We are.....UE

There are several ways to reference the University of Evansville. Generally, the first reference should always be "University of Evansville" or "Purple Aces". Later references to our team may be "Aces" as well as just using the word "Evansville".

Our school abbreviation is "UE". Under no circumstances is it acceptable to use "EU". We are not, never have been, and never will be, the European Union.

In the spring of 2019, the entire university underwent a complete re-brand. The "UE" logo below is our primary and the "Aces" is our secondary. Both are acceptable to use at any time. If you need logo files, please email rp113@evansville.edu.

Battling Back

- In his final four games of the 2021 calendar year, Evan Kuhlman battled a mild injury and scored a total of three points while going 1-for-13 from the field

- The layoff between 12/8 and 1/2 helped Kuhlman, who posted 12 points at UNI on 4-of-6 shooting...it was his first double figure game since recording 10 against Rice in the Gulf Coast Showcase

- After reaching double figures in the final six games last spring, Kuhlman has done so in five games thus far (11 out of 18 overall) - the top streak of his career

- Kuhlman scored a career-high 23 points while hitting 5 out of 7 3-point attempts against DePauw

- He scorched the nets in the opening part of the season, going 16-for-40, but has gone 10-for-35 since

- Playing in front of the home crowd in the opener at Cincinnati, Kuhlman tied for the team lead with 11 points and 6 boards...he followed that up with 13 points in the win over IUPUI

- He averaged a career-high 9.3 points per game while reaching double figures in each of the final six games of last season

- Kuhlman emerged as one of the top long range shooters in the MVC last season, finishing 6th in 3-point percentage (40.2%) and 8th in 3-point makes with 1.8 per game

- In 2019-20, he did not reach double figures in any of the first 17 games, but since then, he has hit the mark in 21 of his last 45 games

Top of the Valley

- Antoine Smith Jr. earned MVC Newcomer of the Week recognition on Nov. 29 and has continued to play well since that time with 46.3% of his outside attempts finding the bottom of the net (would be #3 tally in the MVC with enough attempts)

- After opening the season going 1-for-8 from the field, Smith has converted 31 of his last 53 attempts - 58.5%

- From outside, Smith hit 3 of first 10 attempts but has drained 16 of his last 31 for the season

- In four games leading to his Nov. 29 newcomer award, Smith averaged 13.5 points per game and reached double figures on three occasions

- Highlighting the week was a career-high of 24 points against Rice where he was a perfect 9-for-9 from the floor and 6-of-6 from 3-point distance

- He added 16 points against Akron before completing the week with 10 points at EIU

- He has multiple rebounds in 9 out of 14 games

- He made the start in the exhibition opener versus Mount St. Joseph and came through with 13 points and 3 caroms

Close Calls

- Three of Evansville's last four losses come by a total of five points

- On December 1, UE fell in its MVC opener to SIU by a 54-52 final before being edged at SEMO on 12/8 by a final of 75-73

- In its last outing, the Aces came within inches of a game-winner before Drake fended off the challenge for a 60-59 win on Saturday

- All three of those contests came down to a chance to win in the final possession.

Making the Adjustment

- As his freshman season has moved along, Blake Sisley has looked more and more comfortable at the next level

- After scoring a total of three points in his first six games, Sisley has averaged 6.5 points in the last four outings

- His top game saw him hit 5 out of 6 attempts on his way to 12 points versus Tennessee Tech

- Sisley has earned more playing time as the season has moved along, culminating in his top total of 24:33 against Drake...entering the EIU game, Sisley played an average of 4.2 minutes per game and had not seen the floor for more than 8 minutes in any contest...since then, he has played 12+ minutes in five out of six games while seeing an average of over 15 minutes

- Over the last four outings, Sisley has drained 4 out of 6 attempts from outside

A Defensive Clinic

- For the first time since Nov. 30, 2016, the Aces held an opponent to 40 points or fewer as the defense limited the Jaguars to 40 tallies on Nov. 11

- Prior to that, the last time Evansville did so was against Wabash in 2016...it was the first such effort against a Division I foe since 1/9/16 when the Aces held Bradley to just 35 points in a 67-35 home win

- The defense was able to hold each IUPUI scorer to single digits marking the first time an opponent has not had a double figure scorer since Drake on Feb. 25, 2014

Big Improvement

- While UE stands at 144 assists against 156 turnovers on the season, the team has been improving as of late

- Evansville began the season with 75 assists vs. 99 turnovers in the opening seven games of the year, but in the last seven outings, UE has seen that move in a positive direction with 69 helpers versus 57 turnovers

Finding a Way

- Despite a tough shooting stretch from long range, Noah Frederking has managed to score in other ways while averaging 7.8 points per game

- At SEMO, he scored 15 points, marking his first double figure game since Nov. 22 against Rice...he followed that up with 8 tallies at UNI

- He looks to regain his shooting touch as his outside shooting over the last eight games has seen him hit 11 out of 53 attempts

- Frederking recorded his first double figure game of the season versus DePauw, scoring 11 points while hitting 3 of his 4 outside tries before adding 12 against UCF and a season-high of 16 against Rice

- Finishing with 8 rebounds against the Bearcats, Frederking surpassed his previous high of five...he led the team in that stat while tying for the top total in the game

- The Okawville, Ill. product is coming off of his top collegiate season, recording an average of 10.2 points per contest while reaching double figures on 14 occasions

- He led the team with 55 3-point makes while hitting 40.7% of his attempts (4th in the MVC)

- Frederking currently has 915 career points, the most on the squad

2021-22 Evansville Men's Basketball

Taking Care of the Ball

- One of the things that has kept the Aces in each contest over the recent stretch has been the ability to take care of the ball
- The last seven games have seen UE turn the ball over just 57 times - an average of 8.1 per game...that tally is lower than the national leader in that statistic
- Evansville has finished with single digit turnovers in five of the last seven games and has not turned it over more than 11 times during that span
- That is a huge disparity from the first seven outings where UE committed 99 turnovers, an average of 14.1 per game

Triple Play

- One of the top 3-point shooting teams in the nation last year, UE has started to heat up from outside over the last 12 contests, hitting an average of 8.9 triples per game
- A season high of 12 triples were converted against Rice before UE drained 11 on the road at Eastern Illinois

Settling In

- A strong game at SEMO saw Preston Phillips score a career-high 5 points while recording 5 rebounds
- He has started three games this season and set his high tally with six cars-oms versus DePauw
- Phillips has averaged 3.4 rebounds while hauling in at least two in each game he has appeared in
- He has registered an average of 16.4 minutes per game

Using The 3

- One of the staples of the Evansville offense last season was its outside shooting, the 3-point shot accounted for 44.5% of the Aces offense - the second-highest tally in the NCAA
- As a team, UE averaged 9.6 triples per game (20th in the nation) while hitting a total of 240 (29th in the country)
- Through the 25-game season, 49.0% of the Aces field goal attempts came from outside marking the third year in a row that over 40% of UE's field goal tries have come beyond the arc (43.7% in 2018-19, 42.4% in 2019-20)
- On 12/28/20, UE tied the school record with 17 3-point makes at SIU
- Evansville attempted 33 triples in game one against UNI before taking 32 attempts in the second contest; the 33 attempts was a UE Ford Center record while the 32 in the finale tied the previous mark set in 2018 against KWC
- In the opening portion of the 21-22 campaign, 49.3% (371/752) of UE's attempts have come from outside while 120 out of 306 made baskets (39.2%) have been triples

Maybe a Record?

- On Nov. 16, UE and DePauw combined to make 5 free throws in the game
- It is the lowest tally on record in UE's Division I history and could be a record low for the program
- Last season, UE and Valparaiso combined for six makes from the line, one of multiple occasions a UE game has finished with 6

Preseason Notes

- Four starters highlight an experienced group that heads into the 2021-22 season with Evan Kuhlman, Noah Frederking, Jawaun Newton and Shamar Givance back in the lineup
- The lone starter to graduate as Jax Levitch, who started last season for UE as a graduate transfer
- Six newcomers join the team including four freshmen, a sophomore and a junior
- Only a year removed from an 0-18 mark in the Missouri Valley Conference, the Purple Aces won seven league games a season ago...UE is just the second team in MVC history to follow a winless conference season with seven victories
- Southern Illinois was 0-16 in 1980-81 but rebounded to go 7-9 a year later
- The 7-game improvement for UE is the best that the conference has seen since Loyola went from eight league wins in 2016-17 to 15 a season later
- Evansville was the first team to jump from 10th in the MVC standings to a top five seed since Drake went from 10th in 2017 to 4th place in 2018

First Time for Everything

- Last season, Evansville became the first team in MVC history to average double digit 3-point makes in conference only games
- The Aces finished with 10.0 3-pointers per contest in its 18-game Valley slate...the closest any other team came was the 2007-08 Bradley squad, who finished with 9.8 triples per contest

2021-22 Evansville Men's Basketball

The Ford Center

The Ford Center

In the fall of 2011, the Ford Center opened as the new home of the University of Evansville men's basketball team. The Aces made the move to the brand new downtown venue after playing at Roberts Stadium for 55 years.

Construction of the $127.5 million arena began in 2010. In August of 2011, Tri-State Ford Dealers acquired the naming rights to the 290,000 square foot facility, dubbing it the Ford Center.

Located on the corner of Main Street and MLK Jr. Boulevard, the Ford Center seats around 10,000 and is fully accessible to wheelchairs and patrons with limited mobility. In addition to cushioned chair backs, the Ford Center features numerous amenities, including six concession stands and one bar, 18 restrooms, and 178 televisions on and around the concourse level.

HEAD COACH
TODD

In just his first full season as head coach at the University of Evansville, Todd Lickliter led one of the biggest turnarounds in Missouri Valley Conference history. UE became just the second MVC team to ever follow a winless conference season with a 7-win campaign. The Purple Aces earned their first top 5 conference seed since 2016 while each the each player performed at their top level since joining the program.

The former National Coach of the Year was named head coach of the Aces on January 21, 2020 after spending the 2018-19 season as an assistant coach. The stability that he brought to the program played a huge role in the turnaround just a few short months later. In 2018-19, the UE staff faced a great deal of turnover while also working to implement a new system, but the team came together to post the program's best record for a first-year staff since 1978. The Aces began MVC play with a double overtime win against Drake before earning their most decisive win of the season when they defeated defending Final Four participant Loyola by a 67-48 final at the Ford Center.

As the head coach at Butler University from 2001 through 2007, Lickliter brought record-breaking success to the Bulldog program. In his first season at the helm, he directed the team to a then-school record of 26 victories and its third Horizon League regular season championship in a row. His squad also reached the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time in 53 years. Lickliter's success only got better as he led Butler to a pair of Sweet 16 appearance in 2003 and 2007. In 2007, his team fell to eventual National Champion Florida by just eight points.

Over his first two seasons at the helm of the Bulldog squad, Lickliter won a total of 53 games. It marked the third-most wins in NCAA history by a men's head coach in the first two years of work, trailing only Bill Guthridge (58 wins) of North Carolina and NC State's Everett Case, who posted 55 wins.

His top honor came in 2007 as he was named the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) National Coach of the Year. CollegeHoops.net named him as the High-Major Coach of the Year that same season. He left the program with the top three single-season win totals in school history. Lickliter became the head coach at the University of Iowa in 2007 and led the program at Marian University in 2012. In his second season with the Knights, he led them to the most conference wins in school history along with the #1 scoring defense in NAIA Division II. After leaving Marian, he joined the Boston Celtics as a scout.

Prior to assuming the head coaching position at Butler, Lickliter worked two stints as an assistant at Butler while serving as an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan from 1997-99. In his initial period at Butler, Lickliter worked with his college coach – Joe Sexson for the 1988-89 campaign and returned to the program from 1999 through 2001, working with Barry Collier and Thad Matta. At EMU, he assisted on the 1998 team that won the Mid-American Conference Championship behind future NBA star Earl Boykins.

The 1979 graduate of Butler University is a native of Indianapolis, where he played for his father Arlan at North Central High School. He played one season at Central Florida before transferring to Butler. Todd and wife Joez have three sons – Ry, Garrett and John.
