Credentials

Credentials are required for entrance to the press box or access to the field (for photographers). To request season or single-game credentials, please contact the Southeast Missouri Sports Information Office by phone at (573) 651-2933 or email at jhonza@semo.edu. Credentials can be picked up at the ticket booth on the south side of Missouri National Guard Field/ Houck Stadium.

Photographers

Please observe NCAA regulations and shoot from the designated areas. Photographers are not permitted to stand between the 25-yardlines and must display their credentials at all times.

Gameday Parking

There is no media parking at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium. Radio and television affiliates should contact the Southeast Missouri Sports Information Office for unloading information.

Postgame Procedure

The Southeast Missouri sports information staff will make requested student-athletes available to the media at the conclusion of each game. Coach Samuel's first postgame responsibility after meeting with the team is his live radio show. Samuel and selected student-athletes will address the media in the Houck Field House conference room. For interviews with opposing coaches and players, please make arrangements with the visiting Sports Information Director before the end of the game.

Football Email List

If you would like to be added to the Redhawk football email list to receive breaking news about the team, please email Jeff Honza. The official website, GoSoutheast.com, is the best source for up-to-date information about the team.

Interview Policies

Student-athletes and coaches are available after practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during the season. Please let the sports information office know if you plan to attend practice.

Missouri National Guard Field/ Houck Stadium Press Box

Press facilities are in the Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium press box located on the top of the south side of the stadium. The press box is a two-level facility, so please use caution when walking up and down the stairs.

Redhawks Radio Network

Southeast Missouri has a new flagship station beginning in 2013. All Redhawk football games will be broadcast live on the radio at ESPN 92.9 FM and online at GoSoutheast.com. Games can also be heard on KEZS 102.9 FM, which is currently the only 100,000-watt station in the Ohio Valley Conference. Erik Sean returns for his 14th year as the "Voice of the Redhawks." Sean is the Director of Sports Operations for Mississippi River Radio's eight radio stations in Cape Girardeau. He is an 11-time winner of the Missouri Broadcasters Association's Play-by-Play Award and three-time winner of the MBA's Sports Award. Sean will be assisted by former Southeast quarterback Rick Wieser (color analyst) and KZIM/ KGIR sports anchor and reporter Todd Bonacki (sideline) at all home games.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium will serve as the home of Southeast Missouri State University football for the 83rd-consecutive year in 2013.

A dedication to officially recognize the field as "Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium" was held during halftime of Southeast's double overtime victory against Tennessee Tech on Sept. 22, 2012. The University and Missouri National Guard formed a partnership through which naming rights to the field were awarded.

Prior to the 2011 season, Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium received a huge makeover, as a new FieldTurf playing surface, state-of-the-art Daktronics video scoreboard and new lighting (which meets television standards) were installed. The facility was also re-painted, giving the longtime home to Redhawk Football a flashy look.

Southeast squared off against regional-rival and then-No. 17 Southern Illinois in the first game on the new turf. The Redhawks and Salukis played in front of a sellout crowd of 10,136 on Sept. 3, 2011.

In 2010, a school record 8,342 fans turned out to watch Southeast at home. That mark was an improvement from the Redhawks average home attendance of 5,835 in 2009. Southeast also had two crowds over the Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium capacity.

Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium was built in 1930 at a cost of $150,000 and remains a beautiful and picturesque stadium today.

The dedication game pitted Southeast and Southern Illinois from nearby Carbondale, Ill., on Oct. 3, 1930. That game attracted a crowd of over 6,000, with SIU claiming a 12-6 victory. The referee of the inaugural game was James T. Blair, who served as the Governor of Missouri from 1957-61.

Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium was constructed on the site of an old rock quarry and was purchased in 1925 for $11,000 at the recommendation of then-college President Joseph A. Serena.

Ten thousand bags of Portland Cement, 23,000 feet of Oregon Fir seat lumber and 150,000 feet of Yellow Pine Form lumber were used in the construction, according to an ad in the Houck Stadium dedication program. The original stadium included 5,240 seats on the south side of the field.

The field and stadium were named in honor of Louis Houck, who served 39 years as a Regent for the University and President of the Board for all but three of those years.

Seating on the north side of the stadium was added prior to the 1963 season. The press box was later constructed on the south side in 1979. Approximately 400 chairback seats were added to a center section on the south side of the stadium in 1992.

In 2000, the first FieldTurf playing field was installed and the exterior of the facility was resurfaced. Improvements were also made to the press box.

More upgrades took place in the fall of 2005. Those included a paved parking area adjacent to the east end zone and new parking and landscaping areas surrounding the outside of the stadium.

Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium

A state-of-the-art dormitory was built on the west end of the facility within the last five years. The ground floor of that building houses a locker room and athletic training facility which the football team uses on gamedays.

Nine of the largest single-game crowds at Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium have come in the last 13 years.

During Southeast's Ohio Valley Conference championship season in 2010, a school record 11,126 fans packed Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium to watch the Redhawks defeat UT Martin on Oct. 30. Southeast also drew a crowd of 10,316 vs. Tennessee State on Oct. 9 for the fourth-largest single-game home attendance.

In addition, the Redhawks had over 10,000 fans for the Western Kentucky (10,222) and Murray State (10,028) games in 2000, the Murray State (10,100) game in 2001 and the Southern Illinois match-ups in 2005 (10,100) and 2011 (10,136).

The Rosengarten Athletic Complex houses Southeast Missouri's primary football locker room, athletic training room, equipment room, coaches offices and meeting workspace.

This facility was renovated prior to the 2011 season. Upgrades included new flooring, wooden lockers, chairback seating/furniture, meeting room partitions, additional lighting and shower areas.

A total of 115 custom-designed, wooden lockers give Southeast's football players the space, comfort and functionality they need. A lounge fully equipped with leather furniture, flatscreen televisions and computer stations serves as a nice place for the Redhawks to unwind after practice. Players also gather for meetings and film study sessions in their team meeting room, furnished with theatre-style seating and the latest video equipment.

The Rosengarten Athletic Complex also has two outdoor natural grass practice fields which Southeast uses for gameday preparation, camps and other activities.

Southeast's recent improvements to Houck Stadium and the Rosengarten Complex are another part of the Department of Athletics collective effort to provide the very best facilities.

Longstanding rivals Southeast Missouri and Southern Illinois will play in the first NCAA football game at Busch Stadium on Sept. 21, 2013.

The announcement was made during a joint press conference with the St. Louis Cardinals, Southeast and SIU at the Busch Stadium Press Dining Room.

"We'd like to thank the St. Louis Cardinals for the opportunity to play this game at Busch Stadium," said Kenneth W. Dobbins, president of Southeast Missouri State University. "Nearly 40 percent of this year's freshmen class at Southeast is from the greater St. Louis region, and playing this game at Busch Stadium is exciting for all our students, and great exposure for our University and the Redhawk football program."

Southeast and SIU are located just 46 miles apart from each other and have close to 40,000 local alumni in St. Louis, as well as thousands of students from the St. Louis area.

"From a proximity and distance standpoint, it just made sense to be able to hold a game that would draw mutual interest from both Universities at a great venue like Busch Stadium," said Southeast Director of Athletics Mark Alnutt. "This is something that's going to potentially get national exposure and it's a win-win for all parties involved."

The Redhawks and Salukis were initially scheduled to play in Cape Girardeau before officials from both institutions reached an agreement with the Cardinals to move the game to Busch Stadium.

As the iconic home of one of the most storied franchises in baseball, Busch Stadium is one of the most sought after special event venues in St. Louis. Since it was opened in 2006, Busch Stadium has hosted over a thousand special events ranging from corporate meetings, weddings and charity events to one-of-kind concerts such as Dave Matthews Band, the Eagles and U2. This will be the first football game and the second major non-baseball sporting event held at Busch Stadium. The Cardinals hosted an international soccer match between the English Premier League teams Chelsea and Manchester City in May.

"We are thrilled to host our first football game in Busch Stadium with two great schools that have such a large following in St. Louis," said Bill DeWitt III, President of the Cardinals. "We are excited to showcase the versatility of Busch Stadium as a multi-use venue ideally suited for special football games like this historic game between two longstanding rivals."

Southeast has 24 players from the St. Louis area on its football roster and returning home to play in a top-notch facility with an extra media spotlight will be special.

"It's an opportunity for us to play in a big atmosphere and there's been a lot of excitement around this game," added Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "My hope is that we have a large crowd since both schools have so many alums in the area."

Southeast has played SIU more than any other school in football in a series that dates back to 1909. This year's game will be the 81st meeting between the two programs. The Redhawks lead the all-time series, 39-33-8, although the Salukis have won three of the last four matchups since renewing the series in 2009.

Southeast will play a football game in St. Louis for the fourth time in 2013. The Redhawks played three games at the old Busch Stadium as an NCAA Division II affiliate. Southeast split two games with Truman State (formerly Northeast Missouri State), losing in 1985 and winning in 1986, and lost to Missouri S&T (formerly Missouri-Rolla) in 1988.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

Prevention. Treatment. Rehabilitation. Education. Those are the four primary phases of athletic training, and the Southeast Missouri athletic training staff strives to fulfill all of those areas when working with student-athletes on a daily basis.

Southeast student-athletes are offered the best care possible by the athletic training staff. Head Athletic Trainer Alfred Castillo directs the Sports Medicine department which includes four full-time athletic trainers, six graduate assistants and several student assistants. The staff serves student-athletes around-the-clock at numerous facilities on campus.

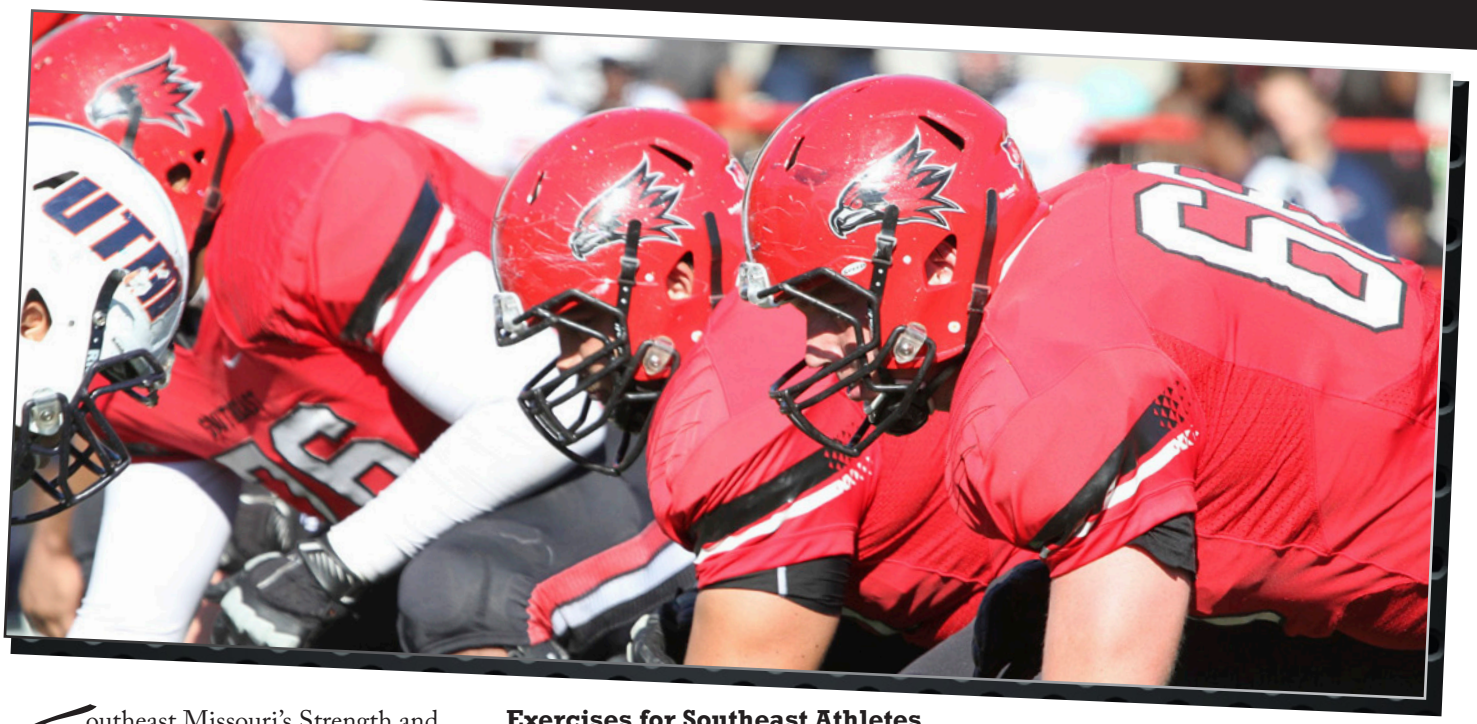

The athletic trainers begin treatments and rehabilitation starting as early as 6 a.m., and are available until the last student-athlete is through. There are currently four athletic training facilities on campus. The staff treats out of the Rosengarten Athletic Complex, where the primary training room is located. There are two other satellite athletic training rooms, including one at Houck Field House and one at the Show Me Center.

The Southeast athletic training rooms are equipped with stationary bikes, hand weights, therapeutic modalities and the latest physical therapy equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athlete the best care, but also to aid in returning to competition as quickly as possible.

Southeast Athletic Training has strong working relationships with local physicians and two hospitals in Cape Girardeau. It is from these hospitals that the Athletic Training department is assisted by four orthopedic physicians.

The Southeast Athletic Training program prides and commits itself to providing the best comprehensive, personalized and efficient healthcare to its student-athletes. Delivery of healthcare focuses on the prevention and management of athletic-related injuries or illnesses, while adhering to the National Athletic Trainers' Board of Certification Standards of Professional Practice. Our high quality of athletic healthcare is provided in combination with the education of athletic training students.

Southeast Missouri's Strength and Conditioning program is committed to developing the total student-athlete through their experiences within a competitive training environment.

This will be accomplished by focusing on reducing the risk of injury and maximizing athletic potential through individual evaluation and program design.

Training Principles for Southeast Athletes:

1. Reduce the risk of injuries
- If a student-athlete is injured, he/she will not be able to compete at practice or games.

2. Ensure the athletes are optimally prepared to compete
- It is our responsibility to best manage all stressors that are placed on the student-athletes body in order to achieve the best results on the playing field.

3. Maximize athletic ability
- We challenge each athlete, both physically and mentally, in order to achieve optimal results.

Exercises for Southeast Athletes are based on the following Principles:

1. Ground Based Movements
   - Athletes compete with their feet on the ground, and therefore, should train that way. The ability to produce force against the ground determines how fast athletes can run and how high they can jump.

2. Three-Dimensional Movements
   - Athletes must be able to stabalize themselves in all planes of movement. A fancy way of saying we use free weights (barbells/ dumbbells vs. machines).

3. Multi-Joint Movements
   - Very rarely in sport do athletes isolate one single joint at a time. Athletes can train more muscle mass at the same time.

The Southeast Missouri Strength and Conditioning program is under the direction of Ryan Johnson.

Redhawk student-athletes use various training facilities located inside the Student Recreation Center South.

The Redhawk Success Center offers Southeast Missouri student-athletes a place to study and develop as students and campus leaders.

It is located in the Student Recreation Center, just south of Houck Stadium. The Redhawk Success Center offers a computer lab with 18 work terminals, study areas and rooms for group meetings.

The area is under the guidance of Director of Academic Services Sharon Burgard, Assistant Courtney Lawson and Graduate Assistants Emily Obergoenner and Caitlin Bamberger.

The beautiful facility has enhanced the outstanding work in the classroom already enjoyed by Southeast student-athletes. Last year, the Redhawks combined for a 3.12 cumulative grade point average in the fall and spring semesters. Over 60 percent of all student-athletes recorded a 3.0 or higher GPA. Thirteen of Southeast's 15 intercollegiate athletic teams recorded a team GPA over 3.0. The gymnastics team posted the best overall mark with a 3.85. In all, 16 student-athletes achieved a perfect 4.0 GPA.

Tutors are available for all student-athletes as needed. In addition, both attendance and academic progress is monitored through regular checks with faculty.

A special course is required for all first time student-athletes at Southeast. The course, which offers three credit hours, is part of a comprehensive program developed to address study skills and life skills topics, and thus, enhance retention and academic success for student-athletes.

Entering student-athletes are evaluated for academic preparedness and assigned to appropriate categories. Student-athletes can also receive individualized academic programs which include meeting with a mentor bi-weekly to discuss academic progress.

The Success Center staff works to get athletes involved in campus and community projects, as well. This is done to provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success. Through the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, the Success Center gives student-athletes personal and professional skills in order to facilitate successful and productive futures.

2012-13 Notables

- Southeast Missouri finished third in the OVC Commissioner's Cup for the 2012-13 school year. The third-place finish was the Redhawks highest in school history. Southeast accumulated a total of 104.25 points in the overall voting.

- Southeast student-athletes combined for a 3.12 cumulative grade point average in the fall and spring semesters. A total of 192 student-athletes recorded a 3.0 or higher GPA, accounting for 60 percent of all student-athletes. Sixteen Redhawks earned a perfect 4.0 GPA in 2012-13.

- In all, 63 student-athletes received their degrees, including 15 in the fall and 48 in the spring.

- The Redhawks won four academic team awards and had five CoSIDA/Capital One Academic All-District selections in 2012-13. The gymnastics team was second in the nation with a 3.73 GPA in the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches/Women; the women's cross country team earned United States Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association All-Academic honors after ranking fifth in the nation with a 3.72 GPA; the men's cross country team ranked 11th in the nation with a 3.48 GPA to earn USTFCCCA All-Academic honors; and the women's soccer team won a National Soccer Coaches Association of America team academic award after ranking 13th in the nation with a 3.55 GPA.

- Southeast's football, women's soccer and women's tennis teams won the OVC Team Sportsmanship Award. Southeast's three sportsmanship awards tied for most in the conference in 2012-13.

- Southeast's women's gymnastics team earned an NCAA Public Recognition Award for academic performance. The gymnastics team posted a perfect 1,000 score and won the award for the third-straight year. Eight other Redhawk teams, including volleyball, men's cross country, women's cross country, women's tennis, women's outdoor track, women's indoor track, women's soccer and baseball also exceeded the national average in multi-year APR (974).

- Thirteen of Southeast's 15 teams achieved a cumulative grade point average over 3.0, including all 10 women's programs.

Student-athletes and coaches at Southeast Missouri are dedicated to giving back to the community that so generously supports them.

Redhawk football student-athletes have opportunities to participate in a variety of community service activities each year. Community involvement helps provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success.

We are proud of the level of commitment shown by our student-athletes and always encourage them to participate in community service projects here at Southeast.

Southeast hosted its Eighth Annual T.E.A.M (Together Everyone Achieves More) Golf Tournament in 2013.

Thirty-five teams took the links at Kimbeland Country Club in nearby Jackson.

The 18-hole four-person scramble serves as the football team's main fundraiser each year. Cost is $500 per team and individual entry fees are $125 per person. Prices include greens fees, cart, lunch, beverages and mulligans. Plenty of sponsorship packages are also available.

All proceeds go to the Redhawk football program to help with operating costs and other expenditures.

Southeast Missouri held a series of statewide camps during the summer of 2013.

The Redhawks hosted a prospect day camp at Gateway Tech High School in St. Louis and an additional prospect camp at Houck Stadium. Those camps were open to prep athletes grades 9-12.

In addition to the prospect camps, Southeast held a three-day kids camp for grades 3-8. The kids camp featured instruction from Redhawk coaches on fundamentals for each position and non-contact competitive skill instruction.

For more information on Southeast's football camps, visit GoSoutheast.com.

The Southeast Missouri Department of Athletics entered into a five-year agreement with Nike on Oct. 6, 2010 -- the leading brand in collegiate athletics -- to be the official uniform, apparel and footwear provider for the Redhawks 15 sport programs.

Included in the deal are new home and away uniforms. The Redhawks wear the same model uniforms worn by Ohio State, Florida, Missouri and other Bowl Championship (BCS) Nike programs. Southeast donned its new uniforms for the first time in 2010.

The Beaverton, Ore. based company provides uniforms, practice and training gear, headwear and footwear for all Redhawk sports. This agreement provides a mid-six figure savings for the Southeast Department of Athletics over five academic years. LIDS Team Sports administers the agreement.

"LIDS Team Sports is thrilled to have the opportunity to share its vision of quality, competitive pricing and unmatched customer service to Southeast Missouri State University through this agreement," said Paul Brunelle, Director of LIDS Team Sports Impact U. "We value this relationship and are honored to be partnered with the Redhawks."

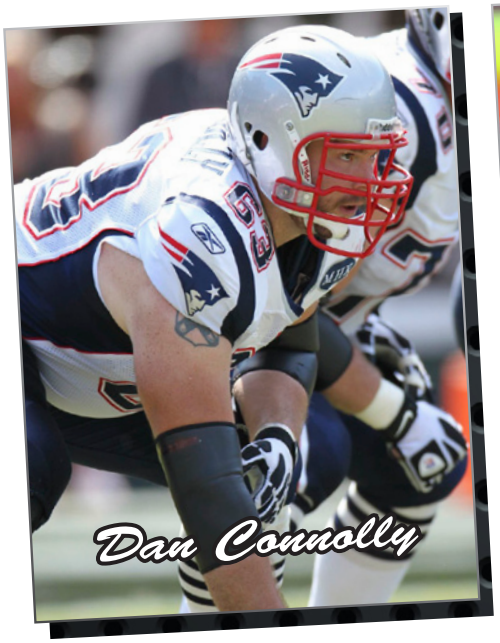

NIKE, Inc., based near Beaverton, Ore., is the world's leading designer, marketer and distributor of authentic athletic footwear, apparel, equipment and accessories for a wide variety of sports and fitness activities. Since 1999, Nike has owned the top spot in the Collegiate Licensing Company's (CLC) collegiate apparel and royalties rankings.

The high-quality performance product provided by Nike gives Redhawk teams a competitive advantage.

Former Redhawks Dan Connolly and Edgar Jones are currently on active National Football League rosters.

Connolly is with the New England Patriots and Jones is with the Kansas City Chiefs. Eugene Amano, who played nine seasons with the Tennessee Titans, is now an unrestricted free agent.

On Feb. 5, 2012, Connolly became the first Southeast player to play in a Super Bowl when he suited up for Super Bowl XLVI against the New York Giants.

Prior to that Super Bowl, Connolly and Jones met in the AFC Championship Game. Jones, who began the season with the Washington Redskins, was a member of the Baltimore Ravens at the time. Jones was initially signed by the Ravens as an undrafted free agent in 2007 and released on Oct. 22, 2010, before returning to Baltimore.

Former Southeast assistant coach Jon Gruden rose to the top of professional football in 2003 when he guided the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a Super Bowl title. Gruden was also head coach of the Oakland Raiders and is now an ESPN analyst who serves as a color commentator for Monday Night Football. Gruden coached at Southeast Missouri in 1988.

Marty Mornhinweg, another Southeast assistant, is the offensive coordinator for the New York Jets. Mornhinweg has been in the NFL for 19 years. Prior to New York, he was the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles and head coach for the Detroit Lions in 2001-02. Mornhinweg also served in different coaching capacities with the Green Bay (1995-96) Packers and San Francisco 49ers (1997-2000). Five quarterbacks, including Michael Vick, Donovan McNabb, Brett Favre, Steve Young and Jeff Garcia have earned Pro Bowl honors under Mornhinweg.

Dr. Kenneth W. Dobbins became the seventeenth president of Southeast Missouri State University on July 1, 1999 after serving as the University's Vice President of Finance and Administration from 1991 to 1993, and Executive Vice President from 1993 until his appointment as president. He previously held several positions in higher education administration at Kent State University in Ohio.

During his tenure at Southeast, academic programs have been enhanced including the establishment of the College of Science, Technology, and Agriculture and the Earl and Margie Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts which opened in Fall 2007 on the new River Campus. A comprehensive review of all academic and non-academic programs has been accomplished to maintain quality and minimize student fee increases in the face of significant state appropriation reductions. Southeast continues to be recognized nationally for many of its outstanding accredited academic programs. For the ninth year in a row, Princeton Review recognized the Master of Business Administration program on its list of "Best Business Schools." GetEducated.com listed Southeast #1 on the list of "Top 10 Ranked Best Values Online MBAs-AACSB-Accredited"; Southeast is recognized in the top tier of the Midwest best regional universities in U.S. News Best Colleges for 2013; and Southeast was again named among the "Best in the Midwest" by Princeton Review. Additionally, StateUniversity.com ranked Southeast the safest public college campus in Missouri, Military-friendlyschools.com lists Southeast among the top schools that embrace veterans as students, and recent freshmen survey data indicate that new students applied only to Southeast at a rate three times the national average.

Enrollment has increased significantly since a 20-year-low in 1994 when some 7,900 students attended Southeast. In Fall 2005, enrollment topped 10,000 for the first time, and stood at more than 11,700 in 2012. Additionally, record enrollments in higher education have occurred in the University's 25-county service region during his tenure due to the establishment of new regional campuses in Sikeston and Kennett and a higher education center at Perryville serving place-bound students in and near those rural communities.

During Dr. Dobbins' presidency, more than $300 million in capital construction and building improvement projects have enhanced the University. The Seabaugh Polytechnic Building and the $58 million River Campus were constructed. Additionally, The Douglas C. Greene Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship to promote entrepreneurship and enhance the region's economy opened on the campus in 2005; Southeast dedicated its new, state-of-the-art David M. Barton Agriculture Research Center in 2009; two new 300-bed residence halls were constructed in 2002 and 2009; and the University currently is in the midst of more than $90 million in capital renovation for maintenance and repair projects including the renovation of the historic 107-year-old Academic Hall, the remodeling and upgrades to the Magill and Rhodes sciences complex, a new residence hall on the north end of campus, and a new classroom/residence hall building at the River Campus.

Dr. Dobbins has served a two-year term as president of the Missouri Council on Public Higher Education (COPHE), the organization for presidents and chancellors of Missouri's public colleges and universities, and is the senior member of the organization. In 2007, he was selected to serve a three-year term on the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU) Board of Directors, an organization which represents over 420 U.S. public college and university members and more than 3.7 million students or 56 percent of the enrollment at all public four-year institutions. He was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the organization in 2008, chaired the organization in 2010-2011, and currently serves on the executive committee as past chair of the AASCU Board. Also, for the past nine years, he has served as one of four faculty members for the week-long AASCU New Presidents' Academy, and currently chairs the Finance Committee of the American Academic Leadership Institute. He previously served three years as president of the Ohio Valley Conference and is currently a member of the Conference finance subcommittee. In addition, he is a vice president of the executive board of the Greater St. Louis Council, Boy Scouts of America, and was elected by local council associates to serve on the National Council, Boy Scouts of America. In 2010, he was awarded the Silver Beaver Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a Boy Scout volunteer by a council.

He earned his B.S. degree in accounting from the University of Akron (Ohio) in 1971 and served as a commissioned officer and civilian executive in the U.S. Air Force for almost 10 years. He received the M.B.A. degree in 1979 from Old

President Dr. Kenneth W. Dobbins

Dominion University (Virginia), and the Ph.D. in higher education administration in 1987 from Kent State, where in 2011, he was awarded the Alumni Leadership Award for the College of Education, Health and Human Services Annual Hall of Fame Awards He is also a Certified Public Accountant in Ohio.

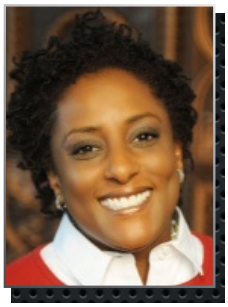

Dr. Dobbins and his wife, Jeanine Larson Dobbins, Founder and Director Emeritus of the Missouri Statewide Early Literacy Intervention Program based at Southeast, have a son, Paul, and a daughter-in-law, Stacey, who are both Southeast graduates, and two grandsons, Lincoln Kenneth and Brady Larson Dobbins.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

The Southeast Missouri State University Department of Athletics is on the rise under the leadership of Mark Alnutt.

Alnutt is in his second year at Southeast after officially taking over as Director of Athletics on April 19, 2012.

When Alnutt speaks, you will often hear him say, "academic excellence," "social development," "competitive success," and the "I-55 Corridor." The first three are the core values of Southeast's mission, and the latter is the stretch between St. Louis and Memphis which is so important from a branding, recruiting and fundraising standpoint. Alnutt successfully hit all of those areas among other things over the course of a productive 2012-13 campaign.

Academically, Southeast student-athletes combined for a 3.12 cumulative grade point average in the fall and spring semesters. A total of 192 individuals recorded a 3.0 or higher GPA, accounting for 60 percent of all student-athletes. Thirteen of the Redhawks 15 teams achieved a cumulative grade point average over 3.0, including all 10 women's programs.

In line with academics, Alnutt constantly encourages Southeast coaches and student-athletes to be visible in the community. Student-athletes logged over 1,000 hours of community service in such projects like Pink Up Cape, Feed My Starving Children, Project Homeless Connect and Cape Girardeau Adopt-A-Street last year.

Competition wise, the Redhawks placed third in the Ohio Valley Conference Commissioner's Cup, earning their highest finish in the history of the award. The women's track & field team captured the OVC Indoor Championship and the volleyball team won the OVC West Division. Southeast's men's basketball team finished second in the OVC West Division and turned in its first winning season since 2004-05, as well.

Alnutt was the driving force behind securing the first-ever NCAA football game at the new Busch Stadium in St. Louis. Longstanding regional-rivals Southeast Missouri and Southern Illinois will meet in that matchup on Sept. 21, 2013.

Total giving to athletics also increased by more than 12 percent under Alnutt. As a result, the department raised over $350,000 through various fundraising initiatives.

Alnutt launched the inaugural Redhawks Road Trip which served as a series of outreach events to give fans, alumni, supporters and community members the opportunity to meet coaches, student-athletes and administration from Southeast Athletics. Stops were made at a number of different locations along the "I-55 Corridor" from May to June.

Prior to accepting his first job as Director of Athletics, Alnutt served as the Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Missouri.

Alnutt was the administrative liaison for football; supervised track and field, cross country, gymnastics and golf; spearheaded the department's project management team; served as the primary point person for the Athletic Department, overseeing all aspects of facility project master planning, development, management and implementation; and was involved with external department operations, including development, game operations, marketing, media relations, Mizzou Sports Properties and ticket operations.

Alnutt also managed postseason travel arrangements for each of the University of Missouri's 20 intercollegiate sport programs. He oversaw Missouri's Nike contract, the Big Wheels and Flying Tiger programs and the department's relationship with Old Hawthorne Golf Club. In 2009, he managed a $5 million video board project through the University of Missouri Sports Complex with the centerpiece being a new board at Faurot Field. He also oversaw the design and construction of the new Golden Girls/Gymnastics practice facililty in the fall of 2011. Alnutt was actively involved in the solicitation and stewardship efforts of capital gift giving, as well.

Alnutt spent six years at the University of Missouri as director of football operations, adding an assistant athletic director title prior to the 2005-2006 season. In that role, his duties included coordinating the team's travel plans, overseeing the football budget, handling compliance issues, scheduling of facilities, assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day operations of the football program.

He coordinated public relations and community service events for football, and oversaw all organizational aspects for the University of Missouri's trips to the 2003 and 2005 Independence Bowl games played in Shreveport, La. He also represented the football program as part of the design team that planned the $16 million expansion and renovation project which turned the Tom Taylor Building into the Missouri Athletics Training Complex.

Alnutt was a three-year letterman for the University of Missouri as a linebacker and tight end from 1993-1995 and was voted the team's champion of the year as a senior. He earned a degree in sociology in 1995 and went to work for Major Brands as a senior salesman in Kansas City from February 1996 to August 1997. He returned to the University of Missouri to pursue a master's degree in public administration with an emphasis on sports psychology. He joined the Missouri football staff in 1998 as an administrative/video graduate assistant. Alnutt completed his master's degree in May 2000 and took over as director of football operations that August.

A native of Kansas City, Alnutt served as president of the board of directors for Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Boone County and was selected to participate in the 2002-2003 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males. In June 2005, he was recognized by Columbia Business Times as one of the Columbia's 40-Under-40 business leaders for his work in the community.

He has participated in the Division I-A Athletic Director's Institute, attended the NACDA Mentoring Institute and chaired the NCAA Women's Gymnastics committee. In 2010, he was the recipient of an Outstanding Chancellor's Staff recognition and the Barbara S. Uehling Award for Administrative Excellence at the University of Missouri.

More recently, Alnutt was selected to serve a four-year term on the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee, effective Sept. 1, 2013.

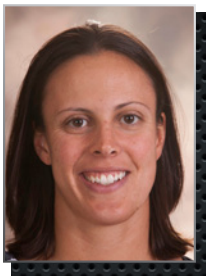

The NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee (MOIC) was formed by the Association in January 1990 to review issues related to the interests of ethnic minorities and women. These issues focus on the education and welfare of minority student-athletes, as well as the enhancement of opportunities for ethnic minorities and women in coaching, athletics, administration, officiating and the NCAA governance structure.

Alnutt and his wife, the former Kate Hankins, are the parents of four children, Jaren, Kinleigh, Mason and Aidan.

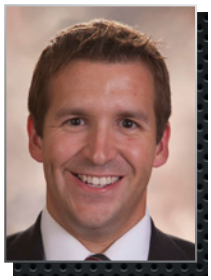

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

The mission of Southeast Missouri State University Department of Athletics is to provide a first class, student-athlete centered collegiate experience emphasizing the core values of academic excellence, social development, and competitive success. The Department of Athletics strives to compete at the highest possible level in the Ohio Valley Conference and other conference affiliations. The principles of integrity, student welfare, sportsmanship, ethical conduct, rules compliance, equity and diversity, and the prudent management of resources are the foundation on which we operate.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI REDHAWKS

Mission Statement

SEASON PREVIEW

IN THIS SECTION:
OFFENSIVE OUTLOOK • DEFENSIVE OUTLOOK • ROSTERS
GEOGRAPHICAL BREAKDOWN

Season Outlook

Southeast Missouri enters the 2013 season with 43 freshmen in Tony Samuel's eighth year as head coach.

Southeast, which brings back six starters on offense and three on defense, was picked eighth in the 2013 Ohio Valley Conference Preseason Poll. The Redhawks will look to improve on back-to-back 3-8 seasons which followed the program's first-ever OVC title and NCAA Playoff appearance in 2010.

Southeast kicks off the season at Southeastern Louisiana (Aug. 29). The Redhawks 12-game schedule also features a trip to Southeastern Conference member Mississippi (Sept. 7) and a matchup with longstanding regional-rival Southern Illinois at Busch Stadium in St. Louis. Southeast and SIU will play the first NCAA football game at the new Busch Stadium on Sept. 21.

Here is a breakdown of this year's team:

Quarterback

An interesting battle will ensue at quarterback between Kyle Snyder, Scott Lathrop and Blake Jackson.

Snyder returned with the team in the spring after missing the entire 2012 season with a knee injury.

Lathrop and Jackson took all the snaps as freshmen a year ago.

A native of Warrenton, Mo., Lathrop is Southeast's only returning All-OVC performer. He was named the league's Freshman of the Year, becoming the Redhawks first player to garner the honor in the nine-year history of the award. Lathrop started all 11 games after redshirting as a walk-on the year before. He finished the season with 1,824 yards of total offense, ranking eighth among OVC leaders in that category. He completed 91-of-158 passes for 1,025 yards and seven touchdowns, and ran the ball 211 times for 824 yards and seven TDs.

Ron Coleman

Jackson saw action in eight games and ranked fifth on the team in rushing with 119 yards on 30 carries.

Running Back

Southeast led the OVC and ranked among the top 10 teams in the Football Championship Subdivision each of the last three seasons.

The Redhawks averaged 262.4 yards per game as the nation's No. 8 rushing team in 2012.

Southeast will have a big hole to fill in the backfield after losing Levi Terrell. Terrell led the Redhawks and ranked third in the OVC in rushing with 1,349 yards and six touchdowns last season.

Lennies McFerren is at the top of the depth chart at tailback heading into this year's preseason camp.

McFerren, who appeared in just three games last season, looks for his role to take a jump after a productive spring.

Lewis Washington and DeMichael Jackson will challenge.

Although both played in a minimum of eight games, neither Washington or Jackson had more than seven carries a year ago.

Receivers

The receivers are one of the more experienced parts of the offense this season.

Southeast returns four of its top receivers in D.J. Foster, Spencer Davis, Paul McRoberts and Matt Bell.

Foster led the Redhawks in receiving each of the last two years. He made 37 catches for 498 yards and five touchdowns, averaging 13.5 yards per reception in 2012.

Davis followed with 20 receptions for 216 yards and one TD.

McRoberts emerged as one of the team's top targets over the course of last season. He added 11 catches for 138 yards and two touchdowns in nine games as a freshman. McRoberts also made an acrobatic 22-yard reception for his first career touchdown late in the fourth quarter at Southern Illinois (Sept. 15).

Bell was fifth on the team with seven grabs for 80 yards.

Walk-ons Mike Cyliax and Garett Schaefer, along with Peter Lloyd, increase the depth at receiver.

Tight End

Fifth-year senior Tyler French makes his return after being sidelined all of last season.

French, who was granted a medical redshirt in 2012, is in his third year with the Redhawks. He saw action in every game and made six starts during the 2011 campaign.

Fellow senior Art Mueller participated in every game last season.

Offensive Guard

Southeast will have a fresh look at the guard spots after losing starters Colt McCauley and Pete Niggemann. McCauley started all 11 games on the left side, while Niggemann made 10 starts at right guard.

Redshirt-freshman Traven Mable is expected to replace Niggemann. Mable played in all 11 games and made one start last season.

Mid-year transfer Kyle Finney is the frontrunner at left guard. Finney went through spring drills after joining the Redhawks from Grossmont College.

Walk-ons Colby Weist, Nick Coffman and Christian Guerrero will be in the mix, as well.

Offensive Tackle

35 Ryan McCrum (6-1, 219, R-Fr.)

* Returning Starter

Schmidt started all 11 games there last season and has played in every contest each of the past two years.

Conrad Schmid and William Jelks are behind Schmidt.

Schmid participated in six games, while Jelks played in two contests as reserves in 2012.

Southeast lost four-year starter Evan Conrad at right tackle.

Donnie Bess and Garret Baker are the heavy favorites on the right side.

Bess played in 10 games as a reserve and Baker redshirted last season.

Center

Nearby Sikeston native Corey Porter again anchors the offensive line at center.

Porter played in six games as a true freshman before earning the starting job last season.

Walk-on Colby Weist and newcomer Jake McCandless could also see action.

Fullback

Southeast has one of the best fullbacks in the OVC with Ron Coleman.

Coleman, who stands at 5-11, 267, ranked fourth on the team in rushing with 158 yards on 33 carries in seven starts last season. He averaged nearly five (4.8) yards per rush and scored two touchdowns.

True freshmen Mark Cushing and Luke Dougherty also look to contribute.

Cushing was a Second-Team All-Conference and All-State selection at Holt High School in Wentzville, Mo. He ran for 355 yards and two touchdowns on 35 carries as a senior.

Meanwhile, Dougherty comes to Southeast from Glenwood High School in Phenix City, Ala.

Nose Tackle

Sophomore Jon Slania takes over as Southeast's starting nose tackle this season.

Spencer Davis

Slania played in every game on the defensive line as a true freshman, posting 13 tackles.

Backing up Slania is Zach Clouse, who went through spring drills after transferring to Southeast from Grossmont College.

Clouse registered 26 tackles and five sacks in 2012. Prior to that, he was an All-State selection at Volcano Vista High School.

Defensive Tackle

Freshman Austin Black and newcomer Lucas Melo will compete for the starting job at defensive tackle.

Black redshirted after missing the entire 2012 season with a leg injury.

Melo came to Southeast from LA Pierce College, where he was a First-Team All-Conference pick and team captain. Melo had 47 solo tackles, 9.5 sacks, 13 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and blocked two field goals during his final season at Pierce College.

Defensive End

Southeast lost both of its starting defensive ends which combined for 71 tackles and three sacks last season.

Selwyn Carrol, Dustin Hubler, Travis Sanders and Lawrence Hills fill out the rest of the Redhawks re-vamped defensive line.

Carrol and Hubler are the top candidates on the left side, while Sanders and Hills battle at right end.

Carrol redshirted as a true freshman and Hubler did not see game action during his first year as a walk-on last season.

Meanwhile, Sanders and Hills saw significant playing time as true freshmen.

Sanders, one of three true freshmen to play in every game in 2012, finished with 11 tackles and four solo stops.

Hills added three tackles in 10 contests.

Linebackers

Southeast will have to replace 2012 OVC Defensive Player of the Year and First-Team All-Conference selection Blake Peiffer.

Peiffer, also an All-American and finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, ended his career with a team-high 117 tackles, eight tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and a pass breakup last season. Peiffer was the Redhawks leading tackler the last two seasons and broke the school's single-season record with 151 tackles in 2011.

The only starter returning to Southeast's front seven is Daniel Siehndel.

Siehndel ranked fifth on the team with 51 tackles. He also recorded three tackles for loss and recovered a fumble.

Andy McNeel is listed as Siehndel's backup on the strong side.

McNeel played in all 11 games, posting six tackles and two solo stops as a redshirt-freshman last season.

Junior George Neuhaus is projected to start at middle linebacker.

Neuhaus saw action in every game a year ago. He turned in 16 tackles and ranked second on the team with two interceptions. Neuhaus was one of five Redhawks with at least two picks on the season. Additionally, he notched a season-high four tackles, recovered a fumble and had an interception in his first career start at Central Michigan (Aug. 30).

David Smart and walk-on Roper Garrett add depth to the middle linebacker spot.

Smart appeared in eight contests last season, while Garrett redshirted.

Matt Starks, Terrance Hill and Wisler Ymonice will also contribute at linebacker.

Starks moves to linebacker from safety and is expected to be the Redhawks other starter.

Daniel Siehndel

Starks played in 10 games in 2012 and is coming off a strong spring campaign.

Hill and Ymonice both redshirted.

A linebacker has led Southeast in tackles every year since 2006.

Safeties

The Redhawks have led the OVC in pass defense each of the last two seasons. Southeast allowed 244.8 yards per game through the air in 2012.

Newcomer Ron Davis will make his debut at strong safety.

Davis is a mid-year transfer out of Cerritos College. He tallied 25 tackles, one tackle for loss and two pass breakups en route to All-South Coast Conference honors last year. Davis ranked fourth among all defensive backs with 30 tackles, three pass breakups and one fumble recovery as a junior.

Sam Poole is behind Davis. Poole made seven tackles in 11 games last season, registering a season-high three stops at Eastern Illinois (Nov. 10).

Senior Ben Kargbo is expected to start at free safety.

Kargbo participated in 11 games, finishing the 2012 season with 22 tackles and one fumble recovery. He collected a career-high 11 tackles at Jacksonville State (Sept. 29).

Josh Freeman will challenge Kargbo for the position.

Freeman had 18 tackles in 11 games and one start in the secondary a year ago. He finished with a season-high four tackles at Central Michigan (Aug. 30) and vs. Mars Hill College (Sept. 8).

Southeast tied for third in the OVC with 13 interceptions last season.

Cornerbacks

Kenny Wilhite, who coached Southeast's defensive backs from 2006-2010, returns to the same position on the Redhawks coaching staff.

Wilhite spent the last two seasons as the secondary coach at Southland Conference member Central Arkansas.

Prior to UCA, Wilhite helped lead Southeast to its first-ever OVC title and NCAA Playoff berth in 2010.

Wilhite will have both of the Redhawks starting cornerbacks to work with in Reggie Jennings and Tim Hamm-Bey.

Jennings started all 11 games, including nine at left cornerback last season. He had 39 tackles and tied for fourth on the team with three tackles for a loss of eight yards. Jennings returned two interceptions for 38 yards, tying for second on the team and seventh in the OVC in picks.

Hamm-Bey made five of his seven starts at right cornerback, where he finished with 41 tackles and a team-high four pass breakups in 2012. His 31 solo stops were fourth-most on the team.

Cantrell Andrews and David Coley will also be in the rotation at cornerback.

Andrews played in eight games and started three. He added 19 tackles and ranked third on the team with three pass breakups a year ago. Andrews forced a team-high two fumbles, as well.

Coley posted 17 tackles in 11 games and one start as a true freshman. He led the Redhawks with two fumble recoveries and collected 12 solo stops.

Defensively, Southeast ranked third in the OVC in turnover margin (+7) during the 2012 campaign.

Kicking/Punting

Southeast's lone returning specialist, Joe Vucic will handle both the kicking and punting duties.

Vucic sets to begin his fourth year as the Redhawks starting punter. One of the top punters to watch in the OVC this season, Vucic was named to the College Football Performance Awards Punter Award Watch List. He ranked third in the league and 20th in the nation with 41.9 yards per punt a year ago. That punting average rated 10th on the Redhawks all-time single-season list. Vucic, who ranked among the top three punters in the OVC the last two seasons, begins the 2013 campaign at seventh all-time in career punting yards at Southeast.

Freshmen Ryan McCrum and Alex Knight will help.

McCrum redshirted last season, while Knight recently joined the team from St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Vucic, McCrum and Knight cover the loss of Drew Geldbach, Southeast's top scorer in 2012.

Returns

The Redhawks received more recognition on special teams this preseason when return man Spencer Davis earned a spot on the College Football Performance Awards All-Purpose Performer of the Year Watch List.

Davis ran back a team-high 33 kickoffs for 685 yards and averaged 20.8 per return last year. He ranked fifth in the OVC in kick return average. Davis also returned seven punts for 49 yards. He needs 494 yards to break Southeast's all-time career record in kick return yardage.

Ben Kargbo will join Davis on returns.

Kargbo was the Redhawks second-leading return threat with 108 yards on six kicks in 2012. He averaged 18 yards per return. Kargbo had a season-long 28-yard kick return against Mars Hill College (Sept. 8).

COACHING STAFF

IN THIS SECTION:
HEAD COACH TONY SAMUEL • REDHAWK COACHES

Head Coach Tony Samuel

The 2013 campaign marks the eighth year at Southeast Missouri for head coach Tony Samuel.

Southeast has become one of the more dominant rushing teams in the Ohio Valley Conference and Football Championship Subdivision in recent years with Samuel at the helm.

The Redhawks led the OVC and ranked among the top-10 in the FCS in that category each of the last three seasons. Southeast averaged 262.4 yards per game as the nation's No. 8 rushing team in 2012.

Southeast also had the OVC Defensive Player of the Year (Blake Peiffer) and OVC Freshman of the Year (Scott Lathrop) last season. It was the first time the Redhawks garnered those awards in the same year under Samuel. Southeast also secured its second OVC Team Sportsmanship Award.

This fall, Samuel will coach the first NCAA football game at Busch Stadium when his Redhawks take the field against longstanding rival Southern Illinois on Sept. 21.

In 2010, Samuel guided Southeast to its best NCAA Division I season.

Southeast flipped a 2-9 record from 2009 to a 9-3 mark in 2010 after being picked to finish eighth in the OVC Preseason Poll. The Redhawks also finished 7-1 in OVC play en route to their first-ever conference title and NCAA Playoff appearance in the 107-year history of their football program.

Samuel, who won the Sports Network Eddie Robinson, Fritz Pollard, Roy Kidd OVC and American Football Coaches Association Region 3 Coach of the Year awards, orchestrated one of the most remarkable turnarounds in Football Championship Subdivision history.

The Redhawks were a Top-25 team for the last nine weeks of the season and achieved their highest national ranking when they were voted seventh in the Nov. 8 Sports Network Poll.

As Samuel will attest, Southeast's magical journey into the national spotlight kicked into high gear when the Redhawks overcame an 18-point third-quarter deficit to stun then-No. 5 Southern Illinois on the road. It was a victory that sent shock waves through the FCS.

"It was a huge win for our program and definitely the biggest since I've been at Southeast," said Samuel. "The most gratifying thing was seeing the looks on our players' faces in the locker room after that game. From that point on, I knew our season was going to be something special."

Samuel coached four All-Americans (Henry Harris, Frank Knights, Tylor Brock, Sean Middleton), 10 All-Conference selections (Harris, Knights, Middleton, Brock, Matt Scheible, Bryan Curry, Evan Conrad, J.J. Sanchez, Justin Woodlief, Joshua Jackson), one Academic All-American (Sanchez), the OVC Offensive Player of the Year (Harris) and FCS Rimington Award-Winner (Middleton) during the historic 2010 campaign.

In addition, the Redhawks ranked among the top-five teams in the nation in sacks allowed (1st, 0.50/game), least interceptions thrown (t1st, 3), rushing offense (3rd, 265.1 ypg), fourth-down efficiency (3rd, 72.2 pct.), interceptions (4th, 20), third-down efficiency (5th, 47.3 pct.) and turnover margin (5th, 1.08).

Samuel's dazzling success certainly didn't go un-noticed.

A school record average of 8,342 fans turned out to watch Southeast at home in 2010, an improvement from 5,835 in 2009. That included two crowds over the Houck Stadium capacity of 10,000, with a school record home crowd of 11,126 vs. UT Martin.

Increased football attendance generated a positive economic effect as local hotels and restaurants filled up with fans.

The resurgence also gave retailers of team apparel a major boost.

More importantly, Samuel's Redhawks landed in the national media, bringing plenty of noteriety to the city of Cape Girardeau and surrounding areas.

Southeast, which was one of 15 FCS teams with nine or more wins in 2010, saw its storybook season come to an end when it fell to eventual National Champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the NCAA Playoffs.

Two months after the monumental 2010 campaign, Samuel signed a five-year contract extension to remain Southeast's head coach through Mar. 31, 2016.

Along with Samuel's new contract extension came several facility upgrades. New lighting, FieldTurf, goalposts and a state-of-the-art Daktronics video scoreboard were installed prior to the 2011 season. Renovated locker rooms, meeting rooms, coaches offices and athletic training areas at the Rosengarten Complex were also part of the renovation project.

Samuel, the ninth head coach in Southeast football history, was named to the position on Dec. 21, 2005.

In his first seven years at Southeast, Samuel coached seven All-Americans, 16 First-Team All-OVC selections, one Academic All-American, one OVC Offensive Player of the Year, one OVC Defensive Player of the Year, one OVC Freshman of the Year, five OVC All-Newcomer picks and one Rimington Award winner.

Samuel also coached Edgar Jones, who played five seasons for the Baltimore Ravens and is currently with the Kansas City Chiefs. Jones is one of three former Southeast players presently active in the NFL.

Samuel has coached at the NCAA Division I level for 31 years, working 16 seasons as an assistant coach and 15 as a head coach.

He made stops at Western Michigan, Stanford, Nebraska, New Mexico State and Purdue before taking over at Southeast.

Samuel spent the bulk of his coaching career on the Great Plains of the Midwestern United States.

A graduate of the University of Nebraska, Samuel both played and coached football at his alma mater.

He coached the linebacker and rush end positions under legendary head coach Tom Osborne for 11 seasons (1986-96). Samuel mentored six First-Team All-Americans and 12 future NFL players. Nebraska won two National Championships (1994, 1995), captured seven Big Eight/Big 12 Conference titles and played in 11 bowl games over that span.

As a player, Samuel was a member of Osborne's first recruiting class at Nebraska. He was a two-year starter at defensive end and played in four bowl games, including the Sugar, Fiesta, Astro Bluebonnet and Liberty Bowls. Samuel earned honorable mention All-Big Eight honors as a senior in 1977.

Samuel and four other members of his coaching staff have ties to the University of Nebraska.

Samuel went on to be the head coach at New Mexico State from 1997-2004, where he presently stands as the third-winningest coach in school history with 57 victories.

New Mexico State went 6-5 in 1999, recording its first winning season since 1992 and only its third in 32 years.

In 2002, Samuel's Aggie squad posted a 7-5 mark which represented the most wins in a season since 1967.

His teams won the Rio Grande Championship twice, and he led the Aggies to an undefeated home record in 2002. Samuel was instrumental in leading the 2003 New Mexico State squad to a No. 13 ranking in graduation rates among all NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly I-A) programs (76 percent).

Samuel then spent one year as the defensive ends coach at Purdue University (2005) before accepting the head coaching job at Southeast. In 2011, Samuel made his first trip back to Purdue with the Redhawks.

While at Purdue, Samuel coached Rob Ninkovich, the team's Most Valuable Player and Second-Team All-Big Ten defensive end. Ninkovich is now with the New England Patriots.

In all, Samuel coached 16 players who have played in the NFL during his career. Among those are four first-round draft picks, including Mike Croel (Denver Broncos, 1991), Trev Alberts (Indianapolis Colts, 1994), Grant Wistrom (St. Louis Rams, 1998) and Broderick Thomas (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 1999). Samuel has coached a total of 14 players drafted in the NFL.

Samuel received his undergraduate degree in education from Nebraska in 1981. He was elected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees in 2002.

Samuel is a native of Trinidad, West Indies, and moved to Jersey City, N.J. at the age of 10. He and his wife, Diane, have four children, Travis, Serena, Phillip and Terryn, and one grandaughter, Madalyn.

Redhawk Coaches

Tim McGuire, who spent five years as Southeast's defensive coordinator, was promoted to assistant head coach and offensive coordinator before the start of the 2011 season.

McGuire directed a Southeast offense which led the Ohio Valley Conference and ranked among the top-10 teams in the nation in rushing for the third-straight season a year ago. The Redhawks averaged 262.4 yards per game as the nation's No. 8 rushing team.

A native of Omaha, Neb., McGuire inherited an offense which finished the 2010 season ranked first in the OVC and third in the country with 265.1 yards per game.

Prior to assuming his new role, McGuire guided Southeast's defense to a banner year in 2010.

Southeast led the nation in sacks allowed (.50 per game), while topping the OVC scoring defense (21.5 ppg allowed), interceptions (20) and turnover margin (+13). The Redhawks were second in the conference in total defense (317.1 ypg allowed), pass defense (164.8 ypg allowed) and pass defense efficiency (105.0 rating). Not to mention, Southeast ranked fifth in the nation in turnover margin and 12th in turnovers gained (29).

Four Redhawks earned All-OVC honors on McGuire's defense in 2010, including first-team free safety Tylor Brock. Brock was also a Second-Team All-American after leading the OVC in interceptions that year. A year later, McGuire coached his first Southeast All-Conference selection on the offensive side of the ball in three-year starting quarterback Matt Scheible. Scheible was a second-team pick en route to becoming the first OVC quarterback to rush for 2,000 yards and throw for 4,000 in a career. He also broke Southeast's all-time caree record in total offense along the way.

McGuire was defensive coordinator at St. Norbert College in 2005 following a 12-year stint at Indiana State.

He was the Sycamores defensive coordinator from 1993-97 and head coach from 1998-2004. ISU's defensive units registered three shutouts and held opponents under 10 points on 10 occasions during McGuire's tenure. His 1994 squad ranked first in the Missouri Valley Football Conference (formerly Gateway Football Conference) and 17th nationally in total defense.

McGuire mentored seven All-Americans as head coach at ISU.

McGuire was also a head coach at Morningside College in Iowa (1981-82) and worked as an assistant at Navy, Northern Illinois, Kansas State and Nebraska-Omaha.

McGuire played offensive guard at Nebraska from 1971-74. He received a bachelor's degree in Mathematics from Nebraska and master's degree in Physical Education from Nebraska-Omaha. McGuire is a member of the American Football Coaches Association.

He and his wife, Judy, are the parents of four children, Lisa, Tim, Jr., Molly and Paul, and one grandson, Ayden.

Tim McGuire directed a Southeast offense which led the Ohio Valley Conference and ranked among the Top-10 FCS teams in rushing for the third-straight year in 2012.

Brian Mohnsen is in his third year as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Southeast.

Mohnsen, otherwise known as Coach "Moose," joined the Redhawks staff in February, 2011.

In his first year, Mohnsen coached three linebackers who ranked among the team's top-five leading tacklers. Blake Peiffer, who was named to multiple All-America teams, headlined that group as the Redhawks only First-Team All-Ohio Valley Conference honoree in 2011. Peiffer broke Southeast's all-time single-season record in tackles with 151.

Most recently, Mohnsen coached his first OVC Defensive Player of the Year when Peiffer earned the coveted honor in 2012. Peiffer became only the third Southeast player to be named OVC Defensive Player of the Year and first since 1997.

As a team, Southeast ranked second in the OVC in pass defense during Mohnsen's first two years as defensive coordinator. The Redhawks gave up 244.8 yards per game through the air last season. Southeast also finished third in the conference in turnover margin (+7) during the 2012 campaign.

A native of McCook, Neb., Mohnsen coached the linebackers (2006) and defensive line (2007-09) at the University of Buffalo before joining the Redhawks staff. He also coached the defensive line at Minnesota State-Mankato.

At Buffalo, Mohnsen helped lead the Bulls to back-to-back Mid-American Conference East Division Championships (2007 Co-Champions, 2008 Outright Champions). Buffalo made its first-ever trip to a bowl game in 2008 (International Bowl). Mohnsen coached standout defensive ends Steve Means and Trevor Scott, and linebacker Ramon Guzman during his time at Buffalo. Means was named to Phil Steele's All-Freshman First-Team, Scott was drafted by the Oakland Raiders in 2008 and Guzman signed as a free agent with the Indianapolis Colts in 2006.

Mohnsen was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Northwest Oklahoma State in 2004, where his defense ranked second nationally in total defense and pass defense, third in rushing defense and fifth in scoring defense.

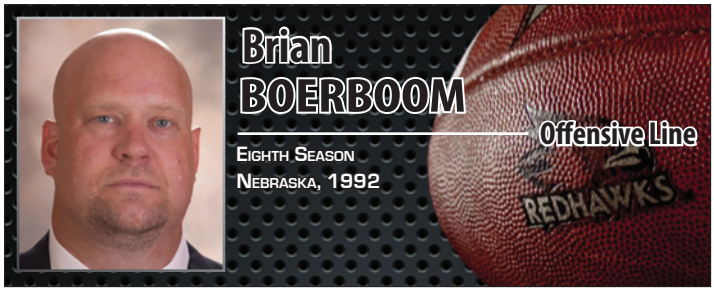

Mohnsen spent 12 years at Nebraska (1992-2003), serving as director of the Cornhuskers video scouting department.

A former letterman for the Husker football team, Mohnsen graduated from Nebraska with a degree in secondary education in 1991. During Mohnsen's collegiate career, he has been part of three National Championships (1994, 1995, 1997) and 13 Conference titles. In addition, Mohnsen was teammates with current Southeast offensive line coach Brian Boerboom and defensive backs coach Kenny Wilhite at Nebraska.

Mohnsen and his wife, Kerri, have a daughter, Madison, who is a member of the Southeast Missouri Sundancers.

Southeast Missouri ranked second in the OVC in pass defense during each of Brian Mohnsen's first two years as Defensive Coordinator. The Redhawks allowed 244 passing yards per game in 2012.

Brian Boerboom enters his eighth year as the offensive line coach at Southeast Missouri.

Boerboom's offensive line has paved the way for the Ohio Valley Conference's top rushing offense each of the last three seasons. The Redhawks averaged 262.4 rushing yards per game and ranked eighth in the nation in 2012.

In 2010, four offensive linemen earned First-Team All-OVC accolades under Boerboom. As a result, Southeast became only the second team in OVC history and first since 1956 to have four first-team offensive line selections.

Additionally, Boerboom coached two All-Americans (Frank Knights, Sean Middleton) and the Football Championship Subdivision Rimington Award-Winner (Middleton) during the Redhawks OVC Championship season. Southeast also led the nation in fewest sacks allowed, giving up just six in 12 games.

Redhawk Coaches

Originally from Colorado Springs, Colo., Boerboom joined the Southeast program from Great Bridge High School in Chesapeake, Va., where he was head coach since 2003. His teams led the district in passing yards every one of his years as a head coach.

He gained other experience as an assistant coach at Greenville College, Colorado College and several high schools in Colorado.

Boerboom has been an instructor at a number of summer camps, including N.C. State, University of Virginia, University of Nebraska, Illinois, Colorado College and F.C.A. football camp in Cuba, Mo.

Boerboom played college football at Nebraska, where he was a three-year letterman and two-year starter at offensive tackle. He was an All-Big Eight selection in 1991 and played in both the Fiesta Bowl and Orange Bowl under Tom Osborne.

In 1992, Boerboom became a member of the Cincinnati Bengals practice squad with whom he practiced, scrimmaged and played in preseason games. He also played for the Connecticut Coyotes of the Arena Football League in 1995.

Boerboom earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Nebraska in 1992 and master's degree in physical education from Trinity College in 2002.

He and his wife, Stacy, are raising six children, Zach, Jake, Sarah, Jared, Mary and Nathan.

Brian Boerboom had four offensive linemen earn First-Team All-OVC honors in 2010. Southeast became only the second team in league history to have four first-team offensive line selections in a season.

The 2013 season marks Tyler Hennes' third as an assistant coach at Southeast. Hennes coaches the quarterbacks and is the Redhawks recruiting coordinator.

Hennes, who hails from Mulvane, Kan., mentored Scott Lathrop, who became the first Southeast player to be named Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year in 2012. Lathrop threw for 1,025 yards and seven touchdowns and ran for 824 yards and seven TDs as a redshirt-freshman.

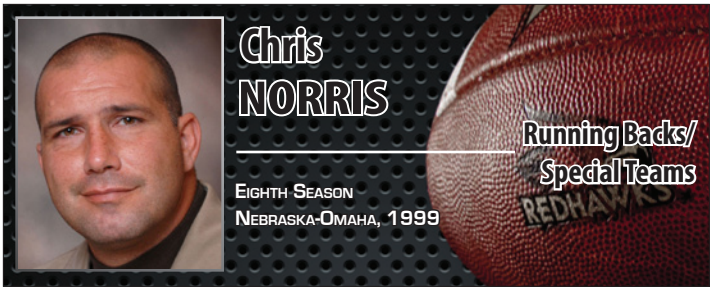

Prior to that, Hennes helped develop three-year starter Matt Scheible, who became the first quarterback in the OVC to rush for 2,000 yards and throw for 4,000 yards in a career. Scheible also an All-OVC selection, broke the school's all-time career record in total offense. He finished his career ranked among Southeast's single-season and career leaders in several categories.

Hennes graduated with a bachelor's degree in social science from Emporia State in 2006. He then played two years at Independence Junior College (2003-04) and later returned there to coach the wide receivers.

After that, Hennes coached the running backs for two years at Delta State (2008-09).

In addition to coaching the quarterbacks, Tyler Hennes will serve as the Redhawks Recruiting Coordinator in 2013.

Chris Norris enters his eighth year as the Redhawks running backs and special teams coach.

Norris coached his first Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year and First-Team All-American running back when Henry Harris shattered numerous school records in 2010. Harris, who finished fifth in the overall voting for the Walter Payton Award, became Southeast's all-time single-season leader in rushing yards, all-purpose yardage, points scored, total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns.

Two seasons later, Norris coached his second All-OVC selection at running back when Levi Terrell garnered second-team accolades. Terrell ran for 1,349 yards and six touchdowns in 2012, finishing his career ranked ninth all-time on Southeast's career rushing list.

This year, Norris has two players who made College Football Performance Award Watch Lists. Punter Joe Vucic is up for the organization's Punter Award, while Spencer Davis is a candidate for the All-Purpose Performer of the Year honor.

Vucic ranked third in the OVC and 20th in the nation with 41.9 yards per punt last season.

Meanwhile, Davis ranks among Southeast's career leaders in several special teams categories and is on pace to become the school's all-time leader in kick return yardage.

Norris helped a Southeast punter earn All-American honors in four of his first six years on the Redhawks coaching staff.

Return men have flourished under Norris' leadership, as well. In fact, five of Southeast's top-10 career kick return leaders have been on Norris' watch. They include Jacob McKinley (2008-09, 2nd), Spencer Davis (2010-present, 3rd), Antonio Scaife (2003-06, 5th), Elton Peterson (2003-07, 8th) and Henry Harris (2008-10, 10th).

Norris joined the Redhawks staff after spending three years under the direction of Steve Gilbert at Jacksonville University.

In his first year at JU, Dolphin running backs ran for a school-record 2,103 yards on 494 carries. Norris also coached Emmett Hunter, the Dolphins all-time leading rusher, to All-American honors in 2003. Prior to that, Norris spent three seasons in the same capacity at Tennessee State. Norris began his college coaching career as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Northern State University.

In 1999, he helped lead the Wolves to a 9-3 record and No. 11 national ranking. Norris also coached at his alma mater, Papillion-La Vista High School from 1997-99.

Norris played four years as a fullback under head coaches Tom Osborne and Frank Solich at the University of Nebraska. The Cornhuskers went 47-3 with four Big Eight Conference titles and one National Championship (1994) during his career. Nebraska also owned a 26-game winning streak in that span.

Norris earned a bachelor's degree from Nebraska-Omaha in 1999. He and his wife, Tracee, have a daughter, Breeze, and reside in Jackson.

Chris Norris has coached five of the Top-10 career kick return leaders at Southeast. Norris also coached an All-OVC running back in two of the last three years.

Redhawk Coaches

Salim Powell sets to begin his third year on the Southeast Missouri coaching staff. Powell will coach the wide receivers this year after working with the defensive line and special teams the last two seasons.

A native of Willingboro, N.J., Powell played cornerback for the Redhawks from 2006-09 and was a starter at his position the final three years of his career.

Powell registered 98 tackles and two interceptions in 44 games and 33 starts at Southeast.

In his first year coaching, Powell assisted a Redhawk defense which led the Ohio Valley Conference in scoring defense (21.5 ppg allowed), interceptions (20) and turnover margin (+13) in 2010. Southeast also ranked second in the league in total defense (317.1 ypg allowed), pass defense (164.8 ypg allowed) and pass defense efficiency (105.0 rating). Southeast also ranked fifth in the nation in turnover margin and 12th nationally in turnovers gained (29).

Southeast's defense has produced seven All-OVC selections in the last three years, including First-Team All-Conference pick, 2012 OVC Defensive Player of the Year and All-American Blake Peiffer.

As a prep, Powell was an All-Conference and All-County defensive back at Willingboro High School. He was part of the Super 100 All-State team.

Powell received a bachelor's degree in sport management from Southeast during the spring of 2010.

Salim Powell will coach the wide receivers in 2013 after working with the defensive line and special teams the last two seasons.

Nick Stauffer enters his third year as the safeties coach and fifth overall with the Southeast football program.

Stauffer worked as the Redhawks Director of Football Operations before moving to his on-field coaching position in 2011.

A native of Mansfield, Texas, Stauffer remained in the area following a stellar playing career as a linebacker at Southeast.

Stauffer was a First-Team All-Ohio Valley Conference selection who ranked fourth in the nation and second all-time in Southeast single-season history with 150 tackles in 2008.

In an upset victory over nationally-ranked Tennessee State on Oct. 25, 2008, Stauffer had a career-high 21 tackles and added his first career interception in an overtime victory.

Stauffer finished his Southeast career with a total of 208 tackles, 15 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, three fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and one interception.

The Redhawks ranked among the top three teams in the OVC in interceptions during two of the last three years. Southeast tied for third with 13 picks in 2012 and led the OVC and ranked fourth in the nation with 20 interceptions in 2010. The Redhawks also returned a total of five interceptions for touchdowns since 2010.

Tylor Brock earned First-Team All-OVC honors and Second-Team All-American accolades after tying Southeast's single-season record with six interceptions at free safety in 2010. Brock garnered First-Team All-OVC laurels again in 2012.

A native of Mansfield, Texas, Stauffer graduated with a bachelor's degree in secondary physical education from Southeast in 2008.

Stauffer is married to Maria Dominguez, who is an athletic trainer at Southeast. They reside in Cape Girardeau.

Nick Stauffer is in his fifth year on the Redhawks coaching staff. Stauffer remained in the area following a stellar playing career as a linebacker at Southeast.

Joe Uhls is in his second season as Southeast's director of football operations. Uhls has worked with the Redhawk football team for four years.

Uhls graduated from Southeast with a degree in General Studies in 2012. He attended Cape Central High School and is the grandson of former legendary Southeast head baseball coach Joe Uhls.

Uhls was a student assistant with the offense for two seasons before taking over his new position.

He and his wife, Mara, reside in Cape Girardeau.

Kenny Wilhite, who coached Southeast Missouri's defensive backs from 2006-2010, returns to the same position on the Redhawks football staff.

Wilhite spent the last two seasons as the secondary coach at Southland Conference member Central Arkansas. The Bears made their only NCAA Football Championship Subdivision Playoff appearances (2011, 2012) with Wilhite on staff.

Prior to UCA, Wilhite helped lead Southeast to its first-ever Ohio Valley Conference title and NCAA Playoff berth in 2010. The Redhawks went 9-3 overall and 7-1 in the OVC, finishing with a No. 13 ranking in the final FCS Sports Network and Coaches Polls. Southeast led the league and ranked fourth in the FCS with 20 interceptions that year.

Wilhite's coaching career began at New Mexico State University under Tony Samuel following a successful playing career in the Canadian Football League. In 1996, Wilhite was a CFL All-Star and finished third behind Doug Flutie in the overall voting for the league's Player of the Year Award.

He went on to work as an assistant coach at Dodge City Community College, Emporia State and Kentucky State.

Redhawk Coaches

Wilhite played college football at the University of Nebraska under Tom Osborne. He was an All-Big Eight selection in 1991 after leading the conference in interceptions.

Wilhite signed as a free agent contract with the Chicago Bears in 1993 and began playing in the CFL with the Sacramento Goldminers. He is originally from St. Louis and is a 1992 graduate of Nebraska.

Kenny Wilhite returns to coach the defensive backs at Southeast Missouri after spending the last two seasons as secondary coach at Central Arkansas.

2012 Review

Southeast Missouri offset a 3-8 record and seventh-place finish in the Ohio Valley Conference by winning the league's coveted Freshman and Defensive Player of the Year honors.

The 2012 campaign marked the first time Southeast won those awards in the same season under head coach Tony Samuel.

Entering the year, the OVC outlook included eight of nine teams returning their starting quarterback from 2011, and Southeast was the only team which didn't.

Right off the bat, the Redhawks were dealt a big blow when projected starting quarterback Kyle Snyder suffered a season-ending injury on the ninth day of preseason camp. Snyder made a cut on the turf and tore the ACL in his right knee during a non-contact practice.

Redshirt-freshman Scott Lathrop seized the opportunity immediately and managed the offense well.

Lathrop became the first Southeast player to be named OVC Freshman of the Year since the award started in 2004. He finished the season with 1,824 yards of total offense and manned the controls of a rushing offense that led the conference and ranked ninth in the nation with 262.4 yards per game.

A native of Warrenton, Mo., Lathrop completed 91-of-158 passes for 1,025 yards and seven touchdowns and ran the ball in the Redhawks option-based attack 211 times for 824 yards and seven TDs.

As the season progressed, so did Lathrop, who wound up rushing for 100 or more yards in four of his final six starts. That stretch included a 179-yard, two-touchdown effort in a road victory at Austin Peay that later resulted in OVC Newcomer of the Week accolades.

Against nationally-ranked Tennessee State, Lathrop ran for 145 yards and a touchdown, while throwing for 222 yards and a score.

He finished the season ranked seventh in the OVC in rushing and was among 20 finalists for the Jerry Rice Award.

When Lathrop wasn't under center, fellow freshman Blake Jackson was.

Jackson, who hails from Houston, Texas, saw action in eight contests. He ran for 119 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries, and completed 4-of-9 passes for 36 yards and another score.

On the other side of the ball, Blake Peiffer lived up to his billing.

Peiffer, predicted to win the OVC Defensive Player of the Year Award prior to the season, ranked 17th nationally in tackles per game (10.64). He turned in a total of 117 (60 solo) on the season to go along with eight tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and a pass breakup.

A native of nearby Jackson, Peiffer finished with double-digit tackles on six occasions, including a season-high 18 against regional-rival Southern Illinois. He wrapped up his career with more than 100 tackles in back-to-back seasons and stands third all-time in career tackles at Southeast.

A first-team pick and finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, Peiffer is just the third Redhawks player to be named OVC Defensive Player of the Year and first since 1997.

Defensive back Tylor Brock and running back Levi Terrell were Southeast's other All-Conference honorees in 2012.

Brock, from St. Louis, landed a spot on the first-team after ranking 23rd in the nation in interceptions. He returned his team-high four picks for 108 yards and ranked second on the team with 81 tackles. Brock had three tackles for loss, a forced fumble and four pass breakups, as well.

Terrell, who hails from De Soto, Mo., was a second-team choice. He piled up 1,349 yards and six touchdowns on 231 carries as the Redhawks top rusher. Terrell averaged 5.8 yards per carry and ranked third in the OVC in rushing (122.6 ypg) as one of four players with over 1,000 rushing yards in the conference.

Additionally, Terrell ran for over 100 yards seven times and ended his career with 215 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries at Murray State.

Southeast opened the season at Football Bowl Subdivision and Mid-American Conference member Central Michigan on Aug. 30.

The Redhawks and Chippewas were tied 24-24 at halftime and Southeast trailed by just four points late in the third quarter.

CMU, however, used a 1-yard run with 6:32 in the fourth quarter to hold on for a 38-27 win.

Lathrop threw for 120 yards and one touchdown, and ran for 31 yards and one TD in his first career start at quarterback.

"Scott was competitive and he put on a good show," said Samuel. "He really handled himself well and played with a lot of poise."

A week later, Southeast returned to Cape Girardeau to host Division II Mars Hill College in its home-opener on Sept. 8.

The Redhawks prevailed with a 30-18 victory in a turnover-plagued game.

"It was a turnover fest," said Samuel. "There were some crazy things that happened and our defense responded well to everything that went on."

Seven of the game's 10 miscues came in the first half, and Southeast accounted for six takeaways (including five interceptions).

Brock had six tackles, two interceptions and a forced fumble to lead the defense.

Southeast went scoreless through the first three quarters in a 35-14 loss at regional-rival Southern Illinois on Sept. 15.

The Redhawks scored twice in the fourth quarter when Lewis Washington and Paul McRoberts had their first career touchdowns.

Washington scored on a 1-yard run at the 14:18 mark, while McRoberts hauled in an acrobatic 22-yard catch with 2:43 remaining.

Southeast evened its record at 2-2 the next week in a dramatic 41-38 double overtime victory over defending OVC Champion Tennessee Tech on Sept. 22.

The Redhawks wore red jerseys with grey camoflauge numbers and saluted the men and women who so proudly serve our country with the thrilling win during Military Appreciation Night.

Southeast drew a season-high home crowd of 8,327, as Drew Geldbach kicked the game-winning 34-yard field goal in the second overtime possession.

Prior to Geldbach's kick, a wide open D.J. Foster caught a 25-yard touchdown pass from Lathrop to tie the game at 38-38. Foster bobbled the ball and secured it in just enough time to stay in-bounds in the back of the end zone.

After Geldbach's kick sailed through the uprights, TTU later faced a 3rd-and-1 when Southeast's defense made a huge stop. Alonzo Nevarez and Daniel Siehndel dropped Stephen Bush for a loss of one yard.

Zach Sharp then attempted a 34-yard field goal, but his low kick missed wide left, ending the game as the Redhawks stormed the field.

"It was one of the more amazing games of my career," said Samuel. "Everytime we play Tennessee Tech, it seems like it comes down to the wire. Both teams played hard and we hung on a little longer down the stretch."

Not to be overlooked, Southeast's defense shifted momentum in the see-saw battle with two interception returns for touchdowns.

Darrick Borum returned an interception for a touchdown for the first time in his career when he picked off Tre Lamb and dashed 41 yards down the far sideline.

Branden Spann then intercepted Lamb at the Redhawks 3-yardline and sprinted the length of the field for a touchdown. Spann became only the second player in school history to return an interception 100 yards for a touchdown. Those two defensive touchdowns gave Southeast a four-point cushion (21-17) late in the second quarter.

Southeast headed to Jacksonville State on Sept. 29 and trailed by only one point (17-16) following Renard Celestin's 13-yard touchdown run with 14:54 left in the fourth quarter.

JSU responded with a 20-yard touchdown pass from Marques Ivory to Alan Bonner and an 8-yard run by DaMarcus James to grab a 31-16 victory.

The Gamecocks outgained the Redhawks, 268-247, on the ground and averaged over six yards per play in the gritty win.

"It was one of those games where I felt we could take over at anytime and I'm sure they felt the same way," said Samuel. "It was two ground-and-pound style offenses going at it."

Southeast's defense stood firm toward the end, making three-straight stops inside its own 5-yardline.

The Redhawks suffered two more setbacks when they lost at home to nationally-ranked Tennessee State on Oct. 13 and UT Martin on Oct. 20.

Lathrop and Terrell each rushed for over 100 yards, but it wasn't enough to overcome three fourth-quarter touchdowns by Trabis Ward in the Tigers 40-28 win.

Southeast then turned the ball over four times in a 27-17 loss to UTM on Homecoming. Two of those turnovers came on back-to-back possessions in the red zone which were costly down the stretch.

The Redhawks ended a three-game losing streak when they put up a season-high 48 points in their largest win of the year over Austin Peay (48-27) on Oct. 27.

Southeast had two 100-yard rushers and used a 98-yard fumble return for a touchdown to bury the Governors.

The Redhawks led, 41-27, when APSU threatened to score its second-straight touchdown in the fourth quarter. The Governors had a 1st-and-Goal at Southeast's 2-yardline. Joe Malolo punched the ball loose from Reco Williams, and Braden Spann recovered and ran 98 yards for a touchdown to nail down the win with 3:05 left.

"The momentum was definitely in Austin Peay's favor at the time," said Samuel. "We needed a big stop and made a huge play."

Southeast snapped a 10-game losing streak on the road and earned its first victory away from home since beating the Governors on Oct. 16, 2010.

The Redhawks finished out the season with a three-game losing streak, falling to Eastern Kentucky (31-7, Nov. 3), Eastern Illinois (39-20, Nov. 10) and Murray State (42-35, Nov. 17).

Southeast pulled ahead of EIU, 20-16, on a 22-yard field goal by Gelbach with 7:35 remaining in the third quarter.

After that, the Panthers countered with 23 unanswered points.

In the season finale at Murray State, Southeast trailed, 21-6, before coming back to tie the game at 35-35 on Ron Coleman's 8-yard run with 3:07 left in the fourth quarter.

Duane Brady returned the ensuing kickoff 85 yards for the final touchdown, giving the Racers a 42-35 triumph.

Game 1 — Southeast Missouri 27, Central Michigan 38

August 30, 2012 • Kelly/Shorts Stadium • Attendance: 15,250

MT. PLEASANT, Mich. - Redshirt-freshman quarterback Scott Lathrop threw for 120 yards and one touchdown, and ran for 31 yards and one TD, as Southeast Missouri gave Central Michigan all it could handle in a 38-27 loss at Kelly/Shorts Stadium.

Lathrop, in his first career start at quarterback, was the first player other than Matt Scheible to start under center for Southeast since 2008. A native of Warrenton, Mo., Lathrop was efficient, completing 10-of-15 passes. He also ran the ball 15 times.

David Harman put CMU on the board first with a 24-yard field goal on the Chippewas second drive of the game, but Southeast answered with a big play on its next possession.

Spencer Davis took a Lathrop pitch off the right side and scampered 55 yards down the far sideline to give the Redhawks a 7-3 advantage with 7:46 left to play in the first quarter.

The rushing touchdown, which marked the second of Davis' career, gave Southeast its first lead against a Football Bowl Subdivision team since the 2002 campaign. That year, the Redhawks led Eastern Michigan, 32-28, with 8:16 left in the fourth quarter in Ypsilanti.

George Neuhaus, who made his first career start at linebacker, picked off a Ryan Radcliff pass at the CMU 31-yardline to set up Southeast's next score.

After getting to the Chippewa 20-yardline, Drew Geldbach kicked a 37-yard field goal to extend the Redhawks lead to 10-3 with 4:26 remaining.

Tipton broke free and dashed 32 yards down the near sideline to tie the game (10-10) at the 2:26 mark of the first quarter.

Southeast made another huge play on defense during CMU's ensuing drive when Cantrell Andrews stripped the ball from Tipton. Neuhaus recovered at the Redhawks 38-yardline.

D.J. Foster made two big catches, one of which went for 43 yards, to help move Southeast within striking distance again.

Lathrop then capped a 6-play, 62-yard march with a 4-yard touchdown run, giving the Redhawks a 17-10 lead. The touchdown was the first of Lathrop's career.

A short 20-yard punt by Richie Hogan gave Southeast excellent field position in CMU territory.

Six plays later, Lathrop threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to a wide open Foster, expanding the Redhawks lead to 24-10 with 7:13 left in the second quarter.

CMU quickly closed the gap with back-to-back rushing touchdowns to bring the game to a 24-24 deadlock at the half.

Tipton scored on a 48-yard run after Radcliff completed an 18-yard pass to Cody Wilson on a 3rd-and-6. After that, Anthony Garland hit paydirt on a 2-yard run.

Southeast consumed nearly nine minutes on its opening drive of the second half.

The Redhawks went 52 yards in 15 plays before pulling ahead, 27-24, on a 40-yard Geldbach field goal with 6:02 left in the third quarter.

CMU kept another drive alive with a Courtney Williams 7-yard run on third down. Radcliff delivered a 20-yard touchdown pass to Jarrett Fleming, regaining a 31-27 edge for the Chippewas.

The Chippewas added their final points when Tipton scored from a yard out to cap a 91-yard drive.

Foster finished with a game-high six catches for 97 yards and a touchdown, while Levi Terrell led Southeast's rushing attack with 88 yards on 15 attempts. Terrell averaged 5.9 yards per carry.

Tipton ran for 180 yards and three touchdowns to lead CMU. He picked up 10.6 yards per carry, as the Chippewas outgained the Redhawks, 324-203, on the ground.

Garland followed with 102 yards and one touchdown on 17 carries.

Defensively, Southeast had three takeaways. Neuhaus forced two of those turnovers.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Levi Terrell rushed for 128 yards and Renard Celestin ran for a career-high 93 yards and two touchdowns to lead Southeast Missouri to a 30-18 victory over Mars Hill College at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium.

Southeast's home-opener saw the teams combine for 10 turnovers, including five fumbles and five interceptions.

All of the interceptions were credited to Southeast's defense, which recorded five picks in a game for the first time since 1997.

Seven of the game's miscues plagued a wild first half.

Southeast set the tone early with the run as Terrell bolted for 52 yards on his first three touches.

The Redhawks moved to the MHC 3-yardline before taking a 3-0 lead on a 22-yard field goal by Drew Geldbach with 10:09 left in the first quarter.

A sequence of three-straight turnovers followed.

Spencer Davis fumbled on a punt return and MHC gave the ball right back when Jon Richt threw an interception on the first play of the Lions drive. Tylor Brock returned his first pick of the season 64 yards to the MHC-16.

However, three plays later, Sammy Siasia sacked Scott Lathrop for a loss of seven yards. Lathrop fumbled on the play and Siasia recovered.

MHC cashed in on the miscue when Shaikel Davis scored on a 5-yard touchdown run to give the Lions a 6-3 edge at the 3:47 mark.

Celestin's 5-yard touchdown run regained a 10-6 advantage for Southeast with less than a minute remaining in the first quarter.

MHC pulled to within a point (13-12) when Richt completed a 40-yard touchdown pass to Dimitri Holmes, but Geldbach's 22-yard field goal sent the Redhawks into the locker room with a 16-12 halftime lead.

Geldbach connected on all three of his field goal attempts, while Celestin chipped in the third rushing touchdown of his career during the game's opening stanza.

Both teams went scoreless for the first 10:49 of the third quarter before Celestin took a Lathrop pitch off the right side and dashed 39 yards for his second touchdown of the night. Celestin hurdled a would-be tackler and sprinted down the near sideline to extend the Redhawks lead to 23-12 at the 4:11 mark.

One final touchdown, a 19-yard pass from Lathrop to D.J. Foster, put the finishing touches on Southeast's first win of the season with 3:09 left in the fourth quarter.

Terrell carried the ball 22 times, averaging 5.8 yards per rush. He finished with over 100 yards in a game for the third time in his career.

Celestin followed with 93 yards on nine attempts, averaging over 10 yards (10.3) per carry.

Lathrop completed 12-of-21 passes for 114 yards and a touchdown, while rushing for 37 yards on 16 carries.

Defensively, Southeast had six takeaways. Brock returned two interceptions for 61 yards, had a forced fumble and turned in six tackles to lead the way. Darrick Borum and Blake Peiffer added a team-high seven tackles apiece. Borum also had an interception, two pass breakups and one quarterback hurry.

Meanwhile, Reggie Jennings and Josh Freeman each had an interception, the first of their careers.

Richt, the son of University of Georgia head coach Mark Richt, completed 20-of-37 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns. Richt threw all five of the Lions interceptions, as well.

Geldbach's three field goals tied a career-high, while Davis surpassed 1,500 all-purpose yards in his career. Davis finished with 106 all-purpose yards and now stands with 1,605 in his young Southeast career.

Southeast outgained MHC, 288-93, on the ground. In addition, the Redhawks piled up 402 yards of total offense and averaged over five yards (5.3) per play.

Game 3 — Southeast Missouri 14, Southern Illinois 35

September 15, 2012 • Saluki Stadium • Attendance: 9,612

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Kory Faulkner threw for a career-high 384 yards and three touchdowns to lead Southern Illinois to a 35-14 win over Southeast Missouri in front of 9,612 at Saluki Stadium.

SIU registered a hefty 565-186 advantage in total offense. The Salukis also ran 84 plays to Southeast's 52 and possessed the ball 33:06.

SIU wasted no time getting on the board, scoring twice in the first 5:15 of the game.

The Salukis marched 76 yards in six plays on the game's opening drive. Mika'il McCall capped things off with a 32-yard run to give the Salukis a 7-0 lead with 12:33 left to play in the first quarter.

After Southeast was forced to punt on its first possession, SIU added another quick touchdown, this time on a 39-yard pass from Faulkner to David Lewis. Lewis' TD pushed the Salukis lead to 14-0 at the 9:45 mark.

SIU held a stifling 212-4 advantage in total offense and ran 16 more plays than Southeast during the first quarter alone.

The Salukis then took over on downs at their own 1-yardline before going 99 yards in 13 plays to push their lead to 21-0 early in the second quarter. Faulkner hit MyCole Pruitt on a 14-yard pass along the far sideline, capping the drive which consumed 5:29.

Southeast trailed 21-0 at halftime. The Redhawks made it into SIU territory once, went three-and-out on five of six drives, had only one first down and gained just 30 total yards in the first half.

Defensively, the Redhawks forced two turnovers in the game's opening 30 minutes. Branden Spann recorded his first career interception and fumble recovery, accounting for both takeaways.

After a scoreless third quarter, Joe Malolo recovered a fumble at the Redhawks 44-yardline.

Southeast responded by putting together its best drive which covered 56 yards in 11 plays.

A pair of 12-yard passes from Scott Lathrop to D.J. Foster keyed the march which ended on a 1-yard touchdown by Lewis Washington that narrowed the gap to 21-7 with 14:15 left in the fourth quarter.

SIU answered right back on its next possesson, which began at its own 26. Ten plays into that drive, Faulkner completed a 35-yard pass to Pruitt, giving the Salukis a first down at the Southeast-4. McCall later crossed the goal line on a 1-yard plunge to give SIU a 28-7 lead with 8:17 on the clock.

LaSteven McKinney caught a Faulkner screen pass and dashed 43 yards to push SIU's lead to 35-7 at the 5:00 mark.

Southeast posted its fourth takeaway of the game when true freshman David Coley recovered A.J. Hill's fumble at the SIU-22. On the very next play, fellow true freshmen Blake Jackson and Paul McRoberts hooked up on a 22-yard touchdown pass to cut the Salukis lead to 35-14 with 2:43 left.

A native of Ste. Genevieve, Mo., Faulkner completed 26-of-40 passes to lead the SIU offense. Pruitt also caught nine passes for 121 yards and a touchdown.

Levi Terrell rushed for 67 yards on 13 carries, while Lathrop threw for 50 yards on 7-of-13 passes to lead Southeast. Foster added four receptions for 44 yards, as well.

Blake Peiffer turned in a game-high 18 tackles, his first double-digit tackle performance of the season.

Joe Vucic punted a career-high nine times for 408 yards, averaging 45.3 yards per punt. Vucic had a 53-yard punt and pinned the Salukis inside their 5-yardline on two occasions.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Drew Geldbach kicked a 34-yard field goal to lift Southeast Missouri to a dramatic 41-38 double overtime victory over Tennessee Tech in front of a Family Weekend crowd of 8,327 at Missouri National Guard Field/ Houck Stadium.

Geldbach's game-winning field goal came during the second overtime possession after a wide open D.J. Foster hauled in a 25-yard Scott Lathrop pass to tie the game at 38-38. Foster bobbled the ball, but secured it in just enough time to stay in-bounds in the back of the end zone.

After Geldbach's kick split the uprights, TTU took over on downs at Southeast's 25-yardline.

The Golden Eagles faced a 3rd-and-1 when Southeast's defense made a huge stop. Alonzo Nevarez and Daniel Siehndel dropped Stephen Bush for a loss of one yard.

On the next play, Zach Sharp attempted a 34-yard field goal, but his low kick sailed wide left, ending the game.

Southeast and TTU showcased big play capability early in the first quarter.

The Redhawks, after forcing the Golden Eagles to punt on their opening possession, used a 48-yard run by Levi Terrell to set up a 29-yard touchdown pass from Scott Lathrop to D.J. Foster. Foster's TD capped a short 3-play, 87-yard drive, giving Southeast a 7-0 lead with 12:54 remaining.

TTU responded to the Redhawks first opening drive touchdown of the season in less than three minutes.

The Golden Eagles covered 78 yards in eight plays to quickly tie the game. Tre Lamb hooked up with Da'Rick Rogers on a 38-yard strike to bring the contest to a 7-7 deadlock with 9:56 left.

After Sharp's 22-yard field goal, Southeast ran into a bit of misfortune.

The Redhawks were knocking on the door when they faced a 2nd-and-7 at the TTU 10-yardline, but Lathrop was intercepted by Austin Tallant. The interception marked the first of Lathrop's career.

Eight plays later Steve Wilson came up with a Lamb pass which deflected off the hands of intended receiver Ryan Tilghman on a 3rd-and-13.

Wilson dashed to the end zone on the wild play which went for 38 yards, pushing the Golden Eagles lead to 17-7 with 4:13 left to play in the second quarter.

Southeast then scored two defensive touchdowns to build a four-point cushion.

Darrick Borum returned an interception for a touchdown for the first time in his career when he picked off Lamb and ran 41 yards down the far sideline.

TTU threatened on its next possession and managed to get the ball all the way to Southeast's 3-yardline when Branden Spann intercepted Lamb and sprinted the length of the field for a touchdown.

Spann became only the second Redhawk in school history to return an interception 100 yards for a touchdown, as Southeast took a 21-17 advantage with 2:42 remaining in the second quarter.

Rogers made an unbelievable one-handed catch when he wrestled the ball away from a Redhawk defender down the near sideline to keep TTU's ensuing drive alive. That play went for 48 yards and Rogers later grabbed an 11-yard touchdown reception to regain a 24-21 lead for the Golden Eagles at halftime.

Both teams combined for five punts, two turnovers and a missed field goal in a scoreless third quarter.

A see-saw fourth quarter set the stage for the exciting ending.

Lathrop's 1-yard run finished off an 11-play, 76-yard drive to grab Southeast a 28-24 advantage with 11:55 on the clock.

TTU pieced together a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive the next time it had the ball. Lamb's 21-yard completion to Krys Cates set up a 9-yard touchdown by Bush, giving the Golden Eagles a slight 31-28 edge with just under nine minutes to play.

Geldbach's other field goal, this time from 39 yards out, sent the game to overtime.me headed to overtime.

Rogers, an All-SEC receiver at Tennessee prior to transferring to TTU, had a game-high 18 catches for 303 yards and two touchdowns.

Game 5 — Southeast Missouri 16, Jacksonville State 31

September 29, 2012 • Burgess-Snow Field • Attendance: 16,842

JACKSONVILLE, Ala. - Jacksonville State scored the last 14 points of the game to come away with a 31-16 win over Southeast Missouri in front of a crowd of 16,842 at Burgess-Snow Field.

JSU outscored Southeast, 17-6, in the second half and scored 14 fourth-quarter points to secure the victory.

The Redhawk defense stood firm toward the end, making three-consecutive stops inside its own five.

Shortly after Tim Hamm-Bey and Daniel Siehndel dropped Coty Blanchard for a loss of two yards, Griffin Thomas kicked a 20-yard field goal to give JSU a 17-10 lead with 6:28 left in the third quarter.

Southeast manufactured a 14-play, 70-yard drive and converted on third down four times to key a possession which resulted in a 13-yard touchdown run by Renard Celestin with 14:54 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Drew Geldbach, however, missed the kick on the point-after attempt, keeping the game at 17-16 in favor of the Gamecocks.

Alan Bonner then hauled in a 20-yard touchdown pass from Marques Ivory and sprinted down the near sideline to the end zone, giving JSU a 24-16 lead with just under 11 minutes (10:57) left. There was initially a penalty on the play, but the flag was picked up allowing the touchdown to stand.

DaMarcus James' 8-yard run completed the 31-16 win with 2:05 remaining.

The Gamecocks and Redhawks each had a 100-yard rusher and neither team turned the ball over.

Southeast forced JSU to punt on the opening drive of the game before stringing together an impressive march to get the early lead.

The Redhawks, who started their first possession at their own 1-yardline, marched 99 yards in 13 plays over a period of 6:04. The drive marked Southeast's longest this season.

Scott Lathrop broke free for a 15-yard run and 15 more yards were tacked on to the play due to a face mask penalty, as Southeast picked up a first down at the JSU-47.

Levi Terrell carried the ball five times for 32 yards after that, helping get the Redhawks inside the Gamecocks 10-yardline. Brandon Beck punched in his first career touchdown on 5-yard run up the middle with 5:30 left to play in the first quarter.

JSU answered when Ivory's 14-yard touchdown pass to Kevyn Cooper capped a 9-play, 84-yard scoring drive.

The Gamecocks used a 23-yard rush by James and a 25-yard pass from Ivory to Bonner to get to the Redhawks 32-yardline. Six plays later, Cooper's TD reception tied the game at 7-7 with 1:12 remaining.

Southeast took over on downs at its own 1-yardline for the second time in the game following a JSU punt.

Terrell took the handoff and bolted 37 yards on the second play. The Redhawks later faced a 3rd-and-4 at their 46-yardline when Celestin kept the drive alive with a 9-yard first down carry.

Southeast added a couple more big plays when Lathrop completed a 14-yard pass to D.J. Foster and Terrell picked up another first down, this time on a 13-yard run. Foster's made his catch after a JSU defender tipped the ball.

The Redhawks would settle for a field goal as Geldbach's kick sailed through the uprights from 42 yards out to regain a 10-7 edge for Southeast at the 6:21 mark of the second quarter.

JSU came right back with another lengthy drive to grab a 14-10 lead at halftime.

Ivory's 9-yard pass to Bonner on a 3rd-and-6 gave the Gamecocks a first down at the Southeast-18. On the next play, Blanchard sprung for an 11-yard run to set up a 1-yard touchdown plunge by James.

Southeast punted the first time it had the ball in the second half.

JSU countered by moving the ball all the way to the Southeast 4-yardline before kicking a field goal.

Terrell ran for 146 yards on 26 carries to lead Southeast.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Scott Lathrop and Levi Terrell each rushed for over 100 yards, but it wasn't enough as #18 Tennessee State beat Southeast Missouri, 40-28, at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium.

Lathrop finished with 145 yards rushing and 222 passing yards, while having a hand in two touchdowns. Terrell followed with 110 yards and a pair of TDs.

That, however, couldn't overshadow TSU running back Trabis Ward, who sprung for three fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead the Tigers to their first victory at Houck Stadium since 1999.

Ward scored a touchdown on two different occasions after the Redhawks had pulled to within five points in the final 15 minutes.

His 1-yard touchdown run came after Terrell's 52-yard strike made it a 26-21 game with 10:42 remaining.

Then, after true freshman Paul McRoberts, made a spectacular acrobatic catch in the back left corner of the end zone to slice TSU's lead to 33-28 at the 2:22 mark, Ward broke free for a 30-yard touchdown to nail down the win with 1:26 on the clock. His game-high fourth rushing TD came moments after TSU recovered an onside kick.

TSU drove 72 yards on 15 plays during the game's opening drive, but Darion Hall coughed up the ball on a 1st-and-Goal carry from the Southeast 6-yardline. Josyah O'Keefe-Lopez recovered for the Redhawks.

After Southeast punted the ball away on its first possession, both teams exchanged touchdowns the next time they had the ball.

The Tigers used a 34-yard completion from Michael German to Wesley Samuels on the first play, again moving into Southeast territory.

German later hooked up with Devin Wilson on a 12-yard pass before capping the 7-play, 49-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass to Johntae Gleaves, giving the Tigers a 7-0 lead with 3:54 left in the first quarter.

Southeast answered quickly when Lathrop exploded for 44 yards on three carries to key a 6-play, 75-yard surge.

Lathrop scored his third rushing touchdown of the season on a 13-yard run to knot the game at 7-7 with 1:41 remaining.

The Tigers, who made it inside the Redhawks 10-yardline on four of their five possessions in the first half, added 10 more points to build a 17-10 lead at intermission.

After Jamin Godfrey kicked a 25-yard field goal, TSU's defense made a big stop when Wilson Robinson dropped Lathrop for no gain on a 4th-and-1.

The Tigers took over on downs at Southeast's 40-yardline and later capitalized on a 7-yard touchdown run by Ward to push their lead to 17-7 at the 8:06 mark in the second quarter.

TSU had 17 first downs and converted 7-of-9 times on third down in the first half. The Tigers also held Southeast to just seven points in the first half, its second-lowest point total in the game's opening 30 minutes this year.

Southeast wasted no time getting right back in the game early in the second half.

The Redhawks started on their own 18-yardline and covered 82 yards on 12 plays. Southeast picked up five first downs and chewed up 6:35 on its way to the end zone.

Lathrop broke free for runs of 15 and 16 yards, respectively, to help move Southeast to the TSU-29.

Terrell took over from there, picking up the last 23 yards on three-consecutive carries. He scored his first touchdown of the season on a 7-yard run to cut the Tigers lead to 17-14 with 8:25 left to play in the third quarter.

TSU widened the gap when it countered with a 42-yard field goal by Godfrey that just cleared the crossbar to give the Tigers a 20-14 advantage with a little over four minutes.

Southeast was in business on its ensuing drive when true freshman made a nice 28-yard over the shoulder catch on the second play. The Redhawks managed to get to the TSU-23 before Lathrop's pass was tipped into the hands of Steven Godbolt.

Godbolt returned his interception 62 yards to set up another Tiger touch. own, this a 4-yard run by Ward with 13:18 remaining.

Both teams combined for 34 points in the fourth quarter, including 20 by TSU.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Terrell ran for 136 yards and Southeast Missouri turned the ball over four times in a 27-17 loss to UT Martin at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium.

Back-to-back fourth-quarter turnovers inside the red zone proved costly for Southeast down the stretch.

The Redhawks had a 1st-and-10 at the UTM-14 when Scott Lathrop fumbled the ball and DJ Roberts recovered for the Skyhawks.

Southeast was on the move again, but this time, Thad Williams intercepted Lathrop's pass on a 2nd-and-1 at the UTM-8.

After that, the Redhawks never recovered.

Jason McNair returned the game's first punt 56 yards to the Southeast-7 yardline. Two plays later, Derek Carr scored on a 1-yard run to give UTM a quick 7-0 lead with 12:50 left to play in the first quarter.

Southeast faced a 3rd-and-14 later in the quarter when Scott Lathrop completed an 18-yard pass to Renard Celestin, giving the Redhawks a first down at the UTM-28.

Spencer Davis, after picking up six yards, then hauled in an 18-yard touchdown pass from Lathrop to tie the game at 7-7 with 3:40 remaining.

Davis had gone seven-straight games without a touchdown reception and made his first TD catch since Nov. 5, 2011 (vs. Central Methodist).

Tylor Brock intercepted Carr's fourth-down pass in Southeast's own end zone and ran 47 yards. The Redhawks managed to get to the Skyhawks 15-yardline before settling for a 32-yard field goal by Drew Geldbach to take a 10-7 edge at the 3:50 mark.

The Skyhawks regrouped to score the final 10 points of the half and take a 17-10 lead at intermission.

Carr completed a 3-yard touchdown pass to Quentin Sims with at the 3:28 mark of the second quarter.

After Marquis Clemons recovered DeMichael Jackson's fumble on the ensuing kickoff, Cody Sandlin kicked a 32 yard field goal with one second on the clock.

Southeast outgained UTM, 149-33, on the ground in the first half. Terrell (66) and Lathrop (33) combined for 99 of those yards on 13 carries each.

UTM added to its lead early in the second half when it drove 53 yards in 10 plays. Sandlin capped the march with a 35-yard field goal to give the Skyhawks a 20-10 advantage at the 11:24 mark of the third quarter.

Southeast answered with its longest scoring drive of the day. The Redhawks covered 86 yards in 15 plays and diced UTM's lead to 20-17 when Lathrop scored on a 1-yard run with 4:19 left.

However, the Skyhawks used a 39-yard run by Barksdale to move inside Southeast's 35-yardline on the second play of their next possession.

McNair picked up the last 21 yards of that drive and scored on a 3-yard run to grab a 27-17 lead for UTM with 1:25 remaining.

Terrell averaged 6.2 yards per carry en route to his game-high 136 yards. He ran the ball 22 times.

Lathrop followed with 61 yards and one touchdown on 24 attempts, and 12-of-19 passes for 153 yards and another TD.

Davis tied a career-high five receptions for 67 yards and went over 2,000 all-purpose yards in his career. He finished with 124 all-purpose yards.

Barksdale led UTM with 107 yards on 11 carries, averaging just under 10 yards (9.7) per rush.

Carr threw for 156 yards and a touchdown on 22-of-28 passes.

Defensively, Blake Peiffer led Southeast with 12 tackles, including two for loss.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. - Southeast Missouri had two 100-yard rushers and used a big 98-yard fumble return for a touchdown to secure a 48-27 victory over Austin Peay.

Redshirt-freshman quarterback Scott Lathrop ran for a game and career-high 179 yards and two touchdowns, while Levi Terrell rushed for 137 yards and two scores.

Lathrop and Terrell helped lead Southeast to 399 rushing yards.

However, it was the Redhawk defense which rose to the occasion to make a huge difference late in the game.

Southeast led, 41-27, when APSU threatened to score its second-straight touchdown in the fourth quarter. The Governors had a 1st-and-Goal at Southeast's 2-yardline when Joe Malolo jarred the ball loose from Reco Williams. Branden Spann scooped up the ball and ran 98 yards for a touchdown to nail down the win with 3:05 on the clock.

Spann, who ran back an interception 100 yards for a touchdown earlier this season, set a school record with his game-changing fumble return.

Southeast snapped a 10-game losing streak on the road and earned its first victory away from home since beating the Governors, 41-24, on Oct. 16, 2010.

The Redhawks outgained the Governors, 259-47, in a run-dominated first half which saw Southeast score on all five of its possessions.

Terrell's 3-yard run capped a 14-play, 72-yard opening drive to give Southeast a 7-0 lead with 8:49 left in the first quarter. APSU was flagged for a personal foul on a 3rd-and-17 midway through that drive.

On the fifth play of the Redhawks next possession following a APSU punt, Lathrop broke free for a 67-yard touchdown run to push Southeast's lead to 14-0. The 67-yard rush was the longest by any Redhawk this season.

The Governors used some trickery at the start of the second quarter to cut Southeast's lead in half.

Jake Ryan completed a pass to Devin Stark behind the line of scrimmage. Stark then threw the ball back to Ryan who tossed it 39 yards downfield to a wide open Jamaar Embry. The triple pass narrowed the gap to 14-7 with 14:50 left.

That would be all the scoring for APSU in the first half, as Southeast added 17 unanswered points to take a 31-7 lead at the intermission.

Ron Coleman scored his first touchdown of the season on a 2-yard run at the 9:01 mark.

Drew Geldbach then kicked a season-long 49-yard field goal to cap a drive that started at the APSU 29-yardline following a 12-yard punt by Ben Campbell.

A 23-yard run by Lathrop and a 25-yard pass from Lathrop to Spencer Davis helped set up Southeast's other touchdown. Lathrop, who fumbled at the 1-yardline, recovered to cross the goal line just before the half ended.

Lathrop established his new career-high in rushing yards with 159 in the first half alone. He averaged nearly 11 yards (10.6) per carry on his 15 attempts.

Back-to-back APSU turnovers led to seven more points for Southeast in the third quarter.

Andrew Montgomery fumbled on his first carry of the game and Ben Kargbo recovered at the Southeast 26-yardline.

The Redhawks later punted for the first time, but Tyler Clendenen fumbled after signaling for a fair catch. Darrick Borum fell on the ball at the Governors 19-yardline.

Terrell took the handoff on the play after Clendenen's mishap and ran 19 yards for a touchdown, giving Southeast a 38-7 lead with 7:51 remaining in the third quarter.

Ryan threw a 47-yard touchdown pass to Stark and Stephen Stansell missed the point after with 7:01 left to play.

Following a Vucic punt, APSU marched 55 yards in two minutes before turning the ball over.

Southeast's season-high 48 points were the most in an OVC game since the Redhawks scored 49 against Murray State on Nov. 14, 2009. It was also the first time Southeast scored more than 40 points in an OVC road game since 2003 (at Eastern Kentucky, Oct. 18).

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Southeast Missouri was held scoreless for three quarters in a 31-7 loss to No. 23 Eastern Kentucky at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium.

Southeast had just 262 yards of total offense. The Redhawks also turned the ball over three times in the first half.

Southeast punted and turned the ball over twice during its first three possessions.

The Redhawks moved into EKU territory on the game's opening drive, but Brooklyn Fox intercepted a Scott Lathrop pass and ran 59 yards to the Redhawks 16-yard-line. EKU was in business with a 1st-and-Goal at the Redhawks-8 following a Southeast personal foul.

Matt Denham took four-straight handoffs and crossed the goal line on a 1-yard fourth-down rush to give EKU a 7-0 advantage with 9:37 left to play in the first quarter.

Southeast punted on its next possession and EKU went 64 yards on 16 plays, but came up empty when Blake Peiffer and Branden Spann dropped Denham for a loss of one on a 4th-and-Goal at the Southeast-1.

On the fourth play of the Redhawks ensuing drive, Levi Terrell mis-handled a Lathrop pitch and Fox recovered for the Colonels at the Southeast-29.

EKU later added a 45-yard field goal by Zack Burgy-VanHoose to push its lead to 10-0 with 12:10 left in the second quarter.

Southeast went for it on 4th-and-4 at the EKU-37 the next time it had the ball, however, an incomplete pass halted that drive.

Jared McClain then completed a 39-yard pass to Tyrone Goard to set up the Colonels second touchdown. DeShaun Sands' 20-yard run pushed EKU's lead to 17-0 at half.

Southeast was held scoreless in the first half for the second time this season and first time at home since Nov. 21, 2009 (vs. Southern Illinois).

EKU held the Redhawks to only 21 total yards in the third quarter and added to its lead when Jared McClain scored on a pair of 3-yard touchdown runs.

McClain's second touchdown came three plays after McClain hooked up with Cameron Bailey on a 30-yard pass to give the Colonels a 1st-and-Goal at the Southeast-7.

Southeast managed to avoid the shutout when true freshman quarterback Blake Jackson ripped off a 14-yard run to cap an 11-play, 91-yard march with 4:03 remaining the fourth quarter. It was the first rushing touchdown of Jackson's career.

Jackson led the Redhawks with 68 yards and averaged 6.8 per carry on 10 rushing attempts.

Denham led EKU with 99 yards and one touchdown on a game-high 24 carries.

McClain completed 8-of-11 passes for 138 yards and scored two rushing touchdowns, as well.

EKU finished with 364 total yards and did not have a turnover.

Game 10 Eastern Illinois 39 Southeast Missouri 20

November 10, 2012 • O'Brien Field • Attendance: 5,575

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Erik Lora caught 15 passes for 178 yards and a touchdown to lead Eastern Illinois to a 39-20 win over Southeast Missouri at O'Brien Field.

Lora hauled in a 43-yard touchdown pass from Jimmy Garoppolo with 40 seconds left in the third quarter to give EIU the lead for good.

The Panthers, who scored 23 unanswered points, including 16 in the fourth quarter, clinched the Ohio Valley Conference regular-season title.

Southeast trailed, 16-14, at the half and took its first lead of the game when Drew Geldbach kicked a 30-yard field goal with 10:14 left in the third quarter.

Geldbach later added a 22-yard field goal to extend the Redhawks lead to 20-16 at the 1:43 mark, but that would be all the scoring for Southeast.

After Lora's touchdown reception, Cameron Berra kicked a 40-yard field goal, while Taylor Duncan and Jake Walker scored on short runs of one and four yards, respectively, in the final quarter.

Scott Lathrop rushed for 102 yards and one touchdown on 27 carries, and completed 6-of-12 passes for 32 yards. Lathrop finished with over 100 rushing yards for the third time this season.

Renard Celestin scored the Redhawks other touchdown on a 4-yard run with 11:18 lef in the first quarter. Levi Terrell added 96 yards on 22 attempts, as well.

Defensively, Blake Peiffer posted a game-high 11 tackles to lead Southeast. Peiffer went over 100 tackles for the second-straight season, becoming the first Redhawk to get 100 or more tackles in back-to-back seasons since Adam Casper (108 in 2006; 112 in 2007).

Meanwhile, Garoppolo threw for 257 yards (25-of-35) and two touchdowns, and Walker ran for 132 yards and a pair of scores to lead EIU.

EIU outgained Southeast, 441-233, in total yards. The Redhawks, however, won the time of possession. Southeast had the ball 37:42 to the Panthers 22:18 mark.

MURRAY, Ky. - Duane Brady returned a kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown with less than three minutes left in the fourth quarter to lift Murray State to a 42-35 victory over Southeast Missouri in the season-finale for both teams.

Brady bolted for the decisive score after Southeast tied the game at 35-35. That run put the exclamation point on a dominating effort by the Racers special teams.

Murray piled up a total of 336 yards on kick returns and ran back a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown.

That was just enough slide by Southeast which established season-highs in rushing yards (446), second-half points (29), total yards (537), first downs (31) and time of possession (42:00). The Redhawks also scored on four-straight possessions en route to tying the game late in the final half.

Drew Geldbach gave Southeast an early 3-0 lead when his 36-yard field goal split the uprights with 9:13 left in the first quarter.

Walter Powell returned the ensuing kickoff 83 yards to Southeast's 15-yardline setting up the Racers first score of the game. Three plays later, Casey Brockman threw a 7-yard pass to Ja-Von Trotter, giving Murray a 7-3 advantage with 8:01 left.

Geldbach missed a 50-yard field goal, before the Redhawks punted on their next possession.

Powell fielded Joe Vucic's kick in the end zone and sprinted 100 yards for a touchdown to quickly extend the Racers lead to 14-3 at the 9:09 mark of the second quarter. Powell became the first to return a punt for a touchdown against Southeast this season.

The Redhawks managed to cut Murray's lead to eight when Geldbach kicked a 46-yard field goal to make it 14-8 with 5:26 remaining.

Brockman's 13-yard run then capped a 9-play, 75-yard drive to give the Racers a 21-6 lead at halftime.

Southeast was forced to punt on its first drive of the second half, but had the Racers pinned inside their 1-yardline when Geldbach's first career punt was downed.

On the next play, Darrick Borum tackled Brockman in the end zone for a safety, slicing Murray's lead to 21-8 with 10:17 in the third quarter.

Southeast carried the momentum from its big defensive play over to its next drive, where it marched 48 yards in 10 plays to pull to within a touchdown.

After a pass interference penalty gave the Redhawks an automatic first down at the Racers 35-yard-line, Terrell picked up 22 yards on four-straight carries. Four plays later, Southeast scored its first touchdown of the game on a 3-yard pass from Lathrop to D.J. Foster with 5:25 left to play.

The Redhawks trailed 21-14 following a blocked PAT.

Murray answered with a 6-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in a 9-yard touchdown pass from Brockman to Trotter. That TD, which came in just 1:10, increased the Racers lead to 28-14 with 4:15 on the clock.

Southeast, however, answered right back when Terrell hit paydirt on a 2-yard run to polish off an 8-play, 66-yard march, chopping Murray's lead to 28-21 with 21 seconds left.

Another score, this time a 14-yard pass from Brockman to Powell, put Murray ahead, 35-21, early in the fourth quarter.

The see-saw battle continued and Southeast managed to tie the game with back-to-back touchdowns.

Terrell broke free for a 35-yard run and followed that up with a 12-yard touchdown run five plays later.

Lathrop completed a 35-yard pass to Foster which moved the Redhawks to Murray's 32-yardline before Terrell ran for 14 yards. Ron Coleman later scored on an 8-yard run to knot the game at 35-35 with 2:55 left to play.

Terrell ended his Southeast career with 215 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries.

OVC History

Now in its 66th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 13 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. She is currently one of just six females to be the head of a Division I conference, and one of just nine to lead a Division I conference all-time. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Through the past 65 years, 15 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 21 outright or shared football crowns (including sharing the title in 2011), which is tied for the most in Football Championship Subdivision history (with Massachusetts). Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with 10, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois has claimed six football crowns and Jacksonville State has three, while Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri, UT Martin and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh. EKU was coached by former All-America quarterback Roy Kidd, who was in his 16th year at the helm of his alma mater and who skippered the Colonels to a second national title three years later. Following the 2002 season, Kidd retired after 39 years at EKU; upon retirement, he ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches with 315 victories, earning him a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame. EKU's 20 FCS playoff appearances are the second for the most all-time (behind only Montana and tied with Appalachian State).

In addition to Kidd, other coaching legends in the OVC include Charles "Bubber" Murphy, who coached at Middle Tennessee from 1947-1968, Western Kentucky's Jimmy Feix (1968-83), Wilburn Tucker (1954-67) and Don Wade (1968-82) of Tennessee Tech, Bill Ferguson (1967-77) of Murray State, Guy Penny (1959-67) of Morehead State and Boots Donnelly (1977-78 at Austin Peay; 1979-1998 at Middle Tennessee). Following the 2011 season Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo retired after 25 years at the school (the last 16 as members of the OVC). In his time as an OVC coach he compiled 92 total victories (fifth-most in league history) and 68 OVC wins (fourth-most in league history) and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2012.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals. He would break into the starting lineup halfway through his rookie season and started at cornerback for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. The OVC has had at least one former player named a NFL Pro Bowl selection in four of the past seven seasons.

The 2007 season marked a return to scholarship football and the OVC for the Austin Peay

Governors. Following the 1996 season the Governors dropped scholarship football and competed as both an independent (1997-00, 2006) and as a member of the Pioneer Football League (2001-05).

The 2007 season also brought new vernacular to the Ohio Valley Conference and the division formerly known as I-AA. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game the term I-AA was changed to NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in a decision by the Division I Board of Directors. The new label was chosen to communicate in a positive and clear manner the unique differences between Division I football categories (chiefly, the post-season opportunity) while still defining them within the Division I experience. The FCS includes programs that compete in an effort to participate in the NCAA championship postseason structure (one of 89 NCAA national championships) as opposed to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) which competes in an effort to participate in the post-season bowl system (the 35 NCAA-licensed events which includes the Bowl Championship Series).

In 2010 Southeast Missouri State, picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll, compiled a 7-1 Conference record on the way to its first OVC Championship since joining the league in 1991. Overall the Redhawks were 9-2 during the regular season and earned a berth in the FCS Playoffs, its first playoff berth at any level in the program's 104-year history. Southeast would lose to eventual national champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the playoffs. Head coach Tony Samuel capped the year by winning the Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award, given to the National Coach of the Year. Samuel was the second OVC coach to win the award (joining Murray State's Houston Nutt who won the award in 1995).

For only the second time in league history in 2011, three teams shared the OVC football championship, as Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech finished with 6-2 records. The only other time in league history more than two champions were crowned at the end of the year was 1962 (when four teams shared the crown).

In 2012 Eastern Illinois became just the fourth football team in OVC history to go from worst-to-first in winning the OVC Championship. The Panthers were led by head coach Dino Babers who became just the fourth first-year head coach to win an OVC Championship (joining Boots Donnelly in 1977, Jason Simpson in 2006 and Dean Hood in 2008). During the year Eastern Illinois junior wide receiver Erik Lora shattered the FCS single-season receptions record, hauling in 136 passes in 12 games; that mark was 13 more than the previous NCAA record and 44 more than the previous OVC mark.

Football wasn't the only sport in which the OVC was quickly gaining respect. In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants. The Conference quickly proved worthy of that bid, as Morehead State defeated Marshall (107-92) and Wayne State (95-84) in the 1956 tournament.

Fifteen years later, former OVC member Western Kentucky became the first and only Conference team to reach the Final Four. The Hilltoppers defeated Jacksonville, Kentucky and Ohio State before losing to Villanova in double overtime in the national semifinals. WKU went on to finish in third place after beating Kansas 77-75 in the consolation game.

Since that time, the OVC has recorded some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Tournament. Perhaps the most famous moment came in 1987, when Austin Peay came from fourth place in the regular season to win the OVC Tournament and earn the league's automatic bid. The Governors drew powerful Illinois, and were such big underdogs, that ESPN broadcaster Dick Vitale promised to stand on his head if APSU won the game. After a 68-67 victory over the Illini, and a narrow 90-87 overtime loss to eventual Final Four participant Providence in the second round, Vitale made good on his promise in a visit to Clarksville two months later.

Murray State added to the OVC's string of upsets in 1988 when it knocked off 14th-ranked North Carolina State, 78-75. The Racers' M&M Boys - Jeff Martin and Don Mann - combined for 39 points in the win. MSU nearly went on to the Sweet 16 that year, losing to eventual national champion Kansas, 61-58. A bank shot by Mann that would've given the Racers a one-point lead rolled off the rim with three seconds left. In 1990 as a No. 16 seed, Murray State took No. 1 seed Michigan State into overtime before falling 75-71; that game still marks the closest a No. 16 seed has come to knocking off a No. 1 in men's tournament action. More recently, Murray State has dominated the OVC Tournament, reaching the championship game every year in the 1990's. The Racers' 15 OVC Tournament Championships are the most among all OVC schools.

After former member Middle Tennessee State won a first round game in 1989, the league had a drought as no other OVC team won a NCAA Tournament game for the next 19 years. But Morehead State, coming off a thrilling double overtime OVC Tournament victory over Austin Peay, topped Alabama State 58-43 in the Opening Round game at University of Dayton Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The game was played in front of an Opening Round record crowd of 11,346; that crowd included many MSU fans who made the three-hour drive from Morehead for the game.

In 2009-10, Murray State made OVC history by winning a record 31 games (31-5) on its way to the league's regular season and tournament championships. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the No. 13 seed Racers topped Vanderbilt in thrilling fashion when senior Danero Thomas hit a jumper as time expired to lift MSU to a 66-65 victory. It marked the first OVC team to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament since 1989, and snapped a skid of 71-straight loses to Southeastern Conference foes (dating back to 2000-01). In the second round the Racers pushed eventual national runner-up Butler to the brink before losing 54-52.

In 2010-11 Morehead State would make it three NCAA Tournament wins in as many years for the league and got a bit of revenge for the 2009 tournament loss to Louisville in the process. After finishing second in the regular season and winning the OVC Tournament Championship, the No. 13 seeded Eagles were shipped to Denver to play the in-state foe Cardinals. MSU jumped out to a 15-2 advantage but were down four points (61-57) with just over a minute to play in regulation. After two free throws from two-time OVC Player of the Year Kenneth Faried, the Eagles held for one final shot attempt and senior Demonte Harper pulled up off a cross-over dribble to nail a 3-pointer with 4.3 seconds left that gave Morehead State a 62-61 lead. UofL had one last attempt but Faried blocked the Cardinals last shot, giving MSU the win, its first over Louisville since the 1956-57 season.

In 2011-12 Murray State put together one of the greatest seasons in OVC history, beginning the year 23-0 (an all-time OVC best) and being ranked as high as No. 7 in the coaches poll on Feb. 6. The squad was the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since Murray State was ranked in 1997-98; in addition the top 10 ranking was the first for an OVC team since the 1970-71 campaign (WKU). The Racers would top nationally-ranked Memphis and Saint Mary's during the season and win the league's regular season and tournament championships. MSU earned a No. 6 seed in NCAA Tournament, the highest-ever seed for an OVC team since the NCAA began seeding the field in 1979. The Racers would top Colorado State 58-41 in the second round before falling to Marquette in the third round. Murray State would win 31 games overall, tying the OVC all-time record the Racers set in 2009-10.

After the Murray State win in 2011-12, the league had won NCAA Tournament games in four-straight seasons, something that had never happened in league history (three-game winning streaks from 1960-62 and 1987-89 had been the previous best streaks). Over that time period (2009-12) the OVC was one of just nine conferences nationally to win a NCAA Tournament game in each season and one of only three non-BCS leagues (joining the Atlantic 10 and WCC) to do so.

During the 2010-11 year Faried, the nation's leading rebounder during the season, became the NCAA's Modern Era (since 1973) career rebounding leader, totaling 1,673 rebounds which passed Tim Duncan for the record (he is 11th all-time in NCAA history). Faried also finished his career with 86 double-doubles, second all-time to only Duncan. He is one of only six players in NCAA history to finish with 2,000-plus career points (2,009) and 1,600-plus career rebounds. Faried was drafted 22nd overall by the Denver Nuggets in the 2011 NBA Draft, becoming the first OVC player selected in the first round since Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers 1994.

Through its 65 years, 13 teams have won or shared the league's regular season men's basketball title. Murray State heads the list with a Conference-record 23 outright or shared basketball crowns. Other past champions include former member Western Kentucky (19), Morehead State (9), Austin Peay (8), Eastern Kentucky (6), Tennessee Tech (5), former member Middle Tennessee (5), Tennessee State (2), former member East Tennessee State (2), Belmont (1 – winning the 2012-13 title in its first year in the league), Southeast Missouri State (1), UT Martin (1) and former member Akron (1).

Among the coaching greats in men's basketball have been Western Kentucky's E.A. Diddle, who retired with 759 victories and 10 OVC titles; John Oldham, who was a member of the very first All-OVC squad and went on to win seven OVC crowns during his coaching tenure at Tennessee Tech and Western Kentucky; Paul McBrayer, who guided Eastern Kentucky to 219 wins and three OVC crowns; and Cal Luther, who is the only person in Conference history to win men's basketball Coach of the Year honors at two league schools - Murray State and UT Martin. Current Austin Peay head coach Dave Loos became the winningest coach in OVC history in 2009-10, netting his 319th victory and passing Luther on the all-time list. Loos enters the 2013-14 season with 371 victories.

There have been an equal number of great players including Western Kentucky's Clem Haskins, who is the only three-time OVC Player of the Year. Several players have won OVC Player of the Year honors twice: Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniels (1969-70 and 1970-71), Murray State's Les Taylor (1971-72, 1972-73), Jeff Martin (1987-88, 1988-89), Popeye Jones (1989-90, 1990-91) and Marcus Brown (1994-95, 1995-96), Austin Peay's Otis Howard (1976-77, 1977-78), Middle Tennessee's Jerry Beck (1980-81, 1981-82), Akron's Joe Jakubick (1982-83, 1983-84), Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers (1992-93, 1993-94), UT Martin's Lester Hudson (2007-08, 2008-09), Morehead State's Kenneth Faried (2009-10, 2010-11) and Murray State's Isaiah Canaan (2011-12, 2012-13).

The OVC also has the honor of being the only conference to boast the nation's leaders in scoring, rebounding and assists all in one season. That feat was accomplished in 1991-92 by Morehead State's Brett Roberts (28.1 ppg), Murray State's Popeye Jones (14.4 rpg) and Tennessee Tech's Van Usher (8.8 apg).

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft.

Murray State guard Isaiah Canaan, a first-team All-American in 2011-12, capped his illustrious career in 2012-13 by becoming just the 17th player in OVC history to score 2,000 or more career points (and the third player in the past three years to do so). Canaan, who was a key part of Murray State NCAA Tournament victories in both 2010 and 2012, earned a pair of OVC Player of the Year honors (2012 and 2013) during his career as well as being named OVC Freshman of the Year (2010), OVC Tournament MVP (2010) and OVC Male Athlete of the Year (2012).

Women's basketball in the OVC has been dominated by Tennessee Tech, which has won or shared 18 regular-season titles and owns nine OVC Tournament crowns. In fact, the Golden Eagles have reached the championship game of the OVC Tournament 22 times in the past 32 years. Although Tennessee Tech remains the standard-bearer, five other teams have won 13 of the last 20 OVC Tournaments. UT Martin became the latest program to add its name to the list, capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011 and also winning championships in 2012 and 2013. The Skyhawks were the first team to three-peat since Austin Peay won four-straight titles from 2000-03. Austin Peay leads the remaining teams with seven crowns while Tennessee State, Eastern Kentucky, Murray State and Southeast Missouri each have won titles during that span.

Several coaches have made their mark in the history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at EKU and three at MTSU. In 2012-13 Inman came out of retirement to take the Tennessee State job.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; and Murray State's Ashley Hayes.

Bozeman finished her collegiate career in 2010-11 by winning her second consecutive OVC Player of the Year award. Her 2,170 points ranks her eighth all-time in OVC history, her 377 made career 3-pointers is first in OVC history and sixth in NCAA history and her 1,096 career 3-point attempts ranks first in OVC history and second in NCAA history.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken). During the campaign, only her second with the Eagles, she also set career block records for both Morehead State and the OVC (287).

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC will serve as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event will be held April 6 & 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville.

Over its 65 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Trenton Hassell (Austin Peay), football player Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players A.J. Ellis (Austin Peay) and Jon Rauch (Morehead State). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and a NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six straight tournament crowns. Former EKU skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 30 years, 11 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regular-season titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006 and winning a NCAA Tournament match in 2010, the league's first NCAA victory since 2000.

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third-straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. Four other individuals - Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) and Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) – were back-to-back winners of the award.

Morehead State won its third-straight OVC regular season championship in 2012. Over that time period the Eagles have compiled an impressive 52-2 league record.

In 2007, Eastern Kentucky's Jacob Korir won his fourth-straight Conference cross country title becoming just the third OVC student-athlete and 13th athlete nationally to accomplish that feat. Korir was a three-time All-American in cross country, earning two top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championship. The Nairobi, Kenya, native was also named a track and field All-American twice during his career, was selected as the OVC Male Athlete of the Year in 2006-07 and received the NCAA post graduate scholarship in 2008.

In 2011 the Eastern Kentucky men's cross country earned a national ranking in the USTFCCCA poll, climbing to as high as No. 17; the ranking was the highest for an OVC team since the polls began in the early 1980s. The EKU men would qualify for the NCAA Championship, becoming the first OVC team to reach the national championship meet since 1980. Eastern Kentucky finished 26th overall at the event as junior Soufiane Bouchikhi was 47th in a field of 252 runners. On the women's side Eastern Kentucky senior Lydia Kosgei became the first EKU woman to ever qualify for the NCAA Championship and went on to finish 37th at the national meet, marking the second-highest finish for a female in OVC history, and also earning All-American honors. A year later (2012) the EKU men's cross country team was ranked as high as No. 11 nationally and finished 24th at the NCAA Championship. Wade Meddles led the team with a 38th place finish at the event while Bouchikhi was 40th.

In 2007 the Conference had two teams in the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament for the first time in league history, as former OVC member Samford earned an at-large selection while Southeast Missouri was the Conference's automatic bid.

In 2009 it was OVC softball that accomplished several firsts as UT Martin (tournament champion) and Jacksonville State (at-large) were each selected for the NCAA Championship. Jacksonville State would take it a step farther by winning the Knoxville Regional (beating No. 13 national seed Tennessee along the way) to become the first

OVC History

OVC softball program to advance to a Super Regional. Jax State would fall to No. 4 Alabama in that Super Regional but finished the season 43-16 (19-2 OVC) and ranked 21st nationally in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and 24th nationally in the USA Today/NFCA poll.

The league's baseball presence has continued to evolve since its inception. The OVC baseball tournament moved to a neutral site for the first time in 2001 with Paducah, Ky. and Brooks Stadium hosting the tournament in front of raucous crowds. The success of the tournament led to Jackson, Tenn. and The Ballpark at Jackson (formerly Pringles Park) – the home of the Seattle Mariner's Class AA affiliate – hosting the event for the first time in 2010.

The OVC also has made a statement in the NCAA Baseball Championship in recent years, with its teams involved in several memorable contests in the last decade. Tennessee Tech surprised Wake Forest in the opening round of the 2001 tournament and Southeast Missouri stunned host Alabama in the opening round of the 2002 championship. Five years later, Austin Peay captured the collegiate baseball world's attention by taking Vanderbilt, the 2007 No. 1 overall seed, to extra innings. Eastern Illinois pushed host Nebraska to the limit in 2008 followed by Tennessee Tech's memorable contest against host Clemson in 2009.

After not making the OVC Tournament field in either 2009 or 2010, Austin Peay, who was picked to finish seventh in the 2011 preseason poll, won the regular season and tournament championships to garner its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. In the first game of NCAA Regional play the Govs knocked off host and No. 1 seed Georgia Tech 2-1.

In 2012 Austin Peay completed a "repeat squared" (back-to-back regular season and tournament championships) for the first-time in OVC history. The Govs would go on to top Indiana State and Cal State Fullerton at the Eugene Regional, before falling to host Oregon in the regional final. In marked the first time since the 2000 season (Middle Tennessee) that an OVC team had won multiple NCAA Tournaments games in the same season.

Austin Peay completed a "3-Peayt" by winning its third-straight OVC Tournament crown in 2013. Along the way the Govs garnered the first nationally-ranking by an OVC team since 2009 (climbing to as high as 21st nationally) and tied the OVC single-season record with 47 victories. The Govs earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Bloomington Regional, becoming the first OVC team in the current regional format (since 1999) to earn anything other than a No. 4 seed. The squad topped Florida and Valparaiso to advance to the regional final for the second-straight season before losing to host Indiana. Govs senior closer Tyler Rogers was a big part of his team's success during the year, tying the NCAA single-season record for saves (23).

After the 2013 baseball season OVC teams have won at least one game in the NCAA regional round in five of the last seven years.

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year. A year later (2009) the league had a Major League Baseball First Round Compensation Round pick (Eastern Illinois' Tyler Kehrer who was No. 48 overall) and NBA Second Round pick (UT Martin's Lester Hudson) in the same season.

In 2010 a record 13 OVC baseball players were selected in Major League Baseball's First-Year Player Draft. In each of the past two years (2012 and 2013) the OVC has had 24 total players selected (12 in each draft).

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 215 student-athletes honored with the award, including 36 over the last four years (2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13).

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

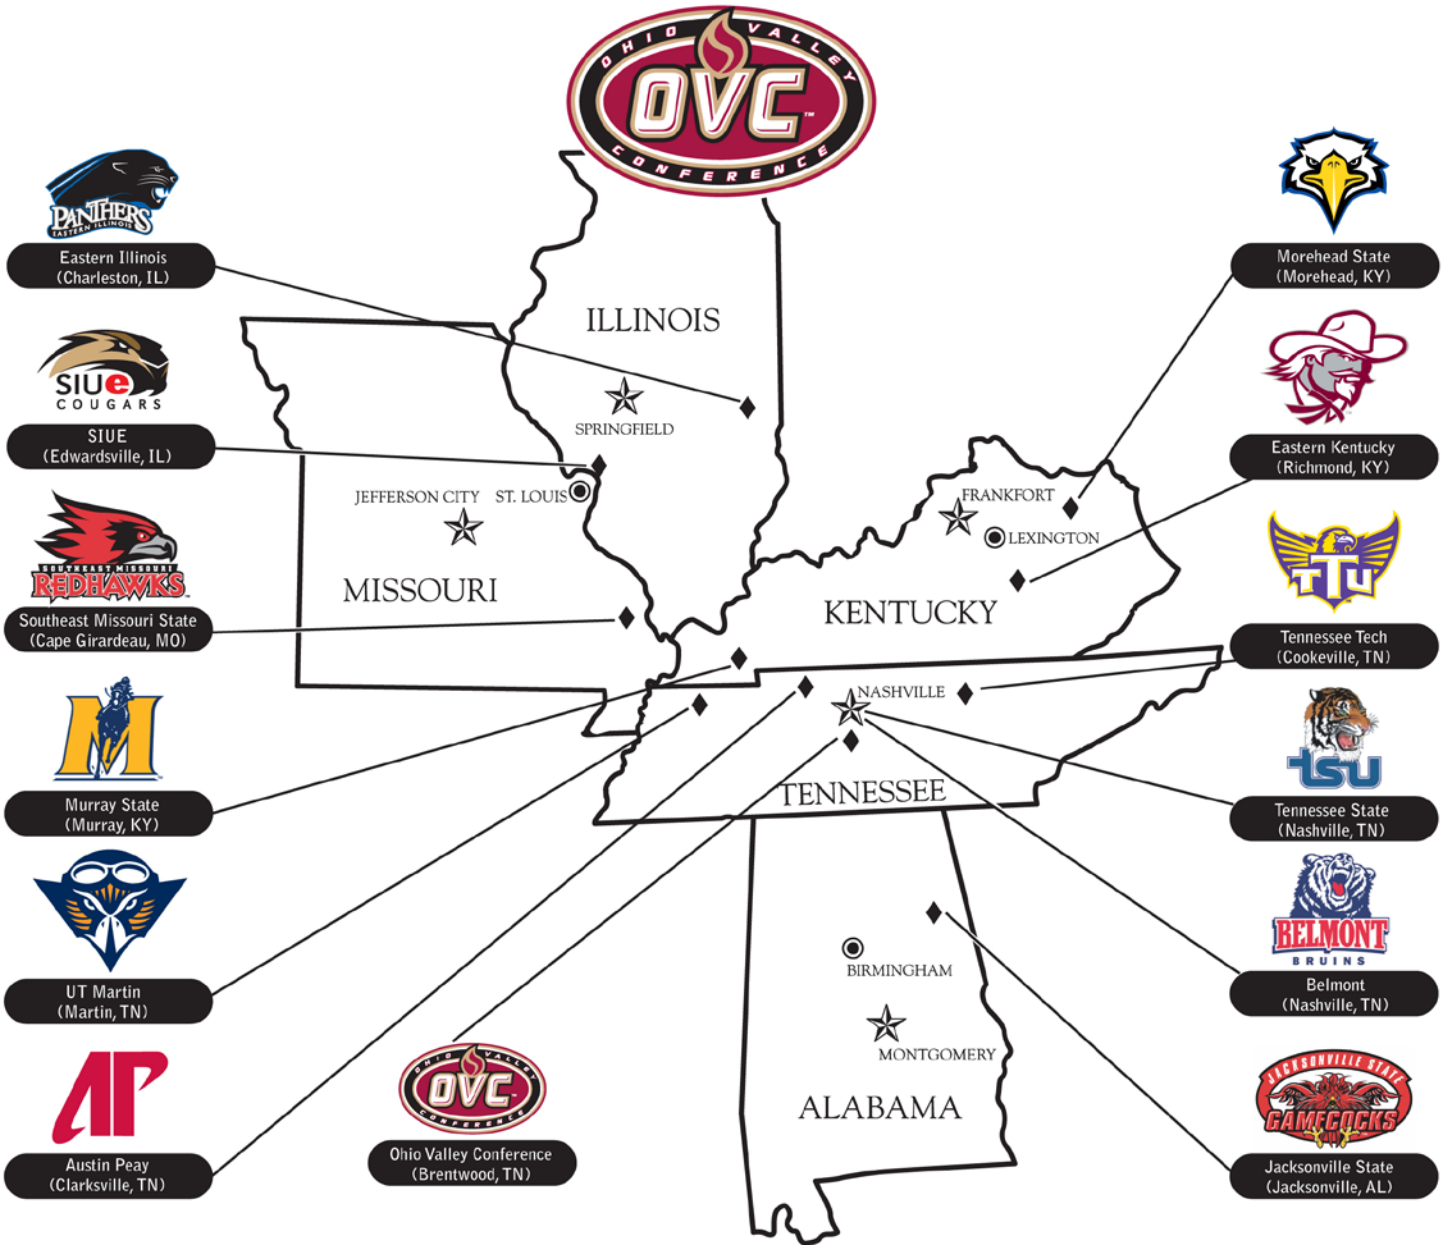

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Retired Jersey Numbers

40

Number 40 worn by All-American tackle Kenneth Dement was retired on Nov. 11, 1989. Dement, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame, started at Southeast from 1951-54, earning All-American honors in 1953 and 1954. Following his senior season, Dement was the first Southeast player ever drafted by a NFL team. He was drafted by the New York Giants, but opted to join the Marines.

58

Number 58 worn by Ken Iman, who played 14 seasons in the NFL, was retired on Oct. 4, 1974. Iman played at Southeast from 1956-59. He was signed as a free agent by the Green Bay Packers and spent four seasons with the Packers before being traded to the Los Angeles Rams. He was the Rams Most Valuable Player in 1972. Iman spent several years as an assistant coach in the NFL and currently serves as an assistant to the President of the Philadelphia Eagles.

67

Number 67 worn by Mike Wood was retired on April 23, 1978. Wood established a new NCAA record for career field goals during his senior season in 1977. He broke the old record of 51 on Sept. 17, 1977 with a 27-yard kick against Delta State at Houck Stadium. His NCAA record total of 64 stood for several years and is still the record at Southeast.
Wood, who currently resides in St. Louis, played professionally with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Diego Chargers.

ABOUT SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

Southeast Missouri State University

The college experience of a lifetime. The job of your dreams. A life that is amazing.

That is what most students and parents want from a college education. At Southeast, we want the same for you. We want you to learn your profession, gain the experience or internship you need, and get that first paycheck!

The growing—and changing—student body has had an impact on everything and everyone. The physical changes of the campus are the most visible. Two new residence halls. The River Campus. The polytechnic building. An information commons in the library. And so on.

Students and faculty are experiencing change of a different kind. Classroom activity has reached a new level of productivity, as students are brighter and more prepared than ever. Enrollment is at an all-time high. The impact on the honors program has been dramatic with more students than ever choosing to participate in and complete the honors curriculum. The number participating tripled in five years!

All of this means that Southeast has become Missouri's most academically competitive regional university.

2009—InsideCollege.com experts single out our honors program as an effective way to make a large school seem smaller with a more personal approach to learning.

2010—Computer science receives prestigious national accreditation.

2010—Southeast is named the safest campus in Missouri and among the safest in the nation by StateUniversity.com.

2010—Consumer watchdog group GetEducated.com ranks Southeast #1 on its list of "Top 10 Ranked Best Values Online MBAs–AACSB Accredited."

We have...

- Small classes with 98 percent of courses having fewer than 50 students
- Faculty with PhDs—not teaching assistants—who teach most classes
- More than 200 areas of study
- Wired (and wireless) classrooms and best-of-class technology
- Internships and real-world learning offered in 100 percent of programs
- Study abroad opportunities that take you almost anywhere

We are...

- NCAA Division I Athletics
- Listed among the Midwest's top universities
- One of the safest college campuses in the nation
- Conveniently located 115 miles south of St. Louis
- A medium-sized university with more than 11,000 students
- Comprised of ten colleges and schools

We provide...

- Choices in the University Studies (general education) classes
- Some of the newest residence halls in Missouri
- 150 organizations that keep you busy after class
- Each student with two advisors—academic and career
- Fraternities and sororities that are productive and fun
- One of a kind student aquatic center in one of our two recreation centers

2011—U.S. News & World Report names Southeast a "Best Midwest Regional University."

2011—Princeton Review again names Southeast as one of the "Best in the Midwest," representing only about 25 percent of the nation's four-year colleges.

2011—For seven consecutive years, Princeton Review includes Harrison College of Business on its list of "Best Business Schools."

2012—U.S. News & World Report lists both nursing and communication disorders on its list of top graduate programs in health.

Southeast Missouri State University

Donald L. Harrison College of Business

Our increasingly popular business programs have made us one of the major colleges of business in the Midwest. The Donald L. Harrison College of Business is accredited by AACSB International—the gold standard of business school accreditation—an honor held by only 5 percent of institutions offering business degrees worldwide.

- Employers and students value our techno-savvy environment. In a recent survey of 98 nationally known business programs, Southeast ranked in the top 7 percent in learning to use and manage technology.
- Our entrepreneurial studies program is Missouri's most comprehensive, offering options for both BSBA and MBA degrees. The Douglas C. Greene Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship is one of the most comprehensive entrepreneurship-focused university centers in the Midwest.
- Southeast students have access to more than 30 international exchange and study abroad opportunities in London, Paris, Spain, Portugal and North Africa.
- One hundred percent of our students have the opportunity to participate in internship programs with companies nationwide.
- Doctoral level professors make learning interactive with classrooms that have Internet, cable TV, direct satellite feed and electronic presentation capability.
- St. Louis employers rate the "St. Louis Interview Days" as the best recruiting event in which they participate in the Midwest.
- Our accounting curriculum prepares students for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) designations. Students may go to work directly into an accounting field or go on to complete the 150 hours required by Missouri, and other states, to sit for the CPA examination. Our first-time pass rates on the CPA exam continue to be well above the national average.
- Business programs are housed in Dempster Hall, a wireless Internet environment featuring an electronic presentation lab and more than 400 networked computers with the latest software.

College of Education

If you are considering teaching as a profession, you are looking at the right university. For more than a century, Southeast has been preparing and sustaining some of the nation's brightest and best teachers. Moreover, we have a record of accomplishment to prove it.

- Most importantly, our education program is fully accredited by the National Council of Teacher Education (NCATE), which sets the highest standards for teacher education programs nationwide.
- The Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education approved 28 initial teacher preparation programs and all 12 graduate programs.
- Because you begin assisting and observing in area classrooms starting in your first year, you accumulate more teaching practice and knowledge than graduates from other universities.
- The College of Education maintained national recognition through a rigorous review process form 11 specialized professional associations.
- Our counseling program is now one of only three in Missouri to be accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs.

College of Health and Human Services

Although there are diverse academic offerings in the College of Health and Human Services, all programs potentially lead to a career that significantly and positively impacts the lives of individuals and families.

- All nursing programs (nurse and nurse practitioner) are accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education.
- The recreation program is accredited by the Council on Accreditation for Recreation, Park Resources and Leisure Services.
- The Communications Disorders program allows students to receive clinical experience with children and adults who have speech, language or hearing disorders.
- Aerospace Studies offers a path to leadership for those intending to pursue officer positions in the United States Air Force. During a summer field training course for the Professional Officer Corps, students experience survival training, aircraft and air crew orientation, physical training and the inner operations of an Air Force base.
- Our nationally accredited social work program requires students to complete 480 hours of field education under the supervision of experienced social workers.
- Southeast has a strong connection with the Law Enforcement Academy and has more than 30 years of partnerships in all branches of criminal justice at the federal, state and local levels. Our students intern with the U.S. Marshals Service; the ATF; the U.S. Secret Service; Federal Probation; Missouri Division of Probation and Parole; Missouri Youth Services and other law enforcement agencies.
- The dietetics program is accredited by the American Dietetic Association Commission. Our graduates have a success rate of nearly 100 percent on the national exam to become a registered dietitian.

College of Liberal Arts

An education in the liberal arts gives you broad-based training for careers in business, the arts, media, education and the legal profession.

- Southeast's mass communication program is accredited by the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications (ACEJMC). Only one other institution in Missouri has this elite accreditation. Our public relations program is one of only 28 institutions—none in Missouri—that holds certification by the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA). Only 12 other institutions in the world have recognition from both ACEJMC and PRSA for their mass communication program.
- Students can work at two campus radio stations (NPR affiliate KRCU 90.9 FM and KDMC 103.7), the Arrow student newspaper and "U2" cable television station.
- Our certified historic preservation program is one of a few U.S. programs that offer a four-year degree and is among a small number to have full membership in the National Council for Preservation of Education.
- During the last five years, Southeast's pre-law students have exceeded the national LSAT average score, and their placement rate in law school approaches 100 percent.
- Students majoring in philosophy have a 100 percent acceptance rate to graduate and law school.
- Our students make politics come alive by working on political campaigns and by serving as interns. Each year approximately 30 students from a variety of majors around the University travel to Washington, D.C. to conference with some of the nation's top scholars at the Center for Strategic and International Studies.

Southeast Missouri State University

College of

Science, Technology and Agriculture

The foundation of success in Southeast's College of Science, Technology and Agriculture is a faculty of teacher-scholars supported by well equipped laboratories and the latest technology, which offer our students personalized study and research opportunities during their undergraduate studies.

- Our popular computer science bachelor's program is nationally accredited by the Computing Accreditation Commission of the Accreditation Board of Engineering Technology.
- Our popular marine biology program is one of the only inland programs in the U. S., creating an opportunity for students to combine a traditional college experience with the study of marine life because of our collaboration with the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory in Ocean Springs, Miss.
- Southeast's pre-med curriculum prepares students for the MCAT (Medical College Admission Test). Our students are accepted to medical school at a rate that is well above the national average.
- Our chemistry graduates consistently score at or above the 70th percentile on the Major Field Achievement Test in Chemistry.
- Our engineering physics program is nationally accredited by the Accrediting Board of Engineering and Technology (ABET), the sole accrediting body of engineering programs, which means that graduates of the program are eligible to become registered professional engineers.
- All of the bachelor of science programs in the Department of Industrial and Engineering Technology are nationally accredited.
- In addition to a 252-acre David M. Barton Agriculture Research Center, Agriculture students study at a 110-acre rice research station, a new irrigated turf plot facility, and a modern soil fertility laboratory.
- The School of Polytechnic Studies operates the 11,000-square-foot, climate-controlled Charles L. Hutson Horticulture Greenhouse.
- Our new cybersecurity program is the only one of its kind in Missouri. The U.S. Department of Labor estimates there will be 135,000 new jobs in this field by 2018–a 21 percent increase in Missouri alone.
- The innovative sustainable energy systems management major responds to world needs to address global warming, air pollution and ecosystem destruction.
- Southeast's pre-veterinary medicine program prepares students for admission to the College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Missouri-Columbia.
- Mathematics faculty are actively involved in research and design projects of interest to students.

Earl and Margie Holland School of

Visual and Performing Arts

Classic beauty and modern technology converge at Southeast's River Campus—Missouri's only campus dedicated exclusively to art, dance, music and theatre. Overlooking the Mississippi River, a Cultural Arts Center and transformed Seminary Building are now home to the Earl and Margie Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts. With the coming of this magnificent facility, the number of new students planning to major in the visual and performing arts doubled in one year.

- Art students have five interconnected art studios for painting, drawing, printmaking, fibers and design plus two computerized looms, as well as two presses in the printmaking studio and a computer design lab with the latest hardware and software available.
- Students find internships and professional experience at the Berkshire Theatre Festival, the Lucille Lortel Theatre in New York, the McLeod Summer Theatre or the University of Connecticut Summer Theatre and more.
- In 2008, the Golden Eagles Marching Band performed at the Edinburgh Military Tattoo in Scotland becoming only the second American university marching band to perform there twice.
- In addition to performances throughout the season, featuring world famous guest artists, the Southeast Missouri Symphony Orchestra exchanged music as well as culture in China when they performed concerts in Shanghai and Beijing in 2009.
- The River Campus gives students the opportunity to show their work in a variety of first-class venues: the 950-seat Donald C. Bedell Performance Hall is a proscenium theatre with spacious stage and backstage areas. The 200-seat Wendy Kurka Rust Flexible Theatre can be configured in unlimited ways for "black box" productions. The 200-seat Robert F. and Gertrude L. Shuck Music Recital Hall features nearly perfect acoustics. a student/faculty art gallery features technology that allows for the display of 3-D animation, as well as painting, prints, ceramics and sculpture. The Rosemary Berkel and Harry L. Crisp II Museum has an interactive educational theatre, art gallery for changing exhibitions and a permanent display featuring southeast Missouri.

Living on Campus

Southeast offers students 11 residence halls from which to choose. Each room has Internet access and cable TV. Nine dining areas are available with a variety of options. And, with more than 150 diverse organizations, students find plenty of opportunities to get involved.

NCAA Football Championship Subdivision

The NCAA's Branding and Fan Experience Group has recently launched a new logo for the Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The new logo is intended to raise awareness of FCS football, the level of Division I football in which the Ohio Valley Conference competes amongst other traditional powers.

The new FCS logo is part of the new "Every Down. Every Day." promotional campaign that will kick off during the 2013 season.

The 2013 season marks the first of an expanded 24-team playoff bracket, up from 20 teams a year ago. The first round will feature 16 teams in eight matchups with the winners advancing to the second round to play eight teams who have received a bye. This year, the FCS playoffs will begin on Saturday, November 30 and conclude with the National Championship game on Saturday, January 4 in Frisco, Texas.

Every Down. Every Day.

CHENEY, Wash. - Fifth-seeded Eastern Washington scored 23 unanswered points, including 20 in the second half, en route to a 37-17 win over Southeast Missouri in the second round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

EWU kicked a field goal with one second left in the first half, before breaking a 17-17 tie with 20 points in the second stanza.

"I'm proud of our guys. It was a heckuva season," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "We played a real tough first half. It's no secret that we lost the game in the second half."

Bo Levi Mitchell, a transfer out of Football Bowl Subdivision SMU, completed a go-ahead 10-yard touchdown pass to Nicholas Edwards to give the Eagles a 24-17 lead with 4:56 left in the third quarter.

After Big Sky Conference Defensive Player of the Year J.C. Sherritt stopped Henry Harris on a 4th-and-1, EWU took over on downs at the Redhawks 43-yard-line.

Five plays later, Levi Mitchell hooked up with Greg Herd for a 10-yard strike to extend the Eagles lead to 31-17 with 13:40 remaining in the fourth quarter. Taiwan Jones ran the ball for 12 yards on two carries prior to the score.

The Redhawks caught a bad break on special teams when Cameron Zuber's punt went off of the foot of Sheldon McCullough. Jake Potter recovered and EWU was in business again, this time at the Southeast 39-yardline.

The turnover resulted in a 9-yard touchdown run by Mario Brown and the Eagles pulled ahead, 37-17, with 5:57 left.

Southeast's miscue was the first of four turnovers in the final nine minutes.

Matt Scheible was picked off twice and Josh Coleman fumbled on a punt return, but none of those mishaps led to any points.

EWU and Southeast exchanged field goals before heading into the locker room deadlocked at 17-17.

Drew Geldbach connected from 34 yards out with 43 seconds remaining and Mike Jarrett split the uprights from 39 yards away with one second on the clock.

Levi Mitchell completed 21-of-34 passes for 178 yards and two touchdowns and Jones rushed for 168 yards and two TDs on 25 carries to lead EWU. Jones also averaged 6.7 yards per carry on the day.

Defensively, the Eagles held Southeast to only 12 rushing yards and 26 yards of total offense in the second half. Sherritt registered 10 tackles.

Harris gained 108 yards and scored one touchdown on 20 attempts. It marked the 10th time Harris ran for over 100 yards in 12 starts this season.

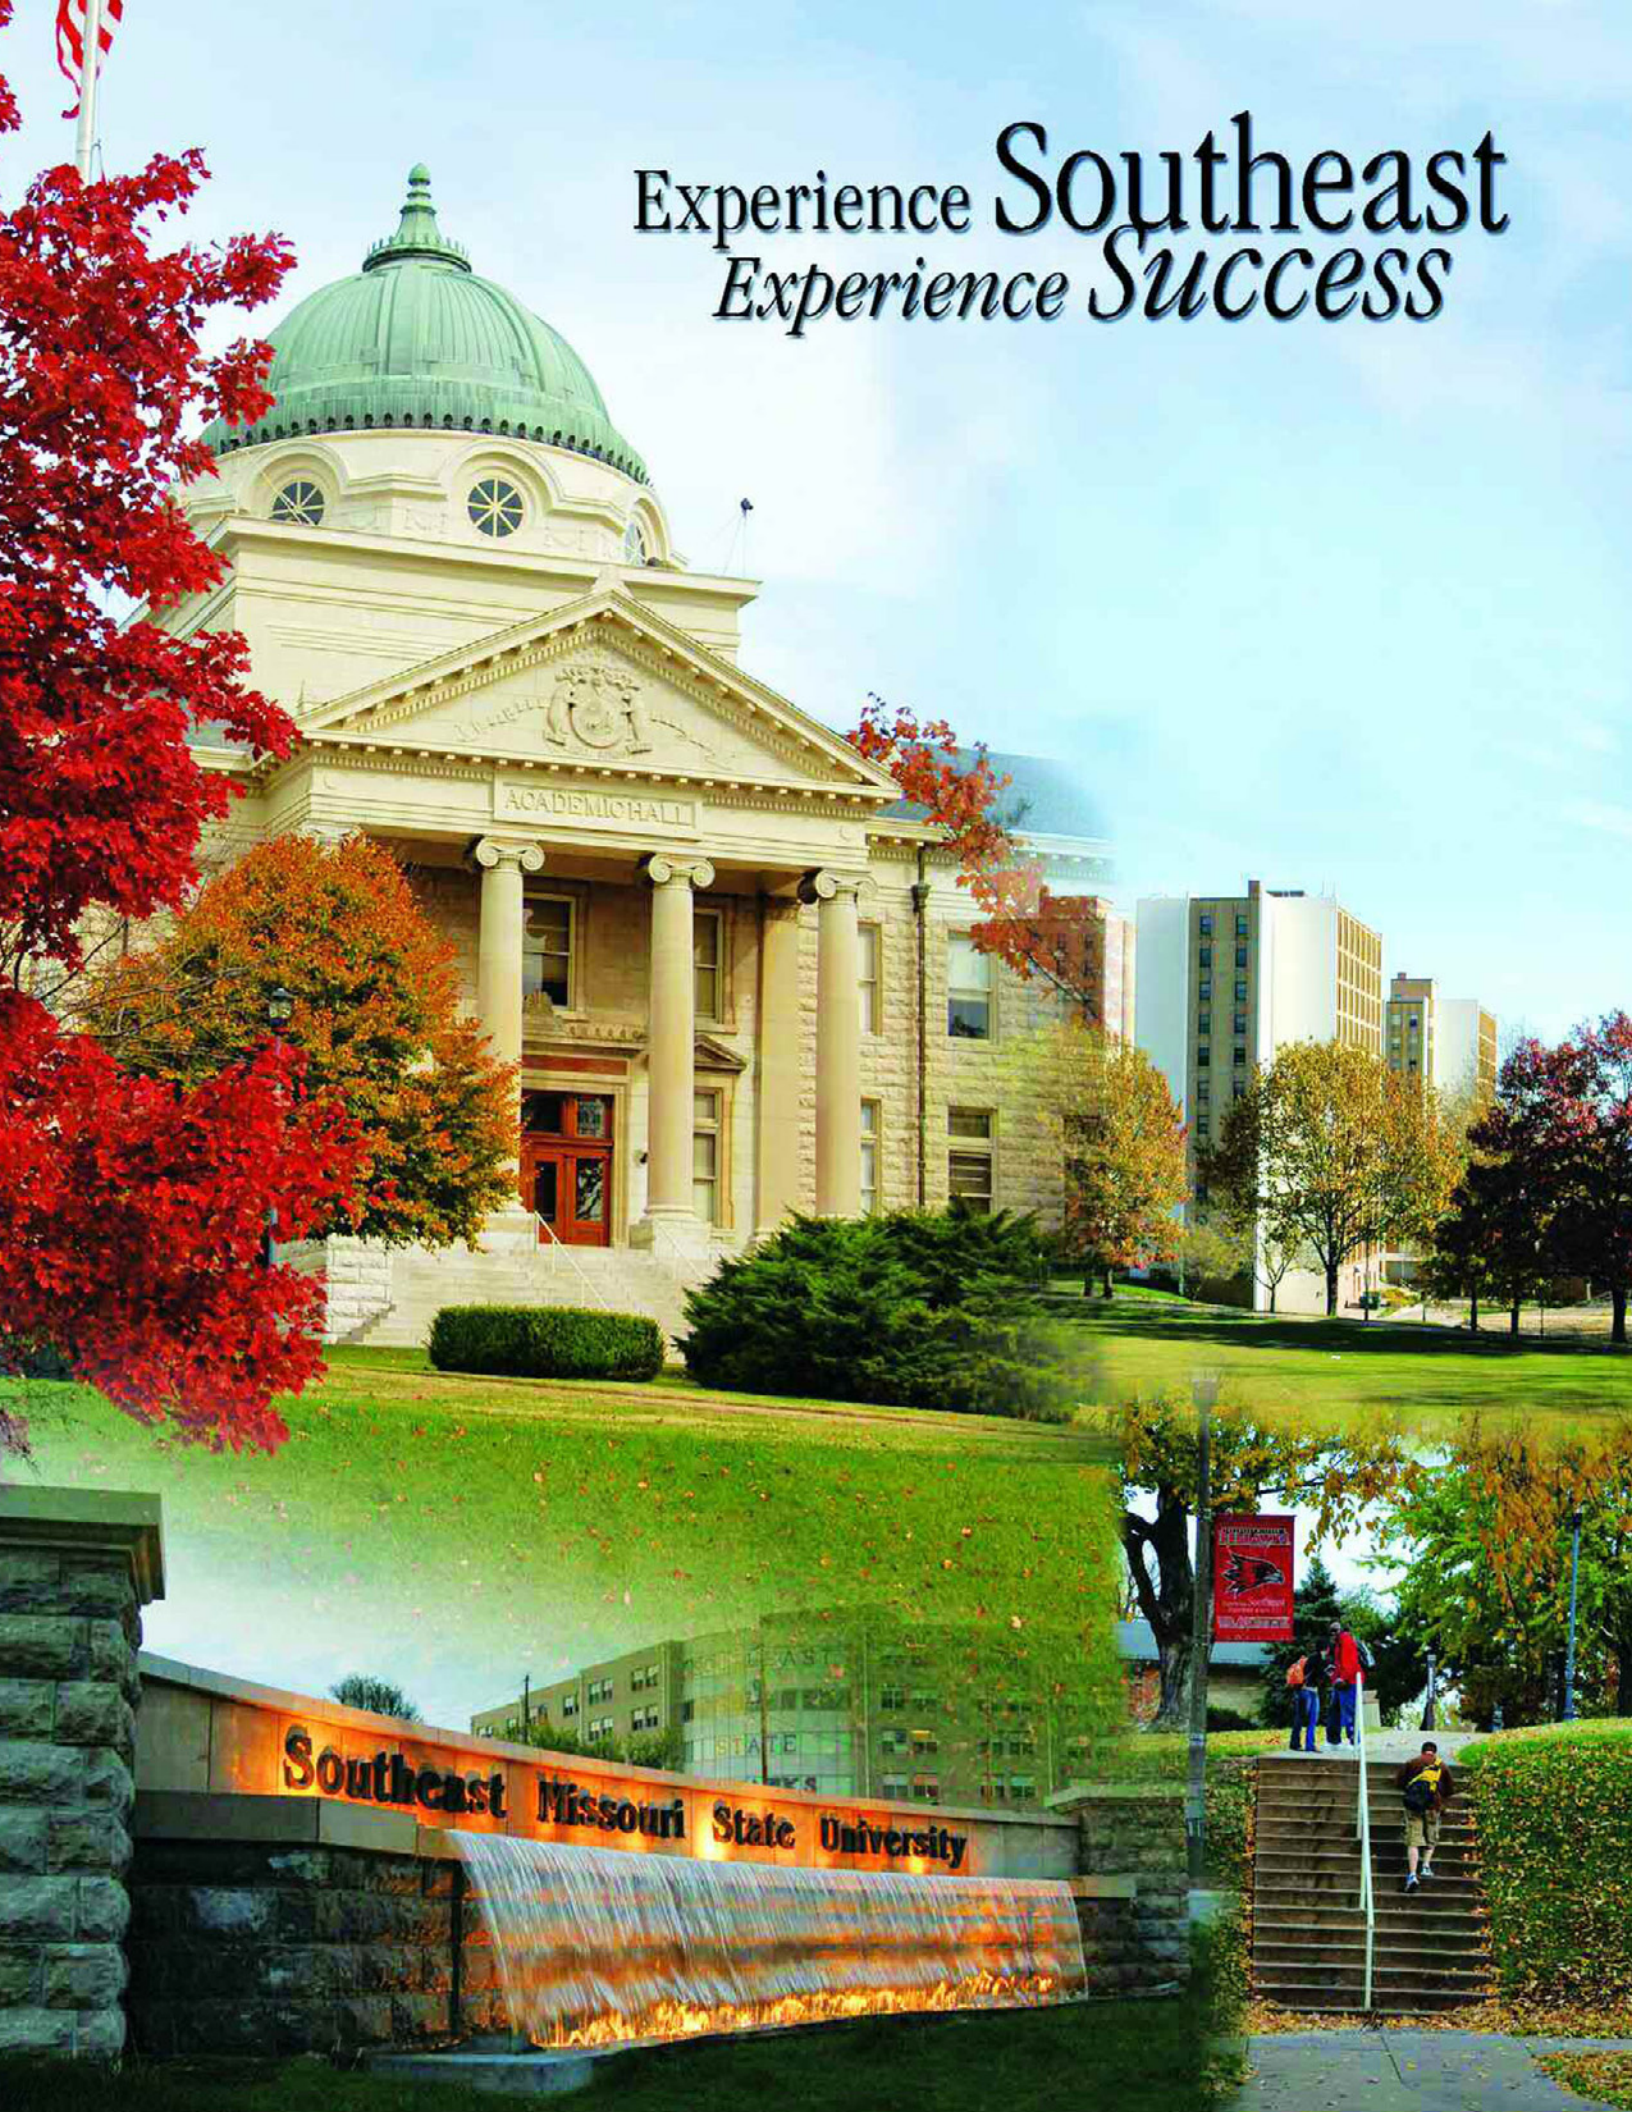

Scheible completed 6-of-15 passes for 69 yards and ran for 54 yards on 14 carries.

Jackson posted a career-high 15 tackles and Justin Woodlief followed with 13 to lead the Redhawk defense.

Southeast finished with 268 total yards, including 199 on the ground. The Redhawks also had a season-high nine penalties for 106 yards.

The Redhawks ended their historic season at 9-3 overall.
