THE GAME

For the first time in five season, Illinois State is back in the postseason as the No. 12 seeded Redbirds (9-3, 6-2 MVFC) head to Cape Girardeau, Missouri, to face off against Big South-OVC co-champion Southeast Missouri State (9-3, 6-2 Big South-OVC) in the first round of the 2024 FCS Playoffs at Houck Stadium.

THE SERIES

Illinois State and Southeast Missouri State will meet for the 12th time in the series history which dates back to 1943. Illinois State leads the all-time series 8-3, but the Redbirds and Redhawks have only played twice since 2001 with the two team splitting those contests. The Redhawks picked up a win 38-33 win at Hancock Stadium in 2001 and the Redbirds took the most recent matchup in 2019 in the first round of the FCS Playoffs by a score of 24-6 in Cape Girardeau.

THE COACHES

Illinois State: Brock Spack (Purdue, 1983) is in his 16th season as the head coach at Illinois State (110-73). Spack guided the Redbirds to back-to-back shares of the MVFC title in 2014-15 and an appearance in the 2014 FCS Championship game. He has led the ISU to six playoff appearances overall and became the program's all-time wins leader in 2021.

Southeast Missouri State: Tom Matukewicz (Fort Hays State, 1997) is in his 11th season as the head coach at SEMO (63-62). Matukewicz has guided his teams to three Big South-OVC titles (2019, 2022, 2024), four NCAA Football Championship Subdivision Playoff appearances (2018, 2019, 2022, 2024) and the school's only FCS Playoff win (2018).

REDBIRDS IN THE POSTSEASON

- 9 FCS playoff appearances (1998, 1999, 2006, 2012, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2019, 2024)
- 6-time FCS quarterfinalists (1999, 2006, 2012, 2014, 2015, 2019)
- 2-time FCS semifinalists (1999, 2014)
- 1-time FCS Championship game qualifier (2014)

CLEAR BAG POLICY

The Illinois State Athletics Department will continue its clear bag safety policy for fans and patrons attending games at Hancock Stadium during the 2024 season. Ensuring the safety of Redbird fans and guests is a top priority for ISU Athletics. Media members MAY STILL BRING IN BAGS, however they MUST check in at the designated GATE 5 media entrance on game day and have their bag checked and tagged.

REDBIRD SPORTS NETWORK

WJBC (AM 1230, FM 102.1), the flagship station of Illinois State athletics, will serve as the host of the Redbird Sports Network.

- WJBC AM 1230, FM 102.1, FM 93.7 NASH ICON (BLOOMINGTON-NORMAL)
- THE VARSITY NETWORK (ONLINE AND VIA APP)

REQUESTING CREDENTIALS

Credentials (game and parking) can be obtained by contacting the Athletics Communications Office, Campus Box 7130, Normal, IL, 61790-7130. Requests must be received by email at least two days prior to the game. Passes that are not mailed will be available at the Will Call table at Gate 5 approximately 60 minutes prior to kickoff.

PRACTICE PROCEDURES

Most practices are open to the media, but only the first hour is available to photographers/videographers. For all other media, it is recommended that an advance call be made to the athletics communications office to check on the status of practice for a particular day.

REGULAR-SEASON INTERVIEW POLICIES

- Head Coach: Brock Spack will do general interviews following practice Tuesday-Thursday on field or by phone or Zoom. All other requests for interviews must be submitted to the athletics communications office at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled interview.
- Assistant Coaches: Arrangements should be made through the athletics communication office. Most interviews will be conducted after practice Tuesday-Thursday.
- Players: All interviews with players will take place after practice Tuesday and Wednesday. Media should request players at least 24 hours in advance.
- Postgame: The Illinois State locker room is closed at all times. Head coach Brock Spack and requested players will be made available in person or via Zoom.

POST GAME INTERVIEW PROCEDURES

Interviews with coaches or student-athletes will be permitted following contests. All interviews will be arranged to through the athletics communications office and will be conducted on field, in a designated press area or via Zoom.

THIS WEEK'S OPPONENT

- Southeast Missouri State University is located in Cape Girardeau, Missouri, and has an enrollment of 8,454. The Redhawks are members of the Big South-OVC and play their home games at Houck Field (8,000).
- SEMO is in the FCS Playoffs for the fifth time in program history and for the fourth time since 2018. They are one of three Big South-OVC programs in the bracket, joined by Tennessee State and UT Martin giving the league three teams in the playoffs for the first time since 2013.
- The Redhawks finished the regular-season in a four-way share with Tennessee State, UT Martin and Tennessee Tech for the Big South-Ohio Valley Conference Association title. SEMO clinched the automatic berth by way of its 2-1 composite record which included wins over both UT Martin and Tennessee Tech.
- Southeast Missouri went undefeated at home during the regular-season for the third time under Head Coach Tom Matukewicz. The Redhawks picked up their ninth win when they defeated Western Illinois, 54-45, on Nov. 16.
- Quarterback Paxton DeLaurent has broken four SEMO single-season records in 2024 and needs one more passing touchdown to break his fifth single-season mark. DeLaurent has 29 touchdown passes through 12 games and also set new single-season marks in passing yards (3,520), completions (320), pass attempts (533) and total offense yardage (3,616).

LAST TIME AGAINST THE REDHAWKS (NOV. 30, 2019)

All-American tailback James Robinson proved why was one of the best in the country, as he ran for a school-record 297 yards and a touchdown as the No. 13 ranked Redbirds ran away with a 24-6 win over No. 12 Southeast Missouri at Houck Field Saturday in the first round of the FCS playoffs. The 297 yards also set a Redbird and Missouri Valley Football Conference record for most rushing yards in a playoff contest. Devin Taylor's interception in the third quarter was his team-leading fourth of the season and Charles Woods led the way for the Redbird defense with six tackles, two pass breakups and his third interception of the year.

RETURN TO THE POSTSEASON

For the first time since 2019, Illinois State was selected as to participate in the 24-team FCS Playoff field as the No. 12 overall seed. The Redbirds will be making their ninth appearance in the FCS playoffs (1998, 1999, 2006, 2012, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2019, 2024) and sixth under the leadership of head coach Brock Spack. ISU is 10-8 all-time in playoff games and will be making its first appearance in the FCS playoffs in five seasons. During that 2019 run to the FCS Quarterfinals, the Redbirds also began the playoffs with a road contest at SEMO which the Redbirds won 24-6 thanks to a record-breaking performance by James Robinson.

ROAD WARRIORS

Illinois State has overcome a lot of adversity in 2024 on way to eight wins, with devastating injuries and struggles at time at home. However one place the Redbirds have felt very comfortable has been on the road, where ISU boasts a 5-1 record with five-straight wins over FCS opponents during the regular season. The lone road setback was in the season opener at Iowa, before the Redbirds ripped off wins at North Alabama, Southern Illinois, Murray State, Northern Iowa and Indiana State. The last time the Redbirds picked up five wins on the road during the regular season came in 2012, when they picked up wins at Eastern Michigan, Western Illinois, South Dakota, Northern Iowa and Indiana State before earning a win in the playoffs at Appalachian State and eventually falling in the quarterfinals at Eastern Washington.

THAT'S A TON OF YARDS

With his 156 yards receiving against Indiana State, wide receiver Daniel Sobkowicz moved past the 2,000 career yards receiving mark and now has 2,171 in his stellar career thus far. That puts him in seventh place overall on the ISU career receiving yards list, just 75 yards behind Eyad Salem (2,246) in sixth place. He is also just 139 yards away from 1,000 this season, which would make him the first Redbird to eclipse that mark since 2016 (Anthony Warrum, 1,031).

THE BROCK SPACK FILE

When Brock Spack was named the 20th head coach in Illinois State football history prior to the 2009 season, it also signaled the beginning of an entirely new belief system for Illinois State. Since that time, the Redbirds have posted 13 seasons with .500 or better campaigns, including a 13-2 record in 2014 on way to the FCS National Championship game. Spack guided the Redbirds to three-straight playoff appearances from 2014-16 and has led the Redbirds to six playoff appearances overall. With his win at Missouri State on Nov. 4, 2023, Spack recorded his 100th at Illinois State making him just the fourth coach in MVFC history with 100 or more wins at a league school.

STATS PERFORM NATIONAL HONORS

■ Brock Spack - Eddie Robinson Award Finalist

SPACK AMONG THE BEST

For the third time in his career at Illinois State, head coach Brock Spack was named a finalist for the Stats Perform Eddie Robinson Award which is presented annually to the national coach of the year in Division I FCS college football. One of 15 national finalists for 2024, Spack was also up for the honor in 2012 and 2014 after playoff seasons. Spack led the Redbirds to a 9-3 overall record in 2024 and a 6-2 mark in Missouri Valley Football Conference play, which earned his squad the No. 12 national seed in the FCS Playoffs.

THE X FACTOR

The Illinois State passing game has featured a heavy 1-2 punch in the form of Xavier Loyd and Daniel Sobkowicz in 2024. In his first season with the Redbirds since transferring from Kansas State, Loyd ranks second on the team and fifth in the MVFC with 853 yards (14.2 per reception) on 60 receptions and ranks top 7 in the league in yards, touchdowns and receptions. At Indiana State, he caught nearly everything thrown his way with 13 receptions against the Sycamores, one catch shy of the school single-game mark of 14. He and Sobkowicz are the only duo to both rank in the top 7 in the MVFC in receptions, yards and receiving touchdowns as they form the best receiving duo in the league.

THE WRIGHT STUFF

Running back Wenkers Wright recorded three-straight 100-yard rushing performances during the non-conference portion of the schedule but had been held under the century mark through four MVFC games. However, he got back to dominant ways in the month of November, as he eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark in three of his last four games. Wright tallied 104 yards on just 10 carries against Youngstown State and followed that up with a 109 yard effort in a win at UNI. He capped off the regular season with 118 yards in the win over North Dakota, which put him over the 1,000 yard mark on the season for the first time in his career. On the year, he leads the team with 1,035 yards and 10 touchdowns which gives him the first 1,000 plus yard season since 2019 when James Robinson went for 1,899. He is also just 73 yards shy of the 2,000 yard mark for his career, which would make him just the 13th player in school history to achieve that mark.

TOMMY TIME

With just five starting assignments under his belt heading into 2024, quarterback Tommy Rittenhouse was not sure if he would be the full-time starter in his third season with the Redbirds. However, he took that role early and played well but has caught absolute fire during ISU's five-game winning streak. In the past four contests, Rittenhouse has completed 71 percent of his passes (114-for-160) while averaging 251.4 yards passing per game with seven touchdown passes and a pair of 300-plus yard passing performances. He has also averaged 35 yards per game on the ground and has scored four rushing touchdowns during that stretch.

A LONG TIME COMING

When All-American linebacker Amir Abdullah was injured in Illinois State's season opener at Iowa, many feared the worst and thought the Redbirds' elite pass rusher was done for the season. Thankfully the leg injury was not season ending, but it did force Abdullah to miss seven games and eight total weeks including last week's bye before he was finally able to return to the field against Youngstown State. He has wasted little in making a big impact for the Redbird defense, as he has recorded 15 total tackles (9 solo), 3.5 sacks, 6.0 TFLs and a pass breakup in four starts and wins for ISU. No doubt he has been instrumental in ISU giving up an average of 14.25 points in the last four victories, while the defense has averaged three sacks and six tackles for loss.

FRESHMAN OPENING EYES

Freshman tailback Matt Lawson had his best day as a Redbird, as he helped lead ISU to a 31-9 victory at UNI. The Hoffman Estates, Illinois, native rushed for a career-high 84 yards and scored his third touchdown of the year in the win over the Panthers. Lawson now ranks third on the team with 411 yards rushing and three scores, while averaging nearly 4.7 yards per carry.

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

Illinois State sophomore middle linebacker Tye Niekamp played one of his best games of the season in Illinois State's regular season finale win over North Dakota, and for his efforts was named the Missouri Valley Football Conference Defensive Player of the Week for the second time this season. Niekamp paced the Illinois State defense in its dominant 35-13 win over the Fighting Hawks on Senior Day. The Normal, Illinois, native led the team with 10 tackles while adding a sack and three pass breakups in the victory. On the season, Niekamp leads the Redbirds and ranks second in the MVFC in tackles with 99 (42 solo). He is also ranked fourth in the league in tackles for loss with 10.5, has added 2.5 sacks and is tied for the team and league-lead in interceptions with three on the year.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

Three times in 2023, the Redbirds offense eclipsed 500 yards or more of total offense in a resurgent year on that side of the football. Through 11 games in 2024, the Redbirds have eclipsed that mark three times with one game to play. However, ISU's offensive output at Murray State was one for the record books with 633 yards of total offense, the fifth highest mark in school history. It was a balanced effort for the Redbirds, with 386 yards passing and 247 yards rushing as attempts were split at 40 and 42, respectively. Illinois State's 633 yards of total offense just moved past the 632 yards recorded at Northern Iowa on October 10, 1998, to crack the top five all time, and it marked the first 600-plus yard effort for ISU since Nov. 22, 2014, when the Redbirds put up 604 at Southern Illinois. It is also the most total yards for a Brock Spack led team, topping the previous high of 622 set on Sept. 6, 2014, in a win over Mississippi Valley State.

FCS STATE TITLE SECURED

One of Illinois State's preseason goals was to win the state title against the other three FCS schools from the Land of Lincoln on the schedule. After securing wins at home in back-to-back weeks against Western Illinois and Eastern Illinois in non-conference action, the Redbirds headed to Carbondale to take on No. 19 ranked Southern Illinois, who ISU had not defeated since 2019. Thanks to a dominant 45-10 win, ISU was able to go 3-0 against its in-state FCS foes for the first time since 2019, which also happened to be the last year the Redbirds made the FCS playoffs. There seems to be a bit of a correlation with the Redbirds going 3-0 against SIU, WIU and EIU and making the playoffs, as they also picked up the sweep in 2014 and 2015 on way to back-to-back MVFC titles and playoff appearances.

BIG PLAY OFFENSE

The Illinois State offense had another big day in its 45-10 win over No. 19 Southern Illinois, spreading the ball around while scoring touchdowns in impressive fashion. None of the Redbirds' six touchdowns came cheaply, with each being scored on plays of 20 yards or more. ISU scored on passes of 38, 28 and 20 yards from quarterbacks Tommy Rittenhouse and Jake Rubley and wideout Daniel Sobkowicz, and tallied touchdowns on runs of 36, 29 and 26 yards by Rittenhouse, freshman Matt Lawson and transfer Seth Glatz. In all, six different Redbirds scored touchdowns in the victory and Rittenhouse (1 pass, 1 rush) and Sobkowicz (1 receiving, 1 pass) each accounted for two.

REACHING THE 500 YARD PLATEAU

Three times in 2023, the Redbirds offense eclipsed 500 yards or more of total offense in a resurgent year on that side of the football. It took four games in 2024, but the Redbirds recorded their first 500-plus yard offensive performance of the season with 518 in their 31-7 win over in-state rival Eastern Illinois. It was the first time reaching the 500 yards plateau since Nov. 11, when ISU racked up 510 yards of total offense in a home finale win over Murray State, and the most since Sept. 23 of last season, when the Redbirds had 521 yards in a victory over Lindenwood. The Redbirds have gone on to eclipse that mark three times this season, with a season-best 633 yards at Murray State and 509 yards of total offense in a win at UNI.

NORTHWESTERN ST. 48, ILLINOIS ST. 28

November 28, 1998
Natchitoches, La. • First Round

Attendance: 8,118

GAME SUMMARY

No. 15 seed Illinois State was a team making its first playoff appearance and opened the game as such. No. 2 seed Northwestern State raced to a 21-0 lead before the Redbirds responded. ISU still managed a 502-yard day, but never matched the Demons' speed in surrendering 650 total yards, including 344 on just 12 pass completions. Just one of Northwestern State's seven scoring plays covered less than 29 yards.

ILLINOIS STATE 56, COLGATE 13

November 27, 1999
Normal, Ill. • First Round

GAME SUMMARY

In its first home playoff game, sixth-seeded Illinois State routed Patriot League champion and 11th-seeded Colgate behind speedster Aveion Cason, who racked up 196 all-purpose yards, including 156 rushing, and three touchdowns. ISU scored on five of its first seven possessions and tacked on a couple of special teams TDs, while the visiting Red Raiders had little success penetrating a Redbird defense that racked up four sacks. Illinois State head coach Todd Berry substituted freely throughout the second half.

ILLINOIS STATE 37, HOFSTRA 20

December 4, 1999
Hempstead, N.Y. • Quarterfinals

GAME SUMMARY

Hofstra quarterback Giovanni Carmazzi would later be drafted by the San Francisco 49ers, but on this day he took a back seat to ISU's Dusty Burk. The Redbird freshman was amazing, completing 31-of-37 passes for 350 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He also rushed eight times for 54 yards. A 21-0 second-quarter blitz was too much for the homestanding and the third-seeded Flying Dutchmen, who spent most of the game playing catch-up.

GA. SOUTHERN 28, ILLINOIS ST. 17

December 11, 1999

Statesboro, Ga. • Semifinals

Attendance: 12,299

GAME SUMMARY

Illinois State's first possession resulted in a 12-play, 68-yard touchdown drive, but that would be the last time the Redbirds would lead the top-seeded and eventual national champion Georgia Southern Eagles. It was the 900th game in the history of ISU's program. GSU ripped off 21 unanswered counters before Jake Strader booted a 50-yard field goal for ISU on the last play of the first half. Each team added a second-half touchdown, but Illinois State had little success penetrating Georgia Southern's defense and Walter Payton Award-winner Adrian Peterson helped GSU control the ball by rushing 31 times for 183 yards and three touchdowns.

November 25, 2006

Charleston, Ill. • First Round

Attendance: 4,400

GAME SUMMARY

Jason Tate and Jesse Caesar each returned an interception for a touchdown to lead Illinois State to a 24-13 NCAA Division I Football Championship first round game victory over Eastern Illinois. With 10:48 left in the game, the EIU defense put points on the scoreboard to take the lead. Defensive back Terrance Sanders answered Tate's earlier interception return for a touchdown with one of his own for 87 yards to put the Panthers up 13-10. However, Pierre Rembert would regain the lead for the Redbirds on an 18-yard touchdown run with 2:07 left in the game to make the score 17-13 in favor of ISU. To seal the win, Caesar picked off a Stinson pass and ran it back 45 yards for a touchdown to put the game away at 24-13.

ILLINOIS STATE 38, APPALACHIAN STATE 37 (OT)

Dec. 1, 2012 • Boone, N.C. • Kidd Brewer Stadium
Attendance: 16,719

■ GAME SUMMARY

No. 15 Redbirds Advance, Beat No. 6 Appalachian State in OT
BOONE, N.C. • Shelby Harris' blocked extra-point attempt in overtime sealed No. 15 Illinois State's (9-3) thrilling 38-37 overtime victory over No. 6 Appalachian State (8-4) in second-round action of the FCS playoffs.

Tied 31-31 after regulation, ISU received the ball first and needed only one play to find the end zone in overtime. Quarterback Matt Brown connected with tight end James O'Shaughnessy on a 25-yard completion for the score. The Mountaineers also struck quickly, needing just four plays to answer the Redbird score. Jamal Jackson's four-yard toss to Andrew Peacock made it a one-point game, but Harris blocked Sam Martin's extra point, sealing the 38-37 overtime win.

Brown finished the game 20-for-32 for 322 yards and tied a career-high with five touchdowns passes. Senior wideout Tyrone Walker led the receivers with 10 catches for a season-best 176 yards and two touchdowns. O'Shaughnessy set career-highs with receptions (3), yards (47) and touchdown receptions (2).

Leading 14-10 at halftime, ISU went to the air to get on the board first in the second half. Brown connected with Donovan Harden on a 17-yard touchdown completion, making it 21-10 ISU with 7:33 to go in the third quarter.

The Mountaineers needed just five plays to respond. After missing on his first pass attempt, Jackson connected on his next four, including a 48-yard score to Malachi Jones. The Redbirds responded immediately, as Brown found Walker for a diving 32-yard touchdown catch in the end zone to give Illinois State a 28-17 lead.

After both teams exchanged punts, the Mountaineers had possession on the ISU 46-yard line. Jackson completed each of his pass attempts, including a 44-yard toss to Simms McElfresh that spotted the ball on the Redbirds one yard line. Two plays later, Rod Chisholm dove into the end zone for a one yard score, making it 28-24.

On the ensuing drive, Brown took to the ground and picked up 20 yards on the opening snap. Two plays later, Harden caught a 30-yard toss deep into Appalachian State territory, setting up a 41-yard field goal from Aussieker, making it 31-23.

Illinois State scored first on an eight-play, 83-yard drive that featured three third-and-long completions from Brown to Walker. Facing third-and-six Brown fired to Walker, who dodged two defenders for a 41-yard touchdown play, making it 7-0.

The Mountaineers would tie the game on a 10-play, 69-yard drive that covered 3:46. Jackson threw for 31 yards over two plays, before diving into the end zone on a two-yard keeper to tie the game at 7-7 with 4:15 to go in the opening half.

After forcing a quick three-and-out, Appalachian State threatened and moved the ball into Illinois State territory. Facing fourth-and-one, Evan Frierson tallied the first sack of the game, giving ISU the ball back. Three plays later, Brown found O'Shaughnessy for a nine-yard score, making it 14-7 with 0:44 seconds to go. ASU netted a 37-yard field goal as time expired to make it 14-10 ISU at the break.

■ GAME SUMMARY

Redbirds End Season With Loss at Eastern Washington

CHENEY, Wash. - No. 15 Illinois State (9-4) tallied 520 yards of total offense, but could not erase a 21-point second half deficit, failing to second-seed Eastern Washington (11-2), 51-35, in the FCS quarterfinals in front of a sellout crowd at Roos Field in Cheney, Wash.

Trailing 38-17 with 11:01 to go in the third quarter, the Redbirds rallied for 18 points to cut the deficit to three at 38-35, but Kyle Padron's 76-yard touchdown pass to All-American receiver Brandon Kaufman stifled ISU's second-half rally and sealed the win for the Eagles.

Senior Matt Brown threw for 372 yards on 27-of-48 passing, with two touchdowns and two interceptions, while leading an Illinois State offense that tallied 520 yards of total offense. Tyrone Walker added nine catches for 148 yards with one touchdown and Lechein Neblett had six catches for 101 yards with one score.

Eastern Washington led 24-17 at halftime and added two quick third-quarter scores, as Padron connected with Kaufman on 47 and 17-yard touchdown passes to open the half.

With the Eagles leading 38-17, Clarke forced a Padron fumble, setting up a Nick Aussieker 26-yard field goal to make it 38-20 Eastern Washington. The Redbirds then rallied around a pair of three-and-outs, with Brown finding Neblett for a 22-yard touchdown and then rushing for a 13-yard score to make it 38-35 Eastern Washington with 13:55 to play. Padron then went to the air for the 76 yard touchdown pass to Kaufman to make it 44-35. The Eagles added a 10-yard touchdown pass to Ashton Clark to cap the scoring at 51-35.

Both teams exchanged scores in a fast-paced opening half, that saw points scored on the first six possessions of the game. Aussieker's 23-yard field goal gave ISU an early 3-0 lead, but Padron responded with a 44-yard touchdown pass to Daniel Johnson to give the Eagles a 7-3 advantage. Brown then completed a 40-yard strike to Walker for a 10-7 ISU advantage, before Jimmy Pavel's 20-yard field goal with 2:57 to play in the first quarter squared the game at 10-10.

Josh Burch's 72-yard kickoff return gave ISU field position deep in EWU territory. On third-and-goal from the three, Dunn carried the ball into the end zone for his 13th touchdown of the year, giving ISU at 17-10 lead with 14:29 to play in the opening half. Eastern Washington responded with a four-play, 21-yard drive capped by a Demetrius Bronson one-yard touchdown run to even the game at 17-17 in the second quarter.

The Eagles took advantage of a costly Illinois State turnover to score a touchdown in the closing seconds of the opening half. On third-and-long, Brown completed a pass to James O'Shaughnessy, who carried the ball into the Eastern Washington red zone, before fumbling the ball to the Eagles. Padron facilitated a 12-play, 79-yard drive, capped by a one yard pass to Zack Gehring to give the Eagles a 24-17 lead.

■ GAME SUMMARY

ISU Averages Lone Loss, Defeats UNI In Playoffs, 41-21

NORMAL, Ill. - In a dominating performance, Illinois State quarterback Tre Roberson threw for 382 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Redbirds to a second-round playoff victory against Northern Iowa, 41-21, Saturday afternoon at Hancock Stadium.

After losing to the Panthers on Nov. 1 at the UNI Dome, ISU got its revenge on the only team to defeat them this season. The Redbirds exploded out of the gate with a lightning-quick, 73-yard opening touchdown drive that ended with a 6-yard inside slant pass from Roberson to senior wide receiver Cameron Meredith.

On ISU's second drive, a 28-yard back shoulder throw to freshman wide receiver Jon-Marc Anderson set up a 1-yard plunge from junior running back Marshaun Coprich for his 22nd touchdown of the year to put the Redbirds ahead, 14-0.

Coprich, the Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year, reached the 100-yard plateau for a school-record 12th-consecutive time. With his 148-yard game, he also earned the ISU single-season rushing yard record, passing Pierre Rembert's previous record of 1,743 yards (2006).

The Redbirds scored again on their third drive of the game, after a Roberson quarterback draw set the offense up at the 5-yard line. Roberson tossed another inside slant pass to Meredith from two yards out to complete a 15-play, 87-yard drive that took nearly eight minutes off the clock. Meredith's second touchdown of the game gave him eight receiving touchdowns on the season, and the senior also surpassed the 100-yard mark for the fourth-straight game.

Senior placekicker Nick Aussieker's would-be career long field goal attempt of 51 yards was partially blocked by Xavier Williams midway through the second quarter. The Redbirds drove the field in the last minute of the first half to set up another Aussieker attempt, which he converted from 45 yards out as time expired, and ISU took a 24-0 lead into halftime.

The Panthers started Sawyer Kollmorgen at quarterback in the second half, and he drove UNI down the field for a touchdown on its first drive of the third quarter. A 39-yard Aussieker field goal and a 26-yard touchdown pass from Roberson to senior tight end James O'Shaughnessy extended the Redbird lead, 34-7. However, the Panthers would not go down without a fight, as they wasted no time on an 84-yard drive that took less than three minutes off the clock and ended in a Johnson rushing touchdown. The Panthers recovered an ISU fumble on the ensuing kickoff, and punched in a touchdown three plays later to cut the lead, 34-21.

The Panthers were unable to capitalize on it's final two drives stalled out on a failed fourth down conversion, and an interception by junior defensive end Teddy Corwin. O'Shaughnessy hauled in a 36-yard pass for his second receiving touchdown of the game to conclude the scoring and put him over 100 yards on the day.

Coprigh, Redbirds Defeat EWU In FCS Quarterfinals

CHENEY, Wash. — Marshaun Coprich rushed for a career-high 258 yards and Illinois State piled up 542 yards of total offense en route to a 59-46 victory over Eastern Washington in the FCS quarterfinals.

Following a stop on Eastern Washington's first drive of the game, the Redbirds answered with a 12-play, 66-yard scoring drive that was capped off by a 31-yard field goal off the foot of Nick Ausseiker. On the ensuing drive, David Perkins forced a fumble on a reception by Kendrick Bourne and Mike Banks recovered at the ISU 45-yard line. Coprich took over on the next drive, rushing for 36 of the team's 55 yards during the five-play scoring drive, which he ended with a seven-yard touchdown.

The Eagles answered the Redbird touchdown with one of their own, as Quincy Forte scored on a nine-yard touchdown run to cut the ISU lead to 10-7. The Redbirds battled right back, and put together an eight-play, 55-yard drive to extend the lead back to 10 points. Fullback Brady Tibbitts took his first career carry and pounded it across the goal line from three yards out to give the Redbirds a 17-7 advantage.

A 37-yard field goal from Tyler McNannay on the next drive cut the ISU lead to a touchdown at 17-10, but once again the Redbirds answered with an eight-play, 66-yard scoring drive as Tre Roberson capped off the drive with a seven-yard touchdown pass to Cameron Meredith. Meredith made a fantastic, one-handed grab that put the Redbirds up 24-10 with 6:35 left to play in the half. EWU would fight back again and cut the lead back to seven points at 24-17, after a Jabari Wilson one-yard touchdown run capped off an 11-play scoring drive at the end of the second quarter.

The Redbirds wasted little time put points on the scoreboard in the third quarter, as they drove 75 yards down the field in just under four minutes to extend the lead to 31-17. Big grabs from James O'Shaughnessy set up a 21-yard touchdown run for Coprich, who moved over 100 yards rushing for the 13th-straight time. Eastern came back and settled for a 36-yard field goal from McNannay and cut the lead to 31-20 with 9:01 left in the third quarter, after Pat Meehan sacked Adams on third down.

ISU answered again, as Coprich scored his third touchdown of the game on a 24-yard run to extend the lead to 38-20. On the ensuing drive, Alex Donnelly picked off a Vernon Adams pass attempt and returned it to the EWU 23-yard line and six plays later, Roberson ran it in from five yards out to widen the lead to 45-20.

A two-yard touchdown run by Adams early in the fourth quarter narrowed the ISU lead to 45-27, but a failed outside kick attempt by the Eagles was recovered by Collin Keoshian to give the Redbirds center field position. Four plays later, Roberson connected with Lechein Neblett on a 31-yard scoring strike to increase the lead to 52-27 with 10:30 left in the game.

EWU did not go away, as Adams connected with Cooper Kupp on a 30-yard touchdown pass and after a missed PAT try, the Redbirds lead was cut to 52-33 with 8:57 left in the game. After recovering an onside kick, Adams found Kupp again for a 35-yard touchdown to cut the ISU lead to 52-39 with 8:21 left in the game.

The Eagles kicked it long on the next kickoff and Tevin Allen fair caught the ball at the 25-yard line. Two plays later, Coprich broke loose for a 74-yard touchdown run, his fourth of the game, to extend the ISU lead to 59-39. On the next drive, Mike Banks intercepted Adams, but with 1:40 to play, Adams connected with Shaq Hill for a 47-yard touchdown. That would be the final score of the game.

#7 ILLINOIS STATE 21, #1 NEW HAMPSHIRE 18

Dec. 20, 2014 • Durham, N.H. • Cowell Stadium

Attendance: 9,497

Redbirds Punch Ticket To National Championship

DURHAM, N.H. — A 47-yard touchdown run by Illinois State quarterback Tre Roberson in the fourth quarter lifted the Redbirds (13-1) to a 21-18 win over top-seeded New Hampshire (12-2) in front of a raucous crowd at Cowell Stadium in the semifinals of the 2014 FCS Playoffs and secured ISU a spot in the national championship game.

Roberson led the comeback in the fourth quarter and finished the game 18-for-31 with 278 yards passing, including a career-long 77-yard connection to Lechein Neblett. He also added 95 yards on 12 carries, including the game winner. Running back Marshaun Coprich did not break the 100-yard barrier for the first time this season, but finished with 79 yards and the game's only other touchdown. Teddy Corwin led the way for the defense with a career-best 12 tackles and Collin Keoshian added six stops, a sack, a tackle-for-loss and an interception.

After each team punted on their first possession of the game, the Redbirds scored the first points of the day on a 33-yard field goal by Nick Ausseiker mid-way through the first quarter. The Wildcats answered the score with a touchdown on their ensuing drive, as quarterback Sean Goldrich carried it in from four yards out to put UNH ahead 7-3 with 3:35 left in the first quarter.

The Redbirds attempted to answer on their last drive of the quarter and drove all the way inside the UNH 10 yard line. Roberson carried the ball eight yards to the one yard line and attempted to stretch over the goal line, but was hit and fumbled giving the ball back to the Wildcats and swinging the momentum. UNH took advantage of the turnover and put together a nine-play, 96-yard scoring drive that was capped off by a six-yard touchdown run by Nico Steriti and a two-point conversion on a run by Andy Vailas to extend the lead to 15-3 with 12:34 left in the second quarter.

ISU would add another field goal, this time a 23-yarder, with 1:45 left before halftime after a career-long 77-yard pass from Roberson to Neblett set the Redbirds up inside the UNH five yard line. However, three-straight runs by Coprich were stuffed and the Redbirds settled for the field goal to cut the UNH lead to 15-6.

UNH took the opening kickoff of the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 73-yard drive that took 4:12 off the clock to extend its lead to 18-6, after a 25-yard field goal from Brad Prasky. The rest of the third quarter was quiet for both teams, until the Redbirds took over on their final drive of the quarter. Roberson led a methodical, 10-play, 84-yard drive that was capped off on a two-yard touchdown run by Coprich that cut the UNH lead to 18-13 early in the fourth quarter.

After the defense forced another UNH punt, its third in a row, the Redbirds got the ball back on their own 11 yard line. The Redbirds marched down the field to the 47 yard line, when Roberson called his own number and took a quarterback draw 47 yards for the go-ahead touchdown. Following a quick time out, Roberson pitched the ball to Jon-Marc Anderson who dove into the end zone for the two-point conversion to put ISU in the lead at 21-18 with 7:51 left in the game.

UNH got the ball back and attempted to tie or gain the lead, but a stop of fourth down gave the Redbirds the ball back at their own 46 yard line. From there, the Redbirds picked up two first downs and took a knee to run the clock.

ISU Averages Lone Loss, Defeats UNI In Playoffs, 41-21

FRISCO, Texas — Illinois State's bid for its first national championship came down to the final minute, but North Dakota State ran its streak of consecutive national championships to four with a 29-27 win at Toyota Stadium.

Tre Roberson's 58-yard touchdown run with 1:38 left in the game gave the Redbirds a late lead before NDSU (15-1) quarterback Carson Wentz scored from five yards out with 37 seconds left to reclaim the lead. Roberson's pass to Joe Farmer with eight seconds left in the game was intercepted, ending the ISU comeback hopes.

The Redbirds (13-2) were led Saturday by Roberson, who completed 11-of-23 passes for 157 yards and three touchdowns. He ran for a game-high 161 yards and another score. James O'Shaughnessy caught two of Roberson's touchdown passes, while Jon-Marc Anderson hauled in the other.

The Redbird defense stopped NDSU on its first offensive drive of the game as Alex Donnelly forced a Bison fumble as they entered the red zone. The Redbirds drove to midfield before ISU punter CJ Laros pinned the Bison inside their own 5-yard-line. North Dakota State was forced to punt four plays later and the Redbirds took advantage, capping a five-play, 38-yard drive with a 13-yard touchdown pass from Roberson to Anderson with 5:28 remaining in the first quarter.

NDSU answered with a 41-yard field goal from Adam Keller with just over a minute remaining in the quarter, cutting the Redbirds' lead to 7-3. The Bison took the lead on their next offensive possession, as Wentz found Luke Albers on a 6-yard touchdown pass with 8:43 left in the second quarter. Illinois State trailed 10-7 at halftime.

The Bison opened the second half with a key special teams play as they recovered the second-half kickoff at the Illinois State 19-yard-line. A third-down sack by Bradon Prate forced a field goal attempt and NDSU's Keller was good from 41 yards out, giving the Bison a 13-7 lead. After a Redbird three-and-out, the Bison put together an eight-play, 76-yard drive that was topped off by a 7-yard touchdown run by John Crockett with 7:28 left in the third quarter, boosting the Bison lead to 20-7.

The Redbirds got back into the game with a 41-yard pass from Roberson to O'Shaughnessy with 2:11 remaining in the third quarter, cutting the NDSU lead to 20-13 after a Nick Ausseiker extra point. The Bison made it a two-possession game again with a 24-yard field goal by Keller with 11:20 left in the game. Roberson and O'Shaughnessy hooked up again just moments later, though, on a 3-yard touchdown pass with 8:05 left, cutting the NDSU lead to 23-21.

NDSU followed with a drive that chewed up nearly six minutes of clock, and included a key fourth-and-one conversion, but a third-down sack by Collin Keoshian forced a Bison punt and the Redbirds took over at their own 20-yard-line with 2:22 left.

Roberson's career-long 58-yard touchdown run with 1:38 remaining gave the Redbirds their first lead since early in the second quarter. The Redbirds had 37 seconds left after Wentz's go-ahead touchdown, but Roberson's pass from his own 44-yard-line was intercepted by NDSU's Esley Thorton.

Redbirds Advance With 36-19 Win Over Western Illinois

NORMAL, Ill. – After falling behind early in the third quarter, the Illinois State football team bounced back for a 36-19 win over Western Illinois in the second round of the FCS Playoffs on Saturday afternoon at Hancock Stadium.

The Redbirds (10-2) used 217 yards rushing from FCS Offensive Player of the Year finalist and Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year Marshaun Coprich to edge out the Leathernecks (7-6). It was the senior's third straight 200-yard game and his sixth career 200-plus yard performance. Quarterback Tre Roberson also contributed a solid game on the ground with 111 yards and two scores. The pair helped the 'Birds outlast a solid performance from WIU quarterback Sean Maguire, who finished with 341 yards passing with two touchdowns.

ISU started off hot with a first quarter touchdown run by Coprich, but a pair of turnovers allowed WIU to keep pace as the Redbirds went into the locker room at halftime with a 7-6 lead following a pair of field goals by the Leathernecks' Luke Otto.

The Leathernecks came out firing in the second half with a 91-yard drive on their first possession of the half to take a 12-7 lead following the blocked extra point attempt. However, the 'Birds answered immediately with a 10-play, 75-yard drive capped off by a five-yard rushing score from Roberson. The signal-caller then found Anthony Warrum in the end zone on the ensuing two-point conversion to make the score 15-12 in favor of the Redbirds.

Warrum finished with 107 yards and a touchdown on six catches. The touchdown was the 14th on the year for Warrum, who now holds the ISU single season touchdown catches record after breaking a tie at 13 with Rickey Garrett (1998).

The touchdown drive ended up being a springboard for the Redbirds, as they marched the field on their next possession and Roberson outspurred several defenders up the right sideline for a 22-12 lead. The team was able to match a WIU touchdown to make it 22-19 on the next drive with a 21-yard strike from Roberson to Warrum. Coprich then sealed the game with a 72-yard rushing touchdown with under five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter.

Redbirds Season Comes To An End With Loss To Richmond

NORMAL, Ill. – A frantic comeback in the final minutes fell short, as the Redbirds (10-3) fell by a score of 39-27 to Richmond (10-3) to see their season come to an end in the FCS Quarterfinals.

After going down 32-14 with 10 minutes left in the fourth quarter, the Redbirds converted back-to-back touchdown drives to pull within five points at 32-27. ISU quarterback Tre Roberson connected with running back Marshaun Coprich for a 12-yard score. Then, after Roberson went down after taking a wicked hit and had to sit out one play, backup quarterback Jake Kolbe scrambled for a 17-yard score on his first, and only, offensive snap of the game.

Richmond then sealed the win with a 28-yard rushing touchdown from running back Jacobi Green that clinched the game and sent the program to the FCS Semifinals against the winner of North Dakota State and Northern Iowa. Richmond quarterback Kyle Lauletta was tremendous, completing 18-of-30 attempts for 369 yards and touchdown.

ISU was led by the passing attack of Roberson, who was solid and accurate throughout most of the night on his way to a 25-of-42 finish for 370 yards and two touchdowns with one interception. His main target, Anthony Warrum, finished with nine catches for 152 yards and one score, while Christian Gibbs hauled in a career-best eight catches for a career-high 96 yards.

The Spiders got off to a hot start, taking the ball 73 yards down the field on their opening drive, but the Redbird defense held them to a field goal. After a quick three-and-out by ISU, the Spiders capped off another long drive with a Broadus rushing score from 13 yards out for a 10-0 lead heading into the second quarter.

Roberson led the ISU offense on a bounce-back touchdown drive, connecting with Warrum from 20 yards on a corner route toward the back of the end zone. The Spiders were then held to another Yoder field goal, this time from 24 yards out, for a 13-7 lead. It looked like that would be the score heading into the break, but a lightning-quick 87-yard drive in under two minutes capped off by a two-yard touchdown run from Jacobi Green gave the Spiders a 19-7 lead at halftime.

ISU struck first in the second half with a five-yard touchdown run by Coprich, set up by a 26-yard catch from Warrum and a 23-yard grab by Gibbs. The Spiders quickly answered, though, when Lauletta hit Green on a wide open screen pass in which the running back sprinted 35 yards for a score and a 25-14 lead. Green would later add an insurance touchdown with a 27-yard score in the fourth quarter for the 32-14 lead.

UCA's Fourth Quarter Comeback Eliminates ISU

CONWAY, Ark. – Despite Illinois State (6-6, 4-4 MVFC) tallying 17 first-half points and limiting Central Arkansas (10-2, 8-1 SLC) to just seven points, the Bears scored 24 fourth-quarter points to come back and defeat the Redbirds 31-24 at Estes Stadium Saturday afternoon in the first round of the 2016 FCS Playoffs.

Anthony Warrum's two touchdowns helped him become the only ISU receiver in school history to post 10 or more touchdowns in back-to-back seasons and the first player to record multiple seasons with 1,000 yards receiving.

The ISU defense dominated the first-half, limiting the Bears to just six rushing yards and not allowing a first down in the first quarter.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Bears began their comeback as they blocked a momentum-changing punt at the start of the fourth quarter that was picked up by Jakari Dillard on ISU's four-yard line, and he ran it in for the touchdown to bring the Bears within a field goal of the Redbirds, 17-14. The Bears followed that up with another score around the 10-minute mark to take the lead for the first time, 21-17. Following the score, the Bears shook things up opting for the onside kick that was recovered by UCA at ISU's 36-yard line. Despite a big stop by the Redbird defense inside the red zone, UCA was still able to kick a 28-yard field goal to widen its lead to a touchdown, 24-17.

In a mere one minute 38 seconds, the 'Birds fought back on a four-play, 81-yard scoring drive that was highlighted by a 55-yard touchdown reception from Jake Kolbe to Warrum to tie the game at 24-24. With a minute and a half remaining, the Bears answered back, returning Reece Attard's punt 39 yards to ISU's four-yard line, before Antwon Wells ran the ball into the end zone to a touchdown to break the tie and climb ahead 31-24.

#13 ILLINOIS STATE 24, #12 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI 6

Nov. 30, 2019 • Cape Girardeau, Mo. • Houck Field

Attendance: 3,274

Robinson Leads Redbirds To 24-6 Win At SEMO

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. – All-American tailback James Robinson proved why he is one of the best in the country, as he ran for a school-record 297 yards and a touchdown as the No. 13 ranked Redbirds (9-4, 5-3 MVFC) ran away with a 24-6 win over No. 12 Southeast Missouri (9-4, 7-1 MVFC) at Houck Field Saturday in the first round of the 2019 FCS playoffs.

The 297 rushing yards by Robinson set a school record, besting the 272 yards gained by Pierre Rembert at Missouri State in 2005. The 297 yards also set a Redbird and Missouri Valley Football Conference record for most rushing yards in a playoff contest.

#13 ILLINOIS STATE 24, #8 CENTRAL ARKANSAS 14

Dec. 7, 2019 • Conway, Ark. • Estes Stadium

Attendance: 5,127

Strong Running Attack Propels Redbirds to 24-14 Win

CONWAY, Ark. – Behind another dominant effort on the ground by senior All-American running back James Robinson, Illinois State (10-4) ran away with a 24-14 victory over No. 8 national seed Central Arkansas (9-4) Saturday afternoon in the second round of the FCS playoffs at Estes Stadium.

Robinson followed up his 297-yard effort in the first round against Southeast Missouri with a 210-yard effort in Saturday's win against the Bears. He is now the only player in Missouri Valley Football Conference history with a pair of 200-plus yard performances in the FCS playoffs.

Romeo McKnight led the way for the Redbird defense with 7 tackles and three sacks, which upped his season total to 12. The Redbirds finished the game with four takeaways, including three interceptions. With four sacks in the game, the Redbirds upped their season total to 50 setting a school record and topping the previous high of 47 set in 1986.

#1 NORTH DAKOTA STATE 9, #8 ILLINOIS STATE 3

Dec. 14, 2019 • Fargo, N.D. • Fargodome

Attendance: 14,132

Redbirds Edged By Defending Champion Bison, 9-3

FARGO, N.D. – It was a tale of two defenses, as No. 13 Illinois State held No. 1 North Dakota State without a touchdown at home for the first time since 2002, but the defending national champion Bison (14-0) were able to hold the Redbirds (10-5) to just a field goal in a 9-3 victory in the quarterfinals of the FCS playoffs at the Fargodome.

The Redbird defense finished the day with a sack and 7 TFLs and held the vaunted NDSU offense to just 263 yards of total offense in the contest.
