ON THE COVER

(Clockwise From Top): Seniors Tre Roberson (5), Alex Donnelly (40), Josh Burch (27), Marshaun Coprich (25), Teddy Corwin (87), Pat Meehan (33) and David 'Boom' Perkins (4).

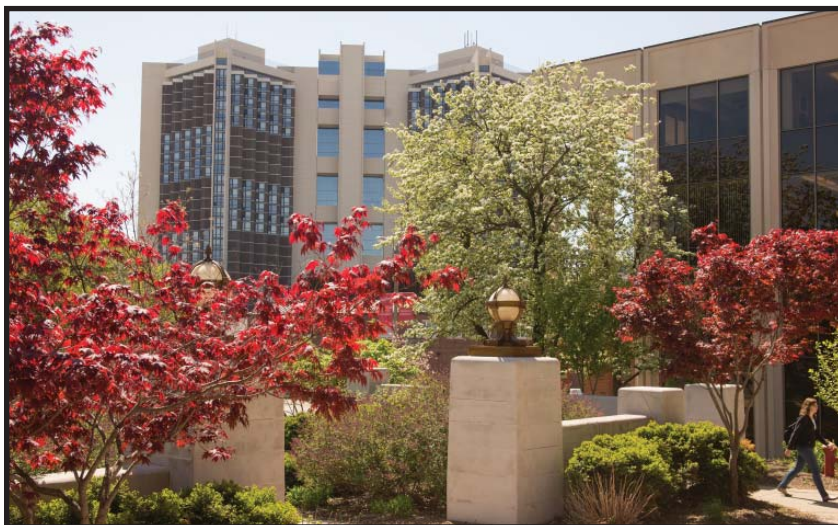

Founded in 1857, Illinois State University was the first public university in the state and is one of the Midwest's oldest institutions of higher education. It is a residential university that emphasizes undergraduate study. Abraham Lincoln drew up the legal documents to establish the university.

The original name of the school was Illinois State Normal University, reflective of its primary mission as a teacher training institution (at that time called a normal school). In 1964, as the institution began expanding and moving toward a full liberal arts curriculum, its name was changed, first to Illinois State University at Normal, and then by 1968 to Illinois State University.

Teaching is at the root of Illinois State's heritage and that tradition grows through the efforts of the outstanding faculty in all six of Illinois State's colleges. More than 92 percent of Illinois State's classes are taught by full-time faculty, most of whom have the highest degree in their academic area.

Illinois State is located in the twin-city community of Bloomington-Normal, and is centrally located 137 miles southwest of Chicago, 164 miles northeast of St. Louis and 178 miles west of Indianapolis. Interstate highways 74, 55, and 39, U.S. Route 150, and Illinois Route 9 intersect in Bloomington-Normal, creating a transportation hub. An Amtrak passenger station is just two blocks from the University, and the local airport is served by five scheduled airlines, one charter air service and three rental car agencies.

STUDENT PROFILE

- The fall 2014 enrollment was 20,615, including 18,155 undergraduate students and 2,460 graduate students.
- 59.2% of on campus undergraduate students are from the Chicagoland area; 18.8 % are from McLean and surrounding counties.
- 984 out-of-state undergraduate and graduate students come from 48 states, U.S. Territories, and U.S. Foreign countries. 425 international students are from 63 different countries.
- 55.0% of on campus undergraduate students are female; 45.0% are male students.
- First-time college student average ACT score of 23.8.

POINTS OF PRIDE

- Illinois State climbed in U.S. News & World Report's 2015 rankings of America's top public universities, to No. 74, based on academic quality and excellence.
- Our students complete their degrees on time. Our high graduation rate (71.8 percent) ranks us among the Top 10 percent of all U.S. universities.
- More than a quarter of our freshman class comes from traditionally underrepresented groups—a 25 percent increase from last year.
- Illinois State is one of Kiplinger's Top 100 best values among public universities for 2015.
- For the second straight year, Illinois State broke its private fundraising record, tallying $36.8 million in total productivity and another increase in alumni donors.
- Bloomington-Normal regularly ranks as one of the Top 50 college towns in America based on its quality of life and professional opportunities for students.

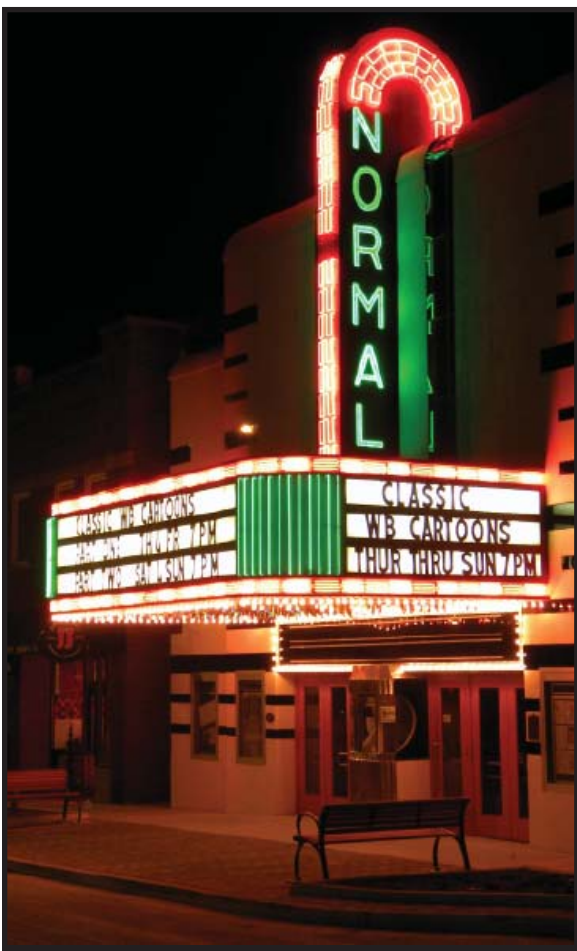

The Bloomington-Normal area is a vibrant community, home to 165,733 people who exemplify the values of the Midwest and a remarkable quality of living. Located in the heart of Illinois at the junction of Interstates 55, 39, and 74 makes getting to the Twin Cities easy and Chicago, St. Louis and Indianapolis are just a few hours away. Bloomington-Normal also boasts a bustling airport, as well as frequent Amtrak service via a new state of the art transportation center located in Uptown Normal.

Fun attractions, unique festivals, sporting events, distinctive restaurants and shopping make the area one of the best tourism destinations in Central Illinois.

The continuing revitalization of Downtown Bloomington and Uptown Normal has bolstered the community in several ways, including retail shopping, nightlife, dining and more. Downtown Bloomington boasts the Bloomington Center for the Performing Arts, McLean County Museum of History and U.S. Cellular Coliseum, while Uptown Normal features the innovative Children's Discovery Museum, the historic Normal Theater and the Performing Arts Center at Illinois State University.

The stability of the town's major employers, healthcare professionals, locally owned businesses, numerous media providers and central location in the state make Bloomington-Normal an exceptional place to call home.

Bloomington-Normal serves as the headquarters for State Farm Insurance and COUNTRY Financial. Its higher educational institutions include Illinois State University, Illinois Wesleyan University, Heartland Community College and Lincoln College-Normal.

KARIN L. BONE ATHLETICS STUDY CENTER

The Redbird academic support services staff understands the daily challenges student-athletes have to balance because many staff members are former college student-athletes and coaches themselves. With the unbridled support of Redbird coaches and athletics administrators, the academic support services staff helps student-athletes coordinate the demands they face athletically, academically, socially and personally.

Beyond their own care, concern and constant availability to help, the academic support staff's greatest asset is the comfortable, computerized Karin L. Bone Study Center. That's where programs like targeting, career development, community service projects, counseling and assistance for Redbird student-athletes from all 19 sports take place daily.

People and programs not only contribute to an outstanding Redbird student-athlete graduation rate of more than 85 percent, but also prepares them to be leaders for a lifetime.

Illinois State's Karin Bone Athletics Study Center has been the model other universities have tried to copy. Redbird student-athletes continually rank above the national average for graduation rates, and generally graduate at a higher level than non-athletes at Illinois State. With very specific programs aimed at the unique needs of the student-athlete and an extremely dedicated staff, Illinois State provides one of the most comprehensive programs in the country.

2.94 GPA

Redbird football players tied the program record with a 2.94 GPA during the Spring 2015 semester.

Injuries are inevitable in the game of football, but Illinois State football student-athletes know that if they suffer an unfortunate setback that they will be well taken care of by Associate Athletic Trainer Joe Whitson and his staff in the Kaufman Football Building training room.

Whitson, who is beginning his ninth season with the Redbird football program, leads a staff that includes Assistant Athletic Trainer Dane Langellier, graduate assistant Connor Gearhart and eight student assistants.

The full-time staff members and graduate assistants not only serve the student-athletes at Illinois State, but also are an integral part of one of the best-known, fully-accredited athletics training education programs in the United States. Hundreds of current sports medicine professionals got their training at Illinois State.

Whitson and his staff provide Illinois State football student-athletes with access to care and treatment second to none. The staff has access to consulting doctors and health care professionals on call in the community in virtually every area of medicine. Experience, equipped facilities, access and professionalism all are vital to the outstanding reputation built by Illinois State athletic training and sports medicine.

The goal of Redbird strength and conditioning is easy to describe: getting student-athletes from all sports physically prepared for peak performance. The journey for each student-athlete is much more specialized, as head strength and conditioning coach Jim Lathrop and his staff design specific programs to help address specific needs. With proven methods and exciting new resources available, Redbird strength and conditioning is committed to:

- ▶ Creating individualized programs to enhance physical preparation of student-athletes in all 19 sports with sport-specific, position-specific plans focused on individual needs.
- ▶ Developing an energetic atmosphere in which all student-athletes can strive to meet goals to enhance individual performance and contribute to team championships.
- ▶ Utilizing the spacious, high-tech, 9,200-square foot Richard and Fran Owen Strength and Conditioning Center.
- ▶ Maintaining high standards of accountability, responsibility and intensity during training so student-athletes and staff can realize their maximum potential.

- Founded in 1985, the Missouri Valley Football Conference has shaped itself into the nation's premier NCAA FCS conference.
- Strong coaching and great players have helped make the league a national force, but the stability and leadership of Commissioner Patty Viverito – the only commissioner the league has ever known – has helped make the Missouri Valley Football Conference a standard bearer on the FCS scene.
- The league's first three decades have included national championships, national players of the year, national coaches of the year, No. 1 national rankings, and countless All-Americans.
- League member North Dakota State is an unprecedented four-time defending national champion, and the league also has NCAA titles in 1997 and 2002.
- The 2014 final national poll had five MVFC teams in it, and for the first time the league held the No. 1 (North Dakota State) and No. 2 (Illinois State) positions.
- The 2014 playoffs ended again with a North Dakota State national championship, but Illinois State reached the title game, too, marking the first NCAA FCS championship game for the Redbirds. It was the first intra-conference match up in the FCS title game since the NCAA began conducting one in 1978.
- During the 2014 season, the league demonstrated its superiority as eight different MVFC teams achieved a top-25 ranking.
- Last year, MVFC teams combined for a 30-2 non-conference record against FCS teams, and the league also had two wins against FBS teams (Iowa State and Ball State). The league also set a conference record by going 11-2 against non-conference top-25 teams. Despite tough scheduling, seven teams in the conference had winning records, setting an all-time high for a season.
- Five league teams (Illinois State, Indiana State, North Dakota State, UNI and South Dakota State) represented the conference in the 2014 FCS playoffs, marking the 20th-straight season in which multiple teams have participated in post-season play. All five teams won at least one game, and the league recorded an FCS record 10 playoff wins.
- The Missouri Valley Football Conference has six recent national championships (North Dakota State – 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014; Western Kentucky – 2002; Youngstown State – 1997), and league members Youngstown State (3) and Southern Illinois (1) own additional titles prior to their league membership.
- Counting last year, an MVFC member has reached the FCS semifinals 16 times in the past 19 seasons (and 19 times overall). The league has six national championships in that span.

2014 REVIEW / 2015 PREVIEW

2014 IN REVIEW

- The 2014 season was one that will go down in the record books forever, as the Redbirds advanced to their first-ever FCS National Championship game.
- Illinois State won a school-record 13 games on its way to a final record of 13-2 overall and No. 2 national ranking in the final FCS polls of the season.
- The Redbirds posted a 7-1 record in MVFC play to earn a share of the league title. It marked the first conference title for the Redbirds since 1999.
- Along the way, Illinois State set 16 school single-season records, including rushing yards (3,619), rushing touchdowns (41), passing touchdowns (32), total offense yards (6,954) and points scored (574).
- ISU was very comfortable while playing at home, as it posted a perfect 8-0 record at Hancock Stadium in 2014 including a home playoff win over UNI. Dating back to the completion of the stadium renovation in 2013, the Redbirds are a perfect 13-0 at home.
- For the second time in his career at Illinois State, head coach Brock Spack was named an Eddie Robinson Award finalist. The award is given to the top coach in FCS football, and Spack was previously nominated for the award in 2012.
- Spack also earned MVFC Coach of the Year honors for the first time in his stint at Illinois State. Spack led the Redbirds to a 10-1 record and a 7-1 mark in MVFC play to earn the school's first conference title since 1999.
- Junior running back Marshaun Coprich finished fifth in the voting for the Walter Payton Award, which is given to the top player in FCS Football. The Victorville, Calif., native led all FCS players with 2,274 yards and 27 touchdowns on the ground last season.
- Coprich was named the 2014 MVFC Offensive Player of the Year, the fourth player in school history to earn the honor. His 151.6 rushing yards per game ranked second in the country and he set seven school single-season records.
- Junior quarterback Tre Roberson was named the 2014 MVFC Newcomer of the Year, after transferring from Indiana and starting all 15 games for the Redbirds on their run to the FCS title game.

- Roberson ranked in the top 10 of the FCS in five different categories and set nine school single-season records, including passing touchdowns (30), pass efficiency (155.3), total offense yards (4,250), touchdowns responsible for (41) and rushing yards by a quarterback (1,029).
- A total of 17 Illinois State players were named to the All-MVFC teams, highlighted by six All-MVFC First-Team selections that included Coprich and Roberson.
- The six first-team selections were the most since 2012, when the Redbirds set a school record with eight players selected to the All-MVFC First Team. Joining Coprich and Roberson on the first team were senior offensive tackle Jermaine Barton, senior long snapper Chris Highland, junior defensive end Teddy Corwin and junior middle linebacker Pat Meehan.
- Highland, Coprich and offensive tackle Barton were each by The Sports Network as All-Americans.

Highland and Coprich were named to the first team, while Barton earned third-team honors in the annual list of the best players in FCS football.

- In addition to his All-American plaudits, Coprich was named the College Football Performance Awards FCS Running Back of the Year and he was also honored as the top FCS player in the country by the Touchdown Club of Columbus.
- Collin Keoshian was named a MVFC Scholar-Athlete second-team selection and was joined on the list by Highland, Mike Banks and Mark Spelman, who each were named honorable-mention selections.
- Tight end James O'Shaughnessy was selected in the fifth round (pick 173 overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2015 National Football League Draft.
- Several other 2014 Redbird graduates were brought to NFL camps to compete for jobs: Mike Liedkte (Miami), Cameron Meredith (Chicago), Barton (Buffalo), Bradon Prate (Pittsburgh) and Highland (New Orleans).

JAMES O'SHAUGHNESSY

DONTAE MCCOY

2ND ROUND - NORMAL, ILLINOIS ILLINOIS STATE 41, NORTHERN IOWA 21

Redbird quarterback Tre Roberson threw for 382 yards and four touchdowns to lead the No. 5 Redbirds to a second-round playoff victory against Northern Iowa at Hancock Stadium, avenging the team's only loss of the regular season.

Senior tight end James O'Shaughnessy had a huge game, catching four passes for 105 yards with a pair of touchdown catches.

The Redbird defense held UNI to just 65 yards rushing on the day and the Panthers were held to just 16 first downs in the loss.

QUARTERFINALS - CHENEY, WASHINGTON ILLINOIS STATE 59, EASTERN WASHINGTON 46

Marshaun Coprich rushed for a career-high 258 yards and Illinois State piled up 542 yards of total offense en route to a 59-46 victory over Eastern Washington in the FCS quarterfinals. With the win, the Redbirds advanced to the semifinals for the second time in program history.

Coprich broke loose for a 74-yard touchdown run, his fourth of the game, to extend the ISU lead to 59-39 in the fourth quarter. With the run, Coprich moved over 2,000 yards on the season, becoming the only running back in school history to achieve that feat.

SEMIFINALS - DURHAM, NEW HAMPSHIRE ILLINOIS STATE 21, NEW HAMPSHIRE 18

A 47-yard touchdown run by quarterback Tre Roberson in the fourth quarter lifted the Redbirds to a 21-18 win over top-seeded New Hampshire in front of a raucous crowd at Cowell Stadium.

The victory secured ISU a spot in the FCS National Championship game against fellow Missouri Valley Football Conference foe and three-time defending national champion North Dakota State.

ISU trailed 18-6 in the third quarter, but scored 15 unanswered points in the final quarter of play to pick up the win. A fourth-down stop on UNH's final drive cemented the win for the Redbirds.

There was a big crowd at media day to talk with head coach Brock Spack and the Redbird players.

The coaches and players put on big smiles for their official championship game team photo.

ISU and NDSU players banded together to host a flag football game for athletes from the Miracle League Frisco chapter.

ISU President Dr. Larry Dietz and senior linebacker Pat Meehan posed in their cowboy hats at the Great Texas BBQ Bowl.

A sea of RED descended upon Frisco to root on the Redbirds as they battled the Bison for the FCS Championship.

The Bison and Redbirds played one of the most exciting title games in recent history in front of a record crowd.

■ GAME SUMMARY

Redbirds Rout Delta Devils 62-0 in Season Opener

NORMAL, Ill. - Illinois State shut out an opponent for the first time since 2005, as the Redbird football team beat Mississippi Valley State, 62-0, Saturday evening in front of 10,243 fans at Hancock Stadium.

Transfer quarterback Tre Roberson shined in his Redbird debut, rushing for two touchdowns and throwing for two touchdowns, for a total of 41 rushing yards and 204 passing yards, completing 10-of-15 passes. Meanwhile, Marshaun Coprich set a career-high with 169 yards rushing while earning his fifth-career game with over 100 yards on the ground.

MVSU's opening possession did not last long after quarterback, Patrick Ivy, threw an interception to Redbird free safety, DraShane Glass. The Redbirds proceeded to drive 43 yards to score the first touchdown of the night, finished by an 18-yard rush from Roberson. Later in the first quarter, Roberson scored his second touchdown of the night with a 5-yard rush. At the end of the first quarter, the Redbirds led the Delta Devils, 13-0.

The Redbirds struck first in the second quarter when Coprich finished the eight-play, 83-yard drive with an 11-yard rush for a touchdown to take a 20-0 lead. ISU closed out the first half scoring when wide receiver, Lechein Neblett, caught a 24-yard pass from Roberson to gain a 27-point lead.

Coprich continued his record-setting game by rushing for another touchdown with 10:25 left in the third quarter. ISU scored two more times in the third quarter with a 40-yard pass from Roberson to tight end, Joe Farmer, which was Farmer's first career-catch. That was followed by a 47-yard pass from backup quarterback, Blake Winkler, to wide receiver, Anthony Warrum, to put Illinois State up 48-0.

The Redbirds proceeded to score in the fourth quarter, with Winkler under center, on a 12-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver, Scott Kuehn, and line-backer, Jalen Battle, returned a 12-yard interception for another touchdown.

ISU's defense helped in the win by forcing their first shut-out in the last nine years.

■ GAME SUMMARY

ISU Defends Home Turf Against No. 24 Eastern Illinois, 34-15

NORMAL, Ill. - Illinois State dominated No. 24 Eastern Illinois on both sides of the ball, as the Redbirds won, 34-15, at Hancock Stadium on Family Weekend in front of 12,570 fans.

The Redbirds (2-0) received the kick to open the game and started with a strong 65-yard drive down the field, led by running back Marshaun Coprich's 32-yard run that put Illinois State inside the Panthers' (0-3) redzone. Coprich finished the drive with a one-yard touchdown rush on third-and-goal to give ISU a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

The Panthers struck first in the second quarter with a 43-yard field goal from kicker Nick Bruno. The drive began at the end of the first quarter on the Redbirds' 44 yard line after Illinois State quarterback Tre Roberson threw his only interception of the game. After the field goal, the Redbirds led the Panthers, 7-3.

After a series of punts, the Redbirds prepared to start a drive on their own 39-yard line. On first down, Roberson spotted wide receiver Lechein Neblett with one-on-one coverage deep down the field and connected for a 61-yard touchdown pass. The extra point gave Illinois State a 14-3 lead. EIU answered the Redbird score by kicking a field goal from 36-yards into the wind to cut the lead to 14-6.

With five seconds left in the first half, Coprich scored another Redbird touchdown with a two-yard run, sparked by an interception by true freshman DraShane Glass, his second interception in the first two games. Roberson connected with Neblett for the deep 46-yard pass that put the Redbirds ahead of the Panthers' seven yard line and led to Coprich's eventual score with a 21-6 lead at the half.

The Panthers came out in the second half with a powerful, 1:26 touchdown drive to decrease the 15-point Redbird lead to eight. EIU quarterback Jalen Whitlow scored the touchdown with a 14-yard rush, making the score 21-13. With the Redbirds forced to punt on their next possession, EIU began driving down the field. Whitlow dropped back for a passing play and was pressured by the Redbird defense as lineman Collin Keoshian tipped the pass that was intercepted by linebacker Alex Donnelly. Donnelly returned the interception down to EIU's 15-yard line where the scoring drive was capped by a field goal from kicker Nick Aussieker, giving the Redbirds a 24-14 lead.

Illinois State's defense and offense continued to complement each other as lineman Teddy Corwin intercepted Whitlow at the EIU 39 yard line. Two plays later, Neblett beat his defender and Roberson placed a perfect pass in his hands for another Redbird touchdown. After the Panthers next possession and punt, Illinois State drove down the field and Aussieker kicked a 41-yard field goal. At the end of the third quarter, Illinois State led 34-13.

In the fourth quarter, EIU pushed down the field to the Redbird one yard line, but the Redbird defense stopped the drive as defensive back Tevin Allen forced a fumble and linebacker Oshay Dunmore recovered. On the next possession, the Redbirds were tackled for a loss and a safety, but still secured the 34-15 victory.

■ GAME SUMMARY

No. 22 Redbirds Roll Past Austin Peay, 55-6

NORMAL, Ill. - Illinois State junior quarterback Tre Roberson and junior running back Marshaun Coprich led the way for the Redbird football team Saturday night, as ISU gained 496 total yards en route to a 55-6 home win over Austin Peay.

The ISU quarterback threw for a career-high 222-yards and four touchdowns, with one of those being a career-best 66-yard catch from senior wide receiver Lechein Neblett. Coprich headed the ISU rushing attack with 156 yards on the ground and two touchdowns.

Illinois State (3-0) forced Austin Peay (0-4) to two punts on its first two drives where the Redbirds were able to capitalize with a pair of 33-yard field goals from senior kicker Nick Aussieker to put ISU on top, 6-0.

The Redbirds would not have to wait much longer for their first touchdown of the game. On the very next play from scrimmage, Coprich exploded through the Governors' front seven and sprinted down the sideline for a 69-yard touchdown run and a 13-0 Redbird lead.

More struggles on the offensive side of the ball for APSU gave ISU the ball to start the second quarter where the Redbirds promptly marched down the field and capped off an eight play, 85-yard drive with a seven-yard Coprich touchdown run, making the score 20-0 in favor of the Redbirds.

Austin Peay sustained some offensive pressure in its seventh drive of the game when a missed field goal attempt was called off due to a Redbird roughing the kicker penalty. Austin Peay drove down to the ISU one-yard line, but an impressive goal line stand from the Redbirds forced a turnover on downs and kept the shutout intact.

Illinois State began the second half with a bang as junior Josh Burch took the APSU kickoff at the Redbird five yard line and ran all the way to midfield. After an 11-yard run from Roberson, the Redbird quarterback connected with senior wide receiver Cameron Meredith for a 26-yard over-the-shoulder pass, before slinging a 13-yard touchdown pass to Meredith for a 27-0 Redbird lead.

The Governors were able to convert on a fourth-and-one on their opening drive of the second half, and followed with a 56-yard bomb from APSU freshman backup quarterback Mickey Macius to senior wide receiver Javier Booker. A Redbird defensive pass interference call at the ISU one-yard line extended the drive for the Governors where they were finally able to break through on the scoreboard with a one-yard rush from Boone. An APSU failed two-point conversion left the score at 27-6.

On ISU's next three drives, Roberson connected with Neblett for an acrobatic 26-yard touchdown pass, and the duo followed with a 66-yard touchdown connection to give the Redbirds a 41-6 lead. The deficit was extended to 42 points when Roberson hit sophomore wide receiver Anthony Warrum on a 22-yard corner route for the touchdown. Illinois State tacked on another touchdown in the fourth-quarter when freshman Bryce Holm on his second career carry punched it in from one yard out to give the Redbirds the 55-6 lead and the win.

■ GAME SUMMARY

No. 22 Redbirds Shut Down No. 9 Jackrabbits, 45-10

NORMAL, ILL. - A raucous crowd of 10,919 fans watched junior running back Marshaun Coprich rush for a career-high 174 yards and four touchdowns, as No. 22-ranked Illinois State (4-0, 1-0 MVFC) rolled to a 45-10 victory over No. 9 South Dakota State (3-2, 0-1 MVFC) on Homecoming Saturday at Hancock Stadium.

Coprich remained red-hot to begin the season, rushing for 100-plus yards for the fourth-consecutive game, to give him a Missouri Valley Football Conference leading 10 rushing touchdowns. Junior quarterback Tre Roberson threw for 168 yards and one touchdown, and ran for 151 more, to help the top offense in the league notch 499 total yards.

After both teams' opening drives ended in punts, Illinois State's stifling defense came alive, forcing the Jackrabbits to turn the ball over on their next three drives. The Redbirds scored a touchdown after each turnover to jump out to a 21-0 lead. Junior David Perkins got the ball rolling, forcing a fumble and then recovering another one, both of which led to Coprich rushing touchdowns.

The next turnover came courtesy of an interception by sophomore linebacker Oshay Dunmore, on a pass intended for SDSU senior wide out Jason Schneider. Once again, Coprich capitalized for the Redbirds on a fourth-and-goal situation, leaping over the Jackrabbits' defensive line and recording his third touchdown of the day to make the score 21-0 at the end of the first quarter. The Redbirds continued the scoring on their next drive with a 25-yard field goal from senior kicker Nick Aussieker, aided by a 62-yard Coprich run, extending the ISU lead to 24-0 early in the second quarter.

The Jackrabbits finally got on the board courtesy of a 15-play drive that milked more than nine minutes off the clock. Senior SDSU kicker Justin Syrovatka split the uprights from the Redbird five-yard line to make the score 24-3. South Dakota State would not hold onto the momentum for long, though, as Redbird senior Tevin Allen took the ensuing kickoff from the 5-yard line and sprinted down the left sideline nearly untouched for a 95-yard kick return touchdown to extend the lead to 31-3. The Redbirds closed out the half with another touchdown, thanks to a 28-yard pass from Roberson to senior wide receiver Cameron Meredith, giving the Redbirds a 38-3 lead going into break.

Illinois State received the ball to begin the second half and picked up right where it left off before halftime. Roberson found his favorite target, senior wide out Lechein Neblett, on a 41-yard connection to set up Coprich's fourth touchdown of the day, a five-yard scoring run that widened the lead to 45-3.

The only hiccup from the Redbirds came on a third-quarter interception from Roberson and a Coprich fumble. The Jackrabbits were able to convert one of the Redbird turnovers into points when SDSU sophomore quarterback Zach Lujan hit redshirt freshman Jake Wieneke for a 26-yard touchdown pass, making the score 45-10 in favor of the Redbirds.

Late Aussieker Field Goal Lifts No. 15 Redbirds to 20-18 Win

TERRE HAUTE, IND. - Nick Aussieker connected on a 20-yard field goal with three seconds left on the clock to give No. 15 Illinois State (5-0, 2-0 MVFC) a 20-18 come-from-behind win over No. 20 Indiana State (4-2, 1-1 MVFC) Saturday at Memorial Stadium.

Indiana State scored on a 37-yard pass from Adam to A.J. Johnson to take the lead to 18-17 with 1:13 left, but missed on the two-point conversion pass attempt.

The Sycamores attempted a squib kick on the ensuing kickoff, but the ball hit Redbird linebacker Jalen Battle and he fell on it at the Indiana State 49-yard line to give the Redbirds great field position. A 16-yard completion to Lechein Neblett on third down gave the Redbirds a first down and a 27-yard run by Marshaun Coprich set up another first down at the Indiana State seven yard line. A time out by Illinois State was followed by one from Indiana State, before an illegal substitution penalty moved the ball up to the Indiana State 4-yard line, but another time out was called to try and ice Aussieker's field goal attempt. When play resumed, another penalty moved the ball a yard closer and Aussieker nailed the 20-yard field goal with three seconds remaining to put the Redbirds up 20-18 and ISU held on for the win.

The first five combined possessions of the day resulted in punts for both teams, before an Illinois State turnover resulted in the first scoring opportunity of the day for the Sycamores. Tre Roberson was intercepted by Alex Slowers at the Redbird 31-yard line and he returned it to the four-yard line of the Redbirds. The Redbird defense held though, and limited the Sycamores to a 25-yard field goal that made the score 3-0.

Neither team was able to do much offensively in the second quarter either, with three more punts for each team before the Redbirds crossed midfield for their best scoring chance of the half. The drive stalled, and the Sycamores put together an 11-play, 38-yard drive that ended with a 49-yard field goal attempt by Eric Heidorn. As time expired, Heidorn's kick narrowly cleared the crossbar and the season-long make gave Indiana State a 6-0 lead at the half.

Illinois State got on the scoreboard quickly in the third quarter, after Tevin Allen returned the opening kickoff 73-yards into Sycamore territory. The drive stalled from there, and Aussieker was able to put his 34-yard attempt through the uprights to cut the score to 6-3 in favor of the Sycamores with 12:27 left in the third quarter.

Following a punt by the Sycamores, a fumble by Coprich on his first carry of the ensuing drive gave the Sycamores the ball back deep in Redbird territory at the 27-yard line. However, the Redbird defense held once again and a 47-yard attempt by Heidorn fell short to keep the score a 6-3 in favor of the Sycamores.

Illinois State would eventually take the lead and score the first touchdown of the day, after a 19-yard punt by Indiana State's Osborn Umeh gave the Redbirds the ball at the Sycamores' 33-yard line. After Roberson completed a 7-yard pass on first down to Neblett, Coprich raced off tackle for 26 yards untouched down the Illinois State sideline for the touchdown with 13 seconds left in the third quarter. Aussieker's extra point gave the Redbirds a 10-6 lead as the game went into the fourth quarter.

The Redbirds extended the lead to 17-6 early in the first quarter, after freshman fullback Bryce Holm punched it in from two yards out to give the Redbirds the 11-point advantage. Indiana State came right back and answered with a touchdown of its own, an 18-yard pass from Matt Adam to Gary Owens that capped off a 14-play, 70-yard drive that ate nearly four minutes off the clock. Down 17-12, the Sycamores went for the two-point conversion to cut the deficit to a field goal, but a sack by David Perkins ended the try.

■ GAME SUMMARY

No. 22 Redbirds Shut Down No. 9 Jackrabbits, 45-10

MACOMB, ILL. - For the second week in a row, senior placekicker Nick Aussieker nailed a game-winning field goal, as No. 9 Illinois State (6-0, 3-0 MVFC) erased a 21-point second-half deficit to come from behind for a 37-34 win at Western Illinois (3-5, 1-3 MVFC).

ISU improved to 6-0 to start the season for the first time since 1967 and secured their fifth winning campaign in six seasons under the leadership of head coach Brock Spack. After starting the first half with three costly turnovers, junior transfer quarterback Tre Roberson was magnificent in the second half and finished the game with 256 yards passing and three touchdowns, to go with 81 yards and score on the ground.

On the first play from scrimmage, Roberson was intercepted by Luke Venegoni, and WIU took over deep in Redbird territory at the 28-yard line. The defense held however, and limited the Leathernecks to a 25-yard field goal and a 3-0 lead two and a half minutes into the game. The Redbirds answered immediately, as Coprich rushed 69 yards for a touchdown on the second play of the drive. Nick Aussieker missed the extra point, however, and ISU's lead stayed at 6-3 with 12:36 left in the first quarter.

The Leathernecks came right back and took the lead at 10-6 on the next drive on a 12-yard touchdown run by J.C. Baker. Illinois State had a great opportunity to regain the lead on the next drive, but a Roberson pass sailed over the head of Cameron Meredith in the end zone and the ball was picked off by David McDaniel. The Leathernecks added another score on a Trenton Norvell pass to Lance Lenoir for 29 yards in the second quarter to extend the lead to 17-6 with 11:36 left in the half.

WIU got the ball back on the next drive after a Roberson fumble, his third turnover of the half, and Devon Moore capitalized with a two-yard touchdown run to widen the Leathernecks' lead to 24-6 with 8:24 left in the second quarter. Another field goal by Nathan Knuffman from 39 yards out with 5:28 left in the third quarter widened the WIU lead to 27-6, before the Redbirds answered with a touchdown on the next drive to cut the lead to two scores. A 10-yard touchdown throw to O'Shaughnessy cut the score deficit to 27-13 with 2:35 left in the third quarter.

A quick three-and-out by the Leathernecks and a shanked punt gave the Redbirds the ball back at the WIU 40 yard line. A 21-yard completion from Roberson to Meredith put the Redbirds in the red zone, and a crucial third-down completion from Roberson to Meredith set the Redbird up first-and-goal at the 6-yard line. On second down, Roberson faked the option and carried it in for the touchdown to cut the WIU lead to 27-20, following the extra point from Aussieker with 14:48 left in the game.

Following another punt by WIU, the Redbirds took over at their own 44-yard line and put together a 5-play, 56-yard scoring drive to tie the game at 27-27. Roberson found O'Shaughnessy in the end zone for a 9-yard score to tie the ball game.

However, the tie would be short-lived, as WIU answered on the next drive with a 75-yard touchdown pass to go back up by a touchdown at 34-27 with 10:52 left in the game. A crucial third-down conversion from Roberson to Anthony Warrum on the next drive moved the Redbirds past midfield to the WIU 40. A facemask penalty on the WIU defense would then move the ball down to the 24-yard line, and Roberson found Meredith for a 24-yard score to tie the game again at 34-34.

Late in the quarter, the Leathernecks took over at their own 20 and drove to near mid-field, before David Perkins intercepted a Norvell pass at the line of scrimmage and returned it to the WIU 32-yard line. The Redbirds moved the ball down to the WIU 17-yard line, before Aussieker nailed the winning field goal as time expired.

Fourth-Quarter Rally Lifts No. 9 Redbirds To 21-7 Win

NORMAL, Ill. - In a defensive slugfest, No. 9 Illinois State (7-0, 4-0 MVFC) turned momentum gained from a third-quarter defensive stop into a fourth-quarter go-ahead touchdown, lifting the Redbirds to a 21-7 victory over Missouri State (4-4, 1-3 MVFC) at Hancock Stadium in front of a crowd of 10,164.

ISU improved to 7-0, the school's best start to a season since 1932, and extended its home winning streak to 10 games in a row since Hancock Stadium was renovated.

Junior transfer quarterback Tre Roberson capped an eight-play, 80-yard, fourth-quarter drive with a 7-yard rushing touchdown to secure the Redbirds victory. Roberson finished with 169 yards passing, with two touchdowns and no interceptions. He added 85 rushing yards and one touchdown to his productive night. Walter Payton Award Watch List member Marshaun Coprich powered his way to his seventh-consecutive 100-plus yard rushing game, running for 148 yards on 31 carries.

The Redbird offense exploded out of the gate with an 85-yard opening scoring drive that ended with a 28-yard passing touchdown from Roberson to Scott Kuehn. Roberson split the Bears' double-coverage on a deep post route to Kuehn, who hauled in his third-career touchdown and his second of the season. The subsequent extra point was missed wide left, giving ISU a 6-0 lead.

A promising opening drive by Missouri State stalled at the 35-yard line. Three straight 15-plus yard plays from scrimmage were spoiled by a personal foul penalty against the Bears. After the first two drives, the rest of the first half was highlighted by tough defense from both squads. In the second quarter, the Bears' 36-yard field goal attempt was blocked by junior defensive end Teddy Corwin and ISU eventually took a 6-0 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Missouri State came out hot on its first possession of the second half with a 10-play, 90-yard scoring drive, capped off by a 30-yard passing touchdown from Kierri Harris to Deion Holliman. Holliman's first reception of the year gave the Bears a 7-6 lead. The turning point of the game came with less than two minutes remaining in the third quarter, when the Bears drove to the ISU 29-yard line and looked to be on the verge of adding to their one-point lead. Senior defensive lineman Braden Prate sacked Harris to force a third-and-long, which the Bears failed to convert.

The Redbirds took over and on the ensuing drive, a 15-yard personal foul penalty against the Bears and completions of 21 and 23 yards from Roberson to senior Cameron Meredith set up Roberson's go-ahead touchdown with 12:14 remaining. The pair also connected on a pass for the two-point conversion to give ISU a 14-7 lead. ISU's defense forced a three-and-out on the next drive and the Redbird offense added some insurance with a two-yard passing touchdown from Roberson to senior tight end James O'Shaughnessy to give the Redbirds a 21-7 lead.

■ GAME SUMMARY

Comback Falls Short, No. 6 ISU Defeated at No. 22 UNI 42-28

CEDAR FALLS, IOWA - In a battle between two of the top defenses in the Missouri Valley Football Conference, No. 6 Illinois State (7-1, 4-1 MVFC) fell to No. 22 Northern Iowa (5-4, 3-2 MVFC), 42-28, at the UNI Dome.

ISU suffered its first loss of the year, after trying to become the first team in school history to start a season 8-0. Two special teams touchdowns from the Panthers ended up being the deciding factor in a game highlighted by a thrilling second half.

On the opening play of the game, UNI fumbled on a quarterback-running back exchange, and senior defensive back Mike Banks recovered to set the Redbirds up with great field position early. On the next play, junior running back Marshaun Coprich took the ball 28 yards up the middle for the score, breaking several arm tackles to put ISU ahead, 7-0. The run put Coprich over 1000 rushing yards on the season, making him the 13th player in ISU history to surpass the mark. Later in the game, Coprich became the 11th Redbird to reach the 2,000-yard career rushing plateau.

After the early excitement, seven straight drives stalled for both teams, as only one first down was converted by each offense. Among the ISU defensive highlights in the first half was a sack by senior defensive linemen Braden Prate and Collin Keoshian, followed by another sack by junior defensive linemen Teddy Corwin and David Perkins. The Redbirds finally got another scoring opportunity on their first drive of the second quarter, but Nick Aussieker's 46-yard field goal attempt went wide-right.

After another ISU three-and-out, the Panthers returned a blocked punt seven yards for a score to tie the game, 7-7. Both teams combined to go 3-for-18 on third downs and amassed less than 200 total yards of offense in the first half. UNI broke the game open in the second half with two third-quarter touchdowns. A passing touchdown from Brian Carnes to Kevin Vereen, Jr. was followed by a 31-yard rushing score by David Johnson to give the Panthers the lead at 21-7.

After junior transfer quarterback Tre Roberson was intercepted, the Redbird defense came up huge when Prate tipped a Carnes pass attempt, and junior linebacker Alex Donnelly returned the pick 56 yards to set up a Coprich eight-yard touchdown to cut into the lead, 21-14. With less than ten minutes remaining and the Panthers driving the field, Corwin came up with his second career interception inside the Redbird 25-yard line, when he tipped a pass at the line-of-scrimmage and hauled the ball in while lying on his back. On the next play, Coprich broke a 76-yard touchdown run up the right sideline to tie the game again, 21-21.

Johnson took the ensuing kickoff 98 yards for the game-winning touchdown. He added another rushing touchdown late in the fourth quarter to seal the game. Roberson connected with senior tight end James O'Shaughnessy on a 21-yard passing touchdown to pull within 35-28 with 2:09 remaining in the game. After the defense forced a three-and-out, Roberson was intercepted with less than one minute to go, and the Panthers returned it 32 yards for the final score of the game.

■ GAME SUMMARY

No. 12 Redbirds Bounce Back, Defeat No. 10 Youngstown State

NORMAL, Ill. - One week after suffering their first loss of the season, No. 12 Illinois State (8-1, 5-1 MVFC) bounced back, dropping No. 10 Youngstown State (7-3, 4-2 MVFC), 35-21, at Hancock Stadium.

Tre Roberson connected with senior wide receiver Cameron Meredith for a 29-yard touchdown to put the Redbirds ahead, 28-21, and they never looked back. Meredith finished with 101 yards receiving.

Roberson finished the game 16-for-24 with 178 yards passing and two touchdowns. He added 79 yards rushing and a touchdown late in the game to seal the Redbird victory. Roberson's leadership and poise helped ISU stay relaxed even after falling behind by a touchdown three separate times throughout the game.

Marshaun Coprich continued his historic streak of 100-plus yard rushing performances with his ninth-straight to start the season. He added two scores on 144 yards rushing. The two touchdowns lifted him into second place on ISU's single-season rushing touchdowns list with 17, passing Pierre Rembert (2006).

The Redbird defense was exploited in the first half, giving up 325 yards of total offense, but the second half was a different story, as ISU shut down the Penguins' offensive attack, giving up only 86 yards and no scores. The Penguins exploded early with a 13-play, 86-yard opening drive finished off by a dump pass over the middle from Hunter Wells to Martin Ruiz to beat the Redbird blitz.

ISU got on the board during its second possession, highlighted by a long scramble from Roberson that set up Coprich's first touchdown of the game from two yards out to tie the game at 7-7.

Youngstown State answered immediately with a quick 4-play, 96-yard drive that broke open with a 68-yard pass from Wells to Andre Stubbs, followed by an 11-yard rushing score from Jody Webb on a counter play. Webb's shift run followed an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty which put the Penguins inside the red zone.

Roberson connected with senior tight end James O'Shaughnessy on a six-yard passing touchdown on ISU's next drive to tie the game at 14-14. The catch was O'Shaughnessy's fifth receiving touchdown of the season, with all of the scores coming in the last four games. A trick play capped a third-consecutive touchdown drive, as the Penguins dug deep into their playbook, pulling out a flea flicker from Wells to a wide-open Andrew Williams for a 39-yard score.

The first half ended with a blocked field goal from defensive lineman Collin Keoshian. The senior's block stopped the Penguins from entering halftime with momentum and just a seven-point lead at 21-14.

Bottled up for almost the entire first half, Coprich broke loose on the opening drive of the third quarter, exploding for 55 yards and his second rushing touchdown of the game. His score tied the game, 21-21. With the Penguins driving deep into Redbird territory, sophomore linebacker Oshay Dunmore came up with a momentum-shifting sack to push Youngstown State back, and their field goal attempt was blocked by senior defensive lineman Braden Prate to keep the game tied.

After Meredith's go-ahead touchdown, the Redbird defense came up with two big stops, and Roberson broke away for a 36-yard score, using his quick first step to blow past several defenders to put the game away.

■ GAME SUMMARY

No. 22 Redbirds Shut Down No. 9 Jackrabbits, 45-10

VERMILLION, S.D. - No. 7 Illinois State (9-1, 6-1 MVFC) continued its march to capturing at least a share of the regular season MVFC championship, taking down South Dakota (2-9, 0-7 MVFC) by a final score of 45-26.

The Redbirds used the two-headed rushing attack of junior transfer quarterback Tre Roberson and junior running back Marshaun Coprich to take control early, and a 32-yard passing touchdown from Roberson to senior wide receiver Cameron Meredith with 19 seconds remaining in the second quarter gave ISU some much-needed momentum going into halftime.

Early on it looked as if ISU would handle South Dakota easily, jumping out to a 21-0 lead, but the Coyotes battled back with two late second-quarter touchdowns to put pressure on the Redbirds. Coprich sprinted for a 56-yard touchdown on ISU's third drive from scrimmage, and Roberson scored from 12 yards out on a read-option keeper to give the Redbirds an early 14-0 lead less than 10 minutes into the contest. Coprich later added to the Redbird lead with a bulldozing 28-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter.

The Walter Payton Award Watch List member finished the game with a career-high 221 rushing yards and two touchdowns. The junior surpassed the 100-yard mark on the Redbirds' third drive of the game, and his first-career 200-yard rushing game gave him his 10th-consecutive 100-plus yard rushing performance to start the season.

On the Coyotes' next two drives, quarterback Kevin Earl connected with Kayl Barkley and Eric Shufford on passing touchdowns of two yards and 43 yards, respectively. With its starting placekicker out of the game due to injury, South Dakota chose to attempt a pair of two-point conversions, both of which failed. Meredith's score gave the Redbirds a 28-12 lead going into halftime, and the senior finished with 105 receiving yards, going over 100 for the second-straight game.

The third quarter featured little excitement, until a Coprich fumble with 1:03 remaining set up the Coyotes at the 35-yard line, and Earl punched in a quarterback sneak from one-yard out. The ensuing extra point kick was blocked, but the ball was recovered by South Dakota for two points to make the score 28-20.

After a long kick return by senior safety Tevin Allen put the Redbirds in South Dakota territory, bruising runs by Coprich and a reverse by Jon-Marc Anderson set up a field goal by senior placekicker Nick Aussieker. On the Redbirds' last drive of the game, Roberson's smart play and knack to make the right reads enabled ISU to take six-plus minutes off the clock, ending in his second rushing touchdown of the game to push the lead to 38-20. South Dakota added a late touchdown with another one-yard sneak by Earl. Junior defensive back Josh Burch returned an interception 46 yards up the left sideline to cap the scoring for ISU.

ISU Claims Share of MVFC Title With Win Over SIU

NORMAL, Ill. - Illinois State quarterback Tre Roberson racked up 413 yards of total offense and accounted for four touchdowns, as he led No. 7 Illinois State to a share of the Missouri Valley Football Conference Championship, after the Redbirds defeated Southern Illinois, 44-29, Saturday afternoon at Hancock Stadium.

Roberson posted one of his most impressive performances of the season, throwing for 319 yards and tossing three touchdowns, while rushing for 94 yards and a score in an offensive explosion for the Redbirds. ISU took control early, when Roberson connected with senior wide receiver Cameron Meredith for a 30-yard touchdown less than three minutes into the game. With just under six minutes remaining in the quarter, Roberson found senior wide receiver Lechein Neblett for a 70-yard score, as both receivers surpassed 100 receiving yards in the game. Meredith finished with 182 yards with a touchdown for his third-straight 100-plus yard game, and Neblett finished with 125 yards to go along with two scores.

Following a bad snap on an SIU punt attempt, the Redbirds scored a safety when the ball went through the back of the end zone and they took a 16-0 lead into the second quarter. The quarter featured little excitement, until senior placekicker Nick Aussieker's 22-yard field goal attempt was blocked by a Saluki defensive lineman with 6:11 remaining in the quarter. With just under a minute left in the half, Aussieker's second field goal attempt of the game missed wide-left from 39 yards out. The attempt was set up by a 67-yard completion from Roberson to Meredith up the left sideline, after the Redbirds were backed up deep in their own territory.

After being bottled up for the entire first half, junior running back Marshaun Coprich started the third quarter off strong with a one-yard touchdown run that put the Redbirds up 23-0. The Walter Payton Award Watch List member continued his historic streak of 100-plus yard rushing performances with his 11th straight game reaching the plateau and finished with 160 yards and two touchdowns after gaining only 33 yards in the first half. Coprich moved into second on ISU's single-season rushing yards list with 1,683, trailing only Toby Davis. He also earned scored his 22nd touchdown of the year, and now holds ISU's single-season rushing touchdowns record.

Later in the third quarter, Roberson connected with Neblett for a 38-yard touchdown with 3:31 remaining in the quarter to up the score to 30-8, following a SIU touchdown from LaSteven McKinney on a seven-yard pass from Mark Iannotti. ISU then took a 30-15 advantage into the fourth quarter, and Coprich's 10-yard rushing score gave the Redbirds some insurance. Roberson used his legs on a 21-yard rushing touchdown to wrap up the scoring for the Redbirds.

ISU Avenges Lone Loss, Defeats UNI In Playoffs, 41-21

NORMAL, Ill. - In a dominating performance, Illinois State quarterback Tre Roberson threw for 382 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Redbirds to a second-round playoff victory against Northern Iowa, 41-21, Saturday afternoon at Hancock Stadium.

After losing to the Panthers on Nov. 1 at the UNI Dome, ISU got its revenge on the only team to defeat them this season. The Redbirds exploded out of the gate with a lightning-quick, 73-yard opening touchdown drive that ended with a 6-yard inside slant pass from Roberson to senior wide receiver Cameron Meredith.

On ISU's second drive, a 28-yard back shoulder throw to freshman wide receiver Jon-Marc Anderson set up a 1-yard plunge from junior running back Marshaun Coprich for his 22nd touchdown of the year to put the Redbirds ahead, 14-0.

Coprich, the Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year, reached the 100-yard plateau for a school-record 12th-consecutive time. With his 148-yard game, he also earned the ISU single-season rushing yard record, passing Pierre Rembert's previous record of 1,743 yards (2006).

The Redbirds scored again on their third drive of the game, after a Roberson quarterback draw set the offense up at the 5-yard line. Roberson tossed another inside slant pass to Meredith from two yards out to complete a 15-play, 87-yard drive that took nearly eight minutes off the clock. Meredith's second touchdown of the game gave him eight receiving touchdowns on the season, and the senior also surpassed the 100-yard mark for the fourth-straight game.

Senior placekicker Nick Aussieker's would-be career long field goal attempt of 51 yards was partially blocked by Xavier Williams midway through the second quarter. The Redbirds drove the field in the last minute of the first half to set up another Aussieker attempt, which he converted from 45 yards out as time expired, and ISU took a 24-0 lead into halftime.

The Panthers started Sawyer Kollmorgen at quarterback in the second half, and he drove UNI down the field for a touchdown on its first drive of the third quarter. A 39-yard Aussieker field goal and a 26-yard touchdown pass from Roberson to senior tight end James O'Shaughnessy extended the Redbird lead, 34-7. However, the Panthers would not go down without a fight, as they wasted no time on an 84-yard drive that took less than three minutes off the clock and ended in a Johnson rushing touchdown. The Panthers recovered an ISU fumble on the ensuing kickoff, and punched in a touchdown three plays later to cut the lead, 34-21.

The Panthers were unable to capitalize on its final two drives stalled out on a failed fourth down conversion, and an interception by junior defensive end Teddy Corwin. O'Shaughnessy hauled in a 36-yard pass for his second receiving touchdown of the game to conclude the scoring and put him over 100 yards on the day.

Coprigh, Redbirds Defeat EWU In FCS Quarterfinals

CHENEY, Wash. — Marshaun Coprich rushed for a career-high 258 yards and Illinois State piled up 542 yards of total offense en route to a 59-46 victory over Eastern Washington in the FCS quarterfinals.

Following a stop on Eastern Washington's first drive of the game, the Redbirds answered with a 12-play, 66-yard scoring drive that was capped off by a 31-yard field goal off the foot of Nick Aussieker. On the ensuing drive, David Perkins forced a fumble on a reception by Kendrick Bourne and Mike Banks recovered at the ISU 45-yard line. Coprich took over on the next drive, rushing for 36 of the team's 55 yards during the five-play scoring drive, which he ended with a seven-yard touchdown.

The Eagles answered the Redbird touchdown with one of their own, as Quincy Forte scored on a nine-yard touchdown run to cut the ISU lead to 10-7. The Redbirds battled right back, and put together an eight-play, 55-yard drive to extend the lead back to 10 points. Fullback Brady Tibbitts took his first career carry and pounced it across the goal line from three yards out to give the Redbirds a 17-7 advantage.

A 37-yard field goal from Tyler McNannay on the next drive cut the ISU lead to a touchdown at 17-10, but once again the Redbirds answered with an eight-play, 66-yard scoring drive as Tre Roberson capped off the drive with a seven-yard touchdown pass to Cameron Meredith. Meredith made a fantastic, one-handed grab that put the Redbirds up 24-10 with 6:35 left to play in the half. EWU would fight back again and cut the lead back to seven points at 24-17, after a Jabari Wilson one-yard touchdown run capped off an 11-play scoring drive at the end of the second quarter.

The Redbirds wasted little time put points on the scoreboard in the third quarter, as they drove 75 yards down the field in just under four minutes to extend the lead to 31-17. Big grabs from James O'Shaughnessy set up a 21-yard touchdown run for Coprich, who moved over 100 yards rushing for the 13th-straight time. Eastern came back and settled for a 36-yard field goal from McNannay and cut the lead to 31-20 with 9:01 left in the third quarter, after Pat Meehan sacked Adams on third down.

ISU answered again, as Coprich scored his third touchdown of the game on a 2-yard run to extend the lead to 38-20. On the ensuing drive, Alex Donnelly picked off a Vernon Adams pass attempt and returned it to the EWU 23-yard line and six plays later, Roberson ran it in from five yards out to widen the lead to 45-20.

A two-yard touchdown run by Adams early in the fourth quarter narrowed the ISU lead to 45-27, but a failed onside kick attempt by the Eagles found Kupp again for a 35-yard touchdown to cut the ISU lead to 52-39 with 8:21 left in the game.

ISU answered again, as Coprich scored his third touchdown of the game on a 2-yard run to extend the lead to 52-27 with 10:30 left in the game.

EWU did not go away, as Adams connected with Cooper Kupp on a 30-yard touchdown pass and after a missed PAT try, the Redbirds lead was cut to 52-33 with 8:57 left in the game. After recovering an onside kick, Adams found Kupp again for a 35-yard touchdown to cut the ISU lead to 52-39 with 8:21 left in the game.

The Eagles kicked it long on the next kickoff and Tevin Allen fair caught the ball at the 25 yard line. Two plays later, Coprich broke loose for a 74-yard touchdown run, his fourth of the game, to extend the ISU lead to 59-39. On the next drive, Mike Banks intercepted Adams, but with 1:40 to play, Adams connected with Shaq Hill for a 47-yard touchdown. That would be the final score of the game.

Redbirds Punch Ticket To National Championship

DURHAM, N.H. — A 47-yard touchdown run by Illinois State quarterback Tre Roberson in the fourth quarter lifted the Redbirds (13-1) to a 21-18 win over top-seeded New Hampshire (12-2) in front of a raucous crowd at Cowell Stadium in the semifinals of the 2014 FCS Playoffs and secured ISU a spot in the national championship game.

Roberson led the comeback in the fourth quarter and finished the game 18-for-31 with 278 yards passing, including a career-long 77-yard connection to Lecheine Neblett. He also added 95 yards on 12 carries, including the game winner. Running back Marshaun Coprich did not break the 100-yard barrier for the first time this season, but finished with 79 yards and the game's only other touchdown. Teddy Corwin led the way for the defense with a career-best 12 tackles and Collin Keoshian added six stops, a sack, a tackle-for-loss and an interception.

After each team punted on their first possession of the game, the Redbirds scored the first points of the day on a 33-yard field goal by Nick Aussieker mid-way through the first quarter. The Wildcats answered the score with a touchdown on their ensuing drive, as quarterback Sean Goldrich carried it in from four yards out to put UNH ahead 7-3 with 3:35 left in the first quarter.

The Redbirds attempted to answer on their last drive of the quarter and drove all the way inside the UNH 10 yard line. Roberson carried the ball eight yards to the one yard line and attempted to stretch over the goal line, but was hit and fumbled giving the ball back to the Wildcats and swinging the momentum. UNH took advantage of the turnover and put together a nine-play, 96-yard scoring drive that was capped off by a six-yard touchdown run by Nico Steriti and a two-point conversion on a run by Andy Vailas to extend the lead to 15-3 with 12:34 left in the second quarter.

ISU would add another field goal, this time a 23-yarder, with 1:45 left before halftime after a career-long 77-yard pass from Roberson to Neblett set the Redbirds up inside the UNH five yard line. However, three-straight runs by Coprich were stuffed and the Redbirds settled for the field goal to cut the UNH lead to 15-6.

UNH took the opening kickoff of the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 73-yard drive that took 4:12 off the clock to extend its lead to 18-6, after a 25-yard field goal from Brad Prasky. The rest of the third quarter was quiet for both teams, until the Redbirds took over on their final drive of the quarter. Roberson led a methodical, 10-play, 84-yard drive that was capped off on a two-yard touchdown run by Coprich that cut the UNH lead to 18-13 early in the fourth quarter.

After the defense forced another UNH punt, its third in a row, the Redbirds got the ball back on their own 11 yard line. The Redbirds marched down the field to the 47 yard line, when Roberson called his own number and took a quarterback draw 47 yards for the go-ahead touchdown. Following a quick time out, Roberson pitched the ball to Jon-Marc Anderson who dove into the end zone for the two-point conversion to put ISU in the lead at 21-18 with 7:51 left in the game.

UNH got the ball back and attempted to tie or gain the lead, but a stop of fourth down gave the Redbirds the ball back at their own 46 yard line. From there, the Redbirds picked up two first downs and took a knee to run the clock.

ISU Avenges Lone Loss, Defeats UNI In Playoffs, 41-21

FRISCO, Texas — Illinois State's bid for its first national championship came down to the final minute, but North Dakota State ran its streak of consecutive national championships to four with a 29-27 win at Toyota Stadium.

Tre Roberson's 58-yard touchdown run with 1:38 left in the game gave the Redbirds a late lead before NDSU (15-1) quarterback Carson Wentz scored from five yards out with 37 seconds left to reclaim the lead. Roberson's pass to Joe Farmer with eight seconds left in the game was intercepted, ending the ISU comeback hopes.

The Redbirds (13-2) were led Saturday by Roberson, who completed 11-of-23 passes for 157 yards and three touchdowns. He ran for a game-high 161 yards and another score. James O'Shaughnessy caught two of Roberson's touchdown passes, while Jon-Marc Anderson hauled in the other.

The Redbird defense stopped NDSU on its first offensive drive of the game as Alex Donnelly forced a Bison fumble as they entered the red zone. The Redbirds drove to midfield before ISU punter CJ Laros pinned the Bison inside their own 5-yard-line. North Dakota State was forced to punt four plays later and the Redbirds took advantage, capping a five-play, 38-yard drive with a 13-yard touchdown pass from Roberson to Anderson with 5:28 remaining in the first quarter.

NDSU answered with a 41-yard field goal from Adam Keller with just over a minute remaining in the quarter, cutting the Redbirds' lead to 7-3. The Bison took the lead on their next offensive possession, as Wentz found Luke Albers on a 6-yard touchdown pass with 8:43 left in the second quarter. Illinois State trailed 10-7 at halftime.

The Bison opened the second half with a key special teams play as they recovered the second-half kickoff at the Illinois State 19-yard line. A third-down sack by Bradon Prate forced a field goal attempt and NDSU's Keller was good from 41 yards out, giving the Bison a 13-7 lead. After a Redbird three-and-out, the Bison put together an eight-play, 76-yard drive that was topped off by a 7-yard touchdown run by John Crockett with 7:28 left in the third quarter, boosting the Bison lead to 20-7.

The Redbirds got back into the game with a 41-yard pass from Roberson to O'Shaughnessy with 2:11 remaining in the third quarter, cutting the NDSU lead to 20-13 after a Nick Aussieker extra point. The Bison made it a two-possession game again with a 24-yard field goal by Keller with 11:20 left in the game. Roberson and O'Shaughnessy hooked up again just moments later, though, on a 3-yard touchdown pass with 8:05 left, cutting the NDSU lead to 23-21.

NDSU followed with a drive that chewed up nearly six minutes of clock, and included a key fourth-and-one conversion, but a third-down sack by Collin Keoshian forced a Bison punt and the Redbirds took over at their own 20-yard-line with 2:22 left.

Roberson's career-long 58-yard touchdown run with 1:38 remaining gave the Redbirds their first lead since early in the second quarter. The Redbirds had 37 seconds left after Wentz's go-ahead touchdown, but Roberson's pass from his own 44-yard-line was intercepted by NDSU's Esley Thornton.

TRE ROBERSON

QUARTERBACKS

- Senior Tre Roberson returns to lead the Redbird offense and has several promising teammates with him to back up as needed.
- The 2014 MVFC Newcomer of the Year made an immediate impact after transferring from Indiana, leading the Redbirds to a 13-2 record, a conference championship and a spot in the FCS National Championship.
- Roberson set nine school records along the way and was dangerous through the air and on the ground. The signal-caller passed for 3,221 yards and 30 touchdowns through the air and set a new standard for dual-threat quarterbacks with a school-record 1,029 yards and 10 touchdowns on the ground.
- Peaking late in the season, Roberson saved his best performances for last. Over the Redbirds four-game playoff run, Roberson completed 63.1 percent of his passes and threw for 1,023 yards and nine touchdowns while throwing just one interceptions in 111 attempts. He also averaged 88 yards per game on the ground and had huge touchdown runs against New Hampshire and North Dakota State.
- Highly-touted redshirt freshman Jake Kolbe returns for his second season and will be the backup behind Roberson. The 2014 Offensive Scout Team Player of the Year, Kolbe impressed coaches, teammates and fans alike with his physical attributes and leadership abilities and should see a significant amount of snaps in the preseason for the Redbirds.
- True freshmen Hasan Muhammad-Rogers and DeMarco Washington were part of a talented signing class and each will have a lot to learn behind center in what figures to be a redshirt season for each.

MARSHAUN COPRICH

RUNNING BACKS

- All-American Marshaun Coprich returns for his senior season, looking to improve on his gaudy numbers from the record-setting 2014.
- The 2014 Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year, Coprich finished fifth in the voting for the Walter Payton Award, which is given to the top player in FCS Football. The Victorville, Calif., native led all FCS players with 2,274 yards and 27 touchdowns on the ground last season.
- "Young Bull" rushed for 151.6 yards per game, which ranked second in the country, and he set seven school single-season records. He is just one touchdown and 473 yards away from becoming the school's all-time rushing leader in each category.
- Jamal Towns and James Graham return as the team's only other backs to carry the ball in 2014. Towns moved between the slot wide receiver position and running back throughout the year, but served as the primary backup throughout the championship run for the Redbirds.
- Towns rushed for 47 yards on 17 carries on the season, while Graham rushed for 127 yards on 26 carries in seven games for the Redbirds. Towns, though small in stature, brings quickness and elusiveness to the group, while Graham is more of a power back with a lot of potential.
- George Moreira was redshirted in 2014, and will look to add his name to those who can spell Coprich. The Louisiana native rushed for 1,923 rushing yards on 197 carries (9.8 yards per carry average), while scoring 22 touchdowns on the ground during his high school career.
- True freshman DeMarco Corbin is a big, power back that could push for playing time and Nick Kielbasa returns to add depth to the running back stable.

WIDE RECEIVERS

- ▶ The 2015 receiving corps will be a talented, but inexperienced group after the loss of the team's top two receivers from last season in 1,000-yard receivers Cameron Meredith and Lechein Neblett.
- ▶ Junior Anthony Warrum brings the most experience as a two-year letterwinner at the position. Warrum finished the season with 17 receptions for 226 yards and two touchdowns, but had some big catches during the playoffs and has impressed during the offseason.
- ▶ It took until game 15 of the season, but Jon-Marc Anderson leapt onto the national stage when he caught the first touchdown in the 2015 FCS National Championship against North Dakota State. The sophomore ended the season with 15 catches for 218 yards, but showed big-play ability with an average of 14.5 yards per catch on the year.
- ▶ Sophomore Christian Gibbs saw action as a true freshman last season, mostly on special teams, but will be looked upon to step up and fill a role at one of the outside receiver positions.
- ▶ Redshirt freshmen Mitchell Brees, Matt Biegalski and Nick Griffith did not see game action last year. Brees moved to the position in the spring after starting his career as a defensive back at ISU and Biegalski's long arms and sturdy frame should also give the Redbird quarterbacks a big target to throw to. Griffith will miss the beginning of the season due to an achilles injury, but should be ready to contribute during the conference portion of the schedule.
- ▶ Sophomore JJ Stahl also returns and should be a help on special teams and add depth to the position.
- ▶ Junior college transfer Anthony Fowler is the newest member of the group, and brings a tremendous amount of speed with him.
- ▶ True freshmen Michael Kolzow, Bryce Jefferson and Jeremy Bivens will each vie for playing time as well, but could be key candidates to redshirt in 2015.

BRADY TIBBITS

TIGHT ENDS / H-BACKS

- ▶ The Redbirds will have to replace fifth-round NFL draft pick and three-year starter James O'Shaughnessy at tight end. The current Kansas City Chief was the team's third-leading receiver with 29 catches for 544 yards and tied for the team lead with nine touchdowns.
- ▶ Sophomore Michael Clements was the only other returning tight end to catch a pass during the 2014 season. Clements played in five games and caught a pair of passes for 29 yards on the season.
- ▶ A pair of redshirt freshmen also return at tight end in Tylor Petkovich and Brannon Barry. Petkovich has stood out throughout camp and looks to be the frontrunner to start on Sept. 5 at Iowa. Barry was recruited to Illinois State as a wide receiver, but has bulked up and moved in to the tight end spot to add some depth and athleticism to the unit.
- ▶ The fullback/H-back group brings back a pair of players that played in every game last season in Brady Tibbits and second-team All-MVFC selection Bryce Holm.
- ▶ Tibbits was the lead back for Marshaun Coprich and also got involved in the passing game on the goal line. He scored a three-yard touchdown on his only carry of the season in the FCS playoff quarterfinal win at Eastern Washington.
- ▶ Holm was a special teams standout who was also used in short-yardage situations for the Redbirds in 2014. He carried the ball five times for 15 yards, with two touchdowns on the season, which earned him more carries in the spring and could lead to more opportunities to touch the ball in 2015.
- ▶ Junior John Nicholson returns for his fourth season and brings a wealth of experience with him at the tight end/H-back spot.
- ▶ True freshman Jake Hendershot is the youngest of the group, but brings a lot of talent to the position. He accounted for 35 total touchdowns in his final prep season in Missouri.

MARK SPELMAN

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

- ▶ The offensive line was a key reason why the Redbirds advanced to the FCS Championship last season, and with three spots left open due to graduation the unit will have a lot to work on headed into 2015.
- ▶ Junior center Mark Spelman anchors the group and has the most game action under his belt headed into the season. A starter in all 15 games at center last year, Spelman was a key member of the offensive line unit that led the way for Marshaun Coprich, who led the FCS and the MVFC in rushing yards (2,274) and rushing touchdowns (27).
- ▶ Fellow junior and returning starter Kyle Avaloy started every game for the Redbirds in 2014 and will look to bolster the interior of the line along with Spelman. A tenacious run blocker, Avaloy was instrumental in helping Coprich rush for over 100 yards in 14 out of 15 games, setting a school and league mark for consecutive 100-plus yard games.
- ▶ The three open spots on the offensive line are set to be filled by juniors Dan Pawlak and Ryan Gelber and sophomore Cameron Lee. Despite a lack of game experience, the trio has a lot of time in the system under its belt.
- ▶ Pawlak saw action in 11 games for the Redbirds and came in during big sets for the offense. Gelber played in five games and Lee played in 13 games in 2014 for the Redbirds.
- ▶ The second-team unit of Tyler Brown, George Hoselton, Nick Fish, Camden Cooper and Chad Kanugh will be at the ready for the Redbirds.
- ▶ Former defensive lineman Dean Helt has been moved to the offensive line and will work his way into the position slowly.
- ▶ Redshirt freshman Alec Diab also returns and should add to the depth at the tackle position and true freshman Erik Mikkelsen, Jared Rients and Marc Miller will most likely redshirt.

TEDDY CORWIN

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

- ▶ With two starters returning and several key reserves coming back, the defensive front may be the deepest its been in recent memory. Led by preseason All-American Teddy Corwin and senior David "Boom" Perkins, the front will set the tone for the entire Redbird defense.
- ▶ Corwin, a 2014 All-MVFC First-Team selection, ranked second on the team with a career-high 98 tackles (50 solo, 48 assist) in 2014 and led the team with 12.5 tackles-for-loss to go along with 7.5 sacks. A former tight end, Corwin also showed great ball skills by picking off three passes during the season.
- ▶ Beginning his third season with the Redbirds after transferring from Ohio State, Perkins ranked second on the team with eight sacks and added 12 tackles-for-loss last season. He will be looked upon to be a big force as a pass rusher for the Redbirds on the outside.
- ▶ Sophomore tackles Dalton Keene and Adam Conley each return to man the inside tackle positions and have a lot of upside in the interior of the defensive front. Keene recorded 29 stops and 2.5 tackles-for-loss as a redshirt freshman and Conley played in four games for the Redbirds last season, after returning from an off-season knee injury.
- ▶ Former backup quarterback Adam Pittser has bulked up and made the move to the defensive line, and will use his strength and athleticism to see if he can help up front.
- ▶ Indiana transfer David Kenney was added to the group at defensive end to work with Perkins to disrupt opponent's passing attacks. He should be a fixture in the rotation outside as the season progresses.
- ▶ Sophomore Matt McCown and redshirt freshman Nathan Iloilo also return to add depth at the tackle position along with fellow redshirt freshman Blake Hooper.

PAT MEEHAN

LINEBACKERS

- ▶ The top three linebackers returning have played a lot in their careers, and the players behind them have a lot of experience as well.
- ▶ Senior middle linebacker and preseason All-American Pat Meehan is the captain of the defense and will be responsible for play-calling and checks on defense. A 2014 All-MVFC First-Team selection, Meehan led the team with 115 tackles and ranked No. 10 in the MVFC with an average of 7.7 tackles per game in 2014 and will look to end his career on a high note.
- ▶ Fellow senior Alex Donnelly has the most experience among the group with 39 games under his belt at outside linebacker. He and Meehan have played side-by-side for three seasons and his career-high 85 tackles in 2014 showed he can be a playmaker on defense.
- ▶ At the other outside linebacker position, junior Alejandro Rivera looks to be the frontrunner to start the season. Rivera was a key contributor on special teams last season and finished the year with 10 total stops.
- ▶ Junior Brent Spack and sophomore Jalen Battle return in the second unit, each with extensive playing experience both on special teams and in the field of play. Spack is the backup at middle linebacker, but started games earlier in his career at outside linebacker.
- ▶ Iowa transfer Reggie Spearman will also look to crack the starting lineup as the season progresses at the outside linebacker position. Spearman played in 21 games over two seasons with the Hawkeyes, with 49 total tackles to his credit.
- ▶ Redshirt freshmen Jordan Williams and Michael Ganzer will also return looking to make a difference on the field.
- ▶ The talented duo of true freshmen in Decxavier Kelly-Martin and Tuvone Clark will learn from those ahead of them and will most likely redshirt.

JOSH BURCH

DEFENSIVE BACKS / SAFETIES

- ▶ Senior defensive back Josh Burch leads the group with a wealth of experience behind him. A three-year letterwinner, Burch started the final five games of the season in 2014 and finished the season with 19 tackles, 15 of which were solo stops, and was credited with five pass breakups.
- ▶ A trio of talented sophomores will be looked upon to fill the other remaining roles in the starting secondary in Davontae Harris, DraShane Glass and Alec Kocour.
- ▶ Harris should start at the other cornerback position and played in 14 games as a reserve defensive back in 2014. He finished the season with 14 tackles, 12 of which were solo stops.
- ▶ Glass saw significant action as a true freshman in 2014 and will look to solidify his spot as one of the starting safeties in 2015. The Texas native finished the season with 41 tackles, including 28 solo stops, recorded a pair of interceptions and broke up six pass attempts last season.
- ▶ After senior starter Dontae McCoy missed several games due to an injury, Kocour started as a true freshman at safety.
- ▶ Three FBS transfers were brought in during the offseason to help bolster the depth in the secondary and make immediate impacts for the Redbirds: Stephen Amoako (Oregon), La'Darrius Newbold (Texas Tech) and Ryon'e Winters (Wyoming).
- ▶ Seniors Soniel Estime and Nate Bond bring leadership to the group as well and each are standout special teams players that will see time in the secondary. Junior Paris Ratliff also returns, with redshirts Arnell Anderson and Theo Hopkins.
- ▶ True freshmen Willie Edwards, Jamal Brown, Jawill Aldridge and Luther Kirk join the program and could see some playing time, but will most likely redshirt.

SEAN SLATTERY

SPECIAL TEAMS

- ▶ The special teams units will have a new look in 2015, with the entire battery having graduated.
- ▶ Sophomore placekicker Sean Slattery returns as the only kicker with any game experience under his belt. Slattery averaged 59.9 yards per kickoff, with three touchbacks, in 2014 and made 8-of-9 PAT attempts in the season-opening win over Mississippi Valley State.
- ▶ Junior punter Reece Attard sat out the 2014 season as a year in residence, but will look to fill the spot of fellow Australian CJ Laros as the primary punter for the Redbirds. Attard averaged 42.1 yards per punt on 50 attempts, with a long of 67 yards, in his previous stop at Husson.
- ▶ Redshirt freshman Seth Hood will look to take over the longsnapping duties, after the loss of All-American Chris Highland. He will work with Matt McCown and Brannon Barry as the team's group of long and short snappers.
- ▶ Redshirt freshmen Zach Breen and Prestin Van Miegheem return and will serve as backup kickers, with Breen in the mix to placekick while Slattery handles kickoff duties.
- ▶ Junior Anthony Warrum and sophomore Jon-Marc Anderson should handle the bulk of the punt return duties for the Redbirds. Warrum has fielded 20 punts over the past two seasons and averaged 8.8 yards per return, with a 62-yard punt return for a touchdown in 2013. Anderson returned 10 punts for 59 yards in 2014 as well.
- ▶ Both Warrum and Anderson could handle kickoff return duties as well, along with senior Josh Burch, junior Jamal Towns and sophomores DraShane Glass and Davontae Harris.
- ▶ Burch has amassed a 24.5 yard per return average as a kick returner in his three-year career at ISU, and has a 100-yard return for a touchdown on his resumé from 2013.
- ▶ Freshman Bryce Jefferson could also find his way to the field as a returner, as well as transfer wide receiver Anthony Fowler.

BROCK SPACK

HEAD COACH

SEVENTH SEASON (46-26 OVERALL)

PURDUE '83

When Brock Spack was named the 20th head coach in Illinois State football history prior to the 2009 season, he saw Illinois State football as a "sleeping giant" – a program that had all of the tools and resources to be a powerhouse in NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), but was lacking the foresight to see itself that way.

After two appearances in the FCS playoffs in the last three seasons and a 2014 Missouri Valley Football Conference championship, it looks as if the giant has been awoken. A two-time finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, Spack has changed the culture of Redbird football.

The 2014 MVFC Coach of the Year, Spack led the Redbirds to a 10-1 regular season and has set school records for wins and points scored in a season among others. ISU tied three-time defending FCS national champion North Dakota State for the MVFC title, the team's first since 1999, and advanced to the FCS National Championship Game for the first time in school history. ISU finished the season ranked No. 2 in the country in both national FCS polls.

A record total of 17 Redbirds were named to the MVFC All-Conference Team in 2014, led by Offensive Player of the Year and All-American, Marshaun Coprich, and Newcomer of the Year, Tre Roberson.

In six seasons under Spack, the Redbirds are 30-6 at home, including a perfect 13-0 record at Hancock Stadium since its renovation during the 2013 season. Spack's tough, no-nonsense approach seemed to be embraced by his team and the results on the field have been impressive.

In his six seasons as head coach at ISU, Spack has coached four All-Americans, helped 65 players earn All-MVFC honors and has mentored 18 players named to the league's All-Newcomer team. In addition to his team's success on the gridiron, Spack's players have set program grade-point average records, with the team setting a new standard during the Spring 2015 semester.

Spack has also helped over 20 Redbird players earn opportunities to play at the next level. Two of the those players were taken in the NFL Draft: Nate Palmer (6th round, Green Bay, 2013) and James O'Shaughnessy (5th round, Kansas City, 2015).

In 2012, Spack led the Redbirds to a 9-4 record and the fourth winning season in a row. ISU made just its fourth FCS playoff appearance in school history, defeating perennial powerhouse Appalachian State on the road in the second round. The Redbirds advanced to the quarterfinals for the third time in school history, before eventually ending their season at Eastern Washington. The team also defeated FBS foe Eastern Michigan early in the season, marking the first win over a FBS program since 1991.

The Redbirds were ranked as high as No. 9 in the country and saw a school-record eight players land on the Missouri Valley Football Conference First Team at the end of the season. Senior Matt Brown was named the MVFC Offensive Player of the Year, while setting every passing record in school history, and Tyrone Walker set school records for career receptions, yards and receiving touchdowns.

After leading the 'Birds to their fourth-straight winning campaign, Spack became the ISU first head coach to guide his team to three-consecutive winning seasons since Edwin Struck led the Redbirds to six-straight winning seasons from 1945-1950.

ISU finished the 2011 season with a 7-4 overall record, securing the team's third-straight winning season. Illinois State was ranked No. 20 in The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS Top 25 final poll and was ranked as high as No. 14 during the regular season. Much of that success was due to Spack taking over the Redbird defense as defensive coordinator prior to the season and turning it into one of the top units in the country.

After finishing the 2010 season with a defense that ranked No. 112 out of 117 teams (446.27 ypg), the 2011 Redbird defense helmed by Spack finished the season No. 9 out of 120 teams (294.82 ypg).

ISU finished with the No. 5 rushing defense in the country (85.73 ypg) and allowed just 19.18 points per game, ranking them 13th in the FCS in scoring defense, up from a No. 113 ranking in 2010 after giving up 39.64 points per game to opponents.

The defensive turnaround was aided by a pair of impact transfers from Illinois, Evan Frierson and Palmer. Frierson listened intently to Spack, and was named an All-MVFC First Team and MVFC All-Newcomer Team selection after recording 15.0 tackles for loss (T-10th on single-season list) and 6.5 sacks (T-14th on single-season list).

Palmer led the Valley with 9.5 sacks (5th on single-season list) and earned a spot on the All-MVFC Second Team and MVFC All-Newcomer Team for his efforts. Spack also watched Eric Brunner finish his career as one of the top interior defensive linemen in the country. A two-time All-MVFC First-Team pick, Brunner ended his senior season with career-high numbers in tackles (55), sacks (4.5) and tackles for loss (13).

A new offensive approach has also resulted in record-setting numbers for the Redbirds over the past two seasons. The ISU passing offense ranked third in the Valley with an average of 199.6 yards per game in 2011 and was second in the league in rushing offense with 183.4 yards per game on the ground, an improvement of nearly 50 yards per game from 2010.

The Redbirds' 321 points scored in 2010 were the seventh-most in school history and team's highest total since scoring 324 in 2007. It was just the 10th time in school history that ISU scored more than 300 points in a season.

Those numbers bested the impressive numbers set by the Redbird offense in Spack's first season at the helm in 2009. Illinois State's revamped offense set a school single-season record with a 66.3 completion percentage and also ranks second in completions (272), fourth in passing yards (246.4) and sixth in passing yards (2,710) on the ISU single-season charts.

The 2010 season started well for the Redbirds, who jumped out to a 3-1 record after wins thrilling wins at home against Central Missouri and Missouri State and a tough road win at No. 20 South Dakota State. That start earned ISU its first national ranking since 2007, climbing as high as No. 19 in the Football Championship Subdivision Coaches Poll and No. 23 in The Sports Network FCS Top 25 Poll.

In addition, with wins over No. 14 North Dakota State and No. 20 South Dakota State, the Redbirds beat a pair of ranked foes in the same season for the first time since 2006. He also watched senior kicker Zach Kutch evolve into one of the best kickers in the nation, as he led the country in field goals made (24) and field goals per game (2.0) while earning All-America plaudits.

Spack came to Illinois State following 12 seasons as the defensive coordinator at Purdue, where he guided the Boilermakers to the top-ranked defense in the Big Ten Conference in 2002 and the 13th-best defense in the nation in 2003.

He coached in 11 bowl games while at Purdue, including a Rose Bowl appearance in 2001. In June of 2008, Spack was recognized as one of the top linebacker coaches in FBS football by Dennis Dodd of CBSSports.com and twenty-seven of his former players went on to play in the NFL.

From 2000 to 2004, the Purdue defense became one of the stingiest units in the Big Ten. The Boilermakers were tops in total defense in 2002 (317.2 yards per game) - the first time they had been No. 1 since 1967 - after ranking third in 2000 and 2001. They were third in 2003, as well, and ranked 13th nationally.

As defensive coordinator at Wyoming in 1995 and 1996, Spack recharged the defense, which improved from fifth to second in total defense in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC). The Cowboys topped the WAC in sacks during his two years, including a school-record 46 in 1996.

Spack was Purdue's inside linebackers coach from 1991 to 1994 and was a graduate assistant coach for the Boilermakers in 1984 and 1985. From 1987 to 1990, Spack was an assistant coach at Eastern Illinois (linebackers/defensive line/recruiting coordinator) and in 1986, was at Wabash College.

Spack graduated from Purdue in 1984 with a bachelor's degree in social studies. He earned a master's degree in physical education from Eastern Illinois in 1990. Spack played linebacker for the Boilermakers from 1980-83, earning first-team All-Big Ten and honorable mention All-America honors as a sophomore. He was a three-year starter and currently ranks fifth on the Boilermakers' career tackles list with 384.

A native of Rockford, Ill., Spack and his wife, Aimee, reside in Bloomington. Their daughter, Alicia, was a collegiate softball player at Purdue and now works with the softball program at Kansas, and their son, Brent, is a senior linebacker for the Redbirds.

SPENCE NOWINSKY

Assoc. Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator
Seventh Season
Minnesota State '95

Spence Nowinsky begins his seventh season at Illinois State and second as the team's defensive coordinator. Also serving as the team's associate head coach, Nowinsky mentors the team's defensive lineman.

Nowinsky's defensive unit was a key factor to the Redbirds' historic success in 2014. The team's 44 sacks were second most in school history and its 18 interceptions were the most for the Redbirds since 1989. ISU also ranked second in the MVFC in rushing yards allowed (199.7) and third in total defense.

The Redbird defensive line, which Nowinsky has called the "Cadillacs" for their durability, strength and power, has produced staggering numbers during his tenure. Four of Nowinsky's players have been named First-Team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference selections, including two-time picks in defensive tackle Eric Brunner (2010-11), end Colton Underwood (2012-13), tackle Shelby Harris (2012) and Teddy Corwin (2014).

Underwood became one of the most decorated players in Illinois State Football history. Named a First-Team All-American in both the 2012 and 2013 seasons, Underwood was also a two-time finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award that is presented to the best defensive player in FCS football. In his illustrious four-year career with the Redbirds working with Nowinsky, Underwood registered 215 tackles and finished his career ranked No. 3 in tackles for loss and No. 4 on the career sacks.

Nowinsky was also instrumental in the development of defensive end Nate Palmer, who transferred to Illinois State prior to the 2011 season and became a two-time All-MVFC selection. Palmer recorded 17 sacks and 25.5 tackles for loss in just two seasons at ISU and was drafted in the sixth round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers.

The 2012 Redbird defense racked up negative plays throughout the year, finishing with 43 sacks (No. 3 in school history) and 95 tackles for loss (No. 4 in school history). Nowinsky's linemen accounted for 56 of those tackles for loss and 29 of the sacks, with Underwood leading the way with 19.5 and 10.5, respectively, as the Redbirds advanced to the FCS playoff quarterfinals for the third time in school history.

After a 2010 season that the Redbird defense ranked 112th in the country, Nowinsky and the rest of the defensive staff turned the ISU defense into one of the best in the country in 2011. The Redbirds improved to No. 9 in the country in total defense, thanks in part to one of the stingiest run defenses in the country. Nowinsky's line helped the Redbirds hold their opponents to just 85.7 yards per game on the ground, which ranked No. 5 in the country.

In 2010, Brunner earned First Team All-MVFC honors at defensive tackle and led the Redbirds with four sacks and 9.5 tackles for loss. Nowinsky also helped Harris improve throughout the season on way to earning a spot on the MVFC All-Newcomer Team.

In 2009, Nowinsky helped guide Brunner to a breakout season as a sophomore when he ranked fifth on the team with 47 tackles, including 23 solo stops, on way to being named a second-team All-MVFC selection. Senior Doni Phelps also peaked in his final season by leading the team in tackles-for-loss (8.5) and sacks with seven.

Nowinsky came to Illinois State following two years as the associate head coach and defensive line coach at NCAA Division II member Emporia State. He had prior experience coaching at the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level, including assistant coaching positions at Western Athletic Conference (WAC) member Idaho (2003) and Wisconsin (1999-2002).

Prior to coaching at Emporia State, Nowinsky spent three seasons at his alma mater, Minnesota State, where he coached the defensive line during the 2004 and 2006 seasons. In 2005, Nowinsky coached the Mavericks' offensive line.

Nowinsky spent the 2003 season as a defensive line coach for Idaho. He began his collegiate coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Wisconsin from 1999-2002. The Badgers won the 2000 Rose Bowl with a 17-9 victory over Stanford. Nowinsky was an assistant coach at Wittenberg-Birnbaumwood (Wis.) High School from 1997-99 and began his coaching career in 1995-97 as an assistant at Lake Crystal-Wellcome Memorial (Minn.) High School.

Nowinsky was a four-year letterwinner for Minnesota State from 1991-94 as a defensive lineman. He and his wife, Jen, reside in Normal, Ill., with their two sons, Tommy and Jack.

KURT BEATHARD

Offensive Coordinator/QB

Second Season

Towson '87

Kurt Beathard is in his second season at Illinois State as the program's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

In his first season leading the Redbird offense, Beathard's crew set 15 single-season school records, including points (574), total touchdowns (76), total offense yards (6,954) and rushing yards (3,619). Illinois State finished the season ranked No. 4 nationally in passing efficiency (155.58), No. 9 in scoring offense (38.3) and No. 17 in total offense (463.6) and powered its way to the FCS Championship game in Frisco, Texas.

Running back Marshaun Coprich ran his way to All-American honors and led the FCS in rushing yards and touchdowns and quarterback Tre Roberson earned Missouri Valley Football Conference Newcomer of the Year honors in his first season with the Redbirds. A transfer from Indiana, Roberson finished the season ranked in the top 5 in the FCS in five different offensive categories, including passing touchdowns with 30.

Beathard has 13 years of experience as a FCS offensive coordinator and spent last season on the coaching staff at Youngstown State. On the FCS level, he has been an offensive coordinator for Gardner-Webb (2012), Eastern Kentucky (2003-06), Bucknell (2002) and Western Carolina (1996-2001).

Beathard worked with YSU's wide receivers in 2013, as the unit caught 126 passes for 1,741 yards and 14 touchdowns. Four wide receivers caught 21-or-more passes and had 300 or more yards, while six caught a touchdown pass.

In 2012, Beathard served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Gardner-Webb. Quarterback Lucas Beatty enjoyed a career-best campaign with Beathard calling the plays. He established a school record for single-season completion percentage (64.4 percent) and topped the 300-yard mark passing in four games. Overall, Gardner-Webb's offense averaged 336.2 yards per game and ranked No. 2 in the Big South with 228.5 yards passing per game.

Prior to his role with the Runnin' Bulldogs, he spent three seasons at Illinois as a position coach working with the quarterbacks in 2009 and the wide receivers from 2007-08.

Between stints at Illinois and GWU, Beathard was an assistant in the UFL, where he coached for the Florida Tuskers (2010) and Sacramento Mountain Lions (2011). In Florida, he worked with current Washington Redskins head coach Jay Gruden and in Sacramento, he was part of the staff of former NFL head coach Dennis Green.

Beathard was the offensive coordinator at Eastern Kentucky from 2003-06, before moving on to Illinois. In 2005, the Colonels set single-season records for completions (234), passing attempts (413) and passing yards (3,119) while leading the OVC in scoring (31.5) and total offense per game (412.3). Four players went on to earn 2005 first-team All-OVC honors under Beathard's watch, including quarterback Josh Greco and wide receiver Andre Ralston. Greco broke numerous program records, highlighted by throwing 25 touchdown passes, to earn OVC Offensive Player of the Year honors.

Beathard went to ECU after one year at Bucknell, where he served as the offensive coordinator. Prior to his brief stint with the Bison, Beathard spent six seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Western Carolina. He was a key component in the success of running back Brad Hoover, who broke the single-season rushing record with 1,663 yards in 1998.

His coaching career began as a student assistant at Towson in the spring of 1987, before moving over to Catholic University in Washington, D.C., for the 1988 campaign. He then spent two seasons on the Louisville staff as a graduate assistant from 1989-90. Beathard has also served time at James Madison, Bloomsburg, Colgate, Pacific and a second stint at Towson. As the secondary coach for Towson in 1993, Beathard's unit led the nation in interceptions and was ranked 14th in total defense.

Beathard started his collegiate playing career at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, before transferring to Saddleback Junior College for his sophomore season and finishing up at Towson. In his two-year stint at Towson, Beathard passed for 4,768 yards and 38 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Towson Athletic Hall of Fame in 1999.

After his collegiate career was over, Beathard was drafted by the Baltimore Stars of the USFL in 1986 before moving on to the Arena League's Washington Commandos in 1987. Aside from his extensive knowledge and experience, football runs in Beathard's genes.

His father, Bobby, spent numerous years as the general manager of the Washington Redskins and San Diego Chargers. He also served as a scout for the Kansas City Chiefs and Atlanta Falcons and director of player personnel for the Miami Dolphins during his 38 years in the NFL. The teams he worked for appeared in seven Super Bowls, winning four. His brother, Jeff, is a scout for the Carolina Panthers.

Beathard and his wife, Karen, have three daughters: LaRae, Grace and Eva.

LAMAR CONARD

Assistant Coach/RB, Recruiting Coordinator
Seventh Season
Purdue '00

Lamar Conard is in his seventh season as an assistant coach and is in his fifth season mentoring the running backs. Conard spent his first two seasons at ISU assisting with the Redbird secondary. He also serves as the recruiting coordinator for the Redbird football program.

Since his time working with the running backs, Conard has produced a trio of 1,000-yard rushers in Marshaun Coprich, Darrellynn Dunn and Ashton Leggett.

After a solid 2013 campaign that saw him rush for 890 yards rushing and a team-high nine touchdowns, Coprich exploded on the scene in 2014 and led the FCS in rushing yards (2,274) and touchdowns (27). Those numbers earned him First-Team All-American honors and the title of Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year, becoming just the fourth player in school history to earn that honor.

The Redbirds set school records for rushing yards (3,619) and rushing touchdowns (41) during their historic 2014 season and averaged a school-record 5.7 yards per carry. Coprich received most of his help from quarterback Tre Roberson, who became the first quarterback in school history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season.

During the Redbirds' playoff run in 2012, Dunn served as the go-to ball carrier for the team. Dunn was a MVFC Honorable Mention selection, after he rushed for 1,015 yards and scored 13 touchdowns on the ground.

In 2011, the Redbird rushing attack improved by nearly 50 yards per game from 2010 and averaged 183 yards per game on the ground. The ISU backs accounted for 2,017 yards on the ground and 19 touchdowns, the most for the team since 2008.

Under Conard's tutelage, Leggett became 11th running back in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season and the first since 2006 with his 1,031 yards on the ground in 2011. Leggett also rushed for 11 touchdowns (T-7th on single season list) on way to being named an All-MVFC Second-Team selection. In two season working with Conard, Leggett amassed 1,630 rushing yards (No. 17 all-time) and 19 rushing touchdowns (No. 8 all-time).

Conard took over as the running backs coach in 2010 and inherited a group of talented veteran backs. Erik Smith (4.6) and Leggett (4.3) each averaged over four yards per carry in 2010 and combined to rush for 12 touchdowns and 1,255 yards in the wide-open Redbird spread offense.

In his first two seasons with the Redbirds, Conard helped mentor a unit that recorded 27 interceptions, after the team recorded just nine interceptions during the previous two seasons. He also helped E.J. Jones develop into one of the best cornerbacks in the Missouri Valley Football Conference. Jones intercepted a league-high seven passes in 2010 on way to being named a First Team All-MVFC selection and finished his career with 13 interceptions, all of which came in his last two seasons while working with Conard. In 2009, the Redbird secondary accounted for 12 of the team's 14 interceptions, led by Jones' six picks.

Conard came to Illinois State following a two-year graduate assistantship at Purdue, where he also coached the Boilermaker defensive backs and coordinated the scout team offense. He served as a graduate assistant at Purdue from 2007-08 on former Boilermaker head coach Joe Tiller's staff. Working directly with Purdue's defensive backs, Conard reported to Illinois State head coach Brock Spack, who was then the Boilermakers' defensive coordinator.

Conard also coordinated the scout team offense after spending one season in a quality-control position, where he assisted with scouting, operations and recruiting.

Conard was a defensive back for the Boilermakers from 1996-99. He was the first walk-on at Purdue to be awarded a scholarship under Tiller, doing so in 1997.

Conard was a three-year starter and played in all 37 games during his final three seasons. His career totals included 118 tackles (68 solo, 50 assists), six pass breakups and four interceptions.

A native of Elkhart, Ind., Conard earned a bachelor's degree in childhood development and family studies from Purdue in 2000 and earned a master's degree in educational leadership from Purdue in 2009.

Conard and his wife, Rachel, reside in Normal, Ill., with his son, Lamar Jr., their daughter, Della Mae, and son, Payton.

DAN CLARK

Assistant Coach/OL

*Third Season
Simpson '95*

Dan Clark begins his third season on the Illinois State coaching staff and his second as the offensive line coach, after previously assisting with the offensive line in 2013.

The Redbird offensive line was a key factor in ISU's historic success in 2014 and helped in setting 15 school single-season records. ISU also finished the season ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing yards per game with 241.3 and No. 9 in scoring offense with 38.3 points per game.

Anchored by seniors Jermaine Barton (All-MVFC First Team), Rocco Ammons (All-MVFC Second-Team) and Mike Liedtke (All-MVFC Honorable Mention), the line helped open holes for All-American running back Marshaun Coprich, who led the FCS with 2,274 rushing yards and 27 touchdowns.

The group also helped protect MVFC Newcomer of the Year Tre Roberson, who finished the year ranked in the top 5 in five national categories and set numerous school single-season records in his first season as the Redbird quarterback.

Following the season, Liedtke (Miami) and Barton (Buffalo) signed rookie free-agent contracts with NFL teams looking to continue their football careers at the highest level.

In his first season with the Redbirds, Clark worked with Second-Team All-MVFC selection Josh Aladenoye, who went on to sign with Dallas Cowboys as a free agent.

Clark came to Illinois State after serving as the tight ends coach at Northern Iowa for three seasons. In 2010, Clark oversaw the play of Schuyler Oordt, who earned honorable mention All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors after nabbing 24 receptions and three touchdowns. Following the 2010 season, Oordt took part in the NFL Combine in Indianapolis. In Clark's first year at UNI, two of his graduating tight ends signed free agent contracts in the NFL. Oordt inked a deal with the St. Louis Rams, while Ryan Mahaffey signed a free agent deal with the Baltimore Ravens.

Prior to his stint at UNI, Clark served as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa (2007-09). Clark assisted with the offense and helped the Hawkeyes to three-consecutive bowl berths, including a 24-14 victory over Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl.

Clark joined the Iowa staff after serving as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Iowa Central Community College for seven seasons (2000-06). During that time Clark helped Iowa Central compile a 56-20 overall record while advancing to a junior college bowl game in six of the seven seasons.

A native of Sioux Falls, S.D., Clark also served as an assistant coach at Simpson College for five seasons (1996-2000), after spending time on staff as a student assistant coach in 1995. Clark helped lead Simpson to Iowa Conference titles in 1996 and 1997 with a combined record of 22-2 in those seasons, as the team advanced to the NCAA Division III semifinals in 1997.

Clark earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Simpson College in 1995 and is pursuing a master's degree in Sports Management. He was a four-year member of the Simpson College football team as an undergraduate (1991-94) and was the starting quarterback in his final three seasons. He also played baseball at Simpson for four seasons.

Clark is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and the Iowa High School Football Association. His brother Derrik played football at Iowa State and his brother Dallas was an All-American tight end at Iowa before going on to put together an 11-year career in the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Baltimore Ravens.

He and his wife, Kristin, have three children: Drew, Paetyn and Jace.

Fifth Season

Wyoming '97

Cody Deti begins his fifth with the Illinois State football coaching staff and will continue to oversee the Redbird secondary.

During his time working with the Redbird defensive backs, Deti helped safety Ben Ericksen earn All-America honors and Mike Banks and Dontae McCoy become All-MVFC selections.

Ericksen was named a Third-Team All-America selection by The Sports Network and the Associated Press and selected to the College Sporting News 2012 Fabulous Fifty FCS All-America Team. That same season, Ericksen earned All-MVFC First-Team honors, after he finished the season ranked No. 4 in the country in interceptions per game and led the MVFC with seven.

In 2014, Banks ended his illustrious career with the Redbirds and is one of the most durable players in ISU history, having started every game of his career (50 total). He earned All-MVFC Second-Team honors as a cornerback and finished his career with the third-most passes defended in ISU history (46).

While Banks patrolled the cornerback position, senior captain Dontae McCoy anchored the Redbird defense from the safety spot. McCoy earned All-MVFC Honorable Mention honors, after recording 67 tackles and breaking up four passes in his final season at ISU in 2014.

Deti helped the Redbird secondary improve dramatically in his first season with ISU in 2011. The Redbird defense was ranked No. 9 in the country, after finishing No. 112 the previous year, and the Redbird secondary improved 22 spots on the national list in pass efficiency defense.

Much of that was due to the leadership of senior Otis Merrill and the emergence of Banks. Merrill was an All-MVFC Second Team selection at defensive back, after starting the final 10 games of the season and recording 41 tackles and an interception. Banks started all 11 games as a true freshman and was named to the MVFC All-Newcomer Team at defensive back.

Deti came to Illinois State after serving as the defensive coordinator for head coach Scott Downing for five seasons at Northern Colorado, a Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) program out of the Big Sky Conference.

Deti's defense improved every season, as the 2009 team allowed 20 yards less per game than 2008 and the 2008 team allowed almost 100 yards less per game than 2007. Prior to his stint at Northern Colorado, Deti spent three seasons on head coach Danny Hope's staff at Eastern Kentucky, where he worked with the defensive secondary and helped the Colonels to a 7-4 record and 7-1 mark in the Ohio Valley Conference in 2005.

Prior to coaching at Eastern Kentucky, Deti spent three seasons at Princeton. He joined the Tigers staff in 2000, serving as the co-secondary coach, while also coaching outside linebackers. In 2001, he moved to the offensive side of the ball, coaching tight ends, and spent his final season at Princeton as the wide receivers coach.

From 1997-99, Deti was a graduate assistant coach at Purdue, where he coached alongside Brock Spack who served as the team's defensive coordinator. In his time with the Boilermakers, the team made two appearances in the Alamo Bowl and one in the Outback Bowl.

Deti played defensive back at Wyoming (1992-93), while Downing was the defensive coordinator for the Cowboys, before his career was cut short by an injury. He stayed active with the program by serving as a student assistant coach from 1994-96 and was part of the 1996 WAC Championship squad. Deti comes from a long line of football coaches, as his grandfather John was the head coach at Laramie High School for 33 years and his father John was the head coach at Laramie for 26 years.

Deti earned his bachelor's degree in health science from Wyoming in 1997 and his master's degree in history and philosophy of sport from Purdue in 1999.

He resides in Bloomington, Ill., with his wife, Megan, and their children, Samuel, Maddisyn and Emma.

BILLY DICKEN

Assistant Coach/WR

Second Season

Illinois State '08

Bloomington (Ill.) High School graduate and former Purdue quarterback Billy Dicken is in his second season as wide receivers coach at Illinois State.

The combination of Dicken and first-year offensive coordinator Kurt Beathard helped the Redbirds become one of the most efficient and explosive passing teams in the FCS during the team's historic run in 2014.

ISU ranked No. 2 in the country in passing yards per completion (15.51) and No. 4 in team passing efficiency with a mark of 155.58. Senior wideouts Cameron Meredith and Lechein Neblett were a big part of that success, as the duo became the first teammates in school history to both haul in over 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Meredith, a converted quarterback, led the team with 66 receptions for 1,061 yards with a team-leading nine touchdowns in 2014. He later went on to sign a rookie free-agent contract with the Chicago Bears. Neblett earned All-MVFC Second-Team honors with 55 catches and 1,039 yards and eight scores. Each averaged over 16 yards per catch and made the Redbird passing game extremely dangerous in its run to the FCS title game.

Prior to starting at Illinois State, Dicken spent four seasons across town as a full-time assistant coach at Illinois Wesleyan working under head coach Norm Eash, but finished his 12th year as a Titan assistant overall. As the team's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2013, Dicken helped the Titans advance to the NCAA Division III playoffs for the third time in five seasons and a No. 14 national ranking.

Before returning to the Twin Cities, he was the wide receivers coach at Division II Eastern New Mexico in 2009, when the Greyhounds were the national leader with 448 passing yards per game.

Dicken and Spack have a long history together, as Dicken was a quarterback for Purdue during Spack's tenure as defensive coordinator with the Boilermakers. As a senior in 1997, Dicken thrived under the tutelage of then first-year head coach Joe Tiller and his spread offensive attack. Dicken led the Big Ten Conference in pass attempts (407), completions (224), passing yards (3,136) and passing touchdowns (21) on his way to being named a First Team All-Big Ten selection by the coaches.

He was also named the "Outstanding Offensive Player" in the Alamo Bowl, throwing for three touchdowns and 325 yards.

After his career at Purdue, Dicken went on to play for several Arena Football League teams including the Columbus Destroyers, New Orleans VooDoo, Detroit Fury, Chicago Rush and Quad City Steamwheelers as well as the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the Canadian Football League.

A 2008 graduate of Illinois State, Dicken earned a master's degree from Eastern New Mexico in Sports Administration in 2012.

He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Bloomington, Ill., with their daughter, Ashlyn.

Second Season

Illinois State '10

Former Redbird defensive back Khenon Hall is in his second season at Illinois State, working as the team's defensive assistant. In that role, Hall assists with the Redbird safeties.

Hall served as a mentor for 2014 senior captain Dontae McCoy, who anchored the Redbird defense from the safety spot. McCoy earned All-MVFC Honorable Mention honors in his final season, after recording 67 tackles and breaking up four passes in his final season at ISU in 2014.

Hall returned to Illinois State, after serving as a graduate assistant at New Mexico working with defensive backs during the 2011-12 season. Prior to that, Hall spent the 2009 and 2010 seasons as a student assistant at Illinois State and assisted with the Redbirds' secondary and defensive line.

He started six games for Illinois State in 2008, before suffering a career-ending neck injury. He would then go on to earn his degree from Illinois State in University

Studies in 2010.

Prior to his playing career at ISU, Hall was rated as a two-star junior-college recruit by Rivals.com. While at Trinity Valley Community College, he ranked second on the team in 2007 with 70 tackles, including a team-high 66 solo stops, in eight games of action. In addition, he added four tackles-for-loss and a quarterback sack and was named to the 2006 All-Southwest Junior College Football Conference Honorable Mention team.

Hall is married to the former Jasmine Harris of Normal, Ill. The couple has three children: daughter, Jazlyn son, Khenon Jr., and Khaydon.

Kane Keirnan is in his second season as an assistant coach with the Illinois State football program. He previously was part of the team as a player and later as a student assistant.

In his role as the offensive assistant coach, Keirnan assist members of the offensive coaching staff with day-to-day coaching and preparation and works closely with the offensive line.

The Redbird offensive line was a key factor in ISU's historic success in 2014 and helped in setting 15 school single-season records. ISU also finished the season ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing yards per game with 241.3 and No. 9 in scoring offense with 38.3 points per game.

Keirnan returns to Illinois State after a two-year stint as an offensive graduate assistant coach at New Mexico, where he worked with the Lobo wide receivers and tight ends.

In his previous stint at ISU, Keirnan was an offensive student assistant for Spack and then offensive coordinator Luke Huard, working with the tight ends and H-backs.

In 2011, the Redbirds showed a 52.4-yard improvement in the running game, up from 131 rushing yards per game in 2010 to 183.4 yards per game in 2011. The offense ranked No. 3 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed, and the team finished the regular season ranked 17th. In 2010, the Redbirds ranked second in the Missouri Valley Conference and 15th in the nation with a 258.4 passing-yards-per-game average and ISU's 321 total points was the 10th-best yearly total in school history.

Keirnan signed a scholarship with Illinois State as an H-back in 2008, but three ankle surgeries between the years 2008 and 2009 ended his playing career, which led him to staying involved in the program as a student assistant before earning his degree in 2012.

A 2008 graduate of Glenbard West High School, Keirnan earned all-state, all-area, all-conference and academic all-conference honors in 2006 and 2007. Before that, Keirnan spent two years at Montini Catholic High School in Lombard, Ill., where he took part in the school's first-ever state championship appearance in 2004.

Keirnan is engaged to Melanie Piekos and the couple is planning a January wedding.

Greg "Moose" McLain begins his fifth season as a member of the Redbird coaching staff and his third in charge of the team's tight ends and H-backs. In his first two seasons, he assisted with the tight ends and wide receivers, while also serving as the academic liaison for the team.

McLain's work over the past two seasons with tight end James O'Shaughnessy helped the former Redbird gain attention from the professional ranks.

In 2014, O'Shaughnessy caught 29 passes for 544 yards and tied for the team lead with nine receiving touchdowns. He averaged 18.8 yards per catch and caught a pair of touchdowns in Illinois State's loss to North Dakota State in the FCS Championship. Those numbers helped O'Shaughnessy get drafted in the fifth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

Before coming to ISU, McLain spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Greenbrier High School in Evans, Ga., and worked as the team's offensive coordinator during the final two seasons.

His previous stop was at Samford, where he worked as a football academic coordinator from 2007-08 and monitored academic progress of the football team.

He moved into that position after receiving his master's degree and working as a graduate assistant at Alabama from 2006-07. While working on the Crimson Tide coaching staff, McLain served as a recruiting/operations graduate assistant and was also an assistant NFL liaison/assistant camp director.

McLain joined the coaching staff after he lettered as a fullback and tight end at Alabama from 2002 to 2005, after helping lead the Crimson Tide to two bowl appearances. He graduated from Alabama with his bachelor's degree in human environmental sciences in December 2005 and earned his master's degree in sport management from Alabama in May 2007.

Fifth Season
Missouri Western State '08

Jake Schoonover begins his fifth season as a member of the Illinois State coaching staff, working with the Redbird linebackers at ISU. He also begins his fourth season as the special team coordinator at ISU.

Schoonover has helped mold middle linebacker Pat Meehan into one of the best linebackers in the MVFC and the FCS. In 2014, Meehan earned All-MVFC First-Team honors at middle linebacker and led the with 115 tackles as a junior. In 2013, Meehan led the Redbirds with 82 tackles and added two sacks, despite missing two games due to injury. For his efforts, Meehan was named a second-team All-MVFC performer.

In his duties as special team coordinator, Schoonover worked with kicker Nick Aussieker, who finished his career as ISU's all-time leading scorer with 310 points. In 2014, Australian punter CJ Laros also earned All-MVFC second-team honors at punter, after averaging 40.6 yards per punts, the third-best single-season mark in school history. Punt returner Tevin Allen also earned All-MVFC Honorable Mention plaudits as a kick returner, averaging a league-best 27.9 yards per return.

The 2013 Redbirds also returned a pair of kicks for touchdowns, which included a 100-yard kickoff return by Josh Burch and a 62-yard punt return by Anthony Warrum. It marked the first time since 2008 in which the Redbird returned a kickoff and punt for touchdown in the same season.

When Spack took over the defensive coordinator duties prior to the 2011 season, he sought out an assistant coach to work primarily with the Redbird linebackers and assist with day-to-day duties.

Spack found that man in Schoonover, who helped turn around the Redbird defense in 2011 and worked with First-Team All-MVFC performer Evan Frierson and Josh Howe, who was named to the All-MVFC Honorable Mention Team.

He was no stranger to the Illinois State football program. In 2009, he served as a volunteer assistant coach working with the Redbird offensive line and wide receivers on Spack's first staff at ISU.

Schoonover came to Illinois State, after spending one season on the Illinois Wesleyan coaching staff working with the defensive backs for head coach Norm Eash in 2010. Schoonover also assisted with special teams duties and served as the junior varsity team's defensive coordinator, leading them to a 6-0 record with three shutouts.

Schoonover was the defensive ends coach at his alma mater, Missouri Western State, for a season before working with the Redbirds in 2009. During his career at Missouri Western State, Schoonover started in 30 games at linebacker and was a team captain for the Griffons.

Following his collegiate career, he played linebacker and wide receiver in 2008 and 2009 for the arena league Peoria Pirates, serving as team captain in 2009.

Schoonover earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from MWSU in 2008 and received a master's degree in 2010 from American Public University. He and his wife, Katherine, reside in Normal, Ill., with their son, Jackson.

Rick Geitz is in his 10th season as the Illinois State football game analysis coordinator. In that role, Geitz oversees the videotaping of all practices and games, including the assignment of videographers and preparing shooting schedules for each practice. He is also responsible for editing and processing video, while providing the day-to-day oversight of the football video network computer system.

Prior to joining the Illinois State staff, Geitz worked three years as the master control operator at KPTH-TV in Sioux City, Neb. Before his stint at KPTH, Geitz worked five years in intercollegiate athletics. From 2000-02, Geitz served as the football video coordinator at Boise State, after working two years at Drake with the same title. Before getting involved with video, Geitz's football career began at the coaching level. For two seasons, he served as the special teams coordinator at Drake, before working four years at Simpson College. At Simpson, he mentored the wide receivers, tight ends and offensive line.

He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA), where he serves as the FCS representative for the organization. After the 2012 season, he was named the FCS Video Coordinator of the year by the CSVA. Geitz earned a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1991, from Wartburg College. He and his wife, Stefanie, reside in McLean, Ill.

PAM MERNA

Office Manager

Since 1993, Pam Merna has served as the office manager for Illinois State Football. During that time, she has worked with four different Redbird head coaches. Merna coordinates all day-to-day operations of the football office and supervises a student staff of office workers. She also coordinates travel for the Redbird coaches and handles scheduling for head coach Brock Spack. Merna also assists with coordinating in-season ticket requests for players and coaches and assists in planning events during home games such as senior day. Also a valuable aide in the team's recruiting efforts, Merna assists in setting up travel arrangements for Redbird coaches when they are on the road and sets up arrangements for recruits and parents visiting campus on official visits.

Merna and her husband, Mike Merna, live in rural Merna, Ill., about 12 miles east of Normal, Ill. They have two grown children, Keri Williams of Towanda and Toby Williams of Forsyth, Ill. They also have two grandsons, Aiden and Logan, and Merna has a grown step-daughter, Katy Rockett, of Glendale Heights, Ill., and step-grand daughter, Sienna.

NICK WATSON

Director of Equipment Operations

Nicholas Watson has served as the director of equipment operations at Illinois State since 2009. Watson brings over 10 years of experience and extensive knowledge from his past positions. In his role with the football program, Watson is responsible for the ordering, organizing and distribution of equipment for the Redbird football players and coaches and also oversees Illinois State's other equipment rooms.

Prior to coming to Illinois State, Watson served as the assistant equipment manager at Colorado State, where he had several responsibilities. Watson was in charge of coordinating the athletic equipment needs for student-athletes and coaches, while bidding, purchasing and ordering new equipment and uniforms. Watson was also responsible for daily operations and administration of the athletic equipment room.

The Cascade, Va., native started at Colorado State in 2005 after a year of graduate school at Georgia Southern, where he served as the graduate assistant equipment manager. Watson earned his bachelor's degree from Virginia Tech in 2000, while serving as a student equipment manager for the Hokies.

Watson became a certified equipment manager by Athletic Equipment Managers' Association (AEMA) in 2005 and has been a member with the organization since 1997. He and his wife, Jamie, reside in Bloomington, Ill.

JOE WHITSON

Associate Athletic Trainer

Joe Whitson is the primary athletic trainer for the Illinois State football team, a position he has held since 2006. As an associate athletic trainer, Whitson supervises the full-time football assistant and the department's graduate assistant athletic trainers.

In November 2007, Whitson was selected to represent region three on the Illinois Athletic Trainers' Association Board of Directors and in 2009, he was named Vice President of the Illinois Athletic Trainers' Association. Whitson has served as the Great Lakes Athletic Trainers' Association (GLATA) representative to the National Athletics Trainers' Association (NATA) and to the College and University Athletics Trainers' Committee (CUATC). In 2012, he was selected as the Illinois representative to the Great Lakes Athletic Trainers' Association (District IV of the NATA), with that term ending in 2017.

In his first season at ISU in 2005, Whitson worked directly with the Redbird volleyball and swimming and diving programs. Prior to joining the Illinois State staff, Whitson worked two years at Carson-Newman College. He spent the first year as the assistant athletic trainer, before being promoted to associate athletic trainer. Whitson assisted with the Eagle football team, while overseeing all athletic-training needs for the baseball, volleyball and men's and women's basketball teams. In addition to his on-field duties at Carson-Newman, Whitson also served as an instructor for undergraduate coursework in athletic training.

Whitson began his athletic training career as a student athletic trainer at East Tennessee State. He worked for four years before earning his bachelor's degree in 2001. NORTHWESTERN ST. 48, ILLINOIS ST. 28

November 28, 1998
Natchitoches, La. • First Round
Attendance: 8,118

GAME SUMMARY

No. 15 seed Illinois State was a team making its first playoff appearance and opened the game as such. No. 2 seed Northwestern State raced to a 21-0 lead before the Redbirds responded. ISU still managed a 502-yard day, but never matched the Demons' speed in surrendering 650 total yards, including 344 on just 12 pass completions. Just one of Northwestern State's seven scoring plays covered less than 29 yards.

ILLINOIS STATE 56, COLGATE 13

November 27, 1999
Normal, Ill. • First Round
Attendance: 7,133

GAME SUMMARY

In its first home playoff game, sixth-seeded Illinois State routed Patriot League champion and 11th-seeded Colgate behind speedster Aveion Cason, who racked up 196 all-purpose yards, including 156 rushing, and three touchdowns. ISU scored on five of its first seven possessions and tacked on a couple of special teams TDs, while the visiting Red Raiders had little success penetrating a Redbird defense that racked up four sacks. Illinois State head coach Todd Berry substituted freely throughout the second half.

ILLINOIS STATE 37, HOFSTRA 20

December 4, 1999
Hempstead, N.Y. • Quarterfinals
Attendance: 5,586

GAME SUMMARY

Hofstra quarterback Giovanni Carmazzi would later be drafted by the San Francisco 49ers, but on this day he took a back seat to ISU's Dusty Burk. The Redbird freshman was amazing, completing 31-of-37 passes for 350 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He also rushed eight times for 54 yards. A 21-0 second-quarter blitz was too much for the homestanding and the third-seeded Flying Dutchmen, who spent most of the game playing catch-up.

GA. SOUTHERN 28, ILLINOIS ST. 17

December 11, 1999
Statesboro, Ga. • Semifinals
Attendance: 12,299

GAME SUMMARY

Illinois State's first possession resulted in a 12-play, 68-yard touchdown drive, but that would be the last time the Redbirds would lead the top-seeded and eventual national champion Georgia Southern Eagles. It was the 900th game in the history of ISU's program. GSU ripped off 21 unanswered counters before Jake Strader booted a 50-yard field goal for ISU on the last play of the first half. Each team added a second-half touchdown, but Illinois State had little success penetrating Georgia Southern's defense and Walter Payton Award-winner Adrian Peterson helped GSU control the ball by rushing 31 times for 183 yards and three touchdowns.

ILLINOIS ST. 24, EASTERN ILLINOIS 13

November 25, 2006
Charleston, Ill. • First Round
Attendance: 4,400

GAME SUMMARY

Jason Tate and Jesse Caesar each returned an interception for a touchdown to lead Illinois State to a 24-13 NCAA Division I Football Championship first round game victory over Eastern Illinois. With 10:48 left in the game, the EIU defense put points on the scoreboard to take the lead. Defensive back Terrance Sanders answered Tate's earlier interception return for a touchdown with one of his own for 87 yards to put the Panthers up 13-10. However, Pierre Rembert would regain the lead for the Redbirds on an 18-yard touchdown run with 2:07 left in the game to make the score 17-13 in favor of ISU. To seal the win, Caesar picked off a Stinson pass and ran it back 45 yards for a touchdown to put the game away at 24-13.

YOUNGSTOWN ST. 28, ILLINOIS ST. 21

December 2, 2006
Youngstown, Ohio • Quarterfinals
Attendance: 10,813

GAME SUMMARY

Illinois State took the opening kickoff and drove 58 yards in nine plays capped by a 4-yard pass from Luke Drone to Laurent Robinson, but that was the only offense until a fourth quarter rally which fell short as the Redbirds lost at Youngstown State 28-21 in a clash between Gateway Football Conference teams. YSU took a commanding 28-7 lead, but the Redbirds added a pair of touchdowns in the fourth quarter to close the deficit to 28-21. ISU had one final chance with 2:18 left of the clock, but the Redbirds were unable to get a first down to sustain the potential game-winning drive.

No. 15 Redbirds Advance, Beat No. 6 Appalachian State in OT
BOONE, N.C. - Shelby Harris' blocked extra-point attempt in overtime sealed No. 15 Illinois State's (9-3) thrilling 38-37 overtime victory over No. 6 Appalachian State (8-4) in second-round action of the FCS playoffs.

Tied 31-31 after regulation, ISU received the ball first and needed only one play to find the end zone in overtime. Quarterback Matt Brown connected with tight end James O'Shaughnessy on a 25-yard completion for the score. The Mountaineers also struck quickly, needing just four plays to answer the Redbird score. Jamal Jackson's four-yard toss to Andrew Peacock made it a one-point game, but Harris blocked Sam Martin's extra point, sealing the 38-37 overtime win.

Brown finished the game 20-for-32 for 322 yards and tied a career-high with five touchdowns passes. Senior wideout Tyrone Walker led the receivers with 10 catches for a season-best 176 yards and two touchdowns. O'Shaughnessy set career-highs with receptions (3), yards (47) and touchdown receptions (2).

Leading 14-10 at halftime, ISU went to the air to get on the board first in the second half. Brown connected with Donovan Harden on a 17-yard touchdown completion, making it 21-10 ISU with 7:33 to go in the third quarter.

The Mountaineers needed just five plays to respond. After missing on his first pass attempt, Jackson connected on his next four, including a 48-yard score to Malachi Jones. The Redbirds responded immediately, as Brown found Walker for a diving 32-yard touchdown catch in the end zone to give Illinois State a 28-17 lead.

After both teams exchanged punts, the Mountaineers had possession on the ISU 46-yard line. Jackson completed each of his pass attempts, including a 44-yard toss to Simms McElfresh that spotted the ball on the Redbirds one yard line. Two plays later, Rod Chisholm dove into the end zone for a one-yard score, making it 28-24.

On the ensuing drive, Brown took to the ground and picked up 20 yards on the opening snap. Two plays later, Harden caught a 30-yard toss deep into Appalachian State territory, setting up a 41-yard field goal from Aussieker, making it 31-23.

Illinois State scored first on an eight-play, 83-yard drive that featured three third-and-long completions from Brown to Walker. Facing third-and-six Brown fired to Walker, who dodged two defenders for a 41-yard touchdown play, making it 7-0.

The Mountaineers would tie the game on a 10-play, 69-yard drive that covered 3:46. Jackson threw for 31 yards over two plays, before diving into the end zone on a two-yard keeper to tie the game at 7-7 with 4:15 to go in the opening half.

After forcing a quick three-and-out, Appalachian State threatened and moved the ball into Illinois State territory. Facing fourth-and-one, Evan Frierson tallied the first sack of the game, giving ISU the ball back. Three plays later, Brown found O'Shaughnessy for a nine-yard score, making it 14-7 with 0:44 seconds to go. ASU netted a 37-yard field goal as time expired to make it 14-10 ISU at the break.

Redbirds End Season With Loss at Eastern Washington

CHENEY, Wash. - No. 15 Illinois State (9-4) tallied 520 yards of total offense, but could not erase a 21-point second half deficit, falling to second-seed Eastern Washington (11-2), 51-35, in the FCS quarterfinals in front of a sellout crowd at Roos Field in Cheney, Wash.

Trailing 38-17 with 11:01 to go in the third quarter, the Redbirds rallied for 18 points to cut the deficit to three at 38-35, but Kyle Padron's 76-yard touchdown pass to All-American receiver Brandon Kaufman stifled ISU's second-half rally and sealed the win for the Eagles.

Senior Matt Brown threw for 372 yards on 27-of-48 passing, with two touchdowns and two interceptions, while leading an Illinois State offense that tallied 520 yards of total offense. Tyrone Walker added nine catches for 148 yards and one touchdown and Lechein Neblett had six catches for 101 yards with one score.

Eastern Washington led 24-17 at halftime and added two quick third-quarter scores, as Padron connected with Kaufman on 47 and 17-yard touchdown passes to open the half.

With the Eagles leading 38-17, Clarke forced a Padron fumble, setting up a Nick Aussieker 26-yard field goal to make it 38-20 Eastern Washington. The Redbirds then rallied around a pair of three-and-outs, with Brown finding Neblett for a 22-yard touchdown and then rushing for a 13-yard score to make it 38-35 Eastern Washington with 13:55 to play. Padron then went to the air for the 76-yard touchdown pass to Kaufman to make it 44-35. The Eagles added a 10-yard touchdown pass to Ashton Clark to cap the scoring at 51-35.

Both teams exchanged scores in a fast-paced opening half, that saw points scored on the first six possessions of the game. Aussieker's 23-yard field goal gave ISU an early 3-0 lead, but Padron responded with a 44-yard touchdown pass to Daniel Johnson to give the Eagles a 7-3 advantage. Brown then completed a 40-yard strike to Walker for a 10-7 ISU advantage, before Jimmy Pavel's 20-yard field goal with 2:57 to play in the first quarter squared the game at 10-10.

Josh Burch's 72-yard kickoff return gave ISU field position deep in EWU territory. On third-and-goal from the three, Dunn carried the ball into the end zone for his 13th touchdown of the year, giving ISU at 17-10 lead with 14:29 to play in the opening half. Eastern Washington responded with a four-play, 21-yard drive capped by a Demitrius Bronson one-yard touchdown run to even the game at 17-17 in the second quarter.

The Eagles took advantage of a costly Illinois State turnover to score a touchdown in the closing seconds of the opening half. On third-and-long, Brown completed a pass to James O'Shaughnessy, who carried the ball into the Eastern Washington red zone, before fumbling the ball to the Eagles. Padron facilitated a 12-play, 79-yard drive, capped by a one yard pass to Zack Gehring to give the Eagles a 24-17 lead.

ISU Averages Lone Loss, Defeats UNI In Playoffs, 41-21

NORMAL, Ill. - In a dominating performance, Illinois State quarterback Tre Roberson threw for 382 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Redbirds to a second-round playoff victory against Northern Iowa, 41-21, Saturday afternoon at Hancock Stadium.

After losing to the Panthers on Nov. 1 at the UNI Dome, ISU got its revenge on the only team to defeat them this season. The Redbirds exploded out of the gate with a lightning-quick, 73-yard opening touchdown drive that ended with a 6-yard inside slant pass from Roberson to senior wide receiver Cameron Meredith.

On ISU's second drive, a 28-yard back shoulder throw to freshman wide receiver Jon-Marc Anderson set up a 1-yard plunge from junior running back Marshaun Coprich for his 22nd touchdown of the year to put the Redbirds ahead, 14-0.

Coprich, the Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year, reached the 100-yard plateau for a school-record 12th-consecutive time. With his 148-yard game, he also earned the ISU single-season rushing yard record, passing Pierre Rembert's previous record of 1,743 yards (2006).

The Redbirds scored again on their third drive of the game, after a Roberson quarterback draw set the offense up at the 5-yard line. Roberson tossed another inside slant pass to Meredith from two yards out to complete a 15-play, 87-yard drive that took nearly eight minutes off the clock. Meredith's second touchdown of the game gave him eight receiving touchdowns on the season, and the senior also surpassed the 100-yard mark for the fourth-straight game.

Senior placekicker Nick Aussieker's would-be career long field goal attempt of 51 yards was partially blocked by Xavier Williams midway through the second quarter. The Redbirds drove the field in the last minute of the first half to set up another Aussieker attempt, which he converted from 45 yards out as time expired, and ISU took a 24-0 lead into halftime.

The Panthers started Sawyer Kollmorgen at quarterback in the second half, and he drove UNI down the field for a touchdown on its first drive of the third quarter. A 39-yard Aussieker field goal and a 26-yard touchdown pass from Roberson to senior tight end James O'Shaughnessy extended the Redbird lead, 34-7. However, the Panthers would not go down without a fight, as they wasted no time on an 84-yard drive that took less than three minutes off the clock and ended in a Johnson rushing touchdown. The Panthers recovered an ISU fumble on the ensuing kickoff, and punched in a touchdown three plays later to cut the lead, 34-21.

The Panthers were unable to capitalize on its final two drives stalled out on a failed fourth down conversion, and an interception by junior defensive end Teddy Corwin. O'Shaughnessy hauled in a 36-yard pass for his second receiving touchdown of the game to conclude the scoring and put him over 100 yards on the day.

Coprich, Redbirds Defeat EWU In FCS Quarterfinals

CHENEY, Wash. — Marshaun Coprich rushed for a career-high 258 yards and Illinois State piled up 542 yards of total offense en route to a 59-46 victory over Eastern Washington in the FCS quarterfinals.

Following a stop on Eastern Washington's first drive of the game, the Redbirds answered with a 12-play, 66-yard scoring drive that was capped off by a 31-yard field goal off the foot of Nick Aussieker. On the ensuing drive, David Perkins forced a fumble on a reception by Kendrick Bourne and Mike Banks recovered at the ISU 45-yard line. Coprich took over on the next drive, rushing for 36 of the team's 55 yards during the five-play scoring drive, which he ended with a seven-yard touchdown.

The Eagles answered the Redbird touchdown with one of their own, as Quincy Forte scored on a nine-yard touchdown run to cut the ISU lead to 10-7. The Redbirds battled right back, and put together an eight-play, 55-yard drive to extend the lead back to 10 points. Fullback Brady Tibbitts took his first career carry and pounded it across the goal line from three yards out to give the Redbirds a 17-7 advantage.

A 37-yard field goal from Tyler McNannay on the next drive cut the ISU lead to a touchdown at 17-10, but once again the Redbirds answered with an eight-play, 66-yard scoring drive as Tre Roberson capped off the drive with a seven-yard touchdown pass to Cameron Meredith. Meredith made a fantastic, one-handed grab that put the Redbirds up 24-10 with 6:35 left to play in the half. EWU would fight back again and cut the lead back to seven points at 24-17, after a Jabari Wilson one-yard touchdown run capped off an 11-play scoring drive at the end of the second quarter.

The Redbirds wasted little time putting points on the scoreboard in the third quarter, as they drove 75 yards down the field in just under four minutes to extend the lead to 31-17. Big grabs from James O'Shaughnessy set up a 21-yard touchdown run for Coprich, who moved over 100 yards rushing for the 13th-straight time. Eastern came back and settled for a 36-yard field goal from McNannay and cut the lead to 31-20 with 9:01 left in the third quarter, after Pat Meehan sacked Adams on third down.

ISU answered again, as Coprich scored his third touchdown of the game on a 2-yard run to extend the lead to 38-20. On the ensuing drive, Alex Donnelly picked off a Vernon Adams pass attempt and returned it to the EWU 23-yard line and six plays later, Roberson ran it in from five yards out to widen the lead to 45-20.

A two-yard touchdown run by Adams early in the fourth quarter narrowed the ISU lead to 45-27, but a failed onside kick attempt by the Eagles was recovered by Collin Keoshian to give the Redbirds great field position. Four plays later, Roberson connected with Lechein Neblett on a 31-yard scoring strike to increase the lead to 52-27 with 10:30 left in the game.

EWU did not go away, as Adams connected with Cooper Kupp on a 30-yard touchdown pass and after a missed PAT try, the Redbirds lead was cut to 52-33 with 8:57 left in the game. After recovering an onside kick by the Eagles, Kupp again for a 35-yard touchdown to cut the ISU lead to 52-39 with 8:21 left in the game.

The Eagles kicked it long on the next kickoff and Tevin Allen fair caught the ball at the 25-yard line. Two plays later, Coprich broke loose for a 74-yard touchdown run, his fourth of the game, to extend the ISU lead to 59-39. On the next drive, Mike Banks intercepted Adams, but with 1:40 to play, Adams connected with Shaq Hill for a 47-yard touchdown. That would be the final score of the game.

Redbirds Punch Ticket To National Championship

Durham, N.H. — A 47-yard touchdown run by Illinois State quarterback Tre Roberson in the fourth quarter lifted the Redbirds (13-1) to a 21-18 win over top-seeded New Hampshire (12-2) in front of a raucous crowd at Cowell Stadium in the semifinals of the 2014 FCS Playoffs and secured ISU a spot in the national championship game.

Roberson led the comeback in the fourth quarter and finished the game 18-for-31 with 278 yards passing, including a career-long 77-yard connection to Lechein Neblett. He also added 95 yards on 12 carries, including the game winner. Running back Marshaun Coprich did not break the 100-yard barrier for the first time this season, but finished with 79 yards and the game's only other touchdown. Teddy Corwin led the way for the defense with a career-best 12 tackles and Collin Keoshian added six stops, a sack, a tackle-for-loss and an interception.

After each team punted on their first possession of the game, the Redbirds scored the first points of the day on a 33-yard field goal by Nick Aussieker mid-way through the first quarter. The Wildcats answered the score with a touchdown on their ensuing drive, as quarterback Sean Goldrich carried it in from four yards out to put UNH ahead 7-3 with 3:35 left in the first quarter.

The Redbirds attempted to answer on their last drive of the quarter and drove all the way inside the UNH 10 yard line. Roberson carried the ball eight yards to the one yard line and attempted to stretch over the goal line, but was hit and fumbled giving the ball back to the Wildcats and swinging the momentum. UNH took advantage of the turnover and put together a nine-play, 96-yard scoring drive that was capped off by a six-yard touchdown run by Nico Steriti and a two-point conversion on a run by Andy Vailas to extend the lead to 15-3 with 12:34 left in the second quarter.

ISU would add another field goal, this time a 23-yarder, with 1:45 left before halftime after a career-long 77-yard pass from Roberson to Neblett set the Redbirds up inside the UNH five yard line. However, three-straight runs by Coprich were stuffed and the Redbirds settled for the field goal to cut the UNH lead to 15-6.

UNH took the opening kickoff of the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 73-yard drive that took 4:12 off the clock to extend its lead to 18-6, after a 25-yard field goal from Brad Prasky. The rest of the third quarter was quiet for both teams, until the Redbirds took over on their final drive of the quarter. Roberson led a methodical, 10-play, 84-yard drive that was capped off on a two-yard touchdown run by Coprich that cut the UNH lead to 18-13 early in the fourth quarter.

After the defense forced another UNH punt, its third in a row, the Redbirds got the ball back on their own 11 yard line. The Redbirds marched down the field to the 47 yard line, when Roberson called his own number and took a quarterback draw 47 yards for the go-ahead touchdown. Following a quick time out, Roberson pitched the ball to Jon-Marc Anderson who dove into the end zone for the two-point conversion to put ISU in the lead at 21-18 with 7:51 left in the game.

UNH got the ball back and attempted to tie or gain the lead, but a stop of fourth down gave the Redbirds the ball back at their own 46 yard line. From there, the Redbirds picked up two first downs and took a knee to run the clock.

■ GAME SUMMARY

ISU Avenges Lone Loss, Defeats UNI In Playoffs, 41-21

FRISCO, Texas — Illinois State's bid for its first national championship came down to the final minute, but North Dakota State ran its streak of consecutive national championships to four with a 29-27 win at Toyota Stadium.

Tre Roberson's 58-yard touchdown run with 1:38 left in the game gave the Redbirds a late lead before NDSU (15-1) quarterback Carson Wentz scored from five yards out with 37 seconds left to reclaim the lead. Roberson's pass to Joe Farmer with eight seconds left in the game was intercepted, ending the ISU comeback hopes.

The Redbirds (13-2) were led Saturday by Roberson, who completed 11-of-23 passes for 157 yards and three touchdowns. He ran for a game-high 161 yards and another score. James O'Shaughnessy caught two of Roberson's touchdown passes, while Jon-Marc Anderson hauled in the other.

The Redbird defense stopped NDSU on its first offensive drive of the game as Alex Donnelly forced a Bison fumble as they entered the red zone. The Redbirds drove to midfield before ISU punter CJ Laros pinned the Bison inside their own 5-yard-line. North Dakota State was forced to punt four plays later and the Redbirds took advantage, capping a five-play, 38-yard drive with a 13-yard touchdown pass from Roberson to Anderson with 5:28 remaining in the first quarter.

NDSU answered with a 41-yard field goal from Adam Keller with just over a minute remaining in the quarter, cutting the Redbirds' lead to 7-3. The Bison took the lead on their next offensive possession, as Wentz found Luke Albers on a 6-yard touchdown pass with 8:43 left in the second quarter. Illinois State trailed 10-7 at halftime.

The Bison opened the second half with a key special teams play as they recovered the second-half kickoff at the Illinois State 19-yard-line. A third-down sack by Bradon Prate forced a field goal attempt and NDSU's Keller was good from 41 yards out, giving the Bison a 13-7 lead. After a Redbird three-and-out, the Bison put together an eight-play, 76-yard drive that was topped off by a 7-yard touchdown run by John Crockett with 7:28 left in the third quarter, boosting the Bison lead to 20-7.

The Redbirds got back into the game with a 41-yard pass from Roberson to O'Shaughnessy with 2:11 remaining in the third quarter, cutting the NDSU lead to 20-13 after a Nick Aussieker extra point. The Bison made it a two-possession game again with a 24-yard field goal by Keller with 11:20 left in the game. Roberson and O'Shaughnessy hooked up again just moments later, though, on a 3-yard touchdown pass with 8:05 left, cutting the NDSU lead to 23-21.

NDSU followed with a drive that chewed up nearly six minutes of clock, and included a key fourth-and-one conversion, but a third-down sack by Collin Keoshian forced a Bison punt and the Redbirds took over at their own 20-yard-line with 2:22 left.

Roberson's career-long 58-yard touchdown run with 1:38 remaining gave the Redbirds their first lead since early in the second quarter. The Redbirds had 37 seconds left after Wentz's go-ahead touchdown, but Roberson's pass from his own 44-yard-line was intercepted by NDSU's Esley Thorton.

BROCK SPACK

8 - ESTUS HOOD

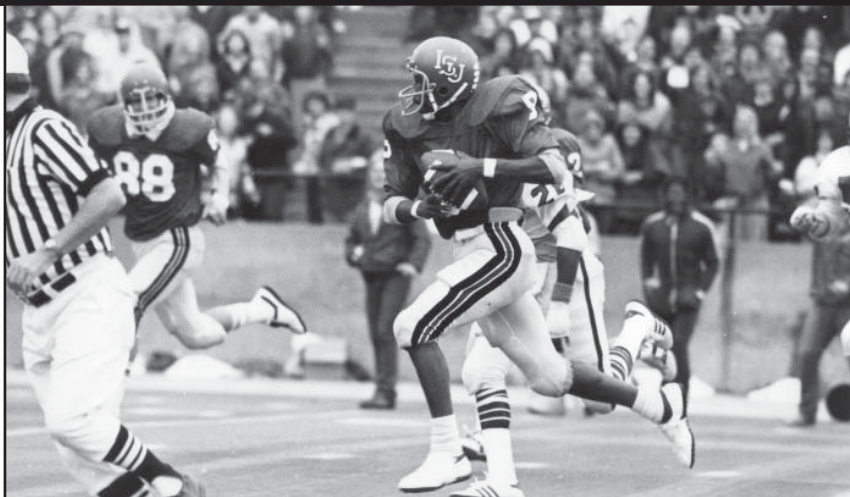

A defensive back from Kankakee, Ill., (Eastridge HS), Estus Hood went on to a seven-year NFL career (more than 100 games) with the Green Bay Packers. At one point, he logged 31-straight starting assignments.

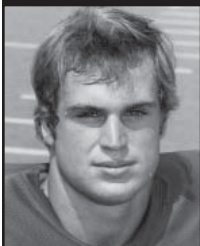

As a pro, Hood finished his career with 11 interceptions.

At Illinois State, he posted six career interceptions for 111 yards, an average of 18.5 yards per return. Hood also totaled 46 career punt returns for 582 yards, an average of 12.6 yards per return, and nine kickoff returns for 105 yards. He finished his Redbird career with four touchdowns.

Hood missed the 1975 ISU season due to injury and lettered with the Redbirds from 1973-74 and 1976-77, before being drafted by the Green Bay Packers in the third round of the 1978 NFL Draft.

15 - MIKE PRIOR

Mike Prior, a native of Chicago Heights, Ill., was a defensive back with the Green Bay Packers from 1993-98 and participated in two Super Bowls. In the Packers' Super Bowl XXXI victory over New England, in January 1997, Prior intercepted a Drew Bledsoe pass. Following Prior's interception, Brett Favre orchestrated a 74-yard, six-minute drive that concluded with a diving Favre touching the ball against the pylon to give Green Bay a 27-14 halftime lead.

Before joining the Packers, Prior spent six seasons in Indianapolis with the Colts and two with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Prior still ranks No. 1 on the school's career interceptions list with 24 and is also tops in career punt return yards with 906.

He also played baseball during his career at Illinois State and still holds the school marks for career batting average (.388) and slugging percentage (.715).

72 - DENNIS NELSON

An offensive lineman from Kewanee, Ill., (Weathersfield HS), Dennis Nelson played five seasons with the NFL's Baltimore Colts and two more with the Philadelphia Eagles.

With the Colts, Nelson was part of the Super Bowl V champions in 1971. He played in 77 games during his NFL career, all as a reserve.

He was selected by the Colts in the third round, with the 77th pick overall, in the 1969 NFL Draft.

Nelson originally joined the Illinois State football team as a walk-on, before lettering four seasons (1965-68) with the Redbirds.

The patch is dedicated to the memory of the SEVEN staff and friends of Illinois State University who perished in an airplane crash on April 7, 2015. The crash occurred while approaching to land at the Central Illinois Regional Airport near Bloomington, Illinois. The men were on their way back from the Men's Basketball Final Four Championship game in Indianapolis, Indiana.
