Smart scored 10 of his points in the first half and did not miss a free throw going 8-of-8 at the charity stripe. SEMO trailed, 22-16, with 10:53 remaining in the first half when it used an 11-0 run to take a five-point advantage. Evan Eursher made a jumper to get the Redhawks within two and Braxton Stacker threw an alley oop pass to TJ Biel who threw down a dunk to tie the game at 22-22. Smart then drained a 3-pointer off a HSU turnover and Josh Earley added a second-chance layup to push SEMO's lead to 27-22 with just under seven minutes left. The Reddies tied things up at 29-29 at the 4:31 mark, but the Redhawks built their biggest lead of the half at 38-32 on two free throws by Smart. Tim McDonald's 3-pointer at the buzzer narrowed the score to 38-35 at the intermission. SEMO never trailed again and got a nice lift from Earley to start the second half. Earley scored the first eight points in 3:16. His dunk at the end of that stretch extended the Redhawks lead to 46-37 with 16:44 to go. Shortly after Ken Lewis made two free throws to get HSU within three (48-45), David Idada scored in the paint and Gavyn Elkamil rebounded a missed 3-pointer by Biel and scored to put SEMO ahead, 52-45, with 10:41 left. Stacker's corner 3-pointer ran the Redhawks lead to double-digits (55-45). That make was part of a 7-0 run for SEMO during a period where HSU didn't score for over four-and-a-half minutes. Dylan Branson's second-chance layup gave SEMO a 63-50 lead. The Reddies, however, kept chipping away and countered with a 9-0 run. McDonald's two free throws closed SEMO's lead to 63-59 with 4:19 to go and that was as close as HSU could get the rest of the way. BJ Ward knocked down a jumper and Stacker stole the ball and scored on a fast break dunk to widen SEMO's margin to 67-59. Ward and Elkamil each buried a 3-pointer to polish off SEMO's 15-point preseason win. Smart led five Redhawks with double figures in the scoring column. Earley followed with 12 points, while Biel, Stacker and Ward pitched in 10 apiece. SEMO shot 41.3 percent (26-of-63) from the field and 81 percent (17-of-21) at the free throw line for the game. HEAD COACH BRAD KORN

BRAD KORN

// Head Coach // Fourth Year // Southern Illinois, 2004

Brad Korn has the spotlight back on Southeast Missouri basketball entering his fourth year as head coach.

In 2022-23, Korn led SEMO to a remarkable postseason run that resulted in the Redhawks winning their first Ohio Valley Conference Tournament title and advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in over two decades.

SEMO, which became the first #5 seed to ever win the OVC Tournament, won four games in four days to hoist its first trophy since 1999-2000. Along the way, the Redhawks knocked off the tourney's top two seeds in #1 Morehead State and #2 Tennessee Tech to claim only their second NCAA Tournament berth in program history.

The Redhawks finished their historic 2022-23 campaign at 19-17 overall and 10-8 in the OVC. SEMO snapped a streak of eight-straight losing records by postint both overall and OVC winning records in a season for the first time since 2004-05. The Redhawks 10 conference wins were their most in a season since the 1999-2000 team went 14-4.

Guards Chris Harris (1,169) and Phillip Russell (1,016), both 1,000-point scorers in their careers, earned All-OVC honors. Russell garnered first-team accolades and Harris was a second-team selection. Both also made the OVC Tournament Team with Harris taking the event's coveted Most Valuable Player honor.

In conference play alone, SEMO was the league's top scoring team with an average of 81.4 points per game in 2022-23. The Redhawks put up 80 or more points in 11 of their 18 league contests. Overall, SEMO was first in the OVC in turnover margin (+1.56) forcing 14.6 per game.

Korn's 2022-23 squad assisted on 497 of 958 made field goals at a rate of 51.8 percent. The Redhawks' 497 assists were teh fifth-most in a season in program history. SEMO's 36 games played are the most in a season all-time. The Redhawks also established top-five single-season marks during their program's tenure in OVC wins (t4th, 10), points (3rd, 2,798), field goals attempted (2nd, 2,191), 3-pointers made (2nd, 286), 3-pointers attempted (1st, 875), free throws made (587, 3rd), free throws attempted (4th, 828), assists (5th, 497) and steals (2nd, 251).

SEMO's storybook 2022-23 season received unprecedented media attention. Korn and Harris were featured in a live interview with Inside College Basketball studio hosts Clark Kellogg, Seth Davis, Greg Gumbel and Jay Wright on Selection Sunday prior to the Atlantic 10 Championship game. Several national media outlets latched on to the Redhawks not soon to be forgotten run.

Korn became just the second head coach in SEMO basketball history to lead his team to back-to-back trips to the OVC Tournament semifinals (2022, 2023) and reach the tournament's title game (2023).

His team records steadily improved over his first three seasons at the helm going from 11 victories during his year in 2020-21, to 14 in 2022-22 and 19 in 2022-23.

The OVC Tournament semifinal appearance in 2021-22 was SEMO's first in 17 years. The Redhawks were 14-18 overall and fourth in the conference with an 8-9 mark.

That year SEMO again had two All-OVC performers. Eric Reed, Jr. claimed first-team accolades and Russell was a second-team pick.

Statistically, the Redhawks completed the 2021-22 campaign ranked among the top three in the OVC in scoring offense (3rd, 75.6 ppg), free throw percentage (2nd, .732), turnover margin (3rd, +0.41) and 3-point field goals made (1st, 281).

Korn's first head coaching job came anything but easy first taking over at SEMO in the middle of a global COVID-19 pandemic.

Throughout all the challenges and uncertainties during an unprecedented 2020-21 season, Korn led his first SEMO club to an overall record of 11-16 and seventh-place showing in the OVC.

The Redhawks made the OVC Tournament for the first time since 2016-17 and saw a +4 improvement in total wins and +6 jump in OVC victories from the season before. At the time, SEMO's nine conference victories matched the program's most in a season in 20 years.

SEMO rated among the top five OVC teams in 3-point field goal percentage (5th, .352), rebounding margin (5th, +2.2), defensive rebounds (5th, 25.6 per game) and defensive rebound percentage (1st, .764).

Korn was officially introduced as SEMO's head coach on Mar. 23, 2020 and is the seventh head coach in the program's NCAA Division I era (since 1991-92).

Prior to arriving in Cape Girardeau, Korn spent five years at Big 12 Conference member Kansas State working four seasons as an assistant coach and one as the program's Director of Operations.

In his final four years back at K-State after returning following a three-year stint at Missouri State (2013-16), Korn helped the Wildcats to 82 wins and three-straight NCAA Tournaments. K-State posted consecutive 25-win campaigns for the first time in school history (2017-18, 2018-19).

During his first year back in 2016-17, the Wildcats won 21 games, including eight over teams that advanced to the postseason and knocked off Wake Forest in the NCAA First Four before losing to #18 Cincinnati in the NCAA South Regional First Round.

Working primarily with the post players, Korn was a big influence on the development of two-time All-Big 12 First Team selection Dean Wade, who became the fourth Wildcat to earn All-Big 12 First-Team honors in 2018 and just the second to do so in back-to-back seasons. Wade is one of just three players to rank in the school's Top 10 in both career scoring (1,510) and rebounding (685). He was instrumental in the progress of Makol Mawien, who has started every game in his K-State career and emerged as one of the top big men in the Big 12.

Korn was also key in the growth of All-Big 12 selections Wesley Iwundu and D.J. Johnson during his first season as an assistant coach in 2016-17. Iwundu, who was twice named Third Team All-Big 12, became the first Wildcat since 2008 to be taken in the NBA Draft when he was selected with 33rd overall pick by the Orlando Magic. Johnson, an honorable mention all-league selection, broke the career field goal percentage record at 59.5 percent, while setting the single-season mark for the second consecutive season at 62.3 percent in 2016-17.

Korn spent one season on Bruce Weber's inaugural staff at K-State as Director of Operations in 2012-13, helping the Wildcats to a 27-8 overall record and their first-ever Big 12 regular-season title. It was the school's first conference title since 1977, while the 27 wins rated second-most in school history.

Overall, he has 19 years of Division I experience, which includes time at his alma mater – Southern Illinois (2004-12). Korn has extensive ties to Weber after playing his first four years (1999-2003) for him at Southern Illinois. He redshirted in 1999-2000 before playing the next three years for Weber. He concluded his playing career for (current Purdue head coach) Matt Painter in 2003-04 before spending the next eight years (2004-12) at SIU as an assistant for then-Saluki head coach and then-K-State associate head coach Chris Lowery.

Korn returned to Manhattan in May 2016 after three seasons at Missouri State, where he served as an assistant coach to then-head coach Paul Lusk from 2013-16. At MSU, he helped the Bears to 44 wins, including a 20 -win season and a trip to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament in 2013-14.

Korn helped mentor a number of All-Missouri Valley honorees during his stay at Missouri State, including 2014 All-MVC Second-Team selection Jarmar Gulley and 2016 MVC Newcomer of the Year Dequon Miller. In addition, he coached three MVC All-Freshman Team honorees in Austin Ruder in 2014 and Obediah Church and Jarred Dixon in 2016 as well as two Most Improved Team members (Dorrian Williams in 2015 and Chris Kendrix in 2016).

Prior to his first stint at K-State, Korn spent eight years (2004-12) at Southern Illinois, including his final six years as a full-time assistant under Lowery. He helped the Salukis post a 145-116 (.556) overall record with four postseason appearances, two Missouri Valley Conference championships and one State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title. The squad won 20 or more games and advanced to the NCAA Tournament on three occasions (2005, 2006, 2007) during his tenure as an assistant coach, including a 2007 trip to the Sweet 16. He was a graduate assistant at SIU his first two years before being elevated to a full-time assistant coach on Jan. 31, 2006.

A native of Plano, Illinois, Korn helped the Salukis through one of their greatest periods of success from 1999 to 2004. The squad went from 16 wins his redshirt-freshman season to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances under Weber and Painter. He was also a part of three Missouri Valley regular season championships as a player.

The 6-foot-9 forward saw action in 121 games in his career, averaging 5.2 points and 2.3 rebounds in 14.5 minutes per game. As a senior, he averaged 9.7 points on 41 percent shooting with four rebounds and 1.9 assists in helping SIU to 25 wins and a 17-1 mark in MVC play. He was named to the league's Most Improved Team.

Korn earned a bachelor's degree in Marketing from Southern Illinois in 2004 and his master's degree in Administrative Studies from Missouri State in 2016.

He resides in Cape Girardeau with his wife, Kristin, and daughters Brielyn and Ashtyn.

Game 1

Southeast Missouri 67
Grand Canyon 88

November 6, 2023 • GCU Arena • Phoenix, Ariz.

PHOENIX Southeast Missouri dropped its season-opener to Western Athletic Conference member Grand Canyon University, 88-67, at GCU Arena.

Tyon Grant-Foster scored a game-high 30 points for GCU, which led the entire game.

GCU shot 23 free throws and used a 17-3 advantage at the charity stripe to key a 54-30 halftime lead.

The Lopes started out of the gate with a 14-2 run in the opening four minutes of the contest and never turned back.

Braxton Stacker's alley-oop dunk off a pass from Aquan Smart was SEMO's first points of the year and Adam Larson gave the Redhawks a nice lift off the bench scoring 10 points in his first 11 minutes.

Larson's layup ended a stretch of 11-consecutive points by the Lopes and he later buried a pair of 3-pointers en route to reaching double-digits for the sixth time in his career.

Rob Martin's 3-pointer cut the Lopes' lead to 19 (67-48) with 9:20 left in the contest, but that was as close as the Redhawks would get.

SEMO played better in the second half, where it edged GCU, 37-34.

Larson led the Redhawks with 13 points. He shot 4-of-6 from the field with three of his makes coming from long range. Josh Earley followed with 10 points, while TJ Biel and Stacker added eight apiece.

Game 2

Southeast Missouri 56
Butler 91

November 10, 2023 • Hinkle Fieldhouse • Indianapolis, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS Southeast Missouri fell to Butler, 91-56, in the first meeting between the teams at Hinkle Fieldhouse.

Adam Larson scored 11 points off the bench to lead SEMO against the Bulldogs who are out of the Big East Conference.

The Redhawks fell into a big hole early once again when BU pulled ahead 15-2 in the first 2:53 of the contest. The Bulldogs drained three 3-pointers to key their early surge that ended on DJ Davis' triple with 17:06 remaining in the first half.

Hot shooting BU later opened its lead to 28-8 after scoring nine unanswered points. Evan Eursher's pullup jumper ended a three-minute scoreless drought for the Redhawks.

Another Bulldog run, this time 17-0, increased BU's lead to 50-12 before the Bulldogs headed into the locker room up, 55-21.

There were postives in the second half headlined by Larson who scored all of his points in seven minutes on his way to his second double-digit game of the year.

He shot 4-of-5 from the field and made all three of his 3-point attempts. Larson drove the baseline for a nice dunk, as well.

True freshman guard Marqueas Bell also added six points in the second half, where SEMO was edged by one point (36-35).

For the game, the Redhawks shot 29 percent from the field and buried five 3-pointers.

Coke Zero Sugar Classic

November 25, 2023 • McKenzie Arena • Chattanooga, Tenn.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. Adam Larson dropped in a career-high 22 points with a career-best six 3-pointers and Southeast Missouri put together a strong second half in a 93-74 loss to Evansville Saturday at the Coke Zero Sugar Classic.

SEMO, which met UE for the second time in 10 days, outscored the Purple Aces, 45-42, in the game's final 20 minutes.

Larson scored 11 points and made three 3-pointers in both halves en route to his team-high third double-digit game this season. It was his second-straight start after coming off the bench in each of SEMO's first three contests.

Down, 51-29, at halftime, the Redhawks were on fire to start the second half.

Rob Martin and Aquan Smart both buried a 3-pointer to jump-start a 10-2 run and SEMO quickly got within 14 (53-39) when Martin scored again on a layup in just under two minutes.

The Redhawks made nine of their first 10 field goals, four of their first five 3-pointers and used a 20-8 surge to cut UE's lead to single digits (62-54). Smart's pullup jumper capped the run with 13:40 remaining.

UE, however, countered with a 9-0 run to take a 71-54 lead at the 11:34 mark and SEMO never got any closer than 12 after that.

Coke Zero Sugar Classic

November 26, 2023 • McKenzie Arena • Chattanooga, Tenn.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. Adam Larson scored 13 points to lead Southeast Missouri, which wrapped up the Coke Zero Sugar Classic with a 72-56 loss to Chattanooga at McKenzie Arena.

Larson closed out his impressive weekend with a combined 35 points (17.5 ppg) and 10 three-pointers made in two starts during the multi-team event.

A cold start put SEMO behind early against the Southern Conference's top defense.

The Redhawks went scoreless for the opening 4:53 of play missing their first seven field goals along the way. Trailing, 11-0, SEMO ended its drought when David Idada rebounded his own miss and scored with 15:07 remaining in the first half.

SEMO settled down and responded with a 10-3 surge. BJ Ward and Evan Eursher both drained a 3-pointer with Eursher's cutting UTC's lead to 14-10 ahead of a media timeout.

The Redhawks managed to close UTC's lead to seven with the help of a 3-pointer by Larson and reverse layup by Rob Martin. Martin's basket narrowed the Mocs margin to 47-40 with 13:33 remaining in the second half.

That was as close as SEMO would get as UTC followed with an 11-2 jaunt finish off its victory.
