2025 COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH - TINA KRAMOS

Tina Kramos was announced as the head coach of Redbird softball on August 28, 2022, after long-time head coach Melinda Fischer announced her retirement. She enters her 25th season at Illinois State and her third at the helm of the program.

Prior to being handed the reins of the program, Kramos had been promoted to her previous title of senior associate head coach on July 24, 2017, entering her 17th season with Illinois State.

As an assistant coach at ISU, Kramos has coached three All-Americans (Amber Smith - 2006; Kara Nelson - 2007, 2010; Abby Olson - 2010), and played a large role in then-freshman Kara Nelson earning the 2007 Valley Player of the Year Award, the first time in conference history that a freshman had that award bestowed upon her. Nelson went on to claim a second MVC Player of the Year honor in 2011 under Kramos' guidance, while catchers Elizabeth Kay won the award in 2013 and Jordan de los Reyes won the award in 2017.

Kramos has also mentored 10 NFCA All-Region selections since 2017, one of them, Emme Olson, in back-to-back seasons. Olson also became the new program record-holder in career doubles in the 2023 season in the Kramos era. The Redbirds finished third overall in Missouri Valley Conference regular season play, and made it to the MVC quarterfinals.

Before arriving at Illinois State, Kramos coached softball from 1995-97 at Colorado-Colorado Springs before she spent three years on the coaching staff at Nicholls State.

Prior to her coaching career, Kramos was a member of the Missouri State softball team from 1990-95 and was a two-time All-Valley First-Team selection. Kramos has continued her softball career beyond coaching, as she was selected to the Greek National Team in the summer of 2002. Earning multiple championships, Kramos played for the team that won the 2003 European Championship in Italy, while the Greek National Team took second-place honors in 2005 at the European Championships in Prague. She played with the Greek Olympic softball team in the 2004 Athens Olympic Games and the 2006 Women's Softball World Championships.

In 2015, she was selected as the head coach for the Greek National Team that competed at the European Championships in Rosemalen, Netherlands. Kramos also played for the East Peoria Avanti's (1995) and Michigan Cruise (1996-2000), with both teams part of the ASA Women's Majors.

ASSISTANT COACH - ELAINE HEFLIN

Elaine Heflin enters her fourth season as an assistant coach for the Redbirds in the 2024-25 season with her duties focused on pitching and recruiting. In her first season as an assistant/pitching coach for ISU, Heflin developed two inexperienced arms in juniors Hannah Ross and Amanda Fox. Ross went on to pitch a perfect game against UT Martin (3/10/22) while Fox led the team in strikeouts and earned All-MVC Second Team honors. In Heflin's second-year, she helped to lead Ross to her first-career All-MVC First-Team honor while helping to mentor two first-year arms. Heflin helped lead 2024 rookie Paige McLeod to a All-MVC Second Team Honor while pitching two no-hitters. The second no-hitter was the first home no hitter for the 'Birds in 23 years. Heflin came to Illinois State after a two year coaching stint at University of Illinois at Chicago, her alma mater. Heflin helped coach the UIC Flames to 2021 Horizon League Tournament Champions. Prior to beginning her coaching career, Heflin had a stellar four years at UIC as a pitcher as a three-year recipient of the Horizon League Pitcher of the Year award.

ASSISTANT COACH - RACHEL O'MALLEY

Rachel O'Malley enters her first season as an assistant coach for the Redbirds. O'Malley began her career at the University of Indiana (2014-2018), as the starting shortstop for the Hoosiers where she appeared in 215 games over her four years. O'Malley garnered Big Ten All-Defensive Team honors, Academic All Big Ten honors, as well as Big Ten Sportsmanship honors during her time at IU. O'Malley comes to Illinois State after a stint at in-conference rival, Indiana State, where she served as an assistant coach for three seasons. During her time with the Sycamores, O'Malley helped to improve the team win percentage while also managing a director of operations role through organizing team travel arrangements. Prior to Indiana State, O'Malley served as a graduate assistant for Moorehead State where she was then promoted to an assistant coach position during her final three years with the Eagles.

ASSISTANT COACH - KRISTINA BURKHARDT

Kristina Burkhardt enters her second season as an assistant coach for the Redbirds in the 2024-25 season and will work primarily with the Redbird outfielders. Burkhardt joined the ISU coaching staff after playing for the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, alongside Hailey Cole, as well as for the University of Michigan Wolverines. In her first season as an assistant coach, Burkhardt mentored the outfielders while helping to land Addison Masching on her first-ever All-MVC squad. Burkhardt was one of the inaugural winners of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award as an outfielder. She earned her undergraduate degrees in both Sport Administration and Communication studies, and is currently working towards a master's degree in the Illinois State Sport Management program. Burkhardt is a native of Fort Wayne, Indiana and currently resides in Normal, Illinois.

THE GREATS

MELINDA FISCHER

Melinda Fischer spent 37 seasons at the helm of Redbird Softbal, accumulating 1,118 victories at ISU alone, to become the winningest coach in Illinois State Athletics and Missouri Valley Conference history. Fischer announced her retirement in August of 2022, and will exit the head coaching world as the 18th-winningest head coach in NCAA Division I Softball history with 1,159 career wins. She led the Redbirds to 12 regular season conference championships, 5 conference tournament titles, and 9 NCAA Tournament appearances. As a profound member of the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA), Fischer was awarded the first ever Distinguished Service Award given by the organization in 2022, and in 2018 the award was renamed the Melinda Fischer Distinguished Service Award in her honor. She has witnessed multiple generations of family members filter through her program with mothers and daughters and sisters all playing under her. Prior to taking the reigns at ISU, Fischer was the head coach at Eastern Illinois for two seasons. She graduated from Illinois State in 1972 after playing softball, basketball and field hockey for the Redbirds. Her 1969 Redbird Softball team was the national runner up in the first ever Women's College World Series. Fischer is a two-time inductee into the ISU Athletics Percy Family Hall of Fame, and her legacy and impact on will forever be felt by every student-athlete, staff member, and fan of ISU Athletics and the sport of softball.

MARIAN KNEER

The name Marian Kneer has been synonymous with Illinois State softball far before the stadium was renamed in her honor during the 2009 season. Kneer was a pioneer for women's athletics, spearheading the efforts for women's sports inclusion in the Illinois High School Association, two years prior to the passage of the Title IX Education Amendment (1972). A four-sport Redbird athlete from 1945-49, Kneer was inducted into the ISU Athletics Percy Family Hall of Fame in 1976 and became a member of the College of Education Hall of Fame in 2004. She is also a member of the Greater Peoria and National Association for Sport and Physical Education Halls of Fame. Born in Peoria, Illinois, she went on to earn her doctorate in physical education from Michigan and was labeled "the world's greatest softball catcher" in the late 1950s. Kneer is a member of the Illinois Softball Hall of Fame and the Illinois Coaches Association for Girls and Women Hall of Fame.

MARGIE WRIGHT

The majority of Margie Wright's 1,457-career coaching victories, the third most in college softball history, came during her 27-season tenure at Fresno State. It was her time at Illinois State, however, both as a player and a coach, that molded her into the coach she would become. Wright came to Illinois State from her hometown of Warrensburg, Illinois. She accrued four letters in both basketball and softball, as well as three in field hockey. As ISU's star pitcher, Wright led the Redbirds to a second-place finish in the 1973 AIAW Women's College World Series. She was inducted into the ISU Athletics Percy Family Hall of Fame in 1979. After coaching softball at Metamora High School and Eastern Illinois, Wright returned to coach her alma mater in 1980. In six seasons at the helm of ISU, Wright's Redbirds compiled a 163-92-2 record, including a trip to the 1981 AIAW Women's College World Series and three-straight state titles from 1980-82. From there, Wright would continue one of the most decorated coaching careers in college softball at Fresno State, where she won the 1998 national championship and led the Bulldogs to 10 WCWS berths.

BILL KENNEDY

Bill Kennedy helped to lay the foundation that has led to the success of the Illinois State softball program, serving as a coach from 1986 to 2009. Kennedy mentored four All-Americans, five NFCA All-Region First- or Second-Team selections, three MVC Players of the Year, one Valley Rookie of the Year and 21 All-Valley First or Second Team honorees. He was a member of the Illinois State coaching staff in 2006 that earned MVC Coaching Staff of the Year and NFCA/Speedline Coaching Staff of the Year recognition. Under Kennedy's direction, Redbird pitchers from 2000-08 posted a combined 2.03 ERA. ISU's team ERA of 1.42 in 2003 was the team's lowest since the 1987 season and Illinois State pitchers set a total of 11 season records under Kennedy.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

AN ERA OF DOMINANCE

Illinois State Athletics has always been at the forefront of promoting women's athletic opportunities, particularly in the 1960s and 1970s, when the movement to bring women's college athletics up to speed with men's intercollegiate athletic programs was at its zenith.

Three visionary women, Carmen Imel, Dr. Laurie Mabry and Dr. Jill Hutchison, who would later go on to coach the Redbird women's basketball team for 28 years, brought national attention to ISU women's athletics and Redbird softball in the early years of women's athletics at Illinois State.

Softball has been a part of Illinois State dating back to the 1930s and has been recognized as an intercollegiate sport at ISU since 1965. Since then, the program has amassed well over 1,000 wins, made seven Women's College World Series appearances, won 12 regular-season conference championships and six conference tournament titles.

Redbird softball helped to set a standard for athletic excellence at Illinois State that continues to this day. ISU made appearances in the AIAW Women's College World Series seven times from 1969-1981, finishing second in '69 and '73, with the former featuring current head coach Melinda Fischer as a player. The teams' appearances in the WCWS set in motion an era of softball dominance

DYNAMIC DUO - KARA NELSON & ABBY

Kara Nelson and Abby Olson spent four seasons together in a Redbird uniform and combined to break nearly every offensive record at Illinois State and in the Valley. The duo became the first set of ISU teammates to earn NFCA All-America honors in the same season in 2010 and led the Redbirds to their first Missouri Valley Conference regular-season title since 2006, in 2011.

Nelson became the first player in Valley history to reach the 300-hit plateau, ending her career with 301 hits after going 2-for-4 in the final game of her career. She posted a remarkable .417 average during her senior campaign to finish with a career batting average of .401. The 90 hits she recorded in 2007 still stands as the only 90-hit season in Valley history.

Olson ranks third in MVC history with 52 career home runs, and sixth all-time with 152 RBI. In 2010, Olson broke ISU single-season records by belting 19 homers and driving in 56 runs.

THE FISCHER FILE

1,118 victories, 17 conference titles, and 9 NCAA tournament appearances later, legendary head coach Melinda Fischer announced her retirement in August 2022 after 37 years at the helm of Redbird Softball and nearly 50 years with the Illinois State Athletics.

Fischer began her journey as a Redbird in 1969 as a multi-sport student-athlete (softball, basketball, and field hockey). She was part of the 1969 softball team that was the AIAW Women's College World Series runner-up. Fischer began her head coaching career at ISU in 1986, eventually becoming the winningest coach in Illinois State Athletics and Missouri Valley Conference history.

She coached 152 all-conference selections, 28 All-American selections, and 17 player/newcomer of the year selections. Her teams combined for 17 conference titles, 12 regular-season and 5 tournament championships, and Fischer and her staff were named coach/staff of the year six times in the Valley. Fischer truly coached the Redbirds to national prominence in her 37 years as head coach.

She passes the reigns to long-time assistant/associate head coach Tina Kramos who will enter her 23rd season with Illinois State softball, but her first as its leader back in 2023.

FOREIGN TOURS

REDBIRDS ALL OVER THE WORLD

The NCAA allows teams to take an international trip every four years and the Redbirds began doing so in 2000. Most recently the Redbirds traveled to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico in Nov. 2016. In addition to playing softball, the team hosted youth clinics and participated in community service events in the area. In the past, Illinois State has been to Australia, Belize, and Curaçao.
