86 passes for 1,343 yards and 10 touchdowns. After making a pair of All-America teams as a junior, Kwalick was a consensus choice as a senior, while finishing fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting. He played in the College All-Star and the Coaches All-America games and the Senior Bowl following his senior season. Kwalick was a 1969 first-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers and enjoyed a distinguished career with the 49ers, Oakland Raiders and, briefly, the Philadelphia Bell of the World Football League, before retiring in 1977. He was a member of the Raiders' Super Bowl XI championship team and was selected to play in three Pro Bowls. In nine NFL seasons, Kwalick averaged 15.3 yards per catch on 168 pass receptions.

RICHIE LUCAS

Richie Lucas, who was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1986, enjoyed an outstanding Penn State career as a two-way player from 1957-59. He won the Maxwell Award, was a first-team All-American at quarterback and was second in the 1959 Heisman Trophy balloting. As a senior, the Glassboro, Pennsylvania, native led Penn State to a 9-2 record and a 7-0 victory over Alabama in the first Liberty Bowl. He led the team in rushing (325 yards) and passed for 913 yards and five touchdowns, completing 58 of 117 passes. He also punted 20 times for a 34.0-yard average and returned five interceptions for 114 yards. Following a brief professional football career, he entered athletic administration at Penn State. He retired in 1998 as an assistant athletic director.

PETE MAUTHE

Pete Mauthe lettered four years (1909-12) at fullback during which time Penn State posted a 26-2-4 record. Mauthe, captain of the 1912 team, also was an outstanding punter and placekicker. As a senior, he kicked a 52-yard field goal and scored 119 points, including 11 touchdowns. Born July 8, 1890 in Turkey City, Pennsylvania, he became president of a mining company in Youngstown, Ohio. Mauthe, who died in 1967, was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1957. He was honored in 1964 as a distinguished alumnus of the University.

SHORTY MILLER

Eugene E. "Shorty" Miller, a 5-foot-5 quarterback who was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1974, earned Walter Camp third-team All-America honors after leading Penn State to an 8-0 record in 1912. A four-year letterman, the Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, native also served as captain of the baseball team. He played several seasons of professional football with Massillon (Ohio) and later served as a highly respected college and professional football official. He died in 1966 after a career as a teacher, coach and administrator in the Harrisburg school system. Miller was born on Nov. 15, 1890.

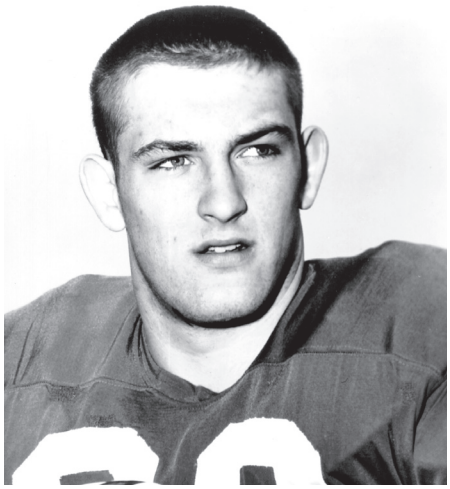
Lydell Mitchell was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

LYDELL MITCHELL

Penn State's long-time season and career touchdowns record-holder, Lydell Mitchell was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 7, 2004. A product of Salem, New Jersey, Mitchell was a standout running back from 1969-71, helping the Nittany Lions to a 29-4 record. He earned first-team All-America accolades and finished fifth in Heisman Trophy balloting in 1971 after breaking three NCAA season records — most touchdowns (29), most rushing TDs (26) and points scored (174). Mitchell ran for 1,567 yards in 1971, a school season record that stood for more than 30 years. At the end of his career, he held Penn State records for touchdowns in a season (29), career touchdowns (41) and career rushing touchdowns (38). Mitchell played in the National Football League with Baltimore (1972-77), San Diego (1978-79) and the Los Angeles Rams (1980).

DENNIS ONKOTZ

One of only 12 Penn State players to be named first-team All-America in consecutive years, Dennis Onkotz was a defensive mainstay of the 1968-69 undefeated teams. A native of Northampton, Pennsylvania, Onkotz amassed 287 tackles, which still ranks seventh on the Lions' career list. His 11 interceptions are tied for 10th in school history. His three interception returns for touchdowns are a career record (since tied by Darren Perry). A versatile athlete who also returned punts, Onkotz's 13.2-yard average on 47 punt returns is No. 8 among the Nittany Lions' best-ever in that department. Onkotz made the 1969 Academic All-America team and was selected to play in the 1970 Hula Bowl. Chosen by the New York Jets in the third round of the 1970 NFL draft, Onkotz was forced to retire from professional football because of a severely broken leg suffered in his rookie season. Onkotz was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 12, 1995.



Mike Reid was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

JOE PATERNO

Joe Paterno's induction into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame took place on December 4, 2007, having been postponed from 2006 due to injuries he sustained in a sideline collision during a November game at Wisconsin. Paterno was scheduled to be among the first active players or coaches inducted into the Hall of Fame. He joined active coaches Bobby Bowden and John Gagliardi as inductees. Paterno and Bowden received the Gold Medal — the Foundation's highest and most prestigious honor — at the 2006 event via a video presentation. Paterno was the 21st member of the Penn State football family to gain induction into the Hall of Fame. From Brooklyn, New York, Paterno joined the Nittany Lions' coaching staff in 1950 soon after his graduation from Brown University. He was named head coach in 1966, introducing his "Grand Experiment" and rapidly turning Penn State into one of the nation's premier programs. A member of the coaching staff for 62 years, 46 as the head coach, Paterno is the winningest coach in the history of major college football, earning a 409-136-3 career record (74.9). Paterno was selected the American Football Coaches Association Coach of the Year an unprecedented five times and led the Nittany Lions to seven unbeaten, untied regular seasons and two National Championships in his 46 seasons. Paterno died from lung cancer at the age of 85 on Jan. 22, 2012 in State College, Pennsylvania.

Joe Paterno was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

MIKE REID

Mike Reid, the only Penn State player to win the Outland Trophy as the "outstanding interior lineman in college football," was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1987. A bulwark of the 1968-69 teams, he was an All-American and All-East choice in 1969, when he recorded 87 tackles and returned an interception for a touchdown against Maryland. He also finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting. Reid enjoyed a varied career at Penn State (1966-69), which included a lead role in the play "Guys and Dolls" and winning the 1967 Eastern heavyweight wrestling title. He starred with Cincinnati in the National Football League (1970-74), winning All-Pro honors twice, before retiring to devote full time to his music career. He has won numerous music awards, including the Grammy Award. Also a Penn State Distinguished Alumni Award recipient, he was named an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award recipient in 1995.

GLENN RESSLER

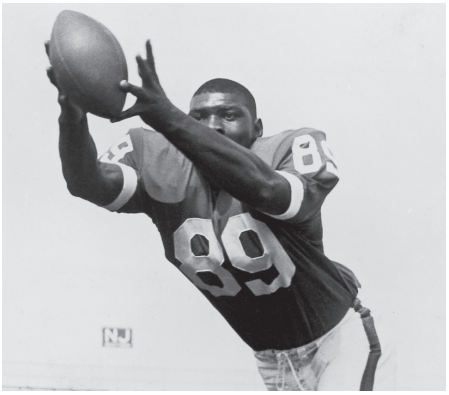
A dominant two-way lineman from 1962-64, Glenn Ressler was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 11, 2001. A native of Dornsife, Pennsylvania, Ressler won three varsity letters, excelling at center and middle guard. In his senior season of 1964, he was a consensus All-American and was the choice of Philadelphia's Maxwell Football Club as the nation's most outstanding player. Ressler played in the East-West Shrine Classic and Hula Bowl following his senior season in 1965. He played for 10 seasons with the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League after being selected in the third round of the 1965 draft. He was a member of the Colts' 1969 Super Bowl team and played on Baltimore's 1971 NFL Championship squad that defeated the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V. Ressler was selected second-team All-NFL in 1968 by the New York Daily News.

DAVE ROBINSON

A dominant two-way end from 1960-62, Dave Robinson was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 9, 1997. A product of Moorestown, New Jersey, Robinson was a three-year letterman playing on both sides of the ball for coach Rip Engle. As a senior in 1962, he led Penn State to a 9-1 regular-season, made 17 receptions for 178 yards and was named a first-team All-America by the Associated Press, NEA, Football Writers (Look), Post and Time magazines. The first-team All-East choice also was named the nation's top collegiate lineman by the Philadelphia Sportswriters. Robinson was a first-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers and became an integral member of Vince Lombardi's squad, helping the Packers to the 1965 NFL Championship and victories in Super Bowls I and II. He was named All-Pro three times, playing for Green Bay from 1963-72 and concluding his career with the Washington Redskins in 1973-74. Robinson was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

STEVE SUHEY

Steve Suhey, whose Penn State career was interrupted by World War II, was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1985. Born on Jan. 8, 1922 in Jamesville, New York, he enrolled in 1941 but left for three years of service in the Pacific with the Army Air Corps, before returning in 1946. He earned All-America honors as a member of the unbeaten 1947 team. He completed his degree while playing two years with Pittsburgh in the National Football League. He later coached at Waynesboro (Pennsylvania) High School before becoming a salesman for the L.G. Balfour Company until his death in 1977 on his 55th birthday. Suhey married the former Virginia Higgins, daughter of his collegiate coach, Bob Higgins. They had seven children, including Larry, Paul and Matt, who were all members of the 1976 Penn State football team.



Dave Robinson is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

DEXTER VERY

Dexter Very, who was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1976, never missed a game in his Penn State career (1909-12). An end who also returned kickoffs, he was named a second-team All-American as a senior and was part of one of college football's earliest passing combinations. Born Nov. 27, 1889 in Fairdale, Pennsylvania, he lost just two bouts in four years as a Nittany Lion wrestler. Very went on to become a collegiate football official and business executive in the Pittsburgh area. He died in 1980 at the age of 90.

CURT WARNER

Penn State's longtime career rushing leader, Curt Warner was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 8, 2009. He was the 17th former Nittany Lion player and 22nd member of the Penn State football family to gain induction into the Hall of Fame. A two-time first-team All-American, the Pineville, West Virginia product made a tremendous impact on the program from 1979-82. He led Penn State in rushing his final three seasons, helping the Nittany Lions compile a 31-5 record, with three bowl wins, including the 1982 National Championship. Upon completion of his career, Warner owned 42 school records, including Penn State career records for rushing yardage (3,398), 100-yard rushing games (18) and all-purpose yards in a game (341), among others. Warner averaged 5.2 yards per carry. He rewrote the school record by gaining 341 all-purpose yards in a victory at Syracuse in 1981, with a career-high 256 rushing yards. He gained a then-school record 4,982 career all-purpose yards. A two-time Fiesta Bowl Offensive Player of the Game, Warner is Penn State's career leader in bowl game rushing with 474 yards. The third player selected overall in the 1983 National Football League Draft, he had a productive eight-year career with the Seattle Seahawks and Los Angeles Rams. Warner owns an automobile dealership and lives in Camas, Washington.

HARRY WILSON

Harry "Light Horse" Wilson enjoyed an outstanding collegiate career and earned All-America recognition as a halfback at both Penn State (1921-23) and Army (1925-26). He led Penn State in scoring for two seasons (1922-23) and scored every touchdown for the Nittany Lions in the final six games of the 1923 season before leading Army in scoring for two consecutive years. Commissioned in 1928, he earned the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with five oak leaf clusters after flying 45 combat missions as a pilot commander in the Army Air Corps in World War II. Born Aug. 6, 1902, he retired from the military in 1956. Wilson, who died on Oct. 26, 1990 in Rochester, New York, was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1973.

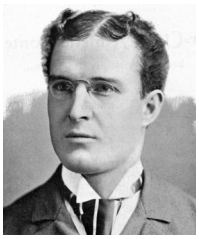
PENN STATE HEAD COACHES



George Hoskins
1892-95

George "Doc" Hoskins served as Penn State's first head coach, while also a player for the Nittany Lions. A three-year letterman at center, he was the athletic trainer at Vermont before being appointed Penn State's first director of physical training and first instructor of physical education. His duties included coaching the football team to a record of 17-4-4. He later was head coach at Bucknell and served as a trainer for the Cincinnati Reds during baseball spring training for 23 years. He died in Cincinnati in 1957.

Samuel Newton
1896-98

Dr. Samuel Newton was Penn State's second head coach. He posted a 12-14 record, while also serving as the director of physical training. A native of Yarmouth, Maine, and a graduate of Williams College and the University of Pennsylvania Medical School, he was a physician and assistant coach at Pennsylvania, when named to the Penn State post. He also compiled a record of 57-28-2 at Lafayette and Lehigh. He retired from coaching after the 1905 season at Lehigh to devote full time to his medical practice.

Sam Boyle

Sam Boyle coached Penn State for just one season, but led the Nittany Lions to a 6-0 victory at Army to highlight a 4-6-1 campaign. It would be 60 years before Penn State won again at West Point. A three-year letterman at Pennsylvania, he coached at Dickinson the following season (1900), during which his squad downed Penn State, 18-0.

Pop Golden
1900-02

William Nelson "Pop" Golden compiled a 16-12-1 record in three seasons before being named Penn State's first athletic director. A Chicago native, he remained on the football staff as an assistant coach until 1909 and served as a recruiter for two years. He was the athletic trainer at Purdue and was in charge of physical education at YMCAs in Syracuse, New York, and Johnstown and Williamsport, Pennsylvania, before taking the Penn State position. He died in 1949 at the age of 81 in Pittsburgh after enjoying a successful career in insurance sales.

Dan Reed

Dan Reed led Penn State to a 5-3 record in his only season as head coach, including wins over Pittsburgh (59-0) and Navy (17-0). A two-year letterman at Cornell for the legendary Pop Warner, Reed later served as a Cornell assistant coach (1910-11). Reed, who also was on the Cornell track and wrestling teams, turned to politics after his coaching career. He was elected to Congress, where he served on the Ways and Means Committee. He died in 1959.

Tom Fennell
1904-08

Tom Fennell was named Penn State's first full-time head coach in 1904 and compiled a 33-17-1 record in five seasons. He was hired exclusively to coach football and held no additional duties. A graduate of Cornell, where he was a standout in football, Fennell gave up the Penn State post after the 1908 season. He returned to law practice in Elmira, New York, and later become a judge.

Bill Hollenback
1909, 1911-14

Bill Hollenback became the youngest head coach in the nation, when, at 23, he was named Penn State's head coach in 1909. He capped his senior year at Pennsylvania the previous season as captain and being named to the Walter Camp All-America team at fullback. He guided Penn State, in its initial year of play at Beaver Field, to its first unbeaten season (5-0-2) since 1893. He was lured to Missouri in 1910, but returned to lead the Nittany Lions to undefeated records in 1911 and 1912. He ended his Penn State career after the 1914 season with a record of 28-9-4.

Jack Hollenback

Jack Hollenback coached Penn State for one season (1910), when his brother, Bill, took the head position at Missouri. The Nittany Lions were 5-2-1 in a season which saw admission charged for the first time when Penn State met Bucknell on Nov. 12 at Beaver Field. A Pennsylvania graduate in dentistry, Hollenback also coached at Franklin & Marshall (1908-09) and at the Pennsylvania Military College (Widener) in 1911 before opening a dental practice in Philipsburg, Pennsylvania. He later joined his brother in the coal brokerage business in Philadelphia. Hollenback died in 1959 at the age of 75.

Dick Harlow
1915-17

Dick Harlow was the first Penn State graduate to serve as head coach, compiling a 20-8 record in three seasons. A two-year letterman, he also was a member of the baseball and track teams. He later served as head coach at Colgate (1922-25), Western Maryland (1926-34) and Harvard (1935-42, 45-47). He was recognized as Coach of the Year in 1936. A Philadelphia native, Harlow, who died in 1962, was named to the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1954.

Hugo Bezdek

Hugo Bezdek, a native of Prague, Czechoslovakia, posted a 65-30-11 record in 12 seasons (1918-29) as head coach, including consecutive undefeated seasons (1920-21). He also served as athletic director from 1918-36. Bezdek gained All-American status at Chicago, where he was a fullback in football and second baseman in baseball. His collegiate coaching experience included head jobs at Oregon (1906, 13-17), where his team defeated Pennsylvania, 14-0, in the 1917 Rose Bowl; and Arkansas (1908-12). He also managed the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball club (1917-19) and was head coach of the NFL's Cleveland Rams (1937-38). Bezdek, who died in 1952, was named to the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1954 and the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1960.

Bob Higgins

Bob Higgins served 19 years as head coach, compiling a record of 91-57-11, including an unbeaten season in 1947. A native of Corning, New York, he entered Penn State in 1914 and became one of only five players in school history to letter five years. He served as captain of the team as a senior when he was named to the 1919 Walter Camp All-American team. He also lettered in baseball, boxing and wrestling. Following two years of professional football with the Canton Bulldogs, he began his coaching career, which included stops at West Virginia Wesleyan and Washington University in St. Louis. He joined the Penn State staff in 1928 as an assistant coach. Higgins, who died in 1969, was named to the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1954.

Joe Bedenk

Joe Bedenk led Penn State to a record of 5-4 in his only season as head coach. A 1924 Penn State graduate from Williamsport, Pennsylvania, he lettered three years at guard and captained the 1923 squad. He also served as baseball coach, compiling a record of 410-161-6 from 1931-62. Nine of his baseball teams played in the NCAA Tournament and three appeared in the College World Series, including 1957, when the Nittany Lions placed second. Bedenk was elected to the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and was one of the founders of the American Association of College Baseball Coaches. He lived in State College, Pennsylvania, following his retirement in 1963, until his death in 1978.

Charles A. "Rip" Engle

"Rip" Engle achieved national prominence as Penn State's 13th head coach, compiling a record of 104-48-4 over 16 seasons (1950-65). His teams won three of four bowl games and the Lambert Trophy three times. A native of Salisbury, Pennsylvania, Engle was a four-sport standout at Western Maryland, graduating in 1930. He posted an 86-17-5 record in 11 seasons at Waynesboro (Pa.) High School, before joining the staff at Brown in 1942. He was named head coach in 1944 and led the Bears until coming to Penn State in 1950. Engle won the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for his contributions to football and was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1974. Following his retirement, he lived in State College, Pennsylvania, until his death on March 7, 1983.

Joe Paterno
1966-2011

An assistant coach on Rip Engle's staff for 16 years, Joe Paterno was named Penn State's 14th head coach on February 19, 1966. Paterno was the Nittany Lions' head coach for 46 years, the longest tenure by a major college coach at one institution, and a member of the Lions' coaching staff for an unprecedented 62 years. He was among the first three active coaches to be inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 2007. Paterno is the winningest coach in major college football history, compiling a 409-136-3 career record (74.9). He led Penn State to National Championships in 1982 and 1986, Big Ten titles in 1994, 2005 and 2008 and seven unbeaten, untied regular seasons. Creator of "The Grand Experiment," his teams annually were among the national leaders in graduation rates and 47 of the student-athletes who played under his direction earned Academic All-America honors. Paterno passed away on January 22, 2012.

Bill O'Brien

Bill O'Brien was named the Nittany Lions' 15th head coach on January 6, 2012 and quickly established his vision and continued the program's athletic and academic success during the most challenging period in the University's history. Amidst an unprecedented situation in college athletics, O'Brien's work ethic and no-nonsense approach guided the team to two of the most rewarding seasons in program history. The Nittany Lions posted records of 8-4 and 7-5 during his two seasons, with a 10-6 Big Ten record, including a 6-2 mark in 2012. O'Brien's eight wins in 2012 were the most by a first-year coach in school history and led to numerous honors, including Bear Bryant and ESPN Coach of the Year and the Maxwell Football Club Collegiate Coach of the Year. He also was the Big Ten Dave McClain Coach of the Year. O'Brien came to Penn State after helping the New England Patriots to two Super Bowls from 2007-11, serving as quarterbacks coach the last three years. O'Brien was named head coach of the NFL's Houston Texans on January 3, 2014.

James Franklin

James Franklin, a 27-year football coaching veteran, was appointed Penn State's 16th head football coach on January 11, 2014 and enters his 12th season as a collegiate head coach. Franklin's career head coaching record is 91-49 and is one of only five current FBS coaches to lead his team to a bowl game in each of his first nine seasons as a head coach. Franklin attributes his success on the field to the strength of his teams' dedication to four core values: positive attitude, great work ethic, compete in everything you do and must be willing to sacrifice. Under Franklin's direction, Penn State has finished in the top 12 of the final College Football Playoff rankings in four of the last six seasons, has earned berths in three New Year's Six bowl games with two wins and won the 2016 Big Ten Championship. Franklin has guided the Nittany Lions to an 86 percent graduation success rate, a perfect single-year 1,000 APR for the 2018-19 school year and record-breaking performances in the classroom.

HOME OF THE NITTANY LIONS

Beaver Stadium, the home of the Nittany Lions, is one of the nation's premier football venues.

Installation of seating to meet standards established by the Americans with Disabilities Act before the 2011 season resulted in a reduction of the stadium's capacity to 106,572.

An expansion and renovation prior to the 2001 season added more than 12,000 seats, increasing the stadium's capacity to 107,282 and easing the waiting list for season ticket requests from Penn State fans.

The second-largest stadium in the nation, the renovation and expansion added restrooms and concession facilities, new scoreboards with video screens, and improved handicap access and pedestrian circulation patterns. Among the most visible additions to the venue were 60 skyboxes in a three-level structure erected above the east stands and an 11,500-seat two-tier upper deck located in the south end zone.

Beaver Stadium has more than doubled in size since it was moved from its former site northeast of Rec Hall on the west side of campus to the east end of the campus in 1960.

Originally built in a horseshoe configuration seating 46,284, the stadium now towers 110 rows on the east side, 100 rows on the west, 60 in the lower end zones, 35 in the north upper deck, 20 in the club level above the south end zone and 25 in the south upper deck.

The Nittany Lions dedicated Beaver Stadium with a 20-0 victory over Boston University on Sept. 17, 1960. Penn State halfback Eddie Caye scored the venue's first touchdown at 10:45 of the first quarter.

Additions of more than 2,000 seats in 1969 and more than 9,000 in 1972 raised the seating capacity to 57,538. Expanded bleachers in the south end zone in 1976 increased the seating capacity to 60,203.

A uniquely engineered expansion project during the winter, spring and summer of 1978 added more than 16,000 seats, upping the capacity to 76,639. The stadium was cut into sections, raised eight feet by hydraulic jacks and precast concrete seating forms inserted within the inner circle of the stadium, where a running track previously was located.

In 1980, expansion increased the capacity to 83,770. Lights were added in 1984. In 1985, the addition of walkways around the tops of the end zones and entry ramps at the four corners resulted in reducing the capacity to 83,370.

The addition of a 10,033-seat upper deck in the north end zone in 1991 and portable seats on the north end zone concourse increased the stadium's capacity to 93,967.

Penn State's first permanent football venue was Beaver Field, located between the present-day Osmond and Frear laboratories in the center of campus. Before that, games were played on the Old Main lawn.

The first game at 500-seat Beaver Field was played on Nov. 6, 1893 against Western University of Pittsburgh (later to become the University of Pittsburgh). The 32-0 Penn State victory was delayed two days because of bad weather and played on a Monday afternoon.

New Beaver Field, located near Rec Hall, was dedicated in 1909 with a 31-0 win over Grove City. Originally constructed of wood, the stadium was converted to steel in 1936. The area also contained facilities for baseball, lacrosse, soccer, and track and field.

New Beaver Field was the Nittany Lions' home through the 1959 season, after which the 30,000-seat facility was dismantled in 700 pieces and moved one mile to the east side of campus. There it was reassembled with 16,000 new seats to form Beaver Stadium.

The stadium is named in honor of James A. Beaver. A lawyer in nearby Bellefonte at the outbreak of the Civil War, he enlisted in the Union Army as a second lieutenant and rose to the rank of brigadier general prior to his discharge in 1864. Beaver, who died in 1914, served as a superior court judge, governor of Pennsylvania and president of the University's Board of Trustees. He is credited with being among the most influential leaders in the development of the University at the turn of the century.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

SIGNIFICANT DATES IN PENN STATE FOOTBALL HISTORY

Penn State's first varsity football team began play in 1887 and recorded shutouts of nearby Bucknell in its only two games that season.

February 22, 1855 — Pennsylvania Governor James Pollock signs the charter creating the Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania with its location to be determined.

September 1855 — Two-hundred acres of farm land outside the village of Centre Furnace in Centre County are chosen as the location of the Farmers' High School after a review committee, headed by Governor James Pollock, visits other proposed sites in Allegheny, Butler, Erie and Perry counties.

February 16, 1859 — Sixty-nine students show up for the first day of classes at the new Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania.

1862 — The Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania is given a new name as the Agriculture College of Pennsylvania in anticipation of being given official recognition as a land grant college under the federal Morrill Act.

1874 — The name of the college is officially changed to Pennsylvania State College. The town's post office takes the name State College.

November 12, 1881 — Penn State College students organize a football team without administration support and play the first game against the University of Lewisburg (renamed Bucknell University in 1896) in Lewisburg. Penn State wins, 9-0, in a cold, sleet-like drizzle.

September 1887 — George "Lucy" Linsz arrives on campus as a freshman and, with the help of fellow freshman Charles Hildebrand, gets approval from President George Atherton to organize the first official football team for Penn State College.

Fall 1887 — Pink and Black are picked as the team colors.

November 12, 1887 — The first official game is played against Bucknell at Lewisburg. Penn State wins, 54-0.

November 19, 1887 — The first home game is played on Old Main lawn. Captain and quarterback "Lucy" Linsz scores three second-half touchdowns to lead Penn State to a 24-0 win over Bucknell.

Fall 1888 — The team colors are changed to blue and white. A Student Athletic Association is formed to help support athletics with three divisions, including football, baseball and general.

November 11, 1889 — Penn State is handed its worst all-time defeat, 106-0, by Lehigh at Bethlehem. Penn State plays the first half with only nine players; the referee mercifully stops the game with five minutes left to play.

March 18, 1890 — Blue and white are formally adopted as the college colors at a meeting of the Athletic Association.

November 7, 1891 — Penn State plays its biggest game since 1887 against Bucknell for the lead in the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Foot-Ball Association and loses a mistake-prone game, 12-10.

January 9, 1892 — Penn State is awarded the first championship of the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Foot-Ball Association after finishing with a 4-1 league record, edging out "bitter rival" Bucknell (3-1-1).

January 1892 — George "The General" Hoskins is hired as the first "official" head football coach and first director of physical training for the Athletic Association.

Spring 1892 — Football players participate in the first spring practice as George Hoskins stresses physical conditioning and teamwork.

November 6, 1893 — Beaver Field (later known as Old Beaver Field) is dedicated with General James Beaver and his wife present, as Penn State plays its first game against Pitt, then known as Western University of Pennsylvania, and wins easily, 32-0. Funding of $15,000 from the State Legislature helps in the construction of the venue, including a 500-seat grandstand, located between present-day Osmond and Frear laboratories in center campus.

October 13, 1894 — Charlie Atherton sets four all-time records that still stand in the opening game, a 60-0 win against Gettysburg. Atherton kicks 10-of-10 extra point attempts to set the game extra points record for accuracy, points and attempts, and also adds three touchdowns for the most points in a game by a senior (32).

November 10, 1894 — Bill Suter establishes a Penn State record for the longest touchdown run from scrimmage with a 90-yard dash around right end for the only Penn State touchdown in a 6-6 tie with Navy in Annapolis. The record was not broken until 2014 when Bill Belton scored a 92-yard touchdown in a 12-7 win at Indiana.

November 24, 1894 — Charlie Atherton kicks one of the first placements from scrimmage in the history of college football; his 25-yard boot in a 9-6 win over Oberlin is ignored by historians.

November 29, 1894 — Penn State finishes its first unbeaten season with a 14-0 win over the Pittsburgh Athletic Club and a final 6-0-1 record.

Summer 1896 — George Hoskins resigns as "head coach" to become coach at Pitt and Dr. Sam Newton is hired as his replacement.

September 1897 — "Henny" Scholl introduces the first helmet during fall practice. It actually is a derby hat with the brim cut off and rags stuffed inside for padding. It gets little usage. The Athletic Association sets a mandatory student fee of $2 to support athletic programs, including football.

October 30, 1897 — The "Hidden Ball Trick" is used for the first time in intercollegiate football by Cornell against Penn State in a game at Ithaca. Cornell wins, 45-0.

Fall 1898 — The school's loosely organized drum and bugle corps expands to create a full-sized Cadet Band, which later changes its name to the Blue Band.

December 1898 — Junior guard "Brute" Randolph becomes the first Penn State player named to the All-America team, when selected by Walter Camp for the 1898 third team.

Spring-Fall 1899 — Dr. Sam Newton resigns as "head coach" to coach at Lafayette. Sam Boyle of the University of Pennsylvania is hired as "head coach" but leaves at the end of the season.

October 7, 1899 — Star quarterback Earl Hewitt runs back a punt 65 yards for the only touchdown, then makes a game-saving tackle on the Penn State six-yard line late in the game as Penn State upsets Army, 6-0, in the first meeting of the two teams at West Point. Penn State will not beat Army again for 60 years.

Summer 1900 — William "Pop" Golden is hired as head coach and director of physical training for the Athletic Association.

October 1903 — Pop Golden is chosen as the school's first unofficial athletic director and gives up the position of head coach of the football team. Dan Reed of Cornell is hired as head coach for the last month of the season and decides not to return in 1904.

October 24, 1903 — In the first game at Pitt, Carl Forkum scores 39 points on five TDs and 9-of-10 PATs and Irish McIlveen scores two touchdowns — one on a 56-yard run — as Penn State clobbers Pitt, 59-0, in what would be the biggest margin of victory in the series for 65 years.

Winter 1904 — Tom Fennell, Cornell star of the 1890s, is hired as the first full-time head coach.

October 1, 1904 — Carl Forkum sets the all-time kickoff return record with a 115-yard runback for a touchdown in a 50-0 win over Allegheny.

November 3, 1905 — Penn State sets a team scoring record with a 73-0 win over Geneva at Beaver Field as nine players score touchdowns.

October 6, 1906 — Penn State wins one of its biggest games ever with a 4-0 victory over the Carlisle Indians before 4,000 fans at Williamsport as freshman "Bull" McCleary kicks a 35-yard field goal for the only points.

October 20, 1906 — Ed Cyphers runs the "wrong way" after recovering a blocked kick during the big game with Yale in New Haven and his "bad luck" error helps lose the game, 10-0. It will be the only defeat of the season.

November 29, 1906 — The first of Penn State's outstanding teams compiles an 8-1-1 record after beating Pitt, 6-0, on Thanksgiving Day in Pittsburgh on a touchdown in the last 30 seconds, setting a record of nine shutouts that remains the all-time best for the Nittany Lions.

December 1906 — Center William "Mother" Dunn becomes Penn State's initial first-team All-American when selected by Walter Camp.

March 17, 1907 — Senior H.D. "Joe" Mason advocates adopting a Lion as the college mascot in an article in the humor magazine Lemon. Mason says the idea evolved when he was a freshman baseball player during a 1904 game with the Princeton Tigers, and that he answered taunts by Princeton players that the "king of the beasts" — Lions — roamed the Nittany Valley until becoming extinct from hunting by Indians and settlers. Penn State beat Princeton that day in 1904, 9-1. Students later vote to adopt a mountain Lion as the mascot, and Penn State becomes the first college to use Lion as its symbol.

October 26, 1907 — Penn State sets a team scoring record with a 75-0 win over Lebanon Valley at Beaver Field. Sophomore "Bull" McCleary scores five touchdowns in the game, setting a season scoring record of 13 touchdowns (which remained the record until broken by Charlie Pittman in 1968).

November 28, 1907 — Penn State's former football captains and managers meet in Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving evening to form an organization that becomes the forerunner of today's Varsity Letterman's Club.

September 19, 1908 — Penn State loses its first and only game on Old Beaver Field in a shocking 6-5 upset by Bellefonte Academy.

November 7, 1908 — A record crowd of several thousand (exact figure unknown) turns out as Penn State plays the final game on Old Beaver Field, beating Bucknell, 33-6. The victory is the 48th against only one defeat on the playing field.

Spring-Summer 1909 — Tom Fennell resigns as head coach and Bill Hollenback, All-American fullback and captain of the 1908 University of Pennsylvania team, is hired as his replacement with the title of "advisory coach." Former Penn State player and then current baseball coach "Irish" McIlveen is given the title of "head coach."

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

September 1909 — Penn State's first great recruiting class enters school and starts football practice. The recruits include two future members of the College Football Hall of Fame — Pete Mauthe and Dexter Very.

October 2, 1909 — Two major milestones in Penn State football history take place as Penn State records its 100th all-time victory and the first game is played at New Beaver Field near Rec Hall. A crowd of 500 sees Penn State beat Grove City, 31-0, with Captain Larry Vorhis, the quarterback, scoring the first touchdown and kicking a field goal.

October 9, 1909 — Penn State gives up the lead on a two-point safety in the last minute to allow Pop Warner's Carlisle Indians to gain an 8-8 tie before 10,000 at the neutral site of Wilkes-Barre. A major brawl breaks out after the game when Penn State and Carlisle players fight over which team gets the "victory" ball.

October 23, 1909 — After 15 consecutive defeats since the series began in 1890, Penn State ties Pennsylvania, 3-3, at Franklin Field. The Nittany Lions go on to finish the year at 5-0-2 for their second undefeated season in history.

Summer 1910 — Bill Hollenback resigns to accept a one-year position as head coach at Missouri. Hollenback's older brother, Jack, takes over as "advisory coach" and McIlveen continues as "head coach."

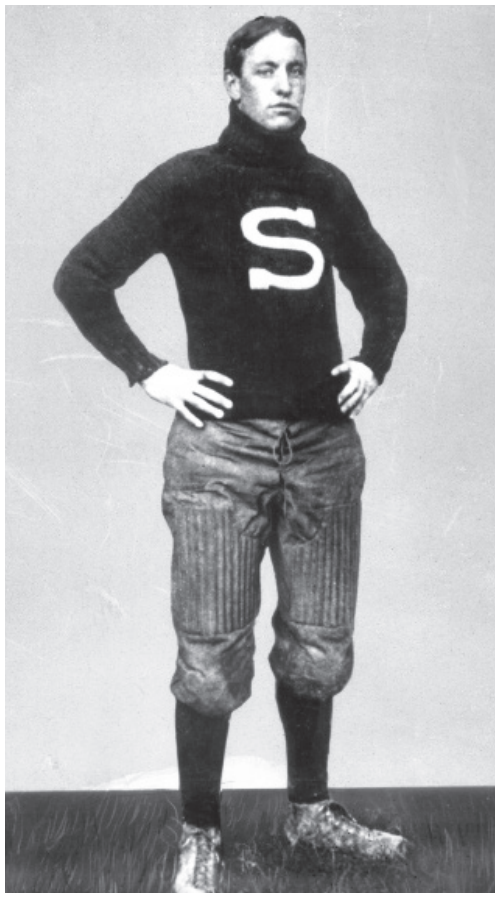
November 12, 1910 — An admission fee is charged at a home game for the first time as Penn State beats Bucknell, 45-3.

Summer 1911 — Bill Hollenback returns from Missouri to again become coach, still with the title of "advisory coach." Former star running back and 1908 captain "Bull" McCleary is named "head coach."

October 14, 1911 — Penn State pulls off a major upset over Cornell, 5-0, in Ithaca, touching off a riot in State College that has been called the worst in history following a football game. Students and townspeople fight with fists, clubs and shovels throughout the streets and alleys of the borough after which school officials apologized.

October 28, 1911 — Penn State beats Pennsylvania for the first time, 22-6, as "Shorty" Miller shocks the crowd of 15,000 at Franklin Field by running back the opening kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown.

December 12, 1911 — New eligibility rules are adopted by the Athletic Association requiring athletes to finish their education in four years and eliminating rules that allowed athletes to take less credit hours than the minimum requirements for a freshman.



Center W.T. "Mother" Dunn was selected Penn State's initial first-team All-American in 1906. The team captain led Penn State to an 8-1-1 record, with eight shutout victories.

Spring 1912 — Pop Golden resigns as unofficial athletic director to enter private business.

Summer 1912 — Bill Hollenback is formally given the title "head coach."

October 12, 1912 — The largest crowd at New Beaver Field since its opening in 1909 — 4,000 fans — watches as Penn State beats Washington & Jefferson, 30-0. Pete Mauthe kicks three field goals to set the record for most field goals in a game.

November 16, 1912 — Penn State "upsets" Ohio State at Columbus in the first game between the two teams by the unofficial score of 37-0. The Buckeyes walk off the field with nine minutes left to play claiming "unnecessary roughness" and the score is officially recorded as a 1-0 forfeit.

November 28, 1912 — Penn State's greatest team to date beats Pitt, 38-0, on Thanksgiving Day at Forbes Field to finish with an 8-0 record, outscoring opponents 256-6 and ending a two-year run of 16-0-1. Pete Mauthe sets the record for the longest field goal with a 51-yard boot. The kick remains the record until broken by Chris Bahr in 1975. Mauthe scores a total of 20 points, with two touchdowns and five extra points. Mauthe also sets an individual season scoring record of 119 points, that is not broken until 1971, with 11 touchdowns, 8 field goals and 29 PATs.

February 5, 1913 — A rule is adopted by the Athletic Association requiring athletes to "be in good standing for a four-year collegiate course." This tightened eligibility requirement eliminated the so-called "tramp athlete" who would be on a campus for only one year to play a specific sport while taking a few courses and then move on to another college.

Fall 1913 — A new fight song called "Victory" ("Fight, Fight, Fight, For the Blue and White") is introduced by its author, undergraduate Jimmy Leydon, and sung at all football games.

October 4, 1913 — "Shorty" Miller sets the game rushing record that lasts 68 years with 250 yards, including five touchdowns on runs of 23, 55, 47, 37 and 40 yards as Penn State beats Carnegie Tech, 49-0, at New Beaver Field in the 1913 season opener.

November 8, 1913 — Penn State loses its first game at New Beaver Field before a record crowd of "several thousand" in its first ever major intersectional game and first game against Notre Dame. The Fighting Irish win, 14-7, in a game that ends with a controversial referee decision nullifying a Penn State touchdown. Knute Rockne catches a touchdown pass from Gus Dorias for Notre Dame that helps end Penn State's 20-game home unbeaten streak.

October 25, 1914 — Penn State stops Harvard's 22-game winning streak with a 13-13 tie at Cambridge, as Harvard, considered the best team in the country, rallies on a trick-play touchdown in the last minutes of the game. A celebration on campus two days later causes injuries and major damage to school buildings as a bonfire explodes.

November 13, 1914 — A record crowd of 10,000, including governor John K. Tener, watch on Pennsylvania Day as Penn State loses its second major intersectional game at New Beaver Field in its first game with Michigan State, 6-3.

December 1914 — Bill Hollenback resigns as head coach to enter private business in Philadelphia.

January 2, 1915 — Assistant coach Dick Harlow becomes the first former Penn State player to be named as official head coach of the football team.

December 1, 1915 — Sophomore end Bob Higgins becomes the first Penn State underclassman to earn first-team All-American honors when picked by International News Service.

November 4, 1916 — Penn State breaks a nine-year-old scoring record with a 79-0 rout over Geneva at New Beaver Field.

October 6, 1917 — Junior Harry Robb sets a Penn State record that has never been broken for most touchdowns in a game with six in an 80-0 rout of Gettysburg at New Beaver Field, as the team again shatters the game scoring record.

October 13, 1917 — Penn State breaks its one-week old team scoring record with a 99-0 win over St. Bonaventure at New Beaver Field. Nine players score touchdowns, including three by Harry Robb.

November 17, 1917 — Harry Robb ties "Bull" McCleary's season record for touchdowns with 13 by scoring three touchdowns as Penn State plays Maryland for first time and wins, 57-0, at New Beaver Field.

July 1918 — Dick Harlow asks out of his contract as head coach to enter military service. He says he will return.

July 18, 1918 — Lt. Levi Lamb, a star lineman on the teams of 1912-14, is killed near Soissons, France, while leading his Army platoon against a German stronghold. He is one of two former players to die in World War I as 1912 teammate Red Bebout is killed on a French battlefield on Sept. 29, 1918.

August 25, 1918 — Hugo Bezdek, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club, is hired as head football coach and director of physical education with supervision over intercollegiate sports.

November 27, 1918 — Penn State completes an unusual season because of World War I by losing, 28-6, at Pitt and finishing with a 1-2-1 record.

Fall 1919 — Dick Harlow returns to Penn State to serve as assistant coach to Hugo Bezdek.

October 4, 1919 — A new song — "The Nittany Lion" — is introduced at the opening game against Gettysburg at New Beaver Field. The first words, "Hail to the Lion, Loyal and True," written by Jimmy Leyden, will become familiar to generations of Penn State fans.

November 27, 1919 — End Bob Higgins takes a flat-pass near his own goal line from Bill Hess on a fake punt and officially runs 92 yards for a touchdown to set a Penn State record as the longest pass play in history until broken in 2018 by quarterback Sean Clifford and wide receiver Daniel George. Some sportswriters covering the game recorded the run at 95 yards. The surprise play helps Penn State down Pitt, 20-0, to finish with its best season since 1912, but Penn State will not beat Pitt again for 20 years.

September 25, 1920 — New wood grandstands are added to New Beaver Field's East side, raising the seating capacity to 5,500, but only 2,500 show up for the season-opening 27-7 victory over Muhlenberg.

October 9, 1920 — On the first alumni "Home-Coming" day, a record standing-room crowd of 12,000 turns out to see Penn State beat Dartmouth, 14-7.

October 16, 1920 — In only the third major intersectional game at New Beaver Field, and the first since 1914, Penn State clobbers NC State, 41-0.

October 23, 1920 — Penn State sets the all-time team scoring record with a 109-7 win over Lebanon Valley at New Beaver Field, coming back from a 7-0 first-quarter deficit. Charley Way scores three touchdowns in the first quarter to lead the rout.

November 6, 1920 — Penn State wins its fourth major intersectional game at New Beaver Field in its first game against Nebraska, 20-0, on Pennsylvania Day. Glenn Killinger and Charley Way combine to lead the team as each scores a TD and Killinger passes for another.

September 24, 1921 — New Beaver Field opens its first press box, located atop the West stands. The press box is used for the first time in a 53-0 season-opening win over Lebanon Valley.

October 22, 1921 — Penn State gives up a touchdown in the fourth-quarter darkness at Cambridge as heavily favored Harvard manages to come back for a 21-21 tie in a game many sportswriters at the time called "one of the greatest football games ever."

October 29, 1921 — In the first Penn State game played in New York City, Penn State easily beats national power Georgia Tech, 28-7, at the Polo Grounds as Glenn Killinger's 85-yard kickoff for a touchdown breaks open the game and helps make him a first-team All-American.

December 3, 1921 — Penn State plays its first game on the West Coast, beating Washington, 21-7, before 35,000 in Seattle to complete an 8-0-2 season and its 24th straight game without a defeat.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

Spring 1922 — Dick Harlow quits as assistant coach after a final dispute with Hugo Bezdek and becomes head coach at Colgate.

September 23, 1922 — The New Beaver Field seating capacity is increased to 12,000 as the 1922 season opens with a 54-0 victory over St. Bonaventure.

October 27, 1922 — Ten surviving members of the first official team in 1887 are honored in New York City by the Alumni Association as the "founders" of Penn State football.

October 28, 1922 — The Nittany Lion mascot makes its first appearance on the field dressed in an African Lion uniform during Penn State's first game against Syracuse played at New York's Polo Grounds. Dick Hoffman, Class of '23, dresses in the uniform of a maned African Lion that he had worn while appearing in the Penn State Players' production of George Bernard Shaw's "Androcles and the Lion." Penn State and Syracuse battle to a 0-0 tie before a crowd of 25,000.

November 3, 1922 — Navy uses a fake punt and fumble recovery to end Penn State's 30-game unbeaten streak, 14-0, before 35,000 spectators at Washington's American League Park. Dozens of congressional, government and foreign leaders and many of college football's leading coaches, players and sportswriters are in attendance.

January 1, 1923 — Penn State plays in its first bowl game, the 1923 Rose Bowl at Pasadena, and loses to USC, 14-7, but receives $21,350 for participating in the game. It is the first Rose Bowl played at its present site in Pasadena's Arroyo Seco area and the first appearance in the game by USC. This also is the first time a Penn State game and a postseason bowl game is broadcasted on radio when Los Angeles radio station KHJ does it. The contemporary Los Angeles Times reported that the broadcast was sent by telephone lines to many stations in the east, including KDKA in Pittsburgh.

September 29, 1923 — Additional wooden bleachers are constructed at New Beaver Field, raising the seating capacity to 13,500. Just 3,000 turn out to see Penn State beat Lebanon Valley, 58-0, in the season opener.

October 20, 1923 — A New Beaver Field attendance record of 20,000 is set as Penn State upsets unbeaten Navy, 21-3, in the Homecoming game. "Light Horse" Harry Wilson has his greatest game, rushing for 123 yards and scoring all three Penn State touchdowns with a 55-yard interception return, a 95-yard kickoff return and a 72-yard run off a fake reverse.

Spring 1924 — Bas Gray becomes the first junior elected team captain.

September 15, 1924 — The football team moves into new Varsity Hall, across the street from New Beaver Field. Varsity Hall includes dormitory rooms, a training table and football locker room. The building name is later changed to Irvin Hall after athletes move out and now is an undergraduate residence hall.

October 25, 1924 — Penn State's 29-game winning streak at New Beaver Field comes to an end as Syracuse wins the Homecoming game, 10-6. The streak began after a loss to Rutgers during World War I in 1918.

November 7, 1925 — Penn State surprises Notre Dame by tying the Irish, 0-0, in driving rain and mud on Homecoming at New Beaver Field before a record-breaking crowd reported as 25,000 by several newspapers. But official attendance is listed as 20,000.

November 14, 1925 — Penn State visits West Virginia for the first time to participate in dedication ceremonies for West Virginia's new Mountaineer Field, and loses, 14-0.

November 26, 1925 — The annual Thanksgiving Day game with Pittsburgh is played for the first time at new Pitt Stadium and Penn State loses, 23-7.

January 14, 1926 — The Penn State administration appoints an alumni committee to study football policies in the wake of allegations by the Carnegie Foundation and others that Penn State over-emphasizes all sports to the detriment of educational goals of higher education.

October 9, 1926 — Penn State wins its 200th game by beating Marietta, 48-6, at New Beaver Field. Cy Lungren runs back a kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to spark the win.

October 16, 1926 — Penn State loses its 100th football game as Notre Dame wins, 28-0, in the Nittany Lions' first visit to South Bend, Ind.

December 25, 1926 — Dr. Ralph Hetzel becomes Penn State's 10th president and calls for stronger supervision of the athletic programs, especially football, by the administration.

February 26, 1927 — A blue ribbon committee known as the Beaver White Committee issues its final report recommending the elimination of all athletic scholarships and the creation of two separate bodies to supervise Penn State's athletic programs for athletes and students: the Board of Athletic Control and the Department of Physical Education.

August 10, 1927 — The newly organized Board of Athletic Control ends all financial aid to athletes beginning with 1928 incoming freshmen and recommends that Penn State athletic officials "not scout opponents' games regardless of scouting policies of opponents."

October 1, 1927 — The first radio broadcast of a Penn State football game is carried over the college station, WPSC. Assistant coach Larry Conover describes the action in a 34-13 win over Gettysburg. Conover goes on to broadcast four more games from New Beaver Field in the 1927 season.

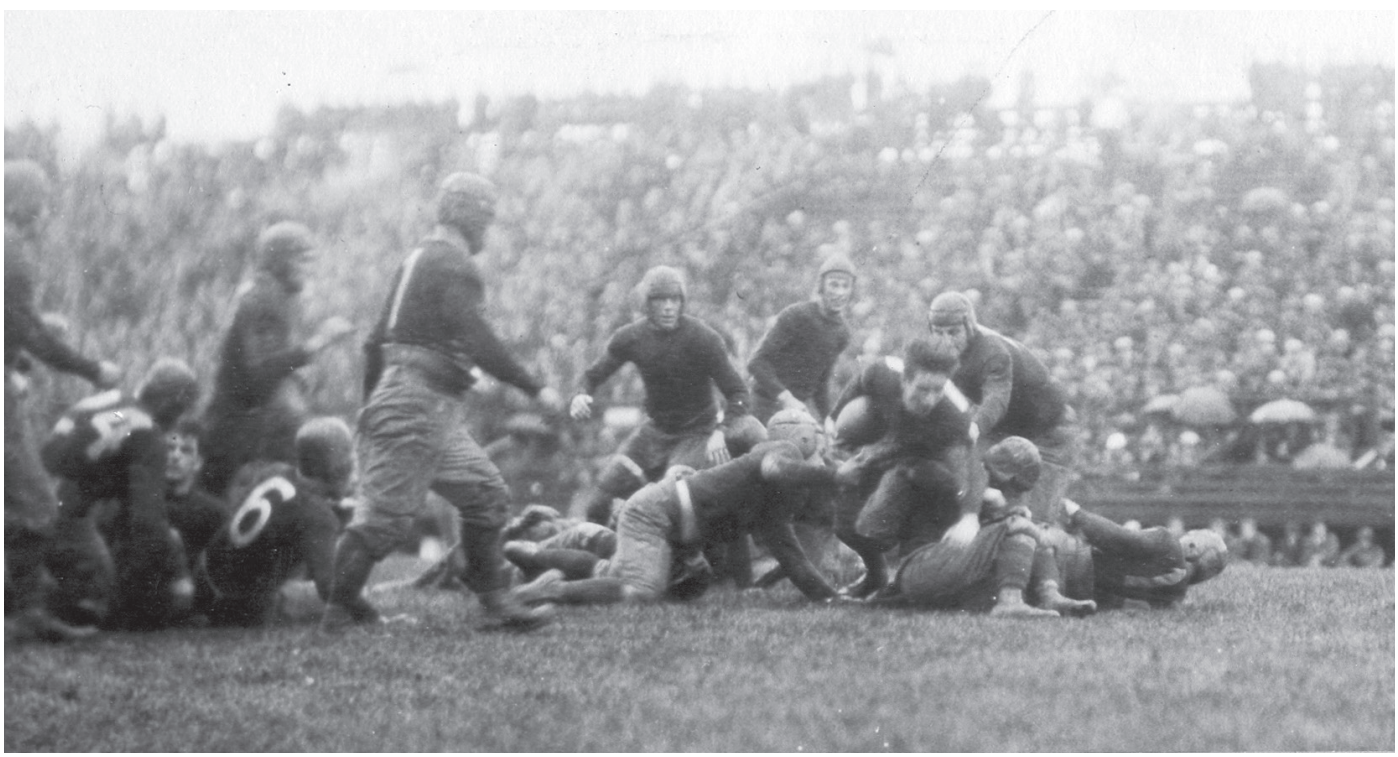
October 22, 1927 — Penn State beats Syracuse for the first time, after four defeats and a tie, as captain Johnny Roepke shakes off an injury and sparks the team to victory by kicking a 21-yard field goal and making a game-saving tackle on the ensuing kickoff in a 9-6 victory at Archbold Stadium.

November 24, 1927 — The first away game is broadcast over radio by KDKA in Pittsburgh as undefeated Pitt scores the most points against Penn State in 11 years to win 30-0 at Pitt Stadium.

September 29, 1928 — The first radio broadcast of a Penn State game by students is done over the college station, WPSC. Sophomore Ken Holderman (later a university vice president and trustee) does play-by-play in a 25-0 victory over Lebanon Valley.

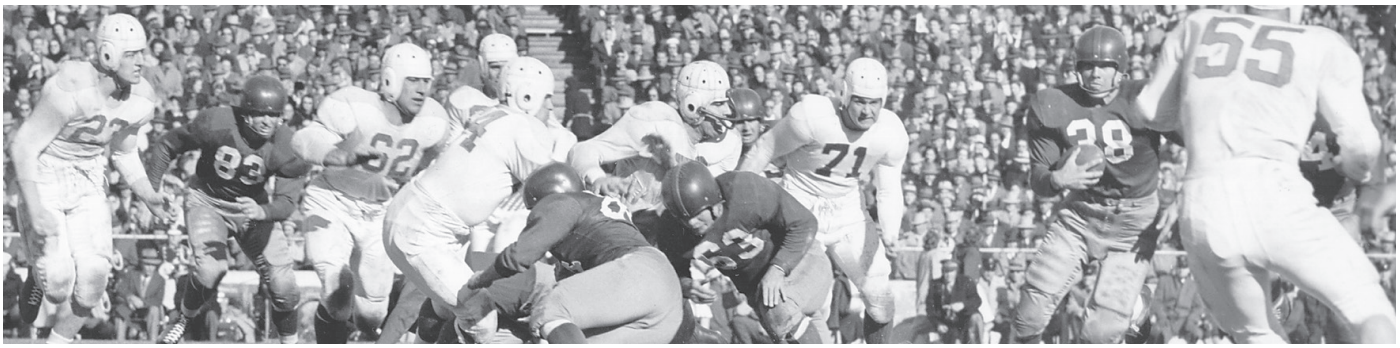
January 19, 1929 — A new athletic building, soon to be known as Recreation Hall, is used for the first time for "winter" football practice. The $600,000 building is dedicated on March 23, 1929 during the weekend of the Intercollegiate Boxing Championships.

October 26, 1929 — Cooper French and Frank Diedrich team for one of the greatest punt returns in history in an impromptu razzle-dazzle 60-yard lateral-and-run for a touchdown on the last play of the game to defeat Lafayette, 6-3, before a disbelieving, but cheering, Homecoming crowd of 10,000 at New Beaver Field.



Penn State and Gettysburg played every season from 1919-24 at New Beaver Field, with the Nittany Lions posting six consecutive shutout wins.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE



Penn State's appearance in the 1948 Cotton Bowl was significant on several fronts. Wally Triplett and end Dennie Hoggard became the first African-Americans to play in the Cotton Bowl game and helped Penn State to a 9-0-1 record in 1947, with the only blemish a 13-13 tie with SMU in the Cotton Bowl. Behind a defense that posted six shutouts, Penn State won its first Lambert Trophy and its No. 4 final ranking was its highest in program history to date.

October 29, 1929 — The Carnegie Foundation releases a 383-page report on the Advancement of Teaching condemning Penn State and other colleges for dishonesty in over-emphasizing football and other intercollegiate sports by giving athletic scholarships and urged a return to amateurism. Carnegie later issues an addendum declaring Penn State had changed policies two years previously, but the addendum is virtually ignored by the public and press and Penn State's educational image is damaged. (The stock market crashes this same day, precipitating a nationwide depression.)

January 20, 1930 — Hugo Bezdek is relieved of his football head coaching duties and named the first director of the new School of Physical Education.

March 27, 1930 — Former two-time All-American Bob Higgins is promoted from assistant coach to head coach of the football team.

October 31, 1931 — Pitt coach Jock Sutherland rests his first team and plays the scrubs the entire game as the Panthers clobber the Nittany Lions, 41-6, scoring the most points since the series began, then insults the New Beaver Field Homecoming crowd by working out his first team for 15 minutes after game. Fans did not know that Sutherland had received Bob Higgins' approval before the game for the workout. This was Pitt's first visit to Penn State since 1902, and the teams did not play again until 1935.

November 28, 1931 —Penn State ends a seven-game losing streak that remains the school record, by beating Lehigh, 31-0, in a postseason game for charity at Philadelphia's Franklin Field, ending the season with what is still its worst record in history, 2-8.

October 14, 1933 — Penn State football hits a low point when Muhlenberg wins in a major upset, 3-0, at New Beaver Field. The team goes on to a 3-3-1 record.

October 20, 1934 — Penn State wins its first regular-season road game in five years and the first away game in the Higgins era with 31-0 win over Lehigh in Bethlehem.

September 1, 1936 — Penn State opens preseason practice with its first all-alumni coaching staff: Bob Higgins ('20), head coach; Joe Bedenk ('24), Earle Edwards ('31) and Al Michaels (Mikelonis) ('35), varsity assistants; and Marty McAndrews ('30), freshman coach.

October 1, 1936 — Former head coach Hugo Bezdek agrees to a one-year leave of absence with pay from the position of director of the Physical Education School, and resigns a year later.

October 6, 1936 — Four surviving members of the 1881 "forgotten pioneers" team are officially recognized as playing in Penn State's first and only intercollegiate football game before 1887 and are given Varsity "S" letters.

Fall 1937 — Dr. Carl P. Schott is hired as the director of Physical Education and de facto Dean of Athletics.

October 2, 1937 — The first game is filmed on request by the coaches to help the team in practice. Penn State beats Gettysburg, 32-6, at New Beaver Field, but the film shot by student cameramen is too dark and Bob Higgins hires zoology instructor and part-time track coach Ray Conger to take charge of filming, a position Conger holds for 39 years.

November 13, 1937 — Penn State clinches its first winning season since 1929 and the first in Bob Higgins' coaching regime by beating Maryland in the last minute at New Beaver Field, 21-14, but loses the next week to National Champion Pitt and finishes with a 5-3 record.

September 26, 1938 — Ridge Riley writes and publishes the first "Football Newsletter" with a preseason analysis of the 1938 season.

October 1, 1938 — The first Penn State radio network is set up and starts broadcasting with an opening game against Maryland at New Beaver Field. KDKA Pittsburgh originates a broadcast with Bill Sutherland on play-by-play and Jack Barry doing color commentary as Penn State wins, 38-0.

October 29, 1938 — Two players each get 100 yards in a game for the first time as sophomore Chuck Peters (156 yards) and junior Steve Rollins (122) help lead Penn State to a 33-6 win over Syracuse at New Beaver Field.

November 20, 1938 — Penn State loses, 26-0, at Pitt to finish with 3-4-1 record that will be the last losing season for 49 years. Despite the record, the team sets three NCAA defensive records, including one for fewest yards passing allowed per game (13.1 yards average) that still stands.

November 25, 1939 — Future All-American Leon Gajecki leads Penn State to its first victory over Pitt in 20 years in a 10-0 upset before a record-tying crowd of 20,000 at New Beaver Field and Penn State finishes the year with its best record since 1921 at 5-1-2.

November 9, 1940 — Juniors Bill Smaltz and Lenny Krouse team for the greatest passing day to date as Smaltz completes 14-of-21 passes (including 12 in succession that remained a record until 1994) for 193 yards and two touchdowns and Krouse catches 10 for two touchdowns and 155 yards.

November 16, 1940 — Chuck Peters sets the all-time kickoff return record with a 101-yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff of a 25-0 win over NYU. It's his second touchdown run back of the season and establishes the season record for kickoff touchdown returns after running 96 yards with the second half kickoff in an earlier 18-0 win at Temple.

November 23, 1940 — Penn State loses its first and only game of the season and a chance for a bowl game when upset by Pitt, 20-7, at Pitt Stadium.

September 1941 — Dave Alston and his brother, Harry, of Midland, Pennsylvania, become the first African-American players on the Penn State team. Dave becomes the star of the unbeaten freshman team and is selected by some preseason magazines as college football's "sophomore of the year."

September 1941 — The State College Quarterback Club organizes and meets for the first time to sponsor Wednesday luncheons with head football coach Bob Higgins, players and other assistant coaches.

October 31, 1941 — Penn State plays its first night game, at New York's Polo Grounds, against New York University and wins, 42-0, in heavy rain on a sloppy field.

November 12, 1941 — Led by Dave and Harry Alston, Steve Suhey and Red Moore, the freshman team goes unbeaten for the first time since 1916 with a 5-0 record. Dave Alston scores eight touchdowns, passes for four others and drop-kicks six extra points in one of the school's outstanding individual freshman performances ever.

August 15, 1942 — Freshman star Dave Alston, Penn State's first African-American player, dies in Bellefonte Hospital after a tonsillectomy operation, but his death is traced to injuries suffered in a spring practice scrimmage against Navy. (Brother Harry is so shaken he never returns to school.)

September 1, 1942 — The first radio network, organized by KDKA, dissolves because of World War II. A major gasoline sponsor can't get enough gas to sell.

September 10, 1942 —The Athletic Board authorizes freshmen to play on varsity teams for the duration of World War II.

Freshman tailback Wally Triplett was Penn State's first African-American player to start a game (at Michigan State, 1945) and was instrumental in the Nittany Lions compiling a record of 23-3-2 from 1946-48.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

October 24, 1942 — The Nittany Lion Shrine, created by famed sculptor Heinz Warneke, near the entrance of New Beaver Field is dedicated during halftime of a 13-10 Homecoming win over Colgate. H.D. "Joe" Mason, Class of 1907, who instigated the move for a Lion as the mascot, is among the crowd of 11,510.

November 14, 1942 — In one of the biggest upsets of the Higgins era, Penn State shocks Penn, 13-7, before 50,000 at Franklin Field behind the punting of Joe Colone and the running and defensive play of Larry Joe, who is carried off the field at the end of the game.

November 30, 1942 — Penn State is ranked for the first time by the Associated Press at season's end, tying at No. 19 with defending National Champion Minnesota and Holy Cross, as a team dominated by sophomores and freshmen surprises the nation with a 6-1-1 record.

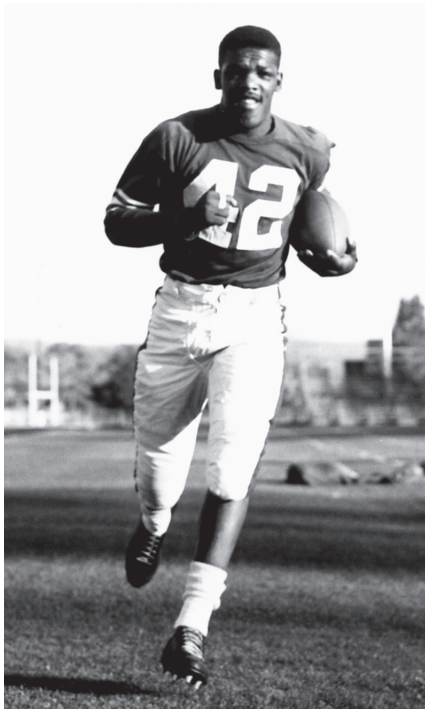
November 13, 1943 — Snow forces some officials to be late for the Temple game at New Beaver Field as Doggie Alexander, owner of the Rathskeller tavern, comes out of the stands to be the field judge and Philadelphia Inquirer sportswriter Stan Baumgartner leaves the press box to serve as the head linesman. Only one 15-yard penalty is called in Penn State's 13-0 win.

October 21, 1944 — Larry Cooney, 16, of Pittsburgh becomes the youngest player ever to start a Penn State football game. He opens at right halfback against Colgate in the fourth game of the season, when freshmen were eligible because of World War II, and carries the ball five times for eight yards. Johnny Chuckran becomes the only freshman ever to serve as captain for a season, and runs back a punt 50 yards in the last minute to spark a 6-0 upset win over Colgate in Hamilton, New York.

October 28, 1944 — For the first time, an all-freshman starting lineup takes the field and loses to West Virginia, 28-27, in the first home loss since 1938.

November 17, 1945 — Freshman Wally Triplett becomes the first African-American player to start a Penn State game when he takes the field at right halfback (the tailback position in the single-wing formation) against Michigan State at East Lansing, Michigan. The Nittany Lions lose, 33-0, but Triplett is praised for his all-around play.

Summer 1946 — Jim O'Hora, a center at Penn State from 1933-35, and Earl Bruce, the high school coach from Brownsville, Pennsylvania, join Bob Higgins' coaching staff, O'Hora as assistant line coach and Bruce as freshman coach based at California (Pa.) State Teachers College.



Lenny Moore was among the greatest players to wear the blue and white. In 1954, he became the first Nittany Lion to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season, gaining 1,082 with 11 touchdowns. Moore was selected by the Baltimore Colts in the first round of the 1956 NFL Draft and had a brilliant 12-year career with the Colts, playing in seven Pro Bowls and gaining induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

November 27, 1948 — A Penn State team travels by airplane for the first time to play Washington State at Tacoma and wins the game, 7-0, to finish the season at 7-1-1 and achieve the No. 18 ranking in the Associated Press college football poll.

March 12, 1949 — Bob Higgins announces his resignation as head football coach and long-time assistant coach Joe Bedenk is named as his successor.

Spring 1949 — Earle Edwards resigns from the football coaching staff following spring practice and joins the Michigan State staff as an assistant coach. Joe Bedenk names former Penn State lineman Sever Toretti (1936-38) as line coach and ex-Pitt star Frank Patrick as defensive backfield coach.

1949 — Tuition scholarships for all sports are re-established by the Board of Trustees on the recommendation of the Athletic Board with 100 total scholarships approved.

September 1949 — The first class of scholarship players since 1927 enters Penn State but are sent to California State Teachers College because of crowded housing conditions on the main campus. Among the freshmen are future starters Joe Yukica, Don Barney, Jim Dooley and Joe Gratson.

October 1, 1949 — Penn State plays its 500th game since 1887 and loses, 42-7, to an Army team that would stay unbeaten and be rated No. 4 in the country. This contest also is the first known telecast of a Penn State football game. It is televised on WNBT-TV in New York City.

March 5, 1950 — Joe Bedenk resigns after one year as head football coach, but remains on the staff as an assistant coach.

March 31, 1950 — The Athletic Board sets 30 scholarships exclusively for football to include tuition, room and board.

April 22, 1950 — Charles A. "Rip" Engle, head coach at Brown University, is named head football coach by acting Penn State president James Milholland.

May 27, 1950 — Rip Engle names Joe Paterno, his senior quarterback at Brown, to the coaching staff and assigns him to coach the quarterbacks.

October 14, 1950 — Penn State loses for the first time at night after four wins at night dating to 1941, all played in the rain, as Syracuse wins, 27-7, on a clear night at Archbold Stadium.

Summer 1946 — Casey Jones and other Pittsburgh area alumni raise $19,000 to buy an old fraternity house off campus to house football players. New assistant coach Jim O'Hora agrees to be "counselor" of the facility and he and his family move in. All freshmen players are assigned to the campus of California State Teachers College, where they will train under the direction of Bruce.

November 9, 1946 — Penn State cancels the final game of season, set for Nov. 29, when University of Miami (Fla.) officials request that Penn State not bring its two African-American players, Wally Triplett and Dennie Hoggard, on the trip.

November 16, 1946 — A U.S. President makes his first known attendance at a Penn State game as Harry Truman gives Navy a pep talk before the game and at halftime in Annapolis. Penn State upsets the heavily favored Middies, 12-7, as Elwood Petchel runs back a pass interception for one touchdown and scores another on a one-yard run.

October 18, 1947 — Penn State sets an NCAA record for fewest total yards allowed by holding Syracuse to a minus-47 yards in a 40-0 Homecoming win at New Beaver Field.

October 25, 1947 — In the key game of the 1947 season, Penn State comes from behind to beat undefeated West Virginia, 21-14, before the largest New Beaver Field crowd (20,313) since the 1925 Notre Dame game and stays on track for its first bowl game in 25 years.

November 15, 1947 — Penn State wins its 300th game with a 20-7 conquest of Navy at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. Fullback Jeff Durkota runs 48 and 42 yards for touchdowns on the identical inside-reverse play.

November 22, 1947 — Penn State beats Pitt, 29-0, to become the first Penn State squad in history to win all nine games of a regular-season and sets school records for giving up the least amount of points (27) and the most shutouts (6). The Nittany Lions also set NCAA defensive records for fewest rushing yards allowed per game (17) and per rush (0.64).

December 8, 1947 — Penn State finishes in the Top 10 for the first time when ranked fourth in the final Associated Press poll. The Nittany Lions also are awarded the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since the trophy's inception in 1936.

January 1, 1948 — Tailback Wally Triplett and end Dennie Hoggard become the first African-Americans to play in the Cotton Bowl game. Triplett scores a TD and plays an outstanding defensive game as Penn State and Doak Walker-led SMU battle to a 13-13 tie.

October 23, 1948 — A New Beaver Field attendance record of 24,579 is set during Homecoming as Penn State ties Michigan State, 14-14, in a game marked by controversy over a clipping penalty that nullified a Spartan 100-yard touchdown on an interception return.

November 6, 1948 — Penn State plays before the largest crowd to date — 71,180 — and defeats Penn at Franklin Field, 13-0, sparked by a razzle-dazzle touchdown run-and-pass play of Fran Rogel-to-Chuck Drazenovich-to-Elwood Petchel-to-Rogel.

November 11, 1950 — The first Band Day is held at Beaver Field, with nine Centre County high school bands participating as Penn State beats West Virginia, 27-0. Band Day was held annually for 25 years, with the final one taking place at the Nov. 16, 1974 game with Ohio University. The annual "Blue Band Jam" returned to Penn State in 2014.

December 2, 1950 — A major snow storm forces postponement of the final game of the season against Pitt at Pitt Stadium on November 25. The game is moved to Forbes Field one week later, where Penn State wins, 21-20, in what is now known as the first Snow Bowl.

December 1950 — The Athletic Board adds 15 scholarships for football, bringing the total to 45.

September 1, 1951 — The Athletic Board and Eastern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference agree to make freshmen eligible for varsity play because of the Korean War. The authorization only lasts one year before freshmen are banned again.

October 20, 1951 — Another Beaver Field attendance record —30,321 — is set, again in a Homecoming game, against unbeaten (and eventual No. 2) Michigan State, but this time Penn State loses, 32-21.

July 1952 — Ernest "Ernie" McCoy, basketball coach at Michigan since 1948, takes over as Director of Athletics and Dean of the Physical Education Department.

September 20, 1952 — Former player and coach Joe Bedenk watches his first game since 1917 as a spectator after stepping down as assistant coach. He sees a 20-13 win over Temple at Beaver Field.

September 27, 1952 — Junior Tony Rados surprises fans and makes national headlines by giving Penn State its greatest passing day in 12 years, completing 17-of-30 passes for 179 yards and one TD (and 2 interceptions), and out-dueling Purdue's All-American passing sensation, Dale Samuels, in leading Penn State to a surprising 20-20 tie at Beaver Field.

November 13, 1952 — Penn State goes over 100,000 in total season home attendance for the first time in history (103,751 in five games) as 15,957 at Beaver Field watch the Lions escape with 7-6 win over underdog Rutgers.

November 22, 1952 — Penn State upsets Pitt, 17-0, to knock the Panthers from the Orange Bowl before 53,766 at Pitt Stadium. The Nittany Lions' defense, led by Jack Sherry's two interceptions, and Ted Kemmerer's punting throttles the Pitt attack, while Rados' passing sparks the Lions' offense.

October 17, 1953 — Mickey Bergstein, colorman and engineer for Penn State's radio network, makes a spectacular debut as play-by-play announcer in a game against Syracuse at Beaver Field, when he takes over in the fourth quarter for regular announcer Bob Prince, who has to leave to broadcast a Steelers-Eagles NFL game in Philadelphia that night. Bergstein describes how Penn State scores two touchdowns in the fourth quarter in a come-from-behind 20-14 win that ends with a brawl at the Syracuse bench.

November 7, 1953 — Heavy snow blankets State College in a 24-hour period, forcing major snow removal at Beaver Field for a game against Fordham. Kickoff is delayed by two hours because of the late arrival of the Penn State team, which was trapped in a Clinton County hunting camp known as "Camp-Hate-To-Leave-It." The Nittany Lions go on to win a 28-21 thriller before some 13,897 hearty fans. The game is now known as Penn State's second Snow Bowl.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

A dominant two-way player from 1960-62, Dave Robinson was a consensus first-team All-American as a senior. A ferocious linebacker known for his big hits, he also made 17 receptions for 178 yards in 1962. A first-round choice of the Green Bay Packers in the 1963 NFL Draft, Robinson was an All-Pro linebacker with the Packers (1963-72) and Washington (1973-74). He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1997 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

November 13, 1953 — Penn State becomes The Pennsylvania State University and the next day the Nittany Lions play their first game as Penn State and come from behind from a 14-6 second-quarter deficit to defeat Rutgers, 54-26, at New Brunswick.

December 1953 — The Levi Lamb Fund, named for the former Penn State star, is established at the suggestion of athletic director Ernie McCoy to assist in obtaining financial aid for athletes and the athletic department.

March 1, 1954 — J.T. White, who played on Michigan's 1948 National Champion team as well as at Ohio State as a center, joins Rip Engle's staff as an assistant coach.

September 25, 1954 — Underdog Penn State stuns preseason Big Ten Conference favorite Illinois, 14-12, in the opening game of the season played at Champaign, shocking the college football world and becoming an overnight front-runner to win the Lambert Trophy.

October 23, 1954 — Jesse Arnelle, Rosey Grier and Lenny Moore become the first African-Americans to play college football in Fort Worth, Texas, but the Nittany Lions make too many mistakes and lose to TCU, 20-7.

October 30, 1954 — Penn State plays its first game on national television and beats Penn, 35-13, at Franklin Field, scoring the most points in the long-time series against the Quakers. Lenny Moore rushes for 140 yards and scores three touchdowns.

September 1, 1955 — Penn State begins a year-long celebration of its Centennial Year with Navy scheduled to visit Beaver Field for the first time since 1923. A new dateline of "University Park" is established with the opening of a campus post office.

September 29, 1955 — The first game is televised from Beaver Field as CBS transmits the season opener with Boston University to a limited region in the East. The Nittany Lions win, 35-0, as an unknown fifth-string sophomore fullback — Joe Sabol — scores two touchdowns to lead the team to victory.

November 5, 1955 — Syracuse's Jim Brown outgains Lenny Moore, 159 yards to 146, and scores all the Syracuse points on three touchdowns and two extra point kicks, but Penn State comes back from a 20-7 deficit on the quarterbacking of Milt Plum to win a thrilling 21-20 Band Day contest in one of the greatest games ever played at Beaver Field before a crowd of 30,321 and a CBS regional TV audience.

September 29, 1956 — The first all-Penn State alumni broadcast team works its first game for the radio network as Mickey Bergstein ('43) moves from color commentary to play-by-play and Bob Wilson ('40) takes over color. Penn State beats Pennsylvania, 34-0, at Franklin Field.

October 20, 1956 — Penn State stuns heavily-favored Ohio State, 7-6, in Columbus, winning on Milt Plum's extra point kick before the largest crowd to see a Penn State football game up to that time, numbering 82,584.

October 19, 1957 — Pete Mauthe, captain of the undefeated 1912 team, becomes the first Penn State player inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame during halftime ceremonies of the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt. The Nittany Lions squander a 13-point lead and are upset, 32-20.

October 26, 1957 — The third game of the Engle era is televised from Syracuse by CBS on a regional basis as Penn State beats the Orangemen, 21-12, behind the surprise quarterbacking of sophomore Richie Lucas, who was forced to take over for the injured starter, Al Jacks.

December 1957 — Outstanding freshman running back Robert "Red" Worrell, who was a potential varsity starter on the 1958 team, is electrocuted at his family home in Denbo, Pennsylvania, while helping his father erect a TV antenna. Athletic officials establish an award in his name to honor the most improved player after spring practice. Lineman Andy Stynchula wins the first award in 1958.

Spring 1958 — Former linebacker Dan Radakovich, one of the standouts in the 7-6 upset over Ohio State in 1956, becomes Penn State's first linebackers coach when hired as an undergraduate assistant. The next year, Radakovich continues coaching as a graduate assistant.

September 27, 1958 — Penn State ends its longest series with one of its oldest opponents, Pennsylvania, with a 43-0 win at Franklin Field. The series, which began in 1890, was never played outside of Philadelphia and finished with Penn State winning 18, losing 25 and tying 4. The team's first ever two-point conversion is scored when Al Jacks passes to end John Bozick after Penn State's second touchdown. Richie Lucas later passes to Jim Schwab for a second two-point conversion.

December 19, 1959 — Penn State plays in the first Liberty Bowl and tackle Charlie Janerette becomes the first African-American to play against Alabama as the Nittany Lions beat the Crimson Tide, coached by Paul "Bear" Bryant, 7-0, in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium.

April 1959 — The Nittany Lion Club is organized by 15 alumni who want to arouse interest in Penn State athletic affairs through contributions to the Levi Lamb Fund. Membership stipulated an annual contribution to the fund of at least $50 or at least $25 for graduates of less than 10 years. Members will receive "special consideration" on game tickets and "preferred parking" at the stadium.

November 7, 1959 — The all-time attendance record is set at Beaver Field as 34,000 watch a memorable battle of unbeatens play with national rankings and bowl berths at stake. Syracuse edges Penn State, 20-18, despite an electrifying 100-yard kickoff return by sophomore Roger Kochman as the Nittany Lions fail to make an extra point kick and two two-point conversions.

November 14, 1959 — Penn State downs Holy Cross, 46-0, in the 229th and last game played at Beaver Field as 20,000 spectators watch the final quarter in rain and heavy wind. The Nittany Lions end with a record of 184-34-11 at Beaver Field.

January 2, 1960 — Dan Radakovich is hired as a full-time assistant coach in charge of linebackers. He eventually will become known as "The Father of Linebacker U."

September 17, 1960 — Penn State opens Beaver Stadium before a less than capacity crowd of 22,559 as the Nittany Lions beat Boston University, 20-0. Lion senior halfback Eddie Caye scored the stadium's initial touchdown at 10:25 of the first quarter.

October 3, 1960 — What later becomes known as "Tailgating" is first suggested in a front-page column by Centre Daily Times Editor Jerry Weinstein after monumental traffic jams developed before and after the Homecoming game against Missouri at Beaver Stadium on Saturday, October 1. Weinstein advocates adoption of the Ivy League tradition of pregame "picnic lunches" and says Penn State fans should add "picnic suppers" for after the game while traffic disperses.

October 8, 1960 — The "hero" defensive back makes its debut in a 27-16 victory over Army at West Point. Senior Sam Sobczak is the first player designated as "Hero."

September 29, 1961 — The Athletic Department experiments with closed-circuit television by televising Penn State's first game ever against Miami (Fla.) from the Orange Bowl Stadium to Rec Hall and Schwab Auditorium on the Penn State campus.

December 30, 1961 — End Dave Robinson becomes the first African-American to play in the Gator Bowl and makes the defensive "play-of-the-game" with a quarterback sack and fumble recovery that helps the Nittany Lions beat Georgia Tech, 30-15.

Spring 1962 — Penn State joins Pitt, Syracuse and West Virginia in agreeing to forbid "redshirting," a practice that withholds athletes from competition for a year so they can "mature."

October 13, 1962 — Penn State becomes the first team to play three service academies in one season, losing to Army at West Point on this date, 9-6, after beating Navy, 41-7, and Air Force, 20-6, earlier in the season at Beaver Stadium.

October 27, 1962 — Assistant coach Joe Paterno is presented a game ball by the team for the first time since he joined Rip Engle's staff in 1950 when the Nittany Lions overcome the sensational debut of sophomore quarterback Craig Morton and defeat California, 23-21, in Berkeley.

December 1962 — End Dave Robinson becomes the first African-American player in Penn State football history to be named first-team All-American when selected by the Associated Press, the Football Writers and others.

Summer 1963 — Penn State joins Pitt, Syracuse and West Virginia in a Letter of Intent agreement for incoming freshmen football players, obligating recruits to a specific school for at least one year. The national agreement under consideration also would include the Big Ten, Southwest, Southeastern, Atlantic Coast, Big Eight and Missouri Valley conferences.

Summer 1964 — Joe Paterno is named associate coach and heir-apparent to succeed Rip Engle as head coach when Engle retires.

November 7, 1964 — Penn State, with a 3-4 record, shocks unbeaten No. 2 Ohio State, 27-0, in what the Associated Press calls the "college upset of the year." The Nittany Lions' defense limits the Buckeyes to 60 net yards, while the Lions' offense totals 341 yards.

November 24, 1964 — In a closed-door meeting without coaches, players vote down the opportunity to play in the Gator Bowl after overcoming an 0-3 start and ending a 6-4 season with stunning shutout victories over Ohio State and Pitt and winning the Lambert Trophy.

Fall 1965 — College football is changed forever with a rule change implementing unlimited substitution for the first time in the modern era.

December 4, 1965 — Rip Engle coaches his last game as Penn State beats Maryland, 19-7, at Byrd Stadium, in a game televised nationally by NBC, to finish a 5-5 season and wind up 16 years at Penn State with a 104-48-4 record and no losing seasons.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

February 18, 1966 — Rip Engle officially announces his retirement as head coach, about one month from his 60th birthday (March 26).

February 19, 1966 — Associate head coach Joseph V. Paterno, 38, is named head football coach by University President Eric Walker and Director of Athletics and Dean of the Physical Education Department Ernest McCoy at an annual salary of $20,000.

September 17, 1966 — Joe Paterno wins his first game, 15-7, in the season opener against Maryland at Beaver Stadium before a crowd of 40,911 as sophomore middle guard Mike Reid is credited with scoring three safeties that is still the team record. The team presents Paterno with the game ball for only the second time in his coaching career.

September 24, 1966 — Joe Paterno suffers his first loss as No. 1 Michigan State, led by All-Americans Bubba Smith and George Webster, whip the Nittany Lions, 42-8, before 65,763 at East Lansing.

September 29, 1967 — In what becomes the "turning point" of Joe Paterno's career, he replaces several defensive veterans with untested sophomores, including future All-American Dennis Onkotz, and tackle Steve Smear and Penn State beats Miami (Fla.), 17-8, at the Orange Bowl behind the running of Bobby Campbell and pass receiving of another future All-American, Ted Kwalick. Among the 39,516 spectators that night are 150 members of Penn State's first Alumni Holiday Tour.

October 7, 1967 — A new policy requires students to buy tickets (at $4 each) for home games as the University eliminates pre-paid activity fees for football. Several thousand students are among the 46,007 in attendance to watch Penn State lose, 17-15, to No. 3 UCLA. The loss is the Nittany Lions' last over the next 31 games, stretching into the 1970 season.

November 11, 1967 — A Paterno-coached team gains national recognition for the first time with a 13-8 upset over then No. 3 NC State after a fourth-down goal line stand in the last minute preserves the win at Beaver Stadium.

November-December 1967 — Junior tight end Ted Kwalick becomes the first first-team All-American coached by Joe Paterno when named by the Newspaper Enterprise Association and the American Football Coaches Association. Kwalick also is the first junior to win the honor and the first underclassman selected since Bob Higgins in 1915.

December 30, 1967 — Joe Paterno gains nationwide attention in the Gator Bowl by gambling for a first down on his own 15-yard line with a 17-0 third-quarter lead. When the gamble fails, Florida State rallies for a 17-17 tie in front of a record crowd of 68,019.

December 7, 1968 — The first Joe Paterno team to have a regular-season game televised nationally beats Syracuse, 30-12, at Beaver Stadium to become the first Penn State squad to be unbeaten in the regular-season since 1947 and the first one to win 10 games.

January 1, 1969 — Penn State beats Kansas, 15-14, in the Orange Bowl after the Jayhawks are penalized for having 12 men on the field. The team makes its highest finish in the final Associated Press poll at No. 2 behind Ohio State, which beats previous No. 1 USC and Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson in the Rose Bowl.

July 1, 1969 — Ed Czekaj, placekicker and end on the undefeated 1947 team, becomes Athletic Director, succeeding the retiring Ernie McCoy.

September 27, 1969 — Some 2,000 seats and an enlarged press box are constructed at Beaver Stadium before a record crowd of 51,402 turns out to see Penn State beat Colorado, 27-3. Paul Johnson returns a kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown.

November 29, 1969 — Penn State completes a second straight unbeaten regular-season with its 21st straight win by beating NC State, 33-8, in Raleigh as part of the second half of a ABC national television doubleheader following the Army-Navy game. All-American Charlie Pittman scores two touchdowns to stretch his career touchdown record to 31, and break Pete Mauthe's 67-year-old career scoring record with 186 points.

December 31, 1969 — Earl Bruce, long time assistant coach, retires.

January 1, 1970 — Penn State's defense, led by Outland and Maxwell Trophy winner Mike Reid, sets an Orange Bowl record with seven intercepted passes as Penn State beats Missouri, 10-3, for its second consecutive 11-0 season, tying a 30-game school unbeaten streak set by teams from 1919-22, but again finishes No. 2 in the Associated Press (and United Press International) poll to Texas, which beat Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl.

September 19, 1970 — Penn State sets a record for consecutive games won (23) and unbeaten games in a row (31) with a 55-7 pasting of Navy in the season opener at Beaver Stadium. Senior Mike Cooper of Harrisburg becomes the first African-American to start at quarterback for Penn State and throws for two touchdowns. The new six-station television network telecasts the first of five home games on a delayed basis at 11 p.m. The games are aired in Philadelphia, Altoona, Harrisburg, Scranton, Lancaster and York. Governor Ray Shafer helps do color commentary with Dick Scherr of WTAF (Philadelphia) and Dick Richards of WFBG (Altoona) handling play-by-play and other commentary, respectively.

September 26, 1970 — Colorado ends Penn State's consecutive game winning and unbeaten streaks by beating the Nittany Lions, 41-13, in Boulder before an ABC national television audience.

September 18, 1971 — Albert Vitiello, a native of Naples, Italy, becomes the first junior college transfer to play for Penn State, the first placekicking specialist to be recruited and given a "grant-in-aid" and the first soccer-style placekicker for the Nittany Lions. He debuts by kicking eight extra points in a season-opening 56-3 win at Navy.

November 20, 1971 — Lydell Mitchell establishes an NCAA record for scoring and touchdowns and breaks Pete Mauthe's 59-year-old season scoring record with 174 points and Charlie Pittman's career touchdown record with 29 by scoring three touchdowns in a 55-18 win over Pitt.

December 4, 1971 — In one of the most significant losses of the Paterno era, the Nittany Lions are upset by Tennessee, 31-11, in Knoxville, ruining an unbeaten season.

December 1971 — Tackle Dave Joyner becomes Penn State's first pure offensive interior lineman to be named a first-team All-American when selected by six organizations, including United Press International, the American Football Coaches and the Football Writers.

January 1, 1972 — Penn State rallies from a 6-3 halftime deficit to stun Texas, 30-6, in the Cotton Bowl in a game Joe Paterno said was one the Nittany Lions "had to win" more than any other in Penn State history. The victory helps quiet criticism of Penn State's football program and establishes the Lions solidly as a legitimate national power.

Spring 1972 — For the first time in history, the team elects four co-captains, choosing quarterback John Hufnagel and guard Carl Schaukowitch for offense and tackle Jim Heller and safety Greg Ducatte on defense.

September 23, 1972 — The Beaver Stadium seating capacity expands to 57,538 as 5,600 seats are added to the east side and 3,570 to the north end zone, but just 50,547 turn out to watch Penn State come from behind to beat four-touchdown underdog Navy, 21-10, in the season-opening game.

September 30, 1972 — The majorettes debut with the Blue Band as a corps of 12 co-eds, led by junior Judy Shearer, before a record crowd of 58,065 at the Iowa game.

Fall 1972 — Freshman eligibility, which since the early 1900s had been allowed only in the war years of 1918, 1944-45 and 1951, is restored for Division I NCAA football teams. However, Coach Joe Paterno refuses to play freshmen until the 1973 season.

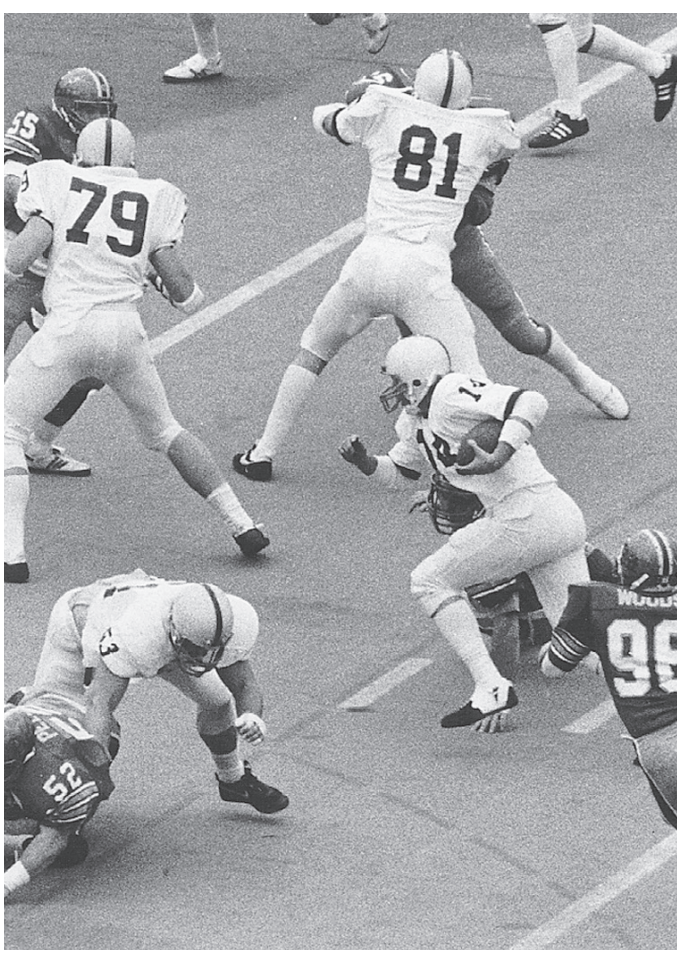
November 25, 1972 — Pitt announces it will no longer follow a mutual agreement with Penn State, Syracuse and West Virginia prohibiting "redshirting" and a maximum of 25 football grants-in-aid per year.

December 31, 1972 — Penn State plays in the first Sugar Bowl held on New Year's Eve and loses, 14-0, to second-ranked Oklahoma after star running back John Cappelletti is forced to miss the game with a virus. Oklahoma is later forced to forfeit the game to Penn State after the NCAA penalizes Oklahoma for using ineligible players.

September 1973 — Defensive tackle Randy Crowder becomes the first African-American elected captain when he is chosen as a defensive co-captain along with linebacker Ed O'Neil. Tailback John Cappelletti and center Mark Markovich are elected offensive co-captains.

September 22, 1973 — Dave Shukri and Brad Benson become the first freshmen to play varsity football since 1951 when they play in the second half of a 39-0 win at Navy.

September 19, 1973 — Women become members of the marching Blue Band as the band entertains a near record Homecoming crowd of 59,980 in the home season opener with Iowa. The five co-ed pioneers include Debbie Frisbee, flag carrier; Carol Gable, alto horn; Linda Hall, clarinet; Kit Murphie, alto horn; and Susan Nowlin, drums.



Penn State recorded one of its most satisfying wins when quarterback Todd Blackledge (above) and the defense sparked a turnaround from a 14-0 deficit to a 48-14 win at No. 1 Pitt on November 28, 1981. Penn State beat USC in the 1982 Fiesta Bowl to finish 10-2 and ranked No. 3.

December 13, 1973 — John Cappelletti becomes the first Nittany Lion to win the Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player and accepts the award with an emotional speech about his younger brother, stricken with leukemia, before Vice President Gerald Ford and 4,000 other dignitaries in New York.

January 1, 1974 — Penn State beats LSU, 16-9, in the Orange Bowl to become the first Nittany Lion team to win 12 games without a loss, but the squad is voted No. 5 by the Associated Press and United Press International. Joe Paterno calls the team "the best I've ever coached" and votes it No. 1 in the "Paterno Poll."

July 1, 1974 — Penn State withdraws from the Eastern College Athletic Conference in a dispute over financial arrangements with its 214 member schools. Penn State balks at paying 1/5th of the ECAC's total budget, plus 10 percent of television and bowl revenues.

September 21, 1974 — In what might have been the biggest upset of a Joe Paterno team ever, 24-point underdog Navy, coached by former Paterno assistant George Welsh, beats the Nittany Lions, 7-6, in rain and wind at Beaver Stadium.

October 12, 1974 — Tight end Randy Sidler becomes the first freshman to start since 1951 when two-year regular Dan Natale is sidelined by injury in the Homecoming game against Wake Forest. Sidler catches two passes for 41 yards, but another freshman wingback, Jimmy, Cefalo thrills the crowd by scoring touchdowns on a 57-yard pass from Tom Shuman and a 39-yard run.

November 16, 1974 — Penn State wins its 500th game by beating Ohio University, 35-16, at Beaver Stadium despite 85 yards in penalties and four lost fumbles as Tom Donchez scores three touchdowns.

December 31, 1975 — Penn State plays in the first Sugar Bowl held at the Louisiana Superdome and loses to Alabama, 13-6.

January 6, 1976 — Ridge Riley, creator of the alumni "Football Letter," dies of a heart attack in the kitchen of head coach Joe Paterno while interviewing Paterno for the final chapter of his soon-to-be-published book, "Road to Number One."

August 1976 — John Black takes over the alumni "Football Letter" and writes the first issue analyzing the team before fall practice.

September 18, 1976 — A record crowd of 62,503 and a regional TV audience watch as Ohio State visits Penn State for the first time in history and avenges four previous losses in five games at Columbus with 12-7 win.

November 6, 1976 — Joe Paterno wins his 100th game as a head coach as the Nittany Lions beat NC State, 41-20, before 60,462 at Beaver Stadium.

July 1, 1977 — Assistant coaches Jim O'Hora and Frank Patrick retire; O'Hora after 31 years and Patrick after 24 years of coaching and three as athletic academic counselor.

September 19, 1977 — The last record crowd before another Beaver Stadium expansion — a standing room only gathering of 62,554 — turns out in the second game of the season to see Penn State beat Houston, 31-4. Junior quarterback Chuck Fusina hits 15-of-23 passes for 245 yards and a TD and All-American Randy Sidler makes 11 tackles and causes one fumble to lead the victory.

October 15, 1977 — Joe Paterno misses the first game of his head coaching career when his 11-year-old son, David, is severely injured in a trampoline accident. Paterno spends the day in a hospital in Danville, Pennsylvania, as his team, coached by offensive coordinator Bob Phillips and defensive coordinator Jerry Sandusky, staves off a fourth-quarter comeback at Syracuse and wins, 31-24.

September 1, 1978 — The addition of 16,000 seats to Beaver Stadium is completed after lifting the existing stadium, constructing 20 to 40 new rows of concrete stands, eliminating the track that had encircled the field, closing the south end of the horseshoe and expanding the press box.

All-Americans Bobby Engram (left) and Kerry Collins celebrate Penn State's thrilling 31-24 win at Michigan on October 15, 1994 in Penn State's first game in Ann Arbor. Engram and Collins were among five first-team All-Americans that led the Nittany Lions to Big Ten and Rose Bowl titles, becoming the first Big Ten team to finish 12-0.

September 11, 1978 — A Beaver Stadium record crowd of 77,154 sees Penn State beat Rutgers, 26-10, in the home season opener. Matt Bahr ties his brother Chris' record of four field goals and Chuck Fusina hits Scott Fitzkee for a 53-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter to spark the win.

November 6, 1978 — In a watershed battle of unbeaten teams before another record crowd of 78,019 and a national TV audience, No. 2 Penn State defeated No. 5 Maryland, 27-3, limiting the Terps to minus-32 yards rushing, intercepting five passes (three by Pete Harris) and recording 10 quarterback sacks (three by Larry Kubin). Matt Bahr kicked two field goals and Chuck Fusina connected on a 63-yard TD pass to Tom Donovan.

November 13, 1978 — For the first time in history, Penn State is voted No. 1 in the polls by the Associated Press and United Press International after beating NC State, 19-10, thanks to another record four field goals by Matt Bahr.

November 16, 1978 — The Nittany Lion Shrine near Recreation Hall is damaged for the first time since it was dedicated in 1942, when vandals smash off the right ear.

January 1, 1979 — No. 1-ranked Penn State plays for the National Championship for the first time and loses to No. 2 Alabama, 14-7, in the Sugar Bowl when Mike Guman is stopped on fourth-and-inches at the goal line in the fourth quarter in what was the biggest play of the game.

November 3, 1979 — Miami (Fla.) upsets Penn State, 26-10, at Beaver Stadium behind the passing of surprise starting freshman quarterback Jim Kelly. The Hurricanes' new coach, Howard Schnellenberger, tells reporters, "This day will go down in the history of Miami football as the day we turned our football program around."

December 1, 1979 — The first Penn State punt to be blocked in 10 years occurs when Ralph Giacomarro's punt is blocked by Pitt after 629 consecutive successful kicks in a 29-14 loss to the Panthers at Beaver Stadium.

March 1, 1980 — Joe Paterno becomes Athletic Director succeeding Ed Czekaj, but Paterno remains head football coach.

July 1, 1980 — J.T. White, the last assistant coach from the Rip Engle era except for Joe Paterno, retires after 26 years of coaching the defensive ends.

September 6, 1980 — Beaver Stadium's seating capacity increases to 83,770 with the addition of 7,000 seats. An electronic scoreboard also debuts as a record crowd of 78,926 watches Penn State whip Colgate, 54-10.

October 10, 1981 — A new Hall of Fame room and Indoor Sports Complex is dedicated at Homecoming festivities as the No. 2 Nittany Lions win their fourth straight by beating Boston College, 38-7, before a record crowd of 84,473.

October 20, 1981 — Penn State is voted No. 1 for only the second time in history after beating Syracuse, 41-16, in the Nittany Lions' first appearance at the Carrier Dome. Curt Warner breaks Shorty Miller's 69-year-old rushing record with 256 yards and a touchdown on 26 carries. But with Warner sidelined by injury, the Lions lose two weeks later at Miami, 17-14, and drop to No. 6 as Pitt moves up to No. 1.

November 28, 1981 — Penn State pulls off one of its finest come-from-behind victories, snapping back from a 14-0 second-quarter deficit to rout No. 1 Pitt, 48-14, and end the national title chances of the Sugar Bowl-bound Panthers before a national television audience and 60,260 at Pitt Stadium. The victory was sparked by interceptions of Dan Marino passes by Roger Jackson and Mark Robinson and the passing combination of Todd Blackledge to Kenny Jackson.

January 1, 1982 — Penn State plays in the first Fiesta Bowl held on New Year's Day and beats USC, 26-10, holding Heisman Trophy winner Marcus Allen to 85 yards as Curt Warner gains 145 yards on 26 carries. Penn State finishes No. 3 in the Associated Press and United Press International rankings.

March 1, 1982 — Associate Athletic Director Jim Tarman succeeds Joe Paterno as Athletic Director as Paterno continues as head coach of the football team.

September 11, 1982 — Penn State wins its 100th game at Beaver Stadium in a 39-31 shootout with Maryland. Todd Blackledge passes for 262 yards and four touchdowns and Maryland's Boomer Esiason throws for 276 yards and two TDs before a sellout crowd of 84,567.

September 25, 1982 — In one of the most thrilling games ever played at Beaver Stadium, No. 8 Penn State comes from behind with a 65-yard drive in the last 1:18 to beat No. 3 Nebraska. Todd Blackledge throws the winning two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Kirk Bowman with four seconds left on the clock before a record crowd of 85,304 and a national television audience.

November 26, 1982 — Curt Warner establishes a Penn State career rushing record of 3,398 yards and Todd Blackledge sets the career touchdown passing record of 41 as they lead the Nittany Lions to a 19-10 win over once-beaten Pitt at Beaver Stadium to take a No. 2 ranking to the Sugar Bowl. Warner gains 118 yards and Blackledge throws a 31-yard touchdown to Kenny Jackson in the victory.

January 1, 1983 — Penn State wins its first National Championship by beating previously No. 1 Georgia, 27-23, in the Sugar Bowl. Todd Blackledge passes 47 yards to Gregg Garrity for a key fourth-quarter touchdown and Curt Warner out-duels Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker with 117 yards and two touchdowns.

August 29, 1983 — Penn State plays in the first Kickoff Classic at Giants Stadium in the New Jersey Meadowlands and loses to a Nebraska team that would finish the regular-season ranked No. 1.

September 9, 1983 — A new Penn State athletic logo is introduced featuring a sleek Lion head.

October 8, 1983 — Unranked Penn State upsets No. 3 Alabama, 34-28, at Beaver Stadium on two last-minute defensive plays that lead to one of the biggest controversies in Penn State history when the back judge nullifies an end zone pass reception by Alabama, ruling the receiver juggled the ball as he fell out of bounds.

November 19, 1983 — In one of most bizarre finishes in Penn State history, Nick Gancitano kicks a 32-yard field goal to tie Pitt, 24-24, after most of the 60,283 spectators and TV viewers thought the game at Pitt Stadium had ended. The clock showed no time left after a Nittany Lion running play had been stopped, but officials said six seconds remained because of a penalty a few moments earlier. Players had to be called back from the locker room and the field cleared for the game to finish. It was the second tie in Joe Paterno's coaching career.

Spring 1983 — Running backs coach Fran Ganter is promoted to offensive coordinator to succeed Dick Anderson, who takes the head coaching position at Rutgers.

LaVar Arrington (left) and Courtney Brown (right) were the second and first selections, respectively, in the 2000 NFL Draft.

September 8, 1984 — Former offensive coordinator Dick Anderson returns to Beaver Stadium as head coach of Rutgers and in the first game of his career, his team loses to Penn State, 15-12. The "Hawaiian Wave" makes its first appearance in Beaver Stadium as 84,409 fans help the "wave" roll around the stadium several times.

Fall 1984 — Permanent lights costing $575,000 are installed at Beaver Stadium after the U.S. Supreme Court rules against the NCAA's control of televised games and permits individual colleges to make their own arrangements.

September 14, 1985 — A new home team locker room and media room open at Beaver Stadium along with additional permanent seats in the North end zone for the handicapped and the visiting band. Four circular concrete ramps to help spectators reach their seats are part of the renovation.

October 26, 1985 — Penn State wins its 600th game by beating West Virginia, 27-0, before a sellout Homecoming crowd of 85,534 and an ABC regional TV audience. John Shaffer throws two touchdown passes and the defense limits the Mountaineers to 268 yards with three interceptions, two fumble recoveries and four sacks.

November 6, 1985 — Penn State is voted No. 1 for the fourth time in program history when the United Press International coaches board selects the Nittany Lions first after a 16-12 come-from-behind fourth-quarter win over Boston College. But, in the Associated Press poll, the Lions remain No. 2 behind Florida, coached by former Penn State quarterback Galen Hall.

November 13, 1985 — Penn State moves to No. 1 in the Associated Press rankings after beating Cincinnati, 31-10, in Riverfront Stadium, while Florida loses to Georgia.

January 1, 1986 — Oklahoma beats the No. 1 Nittany Lions, 25-10, in the Orange Bowl to win the National Championship as two Penn State interceptions and a fumble help the Sooners to victory.

September 6, 1986 — Penn State plays the first night game at Beaver Stadium in the season opener against Temple that helps launch the celebration of the first 100 years of Penn State football. Quarterback John Shaffer passes for three touchdowns and runs for another in the 45-15 victory.

October 25, 1986 — The sixth-ranked Nittany Lions shock the country with a dominating 23-3 upset win over No. 2 Alabama in Tuscaloosa behind a defense led by linebackers Shane Conlan and Trey Bauer and the running of D.J. Dozier. It is just the Crimson Tide's third loss in 25 years at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The victory pushed Penn State to No. 2 in the polls and on track to play No. 1 Miami (Fla.) for the national title.

January 2, 1987 — Penn State wins its second National Championship in four years by upsetting previous No. 1 Miami, 14-10, in the Fiesta Bowl with a four-down goal line stand in the last minute of play behind a defense led by All-American Shane Conlan. The Nittany Lions fluster Heisman Trophy winner Vinny Testaverde with five sacks and five interceptions, including one by linebacker Pete Giftopoulos at the goal line on the game's last play.

September 5, 1987 — Joe Paterno wins his 200th game in a 45-19 victory over Bowling Green in the season-opening game at Beaver Stadium and later tells the media, "I may live to be 100, but I'll never be around for another 100 victories."

October 1, 1988 — Tony Sacca becomes the first true freshman to start at quarterback in the Paterno and Engle eras and leads Penn State to 45-9 win over Temple at Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia.

November 19, 1988 — Penn State loses to Notre Dame, 21-3, in South Bend to finish with a record of 5-6, the Nittany Lions' first losing season in 49 years.

December 19, 1989 — Representatives of Penn State and the Big Ten Conference announce that an "invitation in principle" has been extended for Penn State to join the Big Ten. The invitation is made formal on June 4, 1990 in a 7-3 vote of the Council of 10 ruling body and Penn State accepts.

December 29, 1989 — In one of the zaniest games in Penn State history, the Nittany Lions best BYU in a Holiday Bowl shootout, 50-39, scoring 21 points in a wild fourth quarter that includes two spectacular plays, one by All-American linebacker Andre Collins and another by defensive back Gary Brown. Collins scores Penn State's first-ever two points off an opponent conversion attempt when he returns an interception 102 yards following a BYU touchdown. Moments later, Brown strips the ball from Cougars' quarterback Ty Detmer and runs 53 yards for another TD with 45 seconds remaining.

November 17, 1990 — Penn State pulls off one of the biggest upsets in program history as freshman Craig Fayak kicks a 34-yard field goal with 58 seconds left to give the 18th-ranked Nittany Lions a 24-21 victory at No. 1 Notre Dame after trailing at halftime, 21-7.

Spring 1991 — The Big Ten announces Penn State football will be fully integrated into the Big Ten for the 1993 season. Iowa becomes the first opponent on the schedule, fulfilling dates previously set with Notre Dame in 1993 and 1994. The new Big Ten schedule is expected to mark the end of games with traditional rivals Pitt and West Virginia.

September 7, 1991 — A 10,000-seat upper deck is added in the north end of Beaver Stadium and a new attendance record of 94,000 is set as Penn State beats Cincinnati, 81-0, in the home-opener. The score is the largest winning point differential in the Paterno era.

January 1, 1992 — In the most bizarre and exciting four-minute span in program history, the Nittany Lions come back from a 17-7 third-quarter deficit with 28 points in less than four minutes to defeat Tennessee, 42-17, in the Fiesta Bowl. A crowd of 71,133 helps take Penn State's total season attendance over one million for the first time, with 1,017,843 attending the Lions' 13 games.

September 12, 1992 — A new policy is implemented banning smoking inside Beaver Stadium, starting with the season opener against Temple. For just the second time in the Paterno era, a true freshman starts at quarterback as Wally Richardson leads the Nittany Lions to 49-8 victory over Temple.

October 10, 1992 — In what is the biggest game at Beaver Stadium in several years and a clash of unbeaten teams, No. 2 Miami (Fla.) beats No. 5 Penn State, 17-14, with the help of an interception return for a TD and sends the Nittany Lions into a tailspin for the season.

January 1, 1993 — Penn State loses to Stanford, 24-3, in the Blockbuster Bowl in Joe Robbie Stadium in its final game as an independent.

September 4, 1993 — Penn State ends 106 years of independence with a 38-20 win over Minnesota in its first game as a member of the Big Ten Conference. Redshirt sophomore wideout Bobby Engram catches four touchdown passes of 29, 31, 20 and 31 yards from junior quarterback John Sacca to set an all-time touchdown receiving record. Minnesota's Tim Schade sets two Penn State opponent records, completing 34-of-66 pass attempts, which stood until the 2012 TicketCity Bowl (Case Keenum; 45-of-69).

September 18, 1993 — Joe Paterno wins his 250th game as head coach and receives the game ball from the players as the Nittany Lions shut out Iowa in Iowa City, 31-0, behind a defense that sets up three touchdowns with interceptions and sacks the Hawkeye quarterback nine times for 89 yards in losses.

October 16, 1993 — Penn State plays its 1,000th game in history and loses at Beaver Stadium in the first meeting with Michigan, 21-13, for its initial defeat in the Big Ten Conference.

November 27, 1993 — The Nittany Lions rally from a 37-14 deficit late in the third quarter on the passing of Kerry Collins to Bobby Engram to beat Michigan State, 38-37, at East Lansing and clinch third place in their first year of Big Ten conference play.

December 30, 1993 — Jim Tarman retires as Athletic Director and is succeeded by former football walk-on Tim Curley.

October 15, 1994 — Unbeaten Penn State beats Michigan, 31-24, in Ann Arbor before the then-largest crowd ever to see the Nittany Lions play, 106,832, and is voted No. 1 for the first time since the 1987 Fiesta Bowl victory over Miami (Fla.) in polls by both the Associated Press writers and broadcasters and the USA Today/CNN coaches.

October 29, 1994 — The Nittany Lions trounce Ohio State, 63-14, but still lose their No. 1 Associated Press ranking to previously No. 3 Nebraska. Ohio native Ki-Jana Carter scores four touchdowns and runs for 137 yards and quarterback Kerry Collins passes for 265 yards and two TDs as the defense limits Ohio State to 214 net yards, while intercepting three passes.

November 5, 1994 — The Nittany Lions lose their No. 1 USA Today/CNN ranking to Nebraska after two last-minute touchdowns by Indiana make a 35-29 win in Bloomington look closer than it was.

November 12, 1994 — Penn State claims its first Big Ten Championship by overcoming a 21-0 first-quarter deficit with one of the greatest clutch drives in school history, a 96-yard, 15-play march into the rain and wind late in the fourth quarter to beat Illinois, 35-31, at Champaign in a late afternoon game televised by ABC. The drive is keyed by passes from quarterback Kerry Collins to Bobby Engram and Kyle Brady and the running of Ki-Jana Carter and Brian Milne, who scored the winning TD on a two-yard plunge with 57 seconds left in the game.

January 2, 1995 — Penn State beats Oregon, 38-20, to win the Rose Bowl, but, despite a 12-0 season, finishes No. 2 to Nebraska, which is named National Champion by the Associated Press and USA Today/CNN. The New York Times computer rankings list Penn State No. 1 with a schedule rated the 19th toughest by the NCAA compared to Nebraska's 57th rating.

November 18, 1995 — State College is hit with a rare 18-inch snowfall three days before No. 12 Michigan visits Beaver Stadium. Volunteers, including some local inmates, clear the stands of snow. An estimated 80,000 watch in what is now known as Penn State's third Snow Bowl as Joe Nastasi's runs for a two-yard touchdown on a fake field goal late in the game that seals the Nittany Lions' 27-17 win.

November 25, 1995 — Wide receiver Bobby Engram climaxes his career and cements his standing as one of the greatest clutch players in Penn State history, scoring the winning touchdown with eight seconds left and no time outs on a four-yard flanker screen pass from Wally Richardson, ducking under two Michigan State tacklers, to give the Nittany Lions a thrilling 24-20 win over Michigan State at East Lansing.

August 25, 1996 — Penn State introduces a new logo with a Lion head looking more fierce as Penn State upsets USC, 24-7, before a record Kickoff Classic crowd of 77,716. Tailback Curtis Enis comes within 15 yards of Curt Warner's game rushing record with 241 yards and three touchdowns at Giants Stadium.

September 28, 1996 — Penn State becomes just the sixth school in college football history to win 700 games, beating Wisconsin, 23-20, at Madison in a last-second thriller.

October 12, 1996 — Tackle John Blick becomes the first true freshman to start in the interior offensive line in the Paterno era in a 31-14 Homecoming win over Purdue.

September 2, 1997 — For first time, Penn State is rated No. 1 in the Associated Press preseason poll. The USA Today/CNN coaches poll ranks the Nittany Lions No. 2 behind Washington.

September 20, 1997 — Penn State scores 50 points in the first half to tie the record of the unbeaten 1947 team in a 57-21 romp at Louisville, but loses the No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press poll to Florida, which beats Tennessee.

October 11, 1997 — The Nittany Lions come from behind to beat No. 7 Ohio State, 31-27, before a record crowd of 97,282 at Beaver Stadium and move to No. 1 in the Associated Press and USA Today/CNN polls for the first time since October 23, 1994, as LSU upsets previous No. 1 Florida.

October 18, 1997 — Penn State has to come from behind to beat Minnesota, 16-15, and loses the No. 1 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today/CNN polls to Nebraska, which beats Texas Tech.

September 12, 1998 — Joe Paterno wins his 300th career game, becoming only the sixth coach in history to reach the milestone and the first to do it all at one college, as the Nittany Lions beat Bowling Green, 48-3, before 96,291 in Beaver Stadium.

October 31, 1998 — Sophomore linebacker LaVar Arrington makes one of the most spectacular plays in program history, leaping over the Illinois center and guard as the ball is snapped and stops the runner cold just as he gets the hand-off. Sports Illustrated later cites the "LaVar Leap" as college football's "defensive play of the year" as the Nittany Lions beat the Fighting Illini, 27-0.

December 28, 1999 — The Nittany Lions shutout No. 18 Texas A&M, 24-0, in the Alamo Bowl to finish the season 10-3 and ranked No. 11 in the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls.

Joe Paterno was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007. He was forced to delay his induction by one year due to leg injuries suffered in the 2006 game at Wisconsin.

April 15, 2000 — Courtney Brown and LaVar Arrington are selected No. 1 and No. 2, respectively, in the 2000 NFL Draft, making them the only Penn State players to be taken with the top two picks in the same draft.

September 30, 2000 — One week after freshman cornerback Adam Taliaferro suffers a career-ending spinal injury in a game at Ohio State, the Nittany Lions rally to beat eventual Big Ten champion Purdue, 22-20, in Beaver Stadium.

September 1, 2001 — Less than one year after suffering a serious spinal injury, Adam Taliaferro leads the Nittany Lions onto the field against Miami (Fla.) in the first game in the newly-expanded Beaver Stadium, which grows to a capacity of 107,282.

October 27, 2001 — Penn State rallies from a 27-9 deficit to score the final 20 points and defeat Ohio State, 29-27, giving Joe Paterno his 324th career victory and moving him past Paul "Bear" Bryant and into the all-time victories lead among major college coaches. The comeback is then Penn State's greatest at home under Paterno. Quarterback Zack Mills gains a school-record 418 yards of total offense.

August 23, 2002 – The NCAA adds postseason statistics of players and teams to its official football record book starting with the 2002 season. The NCAA started keeping statistics in 1937 when there were few postseason bowl games being played. A poll of membership favored the change. However, the new edict stipulates that statistics from bowl games played before 2002 will not be retroactively included.

September 14, 2002 — The Nittany Lions bury unbeaten and No. 8 ranked Nebraska, 40-7, in a primetime meeting in front of a Beaver Stadium record crowd of 110,753.

November 16, 2002 — Senior tailback Larry Johnson rushes for a Penn State record 327 yards, scoring four touchdowns, to lead the Nittany Lions to a 58-25 win at Indiana.

November 23, 2002 — Larry Johnson rushes for 279 yards and four touchdowns against Michigan State to become the first Nittany Lion and only the ninth player in NCAA Division I-A history to gain 2,000 yards in a season. The Maxwell and Doak Walker awards winner, Johnson finishes the season with 2,087 yards on 271 attempts, scoring 20 touchdowns.

October 9, 2004 — The first Penn State Student Whiteout makes a strong and lasting impression on the Nittany Lions, the Beaver Stadium faithful and the opposition, as No. 9 Purdue escapes with a 20-13 win.

November 13, 2004 — The Nittany Lion defense stops Indiana on four consecutive running plays from the Penn State 1-yard line to preserve a dramatic 22-18 win in Bloomington. The victory began a streak that saw Penn State post a 51-13 record through the end of the 2009 season.

September 24, 2005 — Penn State stages a critical come-from-behind 34-29 win at Northwestern in the Big Ten opener. After falling behind, 23-7, and still trailing, 29-27, with less than 2:00 to play, the Nittany Lions convert a fourth-and-15 play from their own 15-yard line, gaining 20 yards on a pass from Michael Robinson to tight end Isaac Smolko. Robinson then throws his third touchdown pass of the game, connecting on a 36-yard strike to freshman Derrick Williams with 51 seconds remaining for the dramatic win. All-America linebacker Paul Posluszny makes 22 tackles (14 solo).

October 1, 2005 — Paul Posluszny's leaping tackle at the goal line highlights the Nittany Lions' 44-14 thumping of No. 18 Minnesota, lifting Penn State to 5-0 and back into the national rankings. Quarterback Michael Robinson (114) and tailback Tony Hunt (112) become the first Penn State tandem to gain 100 rushing yards in a Big Ten game.

October 8, 2005 — In the second student "White Out," All-American Tamba Hali forces a fumble near midfield with 1:21 to play that Scott Paxson recovers to spark the three-point underdog and 16th-ranked Nittany Lions to a 17-10 win over No. 6 Ohio State before an electrifying night time crowd of 109,839 and a national ESPN TV audience. The stunning victory vaults Penn State into the Top 10 for the first time in the regular season since 1999. ESPN's TV analyst, one-time Ohio State quarterback Kirk Herbstreit, enthusiastically cites Penn State as having "the best student section in the country -- they're crazy." His words, often repeated later, turn the "Penn State "White Outs" into a college football icon.

January 3, 2006 — Kevin Kelly's 29-yard field goal in the third overtime lifts Big Ten Champion Penn State to a 26-23 victory over Florida State in the 2006 FedEx Orange Bowl. In a meeting of the two winningest major college coaches of all-time, the then-longest game in Penn State history ends at 12:57 a.m. The Nittany Lions (11-1) finish No. 3 in the final polls.

January 3, 2006 – Play-by-play broadcaster Steve Jones and analyst Jack Ham break the record as the longest tenured Penn State football radio team of six years held by Fran Fisher and George Paterno. Jones and Ham began working together on August 27, 2000 at the New York Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands of East Rutherford, NJ, when Penn State played the University of Southern California in the now-defunct Kickoff Classic that then marked the unofficial start the collegiate football season.

September 30, 2006 — Sophomore wide receiver Deon Butler makes 11 receptions for a school-record 216 yards, breaking O.J. McDuffie's mark of 212 (Boston College, 1992), to lead the Nittany Lions to a 33-7 win over Northwestern.

November 4, 2006 — Joe Paterno suffers serious leg and knee injuries in the third quarter at Wisconsin when two players tumble into him on the sideline. Paul Posluszny becomes Penn State's all-time leading tackler with 14 stops, passing Greg Buttle's mark of 343 that had stood since 1975. A two-time All-American and Bednarik Award winner, Posluszny finishes his career with 372 tackles.

November 11, 2006 — Joe Paterno misses just the third game in his Penn State coaching career, while recovering from surgery on his left leg six days earlier. The Nittany Lions limit Temple to two first downs and 74 yards in a 47-0 win in Beaver Stadium.

January 1, 2007 — Cornerback Tony Davis scoops up a fumble and returns it 88 yards to break a 10-10 fourth-quarter tie, lifting Penn State to a 20-10 win over No. 17 Tennessee in the Outback Bowl. Facing their fifth ranked opponent of the season, the Nittany Lions force three Volunteer turnovers and finish No. 24 in the final Associated Press poll.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

September 1, 2007 — The Big Ten Conference launches its own network, the Big Ten Network, and Penn State makes its debut during the network's launch weekend, pounding FIU, 59-0, in the season opener in Beaver Stadium. The Big Ten Network would be available in more than 70 million homes by the end of its second year on the air.

September 8, 2007 — The first full stadium "Whitehouse" crowd of 110,078 sees Derrick Williams' punt return touchdown ignite the Nittany Lions to a 31-10 defeat of Notre Dame in front of an ESPN primetime audience.

November 3, 2007 — All-America linebacker Dan Connor records 11 tackles in the Nittany Lions' 26-19 Senior Day win over Purdue, moving him past Paul Posluszny to become Penn State's all-time leading tackler. A two-time All-American and winner of the 2007 Bednarik Award, Connor finishes his career with 419 tackles.

November 10, 2007 — Junior kicker Kevin Kelly becomes Penn State's all-time leading scorer in the Nittany Lions' 31-0 blanking of Temple in Philadelphia, kicking a 32-yard field goal and connecting on all four PAT attempts. Kelly surpasses Craig Fayak's total of 282 points from 1990-93.

December 4, 2007 — Joe Paterno becomes just the third active coach to be inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. Paterno is forced to delay his induction by one year due to leg injuries suffered in the 2006 game at Wisconsin.

December 29, 2007 — Joe Paterno coaches his 500th game as head coach of the Nittany Lions. His team erases a 14-0 first-quarter deficit to defeat Texas A&M, 24-17, in the Valero Alamo Bowl. A diving 30-yard touchdown catch by Deon Butler and an 11-yard scoring run by Daryll Clark spark the win and a No. 25 ranking in the final USA Today Coaches poll.

September 27, 2008 — Kevin Kelly breaks the NCAA record for consecutive games with at least one field goal (25) when he connects on a 25-yarder in the third quarter of a 38-24 primetime victory over Illinois in Beaver Stadium. Kelly's streak would reach 31 games, ending when he did not attempt a field goal in the season-finale with Michigan State.

October 11, 2008 — Senior Derrick Williams becomes the first player under Joe Paterno to return five kicks for a touchdown in his career (three punts, two kickoffs) when he returns a punt 63 yards for a score in Penn State's 48-7 win at Wisconsin.

October 18, 2008 — Jared Odrick records a safety on a sack to break a 17-17 third-quarter tie and spark the Nittany Lions' 46-17 Homecoming win over Michigan. The 46 points are the Lions' highest total in the series. Kevin Kelly becomes the Big Ten career kick scoring leader when he connects on a 32-yard field goal, giving Penn State a 29-17 lead.

October 25, 2008 — Penn State scores 10 points in the final 6:25 to record a 13-6 win over No. 10 Ohio State in a primetime game in Columbus. Mark Rubin records a career-high 11 tackles and forces a fumble in the fourth quarter, which Navorro Bowman recovers in Ohio State territory to set up the go-ahead score. Ohio State is held to its fewest points at home since a 6-0 loss to Wisconsin in 1982.

November 8, 2008 — Kevin Kelly becomes the Big Ten leader in field goals when he boots the 73rd of his career, a 23-yard kick in the first quarter of a 24-23 loss at Iowa that ends the Nittany Lions' unbeaten season.

November 15, 2008 — Deon Butler becomes Penn State's career receptions leader with 172, surpassing Bobby Engram, when he makes five catches in a 34-7 win over Indiana at Beaver Stadium.

November 22, 2008 — Daryll Clark throws for 341 yards and four touchdowns to propel No. 8 Penn State past No. 15 Michigan State, 49-18, to clinch the Nittany Lions' second Big Ten Championship in four years. Penn State passes for a school-record 419 yards, improving to 11-1 and earning a Rose Bowl berth against USC. Penn State becomes the sixth school in the nation to win 800 games.

December 11, 2008 — Senior A.Q. Shipley is announced as Penn State's first recipient of the Dave Rimington Trophy, honoring the nation's most outstanding center.

October 3, 2009 — Stephfon Green (120) and Evan Royster (105) gain more than 100 rushing yards to lead Penn State past Illinois, becoming the first tandem of Nittany Lion running backs to crack the century mark in Big Ten play.

November 21, 2009 — Quarterback Daryll Clark delivers a record-breaking performance in his final Big Ten game, throwing for 310 yards and four TDs to lead a 42-14 win at Michigan State. Clark breaks the school records for season (22 by Todd Blackledge, 1982) and career (41) touchdown passes and finishes the season with 24 and 43, respectively.

January 1, 2010 — Penn State defeats No. 13 LSU, 19-17, in the Capital One Bowl on a Collin Wagner field goal with :57 to play. The Nittany Lions (11-2) secure their first consecutive 11-win seasons since 1985-86, and finish No. 9 in the final Associated Press poll. Daryll Clark becomes Penn State's season total offense leader with 3,214 yards and the first Nittany Lion quarterback to eclipse 3,000 passing yards in a season (3,003).

September 4, 2010 — Rob Bolden becomes the first Penn State true freshman quarterback to start a season opener in 100 years (Shorty Miller, 1910) and leads Penn State to a 44-14 win over Youngstown State. Bolden goes 20-of-29 for 239 yards, with two touchdowns and one interception to deliver the best passing performance by a Penn State true freshman quarterback in program history.

September 18, 2010 — Penn State beats Kent State, 24-0, for its 500th victory since Joe Paterno joined the coaching staff in 1950. The shutout was the Nittany Lions' 41st since Paterno became head coach.

September 25, 2010 — Collin Wagner ties the school record with five field goals to lift the Nittany Lions past Temple, 22-13.

November 6, 2010 — Penn State rallies from a 21-0 deficit late in the first half to beat Northwestern, 35-21, giving Joe Paterno his 400th career victory. Paterno becomes the first Football Bowl Subdivision coach with 400 wins and just the third in NCAA history. Matt McGloin throws a career-high four touchdown passes to lead the rally. The comeback is Penn State's largest at home under Paterno and matches the biggest comeback all-time under the Hall of Fame mentor (trailed 21-0 at Illinois in 1994; won, 35-31).

October 29, 2011 — Silas Redd rushes for 100 yards or more for the fifth consecutive game and scores the game-winning touchdown with 1:08 to play to lift Penn State to a 10-7 win over Illinois. The Nittany Lions improve to 8-1 overall and become the first team in Big Ten history to win five consecutive conference games by 10 points or less. The victory is the 409th of Joe Paterno's career moving him past legendary Grambling coach Eddie Robinson for the most wins in NCAA Division I history and No. 2 all-time for all NCAA divisions. Paterno's career record stands at 409-136-3 over 46 years in what would be the final game for the Hall of Fame coach.

November 9, 2011 — The Penn State Board of Trustees announces President Graham Spanier and head coach Joe Paterno have been relieved of their duties, effective immediately, in the wake of the Jerry Sandusky investigation. Long-time assistant coach and defensive coordinator Tom Bradley is named interim head coach for the remainder of the season.

November 12, 2011 — On an emotionally-charged Senior Day in Beaver Stadium, Penn State rallies from a 17-0 deficit to within 17-14 against new Big Ten opponent Nebraska, but falls by three points. November 30, 2019 — Penn State closes the regular season with a 27-6 victory over Rutgers to improve to 10-2. It marked the 24th 10-win season in program history and 10th time since joining the Big Ten in 1993.The Nittany Lions reached the 10-win mark in the regular season for the 19th in program history.

December 28, 2019 — Led by a team-bowl-record 202 rushing yards by running back Journey Brown, No. 10 Penn State rushes for a team-bowl-record 396 yards en route to a 53-39 victory over No. 17 Memphis in the 84th annual Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic in AT&T Stadium. Penn State finished with an 11-2 record for its 17th 11-win season in program history and third in the last four years, repeating a feat not accomplished since 1968-71. The Nittany Lions also improved to 3-0-1 all-time in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic and earned their second consecutive win in a New Year's Six bowl game (Fiesta, 2017).

April 23-25, 2020 — A total of five Nittany Lions are selected in the 2020 NFL Draft, including defensive end Yetur Gross-Matos (38th overall, Carolina Panthers), wide receiver KJ Hamler (46th overall, Denver Broncos), cornerback John Reid (4th round, 141st overall, Houston Texans), linebacker Cam Brown (6th round, 183rd overall, New York Giants) and defensive lineman Robert Windsor (6th round, 193rd overall, Indianapolis Colts). It the third-straight year that Penn State has had at least five draft picks. The last time the Nittany Lions had three consecutive years of five or more picks was 1991-93.

October 24, 2020 — The Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors (COP/C) adopted significant medical protocols including daily antigen testing, enhanced cardiac screening and an enhanced data-driven approach when making decisions about COVID-19 practice/competition. The COP/C voted unanimously to resume the football season starting the weekend of October 24, 2020. Penn State opened the season at Indiana.

November 28, 2020 —Penn State collected a season-high 254 rushing yards as it earned a 27-17 win over Michigan. It was Penn State's first win in The Big House since 2009.

December 5, 2020 —Penn State added to its impressive football history as it earned the program's 900th win. The Nittany Lions' used a strong defensive effort to pick up a 23-7 win over Rutgers at SHI Stadium. Penn State became the nation's eighth program to reach 900 wins, joining Michigan (964), Ohio State (928), Alabama (924), Texas (921), Notre Dame (917), Oklahoma (914) and Nebraska (903).

December 19, 2020 — Penn State scored 42 unanswered points to earn a 56-21 win over Illinois in Beaver Stadium. The Nittany Lions and Fighting Illini played as part of the inaugural Big Ten Champions Week. Jahan Dotson scored on two receptions over 70 yards and the Nittany Lions added four rushing touchdowns.

September 4, 2021 — No. 19/20 Penn State opened its 2021 campaign with a 16-10 road victory against Big Ten foe No. 12 Wisconsin. The Nittany Lion defense shined in the game, forcing three turnovers in the contest including two in the game's final minutes on interceptions by Jaquan Brisker and Ji'Ayir Brown. It marked Penn State's first season-opening victory against a ranked opponent since 1999 when the Nittany Lions defeated No. 4 Arizona, 41-7.

September 11, 2021 — For the first time in 22 months, fans filled the seats of Beaver Stadium as Penn State opened its home schedule with a 44-13 victory over Ball State. It was Penn State's 300th win in Beaver Stadium as the Nittany Lions became one of just nine FBS teams with 300 wins in their current stadium. On the 20th anniversary of the tragic September 11 terrorist attacks, the family of former Penn State football player Patrick Dwyer served as honorary captains.

September 18, 2021 — The No. 10/12 Penn State celebrated the annual Penn State White Out game with a 28-20 win over No. 22/20 Auburn. The Nittany Lions defeated two ranked opponents in their first three games of the season for the first time in program history. The win was Penn State's first regular-season victory over an SEC opponent since the Nittany Lions defeated Alabama 9-0 in 1990. The crowd of 109,958 was the 10th largest in Beaver Stadium history.

October 2, 2021— No. 4/6 Penn State held Indiana's offense scoreless in two trips to the red zone, culminating in a 24-0 shutout at Beaver Stadium in the annual Penn State Stripe Out game. The Penn State defense produced its first shutout in two years, its last also coming in Big Ten play at Maryland in 2019. The defense held Indiana over 100 yards below its season average in total offense, and nearly 100 yards below its season average in rushing yards..

April 28-30, 2022— Penn State saw eight players selected in the 2022 NFL Draft, the most since 1996 (10). The Nittany Lions have had five or more picks in five-consecutive years, the first time since PSU had a string of seven-straight drafts of five-or-more picks (1978-84). A total of 31 players have been drafted in the last five NFL drafts for Penn State, the most in a five-year span for the program since 1992-96 (36 picks).The eight draft picks for the Nittany Lions this year ranked fourth in the country.

Information from the Penn State Football Encyclopedia by Lou Prato, a noted Penn State football historian, was used in this compilation. Current as of July 1, 2022.

Wide receiver Chris Godwin set the Penn State record for receiving yards in a bowl game with 187 in the 2017 Rose Bowl vs. USC.

Placekicker Sam Ficken is pursued by his jubilant teammates celebrating the senior's PAT that lifted Penn State over Boston College, 31-30, in overtime in the 2014 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. The Nittany Lions ended the 2014 season with a 7-6 season record in James Franklin's first year as head coach.

BOWL GAME RECAPS

1923 ROSE: January 1, 1923

Penn State fought a gallant fight, but USC was just too strong in a 14-3 victory in the 1923 Rose Bowl.

The 29-member Penn State travel party departed State College by train on December 19 and, after stops in Chicago and the Grand Canyon, arrived in Pasadena on Christmas Eve. The morning of the game, the team took in the Tournament of Roses Parade, then returned to its hotel. The Lions left in several taxi cabs at 11 a.m. for the Rose Bowl, but as the 2:15 p.m. kickoff approached, the team was mired in post-parade traffic. Only after the cabbies drove over the lawns of local residents did the Penn State contingent finally reach the Rose Bowl.

When the team arrived, they found kickoff had already been delayed by 10 minutes. Penn State coach Hugo Bezdek and USC coach "Gloomy Gus" Henderson almost came to blows as the Lions' skipper successfully lobbied game officials for additional warmup time. The game finally started an hour late and ended in moonlight, with sportswriters lighting matches in order to finish their stories. Even with the 60-minute delay, many of the 43,000 spectators did not reach their seats until the second quarter.

Penn State took an early 3-0 lead on Mike Palm's 20-yard drop-kick field goal, but Roy "Bullet" Baker rushed for 123 yards and one touchdown for the Trojans and the Lions were held to five first downs and 104 yards. Penn State's share of the proceeds — $21,349.64 — was directed toward the $2 million Emergency Building Fund and in particular the construction of Varsity Hall (now Irvin Hall).

1948 COTTON: January 1, 1948

Penn State climaxed a 25-year climb back to national prominence with a 13-13 tie against SMU in the Cotton Bowl. Unheralded quarterback Elwood Petchel matched SMU All-American Doak Walker yard-for-yard as the Lions rallied from 13-0 back and had several chances to win the game.

Petchel threw for scores in the second and third quarters and nearly had a third at the end of the game, when a defender tipped away the ball at the last second. In the third quarter the Lions tied the game at 13 and Ed Czekaj's PAT kick appeared to be good, but was ruled no good by a hesitating referee. The Lions outgained SMU 258 to 206, but two lost fumbles hurt their chances. Petchel completed seven of 15 passes for 165 yards and two touchdowns. Fran Rogel gained 95 yards on 25 carries, easily out-rushing Walker.

Because two Lions, Wally Triplett and Dennie Hoggard, were African-American, none of the Dallas hotels would allow the team to stay in their facilities, forcing the squad to stay at a Naval Air Station 14 miles from Dallas.

Coach Bob Higgins' squad finished 9-0-1, won its first Lambert Trophy and was No. 4 in the Associated Press poll.

Coach Rip Engle took the advice of veteran bowl participant Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech and installed some new plays to keep his Penn State team busy for the 1959 Liberty Bowl. That advice paid off as Penn State scored on a fake field goal play to upend Alabama, 7-0, in the inaugural Liberty Bowl in Philadelphia. The play came in the final seconds of the first half with Galen Hall passing 18 yards to Roger Kochman for the score. Game conditions at Municipal Stadium (later renamed JFK Stadium) were less than ideal and Penn State's defense made the points stand up.

Directed by quarterback Richie Lucas, the Maxwell Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up, the Lions' offense completely dominated the game, outgaining Coach Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide 319 to 131, including a 278 to 104 edge on the ground. The victory was the first bowl win for the Nittany Lions, improving their postseason mark to 1-1-1. Penn State has not been below the .500 mark in bowl games since the historic win.

BOWL HISTORY

1960 LIBERTY: December 17, 1960

Penn State's second team — the "Reddie" unit — proved the value of depth as the Nittany Lions rolled over Oregon, 41-12, for their second straight Liberty Bowl win in as many years. Twenty-one unanswered points in the second quarter gave the Lions a lead they would not relinquish on a cold, windy day in Philadelphia.

Oregon's long first-quarter TD drive produced an early lead, but quarterback Dick Hoak and his second unit marched for two scores, while quarterback Galen Hall led another in the second quarter for a 21-6 halftime bulge. The Ducks scored in the third quarter, but again, the Reddie unit produced three TDs in the fourth quarter. Hoak enjoyed an outstanding day on defense as well as running and passing on offense. He ran for 61 yards and two scores on nine carries; and completed three of five passes for 67 yards and a TD strike.

It was the running game that was the difference as the Lions outgained Oregon 301 to 187 and 420 to 360 overall. The 420 yards of total offense was a school bowl record until 1975. The Lions also forced four turnovers.

1961 GATOR: December 30, 1961

Penn State justified its selection as the Lambert Trophy winner with a decisive 30-15 victory over Georgia Tech, notching its third straight bowl victory in as many years in its first postseason game in the South. Despite three early-season losses, the Lions downed the Yellow Jackets, who had allowed only 4.4 points a game, registering four shutouts.

Galen Hall threw three touchdown passes as Penn State rallied from a 9-0 deficit. The Nittany Lion defenders caused five turnovers and took advantage of a misfired fake punt and an interception to put the game away with 10 fourth-quarter points. All-America end Dave Robinson made a stunning play midway through the third quarter and with the Lions leading 14-9, leaping over two blockers and forcing quarterback Stan Gann to fumble, which Robinson recovered at the Jackets' 35-yard line. Hall struck quickly, tossing a 35-yard scoring strike to Junior Powell.

The Jackets carried the day statistically (outgaining Penn State 412 to 313), but special teams play for Penn State was critical as Yellow Jacket errors and a superb Lion punting game (eight punts for a 41.0 yard average) helped offset Georgia Tech's rushing game. Hall was superb, hitting 12-of-22 passes for 175 yards and three touchdowns to earn game MVP honors.

1962 GATOR: December 29, 1962

Penn State posted a 9-1 regular season in 1962, losing by three points at Army, and was ranked No. 9 in the final Associated Press poll, earning its second-straight Lambert Trophy. But, the Lions were snubbed from a New Year's Day bowl and accepted an invitation to play in the Gator Bowl for the second consecutive year, facing unranked, 6-4 Florida.

The Lions managed only eight first downs and 147 yards and lost to the Gators, 17-7. Except for a 76-yard touchdown march culminated by Pete Liske's one-yard TD run in the second period, Rip Engle's squad didn't slightly resemble the offensive terror that had swept its last six games, scoring 164 points in the process.

Florida quarterback Tommy Shannon completed seven of nine passes for 79 yards and two scores and mixed his plays to befuddle the big Penn State defense. The Gators added the longest field goal in Gator Bowl history and forced five turnovers to snap the Lions' two-game bowl winning streak.

The best experience of this postseason may have been the squad's trip to the White House where they gave President John F. Kennedy a Nittany Lion statue. The Lions practiced for more than a week at the U.S. Naval Academy before encountering difficult travel from Harrisburg to Jacksonville, having to bus to Pittsburgh and land in Orlando due to poor weather conditions in Pennsylvania and Florida.

Penn State led for 59 minutes and 45 seconds, but Florida State rallied from a 17-0 deficit and kicked a field goal with 15 seconds remaining to earn a 17-17 tie in the Gator Bowl.

The Nittany Lions did all their scoring in the first half, thanks largely to quarterback Tom Sherman. He kicked a 27-yard field goal in the first period and then threw touchdown passes to Jack Curry and Ted Kwalick for a 17-0 bulge at halftime.

Early in the second half, the Lions stopped the Seminoles on downs at the Penn State five-yard line. Three rushes by Charlie Pittman appeared to give Penn State a first down, but the measurement came up six inches short. In his first bowl game as head coach, Joe Paterno decided to go for it, but Sherman's fourth-down sneak was short. Florida State quarterback Kim Hammond tossed a 20-yard scoring pass to Ron Sellers soon after to swing the momentum. Hammond was 37-of-53 passing for 362 yards, with four interceptions, while Sellers had 14 receptions for 145 yards.

After the game, Paterno told the Philadelphia Inquirer, "I may be rationalizing, but in the long run, that fourth-down call may be the best thing I ever did for Penn State football."

1969 ORANGE: January 1, 1969

"There was no way Penn State could win...The last two minutes were pure unadulterated insanity." — Pittsburgh Press

The Nittany Lions posted perhaps the school's most dramatic victory with an unbelievable 15-14 win over sixth-ranked Kansas in the 1969 Orange Bowl. In the final 1:16 seconds of the game, Penn State turned what appeared to be a Jayhawk victory into an incredible cap to an 11-0 season and the No. 2 national ranking.

With Kansas leading, 14-7, with 10 minutes to play, Jayhawk coach Pepper Rodgers passed on a field goal from the Penn State five-yard line and running back John Riggins was stopped on fourth-and-one by Paul and Pete Johnson, keeping the Lions within a touchdown.

The game took on legendary status in the last two minutes after Penn State was forced to punt. The Lions had all three timeouts left and used them well. After tackle Mike Reid dropped quarterback Bobby Douglass for 13 yards in losses on consecutive plays of Kansas' final offensive series, Penn State helped its cause when Neal Smith partially blocked the punt, providing one last opportunity from the 50 yard-line with 1:16 left. Quarterback Chuck Burkhart connected with Bob Campbell on a 47-yard pass to the Kansas three, just as Kansas running back Donnie Shanklin was being announced as the game MVP. After fullback Tom Cherry tried the middle twice, Burkhart faked a handoff to Charlie Pittman and carried around the left end for the touchdown with just eight seconds remaining.

Never one fond of ties, Joe Paterno elected to go for the win, but Burkhart's two-point pass to Campbell was knocked away and the Kansas players began to celebrate with fans who were coming onto the field. But, a penalty had been called on the Jayhawks for 12 men on the field and, as game films would later reveal, Kansas had 12 men on the field for four plays, including Burkhart's touchdown.

Presented with a second opportunity, this time from the one-and-a-half-yard line, Campbell swept around the left side and into the end zone for the scintillating 15-14 victory as Penn State became the first Eastern school to win the Orange Bowl since 1937.

If ever a defense won a bowl game, it happened in the 1970 Orange Bowl as Penn State repeatedly slammed the door on Missouri's highly-touted offense for a 10-3 victory. It was a superlative performance by the Lion defenders as they led Penn State to its second straight Orange Bowl victory, its 22nd straight win and its 30th consecutive game without defeat.

But, a second straight 11-0 campaign again earned the Lions the No. 2 national ranking, not their first National Championship. Having already voted to play in the Orange Bowl, the fifth-ranked Lions saw No. 1 Ohio State lose to Michigan, leaving the winner between unbeatens Texas and Arkansas as the likely new No. 1. President Richard Nixon was in attendance in Austin and after the Longhorns' 15-14 win, declared Texas national champions, much to the chagrin and outrage of Joe Paterno, his squad and Nittany Lion fans.

With the controversy about Number One still being debated, the Nittany Lion defense was outstanding in stopping the Big Eight champions. Nineteen times the powerful Missouri offense got possession of the ball and nine times the Lion defenders forced a turnover, intercepting seven passes and recovering two fumbles. The seven interceptions remain an Orange Bowl record, bettering the six turned in by Georgia against TCU in the 1942 contest, as well as being tied for the second-highest ever for any bowl game.

All of Penn State's scoring came within a 21-second span late in the first quarter, with Mike Reitz kicking a 29-yard field goal with 3:44 remaining and Chuck Burkhart passing moments later to Lydell Mitchell for a 28-yard touchdown. The second score was set up after All-American Mike Reid jarred the ball loose from Missouri's Joe Moore on the kickoff and Mike Smith recovered the fumble. Burkhart completed 11 of 26 passes for 187 yards to earn Most Valuable Back honors, while Reid was chosen Most Valuable Lineman.

Missouri connected on a 33-yard field goal late in the first half and reached the Penn State 14-yard line with 1:42 to play. But, George Landis grabbed his second interception of the game at the two and the Lions remained unbeaten in their 30th straight game, tying the school mark set from 1920-22.

1972 COTTON: January 1, 1972

Stung by a season-ending loss at Tennessee, Penn State looked at the 1972 Cotton Bowl as an opportunity to redeem itself and make a statement to the college football nation. With the No. 1 snub of 1969 not far removed, the game with Texas would provide a great opportunity for the Nittany Lions to earn some national respect. In what some considered a "must" win for the rising national powerhouse, Penn State blitzed highly-touted Texas, 30-6, for its third straight major bowl victory.

Neither team was able to do much in a sluggish first half that wound up with Texas holding a 6-3 edge. The Longhorns had moved the ball from their famed Wishbone offense early in the contest, but the Penn State defense began to take control as the game wore on. The second half was all Penn State. The Lions took the lead for the first time early in the third quarter after Charlie Zapiec recovered a fumble at the Texas 41-yard line. A 19-yard run by Lydell Mitchell and a 19-yard pass from John Hufnagel to tight end Bob Parsons helped the Lions reach the Texas 1. Mitchell followed a block by All-American Dave Joyner for the game's first touchdown.

The game-breaker came the next time the Lions got the ball. On second down from their 35-yard line, Hufnagel faked to Mitchell and lofted a pass to split end Scott Skarzynski dashing alone down the right sideline for a 17-6 lead. Alberto Vitiello added two more field goals and Hufnagel scored on a four-yard run, as the Lions controlled the ball for 13 minutes in the fourth quarter.

Defensive end Bruce Bannon was voted the Outstanding Defensive Player of the Game, although it was a team effort that held the Longhorns to 242 yards and without a touchdown for the first time in 80 games. Mitchell was an overwhelming choice as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, as the All-American capped his brilliant career with 146 yards in 27 carries and one score.

"It is one of the greatest victories in Penn State history," stated a joyous Joe Paterno. "I don't think we've ever had a game that we had to win more than this one."

1972 SUGAR: December 31, 1972

Penn State was matched against one of the nation's top teams in the 1972 Sugar Bowl on New Year's Eve, and while battling No. 2 Oklahoma throughout the game, fell 14-0, snapping a three-game bowl win streak.

The game did not get off to a good start when the Lions learned just hours before kickoff that leading rusher John Cappelletti had a virus and a 102-degree temperature and would be unable to play. Without Cappelletti's ball-control running, the defense spent a great deal of time on the field. As it turned out, the Lion defenders did a spectacular job against one of the nation's most explosive offenses, holding the Sooners' Wishbone attack to just 14 points. Oklahoma out-gained Penn State 453 to 196, including 278 to 49 on the ground, but the stingy Lion defense forced eight Sooner fumbles, five of which Penn State recovered.

Several weeks after the game, Oklahoma was discovered to have used two ineligible freshmen players and the NCAA forced the Sooners to forfeit the games the players had participated in. Joe Paterno and school athletic officials refused to accept the win.

Prior to that revelation, Paterno accepted an offer to become the Boston Patriots' head coach and general manager four days after the Sugar Bowl, but changed his mind the following night.

1974 ORANGE: January 1, 1974

For the third time in six seasons, Penn State found itself in the Orange Bowl attempting to complete a perfect season. And, as they did in the 1969 and 1970 Orange Bowls, the Nittany Lions rose to the occasion. LSU provided stiff competition, but a hard-fought 16-9 win over the Tigers put the finishing touches on Penn State's first 12-0 campaign.

The Tigers took the opening kickoff and quickly scored on a three-yard run by Steve Rogers. The Lion defense made a few adjustments and LSU's only other points came on a safety when Penn State punter Brian Masella downed a bad snap in his own end zone in the third quarter.

Chris Bahr got Penn State on the scoreboard with a 44-yard field goal in the first quarter. The Nittany Lions grabbed control in the second period, sparked by Chuck Herd, who made a brilliant one-hand catch of a Tom Shuman pass on the LSU 20-yard line and ran it in to complete a memorable 72-yard score. The Lions continued their surge moments later when Gary Hayman, the nation's leading punt returner in 1973, returned a punt 36 yards to the LSU 25-yard line. Heisman Trophy winner John Cappelletti vaulted over from one yard out for a 16-7 halftime edge.

Despite being one of only three unbeaten, untied teams entering the bowls, Penn State was ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press poll and the Sugar Bowl match-up between unbeatens Alabama and Notre Dame was being touted as the game for the national title.

Penn State completed a 10-2 season with a record-setting 41-20 victory over Southwest Conference champion Baylor in the Cotton Bowl. Joe Paterno's Nittany Lions came from behind for the fifth time in its 10 wins, erasing a 7-3 halftime deficit with a 38-point second-half explosion for a Cotton Bowl record 41 points.

Quarterback Tom Shuman and fullback Tom Donchez, the mainstays of the offense all season, led the record-breaking efforts. Shuman completed 10 of 20 passes for 226 yards and a touchdown and added 14 yards and another score on the ground. Donchez carried 25 times for 116 yards and a touchdown and caught four passes for 50 yards. Freshman Jimmy Cefalo also contributed greatly to the victory, rushing for 55 yards, catching three passes for 102 yards and scoring two touchdowns.

It was a close game as the third quarter ended, with Penn State holding a 17-14 edge. Three straight scores — a 3-yard run by Cefalo, a 33-yard field goal by Chris Bahr and a 2-yard run by Shuman — gave the Lions an insurmountable 34-14 lead. Shuman earned his second-straight postseason award, grabbing the Outstanding Offensive Player award as he led Penn State with a then-school bowl record 491 yards of total offense.

Penn State and Alabama made history in the first Sugar Bowl played in the newly-constructed Louisiana Superdome, with a capacity crowd of 75,212 on hand. The contest also was the first of four meetings between Joe Paterno and Paul "Bear" Bryant, two of only five Division I-A coaches with at least 300 career wins.

The game was typical of the Nittany Lions' 9-3 season, featuring outstanding defense and kicking. Alabama managed the only touchdown of the game, a 14-yard run by Mike Stock in the third quarter, which was enough to allow the Tide to pull out a 13-6 victory.

Chris Bahr, the Lions' record-setting placekicker, accounted for all of Penn State's scoring with a 42-yard field goal in the third period and a 37-yarder early in the final quarter. Alabama specialist Danny Ridgeway countered Bahr's boots with field goals of 25 and 28 yards.

Bahr's first field goal with 4:33 left in the third quarter tied the game at 3-3, but Alabama came right back with an 80-yard drive for what proved to be the winning touchdown. The game wasn't decided until Alabama stopped the Lions on a fourth-and-one try from the Penn State 39-yard line with 1:19 to play.

Meeting Notre Dame for the first time since 1928, a 3-0 turnover deficit proved to be Penn State's undoing as the Irish posted a 20-9 victory.

It was apparent in the early going that the teams were evenly matched and breaks would be the determining factor. After Penn State took an early 3-0 lead that Notre Dame erased with a first-quarter touchdown, the Irish used a turnover and solid offense to outscore the Lions, 13-0, in the second period, cruise to a 20-3 halftime lead and never relinquish their hold.

Penn State out-gained the Irish, 274-273, led by the rushing tandem of Bob Torrey and Matt Suhey. Quarterback Chuck Fusina hit 14 of 33 passes for 118 yards, including Penn State's only touchdown, an eight-yard strike to Suhey in the fourth quarter. Jimmy Cefalo made five catches for 60 yards and had three carries for 18 yards to earn Penn State Outstanding Player of the Game honors. All-America linebacker Kurt Allerman made a game-high 16 tackles.

1977 FIESTA: December 25, 1977

A then-record Fiesta Bowl crowd was treated to an exciting shootout between two of the nation's finest teams, with Penn State winning the showdown against hometown Arizona State, 42-30, to cap an 11-1 season.

The Lions won their first of seven Fiesta Bowls (without a loss), with an opportunistic kicking game, a grinding second-half running game, an alert defense and some big plays by Jimmy Cefalo.

Penn State led, 17-14, at halftime despite being held to 45 yards rushing. Joe Lally returned a blocked punt 21 yards for the first Lion touchdown, the fifth score by the punt return team in 1977. A 67-yard punt return by Cefalo then set up a 23-yard field goal by Matt Bahr. Penn State scored the third quarter's only touchdown and out-slugged the Devils, 18-16, in a furious fourth quarter, with Matt Suhey's two-yard TD run with three minutes left providing some breathing room.

Steve Geise led all rushers with 111 yards, while Bob Torrey added 107 on only nine carries, marking the only time Penn State has had two runners crack the century mark in a bowl. Suhey added 76 yards, helping the Lions to a 268-90 edge on the ground. Matt Millen made 18 tackles to capture Outstanding Defensive Player honors.

1979 SUGAR: January 1, 1979

A goal-line stand by Alabama in the fourth quarter was the key in depriving Penn State of its first National Championship. The Lions, 11-0 during the regular season and ranked first in the polls entering the Sugar Bowl in the Louisiana Superdome, twice came up short from inside the one-yard line as No. 2 Alabama hung on for a 14-7 win and the national title.

In one of the greatest defensive games ever played for the national title, the hitting was ferocious on both sides. Alabama posted the first half's only score with eight seconds left, on a 30-yard pass from Jeff Rutledge to Bruce Bolton, who made what appeared to be a diving, spectacular catch in the end zone for a 7-0 halftime lead. Photographs and video would later reveal the ball had bounced on the turf before Bolton caught it.

The Lions capitalized midway through the third quarter. Pete Harris intercepted a Rutledge pass on the Alabama 48-yard line and Chuck Fusina passed 17 yards to Scott Fitzkee to tie the score. But, 'Bama's Lou Inker returned a punt 62 yards to the Penn State 11 and Major Ogilvie's eight-yard TD run gave the Tide a 14-7 lead later in the stanza.

With about seven minutes to play, Matt Millen forced a fumble which Joe Lally recovered at the Alabama 19. On second-and-goal at the six, Fusina hit Fitzkee near the flag, but as he turned to cross the goal line, Don McNeal knocked him out two feet from the stripe. Matt Suhey's dive on third down was six inches short and on fourth down, Mike Guman was stopped short by Barry Krauss and the Tide defense in one of the memorable defensive stands in college football history. On Penn State's final possession, the Nittany Lions drove to the Alabama 41-yard line, but the Tide defense held again to seal the win.

Herb Menhardt's 20-yard field goal with 18 seconds remaining lifted Penn State to a 9-6 win over Tulane in the 21st Annual Liberty Bowl in Memphis. The win was the first in a string of five consecutive bowl victories for the Nittany Lions.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Penn State offense got untracked early in the second period. Quarterback Frank Rocco directed the Lions on a 13-play, 68-yard drive that culminated with a 33-yard Menhardt field goal for a 3-0 lead. Rocco was starting for the first time in 1979, replacing 11-game starter Dayle Tate, who suffered a shoulder injury in the Pittsburgh game earlier in the month. A 63-yard drive culminated in a 27-yard Menhardt trey later in the period for a 6-0 halftime lead.

Tulane tied the game with a pair of fourth-quarter field goals, the latter coming with less than three minutes to play. With just under 50 seconds left and the Lions at the 50, assistant coach Bob Phillips suggested a halfback option, which worked to near perfection. Rocco pitched out to Joel Coles, who pulled up on a sweep around the left side and threw a 39-yard pass to a wide open Tom Donovan, to set up Menhardt's game-winner.

Buoyed by a field goal in the final 10 seconds of the first half, Penn State played a superb second half in a satisfying 31-19 victory over Ohio State in Fiesta Bowl X in front of a record crowd of 66,738. The contest remains the Lions' only bowl game against a Big Ten opponent.

After Curt Warner's 64-yard touchdown run on the first play of the game, Ohio State used Art Schlichter's super passing to grab a 19-7 lead before Herb Menhardt's 38-yard field goal with eight seconds left in the half made it 19-10. Schlichter was 15-of-22 for 244 yards and three touchdowns in the first half.

Like many Joe Paterno teams in bowl games, the Lions made adjustments at the break and dominated the second half. On their first possession of the third quarter, Todd Blackledge directed a 75-yard drive, scoring from three yards to cut the lead to 19-17. After holding the Buckeyes to zero yards in the third stanza, Jon Williams scored on a four-yard run early in the final quarter and Booker Moore's 37-yard run climaxed an 85-yard drive and sealed the 10-2 campaign. Schlichter was 5-of-13 for 58 yards in the second half as the Lions frustrated Earl Bruce's squad.

Penn State outgained the Buckeyes 468 to 412, including a school bowl record 351 yards rushing. Warner had 18 carries for 155 yards, to establish a Nittany Lion bowl record, and one touchdown to earn the Outstanding Offensive Player Award and Frank Case earned both the Outstanding Defensive Player and Sportsmanship awards.

Penn State rode its rugged defense to a dominating 26-10 victory over USC in the first Fiesta Bowl game played on New Year's Day. Making its second consecutive appearance in Tempe, Penn State held the Trojans to 60 yards rushing and only three offensive points in the win.

Curt Warner stole the spotlight from USC's Heisman Trophy-winning running back Marcus Allen, gaining 145 yards with two touchdowns to Allen's 85 yards on 30 carries and no touchdowns, his lowest output of the season. For the second-straight year in Tempe, Warner scored the first time he touched the ball, reaching paydirt from 17 yards out for a 7-0 lead as he became the only player to be selected the Fiesta's Offensive Player of the Game two straight years.

A 52-yard scoring strike from Todd Blackledge to Gregg Garrity gave the Lions the lead for good in the second quarter and Warner added a 21-yard scoring burst in the third.

The Lions outgained the Trojans 393 to 262, recording 11 tackles for loss, including six sacks.

Penn State concluded a 10-2 season and earned the No. 3 national ranking, playing opponents with a cumulative record of 82-37-2 (68.6), including six teams ranked among the nation's top 20.

1983 SUGAR: January 1, 1983

A mid-year loss to Alabama could have proven devastating, but instead, Penn State rallied to win its last six games, rising to No. 2 in the polls, and garnering a national title match-up with unbeaten and No. 1 Georgia in the 1983 Sugar Bowl. The Sugar Bowl had not been kind to Penn State with the Lions going 0-3 in New Orleans, but on this day those prior games were forgotten, as Penn State defeated the Bulldogs, 27-23, to post an 11-1 record and earn its first National Championship after several near-misses under Joe Paterno.

Penn State jumped to a 7-0 lead, scoring in the first three minutes of the game. On consecutive plays, Todd Blackledge drilled a 33-yard pass to Mike McCloskey and found Gregg Garrity for 27 yards to the Georgia 9-yard line. Curt Warner's 2-yard run around left end gave the Lions a lead they would not relinquish. Following a Georgia field goal, treys of 38 and 45 yards by Nick Gancitano sandwiched a nine-yard Warner TD run for a 20-3 lead with less than a minute left in the half.

The Bulldogs responded with just five seconds remaining in the half on a 10-yard TD pass to Herman Archie. Georgia then took the second-half kickoff and drove 69 yards to score on Herschel Walker's one-yard run, to cut the margin to 20-17.

With Warner bothered by leg cramps, the offense struggled in the third period, but early in the fourth quarter Blackledge faked to Warner and threw a perfect 47-yard strike to Garrity, who made a sensational diving catch in the end zone. A fumbled punt set up a Georgia touchdown with 4:54 to play, but the Lion defense stuffed Walker on the two-point try to make the score 27-23. With two minutes left, Blackledge found Garrity for a first down on third down and the Lions ran out the clock, hoisting Paterno on their shoulders with his right index finger raised.

"Penn State No. 1!" shouted long-time Nittany Lion radio announcer Fran Fisher to his audience, trying to be heard above the din of the delirious blue and white clad fans who were finally able to celebrate a National Championship.

Warner gained 117 rushing yards on 18 attempts and two scores, gaining 63 gutsy yards in the second half despite the leg cramps, while Blackledge was 13-of-23 for 228 yards to earn MVP honors.

BOWL HISTORY

1983 ALOHA: December 26, 1983

Penn State tied an NCAA record with its fifth consecutive bowl victory, edging Washington, 13-10, in the 1983 Aloha Bowl, thanks to excellent punting, outstanding defense and a clutch fourth-quarter scoring drive.

The defense held potent Washington without a touchdown, but Danny Greene's 57-yard punt return for a score midway through the second quarter loomed as the key play of the game, with the Huskies holding a 10-3 lead at the start of the final quarter. Lion punter George Reynolds, whose 47.7-yard punting average on seven kicks earned him Defensive Player of the Game honors, booted a 50-yard punt to the Washington 16 late in the third quarter. The defense held and the offense answered with Nick Gancitano's 49-yard field goal to trail, 10-6, early in the final stanza.

Reynolds' next punt went to the Washington six, the defense held again, and after the ensuing punt to the Penn State 38, Kevin Baugh handed off to Kenny Jackson on a reverse for one first down. Doug Strang then hit Baugh for 16 yards to the Huskie four and tailback D.J. Dozier took the pitch over the right side for a two-yard touchdown with three minutes to play for a 13-10 victory.

The Lions gained just 213 yards, but the defense held the Huskies to 279 and Reynolds' punting proved to be a key in keeping Penn State in the game.

Oklahoma's defense turned in an outstanding effort and the Sooners made two big offensive plays for a 25-10 victory over Penn State in the 1985 Orange Bowl's national title battle.

The Nittany Lions, 11-0 and No. 1, also played well defensively against Oklahoma's wishbone, allowing just 12 first downs. The No. 2 Sooners relied on the big play — a 71-yard TD pass from Jamelle Holieway to tight end Keith Jackson on third-and-24 and a game-clinching 61-yard touchdown run by Lydell Carr — plus four Tim Lashar field goals to win. The loss was Penn State's first in the Orange Bowl after three victories.

Penn State took a 7-0 lead on its first possession. John Shaffer drove the Lions 62 yards, capped by a Tim Manoa one-yard touchdown run. But, the Sooners would score 16 unanswered points. Despite four turnovers, the Lions trailed just 19-10 as Massimo Manca attempted a 26-yard field with 2:46 to play. Manca's kick was no good and a minute later Carr's long TD run sealed the crown for the Sooners.

Penn State mustered just 14 first downs but had 267 yards against a defense which had held opponents to less than 200 yards during the regular season.

1987 FIESTA: January 2, 1987

Linebacker Pete Giftopoulos thrust his 233-pound frame between Vinny Testaverde and a possible winning touchdown in the waning seconds of the 1987 Fiesta Bowl, intercepting Testaverde's final pass at the Lions' 1-yard line to preserve Penn State's 14-10 victory over No. 1 Miami (Fla.) and earn the underdog Nittany Lions their second National Championship in four years.

In one of the most memorable National Championship games ever, the No. 2 Nittany Lions intercepted Testaverde, the Heisman Trophy winner, five times to frustrate the Hurricanes and earn their second 12-0 season.

Unbeaten Miami rolled up 22 first downs and 445 yards to eight first downs and 162 yards for the Lions, but the Hurricanes could not convert yards into points against a staunch Penn State defense that was no stranger to adversity.

Penn State answered the only Miami touchdown of the game in the second quarter with a 13-play, 74-yard drive. One of the big plays was a 23-yard pass from John Shaffer to Eric Hamilton on third-and 12. Later in the drive, Shaffer rolled around the right side four yards into the end zone with 1:14 left in the half and Massimo Manca's PAT made it 7-7 at the break.

Miami regained the lead early in the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mark Seelig. All-America linebacker Shane Conlan, who had grabbed a third-quarter interception, did it again, intercepting Testaverde's toss and returning it 39 yards to the Hurricanes' five. After a heart-stopping first-down fumbled snap was recovered by Keith Radecic, D.J. Dozier got the most important six yards of his collegiate career when he darted through a gaping hole for the go-ahead touchdown with 8:13 to play. Manca's conversion pushed the Penn State margin to 14-10.

With 18 seconds remaining, Miami had a fourth-and-goal at the Penn State 13-yard line. Testaverde tested the Lions' secondary one more time, looking for Brett Perriman in the end zone, but his pass came to rest in the arms of Giftopoulos, who cradled his second theft of the night and a Penn State National Championship as he fell on the ball after returning it to the 10-yard line with just nine seconds to play in another of the greatest moments in Lion football history.

1988 CITRUS: January 1, 1988

Clemson successfully blended the expected with the unexpected to post a 35-10 conquest of Penn State in the 1988 Florida Citrus Bowl, the first-ever meeting between the two schools. The Tigers rushed for 285 yards and quarterback Danny Williams threw for an uncharacteristic 214 yards (15-of-24) in the Nittany Lions' first appearance in Orlando.

The Lions played without leading rusher and receiver Blair Thomas, who suffered a serious knee injury in an early December practice which would sideline him for the 1988 season. He had rushed for 1,414 yards and 11 touchdowns in 1987. Freshmen Leroy Thompson and Gary Brown posted 106 yards from the tailback position in Thomas' absence. Thompson, who rushed for 55 yards and added 146 more on pass receptions (19) and kickoff returns (127), was voted the Lions' offensive MVP with 201 all-purpose yards.

Penn State's touchdown came on a perfect 39-yard pass from Matt Knizner to Mike Alexander that tied the issue at 7-7 in the second quarter. The Tigers led 14-7 at halftime but, Penn State cut it to 14-10 on a 27-yard field goal by Eric Etze early in the third stanza. Clemson responded with a TD and added two more scores in the fourth period to hand the Lions their worst bowl loss.

Senior linebacker Trey Bauer, who had six stops, three tackles for losses and a quarterback sack, was Penn State's defensive MVP.

1989 HOLIDAY: December 29, 1989

In a game which featured explosive offense on both sides, two freak defensive plays decided the issue between Penn State and BYU in the 1989 Holiday Bowl. By the time Penn State's high-octane 50-39 victory over BYU was finished, the Lions and Cougars put 89 points on the scoreboard, including an NCAA bowl record 64 in the second half; gained 1,115 total offensive yards; rolled up 61 first downs; and punted only three times.

Andre Collins made the first of the decisive defensive plays after the Cougars had closed to within 41-39 with 2:58 remaining. Collins intercepted Ty Detmer's two-point conversion pass attempt and returned it 100-plus yards to score two for the Lions.

On the ensuing BYU series, Gary Brown blitzed past Outland Trophy-winner Mohammed Elewonibi to steal the ball from Detmer as he prepared to pass and returned it 53 yards for the touchdown in the final minute that secured the wild and wacky win.

Among the flood of big plays earlier in the game was a spectacular, 52-yard TD catch by David Daniels, who leapt high in the air to grab Tony Sacca's aerial at the goal line, was hit, juggled and caught the ball as he landed on his back in the end zone for one of the superlative catches in school history.

Penn State tailback Blair Thomas broke the then-school bowl rushing record with 186 yards on 35 carries with one touchdown. Thomas also gained 46 additional yards on a pair of pass receptions for 232 all-purpose yards.

The 64 second-half points (Penn State, 38 and BYU, 26) remain tied for the then-NCAA bowl record.

1990 BLOCKBUSTER: December 28, 1990

The inaugural Blockbuster Bowl wasn't being played on New Year's Day, but was one of the most intriguing postseason contests, pitting No. 7 Penn State and No. 6 Florida State and their legendary coaches, Joe Paterno and Bobby Bowden.

After spotting the Seminoles 10 points in the first eight minutes of the game, Penn State applied pressure the rest of the way before finally bowing, 24-17, in a marquee matchup of 9-2 independents at Joe Robbie Stadium.

With Florida State leading, 24-10, senior quarterback Tom Bill came off the bench to ignite a 62-yard scoring drive in three plays, finding Terry Smith behind the secondary for a 37-yard touchdown with 6:27 to play. But two Penn State drives later came up empty, including an interception at the one-yard line with less than three minutes to play.

Penn State's other touchdown was scored on a 56-yard pass from Tony Sacca to David Daniels in the first quarter, but the Lions could not overcome three interceptions, a partially blocked punt which led to the Seminoles' first TD and a blocked field goal.

Penn State turned up the heat in a furious eight-minute span in the second half and buried the bewildered Volunteers, 42-17, beneath an avalanche of big plays on both sides of the ball in the first of what stretched to eight consecutive January bowl visits.

Penn State grabbed an early 7-0 lead, recovering a fumble on the opening kickoff and converting three plays later when Sam Gash scored on a 10-yard pass from Tony Sacca. At halftime, Tennessee had 17 first downs and 324 yards, while Penn State had just five first downs and 59 yards, but the Vols only led 10-7. Vols' quarterback Andy Kelly, who was 16-of-26 for 204 yards in the opening half, hit Cory Fleming on a 44-yard score on the initial possession of the third stanza for a 17-7 lead.

A 39-yard punt return by O.J. McDuffie ignited the Lions and Sacca found Chip LaBarca on a three-yard scoring toss to cut the margin to 17-14 with 2:56 left in the third period. No one among the crowd of 71,133 was prepared for the onslaught which followed.

On Tennessee's second play after the score, Tyoka Jackson stripped Kelly of the ball and recovered at the Vol 13. On the ensuing play Sacca hit Kyle Brady and suddenly the Lions had a 21-17 lead. On the Vols' second play, Reggie Givens' interception set up a 2-yard run by Richie Anderson early in the fourth quarter. On Tennessee's next play, Derek Bochna hit Kelly and Givens grabbed the ball and ran it in from 23 yards. In less than four minutes, Penn State had scored 28 points to take a 35-17 lead.

Sacca set a Penn State bowl record with four touchdown passes and McDuffie caught four passes for 78 yards and a touchdown and had 71 yards on punt returns to earn Most Valuable Offensive Player honors. Keith Goganious recorded a game-high 15 tackles, but Givens earned Defensive MVP accolades. Punter Doug Helkowski set Fiesta Bowl records with his nine punts for a 47.9-yard average.

Stanford proved it was one of the nation's top teams as it raced past the Nittany Lions, 24-3, in the 1993 Blockbuster Bowl, ending a Penn State string of four straight wins over Pac-10 teams in postseason games.

Stanford, the Pac-10 co-champions with Washington, moved 71 yards in eight plays with the opening kickoff to score all the points the Cardinal would need in Joe Robbie Stadium.

A 33-yard V.J. Muscillo field goal made it 7-3 at the end of the first quarter, but Stanford led, 14-3, at halftime and added 10 points in the third quarter.

Stanford tallied 365 yards to Penn State's 263. All-American O.J. McDuffie made six catches for 111 yards and Richie Anderson carried the ball 13 times for 40 yards as the Lions were held to their second-lowest point total in a bowl game.

1994 CITRUS: January 1, 1994

A Citrus Bowl record crowd of 72,456 was treated to the Nittany Lions' strongest effort of the season, a 31-13 knockout of sixth-ranked Tennessee. The hard-earned and satisfying victory capped a 10-2 season and vaulted Penn State to another top-10 finish.

Trailing, 10-0, Penn State retaliated with tailback Ki-Jana Carter bursting for a three-yard score. The key play was a 36-yard strike from quarterback Kerry Collins to Bobby Engram. The momentum continued to swing in the Lions' favor on Tennessee's next possession, as Tyoka Jackson tipped a Heath Shuler pass which Lee Rubin snared just inches above the turf. Engram then made a 16-yard reception and gained 35 yards on a reverse. Craig Fayak's 19-yard field goal knotted the score at 10-10.

Tennessee tallied its final points of the afternoon with a field goal, but Penn State had its two-minute offense humming late in the first half. Passes to Engram and Brian O'Neal took the ball to the Vol 14-yard line with :10 left. With the majority of the packed stadium expecting a pass, offensive coordinator Fran Ganter called Carter's number and he swept left and hurtled behind an Engram block into the end zone with just three ticks left on the clock to stun the crowd. Fayak's PAT kick put the Lions on top for good, 17-13, capping what may have been the game's most pivotal play.

A seven-yard pass from Collins to Kyle Brady made it 24-13 in the third quarter and Engram made a 15-yard TD catch to close the scoring. Engram made seven catches for 107 yards and his 184 all-purpose yards made him the overwhelming choice as the Offensive MVP, while Rubin was the Defensive MVP. Collins was 15-of-24 passing for 162 yards and two scores, outplaying Shuler, the Heisman Trophy runner-up, who was sacked four times in the second half.

1995 ROSE: January 2, 1995

In a landmark season, the Nittany Lions brought proper closure to a magnificent 1994 campaign by beating Oregon, 38-20, in the Rose Bowl, Penn State's first appearance in the "Granddaddy of Them All" since the 1923 contest. Having won their first Big Ten Championship in their second year of conference play, the Lions became the first Big Ten squad to earn a 12-0 record and the first Conference team to earn an unblemished record since Ohio State in 1968.

In a microcosm of a brilliant season, Heisman Trophy runner-up Ki-Jana Carter flashed through the line on Penn State's first play from scrimmage, bounced off a defender and burst into the lush green carpet for an 83-yard score in the game's initial five minutes. The Rose Bowl throng of 102,247 rose in unison as Carter raced toward the end zone in front of the frenzied blue and white backers.

The Lions, though, were confronted by a relentless Oregon squad, which gained a 14-14 tie in the third quarter before Penn State pulled away for the 38-20 victory. The significance of the win in Pasadena stretched in many directions: Penn State earned its fifth unbeaten, untied season under Joe Paterno and its third 12-0 campaign; Paterno became college football's all-time winningest bowl coach with his 16th postseason win and became the first coach in college football history to win the traditional four major bowls.

Carter rushed for 156 yards on 21 carries and three touchdowns, sharing Rose Bowl Co-Most Valuable Player honors with Duck quarterback Danny O'Neil, who set six Rose records with his 41-of-61 effort for 456 yards and two scores. Carter's 83-yard run was the longest of his career, Penn State's longest in a bowl game and the third-longest in Rose Bowl history. Lion quarterback Kerry Collins concluded his brilliant season with a 19-of-30 display for 200 yards, setting a school completion mark for a bowl game and fullbacks Brian Milne and Jon Witman each tallied once.

The offensive fireworks by both squads produced 13 Rose Bowl records and tied two others. Penn State also eclipsed seven individual and two team school bowl records.

1996 OUTBACK: January 1, 1996

Facing a new opponent, in a new bowl, the Penn State Nittany Lions were determined to send a superb class of 21 seniors out in a familiar fashion. Playing in its first Outback Bowl, a strong finish was the precursor to a solid bowl effort, as the Nittany Lions played arguably their finest game of the year in crushing Auburn, 43-14, to finish 9-3.

Penn State seized control of the Outback with a Wally Richardson to Mike Archie touchdown pass with :05 left in the first half for a 16-7 lead and then deluged the Tigers with an unanswered 27-point avalanche in the third quarter.

A group of seniors who were the backbone of Penn State's impressive 31-5 record the past three seasons again led the way in their final game. Archie ran for 41 yards in addition to his big touchdown catch. Stephen Pitts rushed for 118 yards and also made a touchdown reception. Fullback Brian Milne rushed for a career-best 82 yards. The senior offensive line quartet of Keith Conlin, Jeff Hartings, Andre Johnson and Marco Rivera dominated the line of scrimmage, helping the Lions rush for 266 yards and pass for 221 with no sacks. Terry Killens recorded a pair of sacks to spark the defense.

And then there was Bobby Engram. The three-time All-American concluded his career the Lions' all-time greatest receiver with another typically superlative effort, earning game MVP honors for the second time in a bowl. He made four catches, three of which were typically spectacular, for 113 yards and two scores. Just as he had demolished the school's career receiving records, the 1994 Biletnikoff Award winner did so with Penn State's career bowl receiving marks. His two TD catches also broke the school bowl standard, giving the dynamic player 13 records.

Penn State improved to 6-0 in Tempe with a 38-15 win over Big 12 champion Texas in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl.

Gaining only 95 yards while allowing 242, Penn State was fortunate to trail the Longhorns only 12-7 at halftime, having quickly scored after a Mark Tate interception on the game's second play. The defense had stiffened twice inside the 15-yard line, holding Texas to a pair of field goals and one touchdown.

As the Lions did so many times under Joe Paterno, they made adjustments at the break and then dominated the last 30 minutes. Freshman Kenny Watson took the second-half kickoff 81 yards, a school bowl record, to inside the Texas 20. A five-yard Aaron Harris TD run and a two-point pass from Wally Richardson to Curtis Enis provided a 15-12 lead less than three minutes into the half.

Texas gained a 15-15 tie midway through the stanza, but the momentum clearly was swinging in Penn State's direction. On its next drive, Enis scored from two yards. The defense held and on second down, Chafie Fields took a double reverse 84 yards to the Texas five-yard line, the longest run in school and Fiesta Bowl history. Anthony Cleary cracked over for a 28-15 margin and the Lions never looked back, outscoring Texas, 31-3, in the second half. The Lions outgained the Longhorns 330-118 in the second half, including a whopping 292 to minus-19 yard edge on the ground.

Richardson completed his tenure with a 21-5 record as a starter as the 16 seniors closed their careers with a 42-7 record and four bowl victories.

BOWL HISTORY

1998 FLORIDA CITRUS: January 1, 1998

With their schools meeting for the first time since the 1962 Gator Bowl, Joe Paterno and Steve Spurrier, matched wits for the first time in the 1998 Florida Citrus Bowl. The normally pass-happy Gators stuck primarily to the ground and posted a 21-6 victory.

Playing without starters Curtis Enis and Joe Jurevicius, the Lions struggled offensively, but the defense kept Penn State within striking range after the Gators took a quick 14-0 lead. Jim Nelson collected an interception at the Penn State four-yard line to stop a Florida drive late in the first stanza. On the Gators' next possession, Shawn Lee returned an interception 33 yards to the Florida 31. The Lions moved the ball to the seven, but had to settle for a Travis Forney field goal.

The defense and special teams made two huge plays to give Penn State first-and-goal chances in the second quarter. Brandon Short knocked the ball away from Gator QB Doug Johnson and after a wild scramble, Short recovered at the Gators' six. But, on fourth-and-inches, Chris Eberly was stopped short of the goal line. The defense held and Kenny Watson delivered a 52-yard punt return to the Florida six with 1:14 left in the half. Again, the Lions were faced with fourth-and-one, but Mike McQueary's pass was picked off in the end zone, denying Penn State its best opportunities for touchdowns.

A Forney field goal made it 14-6 entering the fourth quarter, but Florida scored on the second play of the stanza to end the scoring. Gator tailback Fred Taylor set Citrus Bowl records with 43 carries for 234 yards, most ever for a Lion foe in a bowl game. The Lions could muster only nine first downs and 139 yards in offense, the lowest in Paterno's tenure. The 16 Lion seniors completed their careers with a superb 41-8 (83.7) record.

1999 OUTBACK: January 1, 1999

Facing one of college football's most talented players — the eventual No. 1 pick in the 1999 National Football League draft — the Penn State defense was superb in limiting high-flying Kentucky to only two scores in a 26-14 Outback Bowl win before a soldout crowd of 66,005 in the new Raymond James Stadium.

Joe Paterno led the Lions to their eighth-straight January bowl game and improved his NCAA record for bowl victories to 19.

While Heisman Trophy finalist Tim Couch did pass for 336 yards, it took him a whopping 48 attempts to do so. The Lion defense intercepted him twice, sacked him five times and had numerous near-sacks and hurries. Kentucky broke out to an early 14-3 lead, but in the second quarter, Penn State made adjustments and scored 10 unanswered points to cut the lead to 14-13.

A 56-yard TD pass from Kevin Thompson to Joe Nastasi preceded three Travis Forney field goals. Forney also had made a trey in the first quarter, breaking the Outback and school bowl records with four field goals. Despite dominating the second and third quarters, the Lions only led 19-14 entering the final period. But, the defense, which had gotten a blocked field goal from LaVar Arrington in the third quarter, stuffed the Wildcats on fourth-and-one at the Kentucky 34. Several plays later, Chafie Fields took his second reverse of the game 19 yards to paydirt for the final 26-14 margin.

As it had done all season, the defense led the way, paced by Anthony King's 11 tackles, two interceptions and a fumble recovery. Courtney Brown made the seven stops, including four for loss, and two sacks on consecutive plays in the final period to earn game MVP honors.

1999 ALAMO: December 28, 1999

Their resolve was firm. A team that was in position to play for the National Championship in early November was looking to finish the season on a positive note after three straight narrow losses to end the regular season.

The Nittany Lions turned in a marvelous defensive performance to record a 24-0 blanking of the Aggies. The whitewash was the Lions' 20th since 1977.

Finishing 10-3, the Lions won at least 10 games for the 18th time under Paterno and earned the No. 11 ranking in the final Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches polls.

The game was Paterno's 30th bowl contest, breaking a tie with "Bear" Bryant for appearances. The all-time bowl wins leader improved his postseason record to 20-9-1.

On A&M's first scrimmage play, All-American LaVar Arrington set the tone, as he chased quarterback Randy McCown and hit him as he threw, with David Macklin making the first of four Lion interceptions at the A&M 40-yard line.

On A&M's second possession, Derek Fox collected a McCown pass at the A&M 34, and weaved his way to the end zone for a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter.

With Kevin Thompson sidelined by a shoulder injury, Rashard Casey made his first career start at quarterback. He fired a 45-yard TD strike to Eddie Drummond for a 14-0 lead.

Early in the second half, the Aggies advanced to the Lions' 14. But, on third down, Arrington tipped McCown's pass and Ron Graham grabbed it at the eight to thwart another drive.

Arrington flattened McCown to halt A&M's last drive and Casey quickly had the Lions on the move. A 34-yard completion to John Gilmore took the pigskin to the A&M 26. A 20-yard completion to Tony Stewart set up Casey's four-yard naked bootleg on the first play of the fourth quarter for a 21-0 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff, Askari Adams forced a fumble which was recovered by Shawn Mayer at the A&M 23. A 39-yard Travis Forney field goal made it 24-0.

2003 CAPITAL ONE: January 1, 2003

Penn State rode the momentum of four consecutive wins to close the regular season into the 2003 Capital One Bowl against Auburn, but some missed offensive opportunities resulted in a difficult 13-9 loss.

The Lions finished with a 9-4 record, with all four losses coming by seven points or less, including two in overtime, to teams that were ranked in the Top 15 of the final Associated Press poll (three in the Top 10).

Anthony Adams forced an early fumble that Derek Wake pounced on at the Auburn 15-yard line. The Lions had a first-and-goal at the four, but were forced to settle for a 21-yard field goal by Robbie Gould.

The Tigers advanced to the Lions' seven early in the second quarter, but Wake blocked a 34-yard field goal attempt, his fourth blocked kick of the year. Midway through the quarter, the Lions reached the Auburn 16, but Gould's 33-yard field try was wide.

Penn State's next possession began at the Auburn 43 and the Lions moved to the 10, but again had to settle for a Gould field goal, a 27-yarder, for a 6-0 lead with 1:44 left in the half. Three trips inside the Auburn 20 had resulted in only six points, which would come back to haunt the Lions.

Early in the fourth period, Michael Robinson completed a 34-yard pass to Tony Johnson and then scrambled 20 yards to the Auburn 19. Gould's 31-yard field goal gave Penn State a 9-7 lead, but 10:10 was left to play.

A sack by John Bronson forced an Auburn punt, which the Tigers downed at the Penn State one. The Tigers forced a three-and-out and got excellent field position at the Penn State 40 with 5:04 to play. Brown carried the ball five straight times, the last one a 17-yard touchdown burst with 2:19 to play for a 13-9 lead. Campbell's two-point pass was incomplete.

Zack Mills returned to the contest, but on third down, was intercepted by Roderick Hood and Auburn held on.

Adams recorded nine tackles (eight solo), including a sack, and the forced fumble to earn team Defensive MVP honors. Robinson was the team Offensive MVP.

2006 ORANGE: January 3, 2006

Kevin Kelly's 29-yard field goal in the third overtime lifted Penn State to a thrilling 26-23 victory over Florida State in the Orange Bowl.

Austin Scott carried five times for 57 yards on Penn State's second drive and scored from two yards out for a 7-0 lead. Scott gained 110 yards on 26 carries and two TDs, replacing an injured Tony Hunt. Two of the nation's premier defenses then kept each side in check until a wild final 4:09 of the second quarter.

Florida State tied the game at 7-7 on Willie Reid's 87-yard punt return. Then Drew Weatherford hit Lorenzo Booker on a 57-yard TD pass, but the PAT kick was missed.

The Lions quickly responded, as Big Ten MVP Michael Robinson lofted a 25-yard pass to Ethan Kilmer, who made a leaping catch over a defender for the TD with just :06 left in the half. Kelly's PAT made it 14-13 at the half.

The Lion defense did not allow any points in the third period despite great field position for Florida State throughout the quarter.

Jeremy Kapinos pinned Florida State deep as the fourth quarter began. Jim Shaw pressured Weatherford in the end zone, he threw the ball away and was called for intentional grounding, giving Penn State a safety and a 16-13 lead with 13:36 to play.

Florida State later advanced to the Lions' 29, but Penn State stiffened and Gary Cismesia hit a 48-yard field goal with 4:08 to play.

A 38-yard completion from Robinson to Jordan Norwood took the ball to the Seminoles' 11. With :32 left in regulation, Kelly's 29-yard field goal attempt was wide, but he would later emerge as the hero. Robinson was 21-of-39 for 253 yards, accounting for 28 touchdowns during the season.

The Lions held No. 22 Florida State to 26 yards rushing, 12 first downs and three-of-17 on third down. Linebacker Dan Connor made seven tackles, (two TFL) and defensive tackle Scott Paxson had six stops (1.5 TFL). Jay Alford made four hits, with 2.5 TFL, and forced a fumble deep to win a spot on ESPN.com's All-Bowl team. All-America cornerback Alan Zemaitis grabbed his Big Ten-leading sixth interception of the season (12th career).

Facing its fifth ranked opponent, Penn State played its most complete game of 2006 to defeat No. 17 Tennessee, 20-10, in the Outback Bowl. The Lions held the Vols to a season-low 10 points, 19.3 below their average, and forced three turnovers.

Tennessee became the 10th team, and seventh consecutive, to score 17 or fewer points against Penn State. Over the last five games, the Lions allowed just 36 points (7.2 avg.) with two shutouts. Over the last 25 quarters of the season, Penn State permitted just three TDs. Tennessee also became the eighth opponent held under 100 rushing yards during the season, netting 83.

Tony Hunt was spectacular in his final game as a Lion, rushing for 158 yards on a career-high tying 31 attempts to earn Outback Bowl Most Valuable Player honors. Hunt posted his eighth 100-yard game of 2006 (15th career).

Hunt's 158 yards were the second-highest of his career and the second-highest by a Lion in a bowl game (186, Blair Thomas vs. BYU, 1989 Holiday Bowl). Hunt finished second on the Penn State career rushing charts with 3,320 yards and first all-time with 654 carries (5.08 avg.). He finished just 78 yards behind career leader Curt Warner's total of 3,398 yards.

The Vols scored late in the half to tie the game and it was 10-10 entering the fourth quarter, when the Lion defense delivered the game-changing play. On first down from the Nittany Lions' 14, Dan Connor and Sean Lee crunched Tennessee's Arian Foster and cornerback Tony Davis picked up the pigskin and flew 88 yards for the go-ahead TD with 10:01 to go.

Penn State forced a three-and-out and Derrick Williams returned the punt 20 yards to the Volunteers' 45. Hunt had seven consecutive carries, netting 39 yards, to set up a 22-yard trey by Kelly, making it 20-10 with just 3:29 to play.

Anthony Morelli was a strong 14-of-25 for 197 yards with no interceptions.

All-American Paul Posluszny recorded eight tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. He finished his career as Penn State's all-time tackle leader with 372 and 12th all-time with 35 tackles for loss. Posluszny became the first player to lead Penn State in tackles three consecutive seasons and the first with a trio of 100-tackle campaigns.

BOWL HISTORY

2007 ALAMO: December 29, 2007

Penn State overcame a 14-0 first-quarter deficit to defeat Texas A&M, 24-17, in the Valero Alamo Bowl in Joe Paterno's 500th game as head coach of the Nittany Lions.

The Lions overcame their largest deficit of the season and held the Aggies to just three points over the last three quarters in front of an Alamo Bowl record crowd of 66,166 in The Alamodome. Penn State took the lead for good at 24-17 with :19 left in the third quarter on a season-long 38-yard burst by redshirt freshman tailback Evan Royster.

Early in the fourth quarter, Jeremy Boone boomed a 55-yard punt and Texas A&M's Roger Holland was dropped at the Aggies' one by A.J. Wallace and Justin King. But, Texas A&M proceeded to march downfield looking to tie the game. On fourth-and-one from the Penn State two, McGee ran the option to the right, but slipped and fell at the six, giving the ball back to the Lions, who used two possessions to run out the final 7:43.

Junior linebacker Sean Lee recorded a game-high 14 tackles, with a TFL and a pass breakup, to earn Defensive MVP honors. Lee's 14 stops tied the Alamo Bowl record, as he recorded double figures in tackles for the 10th time in the season. His 138 tackles ranked No. 4 on the school season list.

All-America linebacker Dan Connor made nine tackles to finish the season with 145, passing Shawn Mayer's 144 for second place on the Lions' season list. Connor's 419 career tackles broke the school record. Safeties Mark Rubin and Anthony Scirrotto made eight tackles each and defensive end Maurice Evans had six stops and forced two fumbles. Cornerback A.J. Wallace made five stops, grabbed his first career interception and had a huge fumble recovery to set up a score.

Penn State ran for a season-high 270 yards, averaging 6.6 yards on its 41 carries. Rodney Kinlaw gained 143 yards on 21 attempts (6.8) for his sixth 100-yard game of the season. Reserve quarterback Daryll Clark gained 50 yards on just six attempts (8.3), including an 11-yard touchdown run.

Senior quarterback Anthony Morelli was 15-of-31 for 143 yards, including a 30-yard scoring strike to a diving Deon Butler to swing the momentum of the game.

2009 ROSE: January 1, 2009

Sixth-ranked Penn State came into its Rose Bowl battle with No. 5 USC among the nation's leaders in fewest penalties and turnovers, but mistakes proved costly as the Trojans captured a 38-24 win in the meeting between national powers.

The Nittany Lions gained 410 yards, the most by a USC opponent for the season. Penn State became just the third team to score more than 20 points against the nation's No. 1 scoring defense (7.8 ppg average) in 2008.

Daryll Clark broke then-Penn State bowl records with 273 passing yards and 290 yards of total offense. Clark was 21-of-36, with two TDs and two interceptions. Clark also ran for a 9-yard touchdown late in the first quarter to tie the game, 7-7. He accounted for a school season-record 29 TDs, throwing for 19 and rushing for 10.

Tailback Stephfon Green saw extensive duty, as Evan Royster left the game late in the first quarter with a knee injury. Green led Penn State with 57 yards on 10 carries and five receptions for 67 yards, including a 30-yard play. Royster gained 34 yards on just six carries.

Senior Deon Butler had four catches for 97 yards, but had a 45-yard first-quarter catch nullified by a penalty.

The Lions held the Trojans to 61 rushing yards, 145 yards below their season average. USC became the eighth team to fail to gain 100 rushing yards against Penn State in 2008.

Sophomore linebacker NaVorro Bowman made a school bowl-record five tackles for loss (minus-21), tying Andy Katzenmoyer's Rose Bowl record from the 1997 game. Bowman had his fourth sack of the season among his eight tackles (seven solo), finishing the year with a team-best 106 tackles and 16.5 tackles for loss. Junior linebacker Josh Hull made a game-high nine tackles, including one for a five-yard loss. Senior Tony Davis made eight hits and recovered a fumble and senior Lydell Sargeant had seven tackles (six solo).

USC quarterback Mark Sanchez was 28-of-35 for 413 yards, with four touchdown passes.

2010 CAPITAL ONE: January 1, 2010

Senior quarterback Daryll Clark, the game MVP, led Penn State on a 65-yard drive in the waning minutes of the game and Collin Wagner connected on a 21-yard field goal with :57 left to play to lift the Nittany Lions to a dramatic 19-17 win over LSU in the 64th Capital One Bowl.

Wagner made a career-high four field goals, connecting from 26, 18, 20 and 21 yards. He had never made four field goals during his prep or Penn State career. His four field goals tied Travis Forney's Penn State bowl record (1999 Outback).

Having taken a 16-3 lead into the third quarter, the Nittany Lions saw the Tigers rally to score two touchdowns in a span of 2:24, grabbing a 17-16 lead with 12:49 to play on a one-yard run by Stevan Ridley. Penn State had to punt, but the defense held LSU to one first down and forced a punt, with the Lions taking over at their 31 with 6:54 to play.

Penn State converted two third downs on the dramatic 12-play scoring drive. Clark hit Graham Zug for a first down at the LSU 37. On the next play, Zug made a huge 17-yard sideline reception to the 20. On third-and-4 from the Tigers' 14, Stephfon Green burst through the line for a 6-yard gain. Clark carried to the LSU two to set up Wagner's game-winner.

On the Tigers' final possession, they faced a third-and-21 from their own 40 with time for one more play. Jordan Jefferson completed a pass to Rueben Randle, who reached the Lions' 35, but was hit by Eric Latimore and fumbled. Nick Sukay recovered to seal the win.

Clark was 18-of-35 for 216 yards, with one TD and no interceptions. Clark became the first Penn Stater to surpass 3,000 passing yards in a season, finishing with 3,003.

Andrew Quarless made a career-high and school bowl record eight receptions for 88 yards to break school records for catches by a tight end in a season (41) and career (87).

The defense held the Tigers to 243 yards and forced three turnovers. Penn State limited LSU to just nine first downs and 41 rushing yards on 25 attempts, becoming the eighth opponent to rush for less than 100 yards in 2009.

All-America linebacker NaVorro Bowman made nine tackles (seven solo), with 1.5 tackles for losses. Josh Hull had six stops and Sean Lee had six hits.

2011 OUTBACK: January 1, 2011

Penn State's bid for a fourth New Year's Day bowl victory in the past six years was turned back in the final minute as Florida captured a 37-24 win in the 25th Outback Bowl in Raymond James Stadium.

The Nittany Lions took a 24-17 lead late in the third quarter, but the Gators scored the next 13 points for a 30-24 lead midway through the fourth frame.

After both teams exchanged punts, Penn State took possession at its own 21-yard line with just 3:04 left to play. Matt McGloin completed an 18-yard pass to Derek Moye and Evan Royster's 23-yard burst made him the first Nittany Lion with a trio of 1,000-yard rushing seasons. With the ball at the Florida 25, a McGloin pass was picked off by Ahmad Black, who returned it 80 yards for a touchdown to seal the game with 55 seconds to play.

Penn State's career rushing yardage leader, Royster gained 98 yards on 20 carries against the Gators to finish the season with 1,014 yards on 208 carries.

On Florida's first play from scrimmage, cornerback D'Anton Lynn grabbed his third interception of the season at the Gators' 39-yard line. McGloin completed passes of 16 yards to Brett Brackett and 15 yards to Graham Zug to give the Nittany Lions a first-and-goal. On third down from the Florida 5, McGloin lofted the ball to Derek Moye, who snared it for his eighth touchdown catch of the season. Collin Wagner's PAT kick gave Penn State a 7-0 lead with 9:08 left in the first quarter.

Moye had game highs with five catches and 79 yards and made his 15th career touchdown catch. Making his fifth career start, McGloin was 17-of-41 for 211 yards, with one touchdown and a school-record five interceptions.

The Penn State defense limited Florida to just 279 yards (101 passing) and an average of 3.9 yards per play.

Junior defensive tackle Devon Still recorded a career- and season-high 3.5 TFL against the Gators, with a career-best seven stops (six solo) overall. Senior linebacker Chris Colasanti made a game-high 10 hits, compiling his fifth double-figure tackle game of the season.

In the first meeting between Penn State and high-powered Houston since 1977, the No. 20 Cougars beat the No. 24 Nittany Lions, 30-14, in the TicketCity Bowl.

Houston entered the game No. 1 in the nation in total offense (599.0 ypg), passing offense (44.3 ypg) and scoring offense (50.8 ppg) and was impressive, gaining 600 yards. The Cougars' NCAA record-setting quarterback, Case Keenum, broke the Penn State opponent bowl and all-time records for completions (45) and attempts (69) in a game. He threw for 532 yards and three scores.

Penn State allowed just 41 points total during the first quarter in the regular season, but Houston grabbed a 17-0 lead after the opening period. The Lions outscored the Cougars, 14-13, over the final three quarters, but were not able to pull within a score.

In his final game as a Nittany Lion, Stephfon Green ran for a game-high 63 yards on 15 carries. He scored on a six-yard run midway through the second quarter, his sixth rushing touchdown of the season, to pull Penn State within 17-7. But, the Cougars responded with a 75-yard touchdown pass from Keenum to Patrick Edwards, the longest play from scrimmage allowed by the Penn State defense in the 2011 season and an opponent bowl mark. Edwards' 228 receiving yards also were a Houston bowl record and an opponent bowl mark.

With Houston leading, 27-7, in the third quarter, quarterback Rob Bolden connected with junior wideout Justin Brown on a 69-yard scoring strike to pull the Nittany Lions within two scores. The catch was a career-long for Brown and the second-longest completion in Penn State bowl history behind Chuck Herd's fingertip 72-yard reception from Tom Shuman in the 1974 Orange Bowl.

In his final game as a Nittany Lion, senior linebacker Nate Stupar made a game-high 12 tackles (seven solo), the second-highest total of his career. Linebacker Gerald Hodges recorded nine tackles and safety Drew Astorino had eight stops. Senior All-America tackle Devon Still was limited by turf toe suffered in practice days before the game.

2014 PINSTRIPE: December 27, 2014

Sam Ficken hit a pair of pressure filled kicks to send Penn State to a 31-30 overtime win over Boston College in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

Ficken, who used Derek Jeter's old locker, converted a 45-yard field goal with just 20 seconds left in regulation to tie the game, 24-24, and was true on the game-winning extra point to lift Penn State to the win.

Christian Hackenberg earned MVP honors after he produced one of the finest passing games in Penn State bowl history. He set or tied nine Penn State bowl game records, including completions (34), attempts (50), passing yards (371), total offense (371) and offensive plays (58).

The Nittany Lions scored first on Hackenberg's 72-yard TD pass to Chris Godwin down the right sideline with 5:22 left in the first. The play is tied for the longest pass in Penn State's illustrious bowl history.

Murphy found Shakim Phillips in the corner end zone for a 19-yard touchdown and a 14-7 lead early in the third. He then showed he could also score using his feet with a 40-yard dash that put the Eagles ahead 21-7.

That is when Hackenberg went to work on the Eagles defense. He led Penn State on a six-play, 63-yard scoring drive that ended with a Geno Lewis 7-yard touchdown grab with no time left in the third quarter to pull Penn State within seven points, 21-14.

Hackenberg threw his third touchdown pass of the game, a toss over the middle to Hamilton that threaded the needle to tie the game with 6:48 left in the fourth quarter.

Mike Knoll put the Eagles back in the led, 24-21, on a 20-yarder with 2:10 left in the fourth, which set up Ficken's game-tying kick with 0:20 remaining.

Murphy hit David Dudeck for a 21-yard TD pass on Boston College's overtime drive, but Knoll missed the extra point for the Eagles and that was the opening Penn State needed to complete its comeback.

In overtime, Hackenberg arched a perfect ball into the hands of Carter for a 10-yard touchdown. Carter's first TD grab of the season set up Ficken's automatic kick that sent the Nittany Lions dancing on top of the Yankees' dugout.

BOWL HISTORY

2016 TAXSLAYER: January 2, 2016

Facing a 21-point deficit in the third quarter, Penn State rallied to within a touchdown of Georgia, but the Nittany Lions ran out of time as the Bulldogs held on, 24-17, to win the 71st annual TaxSlayer Bowl.

Leading 24-17, Georgia tried to ice the game with less than two minutes remaining by going for it on fourth-and-2 from the Penn State 23. Jason Cabinda and Garrett Sickels stuffed Georgia's Keith Marshall for a 2-yard loss, giving the Nittany Lions a chance to tie the game with a touchdown and extra point with 1:52 remaining.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Trace McSorley, who entered the game midway through the second quarter after quarterback Christian Hackenberg left with an injury, led the Nittany Lions to the Georgia 39 with eight seconds remaining, but his Hail Mary pass attempt was batted down near the goal line.

McSorely finished completing 14-of-27 pass attempts for 142 yards and two touchdowns while also rushing seven times for 31 yards. Godwin caught six passes for 133 yards, finishing the season with 1,101 receiving yards.

Georgia took a 24-3 lead on a Sony Michel touchdown run with 4:15 remaining in the third quarter, but the Lions started their rally on the next drive, scoring their first touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter on fourth down, capping a 10-play, 75-yard touchdown drive.

A 21-yard completion to Godwin on third-and-6 moved the Lions to midfield and a 29-yard rush by Saquon Barkley to the Georgia 15 setup the drive. Facing fourth-and-12, McSorley found Geno Lewis just inside the right sideline in the end zone following the final quarter break.

Both teams would punt and Penn State forced another Bulldog punt before finding the end zone again. A 20-yard run by Barkley started the seven-play drive, and a leaping catch by DaeSean Hamilton for a 20-yard touchdown capped it with 6:14 remaining.

Georgia was able to run 4:15 off the clock on its ensuing possession, and withstood Penn State's final rally.

Penn State running back Saquon Barkley totaled a career-high 306 all-purpose yards and scored three touchdowns and wide receiver Chris Godwin caught nine passes for a career-high 187 yards and two touchdowns, but No. 9 USC rallied in the fourth quarter to win the 103rd annual Rose Bowl Game on a 46-yard field goal as time expired, 52-49.

With 101 combined points, it was the highest-scoring game in the storied history of the Rose Bowl, and both teams trailed by double-digit margins in the thriller.

No. 5 Penn State trailed USC by 13, 27-14, with 6:16 remaining in the second quarter, but scored touchdowns on four consecutive offensive plays from its final play of the first half to its first three plays of the second half, building a 42-27 lead.

Tight end Mike Gesicki caught an 11-yard touchdown pass to start the run and pull Penn State within six before the halftime break. Barkley crisscrossed the field and eluded multiple Trojan defenders for a 79-yard touchdown run on the Nittany Lions' first offensive play of the third quarter, giving Penn State its first lead of the game, 28-27. On Penn State's next possession, quarterback Trace McSorley connected with Godwin for a 72-yard touchdown pass down the sideline. A Brandon Bell interception that he returned 24 yards to the USC 3 then set up a McSorley touchdown run for a game-high 15-point advantage.

The drives ranked as three of the 12 fastest scoring drives in Rose Bowl history, with McSorley's five-second touchdown run setting a record.

Both teams would trade touchdowns before the quarter ended, resulting in a 49-35 Penn State lead, but USC would score 17 points in the fourth quarter to inch back in front.

2017 FIESTA: December 30, 2017

Quarterback Trace McSorley eclipsed 400 yards of total offense and became Penn State's all-time bowl game passing leader to lead the No. 9 Nittany Lions past No. 11 Washington, 35-28, in the 2017 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. Penn State improved to 7-0 all-time in the Fiesta Bowl.

McSorley led a Penn State offense that totaled a program bowl-record 545 yards of offense, as he completed 32-of-42 passes for 342 yards and two touchdowns, while rushing 12 times for 60 yards. McSorley was particularly strong on third downs, completing 12-of-12 passing attempts for 194 yards and two touchdowns, resulting in 11 of Penn State's 13 third down conversions - its most since 2008. McSorley completed passes to nine different receivers, with DaeSean Hamilton catching five passes for 110 yards and two touchdowns to lead the group.

McSorley was named the game's offensive MVP, while safety Marcus Allen was named the defensive MVP. Allen had a team-high six solo tackles, and tied for the team lead with seven total tackles.

Running back Saquon Barkley also had a record-breaking performance, setting a Fiesta Bowl and Penn State bowl record with a 92-yard touchdown run and also tying Penn State's all-time longest run record. He finished with 137 yards rushing and two touchdowns, while also catching a team-high seven receptions and totaling 38 yards receiving.

Penn State led the game from its opening possession until the end, with Washington getting no closer than a touchdown. The Nittany Lions' 35 points scored snapped Washington's 26-game streak of holding opponents to less than 30 points. Washington entered the game with the leading FBS rushing defense at 92.3 yards per game and had allowed just one play of more than 40 yards all season, however Penn State rushed for 203 yards and had two plays go for more than 40 yards.

Quarterback Trace McSorley led a fourth-quarter comeback attempt in his final game as a Nittany Lion, but it was not enough as No. 14 Kentucky held off No. 12 Penn State, 27-24, in the VRBO Citrus Bowl on New Year's Day in Camping World Stadium.

Penn State trailed by 20 points entering the fourth quarter, but McSorley rushed for one touchdown, threw for another and led a field goal drive. However, Kentucky took possession of the ball with 4 minutes and 12 seconds remaining and left Penn State with just 1 second on offense. Running back Benny Snell Jr. rushed for 25 yards and two first downs on eight carries. The first downs were the first of the quarter for the Wildcats, as Penn State had held them to 11 total yards previously in the frame.

After stopping Kentucky in the waning seconds, the Nittany Lions could only run one play from their own 17, and a fumble on a lateral was recovered by Kentucky's Chris Oats to secure the victory.

McSorley completed 17-of-33 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns with one interception and was also the team's leading rusher with 75 yards and a touchdown on 19 carries. Fellow senior DeAndre Thompkins was the team's leading receiver with four receptions for 74 yards.

Snell led Kentucky with 144 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 26 carries and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Defensively Josh Allen paced Kentucky with three sacks, while Micah Parsons registered a career-high 14 tackles and forced a fumble for Penn State. Additionally, Kevin Givens had two sacks for the Nittany Lions, tying a school bowl record.

Kentucky dominated the odd-numbered quarters, while Penn State dominated the even-numbered quarters. The Wildcats jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter on a field goal and a Lynn Bowden Jr. 58-yard punt return before Penn State pulled within three in the second quarter on a McSorley pass to tight end Nick Bowers. Kentucky built its largest lead in the third quarter, 27-7, after a pair of Snell rushing touchdowns and another field goal. Penn State cut the deficit to three with 17 points in the fourth.

Led by a team-bowl-record 202 rushing yards by running back Journey Brown (Meadville, Pa.), No. 10 Penn State rushed for a team-bowl-record 396 yards en route to a 53-39 victory over No. 17 Memphis in the 84th annual Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic Saturday in AT&T Stadium.

Penn State concludes the 2019 season with an 11-2 record for its 17th 11-win season in program history and third in the last four years, repeating a feat not accomplished since 1968-71. The Nittany Lions also improved to 3-0-1 all-time in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic and earned their second consecutive win in a New Year's Six bowl game (Fiesta, 2017).

Brown and fellow running back Noah Cain (Baton Rouge, La.) rushed for two touchdowns each. Additionally, Brown totaled a career-high and Penn State bowl-record 202 yards, while Cain rushed for a career-high 92 yards and surpassed the school record for most rushing touchdowns by a freshman in a season (8). Brown was named the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player and linebacker Micah Parsons (Harrisburg, Pa.), who totaled a career-high-tying 14 tackles, 3.0 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks and two forced fumbles, was named the Most Outstanding Defensive Player.

Penn State's seven total touchdowns and five rushing touchdowns both tied Cotton Bowl records.

Memphis (12-2) was led by quarterback Brady White, who threw for 454 yards and kicker Riley Patterson, who set team, Cotton Bowl and Penn State opponent records with six field goals. However, White was intercepted twice in the second half, as senior safety Garrett Taylor (Richmond, Va.) made a pick-six late in the third quarter and freshman cornerback Marquis Wilson (Windsor, Conn.) picked off a pass at the Penn State 2-yard line late in the fourth quarter to secure the win. White was also sacked six times as Penn State surpassed the 40-sack mark for a fifth-straight season.

2022 OUTBACK: January 1, 2022

Penn State fell 24-10 against No. 22/24/21 Arkansas in the Outback Bowl in Raymond James Stadium.

The Nittany Lions went into halftime with a 10-7 lead, but a strong rushing attack by Arkansas helped the Razorbacks to a victory.

Sean Clifford completed 14-of-32 passes for 195 yards and a touchdown and added 47 rushing yards. Parker Washington hauled in seven catches for 98 yards, while KeAndre Lambert-Smith had three receptions for 74 yards, including a 42-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

Ji'Ayir Brown led the Penn State defense with two interceptions, both in the first half, and six tackles. Curtis Jacobs recorded a career-high 10 tackles, including a sack, and Nick Tarburton had a career-best seven tackles with two for loss and a sack. Smith Vilbert set a Penn State bowl record, and tied the Outback Bowl record, with three sacks.

The Razorbacks got on the board in the closing seconds of the first quarter on a 3-yard touchdown run by Raheim Sanders. The Nittany Lions evened the score with 10:53 remaining in the second when Clifford found a wide open Lambert-Smith downfield for a 42-yard touchdown.

Penn State took its first lead of the day later in the second on a 33-yard field goal by Jake Pinegar.

Arkansas re-took the lead on the opening drive of the second half on an 8-yard touchdown run by Jefferson. The Razorbacks extended their lead to seven midway through the third on a 36-yard field goal by Cam Little. The Razorbacks pushed the lead to 24-10 with 2:08 to go in the third on a 1-yard touchdown by Sanders. Arkansas got a key turnover in the opening minutes of the fourth on an interception by Joe Foucha in the end zone.

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY
A Land Grant Institution

Penn State's historic mission of teaching, research, and public service — launched under the most modest of circumstances more than 150 years ago — now reaches into virtually all parts of Pennsylvania. Consider, for example, that the University now has 24 campuses across the Commonwealth, putting a Penn State education within practical reach of nearly every Pennsylvanian. In fact, more than 95 percent of Pennsylvania residents live within a 30-mile radius of a Penn State campus and about 70 percent of Penn State's undergraduates are Pennsylvania residents.

Penn State is Pennsylvania's largest nongovernmental employer and has employees and expenditures in every one of its 67 counties. The University generates a total economic impact across the Commonwealth that surpasses $11.6 billion annually and is consistently ranked among the top 1% of the world's universities.

Part of that impact is derived from Penn State's research program, which brought more than $610 million in federal funds to Pennsylvania last year. In addition, as part of its Invent Penn State initiative, the University has funded 21 innovation hubs, designed to bolster entrepreneurship and economic development in communities surrounding its campuses across Pennsylvania.

Penn State's outreach and online programs — ranging from 4H to Cooperative Extension, from summer camps to public broadcasting — provide educational and service programs to more than a million Pennsylvania households annually.

The University's presence throughout Pennsylvania today contrasts sharply with its humble beginnings. Chartered as a college of scientific agriculture, the institution was located in rural Centre County after James Irvin, a partner in the Centre Furnace iron works (remains of which can be seen today along East College Avenue), offered to donate 200 acres of farmland for a campus.

Founding President Evan Pugh wanted the fledgling institution to embody a new approach to higher education that blended classical studies with subjects that had practical value. He joined similar visionaries in other states in convincing Congress to pass the Morrill Land-Grant Act in 1862. The act gave individual states tracts of federal land to sell; the proceeds supported colleges that agreed to include engineering, science and the liberal arts as well as agriculture in their course of studies. In 1863, the Pennsylvania legislature designated Penn State the Commonwealth's sole land-grant institution. The lawmakers in effect bestowed on the privately incorporated college a public character. In return for state support, the institution assumed obligations of teaching, research and service that are normally associated with publicly owned land-grant universities in other states.

By the 1890s Penn State was making its mark. It ranked among the nation's 10 largest undergraduate engineering schools, a distinction it still holds. It established one of the nation's first collegiate agricultural experiment stations, and Professor Whitman Jordan's pioneering research on using fertilizers for soil enrichment had global impact on crop yields.

Penn State in 1871 became one of the first land-grant schools in the Northeast to admit women, graduated its first international student in 1890, and its first African-American student in 1905. Today, Penn State draws more than 9,000 students from around the world to study at its campuses, and the international students, researchers and scholars who come to Penn State represent more than 140 countries.

In the early 1900s, President Edwin E. Sparks supported a number of efforts to "carry the college to the people," as he liked to say. Technical institutes were established in various locations statewide for engineering education, beginning with an evening school in Allentown in 1910. In 1912, Penn State helped create a system of county agents in agriculture and home economics. Today, the Penn State World Campus, which offers one curriculum at multiple access points to meet people where they are, builds on that outreach tradition.

But undergraduate education remained foremost. Enrollment surpassed 5,000 students by 1936, including those attending several undergraduate centers that were created for students who, in the depths of the Great Depression, could not afford to leave their hometowns to get a college education. The centers offered the first year of baccalaureate studies and were the predecessors of today's statewide system of campuses. Thanks to this innovative approach to higher education, Penn State in the 1930s became Pennsylvania's largest single source of baccalaureate degrees, a distinction it holds to this day.

Following World War II, Penn State underwent unprecedented expansion, first to meet the needs of returning military veterans and later to accommodate the Baby Boom generation. Total enrollment at all Penn State campuses climbed to 40,000 by 1970.

The University also emerged on the national scene as a research powerhouse in fields as diverse as dairy science, acoustics, psychology and diesel engineering. The expansion of research went hand in hand with a steady increase in the number of graduate students. The University awarded its first graduate degree — a master's degree in scientific agriculture — in 1862, and the Graduate School was established in 1922. But overall graduate enrollment remained modest until the 1950s, then swelled steadily. The Graduate School has awarded to date approximately 130,000 master's, doctoral and other advanced degrees.

The University Park campus is Penn State's administrative and research hub. In addition, there are 19 primarily undergraduate campuses; Penn State Health Milton S. Hershey Medical Center and the College of Medicine; the Pennsylvania College of Technology; Penn State Law; Dickinson Law; the Penn State Great Valley School of Graduate Professional Studies; and the Penn State World Campus.

To date, Penn State has awarded more than 909,000 degrees, hallmarks of an educational experience second to none in quality. In addition, Penn State alumni — including 371,000 in Pennsylvania alone — have job- and social-networking opportunities that no other college or university in the Commonwealth can surpass.

PRESIDENT NEELI BENDAPUDI

Neeli Bendapudi has served as the nineteenth president of Penn State since May 9, 2022. With a nearly thirty-year career in academia, President Bendapudi is committed to student success, fostering inclusive excellence, and creating opportunities for students, faculty, and staff to thrive.

Raised in India, Bendapudi moved to the United States to pursue her doctoral studies at the University of Kansas and to launch her career as an academic leader and educator.

Prior to coming to Penn State, where she leads the University's twenty-four-campus network and top-ranked online World Campus, Bendapudi was president of the University of Louisville from 2018 to 2021. During this time, she oversaw a series of transformative efforts spanning academics; finance; the health enterprise; philanthropy; athletics; diversity, equity, and inclusion; and more. Under her leadership, the university recruited its largest and most diverse freshman class, reached record enrollment levels, improved four-year graduation rates, increased annual sponsored research, improved the university's financial stability, and stabilized the health system.

Among her professional achievements, Bendapudi has served as provost and executive vice chancellor at the University of Kansas from 2016 to 2018, dean of the School of Business at the University of Kansas from 2011 to 2016, and as founding director of the Initiative for Managing Services at the Ohio State University (OSU) from 2005 to 2011. As an educator, she has taught marketing at the University of Louisville, University of Kansas, Texas A&M University, and OSU.

In addition to her higher education leadership experience, Bendapudi previously served as executive vice president and chief customer officer for Huntington National Bank and has consulted for some of the world's largest companies and organizations, including AIG, Proctor & Gamble, and the U.S. Army.

With a background in the study of consumer behavior in service contexts, her research focuses on customers' willingness to maintain long-term relationships with firms and with the brands and employees that represent them. Her work has been published in the Journal of Academic Medicine, Harvard Business Review, Journal of Marketing, Journal of Marketing Research, Journal of Retailing, and Journal of Service Research.

Bendapudi has been recognized for contributions in her field and has been honored at the national and university levels, including with the Academy of Marketing Science Outstanding Marketing Teacher Award. In 2014, she was inducted into the University of Kansas' Women's Hall of Fame, which recognizes individuals for significant contributions and achievements, overall impact, and outstanding character.

In addition, Diverse Issues in Higher Education referenced Bendapudi as one of twenty-five women "who have made a difference in the academy" (2021), Enterprising Women recognized her among a select group of women who "are making a difference in business and in the community" (2021), and Louisville Business First highlighted Bendapudi among twenty-five local leaders named to the publication's annual list of "Most Admired CEOs" for strong leadership exhibited during a year of unprecedented challenges (2020).

Along with her professional endeavors, Bendapudi is a former Leadership Foundation Fellow, a member of the International Women's Forum, and serves on the board of the American Council on Education and Internet 2.0.

Bendapudi earned her bachelor's degree in English and MBA from Andhra University in India and her doctorate in marketing from the University of Kansas.

VP FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS DR. PATRICK KRAFT

An accomplished administrator with a 15-year career in intercollegiate athletics, Dr. Patrick Kraft began his tenure as the Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics on July 1, 2022. Kraft came to Penn State after spending two years as the director of athletics at Boston College. Believing the foundation and future success of an athletics department is based on developing and caring for the whole person, Kraft has a long history of a strong commitment to student-athlete development on and off the playing surface while being an advocate for coaches and staff.

Penn State President Neeli Bendapudi introduced Kraft as the new leader of the Nittany Lions on April 29, 2022.

"Pat is an exceptional and inspiring leader with the vision, experience and drive to excel in this role and to build upon our tradition of intercollegiate athletic success," said Bendapudi. "Along with having a bold vision for excellence and an impressive record of achievement, Pat values teamwork and cares above all about the success and development of student-athletes and coaches on and off the field. With Pat at the helm of our athletics department, the possibilities of what we can accomplish ahead are unlimited."

Kraft's career includes leadership roles at Boston College, Temple University, Loyola University Chicago and Indiana University. In addition, he has taught business, sports marketing, and management courses throughout his career and is a former Big Ten football student-athlete.

In his two years as the director of athletics at Boston College, Kraft guided 31 varsity teams, oversaw numerous fundraising efforts, renovated spaces which would have the greatest impact on student-athletes, and was responsible for expanding the department's mental health and reporting resources. Under his leadership, the Eagles excelled in the classroom and in competition with 70% of all student-athletes earning a 3.00 GPA or better in the 2021 fall and spring semesters and five teams being ranked in the top 25 nationally. Among the other accomplishments for Kraft during his time at Chestnut Hill included Boston College earning its sixth NCAA Championship, and the first for the women's lacrosse team, the first postseason victory for women's volleyball, and two bowl game qualifications for the football program.

Under Kraft, Boston College met fundraising goals to support efforts for a future practice facility for the men's and women's basketball programs, fully endow head coach positions for ski and women's ice hockey, support athletics scholarships and financial aid, and more. He led $84 million in fundraising and completed more than 11 capital projects. The Student-Athlete Academic Advising space was renovated to support student-athletes in their pursuit of academic excellence, and construction was completed on a new football locker room and training room, as well as the Barry Gallup Sports Medicine Facility, which offers a state-of-the-art saltwater therapy room, new hydrotherapy pools, recovery rooms, nutrition centers and rehabilitation spaces, during Kraft's tenure.

Kraft also led the department into a new apparel and footwear partnership, the largest financial footwear and apparel agreement in Boston College Athletics history.

Prior to his tenure at Boston College, Kraft served as the director of intercollegiate athletics at Temple University after spending two years as the university's deputy athletic director.

During his five years at the helm at Temple, Kraft oversaw a department of 180 employees with 19 sports and more than 500 student-athletes. He was responsible for all facets of athletics administration, including academics, NCAA Title IX compliance, diversity and finances, and led the hiring of new head coaches in football, men's basketball, men's and women's soccer, and field hockey. Along with significant program milestones for women's lacrosse, fencing, gymnastics, men's crew and women's rowing under Kraft's leadership, the football team won the 2016 American Athletic Conference Championship (AAC) and made five-straight bowl appearances for the first time in school history, the men's basketball team won the 2015-16 regular season AAC title and the women's basketball team made the 2017 NCAA Tournament for the first time in five years.

With a focus on student-athlete academic performance, career development and mental health, at Temple, Kraft also led an effort to improve classroom performance resulting in an NCAA Academic Performance Rate (APR) that ranked fourth among Division I FBS institutions in 2018-19, followed by a school record 90% Graduation Success Rate for 2019. He also oversaw planning and fundraising efforts for more than $55 million in construction and renovation projects, including the Temple Sports Complex for men's and women's soccer, field hockey, women's lacrosse and track & field, as well as enhancements to locker room facilities for all 19 sports, an all student-athlete lounge, multiple student-athlete nutrition centers and updated practice facilities for several sports.

Kraft is a current or former member of several committees, including the NCAA Football Oversight Committee, NCAA Football Competition Committee, NCAA Women's Basketball Committee, NCAA Strategic Vision and Planning Committee, LEAD1 working group on student-athlete time demands, Collegiate Athletic Leadership Symposium faculty member and AAC finance committee. He served as vice chair of the Athletic Directors of the AAC and has been an invited speaker at the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics annual convention.

Kraft was recognized by Sports Business Journal as "one of the top 40 sports executives under the age of 40" and the Philadelphia Business Journal as "one of the top Business Executives in Philadelphia under the age of 40." His scholarly work has been published in the International Journal of Sports Marketing and Sponsorship, International Journal of Sport Management and Marketing, Sport Marketing Quarterly and Branding in Sport Business.

A native of Libertyville, Illinois, Kraft earned a bachelor's degree in sport marketing management, master's degree in sport marketing administration and doctoral degree in sport management, all from Indiana University.

Kraft and his wife, Betsy, have a daughter, Annabelle, and son, Joseph.

PENN STATE ATHLETICS:
A NATIONAL LEADER IN COMPREHENSIVE EXCELLENCE

Penn State Wrestling earned its 10th NCAA National Championship. The Lions have won nine of the last 11 contested NCAA championships.

2021-22 HIGHLIGHTS

- There are approximately 800 Penn State student-athletes, participating in 31 varsity programs (16 men's, 15 women's), tied for the fourth-highest number of sports sponsored by a Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) institution.
- Penn State is one of 15 Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) institutions to report it was self-supporting (does not receive funds from the University) during fiscal 2019-20. (Knight Commission)
- Penn State Football has ranked in the top 5 nationally in average home attendance 28 times since 1991. The Nittany Lions ranked second nationally in average home attendance in 2018, 2019 and 2021.x
- With an official capacity of 106,572, Beaver Stadium is the second-largest team sports venue in the nation and the third-largest in the world.
- When Penn State Football plays at home, State College becomes the third-largest city in Pennsylvania.
- Forbes ranked Penn State No. 10 among the "Top 25 Schools That Dominate Academically and Athletically." (April 2019)
- Penn State is one of only five schools that have won at least 10 NCAA Championships since 2012 and earned at least a 90 percent Graduation Success Rate in the 2021 NCAA report (Stanford, Florida, USC, Virginia). Nittany Lion student-athletes posted a program-record NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 92 percent in the most recent report.
- Yahoo! Sports ranked Penn State No. 9 among the nation's top athletic programs. (July 2019)

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- The 92 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) by Penn State student-athletes in the 2020-21 NCAA report tied the school record from 2019-20. It marked the fifth consecutive year Penn State recorded a GSR of 90 percent or higher.
- Penn State student-athletes have delivered a Graduation Success Rate in the 88-91 percent range in each of the past 15 NCAA reports, improving from 88 percent in the 2015 report, to 89 percent in 2016, to 90 percent in 2017 and 2018, to 91 percent in 2019, and the record-breaking 92 percent effort in 2020 and 2021.
- Sixteen of the Nittany Lions' 27 teams (men's and women's track and field/cross country teams combined) earned a Graduation Success Rate at or above the Division I national GSR average for their respective sport. A total of 18 Penn State squads had a GSR of 90% or higher.
- Ten Nittany Lion squads earned a 100 percent Graduation Success Rate in the 2021 NCAA report. The field hockey and women's tennis teams posted their 17th consecutive perfect GSR.
- A school-record-tying 20 Penn State teams earned perfect single-year APR scores of 1,000 during the 2020-21 academic year.
- The women's tennis team has earned 12 multi-year 1,000 APR scores in the 16 years the NCAA has announced multi-year data.
- The field hockey, women's cross country and women's golf squads have earned nine multi-year 1,000 APR scores.
- Seven Penn State teams – baseball, men's golf, men's gymnastics, women's fencing, women's golf, women's gymnastics, women's lacrosse – finished in the top 10 percent nationally for their respective sport through the 2020-21 academic year (data from 2017-18 through 2020-21).
- A total of 149 perfect 4.0 semester GPAs were posted by Nittany Lion student-athletes during the 2021-22 academic year.
- A total of 161 student-athletes graduated in the 2021-22 school year (May 2022).
- Penn State student-athletes had a non-alternative grading record-setting 157 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars (3.7 GPA for the academic year) in 2021-22, shattering the previous school record of 117 in 2018-19.
- Penn State has had 1,296 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars (3.7 yearly GPA) since the program began in 2008-09.
- The Nittany Lions had a school-record 478 Academic All-Big Ten honorees during the 2021-22 academic year.
- Penn State is second among all conference institutions with 7,877 Academic All-Big Ten honorees since 1991-92, its first year of competition in some Big Ten sports.
- The Nittany Lions had spring records (non-alternative grading) with 546 students (68%) with a 3.0 semester grade-point average (GPA) and 284 Dean's List honorees (3.5 semester GPA; 35.3%) in the spring.
- Five hundred forty-six Nittany Lion students posted a 3.0 GPA or higher, marking the fourth-straight spring semester with at least 500 Nittany Lion students earning a 3.0 semester GPA.
- In the fall of 2021, the Nittany Lions set fall and overall records (non-alternative grading) with 567 students (65%) with a 3.0 semester GPA and 289 Dean's List honorees (3.5 semester GPA).
- Penn State student-athletes also had a record-breaking 69 perfect 4.0 semesters in the 2021 fall semester.
- The Nittany Lions rank No. 4 among all Division I schools with 222 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans all-time, including six honorees in the 2021-22 academic year.
- Women's soccer standout Kerry Abello was named the CoSIDA Women's Soccer Academic All-American of the Year for the second-straight year, marking the 13th time a Penn Stater won Academic All-American of the Year for their respective sport.

PENN STATE

The Penn State men's soccer team captured their first Big Ten Tournament title since 2005 after dominating Indiana, 3-0. The Nittany Lions won both the regular season and tournament crown in 2021.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

- Penn State has won 80 team national championships all-time, including a Big Ten-best 10 NCAA titles since the 2013 fall semester.
- The Nittany Lions have won 52 NCAA Championships all-time to rank No. 5 nationally. Penn State leads all schools east of the Mississippi River in NCAA titles.
- Since 2006-07, Penn State has won 22 NCAA Championships, good for No. 3 in nation and most among Big Ten institutions.
- Penn State's 22 NCAA Championships since 2006-07 are nearly than double the total (Maryland; 12) of the next-highest Big Ten institution.
- Penn State has won 33 NCAA Championships since 1993-94, its first full year in the Big Ten Conference, easily ahead of the Big Ten schools in second (Maryland; 26) and third place (13).
- Penn State student-athletes have won 175 NCAA individual championships in 11 different sports.
- Penn State wrestlers went a perfect 5-0 in the national finals to cap off a dominant weekend as they won their ninth NCAA Championship under Cael Sanderson and ninth in the last 11 contested championships.
- Roman Bravo-Young (133 lb.), Nick Lee (141 lb.), Carter Starocci (174 lb.), Aaron Brooks (184 lb.) and Max Dean (197 lb.) all claimed individual wrestling championships in a Penn State perfect final session.
- Men's gymnast Chase Clingman won the pommel horse individual championship at the national tournament, earning Penn State's third pommel horse crown in the last five contested championships.
- Five different Nittany Lion teams have finished in the top 4 of their respective NCAA Championship since the 2017 spring semester (9 combined top 4 finishes since 2017).

COMPETITIVE SUCCESS

- Penn State has won 302 conference championships (208 regular season; 94 conference tournaments) since 1941-42.
- The Nittany Lions have won 119 Big Ten Championships since 1992-93, including 48 titles since the 2013 fall semester.
- Since winning its first Big Ten Championship in 1992-93 (women's volleyball), Penn State is among only three conference institutions to win at least 100 Big Ten crowns.
- Eight of Penn State's 10 highest totals of yearly Big Ten Championships won have occurred since 2008-09.
- The Nittany Lions won a school-record eight Big Ten Championships or tournament titles in 2012-13 and 2013-14, the most titles of any conference school in both years.
- Penn State won Big Ten Championships in seven different sports in 2016-17, the most of any conference school. The Nittany Lions' seven Big Ten titles were third-highest in school history.
- In 2021-22, the Nittany Lions won four conference championships.
- The men's soccer team claimed both the Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships for the second time in program history (2005). It was Penn State's first men's soccer title since 2013.
- Wrestling brought home its ninth Big Ten dual meet championship since 2010-11.
- Men's volleyball continued its EIVA dominance by winning its 35th regular-season crown with a perfect 16-0 record.
- Nittany Lion student-athletes have won 373 Big Ten individual and relay championships in 10 different sports since 1991-92.
- Penn State finished in the top 25 of the Learfield Directors' Cup rankings for 26 consecutive years from 1993-94 to 2018-19.
- From 2012-13 through 2017-18, Penn State had an average finish of 9.8 in the Learfield Directors' Cup, improving from an average finish of 14.2 from 2006-07 through 2011-12.
- Penn State earned three consecutive top 10 finishes in the Learfield Directors' Cup standings from 2012-13 through 2014-15 and has 12 top 10 finishes in the 27 years of the Directors' Cup.

OLYMPIC PRESENCE

- Penn State had a strong presence in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics with 24 participants representing six countries. The 2020 Nittany Lion contingent consisted of 16 competitors in eight sports, three coaches, a team physician, three personal coaches and a field hockey technical official.
- Not including the 1980 Olympics in Moscow, where 65 countries did not participate, Penn State has sent athletes to each Summer Olympic Games since 1948, a streak of 18 consecutive Games.
- Penn State's contingent of 10 U.S. Olympians led the Big Ten and ranked tied for ninth nationally.
- The 11 first-time Olympians boosted Penn State's total to 119 all-time competitors or coaches (not selections).
- Six former Nittany Lion athletes won medals at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics Games – four gold, one silver, one bronze – while two coaches with Penn State ties led their respective teams to a silver and bronze medal (coaches are not awarded medals).
- The six medals earned in the Tokyo Games bring Penn State's all-time total to 43 medals won – nine gold, 11 silver, 23 bronze. The four gold medals earned are the most in a single Olympics in Penn State history.
- David Taylor became the first Penn State wrestler to win a gold medal and first Nittany Lion wrestler to earn a medal since Katsutoshi Naito won bronze for Japan in the 1924 Olympics.
- Micha Hancock and Haleigh Washington guided the United States to their first Olympic gold medal with a 3-0 victory over Brazil.
- Erin McLeod captured her second Olympic medal in Tokyo, winning a gold medal as Canada topped Sweden in penalty kicks.
- Joe Kovacs earned his second silver medal in shot put in Tokyo with a second-place finish for Team USA.
- Alyssa Naeher helped the United States women's soccer team to a bronze medal in soccer.

MISSION OF PENN STATE INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Consistent with the institutional mission of The Pennsylvania State University, Intercollegiate Athletics strives for excellence by offering all students model programs to develop meaningful standards of scholarship, athletic performance, leadership, community service, ethical and sportslike conduct within the institution's extant educational and social environments. Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to creating a climate for students and staff that reflects diverse values and needs; fosters an appreciation of a multicultural human society; assures equal access to opportunities without regard to personal characteristics not related to ability, and seeks greater involvement with an increasingly interdependent world.

PENN STATE SPORTS NETWORK

More than 60 radio stations across Pennsylvania, New York and West Virginia will carry Penn State football to fans throughout the Northeast this season on the Penn State Sports Network.

Steve Jones and Jack Ham will team up for their 23rd season as the play-by-play voice and color analyst, respectively, on the Penn State Sports Network.

The football broadcasts begin 90 minutes before kickoff with the one-hour "Dietz & Watson Tailgate Show" with host Roger Corey, along with Jones and Ham. "The Penn State Bookstore Kickoff Show," a 20-minute conversation with Head Coach James Franklin follows, before Jones and Ham bring listeners the starting lineups, health reports, field conditions and late-breaking news in the final minutes leading up to kickoff.

The broadcasts conclude with the "Pennsylvania Propane Gas Association Postgame Show" featuring locker room interviews, game statistics, stars and plays of the game, as well as scores from around the nation.

"The Penn State Football Show — Presented by Pepsi," a weekly live remote radio show with Coach James Franklin and hosted by Jones and Corey is broadcast statewide and airs Thursday evening during the football season.

"Inside Penn State Athletics," a three-minute daily update show hosted by Jones airs Monday through Friday on most Network affiliates; check local station for times.

All Penn State Sports Network broadcasts also can be heard via the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics website: www.GoPSUsports.com.

The Penn State Sports Network is syndicated by Penn State Sports Properties, a property of Learfield, one of the country's largest syndicators of college sports.
