QUICK HITTERS

• Saturday's game features two of the top five three-point shooting teams in the country, as Bradley is ranked first and Illinois State fifth

• Over the past 10 seasons in the NCAA, few schools have made a jump from one season to the next better than ISU. From last season to this season the Redbirds have jumped 334 position rankings and .108 percentage points and currently rank fifth in the country in three-point field goal percentage

• Illinois State and Bradley are two of three schools in the country to rank inside of the top-30 in the country in field goal percentage, three-point field goal percentage, and free throw percentage

• ISU forward Chase Walker gets fouled at a rate of 7.7 per 40 minutes, which is the sixth-highest rate in the NCAA

• This season the Redbirds have had nine games with single-digit turnovers, which is the second-highest total by an ISU squad since 1988-89

• If maintained, ISU's .400 three-point field goal percentage is on pace to be the fourth-best single-season average in school history

• Against Indiana State, Caden Boser scored his 1,000th career point between his time at UMKC, Valdosta State, and Illinois State.

• Jack Daugherty's 37 three-point baskets are tied for the ninth-most in a season by an ISU freshman in program history

• Malachi Poindexter has made 86.8 percent of his free throw tries over his three-year Redbird career, which is the 26th-highest active career percentage in the NCAA

• This season the Illinois State Redbirds have had seven different players lead the team in scoring through the opening 19 games of the season

• Illinois State's win against UAB on November 23 was the program's third game in a four-game stretch where the Redbird opponent was picked as the preseason favorite in their conference: Ohio (Mid-American Conference), McNeese (Southland Conference), and UAB (American Athletic Conference). In those games, the Redbirds went 2-1

• The Redbirds and Braves are two of just six schools in the country to rank inside of the top-20 in the NCAA in both three-point field goals per game (10.3 - 20th) and three-point field goal percentage (.398 - eighth)

• This season Illinois State has a KenPom adjusted offensive percentage of 112.2, which is the highest by a Redbird squad in the KenPom era (1996 to present)

• Dalton Banks' three blocked shots against Saint Louis is tied for the fourth-most in the country this season in a game by a player 6-2 or shorter

• ISU's Chase Walker ranks 14th in the country in the KenPom stat Offensive Rebounding Percentage, and 10th in the same metric from Basketball Reference

• Eight times this season, ISU has had games with shooting splits of at least .500/.400/.750. No other team in school history has had more than four such game splits in a single season, and the Redbirds are tied for the most in the NCAA

PERCENTAGES ACROSS THE BOARD

Eight times this season the Illinois State men's basketball team has had games where it has made over half of its field goal tries, 40 percent of the three-point attempts, and at least 75 percent from the charity stripe. No other team in school history - outside of this season's team - has had more than four such games in an entire season. The total is also tied for the most in the country this season with St. Thomas. Since 2004-05, the most such games in a season by an NCAA Division I school is 11, held by Oklahoma State (2004-05), Michigan (2016-17), South Dakota State (2021-22), and Colorado (2023-24).

KENPOM EFFICIENCY

KenPom, the primary statistical and analysis college basketball site, and its work on tempo-based basketball statistics is compared by many to the work of Bill James in baseball. This season Illinois State's adjusted offensive total is 112.2, which is the highest total for ISU in the history of the KenPom ratings, which date back through the 1996-97 season.

Stathead basketball has an offensive metric titled Offensive Rating, and ISU's 116.2 this season is nearly 10 points higher than the previous season-high (dating back to the 1996-97 season).

CLIMBING INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

One season after a program-low shooting percentage, the 2024-25 Illinois State Redbirds are on pace for the fourth-best three-point shooting percentage in program history. ISU currently makes 40 percent of its long-range tries, trailing only the 1986-87 (45.8%), 1987-88 (44.4%), and 2002-03 (44.0%) in terms of season percentage from long distance.

MAKING FROM DEEP

Last season the Illinois State men's basketball team was in the bottom 15 schools in three-point field goal percentage. This season there has been a stark turnaround, as the team has made 40 percent of its shots from beyond the arc, which is the fifth-best in the country.

RECORD GPA

In the fall semester, the Illinois State men's basketball team had a team grade point average of 3.54, a program record for a semester.

OVER 1K

On a three-pointer a little over five minutes into the ISU win over Indiana State, Illinois State fifth-year forward Caden Boser reached the career 1,000-point plateau. He had scored 192 points in two years at UMKC, 715 points in two seasons at Valdosta State, and now 98 points as a Redbird. Childhood friend Dalton Banks is closing in on 1,000 career points, and has 903 with at least 12 games to play in the season remaining.

Notable basketball analytics website KenPom has a statistic called Game Excitement, which is a measure of how much the win probability changed over the course of a game (using a win probability algorithm that assumes the teams are of equal strength). This season the Redbirds appear in the list twice within the top 16 games overall, with the No. 14 game coming from Illinois State's 84-83 win over UAB in the Virgin Islands, while the Redbird 99-97 overtime loss at Belmont is the 16th highest. ISU's win over UAB is the only game in the top-19 of the ranking to not have gone into overtime.

Illinois State sophomore Chase Walker ranks seventh in the Sports Reference statistic called Player Efficiency Ranking, among players who have seen 350 minutes or more of action this season. The Columbus, Ohio, native averages 14.8 points per game, while making 58.0 percent of his shots from the field.

Behind his strong performance against Saint Louis, Illinois State sophomore Chase Walker was named the MVC Player of the Week. The Columbus, Ohio, native scored a career-high 27 points against the Billikens, making 10-of-15 shots from the field, both of his three-point tries, and 5-of-7 shots from beyond the arc. He added eight rebounds – four offensive – with an assist and a blocked shot. Walker earns his first career MVC honor and is the first Redbird to be named MVC Player of the Week since Johnny Kinziger earned the honor on February 19 after ISU wins over Indiana State and Evansville.

Adding to his strong freshman season, ISU first-year forward Jack Daugherty was named the MVC Freshman of the Week after his 16-point performance on the road at Cornell in which he made 4-of-7 of his three-point attempts, pushing his season percentage to an even .500 (29-of-58). He is the second Redbird in program history to earn the honor, as Johnny Kinziger won the award twice last season in the first-year of the Freshman of the Week award.

With four signees, the Illinois State men's basketball recruiting class for the 2025 season was ranked 60th in the country according to the 247sports.com team ranking. ISU added forward Nick Allen, guard/forward Isaac Ericksen, and guards Tyreek Coleman and Mason Klabo. Allen, a 6-11 forward from Bradley-Bourbonnais HS, has a national 247sports ranking of 277, and is the top-rated center in the state of Illinois. He was named First Team All-State as a junior. Ericksen, a 6-9 guard/forward from Green Level HS in Cary, North Carolina, was named Second Team All-State as a junior, and is the 13th-rated prospect inside North Carolina. Coleman, a 6-2 guard from Waubonsie Valley HS, was named Third Team All-State as a junior. Klabo, a 6-1 guard from Fargo Davies HS in Fargo, North Dakota, was named First Team All-State three times heading into his senior season, as he is within grasp of the North Dakota boys basketball all-time scoring record.

BIG FRESHMAN MAKES

With four big games within his first 17 contests as a Redbird, Illinois State freshman Jack Daugherty is quickly etching his name into the school record books. He opened his career by making five three-point baskets in his career-opener, which (at the time) was the fourth-most in a game by a freshman in school history. In his fourth game he tied both the freshman and overall school record by making eight three-point baskets against Trinity Christian. The eight makes are tied for the most this season in the NCAA by a freshman (along with Drexel's Horace Simmons) and are tied for the 14th-most in a game in MVC history. Twice more since then he has made five three-pointers in a game.

After Illinois State's season-opening loss of the 2022-23 season, Illinois State's 20 head coaches have a 13-7 combined record in their first game on the sidelines at ISU. Of the coaches that won the 13 games, none have led Illinois State to an NCAA Tournament berth. On the other side of the ledger, each of Illinois State's last five head coaches to lose their ISU opener have taken the Redbirds to a NCAA tournament appearance in their career.

SAME ARENA, NEW NAME

Illinois State University and CEFCU (pronounced SEFF-Q) have come to terms on a naming rights and sponsorship agreement valued at approximately $3.1 million over 10 years. The agreement, which will support the funding for ongoing and ever-evolving costs associated with the student-athlete experience, was initiated by LEARFIELD's Redbird Sports Properties, the University's athletics multimedia rightsholder. The former Redbird Arena will be known as CEFCU Arena - Home of the Redbirds, with the University's Board of Trustees approving the arena name change at its October 14, 2022 meeting. The CEFCU Arena naming rights and sponsorship agreement will continue to support funding of the Redbird Student-Athlete experience.

CHEESE STATE OVERFLOW

This season there are five different Redbirds from the state of Wisconsin - Jack Daugherty, Dalton Banks, Jordan Davis, Johnny Kinziger, and Caden Boser, which is tied for the third-most Cheese-state basketballers for a Division I school this season. Only Milwaukee and Green Bay - who each have six student-athletes from Wisconsin - have more Wisconsin natives on their team. Below are the five schools with five or more student-athletes from the state.

HEAD COACH RYAN PEDON

Announced on March 7, 2022, former Ohio State assistant coach Ryan Pedon was named as the 20th head coach in Illinois State men's basketball history and is in his third season in leading the Redbird program.

In his first season as head coach of the Redbirds in 2022-23, ISU finished the season 11-21 while setting a new program record for free throw percentage with .793 (was .775 from the 2001-02 season). He inherited a roster that had saw five of his top six scorers coming in to ISU for their first season, and had four players average at least nine points per game.

Last season (2023-24) the team had a four-game improvement, including picking up a win on the road at 23rd-ranked Indiana State in February. Myles Foster was named to the All-Newcomer team after the season, while Johnny Kinziger was named to the All-Freshman and All-Bench teams for his performance during the season.

Pedon had spent the last five seasons at Ohio State after joining the staff in the summer of 2017. In his time with the Buckeyes, OSU has a record of 106-53 with an NCAA tournament berth during each of his seasons in Columbus, with two trips to the NCAA second round.

In 2021-22 while with the Buckeyes, he helped lead two players – E.J. Liddell and Malaki Branham – to All-Big Ten honors, in addition to being drafted in the 2022 NBA Draft (Branham with the 20th pick to San Antonio and Liddell with the 41st pick to New Orleans. That season the Buckeyes went 20-12 during the season, and advanced to the second round of the 2022 NCAA Tournament.

During the 2020-21 season the Buckeyes finished with a 21-10 record – including a win over Illinois State in the season opener – before falling in the NCAA Tournament opener. During the season he helped lead an offense that finished third in the conference in scoring offense and put two players on All-Big Ten teams including a second-team placement to Liddell, as Duane Washington Jr. was named to the All-Big Ten Third Team.

A pandemic-shortened 2019-20 season saw the Buckeyes were 21-10 and had a projected berth into the NCAA Tournament before the team's Big Ten Tournament appearance – and subsequent NCAA Tournament appearance – was canceled because of the pandemic.

During the 2018-19 season the Buckeyes put together a 20-15 record during the season with a first round NCAA Tournament win over Iowa State.

In his and head coach Chris Holtmann's first season in Columbus, 2017-18, the Buckeyes finished with a 25-9 overall record with an appearance in the NCAA Second Round. During the season, Pedon helped mentor consensus All-American and Big Ten Player of the Year Keita Bates Diop, who was eventually selected with the 48th pick in the 2018 NBA Draft, while Holtmann earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. Jae'Sean Tate – also a member of Pedon's inaugural season with the Buckeyes – ended up as an undrafted free agent who has played the last two seasons with the Houston Rockets.

He made the transition to Columbus alongside Holtmann from Butler, where he had helped the Bulldogs tally a 47-20 record in two seasons with two NCAA Tournament berths in Indianapolis.

In the 2016-17, the Bulldogs cruised to a 25-9 record, advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16 where they were ousted by eventual National Champion North Carolina in the opening game of the South Regional. Two players – Andrew Chrabascz and Kelan Martin earned All-BIG EAST honors during the season, as Holtmann was named the conference's Coach of the Year. Martin went undrafted before spending parts of the last three seasons in the NBA with the Indiana Pacers and Minnesota Timberwolves.

The season prior, the Bulldogs finished the season with a 22-11 overall record, including a 10-8 mark in BIG EAST play. The team advanced to the NCAA Tournament, topping Texas Tech in the opener before falling to a Malcolm Brogdon-led Virginia squad in the second round. That season two Butler players – Roosevelt Jones and Martin – were named to the All-Conference second team, with Kellen Dunham earning honorable mention honors.

Prior to joining the Bulldogs he spent two seasons at Illinois as an assistant to the head coach for former Illini head coach John Groce. In his two seasons in Champaign the Illini twice advanced to the NIT. He has also spent time as an assistant coach at Toledo (2010-13) and Miami (Ohio) (2005-10), was director of basketball operations at Kent State from 2002-05 and was a graduate assistant at Miami (Ohio) from 2000-2002.

Pedon played college basketball at the College of Wooster, where he was a three-year letterwinner and helped the Fighting Scots to three NCAA Tournaments and three North Coast Athletic Conference (NCAC) regular-season championships. In 2000, he won Wooster's prestigious "Bear Award".

He received his bachelor's degree in communications from Wooster in 2000 and a master's degree in sport organization from Miami (Ohio) in 2002. He and his wife Stephanie have a son, Maddox.
