GAMEDAY NOTES

- A cold fourth quarter on offense doomed Evansville in its return to Meeks Family Fieldhouse on Wednesday evening against the Bellarmine Knights. Despite leading for over 30 minutes, the Aces suffered a 64-58 loss after a scoreless streak of three minutes midway through the fourth quarter.

- In back-to-back games UE has outrebounded its opponent, including a new program record on Sunday against Chicago State. Wednesday night Evansville had 50 rebounds including 18 offensive boards. The Aces had 70 rebounds against the Cougars replacing a program record from 2004.

- UE picked up its first win on Sunday afternoon against the Chicago State Cougars that went into triple overtime. Sunday was the longest in program history since a triple-overtime game against crosstown foe Southern Indiana during the 1986-87 season. UE outscored their former longest performance by 10 points for their 2nd highest scoring OT game.

- Freshman forward Maggie Hartwig was named the MVC Freshman of the Week on Monday afternoon by the league office. Hartwig earned the honor after having her second double-double of the season against Chicago State. Hartwig scored 18 points while pulling down 15 rebounds.

We are UE

There are several ways to reference the University of Evansville. Generally, the first reference should always be "University of Evansville" or "Purple Aces". Later references to our team may be "Aces" as well as just using the word "Evansville".

Our school abbreviation is "UE". Under no circumstances is it acceptable to use "EU".

The "UE" logo below is our primary and the "Aces" is our secondary. Both are acceptable to use at any time.

#FOR THE ACES

LAST TIME OUT

EVANSVILLE, IND. - A cold fourth quarter doomed the University of Evansville women's basketball team in a 64-58 loss to the Bellarmine Knights.

After leading for most of the game, the Purple Aces couldn't find their offense in the fourth quarter to prevent a Bellarmine comeback. Only two players reached double-figures for UE, sisters Alana Striverson and Kynidi Mason Striverson. Graduate center Barbora Tomancova also had a strong night for Evansville, leading the team with 12 rebounds while adding nine points and a steal.

"It's super disappointing," said Head Coach Robyn Scherr-Wells following the loss. "We played three really solid quarters and saved the worst one for last. It's tough, we had a nine-point lead opening the fourth quarter with the ball. And two turnovers led to two scores and we gave up a bunch of offensive boards in the fourth quarter. We just didn't finish the game and it's a tough pill to swallow."

The first two minutes of the game were controlled by the Knights but the Aces quickly responded midway through the first quarter. A nine-point run gave UE the lead, which they would hold onto for over 30 minutes. Evansville saw its lead grow to seven in the final 20 seconds of the frame as a free throw from forward Tameshia Dozier made it a 20-13 game.

Unlike the dominant runs of the first quarter, the second was a bucket-for-bucket marathon. The two teams matched each other shot for shot outside of a brief four-point run for the Knights. Neither offense could find a basket in the final two minutes of the first half as the Aces headed into the locker room with a 31-26 lead.

UE opened scoring in the third quarter with a three-pointer from Striverson on the left wing. While the junior guard found the first points, it was again mostly a back-and-forth battle early in the third. Evansville put together a four-point run at the 6:46 mark to go back up by nine. Bellarmine tried to chip away at the lead but the Aces continued to string together shots and grew their lead to 10 in the final 30 seconds. A last-second layup from the Knights made it an eight-point game with a quarter to go.

Bellarmine quickly cut into UE's lead in the fourth with a seven-point run to make it only a one-point game. Evansville wouldn't make its first basket until over two minutes in as forward Maggie Hartwig had a second chance layup. The game bounced back and forth between a three-point lead and a one-point lead for the Aces. But a six-point run for the Knights with four minutes to go sealed UE's fate as they lost to Bellarmine 64-58.

For the second game in a row, Evansville outrebounded its opponent with 50 boards. The Aces also accumulated more second-chance points and bench points than the Knights through 40 minutes.

UE travels to Martin, Tennessee for their first Saturday game of the season against the UT Martin Skyhawks. Tip-off from the Kathleen and Tom Elam Center is set for 1 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 2.

LAST MEETING

EVANSVILLE, Ind. - Senior guard/forward Abby Feit became the fourth player in program history to reach 1,500 points, as the University of Evansville women's basketball team dropped an 80-60 non-conference matchup with UT Martin on Monday evening inside Meeks Family Fieldhouse in Evansville.

Feit finished tied for the game-high with freshman guard Kynidi Mason Striverson as both recorded 12 points. Also finishing in double-figures was redshirt junior center Barbora Tomancova with a double-double of 11 points and 10 boards and fifth-year guard Myia Clark with 10 points. For the Skyhawks, Sharnece Currie-Jelks and Shae Littleford powered the visitors, combining for 49 points in UT Martin's win.

The Aces were able to keep pace with the Skyhawks in the early going, trading baskets for much of the opening quarter. UT Martin's advantage reached its peak in the first quarter on a made free-throw with under a minute left in the quarter, but got to the foul line before the buzzer, hitting two free-throws to get UE within three at 14-11.

In the second period, Evansville continued to keep it a one or two possession game for the first part of the quarter before the Skyhawks consistent offense helped UT Martin pull slightly away in the waning moments of the half. Inside the final minute, Currie-Jelks hit a layup that boosted UTM's lead to double-digits, but was immediately answered with a bucket from sophomore guard Elly Morgan. As the half dropped within the final 10 seconds, Littleford knocked-down a jumper to give the Skyhawks back an 11-point lead at the break.

Evansville's turnovers and poor shooting began to catch up with it midway through the third as UT Martin saw its lead boosted to 20 at 57-37 with 3:14 remaining in the frame. The Aces showed grit, battling back with a 10-2 run over the final three minutes to chip within 12 going into the fourth.

Down the stretch, Evansville's turnovers were too much to overcome in the fourth quarter as the Aces recorded seven turnovers in the fourth as UT Martin grabbed the 80-60 win.

Evansville goes back on the road this weekend with a southern road swing to Belmont on Friday, February 11th and Murray State on Sunday, February 12th.

Coach's Notes

Robyn Scherr-Wells enters her third season at the helm of the Purple Aces women's basketball program. In her first two seasons leading UE, Scherr-Wells returned Evansville to a level of success not seen in six seasons, resulting in a contract extension in June of 2023.

On April 20, 2021, Scherr-Wells, who had shown a knack for revitalizing programs and developing talent, was named as the 11th head coach in Evansville women's basketball program history. Since then, Scherr-Wells has made plenty of progress in rebuilding the Aces program, beginning with the 2021-22 season.

In her first season, Scherr-Wells led the Aces to eight wins, the most by an Evansville team since winning 14 games in 2016-17. Capturing a pair of victories in MVC play, Scherr-Wells' side earned the no. 9 seed at Hoops in the Heartland, its highest seed since 2016-17. The Aces improvement continued going into Scherr-Wells second season behind the bench, as Evansville posted an 11-win campaign during the 2022-23 season. It marked the first double digit win season for the Aces and the highest victory total since the 2016-17 season.

One of the hallmarks of head coach Robyn Scherr-Wells system at UE has been playing fast. Installing a new system, Scherr-Wells achieved her goal of getting the Aces to play fast as Evansville finished 35th in the nation with 74.4 possessions per 40 minutes in her first season at the helm. The Aces averaged over 65 points per game in 2021-22, a nine-point increase from the 2020-21 campaign.
