SOUTHEAST MISSOURI REDHAWKS

Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium serves as the home facility for the Southeast Missouri State University women's soccer program.

A dedication to officially recognize the field as "Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium" was held on Sept. 22, 2012. The university and the Missouri National Guard formed a partnership through which naming rights to the field were awarded.

Prior to the 2011 season, Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium received a huge makeover, as a new FieldTurf playing surface, state-of-the-art Daktronics video scoreboard and new lighting (which meets television standards) was installed. The facility was also repainted, giving the longtime home to the Redhawks a flashy look.

Houck Stadium was built in 1930 at a cost of $150,000 and remains a beautiful and picturesque stadium today.

The dedication game pitted Southeast and Southern Illinois in a football contest on Oct. 3, 1930. That game attracted a crowd of over 6,000. The referee of the inaugural game was James T. Blair, who served as the Governor of Missouri from 1957-61.

Houck Stadium was constructed on the site of a former rock quarry and was purchased in 1925 for $11,000 at the recommendation of then-Southeast Missouri State University President Joseph A. Serena.

Ten thousand bags of Portland Cement, 23,000 feet of Oregon Fir seat lumber and 150,000 feet of Yellow Pine Form lumber were used in the construction, according to an ad in the Houck Stadium dedication program. The original stadium included 5,240 seats on the south side of the field.

The field and stadium were named in honor of Louis Houck, who served 39 years as a Regent for the university and President of the Board for all but three of those years.

Seating on the north side of the stadium was added prior to the 1963 season. The press box was later constructed on the south side in 1979.

Approximately 400 chairback seats were added to a center section on the south side of the stadium in 1992.

In 2000, the first FieldTurf playing field was installed and the exterior of the facility was resurfaced. Improvements were also made to the press box.

More upgrades took place in the fall of 2005. Those included a paved parking area adjacent to the east end zone and new parking and landscaping areas surrounding the outside of the stadium.

A state-of-the-art dormitory was built on the west end of the facility in 2009. The ground floor of that building houses a locker room and athletic training facility, which the soccer and football teams use on game days.

7he Redhawk Success Center offers Southeast Missouri student-athletes a place to study and develop as students and campus leaders.

Located in the Student Recreation Center just south of Houck Stadium, the Redhawk Success Center offers a computer lab with 18 work terminals, study areas and rooms for group meetings.

The area is under the guidance of Director of Academic Services Sharon Burgard, Assistant Coordinator Sandy Wiemers and Graduate Assistants Karley Evans and Bethany Pfeiffer.

The beautiful facility has enhanced the outstanding work in the classroom already enjoyed by Southeast student-athletes. Last year, the Redhawks combined for a 3.17 cumulative grade point average in the fall and spring semesters. Over 60-percent of all student-athletes recorded a 3.0 or higher GPA. Thirteen of Southeast's 15 intercollegiate athletic teams recorded a team GPA over 3.0. Additionally, Southeast student-athletes logged over 3,000 hours of community service over the 2013-14 academic year.

Tutors are available for all student-athletes as needed. In addition, both attendance and academic progress is monitored through regular checks with faculty.

A special course is required for all first-time student-athletes at Southeast. The course, which offers three credit hours, is part of a comprehensive program developed to address study skills and life skills topics, and thus, enhance retention and academic success for student-athletes.

Entering student-athletes are evaluated for academic preparedness and assigned to appropriate categories. Student-athletes can also receive individualized academic programs which include meeting with a mentor bi-weekly to discuss academic progress.

The Success Center staff also works to get athletes involved in campus and community projects. This is done to provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success. Through the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, the Success Center gives student-athletes personal and professional skills in order to facilitate successful and productive futures.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

2013-14 Notables

- Southeast Missouri finished third in the Ohio Valley Conference Commissioner's Cup for the second-straight year in 2013-14. The third-place finish matched the Redhawks highest in school history. Southeast accumulated a total of 107.5 points, a +3.25 increase in its point total from the previous year.
- Southeast Missouri's student-athletes finished the 2013-14 academic year with a 3.17 grade point average and had 13 teams maintain a 3.0 the entire year. In all, 197 individuals finished the year with a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA accounting for 62.5 percent of the student-athlete population.
- A total of 60 student-athletes received their degrees, including 19 in the fall and 41 in the spring.
- For the fifth time in seven years, Southeast's women's gymnastics team posted the highest cumulative GPA among all NCAA programs as announced by the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches/Women (NACGC/W). The Redhawks 3.81 mark edged Western Michigan's 3.80 GPA.

- Southeast student-athletes logged over 3,000 community service hours in 2013-14. Redhawk student-athletes participated in a number of community service activities, including Feed My Starving Children, Pink Up Cape, Read to Succeed, Special Olympics, American Cancer Society benefit dinner and the SEMO Food Bank's Party for the Good.
- Southeast teams combined for five conference championships in 2013-14. The Redhawks won the OVC men's indoor track, men's and women's outdoor track titles, and baseball crown. Meanwhile, the women's gymnastics team won the Midwest Independent Conference championship.

Prevention. Treatment. Rehabilitation. Education. Those are the four primary phases of athletic training, and the Southeast Missouri athletic training staff strives to fulfill all of those areas when working with student-athletes on a daily basis.

Southeast student-athletes are offered the best care possible by the athletic training staff. The Sports Medicine department includes five full-time athletic trainers, six graduate assistants and several student assistants. The staff serves student-athletes around-the-clock at numerous facilities on campus.

The athletic trainers begin treatments and rehabilitation starting as early as 6 a.m., and are available until the last student-athlete is through.

There are currently four athletic training facilities on campus. The staff treats out of the Rosengarten Athletic Complex, where the primary training room is located. There are two other satellite athletic training rooms, including one at Houck Field House and one at the Show Me Center.

The Southeast athletic training rooms are equipped with stationary bikes, hand weights, therapeutic modalities and the latest physical therapy equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athlete the best care, but also to aid in returning to competition as quickly as possible.

Southeast Athletic Training has strong working relationships with local physicians and two hospitals in Cape Girardeau. It is from these hospitals that the Athletic Training department is assisted by four orthopedic physicians.

The Southeast Athletic Training program prides and commits itself to providing the best comprehensive, personalized and efficient healthcare to its student-athletes. Delivery of healthcare focuses on the prevention and management of athletic-related injuries or illnesses, while adhering to the National Athletic Trainers' Board of Certification Standards of Professional Practice. Our high quality of athletic healthcare is provided in combination with the education of athletic training students.

ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

PRESIDENT DR. KENNETH W. DOBBINS

Dr. Kenneth W. Dobbins became the seventeenth president of Southeast Missouri State University on July 1, 1999 after serving as the University's Vice President of Finance and Administration from 1991 to 1993, and Executive Vice President from 1993 until his appointment as president. He previously held several positions in higher education administration at Kent State University in Ohio.

During his tenure at Southeast, academic programs have been enhanced including the establishment of the College of Science, Technology, and Agriculture and the Earl and Margie Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts which opened in fall 2007 on the new River Campus. A comprehensive review of all academic and non-academic programs has been accomplished to maintain quality and minimize student fee increases in the face of significant state appropriation reductions. Southeast continues to be recognized nationally for many of its outstanding accredited academic programs. For the 11th year in a row, Princeton Review recognized the Master of Business Administration program on its list of "Best Business Schools." GetEdu- cated.com listed Southeast #1 on the list of "Top 10 Ranked Best Values Online MBAs-AACSB-Accredited"; Southeast is recognized in the top tier of the Midwest best regional universities in U.S. News Best Colleges for 2014; and Southeast was again named among the "Best in the Midwest" by Princeton Review. Additionally, Militaryfriendlyschools.com lists Southeast among the top schools that embrace veterans as students, and recent freshmen survey data indicate that new students applied only to Southeast at a rate three times the national average.

Enrollment has increased significantly since a 20-year-low in 1994 when approximately 7,900 students attended Southeast. In fall 2005, enrollment topped 10,000 for the first time, and stood at more than 11,900 in 2013. Additionally, record enrollments in higher education have occurred in the University's 25-county service region during his tenure due to the establishment of new regional campuses in Sikeston and Kennett and a higher education center at Perryville serving place-bound students in and near those rural communities.

During Dr. Dobbins' presidency more than $400 million in capital construction and building improvement projects have enhanced the University. The Seabaugh Polytechnic Building and the $58 million River Campus were constructed. In 2005, the Douglas C. Greene Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship was opened, followed by the dedication of the state-of-the-art David M. Barton Agriculture Research Center in 2009, and the University's Autism Center for Diagnosis and Treatment in 2010. Southeast is known throughout the Midwest for its modern and student-friendly residence halls. Vandiver Hall was completed in 2002; Merick Hall in 2009; and LaFerla Hall was dedicated in the fall of 2013. More than $90 million in capital renovation projects were completed in 2013, including the renovation of the historic 108-year-old Academic Hall, and the remodeling and upgrades to the Magill and Rhodes sciences complex. Additionally, the University will open the River Campus Center, a new academic and residence hall center, at the River Campus in fall 2014.

Dr. Dobbins has served a two-year term as president of the Missouri Council on Public Higher Education (COPHE), the organization for presidents and chancellors of Missouri's public colleges and universities, and is the senior member of the organization. In 2007, he was selected to serve a three-year term on the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU) Board of Directors, an organization which represents over 420 U.S. public college and university members and more than 3.7 million students or 56 percent of the enrollment at all public four-year institutions. He was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the organization in 2008, chaired the organization in 2010-2011, and again serves on the AASCU Board. Also, for the past ten years, he has served as one of four faculty members for the week-long AASCU New Presidents' Academy, and currently chairs the Finance Committee of the American Academic Leadership Institute. He previously served three years as president of the Ohio Valley Conference and is currently a member of the Conference finance subcommittee. In addition, he is the vice president for membership on the executive board of the Greater St. Louis Council, Boy Scouts of America, and was elected by local council associates to serve on the National Council, Boy Scouts of America. In 2010, he was awarded the Silver Beaver Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a Boy Scout volunteer by a council.

He earned his B.S. degree in accounting from the University of Akron (Ohio) in 1971 and served as a commissioned officer and civilian executive in the U.S. Air Force for almost 10 years. He received the M.B.A. degree in 1979 from Old Dominion University (Virginia) where he was awarded the 2001 Distinguished Alumni Award, and the Ph.D. in higher education administration in 1987 from Kent State, where in 2011, he was awarded the Alumni Leadership Award for the College of Education, Health and Human Services Annual Hall of Fame Awards. He is also a Certified Public Accountant in Ohio.

Dr. Dobbins and his wife, Jeanine Larson Dobbins, Founder and Director Emeritus of the Missouri Statewide Early Literacy Intervention Program based at Southeast, have a son, Paul, and a daughter-in-law, Stacey, who are both Southeast graduates, and two grandsons, Lincoln Kenneth and Brady Larson Dobbins.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS MARK ALNUTT

Southeast Missouri's Department of Athletics is thriving under the leadership of Mark Alnutt.

Southeast Athletics operates on the three core values of its mission -- Academic Excellence, Social Development and Competitive Success. As a result, the Redhawks are soaring in all of those areas.

Academically, Southeast student-athletes have combined for over a 3.1 cumulative grade point average in the fall and spring semesters each year with Alnutt at the helm. The 2013-14 campaign saw a total of 197 individuals achieve a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA accounting for 62.5

percent of the student-athlete population. That success led to the Department of Athletics securing a 3.17 GPA with 13 teams maintaining a 3.0 or better the entire year.

Prior to that, the Redhawks accumulated a 3.12 GPA with 192 student-athletes getting a 3.0 or higher mark in 2012-13.

In line with academics, Alnutt strongly encourages coaches, administrators and student-athletes to be visible in the community. That being said, student-athletes have logged over 4,000 hours of community service in Alnutt's term as Director of Athletics. Pink Up Cape, Feed My Starving Children, Project Homeless Connect, Cape Girardeau Adopt-A-Street, Read to Succeed and Special Olympics are among the many community service opportunities the Redhawks have actively participated in.

Another valuable piece of Southeast's growth in athletics has been Alnutt's Redhawks Road Trip. The Redhawks Road Trip features a series of outreach events to give fans, alumni, supporters and community members the chance to meet select coaches, student-athletes and administration from Southeast Athletics. Last year, the Redhawks made 11 different stops along the "I-55 Corridor," that stretch between St. Louis and Memphis which is so important from a branding, recruiting and fundraising standpoint.

Athletically, Southeast finished third in the Ohio Valley Conference

Commissioner's Cup for the second-straight year in 2013-14. The Redhawks tallied 107.5 points, a +3.25 increase from the previous season. Those third-place finishes are the best in school history.

Southeast nearly had a clean sweep of the OVC track & field championships, winning the men's indoor and men's and women's outdoor crowns. The Redhawks also won the OVC baseball title and Midwest Independent Conference women's gymnastics championship during the 2013-14 campaign. In all, Southeast teams have won six conference titles in Alnutt's first two years as Director of Athletics.

Alnutt was the driving force behind securing the first-ever NCAA football game at Busch Stadium in St. Louis. Longstanding regional-rivals Southeast Missouri and Southern Illinois met in the College Classic on Sept. 21, 2013.

Alnutt has made some new coaching hires as well. He introduced Tom Matukewicz as the Redhawks head football coach on Dec. 18, 2013 and Mark Redburn as the school's next head softball coach on June 26, 2014.

Since Alnutt officially took over as Director of Athletics on April 19, 2012, total giving to athletics has increased by more than 12 percent. As a result, the department raised over $350,000 through various fundraising initiatives.

Prior to accepting his first job as Director of Athletics, Alnutt served as the Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Missouri.

Alnutt was the administrative liaison for football; supervised track and field, cross country, gymnastics and golf; spearheaded the department's project management team; served as the primary point person for the Athletic Department, overseeing all aspects of facility project master planning, development, management and implementation; and was involved with external department operations, including development, game operations, marketing, media relations, Mizzou Sports Properties and ticket operations.

Alnutt also managed postseason travel arrangements for each of the University of Missouri's 20 intercollegiate sport programs. He oversaw Missouri's Nike contract, the Big Wheels and Flying Tiger programs and the department's relationship with Old Hawthorne Golf Club. In 2009, he managed a $5 million video board project through the University of Missouri Sports Complex with the centerpiece being a new board at Faurot Field. He also oversaw the design and construction of the new Golden Girls/Gymnastics practice facility in the fall of 2011. Alnutt was actively involved in the solicitation and stewardship efforts of capital gift giving, as well.

Alnutt spent six years at the University of Missouri as director of football operations, adding an assistant athletic director title prior to the 2005-2006 season. In that role, his duties included coordinating the team's travel plans, overseeing the football budget, handling compliance issues, scheduling of facilities, assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day operations of the football program.

He coordinated public relations and community service events for football, and oversaw all organizational aspects for the University of Missouri's trips to the 2003 and 2005 Independence Bowl games played in Shreveport, La. He also represented the football program as part of the design team that planned the $16 million expansion and renovation project which turned the Tom Taylor Building into the Missouri Athletics Training Complex.

Alnutt was a three-year letterman for the University of Missouri as a linebacker and tight end from 1993-1995 and was voted the team's champion of the year as a senior. He earned a degree in sociology in 1995 and went to work for Major Brands as a senior salesman in Kansas City from February 1996 to August 1997.

He returned to the University of Missouri to pursue a master's degree in public administration with an emphasis on sports psychology. He joined the Missouri football staff in 1998 as an administrative/video graduate assistant. Alnutt completed his master's degree in May 2000 and took over as director of football operations that August.

A native of Kansas City, Alnutt served as president of the board of directors for Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Boone County and was selected to participate in the 2002-2003 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males. In June 2005, he was recognized by Columbia Business Times as one of the Columbia's 40-Under-40 business leaders for his work in the community.

He has participated in the Division I-A Athletic Director's Institute, attended the NACDA Mentoring Institute and chaired the NCAA Women's Gymnastics committee. In 2010, he was the recipient of an Outstanding Chancellor's Staff recognition and the Barbara S. Uehling Award for Administrative Excellence at the University of Missouri.

Alnutt was selected to serve a four-year term on the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee, effective Sept. 1, 2013.

The NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee (MOIC) was formed by the Association in January 1990 to review issues related to the interests of ethnic minorities and women. These issues focus on the education and welfare of minority student-athletes, as well as the enhancement of opportunities for ethnic minorities and women in coaching, athletics, administration, officiating and the NCAA governance structure.

A year later, Alnutt was appointed to serve a four-year term on the NCAA Football Playing Rules Committee that will begin Sept. 1, 2014.

The mission of the NCAA Football Rules Committee is to govern the playing rules of collegiate football by: Acknowledging the traditions of sport; Soliciting input from various college constituencies; Examining existing regulations and making necessary modifications to create safe, practical, concise and enforceable rules; and influencing the long term vision and direction of NCAA football.

Alnutt and his wife, the former Kate Hankins, are the parents of four children, Jaren, Kinleigh, Mason and Aidan.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI REDHAWKS

7he mission of Southeast Missouri State University Department of Athletics is to provide a first class, student-athlete centered collegiate experience emphasizing the core values of academic excellence, social development, and competitive success. The Department of Athletics strives to compete at the highest possible level in the Ohio Valley Conference and other conference affiliations. The principles of integrity, student welfare, sportsmanship, ethical conduct, rules compliance, equity and diversity, and the prudent management of resources are the foundation on which we operate.

2014 PREVIEW

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI REDHAWKS

The Southeast Missouri State University women's soccer team had a successful 2013 season with an 8-7-3 record, 6-2-2 mark to finish third in Ohio Valley Conference regular season play and undefeated 6-0-1 mark on their home turf at Houck Stadium. The 2014 Redhawks are looking to make a run at the OVC championship like so many other Southeast teams have in the 15 previous years of the program.

A nice mix of veteran experience and leadership blends with talented newcomers to form this year's squad. Head coach Heather Nelson has been impressed with her team's fitness level, especially the newcomers to the program.

Three All-Ohio Valley Conference selections from a year ago return but the team will look to replace goalkeeper Ashton Aubuchon, who earned OVC Defensive Player of the Year in 2013 before completing her eligibility.

Goalkeeper

Highly-touted freshman Kindra Lierz from Glendale High School in Springfield, Mo., will look to fill the void left by Aubuchon's departure. Lierz joins the team after a standout prep career and brings the most aggressive style of goalkeeping play that Nelson has seen in her nearly 20 years leading NCAA Division I programs. Nelson expects Lierz to have opportunities for assists in 2014 due to her strength and accuracy on kicks.

Lierz posted 48 career shutouts at Glendale and had a 0.62 goals against average during her four years of high school. She was a four-time all-state selection and four-time Southwest Region

Goalkeeper of the Year. Additionally, she was voted Missouri Class 3 Goalkeeper of the Year in 2013 while also garnering first-team all-state, all-region and all-conference accolades. Lierz played club soccer for St. Louis Scott Gallagher, which boasts eight players on the 2014 Southeast Missouri women's soccer roster.

In club competition, Lierz was part of the 2013-14 U18 elite club national, 2012-13 Missouri State Cup semifinalists and 2012 MRL Divisional champions. She should benefit from the arrival of new assistant coach Adam Kleman, works directly with the goalkeepers and spent the last two seasons in the competitive confines of the OVC as a graduate assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky. Backing up the true freshman Lierz in emergency goalkeeping situations will be Australian sophomore Bridget Sankey, who saw action in three contests in 2013 as a defender.

Defense

On defense, Southeast returns OVC All-Newcomer Team selection Christina Rohde, who started all 18 games as a true freshman last season and was twice named the adidas® OVC Player of the Week as part of a unit that contributed to eight shutouts. Rohde tied for second on the team with three assists.

She is joined in the backfield by veterans Ashley Brendel, Amy Harrington and Ellie Hight. Brendel, a junior from St. Louis, Mo., played in all 18 games with 17 starts in 2013, attempted nine shots and has good ability to push the ball upfield. She has competed in 31 games over two years with 13 shots, including six on goal.

Harrington, a junior from Granite City, Ill., saw action in 18 games with six starts a year ago, including the final four games of the season. She attempted four shots in 2013, including three on goal. Harrington ranks fifth in Southeast single-season history with 1,729 minutes played in 2012, when she scored two goals as a true freshman.

Hight is a senior from Bakersfield, Calif., who has played in 12 games with two starts over her three-year career and provides nice depth and experience.

Redshirt junior Erin Shulman, who has seen extensive playing time from the forward position over the last three years but has battled injuries, may factor into the mix as a defender in 2014 as well.

Junior transfer Valeria Jaramillo from Cali, Colombia, brings impressive credentials to the group. She was a first-team All-Heartland Conference performer for Texas A&M International University in Laredo, Texas, as a true freshman in 2012. Jaramillo was selected for the Colombian women's national team for the U20 and U17 age groups.

Freshmen Paige Blankenheim, Jessica Brady, Maddy Cornell, Shay Darga and Jenna Scheer provide depth to the defensive unit. Blankenheim and Darga both hail from Wisconsin and played for the North Shore United club team that includes five players on the Southeast roster. Cornell is from Callala Bay, Australia where she competed for the New South Wales Combined Catholic College team in 2013. Brady was a two-time all-conference selection for Parkway Central High School in Chesterfield, Mo., while Scheer is from Ballwin, Mo., and earned all-conference honors for Ursuline Academy in the St. Louis area last year.

Midfield

Southeast boasts a talented midfield group that includes the likes of Rohde, Harrington and Jaramillo in addition to their roles as defenders. Senior sisters Taylor and Torey Byrd from Columbia, Ill., provide the veteran leadership for this group. Torey Byrd has competed in 55 games with 51 starts over three years and has scored 10 goals with three assists to account for 23 points during that span. In addition to being a leader on the field, Byrd was selected by Mark Alnutt as the inaugural recipient of the Director of Athletics Leadership Award for her contributions on and off the field to the university, athletic department and community.

Taylor Byrd has battled injuries throughout her career and returns after suffering a season-ending injury in last year's opener. She has seen action in 37 games with 20 starts during her career and brings a tenacity and lead-by-example mentality to the group.

Senior Kasey Crowden from Jackson, Mo., in Southeast Missouri has also competed in 46 games with 14 starts in her career as a midfielder and forward, providing excellent veteran experience.

Junior Jenna Collingridge from Australia is active at the midfield position, playing in 16 games with 12 starts a year ago. She has competed in 32 contests with 21 starts over two seasons.

Sophomores Jennifer Antonacci, Abby Klintworth and Kaitlin Kuznacic also saw extensive action from the midfield position as true freshmen in 2013. Antonacci played in all 18 games with 11 starts while Klintworth competed in 13 games with four starts and Kuznacic started 11 of the 17 games she played in last season.

Antonacci hails from St. Louis, Mo., while Klintworth is from Chatham, Ill., and Kuznacic is a native of Cedarburg, Wis. Kuznacic was one of two OVC Medal of Honor winners on the team last season with a perfect 4.0 grade point average and the 23rd recipient in program history under Nelson's leadership.

Freshman Sunni Kesenich from Milwaukee, Wis., also adds depth to the midfield group. She was a first-team all-conference selection for Shorewood High School last year.

Forward

The forward group returns standouts in sophomore Natasha Minor and senior Breana Beine, who were both selected to the OVC All-Newcomer Team a year ago. Minor also earned second-team All-OVC honors after a stellar freshman season where she started all 16 games she played in and led the team with 12 points and four assists. She tied Shulman for the team-lead with four goals and led the squad with 32 shots and 19 shots on goal. The De Pere, Wis., native is the kind of explosive player that can take over a match.

Beine is from St. Peters, Mo., and is a similar kind of player as Minor at the forward position. In her first season playing for the Redhawks after transferring from Evansville, she started 17 games and finished third on the team with seven points on two goals and three assists. The former Missouri Valley Conference Freshman of the Year and first-team All-MVC selection attempted 22 shots, including 13 on goal in 2013. She has posted 12 goals and 6 assists over her three-year NCAA career.

Shulman hails from Bloomington, Ill., and has also been a standout at forward for the Redhawks the last three seasons. Throughout her career in a Southeast uniform, she has played in 38 games with 36 starts and has scored 14 goals with three assists to account for 31 points. During that span, she has attempted 72 shots, including 39 on goal to register a .542 shots on goal percentage. In 2011, Shulman was named the OVC Freshman of the Year after scoring nine goals in 14 games, including two multi-goal efforts. She set career-highs with 38 shots and 23 shots on goal that season. As a sophomore, she started seven games and scored one goal before suffering a season-ending injury. She was able to retain that year of eligibility and returned in 2013 to start 17 games and tied for the team-lead with four goals while adding two assists.

Freshman Camila Segura from Bogotá, Colombia brings a South American style of play to the front line. She was the leading goal scorer for Colegio Inglaterra Real and was a 2012 pre-selection for a training camp with the Colombia national team.

Crowden and Cornell both have ability to play the forward position and provide added depth. On two occasions during her career, Crowden has scored two goals in a game and has recorded 49 shots, including 18 shots on goal over her last two seasons. Cornell is a versatile player at multiple positions.

HEATHER NELSON

”Head Coach ”16th Season ”Saskatchewan, 1992

Heather Nelson is the only head coach that has guided the Southeast Missouri soccer program since its inception in 1999. In 15 years under her guidance, the Redhawks have posted 11 winning seasons and compiled a 145-95-33 record. Nelson has coached four Ohio Valley Conference regular season champion teams (2001, 2002, 2007 and 2011) and back-to-back OVC Tournament championship squads (2006-07) that earned berths in the NCAA Tournament.

Championship Culture

Since the inaugural 1999 season for Southeast Missouri women's soccer, no Ohio Valley Conference school has captured more than the four regular season championships Nelson's program has earned. After the inaugural season in 1999, Nelson guided Southeast to 10 wins the following year, a figure that was matched or surpassed in each of the next eight seasons and nine times total in the following 13 years. By year three, she helped guide Southeast to back-to-back OVC regular season championships (2001, 2002), which saw the Redhawks go undefeated in conference play during each of those years.

In 2001, Southeast stormed onto the scene with a 16-2 overall record and 5-0 mark in league play. The Redhawks posted an .889 winning percentage, which currently stands as the best in school history. That team, which claimed the program's first-ever OVC title, boasted the nation's lowest goals against average (0.44) and the country's top shutout percentage (0.72). The Redhawks allowed only eight goals and posted 13 shutouts in 18 matches. Southeast also ranked 10th in the nation in points per game (2.67). The Redhawks set conference records for wins in a season and goals allowed, posting shutouts in all OVC contests. Southeast repeated as the league's regular-season champion in 2002, posting an overall record of 14-4-2 and 6-0 mark in conference play while leading the league in shots, goals allowed, goals against and shutouts. Following the 2002 season, nine players earned All-OVC honors, including Valerie Henderson and Jenny Hamilton, who were named OVC Player and Defensive Player of the Year, respectively. Despite the dominant records and accolades, an OVC Tournament title eluded the Redhawks in each of those seasons. Eastern Illinois pulled off upsets in the tournament championship match of both campaigns.

The Redhawks finally broke through in postseason play during the 2006 OVC Tournament. After a fourth-place regular season finish, Southeast knocked off top-seeded Samford and blanked Morehead State in the OVC Tournament finals to secure its first NCAA Tournament berth in 2006. The Redhawks drew nationally-ranked Illinois in their first NCAA Tournament game and stifled the Fighting Illini offense for much of the first period before eventually falling by a score of 2-0. Southeast turned that momentum from the 2006 run into a memorable 2007 season that saw the Redhawks finish 12-2-4 in the regular season with an unbeaten 8-0-1 record in OVC play. Southeast won a second-consecutive OVC Tournament, blanking UT Martin in the semifinals and outlasting Samford in penalty kicks in front of a home crowd at Houck Stadium to earn a return berth to the NCAA Tournament. Southeast drew in-state rival Missouri and made history in the 43rd minute of that clash when Courtney Alexander scored the program's first NCAA Tournament goal. The contest went to penalty kicks, where Missouri prevailed despite a valiant effort from the Redhawks.

Nelson earned her third OVC Coach of the Year honor in 2007, marking the most of any women's soccer coach in league history. Southeast swept the OVC postseason awards with Alexander claiming OVC Player of the Year, Lindsay Pickering earning OVC Defensive Player of the Year and Ashley Runion collecting the program's first OVC Freshman of the Year honor. Nelson's Redhawks won their fourth and most recent regular season title in 2011 with a 12-6-1 record and 8-1-0 finish in the OVC. The eight league wins tied the conference record, which was set by Southeast and Samford in 2007. Nelson was named OVC Coach of the Year for a record fourth time. Jessie Crabtree earned OVC Offensive Player of the Year honors in her lone season at Southeast while Erin Shulman claimed OVC Freshman of the Year honors.

The 2012 season was one of adversity for the Southeast soccer program as the team overcame numerous hardships and a tragedy that impacted the entire university and Cape Girardeau community. Nelson was injured in an accident over the summer and spent time away from the sidelines recovering during the first month of the season. In early September, senior defender Meg Herndon was involved in an accident that tragically cut her life short. Equal parts a captain, friend, sister and teammate, Herndon displayed tenacity as a driven defender on the field and was admired by the countless lives she touched in competition and her personal life. Herndon's No. 2 jersey was retired one year later during a celebration of her life prior to the annual alumnae match. During the event, Herndon's mother, Cindi Silvey, presented a check for the newly-formed Meghan Herndon Memorial Scholarship.

"It's amazing knowing that Meg's legacy is going to live on through her scholarship," Nelson said. "Her family has been so wonderful as we've honored her. It reminds me of my relationship with Meg and how pleasant it was to work with her."

The 2012 Redhawks overcame many obstacles to finish 7-10-4 overall and 5-3-2 in OVC play to place fourth in the conference. Southeast closed the season by going 4-0-1 and qualified for the OVC Tournament for the third consecutive year. The momentum continued during the tournament as the Redhawks defeated Belmont for the program's first postseason victory since 2007. The memorable run ended in a 1-0 loss to UT Martin, the eventual OVC champions. Haley Abbott became the fifth player under Nelson to earn OVC Defensive Player of the Year.

2013 marked the 11th winning season in Nelson's career. Southeast went 8-7-3 overall and 6-2-2 in the OVC to finish third in the conference standings. The Redhawks earned a berth in the OVC Tournament for the fourth year in a row. Ashton Aubuchon was named OVC Defensive Player of the Year, marking the sixth time in Nelson's tenure that a Southeast player received the accolade and second time that Southeast has claimed the award in back-to-back seasons (Jenny Hamilton, 2001-02).

Developing Standout Student-Athletes

In her 15 seasons at Southeast, Nelson has coached four OVC Players of the Year, six OVC Defensive Players of the Year and two OVC Freshman of the Year honorees. Additionally, Nelson has coached 69 players who have earned either OVC first-team, second-team, third-team, honorable mention or all-newcomer accolades since 1999. The Redhawks also earned regional recognition in 2012 as defender Hayley Abbott earned third-team all-region honors from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA). For the second time in three seasons, a Southeast player received NSCAA recognition as defender Nikki Edwards earned honorable mention all-region honors in 2010. Nelson's teams have also performed extremely well in the classroom, posting a 3.3 point grade point average or higher in each of her 15 years leading the program. For the 2012-13 academic year, the Redhawks posted a 3.64 cumulative grade point average as a team, ranking third nationally out of 323 NCAA Division I soccer programs. It also marked the highest total in the 15-year program history. Nelson's student-athletes have earned CoSIDA/ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District VII honors on seven occasions. She has also coached 23 OVC Medal of Honor recipients. The Redhawks have earned the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Team Academic Award in each of the last four seasons.

Before Southeast

Prior to building the Redhawks soccer program, Nelson coached at Florida State from 1995-98, helping lay the foundation for the Seminoles in an extremely competitive Atlantic Coast Conference. Nelson's 1996 and 1997 teams finished with the ACC's second-best GPA. Nelson coached the 1986 age group Missouri Olympic Development Program (ODP) team to the 2003 Midwest Region II Championship and represented Region II at the 2004 ODP National Championship.

A former member of Canada's national team pool, Nelson was a four-year starter at the University of Saskatchewan. After earning her Physical Education degree in 1992, Nelson went on to get her "B" license and coaching diploma at the National Coaching Institute at the University of Victoria in 1993. At the time, Nelson held the distinction of being one of only five Canadian female coaches qualified to coach at the national team level. Nelson and her husband, Paul, associate head coach at Southeast, have four children, Jordan, Taylor, Justi and Chase.

NCAA Women's Soccer Coaching Experience

1995-98	Florida State.....	Assistant Coach
1999-06	Southeast Missouri.....	Assistant Coach
2007-14	Southeast Missouri.....	Associate Head Coach

Paul Nelson enters his 16th season with the Southeast Missouri women's soccer program and his eighth year as the team's associate head coach.

Nelson has drawn on his extensive playing and coaching experience from every level – juniors to professional – providing plenty of valuable guidance along the way.

He helped lead the Redhawks to Ohio Valley Conference regular season championships in 2001, 2002, 2007 and 2011. Southeast also registered back-to-back OVC Tournament titles and NCAA Women's Soccer Cup appearances in 2006 and 2007.

Prior to Southeast, Nelson spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Florida State and two years at the Canadian western-based National Training Center. In addition, he was an assistant coach for Canada's Olympic team in 1994.

Nelson first entered the professional ranks in 1977 and enjoyed 13 competitive seasons at that level. He played in the once-heralded North American Soccer League (NASL) during both the indoor and outdoor seasons and competed in the Irish Premier Division. Nelson signed with the NASL's Vancouver Whitecaps at the age of 18, where he had the opportunity to play with and against some of the best players in the world, including Pele, Beckenbauer and Cryuff.

In 2011, Nelson, his teammates and staff from the Whitecaps were inducted into the Soccer Hall of Fame and Museum as the 1979 Whitecaps earned the 2011 Team of Distinction Award. The Whitecaps went 20-10 that season and claimed the NASL's Soccer Bowl with a 2-1 win over the Tampa Bay Rowdies in front of 66,843 fans at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J.

As a staff coach for British Columbia Soccer, Nelson boasted one of the best amateur soccer coaching records in Canada. His coaching successes include gold medals from the 1991 Western Canadian Championships and the 1993 Canada Matches.

In 1999, Nelson served as coach of the American Soccer League's Vancouver 86ers reserve team.

He and his wife, Heather, head coach of the Southeast women's soccer team, have four children, Jordan, Taylor, Justi and Chase.

ADAM KLEMAN

»Assistant Coach »1st Season »Transylvania, 2008; Eastern Kentucky, 2013

Adam Kleman is in his first season as an assistant coach with the Southeast Missouri women's soccer program. He joined the Redhawks in 2014 after spending the previous two seasons as a graduate assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky, a fellow member of the Ohio Valley Conference.

"I am very excited to have Adam joining our staff with the coaching experience he brings from Eastern Kentucky. He has great passion for soccer, administrative strengths, a similar coaching philosophy and is completely committed to being a Division I coach," Southeast head coach Heather Nelson said at the time of Kleman's hiring. "After speaking with the ECU coaching staff, I could tell that his relationships with players are very good and his priority is caring for the student-athletes and helping them reach their potential on and off the field."

Kleman serves as the goalkeepers coach and handles administrative tasks, team travel, meals, compliance and recruiting while assisting in overall player development.

"I am honored and excited to be joining Heather, Paul and the entire Southeast Missouri family," Kleman said upon joining the Redhawks. "It provides a tremendous opportunity to learn from two high-character and highly-successful coaches. I am excited to stay within the competitive confines of the Ohio Valley Conference and look forward to helping Heather and Paul continue the tradition of success on the field and in the classroom at Southeast Missouri."

During his tenure with ECU, Kleman was responsible for on-field coaching, off-campus recruiting, travel arrangements and video editing. In 2012, the Colonels enjoyed a record-breaking season, setting program marks for wins (10), conference victories (6), goals (22), assists (18), points (62) and shots (253). ECU posted an undefeated home record (8-0-1) for the first time in school history and had three players selected first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference, the most in program annals. The Colonels finished as the runner-up in the OVC Tournament, suffering defeat on penalty kicks.

In 2013, ECU also had three players earn All-OVC honors and earned the NSCAA Team Academic Award for the second consecutive season.

A native of Elida, Ohio, Kleman competed collegiately as a defender at Transylvania University (2004-07). The Pioneers posted a 56-10-13 record during his career, won four consecutive Heartland Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2007. Kleman scored four goals during his career.

Kleman earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Transylvania in 2008 and a master's degree in Sports Administration from Eastern Kentucky in 2013.

He and his wife, Bo, reside in Cape Girardeau.

2013 REVIEW

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI REDHAWKS

The 2013 Southeast Missouri women's soccer season featured a challenging schedule that was answered by team success and standout performances at all positions and experience levels of the roster. Southeast posted its 11th winning season under head coach Heather Nelson and finished 8-7-3 overall and a 6-2-2 record in Ohio Valley Conference play. The Redhawks finished with an undefeated 6-0-1 home record at Houck Stadium and advanced to the OVC Tournament, earning the No. 3 seed.

Aside from the team success, four individuals received honors from the OVC, headlined by senior goalkeeper Ashton Aubuchon, who became the sixth athlete in Nelson's tenure to receive OVC Defensive Player of the Year recognition. Aubuchon's selection also marked the second time in program history that a Southeast defender received the honor in back-to-back years after defender Hayley Abbott won in 2012. With 247 career saves, Aubuchon sits atop the Southeast record book.

Freshmen Natasha Minor and Christina

Rohde and junior transfer Breana Beine also earned All-OVC accolades. Minor, a midfielder/forward earned second-team and All-Newcomer honors after leading the team with four goals four assists and 12 points. Rohde, a defender/midfielder was also placed on the All-Newcomer Team after starting all 18 games as a true freshman and tying for second on the squad with three assists. She was twice named adidas® OVC Player of the Week as a standout for a back line that contributed to eight shutouts. Beine, a junior transfer from Evansville, rounded out the trio of Redhawks on the All-Newcomer Team after scoring two goals and finishing third on the team with seven points.

Southeast had a challenging non-conference schedule that began with trips to Nebraska and Missouri in the first three games. After going 0-3 in August, Southeast turned things around by finishing 2-1-2 in September. The Redhawks caught fire in October, going 6-1 and winning four straight from Oct. 18 – 27 before dropping the final two contests of the season by narrow 1-0 margins with goals late in each contest, including the OVC quarterfinal game against Austin Peay.

"With our younger athletes, playing the difficult non-conference schedule is important because they need to be to be competitive in Division I," Nelson said. "We always strive to be the best we can be because our goal is to be OVC champions. We need to play those quality teams year in and year out to get to that level."

The Redhawks finished 7-2 when scoring first and 5-1 when scoring two-plus goals. They also registered an impressive 5-2 mark in matches decided by one goal. When allowing 15 shots or less, Southeast posted an undefeated 7-0-2 record. They finished 2-1-3 in overtime matches and lost only once in seven contests when the match was tied at halftime, going 4-1-2 in those games.

Six different players played in all 18 matches while six others saw action in 17 contests. Sixteen different players competed in at least 15 contests on the season, which is a testament to overall physical fitness on the squad. Five athletes scored at least two goals and three players registered double-digit shots on goal.

Southeast defenders recorded 117 saves compared to only 80 by the opposition, with Aubuchon being responsible for 101 of such defenses.

The Redhawks were outscored 24-19 overall but led opponents 10-9 in the first half of games. Southeast averaged 1.06 goals per contest and notched a .521 shots on goal percentage and .100 shot percentage compared to an .085 mark by the opposition.

With success on offense, defense and in close games, the future looks bright for a 2014 squad that features a nice mix of veteran leadership to go along with talented newcomers.

THIS IS THE
OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI REDHAWKS

Now in its 67th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 14 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Through the past 66 years, 15 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 21 outright or shared football crowns, which is tied for the most in Football Championship Subdivision history (with Massachusetts). Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with 10, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois has claimed seven football crowns and Jacksonville State has three, while Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri, UT Martin and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh. EKU was coached by former All-America quarterback Roy Kidd, who was in his 16th year at the helm of his alma mater and who skipped the Colonels to a second national title three years later. Following the 2002 season, Kidd retired after 39 years at EKU; upon retirement, he ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches with 315 victories, earning him a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame. EKU's 20 FCS playoff appearances are the second for the most all-time (behind only Montana and tied with Appalachian State).

In addition to Kidd, other coaching legends in the OVC include Charles "Bubber" Murphy, who coached at Middle Tennessee from 1947-1968, Western Kentucky's Jimmy Feix (1968-83), Wilburn Tucker (1954-67) and Don Wade (1968-82) of Tennessee Tech, Bill Ferguson (1967-77) of Murray State, Guy Penny (1959-67) of Morehead State and Boots Donnelly (1977-78 at Austin Peay; 1979-1998 at Middle Tennessee). Following the 2011 season Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo retired after 25 years at the school (the last 16 as members of the OVC). In his time as an OVC coach he compiled 92 total victories (fifth-most in league history) and 68 OVC wins (fourth-most in league history) and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2012.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo and Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals. He would break into the starting lineup halfway through his rookie season and started at cornerback for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

The 2007 season marked a return to scholarship football and the OVC for the Austin Peay Governors. Following the 1996 season the Governors dropped scholarship football and competed as both an independent (1997-00, 2006) and as a member of the Pioneer Football League (2001-05).

The 2007 season also brought new vernacular to the Ohio Valley Conference and the division formerly known as I-AA. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game the term I-AA was changed to NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in a decision by the Division I Board of Directors. The new label was chosen to communicate in a positive and clear manner the unique differences between Division I football categories (chiefly, the post-season opportunity) while still defining them within the Division I experience. The FCS includes programs that compete in an effort to participate in the NCAA championship postseason structure (one of 89 NCAA national championships) as opposed to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) which competes in an effort to participate in the postseason bowl system (the 35 NCAA-licensed events which includes the Bowl Championship Series).

In 2010 Southeast Missouri State, picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll, compiled a 7-1 Conference record on the way to its first OVC Championship since joining the league in 1991. Overall the Redhawks were 9-2 during the regular season and earned a berth in the FCS Playoffs, its first playoff berth at any level in the program's 104-year history. Southeast would lose to eventual national champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the playoffs. Head coach Tony Samuel capped the year by winning the Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award, given to the National Coach of the Year. Samuel was the second OVC coach to win the award (joining Murray State's Houston Nutt who won the award in 1995).

For only the second time in league history in 2011, three teams shared the OVC football championship, as Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech finished with 6-2 records. The only other time in league history more than two champions were crowned at the end of the year was 1962 (when four teams shared the crown).

In 2012 Eastern Illinois became just the fourth football team in OVC history to go from worst-to-first in winning the OVC Championship. The Panthers were led by head coach Dino Babers who became just the fourth first-year head coach to win an OVC Championship (joining Boots Donnelly in 1977, Jason Simpson in 2006 and Dean Hood in 2008). During the year Eastern Illinois junior wide receiver Erik Lora shattered the FCS single-season receptions record, hauling in 136 passes in 12 games; that mark was 13 more than the previous NCAA record and 44 more than the previous OVC mark.

In 2013 Eastern Illinois repeated as OVC Champions behind Walter Payton Award winner Jimmy Garoppolo. The quarterback became just the second OVC player to earn the National Player of the Year Award, joining former EIU signal caller Tony Romo (2002). Garoppolo passed for 5,050 yards (second most in NCAA single-season history) and 53 touchdowns (fourth in NCAA history) in leading the Panthers to a 12-2 record and berth to the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs. Garoppolo was drafted by the New England Patriots in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft, becoming just the fifth OVC player selected in that round and first OVC quarterback selected since 1998.

The 2013 season saw the OVC snap a 19-game playoff losing streak dating back to the 2000 season. Tennessee State shutout Butler (marking the first OVC road playoff victory since 1986) to snap the streak while later that day Jacksonville State smashed Samford in the first round. A week later Eastern Illinois beat Tennessee State while Jacksonville State won at McNeese State to each advance to the quarterfinals; that marked the first time the OVC put two teams in the quarterfinals in the same season since 1991. Overall the four total playoff wins in the same season established a new

OVC record.

Football wasn't the only sport in which the OVC was quickly gaining respect. In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants. The Conference quickly proved worthy of that bid, as Morehead State defeated Marshall (107-92) and Wayne State (95-84) in the 1956 tournament.

Fifteen years later, former OVC member Western Kentucky became the first and only Conference team to reach the Final Four. The Hilltoppers defeated Jacksonville, Kentucky and Ohio State before losing to Villanova in double overtime in the national semifinals. WKU went on to finish in third place after beating Kansas 77-75 in the consolation game.

Since that time, the OVC has recorded some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Tournament. Perhaps the most famous moment came in 1987, when Austin Peay came from fourth place in the regular season to win the OVC Tournament and earn the league's automatic bid. The Governors drew powerful Illinois, and were such big underdogs, that ESPN broadcaster Dick Vitale promised to stand on his head if APSU won the game. After a 68-67 victory over the Illini, and a narrow 90-87 overtime loss to eventual Final Four participant Providence in the second round, Vitale made good on his promise in a visit to Clarksville two months later.

Murray State added to the OVC's string of upsets in 1988 when it knocked off 14th-ranked North Carolina State, 78-75. The Racers' M&M Boys - Jeff Martin and Don Mann - combined for 39 points in the win. MSU nearly went on to the Sweet 16 that year, losing to eventual national champion Kansas, 61-58. A bank shot by Mann that would've given the Racers a one-point lead rolled off the rim with three seconds left. In 1990 as a No. 16 seed, Murray State took No. 1 seed Michigan State into overtime before falling 75-71; that game still marks the closest a No. 16 seed has come to knocking off a No. 1 in men's tournament action. More recently, Murray State has dominated the OVC Tournament, reaching the championship game every year in the 1990's. The Racers' 15 OVC Tournament Championships are the most among all OVC schools.

After former member Middle Tennessee State won a first round game in 1989, the league had a drought as no other OVC team won a NCAA Tournament game for the next 19 years. But Morehead State, coming off a thrilling double overtime OVC Tournament victory over Austin Peay, topped Alabama State 58-43 in the Opening Round game at University of Dayton Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The game was played in front of an Opening Round record crowd of 11,346; that crowd included many MSU fans who made the three-hour drive from Morehead for the game.

In 2009-10, Murray State made OVC history by winning a record 31 games (31-5) on its way to the league's regular season and tournament championships. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the No. 13 seed Racers topped Vanderbilt in thrilling fashion when senior Danero Thomas hit a jumper as time expired to lift MSU to a 66-65 victory. It marked the first OVC team to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament since 1989, and snapped a skid of 71-straight losses to Southeastern Conference foes (dating back to 2000-01). In the second round the Racers pushed eventual national runner-up Butler to the brink before losing 54-52.

In 2010-11 Morehead State would make it three NCAA Tournament wins in as many years for the league and got a bit of revenge for the 2009 tournament loss to Louisville in the process. After finishing second in the regular season and winning the OVC Tournament Championship, the No. 13 seeded Eagles were shipped to Denver to play the in-state foe Cardinals. MSU jumped out to a 15-2 advantage but were down four points (61-57) with just over a minute to play in regulation. After two free throws from two-time OVC Player of the Year Kenneth Faried, the Eagles held for one final shot attempt and senior Demonte Harper pulled up off a cross-over dribble to nail a 3-pointer with 4.3 seconds left that gave Morehead State a 62-61 lead. UofL had one last attempt but Faried blocked the Cardinals last shot, giving MSU the win, its first over Louisville since the 1956-57 season.

In 2011-12 Murray State put together one of the greatest seasons in OVC history, beginning the year 23-0 (an all-time OVC best) and being ranked as high as No. 7 in the coaches poll on Feb. 6. The squad was the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since Murray State was ranked in 1997-98; in addition the top 10 ranking was the first for an OVC team since the 1970-71 campaign (WKU). The Racers would top nationally-ranked Memphis and Saint Mary's during the season and win the league's regular season and tournament championships. MSU earned a No. 6 seed in NCAA Tournament, the highest-ever seed for an OVC team since the NCAA began seeding the field in 1979. The Racers would top Colorado State 58-41 in the second round before falling to Marquette in the third round. Murray State would win 31 games overall, tying the OVC all-time record the Racers set in 2009-10.

After the Murray State win in 2011-12, the league had won NCAA Tournament games in four-straight seasons, something that had never happened in league history (three-game winning streaks from 1960-62 and 1987-89 had been the previous best streaks). Over that time period (2009-12) the OVC was one of just nine conferences nationally to win a NCAA Tournament game in each season and one of only three non-BCS leagues (joining the Atlantic 10 and WCC) to do so.

During the 2010-11 year Faried, the nation's leading rebounder during the season, became the NCAA's Modern Era (since 1973) career rebounding leader, totaling 1,673 rebounds which passed Tim Duncan for the record (he is 11th all-time in NCAA history). Faried also finished his career with 86 double-doubles, second all-time to only Duncan. He is one of only six players in NCAA history to finish with 2,000-plus career points (2,009) and 1,600-plus career rebounds. Faried was drafted 22nd overall by the Denver Nuggets in the 2011 NBA Draft, becoming the first OVC player selected in the first round since Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers 1994.

Through its 66 years, 13 teams have won or shared the league's regular season men's basketball title. Murray

State heads the list with a Conference-record 23 outright or shared basketball crowns. Other past champions include former member Western Kentucky (19), Morehead State (9), Austin Peay (8), Eastern Kentucky (6), Tennessee Tech (5), former member Middle Tennessee (5), Tennessee State (2), former member East Tennessee State (2), Belmont (2 – including winning the titles in each of its first two years in the league), Southeast Missouri State (1), UT Martin (1) and former member Akron (1).

Among the coaching greats in men's basketball have been Western Kentucky's E.A. Diddle, who retired with 759 victories and 10 OVC titles; John Oldham, who was a member of the very first All-OVC squad and went on to win seven OVC crowns during his coaching tenure at Tennessee Tech and Western Kentucky; Paul McBrayer, who guided Eastern Kentucky to 219 wins and three OVC crowns; and Cal Luther, who is the only person in Conference history to win men's basketball Coach of the Year honors at two league schools – Murray State and UT Martin. Current Austin Peay head coach Dave Loos became the winningest coach in OVC history in 2009-10, netting his 319th victory and passing Luther on the all-time list. Loos enters the 2014-15 season with 383 victories.

There have been an equal number of great players including Western Kentucky's Clem Haskins, who is the only three-time OVC Player of the Year. Several players have won OVC Player of the Year honors twice: Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniels (1969-70 and 1970-71), Murray State's Les Taylor (1971-72, 1972-73), Jeff Martin (1987-88, 1988-89), Popeye Jones (1989-90, 1990-91) and Marcus Brown (1994-95, 1995-96), Austin Peay's Otis Howard (1976-77, 1977-78), Middle Tennessee's Jerry Beck (1980-81, 1981-82), Akron's Joe Jakubick (1982-83, 1983-84), Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers (1992-93, 1993-94), UT Martin's Lester Hudson (2007-08, 2008-09), Morehead State's Kenneth Faried (2009-10, 2010-11) and Murray State's Isaiah Canaan (2011-12, 2012-13).

The OVC also has the honor of being the only conference to boast the nation's leaders in scoring, rebounding and assists all in one season. That feat was accomplished in 1991-92 by Morehead State's Brett Roberts (28.1 ppg), Murray State's Popeye Jones (14.4 rpg) and Tennessee Tech's Van Usher (8.8 apg).

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft.

Murray State guard Isaiah Canaan, a first-team All-American in 2011-12, capped his illustrious career in 2012-13 by becoming just the 17th player in OVC history to score 2,000 or more career points (and the third player in the past three years to do so). Canaan, who was a key part of Murray State NCAA Tournament victories in both 2010 and 2012, earned a pair of OVC Player of the Year honors (2012 and 2013) during his career as well as being named OVC Freshman of the Year (2010), OVC Tournament MVP (2010) and OVC Male Athlete of the Year (2012).

Women's basketball in the OVC has been dominated by Tennessee Tech, which has won or shared 18 regular-season titles and owns nine OVC Tournament crowns. In fact, the Golden Eagles have reached the championship game of the OVC Tournament 22 times in the past 32 years. Although Tennessee Tech remains the standard-bearer, five other teams have won 14 of the last 21 OVC Tournaments. UT Martin became the latest program to add its name to the list, capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011 and also winning championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Skyhawks became just the fourth team in OVC history (and first since Austin Peay from 2000-03) to win four-straight tournament titles.

Several coaches have made their mark in the history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at ECU and three at MTSU. In 2012-13 Inman came out of retirement to take the Tennessee State job.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; Murray State's Ashley Hayes; and UT Martin's Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken). During the campaign, only her second with the Eagles, she also set career block records for both Morehead State and the OVC (287).

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

In 2013-14 Butler and Newsome capped their brilliant careers by ranking first and second in scoring in OVC history. Butler, the 2013-14 OVC Female Athlete of the Year, finished her career with 2,865 points, which ranked first in OVC and 16th in NCAA history. She also finished her career with 392 career 3-pointers (tied for the most in NCAA history) and scored in double figures in all 129 career games which ranks fifth in NCAA history. Following the season Butler was signed by the WNBA's San Antonio Stars where she became the first OVC player to make an active WNBA roster. Newsome capped her career with 2,566 points, second only to Butler in OVC history.

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC served as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event was held April 6 & 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville and was played in front of sold-out crowds for both the semifinals and championship as UConn topped Notre Dame in a battle of undefeated teams to win its ninth national title.

Over its 66 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. Former Morehead State football and Eastern Kentucky track and field athlete Dallas Robinson competed with the U.S. bobsled team during the 2014 Sochi

Winter Olympics. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions.

The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Kenneth Faried (Morehead State), football player Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players A.J. Ellis (Austin Peay) and Shawn Kelley (Austin Peay). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and a NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six straight tournament crowns. Former EKU skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 31 years, 11 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regular-season titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006 and winning a NCAA Tournament match in 2010, the league's first NCAA victory since 2000.

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third-straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. Four other individuals - Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) and Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) - were back-to-back winners of the award.

Morehead State won its fourth-straight OVC regular season championship in 2013. Over that time period the Eagles have compiled an impressive 67-3 league record.

In 2007, Eastern Kentucky's Jacob Korir won his fourth-straight Conference cross country title becoming just the third OVC student-athlete and 13th athlete nationally to accomplish that feat. Korir was a three-time All-American in cross country, earning two top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championship. The Nairobi, Kenya, native was also named a track and field All-American twice during his career, was selected as the OVC Male Athlete of the Year in 2006-07 and received the NCAA post graduate scholarship in 2008.

In 2011 the Eastern Kentucky men's cross country earned a national ranking in the USTFCCCA poll, climbing to as high as No. 17; the ranking was the highest for an OVC team since the polls began in the early 1980s. The EKU men would qualify for the NCAA Championship, becoming the first OVC team to reach the national championship meet since 1980. Eastern Kentucky finished 26th overall at the event as junior Soufiane Bouchikhi was 47th in a field of 252 runners. On the women's side Eastern Kentucky senior Lydia Kosgei became the first EKU woman to ever qualify for the NCAA Championship and went on to finish 37th at the national meet, marking the second-highest finish for a female in OVC history, and also earning All-American honors.

A year later (2012) the EKU men's cross country team was ranked as high as No. 11 nationally and finished 24th at the NCAA Championship. Wade Meddles led the team with a 38th place finish at the event while Bouchikhi was 40th. In 2013 Eastern Kentucky placed 15th at the NCAA Championship, the highest national finish for an OVC team since 1980. Soufiane Bouchikhi capped his career by winning his fourth-straight OVC Championship and earning National Runner of the Week honors during the season. Bouchikhi finished 26th at the NCAA Championship in 2013, earning All-American honors for the second-straight season.

In 2007 the Conference had two teams in the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament for the first time in league history, as former OVC member Samford earned an at-large selection while Southeast Missouri was the Conference's automatic bid.

In 2009 it was OVC softball that accomplished several firsts as UT Martin (tournament champion) and Jacksonville State (at-large) were each selected for the NCAA Championship. Jacksonville State would take it a step farther by winning the Knoxville Regional (beating No. 13 national seed Tennessee along the way) to become the first OVC softball program to advance to a Super Regional. Jax State would fall to No. 4 Alabama in that Super Regional but finished the season 43-16 (19-2 OVC) and ranked 21st nationally in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and 24th nationally in the USA Today/NFCA poll.

The league's baseball presence has continued to evolve since its inception. The OVC baseball tournament moved to a neutral site for the first time in 2001 with Paducah, Ky. and Brooks Stadium hosting the tournament in front of raucous crowds. The success of the tournament led to Jackson, Tenn. and The Ballpark at Jackson (the home of the Seattle Mariner's Class AA affiliate) - hosting the event for the first time in 2010.

The OVC also has made a statement in the NCAA Baseball Championship in recent years, with its teams involved in several memorable contests in the last decade. Tennessee Tech surprised Wake Forest in the opening round of the 2001 tournament and Southeast Missouri stunned host Alabama in the opening round of the 2002 championship. Five years later, Austin Peay captured the collegiate baseball world's attention by taking Vanderbilt, the 2007 No. 1 overall seed, to extra innings. Eastern Illinois pushed host Nebraska to the limit in 2008 followed by Tennessee Tech's memorable contest against host Clemson in 2009.

After not making the OVC Tournament field in either 2009 or 2010, Austin Peay, who was picked to finish seventh in the 2011 preseason poll, won the regular season and tournament championships to garner its fourth

NCAA Tournament appearance. In the first game of NCAA Regional play the Govs knocked off host and No. 1 seed Georgia Tech 2-1.

In 2012 Austin Peay completed a “repeat squared” (back-to-back regular season and tournament championships) for the first-time in OVC history. The Govs would go on to top Indiana State and Cal State Fullerton at the Eugene Regional, before falling to host Oregon in the regional final. It marked the first time since the 2000 season (Middle Tennessee) that an OVC team had won multiple NCAA Tournaments games in the same season.

Austin Peay completed a “3-Peayt” by winning its third-straight OVC Tournament crown in 2013. Along the way the Govs garnered the first nationally-ranking by an OVC team since 2009 (climbing to as high as 21st nationally) and tied the OVC single-season record with 47 victories. The Govs earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Bloomington Regional, becoming the first OVC team in the current regional format (since 1999) to earn anything other than a No. 4 seed. The squad topped Florida and Valparaiso to advance to the regional final for the second-straight season before losing to host Indiana. Govs senior closer Tyler Rogers was a big part of his team’s success during the year, setting the NCAA single-season record for saves (23 – a mark that was later eclipsed during the College World Series).

After the 2014 baseball season OVC teams have won at least one game in the NCAA regional round in five of the last eight years.

For the third-straight year 12 OVC players were selected in the 2014 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Of those 12 selections five came in the first 10 rounds, setting a new record for most OVC players picked in the first 10 rounds (eclipsing the old mark of three set several times). The 12 selections were once again just one off the record of 13 selections in 2010; overall the OVC has had 58 players selected over the past five years (2010-14).

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State’s Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky’s Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year. A year later (2009) the league had a Major League Baseball First Round Compensation Round pick (Eastern Illinois’ Tyler Kehrner who was No. 48 overall) and NBA Second Round pick (UT Martin’s Lester Hudson) in the same season.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner’s Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 229 student-athletes honored with the award, including 50 over the last five years (2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13, 2013-14).

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind “Sportsmanship Statement,” a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one’s opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men’s and women’s sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin. In addition Columbus State University serves as an affiliate member for the sport of rifle.
