ACES NOTES

First Half Shutouts

For the ninth time this season, the Aces held their opponent without a goal in the first half as Evansville preserved a clean sheet in the opening 45 minutes of an eventual 3-1 loss to UNI.

vs. Illinois State

In the last meeting, the Redbirds defeated the Aces, 2-1, in the MVC Tournament Championship Game on November 6, 2016. Illinois State has won six of the last seven matchups in the series. Evansville's last win over Illinois State came on October 25, 2015 when the Aces captured a 2-1 overtime victory over the Redbirds in Normal, Illinois.

Spreading Success

Of the 15 goals scored by Evansville this season, eight difference Aces have scored, including a pair of first-time scorers in freshmen Jayme-Lee Hunter and Katie Schroeder.

Non-Conference Mark

In non-conference play, the Aces captured four victories, the most since Evansville won eight non-conference matches in 2014. This marks the fourth time under head coach Krista McKendree the Aces enter MVC action with at least four wins.

Scoring Combos

Of the eight assisted goals for the Aces this season, six different combination have linked up to score for Evansville.

Limiting Fouls

Evansville sits 20th in the nation and tops in the MVC in fouls per game with just 6.36 per match. The Aces finished 2016 in 16th nationally with 3.42 fouls per game.

Efficient Aces

Evansville has put just 41 shots on-goal this season, but has scored 13 goals on those 41 shots. 32% of the Aces' shots on-goal have found the back of the net.

Starting Fast

In UE's 2-1 win over Morehead State on September 10, Molly Lear scored just 39 seconds into the match. The goal was the fastest for the Aces since Abby Springer scored just 17 seconds into a 3-0 win over Belmont on September 13, 2013.

Peaking at the Right Time

The Aces have won a game in the MVC Tournament in four-straight seasons, including a penalty-kick victory over Loyola to advance to last season's tournament championship match.

Tapping In to the Midwest

17 of the 25 student-athletes on the 2017 team hail from the midwestern United States. Indiana leads the way with seven natives on the roster with Illinois and Ohio each claiming four.

Hello, Neighbor!

Two cities are represented by multiple student-athletes on the 2017 squad. Three Aces (Hopper, Rickett, and Shepherd) come to UE from Cincinnati, Ohio and two Aces (Blair and Portenier) are from London, Ontario, Canada.

HEAD COACH KRISTA MCKENDREE

COACH NOTES

Krista McKendree enters her 10th year as head coach of the women's soccer program in 2017, already building an impressive resume, including a pair of Missouri Valley Conference Coaching Staff of the Year awards, two conference tournament titles, a regular season crown, and a pair of NCAA tournament berths. She has enjoyed great success, leading the Purple Aces to the Missouri Valley Conference Championship match in each of the last three seasons.

The only All-American in UE women's soccer history, McKendree served as an assistant coach at her alma mater from 2005 through 2007, then took over as head coach in 2008. That 2008 team won the Missouri Valley Conference regular season championship, the State Farm MVC Tournament championship, and earned Evansville's fourth NCAA Tournament berth.

McKendree's rise to the head coaching position at her alma mater began when she returned to UE in 2005 soon after Chris Pfau was hired as head coach. Evansville's win total immediately more than tripled, from three in 2004 to 10 in 2005. In 2006, McKendree was part of the Missouri Valley Conference Women's Soccer Coaching Staff of the Year. And in 2007, the Aces climbed to second place in the Missouri Valley Conference standings and won 10 matches for the third consecutive year. When Pfau left UE to become head coach at Akron, McKendree was the popular choice to replace him.

Then came the outstanding 2008 season in which the Aces produced a 13-5-2 record and the all-time leading scorer in MVC history—senior forward Kayla Lambert.

McKendree led Evansville to the NCAA Tournament as a player in 1998, 1999 and 2001. She is regarded as the best defender ever to play for the Purple Aces, and in 2006 was chosen for the Missouri Valley Conference Women's Soccer All-Centennial Team. She was a first team all-MVC player all four years, from 1998 through 2001. McKendree was the MVC Defensive Player of the Year in 1999, and in 2000 was MVC Player of the Year. She was chosen third team on the 2000 NSCAA / Adidas Women's Soccer Division I All-America Team, becoming Evansville's first All-American in women's soccer.

MVC Offensive Player of the Week

Rebecca Rodgers, R-Sr., F, Drake (Peotone, Ill.)
 Rodgers recorded a hat trick in 4-2 win over Valparaiso; her second career hat trick. Rodgers has scored nine goals this season, which is second in the MVC and ranks tied for seventh in nation. Last week, Rodgers became Drake's all-time leading goals scorer with 36 career goals and ranks seventh in MVC history. The Peotone, Ill. native has 84 career points which ranks second in program history and 10th overall in MVC history.

MVC Defensive Player of the Week

Haley Smith, SO, GK, Illinois State
 Smith earned her fifth and sixth shutouts of the season over the weekend, on pace to tie the nine shutouts she had during the 2016 season. She tallied five saves between the pipes Friday night in the 1-0 victory over UMKC and only needed to make two saves Sunday afternoon in the 1-0 victory over Western Illinois, thanks to the Redbird back line. Smith has 61 saves on the season so far, on pace to reach the 74 she had on the 2016 season.

MVC Newcomer of the Week

Hannah Bormann, Fr., F, Drake (Amana, Iowa)
 Bormann started and played 66 minutes in victory over Crusaders. She recorded pair of assists in the win. Bormann leads the team in assists with four. She has played in all 12 matches this year with four starts.
