QUICK HITTERS

• This season Illinois State has three freshmen, Harouna Sissoko, Howard Fleming Jr., and Emon Washington who have each had games where they pulled down double-digit rebounds. It is the first time in program history with three freshmen with a double-figure rebounding total in a game during the same season.

• Illinois State head coach Dan Muller is one of 35 head coaches in the country who is coaching at his alma mater. Of that group, he has the seventh-most victories.

• Illinois State sophomore DJ Horne has the 17th-best three-point field goal percentage in the country heading into the weekend, while also sporting the 73rd-highest three-point field goals per game mark in the country.

• With his recent hot stretch, Horne has climbed into the top-10 in school history in single-season three-point makes by a sophomore (8th), three-point percentage by a sophomore (3rd), career three-point percentage (6th), and career three-point makes through sophomore season (5th).

• With his 15 rebounds in a reserve role against Missouri State, Dusan Mahoric is one of just 13 players in NCAA Division I this season to pull down at least 15 rebounds as a non-starter. The rebound total is also tied for the third-highest in a game this season by a MVC student-athlete.

• DJ Horne's career three-point percentage of .421 is the 21st-highest among active players in NCAA Division I, and is the fifth-highest sophomore on the list.

• Twice this season an Illinois State men's basketball squad has held an opponent to two or fewer free throws made in a game, the second time coming on Wednesday against Bradley when the Redbirds held the Braves to just two made free throw tries, which is tied for the fourth-fewest in a game allowed in program history.

• This season Illinois State has had 12 players score in double figures at least once, which is the third-highest current total in the country, trailing only Murray State's and Abilene Christian's 13. The Redbird double-figure total is also the most in a season by an ISU team since at least 1966-67.

• ISU has had five players score at least 20 points in a game this season, which is tied for the top mark in the MVC this season, and is tied for the sixth-most in a season for Illinois State since 1966-67. The school record for total amount of 20+ point scorers in a season is seven held by the 1968-69 squad.

• Illinois State tied a school record against Chicago State with 17 made three-point baskets, which are also tied for the 29th-most in a game in NCAA Division I this season.

• In Illinois State's win over Greenville, the Redbirds set new NCAA Division I records in field goal percentage (84.3%) and total assists (57). The program also scored the fourth-most points, had the fourth-highest single-half scoring output, and had the sixth-highest combined score total in NCAA Division I history.

• The Redbirds have no seniors on this season's team, the seventh time in program history an ISU squad had no seniors. Of the six previous occurrences, four times the team made a postseason (NCAA or NIT) the following season. ISU is one of 10 NCAA Division I schools with no seniors on its roster this year.

• Along with having no seniors and just four juniors, the team's average athletic year is 1.71 (freshmen = 1, senior = 4), which is the least experienced team in program history.

• Illinois State has four players from outside of the United States, the most foreign players on a Redbird team in program history. The previous most was from the 1996-97, 2012-13, and 2013-14 seasons that had three players each from outside of the USA.

SCOUTING THE BRAVES

Bradley comes into the second meeting with the Redbirds having dropped nine of its last 11 games after Illinois State snapped the Braves' three-game losing streak in late January.

In Bradley's last game, a 72-57 loss at Missouri State, Rienk Mast scored a team-high 15 points, while Kevin McAdoo and Sean East each scored 13. Ville Tahvanainen scored nine points, with that quartet scoring 50 of the team's 57 points in the loss. Mast pulled down a game-high 11 rebounds for the double-double, as Antonio Thomas dished out four assists to lead the team.

For the season, the Braves are led by Elijah Childs, who leads the Braves in scoring (14.2 ppg), rebounding (8.3 rpg), and blocked shots (28). Terry Nolan and Ja'Shon Henry also average in double-figure scoring, at 11.2 and 10.7 points per game, respectively.

Bradley out-rebounds its opponents by an average of 3.6 rebounds per game, with Mast second among the active players in rebounding, pulling down 5.7 per contest. East holds a narrow lead on the team in assists with 74, just ahead of Nolan who has 69 helpers on the year. Nolan's 25 steals are the top mark on the team, while East is just behind with 21.

LONG-RANGE THREAT

Illinois State sophomore DJ Horne currently stands 17th in the country in three-point field goal percentage (45.9%), while his 2.57 makes per game stands as the 73rd-best total in NCAA Division I. He is the top shooter in the MVC in both categories among the NCAA minimums for qualification (2.5 makes per game for percentage). Of the 16 in front of him in percentage, a dozen are seniors, two are juniors, and two are sophomores.

Through his first two seasons, Illinois State sophomore DJ Horne has started to etch his name permanently in the Illinois State record books. After his first season he ended the year with the third-best freshman single-season three-point shooting percentage in school history, while his make total put him sixth. This season he is on pace to climb into the top-10 in school history in three-point percentage and total makes by a sophomore, and career three-point percentage.

BIG OFF THE BENCH

With his 15 rebounds against Missouri State in a reserve role, ISU junior forward Dusan Mahoric became one of just 13 players in NCAA Division I this season to pull down at least 15 rebounds in a game while coming off the bench, and just the ninth to do it against a Division I opponent. The top mark for reserve rebounds this season comes from D'Mauria Jones of Oral Roberts (against Bacone) and Enrique Freeman of Akron (against Malone), as each grabbed 21 rebounds in a game while coming off of the bench.

FRESHMAN REBOUNDING

This season, Harouna Sissoko, Howard Fleming Jr., and Emon Washington each had a game of double-digit rebounds. It was the first time in school history that the Redbirds had three freshmen reach the double-figure plateau in the same season. There are five other times since 1955-56 that the Redbirds had two freshmen reach the double-figure rebounding mark.

NOT FROM AROUND HERE

The first Redbird student-athlete to come from outside of the United States was Roy Herald, a native of Finland, that played for Illinois State from 1977 through 1981. Since then 16 foreign-native student-athletes have played for the Redbirds. This season's team has four foreign-born student-athletes, the most on a single team in program history. The previous high mark for foreign players was three, set three times, the first in 1996-97, along with 2012-13 and 2013-14.

UNCOMMONLY COMMON

When the Illinois State Redbirds faced off against the Loyola Ramblers in back-to-back days, it was something that has happened at ISU, but is relatively rare. The last time previous to the 2020-21 MVC opener where Illinois State has played the same school in back-to-back days was on February 9 and 10, 1979 when the Redbirds faced off against Hawai'i in Honolulu. In all, there are seven previous occurrences of back-to-back games against the same opponent, seven of those coming from the 1967-68 season when as part of the IIAC (Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference) the teams played the same opponent twice on a conference weekend.

YOUNG STARTS

In the second of the two games against the Loyola Ramblers, Illinois State started three freshmen: Howard Fleming Jr., Alston Andrews, and Harouna Sissoko. It was the first time since March 1, 1991 in the MVC Tournament against Drake where the Redbirds had started three freshmen in a game (Charles Barnes, Mike VandeGarde, and Scott Taylor).

BABY BIRDS

This season's Illinois State men's basketball team has no seniors and just three juniors, with the remaining 11 student-athletes being of sophomore or freshman age. The average athletic year for the Redbirds this season is 1.71 (freshman =1, senior =4), which is the youngest squad in program history. Below are the 10 oldest and youngest teams in the program since 1962-63.

MORE DOUBLE-FIGURE INFO

With Illinois State's dozen players that have scored double-figures at least once this season, it represents the most double-figure scorers by a Redbird basketball team since at least 1966-67. The team has also had five different student-athletes score at least 20 points in a game, which is tied for the sixth-most in a season in program history. The top mark for most different 20+ point games in a season for ISU is seven, set by the 1968-69 squad which had Jerry Crabtree, Tom Cirks, Mike Green, Dave Handy, Bob Rath, Blaine Royer, and Tom Taulbee all reach the scoring plateau.

STEALING AWAY

Two times this season (against UMass Lowell and Valparaiso), DJ Horne not only tied a career-high, but is also tied for the ninth-most steals in a game by a sophomore in Illinois State basketball history. The sophomore record is held by the trio of Vince Greene, Ron Jones, and Bubbles Hawkins who each had seven steals against Evansville, Northern Illinois, and Louisville, respectively.

GOOD IN CLOSE GAMES

Under head coach Dan Muller, the Redbirds are 51-35 all-time in games that are within five points at the end of regulation. His teams have gotten progressively better in the categories, as ISU is 28-17 in such games over the last three-plus seasons.

REDBIRD BRANCHES IN THE COACHING TREE

There are 11 current head coaches across NCAA Division I basketball that have spent time in Normal, Illinois, as either a student-athlete or coach. In addition to ISU's current head coach Dan Muller, who was a student-athlete in the program from 1994-98, the list also includes new Wake Forest head coach Steve Forbes (assistant during 2003-04 season), SMU's Tim Jankovich (head coach, 2007-12), Monmouth's King Rice (assistant, 1993-98), New Mexico State's Chris Jans (assistant, 2004-07), Tennessee State's Brian Collins (assistant, 2017-18), new UIC head coach Luke Yaklich (student-manager at ISU from 1993-98, assistant 2013-17), SIU Edwardsville's Brian Barone (assistant, 2003-07), Missouri State's Dana Ford (student-athlete at ISU, 2002-06; assistant 2012-14), Loyola Chicago's Porter Moser (head coach, 2003-07), and Chicago State's Lance Irvin (assistant, 2002-03).

DOUBLE, DOUBLE-DOUBLE

With Illinois State's win over Greenville, two Redbird student-athletes: DJ Horne and Josiah Strong had point/assist double-doubles. The game was the first time that a Redbird student-athlete with a point/assist double-double since Paris Lee had an 18-point, 11-assist double-double against New Mexico on December 3, 2016, and it was the second time in program history that ISU had two players with point/assist double-doubles, joining Redbird legends Bubbles Hawkins and Rick Whitlow who had similar double-doubles on December 15, 1973 against Central Michigan.

GETTING DEFENSIVE AT LENGTH

A season after leading the country in the category, the Illinois State defense is back at it, holding opponents to a possession length this season of 18.3 seconds, which is the 15th-longest such length in the country. Below are the five longest defensive possession lengths in the country, as well as the two schools that surround ISU in the rankings, according to the basketball statistical analysis site KenPom.

BIG MILESTONES

In Illinois State's win over Greenville, the program also set numerous school, conference, and arena records. Among the school records set include: Points in a game, points in the first half, points in the second half, scoring margin, field goals made, field goal percentage, and assists. The MVC records set include: Points in a game, combined points, field goals made, field goal percentage in a game, and assists, while the Redbird Arena records that were erased include points (previous mark was 105), points in first half, points in second half, scoring margin, field goals made, field goal percentage, rebound margin, assists, and the second-most field goals attempted and rebounds.

ZERO SENIORS

For the 2020-21 season, Illinois State has zero seniors on its roster. Since 1962-63, there have been just six other Redbird rosters with no seniors. Those other seasons include 1965-66, 1988-89, 1996-97, 2011-12, 2013-14, and 2017-18. In six of those previous seasons, four times the team advanced to postseason play the following season, three times (1966-67, 1989-90, 1997-98) the team earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament, while the 2014-15 team advanced to the NIT second round.

Illinois State is also one of 10 schools in the country without a senior on the squad. The other nine schools include Auburn, Belmont, Colorado State, Florida, Memphis, Rice, St. Bonaventure, Tulane, and USC Upstate.

Illinois State junior Josiah Strong was named the opening MVC Newcomer of the Week in the conference, after he averaged 18.0 points per game over the two games for the Redbirds, which was tied for the second-highest scoring average in the MVC through the opening weekend. He made 11-of-25 shots over the two games, a percentage of 44.0, and converted on 6-of-13 (46.2%) from long range. He ended the week a perfect 8-of-8 from the free throw line, ranking 15th in the country in free throw percentage in terms of percentage and number of makes.

LOW JERSEY NUMBERS

In the second game of the series against Valparaiso, Illinois State employed a starting lineup of players whose jersey numbers totaled to 38, which is tied for the eighth-lowest starting lineup combination in head coach Dan Muller's tenure with ISU. The low total came a season ago with a combined jersey total of 23 for a starting lineup. Below are the 10 lowest starting five jersey totals in Dan Muller's tenure with the program.

ILLINOIS STATE HEAD COACH DAN MULLER

Dan Muller, the 2017 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year, has proven his ability to win an MVC championship. Now in his eighth season as head coach of the program, Muller has led the Redbirds to a share of the MVC regular-season title (2017), which was the program's first since he helped ISU win the Valley championship as a player in 1998, three MVC Tournament Championship Game appearances, and three postseason appearances.

Muller was named the 19th men's basketball coach in school history May 8, 2012, and led Illinois State to a better MVC record and higher conference finish during each of his first five seasons. In 2016-17, Muller guided the Redbirds to program bests in MVC wins (17-1, en route to the Valley title), regular-season victories (25) and overall triumphs (28).

Through his first seven seasons, Muller amassed a 149-117 record and coached the Redbirds to four victories over Top-25 programs, three postseason appearances (2017 National Invitation Tournament, 2015 NIT and 2014 College Basketball Invitational), four postseason wins, and victories against the Big Ten, the BIG EAST, the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and the American Athletic Conference. Muller is the first coach in Illinois State basketball history to beat four Top-25 teams in his first four seasons, and his four Top-25 victories are also tied for the most ever recorded by a Redbird head coach.

Muller has guided ISU student-athletes to 15 All-Missouri Valley Conference selections (four first team, eight second team and three honorable mention), six MVC All-Defensive accolades, five MVC All-Newcomer honors and one MVC All-Freshman accolade.

The 2018-19 season saw the Redbirds never dip below .500 during the season despite playing one of its most challenging home schedules in recent memory with Florida Gulf Coast, BYU, San Diego State, and Ole Miss all making trips to Redbird Arena during the season. For their efforts Phil Fayne (first team) and Milik Yarbrough (second team) were named to the All-Conference and All-Region squads.

In 2017-18 the Redbirds battled injuries all season and had just one player appear in every game. The team's 18-15 record was deceiving; however, as it included wins over the SEC's South Carolina and Ole Miss, and the American Athletic Conference's Tulsa (twice). Muller helped coach junior guard/forward to MVC Newcomer of the Year honors and a spot on the All-Conference First Team, as the team battled its way to the championship game of the MVC Tournament.

The 2016-17 Illinois State men's basketball program teamed up to win a share of the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship while setting program records in total victories (28), regular-season wins (25) and MVC triumphs (17). After finishing second at the State Farm MVC Tournament, ISU earned a No. 1 seed in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). The Redbirds won their NIT first-round matchup before bowing out in the second round.

As a fourth-year coach (2015-16), Muller and the Redbirds faced one of the toughest non-conference schedules in program history, ranked No. 7 in the nation at the end of the regular season, according to the Collegiate Basketball News Report. The Redbirds finished the 2015-16 campaign with an 18-14 overall record and tied for second place with a 12-6 mark in the Missouri Valley Conference, signifying ISU's highest league finish and most conference wins since 2007-08. Illinois State's upset victory over No. 21 Wichita State (Feb. 6) on Doug Collins Court at Redbird Arena marked Muller's fourth Top-25 win in as many seasons.

Illinois State's individual accolades in 2015-16 included: DeVaughn Akoon-Purcell: All-MVC Second Team; Paris Lee: MVC Honorable Mention Team, All-Defensive Team; MiKyle McIntosh: MVC Honorable Mention Team, Most-Improved

Team (team captain); Nick Banyard: All-Bench Team; Justin McCloud: MVC Scholar-Athlete Second Team.

In his third season with the Redbirds (2014-15), Muller guided ISU to a 22-13 overall record, marking ISU's most victories since 2009-10. Illinois State tied for third place in the Missouri Valley Conference with an 11-7 mark. As the MVC Tournament's fourth seed, the Redbirds upset No. 8 Wichita State in the semifinals, marking a Redbird win over ISU's highest ranked opponent since 1978. Illinois State also became just the second MVC team to beat Wichita State in more than two years.

After falling to No. 11 Northern Iowa in the tournament championship game, the Redbirds earned an at-large bid to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) for the 13th time in program history. Fourth-seeded ISU advanced to the NIT second round by beating fifth-seeded Green Bay at home (March 18).

Along with Illinois State's team success, ISU earned seven individual MVC honors under Muller's guidance: Akoon-Purcell: Newcomer of the Year, All-Newcomer Team; Daishon Knight: All-MVC Second Team; Reggie Lynch: All-MVC Second Team, All-Defensive Team; Lee: All-Defensive Team; Bobby Hunter: All-Bench Team. Knight and Lynch were additionally named to the MVC All-Tournament Team. The Redbirds also excelled in the classroom, establishing a team grade-point average record in the fall of 2014 with a 2.99 GPA, breaking the previous mark by 0.13 points.

During his second season as Illinois State's head coach (2013-14), Muller was charged with leading the most inexperienced team in NCAA Division I basketball. With just two-and-a-half years of returning experience, Muller guided ISU to another 18-win season, including marquee victories over a Top-25 program (vs. No. 25 Dayton, Dec. 7), a Big Ten team (at Northwestern, Nov. 17), a BIG EAST opponent (vs. DePaul, Dec. 22) and an SEC foe (vs. Texas A&M, March 24). ISU had never before earned wins against the Big Ten, the BIG EAST and the SEC in the same season.

The Redbirds also tied for fourth place in the final Missouri Valley Conference standings, with a 9-9 record. Illinois State played particularly well on Doug Collins Court at Redbird Arena, where the Redbirds went 14-3 with a dominant 8-1 record against Valley foes. ISU advanced to the postseason by earning a spot in the 16-team College Basketball Invitational (CBI) field. Muller led the Redbirds to two victories in the CBI which tied for the most-ever postseason wins by an ISU team.

Under Muller's guidance, newcomers Knight and Lynch both earned All-MVC accolades, as Knight was named to the All-MVC Honorable Mention Team and the All-Newcomer Team, while Lynch was placed on the All-Newcomer Team and the All-Freshman Team. Nick Zeisloft was also named to the MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team in 2013-14.

In his first year at Illinois State (2012-13), Muller led the Redbirds to an 18-win season, with at least one victory against eight of the Missouri Valley Conference's nine opponents. Muller also guided ISU to the Valley Tournament semifinals.

During the regular season, Illinois State earned a marquee win at No. 16 Creighton, 75-72, in front of a sellout crowd of 18,494 at CentryLink Center Omaha. The Bluejays went on to win the Valley regular-season and tournament titles. The victory was ISU's first over a nationally ranked team on the road since topping No. 17 Tulsa in 1985.

Under Muller's tutelage, ISU was awarded two All-Missouri Valley Conference selections for the first time since 2010, as senior forward Jackie Carmichael received All-MVC

ILLINOIS STATE HEAD COACH DAN MULLER

First Team recognition, and senior guard Tyler Brown garnered All-MVC Second Team accolades. Additionally, Carmichael earned All-MVC Tournament and All-Defensive Team honors, and he was named to the 2013 Lou Henson (mid-major) All-America Team. Muller also helped sophomore guard Johnny Hill land a spot on the MVC Most-Improved Team.

For Muller's first-year efforts, he was named one of 10 national finalists for the 2013 Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I college basketball.

Before becoming Illinois State's leader, Muller spent 12 years as an assistant coach at Vanderbilt. Under former Illinois State head coach Kevin Stallings, Muller was regarded as one of the top assistant coaches in the country. As Vanderbilt's recruiting coordinator, Muller spearheaded the program's recruiting efforts beginning in 2006, which were the highest-rated recruiting classes in the history of the program.

Since 2006, the Vanderbilt men's basketball program signed six four-star recruits and Rivals 150 Prospects, in addition to five-star recruit John Jenkins in 2009, the nation's leading high school scorer and a PARADE and Reebok All-American.

During Muller's tenure, Vanderbilt had 18 players named to the All-Southeastern Conference First and Second teams and a player named to the All-SEC Defensive Team three consecutive years (2010, 2011 and 2012).

Once Muller joined the Vanderbilt staff in 2000, the staff and team accomplished seven 20-win seasons. Starting in 2003, Vanderbilt was recognized nationally as a Top-25 team in the Associated Press Poll for a total of 51 weeks. In 2007-08, Vanderbilt was ranked in the AP Top-25 for the most consecutive weeks in school history.

Muller's efforts, both on and off the court, helped propel the Commodores to the 2012 SEC Tournament Championship, the Commodores' first league tournament title since 1951. In addition, Vanderbilt appeared in six NCAA Tournaments, including five in the last six seasons, and posted two Sweet 16 appearances during Muller's tenure.

Along with his recruiting, scouting and on-court responsibilities, Muller directed the student-athletes' academic progress. During that time, Vanderbilt collected a 100 percent senior graduation rate and one of the highest APR's in NCAA Division I college basketball.

As a player, Muller guided Illinois State to two regular-season and Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championships and four postseason appearances, including trips to the NCAA Tournament in his final two seasons (1997 and 1998).

Muller ranks 11th in career scoring with 1,445 points, while leading the Redbirds to a 91-37 overall record, and he still owns the school record with 128-consecutive starts (every game of his career). Muller was also a two-time MVC Defensive Player of the Year and was named the MVP of the Valley Tournament as a senior. In 2009, he was inducted into the Illinois State Athletics Percy Family Hall of Fame.

Off the court, Muller was just as successful. He was a two-time GTE Academic All-American and a recipient of the NCAA's Post-Graduate Scholarship. He also was named a Bone Scholar, the highest academic honor at ISU, and he is the only men's basketball student-athlete to earn the award.

After playing for the Redbirds, the Lafayette, Indiana, native spent two years playing professionally, including a stint with the NBA's Vancouver Grizzlies.

Muller is a 1998 graduate of Illinois State and graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in organizational leadership. He later earned his master's in business administration from Florida in 2003. He is married to Melissa Muller and has one stepson, Sib.
