victory (83-59) over Hannibal-LaGrange (Nov. 28) before that was their largest of the year. It was Southeast's biggest margin of victory in a non-conference game since the Redhawks beat Central Arkansas, 87-63, on Dec. 1, 2016.

Series History

The Redhawks are 7-3 all-time in their series against UMKC. Southeast won two of the last three meetings between these teams. The Redhawks are 4-1 against the Kangaroos at the Show Me Center.

Redhawks Heat Up From Three

The Redhawks shot a season-best 62.5 percent (10-of-16) from 3-point range in their win at North Carolina Central (Dec. 2). Southeast went 6-of-7 (85.7 pct.) from beyond the arc in the second half alone. The Redhawks made their last five threes of the game. It was the first time Southeast shot over 60 percent from 3-point range in a game since Dec. 1, 2013 (vs. Texas State).

Big Week Mahoney

Denzel Mahoney averaged 23 points and 3.5 rebounds to lead Southeast to a pair of wins last week. A native of Oviedo, Florida, Mahoney shot 56 percent (14-of-25) from the field and 77.8 percent (14-of-18) at the free throw line, while dishing out four assists and collecting three steals. He also drained a near-perfect 4-of-5 three-pointers. Mahoney began the week matching a season-high 27 points in a 83-59 win over Hannibal-LaGrange (Nov. 28). Four days later, he poured in 19 points in Southeast's 86-77 victory at North Carolina Central (Dec. 2).

Atop the OVC

Denzel Mahoney enters Wednesday's game as the Ohio Valley Conference's top scorer. Mahoney is averaging 19.4 points per game through eight starts this year. He scored over 20 points four times and reached double figures in seven contests.

Nine-Man Unit

A shorthanded Southeast team dressed nine players at North Carolina Central on Dec. 2. Guard Dondre Duffus and center Mark Laros did not make the trip. Duffus was recently cleared to play on Nov. 27 after undergoing a medical procedure which sidelined him for over three weeks. Meanwhile, Laros is expected to miss at least three weeks due to mononucleosis.

Ray and Richardson

Southeast head coach Rick Ray and UMKC head coach Kareem Richardson are close friends. Ray and Richardson face each other for the second time. UMKC won the first meeting, 75-66, on Nov. 28, 2016 in Kansas City. Ray was a groomsman in Richardson's wedding.

Nice Road Win

The Redhawks never trailed in their 86-77 victory over North Carolina Central (Dec. 2). Southeast shot 56.4 percent (31-of-55) from the field, 62.5 percent (10-of-16) from 3-point range and had five players reach double figures in the scoring column. It was Southeast's first true road win of the season and fifth under head coach Rick Ray.

On the Rebound

Southeast has outrebounded its opponent in six-straight games. The Redhawks own a +24 margin (211-187) during that stretch. Southeast was outrebounded only once this season, 30-29, vs. Missouri Baptist (Nov. 10).

New Season-High

Freshman Justin Carpenter established a new season-high with 20 points against North Carolina Central (Dec. 2). Carpenter did not miss a field goal (8-of-8) or free throw (3-of-3) and dished out three assists in that game. He started each of Southeast's last three games and ranks second in the Ohio Valley Conference in field goal percentage with a 66.7 percent (32-of-48) clip.

Mileage Counter

The Redhawks travelled a total of 8,328 miles between air and ground transportation this season. Southeast made stops to St. Louis, Missouri, Dallas, Texas, Monroe, Louisiana, Ruston, Louisiana, Evansville, Indiana, Cancun, Mexico, New Orleans, Louisiana, Newark, New Jersey, Raleigh, North Carolina, Durham, North Carolina and Washington, DC during its lengthy travel stretch.

Board Certified

Freshman Isaiah Gable put together a strong week off the bench. Gable pulled down a season-high 10 rebounds against Hannibal-LaGrange (Nov. 28) and followed that up with a season-best nine points on 3-of-3 threes at North Carolina Central (Dec. 2). He is one of three Redhawks to get 10 or more rebounds in a game this season.

Non-Division I

The Redhawks picked up their 27th-straight against non-Division I teams when they beat Hannibal-LaGrange, 83-59, on Nov. 28. Southeast hasn't lost to a non-Division I program since 2001-02 (62-52, vs. Birmingham Southern on Nov. 16). The Redhawks won both of their matchups against non-Division I foes this year.

Carpenter and Vranes Make First Career Starts

Freshman Justin Carpenter and senior Milos Vranes made their first career starts against North Carolina Central (Nov. 26). Carpenter turned in a double-double 14 points and 11 rebounds, the first of his career and Southeast's second this season. Vranes scored three points and added seven rebounds in 19 minutes. Carpenter leads the Redhawks in rebounding (5.4 rpg) and is fourth in scoring (10.1 ppg).

Lineup Combinations

Southeast has used three different starting lineups in eight games this season. Most recently, Ledarrius Brewer, Justin Carpenter, Milos Vranes, Denzel Mahoney and Jonathan Dalton started the last three games.

Laros Sees Double

Mark Laros scored 10 points in the first 6:54 of the game against Hannibal-LaGrange (Nov. 28). Laros put up double figures in the scoring column for the first time in his Southeast career. He shot 5-of-6 from the field and also grabbed five rebounds in 20 minutes off the bench.

The Redhawks improved to 10-17 all-time in season-opening games since moving to the NCAA Division I ranks in 1991-92.

Season-Opener Skid is Over

Southeast ended an 11-game losing streak in season-opening games when it beat Missouri Baptist, 81-69, on Nov. 10. It was the Redhawks 26th consecutive win against non-Division I opponents. Southeast's last win in a season-opener was a 59-56 victory over Truman State on Nov. 18, 2005.

A total of six players made their NCAA Division I debuts at Southeast against Missouri Baptist (Nov. 10). Mark Laros, Ray Kowalski, Isaiah Gable, Donnie Lewis, Justin Carpenter and Ledarrius Brewer all participated. The Redhawks have made 19 or more free throws in three of their last five games dating back to last season. Southeast shot 79.3 percent (77-of-97) during that stretch.

Strong Exhibition Campaign

Southeast went 2-0 in exhibition play, defeating Missouri S&T, 94-75, on Nov. 1 and Missouri Southern, 85-77, on Nov. 4. Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

2017-18 BASKETBALL NOTES / UMKC • DEC. 6

Roster Talk

Southeast's 2017-18 roster consists of 13 players, including two seniors, four juniors, two sophomores and five freshmen. The Redhawks return only one starter in guard/forward Denzel Mahoney. Daniel Simmons, Milos Vranes, Jonathan Dalton, Dondre Duffus and Donnie Lewis are the rest of the returnees. Simmons and Vranes are Southeast's seniors.

Home Cooking

Southeast won nine of its last 12 games at the Show Me Center. The Redhawks went 10-4 overall and 6-2 in Ohio Valley Conference play on their homecourt last season. It was Southeast's best home record since 2011-12 (10-4). The Redhawks are 15-15 at home under head coach Rick Ray.

Dalton Nets Career-High in Assists

Point guard Jonathan Dalton dished out a career-high seven assists in his first start of the season against Missouri Baptist (Nov. 10). Dalton also scored 11 points in that game. Tahj Eaddy was the last Southeast player to get seven or more assists in a game when he finished with 11 vs. UT Martin on Feb. 18, 2017.

Mahoney Named Preseason All-OVC

Sophomore Denzel Mahoney earned Preseason All-Ohio Valley Conference honors, the league announced during its media day on Oct. 24. A Second-Team All-OVC selection, All-Newcomer pick and the 2016-17 OVC Freshman of the Year, Mahoney had a mammoth rookie season. He finished second on the team in scoring with 14.9 points per game and was the Redhawks leading scorer in conference play (16.6 ppg) in 33 starts. He led Southeast with 57 three-pointers made, dished out 40 assists, collected 23 steals and gathered four blocks. Mahoney scored double figures in 27 of his starts, including his final 11 of the 2016-17 campaign. He ranked 10th in the OVC in free throw percentage (.815) and 12th in scoring. Mahoney was also named OVC Freshman of the Week a league-high five times.

Active Streaks

Denzel Mahoney has started 41-consecutive games. Mahoney scored in 40 contests during his college career. He opened the season with 21 points against Missouri Baptist (Nov. 10) and 25 at Louisiana Tech (Nov. 13), and recently scored a career-high 27 vs. Hannibal-LaGrange (Nov. 28).

Massive Improvement

In 2016-17, Southeast showed dramatic improvement from the previous season. The Redhawks ranked among the top-five in the Ohio Valley Conference in several categories, including steals (1st, 7.7), assist/turnover ratio (5th, 1.1) and 3-point field goals made (5th, 8.0). SEMO made its biggest jump from the 2015-16 season to this past season in turnover margin (8th to 1st), 3-point field goal percentage (last to 2nd) and free throw percentage (last to 2nd). Nationally, Southeast went from 331st to 49th in free throw percentage and 336th to 59th in total 3-point field goals made.

Redhawks Picked 10th in OVC

Preseason Poll

Southeast was picked 10th in this year's Ohio Valley Conference Preseason Poll. The Redhawks accumulated 82 points in the overall voting by OVC Head Basketball Coaches and Sports Information Directors. Belmont picked up 18 first-place votes as this year's preseason favorite. Jacksonville State, which represented the OVC in the NCAA Tournament, was picked second with 213 points. Murray State (212 pts.), Eastern Kentucky (139 pts.), Tennessee Tech (137 pts.), Eastern Illinois (135 pts.), Tennessee State (125 pts.), UT Martin (114 pts.) and Morehead State (89 pts.) were also ahead of Southeast. Austin Peay (63 pts.) and SIU Edwardsville (40 pts.) rounded out the predicted order of finish.

Season 111

This year marks the 111th season of Southeast Basketball. The Redhawks are 1,246-1,132 all-time in program history. Southeast is in its 27th season at the NCAA Division I level, where it is 316-447 overall and 175-259 in the Ohio Valley Conference.

2017-18 Schedule

Southeast plays a 31-game schedule with 14 matchups at the Show Me Center in 2017-18. The Redhawks non-conference slate includes a trip to Cancun, Mexico for the Cancun Challenge, a trip to 2016-17 NCAA Tournament participant Kansas State and visits to regional-rivals Southern Illinois and Saint Louis. This year's Ohio Valley Conference schedule expands to 18 games. The Redhawks open league play against defending OVC Champion Belmont on Dec. 28.

School Record

After making an Ohio Valley Conference low 154 three-pointers the year before, Southeast set a single-season school record with 263 made threes in 2016-17. The 2016-17 team surpassed the previous record of 256 (2012-13). Southeast averaged eight 3-pointers made per game, 2.7 more than it made per game in 2015-16 (5.3).

Vranes Plays on Serbian National Team

Milos Vranes proudly represented his country as a member of the Serbian National Basketball Team in the 2017 World University Games. A native of Belgrade, Vranes first tried out for his native team at a camp in Denver, Colorado back in May. He made the final cut of 12 players, who later competed at the World University Games in Taipei, Taiwan from Aug. 20-29. Serbia finished fourth in the World behind Lithuania, the United States and Latvia. Vranes' team played a total of 17 games in a month with eight at the World University Games. Serbia completed the World University Games with a 5-3 record and advanced to the semifinals where it fell to the United States, 93-61. Serbia came just one win shy of a medal when it lost to Latvia, 81-74, in the consolation game. Statistically, Vranes averaged 3.4 points and 2.9 rebounds, while shooting 42.9 percent from the field in seven contests at the World University Games. Vranes played two tournaments in China leading up to the World University Games main event. He was one of four United States college players on the Serbian National Team along with Idaho State's Novak Topalovic, Marshall's Aleksa Nikolic and American University's Andrija Matic.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

Former Redhawks

Antionius Cleveland (2013-17) signed a two-way deal with the Dallas Mavericks on Nov. 16, 2017. Cleveland is the first Southeast player signed to a NBA roster since the NBA/ABA merger in 1976. Dallas waived Gian Clavell allowing Cleveland to assume Clavell's two-way roster spot. Tyler Stone (2011-14) plays for Galil Gilboa (Israel) and Jarekious Bradley (2013-15) plays for Braunschweig of the Germany-BBL. Meanwhile, Nino Johnson (2011-15) is playing with Hasharon in Israel's National League.

Season Preview

Southeast Missouri is inexperienced, but has an abundance of talent heading into its 2017-18 season. Southeast took a big step forward a year ago when it ranked as the 22nd most improved team in NCAA Division I Basketball. The Redhawks compiled an overall record of 15-18 and 9-7 in the Ohio Valley Conference, finishing second in the West Division. Southeast enjoyed a +10 increase in the win column after it had gone 5-24 and placed last in the conference the previous season. With only one returning starter and just four returnees, Southeast is eager to build on its recent success. The Redhawks lost over 51 percent of their minutes following the departure of starters Antionius Cleveland, Trey Kellum, Jamaal Calvin and Jaylen Benton. That group combined for 1,263 of the team's 2,460 minutes in 2016-17. Now, the task at hand is finding the right combination to replace those minutes.

Backcourt

Junior Jonathan Dalton (New Orleans, La.) is the frontrunner at the point guard spot. Dalton, who transferred to Southeast from Copiah-Lincoln Community College, played in 30 games and made one start last season. He saw his first NCAA Division I action when he scored two points in nine minutes at Illinois (Nov. 11). Fellow junior Dondre Duffus (Palm Beach, Fla.) will challenge. Duffus returns from a groin injury that sidelined him for the final 26 games of the 2016-17 campaign. He averaged 6.8 points and 2.2 rebounds in five games and three starts prior to getting hurt. Dalton and Duffus work to fill the void left by Jamaal Calvin, who averaged 6.9 points in 31 games and 29 starts at the point last season.

Perimeter

After making an OVC-low 154 three-pointers in 2015-16, Southeast finished the 2016-17 season with a school record 263 made threes. The Redhawks averaged eight 3-pointers made per game, 2.7 more than it did during Ray's first year as Southeast's coach. Senior Daniel Simmons (Biggersville, Miss.) is one of the more experienced perimeter threats. Simmons averaged 5.4 points and two rebounds in 32 games off the bench last season. He scored double figures in six contests and knocked down 28 three-pointers. Freshmen Ray Kowalski (Concord, N.C.), Ledarius Brewer (Meridian, Miss.), Isaiah Gable (Greenville, Ohio) and Khalil Cuffee (Fairburn, Ga.) are also in the mix. Kowalski missed the entire 2016-17 season with a knee injury and was granted a medical hardship. If there is anyone with the length and athleticism to replace First-Team All-OVC performer Antionius Cleveland in that regard, it's Brewer. Brewer averaged 15 points and seven rebounds per game, leading Meridian High School to a 30-2 record and 6A state title last season. Gable averaged 21.2 points, 7.4 rebounds and 3.1 assists as Greenville High School's top scorer as a senior. He garnered First-Team Great Western Ohio Conference honors and was a Third-Team Southwest Ohio All-District pick. Cuffee boasted a 14.2 points per game average as a senior at Langston Hughes High School. He averaged double figures in the scoring column each of his final three varsity seasons. Cuffee finished his prep career with 1,372 points and 195 three-pointers made. Junior walk-on Donnie Lewis (Lexington, Ky.) and redshirtsophomore Skyler Hogan (Melbourne, Fla.) round out the perimeter. Lewis sat out the 2016-17 season due to NCAA Division I transfer regulations. Hogan is a 4-4 transfer who will sit out this season and have two years of eligibility remaining with the Redhawks. He played the last two years at Embry-Riddle, leading the Eagles with 18.8 points and 8.2 rebounds per game last season. Hogan was also the team's top 3-point shooter with a 42.8 percent (71-of-166) clip.

Frontcourt

Preseason All-OVC sophomore Denzel Mahoney (Oviedo, Fla.) is the Redhawks only starter back after a huge rookie season. A Second-Team All-OVC and All-Newcomer selection, and the 2016-17 OVC Freshman of the Year, Mahoney ranked second on the team in scoring with 14.9 points per game and was the team's leading scorer in conference play (16.6 ppg) in 33 starts. He led the Redhawks with 57 three-pointers made, dished out 40 assists, collected 23 steals and gathered four blocks. Mahoney scored double figures in 27 starts and finished the year ranked 10th in the league in free throw percentage (.815) and 12th in scoring. Mahoney primarily played the four-spot, but is also skilled enough to play the three. At 6'10", 223 pounds, Mark Laros (Hengelo, Netherlands) is the Redhawks center underneath. Laros played on Mineral Area College teams that ranked 18th and ninth in the nation during his junior college stint. He averaged 5.4 points and 4.1 rebounds in 29 games last season. Senior Milos Vranes (Belgrade, Serbia) and freshman Justin Carpenter (Mt. Carmel, Ill.) complete the frontcourt. Vranes averaged 5.8 points and 3.3 rebounds in 31 games off the bench last season. He also drained 28 three-pointers. Vranes played with the Serbian National Team during the offseason. Carpenter was an honorable mention Class 2A All-State pick as a senior at Mt. Carmel High School.

No Postseason

On May 10, 2017, the NCAA released the public APR data, postseason ineligibility and penalty reports. Southeast Missouri men's basketball received the following penalties: Postseason ineligibility in 2017-18 and Practice time restricted to 16 hours and five days per week in-season.

HEAD COACH RICK RAY

Rick Ray begins his third season at Southeast Missouri in 2017-18.

Rick Ray enters his third year as Southeast Missouri's head coach.

In his second season a year ago, Ray led Southeast to a +10 increase in the win column as the Redhawks were the 22nd Most Improved Team in NCAA Division I Basketball. The Redhawks finished at 15-18 overall and second in the Ohio Valley Conference West Division with a 9-7 mark after going 5-24 and placing last in the OVC in 2015-16.

Southeast made its 15th all-time OVC Tournament appearance with Ray winning the first game he coached at the event when the Redhawks erased a 14-point deficit to beat Tennessee State in overtime.

Statistically, Southeast showed dramatic improvement from the previous season. The Redhawks ranked among the top-five in the OVC in several categories, including steals (1st, 7.7), assist/turnover ratio (5th, 1.1) and 3-point field goals made (5th, 8.0). Southeast made its biggest jump from the 2015-16 season to this past season in turnover margin (8th to 1st), 3-point field goal percentage (last to 2nd) and free throw percentage (last to 2nd). Nationally, Southeast went from 331st to 49th in free throw percentage and 336th to 59th in total 3-point field goals made, while making significant improvement in many other areas during the 2016-17 campaign.

Additionally, Ray coached a pair of All-OVC selections in guards Antonius Cleveland and Denzel Mahoney. Cleveland earned first-team honors, became the first Southeast player to make the national College Slam Dunk Championship and agreed to a deal with the Golden State Warriors. Mahoney was the league's Freshman of the Year, a second-team pick, All-Newcomer selection and OVC All-Tournament Team honoree. It was the first time the Redhawks had multiple All-OVC selections since 2013-14 (Tyler Stone, Jarekious Bradley).

Following the 2016-17 campaign, Ray received a two-year contract extension that runs through the 2020-21 season.

Ray was introduced as the 20th head coach in Southeast Missouri men's basketball history on April 13, 2015.

Ray, who agreed to a four-year contract that will run through 2019, is the first African-American head coach in the 109-year history of the program.

A tireless worker, Ray is structuring his program to achieve success both on the court and in the classroom.

In his first summer on the job, Ray challenged his players to excel academically and they did so by accumulating a 3.38 grade point average, the program's highest in a summer term.

Twelve of the 15 players enrolled in summer classes posted a 3.0 or higher GPA. To take it even further, Ray convinced other players to remain on campus and finish what they started. As a result, seven players graduated. Nino Johnson, Jarekious Bradley, Darrian Gray and J.J. Thompson, along with former players Corey Wilford, Waylon Jones and Dainmon Gonner all earned their bachelor degrees.

The next summer, the Redhawks recorded a 3.33 GPA with six players achieving a 4.0 and 11 notching a 3.0 or higher GPA.

Ray's 2015-16 team was the first to play in a newly-renovated Show Me Center, which has served as home to Redhawk Basketball since 1987.

One of the best basketball arenas in the Ohio Valley Conference, the Show Me Center received a new state-of-the-art center-hung video board, brand new telescopic seating, a new exterior roof and additional improvements to lighting and sound systems. All renovations were completed for the 2015-16 campaign.

Prior to Southeast, Ray spent three seasons as head coach at Mississippi State. He led the Bulldogs to a 2-2 mark in the SEC Tournament, including an upset win against Vanderbilt in 2013-14. Ray helped the development of two All-SEC freshmen in Craig Sword and Gavin Ware, as his recruiting classes received national attention. In addition, Ray had a 100 percent graduation rate during his tenure at MSU.

Certainly no stranger to NCAA postseason play, Ray has been an assistant at three different institutions that enjoyed success at the highest level.

Before arriving in Starkville, Mississippi, Ray spent two seasons at Clemson, where he was associate head coach to Brad Brownell. Ray also spent four successful years on the staff of Matt Painter at Purdue. He began his Division I coaching career at Indiana State, serving seven seasons.

All three programs participated in the NCAA Tournament. While at Clemson coaching in the highly-competitive Atlantic Coast Conference, the Tigers won 38 games during Ray's two-year stint as associate head coach. In 2010-11, the Tigers finished the year with a 22-12 overall record and 9-7 mark in the ACC en route to making the NCAA Tournament for the fourth-straight season. Clemson advanced to the second round of the tournament that year.

Ray was an assistant coach from 2006-10 under Painter at Purdue, where the Boilermakers won 103 games during his first four years on staff, including 15 victories over Top 25 competition. During his tenure, Purdue advanced to the NCAA Tournament each season and made the Sweet 16 his last two years there.

In 2009, the Boilermakers won the Big Ten Tournament and secured a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament. A year later, Ray helped the Boilermakers to 29 wins, tied for the most in Purdue history for a single season. Purdue earned a No. 4 seed and lost in the round of 16 to eventual NCAA champion Duke during the 2010 NCAA Tournament.

Ray was part of the 2006-07 Purdue staff that signed arguably the top class in school history, a group that was rated No. 5 nationally by Scout.com and No. 6 by Rivals.com. That class included All-Americans Robbie Hummel and JaJuan Johnson and current NBA player E'Twaun Moore.

While at Purdue, Ray was on Painter's staff that also included Cuonzo Martin, who recently completed his second season at Cal, and Paul Lusk, who is head coach at Missouri State.

Ray coached at Missouri Valley Conference member Indiana State for a period of seven years (1997-2004), helping ISU to consecutive 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament appearances in 1999-2000 and 2000-01. In 1999-2000, the Sycamores compiled a 14-4 record in the MVC and won the regular season title. ISU then won the MVC Tournament the following season. The Sycamores later upset No. 4 seed Oklahoma in the first round of the 2001 NCAA Tournament. In addition, Ray was part of the ISU staff that defeated perennial power Indiana in back-to-back seasons.

Following his time at ISU, Ray spent two seasons (2004-06) as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Northern Illinois. In 2005-06, the Huskies were regular season Western Division champions in the Mid-American Conference for the first time in school history with a 17-11 overall record and 12-6 ledger in the MAC.

Ray began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Nebraska-Omaha, a Division II program. He helped orchestrate a seven-win turnaround during his second season in 1996-97.

A standout player for Grand View College (Iowa), Ray was an All-American Scholar-Athlete and honorable mention all-conference performer in 1993.

He earned his undergraduate degree in applied mathematics and secondary education from Grand View in 1994. Ray received his master's degree in athletic administration from Nebraska-Omaha in 1997.

Those type of heralded credentials helped Ray make the transition to head coach.

In 2013, he was the recipient of Grand View's Distinguished Alumni Award.

Born in Gardena, California, Ray moved to Kansas City, Kansas with his family when he was six years old.

Ray and his wife, Breyana, have two sons, Deacon and Mason, and a daughter, Katriece.

Ray's 2016-17 team showed dramatic improvement and the Redhawks will look to build on that success in his third year at the helm.
