GAMEDAY NOTES

• The Aces and Cougars open Missouri Valley Conference play on Saturday in what will be the teams' 23rd all-time meeting with SIUE leading the series, 12-6-4.

- Evansville and SIUE split the season series in 2022 with each side coming out victorious on the road.

• The Aces start to the season marks the first time UE has entered conference play unbeaten since the 1990 season when Evansville opened the year with a 5-0 win over Eastern Illinois before opening MCC action against SLU.

• Evansville's attack through three games in 2022 has been all players from Spain. All of the Aces eight goals this season have been scored by the Spanish trio of Carlos Barcia, Jose Vivas, and Nacho Diaz.

• Evansville is ranked in the top 50 in the nation in 12 statistical categories, including 16th in shots per game and 17th in assists per game. Individually, sophomore Nacho Diaz leads the team with four goals and his one-goal per game pace is third best in the nation.

• The first two home regular season contests of 2022 have seen a combined 2,102 fans packing the stands so far this season, putting Evansville in 30th in the nation in average attendance.

WE ARE UE

There are several ways to reference the University of Evansville. Generally, the first reference should always be "University of Evansville" or "Purple Aces". Later references to our team may be "Aces" as well as just using the word "Evansville".

Our school abbreviation is "UE". Under no circumstances is it acceptable to use "EU".

The "UE" logo below is our primary and the "Aces" is our secondary. Both are acceptable to use at any time.

LAST TIME OUT

EVANSVILLE - In front of a packed house of 1,620 fans, the University of Evansville men's soccer team battled to a scoreless draw with Southern Indiana on Saturday evening at Arad McCutchan Stadium in Evansville.

The match marked the second-straight clean sheet for graduate goalkeeper Alex Vidizzoni, who faced six shots total and two on goal, saving both. Much of the attack came from sophomore Jose Vivas, who tallied a career-high six shots on the night, putting three on frame. On the evening, the Aces out-shot the Screaming Eagles, 15-6.

Evansville's best chance of the opening half came just four minutes into the match as Vivas streaked down the left side and into the box and had his shot just tipped away by Eagles goalkeeper Alec Meissner. USI had a chance to move in front just before the break in the 43rd minute with a shot from Zach Barton that Vidizzoni saved.

The Aces came out of the half as the aggressors, quickly firing three shots inside the first eight minutes of the half. Late in the match, Evansville continued to put the pressure on the Screaming Eagles backline. UE's best chance of the night came in the 85th minute as a ball found the feet of sophomore forward Nacho Diaz, who flicked a ball towards goal that ricocheted off the left post and was knocked in off the chest of Vivas, but the goal was called off as Vivas was offside. Despite the late flurry of shots from Evansville, the defenses won the night in the 0-0 draw.

COACH NOTES

- After nearly a decade on the sidelines as an assistant coach at the University of Evansville, Marshall Ray was announced as the sixth men's soccer coach in school history on Dec. 8, 2014.
- Ray, whose affiliation with the Aces program dates back more than 20 years, began his second season at the helm of the program in 2016. The Calvert City, Ky., native first stepped foot on campus as a player in 1995 before returning as the top assistant to former UE coach Mike Jacobs prior to the start of the 2006 season.
- As a player, Ray starred for the legendary former UE head coach Fred Schmalz, stepping into a starting centerback role for the team as it reached the 1995 MVC championship match against Creighton. Unfortunately, he would deal with injury issues in the middle part of his college career, which included a conference title in 1996, but he bounced back to score six goals and earn a Scholar-Athlete all-region honor as a senior in 1999.
- Since Ray stepped back on campus in 2006, UE players have been presented with more than 50 all-conference honors and 15 all-region designations. Two former Aces, Cory Elenio and Alec Dufty, have gone on to play in Major League Soccer, and most recently, Mark Anthony Gonzalez put together a stellar rookie season with Sporting KC-affiliated Swope Park Rangers in the the USL.
