The Southeast Softball Complex will serve as the home of the Redhawks for the 21st year in 2020.

The complex contains three regulation softball fields, all of which have lights. The facility includes batting cages, an air-conditioned press box large enough to accomodate print and broadcast media, and bleacher seating for 600. In addition, there is a hill beyond the right field fence that provides fans with a unique view of the action.

SEMO played Northern Iowa in its first game at this facility on Mar. 6, 1999. Prior to that, the Redhawks played their home games at Parker Field, located in the heart of the Southeast Missouri campus.

The Southeast Softball Complex was constructed as part of Southeast Missouri's effort to improve its sports facilities. At the time, that project also included new tennis courts, a FieldTurf artificial playing surface for the football and soccer teams, the resurfacing of the Abe Stuber track and new locker rooms for the volleyball, baseball and men's and women's basketball programs.

Recent renovations to the Southeast Softball Complex include a fenced backstop with concrete base and netting, reconfiguration of batting cages (including new turf and netting) and concrete under the bleacher areas.

A windscreen along the outfield wall and protective fencing in front of both dugouts were other upgrades made to the Southeast Softball Complex in recent years.

New to the complex in 2020 will be a state-of-the-art video board and padded outfield wall.

The Holcomb Success Center offers Southeast Missouri student-athletes a place to study and develop as students and campus leaders.

It is located in the Student Recreation Center, just south of Houck Field. The Holcomb Success Center offers a computer lab with 18 work terminals, study areas and rooms for group meetings. The facility houses the Southeast Academic Services staff and main weight room for Redhawk student-athletes.

The beautiful facility has enhanced the outstanding work in the classroom already enjoyed by SEMO student-athletes.

A total of 229 individuals achieved a 3.0 or higher grade point average during the 2018-19 academic year equating to 67.7 percent of the entire student-athlete population. Forty-five of those student-athletes recorded perfect 4.0 GPAs.

The SEMO women's tennis team led the department with a 3.87 cumulative GPA and registered a 4.0 during the spring semester alone. Women's cross country (3.75), gymnastics (3.70), women's soccer (3.69), softball (3.67), women's track & field (3.62), volleyball (3.61), baseball (3.27), women's basketball (3.19) and men's cross country (3.16) followed as the other programs to post 3.16 or better GPAs.

During the spring semester, SEMO's Department of Athletics accumulated a 3.23 GPA. Women's tennis (4.0), softball (3.74), women's track & field (3.71), volleyball (3.68) and women's soccer (3.67) filled the top five GPAs over the spring term. The 3.23 GPA was the Redhawks highest for any semester since 2014-15.

In all, 68 student-athletes received their degrees, including 18 in the fall and 50 in the spring.

SEMO also led the Ohio Valley Conference with 37 OVC Medal of Honor recipients and 153 student-athletes on the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll during the 2018-19 academic year.

Tutors are available for all student-athletes as needed. In addition, both attendance and academic progress is monitored through regular checks with faculty.

A special course is required for all first time student-athletes at Southeast. The course, which offers three credit hours, is part of a comprehensive program developed to address study skills and life skills topics, and thus, enhance retention and academic success for student-athletes.

Entering student-athletes are evaluated for academic preparedness and assigned to appropriate categories. Student-athletes can also receive individualized academic programs which include meeting with a mentor bi-weekly to discuss academic progress.

The Holcomb Success Center staff works to get athletes involved in campus and community projects, as well. This is done to provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success. Through the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, the Holcomb Success Center gives student-athletes personal and professional skills in order to facilitate successful and productive futures.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI RANKED FOURTH IN THE NATION WITH A 3.67 TEAM GPA IN 2019

Student-athletes and coaches at Southeast Missouri are dedicated to giving back to the community that so generously supports them.

Redhawk softball student-athletes have opportunities to participate in a variety of community service activities each year. Community involvement helps provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success.

We are proud of the level of commitment shown by our student-athletes and always encourage them to participate in community service projects here at SEMO.

SEMO student-athletes also have the opportunity to participate in the Redhawks BRIDGE Program. The mission of the Redhawks BRIDGE Program is to develop a comprehensive student-athlete development program by Building Responsible Individuals and Delivering Gainful Experiences. This program provides student-athletes with both leadership and life skills experiences through interactive programming that will prepare them to be successful in life after athletics. The leadership programming will teach student-athletes about Southeast's culture and allow them to learn, develop, and apply leadership skills. The life skills programming provides educational programs designed to assist student-athletes in identifying and applying transferable skills and experiences to prepare them to succeed outside of the athletic arena.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI

Southeast Missouri's Strength and Conditioning program is committed to developing the total student-athlete through their experiences within a competitive training environment.

SEMO's weight room renovations at the Holcomb Success Center were completed in January, 2016.

Indoor turf, weights, equipment and lifting platforms were added as part of the renovation, which cost $500,000. The facility now has more space and equipment to handle SEMO's larger teams or multiple teams training at the same time. Branding and new lighting were also included in the overall project.

The newly-renovated weight room enhances training with the best equipment available and is able to accomodate larger teams or multiple teams training at the same time.

Prevention. Treatment. Rehabilitation. Education. Those are the four primary phases of sports medicine, and the Southeast Missouri sports medicine staff strives to fulfill all of those areas when working with student-athletes on a daily basis.

SEMO student-athletes are offered the best care possible by the athletic training staff. The sports medicine department includes five full-time athletic trainers, six graduate assistants and several student assistants. The staff serves student-athletes around-the-clock at numerous facilities on campus.

The athletic trainers begin treatments and rehabilitation starting as early as 6 a.m., and are available until the last student-athlete is through.

There are currently four sports medicine facilities on campus. The staff treats out of the Rosengarten Athletic Complex, where the primary training room is located. There are two other satellite athletic training rooms, including one at Houck Field House and one at the Show Me Center.

The SEMO athletic training rooms are equipped with stationary bikes, hand weights, therapeutic modalities and the latest physical therapy equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athlete the best care, but also to aid in returning to competition as quickly as possible.

The SEMO Sports Medicine program prides and commits itself to providing the best comprehensive, personalized and efficient healthcare to its student-athletes.

For the first time in 20 years, Southeast Missouri was crowned the Ohio Valley Conference Softball Champions.

The Redhawks shared the 2019 OVC regular-season title and entered the league's postseason tournament as the #1 seed.

SEMO opened the postseason with a 6-0 shutout over #5 Eastern Kentucky on May 9 giving OVC Coach of the Year Mark Redburn his first OVC Tournament victory.

Haley Thogmartin and Kaylee Anderson combined on a four-hit shutout, SEMO's first shutout in an OVC Tournament game in eight years. Rachel Anderson, the 2019 OVC Player of the Year, broke the school's all-time single-season hits record in that game, as well.

A day later after dropping a close 4-3 decision to #2 Jacksonville State, SEMO faced Eastern Kentucky again, this time in an elimination matchup.

For the second day in a row, SEMO jumped on the Colonels early knocking out their starting pitcher in a short one-third of an inning.

Already ahead, 5-0, the Redhawks hit three-consecutive solo home runs to blow the game open in the top of the second inning. Claudia Gallo, Anderson and Ashley Ellis each homered off Mollie Paulick and the Colonels never recovered.

With its second win over Eastern Kentucky, SEMO set up a re-match with Jacksonville State in Saturday's championship round.

Needing to beat Jacksonville State twice, SEMO dealt OVC Pitcher of the Year Faith Sims just her fifth loss of the season and first in over a month to force a winner-take-all finale.

Tied, 2-2, in the bottom of the third inning, SEMO scored six unearned runs, including three in each of the fourth and fifth frames en route to an 8-2 victory in Saturday's first game against the Gamecocks.

SEMO then held a 6-0 lead in the bottom of the fifth inning when Jacksonville State capitalized on two errors to mount a late comeback.

The Gamecocks pulled to within a run, but Thogmartin recorded the final two outs and claimed the save after striking out three in two scoreless innings.

The two-game sweep of Jacksonville State punched SEMO's ticket to the NCAA Tournament, only the Redhawks second NCAA Division I Tournament appearance all-time.

Mykaela Arellanes was voted the OVC Tournament's Most Valuable Player. Arellanes reached base seven times and went 4-for-6 with three runs scored, a double, home run, three walks, a stolen base and five RBI in the championship round.

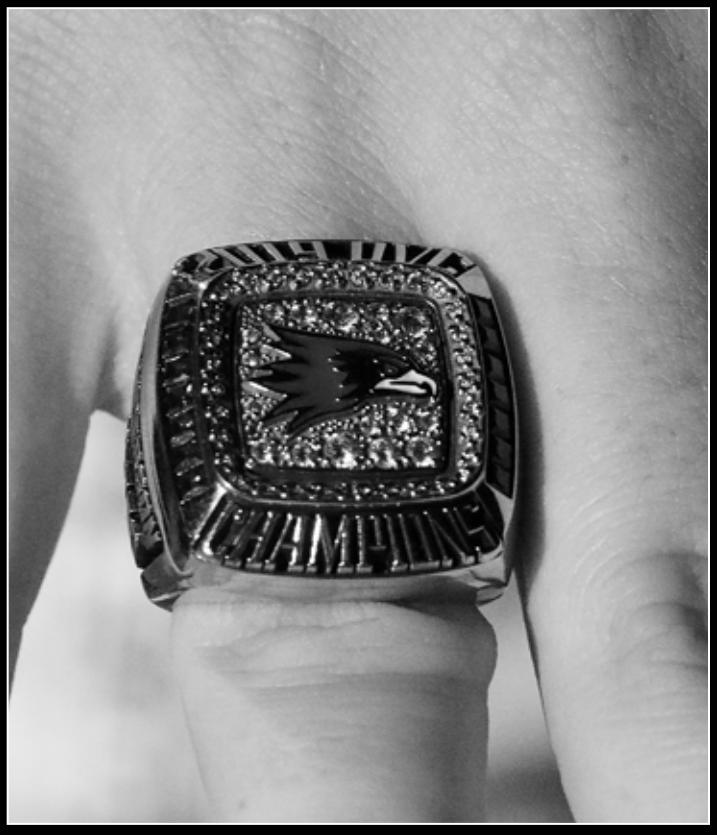

Addison Barnouski, Anderson and Thogmartin joined Arellanes on the OVC All-Tournament Team.

Brady Barke is in his fourth year as Southeast Missouri's Director of Athletics.

Barke served as the Interim Director of Athletics since July, 2015, before being named to the permanent position of Director of Athletics on June 7, 2016.

During the 2018-19 season, the Redhawks finished fifth in the Ohio Valley Conference Commissioner's Cup standings, improving three spots from where they ranked the previous year. SEMO accumulated a total of 98.75 points in the overall scoring and was awarded 12.5 points for winning the softball OVC regular season and tournament titles. The Redhawks tacked on a combined 43 points between second-place finishes in women's cross country, women's outdoor trrack & field, football and men's outdoor track & field.

Academically, SEMO's athletic teams were once again strong in the classroom.

A total of 229 individuals achieved a 3.0 or higher grade point average during the 2018-19 academic year equating to 67.7 percent of the entire student-athlete population.

Forty-five of those student-athletes recorded perfect 4.0 GPAs. The women's tennis team led the athletics department with a 3.87 cumulative GPA and registered a perfect 4.0 in the spring semester. SEMO's 3.23 spring GPA was the department's highest in any semester over the last 10 years.

In all, 68 student-athletes received degrees, including 18 in the fall and 50 in the spring. Additionally, the women's cross country and volleyball programs earned NCAA Public Recognition awards based on their multiyear Academic Progress Rates for the fourth year in a row.

The upcoming 2019-20 campaign marks SEMO's second year with Under Armour. Barke reached a multi-year agreement with the Baltimore-based global leader in performance footwear, apparel and equipment that made Under Armour the official outfitter of Southeast Missouri Athletics on July 1, 2018.

As part of the multi-year agreement, Under Armour provides on-field and training gear for 15 sports. Additionally, Under Armour outfits members of the athletic department including coaches and staff.

Most recently, renovations have been made to the nutrition area that serves as a fueling station for SEMO student-athletes at the Holcomb Success Center. Construction for a new hitting facility at Capaha Field is underway and scheduled to be completed by the start of the upcoming 2020 baseball season.

During his first year in 2016-17, Barke introduced Andy Sawyers as the Redhawks head baseball coach and worked tirelessly on two major renovation projects.

Nearly a month after Sawyers was hired, Southeast Missouri State and the City of Cape Girardeau officially broke ground on Capaha Field. New synthetic turf, new fencing and a digital scoreboard in the outfield were added as part of the $1.8 million project that was completed before SEMO's season-opener.

On Feb. 3, 2017, SEMO formally dedicated Holcomb Success Center. To honor the long-time service and philanthropy of Dr. John and Judy Holcomb, the University named the facility the Holcomb Success Center located in the Student Recreation Center-South.

Indoor turf, weights, equipment and lifting platforms were added as part of the renovation at a cost of $500,000. The facility now has more space and equipment to handle Southeast's larger teams or multiple teams training at the same time. Barke helped secure the Holcombs gift, the largest single cash gift in SEMO Athletics history.

Major improvements were also made to the second floor of the building where athletic academic services are housed. This space provides student-athletes with places to study and features a computer lab with 30 work terminals and rooms for group meetings. Staff members assist student-athletes with life skills development, academic advising and academic progress toward degree requirements and NCAA eligibility.

Fundraising continues to increase under Barke's leadership.

The 2018-19 campaign marked the fifth consecutive year of growth for the Redhawks Club general fund. It is the highest level of giving to the Redhawks Club general fund since 2003-04.

Barke also worked with donors to establish two new endowed scholarships for student-athletes and raised over $60,000 to support the SEMO football program and summer school scholarships.

More than $250,000 in pledges for the Redhawks Club unrestricted booster fund has been raised with Barke as Director of Athletics. Over $200,000 was raised in Sponsorship & Marketing contracts each of the last two years. The 2018-19 season was the fifth-consecutive year of Sponsorship and Marketing revenues.

Barke has also worked hard to enhance Redhawks branding around the community. Redhawk banners, S-E! M-O! billboards, Welcome to Redhawk country and Your Redhawks yard signs are prominently displayed all over Cape Girardeau.

Barke created the Redhawks Trivia Night & Auction, a sold out event that generated over $40,000 in net revenue its first year. In addition, he launched the Redhawks BRIDGE program which provides student-athletes with both leadership and life skills experiences through interactive programming that will prepare them to be successful in life after athletics.

Barke, senior associate to the president and secretary to the Board of Regents at Southeast, officially began as Director of Athletics on July 1, 2016.

Barke served as Interim Associate Director of Athletics for Compliance & Student Support Services before being named the Senior Associate to the President and Secretary to the Southeast Missouri State University Board of Regents in 2013.

He began his tenure at Southeast in 2008 as Assistant Director of Athletics for Compliance & Eligibility. Barke previously served as a governance intern with the NCAA national headquarters in Indianapolis, and as a law clerk with the Southern Illinois University-Carbondale Department of Athletics Compliance Office.

Barke has served as a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance (NAAC), chaired the NAAC Education Committee, and was a member of the NAAC Board of Directors. He has facilitated the NCAA Regional Leadership Academy, and served on both the NCAA Sports Wagering Task Force and the Olympic Sports Liaison Committee.

Barke has a juris doctorate degree from Southern Illinois University School of Law, an MBA from Southeast Missouri State University, and a bachelor of science degree in biology from Webster University. While a student at Webster, Barke was a member of both the basketball and golf teams and was inducted into the Webster Athletic Hall of Fame.

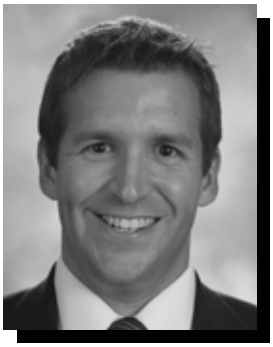

He and his wife, Halley, are parents of three children, Mabrie, Jackson, and Kolbe.

REDHAWKS

SEASON PREVIEW

SEASON OUTLOOK

Southeast Missouri enters its 2020 season as the Ohio Valley Conference preseason-favorite after winning the league's regular-season and tournament crowns a year ago.

SEMO went 46-18 overall and 17-5 in the OVC during its historic 2019 campaign. The Redhawks won the OVC regular-season and tournament titles, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 20 years.

The Redhawks 46 wins marked a program record as the 2019 club broke a total of 17 single-season school records.

Now, SEMO heads into its upcoming 2020 campaign with a target on its back looking to defend the trophy it hoisted high a short season ago.

"I think for us that it's one of those things where we try to downplay that," said head coach Mark Redburn. "Last year is last year and we still have to go out there and prove ourselves. We just want to work hard and continue to get better every day."

The Redhawks have a lot of experience returning with seven seniors back from last year's team. Combined, that group has played 892 games and logged 692 starts during their careers. SEMO also brings back six starters and three All-OVC performers including 2019 OVC Player of the Year and All-American Rachel Anderson.

"We're deep, but also need to establish depth at some key positions," said Redburn. "We're working to see who is going to step up at those positions."

Here is a complete look at the 2020 Redhawks:

Catcher

Senior Rachael Donald (Dupo, Ill.) and sophomore Chelsy Pena (Columbia, Ill.) will again share the catching duties this season.

Donald made 51 starts and hit .202 with eight runs scored, 21 hits, three doubles and seven RBI in 2019.

Pena saw action in 46 games and tallied 15 starts as a freshman.

Karsyn Davis (Harrisburg, Ill.) widens the depth at catcher. Davis joins the Redhawks from Harrisburg High School, where she hit .484 as a senior.

Infield

SEMO returns both of its starting corner infielders in senior first baseman Ashley Ellis (Arnold, Mo.) and senior third baseman Addison Barnouski (O'Fallon, Ill.).

Both Ellis and Barnouski started all 64 games a year ago.

A First-Team All-OVC and National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-Mideast Region selection, Ellis hit .330 as SEMO's fourth-leading hitter. She led the Redhawks with a single-season school record 17 home runs and 60 RBI. Ellis was the OVC leader in RBI and fielding double plays (15), as well.

Barnouski ranked ahead of Ellis with a .345 batting average as one of five SEMO players to hit over .300 in 2019. She accumulated 59 hits, nine doubles, seven home runs, 26 runs scored and 41 RBI. Barnouski was named to the OVC All-Tournament Team.

Freshman Keira Hance (Marion, Ill.) will back up Barnouski at third and sophomore Anna Griffin (Bentonville, Ark.) is behind Ellis at first base.

Hance was part of two regional championships and 78 wins in three seasons at Marion High School. She hit .488, held a .954 slugging percentage and boasted a .596 on-base percentage in her prep career.

Griffin participated in 23 games as a freshman.

As far as the middle of the infield goes, SEMO must replace Sarah Messex (shortstop) and Parker Bandy (second base), who made 64 and 58 starts, respectively.

Lindenwood University transfer Austine Pauley (St. Charles, Mo.) is expected to start at shortstop and Ashley Emert (East Peoria, Ill.) is the frontrunner at second base.

Pauley garnered All-Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association (MIAA) honors multiple times at Lindenwood. In 2019, she had one of the top offensive seasons in Lindenwood history, hitting .362 with school records in slugging percentage (.754) and on-base percentage (.429) in 46 starts.

Emert played in 20 games and started four contests in her first season at SEMO in 2019. She can also play shortstop if the need arises.

When not pitching, junior Kaylee Anderson (Warrenton, Mo.) is another option at second base.

Anderson hit .246 with 21 runs scored, eight doubles, a home run and 19 RBI in 50 games and 37 starts last season.

Other infielders include Carlie Sanders (De Soto, Mo.) and Leaha Wininger (Johnston City, Ill.).

Sanders joins the Redhawks from Boston College, where she played in 50 games and made 38 starts as a freshman.

Wininger saw limited action playing in 11 games her freshman season in 2019.

Outfield

Star center fielder Rachel Anderson (Edwardsville, Ill.) is back for her final season in 2020.

A three-time First-Team All-OVC pick, Anderson is ranked 54th among the Top-100 players by Softball America. The 2019 OVC Player of the Year, Anderson became SEMO's first All-American in the NCAA Division I era following a stellar season.

She broke a total of six single-season school records during her junior year, hitting .454 with 53 runs scored, 83 hits, 12 doubles, 10 triples, 13 home runs and 56 RBI. Anderson, who never missed a start, carries a streak of 167-consecutive starts into this year.

"Obviously there have been a lot of great players to go through this program in 43 years, but I believe Rachel will go down as the best player all-time in SEMO softball history," said Redburn. "Her success started right away as a freshman and she has proven that she is the best every season she's been here. Rachel is an excellent leader and has made an incredible impact on this program."

Alongside Anderson in the outfield will be seniors Claudia Gallo (Arnold, Mo.) and Madison Harris (Imperial, Mo.).

Gallo, who earned Second-Team All-OVC honors, returns in left field after hitting .308 last season. She started 60 games and was hit by a pitch a SEMO single-season high 17 times.

Harris is expected to make her starting debut in right field. She saw action in 38 games and made six starts a year ago.

Junior Danina Marton (Northridge, Calif.) and freshman Kimmy Wallen (Park Hills, Mo.) could also contribute in the outfield.

Marton participated in 23 games and hit .214 for the Redhawks in 2019.

Wallen comes to SEMO from Central High School, where she hit .571 without striking out as a senior.

Abby Rollet (Perryville, Mo.) rounds out the outfielders. Rollet played her first two college seasons at Jefferson College and broke the school's record with a .521 batting average in 2019.

Pitching

Senior Alexis Estes (Lane, Ill.) is projected to be the Redhawks number one pitcher after being in that role this past fall.

Estes put together a 7-2 record with a 3.26 ERA in 25 games and 16 starts last season. Her seven victories are the most in a season in her career to date.

Junior Rachel Rook (Republic, Mo.) is SEMO's other big threat inside the circle after pitching as both a starter and reliever.

Rook posted an 11-4 record with a 2.52 ERA en route to breaking the Redhawks single-season record in strikeouts per seven innings (7.78) a year ago. She started 14 games and made 37 appearances, while recording 99 strikeouts in 89 innings. Rook is tied for first among SEMO's all-time single-season leaders with four saves and pitched a perfect game, as well.

Returnees Kaylee Anderson (Warrenton, Mo.) and Marisa Davis (Kansas City, Mo.), and freshman Paytience Holman (Mexico, Mo.) complete this year's pitching staff.

Anderson was 5-4 with 32 strikeouts and three saves in 27 games and two starts in 2019.

Davis made 18 appearances and one start as a freshman last season. She tallied 20 strikeouts in 28 innings of work.

Holman was a First-Team Class 3 All-State pitcher at Mexico High School. She helped lead the Lady Bulldogs to a state title, while setting several team records both offensively and inside the circle.

SEMO graduated First-Team All-OVC pitcher Haley Thogmartin. Also a Second-Team NFCA All-Mideast Region selection, Thogmartin was the Redhawks top pitcher with a 22-7 record and 1.78 ERA in 2019. She had 142 strikeouts in 177 innings, pitched nine complete games, picked up four saves and tossed three shutouts. Thogmartin started 31 games.

HEAD COACH MARK REDBURN

- Head Coach
- Sixth Year
- Missouri-St. Louis, 1993

MARK REDBURN

Mark Redburn enters his sixth year after guiding Southeast Missouri to its first Ohio Valley Conference regular-season championship, OVC Tournament title and NCAA Regional appearance in 20 years.

What a year it was for SEMO in 2019 as the Redhawks set an all-time program record with 46 wins, the only 40-win season in the school's NCAA Division I era. The Redhawks went 46-18 overall and 17-5 in the OVC before going 1-2 at the NCAA Regional in Oxford, Mississippi.

TEAM 43 (43rd year of SEMO softball) had so much to celebrate over the course of its magical 2019 campaign.

Redburn and his staff were honored as the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Mideast Region Coaching Staff of the Year. For Redburn himself, he was voted OVC Coach of the Year for the first time in his career.

Four players earned All-OVC honors, three claimed NFCA All-Region accolades and one garnered NFCA All-America distinction. Outfielder Rachel Anderson became SEMO's first All-American in 28 years and the program's first All-American in the NCAA Division I tenure. TEAM 43 was also recognized by the NFCA for achieving the fourth highest grade point average among all NCAA Division I schools. SEMO recorded a team GPA of 3.678 with 17 players securing NFCA All-America Scholar-Athlete honors.

Redburn certainly has the Redhawks trending in the right direction as his teams averaged nearly 40 wins (39.5) in the last two seasons alone. SEMO put together a 79-38 (.678) record and went 32-12 (.727) in conference play over that span.

Statistically, SEMO's 2019 team broke a total of 17 single-season records in slugging percentage (.510), on-base percentage (.382), game played (64), runs (363), hits (501), home runs (74), RBI (318), total bases (850), walks (180), stolen bases (89), stolen base attempts (117), wins (46), saves (11), batters struck out (331), batters struck out looking (90), innings pitched (414) and putouts (1242).

In 18 years as an NCAA Division I head coach, Division I assistant coach and National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) head coach, Redburn has made 13 postseason appearances which include one NCAA Women's College World Series, two NCAA Super-Regionals, four NCAA Regionals and two NJCAA National Tournaments.

In 2018, the Redhawks finished at 33-20 overall and fourth in the OVC with a 15-7 mark. SEMO locked down its first winning campaign in seven years.

The Redhawks heated up to win 11 of their final 14 regular-season games and advanced to the eight-team OVC Tournament.

SEMO's 2018 club finished with a 74 RPI among the nation's 296 NCAA Division I softball teams, quite a jump from its 173 ranking in 2017. The Redhawks collected eight doubleheader sweeps along the way.

Defensively, SEMO improved tremendously. After ranking eighth in the OVC in fielding percentage a year ago, the Redhawks were the league's second-best fielding team in 2018. SEMO had 43 errors and committed 16 less than it did in 2017. The Redhawks went error free in 25 games equating to 47 percent of their entire season.

The year before that, SEMO finished the 2017 campaign among the school's top single-season leaders in slugging percentage (6th, .427), on-base percentage (5th, .356), triples (t4th, 21), home runs (9th, 31), total bases (9th, 567), stolen bases (2nd, 65), stolen base attempts (1st, 88), opponent batting average (7th, .282), strikeouts/7 innings (7th, 4.17), strikeouts (10th, 194), strikeouts looking (3rd, 61) fewest doubles allowed (8th, 49), fielding percentage (8th, .960), fewest errors (t7th, 59) and fewest stolen bases against (3rd, 38).

Redburn picked up his 200th career victory when SEMO beat Austin Peay, 7-4, on Apr. 30, 2016. His 2016 club ranked among the school's top-10 teams in doubles (6th, 69), stolen bases (3rd, 58), walks (8th, 138), home runs (6th, 35) and slugging percentage (6th, .412).

In his first season, Redburn led the Redhawks to an overall record of 19-27 and 12-12 in OVC play during 2015. His 19 victories came after SEMO won no more than 15 games in each of the previous two seasons. Redburn's first club at Southeast also had 12 OVC wins, a +9 increase from the 2014 campaign. In addition, the Redhawks made the OVC Tournament, snapping a streak of three years where they missed the event.

Not only did Redburn earn his 100th career NCAA Division I win in his inaugural season with the Redhawks, but he coached three All-OVC selections and one NFCA All-Region honoree.

Statistically, SEMO finished among the top-five OVC teams in batting average (3rd), slugging percentage (5th), on-base percentage (5th) and hits (5th). The 2015 Redhawks also broke two single-season records with Kayla Fortner establishing new marks in home runs and single-game mark and set a single-game school record with six home runs, as well. Academically, the Redhawks accumulated a 3.35 grade point average during the 2014-15 academic year as a total of nine players earned NFCA All-America Scholar-Athlete status for achieving a 3.5 or higher GPA.

Redburn coached a total of four first-team All-OVC selections, three second-team All-OVC picks, one OVC Freshman of the Year, three NFCA All-Region honorees and three OVC All-Newcomer selections in his first four years as SEMO's head coach.

The fourth head coach in Redhawk softball history, Redburn won 90 games in five years as head coach at the University of Evansville before accepting the job at Southeast on June 26, 2014.

In 2014, Redburn coached a UE team with five starters that were underclassmen, including four freshmen and one sophomore. The Purple Aces achieved their highest batting average since 2007. Additionally, UE had a freshman lead the team in stolen bases and home runs.

Despite a season that allowed 53 games, the 2013 team had its best season in Redburn's five years at UE. Entering the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as the No. 7 seed, the Purple Aces beat the No. 6, No. 3 and No. 2 seeds to make their first MVC Championship appearance since 2003. UE finished second with three players garnering All-Tournament team honors.

The 2013 campaign resulted in the most overall wins in a season since 2008 and the best regular-season and conference tournament finish since Redburn's arrival. UE continued its aggressive baserunning with 89 stolen bases, ranking second in the MVC. The pitching staff also rated fourth in the conference.

Redburn's 2012 club saw improvement as well, winning more games than it had the previous season. The Purple Aces stole 79 bases and had two all-conference and one National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Region selection that year. In 2011, Redburn exposed a young and inexperienced team to some of the top programs in the nation as UE played one of its most difficult schedules. Tennessee, Georgia Tech, Missouri, Ohio State, Texas Tech, South Alabama and Chattanooga were among the stiff competition.

Redburn quickly started to transform the UE program during his first year in 2010. The Purple Aces secured a berth in the MVC Tournament after winning 10 conference games. UE led the MVC with 31 doubles and hit 36 home runs, while producing two all-conference picks.

Academically, Redburn's teams consistently enjoyed success. In fact, each of his last four UE teams accumulated a 3.1 or higher grade point average. He had several student-athletes obtain over a 3.5 GPA and earn academic recognition along the way.

Prior to UE, Redburn spent three years as an assistant coach at the University of Missouri working primarily with the pitchers and catchers, and serving as recruiting coordinator.

He was part of a coaching staff that compiled an overall record of 137-53. The Tigers registered a school record for victories (50), won the Big 12 Conference Tournament, won their Regional and defeated host UCLA in the Super Regional to advance to the College World Series in 2009. Overall, Redburn coached four all-conference pitchers, including USA National Team Pitcher Chelsea Thomas at Missouri.

Redburn began his collegiate coaching career as head coach at St. Charles (Mo.) Community College from 2001-04. He led the 2003 team to its first Region 16 championship and a seventh-place finish at the National Junior College Athletic Association Division I National Tournament. His 2004 squad set a school record with 33 victories.

Following his stay at St. Charles CC, Redburn spent two seasons as head coach of the new softball program at Jefferson College. In the program's first year of competition, 2006, he led Jefferson to a 49-16 record, Region 16 championship and ninth-place finish at the NJCAA Division I National Tournament. Redburn was honored as the Midwest Community College Athletic Conference Coach of the Year following that season. A native of St. Charles, Missouri, Redburn graduated from the University of Missouri-St. Louis in 1993 and received his master's degree in Athletics/Activities Administration from William Woods University.

He and his wife, Tracy, have two sons, Joe and Jack.

KRISTEN JONES

The 2020 campaign marks the fifth season as an assistant coach at Southeast Missouri for Kristen Jones. Jones works primarily with the catchers and handles the team's travel logistics, as well as overseeing the team's academics, compliance and recruiting efforts.

The 2019 National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Division I Mideast Regional Coaching Staff of the Year, which has posted 118 wins over four years, led the Redhawks to a program record 46 wins in 2019. That season marked just the second 40-win season in program history and capped the most successful four-year stint since the 1998-2001 teams won a combined 125 games over a four-year stretch.

In 2018, catcher Abby Tillotson earned All-OVC honors under Jones' tutelage. Tillotson batted .287 with seven homers and 24 runs scored. In the field, Tillotson recorded 157 putouts and eight assists with no errors.

The Redhawks eclipsed the 30-win mark for the first time in seven seasons in 2018, collecting the most wins since the 1998 team won 38 games and improving their win total by 10. SEMO used 15 OVC wins to advance to the OVC Tournament for the first time since 2015.

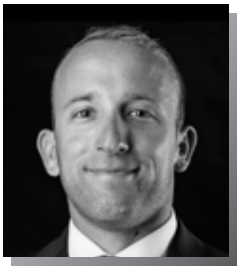

In Jones' second season (2017), the Redhawks won 23 games, showing a +7 improvement in wins from the previous season after helping SEMO to a 16-33 record, including a 10-17 mark in OVC play in her first season with head coach Mark Redburn and the Redhawks.

Prior to coming to Cape Girardeau, Jones worked as the Coordinator of New Media and Championships for the Peach Belt Conference located in Augusta, Georgia.

Jones first joined the Peach Belt Conference as a New Media & Programming Intern, a position she held from January 2012-June 2014. She then moved to full-time status in July 2014.

She received her bachelor's degree in kinesiology at Augusta State University in 2012 and then earned her master's degree in 2014.

Jones enjoyed a successful playing career at Augusta State, garnering National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Second-Team All America and NFCA & Daktronics First Team All-South Region honors in 2011. In addition, Jones was a two-time First-Team All Peach Belt Conference selection (2010, 2011).

MATTHEW GUEMMER

Matthew Guemmer is in his first year as an assistant coach at Southeast Missouri.

A native of De Soto, Missouri, Guemmer comes to SEMO from Virginia Tech, where he served as a volunteer assistant coach during the 2019 season.

Guemmer, who worked primarily with the outfielders and was the camp director of the Pete D'Amour softball camps, was instrumental in Virginia Tech winning an ACC regular-season title and Coastal Division crown. It was Tech's first-ever time winning the Coastal and just its second time being regular-season champs.

His outfield unit led the charge at the plate for Tech, with all three players hitting over .330 and collecting more than 50 hits. Leading the crew was left fielder Emma Strouth, who broke two school records with 68 RBI and 50 runs scored, while right fielder Al Velazquez tied Strouth with a school-record 50 runs scored herself.

Center fielder Darby Trull led the team with a .406 batting average, the fourth highest in the ACC. Trull and Strouth would earn two major awards together, claiming All-America honors from Softball America and First-Team NFCA All-Region (Mid-Atlantic). Strouth also picked up First-Team All-ACC honors.

Before his time at Virginia Tech, Guemmer was the head coach of the girls' softball team at De Soto High School. Guemmer led the Dragons to a MSHSAA 3A state championship and a 25-4 record in his first year on the job. The team owned a .351 batting average and 1.41 ERA, respectively, as well.

Prior to the stint at his alma mater, Guemmer worked as an assistant coach at Mineral Area in Park Hills, Missouri, a two-year junior college, for four years. He helped mold four NJCAA All-Americans and four NJCAA Academic All-Americans. The Cardinals earned two trips to the NJCAA World Series Qualifier in 2009 and 2011.

Guemmer graduated from the University of Missouri in 2013 and while in Columbia served as a student manager for two years.

YEAR IN REVIEW

YEAR IN REVIEW

Southeast Missouri won the Ohio Valley Conference regular-season and tournament titles, and made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 20 years during its historic 2019 season.

SEMO finished its remarkable run with an overall record of 46-18 and 17-5 in the OVC. The Redhawks 46 wins were a program record.

The Redhawks broke a total of 17 single-season school records establishing new marks in wins, slugging percentage (.510), on-base percentage (.382), games played (64), runs scored (363), hits (501), home runs (74), RBI (318), total bases (850), walks (180), stolen bases (89), stolen base attempts (117), saves (11), batters struck out (331), batters struck out looking (90), innings pitched (414) and putouts (1242).

As a team, SEMO led the OVC in 22 different statistical categories and had the league's Coach (Mark Redburn) and Player of the Year (Rachel Anderson). Anderson also became the program's first All-American in 28 years.

Anderson was one of four OVC selections for the Redhawks. She, Ashley Ellis and Haley Thogmartin each earned first-team honors, while Claudia Gallo was a second-team pick.

The patented trio of Anderson, Ellis and Thogmartin were named to the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-Mideast Region Team, as well.

Additionally, SEMO's coaches were voted the NFCA Mideast Region Coaching Staff of the Year after leading the Redhawks to their first 40-win season since the school began a softball program in 1977.

Academically, the Redhawks were just as impressive throughout their 64-game campaign.

For its efforts in the classroom, SEMO ranked fourth in the nation among the 2018-19 Easton/NFCA NCAA Division I teams with a 3.678 grade point average. The Redhawks had 17 players earn NFCA Scholar-Athlete status.

TEAM 43 (43rd year of softball program) was strong out of the gate winning its first four games of the 2019 season.

SEMO narrowly missed winning its season-opening UNI Dome Classic in Cedar Falls, Iowa with wins over South Dakota State, host Northern Iowa and Toledo. The Redhawks used 12 two-out hits en route to shutting out UNI, 16-0, for their largest win of the season.

Two weeks later, SEMO knocked off then-#12 Arkansas on its home field. The Redhawks beat the Razorbacks, 6-1, on Feb. 22 to give Redburn his first win over a ranked opponent.

The Redhawks registered 10 hits and knocked out Second-Team All-SEC pitcher Mary Haff after 4.1 innings during that game. Arkansas was one of five NCAA Tournament teams on SEMO's 2019 schedule and made it to the Super Regionals before being eliminated by #4 Oklahoma the year before.

A week later, SEMO competed in the Central Arkansas Classic, where it initially heated up to win 17 of its next 18 contests.

The Redhawks nearly won that tournament with a 4-1 record before heading to Lawrence, Kansas for the Jayhawk Classic.

There, SEMO beat UMKC twice, defeated Maine and upended the Big 12 Conference Jayhawks two times to win the four-team tournament.

After playing its 24-consecutive games outside of Cape Girardeau, SEMO hosted in-state rival Missouri State on Mar. 14.

Anderson broke the Redhawks all-time career triples record to lead the Redhawks to a 5-2 win over the Bears.

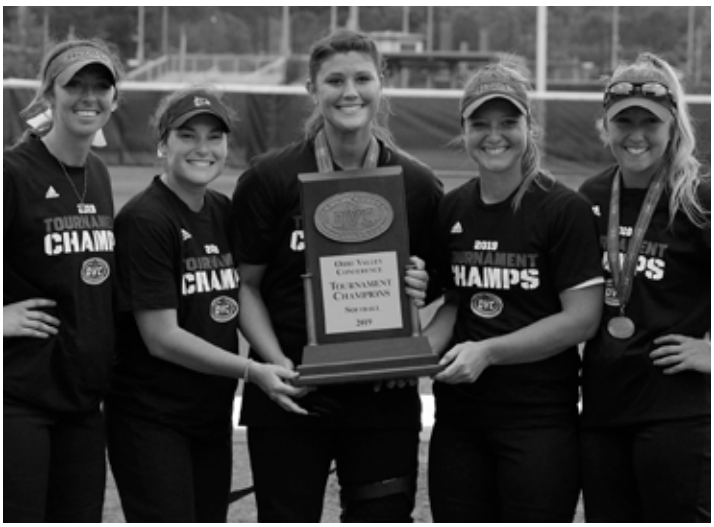

SEMO remained hot and managed to put together a season-long 13-game winning streak over a span of 16 days. It was the Redhawks longest winning streak since 1998 (16 games).

The Redhawks racked up 29 non-conference wins and collected three victories over power five schools. SEMO's two-game sweep of Kansas and upset over nationally-ranked Arkansas ran Redburn's total to five wins over power five schools in his career.

Momentum from its strong non-conference showing set SEMO up for a successful run in OVC play.

The Redhawks registered doubleheader sweeps of Tennessee State, Eastern Kentucky, UT Martin, Eastern Illinois, Tennessee Tech and Morehead State.

After being no-hit in game one, SEMO regrouped to topple Jacksonville State with a 3-1 road victory on Apr. 28. That win put the Redhawks in position to claim a share of the OVC regular-season crown heading into their final two conference games, a home doubleheader vs. Morehead State.

On a soggy day at the Southeast Softball Complex, the inclement weather subsided long enough for SEMO to shutout MSU, 7-0, 9-0, and lock down its first OVC title since 1999.

Rachel Rook pitched a perfect game in the nighcap retiring all 15 hitters she faced. She struck out the first eight Eagle hitters of that game and finished with 12 strikeouts, the most by a Redhawk pitcher in any game all season.

Although the Redhawks and Gamecocks were tied at the top of the OVC standings following the regular-season, a coin toss was needed to determine the #1 seed in the league's postseason tournament.

SEMO and JSU had identical composite records against Eastern Kentucky, Austin Peay and Murray State; the same records against Belmont; the same records against UT Martin; and the exact composite records versus Tennessee Tech and SIU Edwardsville.

OVC Commissioner Beth DeBauche administered the coin toss at the league office in Brentwood, Tennessee 30 minutes after the conclusion of the Austin Peay/SIU Edwardsville doubleheader on May 5.

The JSU and SEMO names were put in a hat prior to the coin toss and JSU was drawn. Gamecocks head coach Jana McGinnis called "tails" and the coin landed heads awarding SEMO the top seed in the eight-team field.

SEMO opened the postseason with a 6-0 shutout of #5 Eastern Kentucky. After dropping a one-run game (4-3) to #2 Jacksonville State, the Redhawks faced EKU in an elimination matchup.

The Redhawks held off the Colonels, 11-8, and gave Redburn his 300th career win on their way to earning a rematch with the Gamecocks in the championship round.

Never-say-die SEMO captured the OVC Tournament title with two wins over JSU by scores of 8-2 and 6-5. As a result, the Redhawks claimed the league's automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament.

The Redhawks ended JSU's streak of three-straight OVC Tournament titles. In fact, the Gamecocks won the conference tournament every year it had been in Oxford until the Redhawks wrecked that stretch. JSU was also 14-1 in OVC Tournament games on the field where SEMO beat the Gamecocks twice.

SEMO dealt OVC Pitcher of the Year Faith Sims just her fifth loss of the season and first in over a month to force a winner-take-all final.

Mykaela Arellanes was named the OVC Tournament Most Valuable Player. Arellanes reached base seven times and went 4-for-6 with three runs scored, a double, home run, three walks, a stolen base and five RBI in the championship round.

Addison Barnouski, Anderson and Thogmartin joined Arellanes on the All-Tournament Team.

SEMO represented the OVC at the Oxford, Mississippi NCAA Softball Regional hosted by Ole Miss.

The Redhawks, Ole Miss, Chattanooga and Louisiana completed the four-team regional.

In just its second NCAA Division I Tournament appearance in program history, SEMO dropped its opening game to then-#7 Louisiana, 2-1.

The next day, the Redhawks eliminated Chattanooga with a 2-1 victory marking the fifth-straight year where the OVC representative won at least one game in the NCAA Tournament.

Arellanes singled up the middle with one out in the bottom of the fifth inning to score Brooke Rheinecker for the decisive run.

SEMO's magical season came to an end with a loss to Ole Miss.

Statistically, Anderson and Sarah Messex broke SEMO career records. Anderson set a new record in triples with 24, while Messex wrapped up her career as the school's all-time career leader in games played and games started (216). Messex never missed a start in her entire four-year career.

Ellis broke SEMO single-season records in RBI (60) and home runs (17). Anderson broke seven single-season records. And, Arellenas became the school's new single-season leader in runs scored (29). Thogmartin (22-7) also became SEMO's first 20-win pitcher in 28 years.

What a season!

OVC HISTORY

Now in its 72nd year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 19 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged February 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Through the past 71 years, 15 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 21 outright or shared football crowns, which is tied for the most in Football Championship Subdivision history (with Massachusetts). Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with 10, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Jacksonville State has eight titles while Eastern Illinois has seven crowns while Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri, UT Martin and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh. EKU was coached by former All-America quarterback Roy Kidd, who was in his 16th year at the helm of his alma mater and who skippered the Colonels to a second national title three years later. Following the 2002 season, Kidd retired after 39 years at EKU; upon retirement, he ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches with 315 victories, earning him a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame. EKU's 21 FCS playoff appearances are the second most all-time (behind only Montana's 23 berths).

In addition to Kidd, other coaching legends in the OVC include Charles "Bubber" Murphy, who coached at Middle Tennessee from 1947-1968, Western Kentucky's Jimmy Feix (1968-83), Wilburn Tucker (1954-67) and Don Wade (1968-82) of Tennessee Tech, Bill Ferguson (1967-77) of Murray State, Guy Penny (1959-67) of Morehead State and Boots Donnelly (1977-78 at Austin Peay; 1979-1998 at Middle Tennessee). Following the 2011 season Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo retired after 25 years at the school (the last 16 as members of the OVC). In his time as an OVC coach he compiled 92 total victories (fifth-most in league history) and 68 OVC wins (fourth-most in league history) and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2012. In 2016 former Murray State head coach Frank Beamer (1981-86) was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame; he introduced his wide tackle six defense to the OVC and compiled a 43-23-2 record with the Racers before leaving for his alma mater Virginia Tech where he won 280 games in 29 seasons.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo and Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals. He would break into the starting lineup halfway through his rookie season and started at cornerback for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

The 2007 season marked a return to scholarship football and the OVC for the Austin Peay Governors. Following the 1996 season the Governors dropped scholarship football and competed as both an independent (1997-00, 2006) and as a member of the Pioneer Football League (2001-05).

The 2007 season also brought new vernacular to the Ohio Valley Conference and the division formerly known as I-AA. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game the term I-AA was changed to NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in a decision by the Division I Board of Directors. The new label was chosen to communicate in a positive and clear manner the unique differences between Division I football categories (chiefly, the post-season opportunity) while still defining them within the Division I experience. The FCS includes programs that compete in an effort to participate in the NCAA championship postseason structure (one of 90 NCAA national championships) as opposed to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) which competes in an effort to participate in the postseason bowl system (the 40 NCAA-licensed events which includes the College Football Playoff).

In 2010 Southeast Missouri State, picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll, compiled a 7-1 Conference record on the way to its first OVC Championship since joining the league in 1991. Overall the Redhawks were 9-2 during the regular season and earned a berth in the FCS Playoffs, its first playoff berth at any level in the program's 104-year history. Southeast would lose to eventual national champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the playoffs. Head coach Tony Samuel capped the year by winning the Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award, given to the National Coach of the Year. Samuel was the second OVC coach to win the award (joining Murray State's Houston Nutt who won the award in 1995).

For only the second time in league history in 2011, three teams shared the OVC football championship, as Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech finished with 6-2 records. The only other time in league history more than two champions were crowned at the end of the year was 1962 (when four teams shared the crown).

In 2012 Eastern Illinois became just the fourth football team in OVC history to go from worst-to-first in winning the OVC Championship. The Panthers were led by head coach Dino Babers who became just the fourth first-year head coach to win an OVC Championship (joining Boots Donnelly in 1977, Jason Simpson in 2006 and Dean Hood in 2008 – Jacksonville State head coach John Grass would become the fifth coach to achieve that feat in 2014). During the year Eastern Illinois junior wide receiver Erik Lora shattered the FCS single-season receptions record, hauling in 136 passes in 12 games; that mark was 13 more than the previous NCAA record and 44 more than the previous OVC mark.

In 2013 Eastern Illinois repeated as OVC Champions behind Walter Payton Award winner Jimmy Garoppolo. The quarterback became just the second OVC player to earn the National Player of the Year Award, joining former EIU signal caller Tony Romo (2002). Garoppolo passed for 5,050 yards (second most in NCAA single-season history) and 53 touchdowns (fourth in NCAA history) in leading the Panthers to a 12-2 record and berth to the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs. Garoppolo was drafted by the New England Patriots in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft, becoming just the fifth OVC player selected in that round and just the fifth OVC quarterback ever selected (and first since 1998). Garoppolo was a part of Patriots teams that won Super Bowls in 2015 and 2017.

The 2013 season saw the OVC snap a 19-game playoff losing streak dating back to the 2000 season. Tennessee State shutout Butler (marking the first OVC road playoff victory since 1986) to snap the streak while later that day Jacksonville State smashed Samford in the first round. A week later Eastern Illinois beat Tennessee State while Jacksonville State won at McNeese State to each advance to the quarterfinals; that marked the first time the OVC put two teams in the quarterfinals in the same season since 1991. Overall the four total playoff wins in the same season established a new OVC record.

In 2015 Jacksonville State ascended to No. 1 in both major Top 25 polls, becoming the first OVC team to be ranked No. 1 since the 1999 season. The Gamecocks would go on to complete its second-straight 8-0 Conference mark and won three playoff games to become the first OVC team to advance to the Division I National Championship Game since 1982 (Eastern Kentucky). JSU lost to North Dakota State in the title game but finished the year 13-2 overall and ranked No. 2 in the final Top 25 polls. Head coach John Grass became the first OVC coach honored as the AFCA National Coach of the Year while quarterback Eli Jenkins was named the FCS ADA National Quarterback of the Year, finishing the year with 2,788 passing and 1,161 rushing yards (one of just three Division I quarterbacks – FBS or FCS - to achieve those numbers during the year).

Jenkins would conclude his career in 2016 with 3,796 rushing yards, the seventh-most ever by a FCS quarterback. Jenkins, who was named OVC Male Athlete of the Year in back-to-back seasons, capped his career with 11,448 yards of total offense, second-most in OVC history (behind only Garoppolo).

In 2017, Jacksonville State senior defensive end Darius Jackson became the first OVC player to win the Buck Buchanan Award, given to the FCS National Defensive Player of the Year. Jackson tallied 51 tackles, 19.0 tackles-for-loss, 7.0 sacks, 19 quarterback hurries, 3 forced fumbles and 2 fumbles recoveries in 11 regular season games

2017 also saw the third OVC coach named the winner of the Eddie Robinson Award as the FCS National Coach of the Year. The honor went to Austin Peay second-year coach Will Healy who orchestrated a tremendous turnaround for the Govs program. After going 0-11 during his initial season and starting 2017 with back-to-back losses to FBS opponents, the team's losing streak had reached 29 games and overall the team had won just one of its previous 48 games overall. But a win during week three catapulted the team to an 8-4 record and 7-1 OVC record and second-place league finish. The eight wins matched the school record, while the seven Conference wins established a new school record. Along the way the team snapped a 21-game OVC losing streak and a 45-game road losing streak and finished the year with four road victories, which was more than the program won in the previous nine years combined.

The OVC made it back-to-back Buck Buchanan Award winners in 2018, as Southeast Missouri junior linebacker Zach Hall took home the prestigious award. He finished the season with 168 tackles, the most of any FCS player and a new Southeast Missouri single-season record, while leading his team to just in second-ever playoff appearance.

Football wasn't the only sport in which the OVC was quickly gaining respect. In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants. The Conference quickly proved worthy of that bid, as Morehead State defeated Marshall (107-92) and Wayne State (95-84) in the 1956 tournament.

Fifteen years later, former OVC member Western Kentucky became the first and only Conference team to reach the Final Four. The Hilltoppers defeated Jacksonville, Kentucky and Ohio State before losing to Villanova in double overtime in the national semifinals. WKU went on to finish in third place after beating Kansas 77-75 in the consolation game.

Since that time, the OVC has recorded some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Tournament. Perhaps the most famous moment came in 1987, when Austin Peay came from fourth place in the regular season to win the OVC Tournament and earn the league's automatic bid. The Governors drew powerful Illinois, and were such big underdogs, that ESPN broadcaster Dick Vitale promised to stand on his head if APSU won the game. After a 68-67 victory over the Illini, and a narrow 90-87 overtime loss to eventual Final Four participant Providence in the second round, Vitale made good on his promise in a visit to Clarksville two months later.

Murray State added to the OVC's string of upsets in 1988 when it knocked off 14th-ranked North Carolina State, 78-75. The Racers' M&M Boys - Jeff Martin and Don Mann - combined for 39 points in the win. MSU nearly went on to the Sweet 16 that year, losing to eventual national champion Kansas, 61-58. A bank shot by Mann that would've given the Racers a one-point lead rolled off the rim with three seconds left. In 1990 as a No. 16 seed, Murray State took No. 1 seed Michigan State into overtime before falling 75-71; that game still marks the closest a No. 16 seed has come to knocking off a No. 1 in men's tournament action. More recently, Murray State has dominated the OVC Tournament, reaching the championship game every year in the 1990's. The Racers' 15 OVC Tournament Championships are the most among all OVC schools.

After former member Middle Tennessee State won a first round game in 1989, the league had a drought as no other OVC team won a NCAA Tournament game for the next 19 years. But Morehead State, coming off a thrilling double overtime OVC Tournament victory over Austin Peay, topped Alabama State 58-43 in the 2009 Opening Round game at University of Dayton Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The game was played in front of an Opening Round record crowd of 11,346 and included many MSU fans who made the three-hour drive from Morehead for the game.

In 2009-10, Murray State made OVC history by winning a record 31 games (31-5) on its way to the league's regular season and tournament championships. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the No. 13 seed Racers topped Vanderbilt in thrilling fashion when senior Danero Thomas hit a jumper as time expired to lift MSU to a 66-65 victory. It marked the first OVC team to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament since 1989 and snapped a skid of 71-straight loses to Southeastern Conference foes (dating back to 2000-01). In the second round, the Racers pushed eventual national runner-up Butler to the brink before losing 54-52.

In 2010-11 Morehead State would make it three NCAA Tournament wins in as many years for the league and got a bit of revenge for the 2009 tournament loss to Louisville in the process. After finishing second in the regular season and winning the OVC Tournament Championship, the No. 13 seeded Eagles were shipped to Denver to play the in-state foe Cardinals. MSU jumped out to a 15-2 advantage but were down four points (61-57) with just over a minute to play in regulation. After two free throws from two-time OVC Player of the Year Kenneth Faried, the Eagles held for one final shot attempt and senior Demonte Harper pulled up off a cross-over dribble to nail a 3-pointer with 4.3 seconds left that gave Morehead State a 62-61 lead. UofL had one last attempt but Faried blocked the Cardinals last shot, giving MSU the win, its first over Louisville since the 1956-57 season.

In 2011-12 Murray State put together one of the greatest seasons in OVC history, beginning the year 23-0 (an all-time OVC best) and being ranked as high as No. 7 in the coaches poll on Feb. 6. The squad was the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since Murray State was ranked in 1997-98; in addition, the top 10 ranking was the first for an OVC team since the 1970-71 campaign (WKU). The Racers would top nationally-ranked Memphis and Saint Mary's during the season and win the league's regular season and tournament championships. MSU earned a No. 6 seed in NCAA Tournament, the highest-ever seed for an OVC team since the NCAA began seeding the field in 1979. The Racers would top Colorado State 58-41 in the second round before falling to Marquette in the third round. Murray State would win 31 games overall, tying the OVC all-time record the Racers set in 2009-10.

After the Murray State win in 2011-12, the league had won NCAA Tournament games in four-straight seasons, something that had never happened in league history (three-game winning streaks from 1960-62 and 1987-89 had been the previous best streaks). Over that time period (2009-12) the OVC was one of just nine conferences nationally to win a NCAA Tournament game in each season and one of only three non-BCS leagues (joining the Atlantic 10 and WCC) to do so.

In 2013-14 Murray State won five games to claim the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) and in the process became the first OVC men's basketball team to ever play games in the month of April.

The 2014-15 season saw five OVC men's basketball teams earn postseason bids, the most in league history, and a year later (2015-16) that number was eclipsed with six teams making national postseason tournaments. Entering 2017-18 OVC men's basketball teams have at least one national postseason tournament victory in nine-straight postseasons, an all-time league record.

For just the second time in league history (the other being 1987), the OVC placed two teams in the NCAA Tournament in 2019, as Murray State won the OVC Tournament crown for the second-straight season and Belmont earned an at-large bid after going 26-5 overall (16-2 OVC) with a NET ranking of 47. As a No. 11 seed, Belmont would top Temple in the Opening Round in Dayton (its first-ever NCAA Tournament victory) before narrowly falling to Maryland in the next round, while No. 12 seed Murray State crushed Marquette 83-64 in the first round (the second-biggest margin of victory ever by a 12 seed over a No. 5 seed in tournament history) before losing to Florida State. It marked the first time since 1971 that the OVC had two wins in the same NCAA Tournament and marked the first time two different OVC teams won a tournament game in the same year.

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft.

During the 2010-11 year, Faried, the nation's leading rebounder during the season, became the NCAA's Modern Era (since 1973) career rebounding leader, totaling 1,673 rebounds which passed Tim Duncan for the record (he is 11th all-time in NCAA history). Faried also finished his career with 86 double-doubles, second all-time to only Duncan. He is one of only six players in NCAA history to finish with 2,000-plus career points (2,009) and 1,600-plus career rebounds. Faried was drafted 22nd overall by the Denver Nuggets in the 2011 NBA Draft, becoming the first OVC player selected in the first round since Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers 1994.

Murray State guard Isaiah Canaan, a first-team All-American in 2011-12, capped his illustrious career in 2012-13 by becoming just the 17th player in OVC history to score 2,000 or more career points. Canaan, who was a key part of Murray State NCAA Tournament victories in both 2010 and 2012, earned a pair of OVC Player of the Year honors (2012 and 2013) during his career as well as being named OVC Freshman of the Year (2010), OVC Tournament MVP (2010) and OVC Male Athlete of the Year (2012). He was drafted by the Houston Rockets with the 34th overall pick (No. 2 pick of the second round) of the 2013 NBA Draft.

In 2014-15 Murray State became just the fifth OVC men's team to complete a perfect Conference season (16-0). The Racers were led by sophomore Cameron Payne who was named OVC Men's Basketball Player of the Year, OVC Male Athlete of the Year and earned third-team All-American honors from CBSSports.com. Following the season Payne declared for the NBA Draft, becoming the first sophomore in OVC history to do so and one of just four OVC players all-time to enter and stay in the draft with eligibility remaining. Payne was selected in the lottery by the Oklahoma City Thunder (pick No. 14 overall), making him just the ninth First Round NBA Draft pick in OVC history.

Austin Peay made history in winning the 2016 OVC Men's Basketball Tournament as the Governors became the first No. 8 seed to claim the championship. APSU had to win its two regular season games just to qualify for the event and then won four games in four days to capture its fifth tournament crown. Along the way the Govs topped a No. 5 seed, No. 4 seed, No. 1 seed and No. 2 seed and were paced by MVP Chris Horton who averaged 22.5 points, 14.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists/game during the event including a 37-point, 21-rebound and 30-point, 16-rebound performance during the run.

In 2016, former Belmont All-American and 2012-13 OVC Co-Player of the Year Ian Clark became the first former OVC player to advance to the NBA Finals since former Tennessee State star Anthony Mason played for the New York Knicks in 1994. Clark was part of a Golden State Warriors team that won an NBA record 73 regular season games but lost in Game 7 of the Finals. A year later, Clark was part of the Warriors team that topped Cleveland to win the 2017 NBA Championship, becoming the first OVC player to win the crown since 1970-71 (Murray State's Dick Cunningham and Western Kentucky's Greg Smith with the Milwaukee Bucks).

Belmont's Evan Bradds finished his career in 2016-17 with a 66.7 career field goal percentage, tops in OVC history and fourth all-time in Division I history. Bradds capped his career with back-to-back OVC Player of the Year awards in addition to being named 2016-17 OVC Co-Male Athlete of the Year.

Murray State guard Ja Morant put together arguably the greatest season in League history in 2018-19, earning first-team consensus All-American honors (only the third player in OVC history to achieve that feat joining WKU's Clem Haskins in 1967 and WKU's Jim McDaniel in 1971) while becoming the first player since the NCAA began officially tracking assists (1983-84) to average 20-plus points (24.5) and 10-plus assists (10.0) in the same season. Morant, who won the Bob Cousy Award as the nation's top point guard, finished the year with 331 assists, the sixth-most in NCAA single-season history. During the year he had three triple-doubles (including just the ninth in NCAA Tournament history) and became the first Division I player in 20 years to record 40 points, 11 assists and five steals in a regulation game.

Morant was picked No. 2 overall by the Memphis Grizzlies in the 2019 NBA Draft, equaling the highest-ever draft pick in OVC history (tied with Eastern Kentucky's Jim Baechtold who went No. 2 in 1952). Overall he was just the third NBA Lottery Pick (which began in 1985) in OVC history. Belmont senior Dylan Windler was selected by the Cleveland Cavaliers No. 26 overall in the 2019 NBA Draft, giving the OVC two First Round picks in the same draft for only the second time in history (Western Kentucky's Tom Marshall and Jack Turner were selected with the seventh and eighth picks of the First Round in 1954). Overall Morant and Windler were the 10th and 11th players in OVC history to be First Round NBA Draft Picks.

Through its 71 years, 13 teams have won or shared the league's regular season men's basketball title. Murray State heads the list with a Conference-record 26 outright or shared basketball crowns. Other past champions include former member Western Kentucky (19), Morehead State (9), Austin Peay (8), Tennessee Tech (7), Eastern Kentucky (6), Belmont (5), former member Middle Tennessee (5), Tennessee State (2), former member East Tennessee State (2), Southeast Missouri State (1), UT Martin (1) and former member Akron (1).

Among the coaching greats in men's basketball have been Western Kentucky's E.A. Diddle, who retired with 759 victories and 10 OVC titles; John Oldham, who was a member of the very first All-OVC squad and went on to win seven OVC crowns during his coaching tenure at Tennessee Tech and Western Kentucky; Paul McBrayer, who guided Eastern Kentucky to 219 wins and three OVC crowns; and Cal Luther, who is the only person in Conference history to win men's basketball Coach of the Year honors at two league schools - Murray State and UT Martin. Following the 2016-17 season, Austin Peay's Dave Loos retired as the winningest coach in OVC history (he passed Luther for that crown in 2009-10). Loos, a five-time OVC Coach of the Year, finished his career with 420 wins in 27 years at Austin Peay (including a 258-194 OVC record) and 502 total wins in 31 years as a head coach. Loos was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2018.

There have been an equal number of great players including Western Kentucky's Clem Haskins, who is the only three-time OVC Player of the Year. Several players have won OVC Player of the Year honors twice: Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniels (1969-70 and 1970-71), Murray State's Les Taylor (1971-72, 1972-73), Jeff Martin (1987-88, 1988-89), Popeye Jones (1989-90, 1990-91) and Marcus Brown (1994-95, 1995-96), Austin Peay's Otis Howard (1976-77, 1977-78), Middle Tennessee's Jerry Beck (1980-81, 1981-82), Akron's Joe Jakubick (1982-83, 1983-84), Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers (1992-93, 1993-94), UT Martin's Lester Hudson (2007-08, 2008-09), Morehead State's Kenneth Faried (2009-10, 2010-11) and Murray State's Isaiah Canaan (2011-12, 2012-13).

The OVC also has the honor of being the only conference to boast the nation's leaders in scoring, rebounding and assists all in one season. That feat was accomplished in 1991-92 by Morehead State's Brett Roberts (28.1 ppg), Murray State's Popeye Jones (14.4 rpg) and Tennessee Tech's Van Usher (8.8 apg).

In 2018, the OVC once again served as host for the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship First and Second Rounds at Bridgestone Arena in Nashville. It marked the fourth-time the OVC served as hosts of the event (2000, 2005, 2012 and 2018).

Tennessee Tech has won or shared 18 regular-season women's basketball championships in addition to nine OVC Tournament crowns; both are tops in OVC history. UT Martin added its name to the list of championship by capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011 and also winning championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Skyhawks became just the fourth team in OVC history (and first since Austin Peay from 2000-03) to win four-straight tournament titles, while Belmont joined that club after winning its fourth-straight title in 2019 (2016-19).

Several coaches have made their mark in the history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at EKU and three at MTSU. In 2012-13 Inman came out of retirement to take the Tennessee State job; in 2014-15 he led the Lady Tigers to its first OVC Tournament Championship since 1995. Inman once again retired following the 2016-17 season, with 545 career victories.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; Murray State's Ashley Hayes; and UT Martin's Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken).

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

In 2013-14 Butler and Newsome capped their brilliant careers by ranking first and second in scoring in OVC history. Butler, the 2013-14 OVC Female Athlete of the Year, finished her career with 2,865 points, which ranked first in OVC and 16th in NCAA history. She also finished her career with 392 career 3-pointers (which was tied for the most in NCAA history following her career but now ranks second) and scored in double figures in all 129 career games, which ranks fifth in NCAA history. Following the season Butler was signed by the WNBA's San Antonio Stars where she became the first OVC player to make an active WNBA roster. Newsome capped her career with 2,566 points, second only to Butler in OVC history.

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC served as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event was held April 6 and 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville and was played in front of sold-out crowds for both the semifinals and championship as UConn topped Notre Dame in a battle of undefeated teams to win its ninth national title.

In 2017-18, Belmont completed its second-straight undefeated league season, increasing its winning streak in Conference games (both regular season and tournament) to 46 games. The Bruins were ranked in both the USA Today Coaches Poll and Associated Press Poll during the year, becoming the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since 1992-93. The Bruins finished the year ranked No. 23 in the AP poll.

Belmont guard Darby Maggard capped her career in 2018-19 by earning her fourth-straight first-team All-OVC honor in addition to earning her fourth-straight OVC All-Tournament honors. She became the first player in NCAA history to make at least 400 3-pointers and dish out at least 650 assists in a career while her 92.4 percent career free throw percentage ranks first in NCAA history, her 2.77 assist-to-turnover ratio is third and her 430 made 3-pointers is fourth. She was one of just 19 players in OVC history to reach 2,000 career points (2,031) and she finished her career third in OVC history for assists (683). After the season Maggard finished as the national runner-up at the College 3-Point Championship.

Over its 71 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. Former Morehead State football and Eastern Kentucky track and field athlete Dallas Robinson competed with the U.S. bobsled team during the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State) and Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball players Kenneth Faried (Morehead State) and Robert Covington (Tennessee State), football player Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball player Shawn Kelley (Austin Peay). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and an NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six-straight tournament crowns. Former EKU skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 36 years, 11 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regular-season titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006 and winning a NCAA Tournament match in 2010, the league's first NCAA victory since 2000.

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third-straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. She was later joined by Murray State's Scottie Ingram who won three-straight awards from 2014-16. Four other individuals - Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) and Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) – were back-to-back winners of the award.

Morehead State won its fourth-straight OVC volleyball regular season championship in 2013. Over that four-year period (2010-13) the Eagles compiled an impressive 67-3 league record.

In 2007, Eastern Kentucky's Jacob Korir won his fourth-straight Conference cross country title becoming just the third OVC student-athlete and 13th athlete nationally to accomplish that feat. Korir was a three-time All-American in cross country, earning two top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championship. The Nairobi, Kenya, native was also named a track and field All-American twice during his career, was selected as the OVC Male Athlete of the Year in 2006-07 and received the NCAA post graduate scholarship in 2008.

In 2011 the Eastern Kentucky men's cross country team earned a national ranking in the USTFCCCA poll, climbing to as high as No. 17; the ranking was the highest for an OVC team since the polls began in the early 1980s. The EKU men would qualify for the NCAA Championship, becoming the first OVC team to reach the national championship meet since 1980. Eastern Kentucky finished 26th overall at the event as junior Soufiane Bouchikhi was 47th in a field of 252 runners. On the women's side Eastern Kentucky senior Lydia Kosgei became the first EKU woman to ever qualify for the NCAA Championship and went on to finish 37th at the national meet to earn All-American honors.

A year later (2012) the EKU men's cross country team was ranked as high as No. 11 nationally and finished 24th at the NCAA Championship. Wade Meddles led the team with a 38th place finish at the event while Bouchikhi was 40th. In 2013 Eastern Kentucky placed 15th at the NCAA Championship, the highest national finish for an OVC team since 1980. Soufiane Bouchikhi capped his career by winning his fourth-straight OVC Championship and earning National Runner of the Week honors during the season. Bouchikhi finished 26th at the NCAA Championship in 2013, earning All-American honors for the second-straight season. In 2014 EKU qualified for its fourth-straight NCAA Championship and finished 23rd overall and in 2015 earned its fifth-straight bid and finished 17th overall. EKU is only the second OVC team to ever qualify for five-straight NCAA Championships (ETSU being the other).

In 2016, Eastern Kentucky's Charlotte Imer finished 31st at the NCAA Championship, the second-highest finish ever by an OVC female (trailing only a 24th place finish by Samford's Lauren Blankenship in 2007).

In 2017, the Eastern Kentucky women's team earned its first national ranking as well as becoming the first OVC women's team to qualify for the NCAA Championship. The Colonels finished 23rd at the National Championship meet.

Following the 2017-18 season, long-time coaches Tom Akers (Eastern Illinois) and Rick Erdmann (Eastern Kentucky) retired. The duo combined for 118 OVC Championships and 115 OVC Coach of the Year Awards.

In 2007 the Conference had two teams in the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament for the first time in league history, as former OVC member Samford earned an at-large selection while Southeast Missouri was the Conference's automatic bid.

Former Austin Peay standout and 2012 OVC Soccer Player of the Year Tatiana Ariza represented her native country of Colombia in both the 2012 Summer Olympics in London (earning a start against the United States) as well as the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup. In the 2015 event she assisted on the first World Cup goal in her country's history and in the following match helped her team to a 2-0 victory over France, giving Colombia its first-ever win at the event.

In 2016 SIUE turned in a major upset in the first round of the NCAA Division I Soccer Championship, advancing on penalty kicks 5-4 over No. 11-ranked Notre Dame. The Cougars became just the second OVC team to advance to the second round (joining Samford who topped Vanderbilt on penalty kicks in 2005).

For the first time under the current format, OVC men's golfers qualified for the NCAA National Championship in back-to-back years in 2013 and 2014. Austin Peay's Dustin Korte advanced from the regional to the national championship in 2013 (finishing 116th overall) while APSU's Marco Iten won the Auburn Regional in 2014 to qualify for the National Championship (finishing 55th). In 2015 OVC three individual men's golfers competed in the NCAA Regionals (one automatic berth and two at-large berths) in addition to the Eastern Kentucky team; the three individuals were the most from the OVC to qualify in one year under the current format.

In April 2016 Danny Willett won The Masters Championship in Augusta, Georgia. The former JSU standout, who was the 2006 OVC Freshman of the Year and the 2007 OVC Championship Medalist, entered the final round tied for fifth, three shots behind 2015 champion Jordan Spieth after rounds of 70-74-72. In the final round Willett fired a 5-under par round of 67 to finish at 283 (-5) and top the field by three shots. He became just the eighth player in Masters' history to win the event in his first or second start and just the second Englishman to win the event.

Prior to 2018, no female women's golf had earned an at-large spot in the NCAA Regionals field. That changed when Jacksonville State junior Valentina Giraldo and Eastern Kentucky junior Elsa Moberly earned two of the 24 at-large spots in the NCAA field.

Another first for women's golf came in 2019 as Murray State senior Linette Holmslykke became the first OVC female golfer to qualify for the National Championship after finishing second at the Auburn Regional with a three round total of 211 (-5). Holmslykke finished 54th at the National Championship in addition to winning the NCAA's Elite 90 Award for having the highest G.P.A. among those competing at the Championship.

In 2009 it was OVC softball that accomplished several firsts as UT Martin (tournament champion) and Jacksonville State (at-large) were each selected for the NCAA Championship. Jacksonville State would take it a step farther by winning the Knoxville Regional (beating No. 13 national seed Tennessee along the way) to become the first OVC softball program to advance to a Super Regional. Jax State would fall to No. 4 Alabama in that Super Regional but finished the season 43-16 (19-2 OVC) and ranked 21st nationally in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and 24th nationally in the USA Today/NFCA poll.

In 2016 the OVC Softball Championship was held at a neutral site for the first time, as it was played at Choccolocco Park in Oxford, Alabama.

In 2018 Eastern Kentucky won its first OVC softball regular season championship since 2004 and earned a berth in the National Invitational Softball Championship, where they hosted and won the Richmond Regional to make them one of four teams to advance to the championship round in Los Angeles.

The league's baseball presence has continued to evolve since its inception. The OVC baseball tournament moved to a neutral site for the first time in 2001 with Paducah, Kentucky and Brooks Stadium hosting the tournament in front of raucous crowds. The success of the tournament led to Jackson, Tennessee and The Ballpark at Jackson (the home of the Seattle Mariner's Class AA affiliate) – hosting the event for the first time in 2010. The championship moved to Choccolocco Park in Oxford, Alabama for two years (2017-18) before agreeing to a two-year stay at Rent One Park in Marion, Illinois (home of the Frontier League Southern Illinois Miners).

The OVC also has made a statement in the NCAA Baseball Championship in recent years, with its teams involved in several memorable contests in the last decade. Tennessee Tech surprised Wake Forest in the opening round of the 2001 tournament and Southeast Missouri stunned host Alabama in the opening round of the 2002 championship. Five years later, Austin Peay captured the collegiate baseball world's attention by taking Vanderbilt, the 2007 No. 1 overall seed, to extra innings. Eastern Illinois pushed host Nebraska to the limit in 2008 followed by Tennessee Tech's memorable contest against host Clemson in 2009.

After not making the OVC Tournament field in either 2009 or 2010, Austin Peay, who was picked to finish seventh in the 2011 preseason poll, won the regular season and tournament championships to garner its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. In the first game of NCAA Regional play the Govs knocked off host and No. 1 seed Georgia Tech 2-1.

In 2012 Austin Peay completed a "repeat squared" (back-to-back regular season and tournament championships) for the first-time in OVC history. The Govs would go on to top Indiana State and Cal State Fullerton at the Eugene Regional, before falling to host Oregon in the regional final. It marked the first time since the 2000 season (Middle Tennessee) that an OVC team had won multiple NCAA Tournaments games in the same season.

Austin Peay completed a "3-Peayt" by winning its third-straight OVC Tournament crown in 2013. Along the way the Govs garnered the first nationally-ranking by an OVC team since 2009 (climbing to as high as 21st nationally) and tied the OVC single-season record with 47 victories. The Govs earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Bloomington Regional, becoming the first OVC team in the current regional format (since 1999) to earn anything other than a No. 4 seed. The squad topped Florida and Valparaiso to advance to the regional final for the second-straight season before losing to host Indiana. Govs senior closer Tyler Rogers was a big part of his team's success during the year, setting the NCAA single-season record for saves (23 – a mark that was later eclipsed during the College World Series).

In 2016 six OVC teams reached the 30-win plateau for the first time in league history; the previous single-season high had been four teams.

In 2017 the league could have been named the "Offensive Valley Conference" as teams combined for 753 home runs during the season, the most in league history. That was highlighted by a record 50 combined home runs being hit in 13 games at the OVC Tournament. Included in that was Morehead State sophomore Niko Hulsizer who hit his 27th home run of the season, establishing a new OVC single-season record.

In 2018 Tennessee Tech had a 28-game winning streak in becoming a consensus nationally-ranked team across the six major Division I polls (reaching as high as No. 10, an all-time high rank by an OVC team). The Golden Eagles won a record 27 OVC games after losing in the OVC Tournament Championship game, became the first OVC team to earn an at-large berth into the NCAA Baseball Championship. Tech would go on to win three-straight elimination games in the Oxford Regional (including back-to-back games on the same day against host and No. 4 national seed Ole Miss) to become the first OVC team to reach the Super Regionals. The Golden Eagles would win game one against Texas before eventually losing two-straight to the Longhorns. Tennessee Tech finished the season with an OVC record 53 overall victories.

In 2018, a record 16 OVC players were selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft (breaking the previous record of 12). Among the 16 players were eight Tennessee Tech players, a new record for an OVC school in a single-season.

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year. A year later (2009) the league had a Major League Baseball First Round Compensation Round pick (Eastern Illinois' Tyler Kehrer who was No. 48 overall) and NBA Second Round pick (UT Martin's Lester Hudson) in the same season.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 284 student-athletes honored with the award.

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

2020 OVC TOURNAMENT

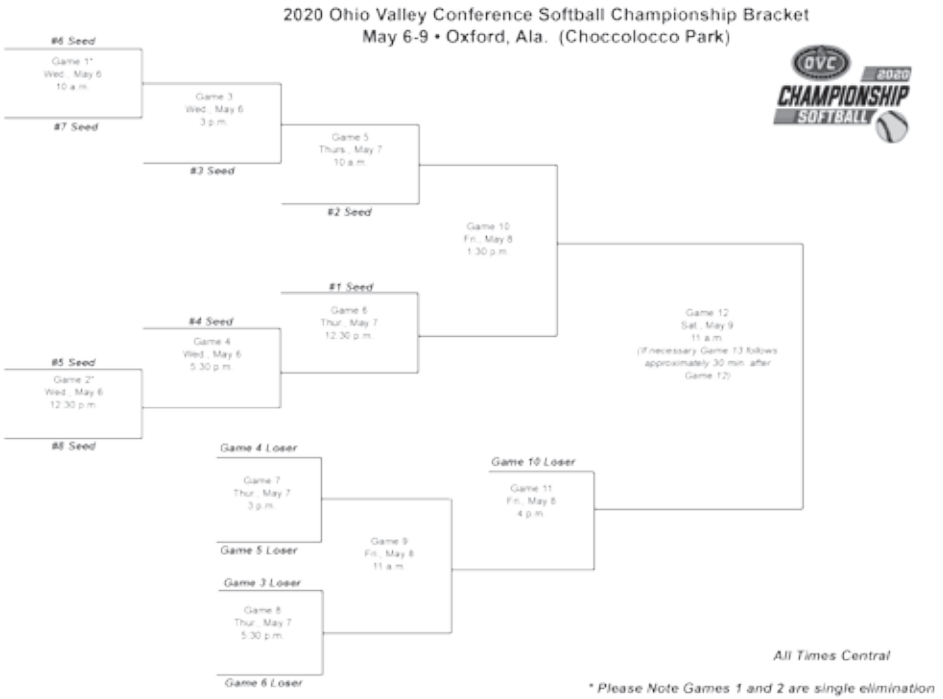

2020 CHAMPIONSHIP SOFTBALL

The 2020 Ohio Valley Conference Softball Championship will be held May 6-9 at Choccolocco Park in Oxford, Alabama.

It marks the 27th time the Championship has been held and the fifth-straight year it has been held at the neutral site in Oxford instead of at the site of the No. 1 seed.

The first two games of the tournament are single elimination with the winners of those matchups advancing to the double elimination portion of the bracket.

Last season, Southeast Missouri topped three-time defending champion Jacksonville State in back-to-back games to claim the title, its sixth overall and first since 1999.

- / Boston Conservatory of Music
- / Carnegie Mellon University

THE DONALD L. HARRISON COLLEGE OF BUSINESS CONSISTENTLY MAKES THE PRINCETON REVIEW'S LIST OF

top business schools.

COME HERE AS A STUDENT.

And go anywhere as a teacher.

Southeast education graduates work as faculty members in school districts across the nation, and in more than 35 countries around the world.

1:21 faculty-student ratio

Full-time faculty

lead most classes, not teaching assistants — starting with freshman year.

REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE

ROLL UP YOUR SLEEVES AND GET DOWN TO BUSINESS.

Or education, public policy, communications or journalism — whatever your major, expect to learn a lot in class and even more in practice. And here, that practice happens on the latest technology and in real-world settings. You'll experiment and collaborate in just about all of your coursework. And you'll put new knowledge into action right from the start.

YOUR NEXT BIG IDEA could happen anywhere. But you'll give it legs and watch it run at Catapult Creative House, our student-run idea incubator and launchpad for innovation. Get to work in our creative labs, 3D modeling and printing gallery, and impact studio. It's where you'll turn your concepts into prototypes, your prototypes into products, and your products into sales.

THE BEST PLACE TO LEARN ABOUT U.S. POLICY is where it's actually being shaped. So you'll go to the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) in Washington, D.C., for part of our University Studies course. For four exhilarating days, you'll work directly with researchers and consultants who advise national leaders. And if you're really on top of your game, you may end up influencing the strategies you've come to study.

INTERNSHIPS

RÉSUMÉS ARE BUILT— NOT WRITTEN.

The workforce is just that: a force. And it's one you'll meet head on at Southeast Missouri State. We'll help you find internships (that's plural on purpose) and coach you through any challenges or questions that come your way.

SET OUT AND JOIN IN.

Earn your wings early. Chew your way into campus history. Share your musical gift. Meet your new brothers or sisters. Whatever you do — whether it's joining a club or carrying on a tradition — just know that you won't do it alone (except the chewing part).

SOCIAL FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

Representing the IFC, Panhellenic and NPHC Councils. Many of them call Greek Hill home. And in Fall 2016, a new Greek Village will open on campus, providing an expanded Greek community where thousands of students will make new memories of brotherhood and sisterhood.

180+ student groups

With organizations on campus from A (Adult Recess improv group) to Z (Zeta Phi Beta Sorority), there's something to meet every professional, social, recreational or religious interest. And if you can't find what you're looking for, form your own group.

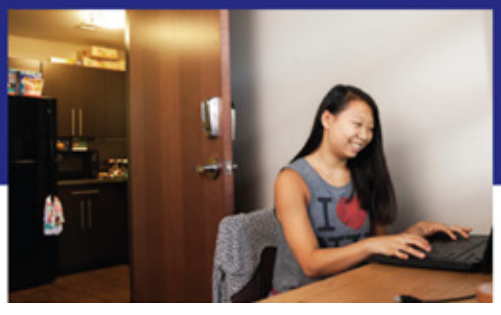

We honor our heritage by sticking to our traditions.
Some of them, quite literally. For years, students have been making the trek up Cardiac Hill (a tradition in its own right) to add their chewing gum to our infamous Gum Tree.

MAKE ART THAT INSPIRES.

And do it on a campus that's equally inspiring.

Dobbins River Campus Center

Inside this living-learning center, you can make a masterpiece, make dinner and make your bed without ever leaving the River Campus.

In addition to a residence hall, dining facilities and contemporary classrooms, the Cultural Arts Center offers professional-level theatres, costume and scene shops, music rehearsal and gallery space, and dance and art studios — each equipped to inspire ovation-worthy works of art.

Among our student-produced musical performances, you'll hear everything from the classics to the contemporary — including Brahms' Double Concerto in A Minor and Andrew Lippa's The Addams Family.

Southeast makes it affordable to do what you dream of doing, and we're recognized as one of the country's institutions with the least indebted students.
