YOUR REDHAWKS

Houck Field will serve as the home of Southeast Missouri State University football for the 87th consecutive year in 2017.

Most recently, renovations were made to the press box before the 2015 season. Renovations included a new sound system, filming station and carpet among other things to enhance the overall interior and exterior look.

Prior to the 2011 season, Houck Field received a huge makeover, as a new FieldTurf playing surface, state-of-the-art Daktronics video scoreboard and new lighting (which meets television standards) was installed. The facility was also re-painted, giving the longtime home to Redhawk Football a flashy look. Southeast squared off against regional-rival and then-No. 17 Southern Illinois in the first game on the new surface. The Redhawks and Salukis played in front of a sellout crowd of 10,136 on Sept. 3, 2011.

In 2010, a school record average 8,342 fans turned out to watch Southeast at home. That mark was an improvement from the Redhawks average home attendance of 5,835 in 2009. Southeast also had two crowds over Houck Field capacity.

Houck Field was built in 1930 at a cost of $150,000 and remains a beautiful and picturesque stadium today.

The dedication game pitted Southeast and Southern Illinois from nearby Carbondale, Illinois, on Oct. 3, 1930. That game attracted a crowd of over 6,000, with SIU claiming a 12-6 victory. The referee of the inaugural game was James T. Blair, who served as the Governor of Missouri from 1957-61.

Houck Field was constructed on the site of an old rock quarry and was purchased in 1925 for $11,000 at the recommendation of then-college President Joseph A. Serena.

Ten thousand bags of Portland Cement, 23,000 feet of Oregon Fir seat lumber and 150,000 feet of Yellow Pine Form lumber were used in the construction, according to an ad in the Houck Field dedication program. The original stadium included 5,240 seats on the south side of the field.

The field and stadium were named in honor of Louis Houck, who served 39 years as a Regent for the University and President of the Board for all but three of those years.

Seating on the north side of the stadium was added prior to the 1963 season. The press box was later constructed on the south side in 1979. Approximately 400 chairback seats were added to a center section on the south side of the stadium in 1992.

In 2000, the first FieldTurf playing field was installed and the exterior of the facility was resurfaced. Improvements were also made to the press box.

More upgrades took place in the fall of 2005. Those included a paved parking area adjacent to the east end zone and new parking and landscaping areas surrounding the outside of the stadium.

A state-of-the-art dormitory was built on the west end of the facility in recent years. The ground floor of that building houses a locker room and athletic training facility which the football team uses on gamedays.

Nine of the largest single-game crowds at Houck Field have come in the last 15 years.

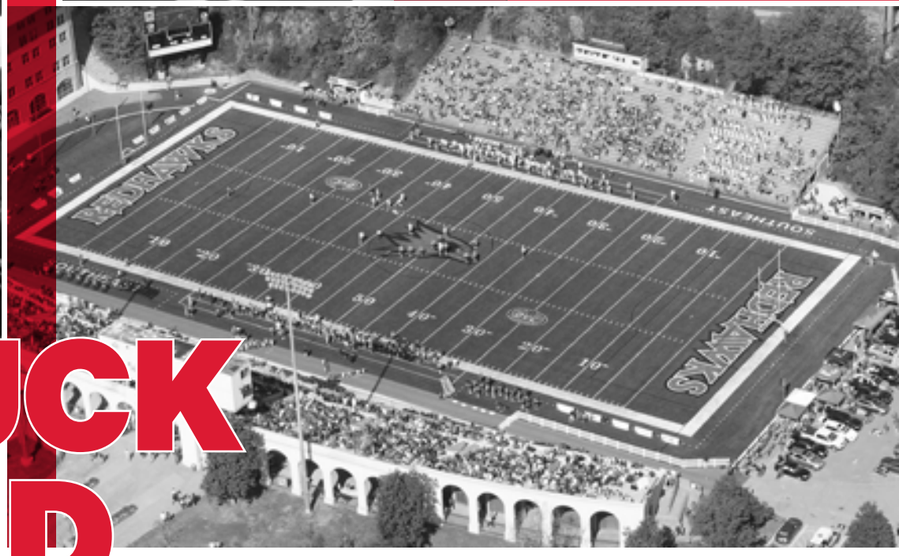

During Southeast's Ohio Valley Conference championship season in 2010, a school record 11,126 fans packed Houck Field to watch the Redhawks defeat UT Martin on Oct. 30. Southeast also drew a crowd of 10,316 vs. Tennessee State on Oct. 9 for the fourth-largest single-game home attendance.

HOUCK FIELD

In addition, the Redhawks had over 10,000 fans for the Western Kentucky (10,222) and Murray State (10,028) games in 2000, the Murray State (10,100) game in 2001 and the Southern Illinois matchups in 2005 (10,100) and 2011 (10,136).

Largest Houck Field Crowds

Opponent	Date	Attendance
UT Martin	10/30/10	11,126
Southern Illinois	9/6/03	11,100
Eastern Kentucky	10/2/99	11,015
Tennessee State	10/9/10	10,316
Western Kentucky	9/23/00	10,222
Southern Illinois	9/3/11	10,136
Southern Illinois	9/1/05	10,100

ROSENGARTEN COMPLEX

The Rosengarten Athletic Complex houses Southeast Missouri's primary football locker room, athletic training room, equipment room, coaches offices and meeting workspace.

This facility was renovated prior to the 2011 season. Upgrades included new flooring, wooden lockers, chairback seating/ furniture, meeting room partitions, additional lighting and shower areas.

Most recently, brand new graphics and a film tower were added to the Rosengarten Athletic Complex.

A total of 115 custom-designed, wooden lockers give Southeast's football players the space, comfort and functionality they need. A lounge fully equipped with leather furniture, flatscreen televisions and computer stations serves as a nice place for the Redhawks to unwind after practice. Players also gather for meetings and film study sessions in their team meeting room, furnished with theatre-style seating and the latest video equipment.

The Rosengarten Athletic Complex also has two outdoor natural grass practice fields which Southeast uses for gameday preparation, camps and other activities.

The Holcomb Success Center offers Southeast Missouri student-athletes a place to study and develop as students and campus leaders.

It is located in the Student Recreation Center, just south of Houck Field. The Holcomb Success Center offers a computer lab with 18 work terminals, study areas and rooms for group meetings. The facility houses the Southeast Academic Services staff and main weight room for Redhawk student-athletes.

The beautiful facility has enhanced the outstanding work in the classroom already enjoyed by Southeast student-athletes.

Last year, the Redhawks recorded for a 3.20 cumulative grade point average in the fall and spring semesters. Women's tennis paved the way with a 3.79 cumulative GPA, while women's cross country and women's soccer followed close behind with 3.75 and 3.70 marks, respectively.

In all, 210 student-athletes finished with a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA, including 12 with a 4.0 and 107 at 3.5 or better. That total accounted for 64.2 percent of the entire student-athlete population.

During the spring semester alone, the Redhawks had nine programs post a 3.25 or better GPA, including women's cross country (3.76), women's tennis (3.67), women's soccer (3.59), volleyball (3.52), softball (3.462), women's basketball (3.461), gymnastics (3.45), baseball (3.299) and women's track & field (3.296).

Tutors are available for all student-athletes as needed. In addition, both attendance and academic progress is monitored through regular checks with faculty.

A special course is required for all first time student-athletes at Southeast. The course, which offers three credit hours, is part of a comprehensive program developed to address study skills and life skills topics, and thus, enhance retention and academic success for student-athletes.

Entering student-athletes are evaluated for academic preparedness and assigned to appropriate categories. Student-athletes can also receive individualized academic programs which include meeting with a mentor bi-weekly to discuss academic progress.

The Holcomb Success Center staff works to get athletes involved in campus and community projects, as well. This is done to provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success. Through the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, the Holcomb Success Center gives student-athletes personal and professional skills in order to facilitate successful and productive futures.

YOUR REDHAWKS

Student-athletes and coaches at Southeast Missouri are dedicated to giving back to the community that so generously supports them.

Redhawk football student-athletes have opportunities to participate in a variety of community service activities each year. Community involvement helps provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success.

We are proud of the level of commitment shown by our student-athletes and always encourage them to participate in community service projects here at Southeast.

Southeast student-athletes also have the opportunity to participate in the Redhawks BRIDGE Program. The mission of the Redhawks BRIDGE Program is to develop a comprehensive student-athlete development program by Building Responsible Individuals and Delivering Gainful Experiences. This program provides student-athletes with both leadership and life skills experiences through interactive programming that will prepare them to be successful in life after athletics. The leadership programming will teach student-athletes about Southeast's culture and allow them to learn, develop, and apply leadership skills. The life skills programming provides educational programs designed to assist student-athletes in identifying and applying transferable skills and experiences to prepare them to succeed outside of the athletic arena.

Redhawks BRIDGE Program

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

YOUR REDHAWKS

Southeast Missouri's Strength and Conditioning program is committed to developing the total student-athlete through their experiences within a competitive training environment.

Southeast's weight room renovations at the Holcomb Success Center were completed in January, 2016.

Indoor turf, weights, equipment and lifting platforms were added as part of the renovation, which cost $500,000. The facility now has more space and equipment to handle Southeast's larger teams or multiple teams training at the same time. Branding and new lighting were also included in the overall project.

The newly-renovated weight room enhances training with the best equipment available and is able to accomodate larger teams or multiple teams training at the same time.

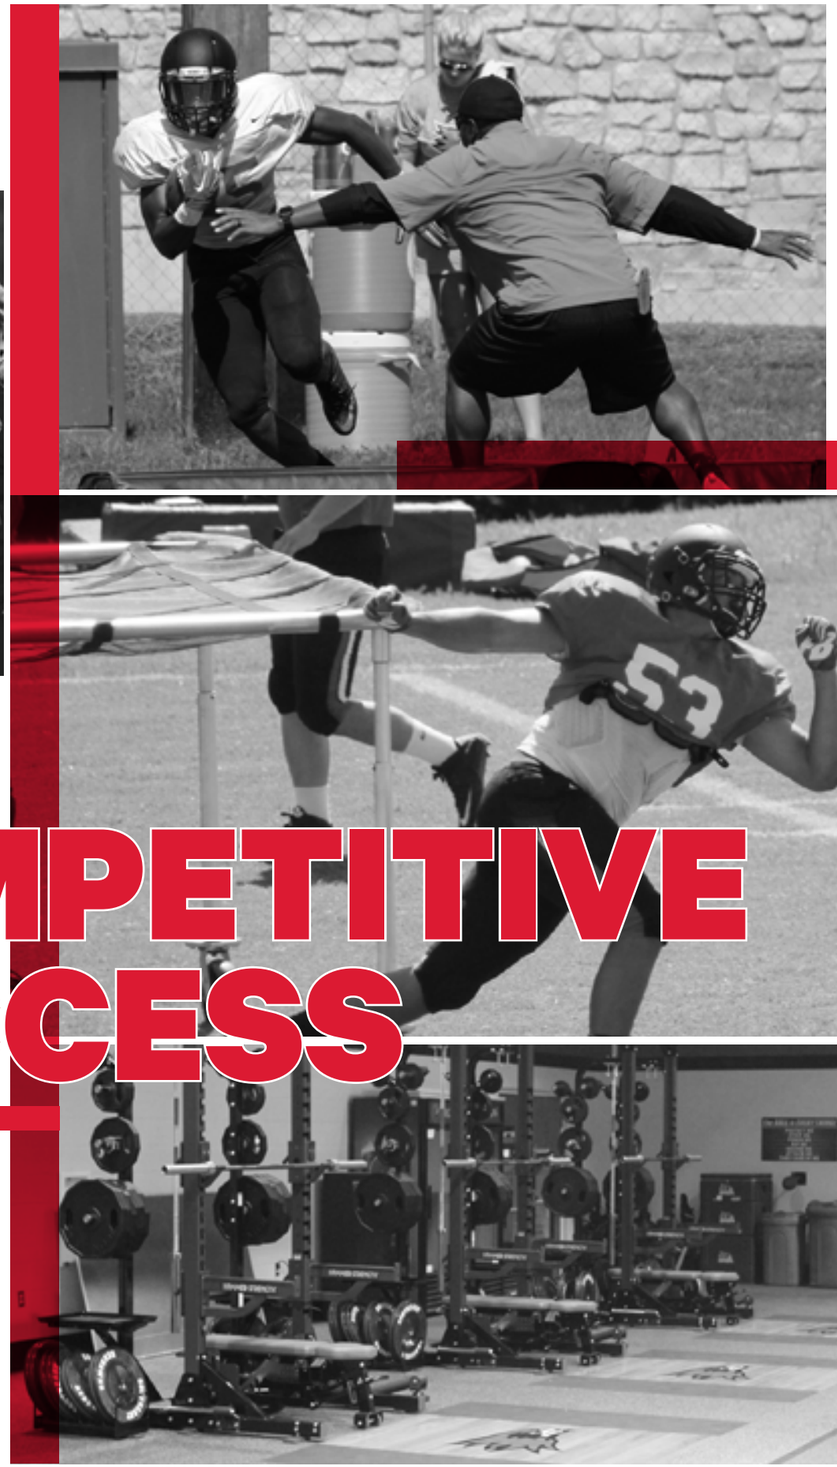

Training Principles for Southeast Athletes

1. Reduce the risk of injuries
   - If a student-athlete is injured, he/she will not be able to compete at practice or games.
2. Ensure the athletes are optimally prepared to compete
   - It is our responsibility to best manage all stressors that are placed on the student-athletes body in order to achieve the best results on the playing field.
3. Maximize athletic ability
   - We challenge each athlete, both physically and mentally, in order to achieve optimal results.

Exercises for Southeast Athletes are based on the following Principles:

1. Ground Based Movements
   - Athletes compete with their feet on the ground, and therefore, should train that way. The ability to produce force against the ground determines how fast athletes can run and how high they can jump.
2. Three-Dimensional Movements
   - Athletes must be able to stabalize themselves in all planes of movement. A fancy way of saying we use free weights (barbells/dumbbells vs. machines).
3. Multi-Joint Movements
   - Very rarely in sport do athletes isolate one single joint at a time. Athletes can train more muscle mass at the same time.

COMPETITIVE SUCCESS

YOUR REDHAWKS

Prevention. Treatment. Rehabilitation. Education. Those are the four primary phases of athletic training, and the Southeast Missouri athletic training staff strives to fulfill all of those areas when working with student-athletes on a daily basis.

Southeast student-athletes are offered the best care possible by the athletic training staff. The Sports Medicine department includes five full-time athletic trainers, six graduate assistants and several student assistants. The staff serves student-athletes around-the-clock at numerous facilities on campus.

The athletic trainers begin treatments and rehabilitation starting as early as 6 a.m., and are available until the last student-athlete is through.

There are currently four athletic training facilities on campus. The staff treats out of the Rosengarten Athletic Complex, where the primary training room is located. There are two other satellite athletic training rooms, including one at Houck Field House and one at the Show Me Center.

The Southeast athletic training rooms are equipped with stationary bikes, hand weights, therapeutic modalities and the latest physical therapy equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athlete the best care, but also to aid in returning to competition as quickly as possible.

Southeast Athletic Training has strong working relationships with local physicians and two hospitals in Cape Girardeau. It is from these hospitals that the Athletic Training department is assisted by four orthopedic physicians.

The Southeast Athletic Training program prides and commits itself to providing the best comprehensive, personalized and efficient healthcare to its student-athletes. Delivery of healthcare focuses on the prevention and management of athletic-related injuries or illnesses, while adhering to the National Athletic Trainers' Board of Certification Standards of Professional Practice. Our high quality of athletic healthcare is provided in combination with the education of athletic training students.

SPORTS MEDICINE

PINK UP GAME

Southeast Missouri State University and Saint Francis Medical Center announced a new collaboration on August 12, 2015, taking the Redhawks' Pink Up efforts to a new level.

Led by head coach Tom Matukewicz, the Southeast football team introduced the Pink Up Jersey Auction. Black jerseys with pink numbers will be worn during the Redhawks Pink Up game on November 4 vs. UT Martin. Winners will personalize their winning jerseys with a name in honor or memory of a survivor or loved one, if desired. Following the game, these game-worn jerseys will be presented to the winning bidders. Winners also receive two game tickets and an invitation to a pre-game tailgate party -- all in honor of Pink Up.

"We are thrilled to team up with Saint Francis Medical Center to help make a difference in this community," said Matukewicz. "East year, we hope this effort raises awareness and money to fight this terrible disease. This is a life changing experience for our players, who have the opportunity to meet families that have lost loved ones to cancer."

Saint Francis launched Pink Up in 2010 to raise awareness of breast cancer in the community. During the campaign, residents are encouraged to "pink up" their homes and businesses in support of the cause. Pink Up proceeds provide free mammograms to area women who otherwise could not afford them.

Pink Up provides more than 400 free mammograms to local women each year, and has provided more than 2,600 free mammograms since 2000.

Breast cancer is the second-most diagnosed – and second-most fatal – cancer in women. One in eight women will be diagnosed with the disease in her lifetime, but early detection could save her life. Women age 40 and older should have a yearly screening and the Pink Up attempts to remove financial barriers for those who need the screening but cannot afford it.

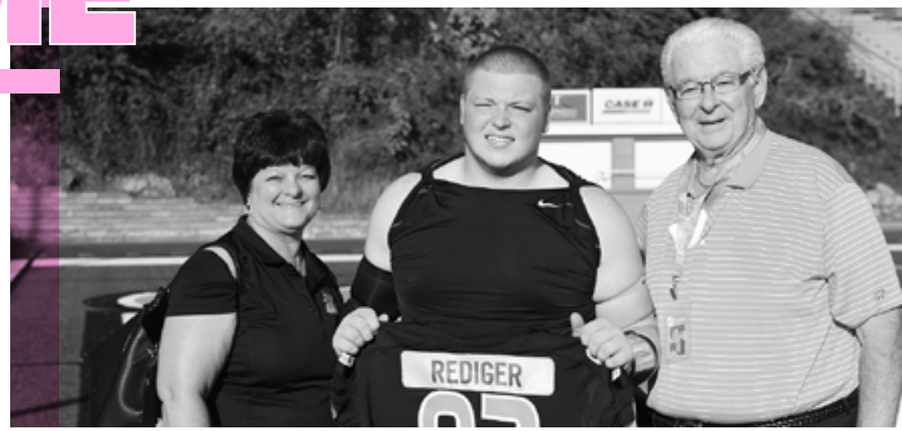

Southeast's football program raised over $45,000 for breast cancer awareness through its first two Pink Up jersey auctions.

DAN CONNOLLY

Paul McRoberts was signed to the Los Angeles Rams' active roster on Dec. 23, 2016.

McRoberts joined the Rams as an undrafted free agent following his Southeast Missouri career. He played in two games in his rookie season after spending 15 weeks on the team's practice squad. McRoberts caught his first pass for six yards vs. Arizona.

Several other former Redhawks have gone on to have success in the professional ranks.

Dan Connolly announced his retirement on July 16, 2015 following eight seasons with the New England Patriots. Connolly played left guard, center and right guard during his time in New England. He was a team captain his final year, playing in 13 regular-season games and starting Super Bowl XLIX at left guard.

Health concerns convinced Connolly to leave the game, as he was diagnosed with four concussions during his NFL career and suffered a fifth in high school.

Connolly won his first Super Bowl ring when the Patriots beat the Seattle Seahawks, 28-24, in Super Bowl XLIX. It was the second Super Bowl Connolly played in during his career as a Patriot.

On Feb. 5, 2012, Connolly became the first Southeast player to play in a Super Bowl when he suited up for Super Bowl XLVI against the New York Giants.

Prior to that Super Bowl, Connolly and Southeast alum Edgar Jones met in the AFC Championship Game. Jones, who began that season with the Washington Redskins, was a member of the Baltimore Ravens at the time. Jones was initially signed by the Ravens as an undrafted free agent in 2007 and released on Oct. 22, 2010, before returning to Baltimore. He spent the 2013 season with the Dallas Cowboys and later finished out his pro career with the Cleveland Browns.

Eugene Amano had a nine-year playing career with the Tennessee Titans.

Meanwhile, former Southeast assistant coach Jon Gruden rose to the top of professional football in 2003 when he guided the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a Super Bowl title. Gruden was also head coach of the Oakland Raiders and is now an ESPN analyst who serves as a color commentator for Monday Night Football. Gruden coached at Southeast in 1988.

Marty Mornhinweg, another Southeast assistant, is currently in the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Baltimore Ravens. Before that, Mornhinweg was the offensive coordinator for the New York Jets. He has been in the NFL over 20 years. Prior to New York, Mornhinweg was the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles and head coach of the Detroit Lions in 2001-02. He also served in different coaching capacities with the Green Bay (1995-96) Packers and San Francisco 49ers (1997-2000). Five quarterbacks, including Michael Vick, Donovan McNabb, Brett Favre, Steve Young and Jeff Garcia have earned Pro Bowl honors under Mornhinweg.

Most recently, former Southeast defensive lineman Jon Robinson was hired as general manager of the Tennessee Titans. Robinson spent two years as Director of Player Personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and 12 seasons with the New England Patriots prior to that role.

He has championed the work of the President's Task Force on Diversity Education and continued emphasizing the expectations for enhancement of the teacher-scholar model. Under President Vargas' leadership, regional partnerships and collaborations have been solidified, including several joint initiatives with Three Rivers, Mineral Area and other community colleges.

Prior to assuming the presidency at Southeast, Dr. Vargas served one year as acting president of Kutztown University, where he also served as the provost and vice president for academic and student affairs.

Prior to his tenure at Kutztown, Dr. Vargas was at Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio, where he served as provost and vice president for academic affairs. BRADY BARKE

Brady Barke is in his second year as Southeast Missouri's Director of Athletics.

Barke served as the Interim Director of Athletics since July, 2015, before being named to the permanent position of Director of Athletics on June 7, 2016.

During his first year in 2016-17, Barke introduced Andy Sawyers as the Redhawks head baseball coach and worked tirelessly on two major renovation projects.

Nearly a month after Sawyers was hired, Southeast Missouri State and the City of Cape Girardeau officially broke ground on Capaha Field. New synthetic turf, new fencing and a digital scoreboard in the outfield were added as part of the $1.8 million project that was completed before Southeast's season-opener.

On Feb. 3, 2017, Southeast formally dedicated Holcomb Success Center. To honor the long-time service and philanthropy of Dr. John and Judy Holcomb, the University named the facility the Holcomb Success Center located in the Student Recreation Center-South.

Indoor turf, weights, equipment and lifting platforms were added as part of the renovation at a cost of $500,000. The facility now has more space and equipment to handle Southeast's larger teams or multiple teams training at the same time. Barke helped secure the Holcombs gift, the largest single cash gift in Southeast Athletics history.

Major improvements were also made to the second floor of the building where athletic academic services are housed. This space provides student-athletes with places to study and features a computer lab with 30 work terminals and rooms for group meetings. Staff members assist student-athletes with life skills development, academic advising and academic progress toward degree requirements and NCAA eligibility.

Academically, Southeast's Department of Athletics recorded a cumulative 3.20 grade point average for the 2016-17 academic year. In all, 210 student-athletes finished with a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA, including 12 with a 4.0 and 107 at 3.5 or better. That total reflects 64.2 percent of the entire student-athlete population. During the spring semester alone, the Redhawks had nine programs post a 3.25 or better GPA.

The Redhawks Club annual fund grew nearly 20 percent to more than $230,000 under Barke's leadership in 2016-17. It was Southeast's highest single-year annual fund campaign in 12 years. Sponsorship and marketing revenues also increased 11 percent to a record-high of more than $246,000.

Barke created the Redhawks Trivia Night & Auction, a sold out event that generated over $40,000 in net revenue its first year. In addition, he launched the Redhawks BRIDGE program which provides student-athletes with both leadership and life skills experiences through interactive programming that will prepare them to be successful in life after athletics.

Barke, senior associate to the president and secretary to the Board of Regents at Southeast, officially began as Director of Athletics on July 1, 2016.

Barke served as Interim Associate Director of Athletics for Compliance & Student Support Services before being named the Senior Associate to the President and Secretary to the Southeast Missouri State University Board of Regents in 2013.

He began his tenure at Southeast in 2008 as Assistant Director of Athletics for Compliance & Eligibility. Barke previously served as a governance intern with the NCAA national headquarters in Indianapolis, and as a law clerk with the Southern Illinois University-Carbondale Department of Athletics Compliance Office.

Barke has served as a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance (NAAC), chaired the NAAC Education Committee, and was a member of the NAAC Board of Directors. He has facilitated the NCAA Regional Leadership Academy, and served on both the NCAA Sports Wagering Task Force and the Olympic Sports Liaison Committee.

Barke has a juris doctorate degree from Southern Illinois University School of Law, an MBA from Southeast Missouri State University, and a bachelor of science degree in biology from Webster University. While a student at Webster, Barke was a member of both the basketball and golf teams and was inducted into the Webster Athletic Hall of Fame.

He and his wife, Halley, are parents of three children, Mabrie, Jackson, and Kolbe.

SEASON PREVIEW

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

OFFENSIVE PREVIEW

Southeast Missouri begins its fourth year under head coach Tom Matukewicz in 2017.

After losing 28 seniors, Southeast re-loaded with its largest recruiting class of the Matukewicz era. The Redhawks also bring back nine starters, including five on offense and four on defense. Additionally, 12 transfers enrolled at Southeast in January and participated in spring drills.

Quarterback Jesse Hosket, tackles Drew Forbes and Alex Snyder, tight end Marquette Murdock and wide receiver Kristian Wilkerson are the returning starters on offense, while nose tackle Joshua Wilson, outside linebackers Chad Meredith and Kendall Donnerson, and cornerback Mike Ford are the starters back on defense. Hosket, Meredith and fellow returnee Cameron Sanders earned All-Ohio Valley Conference honors a year ago.

In 2016, Southeast dropped four games by a combined 12 points en route to finishing 3-8 overall and 3-5 in the OVC. Over the previous two years alone, the Redhawks were either up or down a score in the fourth quarter 13 times before falling in those instances.

Matukewicz and company have been working hard to change that trend with the upcoming season quickly approaching.

Here is an extensive look at the 2017 Redhawks:

Quarterback

French Camp, Mississippi native Jesse Hosket enters his final season as the Redhawks starting quarterback.

A transfer from East Central Community College, Hosket started all 11 games under center a year ago.

He completed 178-of-356 passes for 2,332 yards and 11 touchdowns, and added three rushing TDs. Hosket ranked 35th in the Football Championship Subdivision in yards per completion (13.1), 40th in total passing yards and 43rd in passing yards per game (212).

Hosket, who secured OVC All-Newcomer accolades, rated among the top five conference leaders in passing yards per game (3rd) and total offense (5th, 213.5 ypg). He also threw for more than 200 yards in eight of his starts.

Hosket, one of three returning starting quarterbacks in the OVC, will become the first Redhawk QB to start consecutive seasons since Matt Scheible (2008-11). Prior to 2017, Matukewicz had a different starting quarterback in each of his first three seasons at Southeast.

Junior Anthony Cooper is behind Hosket on the two-deep. Cooper has not yet seen any game action.

Junior Eain Roberts and freshmen Nick Sprague, Cash Jones and Brandon Renaud are the rest of the quarterbacks.

Running Back

One of the more interesting position battles is at the tailback spot, where Southeast is working to replace Second-Team All-OVC pick Will Young.

Young was the Redhawks top rusher with 838 yards on 163 carries last season. He averaged 5.1 yards per attempt and scored six rushing touchdowns. Young ranked third in the conference in rushing with 76.2 yards per contest and had four 100-yard games.

Newcomer Marquis Terry is the frontrunner at tailback.

QB JESSE HOSKET

Terry transferred to Southeast from Highland Community College and had a productive spring.

He led the nation in rushing and secured First-Team National Junior College Athletic Association All-America accolades in 2016. That year, Terry ran for a Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference high 1,319 yards and found the end zone 17 times. He had 16 rushing TDs and was named the KJCCC Offensive Player of the Year.

Junior Cameron Sanders should see significant playing time at tailback as well.

Sanders gained 172 yards and scored one touchdown on 47 carries last season, his first at running back.

Junior Eddie Morris and redshirt-freshman Traionn Jones are others in the mix.

Receivers

Redshirt-sophomore Kristian Wilkerson is Southeast's top receiver back this season.

Wilkerson emerged as the team's leading receiver in his first year as a starter in 2016. He had 35 catches for a team-best 743 yards and four touchdowns. Wilkerson also broke the school's single-season record in yards per reception (21.2) and had 16 catches of 20 or more yards.

Senior Tyler McLemore is expected to start at the other wide receiver spot.

McLemore appeared in all 11 games and ranked fifth on the team with 16 receptions for 210 yards a year ago. He averaged 13.1 yards per catch and made at least one reception in nine contests.

Redshirt-sophomore Trevon Billington and redshirt-freshman Zack Smith will also be in the rotation at receiver.

Billington played mainly on special teams and Smith redshirted last season.

 Returning Starter*

Juniors Evan Scales and Richie Eisenhart are battling at the slot position.

Scales went through spring drills after transferring to Southeast from College of DuPage. He played both quarterback and receiver, throwing for over 1,000 yards and rushing for more than 300 last season.

Eisenhart played in five games in 2016. He made his first career start at Murray State (Sept. 24).

Other returnees at receiver include sophomores Al Young, Corey Manne and Jacquan Fuller.

Tight End/Fullback

Eureka product Austin Crump is at the top of the depth chart at tight end. Crump redshirted as a true freshman in 2016.

Senior Broedy Wheeler, sophomore Bud Hilburn and freshman Devon Scott round out the tight ends.

At fullback, sophomore Eric Williams has the edge.

Williams played in just one game on special teams last season.

Senior Logan Larson is another possibility.

Larson was granted a medical redshirt after missing the 2016 season with a hip injury.

Offensive Line

Southeast lost three starters on the offensive line.

Junior Drew Forbes and senior Alex Snyder return at the tackle spots.

In 2016, Forbes started 11 games at left tackle and was the recipient of the team's Goddard Award which goes to the best offensive lineman each year.

Snyder made 10 starts at right tackle and is also a two-year starter.

Sophomore Ryan Truvillion and senior Gabe Phillips add depth at tackle.

Sophomore Drew Swihart is projected to start at center. Swihart replaces Jake McCandless who logged 44 starts in four years with the Redhawks.

Junior Lucas Orchard is Swihart's backup.

Orchard spent the last two seasons at East Central Community College. He played in nine games each of those years. Orchard was a Second-Team Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges All-State offensive lineman. He participated in the Redhawks spring drills.

At guard, newcomers Kyle Thies and Junior Pierre are presently at the top of the depth chart.

Thies comes to Southeast from Eastern Arizona College, where he was a First-Team All-Conference and All-Region selection.

Meanwhile, Pierre played two seasons at Blinn College. He was one of seven Blinn College players to sign mid-year letters of intent.

Both Thies and Pierre went through spring drills.

Juniors Giovanni Negron and Jimmy Keutzer widen the depth at guard.

Negron saw limited action playing just two games last season.

Keutzer participated in spring drills after transferring to Southeast from Fort Scott Community College.

The Redhawks are looking to improve their scoring output this season. Southeast was ninth in the OVC in scoring offense, averaging 20.8 points a game a year ago. The Redhawks highest scoring average in the last five seasons was 32 points per contest in 2014, Matukewicz's first year as Southeast's head coach.

WR KRISTIAN WILKERSON

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

DEFENSIVE PREVIEW

The Redhawks were among the top five in the Ohio Valley Conference in scoring defense (3rd, 24.4 ppg allowed), total defense (4th, 390.2 ypg allowed), rushing defense (3rd, 138.5 ypg allowed), opponent third downs converted (4th, 38.6 pct.), opponent fourth downs converted (3rd, 42.9 pct.) and turnover margin (5th, -2) a year ago. Southeast also rated second in the OVC and 15th in the Football Championship Subdivision in red zone defense.

With the return of starting outside linebackers Chad Meredith and Kendall Donnerson, nose tackle Joshua Wilson and cornerback Mike Ford, Southeast's defense figures to be strong again this season.

Defensive Line

Senior Joshua Wilson anchors the defensive line at nose tackle and is looking to close out his career with a bang.

Wilson tallied 10 starts and recorded 41 tackles with 15 solo stops last season. He added four tackles for loss, a sack and one fumble recovery.

Freshman Daterraion Richardson will battle.

Richardson finished his high school career at Liberty North with 118 total tackles, 18 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. He became Liberty North's first wrestling state champion when he won the Missouri Class 4 title.

The defensive line had a big hand in Southeast limiting its opponents to 138.5 yards on the ground last season.

Sophomore Clarence Thornton and freshman Bryson Donnell are the lead candidates at tackle, while sophomores Reggie Miles and Ryan Ochoa are going head-to-head for the starting job at defensive end.

Thornton registered three tackles in six games last season.

Donnell was a two-year captain and First-Team All-MTAC pick at Lighthouse Christian College in Antioch, Tennessee. He finished his prep career as his school's all-time leader in tackles for loss (35).

Miles posted 36 tackles, three sacks, a forced fumble and two tackles for loss in nine games at Ellsworth Community College last season. He enrolled at Southeast in January and went through spring drills.

Ochoa played in two games and notched his first career tackle in 2016. Initially a walk-on, Ochoa was awarded a scholarship on Apr. 30.

Freshman Demarco Davis, and sophomores Devin Hebert and Josh Avery look to contribute as well.

Inside Linebacker

Southeast's inside linebackers lost a pair of starters in Roper Garrett and Terrance Hill.

Garrett was the Redhawks leading tackler for each of the last three seasons. He collected 359 tackles, 27.5 tackles for loss, nine sacks, three interceptions, seven forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in his career.

Southeast is hoping for a seamless transition as Roper's younger brother, Rider Garrett, prepares to take over the "Will" linebacker spot.

Garrett played mainly on special teams, seeing action in nine games last season. He accumulated 13 tackles with five solo stops. Garrett, who joined the team as a walk-on in 2013, was awarded a scholarship on Apr. 30.

Junior Devin Alexander is another possibility at the "Will."

Alexander played in 11 games and was a valuable contributor on special teams in 2016. He registered 20 tackles, 12 solo stops, two tackles for loss and a sack. Including this year, Alexander has two seasons of eligibility after coming to Southeast from Mid-American Conference member Toledo before the 2016 campaign.

At the "Mike" position, sophomore Zach Hall looks to pick up from where he left off a year ago.

Hall played in 11 games and made two starts as a true freshman. He notched 36 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, one sack, a fumble recovery and one pass breakup. Hall was later rewarded for his efforts when he received the team's Defensive Newcomer award.

Newcomer Demarcus Rogers is also in the mix.

Rogers played two seasons at Northeast Mississippi Community College, where he recorded 85 tackles in nine games during the 2016 campaign. He helped the Golden Wave capture a berth to the Mississippi High School Activities Association Class 6A championship game.

Outside Linebacker

The Redhawks return their starting outside linebackers in senior Chad Meredith and junior Kendall Donnerson.

A preseason All-OVC pick, Meredith ranked second on the team in tackles (86) and tackles for loss (10.5), and tied for first in sacks (5). He locked down First-Team All-OVC honors and was the recipient of the Redhawks Vogelsang Defensive MVP award for the second-straight year.

Meredith ranked ninth in the OVC in tackles, seventh in tackles for loss and tied for ninth in sacks. In addition, he turned in double-digit tackles on three occasions.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Meredith enters his senior year needing 24 tackles to reach 200 in his career.

OLB CHAD MEREDITH

OLB KENDALL DONNERSON

Donnerson started 10 contests in his first year as a starting outside linebacker in 2016. He recorded 50 tackles, led the Redhawks with 13 tackles for loss and tied for first on the team with four sacks. Donnerson was 48th in the FCS in tackles for loss per game (1.2).

Meredith and Donnerson both rank among the school's all-time career leaders in sacks and tackles for loss.

Swift had eight tackles and three solo stops in 11 games last season.

Goree transferred to Southeast from Fort Scott Community College. He recorded 53 tackles, four tackles for loss and a sack in 11 contests a year ago. Goree participated in the Redhawks spring drills.

Redshirt-freshmen Omardrick Douglas and Victor Alvarez add to the linebacker corps.

Safeties

Southeast had just five interceptions last season, fewest in the OVC.

The Redhawks need to replace their starting safeties following the departure of Eriq Moore and Ryan Moore.

Both combined for 20 starts with Eriq starting nine games at strong safety and Ryan starting every contest at free safety.

Senior Omar Pierre-Louis and junior Dontavius Powell are looking to take over those spots.

Pierre-Louis collected 32 tackles, 15 solo stops and two pass breakups in 11 games and one start last season.

Powell joins the Redhawks from East Mississippi Community College. He, too, had 32 tackles in 2016.

Redshirt-sophomore Taj Jenkins and junior KT McCollin will help in the secondary.

Jenkins played in all 11 games, primarily on special teams last season. He had eight tackles and three solo stops.

McCollin finished with 10 tackles, one interception and three pass breakups at Northwest Mississippi Community College in 2016. He participated in spring drills.

Cornerbacks

The Redhawk cornerbacks will be under first-year assistant coach Ray Smith.

Smith worked the last two seasons as defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator at Southwest Baptist. The Bearcats returned 14 interceptions for 134 yards and added 29 pass breakups a year ago.

Senior Mike Ford returns at cornerback.

A two-year starter, Ford missed the final four weeks of the 2016 season due to injury. He registered 40 tackles, 30 solo stops, three tackles for loss, two sacks and one interception in seven starts prior to getting hurt.

Redshirt-freshman Bydarrius Knighten is the frontrunner at the other cornerback spot.

True freshman Rodney Hawkins and sophomore Shabari Davis will challenge.

Hawkins played in 22 games over his final two prep seasons at Brandon High School. He tallied 89 tackles, nine interceptions, three tackles for loss, and scored a total of four touchdowns in that span. Hawkins returned three punts for touchdowns and ran back an interception for his other score.

Davis comes to Southeast from Garden City Community College. He recorded five interceptions during his only junior college season in 2016.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

SPECIAL TEAMS PREVIEW

Southeast Missouri will have some new faces on special teams following the departure of punter Alex Knight and kicker Ryan McCrum.

Knight started the last four years and was a First-Team All-Ohio Valley Conference pick in 2016. He led the OVC and ranked sixth in the Football Championship Subdivision in punting with an average of 43.8 yards per punt.

McCrum first came to Southeast as a walk-on before serving as the Redhawks starting kicker for four seasons. He led the team and ranked fifth in the OVC in scoring with 77 points a year ago. McCrum made 18-of-26 field goals and did not miss a PAT (23-of-23).

Both Knight and McCrum left Southeast ranked among the school's all-time career leaders in several categories.

Kicking/Punting

The Redhawks carry a streak of 52-consecutive PATs made into their 2017 season. Southeast last missed a PAT with 3:32 left in the fourth quarter vs. then-#3 Jacksonville State on Nov. 22, 2014.

Kendrick Tiller and newcomer Nicholas Litang will vie for the kicking duties this year.

Tiller redshirted as a true freshman last season, while Litang transfers to Southeast from New Mexico Military Institute.

Evan Scales is the top contender for the punting job.

Scales joined the Redhawks from College of DuPage this past spring. Prior to that, he averaged 43 yards per punt as a senior at Lafayette High School.

Jake Reynolds is also an option. Reynolds redshirted as a true freshman last season.

Holder/Long Snapper

Redshirt-sophomore Corey Manne will likely be Southeast's holder this season. Manne did not see game action a year ago.

Junior Zach Stagner returns as the Redhawks long snapper. Stagner started all 11 games there in 2016.

Redshirt-freshman Camden Boyle is behind Stagner at long snapper.

Returns

Junior Cameron Sanders is Southeast's top return man.

Sanders returned a kickoff for a touchdown each of the last two seasons and currently ranks first among the Redhawks all-time career leaders in kick return average (28.3 ypr).

A Preseason All-OVC selection, Sanders finished with 837 yards on 31 kick returns last season. He led the OVC in kick return average and ranked ninth in all-purpose yards (1,010). Sanders claimed First-Team All-OVC honors in the process.

Cape Girardeau native Al Young will help on kick returns and be the lead candidate on punt returns.

Young returned two punts in three games last season.

Zack Smith and Shabari Davis could also see playing time on punt returns.

2017 Schedule

Southeast will play an 11-game schedule with five matchups at Houck Field in 2017.

The Redhawks non-conference slate includes Kansas, Dayton and regional-rival Southern Illinois. Southeast kicks off its season at Football Bowl Subdivision Kansas on Sept. 2.

Southeast meets the Jayhawks for the second time in four years. These teams last met in the second week of the 2014 season, Tom Matukewicz's first year as the Redhawks head coach.

The Redhawks hit the road to face Pioneer Football League member Dayton (Sept. 9). This year marks the first meeting between the two schools. Dayton returns the trip to Cape Girardeau next season.

Southeast then hosts SIU in its home-opener on Sept. 16. SEMO is 40-36-8 all-time against the Salukis, as this year marks the 85th game in the series.

The Redhawks begin Ohio Valley Conference play at Eastern Illinois (Sept. 23). Austin Peay (Oct. 21), Jacksonville State (Oct. 28) and Tennessee State (Nov. 11) are Southeast's other road foes.

The home portion of the Redhawks conference schedule features games against Eastern Kentucky (Sept. 30, Family Weekend), Tennessee Tech (Oct. 14, Homecoming), UT Martin (Nov. 4) and Murray State (Nov. 18).

Redhawk Football

The 2017 campaign is Southeast's 113th season of football. Southeast enters its 27th season at the NCAA Division I FCS level. The Redhawks joined the NCAA Division I ranks in 1991.

TOM MATUKEWICZ

The 2017 season marks the fourth year for Southeast Missouri head coach Tom Matukewicz.

Attitude, Effort, Passion and Discipline are the cornerstones of Tom Matukewicz's process-driven Southeast Missouri football program.

Matukewicz enters his fourth year as the Redhawks head coach in 2017. Matukewicz has guided his teams to three wins over nationally-ranked Football Championship Subdivision opponents, the most of any head coach in program history.

In 2016, Southeast lost four games by a combined 12 points en route to finishing with an overall record of 3-8.

The Redhawks ranked third in the Ohio Valley Conference in both scoring defense (24.4 ppg allowed) and rushing defense (138.5 ypg allowed), and boasted the league's second-best red zone defense. Five Redhawks, including Chad Meredith (First-Team), Alex Knight (First-Team), Cameron Sanders (First-Team), Will Young (Second-Team) and Jesse Hosket (All-Newcomer) earned All-OVC honors.

This year, Hosket and Meredith are back among a group of nine returning starters, including five on offense and four on defense.

Another large recruiting class, this time consisting of 34 players, will also have a big hand in helping Southeast improve on its seventh-place OVC finish from a year ago. Of that group, 12 are transfers who enrolled in January and went through spring drills.

Prior to last season, Southeast completed its 2015 campaign ranked among the top three teams in the OVC in rushing offense (2nd, 182.9 ypg), kickoff returns (20.6 ypr), punt return average (3rd, 9.6 ypr), kickoff coverage (2nd, 40.6 net avg.), sacks (2nd, 31), fourth down conversions (2nd, 60 pct.) and turnover margin (1st, +10). The Redhawks 31 sacks were third-most in a season. In addition, Southeast led the league in turnover margin after ranking last in that category the year before. The Redhawks faced four ranked teams and lost four games by a combined 14 points last season, as well.

Individually, Dante Vandeven, Tremane McCullough, Paul McRoberts, Garret Baker, Mike Ford, Knight and Roper Garrett earned All-OVC honors in 2015.

Vandeven was the league's Freshman of the Year, McCullough and McRoberts were first-team selections and Baker, Garrett, Knight and Ford were second-team picks. Vandeven, McCullough, Baker, Garrett, Knight and Ford are back this year.

McRoberts went on to sign as an undrafted free agent with the Los Angeles Rams and was then signed to the team's active roster on Dec. 23, 2016.

A native of Silver Lake, Kansas, Matukewicz hit the ground running during his head coaching debut in 2014, leading the Redhawks to their most wins in a season since 2010.

Along the way, Southeast celebrated two wins over ranked opponents, beating then-No. 3 Southeastern Louisiana and then-No. 20 Tennessee State. Southeastern Louisiana was the highest-ranked opponent Southeast had ever beaten and the 2014 campaign marked the first time the Redhawks knocked off two ranked opponents in a season.

After those wins, Southeast moved to No. 23 in the Oct. 6, 2014 Sports Network Poll, claiming its first Top 25 ranking since the end of the 2010 season.

Statistically, the Redhawks led the OVC in third down conversion percentage (45.7), fourth down conversion percentage (66.7) and sacks allowed (9).

Southeast was also sixth in the Football Championship Subdivision in sacks allowed, 13th in fourth down conversion percentage and 14th in third down conversion percentage.

As a team, the Redhawks scored 384 points, their most in a season since 2002.

The excitement of Matukewicz's brick-by-brick approach generated an increase in home attendance during two of his first three seasons as head coach.

Matukewicz coached a total of 14 All-OVC performers, including one OVC Freshman of the Year (Vandeven), six first-team selections (McRoberts, McCullough, Ryan McCrum, Knight, Chad Meredith, Cameron Sanders) and seven second-team picks (DeMichael Jackson, Tim Hamm-Bey, Baker, Garrett, Ford, Knight, Young) during his first three years as Southeast's head coach. McRoberts also became the first Redhawks player invited to the Reese's Senior Bowl.

Off the field, Matukewicz's program is highly visible in the community and often engages in random acts of kindness. He simply uses goodwill to teach his players valuable life lessons.

In 2015, Southeast partnered with Saint Francis Medical Center to announce a new collaboration, taking the Redhawks' Pink Up efforts to a new level.

As part of a Pink Up Jersey Auction, the football team raised more than $45,000 for breast cancer awareness over the last two years. The Redhawks don special pink jerseys, each personalized with a name in honor or memory of a survivor or loved one during one of their games each season. Game-worn jerseys are then presented to the winning bidders after the game.

Before its 2016 season-opener at Memphis, Southeast visited St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Redhawk players, coaches and support staff toured the amazing facility that leads the way the world understands, treats and defeats childhood cancer and other life-threatening diseases. Southeast donated teddy bears and other items along with a check for over $500 to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

On July 21, 2016, Matukewicz organized a Cops and Hawks flag football game which brought a whole community together in light of recent shootings in the United States. Redhawk players and local law enforcement officials were teammates in the event which raised $4,500 for BackStoppers, a non-profit organization that provides needed financial assistance and support to the spouses and dependent children of fallen and injured service members in the line of duty.

During Southeast's 2014 season-opener against Missouri Baptist, the Redhawk captains took a No. 14 jersey to midfield for the coin toss to honor the memory of Kaden Robert. Robert was a Kelly High School football player who died in an accidental shooting in June, 2014.

A week later, Michael Douglas, a 16-year old from Kansas, accompanied the Redhawks on the sideline for their game against the Jayhawks on Sept. 6, 2014. Douglas was diagnosed with an interstitial lung disease when he was a year old and has to use an oxygen tank. The teenager initially contacted wide receiver Mike Cyliax for an autograph last summer. Once Matukewicz heard the story, he wrote Douglas a letter and invited him to the game.

Southeast's football program generously donated to the Nolan Weber Believers 5K & Fun Run/Walk in nearby Jackson. Weber was a soccer player at Jackson High School who fought brain cancer for almost three years (doubling the life expectancy of what his illness normally came with) before he passed away. The contribution went to the Believing Beyond Nolan Weber Foundation that provides financial and/or spiritual/emotional support to children and their families battling cancer and other catastrophic illnesses.

Matukewicz also presented a check to the parents of Dominic Hooper -- a Scott City teen who tied in February, 2014 from injuries sustained in an ATV accident -- during the team's annual spring game.

A tireless worker, Matukewicz brings energy and passion unlike any other. His commitment to excellence and brick-by-brick mantra have the Redhawks soaring to new heights.

Popularly known as "Coach Tuke," Matukewicz was introduced as Southeast's 13th head coach on Dec. 18, 2013. Matukewicz is used to transforming programs into winners and he did just that as an assistant coach at Northern Illinois and Southern Illinois.

While at NIU, Matukewicz helped lead the Huskies to the Mid-American Conference West title in 2010 and an outright MAC Championship in 2011. Matukewicz was the linebackers coach in 2011 after serving as defensive run-game coordinator for three seasons under then-head coach Jerry Kill.

Matukewicz reached the pinnacle of his NIU stint when he was interim head coach for the Huskies' trip to the 2010 Humanitarian Bowl after Kill accepted the Minnesota job at the end of the season. He led NIU to a commanding 40-17 victory over Fresno State in that game.

Matukewicz was responsible for coordinating the Huskies' run defense during his first three seasons at NIU. In 2010, the Huskies ranked 24th nationally and third in the MAC in rushing defense, allowing 126.5 yards per game. NIU also had the MAC's No. 1 total defense in 2008 and 2009.

In his first year in DeKalb, Matukewicz was part of a staff that turned NIU into the No. 1 scoring and total defense in the MAC, and one of the top 20 units in the country. The Huskies boasted the second-most improved scoring defense in the nation in 2008. That year, NIU allowed only 18 points per game, down from 30.8 the previous season. The Huskies ranked 17th nationally in total defense and was fifth in the country in pass defense.

Before that, Matukewicz spent seven seasons at SIU. As linebackers coach and run-game coordinator, he had a big hand in three Missouri Valley Football Conference championships (2003, 2004, 2005) and five NCAA Football Championship Subdivision playoff berths (2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007).

Matukewicz was named the 2007 FCS Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association after helping turn the Salukis into one of the top rushing defenses in the nation. SIU held its opponents to a rushing average below 135 yards per game every year from 2002-07. The Salukis had three of the top-10 rushing defenses in program history during that time.

Matukewicz's 2004 linebacker corps formed the heart of a defense which gave up just 101.7 rushing yards per game, led the nation in scoring defense and allowed 13.2 points per contest. Matukewicz made one more stop at the University of Toledo prior to accepting his first head coaching job at Southeast.

At Toledo, Matukewicz was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the 2012 and 2013 seasons.

In 2012, Matukewicz helped guide a defense that ranked among the top 25 in the nation in fourth-down conversion (9th), red-zone defense (10th), interceptions (18th) and turnovers forced (25th). The Rockets went 9-4 and earned a trip to the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Matukewicz's defense also featured the nation's leading tackler in linebacker Dan Molls. Molls had 166 tackles, earned First-Team All-MAC honors and became Toledo's first Academic All-American in eight years.

Matukewicz completed his undergraduate work at Fort Hays State. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1997 and then earned his master's degree in administration at Pittsburg State.

Matukewicz coached at Fort Hays State (1996-97), Pittsburg State (1997-99), Coffeyville Community College (1999-2000) and Emporia State (2000-01) prior to his NCAA Division I football tenure.

Matukewicz and his wife, Lenna, have two daughters, Georgia and Shelby.

What They Are Saying About Coach Tuke

"I knew it would only be a matter of time before Coach Tuke got his first opportunity to be a head coach at the Division I level. I know first-hand how he inspirationally led our football team to victory at the Humanitarian Bowl when we worked together at Northern Illinois University. The team played their hearts out for him and I know that will be the case at Southeast Missouri State University, as well. He is a man of integrity who will be a tremendous asset to the University and the entire community. I congratulate Tom and Lenna and wish them and their family the very best at Southeast Missouri State."

Jeff Compher
Director of Athletics
East Carolina University

"Tom is a great teacher and excellent motivator. He understands how to reach his players and push their buttons the right way. Tom genuinely cares about his team on and off the field. Tom will bring great enthusiasm every day and will be driven to win championships. You guys got a good one."

Dave Doeren
Head Football Coach
North Carolina State

"I was president at Northern Illinois University when Coach Tuke was a linebackers coach under Coach Kill. He is a fine coach and a great motivator of young men. He is a great recruiter and great leader. I knew he was going to be a head coach someday. When Coach Kill left NIU for Minnesota and we were going to the Humanitarian Bowl, we were in a dilemma. Jeff Compher, the athletic director at the time, had to make a choice who would be the head coach of the team in the bowl. Jeff suggested Coach Tuke, and boy that really worked out well. It was a very difficult situation to throw someone in like that. Coach Kill was beloved by his players and Coach Tuke stepped up and had a great victory over Fresno State. He is a fine man and has a great family. You really got a good coach."

John G. Peters
President Emeritus
Northern Illinois University

"Coach Tuke has been a very positive member of the University of Toledo Athletic Department staff. Tom will be an asset to Southeast Missouri State University as he will work extremely well with the football student-athletes in all facets of their development on and off the field. I congratulate Southeast Missouri State on this hire of an excellent leader that will be a valued member of the campus and community."

Mike O'Brien
Vice President and AD
University of Toledo

"I am excited for Tom. This is something that he has wanted to do for a long time. He is very well-prepared and will be a great fit for Southeast Missouri State University."

- Defensive Coordinator/ Outside Linebackers
- Fourth Year
- Fort Hays State, 1996

BRYCE SAIA

Bryce Saia is in his fourth year as defensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri.

In addition to serving as Southeast's defensive coordinator, Saia coaches the outside linebackers and is the team's NFL liaison.

A native of Joplin, Missouri, Saia joined Matukewicz's staff on Jan. 2, 2014.

Last season, Southeast ranked second in the Ohio Valley Conference in red zone defense and third in both scoring (24.4 ppg allowed) and rushing (138.5 ypg allowed) defense.

Prior to that, Saia led the Redhawks to an OVC-best +10 turnover margin during his second year as defensive coordinator in 2015. Southeast forced a turnover in nine of 11 games and finished that season with multiple takeaways in each of its final four contests. The Redhawks were last in the OVC in turnover margin the previous year.

Southeast ranked second in the OVC in red zone defense during Saia's first year with the Redhawks in 2014. Opponents scored on 35-of-48 chances inside the Redhawks 20-yardline against Saia's defense. Southeast's .729 mark ranked just four percentage points behind Eastern Kentucky (.725).

Saia's defense has produced three All-OVC performers in outside linebacker Chad Meredith, inside linebacker Roper Garrett and cornerback Mike Ford. Garrett and Ford earned second-team honors in 2015, while Meredith became the first first-team selection under Saia in 2016.

Prior to Southeast, Saia spent two seasons as safeties coach alongside Matukewicz at the University of Toledo.

In 2012, he helped guide a veteran group of safeties led by senior Jermaine Robinson, who tied for the Mid-American Conference lead in interceptions. Robinson earned First-Team All-MAC honors, helping UT to a 9-4 record and berth into the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Before UT, Saia coached at Emporia State for three seasons, spending the first two as defensive backs coach before adding defensive coordinator to his duties in 2011. Saia spent two seasons with the Arizona Rattlers in the Arena Football League before initially joining the Hornets staff in 2009. He was the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator for Arizona, which advanced to the AFL playoffs in 2008.

Saia also spent four years coaching the defensive line at Southern Illinois under current University of Minnesota head coach Jerry Kill. The Salukis ranked either first or second in the Missouri Valley Football Conference in sacks and rushing defense during his tenure. In 2004, SIU had the top-ranked scoring defense in the Football Championship Subdivision.

From 1998-2003, Saia worked as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Coffeyville Community College. The Red Ravens led the Jayhawk Conference in total defense during the 2003 season and consistently ranked among the nation's top-10 defensive teams. Prior to CCC, Saia coached the linebackers at Butler County Community College in 1997.

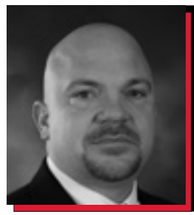

Throughout his career, Saia has coached numerous Division I and NFL players, including Brandon Jacobs (New York Giants), Jonathan Joseph (Cincinnati/Houston), Reggie Nelson (Jacksonville/ Cincinnati), Travis Fisher (St. Louis/Detroit) and Dashon Goldson (San Francisco/Tampa Bay).

Saia's first coaching job was as a defensive assistant at Fort Hays State from 1994-96, where he received his bachelor of science degree. He later earned his master's degree from Emporia State. Saia played linebacker for his father Tom Saia, a member of the Junior College Football Hall of Fame, at Butler County CC from 1990-91.

Saia was a two-time high school All-State linebacker in Kansas, first as a junior at Buhler High School and again as a senior at El Dorado High School.

He has a son, Nicholas Cole.

JON WIEMERS

Jon Wiemers begins his fourth year at Southeast Missouri.

Wiemers spent his first two years as Southeast's offensive line and assistant head coach before he was promoted to offensive coordinator prior to the 2016 season.

The Redhawks ranked second in the Ohio Valley Conference in fourth-down conversions (12-of-18, 66.7 pct.) last season. Wiemers' offense was led by Second-Team All-OVC running back Will Young and OVC All-Newcomer quarterback Jesse Hosket.

In 2015, Wiemers coached an offensive line that paved the way for the league's second-best rushing offense. The Redhawks averaged 182.9 yards per game in 11 contests. Garret Baker, who started every game at left guard, earned Second-Team All-OVC honors under Wiemers.

His offensive line allowed only eight sacks in 2014, fewest in the OVC. The offensive line also had a big hand in helping the Redhawks lead the conference in both third and fourth-down conversions.

Southeast returns five starters on offense in 2017, including Hosket, offensive tackles Drew Forbes and Alex Snyder, tight end Marquett Murdock and wide receiver Kristian Wilkerson.

Hosket completed 178-of-356 passes for 2,332 yards and 11 touchdowns in his debut as the Redhawks starting quarterback. He ranked among the top five OVC leaders in passing yards per game (3rd, 212) and total offense (5th, 213.5 ypg). Hosket also accumulated the fifth-most passing yards in a season at Southeast.

Wiemers initially joined Southeast's coaching staff on Jan. 8, 2014.

Wiemers was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for one season at William Penn before joining the Southeast staff.

Prior to William Penn, Wiemers served a two-year stint as head coach at Arkansas City High School in Arkansas City, Kan. In 2012, Wiemers led Arkansas City to its first district championship and playoff berth in 16 years. He was named the 2011 Ark Valley Chisholm Trail League Coach of the Year after leading his team to its first winning season in 10 years.

Before that, Wiemers was offensive coordinator at both Coffeyville Community College (2009-10) and NCAA Division II Concord University in West Virginia (2007-08).

While at Coffeyville CC, he was part of teams which made two Jayhawk Conference playoff appearances and reached two bowl games (winning one). Wiemers' quarterbacks in 2009 and 2010 ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in all-time single-season passing, respectively.

Wiemers' longest tenure, however, was at Emporia State, where he served as a coach in several areas. He began his career as a graduate assistant in charge of the tight ends from 1999-2000 and moved to offensive line coach in 2001.

Wiemers was then offensive coordinator for his final three campaigns (2004-06).

Emporia State flourished with Wiemers on staff, as the 2002 and 2003 teams finished with identical 9-3 records which rank among the top-three in program history.

The Hornets won the Mineral Water Bowl title in 2002 and claimed the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association title and advanced to the national playoffs for the first time in school history in 2003.

Also an accomplished college player, Wiemers was a two-time All-Conference linebacker at NCAA Division II Saginaw Valley State (Mich.). He was a team captain and defensive Most Valuable Player, as well.

BEN BLAKE

Ben Blake is in his second year as offensive line coach at Southeast Missouri.

Blake coached veterans Garret Baker, Michael Cooke and Jake McCandless, a trio that combined for 32 starts during his first season at Southeast in 2016.

This year, starting tackles Drew Forbes and Alex Snyder are back to lead the Redhawks offensive line.

Blake came to Southeast from the University of Sioux Falls, where he spent two seasons in the same capacity.

At NCAA Division II USF, Blake helped lead the Cougars to a combined 20-4 overall record. In 2015, the USF went 9-3 and tied for second overall in the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference with a 9-2 mark.

Blake's offensive line led the nation in sacks allowed, giving up only five in 12 contests during the 2015 campaign. The Cougars also ranked 11th nationally in third-down conversion percentage (48.2 pct.), 16th in both scoring offense (39.3 ppg) and first downs (285), and 19th in total offense (472.1 ypg).

USF finished the season ranked 17th and tied for 21st in the D2Football.com and American Football Coaches Association NCAA Division II Top-25 Polls, respectively.

In his first season at USF, Blake put together an offensive line, which proved to be one of the best in the NSIC. Starting just one senior, the Cougars offensive front played a key role on the nation's seventh-best and NSIC's highest scoring team. USF, which finished 11-1 and #16/18 nationally, ranked first in the NSIC and seventh nationally with 42.7 points (512) per game. Overall, USF produced 58 touchdowns, including 30 rushing (4th, NSIC) and 28 passing (t4th), a +11 increase in that category from the year before.

The Cougars were 17th in NCAA Division II and second in the NSIC in total offense with 483.2 yards per game. The offensive front, including first team All-NSIC selection Antonio Green (sophomore guard, allowed 1.5 sacks) and honorable mention All-NSIC tackles Terry Huber (sophomore, allowed 1.5 sacks) and Jesse Springer, (freshman) paved the way for a second straight 1,000 yard rusher in Nephi Garcia. USF was 32nd nationally and fourth in the NSIC with 213.3 rushing yards per game. Garcia was fifth in the league with 1,190 yards. USF, which also received 804 yards from quarterback Luke Papilion, averaged 4.6 yards per carry with 2,559 yards on 560 carries.

A Harlon Hill candidate, Papilion helped USF lead the NSIC and rank 14th in the nation in completion percentage (.640). The Cougars produced 292 first downs that were good for third in the league. In addition, the offensive line gave up one sack or less in four of the final five games of the season.

Blake, who has 13 years of coaching experience, served as the offensive line coach, run game coordinator and strength and conditioning coach at Evangel University (Mo.) for three seasons before going to USF.

In three years (2011-13) with Evangel, Blake coached seven all-conference selections on the offensive line, including first-team honoree Keith Wright in 2012, the Crusaders' first OL first-team selection since 2006.

Prior to his stint at Evangel, Blake spent four years (2007-10) as the co-offensive coordinator at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Missouri. He also worked as an assistant coach at Highland Community College in Kansas for two years (2005-06) and was a graduate assistant coach working with the offensive line and tight ends at Concordia University-Wisconsin (NCAA-III) in 2004.

Blake graduated from Concordia University with an undergraduate degree in business management and minor in public relations. He also earned a Master's degree in business administration with a marketing emphasis.

He and his wife, Alyssa, have a daughter, Gracie.

ERIC BURROW

Eric Burrow starts his fourth year as Southeast Missouri's safeties coach and recruiting coordinator.

Burrow joined Southeast's staff on Jan. 6, 2014.

The Redhawks averaged 10 interceptions per season in Burrow's first two years helping with the secondary.

Southeast tied for fourth in the Ohio Valley Conference with 11 picks in 2015. Eriq Moore had four interceptions in 10 starts to pave the way. Moore was also the Redhawks third-leading tackler with 60 stops that season.

Fellow safety Ryan Moore was the top tackler out of the defensive backfield during the 2016 campaign. Moore ranked third on the team with 56 tackles and tied for first on the team with two forced fumbles. He was also second with seven pass breakups.

Four of the Redhawks nine interceptions in 2014 came from Burrow's safeties. Moore led the team with three picks and two fumble recoveries.

Since coming to Southeast, Burrow has helped assemble four strong recruiting classes. The Redhawks signed 22 players as part of Tom Matukewicz's inaugural class in 2014 before seeing that number grow to 26 in 2015. This year's recruiting class is even larger with 34 players.

In all, Burrow received 38 commitments from in-state players, including 29 within a two-hour radius of Cape Girardeau since joining the Redhawks staff.

Al Young (Cape Girardeau) and Nick Thompson (Malden) are among the recent local standouts that signed with Southeast.

A three-year starter, Young accumulated 992 rushing yards (8.4 ypc), 771 receiving yards and 27 touchdowns as a senior last season. For his career, he racked up 2,635 receiving yards and 38 receiving touchdowns, both school records. Young is all over Cape Central's record book and capped his prep career among state leaders in punt return yards, yards per catch and all-purpose yards. He led the Tigers to three-straight state semifinal apppearances for the first time and the program's only state championship berth.

Thompson started all four years as a linebacker at Malden High School. He led the Green Wave in rushing and was his team's top defender at linebacker. Thompson was named the 2015 Standard Democrat Defensive Player of the Year after anchoring a defense that allowed 21 points per contest and reached the Class 2 State Championship game.

Young and Thompson both played as true freshmen in 2016.

A native of Independence, Missouri, Burrow spent the two years at Toledo working closely with both Matukewicz and Redhawks defensive coordinator Bryce Saia. He was in charge of defensive quality control.

Burrow spent the 2010 football season as defensive graduate assistant coach at Emporia State, where he handled football operations and helped oversee the cornerbacks.

Prior to that, Burrow was graduate assistant for offensive quality control at the University of Missouri. He joined the Tiger coaching staff before the start of Mizzou's 2010 spring camp.

A 2009 Mizzou graduate, Burrow was responsible for assisting with day-to-day operations of the offensive coaching staff, including video breakdown, scouting, game planning, computer and video informational input, as well as providing various assistance with recruiting operations.

Burrow also served as a student assistant for four seasons (2005-08) and continued that role through his graduation from Mizzou in May of 2009, where he earned his bachelor's degree in fitness and nutrition.

He played football and basketball at Truman High School and also assisted with film and statistical analysis for his school's football program.

RICKY COON

Ricky Coon begins his fourth year as Southeast Missouri's defensive line coach. Coon also serves as the Redhawks assistant head coach.

The defensive line helped limit opponents to 138.5 rushing yards per game last season, third-fewest in the Ohio Valley Conference. Southeast also boasted the league's second-best red zone defense with the help of Coon's unit.

In 2015, the defensive line helped the Redhawks notch 31 sacks, their third-most in a season in school history. Southeast finished second in the OVC in sacks behind national runner-up and league champion Jacksonville State that year.

Tackle Joshua Wilson is Southeast's lone returning starter on the defensive line this season.

Wilson started 10 of 11 games, recording 41 tackles, four tackles for loss, a sack and one fumble recovery in 2016.

Coon's defensive line had a big hand in Southeast averaging 21 sacks and 71 tackles for loss per season the last three years.

Coon spent the 2013 season as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Northwest Mississippi Community College.

Prior to that, he worked the 2012 campaign as defensive line coach at NCAA Division II Southwest Baptist University and gained six years of experience at the junior college level.

Coon was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Ellsworth Community College (2009-11), where 18 of his players received all-conference recognition and three were named National Junior College Athletic Association All-Americans.

He helped lead the Panthers to the 2009 NJCAA Region XI Championships, two Midwest Football Conference Playoff titles (2009, 2010) and two NJCAA bowl game appearances. In 2009, Coon's defensive unit set a school record for fewest yards allowed in a bowl game.

Before his three-year stint at Ellsworth CC, Coon was the defensive coordinator and head strength and conditioning coordinator at Highland Community College from 2007-08. Coon's defensive units finished among the NJCAA's Top-20 teams each of his last two seasons and, statistically, were the best two defenses in school history. A total of seven defensive players received all-conference accolades during his two years.

Coon worked as academic coordinator and defensive line coach at NCAA Division II Northern State in 2006.

A native of Wichita, Kansas, Coon started his career as defensive line coach and strength and conditioning coordinator at his alma mater, Bethel College.

He was a two-time all-conference defensive lineman at Dodge City Community College and Bethel College. Coon also had the privilege of playing two seasons of professional football in the Arena Football League for the Wichita Stealth (AF2) and Wichita Aviators (APFL).

Coon was hired at Southeast on Jan. 8, 2014. He previously worked with current Redhawks offensive line coach Ben Blake at Highland Community College during the spring of 2007.

TYLER FRENCH

Tyler French sets to begin his second season coaching the inside linebackers at Southeast Missouri.

French was hired as a full-time assistant coach in 2016.

Southeast's linebackers are consistently a dominant part of the Redhawks defense.

In his first year overseeing the inside linebackers, French coached Roper Garrett. Garrett led Southeast in tackles for the third-straight year to cap his remarkable college career.

A three-year starter and team captain, Garrett tallied 359 tackles, 27.5 tackles for loss, nine sacks, three interceptions, seven forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in his career with the Redhawks. He ended his career ranked third all-time in tackles, fifth in tackles for loss and tied for eighth in sacks. Garrett also earned Second-Team All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 2015.

Before moving to his full-time role, French spent two years as a graduate assistant, primarily working with the defense in 2015 and serving as an offensive assistant in 2014.

During the 2014 campaign, Southeast was third in the OVC in scoring offense with 32 points a game. French also helped the Redhawks achieve a 141.1 pass efficiency, good for second in the conference. Southeast's offense produced two All-OVC players that year and the Redhawks upended two ranked opponents in a season for the first time in school history.

Prior to entering the coaching profession, French completed a two-year playing career as a tight end at Southeast.

A native of Scottsdale, Arizona, French transferred to Southeast from Phoenix College.

He played in all 11 games and started six, making eight receptions for 60 yards in 2011. French scored his first career touchdown on a 7-yard pass late in the first quarter during the Redhawks season-finale vs. Murray State (Nov. 19).

After redshirting due to an injury the next year, French started 11 of 12 games his final season in 2013.

As a prep, French was a three-year starter at Dobson High School. He had 25 catches for 325 yards and five touchdowns en route to claiming First-Team All-State and All-Region honors as a senior. Martin is the Redhawks special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach. He spent his first two years overseeing Southeast's running backs.

The Redhawks have established themselves as one of the best special teams units in the Ohio Valley Conference under Martin's leadership.

Southeast's kicking game went from worst to first in the OVC during the 2014 campaign.

The Redhawks topped the league in field goals made (18) and PAT kicking percentage (.978) that year after finishing last in each of those categories the previous season. Southeast also tied for second in the OVC in punting (36.9 ypp).

In 2015, Southeast returned two punts and one kickoff for touchdowns, and led the league in punting with 39.2 yards per punt. Alex Knight, who secured Second-Team All-OVC honors, was the conference's top punter.

Last season, the Redhawks ranked tied for first in the OVC in PAT kicking percentage, second in kickoff returns and kickoff coverage, and third in punting and field goals.

Martin has coached three First-Team All-OVC selections in running back Tremane McCullough, punter Alex Knight and return specialist Cameron Sanders.

Sanders, who returns in 2017, led the OVC and ranked 12th in the nation with 27 yards per kick return a year ago. He returned 31 kickoffs for 837 yards and also rated eighth nationally in combined kick return yards. Sanders racked up 1,010 all-purpose yards and currently holds the school's best career kickoff return average at 28.3 yards per return.

Knight finished his Southeast career ranked third in punting yards (9,100), punt attempts (216) and punting average (42.1).

Martin coached one other All-OVC pick in kicker Ryan McCrum.

McCrum was a Third-Team Sports Network All-American and Fred Mitchell Award finalist in 2014. He led the Redhawks in scoring and topped the OVC in both field goals and scoring (kick). McCrum also broke Southeast's all-time single-season record with 18 field goals made that year.

Martin joined Southeast's coaching staff on Jan. 8, 2014.

He spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Emporia State before coming to Cape Girardeau. Martin coached the wide receivers for four years and served as the team's special teams coordinator for three seasons.

In 2013, Martin coached four All-Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association performers, including wide receivers Ray Ray Davis (first-team) and Austin Willis (second-team), kicker Eli Kuhns (honorable mention) and return specialist Deveon Dinwiddle (honorable mention). Davis and Kuhns also earned Don Hansen All-Super Region 3 accolades.

Prior to that, Martin coached All-American Shjuan Richardson in 2012. Richardson finished his career ranked second in single-season receiving yards at Emporia State.

Martin spent four years in the early part of his coaching career on the defensive side of the football. He worked two seasons at Nebraska-Kearney as the Lopers outside linebackers coach before returning to his alma mater in 2010.

Martin began coaching as a graduate assistant at Emporia State, overseeing the safeties. As a player, he was a four-year letterwinner for the Hornets and a two-time captain for the 2002 Mineral Water Bowl and 2003 MIAA Championship teams.

GAME 1

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Will Young rushed for over 100 yards and Southeast Missouri forced three turnovers in a 35-17 season-opening loss to Memphis at the Liberty Bowl.

SEMO met Memphis for the first time in 82 years in front of a crowd of 42,876.

A 22-point first quarter was the difference as the Redhawks regrouped to outscore the Tigers, 17-13, the rest of the way.

Riley Ferguson engineered a quick opening drive as Memphis covered 75 yards in eight plays over a span of 2:17. Ferguson completed five of his first six attempts for 73 yards and tossed a 13-yard touchdown pass to John Williams. A two-point conversion followed giving the Tigers an 8-0 lead with 12:43 left in the first quarter.

After gaining no more than nine yards on each of its first three drives, Memphis took over on downs at its own 27-yard line. Ferguson again went to work, this time completing passes of 16, 21 and 11 yards to get the Tigers in scoring position. Doroland Dorceus capped the march with a 3-yard run to push Memphis' lead to 15-0 with 1:15 left to play.

Dante Vandeven, the 2015 Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year, replaced starter Jesse Hosket at quarterback for SEMO's fourth possession of the game. Following two incomplete passes, Vandeven was picked off by Arthur Maulet who ran to the Redhawks 18-yard line.

Three plays later, Ferguson threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Dorceus giving the Tigers a 22-0 advantage with 40 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

SEMO's offense started slow, picking up just 14 total yards on 17 plays in the game's first 15 minutes. The Redhawks averaged less than a yard per play in the first quarter.

Ferguson hooked up with Daniel Hurd on a 20-yard completion and a SEMO personal foul tacked on 15 more yards to give Memphis a first-and-10 at the Redhawks 25-yard line. Ferguson then threw a 23-yard strike to Darrell Henderson, his third touchdown pass of the game.

Fletcher Evans recovered a Ferguson fumble and the Redhawks had the ball at the Memphis 31-yard line. On the first play of the drive, Hosket completed a 21-yard pass to Kristian Wilkerson to give SEMO a first-and-Goal at the 10. The Redhawks, however, settled for a 26-yard field goal by Ryan McCrum to cut Memphis' lead to 29-3 at halftime.

SEMO's defense forced three turnovers in the first half with Roper Garrett and Mike Ford each getting an interception and Evans recovering a fumble. The Redhawks have had multiple takeaways in six-straight games dating back to last season.

The Redhawks struck first in the second half when Will Young broke several tackles on his way to a 61-yard touchdown run. Young's second career rushing touchdown made it a 29-10 game at the 10:13 mark of the third quarter.

Memphis responded with a 45-yard field goal by Jake Elliott. Elliott's kick closed out a 10-play, 34-yard drive that upped the Tigers lead to 32-10 with five seconds to go.

Another field goal by Elliott, this time from 40 yards out, completed a 41-yard scoring drive that expanded the Tigers' lead to 35-10 with 10:41 left to play in the fourth quarter.

Hosket's first career touchdown pass of eight yards to Adrian Davis polished off SEMO's longest drive of the night. The 14-play, 82-yard march ended the scoring.

Ferguson completed 26-of-40 passes for 295 yards and three touchdowns and Anthony Miller finished with nine receptions for 103 yards to lead Memphis.

The Tigers outgained the Redhawks, 406-253, with 295 of their yards through the air.

Young ran for 114 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries in his first career start at tailback.

The Redhawks were flagged 14 times for 94 yards and trailed, 27-9, before making their fourth-quarter push.

On the first play of the final period, Jesse Hosket threw a 22-yard pass to Kristian Wilkerson for SEMO's first touchdown of the game. A missed two-point conversion left the score at 27-15 with 14:53 left to play.

SIU countered with a 27-yard field goal by Matt Sotiropoulos to grab a 30-15 advantage at the 9:44 mark.

SEMO went to work again with good field position at its 44-yard line. A 12-yard completion from Hosket to Adrian Davis followed by a 15-yard roughing the passer penalty gave the Redhawks a first down at the Saluki-23. After Hosket was sacked for a loss of seven, SEMO faced a fourth-and-16 when Hosket hooked up with Darrius Darden-Box for a 29-yard touchdown cutting the Salukis lead to 30-22 with 5:08 left.

Still not finished, the Redhawks forced SIU to punt and had one last chance with 2:47 on the clock.

SEMO's final drive came to a halt at its own 41-yard line when Hosket's pass to C.J. Curry fell incomplete on a fourth-and-3.

The Redhawk defense tallied its first fourth-down stop of the season on the opening drive of the game. The Salukis faced a fourth-and-1 at their own 34-yard line when Kendall Donnerson dropped Daquan Isom for no gain.

After an offside penalty by Jefferson Vea on fourth down extended SEMO's drive, Ryan McCrum gave the Redhawks a 3-0 cushion on a 36-yard field goal with 10:29 left to play in the first quarter.

SEMO nearly forced a turnover on SIU's ensuing possession. JJ Flye, who made his first start of the season at cornerback, stripped the ball from Darrell James after James made a 32-yard reception. The Salukis, however, recovered and used a 37-yard field goal by Sotiropoulos to tie the game at 3-3 with 6:47 remaining.

Two more field goals by McCrum, consisting of 23 and 36 yards, respectively, expanded the Redhawks lead to 9-3 before SIU scored just before the half.

Josh Straughan gave SIU a first-and-goal when he completed a 5-yard pass to Jimmy Jones on a fourth-and-3. Four plays later, Jonathan Mixon hit paydirt on a 1-yard run to give the Salukis their first lead (10-9) at the intermission.

SEMO held a +7:08 margin in time of possession during the first half. The Redhawks had the ball 18:34 to SIU's 11:26.

SIU began the second half with two touchdowns in the first 7:10 of the third quarter.

Straughan threw a 44-yard touchdown pass to Connor Iwema, capping a 5-play, 72-yard march at the 12:39 mark.

On SEMO's next drive, Chase Allen jarred the ball loose from tailback Will Young. James Caesar scooped up the ball and dashed 47 yards for a touchdown widening SIU's lead to 24-9 with 7:50 on the clock.

Sotiropoulos kicked an 18-yard field goal to end a 6-play, 82-yard drive for SIU with 1:05 remaining in the third quarter.

Statistically, both teams were evenly matched as SIU outgained SEMO, 403-395. The Redhawks finished with 33:54 mark in time of possession.

Young ran for 100 yards on 22 carries, posting his second 100-yard game in as many starts this season. Hosket completed 17-of-39 passes for 239 yards and two touchdowns, while Davis had a career-high six receptions for 103 yards to lead SEMO.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. – Southeast Missouri let an 11-point lead slip away during the final three minutes of the game in a heartbreaking 27-24 loss to Indiana State at Houck Field.

SEMO, which dropped its first home-opener under head coach Tom Matukewicz, held a 24-13 lead after Cameron Sanders scored his first career rushing touchdown on a 35-yard run down the near sideline with 8:58 remaining.

A little over four minutes later, ISU fueled its comeback with a 5-yard touchdown pass from Isaac Harker to Robert Tonyan at the 3:00 mark. A missed two-point conversion followed and the Sycamores were within five (24-19). That touchdown came right after Ryan McCrum missed his first field goal of the season from 49 yards out on the Redhawks previous possession.

ISU needed a stop and got it when SEMO went three-and-out the next time it had the ball.

Harker then went to work at his own 19-yard line and engineered the decisive drive down the stretch.

Harker completed a 9-yard pass to Tonyan on a fourth-and-8 to get the Sycamores to midfield. Two plays later, ISU moved to the SEMO-30 with a 5-yard Harker pass to Tonyan. Fifteen yards were tacked onto the play thanks to a roughing the passer penalty by the Redhawks.

SEMO took its last timeout before Harker hooked up with Miles Thompson on a game-winning 15-yard touchdown pass that sent the Sycamores to victory with 10 seconds on the clock.

The Redhawks and Sycamores battled to a 10-10 deadlock at the half.

ISU struck immediately when Harker threw a 75-yard touchdown pass to Dimitri Taylor on the first play of the game just 13 seconds in.

Will Young's 2-yard run capped a 5-play, 47-yard drive as SEMO knotted things up at 7-7 with 6:05 in the first quarter.

Both teams traded field goals in the second quarter, with McCrum kicking a 29-yarder and Jerry Nunez adding a 22-yarder.

Harker completed 22-of-36 passes for 302 yards and three touchdowns to lead ISU which finished with 449 total yards. Tonyan caught a game-high seven passes for 90 yards and a TD.

Jesse Hosket threw for 214 yards on 16-of-25 attempts for SEMO. Sanders had eight carries for 59 yards as one of three Redhawks with a rushing touchdown. Like Sanders, Chase Abbington also scored his first career rushing touchdown.

C.J. Curry (5 rec., 39 yds), Tremane McCullough (4 rec., 63 yds), Kristian Wilkerson (3 rec., 58 yds) and Adrian Davis (3 rec., 44 yds) each had a minimum of three catches.

Defensively, Chad Meredith registered 10 tackles, a breakup and one tackle for loss. Kendall Donnerson and Roper Garrett followed with nine tackles apiece. Donnerson had a sack, three tackles for loss and forced a fumble, as well. Garrett is now tied for ninth in career tackles at SEMO.

Jameer Thurman led the Sycamores with a game-high 11 stops.

SEMO had 380 yards of total offense and was much better on third down, converting on 10-of-18 occasions.

SEMO and ISU played in front of a crowd of 7,637 on the Redhawks Family Weekend.

MURRAY, Ky. – Connor Mitchell's 38-yard field goal attempt with two seconds left sailed wide right and Southeast Missouri escaped with a 17-16 victory over Murray State at Stewart Stadium.

Trailing, 16-10, with less than two minutes remaining, SEMO needed a stop and would get it when it forced MSU to go 3-and-out.

The Redhawks took over on downs at their own 42-yard line and used a 31-yard completion from Jesse Hosket to Tyler McLemore to keep the drive alive on a third-and-3. On the next play, Hosket hooked up with Adrian Davis on a 20-yard touchdown pass for the game-winner.

Completions of 14 and 17 yards, respectively, followed by two SEMO penalties helped get MSU to the Redhawks 19-yard line where the Racers called timeout with two seconds on the clock. SEMO countered with a timeout of its own before Mitchell missed his kick.

SEMO struck first on the opening drive when Hosket threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Tremane McCullough with 8:35 left in the first quarter.

The Redhawks used a 23-yard pass from Hosket to McCullough on a third-and-7 and picked up a first down on a fourth-and-2 to keep the drive alive that covered 75 yards in 14 plays. McCullough's first career receiving TD put the Redhawks ahead, 7-0.

MSU quickly answered with a 67-yard touchdown pass from KD Humphries to Demetric Johnson. Johnson got behind his defender and ran 35 yards after the catch to tie the game at 7-7 with 6:57 remaining.

After a total of 10 punts and four 3-and-outs between the teams, SEMO used a little trickery to put itself in position to score just before the half.

Ryan McCrum lined up for a 43-yard field goal when holder Tyler Manne caught the snap and threw a 9-yard pass to McCrum for a first down on a fourth-and-7.

On the next play, Hosket completed a 16-yard pass to McCullough to move the Redhawks to the MSU 1-yard line. The Racers then stopped SEMO on three-straight plays as time expired leaving the game tied at intermission.

The Redhawk defense held its ground limiting MSU to just 50 yards in the second quarter.

SEMO had a first-and-10 at the MSU 12-yard line when Chase Abbington fumbled the ball and Zachary Wade recovered for the Racers.

Three plays later, Humphries hooked up with Jesse Blackburn for a big 81-yard pass play that gave MSU a first-and-Goal at the SEMO-1. On the ensuing play, Tyre Gray scored on a 1-yard plunge and the Racers took their first lead at 13-7 following a missed 2-point conversion.

SEMO managed to get the ball to the MSU 27-yard line with the help of a 15-yard catch by Jacquan Fuller and pass interference penalty by the Racers. After a 1-yard run by Will Young, an incomplete pass and a dropped ball by McCullough, the Redhawks settled for a 44-yard field goal by McCrum to cut MSU's lead to 13-10 with 39 seconds to go in the third quarter.

The Redhawks turned the ball over again when Hosket's pass was tipped and intercepted by Dylan Boone. That miscue resulted in a 39-yard field goal by Mitchell as the Racers pushed their lead to 16-10 at the 11:50 mark in the fourth quarter. For Hosket, it was his first interception of the season.

Offensively, SEMO ran a total of 91 plays which tied for fourth-most in a game during its NCAA Division I era.

Hosket completed 19-of-44 passes for 257 yards and two touchdowns, while McCullough added a career-high nine catches for 94 yards.

SEMO's defense notched three sacks and 11 tackles for loss.

The Redhawks improved to 8-18 all-time in Ohio Valley Conference openers.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. – Southeast Missouri allowed only one offensive touchdown en route to upending #13 Eastern Illinois, 21-14, at Houck Stadium.

SEMO recorded its fifth all-time win over a ranked Football Championship Subdivision opponent. Even better than that, the Redhawks knocked off their third ranked opponent with Tom Matukewicz as their head coach.

SEMO started Ohio Valley Conference play at 2-0 for the second time in three years with Matukewicz at the helm. Tonight marked the first time the Redhawks upset the Panthers in four meetings when they were ranked.

The Redhawks started strong, scoring 14 points in the first quarter. Jesse Hosket scored his first career rushing touchdown on a 1-yard run and then threw a 62-yard touchdown pass to Adrian Davis in the first seven minutes of the game.

EIU cut SEMO's lead in half on Christopher Anderson's 18-yard touchdown run that capped a 78-yard drive with 4:26 left in the first quarter to make it 14-7.

Neither team scored in the second quarter as the Redhawks headed into the locker room with their first halftime lead of the season.

Less than a minute into the second half, EIU tied the game when Pono Choy scooped up Tremane McCullough's fumble and ran 22 yards down the far sideline for a touchdown.

SEMO, however, answered right back, marching 86 yards in seven plays. Hosket completed his second touchdown pass, this time a 45-yard strike to a wide open Marquette Murdock to put the Redhawks ahead, 21-14, with 11:13 remaining in the third quarter.

Murdock's first career touchdown loomed large in the end as both teams went scoreless for the final 15 minutes.

EIU moved the ball to SEMO's 31-yard line during its only fourth-quarter drive. The Redhawks made a big statement to end the threat. SEMO had back-to-back tackles for loss before Chad Meredith batted down a pass on a third-and-16. Another incomplete pass by Austin Green followed.

The Redhawks took over on downs with 5:39 left and ran out the clock.

Hosket completed 12-of-20 passes for 223 yards and two touchdowns, and rushed for 16 yards and another score. It marked Hosket's fourth-straight start throwing for over 200 yards and third multiple-touchdown game this season. He went over 1,000 passing yards.

Murdock added a career-high three catches for 86 yards. Two of his catches went for 30 or more yards.

Defensively, Meredith paved the way with a game-high 12 tackles. He collected double-digit tackles in a game for the second time this year. The Redhawks limited the Panthers to just 93 yards in the second half alone.

Roper Garrett, who went over 300 tackles in his career, followed with eight.

Green threw for 188 yards on 19-of-33 attempts and Devin Church ran for 86 yards on 15 carries.

SEMO ended a four-game losing streak in its all-time series with EIU.

Leading Tacklers: SEMO - Garrett, Roper 12. EKU - Northington, Kiante 9.

RICHMOND, Ky. – Bennie Coney threw for 337 yards and a season-high four touchdowns to lead Eastern Kentucky to a 31-16 win over Southeast Missouri.

Coney completed 23-of-37 passes for 62.2 percent and tossed three of his TD passes to Devin Borders, who finished with seven receptions for 119 yards.

After SEMO took a 6-0 lead on field goals of 50 and 30 yards by Ryan McCrum, EKU countered with 24-straight points and never looked back.

The Colonels took their first lead of the game on Borders' 7-yard touchdown reception that capped an 83-yard drive with 8:47 left to play in the second quarter.

Following a SEMO punt, the Colonels went 91 yards in a quick 1:26 to score right before the intermission. Cameron Fogle hauled in an 18-yard pass from Coney to widen EKU's lead to 14-6 with six seconds on the clock.

EKU scored the first 10 points of the second half using a 56-yard scoring strike from Coney to Borders and a 49-yard field goal by Lucas Williams to push its lead to 24-6.

SEMO then stopped the scoring stretch when McCrum kicked his third field goal of the game to cut EKU's lead to 24-9 with 1:54 to play in the third quarter. McCrum, who made three field goals in a game for the second time this season, surpassed 200 career points.

The Colonels capitalized on a fumble by Tremane McCullough to score their final touchdown of the night. Coney connected with Borders on a 1-yard TD pass to expand EKU's lead to 31-9 with 8:42 remaining.

Jesse Hosket guided SEMO to its only touchdown when he threw for 87 yards during the Redhawks last drive. Hosket hooked up with Kristian Wilkerson on a 45-yard pass to make it 31-16 at the 3:42 mark.

Hosket completed a 20-yard pass to Marquette Murdock on a third-and-8 to move SEMO into EKU territory on the Redhawks opening drive of the game. After Hosket's pass went off McCullough's fingertips in the end zone, McCrum came on to give SEMO a 3-0 advantage with 9:48 remaining in the first quarter. The kick was McCrum's longest this season.

Ethan Thomas ripped off a 51-yard run on the first play of EKU's ensuing possession. The Colonels later had a first-and-Goal at SEMO's 10-yard line and managed to get to the one on a 5-yard rush by Coney. Devin Alexander dropped Thomas for no gain to end the threat.

SEMO, after taking over on downs at its 1-yard line, put together its longest drive of the season covering 93 yards in 10 plays. The Redhawks, however, came up empty when McCullough fumbled at the EKU 5-yard line after catching a 42-yard pass from Hosket.

The Redhawk defense took advantage of a muffed snap by Coney to get the ball back. Zach Hall recovered the fumble and SEMO settled for another field goal by McCrum to up its lead to 6-0 with 14:09 left to play in the second quarter.

Coney's four touchdown passes matched the total in his first three games combined. Borders averaged 17 yards per catch and Thomas ran for 92 yards on 20 carries to lead EKU. The Colonels piled up 527 yards of total offense, averaging just under six yards per play. The yardage was the most against SEMO's defense this year.

Hosket completed 24-of-41 passes for a season-best 291 yards. He threw for over 200 yards for the fifth-straight game. McCullough posted his first career 100-yard receiving game with 103 yards on eight catches. Will Young rushed for 81 yards on eight carries for the Redhawk offense, as well.

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. – A 21-point second quarter allowed Tennessee Tech to hang on for a 21-20 victory over Southeast Missouri in a slugfest at Tucker Stadium.

SEMO's defense shutout TTU for three quarters and limited the Golden Eagles to only 74 rushing yards in a stout performance. However, two missed field goals and an interception that was returned for a touchdown hurt the Redhawks in the end.

Ryan McCrum kicked a 30-yard field goal to pull SEMO within one at the 5:48 mark in the fourth quarter and that marked the final points as both teams went scoreless for the final 20:48 of the game.

SEMO managed to get into TTU territory twice in the fourth quarter and was at the Golden Eagles 13-yard line when McCrum's 30-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right. The Redhawks later moved the ball to TTU's 41-yard line, but was forced to punt.

It appeared as though the Redhawks might get the ball back once more after Alex Knight's 40-yard punt was downed at the 1-yard line. But, TTU used two big third down conversions to put the game away.

Michael Birdsong completed a 22-yard pass to Dontez Byrd and Yeedee Thaenrat ran for 18 yards on third-and-4 in both instances. After Thaenrat's run, the Golden Eagles ran out what was left on the clock.

SEMO scored a touchdown on the opening drive of a game for the second time this season when it marched 70 yards on nine plays.

Jesse Hosket completed a 44-yard pass to Kristian Wilkerson to get the Redhawks a first down at the TTU 12-yard line before Will Young later capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run. Young's third touchdown of the season gave SEMO an early 7-0 lead with 10:19 remaining in the first quarter.

Chad Meredith and Kendall Donnerson each recorded a sack to help stop TTU on its first possession and the Redhawks took over on downs with excellent field position after Tremane McCullough returned a punt 34 yards to the TTU-40. Four plays later, McCrum kicked a season-long 51-yard field goal to push the Redhawks lead to 10-0 with 5:38 left to play.

TTU chewed up 7:33 en route to putting its first points on the board during a 12-play, 75-yard drive. Aided by a 15-yard face mask penalty, the Golden Eagles moved to SEMO's 17-yard line. Thaenrat ended the drive with a 2-yard run to close the Redhawks lead to 10-7 at the 13:05 mark of the second quarter.

Seventeen seconds later, TTU took its first lead when Normand Elliott picked off Hosket and dashed 25 yards to the end zone. Elliott's pick-six put the Golden Eagles ahead, 14-10, with 12:48 to play.

Both teams traded scores in the final six minutes of the first half with TTU grabbing a 21-17 advantage at the intermission.

Hosket connected with Wilkerson on a 47-yard touchdown pass to cap a 5-play, 69-yard drive in 2:11. Wilkerson's reception, SEMO's second-longest of the season, gave SEMO a 17-14 edge with just under six minutes to go.

TTU responded when Michael Birdsong threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Dontez Byrd just inside the near sideline. That play polished off a 7-play, 77-yard possession as the Golden Eagles went up by four.

Offensively, SEMO had its best rushing output of the season picking up 182 yards on 41 carries. Will Young paved the way with a game-high 102 yards and a TD for his team-best third 100-yard game this season. Wilkerson added four catches for 114 yards and a touchdown, getting 100 receiving yards in a game for the first time in his career. Hosket completed 15-of-27 passes for 197 yards as the Redhawks outgained the Golden Eagles, 379-244, and went 3-of-4 on fourth down.

GAME 9

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. – Southeast Missouri held #2 Jacksonville State to season-lows in rushing yards, total yards and did not allow a point in the second half during a 17-10 loss at Houck Stadium.

SEMO put together another nice defensive performance and held the Ohio Valley Conference's top scoring offense to its second-lowest point total of the season.

In a chippy game filled with a combined 25 penalties for 214 yards, JSU was able to hold off the Redhawks in the end to claim its 22nd consecutive conference victory.

Josh Barge scored the game's first touchdown on a 20-yard pas from Eli Jenkins at the end of an 11-play, 81-yard drive with 1:44 left to play in the first quarter.

Cameron Sanders ran the ensuing kickoff back 83 yards for a touchdown, but the play was negated due to a holding penalty by the Redhawks.

JSU later used a 45-yard field goal by Cade Stinnett and an 11-yard touchdown pass from Bryant Horn to Josh Clemons to take a 17-0 halftime lead.

SEMO got on the board when Jesse Hosket tossed a 49-yard touchdown pass to Kristian Wilkerson with 7:08 remaining in the third quarter. The play polished off an eight-play drive that covered 73 yards in 3:11.

The Redhawks later had the ball at JSU's 47-yard line in the fourth quarter when a low snap bounced off the turf and scooted by Hosket. SEMO recovered, but lost 25 yards on the mishap. After another loss, this time of four yards, the Redhawks faced a third-and-39.

On the next play, Hosket's underthrown pass was intended for Wilkerson downfield when a flag was thrown. The official initially ruled pass interference, but later waved the penalty ruling the pass was uncatchable. SEMO then punted the ball away.

During JSU's next drive, two unsportsmanlike conduct penalties by SEMO put the ball at the Redhawks 27-yard line. Two plays later, Stinnett attempted a 36-yard field goal, but Fernando Whigham blocked the kick.

On its final drive of the game, SEMO managed to get all the way to JSU's 7-yard line with the help of a 44-yard completion from Hosket to Wilkerson on the eighth play of that possession. The Redhawks, however, settled for a 23-yard field goal by Ryan McCrum with 24 seconds on the clock.

McCrum's onside kick fell into the arms of Dalton Campbell who appeared to bobble the ball while his knee was on the ground. Redhawk linebacker Devin Alexander took the ball from Campbell, but Campbell was later ruled down on the play.

JSU ran out the last 19 seconds of the game to secure the win.

Offensively, the Gamecocks finished with 151 rushing yards and 350 yards of total offense. SEMO had 206 total yards and did not gain a yard on the ground. It was the Redhawks third-lowest rushing yardage in a game during their Football Championship Subdivision era.

Jenkins completed 10-of-19 passes for 144 yards and a touchdown, and Horn ran for a game-high 55 yards and threw a touchdown pass to lead JSU. Barge added a game-high eight catches for 145 yards and a score.

Hosket threw for 206 yards and a touchdown on 14-of-39 passes. As a result, Hosket reached 2,000 passing yards this season, becoming the second SEMO quarterback to throw for 2,000 yards in three years.

Freshman linebacker Zach Hall led SEMO's defense with 10 tackles in his first career start. Chad Meredith, Eriq Moore (7) and Roper Garrett (7) followed with eight and seven tackles, respectively. As a unit, the Redhawks forced two fumbles and contributed six tackles for a loss of 18 yards, as well.

JSU, the league-leader in penalties, was penalized 16 times for 138 yards.

SEMO would take a 7-3 lead with 4:06 remaining in the second quarter. After a 12-yard punt gave Southeast the ball at its own 43, Jesse Hosket completed his first pass to Kristian Wilkerson down the seam for 28 yards. Wilkerson made an acrobatic one-handed catch on the play. Will Young then ran ball four consecutive plays for 28 yards down to the 1-yard line before Hosket finished the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run.

UTM responded by scoring the next 21 points.

SEMO had a chance to tie the game before halftime, but two false starts forced a 52-yard field goal attempt by Ryan McCrum, which sailed wide right. The Skyhawks headed into the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

UTM controlled the second half, outscoring the Redhawks 14-3.

Following a Hosket interception at the Skyhawks 24-yard line, UTM turned in a quick three-play 56-yard scoring drive to extend its lead to 10. Cook found Ben Axline for 43 yards down to the SEMO 13. Two plays later, Bowe scored.

UTM added to its lead early in the fourth quarter, using only 50 seconds to go 59 yards on three plays. Cook connected on a 56-yard completion downfield to Londell Lee widening the Skyhawks lead to 24-7.

GAME 11

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Patrick Smith caught 11 passes for 166 yards and scored two touchdowns, including the game-winner with 16 seconds left as Tennessee State edged Southeast Missouri, 32-31, at Houck Field.

TSU trailed, 31-25, after Ryan McCrum kicked a 26-yard field goal with 2:48 remaining.

Ronald Butler threw passes of 23 and 28 yards to Smith on the front end of the Tigers game-winning drive. Butler then completed a 13-yard pass to Steven Newbold on a third-and-5. Following back-to-back incompletions, TSU faced a third-and-10 when Butler delivered a 14-yard strike down the seam for the decisive score.

TSU and SEMO combined for 40 points in the second half with 24 coming in a wild fourth quarter.

Smith scored both of his touchdowns in the final period which began with his 1-yard catch from Butler that put TSU ahead, 25-20, with 13:37 left.

After Alex Knight's 33-yard punt hit Marcus Deanes, JJ Flye recovered the fumble at the TSU 16-yard line. Four plays later, Will Young hit paydirt on a 4-yard run to and Jesse Hosket completed a pass to Stephen Dunn on the two-point conversion giving SEMO a 28-25 advantage at the 7:13 mark.

Tiger punter Austin Rowley bobbled a low snap and took off with a lot of room in front of him. Cape Girardeau native Al Young, however, dropped Rowley short of a first down. McCrum's field goal followed the big defensive play.

TSU built a 13-10 advantage at halftime after scoring 10 points in the first quarter and three in the second.

Young capped the game's opening drive with a 33-yard run to get SEMO an early 7-0 lead.

The Tigers countered with 10 unanswered points using a 1-yard touchdown pass from Butler to Mahlon Medley and a 46-yard field goal by Lane Clark to take a 10-7 advantage.

Both teams traded field goals in the second quarter with McCrum splitting the uprights from 20 yards out and Clark connecting from 49 yards away.

Smith averaged 15 yards per reception to lead TSU's offense which finished with 475 total yards.

Earl Harrison picked up 168 yards on the ground and had a 66-yard touchdown run called back for taunting. Butler completed 18-of-34 passes for 279 yards and four touchdowns.

Meanwhile, Hosket threw for 129 yards and ran for a touchdown. Hosket scored on a 35-yard run on a third-and-15 immediately after a delay of game penalty with 2:52 remaining in the third quarter.

Young added 89 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries.

Defensively, Roper Garrett and Chad Meredith paved the way with 13 and 10 tackles, respectively. Garrett and Meredith finished as the top two tacklers on the team this season.

SEMO honored 28 seniors prior to kickoff, its largest senior class since 2012.

OVC HISTORY

Now in its 70th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 17 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged February 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Through the past 69 years, 15 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 21 outright or shared football crowns, which is tied for the most in Football Championship Subdivision history (with Massachusetts). Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with 10, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois has claimed seven football crowns and Jacksonville State has six, while Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri, UT Martin and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh. EKU was coached by former All-America quarterback Roy Kidd, who was in his 16th year at the helm of his alma mater and who skippered the Colonels to a second national title three years later. Following the 2002 season, Kidd retired after 39 years at EKU; upon retirement, he ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches with 315 victories, earning him a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame. EKU's 21 FCS playoff appearances are the second most all-time (behind only Montana's 23 berths).

In addition to Kidd, other coaching legends in the OVC include Charles "Bubber" Murphy, who coached at Middle Tennessee from 1947-1968, Western Kentucky's Jimmy Feix (1968-83), Wilburn Tucker (1954-67) and Don Wade (1968-82) of Tennessee Tech, Bill Ferguson (1967-77) of Murray State, Guy Penny (1959-67) of Morehead State and Boots Donnelly (1977-78 at Austin Peay; 1979-1998 at Middle Tennessee). Following the 2011 season Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo retired after 25 years at the school (the last 16 as members of the OVC). In his time as an OVC coach he compiled 92 total victories (fifth-most in league history) and 68 OVC wins (fourth-most in league history) and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2012. In 2016 former Murray State head coach Frank Beamer (1981-86) was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame; he introduced his wide tackle six defense to the OVC and compiled a 43-23-2 record with the Racers before leaving for his alma mater Virginia Tech where he won 280 games in 29 seasons.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo and Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals. He would break into the starting lineup halfway through his rookie season and started at cornerback for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

The 2007 season marked a return to scholarship football and the OVC for the Austin Peay Governors. Following the 1996 season the Governors dropped scholarship football and competed as both an independent (1997-00, 2006) and as a member of the Pioneer Football League (2001-05).

The 2007 season also brought new vernacular to the Ohio Valley Conference and the division formerly known as I-AA. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game the term I-AA was changed to NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in a decision by the Division I Board of Directors. The new label was chosen to communicate in a positive and clear manner the unique differences between Division I football categories (chiefly, the post-season opportunity) while still defining them within the Division I experience. The FCS includes programs that compete in an effort to participate in the NCAA championship postseason structure (one of 90 NCAA national championships) as opposed to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) which competes in an effort to participate in the postseason bowl system (the 40 NCAA-licensed events which includes the College Football Playoff).

In 2010 Southeast Missouri State, picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll, compiled a 7-1 Conference record on the way to its first OVC Championship since joining the league in 1991. Overall the Redhawks were 9-2 during the regular season and earned a berth in the FCS Playoffs, its first playoff berth at any level in the program's 104-year history. Southeast would lose to eventual national champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the playoffs. Head coach Tony Samuel capped the year by winning the Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award, given to the National Coach of the Year. Samuel was the second OVC coach to win the award (joining Murray State's Houston Nutt who won the award in 1995).

For only the second time in league history in 2011, three teams shared the OVC football championship, as Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech finished with 6-2 records. The only other time in league history more than two champions were crowned at the end of the year was 1962 (when four teams shared the crown).

In 2012 Eastern Illinois became just the fourth football team in OVC history to go from worst-to-first in winning the OVC Championship. The Panthers were led by head coach Dino Babers who became just the fourth first-year head coach to win an OVC Championship (joining Boots Donnelly in 1977, Jason Simpson in 2006 and Dean Hood in 2008 – Jacksonville State head coach John Grass would become the fifth coach to achieve that feat in 2014). During the year Eastern Illinois junior wide receiver Erik Lora shattered the FCS single-season receptions record, hauling in 136 passes in 12 games; that mark was 13 more than the previous NCAA record and 44 more than the previous OVC mark.

In 2013 Eastern Illinois repeated as OVC Champions behind Walter Payton Award winner Jimmy Garoppolo. The quarterback became just the second OVC player to earn the National Player of the Year Award, joining former EIU signal caller Tony Romo (2002). Garoppolo passed for 5,050 yards (second most in NCAA single-season history) and 53 touchdowns (fourth in NCAA history) in leading the Panthers to a 12-2 record and berth to the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs. Garoppolo was drafted by the New England Patriots in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft, becoming just the fifth OVC player selected in that round and just the fifth OVC quarterback ever selected (and first since 1998). Garoppolo was a part of Patriots teams that won Super Bowls in 2015 and 2017.

The 2013 season saw the OVC snap a 19-game playoff losing streak dating back to the 2000 season. Tennessee State shutout Butler (marking the first OVC road playoff victory since 1986) to snap the streak while later that day Jacksonville State smashed Samford in the first round. A week later Eastern Illinois beat Tennessee State while Jacksonville State won at McNeese State to each advance to the quarterfinals; that marked the first time the OVC put two teams in the quarterfinals in the same season since 1991. Overall the four total playoff wins in the same season established a new OVC record.

In 2015 Jacksonville State ascended to No. 1 in both major Top 25 polls, becoming the first OVC team to be ranked No. 1 since the 1999 season. The Gamecocks would go on to complete its second-straight 8-0 Conference mark and won three playoff games to become the first OVC team to advance to the Division I National Championship Game since 1982 (Eastern Kentucky). JSU lost to North Dakota State in the title game but finished the year 13-2 overall and ranked No. 2 in the final Top 25 polls. Head coach John Grass became the first OVC coach honored as the AFCA National Coach of the Year while quarterback Eli Jenkins was named the FCS ADA National Quarterback of the Year, finishing the year with 2,788 passing and 1,161 rushing yards (one of just three Division I quarterbacks – FBS or FCS - to achieve those numbers during the year).

Jenkins would conclude his career in 2016 with 3,796 rushing yards, the seventh-most ever by a FCS quarterback. Jenkins, who was named OVC Male Athlete of the Year in back-to-back seasons, capped his career with 11,448 yards of total offense, second-most in OVC history (behind only Garoppolo).

Football wasn't the only sport in which the OVC was quickly gaining respect. In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants. The Conference quickly proved worthy of that bid, as Morehead State defeated Marshall (107-92) and Wayne State (95-84) in the 1956 tournament.

Fifteen years later, former OVC member Western Kentucky became the first and only Conference team to reach the Final Four. The Hilltoppers defeated Jacksonville, Kentucky and Ohio State before losing to Villanova in double overtime in the national semifinals. WKU went on to finish in third place after beating Kansas 77-75 in the consolation game.

Since that time, the OVC has recorded some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Tournament. Perhaps the most famous moment came in 1987, when Austin Peay came from fourth place in the regular season to win the OVC Tournament and earn the league's automatic bid. The Governors drew powerful Illinois, and were such big underdogs, that ESPN broadcaster Dick Vitale promised to stand on his head if APSU won the game. After a 68-67 victory over the Illini, and a narrow 90-87 overtime loss to eventual Final Four participant Providence in the second round, Vitale made good on his promise in a visit to Clarksville two months later.

Murray State added to the OVC's string of upsets in 1988 when it knocked off 14th-ranked North Carolina State, 78-75. The Racers' M&M Boys - Jeff Martin and Don Mann - combined for 39 points in the win. MSU nearly went on to the Sweet 16 that year, losing to eventual national champion Kansas, 61-58. A bank shot by Mann that would've given the Racers a one-point lead rolled off the rim with three seconds left. In 1990 as a No. 16 seed, Murray State took No. 1 seed Michigan State into overtime before falling 75-71; that game still marks the closest a No. 16 seed has come to knocking off a No. 1 in men's tournament action. More recently, Murray State has dominated the OVC Tournament, reaching the championship game every year in the 1990's. The Racers' 15 OVC Tournament Championships are the most among all OVC schools.

After former member Middle Tennessee State won a first round game in 1989, the league had a drought as no other OVC team won a NCAA Tournament game for the next 19 years. But Morehead State, coming off a thrilling double overtime OVC Tournament victory over Austin Peay, topped Alabama State 58-43 in the 2009 Opening Round game at University of Dayton Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The game was played in front of an Opening Round record crowd of 11,346 and included many MSU fans who made the three-hour drive from Morehead for the game.

In 2009-10, Murray State made OVC history by winning a record 31 games (31-5) on its way to the league's regular season and tournament championships. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the No. 13 seed Racers topped Vanderbilt in thrilling fashion when senior Danero Thomas hit a jumper as time expired to lift MSU to a 66-65 victory. It marked the first OVC team to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament since 1989, and snapped a skid of 71-straight loses to Southeastern Conference foes (dating back to 2000-01). In the second round, the Racers pushed eventual national runner-up Butler to the brink before losing 54-52.

In 2010-11 Morehead State would make it three NCAA Tournament wins in as many years for the league and got a bit of revenge for the 2009 tournament loss to Louisville in the process. After finishing second in the regular season and winning the OVC Tournament Championship, the No. 13 seeded Eagles were shipped to Denver to play the in-state foe Cardinals. MSU jumped out to a 15-2 advantage but were down four points (61-57) with just over a minute to play in regulation. After two free throws from two-time OVC Player of the Year Kenneth Faried, the Eagles held for one final shot attempt and senior Demonte Harper pulled up off a cross-over dribble to nail a 3-pointer with 4.3 seconds left that gave Morehead State a 62-61 lead. UofL had one last attempt but Faried blocked the Cardinals last shot, giving MSU the win, its first over Louisville since the 1956-57 season.

In 2011-12 Murray State put together one of the greatest seasons in OVC history, beginning the year 23-0 (an all-time OVC best) and being ranked as high as No. 7 in the coaches poll on Feb. 6. The squad was the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since Murray State was ranked in 1997-98; in addition the top 10 ranking was the first for an OVC team since the 1970-71 campaign (WKU). The Racers would top nationally-ranked Memphis and Saint Mary's during the season and win the league's regular season and tournament championships. MSU earned a No. 6 seed in NCAA Tournament, the highest-ever seed for an OVC team since the NCAA began seeding the field in 1979. The Racers would top Colorado State 58-41 in the second round before falling to Marquette in the third round. Murray State would win 31 games overall, tying the OVC all-time record the Racers set in 2009-10.

After the Murray State win in 2011-12, the league had won NCAA Tournament games in four-straight seasons, something that had never happened in league history (three-game winning streaks from 1960-62 and 1987-89 had been the previous best streaks). Over that time period (2009-12) the OVC was one of just nine conferences nationally to win a NCAA Tournament game in each season and one of only three non-BCS leagues (joining the Atlantic 10 and WCC) to do so.

In 2013-14 Murray State won five games to claim the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) and in the process became the first OVC men's basketball team to ever play games in the month of April.

The 2014-15 season saw five OVC men's basketball teams earn postseason bids, the most in league history, and a year later (2015-16) that number was eclipsed with six teams making national postseason tournaments. Entering 2017-18 OVC men's basketball teams have at least one national postseason tournament victory in nine-straight postseasons, an all-time league record.

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft.

During the 2010-11 year Faried, the nation's leading rebounder during the season, became the NCAA's Modern Era (since 1973) career rebounding leader, totaling 1,673 rebounds which passed Tim Duncan for the record (he is 11th all-time in NCAA history). Faried also finished his career with 86 double-doubles, second all-time to only Duncan. He is one of only six players in NCAA history to finish with 2,000-plus career points (2,009) and 1,600-plus career rebounds. Faried was drafted 22nd overall by the Denver Nuggets in the 2011 NBA Draft, becoming the first OVC player selected in the first round since Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers 1994.

Murray State guard Isaiah Canaan, a first-team All-American in 2011-12, capped his illustrious career in 2012-13 by becoming just the 17th player in OVC history to score 2,000 or more career points. Canaan, who was a key part of Murray State NCAA Tournament victories in both 2010 and 2012, earned a pair of OVC Player of the Year honors (2012 and 2013) during his career as well as being named OVC Freshman of the Year (2010), OVC Tournament MVP (2010) and OVC Male Athlete of the Year (2012). He was drafted by the Houston Rockets with the 34th overall pick (No. 2 pick of the second round) of the 2013 NBA Draft.

In 2014-15 Murray State became just the fifth OVC men's team to complete a perfect Conference season (16-0). The Racers were led by sophomore Cameron Payne who was named OVC Men's Basketball Player of the Year, OVC Male Athlete of the Year and earned third-team All-American honors from CBSSports.com. Following the season Payne declared for the NBA Draft, becoming the first sophomore in OVC history to do so and one of just four OVC players all-time to enter and stay in the draft with eligibility remaining. Payne was selected in the lottery by the Oklahoma City Thunder (pick No. 14 overall), making him just the ninth First Round NBA Draft pick in OVC history.

Austin Peay made history in winning the 2016 OVC Men's Basketball Tournament as the Governors became the first No. 8 seed to claim the championship. APSU had to win its two regular season games just to qualify for the event and then won four games in four days to capture its fifth tournament crown. Along the way the Govs topped a No. 5 seed, No. 4 seed, No. 1 seed and No. 2 seed and were paced by MVP Chris Horton who averaged 22.5 points, 14.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists/game during the event including a 37-point, 21-rebound and 30-point, 16-rebounds performance during the run.

In 2016, former Belmont All-American and 2012-13 OVC Co-Player of the Year Ian Clark became the first former OVC player to advance to the NBA Finals since former Tennessee State star Anthony Mason played for the New York Knicks in 1994. Clark was part of a Golden State Warriors team that won a NBA record 73 regular season games but lost in Game 7 of the Finals. A year later, Clark was part of the Warriors team that topped Cleveland to win the 2017 NBA Championship, becoming the first OVC player to win the crown since 1970-71 (Murray State's Dick Cunningham and Western Kentucky's Greg Smith with the Milwaukee Bucks).

Belmont's Evan Bradds finished his career in 2016-17 with a 66.7 career field goal percentage, tops in OVC history and fourth all-time in Division I history. Bradds capped his career with back-to-back OVC Player of the Year awards in addition to being named 2016-17 OVC Co-Male Athlete of the Year.

Through its 69 years, 13 teams have won or shared the league's regular season men's basketball title. Murray State heads the list with a Conference-record 24 outright or shared basketball crowns. Other past champions include former member Western Kentucky (19), Morehead State (9), Austin Peay (8), Eastern Kentucky (6), Tennessee Tech (5), former member Middle Tennessee (5), Belmont (4), Tennessee State (2), former member East Tennessee State (2), Southeast Missouri State (1), UT Martin (1) and former member Akron (1).

Among the coaching greats in men's basketball have been Western Kentucky's E.A. Diddle, who retired with 759 victories and 10 OVC titles; John Oldham, who was a member of the very first All-OVC squad and went on to win seven OVC crowns during his coaching tenure at Tennessee Tech and Western Kentucky; Paul McBrayer, who guided Eastern Kentucky to 219 wins and three OVC crowns; and Cal Luther, who is the only person in Conference history to win men's basketball Coach of the Year honors at two league schools - Murray State and UT Martin. Following the 2016-17 season, Austin Peay's Dave Loos retired as the winningest coach in OVC history (he passed Luther for that crown in 2009-10). Loos, a five-time OVC Coach of the Year, finished his career with 420 wins in 27 years at Austin Peay (including a 258-194 OVC record) and 502 total wins in 31 years as a head coach.

There have been an equal number of great players including Western Kentucky's Clem Haskins, who is the only three-time OVC Player of the Year. Several players have won OVC Player of the Year honors twice: Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniels (1969-70 and 1970-71), Murray State's Les Taylor (1971-72, 1972-73), Jeff Martin (1987-88, 1988-89), Popeye Jones (1989-90, 1990-91) and Marcus Brown (1994-95, 1995-96), Austin Peay's Otis Howard (1976-77, 1977-78), Middle Tennessee's Jerry Beck (1980-81, 1981-82), Akron's Joe Jakubick (1982-83, 1983-84), Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers (1992-93, 1993-94), UT Martin's Lester Hudson (2007-08, 2008-09), Morehead State's Kenneth Faried (2009-10, 2010-11) and Murray State's Isaiah Canaan (2011-12, 2012-13).

The OVC also has the honor of being the only conference to boast the nation's leaders in scoring, rebounding and assists all in one season. That feat was accomplished in 1991-92 by Morehead State's Brett Roberts (28.1 ppg), Murray State's Popeye Jones (14.4 rpg) and Tennessee Tech's Van Usher (8.8 apg).

This year the OVC will once again serve as host for the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship First and Second Rounds at Bridgestone Arena in Nashville. It will mark the fourth-time the OVC has served as hosts of the event (2000, 2005, 2012 and 2018).

Tennessee Tech has won or shared 18 regular-season women's basketball championships in addition to nine OVC Tournament crowns; both are tops in OVC history. UT Martin added its name to the list of championship by capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011 and also winning championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Skyhawks became just the fourth team in OVC history (and first since Austin Peay from 2000-03) to win four-straight tournament titles. In 2016 Belmont won its first-ever OVC Tournament Championship, a feat it repeated in 2017.

Several coaches have made their mark in the history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at EKU and three at MTSU. In 2012-13 Inman came out of retirement to take the Tennessee State job; in 2014-15 he led the Lady Tigers to its first OVC Tournament Championship since 1995. Inman once again retired following the 2016-17 season, with 545 career victories.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; Murray State's Ashley Hayes; and UT Martin's Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken). During the campaign, only her second with the Eagles, she also set career block records for both Morehead State and the OVC (287).

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

In 2013-14 Butler and Newsome capped their brilliant careers by ranking first and second in scoring in OVC history. Butler, the 2013-14 OVC Female Athlete of the Year, finished her career with 2,865 points, which ranked first in OVC and 16th in NCAA history. She also finished her career with 392 career 3-pointers (which was tied for the most in NCAA history following her career but now ranks second) and scored in double figures in all 129 career games, which ranks fifth in NCAA history. Following the season Butler was signed by the WNBA's San Antonio Stars where she became the first OVC player to make an active WNBA roster. Newsome capped her career with 2,566 points, second only to Butler in OVC history.

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC served as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event was held April 6 & 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville and was played in front of sold-out crowds for both the semifinals and championship as UConn topped Notre Dame in a battle of undefeated teams to win its ninth national title.

Over its 69 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. Former Morehead State football and Eastern Kentucky track and field athlete Dallas Robinson competed with the U.S. bobsled team during the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Kenneth Faried (Morehead State), football players Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois) and Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players A.J. Ellis (Austin Peay) and Shawn Kelley (Austin Peay). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and a NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six-straight tournament crowns. Former EKU skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 34 years, 11 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regular-season titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006 and winning a NCAA Tournament match in 2010, the league's first NCAA victory since 2000.

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third-straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. She was later joined by Murray State's Scottie Ingram who won three-straight awards from 2014-16. Four other individuals - Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) and Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) – were back-to-back winners of the award.

Morehead State won its fourth-straight OVC volleyball regular season championship in 2013. Over that four-year period (2010-13) the Eagles compiled an impressive 67-3 league record.

In 2007, Eastern Kentucky's Jacob Korir won his fourth-straight Conference cross country title becoming just the third OVC student-athlete and 13th athlete nationally to accomplish that feat. Korir was a three-time All-American in cross country, earning two top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championship. The Nairobi, Kenya, native was also named a track and field All-American twice during his career, was selected as the OVC Male Athlete of the Year in 2006-07 and received the NCAA post graduate scholarship in 2008.

In 2011 the Eastern Kentucky men's cross country earned a national ranking in the USTFCCCA poll, climbing to as high as No. 17; the ranking was the highest for an OVC team since the polls began in the early 1980s. The EKU men would qualify for the NCAA Championship, becoming the first OVC team to reach the national championship meet since 1980. Eastern Kentucky finished 26th overall at the event as junior Soufiane Bouchikhi was 47th in a field of 252 runners. On the women's side Eastern Kentucky senior Lydia Kosgei became the first EKU woman to ever qualify for the NCAA Championship and went on to finish 37th at the national meet to earn All-American honors.

A year later (2012) the EKU men's cross country team was ranked as high as No. 11 nationally and finished 24th at the NCAA Championship. Wade Meddles led the team with a 38th place finish at the event while Bouchikhi was 40th. In 2013 Eastern Kentucky placed 15th at the NCAA Championship, the highest national finish for an OVC team since 1980. Soufiane Bouchikhi capped his career by winning his fourth-straight OVC Championship and earning National Runner of the Week honors during the season. Bouchikhi finished 26th at the NCAA Championship in 2013, earning All-American honors for the second-straight season. In 2014 EKU qualified for its fourth-straight NCAA Championship and finished 23rd overall and in 2015 earned its fifth-straight bid and finished 17th overall. EKU is only the second OVC team to ever qualify for five-straight NCAA Championships (ETSU being the other).

In 2016, Eastern Kentucky's Charlotte Imer finished 31st at the NCAA Championship, the second-highest finish ever by an OVC female (trailing only a 24th place finish by Samford's Lauren Blankenship in 2007).

In 2007 the Conference had two teams in the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament for the first time in league history, as former OVC member Samford earned an at-large selection while Southeast Missouri was the Conference's automatic bid.

Former Austin Peay standout and 2012 OVC Soccer Player of the Year Tatiana Ariza represented her native country of Colombia in both the 2012 Summer Olympics in London (earning a start against the United States) as well as the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup. In the 2015 event she assisted on the first World Cup goal in her country's history and in the following match helped her team to a 2-0 victory over France, giving Colombia its first-ever win at the event.

In 2016 SIUE turned in a major upset in the first round of the NCAA Division I Soccer Championship, advancing on penalty kicks 5-4 over No. 11-ranked Notre Dame. The Cougars became just the second OVC team to advance to the second round (joining Samford who topped Vanderbilt on penalty kicks in 2005).

For the first time under the current format, OVC men's golfers qualified for the NCAA National Championship in back-to-back years in 2013 and 2014. Austin Peay's Dustin Korte advanced from the regional to the national championship in 2013 (finishing 116th overall) while APSU's Marco Iten won the Auburn Regional in 2014 to qualify for the National Championship (finishing 55th). In 2015 OVC three individual men's golfers competed in the NCAA Regionals (one automatic berth and two at-large berths) in addition to the Eastern Kentucky team; the three individuals were the most from the OVC to qualify in one year under the current format. The OVC also boasts three current PGA Tour professionals in Scott Stallings (Tennessee Tech), Josh Teater (Morehead State) and Danny Willett (Jacksonville State).

In April 2016 Willett won The Masters Championship in Augusta, Georgia. The former JSU standout, who was the 2006 OVC Freshman of the Year and the 2007 OVC Championship Medalist, entered the final round tied for fifth, three shots behind 2015 champion Jordan Spieth after rounds of 70-74-72. In the final round Willett fired a 5-under par round of 67 to finish at 283 (-5) and top the field by three shots. He became just the eighth player in Masters history to win the event in his first or second start and just the second Englishman to win the event.

In 2009 it was OVC softball that accomplished several firsts as UT Martin (tournament champion) and Jacksonville State (at-large) were each selected for the NCAA Championship. Jacksonville State would take it a step farther by winning the Knoxville Regional (beating No. 13 national seed Tennessee along the way) to become the first OVC softball program to advance to a Super Regional. Jax State would fall to No. 4 Alabama in that Super Regional but finished the season 43-16 (19-2 OVC) and ranked 21st nationally in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and 24th nationally in the USA Today/NFCA poll.

In 2016 the OVC Softball Championship was held at a neutral site for the first time, as it was played at Choccolocco Park in Oxford, Alabama.

The league's baseball presence has continued to evolve since its inception. The OVC baseball tournament moved to a neutral site for the first time in 2001 with Paducah, Kentucky and Brooks Stadium hosting the tournament in front of raucous crowds. The success of the tournament led to Jackson, Tennessee and The Ballpark at Jackson (the home of the Seattle Mariner's Class AA affiliate) – hosting the event for the first time in 2010. The championship moved to Choccolocco Park in Oxford, Alabama in 2017.

The OVC also has made a statement in the NCAA Baseball Championship in recent years, with its teams involved in several memorable contests in the last decade. Tennessee Tech surprised Wake Forest in the opening round of the 2001 tournament and Southeast Missouri stunned host Alabama in the opening round of the 2002 championship. Five years later, Austin Peay captured the collegiate baseball world's attention by taking Vanderbilt, the 2007 No. 1 overall seed, to extra innings. Eastern Illinois pushed host Nebraska to the limit in 2008 followed by Tennessee Tech's memorable contest against host Clemson in 2009.

After not making the OVC Tournament field in either 2009 or 2010, Austin Peay, who was picked to finish seventh in the 2011 preseason poll, won the regular season and tournament championships to garner its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. In the first game of NCAA Regional play the Govs knocked off host and No. 1 seed Georgia Tech 2-1.

In 2012 Austin Peay completed a "repeat squared" (back-to-back regular season and tournament championships) for the first-time in OVC history. The Govs would go on to top Indiana State and Cal State Fullerton at the Eugene Regional, before falling to host Oregon in the regional final. It marked the first time since the 2000 season (Middle Tennessee) that an OVC team had won multiple NCAA Tournaments games in the same season.

Austin Peay completed a "3-Peayt" by winning its third-straight OVC Tournament crown in 2013. Along the way the Govs garnered the first nationally-ranking by an OVC team since 2009 (climbing to as high as 21st nationally) and tied the OVC single-season record with 47 victories. The Govs earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Bloomington Regional, becoming the first OVC team in the current regional format (since 1999) to earn anything other than a No. 4 seed. The squad topped Florida and Valparaiso to advance to the regional final for the second-straight season before losing to host Indiana. Govs senior closer Tyler Rogers was a big part of his team's success during the year, setting the NCAA single-season record for saves (23 – a mark that was later eclipsed during the College World Series).

In 2016 six OVC teams reached the 30-win plateau for the first time in league history; the previous single-season high had been four teams.

In 2017 the league could have been named the "Offensive Valley Conference" as teams combined for 753 home runs during the season, the most in league history. That was highlighted by a record 50 combined home runs being hit in 13 games at the OVC Tournament. Included in that was Morehead State sophomore Niko Hulsizer who hit his 27th home run of the season, establishing a new OVC single-season record.

In 2014, for the third-straight year, 12 OVC players were selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Of those 12 selections five came in the first 10 rounds, setting a new record for most OVC players picked in the first 10 rounds (eclipsing the old mark of three set several times). In 2016 13 OVC players were selected in the draft, tying the all-time record established in 2010; overall the OVC has had 85 players selected over the past eight years (2010-17).

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year. A year later (2009) the league had a Major League Baseball First Round Compensation Round pick (Eastern Illinois' Tyler Kehrer who was No. 48 overall) and NBA Second Round pick (UT Martin's Lester Hudson) in the same season.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 261 student-athletes honored with the award, including 67 over the last seven years (2010-17).

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

KENNETH DEMENT

Number 40 worn by All-American tackle Kenneth Dement was retired on Nov. 11, 1989. Dement, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame, started at Southeast from 1951-54, earning All-American honors in 1953 and 1954. Following his senior season, Dement was the first Southeast player ever drafted by a NFL team. He was drafted by the New York Giants, but opted to join the Marines.

KEN IMAN

Number 58 worn by Ken Iman, who played 14 seasons in the NFL, was retired on Oct. 4, 1974. Iman played at Southeast from 1956-59. He was signed as a free agent by the Green Bay Packers and spent four seasons with the Packers before being traded to the Los Angeles Rams. He was the Rams Most Valuable Player in 1972. Iman spent several years as an assistant coach in the NFL.

67
MIKE WOOD

Number 67 worn by Mike Wood was retired on April 23, 1978. Wood established a new NCAA record for career field goals during his senior season in 1977. He broke the old record of 51 on Sept. 17, 1977 with a 27-yard kick against Delta State at Houck Stadium. His NCAA record total of 64 stood for several years and is still the record at Southeast. Wood, who currently resides in St. Louis, played professionally with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Diego Chargers.

Wide receiver Paul McRoberts became the first Southeast Missouri player to get an invitation to the Reese's Senior Bowl. McRoberts, who signed as an undrafted free agent with the Los Angeles Rams, caught four passes for 46 yards and a touchdown, and returned one punt for 27 yards. He played on the South All-Star team which beat the North All-Stars, 27-16, on Jan. 30, 2016 at Ladd-Peebles Stadium in Mobile, Alabama.

2010 OVC CHAMPIONS

What a run for the Southeast Missouri football team which flipped a 2-9 record from 2009 to a 9-3 mark in 2010.

Southeast's remarkable 6.5-game improvement resulted in the program's first-ever Ohio Valley Conference title and NCAA playoff berth.

The Redhawks ranked as high as seventh in the country before being voted 13th in the final Sports Network and Football Championship Subdivision Coaches Polls. Southeast was a Top-10 team for five-consecutive weeks during its historic season.

Numerous records were broken and the Redhawks saw a major spike in home attendance. Southeast averaged 8,342 fans per game, an increase of more than 2,500 from its 2009 average attendance. The Redhawks also finished undefeated at home for the first time since joining the NCAA Division I ranks.

The Cape Girardeau community rallied behind their beloved Redhawks as the story of Southeast's turnaround did not go un-noticed.

Henry Harris, who was named to several All-America teams and earned the OVC's coveted Offensive Player of the Year award, finished fifth in the overall voting for the Payton Award, which recognizes the FCS's National Player of the Year.

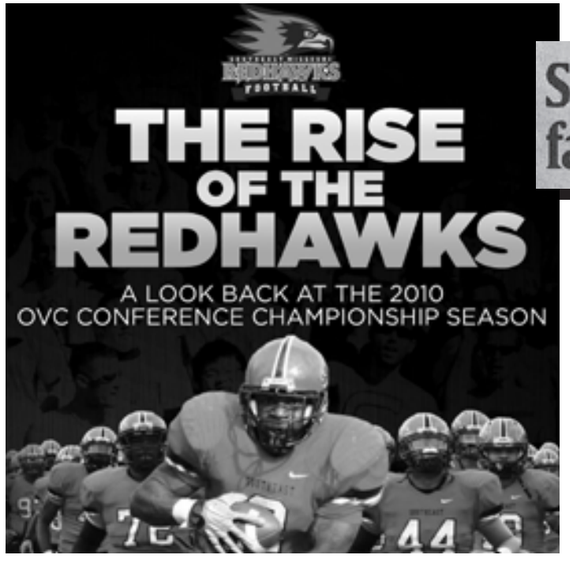

Head coach Tony Samuel, after earning the OVC Roy Kidd Coach of the Year and AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year awards, was named the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year.

Southeast posted its first winning season since 2002 and third winning season since joining the FCS in 1991. The Redhawks tied a school record for most wins in a season and held a nine-game winning streak, which at the time, tied for the longest in the FCS.

The success Southeast endured on the field produced some outstanding accomplishments off the gridiron, as well.

J.J. Sanchez was a Second-Team ESPN/CoSIDA Academic All-American and Matt Scheible was a First-Team Academic All-District selection. Southeast also received the 2010-11 OVC Team Sportsmanship Award for football.

2010 NCAA PLAYOFFS

#9 Southeast Missouri 17
#1 Eastern Washington 37
December 4, 2010 • Roos Field • Attendance: 3,665

CHENEY, Wash. - Fifth-seeded Eastern Washington scored 23 unanswered points, including 20 in the second half, en route to a 37-17 win over Southeast Missouri in the second round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

EWU kicked a field goal with one second left in the first half, before breaking a 17-17 tie with 20 points in the second stanza.

"I'm proud of our guys. It was a heckuva season," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "We played a real tough first half. It's no secret that we lost the game in the second half."

Bo Levi Mitchell, a transfer out of Football Bowl Subdivision SMU, completed a go-ahead 10-yard touchdown pass to Nicholas Edwards to give the Eagles a 24-17 lead with 4:56 left in the third quarter.

After Big Sky Conference Defensive Player of the Year J.C. Sherritt stopped Henry Harris on a 4th-and-1, EWU took over on downs at the Redhawks 43-yardline.

Five plays later, Levi Mitchell hooked up with Greg Herd for a 10-yard strike to extend the Eagles lead to 31-17 with 13:40 remaining in the fourth quarter. Taiwan Jones ran the ball for 12 yards on two carries prior to the score.

The Redhawks caught a bad break on special teams when Cameron Zuber's punt went off of the foot of Sheldon McCullough. Jake Potter recovered and EWU was in business again, this time at the Southeast 39-yardline.

The turnover resulted in a 9-yard touchdown run by Mario Brown and the Eagles pulled ahead, 37-17, with 5:57 left.

Southeast's miscue was the first of four turnovers in the final nine minutes.

Matt Scheible was picked off twice and Josh Coleman fumbled on a punt return, but none of those mishaps led to any points.

EWU and Southeast exchanged field goals before heading into the locker room deadlocked at 17-17.

Drew Geldbach connected from 34 yards out with 43 seconds remaining and Mike Jarrett split the uprights from 39 yards away with one second on the clock.

Levi Mitchell completed 21-of-34 passes for 178 yards and two touchdowns and Jones rushed for 168 yards and two TDs on 25 carries to lead EWU. Jones also averaged 6.7 yards per carry on the day.

Defensively, the Eagles held Southeast to only 12 rushing yards and 26 yards of total offense in the second half. Sherritt registered 10 tackles.

Harris gained 108 yards and scored one touchdown on 20 attempts. It marked the 10th time Harris ran for over 100 yards in 12 starts this season.

Scheible completed 6-of-15 passes for 69 yards and ran for 54 yards on 14 carries.

Jackson posted a career-high 15 tackles and Justin Woodlief followed with 13 to lead the Redhawk defense.

Southeast finished with 268 total yards, including 199 on the ground. The Redhawks also had a season-high nine penalties for 106 yards.

The Redhawks ended their historic season at 9-3 overall.

REDHAWKS

BRING YOUR BIG IDEAS.

And make them count.

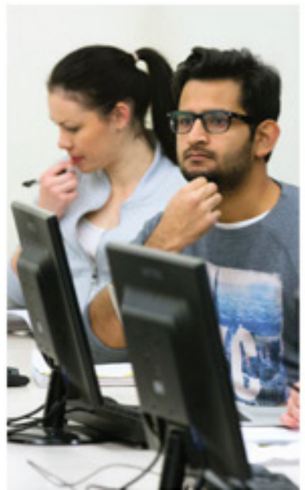

Your big ideas will be in good company here. Whatever you choose to study, chances are the program is at the head of its class. And if you're at the head of yours, you can join our honors program and elevate your learning experience even further.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY · 1873

SOUTHEAST BOASTS 20+ NATIONALLY AND INTERNATIONALLY ACCREDITED PROGRAMS, INCLUDING:

- / ATHLETIC TRAINING

- / CHEMISTRY
- / COMPUTER SCIENCE
- / DIETETICS
- / EDUCATION

GETTING INTO MEDICAL SCHOOL ISN'T EASY — WE JUST MAKE IT LOOK THAT WAY. SOUTHEAST'S PRE-MED STUDENTS ARE ACCEPTED TO

medical school well above the national average.

Like our students, Southeast faculty members come from around the country, hailing from leading institutions such as:

- / Boston Conservatory of Music
- / Carnegie Mellon University
- / Harvard University
- / Pennsylvania State University
- / Purdue University
- / Texas A&M University
- / Tulane University
- / University of Florida
- / University of Michigan
- / Vanderbilt University
- / Yale University

THE DONALD L. HARRISON COLLEGE OF BUSINESS CONSISTENTLY MAKES THE PRINCETON REVIEW'S LIST OF

top business schools.

COME HERE AS A STUDENT.

And go anywhere as a teacher.

Southeast education graduates work as faculty members in school districts across the nation, and in more than 35 countries around the world.

1:21 faculty-student ratio

Full-time faculty

lead most classes, not teaching assistants — starting with freshman year.

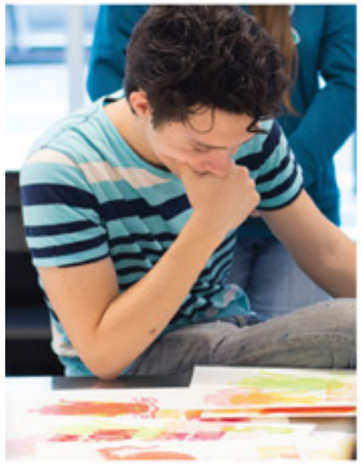

REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE

ROLL UP YOUR SLEEVES AND GET DOWN TO BUSINESS.

Or education, public policy, communications or journalism — whatever your major, expect to learn a lot in class and even more in practice. And here, that practice happens on the latest technology and in real-world settings. You'll experiment and collaborate in just about all of your coursework. And you'll put new knowledge into action right from the start.

YOUR NEXT BIG IDEA could happen anywhere. But you'll give it legs and watch it run at Catapult Creative House, our student-run idea incubator and launchpad for innovation. Get to work in our creative labs, 3D modeling and printing gallery, and impact studio. It's where you'll turn your concepts into prototypes, your prototypes into products, and your products into sales.

THE BEST PLACE TO LEARN ABOUT U.S. POLICY is where it's actually being shaped. So you'll go to the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) in Washington, D.C., for part of our University Studies course. For four exhilarating days, you'll work directly with researchers and consultants who advise national leaders. And if you're really on top of your game, you may end up influencing the strategies you've come to study.

INTERNSHIPS

RÉSUMÉS ARE BUILT— NOT WRITTEN.

The workforce is just that: a force. And it's one you'll meet head on at Southeast Missouri State. We'll help you find internships (that's plural on purpose) and coach you through any challenges or questions that come your way.

SOCIAL CLUBS AND OPPORTUNITIES

SET OUT AND JOIN IN.

Earn your wings early. Chew your way into campus history. Share your musical gift. Meet your new brothers or sisters. Whatever you do — whether it's joining a club or carrying on a tradition — just know that you won't do it alone (except the chewing part).

SOCIAL FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

Representing the IFC, Panhellenic and NPHC Councils. Many of them call Greek Hill home. And in Fall 2016, a new Greek Village will open on campus, providing an expanded Greek community where thousands of students will make new memories of brotherhood and sisterhood.

180+ student groups

With organizations on campus from A (Adult Recess improv group) to Z (Zeta Phi Beta Sorority), there's something to meet every professional, social, recreational or religious interest. And if you can't find what you're looking for, form your own group.

We honor our heritage by sticking to our traditions.
Some of them, quite literally. For years, students have been making the trek up Cardiac Hill (a tradition in its own right) to add their chewing gum to our infamous Gum Tree.

MAKE ART THAT INSPIRES.

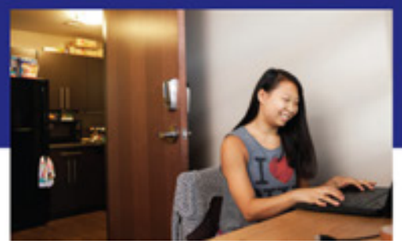

And do it on a campus that's equally inspiring.

Dobbins River Campus Center

Inside this living-learning center, you can make a masterpiece, make dinner and make your bed without ever leaving the River Campus.

In addition to a residence hall, dining facilities and contemporary classrooms, the Cultural Arts Center offers professional-level theatres, costume and scene shops, music rehearsal and gallery space, and dance and art studios — each equipped to inspire ovation-worthy works of art.

Built on the banks of the Mississippi, our River Campus is the only one in Missouri dedicated entirely to the arts. But you don't have to be a student in the Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts to appreciate it. Come catch a performance. Explore the latest exhibits. Or just enjoy the breathtaking river views.

Five venues for exhibiting your talent — including theatres, a recital hall and galleries — set the stage for more than a hundred different events each year.

Among our student-produced musical performances, you'll hear everything from the classics to the contemporary — including Brahms' Double Concerto in A Minor and Andrew Lippa's The Addams Family.

Southeast makes it affordable to do what you dream of doing, and we're recognized as one of the country's institutions with the least indebted students.
