The 2000 season was the first for the Purple Aces in 2,500-seat Arad McCutchan Stadium, providing UE Soccer with one of the finest facilities in the nation used exclusively for soccer. McCutchan Stadium was built 34 years ago as a football stadium. Its transition to a soccer arena began after the University discontinued football in 1997. A two-year process to transform the field to precise soccer standards resulted in an outstanding playing surface for players, and an outstanding viewing area for fans.

McCutchan Stadium is located on the north end of the University of Evansville campus, and includes an enclosed press box, locker rooms, a weight room and offices. Located next to it is the Student Recreation & Fitness Center, and Carson Center, where most athletics department offices are located.

Soccer's move to McCutchan was the first phase of the major facilities project that produced the Athletic Recreation Complex on the UE campus. Now four of UE's major outdoor sports—men's soccer, women's soccer, baseball and softball—have permanent stadiums on campus for the first time.

Evansville has hosted more post-season soccer tournaments than any other school in the Missouri Valley Conference, including 12 NCAA Tournament matches. Evansville hosted an MVC Soccer Tournament in each of its first four years as an MVC member. Men's conference tournaments came to Evansville in 1995 and 1997, in between women's MVC Tournaments in 1996 and 1998. The combination of great fan support and excellent facilities has made UE a popular site for post-season play. Most recently, the stadium played host to the 2013 MVC Women's Soccer Tournament.

Marshall Ray

Seventh Season
Evansville '00

After nearly a decade on the sidelines as an assistant at the University of Evansville, Marshall Ray was announced as the sixth men's soccer coach in school history on Dec. 8, 2014.

Ray, whose affiliation with the Aces program dates back more than 20 years, will begin his second season at the helm of the program this fall. The Calvert City, Ky., native first stepped foot on campus as a player in 1995 before returning as the top assistant to former UE coach Mike Jacobs prior to the start of the 2006 season.

As a player, Ray starred for the legendary former UE head coach Fred Schmalz, stepping into a starting centerback role for the team as it reached the 1995 MVC championship match against Creighton. Unfortunately, he would deal with injury issues in the middle part of his college career, which included a conference title in 1996, but he bounced back to score six goals and earn a Scholar-Athlete All-Region honor as a senior in 1999.

Since Ray stepped back on campus in 2006, UE players have been presented with more than 50 all-conference honors and 15 all-region designations.

Two former Aces, Cory Elenio and Alec Dufty, have gone on to play in Major League Soccer, and most recently, Mark Anthony Gonzalez ranks as one of the top rookies for MLS-affiliated Swope Park Rangers.

As an assistant, Ray helped with the nation's largest turnaround in 2006 as UE posted a 9-8-0 overall record. In all, UE would go on to post six winning seasons, including four consecutive at one point, which was the best such run for the UE program since 1989-92.

Following the 2013 season, Ray was named the NSCAA Midwest Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

Prior to his Evansville return, Ray worked under one of the nation’s all-time winningest coaches in John Rennie at Duke, helping the Blue Devils take home the 2005 ACC Tournament Championship.

Ray began his coaching career with Drury in 2001 after playing a season professionally with the Nashville Metros in the now-deduct A-League. Following two seasons as an assistant, he was promoted to lead the program at the age of 24, becoming the youngest head coach in the country.

Ray resides in Evansville with his wife, Julia.

Years at UE

Second Season

Robbe Tarver joined the University of Evansville men's soccer coaching staff in January 2020 following three seasons with one of the top programs in the nation.

Tarver spent three seasons as a volunteer assistant coach with the University of Louisville men's soccer program under current head coach John Michael Hayden and former head coach Ken Lolla. At Louisville, Tarver assisted in opposition scouting, daily operations of training, recruiting organization and travel coordination.

Previous to joining the Cardinals, Tarver served as the assistant coach for three seasons at his alma mater, Centre College in Danville, Kentucky. During his tenure at Centre, Tarver served as the recruiting coordinator, and helped the Colonels capture their first Southern Athletic Association (SAA) Tournament Championship and the program's sixth conference championship crown overall in 2016.

In his playing career, Tarver was a 2x captain for the Colonels, achieving all-conference and all-region honors. He was invited to the USL Combine in 2014 and spent a season playing in Costa Rica for JuventudEscazuca.

HISTORY

PURPLE ACES HISTORY

ncaa COLLEGE CUP

NCAA FINAL FOUR

1985

When former UE head coach Fred Schmalz took over the Aces program in the 1979 season, he inherited a sixth-year program coming off its first two winning seasons in school history. Needless to say, that was only the beginning. Over the course of the ensuing decade, UE became one of the true powerhouses in college soccer, punching tickets to the tournament in both 1982 and 1984 to set the stage for a dominant 1985 campaign.

The Aces, who finished with a 21-1-2 overall record, outscored opponents 93-15 over the course of the year to take a national No. 1 ranking into the College Cup semifinal, which was hosted by Evansville at Arad McCutchan Stadium. The tournament run included a 3-0 win over Indiana and a 1-0 victory over Penn State, but it would come to an end in the national semis as eventual champion UCLA picked up a 3-1 victory in the contest, marking the only loss of the season for UE.

The dominant Aces run continued into the 1990 campaign, which marked the seventh of eight consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. Headlined by All-Americans David Weir, Scott Cannon and Trey Harrington, the Aces outscored opponents 68-7 over the course of the season.

Following an unbeaten 19-0-2 regular season, the Aces rolled over their Midwestern Collegiate Conference opposition in the league tournament, shutting out Xavier, Dayton and Saint Louis by a combined 12-0 score to set the stage for the national tournament. From there, 1-0 wins over both Boston University and Indiana sent the Aces to the aces in MLS

TROY PERKINS

In all, nearly 80 players have gone on to play professionally after leaving UE.

PURPLE ACES HISTORY

scotland's DAVID WEIR

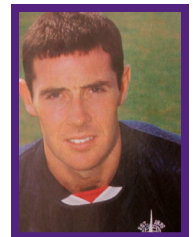

In the proud history of the University of Evansville men's soccer team, perhaps no player has made as significant an impact on the international scene as David Weir. An All-American forward for some of the best Aces teams in history, Weir would return to his native Scotland following graduation and go on to star with Falkirk, Hearts, Rangers, Everton and the Scottish national team. He currently

"It was the right thing for me. Coming to Evansville and growing up and playing a lot of football, That really helped me. It made me a better athlete. I feel like it's given me everything."

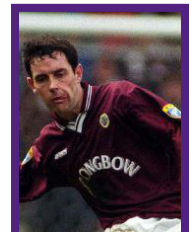

FALKIRK FC · Scottish First Division

Following graduation, Weir began his professional career with Falkirk, helping the side lift the 1993 Scottish Challenge Cup before earning a league title and promotion into the Scottish Premier League in 1994. He finished his Falkirk career with 134 appearances and eight goals.

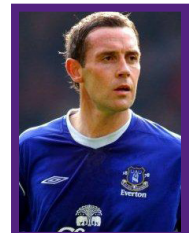

HEART OF MIDLOTHIAN · Scottish Premier League

Prior to the start of the 1996-97 season, Weir made his first professional move, joining Edinburgh-based Hearts over the summer. He'd score his first goal for the team in just his second appearance, and he also helped the team to a 2-1 Scottish Cup victory over Rangers in 1998. He played 116 games for the club, scoring 12 times.

EVERTON FC · Barclays Premier League

Weir enjoyed one of the most impressive spells of his career after joining the Toffees in 1999. A stalwart in the defense, he made 269 appearances for the club and scored 10 times. Joining a team that was on the verge of relegation just a few years prior, Weir helped navigate the team into the UEFA Champions League in 2005.

RANGERS FC · Scottish Premier League

After a successful Everton stint, Weir's time at Rangers became the stuff of legend. He would ultimately go on to win three league titles, two Scottish Cups and three Scottish League Cups while also playing annually in Champions League. Just days before turning 40, he would be named the Scottish Player of the Year in 2010.

SCOTTISH NATIONAL TEAM

Weir earned his first cap for the Scottish national team in 1997 and he'd go on to 69 caps with the squad, captaining the team four times. In 1998, he became the first player from an American college to represent a country other than the U.S. at a World Cup. He earned his last cap in 2012, becoming, at 40 years old, the oldest-ever Scottish international.
