TAMMI REISS

THIRD SEASON AT URI · VIRGINIA '92

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT TAMMI REISS

Quentin Hillsman - Former Head Coach at Syracuse

"In terms of what stands out for her strengths, it's her ability to connect with everyone around her. All of our players feel a close connection with her, and all of the people around our program feel it - because Tammi is genuine. She brings it every day, and everyone around her can see and feel the energy she has for life, not just for the game."

Dawn Staley - Head Coach at South Carolina and Former Teammate at Virginia

"It was going to take a special situation for Tammi to leave Syracuse, and she believes Rhode Island is that situation. She understands how she sees herself as a coach, and she is ready for this opportunity. She wants to build a brand, and it says a lot about what she sees in Rhode Island. She is putting her whole heart into this, and the people there will appreciate every bit of it."

Paul Tylawski - Former School Teacher and Lifelong Mentor

"Nobody will ever outwork Tammi. She attains the goals she sets. She has always been mature far beyond her years. When she was in eighth grade, she was the No. 2 cross country runner in the state of New York. I told her she was going to have to choose one sport or the other. The next day she came to me and said, 'Basketball is my ticket for the things I want to accomplish in life. Running is something I'll be able to do for the rest of my life, but basketball will give me the chance to achieve my goals.' And look where she is now. From the time she was a young kid, she's always been able to make decisions based on the bigger picture."

Beth Burns - Former Head Coach at San Diego State

"When Tammi joined our staff, she had to learn the scouting aspect of the college game. She had the quickest one-year improvement of any coach I've worked with. She understands how to do more with less. The kids she works with, they all love her. She's not soft on them by any means, and she knows how to keep them in line. She's able to communicate with them, they respect her, they believe in her, and they want to be her."

Debbie Ryan - Women's Basketball Hall of Famer and Former Head Coach at Virginia

"Rhode Island just got a gem of a head coach for its women's basketball program. Tammi was a great student-athlete here at UVA and I always felt that one day she would make an outstanding head coach. She understands the game and has a vision for how it needs to be played. More importantly, though, Tammi will be a leader of young women as she helps each player develop to her potential, both on and off of the court."

Rhode Island Director of Athletics Thorr Bjorn announced Tammi Reiss as the ninth women's basketball coach in program history, April 18, 2019 at The Ryan Center.

Through her first two years, Reiss was 24-24 overall and 17-14 in conference play. She has turned the Ryan Center into a true home court advantage, with Rhody going 17-6 at home over the last two seasons.

In her second year in Kingston, Reiss led the Rams to their best conference record in 25 years. The 11-4 slate was the third winning A-10 record in program history, and the second-most league wins, behind only the 13-3 mark of the 1995-96 team. Reiss also joined Linda Ziemke (1995-96) as the only URI women's basketball coaches to be named A-10 Coach of the Year.

Reiss led the Rams to new heights during her first year in 2019-20. Rhody had a program-record 10 wins in the Ryan Center, the best since the building opened its doors in 2002-03. Under Reiss, the Rams doubled their conference win total (6) from a year prior.

Reiss had two All-Conference A-10 selections after her first year at the helm. Seniors Nicole Jorgensen (First Team) and Davida Dale (Third Team) both went on to sign professional contracts to play overseas.

With a strong reputation as a communicator, Reiss has a history of recruiting and player development. She comes to URI after spending the last four years as an assistant coach at Syracuse. During her time with the Orange, she worked closely with the guards and helped Syracuse to three straight NCAA Tournament second round appearances. She mentored the only players in program history to earn WBCA Division I Coaches All-America Honors in Alexis Peterson, Brittney Sykes, and Tiana Mangakahia. Peterson and Mangakahia also earned Associated Press All-America Honors. Both Peterson and Sykes were selected in the 2017 WNBA Draft and Sykes went on to earn 2017 WNBA All-Rookie Team honors.

Reiss helped Syracuse to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances, owning a 7-4 record at the big dance. The Orange had 99 wins during her four-year span, including 45 conference victories. Following its run to the national championship game in 2016, the team was ranked No. 3 nationally in the final USA Today Coaches poll, its highest rank in program history.

Before Syracuse, Reiss spent time at Cal State Fullerton as the associate head coach. She served as the Titans' recruiting coordinator and was responsible for game and practice preparation, player development with emphasis on guard play, and conducted the offseason conditioning program.

From 2011-13, Reiss was an assistant coach at San Diego State, where she helped guide the Aztecs to two conference regular-season titles, the 2012 Mountain West Tournament crown, and one NCAA Tournament appearance. She mentored Courtney Clements, the 2012 Mountain West Player of the Year, and Chelsea Hopkins, who was named the 2012 Mountain West Newcomer of the Year and Mountain West Player of the Year in 2013.

Prior to working at San Diego State, Reiss served as an assistant coach for the WNBA's San Antonio Silver Stars and Utah Starzz. During her time in Utah, the Starzz advanced to the Western Conference final in 2002.

Reiss was an assistant coach at her alma mater, Virginia, from 1993-96. She helped guide the Cavaliers to two ACC regular-season titles and three NCAA Tournament appearances, including two trips to the Elite Eight.

A former WNBA player and All-American at Virginia, Reiss brings an abundance of experience to the Rhode Island program. She was a four-year starter for the Cavaliers, earning All-American honors in 1992. She led the team to three ACC regular-season titles, two league tournament championships, and three Final Four appearances. Reiss earned All-Conference honors three times in her career and was named to the All-ACC Tournament Team twice. She ended her collegiate career ranked first in school history in 3-point field goals made (139) and 3-point field goal percentage (.416) and was second in points (1,842) and free throws made (437).

Reiss was the fifth overall pick in the 1997 WNBA Draft by the Starzz. She played two seasons for Utah, serving as team captain.

To add to her impressive athletic career, Reiss is also credited with multiple roles as an actress in movies Juwanna Mann and Double Teamed, as well as the TV series Sister, Sister.
