TEAM NOTES

PICKING-UP THE PACE

One of the hallmarks of the Aces system under head coach Robyn Scherr-Wells has been the team's pentient for getting up the floor quickly. Through nine games in the Scherr-Wells' era, the Aces are 30th in the nation in pace, averaging 76.2 possessions per 40 minutes.

HIGH-POWERED OFFENSE

Evansville's offense has been much-improved this season, ranking inside the top 50 in points per game. The Aces are averaging 74.7 points per contest, the 46th-highest average in the nation. Heading into Saturday, the Aces have scored 70-plus in seven of their 10 games this season.

INCREASING THE PRESSURE

Along with an increased pace of play, Evansville has also put pressure on its opponents defensively this season. The Aces have forced the 35th-most turnovers per game in the nation, averaging 21.0 opponent turnovers per contest. UE also sits 44th in turnover margin with a +4.9 margin on the season.

THE ONE AND ONLY

Evansville's offense this season has been powered by three scoring threats in Je'Naiya Davis, Abby Feit, and Myia Clark. The Aces are the only team in NCAA DI to have three players with a scoring performance of 26-points-or-more.

IMPORTANCE OF DISTANCE

Not necessarily the first aspect that is keyed on in the new look Aces offense, three-point shooting has been one of the most important factors in determining whether Evansville wins or loses this season. In games where the Aces have hit six triples or less, Evansville is just 2-4, while going 4-1 in games with seven-or-more three-point makes.

HOME VS. AWAY

As the non-conference campaign winds to a close, let's take a look at the difference between the Aces performances at Meeks Family Fieldhouse and on the road.

JE'NAIYA DOES IT AGAIN

A key addition to the Aces this season, junior guard Je'Naiya Davis has show a penchant for high-scoring outings. In her first seven games as an Ace, Davis has 24-or-more points in three games, including 35 points against Purdue Fort Wayne on Nov. 24, the most in program history in a regulation game.

UNSUNG HERO

Despite not topping the stat sheet, the impact that senior guard Anna Newman makes on the team is seen when watching the Aces offense. Newman sits in the top 200 in the nation in assist/turnover ratio (1.50) and assists per game (3.6) and while running the point has been crucial to Evansville's rise in pace of play and scoring offense.

A REBOOUNDING FORCE

One of the most impactful additions of the offseason was senior guard Myia Clark, who has come in an immediately made an impact like her backcourt companion, Je'Naiya Davis. Along with finding herself in the top three in scoring, three-point makes, and assists, Clark has also contributed an important presence on the glass for the Aces. At 5'7", Clark cleans-up the boards at an impressive rate, sitting second on the team with 4.9 rebounds per game.

JOSSIE JUMPS IN

Making a spot start against Butler, junior Jossie Hudson showcased her importance to the team's depth. Against the Bulldogs, Hudson played a season-high 22 minutes, scoring seven points, and filling an important role defensively at the four position.

FEIT REACHES MILESTONE

With her seven first-half rebounds at Bellarmine on Dec. 7, Abby Feit became the 15th Ace in program history to reach 500 career rebounds, doing so in just 60 career games Feit is also nearing another milestone, sitting just 90 points away from the 1,000 point mark.

ONE OF THE MOST VALUABLE

If you could not tell by just looking at the season stat sheet, HerHoopStats.com clearly lays out how valuable Abby Feit is to the Aces success this season. Feit sits in the top 100 in the nation in a pair of player value categories, including 56th in PER*Minutes, a category that analyzes an estimation of the total value created by a player in their minutes played, and 70th in win shares.

LAST TIME OUT

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. - After an early cold stretch, the University of Evansville women's basketball team battled, but ultimately fell to Butler, 75-67, inside Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis, Ind.

"That was a frustrating loss. I know we are capable of playing better," said Aces head women's basketball coach Robyn Scherr-Wells. "We got good looks on offense and we didn't knock down shots. We let the game be at their pace in the first half. It took a lot of energy to fight back from a double digit deficit at halftime."

For the third time this season, junior Je'Naiya Davis was the leading scorer for the Aces, pouring-in 24 points, along with seven rebounds. Six other Aces finished the game with six or more points in the contest. Butler was led by Celena Taborn, who recorded a game-high 26 points on 11-13 shooting from the field.

Both offenses struggled to find any traction early as Butler held a 2-0 lead with over three minutes gone by in the opening quarter. The Bulldogs began to find their rhythm just shy of the midway point of the first period, building its game-opening lead to 10-0. Evansville began its push to trim the deficit with just under four minutes remaining in the first on a pair of free throws by Elly Morgan. Over the final four minutes, Evansville would utilize a 10-5 run capped-off by a last second lay-up by Je'Naiya Davis to close the period.

A jumper by Celine Dupont to open the second quarter pushed the Aces back within three, but Butler immediately responded with a run. The Bulldogs' lead would grow as large as 15, topping-out in the final minute of the contest. Just before the break, Evansville gained a bit of momentum with a three from Jossie Hudson with three seconds left that narrowed the Butler lead to 34-22 at the half.

Maybe one of the best 10-minute stretches of the season so far unfolded for Evansville in the third quarter as the Aces raced back into the contest. After Butler's lead hit 14 again with six minutes left in the period, Evansville went on a 10-0 run to trim its deficit to just four. The run was keyed by a more aggressive approach for the Aces, getting to the line three separate times during the stretch. With just over a minute remaining in the quarter, Evansville got within three on a pair of free throws by Myia Clark as the game moved into the fourth quarter.

Right from the start in the fourth, Evansville continued its momentum as Davis got to the basket for a lay-in and was fouled, hitting the ensuing free throw to tie the game. Butler retook the lead with a three 30 seconds later on a jumper by Trinity White. The Aces stayed within a possession through much of the fourth, but could never draw closer in the Bulldogs' 75-67 win.

"I'm proud of the fight we showed in the second half and that we were able to give ourselves a chance to win despite missing some players," said Scherr-Wells. "We had Butler on the ropes and credit to them, they made a couple of big buckets down the stretch to stop our momentum. We'll grow from this game and be ready for conference play after Christmas!"

Freshman Rylie Stephens led the way for Evansville for the second-straight game, scoring 14 points. Sophomore Abby Feit also finished in double figures with 12 points, adding three rebounds and an assist. Recording a game-high 27 points was Drake's Grace Berg, who hit 10-16 shots from the field and six of her seven free-throw attempts.

Both teams struggled to find their scoring early as Evansville and Drake went the first 4:51 without scoring before Jossie Hudson hit a layup to give the Aces a 2-0 lead. After Evansville captured an 8-6 lead to close the first quarter, Drake ran out to a 33-16 lead at the half after out-scoring the Aces 27-8 in the second period. Drake's hot-shooting continued in the third as the Bulldogs hit 69.3% from the field in the period, pushing their lead to 60-26 with 10 minutes to play. RECORD

150-87

Robyn Scherr-Wells, who has shown a knack for revitalizing programs and developing talent, was named as the 11th head coach in Evansville women's basketball program history on April 20, 2021.

Scherr-Wells comes to the River City with head coaching experience, coaching for seven seasons in the NAIA with Roosevelt University and Davenport University, winning six conference championships, while also helping rebuild programs at Florida International University and Davidson College as an assistant coach at the NCAA Division I level. Scherr-Wells spent the 2020-21 season as assistant coach at Florida International University, where she was part of a staff that helped lead the Panthers to their best record in nearly a decade.

The Panthers advanced to the postseason last season, earning a berth in the Women's Basketball Invitational, advancing all the way to the consolation final where FIU captured a 59-58 win over Manhattan on a pair of free throws with less than one second remaining.

Scherr-Wells' Panthers squad was one of the best offensive teams in the NCAA, averaging 73.7 points per game. FIU finished the 2020-21 season 41st in the nation in scoring offense. Aiding to the Panthers high-scoring offense was an excellent effort from beyond the arc, while also finishing inside the top 25 in NCAA Division I in three-point field goal attempts, total makes, three-point field goals made per game.

Previous to FIU, Scherr-Wells spent three years as the top assistant at Davidson College where she helped rebuild a program that finished 12th in the Atlantic 10 prior to her arrival to a fourth-place finish in just her second year and aided the program to their first winning season and post-season berth (WBI) in six seasons in 2018-19. At Davidson, she recruited and coached six Atlantic 10 All-Conference Team selections, as well as one Most Improved Player, one Sixth Woman of the Year, and one Rookie of the Year.

A native of Glen Ellyn, Illinois, Scherr-Wells attended the University of Michigan where she joined the women's basketball team. With the Wolverines, Scherr-Wells started as a manager/practice player during her freshman season and eventually earned an athletic scholarship as a sophomore for her role in that capacity for the squad.

As a member of the Wolverines, Scherr-Wells was part of a team that earned three NCAA Tournament berths and made the postseason in each of her four seasons.

A 2001 graduate of the University of Michigan, Scherr-Wells finished with distinction and earned a Bachelor's Degree in Movement Science and Athletic Training. She went on to earn a Master's Degree of Business Administration from Roosevelt in 2014. She is married to Ryan Wells and the two have one son, Jett, who was born just prior to the 2021-22 season.
