QUICK HITTERS

• On Sunday, February 13, former Illinois State head coach Dan Muller was notified that he would not return as head coach following this current season but elected to continue to coach the team through the remainder of the 2021-22 season. One day later, he stepped down and handed the reigns of the team over to former Associate Head Coach Brian Jones.

• Interim head coach Brian Jones is a graduate of Northern Iowa (1994) and spent 14 seasons as head coach at the University of North Dakota.

• Twice this season Illinois State had rallied from deficits of at least 16 points, including a 20-point deficit against Bradley on January 16 and most recently a 16-point deficit against Valparaiso on February 9.

• ISU has played in six overtime games this season, which is tied for the most in the country, alongside UT Arlington and Valparaiso. The six overtime games are also tied for the second-most in a season in program history. The NCAA record for overtime games in a season is eight.

• In Illinois State's one-point overtime loss to Drake there were 23 lead changes, which is tied for the most in an ISU game since the 2003-04 season, and the 22 times the score was tied during that same span is the highest during that same time frame.

• This season Illinois State players have blocked 132 shots, which is the sixth-highest single-season total in program history.

• According to the statistical analysis site KenPom, Illinois State has two of its games that rank in the top-11 for most exciting games this season.

• Kendall Lewis is one of 18 student-athletes in the country to have at least 28 blocks and 28 steals this season. He is one of just five players in the MVC with at least 20 steals and 20 blocked shots.

• Josiah Strong (72) and Antonio Reeves (66) have combined to make 138 three-point field goals this year, which is tied for the fifth-highest two-person total in school history.

• Antonio Reeves' 15 20+ point games are tied for the seventh-most in the country this season and tied for 11th-most in program history.

• Illinois State, which has Josiah Strong with 72 made three-point baskets and Antonio Reeves with 66, is one of just two schools in NCAA Division I that has two players with at least 66 made three-point baskets on the season, alongside Syracuse.

SCOUTING THE BRAVES

Bradley comes into the Saturday afternoon rivalry game after having its three-game win streak snapped at Southern Illinois on Tuesday night by a 65-57 final score.

In the loss, the Braves had two players reach double-figure scoring, led by 11 points from Terry Roberts and 10 from Rien Mast. Two others - Ville Tahvanainen and Connor Hickman - each had two points. Mast narrowly missed a double-double as he added nine rebounds, while Mikey Howell, the reigning MVC Newcomer of the Week, dished out a game-high four of the Braves' eight assists in the eight-point loss.

Roberts and Mast lead the team's most recently active players in scoring, as Roberts averages 14.9 points and Mast 11.2. Bradley forward Ja'Shon Henry averages 10.4 points per game but has missed the team's most recent nine games with injury. Newcomer Malevy Leons is near the double-figure plateau, averaging 9.7 points per game.

Mast's 227 rebounds (8.4 per game) lead the team, as does Roberts' 114 assists and 41 steals. Leons leads the team with 30 blocked shots, as the Braves have 128 blocked shots as a team this season.

DON'T CALL IT A COMEBACK

Or do call it a comeback, we're just taking the advice of LL Cool J from the 1990 song Mama Said Knock You Out. In Illinois State's 1-74 rivalry win against Bradley the Redbirds found themselves trailing 35-15 with 6:24 to play in the first half. The team turned it around, running off a 42-14 run over the next 19:13 of gameplay time, turning the 20-point deficit into an eight-point lead. The recovery from a 20-point deficit was the second time in ISU history that a team has rallied from such a deficit, with the largest margin was a 21-point deficit against Butler on November 27, 1989. The Redbirds picked up their second top-10 comeback this season when ISU trailed by 16 in the second half before rallying for the overtime win over Valparaiso.

The comeback against Bradley was also the eighth time an MVC school rallied from 20+ points down, with three of those eight largest comebacks coming against the Braves.

SEASON BLOCKS RECORD

With 132 blocked shots this season and at least five more games to play on the year, this season's Redbird squad is on pace to etch its name into the school record books for the most blocked shots in a season in program history. The school record was set during the 2016-17 season with 171 blocked shots.

DEFENSIVE 20-20 CLUB

Illinois State forward Kendall Lewis is one of five members of the MVC's defensive 20-20 club, and is joined by Valparaiso's Sheldon Edwards, Missouri State's Gaige Prim and Drake's Tremell Murphy and Tucker DeVries, as the only players in the conference with at least 20 blocks and 20 steals. With 28 blocked shots and 28 steals, Lewis is one of just 18 student-athletes in the country - and the only one in the MVC - with at least 28 in each category. He is the first Redbird player since Phil Fayne during the 2018-19 season to be a part of the 20-20 club, as Fayne had 40 blocked shots and 36 steals during that year. He is the 31st Redbird since 1992-93 to be a part of that grouping - one of which includes current Director of Player Personnel Tony Wills from the 2016-17 season.

PAIRING UP FROM DISTANCE

In the history of the collegiate three-point basket (starting in the 1985-86 season), there have been 72 pair of Redbird student-athletes to team up to make a combined 100 three-point baskets in a single season. One of those pairs is ISU guards Josiah Strong (72) and Antonio Reeves (66) who have combined 138 three-point baskets, tied for the fifth by a pair for a single season in program history. The two-person school record is 162 from Champ Oguchi (90) and Osiris Eldridge (72) from the 2008-09 season.

PAIR OF 60'S

Illinois State, which has Josiah Strong with 72 made three-point baskets and Antonio Reeves with 66, is one of just two schools in NCAA Division I that has two players with at least 66 made three-point baskets on the season, joined by Syracuse (as of games played on February 15).

MANY 20'S

This season in 27 games, Illinois State guard Antonio Reeves has scored 20+ points 15 times. That total is tied for the seventh-most such games in the country this season, and is the 14th-most in a season in school history.

EXCITING GAMES

The stat analysis website KenPom has a listing of the season's most exciting games based on categories including excitement, tension, and dominance, and have 100 games ranked this season. The Redbirds have two games inside of the top-11 in the metric, and three inside of the top-52. Illinois State's overtime win over Bucknell on November 20 is rated the top game in terms of excitement, while the team's recent overtime loss against Drake on January 26 is rated as the 11th-most exciting game in the country this season.

EXTRA TIME

This season across NCAA Division I basketball there have been 236 games that have needed at least one extra period. Illinois State has taken part in six of those games, tied the most in the country this season alongside Valparaiso and UT Arlington. Including ISU's double-overtime game against Eastern Michigan, the Redbirds have played in seven overtime periods, which is tied for the third-most this season, alongside Eastern Michigan and trailing only Valparaiso and UT Arlington's eight overtime periods. (as of games played on Feb. 15).

FUN TEAM COMBINATION

Against Drake on Wednesday, January 26, the Redbirds got 25 points from Antonio Reeves, 11 rebounds from Kendall Lewis, and 10 assists from Mark Freeman. ISU has had just seven games since the 1980-81 season where the Redbirds had three different individuals accumulate 25 points, 10 rebounds, and 10 assists. The last time that mark has been hit by ISU was on March 14, 2012 when Tyler Brown scored 26 points, Jackie Carmichael pulled down 10 rebounds, and Nic Moore dished out 10 assists against Ole Miss.

STRONG RECOVERY

Against UNI on January 29, Illinois State's Josiah Strong had his worst collegiate shooting game from long distance, going 0-9 against the Panthers. The incredible part was his recovery, as he came back the next game and made 3-of-6 from beyond the arc against Loyola on February 2. Over the last two seasons just four players in NCAA Division I have had a similar shooting and a game later recovered with at least three three-pointers, while making at least half of their attempts.

HIGH PERCENTAGE

Against Evansville on Friday, January 21, Illinois State converted on 70.2 percent of its field goal tries, which is the second-highest single-game percentage in school history, behind only the NCAA-record 84.3 percent a season ago against NCAA Division III Greenville. It is the best mark in program history against a NCAA Division I opponent, and the first time since February 27 of last season that a NCAA Division I school made at least 70 percent of its field goals against another Division I school. Since 2010-11, 67 Division I schools have made at least 70 percent of its field goals in a game, just 41 of those coming against Division I schools.

BIG MARGIN

With Illinois State's 38-point win against Evansville, it was ISU's largest win in a conference game since the school topped Indiana State by 43 on January 16, 1997. It is tied for the 46th-largest win margin in MVC history. The last time an MVC school won by at least 38 points was on February 16, 2008 when Missouri State topped Evansville 73-38 - also by 38 points. It is also the largest margin of victory in the entire Illinois State / Evansville series, topping the previous high mark of 31 in an Evansville win on February 11, 2004.

FREE OF FOULING

Twice this season - against Purdue Northwest on Nov. 27 and against Evansville on Jan. 21, the Illinois State Redbirds were whistled for seven and eight fouls, respectively, which are tied for the first- and third-lowest single-game foul totals in a game in program history.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

On Monday, January 3, Illinois State forward Sy Chatman was named the MVC Player of the Week, his first collegiate Player of the Week honor. On the week, Chatman averaged 22.5 points and 6.5 rebounds per game, making 62 percent of his shots from the field and 76.5 percent of his free throw tries. He scored 22 points at nationally ranked Wisconsin and followed that with 23 points against Valparaiso.

LOW TURNOVERS

When Illinois State gave away just five turnovers against Evansville on January 21, it marked a tie for the fifth-fewest turnovers in a game in school history, and the lowest total since the school committed four turnovers against Drake on January 3, 2016. It is also tied for 43rd in the NCAA this season for fewest turnovers in a game.

SPECIAL GAME STATS

Against UTSA, Illinois State guard Antonio Reeves scored 21 points with a career-high 10 rebounds for his first collegiate double-double. He also gave out four assists while making three three-point baskets. That stat line has only been duplicated by 12 other players in NCAA Division I this season, with 10 others doing it against a NCAA Division I foe.

NOT FROM AROUND HERE

The first Redbird student-athlete to come from outside of the United States was Roy Herald, a native of Finland, that played for Illinois State from 1977 through 1981. Since then, 17 foreign-native student-athletes have played for the Redbirds. This season's team has four foreign-born student-athletes, tied for the most on a single team in program history. Last season ISU also had four players from outside of the United States, and the previous high mark for foreign players was three, set three times, the first in 1996-97, along with 2012-13 and 2013-14.

BIG SCORING OFF THE BENCH

Against Chicago State on December 11, Illinois State guard Josiah Strong came off the bench to score a career-high 26 points, including making 6-of-8 three-point shots in the contest. Strong's point total is tied for the 10th-most points in a reserve role for Illinois State since 1976-77. He is also one of 20 student-athletes in the country this season to have scored at least 26 points as a non-starter - led by Elon's Torrence Watson who scored 34 points off the bench against High Point on December 4.

SPECIAL GAME

With his game of 34 points, seven rebounds, and seven assists against Bucknell on Nov. 20., Illinois State junior guard Mark Freeman is one of just three players this season, and 41 players since 2010-11 to put up similar numbers, and just one of 30 to do it while committing four or fewer turnovers in the same game. Among the notable other student-athletes to accomplish the feat include Buddy Hield, Trae Young, Ben Simmons, and Ja Morant.

BACK-TO-BACK WIRE-TO-WIRE WINS

Against both Quincy and Ball State, Illinois State did not trail at any point in either of the two games. Since the 1996-97 season, ISU has had 10 pairs of games, back-to-back, where the Redbirds have not trailed. The last time Illinois State has had three consecutive such games was during the 1996-97 season against Northwestern (Dec. 18), Green Bay (Dec. 21), and UIIC (Dec. 23). ISU's streak was snapped early in the contest against UTSA on Dec. 21.

TALL TEAM

With the team having seven players standing 6-8 or taller, this Illinois State squad has the fifth-biggest average height of any team in program history with an average height of nearly 6-6, this years' team trails the tallest two teams (1976-77 and 1987-88) by just over 1/10 of an inch per player. Below are the top-10 tallest and shortest Illinois State teams since 1962-63.

MAKING OVER HALF

Over a three game span earlier this season Illinois State had made at least half of their shots. By shooting 50% or better over each of those three games, it was just the 12th time since 1990-91 that a Redbird team hit over half of their shots in a game for three straight games. During that span, the longest streak was six games held by the 2012-13 squad.

CALLING FOWL IN THE NON-CONFERENCE

During the 2021-22 season, in 13 non-conference games, Illinois State will face off against five schools with bird mascots, and no two doubling up. So far, ISU has faced a Seahawk (UNCW), Eagle (Eastern Michigan), and Hawk (Quincy), with Ball State (Cardinal) and UTSA (Roadrunner) ahead on the schedule. The Redbirds also face off against three jungle cats (Pride of Purdue Northwest, Tigers of Jackson State, and Cougars of Chicago State), three forms of cattle (Racers of Murray State, Bison of Bucknell and Bulls of Buffalo) a Badger (Wisconsin) and whatever the heck a Billiken (Saint Louis) is.

CONSECUTIVE DOUBLE-FIGURE GAMES

This season, Illinois State guard Antonio Reeves opened the season with 17 consecutive games scoring in double figures before being held to nine against Missouri State on Jan. 19. That streak ends as the 13th-longest single-season streak in program history, ahead of Bubbles Hawkins and immediately chasing the 20 consecutive double-figure games from DeV Vaughn Akoon-Purcell in 2015-16. The single-season record is 30, held by Derrick Mayes for the full 1978-79 season. Seven times a Redbird student-athlete has scored in double-figures for an entire season, including all three seasons of Doug Collins' career.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Doug Collins Court at Redbird Arena has turned itself into one of the most difficult places to play in the Missouri Valley Conference. Over the last 10 seasons, the Redbirds have an 110-43 record at home, including a 16-1 mark during the 2016-17 season.

NON-STATE, STATE SCHOOLS

There are 358 NCAA Division I schools (including the transitional schools) playing basketball this season. Of those schools, 67 have "State" in its name. Of that 67, 31 are direct state schools (ie, Illinois State), while five others have the state in their name, but with a descriptor (Central Connecticut, East Tennessee, Southeast Missouri). The remainder of the schools - 31 total - have no direct state reference in its name (Boise State, Wichita State, etc.) but use State in the name. Of that group, Illinois State will face off against four such schools in the non-conference season: Murray, Jackson, Chicago, and Ball.

LOW JERSEY NUMBERS

Opening the 2021-22 season against UNCW, Illinois State used a starting lineup combination whose jersey numbers added to 37, which is tied for the eighth-lowest starting lineup jersey combination over the last 10 seasons. The low total came during the 2019-20 season when the team started jersey numbers 0, 2, 3, 5, and 13.

UNUSUAL COMBINATION

With his opening-night game with 29 points, five three-point baskets, and three blocked shots, Illinois State junior guard Antonio Reeves became just the 38th player in NCAA Division I since the 2010-11 season to record those numbers in a single game, and the only one to do it on opening night. This season there are just two other student-athletes to put up a similar stat line: Keegan Murray of Iowa and E.J. Liddell of Ohio State.

BIG BOARDING

With 10 rebounds in the season opener against UNCW, followed by another 13 in the second game of the season against Eastern Michigan, Illinois State forward Sy Chatman has started himself on a trajectory alongside some of the top rebounders in program history.

BIG MILESTONES

Last season in Illinois State's win over Greenville, the program set numerous school, conference, and arena records. Among the school records set include: Points in a game, points in the first half, points in the second half, scoring margin, field goals made, field goal percentage, and assists. The MVC records set include: Points in a game, combined points, field goals made, field goal percentage in a game, and assists, while the Redbird Arena records that were erased include points (previous mark was 105), points in first half, points in second half, scoring margin, field goals made, field goal percentage, rebound margin, assists, and the second-most field goals attempted and rebounds.
