GAMEDAY NOTES

• It was a tough start to Missouri Valley Conference play for Evansville with a road loss to Drake. A goal in the final five minutes of the match made the difference, handing UE a 2-1 loss.

• The Aces lone goal of the weekend came on an unusual play Saturday night. Evansville was awarded a free kick in the penalty area that was taken by midfielder Ola Arntsen. Arntsen's shot careened off two Drake players making its way into the bottom right corner of the net.

• Tuesday night's game will be the first time in five years that UE has welcomed a Top 5 team to Arad McCutchan Stadium. Last time the Aces had a Top 5 team at home was against then No. 2 Indiana in 2018 for a 5-0 loss.

• Evansville Interim Head Coach Robbe Tarver will coach his first game against his former program on Tuesday. Tarver was a Volunteer Assistant Coach for the Louisville Cardinals from 2017 to 2020 including one year under current Head Coach John Michael Hayden.

• UE is still keeping up a brutal offensive attack despite only recording a goal over the weekend. The Aces are 66th in the nation in shots per game averaging 12.71 over 90 minutes. Evansville's attack is good for 2nd in the Missouri Valley Conference, less than a shot behind leaders UIC.

WE ARE UE

There are several ways to reference the University of Evansville. Generally, the first reference should always be "University of Evansville" or "Purple Aces". Later references to our team may be "Aces" as well as just using the word "Evansville".

Our school abbreviation is "UE". Under no circumstances is it acceptable to use "EU".

The "UE" logo below is our primary and the "Aces" is our secondary. Both are acceptable to use at any time.

LAST TIME OUT

DES MOINES, Iowa -- The University of Evansville men's soccer team wasn't able to find a late game equalizer in a 2-1 loss to the Drake Bulldogs.

A goal in the final five minutes of Saturday evening's game was too much for the Purple Aces to overcome in their first game of conference play. UE's lone goal of the night came off a Drake mistake in a Bulldog own goal in the 36th minute. Forward Nacho Diaz Barragan and winger Nkosi Graham were the only Evansville players to record multiple shots through 90 minutes with two each.

The Aces found themselves down early as Drake scored on the first shot of the game in the 8th minute. The early goal spurred a response from UE with two shots and a corner kick over ten minutes. Evansville was able to get the first-half equalizer in the 36th minute just inside the goal box after being awarded a free kick. Midfielder Ola Arntsen touched the ball off the set piece, sending the ball in a direction where it deflected off two Bulldogs into the net. The Aces had the final shot of the first half in the 42nd minute to take momentum into the second.

It was all UE to begin the second 45 with two shots and a corner kick in seven minutes. After the initial drive to start the half, it became a back-and-forth game between the two teams as they traded a pair of shots. But a push from Drake in the final 15 minutes ended in a goal during the 86th minute, handing Evansville a 2-1 loss to begin Valley play.

The Aces return home for a big non-conference match up on Tuesday night. UE welcomes the no. 5 Louisville Cardinals to Arad McCutchan Stadium on Sept. 19 for Evansville's only Tuesday game of the season. Kick-off is set for 6:30 p.m. on the 19th.

COACH NOTES

- Robbe Tarver enters his first season as interim head coach after being promoted in Spring 2023. It marks the fourth overall season for Tarver on the Aces coaching staff, having spent three seasons as assistant coach and associate head coach since joining in January 2020.
- Prior to UE, Tarver spent three seasons as a volunteer assistant coach with the University of Louisville men's soccer program under current head coach John Michael Hayden and former head coach Ken Lolla. At Louisville, Tarver assisted in opposition scouting, daily operations of training, recruiting organization and travel coordination.
- Previous to joining the Cardinals, Tarver served as the assistant coach for three seasons at his alma mater, Centre College in Danville, Kentucky. During his tenure at Centre, Tarver served as the recruiting coordinator, and helped the Colonels capture their first Southern Athletic Association (SAA) Tournament Championship and the program's sixth conference championship crown overall in 2016.
- In his playing career, Tarver was a 2x captain for the Colonels, achieving all-conference and all-region honors. He was invited to the USL Combine in 2014 and spent a season playing in Costa Rica for JuventudEscazuceña.
