Capaha Field

The Southeast Missouri baseball team calls Capaha Field home.

Located just two blocks west of the Southeast Missouri State campus, Capaha Field is owned and operated by the City of Cape Girardeau.

In addition to the ball field, Capaha Park features playgrounds, a pond, picnic areas, and a recently added frisbee golf course.

Redhawk fans enjoy watching the Southeast Missouri baseball team from the hillsides behind the first base dugout and beyond the left field wall. Southeast consistently leads the Ohio Valley Conference in attendance each season.

Capaha Field has a natural grass surface and is considered to be one of the best playing fields in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Capaha Field includes a state-of-the-art press box which was completed prior to the start of the 2006 season. The press box, which is fully equipped with wireless broadband internet access, televisions, a kitchen/lounge area and restroom, gives staff and media an excellent view behind home plate.

The dimensions of Capaha Field are 330 feet down the lines, 380 to the alleys, and 400 to straight-away center field. The fence running along the outfield is nine feet high.

Capaha Field also serves as the current home of the Plaza Tire Capahas, the oldest amateur baseball team in America.

"Tiger" Joe Uhls Locker Room

Located inside Houck Field House on the Southeast Missouri State campus is the "Tiger" Joe Uhls Baseball Locker Room.

The locker room provides Redhawks baseball players with the modern amenities commonly found in professional locker rooms. Most recently, hardwood floors were added in 2005.

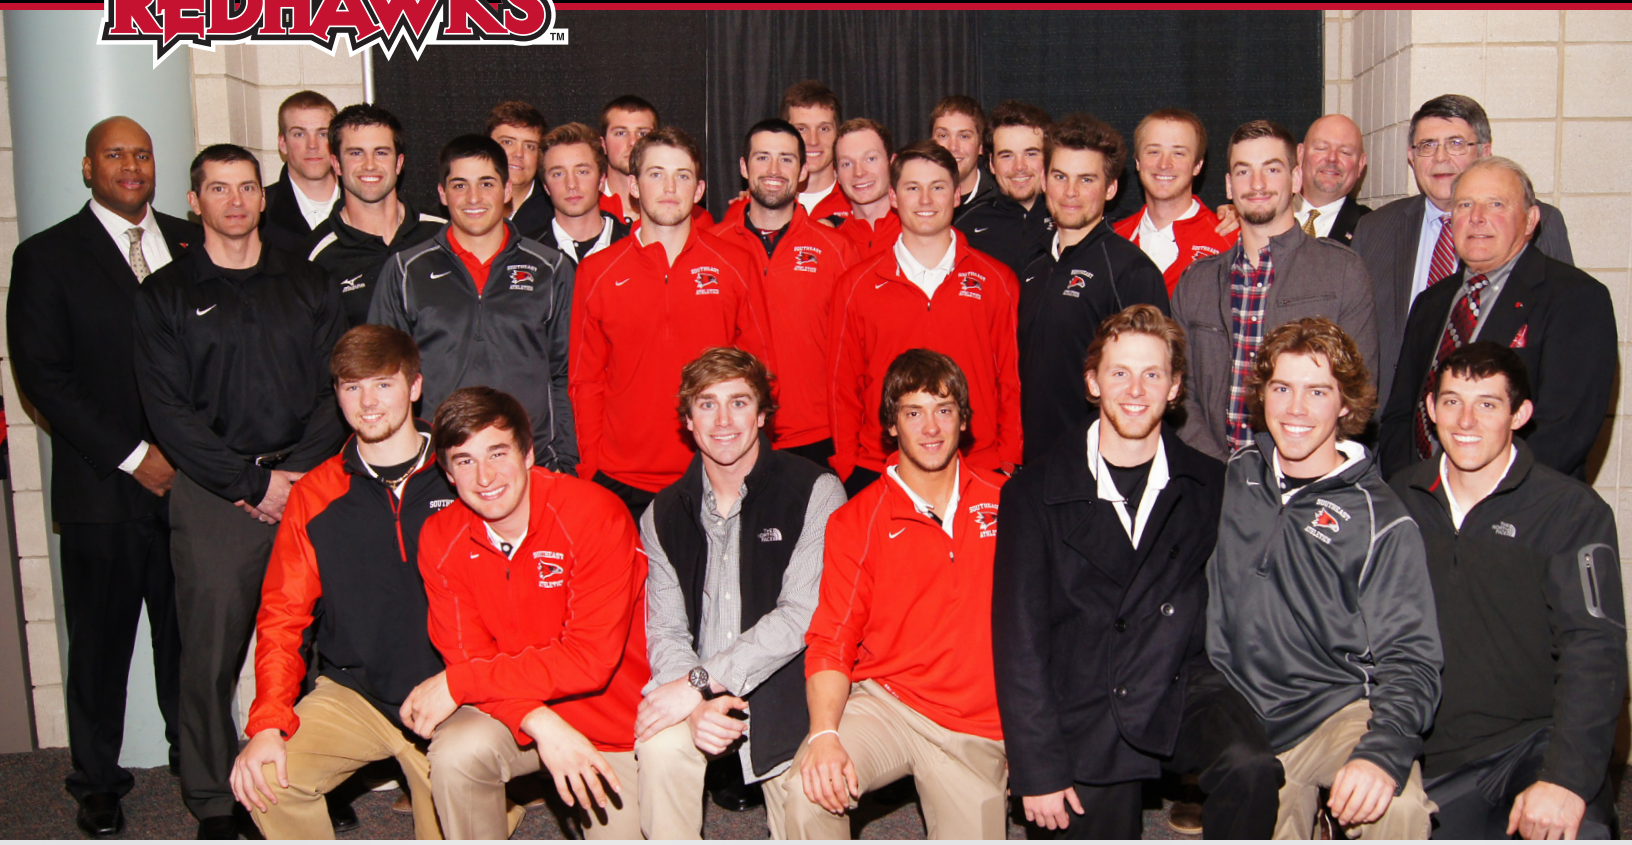

The locker room features 35 professional-style lockers for players, rest rooms, a shower area and ample storage space for equipment and uniforms. An entertainment system also provides players the opportunity to view scouting and coaching video as well as watch television for leisure.

In addition, a study area with broadband internet capabilities is available for Redhawks student-athletes. Surrounding the locker room is a mural honoring the all-time greatest players and moments in Southeast Missouri State baseball history.

SUCCESS CENTER

The Redhawk Success Center offers Southeast Missouri student-athletes a place to study and develop as students and campus leaders.

It is located in the Student Recreation Center, just south of Houck Stadium. The Redhawk Success Center offers a computer lab with 18 work terminals, study areas and rooms for group meetings.

The area is under the guidance of Director of Academic Services Sharon Burgard, Assistant Coordinator Sandy Wiemers and Graduate Assistants Karley Evans and Bethany Pfeiffer.

The beautiful facility has enhanced the outstanding work in the classroom already enjoyed by Southeast student-athletes. Last year, the Redhawks combined for a 3.17 cumulative grade point average in the fall and spring semesters. Over 60 percent of all student-athletes recorded a 3.0 or higher GPA. Thirteen of Southeast's 15 intercollegiate athletic teams recorded a team GPA over 3.0. Additionally, Southeast student-athletes logged over 3,000 hours of community service over the 2013-14 academic year.

Tutors are available for all student-athletes as needed. In addition, both attendance and academic progress is monitored through regular checks with faculty.

A special course is required for all first time student-athletes at Southeast. The course, which offers three credit hours, is part of a comprehensive program developed to address study skills and life skills topics, and thus, enhance retention and academic success for student-athletes.

Entering student-athletes are evaluated for academic preparedness and assigned to appropriate categories. Student-athletes can also receive individualized academic programs which include meeting with a mentor bi-weekly to discuss academic progress.

The Success Center staff works to get athletes involved in campus and community projects, as well. This is done to provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success. Through the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, the Success Center gives student-athletes personal and professional skills in order to facilitate successful and productive futures.

2013-14 Notables

- Southeast Missouri finished third in the Ohio Valley Conference Commissioner's Cup for the second-straight year in 2013-14. The third-place finish matched the Redhawks highest in school history. Southeast accumulated a total of 107.5 points, a +3.25 increase in its point total from the previous year.

- Southeast Missouri's student-athletes finished the 2013-14 academic year with a 3.17 grade point average and had 13 teams maintain a 3.0 the entire year. In all, 197 individuals finished the year with a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA accounting for 62.5 percent of the student-athlete population.

- A total of 60 student-athletes received their degrees, including 19 in the fall and 41 in the spring.

- For the fifth time in seven years, Southeast's women's gymnastics team posted the highest cumulative GPA among all NCAA programs as announced by the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches/ Women (NACGC/W). The Redhawks 3.81 mark edged Western Michigan's 3.80 GPA.

- Southeast student-athletes logged over 3,000 community service hours in 2013-14. Redhawk student-athletes participated in a number of community service activities, including Feed My Starving Children, Pink Up Cape, Read to Succeed, Special Olympics, American Cancer Society benefit dinner and the SEMO Food Bank's Party for the Good.

- Southeast teams combined for five conference championships in 2013-14. The Redhawks won the OVC men's indoor track, men's and women's outdoor track titles, and baseball crown. Meanwhile, the women's gymnastics team won the Midwest Independent Conference championship.

SPORTS MEDICINE

Prevention. Treatment. Rehabilitation. Education. Those are the four primary phases of athletic training, and the Southeast Missouri athletic training staff strives to fulfill all of those areas when working with student-athletes on a daily basis.

Southeast student-athletes are offered the best care possible by the athletic training staff. The Sports Medicine department includes five full-time athletic trainers, six graduate assistants and several student assistants. The staff serves student-athletes around-the-clock at numerous facilities on campus.

The athletic trainers begin treatments and rehabilitation starting as early as 6 a.m., and are available until the last student-athlete is through.

There are currently four athletic training facilities on campus. The staff treats out of the Rosengarten Athletic Complex, where the primary training room is located. There are two other satellite athletic training rooms, including one at Houck Field House and one at the Show Me Center.

The Southeast athletic training rooms are equipped with stationary bikes, hand weights, therapeutic modalities and the latest physical therapy equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athlete the best care, but also to aid in returning to competition as quickly as possible.

Southeast Athletic Training has strong working relationships with local physicians and two hospitals in Cape Girardeau. It is from these hospitals that the Athletic Training department is assisted by four orthopedic physicians.

The Southeast Athletic Training program prides and commits itself to providing the best comprehensive, personalized and efficient healthcare to its student-athletes. Delivery of healthcare focuses on the prevention and management of athletic-related injuries or illnesses, while adhering to the National Athletic Trainers' Board of Certification Standards of Professional Practice. Our high quality of athletic healthcare is provided in combination with the education of athletic training students.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Southeast Missouri's Strength and Conditioning program is committed to developing the total student-athlete through their experiences within a competitive training environment.

This will be accomplished by focusing on reducing the risk of injury and maximizing athletic potential through individual evaluation and program design.

The Southeast Missouri Strength and Conditioning program is under the direction of Ryan Johnson.

Redhawk student-athletes use various training facilities located inside the Student Recreation Center South.

Training Principles for Southeast Athletes:

1. Reduce the risk of injuries
   - If a student-athlete is injured, he/she will not be able to compete at practice or games.

2. Ensure the athletes are optimally prepared to compete
   - It is our responsibility to best manage all stressors that are placed on the student-athletes body in order to achieve the best results on the playing field.

3. Maximize athletic ability
   - We challenge each athlete, both physically and mentally, in order to achieve optimal results.

Exercises for Southeast Athletes are based on the following Principles:

1. Ground Based Movements
   - Athletes compete with their feet on the ground, and therefore, should train that way. The ability to produce force against the ground determines how fast athletes can run and how high they can jump.

2. Three-Dimensional Movements
   - Athletes must be able to stabalize themselves in all planes of movement. A fancy way of saying we use free weights (barbells/dumbbells vs. machines).

3. Multi-Joint Movements
   - Very rarely in sport do athletes isolate one single joint at a time. Athletes can train more muscle mass at the same time.

2014 Ohio Valley Conference Regular Season Champions

Southeast Missouri baseball won the 2014 Ohio Valley Conference regular season title for the first time since the 2002 season. Along the way, Southeast tied a program record 37 wins in a season, going 37-20 on the season. The Redhawks finished OVC play with a 23-7 record.

The Redhawks carried the OVC Player of the Year in Matt Tellor, OVC Co-Pitcher of the Year in Travis Hayes, and OVC Coach of the Year, Steve Bieser, in only his second season at the helm of the Redhawks. Outfielder Derek Gibson joined Tellor and Hayes on the First Team All-OVC squad.

Additional post-season honors included Tellor and Gibson being named National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association All-Americans and Second Team All-American and All-South Region honors from Rawlings and the American Baseball Coaches Association. Tellor also earned Louisville Slugger Second Team All-American honors while Gibson was named Capital One Academic All-American and Jason Blum earning Third Team Academic All-American laurels.

Southeast won nine of its ten OVC series throughout the season.

Southeast ranked nationally in a number of statistical categories. The team's .309 batting average ranked ninth in the nation. Southeast averaged 7.2 runs a game, ranking eighth, while their 408 total runs ranked ninth. The Redhawks finished second in the country in sacrifice flies with 47 on the season. Southeast Missouri boasted a .389 on-base percentage and a .422 slugging percentage on the season. Defensively, the Redhawks turned the ninth-most double plays and averaged 1.11 per game. On the bases, Southeast ranked 10th in the nation with 97 stolen bases; stealing 1.7 bases a game.

Three Redhawks from the 2014 sqaud would go on to continue their baseball careers.

Matt Tellor was drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in the 10th round. Tellor was the 313th overall pick of the draft and is the highest draft pick out of Southeast Missouri since Galen McSpadden was drafted in the sixth round of the 1974 draft.

Derek Gibson signed a free agent contract with the St. Louis Cardinals on June 19. Cole Bieser then went on to sign with the Gateway Grizzlies out of the Frontier League.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE REDHAWKS

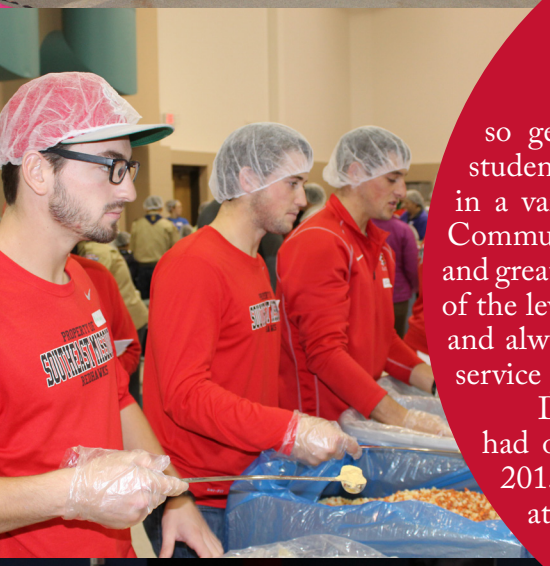

Student-athletes and coaches at Southeast Missouri are dedicated to giving back to the community that so generously supports them. Redhawks baseball student-athletes have opportunities to participate in a variety of community service activities each year. Community involvement helps provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success. We are proud of the level of commitment shown by our student-athletes and always encourage them to participate in community service projects here at Southeast.

During the 2014 Fall semester, Southeast baseball had over 500 service hours as a team. During the 2013-14 academic year, Southeast student-athletes logged over 3,000 community service hours.

2014 OVC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS

First Pitch Dinner

The Southeast Missouri baseball program celebrated a highly successful inaugural First Pitch Dinner on the evening of Feb. 7, 2014. Former St. Louis Cardinals pitcher Andy Benes presented the keynote speech to a crowd of 160 guests.

Besides dinner and a program, the evening featured a silent auction. Just some of the auction items included a signed Stan Musial jersey, an Albert Pujols autographed bat, Cal Ripken Jr. autographed bat, a round of golf at Dalhousie Golf Club, and autographed baseballs from St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Famers.

Andy Benes pitched 14 seasons in the majors including five seasons with the Cardinals. Benes, the No. 1 overall pick of the 1988 Major League Draft, is best known for striking out 2,000 major league hitters in his career.

In his speech, Benes told guests about his outstanding major league career, his relationship with his family throughout his time in the majors, and most importantly, his faith.

The 2015 First Pitch Dinner will be held March 7. Former St. Louis Cardinal Al Hrabosky will be the featured speaker.

PRESIDENT DR. KENNETH W. DOBBINS

Dr. Kenneth W. Dobbins became the seventeenth president of Southeast Missouri State University on July 1, 1999 after serving as the University's Vice President of Finance and Administration from 1991 to 1993, and Executive Vice President from 1993 until his appointment as president. He previously held several positions in higher education administration at Kent State University in Ohio.

During his tenure at Southeast, academic programs have been enhanced including the establishment of the College of Science, Technology, and Agriculture and the Earl and Margie Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts which opened in fall 2007 on the new River Campus. A comprehensive review of all academic and non-academic programs has been accomplished to maintain quality and minimize student fee increases in the face of significant state appropriation reductions. Southeast continues to be recognized nationally for many of its outstanding accredited academic programs. For the 11th year in a row, Princeton Review recognized the Master of Business Administration program on its list of "Best Business Schools." GetEducated.com listed Southeast #1 on the list of "Top 10 Ranked Best Values Online MBAs-AACSB-Accredited"; Southeast is recognized in the top tier of the Midwest best regional universities in U.S. News Best Colleges for 2014; and Southeast was again named among the "Best in the Midwest" by Princeton Review. Additionally, Military-friendlyschools.com lists Southeast among the top schools that embrace veterans as students, and recent freshmen survey data indicate that new students applied only to Southeast at a rate three times the national average.

Enrollment has increased significantly since a 20-year-low in 1994 when approximately 7,900 students attended Southeast. In fall 2005, enrollment topped 10,000 for the first time, and stood at more than 11,900 in 2013. Additionally, record enrollments in higher education have occurred in the University's 25-county service region during his tenure due to the establishment of new regional campuses in Sikeston and Kennett and a higher education center at Perryville serving place-bound students in and near those rural communities.

During Dr. Dobbins' presidency more than $400 million in capital construction and building improvement projects have enhanced the University. The Seabaugh Polytechnic Building and the $58 million River Campus were constructed. In 2005, the Douglas C. Greene Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship was opened, followed by the dedication of the state-of-the-art David M. Barton Agriculture Research Center in 2009, and the University's Autism Center for Diagnosis and Treatment in 2010. Southeast is known throughout the Midwest for its modern and student-friendly residence halls.

Vandiver Hall was completed in 2002; Merick Hall in 2009; and LaFerla Hall was dedicated in the fall of 2013. More than $90 million in capital renovation projects were completed in 2013, including the renovation of the historic 108-year-old Academic Hall, and the remodeling and upgrades to the Magill and Rhodes sciences complex. Additionally, the University will open the River Campus Center, a new academic and residence hall center, at the River Campus in fall 2014.

Dr. Dobbins has served a two-year term as president of the Missouri Council on Public Higher Education (COPHE), the organization for presidents and chancellors of Missouri's public colleges and universities, and is the senior member of the organization. In 2007, he was selected to serve a three-year term on the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU) Board of Directors, an organization which represents over 420 U.S. public college and university members and more than 3.7 million students or 56 percent of the enrollment at all public four-year institutions. He was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the organization in 2008, chaired the organization in 2010-2011, and again serves on the AASCU Board. Also, for the past ten years, he has served as one of four faculty members for the week-long AASCU New Presidents' Academy, and currently chairs the Finance Committee of the American Academic Leadership Institute. He previously served three years as president of the Ohio Valley Conference and is currently a member of the Conference finance subcommittee. In addition, he is the vice president for membership on the executive board of the Greater St. Louis Council, Boy Scouts of America, and was elected by local council associates to serve on the National Council, Boy Scouts of America. In 2010, he was awarded the Silver Beaver Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a Boy Scout volunteer by a council.

He earned his B.S. degree in accounting from the University of Akron (Ohio) in 1971 and served as a commissioned officer and civilian executive in the U.S. Air Force for almost 10 years. He received the M.B.A. degree in 1979 from Old Dominion University (Virginia) where he was awarded the 2001 Distinguished Alumni Award, and the Ph.D. in higher education administration in 1987 from Kent State, where in 2011, he was awarded the Alumni Leadership Award for the College of Education, Health and Human Services Annual Hall of Fame Awards. He is also a Certified Public Accountant in Ohio.

Dr. Dobbins and his wife, Jeanine Larson Dobbins, Founder and Director Emeritus of the Missouri Statewide Early Literacy Intervention Program based at Southeast, have a son, Paul, and a daughter-in-law, Stacey, who are both Southeast graduates, and two grandsons, Lincoln Kenneth and Brady Larson Dobbins.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS MARK ALNUTT

Southeast Missouri's Department of Athletics is thriving under the leadership of Mark Alnutt.

Southeast Athletics operates on the three core values of its mission -- Academic Excellence, Social Development and Competitive Success. As a result, the Redhawks are soaring in all of those areas.

Academically, Southeast student-athletes have combined for over a 3.1 cumulative grade point average in the fall and spring semesters each year with Alnutt at the helm. The 2013-14 campaign saw a total of 197 individuals achieve a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA accounting for 62.5 percent of the student-athlete population. That success led to the Department of Athletics securing a 3.17 GPA with 13 teams maintaining a 3.0 or better the entire year.

Prior to that, the Redhawks accumulated a 3.12 GPA with 192 student-athletes getting a 3.0 or higher mark in 2012-13.

In line with academics, Alnutt strongly encourages coaches, administrators and student-athletes to be visible in the community. That being said, student-athletes have logged over 4,000 hours of community service in Alnutt's term as Director of Athletics. Pink Up Cape, Feed My Starving Children, Project Homeless Connect, Cape Girardeau Adopt-A-Street, Read to Succeed and Special Olympics are among the many community service opportunities the Redhawks have actively participated in.

Another valuable piece of Southeast's growth in athletics has been Alnutt's Redhawks Road Trip. The Redhawks Road Trip features a series of outreach events to give fans, alumni, supporters and community members the chance to meet select coaches, student-athletes and administration from Southeast Athletics. Last year, the Redhawks made 11 different stops along the "I-55 Corridor," that stretch between St. Louis and Memphis which is so important from a branding, recruiting and fundraising standpoint.

Athletically, Southeast finished third in the Ohio Valley Conference Commissioner's Cup for the second-straight year in 2013-14. The Redhawks tallied 107.5 points, a +3.25 increase from the previous season. Those third-place finishes are the best in school history.

Southeast nearly had a clean sweep of the OVC track & field championships, winning the men's indoor and men's and women's outdoor crowns. The Redhawks also won the OVC baseball title and Midwest Independent Conference women's gymnastics championship during the 2013-14 campaign. In all, Southeast teams have won six conference titles in Alnutt's first two years as Director of Athletics.

Alnutt was the driving force behind securing the first-ever NCAA football game at Busch Stadium in St. Louis. Longstanding regional-rivals Southeast Missouri and Southern Illinois met in the College Classic on Sept. 21, 2013.

Alnutt has made some new coaching hires as well. He introduced Tom Matukewicz as the Redhawks head football coach on Dec. 18, 2013 and Mark Redburn as the school's next head softball coach on June 26, 2014.

Since Alnutt officially took over as Director of Athletics on April 19, 2012, total giving to athletics has increased by more than 26 percent. As a result, the department raised over $780,000 through various fundraising initiatives.

Prior to accepting his first job as Director of Athletics, Alnutt served as the Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Missouri.

Alnutt was the administrative liaison for football; supervised track and field, cross country, gymnastics and golf; spearheaded the department's project management team; served as the primary point person for the Athletic Department, overseeing all aspects of facility project master planning, development, management and implementation; and was involved with external department operations, including development, game operations, marketing, media relations, Mizzou Sports Properties and ticket operations.

Alnutt also managed postseason travel arrangements for each of the University of Missouri's 20 intercollegiate sport programs. He oversaw Missouri's Nike contract, the Big Wheels and Flying Tiger programs and the department's relationship with Old Hawthorne Golf Club. In 2009, he managed a $5 million video board project through the University of Missouri Sports Complex with the centerpiece being a new board at Faurot Field. He also oversaw the design and construction of the new Golden Girls/ Gymnastics practice facililty in the fall of 2011. Alnutt was actively involved in the solicitation and stewardship efforts of capital gift giving, as well.

Alnutt spent six years at the University of Missouri as director of football operations, adding an assistant athletic director title prior to the 2005-2006 season. In that role, his duties included coordinating the team's travel plans, overseeing the football budget, handling compliance issues, scheduling of facilities, assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day operations of the football program.

He coordinated public relations and community service events for football, and oversaw all organizational aspects for the University of Missouri's trips to the 2003 and 2005 Independence Bowl games played in Shreveport, La. He also represented the football program as part of the design team that planned the $16 million expansion and renovation project which turned the Tom Taylor Building into the Missouri Athletics Training Complex.

Alnutt was a three-year letterman for the University of Missouri as a linebacker and tight end from 1993-1995 and was voted the team's champion of the year as a senior. He earned a degree in sociology in 1995 and went to work for Major Brands as a senior salesman in Kansas City from February 1996 to August 1997.

He returned to the University of Missouri to pursue a master's degree in public administration with an emphasis on sports psychology. He joined the Missouri football staff in 1998 as an administrative/ video graduate assistant. Alnutt completed his master's degree in May 2000 and took over as director of football operations that August.

A native of Kansas City, Alnutt served as president of the board of directors for Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Boone County and was selected to participate in the 2002-2003 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males. In June 2005, he was recognized by Columbia Business Times as one of the Columbia's 40-Under-40 business leaders for his work in the community.

He has participated in the Division I-A Athletic Director's Institute, attended the NACDA Mentoring Institute and chaired the NCAA Women's Gymnastics committee. In 2010, he was the recipient of an Outstanding Chancellor's Staff recognition and the Barbara S. Uehling Award for Administrative Excellence at the University of Missouri.

Alnutt was selected to serve a four-year term on the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee, effective Sept. 1, 2013.

The NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee (MOIC) was formed by the Association in January 1990 to review issues related to the interests of ethnic minorities and women. These issues focus on the education and welfare of minority student-athletes, as well as the enhancement of opportunities for ethnic minorities and women in coaching, athletics, administration, officiating and the NCAA governance structure.

A year later, Alnutt was appointed to serve a four-year term on the NCAA Football Playing Rules Committee that will begin Sept. 1, 2014.

The mission of the NCAA Football Rules Committee is to govern the playing rules of collegiate football by: Acknowledging the traditions of sport; Soliciting input from various college constituencies; Examining existing regulations and making necessary modifications to create safe, practical, concise and enforceable rules; and influencing the long term vision and direction of NCAA football.

Alnutt and his wife, the former Kate Hankins, are the parents of four children, Jaren, Kinleigh, Mason and Aidan.

2015 Preview

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE REDHAWKS

The Southeast Missouri baseball program is coming off its greatest season in over a decade but head coach Steve Bieser is confident that 2015 will be even more exciting for his team.

"Last season generated a lot of energy for us going into this season and we have a tremendous amount of depth at every position on the field. There's a lot of competition at every position and that keeps these players on the edge and pushes them to work hard everyday," Bieser said.

The 2015 team brings with it a large amount of veteran leadership. The roster holds 13 seniors and 14 juniors. Six of the seniors have spent their entire careers with the Redhawks.

"Coach Lawson and Coach Rhodes do a great job of building this team and to have six guys spend their whole career here is very important for our program. We want that number to continue to rise each year. The goal of our program is to bring players in as freshmen and develop them throughout their careers as a Redhawk. Having our fourth and fifth-year guys this season is excellent because our new players come lean on them for advice and can learn from them.

TRAVIS HAYES

"From a position stand point, this team brings with it very solid defenders who will also be very good offensively once again this season."

Starting Pitchers

The starting rotation will see three familiar faces in 2015. The 2014 Ohio Valley Conference Co-Pitcher of the Year Travis Hayes (Crystal City, Missouri), Alex Winkelman (Crystal City, Missouri), and Ryan Lenaburg (Sentinel, Oklahoma) are all expected to see starts on the mound this season. Joining the mix is Chabot College transfer and left-handed pitcher Joey Lucchesi (Newark, California).

"We have four key guys looking to fill three weekend spots for us and three of them are very experienced in Hayes, Winkelman, and Lenaburg. Lucchesi has been great for us since joining our team. He's shown us very positive stuff on the mound and he will fight hard for a weekend role.

"We're glad we have strong competition for the weekend rotation because that will make our midweek starter even better. It's also nice to play four games opening weekend. That will give us a chance to throw each guy and help us better get a feel for our starting pitching rotation right off the bat."

The Bullpen

Much like the starting rotation, the bullpen brings veteran experience along with some new faces this season. Brady Wright (Jonesboro, Illinois) returns as Southeast's saves leader with six last season. Other key bullpen pitchers back in 2015 include Alex Siddle (Belleville, Illinois), Garret Stockton (Qulin, Missouri), Perry Middleton (Caruthersville, Missouri), and Greg Mosel (Darwin, Australia).

GREG MOSEL

"Brady has the most experience in the closer role right now and he has been throwing very well for us in preparation for the season. Aside from Brady, there is a lot of depth with Siddle, Stockton, Middleton, and Mosel who are ready to pitch in that role or where ever we need them. We expect to have several guys fighting for key innings out the pen but we want our guys to have a more cohesive feel for their roles this season; whereas last season we felt we were piecing it together game by game."

While most of last year's bullpen is returning, there are some new faces who will be expected to contribute.

"Newcomers such as Jacob Lawrence (Nixa, Missouri) and our true freshmen, Zach Moore (Cobden, Illinois) and Wesley Pyles (Poplar Bluff, Missouri), are really throwing the ball well right now. We also have a healthy Matt Wade (Cordova, Tennessee) back and he's shown us that he wants key innings out of the pen as well.

"We really think the strength of our club will be our bullpen and our pitching staff overall. That's tough to say because we think we will be very good offensively this season."

Catchers

Three catchers shared playing time last season and that's not expected to change much. Scott Mitchell (Dublin, California) and Cole Ferguson (Salem, Oregon) split starting time in 2014 while Alex Burridge (Queen Creek, Arizona) saw a good amount of time taking over behind the plate later in games. However, with Ferguson transitioning into a two-way player, the Redhawks have added even more depth behind the dish.

"We have even more depth at the catching position than we did last year. Our three returners have had good careers here and we got a lot of production out of all of them. These three are real team players, they know their role, and they're ready when their number is called. Anytime you get production from your catchers offensively and defensively, you are one step closer to being a good club. We've also added Hunter Leeper (Mokane, Missouri) into the mix. He adds competition to the group because he also has the ability to be a very offensive catcher.

"The issue we face with using Ferguson as a two-way player is playing him the wrong way or too much. Being a pitcher-catcher can be taxing on the arm but his bat is one we need in the lineup a lot. We just have to be careful on how we use him this season."

First Base

The only position on the field the Redhawks truly left vacant after last year was first base, but Coach Bieser isn't worried with the players he has slated to fill the spot. Newcomers Ryan Rippee (Springfield, Missouri) and Garrett Gandolfo (El Cajon, California) are both expected to play first base and compete for the regular starting job.

"We have two guys at first right now who compliment each other very well with Gandolfo being a left-handed hitter and Rippee being a right. They're also both very different types of hitters with Garrett being a high on-base hitter and Rippee being a power guy. There's a strong chance that when one isn't playing first, the other will be in the designated hitter spot. It will be a good tandem at first and they're both key parts of this program."

Second Base

Bieser feels the only position on the field that's truly locked is the second base spot. Jason Blum (Ste. Genevieve, Missouri) will be the everyday guy for Southeast at second. Blum started every game in 2014 at second and was a wizard defensively, offensively, as well as on the base paths.

"Jason is the all-around player that a team needs at a middle infield position. He's a plus defender and that showed a season ago when we almost led the country in turning double plays. He's a guy that can turn two quickly and throw the ball from any angle and at a high velocity over to first. Expect him to hit at the top of the lineup and really set the table for the rest of the hitters. I also expect him to be more of a run producer this year for us."

Shortstop

Juniors Branden Boggetto (Joliet, Illinois) and Andy Lack (Kennett, Missouri) each shared a lot of time at shortstop last season. Both have a flashy glove and can produce runs when they're needed most. And if the competition wasn't strong enough at short a year ago, it will be even stronger this season with the addition of Trevor Ezell (Alexander, Arkansas).

JASON BLUM

ANDY LENNINGTON

"When we brought Ezell into our program, we weren't really sure where he was going to be as a true freshman but he's proven he's ready to step up and play Division I baseball. The tough part for us is figuring out who will win that spot with our returners and newcomers vying for that role. With all our middle infielders, we need those guys to be flexible and move around and play multiple positions or hit as the DH and just find a way into the lineup somehow. It's nice to have so many guys who can do that, we just need to find a way to balance their playing time and keep everyone fresh. We need to find ways to get each one of these guys in our lineup because they're all great assets to our program."

Third Base

Andy Lennington (Brentwood, Tennessee) was Southeast's everyday starting third baseman in 2014. Lennington made flashy plays on the corner but could also change the course of the game with a swing of his bat. Lennington was also named 2015 Louisville Slugger Preseason All-American.

"Andy is one of our fifth-year guys and he had a fantastic offensive season last year. I truly believe Andy can be an exceptional defensive third baseman as well, which he has proven over his time here. He's ready for a big senior season.

"We also have a very capable backup in Nolan Fisher (Wentzville, Missouri) who can step in and back Andy up in certain situations or give Andy a break here or there.

"Third base also gives us an opportunity to move a shortstop over and create a third spot for our middle infielders. We have a total of six guys who can play second, short, or third while Lennington could also slide over to first and play very well there. We have such a nice mixture on our infield where we can get players playing time all over the field. These guys aren't locked into one position; we have enough athletes to play anywhere. Whereas in the past when players came to the field knowing where they were going to play, this season, we have a lot of interchangeable parts and that keeps guys competing to play everyday."

Outfield

While there are only five outfielders listed on the 2015 roster, the five listed are highly solid defensive players with a great deal of experience. Dalton Hewitt (Ballwin, Missouri) and Clayton Evans (Fenton, Missouri) are back and are expected to play a lot all over the outfield. Filling the center field spot is Brendon Neel (Festus, Missouri) who sat out in 2014 due to NCAA transfer rules.

"We have five very solid outfielders but when you look at the guys on the infield, we have about three who can play the outfield as well. We have a ton of maneuverability in the outfield but the everyday guys in those spots include Hunter Leeper, who has impressed us on the infield, behind the plate, and at all three positions in the outfield. Freshman Peter Williams (Wildwood, Missouri) has looked very good in both left and right for us and he's a left-handed bat option in the outfield. Neel will be our everyday center fielder after earning that spot in practice. Clayton has become a plus defender in the outfield so we can put him at all three spots if we need him. I expect to see all these guys all over the outfield, especially early on in the season to help figure out who fits best and where."

DALTON HEWITT

Designated Hitter

With the incredible amount of depth all over the field, the designated hitter could be a revolving door or whoever is swinging the best bat on a given day.

"When we look at the positions we have to fill on the field, we feel we have an excellent defensive team but if someone isn't having a great defensive showing at a given time but still swinging a hot bat, we will put them in the DH spot."

2015 Schedule

The 2015 schedule is shaping up to be a challenging one for the Redhawks but that's what Coach Bieser had in mind. Southeast will play a total of 28 games at the friendly confines of Capaha Field. The Redhawks will possibly have to battle winter conditions early in the season as 14 of their first 15 are at home.

Southeast will play 12 games with Missouri Valley opponents. Five total MVC opponents appear on the schedule including Illinois State, Bradley, Missouri State, Southern Illinois, and Indiana State.

Southeast will also play two Southeastern Conference opponents in Arkansas and in-state rival Missouri.

"I like our schedule. It's very good for where we're at as a program right now. We are playing the toughest competition we can play at our level. We have tapped the Missouri Valley and SEC and they will be very tough games for us but really give us excellent competition. From a consistency stand point, we couldn't be any more consistent with our strength of schedule. There won't be a single game that we can show up to without playing our best game."

OVC play will begin March 6 at home against Eastern Kentucky. OVC foes Tennessee Tech, Jacksonville State, Austin Peay, and UT Martin will all come to Cape Girardeau this season. Conference road series include trips to Morehead

State, SIUE, Eastern Illinois, Murray State, and Belmont.

Last season, Southeast was picked to finished sixth in the Ohio Valley Conference but the Redhawks will be the ones with a target on their backs this season after winning the league a year ago.

"Playing with a target on your back is one if the toughest things to do. After such a successful season last year, we don't know how exactly we will respond to opponents bringing their best against you. When we played the Tennessee Techs and the Austin Peays last year, we went in wanting to make a statement. The tables will be flipped this year and we have to prepare for everyone's best. Every OVC opponent will want to beat us this season and we must give our best right back to them every single conference series. Our conference continues to improve every year and there are numerous clubs who can win but it will take a solid effort from us day in and day out to win this league again in 2015."

2015 Predicted Order of Finish

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE REDHAWKS

Steve Bieser

Head Coach
Third Season
Southeast Missouri

Steve Bieser returns for his third season at the helm of the Redhawks. Bieser, the reigning Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year, has molded the Southeast Missouri baseball program into a championship-caliber team not only in the OVC but also on a national level.

In only his second season as head coach, Bieser's Redhawks won the 2014 OVC regular season championship, tied a program record for wins in a season going 37-20, posted the ninth-best team batting average in the country (.309), scored the ninth-most runs in the nation (408), finished eighth in scoring (7.2 runs per game), mentored Matt Tellor, 2014 OVC Player of the Year, and Travis Hayes, the 2014 OVC Co-Pitcher of the Year, and saw three players go on to continue their professional careers on the baseball field.

The 2014 team made a name for itself by ranking nationally in a number of statistical categories as a team as well as individually. The team's .309 batting average ranked ninth in the nation. Southeast averaged 7.2 runs a game, ranking eighth, while their 408 total runs ranked ninth. The Redhawks finished second in the country in sacrifice flies with 47 on the season. Southeast boasted a .389 on-base percentage and a .422 slugging percentage on the season. Defensively, the Redhawks turned the ninth-most double plays and averaged 1.11 per game. On the bases, Southeast ranked 10th in the nation with 97 stolen bases; stealing 1.7 bases a game.

Individually, Derek Gibson and Matt Tellor ran the gambit in a number of categories. Tellor ranked in the top-25 in 10 different statistical categories while Gibson appeared in five top-25 lists. Tellor was drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in the 10th round. Tellor was the 313th overall pick of the draft and is the highest draft pick out of Southeast Missouri since Galen McSpadden was drafted in the sixth round of the 1974 draft. Gibson signed a free agent contract with the St. Louis Cardinals on June 19, 2014. Bieser's son, Cole, went on to sign with the Gateway Grizzlies out of the Frontier League.

Academically, the 2014 squad recorded a cumulative team grade point average of 3.38 while seven players earned perfect 4.0 GPAs and 26 players achieved a 3.0 or higher GPA. Derek Gibson earned Capital One Academic All-American First Team honors while Jason Blum picked up Third Team accolades. Blum was also honored as an OVC Scholar-Athlete for his performance on the field and in the classroom his junior year.

The baseball team also kept its record 20 consecutive OVC Tournament appearance streak alive in 2014.

Bieser was named the fifth head coach of Southeast Missouri baseball on May 15, 2013.

During his first year leading the Redhawks, the baseball team finished the season 26-33, 13-17 in OVC play. Academically, the Redhawk baseball team recorded a 3.23 cumulative grade point average, as 26 players achieved a 3.0 or better GPA.

Prior to taking over as head coach of the Redhawks, Bieser served as the pitching coach in 2011 and 2012.

Bieser coached starting pitcher Shae Simmons, who led the OVC in strikeouts in 2012 with 89 on his way to being named Second Team All-OVC. Simmons was drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the 26th round of the 2012 MLB Draft and made his MLB debut May 31, 2014 against the Miami Marlins.

In 2011, the Redhawks pitching staff ranked third in the OVC in pitching recording a team ERA of 4.97, as the Redhawks recorded their first earned run average under five since 2007.

The Redhawks team ERA also improved from 2010 as the Southeast hurlers trimmed their team ERA by over one run. Bieser also mentored two pitchers to Second Team All-OVC honors in Logan Mahon and Jordan Underwood. Mahon was later drafted by the Colorado Rockies in the 22nd round of the MLB Draft.

Bieser, a native of Ste. Genevieve, Missouri came to Southeast after a very successful campaign as head coach at St. John Vianney High School in Kirkwood, Missouri. In seven seasons leading the Griffins, his team won two state championships in 2004 and 2006. He compiled a record of 137-51.

Five of his players were selected in the First Year Major League Player Draft (1st, 5th, 21st, 22nd, & 42nd rounds). Over 80 percent of his high school players went on to play collegiate baseball with 16 playing at the Division I level, four attaining freshman All-America status and one, former Redhawk Jim Klocke, being named a two-time All-American.

In 2009, he took over the Danville Dans of the Prospect League. Bieser coached the Dans to the Central League Championship but fell in the championship game.

As a player, Bieser graduated from Southeast Missouri State in 1989 and was selected in the 32nd round of the 1989 June Draft by the Philadelphia Phillies.

On April 1, 1997, he made his Major League debut with the New York Mets as a catcher. Bieser was the ultimate utility player for the Mets playing all three outfield positions and the catching position. The following season, he signed with the Pittsburgh Pirates, serving as backup catcher, outfielder and top pinch hitter. Bieser finished his major league career with a .250 batting average and a perfect career major league fielding percentage over his two-year MLB career.

Bieser played 13 seasons professionally with nine of those seasons being at the Triple-A level or higher. Bieser played every position on the field in his professional career; twice doing it in the same game. He finished second in the batting race of the International League playing for the Ottawa Expos with a .322 average in 1996. Four times in his career, he finished in the top 25 in offensive statistical rankings.

Bieser finished his professional playing career in 2001 with the Memphis Redbirds when he helped lead the Redbirds in 2000 to the Triple-A World Series.

Bieser and his wife, Diahann, have a son (Cole) and three daughters, Whitley (20), Briley (17) and Carley (8).

Dillon Lawson

Assistant Coach
Third Season
Transylvania

Dillon Lawson returns for his third season as the Redhawks' assistant coach. Lawson serves as the hitting coach for Southeast as well as the team's defensive instructor.

In his second season at Southeast, Lawson took the Redhawk offense to new heights. Southeast ranked nationally in a number of statistical categories. The team's .309 batting average ranked ninth in the nation. Southeast averaged 7.2 runs a game, ranking eighth, while their 408 total runs ranked ninth. The Redhawks finished second in the country in sacrifice flies with 47 on the season. Southeast Missouri boasted a .389 on-base percentage and a .422 slugging percentage on the season. Defensively, the Redhawks turned the ninth-most double plays and averaged 1.11 per game. On the bases, Southeast ranked 10th in the nation with 97 stolen bases; stealing 1.7 bases a game.

Lawson mentored All-Americans Derek Gibson and Matt Tellor in 2014. Individually, Gibson and Tellor ranked nationally in a number of categories. Tellor ranked in the top 25 in 10 different statistical categories while Gibson appeared in five top 25 lists. Tellor was drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in the 10th round. Tellor was the 313th overall pick of the draft. Gibson signed a free agent contract with the St. Louis Cardinals following the 2014 campaign.

Tellor was named OVC Player of the Year. Gibson joined Tellor on the First Team All-OVC roster in 2014.

After his first season, the Redhawks hit .285 as a team, fourth-best in the OVC, with a .392 slugging percentage. Southeast recorded 583 hits, also fourth in the conference. Individually, Dalton Hewitt hit among the best in the league with a .345 batting average.

Lawson came to Southeast after serving as an assistant coach at Morehead State for three seasons (2010-12). He served as the Eagles' pitching coach for two seasons before serving as the hitting coach in 2012, junior college recruiter and assisted in their strength and conditioning programs.

In 2012, Lawson helped guide the Eagles to their first winning season in five years. The Eagles also qualified for the OVC Tournament in 2012.

In 2010 he helped Morehead State rank in the top 10 in NCAA Division I in several offensive categories as a team. Lawson also coached 25 players that ranked in the NCAA Division I in various offensive categories.

Prior to his time at Morehead State, Lawson spent time at Lindenwood University in St. Charles, Missouri from 2007-2009. He helped guide the Lions to back-to-back NAIA Regional Finals. Lawson coached one NAIA All-American and one Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner.

In the summers of 2010 and 2011 Lawson was a Head Coach at the IMG Baseball Academy Wood Bat League. He was also a pitching instructor for the entire league.

Lawson, a Louisville, Kentucky native, is a 2007 graduate of Transylvania University with a degree in Exercise Science. Lawson was a four-year starter for the Pioneers earning All-Conference honors as a junior and senior.

He received his master's degree in education with an emphasis in strength and conditioning from Lindenwood in 2008.

Lawson and his wife, Amanda, live in Cape Girardeau. They welcomed son, Asa "Ace" Dash, on April 29, 2014.

Lance Rhodes

Assistant Coach
Third Season
Southeast Missouri

Lance Rhodes begins his third season with Southeast Missouri. Rhodes serves as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator for Southeast.

Since taking over the Redhawks pitching program prior to the 2013 season, Rhodes has trimmed the team ERA from 6.37 in 2012 to 4.85 in 2014; slicing over a run and a half off the average. Southeast's 4.85 ERA was fourth-best in the Ohio Valley Conference in 2014. The Redhawk staff held opposing batters to a .273 batting average in 2014, second-best in the league.

Rhodes mentored OVC Co-Pitcher of the Year Travis Hayes in 2014. Hayes appeared in 16 contests in his first season in a Redhawk uniform. He started nine games and compiled an 8-1 record and 3.22 ERA in 78.1 innings. He began the year in the bullpen before becoming a starter during the first OVC series of the season against Belmont. His eight victories were second in the OVC (56th nationally), his ERA ranked fourth, and he held opponents to a .237 batting average which was fifth in the league.

In league-only games Hayes compiled a 7-1 record and 2.74 ERA (second in the OVC). The junior earned complete game victories against SIUE and Jacksonville State (a three-hit shutout) and capped the season by earning a victory in a four-inning relief stint at Tennessee Tech to help the Redhawks lock up the OVC regular season championship. He was named OVC Pitcher of the Week on April 28 after his three-hit shutout at Jacksonville State.

Rhodes, a former pitcher and volunteer assistant coach for the Redhawks returned to Southeast after serving as assistant coach for three seasons at Wabash Valley College in Illinois. He served as the pitching coach for the Warriors as they compiled 95 wins over a span of two seasons.

While at Wabash Valley College he helped lead the Warriors to back-to-back Great Rivers Athletic Conference regular-season titles. The Warriors also won their first conference tournament championship in 14 years in 2010.

In 2012, Wabash Valley recorded a record of 48-13 as they ranked as high as third in the NJCAA Division I polls, their highest national ranking in school history. His pitching staff recorded an impressive ERA of 2.78.

He was also the pitching coach for the Quincy Gems of the Prospect League in the summer of 2009. He led the Gems to a Western Division Championship that season.

During his time at Southeast, Rhodes assisted in fundraising events and assisted in scheduling. He also helped monitor student-athlete academic progress.

Rhodes graduated from Southeast Missouri in 2008 with a degree in general studies with an emphasis in physical education. He made 37 appearances for Southeast over two seasons with the Redhawks.

The Sikeston, Missouri native received his master's degree in physical education from Emporia State University.

Rhodes and his wife, Brittney, reside in Cape Girardeau. They have a son, Max, who was born in July 2013.

Matt Borgschulte

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season
Drury

Matt Borgschulte joins the Southeast Missouri baseball coaching staff this season as the Volunteer Assistant. Borgschulte will coach the outfielders as well as assist with hitting and offense.

Borgschulte comes to Southeast after spending a year as the volunteer at Drury University in Springfield, Missouri. There, Borgschulte introduced the use of in-depth video analysis for hitting which helped increase the team's batting average, total bases per game, and runs per game. Borgschulte's video analysis program helped lead the Panthers to a Great Lakes Valley Conference Championship. He also implemented a new strength and conditioning program. He worked mainly with the outfielders.

Borgschulte joined the Drury staff after playing two years with the Panthers. As a senior in 2013, he became the first All-America selection in the program's history. The Daktronics All-America Second Team and Midwest Region Player of the Year honoree set new Drury single-season marks for homers (11), runs batted in (60) and total bases (125) while finishing in the Top 30 nationally in all three categories.

The St. Louis, Missouri native transferred to Drury from Western Kentucky. Borgschulte graduated from Drury in December 2013 with a degree in Sport Management.

Borgschulte is engaged to his fiancé, Austin Mullis. Borgschulte and Mullis are set to tie the knot in September 2015.

2014 Review

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE REDHAWKS

Overview

2014 was the best season for Southeast Missouri baseball in over a decade. The Redhawks won the Ohio Valley Conference regular season title for the first time since the 2002 season. Along the way, Southeast tied a program record 37 wins in a season, going 37-20 on the season. The Redhawks finished OVC play with a 23-7 record.

The Redhawks carried the OVC Player of the Year in Matt Tellor, OVC Co-Pitcher of the Year in Travis Hayes, and OVC Coach of the Year, Steve Bieser, in only his second season at the helm of the Redhawks. Outfielder Derek Gibson joined Tellor and Hayes on the First Team All-OVC squad.

Additional post-season honors included Tellor and Gibson being named National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association All-Americans and Second Team All-American and All-South Region honors from Rawlings and the American Baseball Coached Association. Tellor also earned Louisville Slugger Second Team All-American honors while Gibson was named Capital One Academic All-American and Jason Blum earning Third Team Academic All-American laurels.

2014 Schedule

The 2014 season began with taking 2-of-3 from Oral Roberts on their home field. The Redhawks' first sweep of the season came at home against the IPFW Mastodons. Southeast defeated IPFW in the first game of the series, 18-0. Tyler Iago was the first Redhawk to earn OVC Pitcher of the Week honors after pitching six scoreless innings against IPFW in game two of the series. Southeast fell in all three games to Memphis before opening conference play.

Southeast opened OVC play 6-0 with sweeps over Belmont and Eastern Kentucky. The Redhawks had a seven-game winning streak. Gibson earned back-to-back OVC Player of the Week honors during the span. Southeast's first and only conference series loss came at the hands of Morehead State.

After losing two to Morehead, the Redhawks dropped a one-run heart breaker at nationally-ranked Mississippi State. Southeast rebounded with two more OVC series sweeps (UT Martin and SIUE) and an eight-game winning streak. Tellor was not only named OVC Player of the Week but also earned Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week honors after blasting three home runs in the series finale at UT Martin. Hayes pitched his first complete game of the season against SIUE on April 6.

The Redhawks' eight-game winning streak came to an end with a 22-4 loss at Austin Peay. The Redhawks rebounded with two wins to take the series from the Governors.

The Redhawks picked up their sixth OVC series victory over Eastern Illinois. Tellor earned his second OVC Player of the Week honors when he scored seven runs and drove in seven runs in the series. The Redhawks then took their talents to OVC powerhouse Jacksonville State. Southeast took two before dropping the final game of the series. Hayes picked up OVC Pitcher of the Week accolades when he pitched a complete game no-hitter in game two against the Gamecocks.

Southeast once again fell by one run to a Southeastern Conference opponent, this time in-state rival Missouri. The Redhawks fell in 11 innings, 6-5.

The Redhawks took 2-of-3 from Murray State to close out the home portion of the schedule. Southeast punched their ticket to their 20th-consecutive OVC Tournament with a 6-5, 12-inning win in game one with the Racers.

Southeast clinched the OVC Regular season title with a 12-8 win at Tennessee Tech on May 9. Once again, the Redhawks won the series to win nine of their 10 conference series on the season. Gibson earned his third Player of the Week honors after hitting .600 and driving in nine runs at Tennessee Tech.

The Redhawks dropped a game to eventual national champions Vanderbilt before finishing the regular season with another sweep of IPFW.

2014 OVC Tournament

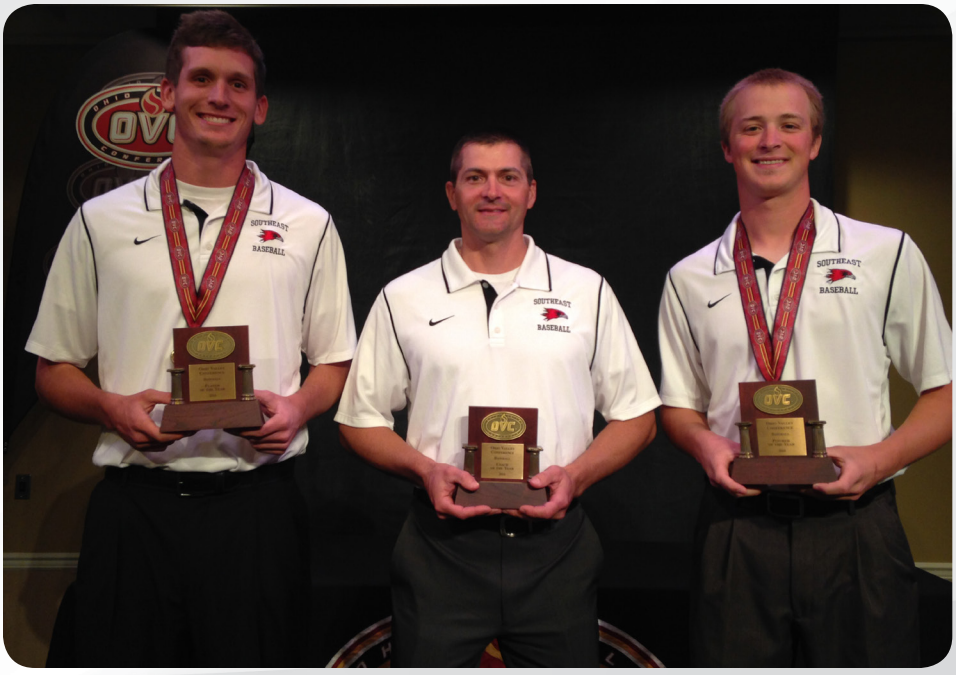

Carrying the No. 1 seed into the 2014 OVC Tournament, Southeast had a bye to the second round. The Redhawks began tournament play with an 8-6 win over No. 6 Eastern Illinois. The Redhawk fell into the consolation bracket when they fell in game eight to No. 2 Tennessee Tech, 9-2. The 2014 season came to a close when Southeast fell to the eventual tournament champions, Jacksonville State, 6-2. Cole Bieser was named All-Tournament Team.

Going Pro

Three Redhawks from the 2014 sqaud would go on to continue their baseball careers.

Matt Tellor was drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in the 10th round. Tellor was the 313th overall pick of the draft and is the highest draft pick out of Southeast Missouri since Galen McSpadden was drafted in the sixth round of the 1974 draft.

Derek Gibson signed a free agent contract with the St. Louis Cardinals on June 19. Cole Bieser then went on to sign with the Gateway Grizzlies out of the Frontier League.

20-24 OVC Tournament

2015 OVC Tournament

The 2015 OVC Baseball Championship will be held May 20-24. For the sixth year in a row the event will be at The Ballpark in Jackson (formerly Pringles Park) in Jackson, Tennessee. The event was first held there in 2010 and in August 2013 the OVC announced a three-year renewal with the venue to guarantee the 2014, 2015 and 2016 Championships will be held there.

In 2014 Jacksonville State became the first team in OVC history to lose in the first round and then come back to capture the Championship. The Gamecocks won a tournament record six games and along the way eliminated the other five teams to claim its fourth OVC Tournament Championship.

Mark Hogan

Mark Hogan, the all-time winningest coach in Southeast Missouri State University baseball history, announced his retirement after 18 seasons on July 30, 2012. Hogan compiled a 526-456-1 (.536) record with one Ohio Valley Conference regular-season title (2002), two OVC Tournament crowns (1998, 2002) and the program's only two NCAA Tournament appearances (1998, 2002). Hogan achieved many milestones throughout his illustrious 31-year career which culminated with an overall record of 911-713-3 between the NCAA Division I, NCAA Division II and NJCAA Division I ranks. Most recently, Hogan picked up his 900th career win when the Redhawks beat Arkansas State on Apr. 17, 2012. Prior to that, Hogan notched his 500th victory at Southeast when the Redhawks defeated Eastern Illinois on May 20, 2011. In 2007, Hogan surpassed the legendary Joe Uhls for the most wins in school history.

Hogan at a Glance:

- 526 victories at Southeast (1995-2012)
- 248 OVC victories
- 18 OVC Tournament Appearances
- 15 Major League Draft picks
- 80 All-OVC selections
- 5 OVC Pitcher of the Year Selections
- 4 OVC Player of the Year Selections
- 4 OVC Rookie of the Year Selections
- 2 OVC Tournament Championships
- 2 NCAA Regional Appearances
- 1 OVC Regular-Season Title
- 911 Career victories in 31 years as a head coach
- 1,627 games coached, including 983 at Southeast Missouri

Class of 2002

Joe Uhls served as the baseball coach at Southeast from 1960-1984. He totaled a 373-257-5 record. He also served as an assistant basketball coach in the 1960's. The baseball locker room at Houck Field House is named in Uhls honor.

Class of 2004

Steve Williams played both football as a punter and baseball as a catcher. He led the football team in punting in 1981 and 1983. Williams was an All-America baseball catcher in 1982 and 1983 and played professionally in the Philadelphia Phillies organization. He still holds the All-Time career home run record wth 52 long balls.

Class of 2006

The 1976 baseball team won the MIAA conference title, the NCAA Midwest Regional title and advanced to the College World Series in Springfield, Ill., finishing third in the nation.

The College World Series team roster included Allan Alberter, Mark Amick, Lawrence Basta, Don Buechting, Bill Criscione, James Dambach, Mark Doerr, Clarence Eisenbach, James Hastings, Mark Hogan, Jeffry Hunt, David Jorn, Vincent Korando, Ralph Kuehn, Bruce Morgan, Bryan Parker, Thomas Smiley, Timothy Smith, Dan Wieser, Mike Wieser and Rick Wieser. The team was coached by the late Joe Uhls who was one of the inaugural inductees into the Southeast Athletic Hall of Fame.

Royal Tibi (1919-23) is believed to be the only athlete at Southeast to earn varsity letters in five sports. He lettered in football, basketball, baseball, track and tennis. An outstanding punter on the football team, he also served as captain of the track team and was described as an outstanding defensive player on the basketball team.

Class of 2008

Kerry Robinson set many school records while playing in the outfield from 1993-95. He holds the school record with 35 straight games with a hit. After being drafted in the 34th round of the Major League draft Robinson played five seasons in the minor leagues before making his major league debut with the Tampa Bay Rays on September 22, 1998. Robinson played seven seasons in the majors, with three of the seasons as a starter for the St. Louis Cardinals. He ended his career playing in 463 games and compiling 196 hits in 735 at-bats. Robinson committed just four errors in 379 chances in his big league career.

Class of 2010

Dale Meier established numerous pitching records over his four-year career. He registered a total of 16 wins and three saves and was involved in 51 percent of Southeast's wins during that time. In 1964, Meier had nine victories and one save, and pitched Southeast's first no-hitter of the modern era. A two-time Most Valuable Player (1963, 1964), Meier went on to play professionally for five years in the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

Clarence Bergman, who is deceased, lettered four years in four sports, including football, basketball, baseball and track. He scored the first touchdown in the dedication game at Houck Stadium on Oct. 3, 1930. Bergman was a captain of three teams.

Class of 2011

Jeremy Johnson was the 2000 Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year. A two-time First-Team All-OVC outfielder (1999, 2000) and OVC All-Tournament Team pick (1998, 2000), Johnson is currently Southeast's all-time career leader in hits (287), games played (216), runs scored (214) and total bases (521). He was named OVC Tournament MVP after leading Southeast to its first NCAA Regional appearance in 1998.

Class of 2012

Galen McSpadden began achieving success at a high level with Southeast as a left-handed pitcher and four-year letterman in the baseball program. He remains the only pitcher in school history to lead Southeast in ERA, innings pitched, strikeouts and wins in back-to-back seasons (1973, 1974). Today, McSpadden still ranks in nine of the school's single-season and career statistical categories. His 12.14 strikeouts per nine innings led the nation in 1973 and is presently a school record, while his 1.47 ERA in that season ranks fourth. As a senior, McSpadden boasted a 1.53 ERA, marking the fifth-best in school history. He posted 18 victories in his career, which is phenomenal considering that the baseball program played only 91 games during the years McSpadden was at Southeast. That being said, he tallied the win in 20 percent of Southeast's victories from 1971-74. McSpadden was a sixth-round draft pick (121st overall) who played parts of five seasons in the San Diego Padres organization and made two stints with the Padres during big-league spring training. He is currently the head baseball coach and athletic director at Seward County Community College.

Class of 2014

Don Metz was a four-year letterwinner in baseball at Southeast. He was also the leading scorer as a freshman on the basketball team. Metz was named captain and Most Valuable Player of the 1970 baseball team and finished his career with a .330 batting average. He was named to the Topps NCAA Small College Baseball and District 5 All-Star Teams. He hit .415 as the Semi-Pro Baseball Player-of-the-Year in the Summer Victory League. Metz was inducted into the Southeast Missouri Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame in 2004 and officiated Final Four Missouri State Basketball Tournaments in 1982, 1988, 1993, 1998 and 2003. He was a member of the Athletic booster board in 2002.

REDHAWKS™

This is the OVC

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE REDHAWKS

Now in its 67th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 14 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Through the past 66 years, 15 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 21 outright or shared football crowns, which is tied for the most in Football Championship Subdivision history (with Massachusetts). Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with 10, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois has claimed seven football crowns and Jacksonville State has three, while Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri, UT Martin and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh. EKU was coached by former All-America quarterback Roy Kidd, who was in his 16th year at the helm of his alma mater and who skippered the Colonels to a second national title three years later. Following the 2002 season, Kidd retired after 39 years at EKU; upon retirement, he ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches with 315 victories, earning him a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame. EKU's 20 FCS playoff appearances are the second for the most all-time (behind only Montana and tied with Appalachian State).

In addition to Kidd, other coaching legends in the OVC include Charles "Bubber" Murphy, who coached at Middle Tennessee from 1947-1968, Western Kentucky's Jimmy Feix (1968-83), Wilburn Tucker (1954-67) and Don Wade (1968-82) of Tennessee Tech, Bill Ferguson (1967-77) of Murray State, Guy Penny (1959-67) of Morehead State and Boots Donnelly (1977-78 at Austin Peay; 1979-1998 at Middle Tennessee). Following the 2011 season Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo retired after 25 years at the school (the last 16 as members of the OVC). In his time as an OVC coach he compiled 92 total victories (fifth-most in league history) and 68 OVC wins (fourth-most in league history) and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2012.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo and Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals. He would break into the starting lineup halfway through his rookie season and started at cornerback for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

The 2007 season marked a return to scholarship football and the OVC for the Austin Peay Governors. Following the 1996 season the Governors dropped scholarship football and competed as both an independent (1997-00, 2006) and as a member of the Pioneer Football League (2001-05).

The 2007 season also brought new vernacular to the Ohio Valley Conference and the division formerly known as I-AA. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game the term I-AA was changed to NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in a decision by the Division I Board of Directors. The new label was chosen to communicate in a positive and clear manner the unique differences between Division I football categories (chiefly, the post-season opportunity) while still defining them within the Division I experience. The FCS includes programs that compete in an effort to participate in the NCAA championship postseason structure (one of 89 NCAA national championships) as opposed to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) which competes in an effort to participate in the postseason bowl system (the 35 NCAA-licensed events which includes the Bowl Championship Series).

In 2010 Southeast Missouri State, picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll, compiled a 7-1 Conference record on the way to its first OVC Championship since joining the league in 1991. Overall the Redhawks were 9-2 during the regular season and earned a berth in the FCS Playoffs, its first playoff berth at any level in the program's 104-year history. Southeast would lose to eventual national champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the playoffs. Head coach Tony Samuel capped the year by winning the Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award, given to the National Coach of the Year. Samuel was the second OVC coach to win the award (joining Murray State's Houston Nutt who won the award in 1995).

For only the second time in league history in 2011, three teams shared the OVC football championship, as Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech finished with 6-2 records. The only other time in league history more than two champions were crowned at the end of the year was 1962 (when four teams shared the crown).

In 2012 Eastern Illinois became just the fourth football team in OVC history to go from worst-to-first in winning the OVC Championship. The Panthers were led by head coach Dino Babers who became just the fourth first-year head coach to win an OVC Championship (joining Boots Donnelly in 1977, Jason Simpson in 2006 and Dean Hood in 2008). During the year Eastern Illinois junior wide receiver Erik Lora shattered the FCS single-season receptions record, hauling in 136 passes in 12 games; that mark was 13 more than the previous NCAA record and 44 more than the previous OVC mark.

In 2013 Eastern Illinois repeated as OVC Champions behind Walter Payton Award winner Jimmy Garoppolo. The quarterback became just the second OVC player to earn the National Player of the Year Award, joining former EIU signal caller Tony Romo (2002). Garoppolo passed for 5,050 yards (second most in NCAA single-season history) and 53 touchdowns (fourth in NCAA history) in leading the Panthers to a 12-2 record and berth to the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs. Garoppolo was drafted by the New England Patriots in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft, becoming just the fifth OVC player selected in that round and first OVC quarterback selected since 1998.

The 2013 season saw the OVC snap a 19-game playoff losing streak dating back to the 2000 season. Tennessee State shutout Butler (marking the first OVC road playoff victory since 1986) to snap the streak while later that day Jacksonville State smashed Samford in the first round. A week later Eastern Illinois beat Tennessee State while Jacksonville State won at McNeese State to each advance to the quarterfinals; that marked the first time the OVC put two times in the quarterfinals in the same season since 1991. Overall the four total playoff wins in the same season established a new OVC record.

Football wasn't the only sport in which the OVC was quickly gaining respect. In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants. The Conference quickly proved worthy of that bid, as Morehead State defeated Marshall (107-92) and Wayne State (95-84) in the 1956 tournament.

Fifteen years later, former OVC member Western Kentucky became the first and only Conference team to reach the Final Four. The Hilltoppers defeated Jacksonville, Kentucky and Ohio State before losing to Villanova in double overtime in the national semifinals. WKU went on to finish in third place after beating Kansas 77-75 in the consolation game.

Since that time, the OVC has recorded some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Tournament. Perhaps the most famous moment came in 1987, when Austin Peay came from fourth place in the regular season to win the OVC Tournament and earn the league's automatic bid. The Governors drew powerful Illinois, and were such big underdogs, that ESPN broadcaster Dick Vitale promised to stand on his head if APSU won the game. After a 68-67 victory over the Illini, and a narrow 90-87 overtime loss to eventual Final Four participant Providence in the second round, Vitale made good on his promise in a visit to Clarksville two months later.

Murray State added to the OVC's string of upsets in 1988 when it knocked off 14th-ranked North Carolina State, 78-75. The Racers' M&M Boys - Jeff Martin and Don Mann - combined for 39 points in the win. MSU nearly went on to the Sweet 16 that year, losing to eventual national champion Kansas, 61-58. A bank shot by Mann that would've given the Racers a one-point lead rolled off the rim with three seconds left. In 1990 as a No. 16 seed, Murray State took No. 1 seed Michigan State into overtime before falling 75-71; that game still marks the closest a No. 16 seed has come to knocking off a No. 1 in men's tournament action. More recently, Murray State has dominated the OVC Tournament, reaching the champion ship game every year in the 1990's. The Racers' 15 OVC Tournament Championships are the most among all OVC schools.

After former member Middle Tennessee State won a first round game in 1989, the league had a drought as no other OVC team won a NCAA Tournament game for the next 19 years. But Morehead State, coming off a thrilling double overtime OVC Tournament victory over Austin Peay, topped Alabama State 58-43 in the Opening Round game at University of Dayton Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The game was played in front of an Opening Round record crowd of 11,346; that crowd included many MSU fans who made the three-hour drive from Morehead for the game.

In 2009-10, Murray State made OVC history by winning a record 31 games (31-5) on its way to the league's regular season and tournament championships. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the No. 13 seed Racers topped Vanderbilt in thrilling fashion when senior Danero Thomas hit a jumper as time expired to lift MSU to a 66-65 victory. It marked the first OVC team to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament since 1989, and snapped a skid of 71-straight loses to Southeastern Conference foes (dating back to 2000-01). In the second round the Racers pushed eventual national runner-up Butler to the brink before losing 54-52.

In 2010-11 Morehead State would make it three NCAA Tournament wins in as many years for the league and got a bit of revenge for the 2009 tournament loss to Louisville in the process. After finishing second in the regular season and winning the OVC Tournament Championship, the No. 13 seeded Eagles were shipped to Denver to play the in-state foe Cardinals. MSU jumped out to a 15-2 advantage but were down four points (61-57) with just over a minute to play in regulation. After two free throws from two-time OVC Player of the Year Kenneth Faried, the Eagles held for one final shot attempt and senior Demonte Harper pulled up off a cross-over dribble to nail a 3-pointer with 4.3 seconds left that gave Morehead State a 62-61 lead. UofL had one last attempt but Faried blocked the Cardinals last shot, giving MSU the win, its first over Louisville since the 1956-57 season.

In 2011-12 Murray State put together one of the greatest seasons in OVC history, beginning the year 23-0 (an all-time OVC best) and being ranked as high as No. 7 in the coaches poll on Feb. 6. The squad was the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since Murray State was ranked in 1997-98; in addition the top 10 ranking was the first for an OVC team since the 1970-71 campaign (WKU). The Racers would top nationally-ranked Memphis and Saint Mary's during the season and win the league's regular season and tournament championships. MSU earned a No. 6 seed in NCAA Tournament, the highest-ever seed for an OVC team since the NCAA began seeding the field in 1979. The Racers would top Colorado State 58-41 in the second round before falling to Marquette in the third round. Murray State would win 31 games overall, tying the OVC all-time record the Racers set in 2009-10.

After the Murray State win in 2011-12, the league had won NCAA Tournament games in four-straight seasons, something that had never happened in league history (three-game winning streaks from 1960-62 and 1987-89 had been the previous best streaks). Over that time period (2009-12) the OVC was one of just nine conferences nationally to win a NCAA Tournament game in each season and one of only three non-BCS leagues (joining the Atlantic 10 and WCC) to do so.

During the 2010-11 year Faried, the nation's leading rebounder during the season, became the NCAA's Modern Era (since 1973) career rebounding leader, totaling 1,673 rebounds which passed Tim Duncan for the record (he is 11th all-time in NCAA history). Faried also finished his career with 86 double-doubles, second all-time to only Duncan. He is one of only six players in NCAA history to finish with 2,000-plus career points (2,009) and 1,600-plus career rebounds. Faried was drafted 22nd overall by the Denver Nuggets in the 2011 NBA Draft, becoming the first OVC player selected in the first round since Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers 1994.

Through its 66 years, 13 teams have won or shared the league's regular season men's basketball title. Murray State heads the list with a Conference-record 23 outright or shared basketball crowns. Other past champions include former member Western Kentucky (19), Morehead State (9), Austin Peay (8), Eastern Kentucky (6), Tennessee Tech (5), former member Middle Tennessee (5), Tennessee State (2), former member East Tennessee State (2), Belmont (2 – including winning the titles in each of its first two years in the league), Southeast Missouri State (1), UT Martin (1) and former member Akron (1).

Among the coaching greats in men's basketball have been Western Kentucky's E.A. Diddle, who retired with 759 victories and 10 OVC titles; John Oldham, who was a member of the very first All-OVC squad and went on to win seven OVC crowns during his coaching tenure at Tennessee Tech and Western Kentucky; Paul McBrayer, who guided Eastern Kentucky to 219 wins and three OVC crowns; and Cal Luther, who is the only person in Conference history to win men's basketball Coach of the Year honors at two league schools - Murray State and UT Martin. Current Austin Peay head coach Dave Loos became the winningest coach in OVC history in 2009-10, netting his 319th victory and passing Luther on the all-time list. Loos enters the 2014-15 season with 383 victories.

There have been an equal number of great players including Western Kentucky's Clem Haskins, who is the only three-time OVC Player of the Year. Several players have won OVC Player of the Year honors twice: Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniels (1969-70 and 1970-71), Murray State's Les Taylor (1971-72, 1972-73), Jeff Martin (1987-88, 1988-89), Popeye Jones (1989-90, 1990-91) and Marcus Brown (1994-95, 1995-96), Austin Peay's Otis Howard (1976-77, 1977-78), Middle Tennessee's Jerry Beck (1980-81, 1981-82), Akron's Joe Jakubick (1982-83, 1983-84), Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers (1992-93, 1993-94), UT Martin's Lester Hudson (2007-08, 2008-09), Morehead State's Kenneth Faried (2009-10, 2010-11) and Murray State's Isaiah Canaan (2011-12, 2012-13).

The OVC also has the honor of being the only conference to boast the nation's leaders in scoring, rebounding and assists all in one season. That feat was accomplished in 1991-92 by Morehead State's Brett Roberts (28.1 ppg), Murray State's Popeye Jones (14.4 rpg) and Tennessee Tech's Van Usher (8.8 apg).

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft.

Murray State guard Isaiah Canaan, a first-team All-American in 2011-12, capped his illustrious career in 2012-13 by becoming just the 17th player in OVC history to score 2,000 or more career points (and the third player in the past three years to do so). Canaan, who was a key part of Murray State NCAA Tournament victories in both 2010 and 2012, earned a pair of OVC Player of the Year honors (2012 and 2013) during his career as well as being named OVC Freshman of the Year (2010), OVC Tournament MVP (2010) and OVC Male Athlete of the Year (2012).

Women's basketball in the OVC has been dominated by Tennessee Tech, which has won or shared 18 regular-season titles and owns nine OVC Tournament crowns. In fact, the Golden Eagles have reached the championship game of the OVC Tournament 22 times in the past 32 years. Although Tennessee Tech remains the standard-bearer, five other teams have won 14 of the last 21 OVC Tournaments. UT Martin became the latest program to add its name to the list, capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011 and also winning championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Skyhawks became just the fourth team in OVC history (and first since Austin Peay from 2000-03) to win four-straight tournament titles.

Several coaches have made their mark in the history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at EKU and three at MTSU. In 2012-13 Inman came out of retirement to take the Tennessee State job.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; Murray State's Ashley Hayes; and UT Martin's Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken). During the campaign, only her second with the Eagles, she also set career block records for both Morehead State and the OVC (287).

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

In 2013-14 Butler and Newsome capped their brilliant careers by ranking first and second in scoring in OVC history. Butler, the 2013-14 OVC Female Athlete of the Year, finished her career with 2,865 points, which ranked first in OVC and 16th in NCAA history. She also finished her career with 392 career 3-pointers (tied for the most in NCAA history) and scored in double figures in all 129 career games which ranks fifth in NCAA history. Following the season Butler was signed by the WNBA's San Antonio Stars where she became the first OVC player to make an active WNBA roster. Newsome capped her career with 2,566 points, second only to Butler in OVC history.

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC served as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event was held April 6 & 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville and was played in front of sold-out crowds for both the semifinals and championship as UConn topped Notre Dame in a battle of undefeated teams to win its ninth national title.

Over its 66 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. Former Morehead State football and Eastern Kentucky track and field athlete Dallas Robinson competed with the U.S. bobsled team during the 2014 Sochi

Winter Olympics. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Kenneth Faried (Morehead State), football player Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players A.J. Ellis (Austin Peay) and Shawn Kelley (Austin Peay). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and a NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six straight tournament crowns. Former EKU skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 31 years, 11 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regular-season titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006 and winning a NCAA Tournament match in 2010, the league's first NCAA victory since 2000.

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third-straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. Four other individuals - Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) and Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) – were back-to-back winners of the award.

Morehead State won its fourth-straight OVC regular season championship in 2013. Over that time period the Eagles have compiled an impressive 67-3 league record.

In 2007, Eastern Kentucky's Jacob Korir won his fourth-straight Conference cross country title becoming just the third OVC student-athlete and 13th athlete nationally to accomplish that feat. Korir was a three-time All-American in cross country, earning two top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championship. The Nairobi, Kenya, native was also named a track and field All-American twice during his career, was selected as the OVC Male Athlete of the Year in 2006-07 and received the NCAA post graduate scholarship in 2008.

In 2011 the Eastern Kentucky men's cross country earned a national ranking in the USTFCCCA poll, climbing to as high as No. 17; the ranking was the highest for an OVC team since the polls began in the early 1980s. The EKU men would qualify for the NCAA Championship, becoming the first OVC team to reach the national championship meet since 1980. Eastern Kentucky finished 26th overall at the event as junior Soufiane Bouchikhi was 47th in a field of 252 runners. On the women's side Eastern Kentucky senior Lydia Kosgei became the first EKU woman to ever qualify for the NCAA Championship and went on to finish 37th at the national meet, marking the second-highest finish for a female in OVC history, and also earning All-American honors.

A year later (2012) the EKU men's cross country team was ranked as high as No. 11 nationally and finished 24th at the NCAA Championship. Wade Meddles led the team with a 38th place finish at the event while Bouchikhi was 40th. In 2013 Eastern Kentucky placed 15th at the NCAA Championship, the highest national finish for an OVC team since 1980. Soufiane Bouchikhi capped his career by winning his fourth-straight OVC Championship and earning National Runner of the Week honors during the season. Bouchikhi finished 26th at the NCAA Championship in 2013, earning All-American honors for the second-straight season.

In 2007 the Conference had two teams in the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament for the first time in league history, as former OVC member Samford earned an at-large selection while Southeast Missouri was the Conference's automatic bid.

In 2009 it was OVC softball that accomplished several firsts as UT Martin (tournament champion) and Jacksonville State (at-large) were each selected for the NCAA Championship. Jacksonville State would take it a step farther by winning the Knoxville Regional (beating No. 13 national seed Tennessee along the way) to become the first OVC softball program to advance to a Super Regional. Jax State would fall to No. 4 Alabama in that Super Regional but finished the season 43-16 (19-2 OVC) and ranked 21st nationally in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and 24th nationally in the USA Today/NFCA poll.

The league's baseball presence has continued to evolve since its inception. The OVC baseball tournament moved to a neutral site for the first time in 2001 with Paducah, Ky. and Brooks Stadium hosting the tournament in front of raucous crowds. The success of the tournament led to Jackson, Tenn. and The Ballpark at Jackson (the home of the Seattle Mariner's Class AA affiliate) – hosting the event for the first time in 2010.

The OVC also has made a statement in the NCAA Baseball Championship in recent years, with its teams involved in several memorable contests in the last decade. Tennessee Tech surprised Wake Forest in the opening round of the 2001 tournament and Southeast Missouri stunned host Alabama in the opening round of the 2002 championship. Five years later, Austin Peay captured the collegiate baseball world's attention by taking Vanderbilt, the 2007 No. 1 overall seed, to extra innings. Eastern Illinois pushed host Nebraska to the limit in 2008 followed by Tennessee Tech's memorable contest against host Clemson in 2009.

After not making the OVC Tournament field in either 2009 or 2010, Austin Peay, who was picked to finish seventh in the 2011 preseason poll, won the regular season and tournament championships to garner its fourth

NCAA Tournament appearance. In the first game of NCAA Regional play the Govs knocked off host and No. 1 seed Georgia Tech 2-1.

In 2012 Austin Peay completed a "repeat squared" (back-to-back regular season and tournament championships) for the first-time in OVC history. The Govs would go on to top Indiana State and Cal State Fullerton at the Eugene Regional, before falling to host Oregon in the regional final. In marked the first time since the 2000 season (Middle Tennessee) that an OVC team had won multiple NCAA Tournaments games in the same season.

Austin Peay completed a "3-Peayt" by winning its third-straight OVC Tournament crown in 2013. Along the way the Govs garnered the first nationally-ranking by an OVC team since 2009 (climbing to as high as 21st nationally) and tied the OVC single-season record with 47 victories. The Govs earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Bloomington Regional, becoming the first OVC team in the current regional format (since 1999) to earn anything other than a No. 4 seed. The squad topped Florida and Valparaiso to advance to the regional final for the second-straight season before losing to host Indiana. Govs senior closer Tyler Rogers was a big part of his team's success during the year, setting the NCAA single-season record for saves (23 – a mark that was later eclipsed during the College World Series).

After the 2014 baseball season OVC teams have won at least one game in the NCAA regional round in five of the last eight years.

For the third-straight year 12 OVC players were selected in the 2014 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Of those 12 selections five came in the first 10 rounds, setting a new record for most OVC players picked in the first 10 rounds (eclipsing the old mark of three set several times). The 12 selections were once again just one off the record of 13 selections in 2010; overall the OVC has had 58 players selected over the past five years (2010-14).

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year. A year later (2009) the league had a Major League Baseball First Round Compensation Round pick (Eastern Illinois' Tyler Kehrer who was No. 48 overall) and NBA Second Round pick (UT Martin's Lester Hudson) in the same season.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 229 student-athletes honored with the award, including 50 over the last five years (2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13, 2013-14).

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

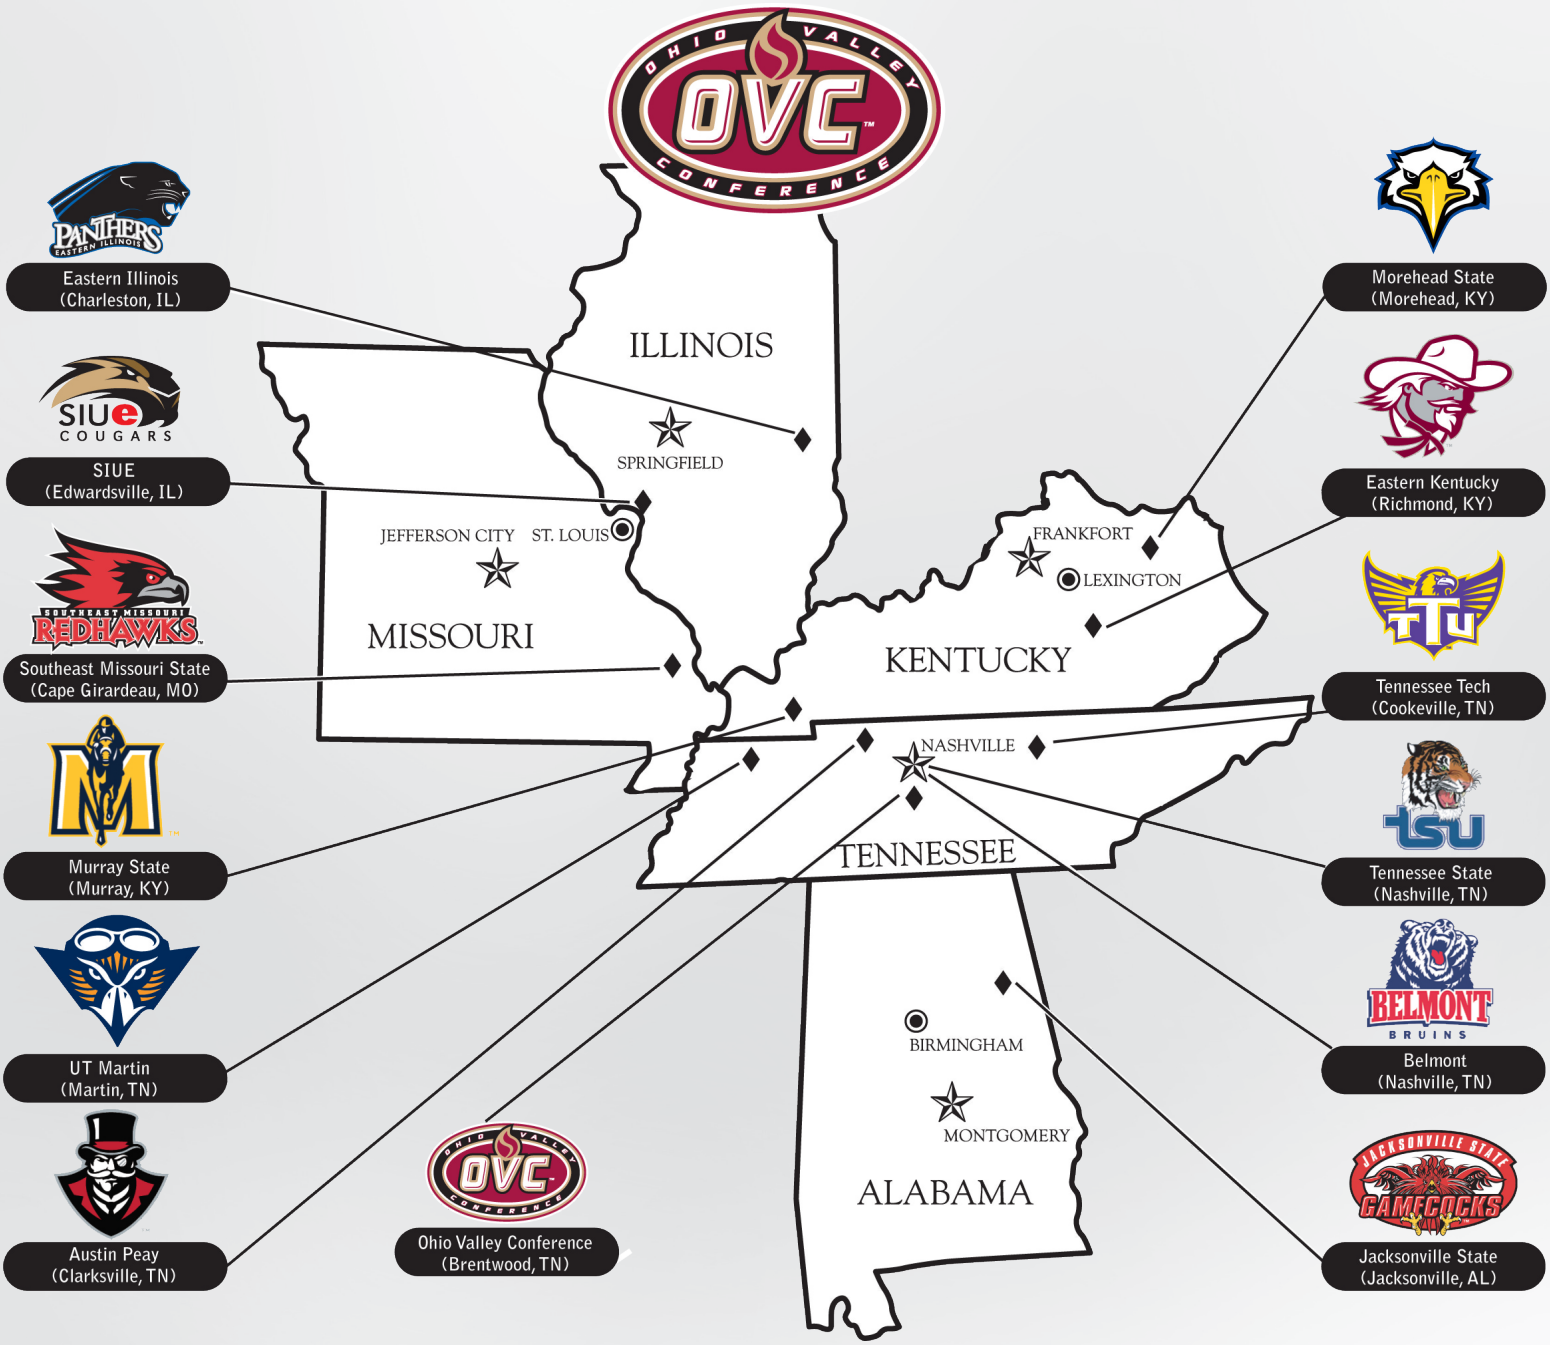

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin. In addition Columbus State University serves as an affiliate member for the sport of rifle.
