MEDIA INFORMATION

Credentials

Credentials are required for entrance to the press box or access to the field (for photographers). To request season or single-game credentials, please contact the Southeast Missouri Sports Information Office by phone at (573) 651-2933 or email at jhonza@semo.edu. Credentials can be picked up at the ticket booth on the south side of Missouri National Guard Field/ Houck Stadium.

Photographers

Please observe NCAA regulations and shoot from the designated areas. Photographers are not permitted to stand between the 25-yardlines and must display their credentials at all times.

Gameday Parking

There is no media parking at Missouri National Guard Field/ Houck Stadium. Radio and television affiliates should contact the Southeast Missouri Sports Information Office for unloading information.

Postgame Procedure

The Southeast Missouri sports information staff will make requested student-athletes available to the media at the conclusion of each game. Coach Matukewicz's first postgame responsibility after meeting with the team is his live radio show. Matukewicz and selected student-athletes will address the media in the Houck Field House conference room. For interviews with opposing coaches and players, please make arrangements with the visiting Sports Information Director before the end of the game.

Football Email List

If you would like to be added to the Redhawk football email list to receive breaking news about the team, please email Jeff Honza. The official website, GoSoutheast.com, is the best source for up-to-date information about the team.

Interview Policies

Student-athletes and coaches are available after practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during the season. Please let the sports information office know if you plan to attend practice.

Press Box

Press facilities are in the Missouri National Guard Field/ Houck Stadium press box located on the top of the south side of the stadium. The press box is a two-level facility, so please use caution when walking up and down the stairs.

Gameday Information

Game notes, rosters, statistics and other information is available for the media in the Missouri National Guard Field/ Houck Stadium press box on gamedays. Weekly releases will be published online at GoSoutheast.com as early as Monday during game weeks.

HOUCK STADIUM

Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium will serve as the home of Southeast Missouri State University football for the 85th-consecutive year in 2015.

A dedication to officially recognize the field as "Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium" was held during halftime of Southeast's double overtime victory against Tennessee Tech on Sept. 22, 2012. The University and Missouri National Guard formed a partnership through which naming rights to the field were awarded.

Most recently, renovations were made to the press box before the 2015 season. Renovations included a new sound system, filming station and carpet among other things to enhance the overall interior and exterior look.

Prior to the 2011 season, Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium received a huge makeover, as a new FieldTurf playing surface, state-of-the-art Daktronics video scoreboard and new lighting (which meets television standards) was installed. The facility was also re-painted, giving the longtime home to Redhawk Football a flashy look. Southeast squared off against regional-rival and then-No. 17 Southern Illinois in the first game on the new surface. The Redhawks and Salukis played in front of a sellout crowd of 10,136 on Sept. 3, 2011.

In 2010, a school record average 8,342 fans turned out to watch Southeast at home. That mark was an improvement from the Redhawks average home attendance of 5,835 in 2009. Southeast also had two crowds over the Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium capacity.

Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium was built in 1930 at a cost of $150,000 and remains a beautiful and picturesque stadium today.

The dedication game pitted Southeast and Southern Illinois from nearby Carbondale, Ill., on Oct. 3, 1930. That game attracted a crowd of over 6,000, with SIU claiming a 12-6 victory. The referee of the inaugural game was James T. Blair, who served as the Governor of Missouri from 1957-61.

Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium was constructed on the site of an old rock quarry and was purchased in 1925 for $11,000 at the recommendation of then-college President Joseph A. Serena.

Ten thousand bags of Portland Cement, 23,000 feet of Oregon Fir seat lumber and 150,000 feet of Yellow Pine Form lumber were used in the construction, according to an ad in the Houck Stadium dedication program. The original stadium included 5,240 seats on the south side of the field.

The field and stadium were named in honor of Louis Houck, who served 39 years as a Regent for the University and President of the Board for all but three of those years.

Seating on the north side of the stadium was added prior to the 1963 season. The press box was later constructed on the south side in 1979. Approximately 400

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

HOUCK STADIUM

chairback seats were added to a center section on the south side of the stadium in 1992.

In 2000, the first FieldTurf playing field was installed and the exterior of the facility was resurfaced. Improvements were also made to the press box.

More upgrades took place in the fall of 2005. Those included a paved parking area adjacent to the east end zone and new parking and landscaping areas surrounding the outside of the stadium.

A state-of-the-art dormitory was built on the west end of the facility in recent years. The ground floor of that building houses a locker room and athletic training facility which the football team uses on gamedays.

Nine of the largest single-game crowds at Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium have come in the last 14 years.

During Southeast's Ohio Valley Conference championship season in 2010, a school record 11,126 fans packed Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium to watch the Redhawks defeat UT Martin on Oct. 30. Southeast also drew a crowd of 10,316 vs. Tennessee State on Oct. 9 for the fourth-largest single-game home attendance.

In addition, the Redhawks had over 10,000 fans for the Western Kentucky (10,222) and Murray State (10,028) games in 2000, the Murray State (10,100) game in 2001 and the Southern Illinois matchups in 2005 (10,100) and 2011 (10,136).

ROSENGARTEN

The Rosengarten Athletic Complex houses Southeast Missouri's primary football locker room, athletic training room, equipment room, coaches offices and meeting workspace.

This facility was renovated prior to the 2011 season. Upgrades included new flooring, wooden lockers, chairback seating/ furniture, meeting room partitions, additional lighting and shower areas.

A total of 115 custom-designed, wooden lockers give Southeast's football players the space, comfort and functionality they need. A lounge fully equipped with leather furniture, flatscreen televisions and computer stations serves as a nice place for the Redhawks to unwind after practice. Players also gather for meetings and film study sessions in their team meeting room, furnished with theatre-style seating and the latest video equipment.

The Rosengarten Athletic Complex also has two outdoor natural grass practice fields which Southeast uses for gameday preparation, camps and other activities.

Southeast's improvements to Houck Stadium and the Rosengarten Complex are another part of the Department of Athletics' collective effort to provide the very best facilities.

GAMEDAY

The Southeast Missouri Department of Athletics recorded a cumulative 3.15 GPA during the 2014-15 academic year.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The Redhawk Success Center offers Southeast Missouri student-athletes a place to study and develop as students and campus leaders.

It is located in the Student Recreation Center, just south of Houck Stadium. The Redhawk Success Center offers a computer lab with 18 work terminals, study areas and rooms for group meetings.

The area is under the guidance of Director of Academic Services Sharon Burgard, Assistant Coordinator Sandy Wiemers and Graduate Assistant Mackenzie Martin.

The beautiful facility has enhanced the outstanding work in the classroom already enjoyed by Southeast student-athletes.

Last year, the Redhawks combined for a 3.15 cumulative grade point average in the fall and spring semesters. Over 60 percent of all student-athletes recorded a 3.0 or higher GPA. Eleven of Southeast's 15 intercollegiate athletic teams recorded a team GPA over 3.0. Additionally, Southeast student-athletes logged a record 4,100 hours of community service over the 2014-15 academic year.

Tutors are available for all student-athletes as needed. In addition, both attendance and academic progress is monitored through regular checks with faculty.

A special course is required for all first time student-athletes at Southeast. The course, which offers three credit hours, is part of a comprehensive program developed to address study skills and life skills topics, and thus, enhance retention and academic success for student-athletes.

Entering student-athletes are evaluated for academic preparedness and assigned to appropriate categories. Student-athletes can also receive individualized academic programs which include meeting with a mentor bi-weekly to discuss academic progress.

The Success Center staff works to get athletes involved in campus and community projects, as well. This is done to provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success. Through the NCAA's CHAMPS/ Life Skills Program, the Success Center gives student-athletes personal and professional skills in order to facilitate successful and productive futures.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

2014-15 Notables

- Eleven of Southeast's 15 athletic programs achieved a 3.13 or higher GPA. Women's cross country boasted a department best 3.79 GPA, followed by women's soccer (3.69), women's gymnastics (3.628), women's tennis (3.622), volleyball (3.45), softball (3.35), women's indoor/outdoor track & field (3.31), baseball (3.29), women's basketball (3.28) and men's cross country (3.13).

- In all, 195 individuals accumulated a 3.0 or higher GPA, accounting for 61 percent of the student-athlete population. A total of 140 student-athletes made Southeast's Dean's List -- students must have a 3.5 or higher GPA to earn that distinction.

- Seventy-one student-athletes received their degrees.

- Southeast's women's gymnastics team was among those who received public recognition awards for top academic performance from the NCAA.

- Seven Southeast programs, including women's cross country, women's tennis, volleyball, baseball, men's cross country and men's indoor/outdoor track & field ranked among the top three in the Ohio Valley Conference's single year APR.

Southeast student-athletes, coaches and staff logged a record 4,100 community service hours in 2014-15.

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

Student-athletes and coaches at Southeast Missouri are dedicated to giving back to the community that so generously supports them.

Redhawk football student-athletes have opportunities to participate in a variety of community service activities each year. Community involvement helps provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success.

We are proud of the level of commitment shown by our student-athletes and always encourage them to participate in community service projects here at Southeast.

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

Southeast student-athletes are challenged physically and mentally in order to achieve optimal results.

COMPETITIVE SUCCESS

Southeast Missouri's Strength and Conditioning program is committed to developing the total student-athlete through their experiences within a competitive training environment.

This will be accomplished by focusing on reducing the risk of injury and maximizing athletic potential through individual evaluation and program design.

The Southeast Missouri Strength and Conditioning program is under the direction of Ryan Johnson.

Redhawk student-athletes use various training facilities located inside the Student Recreation Center South.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

COMPETITIVE SUCCESS

Training Principles for Southeast Athletes

1. Reduce the risk of injuries
   - If a student-athlete is injured, he/she will not be able to compete at practice or games.

2. Ensure the athletes are optimally prepared to compete
   - It is our responsibility to best manage all stressors that are placed on the student-athletes body in order to achieve the best results on the playing field.

3. Maximize athletic ability
   - We challenge each athlete, both physically and mentally, in order to achieve optimal results.

Exercises for Southeast Athletes are based on the following Principles:

1. Ground Based Movements
   - Athletes compete with their feet on the ground, and therefore, should train that way. The ability to produce force against the ground determines how fast athletes can run and how high they can jump.

2. Three-Dimensional Movements
   - Athletes must be able to stabalize themselves in all planes of movement. A fancy way of saying we use free weights (barbells/dumbbells vs. machines).

3. Multi-Joint Movements
   - Very rarely in sport do athletes isolate one single joint at a time. Athletes can train more muscle mass at the same time.

The Southeast Athletic Training program is committed to providing the best healthcare to its student-athletes.

SPORTS MEDICINE

Prevention. Treatment. Rehabilitation. Education. Those are the four primary phases of athletic training, and the Southeast Missouri athletic training staff strives to fulfill all of those areas when working with student-athletes on a daily basis.

Southeast student-athletes are offered the best care possible by the athletic training staff. The Sports Medicine department includes five full-time athletic trainers, six graduate assistants and several student assistants. The staff serves student-athletes around-the-clock at numerous facilities on campus.

The athletic trainers begin treatments and rehabilitation starting as early as 6 a.m., and are available until the last student-athlete is through.

There are currently four athletic training facilities on campus. The staff treats out of the Rosengarten Athletic Complex, where the primary training room is located. There are two other satellite athletic training rooms, including one at Houck Field House and one at the Show Me Center.

The Southeast athletic training rooms are equipped with stationary bikes, hand weights, therapeutic modalities and the latest physical therapy equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athlete the best care, but also to aid in returning to competition as quickly as possible.

Southeast Athletic Training has strong working relationships with local physicians and two hospitals in Cape Girardeau. It is from these hospitals that the Athletic Training department is assisted by four orthopedic physicians.

The Southeast Athletic Training program prides and commits itself to providing the best comprehensive, personalized and efficient healthcare to its student-athletes. Delivery of healthcare focuses on the prevention and management of athletic-related injuries or illnesses, while adhering to the National Athletic Trainers' Board of Certification Standards of Professional Practice. Our high quality of athletic healthcare is provided in combination with the education of athletic training students.

Dan Connolly played in Super Bowls XLVI and XLIX with the New England Patriots.

REDHAWKS IN THE NFL

Former Redhawk Dan Connolly announced his retirement on July 16, 2015.

Connolly spent eight seasons with the New England Patriots, playing left guard, center and right guard.

A team captain, Connolly played in 13 regular-season games last season and started Super Bowl XLIX at left guard.

Health concerns convinced Connolly to leave the game, as he was diagnosed with four concussions during his NFL career and suffered a fifth in high school.

Connolly won his first Super Bowl ring when the Patriots beat the Seattle Seahawks, 28-24, in Super Bowl XLIX. It was the second Super Bowl Connolly played in during his career with New England.

On Feb. 5, 2012, Connolly became the first Southeast player to play in a Super Bowl when he suited up for Super Bowl XLVI against the New York Giants.

Prior to that Super Bowl, Connolly and Southeast alum Edgar Jones met in the AFC Championship Game. Jones, who began that season with the Washington Redskins, was a member of the Baltimore Ravens at the time. Jones was initially signed by the Ravens as an undrafted free agent in 2007 and released on Oct. 22, 2010, before returning to Baltimore. He spent the 2013 season with the Dallas Cowboys.

Eugene Amano had a nine-year playing career with the Tennessee Titans.

Former Southeast assistant coach Jon Gruden rose to the top of professional football in 2003 when he guided the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a Super Bowl title. Gruden was also head coach of the Oakland Raiders and is now an ESPN analyst who serves as a color commentator for Monday Night Football. Gruden coached at Southeast Missouri in 1988.

Marty Mornhinweg, another Southeast assistant, is currently the quarterbacks coach with the Baltimore Ravens. Before that, Mornhinweg was the offensive coordinator for the New York Jets. He has been in the NFL over 20 years. Prior to New York, Mornhinweg was the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles and head coach for the Detroit Lions in 2001-02. He also served in different coaching capacities with the Green Bay (1995-96) Packers and San Francisco 49ers (1997-2000). Five quarterbacks, including Michael Vick, Donovan McNabb, Brett Favre, Steve Young and Jeff Garcia have earned Pro Bowl honors under Mornhinweg.

Dr. Carlos Vargas became the 18th president of Southeast Missouri State University on July 1, 2015.

PRESIDENT VARGAS

Dr. Carlos Vargas became the 18th president of Southeast Missouri State University on July 1, 2015, after having served as acting president at Kutztown University of Pennsylvania.

The appointment of Dr. Vargas by the Southeast Missouri State University Board of Regents culminated a comprehensive and wide-ranging search process that began in the fall of 2014.

When named as the University's 18th president, Dr. Vargas said, "Southeast Missouri State University is an outstanding university with a national reputation, and I am honored to have been selected as its next president." Vargas said that as he became more familiar with the university, he was impressed with various aspects of Southeast including its core mission, accreditation efforts, online programs, faculty and staff, and the quality and diversity of its students.

"When I visited the Southeast Missouri State University campus, I was impressed with the institution's long history of service to the region and its unique strengths," Vargas said. "I know Southeast is deeply committed to being accessible and affordable, and continuing to offer accredited academic programs where graduates can meet the needs of employers."

Dr. Vargas was named acting president of Kutztown University by the institution's Council of Trustees, July 1, 2014, following Kutztown University's succession plan for acting president. He served as the provost and vice president for academic and student affairs, and had been the school's chief academic officer since 2006.

Prior to his tenure at Kutztown, Dr. Vargas was at Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio, where he served as provost and vice president for academic affairs. He previously served in several roles at Kent State University (Ohio) for a total of 18 years, including founding director of the program on electron beam technology. He was also Kent's associate dean for research, interim assistant dean for research, and he served as interim assistant dean for the School of Technology. He started his tenure at Kent State in 1985 as a professor, and continued to teach until his departure from the university.

Dr. Vargas began his career in higher-education at the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM), from which he received a Bachelor of Science degree in physics. His initial appointment was as a senior associate researcher for the Institute of Geophysics, and he later held a similar position for the University's Institute of Physics.

He earned his Ph.D. in physics and aerospace science from the University of Michigan and he has Master of Science degrees from Michigan in physics and aerospace science. He is married to Pam Vargas, who currently serves as director of Research and Grant Development at Southeast , and they have a son, a daughter, and one granddaughter.

Brady Barke was appointed to serve as Southeast's Interim Director of Athletics.

BRADY BARKE

Brady Barke, senior associate to the president at Southeast Missouri State University, was appointed to serve as Interim Director of Athletics.

The appointment came shortly after Mark Alnutt resigned as Southeast's Director of Athletics effective July 31, 2015.

Barke was selected as the Senior Associate to the President and Secretary to the Southeast Missouri State University Board of Regents, and has worked in that role since June 1, 2013.

Barke was closely involved with the hiring of head men's basketball coach Rick Ray and head football coach Tom Matukewicz. Ray was named Southeast's 20th head men's basketball coach on April 13, 2015 and Matukewicz was introduced as the Redhawks 13th head football coach on Dec. 18, 2013.

No stranger to athletics, Barke began at Southeast in 2008 as Assistant Director of Athletics for Compliance & Eligibility. He was then promoted to Associate Director of Athletics for Compliance and Student Support Services in 2011.

Barke was responsible for administering the comprehensive National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA) compliance program, directing the baseball, track and field, and cross country programs, and directly supervising the athletics academic services, strength and conditioning and athletic training units. Barke managed the $3 million athletics scholarship budget for the University's 15 NCAA sports. He directed the men's basketball and football programs in 2011-12, including football scheduling responsibilities. Additionally, Barke was in charge of converting all compliance paperwork to electronic format and assisted with solidifying the College Classic football game at Busch Stadium.

Prior to Southeast, Barke served as a governance intern with the NCAA national headquarters in Indianapolis and as a law clerk with the Southern Illinois University-Carbondale Department of Athletics Compliance Office.

Barke was previously a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance (NAAC) and NAAC Board of Directors. He has facilitated the NCAA Regional Leadership Academy, and served on both the NCAA Sports Wagering Task Force and Olympic Sports Liaison Committee. In addition, he was chair of the NAAC Education Committee.

Barke has a juris doctorate degree from Southern Illinois University School of Law and a bachelor of science degree in biology from Webster University. While a student at Webster, Barke was a member of both the basketball and golf teams. He earned all-conference honors and received the Student-Athlete of the Year Award as a senior.

Barke is a member of the Missouri Bar and earned his MBA from Southeast.

He and his wife, Halley, made a gift to establish The Brady and Halley Barke Endowed Scholarship in March 2014. The scholarship is awarded to a student enrolled at Southeast with first preference given to a freshman student-athlete with a minimum ACT score of 24 and 3.0 cumulative high school grade point average and financial need.

Brady and Halley reside in Cape Girardeau with their children, Mabrie and Jackson.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

Tom Matukewicz's brick-by-brick mission to build a winning program at Southeast Missouri is in full swing and the Redhawks have high expectations entering the upcoming 2015 season.

The official start of the Matukewicz era saw Southeast go 5-7 overall and finish tied for sixth in the Ohio Valley Conference a year ago. Southeast knocked off two ranked opponents in a season for the first time in school history and achieved its first Top-25 ranking since 2010.

Statistically, the Redhawks led the OVC in third down conversion percentage (45.7), fourth down conversion percentage (66.7) and sacks allowed. Southeast also ranked among the top 15 teams in the Football Championship Subdivision in each of those categories.

With three Preseason All-Americans and legitimately one of the top wide receivers in the FCS, Southeast has its sights set on even bigger things this year.

"We spent our first year laying the foundation and creating a culture of excellence," said Matukewicz. "Our players have bought into the process of winning and have worked really hard to not be the same players this year as they were last season. As coaches, we have also worked to improve schemes and communication skills. Our goal is to be in the OVC race come November."

Wide receiver Paul McRoberts and kicker Ryan McCrum were named to the STATS and USA College Football FCS All-America Teams this preseason. Running back DeMichael Jackson also garnered USA College Football Preseason All-America honors.

McRoberts, McCrum and Jackson, along with linebacker Roper Garrett, earned Preseason All-OVC accolades, as well.

Here is a more extensive look at the 2015 Redhawks:

RB | DeMichael Jackson

Quarterback

Newcomer Tay Bender ended the spring as Southeast's starting quarterback and looks to remain at the top of the depth chart this fall.

Bender was a two-time All-Midwest Football Conference selection at national powerhouse Iowa Western Community College, leading the Reivers to a 22-2 record over the last two seasons.

He completed 166-of-282 passes for 1,912 yards and 25 touchdowns, and ran for 184 yards and another four TDs en route to first-team all-conference honors last season. Iowa Western registered an 11-1 record and was runner-up in the junior college national championship game.

Fellow transfer Alex Niznak will challenge.

Niznak, who joined the Redhawks from Central Michigan, played in four games under center a year ago. He completed 5-of-12 passes for 32 yards and rushed for 33 yards and one touchdown behind starter Kyle Snyder.

Freshmen Anthony Cooper, Dante Vandeven and Brett Siebenshuh are the rest of the quarterbacks.

Cooper redshirted in 2014.

Vandeven threw for over 2,000 yards and 20 touchdowns in each of his final two prep seasons at nearby Jackson High School.

And, Siebenshuh went through spring drills after joining the team as a walk-on.

Running Back

Southeast has its feature back returning in senior DeMichael Jackson and he is hoping to have a banner year in 2015.

Despite missing four games with a hand injury, Jackson managed to garner Second-Team All-OVC honors after leading Southeast with 734 yards and five touchdowns in 2014. He carried the ball 137 times, averaging 5.4 yards per touch. Jackson ranked fourth in the league with 91.8 yards per contest.

A two-year starter in the backfield, Jackson finished second on the team in total offense (741) and rushed for over 100 yards three times last season. He begins his final year at Southeast with a total of 1,731 rushing yards.

Shifty Tremane McCullough will enhance the running game.

McCullough, who is lightning quick, dashed for 404 yards and four touchdowns on 56 attempts in his final season at Arizona Western Community College a year ago. He saw significant carries and had a lot of big gains in his first spring with the Redhawks.

Returnee Brendan Stewart expands the depth at tailback.

Stewart ran the ball 25 times for 158 yards in 11 games last season. He averaged over six yards per carry.

Receivers

The Redhawks spread offense has a number of playmakers headlined by one of the best wide receivers in the FCS.

Paul McRoberts is one of two First-Team All-OVC performers back this season. McRoberts is on pace to break Southeast's career record in receiving touchdowns (26) heading into his final season ranked second with 20.

A Preseason All-American and three-year starter, McRoberts made 44 catches for 711 yards and nine touchdowns as Southeast's top receiver in 2014. He averaged 16.2 yards per catch and over 100 receiving yards (101.6) a game in seven starts. McRoberts missed five games due to a lisfranc fracture in his right foot. He suffered that injury early in the third quarter against No. 3 Southeastern Louisiana, where he caught the game-winning touchdown on a 2-yard pass with four seconds left. McRoberts finished the year with three 100-yard receiving games, including two in the final three weeks of the season after he returned from injury.

McRoberts is notorious for his signature highlight-reel catches he has made so often over the course of his first three seasons at Southeast. A number of those receptions played a huge part in him placing second on the team in scoring with 54 points in 2014.

Adrian Davis is Southeast's other returning starter at receiver.

Davis participated in all 12 games, making nine starts as a true freshman. He caught 28 passes for 307 yards and four touchdowns as the Redhawks second-leading receiver in 2014.

Peter Lloyd and Darrius Darden-Box are projected to be at the remaining two spots when Southeast elects to start four receivers.

Lloyd saw action in 10 games and made five starts last season. He had 48 catches for 633 yards and and three touchdowns. Lloyd led the team in receptions and ranked second behind McRoberts in receiving yards. He recovered from a broken leg injury which ended his season 10 weeks into the 2014 campaign.

Darden-Box added five receptions for 49 yards in 12 contests.

Connor Alexander, Richie Eisenhart, Tyler McLemore and Tyler Manne are also in the mix.

Alexander and Eisenhart both redshirted as true freshmen a year ago, while Manne had one catch and McLemore played in three games.

WR | Paul McRoberts

Freshmen Austin Cooley, Kristian Wilkerson and Eric Williams round out the receiving corps.

Cooley capped an outstanding prep career as Potosi High School's all-time career receiving leader with 1,984 yards.

Wilkerson comes to Southeast from Craigmont High School, where he made 60 catches for 917 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior.

Williams earned all-conference laurels at Carnahan High School in St. Louis.

Tight End

Jackson native Stephen Dunn and Logan Larson go head-to-head for the starting job at tight end.

Dunn played in all 12 games in 2014. He made his first career reception on a 19-yard pass in the Redhawks season-opener vs. Missouri Baptist (Aug. 28).

Like Dunn, Larson also saw action in every game last season. He is more experienced, having made five starts. Larson finished the 2014 campaign with two catches for 15 yards and a touchdown. He scored his first career TD on a 5-yard pass in the Redhawks season-finale vs. Jacksonville State (Nov. 22).

Luke Stevens and Marquette Murdock are more options.

Stevens missed the entire 2014 season with an injury, while Murdock was a two-star recruit (Rivals.com) and three-time First-Team All-District pick at Ridgeway High School in Memphis, Tennessee.

Offensive Line

Southeast's offensive line had lots to hang its hat on last season.

The Redhawks allowed only nine sacks in 12 games, fewest in the OVC. Southeast wound up scoring 384 points for an average of 32 per game behind these men in the trenches. Both of those marks were second-most in a season in school history.

With three starters returning up front, the Redhawks offensive line should once again be a force to reckon with.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

Center Jake McCandless and guards Garret Baker and Traven Mable form that group. There were a combined 34 starts between that trio a year ago.

Mable started 11 games at right guard, McCandless started every contest and Baker made 11 starts at left guard.

Billy Dasher (LG), Luther Wright (RG) and Nick Michel (C) are listed as backups at those spots.

Southeast lost both its starting tackles from last season in Corey Porter and Kyle Finney.

Alex Snyder and Michael Cooke look to fill that gap.

Snyder is the heavy favorite on the left side and Cooke has the edge at right tackle. Snyder played in three games and Cooke made five appearances last season.

Lawton Kietzman and Christian Guerrero, who each played in one game a year ago, will challenge.

Returnees Gabe Phillips, Quentin Michel and Giovanni Negron, and rookies Drew Forbes, Ryan Ochoa, Drew Swihart and Mitch Yant (6-6, 265) beef up the offensive line.

Fullback

Lewis Washington is the lead candidate at fullback.

Washington ran the ball 14 times for 64 yards and two touchdowns in 12 games last season. He has played 35 games in the backfield during his Southeast career.

Broedy Wheeler sets to make his debut at fullback, moving there from his initial center position.

Zach Cox is another possibility.

Preseason All-OVC linebacker Roper Garrett highlights the Southeast defense, which has seven returning starters.

Takeaways will be one point of emphasis for the Redhawks defensive unit this season. In 2014, Southeast finished with 17, second-fewest in the OVC. The Redhawks had just nine interceptions and eight fumble recoveries in 12 contests.

Nose Tackle

Marlon Hampton is back as Southeast's starting nose tackle.

In nine starts there last season, Hampton made 47 tackles and tied for second on the team with two sacks. He also recorded three tackles for loss and forced a fumble. Hampton has played in 22 of 24 games during his two-year Southeast career.

Behind Hampton is Joshua Wilson, who is coming off a nice rookie campaign.

Wilson appeared in 11 games and made two starts as a true freshman in 2014. He finished with 18 tackles, including five solo stops. Wilson recovered his first career fumble for a touchdown in his first college game vs. Missouri Baptist (Aug. 28).

Defensive Tackle

Senior Jon Slania enters his third year as Southeast's starting defensive tackle.

Slania started eight games, recording 26 tackles last season. He added 3.5 tackles for loss, two pass breakups and a fumble recovery. Slania missed three weeks with a leg injury, as well.

John Popovich will battle after starting five of the final six games of the 2014 campaign.

Popovich notched 19 tackles, including 2.5 for loss.

Fletcher Evans, Anthony Cheatum and Ryan Truvillion give the Redhawks extra support on the defensive line.

Evans saw limited action, playing in two games last season.

Cheatum comes to Southeast from East Los Angeles Community College, where he was a Second-Team American Division Mountain Conference selection. He turned in 42 tackles, two sacks and 2.5 tackles for loss in 10 games a year ago.

Truvillion secured First-Team All-Conference and All-District accolades at Park Hill High School in Kansas City, Missouri.

Defensive End

Senior Travis Sanders is in his third season as the Redhawks starting defensive end.

Sanders tied for first on the team with three sacks and ranked second with eight tackles for loss in 2014. He played eight games and made six starts, finishing the year with 19 total tackles.

Austin Black and Selwyn Carrol are behind Sanders on the depth chart.

Black started four games and played 11 contests last season. He contributed 18 tackles and had a team-high five quarterback hurries.

Carrol was limited to five games due to a foot fracture. He tallied 11 tackles and tied for second on the team with two sacks. Carrol has significant starting experience, as well.

Lawrence Hills brings more depth to the defensive end position.

Aaron Adeoye, who stands at 6-7, 237, earned a roster spot after joining the Redhawks in the spring.

Adeoye played one basketball season at Southeast in 2014-15, averaging 5.2 points and 4.1 rebounds per contest in 30 games and 23 starts.

Hills is projected to start at the rush end spot with Adeoye backing him up.

 Returning Starter*

Outside Linebacker

Kendall Donnerson is the lead candidate at outside linebacker following a strong freshman season.

Donnerson played in all 12 games and posted nine tackles with five solo stops.

Chad Meredith will push Donnerson for the starting job.

Meredith registered 16 tackles in four games before a shoulder injury ended his 2014 season. He was later granted a medical redshirt.

Inside Linebacker

Roper Garrett returns as Southeast's starting middle linebacker.

Garrett topped Southeast with 96 tackles in his first year as a starter last season. He also led the team in tackles for loss (8.5), sacks (3) and forced fumbles (5). His 40 solo stops were second-most on the squad, as he tied for second in the OVC with 10.7 tackles per contest. Not to mention, Garrett turned in double-digit tackles five times and ranked 12th among league-leaders in sacks.

Rider Garrett, Roper's younger brother, is next on the depth chart at middle linebacker.

Rider had five tackles and forced a fumble as a redshirt-freshman in 2014.

Junior Terrance Hill is the other returning starter at inside linebacker.

Hill started 10-straight games before missing the final two weeks of the 2014 season with a concussion. He collected 46 tackles, including four for a loss of 16 yards.

Lloyd Laufili Time is behind Hill after participating in 12 games and three starts a year ago. Time tallied 17 tackles and two pass breakups.

DT | Jon Slania

Brad Ivey, Arsante Conners, Bud Hilburn and Byron Wilson round out the linebackers.

Ivey posted 17 tackles in nine games and two starts as a true freshman last season.

Conners was the Suburban West National Conference Defensive Player of the Year at Oakville High School in St. Louis. He recorded 114 tackles, two sacks, three forced fumbles and an interception as a senior.

Hilburn, a First-Team All-State selection at Kennett High School, capped his prep career with 141 tackles and 29 tackles for loss. He was named the 2014 Southeast Missouri Football Coaches Association Defensive Player of the Year.

Wilson transfers to Southeast from Highland (Kan.) Community College, where he posted 30 tackles and two sacks last season.

Safeties

A noticeable change in Southeast's defense lies in the secondary this season.

The Redhawks heavily recruited that area, and as a result, added seven newcomers to widen the depth. Those signees were the most at any position in this year's recruiting class.

Senior David Coley and junior Eriq Moore are projected to start at free and strong safety, respectively.

Coley saw action in 12 contests and made five starts last season. He finished the year with 33 tackles, including 14 solo stops.

Moore returns at strong safety after starting 11 games in 2014. He led the team with three interceptions and tied for fourth with 65 tackles. Moore also forced a fumble and had four pass breakups.

Josh Freeman and newcomer Taron Divens figure into the mix at those spots.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

Freeman had four tackles in 10 games a year ago, while Divens joins the Redhawks from Pearl River Community College.

Josh Kinzer and Ryan Evans are Southeast's other safeties.

Kinzer appeared in 11 games as a true freshman and Evans did not see game action in 2014.

Cornerbacks

Southeast lost both its starting cornerbacks after the 2014 season.

JJ Flye and Michael Ford will give the Redhawks a fresh new look.

Flye played in eight games and made one start during his rookie campaign in 2014. He registered 14 tackles and two pass breakups.

Ford moved to cornerback in the spring, where he worked plenty of reps to prepare for his lead role.

Ryan Moore and newcomer Jamarl Holloway will help.

Moore played in six games and had six tackles last season.

Meanwhile, Holloway transfers to Southeast from Pearl River Community College, where he was teammates with Divens.

Markuice Savage, Rudie Frye, Steve Durosier, Omar Pierre-Louis and Cameron Sanders are the rest of Southeast's cover men.

Kicking/Punting

Starting kicker Ryan McCrum is back after a huge season in 2014.

A First-Team All-OVC pick, Third-Team Sports Network All-American and Fred Mitchell Award finalist, McCrum completely turned around Southeast's kicking game.

He broke the school's all-time single-season record in field goals made, connecting on 18 of his 23 attempts. McCrum, the Redhawks leading scorer with 94 points, led the OVC in field goals and scoring (kick). He made four field goals of 50 or more yards, including a career-long 55-yarder vs. Tennessee State (Oct. 4). In addition, McCrum had a streak of 42-consecutive PATs before missing his final extra point of the season.

All of McCrum's success came a year after Southeast finished ninth in the conference in both field goals and PATs.

Alex Knight returns as the Redhawks starting punter.

Knight was second in the OVC with 41.4 yards per punt last season. He punted 42 times for 1,740 yards and pinned opponents inside their own 20-yardline on 13 occasions.

C.J. Stafford also returns after redshirting as a freshman in 2014.

Returns/Long Snapper/Holder

Southeast has a big hole to fill after losing its top return man in Spencer Davis.

Davis broke the Redhawks all-time career records in all-purpose and kick return yardage during his four years as a Redhawk.

Peter Lloyd and Tremane McCullough enter the season as Southeast's kick returners.

Lloyd was second behind Davis with 14 kickoff returns for 382 yards a year ago.

Tyler Manne is expected to be Southeast's top threat on punt returns.

Manne ran back seven punts for 63 yards in 2014. He also serves as the Redhawks holder.

Fifth-year senior Wade Wright is in his third season as Southeast's starting long snapper.

Zach Stagner is also back at long snapper after redshirting as a freshman in 2014.

K | Ryan McCrum

P | Alex Knight

2015 Schedule

Southeast will play 11 games, including six at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium in 2015.

The Redhawks kickoff their second season under Matukewicz at two-time SEC East Division Champion and in-state rival Missouri on Sept. 5.

The Tigers went 11-3 and advanced to the SEC Championship game, where they fell to No. 1 Alabama. Missouri then closed out its 2014 season with a 33-17 win over No. 25 Minnesota at the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl.

This year marks just the third meeting between Southeast and Missouri, who last played in Columbia on Sept. 6, 2008. Missouri beat the Redhawks, 52-3, in that contest.

Southeast hosts regional-rival Southern Illinois during Family Weekend on Sept. 12. The Redhawks and Salukis meet for the 83rd time in 2015. SIU currently holds a 40-34-8 advantage in the all-time series between these longstanding rivals.

The remainder of Southeast's non-conference schedule includes a road trip to Indiana State (Sept. 19) and a home game against Shorter University (Sept. 26).

Indiana State ranked 18th and 19th in the final Football Championship Subdivision Coaches and Sports Network Polls, respectively. The Sycamores posted an 8-6 record and were among six Missouri Valley Football Conference schools ranked in the Top-25 a year ago. ISU eliminated Ohio Valley Conference foe Eastern Kentucky in the first round of the NCAA FCS Playoffs.

Southeast, which hosts ISU on the backend of a home-and-home series in 2016, is 4-3 all-time against the Sycamores. The Redhawks beat ISU, 24-21, in 2008 and, 13-10, in 2007, the last time these teams did a home-and-home series.

Shorter University is an NCAA Division II school based in Rome, Ga. The Shorter Hawks, members of the Peach Belt Conference, finished with a 3-8 record in 2014.

The Redhawks open their seven-game Ohio Valley Conference slate at home against rival Murray State (Oct. 3).

The rest of Southeast's OVC schedule includes home dates with Eastern Kentucky (Homecoming, Oct. 17), Tennessee Tech (Oct. 31) and UT Martin (Nov. 21), and road matchups with Eastern Illinois (Oct. 10), Austin Peay (Nov. 7) and defending conference champion Jacksonville State (Nov. 14). JSU and EKU represented the OVC in the NCAA FCS Playoffs last season.

TOM MATUKEWICZ

Head Coach • Second Year • Fort Hays State, 1997

Tom Matukewicz enters his second year as Southeast Missouri's head coach in 2015.

Attitude, Effort, Passion and Discipline are the four cornerstones of Tom Matukewicz's process-driven Southeast Missouri football program.

Matukewicz begins his second year at the helm with plenty of positives to carry into the upcoming 2015 season. A native of Silver Lake, Kan., Matukewicz hit the ground running in his head coaching debut in 2014, leading the Redhawks to their most wins in a season since 2010.

Along the way, Matukewicz and company enjoyed two wins over ranked opponents, beating then-No. 3 Southeastern Louisiana and then-No. 20 Tennessee State. Southeastern Louisiana was the highest-ranked opponent Southeast had ever beaten as the 2014 campaign marked the first time the Redhawks knocked off two ranked opponents in the same season.

After those wins, Southeast ranked No. 23 in the Oct. 6, 2014 Sports Network Poll, achieving its first Top 25 ranking since the end of the 2010 season.

Statistically, the Redhawks led the Ohio Valley Conference in third down conversion percentage (45.7), fourth down conversion percentage (66.7) and sacks allowed (9).

Southeast was also sixth in the Football Championship Subdivision in sacks allowed, 13th in fourth down conversion percentage and 14th in third down conversion percentage.

As a team, the Redhawks scored 384 points, their most in a season since 2002. In addition, Southeast posted 15 sacks for its most in a season since 2009. The excitement of Matukewicz's brick-by-brick approach generated an increase of 1,024 at Houck Stadium, as well.

Matukewicz coached a total of four All-OVC performers, including first-team selections Paul McRoberts and Ryan McCrum, and second-team honorees DeMichael Jackson and Tim Hamm-Bey.

Now, with another strong recruiting class coming in, the Redhawk faithful are even more anxious to see what the Redhawks bring to the table next.

Off the field, Matukewicz's program is highly visible in the community and often engages in random acts of kindness. He simply uses goodwill to teach his players valuable life lessons.

During Southeast's 2014 season-opener against Missouri Baptist, the Redhawk captains took a No. 14 jersey to midfield for the coin toss to honor the memory of Kaden Robert. Robert was a Kelly High School football player who died in an accidental shooting in June, 2014.

A week later, Michael Douglas, a 16-year old from Kansas, accompanied the Redhawks on the sideline for their game against the Jayhawks. Douglas was diagnosed with an interstitial lung disease when he was a year old and has to use an oxygen tank. The teenager initially contacted wide receiver Mike Cyliax for an autograph. Once Matukewicz heard the story, he wrote Douglas a letter and invited him to the game.

Southeast's football program also generously donated to the Nolan Weber Believers 5K & Fun Run/Walk in nearby Jackson. Weber was a soccer player at Jackson High School who fought brain cancer for almost three years (doubling the life expectancy of what his illness normally came with) before he passed away. The contribution went to the Believing Beyond Nolan Weber Foundation that provides financial and/or spiritual/emotional support to children and their families battling cancer and other catastrophic illnesses.

Matukewicz also presented a check to the parents of Dominic Hooper -- a Scott City teen who tied in February, 2014 from injuries sustained in an ATV accident -- during the team's annual spring game.

"It's all about a process," said Matukewicz. "It's about doing ordinary things with unordinary discipline. We're going to build a program that you're proud of."

A tireless worker, Matukewicz brings energy and passion unlike any other. His commitment to excellence and brick-by-brick mantra have the Redhawks soaring to new heights.

Popularly known as "Coach Tuke," Matukewicz was introduced as Southeast's 13th head coach on Dec. 18, 2013. Matukewicz is used to transforming programs into winners and he did just that as an assistant coach at Northern Illinois and Southern Illinois.

While at NIU, Matukewicz helped lead the Huskies to the Mid-American Conference West title in 2010 and an outright MAC Championship in 2011. Matukewicz was the linebackers coach in 2011 after serving as defensive run-game coordinator for three seasons under then-head coach Jerry Kill.

Matukewicz reached the pinnacle of his NIU stint when he was interim head coach for the Huskies' trip to the 2010 Humanitarian Bowl after Kill accepted the Minnesota job at the end of the season. He led NIU to a commanding 40-17 victory over Fresno State in that game.

Matukewicz was responsible for coordinating the Huskies' run defense during his first three seasons at NIU. In 2010, the Huskies ranked 24th nationally and third in the MAC in rushing defense, allowing 126.5 yards per game. NIU also had the MAC's No. 1 total defense in 2008 and 2009.

In his first year in DeKalb, Matukewicz was part of a staff that turned NIU into the No. 1 scoring and total defense in the MAC, and one of the top 20 units in the country. The Huskies boasted the second-most improved scoring defense in the nation in 2008. That year, NIU allowed only 18 points per game, down from 30.8 the previous season. The Huskies ranked 17th nationally in total defense and was fifth in the country in pass defense.

Before that, Matukewicz spent seven seasons at SIU. As linebackers coach and run-game coordinator, he had a big hand in three Missouri Valley Football Conference championships (2003, 2004, 2005) and five NCAA Football Championship Subdivision playoff berths (2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007).

Matukewicz was named the 2007 FCS Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association after helping turn the Salukis into one of the top rushing defenses in the nation. SIU held its opponents to a rushing average below 135 yards per game every year from 2002-07. The Salukis had three of the top-10 rushing defenses in program history during that time.

Matukewicz's 2004 linebacker corps formed the heart of a defense which gave up just 101.7 rushing yards per game, led the nation in scoring defense and allowed 13.2 points per contest. Matukewicz made one more stop at the University of Toledo prior to accepting his first head coaching job at Southeast.

At Toledo, Matukewicz was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the 2012 and 2013 seasons.

In 2012, Matukewicz helped guide a defense that ranked among the top 25 in the nation in fourth-down conversion (9th), red-zone defense (10th), interceptions (18th) and turnovers forced (25th). The Rockets went 9-4 and earned a trip to the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Matukewicz's defense also featured the nation's leading tackler in linebacker Dan Molls. Molls had 166 tackles, earned First-Team All-MAC honors and became Toledo's first Academic All-American in eight years.

Matukewicz completed his undergraduate work at Fort Hays State. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1997 and then earned his master's degree in administration at Pittsburg State.

Matukewicz coached at Fort Hays State (1996-97), Pittsburg State (1997-99), Coffeyville Community College (1999-2000) and Emporia State (2000-01) prior to his NCAA Division I football tenure. Matukewicz and his wife, Lenna, have two daughters, Georgia and Shelby.

BRICK BY BRICK

Tom Matukewicz led Southeast Missouri to five wins during his first year as head coach in 2014, the Redhawks most in a season since 2010. Southeast also beat two ranked opponents in a season for the first time in school history.

Coaching Honors
- 2007 FCS Assistant Coach of the Year

What They Are Saying About Coach Tuke

"I knew it would only be a matter of time before Coach Tuke got his first opportunity to be a head coach at the Division I level. I know first-hand how he inspirationally led our football team to victory at the Humanitarian Bowl when we worked together at Northern Illinois University. The team played their hearts out for him and I know that will be the case at Southeast Missouri State University, as well. He is a man of integrity who will be a tremendous asset to the University and the entire community. I congratulate Tom and Lenna and wish them and their family the very best at Southeast Missouri State."

Jeff Compher
Director of Athletics
East Carolina University

"Tom is a great teacher and excellent motivator. He understands how to reach his players and push their buttons the right way. Tom genuinely cares about his team on and off the field. Tom will bring great enthusiasm every day and will be driven to win championships. You guys got a good one."

Dave Doeren
Head Football Coach
North Carolina State

"I am excited for Tom. This is something that he has wanted to do for a long time. He is very well-prepared and will be a great fit for Southeast Missouri State University."

Jerry Kill
Head Football Coach
University of Minnesota

"I was president at Northern Illinois University when Coach Tuke was a linebackers coach under Coach Kill. He is a fine coach and a great motivator of young men. He is a great recruiter and great leader. I knew he was going to be a head coach someday. When Coach Kill left NIU for Minnesota and we were going to the Humanitarian Bowl, we were in a dilemma. Jeff Compher, the athletic director at the time, had to make a choice who would be the head coach of the team in the bowl. Jeff suggested Coach Tuke, and boy that really worked out well. It was a very difficult situation to throw someone in like that. Coach Kill was beloved by his players and Coach Tuke stepped up and had a great victory over Fresno State. He is a fine man and has a great family. You really got a good coach."

John G. Peters
President Emeritus
Northern Illinois University

""Coach Tuke has been a very positive member of the University of Toledo Athletic Department staff. Tom will be an asset to Southeast Missouri State University as he will work extremely well with the football student-athletes in all facets of their development on and off the field. I congratulate Southeast Missouri State on this hire of an excellent leader that will be a valued member of the campus and community."

Michael O'Brien
Vice President and AD
University of Toledo

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

BRYCE SAIA

Defensive Coordinator • Second Year

Bryce Saia is in his second year as defensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri.

A native of Joplin, Mo., Saia joined Matukewicz's staff on Jan. 2, 2014.

Southeast ranked second in the Ohio Valley Conference in red zone defense during Saia's first year with the Redhawks in 2014. Opponents scored on 35-of-48 chances inside the Redhawks 20-yardline against Saia's defense. Southeast's .729 mark ranked just four percentage points behind Eastern Kentucky (.725) in that category.

Prior to Southeast, Saia spent two seasons as safeties coach alongside Matukewicz at the University of Toledo.

In 2012, he helped guide a veteran group of safeties led by senior Jermaine Robinson, who tied for the Mid-American Conference lead in interceptions. Robinson earned First-Team All-MAC honors, helping UT to a 9-4 record and berth into the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Before UT, Saia coached at Emporia State for three seasons, spending the first two as defensive backs coach before adding defensive coordinator to his duties in 2011. Saia spent two seasons with the Arizona Rattlers in the Arena Football League before initially joining the Hornets staff in 2009. He was the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator for Arizona, which advanced to the AFL playoffs in 2008.

Saia also spent four years coaching the defensive line at Southern Illinois under current University of Minnesota head coach Jerry Kill. The Salukis ranked either first or second in the Missouri Valley Football Conference in sacks and rushing defense during his tenure. In 2004, SIU had the top-ranked scoring defense in the Football Championship Subdivision.

From 1998-2003, Saia worked as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Coffeyville Community College. The Red Ravens led the Jayhawk Conference in total defense during the 2003 season and consistently ranked among the nation's top-10 defensive teams. Prior to CCC, Saia coached the linebackers at Butler County Community College in 1997.

Throughout his career, Saia has coached numerous Division I and NFL players, including Brandon Jacobs (New York Giants), Jonathan Joseph (Cincinnati/Houston), Reggie Nelson (Jacksonville/Cincinnati), Travis Fisher (St. Louis/Detroit) and Dashon Goldson (San Francisco/Tampa Bay).

Saia's first coaching job was as a defensive assistant at Fort Hays State from 1994-96, where he received his bachelor of science degree. He later earned his master's degree from Emporia State. Saia played linebacker for his father Tom Saia, a member of the Junior College Football Hall of Fame, at Butler County CC from 1990-91.

Saia was a two-time high school All-State linebacker in Kansas, first as a junior at Buhler High School and again as a senior at El Dorado High School.

He has a son, Nicholas Cole.

SHERARD POTEETE

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks • Second Year

Sherard Poteete sets to begin his second season as Southeast Missouri's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Poteete, hired on Jan. 6, 2014, was head coach at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M before joining the Redhawks staff.

Southeast had the Ohio Valley Conference's third-best scoring offense during Poteete's first year at Southeast in 2014. The Redhawks averaged 32 points per game behind quarterback Kyle Snyder who ranked among the top players in the league in several statistical categories. Snyder also broke the school's all-time single-season record in total offense.

Poteete spent three years as offensive coordinator at Trinity Valley Community College in Athens, Texas before taking the head coaching job at NEO. His leadership of the 2010 and 2011 offenses were integral in the Cardinals run to the 2011 Southwest Junior College Football Conference Regional Playoffs, 2011 Citizens Bank Bowl, 2010 SWJCFC Regional Playoffs and 2010 SWJCFC Championship game.

Quarterback Tucker Carter was named First-Team All-Conference, the SWJCFC Offensive Most Valuable Player and honorable mention NJCAA All-American under Poteete. Carter ranked among the top-10 in the NJCAA in passing yards (7th), total offense (8th) and passing touchdowns (5th). Poteete's offense finished at or near the top of the conference in total offense, passing offense and rushing offense, and landed a total of six players on the All-SWJCFC first or second teams.

In 2010, the Cardinals finished first in the SWJCFC and fifth in the nation in total yards. They also led the conference and ranked sixth in the NJCAA in rushing offense. Trinity Valley CC boasted Josh Johnson, a First-Team NJCAA All-American, the SWJCFC Most Valuable Player and the league's leading rusher that year, as well. Poteete coached a total of 35 Division I signees during his tenure at Trinity Valley.

Poteete began his coaching career at Louisiana College, where he spent six seasons. He held titles of offensive coordinator, passing game coordinator, special teams coordinator and quarterbacks coach during his time with the Wildcats.

Statistically, Poteete's offenses at LC rated among the best in both the NCAA and American Southwest Conference. In 2009, the Wildcats finished among the top-three in the ASC and top-30 in the NCAA in scoring offense, total offense, passing offense, passing efficiency and turnover margin. In addition, he earned the reputation as one of the school's top recruiters during that time.

As a quarterback, Poteete enjoyed a stellar career at Tulsa Union High School, Northeastern Oklahoma A&M, Southern Illinois University, and professionally in the Arena Football League.

An All-State selection in high school, Poteete signed with NEO and led the Golden Norsemen to the 1998 SWJCFC and Red River Bowl Championship, earning All-Conference honors in the process.

After signing with SIU, Poteete was named the 1999 Missouri Valley Football Conference Newcomer of the Year and garnered All-MVFC accolades in 2000.

Poteete then spent four seasons in the Arena Football League with both Shreveport and Columbus, and still holds league records in passing, rushing and touchdowns.

Poteete is married to the former Jamie Campbell and they are the parents of two sons, Kannon and Parker. Jamie played softball at SIU from 1997-2000.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

JON WIEMERS

Asst. Head Coach/Offensive Line • Second Year

Jon Wiemers enters his second year as Southeast Missouri's offensive line and assistant head coach.

Wiemers was officially hired in that position on Jan. 8, 2014.

His offensive line allowed only eight sacks in 2014, fewest in the Ohio Valley Conference. The offensive line also had a big hand in helping the Redhawks lead the conference in both third and fourth-down conversions.

Wiemers was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for one season at William Penn before joining the Southeast staff.

Prior to William Penn, Wiemers served a two-year stint as head coach at Arkansas City High School in Arkansas City, Kan. In 2012, Wiemers led Arkansas City to its first district championship and playoff berth in 16 years. He was named the 2011 Ark Valley Chisholm Trail League Coach of the Year after leading his team to its first winning season in 10 years.

Before that, Wiemers was offensive coordinator at both Coffeyville Community College (2009-10) and NCAA Division II Concord University in West Virginia (2007-08).

While at Coffeyville CC, he was part of teams which made two Jayhawk Conference playoff appearances and reached two bowl games (winning one). Wiemers' quarterbacks in 2009 and 2010 ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in all-time single-season passing, respectively.

Wiemers' longest tenure, however, was at Emporia State, where he served as a coach in several areas. He began his career as a graduate assistant in charge of the tight ends from 1999-2000 and moved to offensive line coach in 2001. Wiemers was then offensive coordinator for his final three campaigns (2004-06).

Emporia State flourished with Wiemers on staff, as the 2002 and 2003 teams finished with identical 9-3 records which rank among the top-three in program history.

The Hornets won the Mineral Water Bowl title in 2002 and claimed the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association title and advanced to the national playoffs for the first time in school history in 2003.

Also an accomplished college player, Wiemers was a two-time All-Conference linebacker at NCAA Division II Saginaw Valley State (Mich.). He was a team captain and defensive Most Valuable Player, as well.

Wiemers graduated with a degree in history from Saginaw Valley State in 1998 and is working towards his master's.

He and his wife, Sandy, have two sons, Gage and Cooper. Sandy works in Southeast's Department of Athletics as an Academic Services Assistant.

ERIC BURROW

Safeties/Recruiting Coordinator • Second Year

Eric Burrow begins his second year as Southeast Missouri's safeties coach and recruiting coordinator.

Burrow officially joined Southeast's staff on Jan. 6, 2014.

Four of the Redhawks nine interceptions in 2014 came from Burrow's safeties. Eriq Moore led the team with three picks and two fumble recoveries, while Josh Kinzer added an interception. Both Moore and Kinzer return to the Redhawks secondary this season.

Additionally, Southeast's safeties had six pass breakups and two forced fumbles a year ago, as well.

Since coming to Southeast, Burrow has helped assemble two strong recruiting classes.

The Redhawks signed 22 players as part of Tom Matukewicz's inaugural class in 2014 before seeing that number grow to 26 in 2015.

In all, Burrow received a combined 21 commitments from in-state players, including 19 within a two-hour radius of Cape Girardeau.

A native of Independence, Mo., Burrow spent the last two years at Toledo working closely with both Matukewicz and Redhawks defensive coordinator Bryce Saia. He was in charge of defensive quality control. Burrow spent the 2010 football season as defensive graduate assistant coach at Emporia State, where he handled football operations and helped oversee the cornerbacks.

Prior to that, Burrow was graduate assistant for offensive quality control at the University of Missouri. He joined the Tiger coaching staff before the start of Mizzou's 2010 spring camp.

A 2009 Mizzou graduate, Burrow was responsible for assisting with day-to-day operations of the offensive coaching staff, including video breakdown, scouting, game planning, computer and video informational input, as well as providing various assistance with recruiting operations.

Burrow also served as a student assistant for four seasons (2005-08) and continued that role through his graduation from Mizzou in May of 2009, where he earned his bachelor's degree in fitness and nutrition.

He played football and basketball at Truman High School and also assisted with film and statistical analysis for his school's football program.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

RICKY COON

Defensive Line • Second Year

Ricky Coon starts his second year as Southeast Missouri's defensive line coach.

Coon took over that role on Jan. 8, 2014.

The defensive line helped Southeast record 15 sacks in 2014, its most in a season since 2009. Four of Coon's linemen, including Travis Sanders (3), Marlon Hampton (2), John Popovich (0.5) and Selwyn Carrol (2) were responsible for half of those sacks. That group also teamed up for 15.5 tackles for loss.

Coon spent the 2013 season as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Northwest Mississippi Community College. Prior to that, he worked the 2012 campaign as defensive line coach at NCAA Division II Southwest Baptist University and gained six years of experience at the junior college level.

Coon was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Ellsworth Community College (2009-11), where 18 of his players received all-conference recognition and three were named National Junior College Athletic Association All-Americans.

He helped lead the Panthers to the 2009 NJCAA Region XI Championships, two Midwest Football Conference Playoff titles (2009, 2010) and two NJCAA bowl game appearances. In 2009, Coon's defensive unit set a school record for fewest yards allowed in a bowl game.

Before his three-year stint at Ellsworth CC, Coon was the defensive coordinator and head strength and conditioning coordinator at Highland Community College from 2007-08. Coon's defensive units finished among the NJCAA's Top-20 teams each of his last two seasons and, statistically, were the best two defenses in school history. A total of seven defensive players received all-conference accolades during his two years.

Coon worked as academic coordinator and defensive line coach at NCAA Division II Northern State in 2006.

A native of Wichita, Kan., Coon started his career as defensive line coach and strength and conditioning coordinator at his alma mater, Bethel College.

He was a two-time all-conference defensive lineman at Dodge City Community College and Bethel College. Coon also had the privilege of playing two seasons of professional football in the Arena Football League for the Wichita Stealth (AF2) and Wichita Aviators (APFL).

Coon is married to the former Amanda Sanchez. Together they have four children, Taryn, Zane, Gunner and Bryson.

MATT MARTIN

Running Backs/Special Teams • Second Year

Matt Martin enters his second year as running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Southeast Missouri.

Martin joined Southeast's coaching staff on Jan. 8, 2014.

The Redhawks kicking game saw major improvement with Martin's guidance a year ago.

As a result, Southeast led the Ohio Valley Conference in field goals made (18) and PAT kicking (.978), and tied for second in punting (36.9 ypg).

Martin coached a pair of All-OVC performers in first-team kicker Ryan McCrum and second-team running back DeMichael Jackson.

McCrum, a Third-Team Sports Network All-American and Fred Mitchell Award finalist, led the Redhawks in scoring and topped the OVC in both field goals and scoring (kick). He also broke Southeast's all-time single-season record with 18 field goals made.

Jackson was Southeast's top rusher with 734 yards and five touchdowns on 137 carries last season. He averaged 5.4 yards per carry and was fourth in the OVC with 91.8 yards per game. Jackson ran for over 100 yards three times in 2014.

Punter Alex Knight was another player that excelled under Martin a year ago.

Knight ranked second in the OVC in punting with 41.4 yards per punt. He punted a total of 42 times for 1,740 yards in 12 games. McCrum, Jackson and Knight all return this upcoming 2015 season.

Two others, including Peter Lloyd and Spencer Davis, were among the league's top 10 in all-purpose yards and kick return average.

Lloyd finished third in kick return average (27.3 ypr) and sixth in all-purpose yards (104.2 ypg), while Davis was ninth in kick return average (20.7 ypr) and eighth in all-purpose yards (99.2 ypg). Davis wrapped up his Southeast career as the school's all-time leader in all-purpose yardage (4,919), kick return yards (2,890) and kickoff returns (135).

Martin spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Emporia State. He coached the wide receivers for four years and served as the team's special teams coordinator his last three seasons.

In 2013, Martin coached four All-Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association performers, including wide receivers Ray Ray Davis (first-team) and Austin Willis (second-team), kicker Eli Kuhns (honorable mention) and return specialist Deveon Dinwiddle (honorable mention). Davis and Kuhns also earned Don Hansen All-Super Region 3 accolades.

Prior to that, Martin coached All-American Shjuan Richardson in 2012. Richardson finished his career ranked second in single-season receiving yards at Emporia State.

Martin spent four years in the early part of his coaching career on the defensive side of the football. He worked two seasons at Nebraska-Kearney as the Lopers outside linebackers coach before returning to his alma mater in 2010.

Martin began coaching as a graduate assistant at Emporia State, overseeing the safeties.

As a player, he was a four-year letterwinner for the Hornets and a two-time captain for the 2002 Mineral Water Bowl and 2003 MIAA Championship teams.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

SALIM POWELL

Wide Receivers • Fifth Year

Salim Powell heads into his fifth year on the Southeast Missouri coaching staff.

Powell is in his third season coaching the wide receivers after working with the defensive line and special teams for two years.

Three of Southeast's top four receivers are back under Powell this season.

Headlining that group is First-Team All-Ohio Valley Conference selection Paul McRoberts.

McRoberts, the Redhawks top receiver each of the last two years, made 44 catches for 711 yards and nine touchdowns in seven starts during the 2014 campaign. He averaged 16.2 yards per catch and 101.6 receiving yards a game, as his nine receiving TDs were third most in the OVC and fourth on Southeast's all-time single-season list. McRoberts is one of the top receivers in the Football Championship Subdivision.

Peter Lloyd and Adrian Davis are the others.

Lloyd led Southeast with 48 catches and racked up 633 yards in 10 games during the 2014 campaign. He also scored three touchdowns, averaging 13.2 yards per catch.

Meanwhile, Davis finished off a nice rookie season with 28 catches for 307 yards and four touchdowns. Davis' four receiving TDs ranked second behind McRoberts.

As a player, Powell registered 98 tackles and two interceptions in 44 games and 33 starts at Southeast.

In his first year coaching, Powell assisted a Redhawk defense which led the OVC in scoring defense (21.5 ppg allowed), interceptions (20) and turnover margin (+13) in 2010. Southeast also ranked second in the league in total defense (317.1 ypg allowed), pass defense (164.8 ypg allowed) and pass defense efficiency (105.0 rating). Southeast also ranked fifth in the nation in turnover margin and 12th nationally in turnovers gained (29).

Southeast's defense has produced nine All-OVC selections in the last five years, including First-Team All-Conference pick, 2012 OVC Defensive Player of the Year and All-American Blake Peiffer.

A native of Willingboro, N.J., Powell played cornerback for the Redhawks from 2006-09 and was a starter at his position the final three years of his career.

As a prep, Powell was an All-Conference and All-County defensive back at Willingboro High School. He was part of the Super 100 All-State team. Powell received both his bachelor's and master's degrees at Southeast.

MELVIN RICE

Cornerbacks • First Year

Melvin Rice was hired as Southeast Missouri's cornerbacks coach on Jan. 20, 2015.

Rice spent the last four years as defensive quality control assistant at Minnesota. He was in charge of opponent scouting and the day-to-day operations on the defensive side of the ball in that position.

Rice came to Minnesota from Northern Illinois, where he coached and played under head coach Jerry Kill. He served as a graduate assistant, coaching defensive backs in 2010. The Huskies went 11-3, winning the Humanitarian Bowl and earning the Mid-American Conference West Division title that year.

Prior to NIU, Rice coached the defensive backs at Chicago's Morgan Park High School in 2009. He helped lead Morgan Park to the conference championship and a berth in the state playoffs.

Rice briefly played professional football for the Green Bay Blizzard in the Indoor Football League in 2010 before heading to NIU as a graduate assistant.

In college, Rice was a three-year starter for the Huskies. He was named the team's Most Valuable Defensive Player in 2008 and was an All-MAC honorable mention selection.

Rice holds a bachelor's degree from NIU.

JOE UHLS

Tight Ends/Football Operations • Fourth Year

Joe Uhls is in his fourth season with Southeast Missouri's football staff.

Uhls has worked with the Redhawk football team for six years. He coaches the tight ends in addition to serving as the program's director of operations. He is in charge of the day-to-day operations, team travel and all other duties assigned by head coach Tom Matukewicz.

On the field, Uhls coached a pair of tight ends who saw action in all 12 games last season.

Ron Coleman caught 10 passes for 221 yards and a touchdown, while Logan Larson followed with two receptions for 15 yards and one TD at tight end in 2014. Larson, a transfer from Bowling Green, returns with the Redhawks this year.

Uhls graduated from Southeast with a degree in General Studies in 2012. He attended Cape Central High School and is the grandson of former legendary Southeast head baseball coach Joe Uhls.

Uhls was a student assistant with the offense for two seasons before taking over as Southeast's director of operations.

He and his wife, Mara, reside in Cape Girardeau.

2014 FINAL STATISTICS

2014 GAME RECAPS

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

Southeast Missouri laid a lot of big bricks during Tom Matukewicz's head coaching debut in 2014.

Southeast posted an overall record of 5-7 and 3-5 in the Ohio Valley Conference, surpassing its win total from each of the previous three seasons by a +2 margin.

The Redhawks upended a pair of ranked opponents in No. 3 Southeastern Louisiana (Sept. 20) and No. 20 Tennessee State (Oct. 4), posting two wins over Top-20 teams in a season for the first time in program history. The third-ranked Lions are the highest-ranked opponent Southeast has beaten to date.

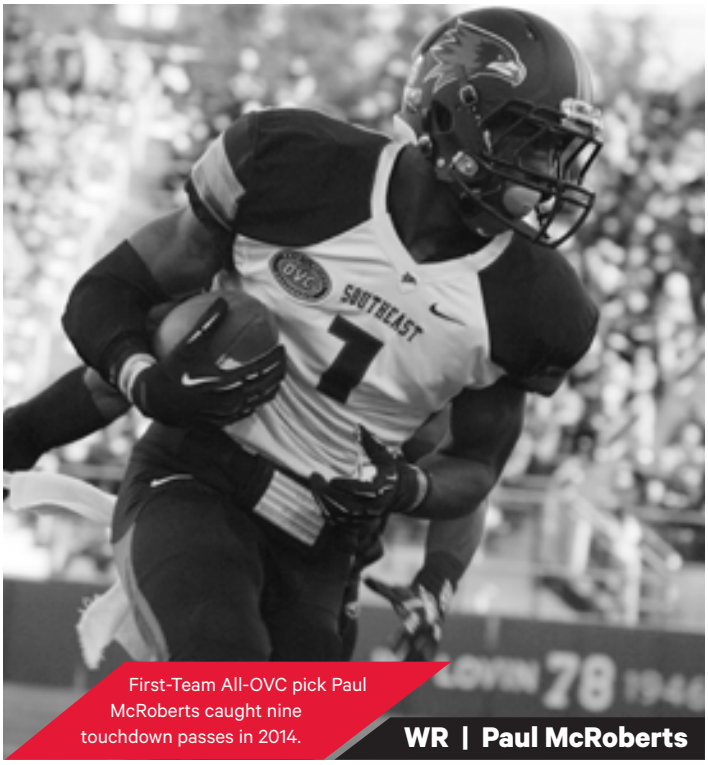

Statistically, Southeast led the OVC in third down conversion percentage (45.7), fourth down conversion percentage (66.7) and sacks allowed (9). The Redhawks were sixth in the Football Championship Subdivision in sacks allowed, 13th in fourth down conversion percentage and 14th in third down conversion percentage.

Offensively, the Redhawks scored 384 points in 12 games for their most in a season since 2002 (410). Defensively, Southeast recorded 15 sacks, its most in a season since 2009 (16). Special teams wise, the Redhawks saw a major improvement, tying for first in the OVC in PATs (44-of-45) and placing fourth in field goals (18-of-23).

Individually, Southeast had four All-OVC performers, including first-team selections Paul McRoberts and Ryan McCrum, and second-team picks DeMichael Jackson and Tim Hamm-Bey.

McRoberts made a huge impact for Matukewicz despite missing five games with a lisfranc fracture in his right foot.

Legitimately one of the top wide receivers in the FCS, McRoberts caught the game-winning touchdown on a broken foot with four seconds left to send Southeast to its win over Southeastern Louisiana. He finished the year with 44 catches for 711 yards and ~~nine~~ touchdowns as the Redhawks top receiver and Offensive Most Valuable Player.

First-Team All-OVC pick Paul McRoberts caught nine touchdown passes in 2014.

WR | Paul McRoberts

McCrum completely flipped Southeast's kicking game. So much, in fact, that he was awarded a full scholarship immediately after the season.

McCrum ended his sophomore campaign with a Southeast single-season record 18 field goals in 2014. He led the OVC in both field goals (18-of-23, 78.3 pct.) and scoring (kick) (94 pts.). McCrum split the uprights four times from 50 or more yards out and made a career and OVC long 55-yarder vs. Tennessee State (Oct. 4). He rated fifth in the nation in field goals per game and managed to make 42-consecutive PATs before missing his final extra point of the season. McCrum was also named Third-Team Sports Network All-American and one of 10 finalists for the Fred Mitchell Award. This all came a year after the Redhawks finished ninth in the OVC in both field goals and PATs.

Jackson was the team's top rusher with 734 yards and five touchdowns on 137 carries. He averaged 5.4 yards per touch and was fourth in the OVC with 91.8 yards a game. Jackson ran for over 100 yards three times in 2014.

Hamm-Bey ranked third nationally with four blocked kicks, including two field goals, a punt and PAT. He registered 46 tackles, two interceptions, three tackles for loss and led the Redhawks with 10 pass breakups in 12 starts at cornerback.

Quarterback Kyle Snyder and linebacker Roper Garrett turned in big seasons, as well.

Snyder capped his Southeast career by breaking the school's single-season record in total offense with 3,243 yards.

He completed 196-of-320 passes (61.2 pct.) for 2,582 yards and 23 touchdowns, while rushing for 661 yards and another nine TDs on 180 attempts in 12 starts under center. Snyder led the conference in pass efficiency (144.0 rating) and ranked third in both passing average (215.2 ypg) and total offense (270.2 ypg).

Garrett was Southeast's top tackler in his first year as a starting linebacker. His 96 stops tied for second among OVC leaders with Tennessee State's Nick Thrasher. Garrett averaged 10.7 tackles per game and also led the team in sacks (3.0), tackles for loss (8.5) and forced fumbles (5).

The Redhawks, who saw an increase of 1,024 in attendance at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium, began the Matukewicz era with a 77-0 rout of Missouri Baptist (Aug. 28).

Southeast's 77 points were the most scored in a game during its NCAA Division I tenure. The Redhawks scored on their first seven possessions against the Spartans and never looked back.

The Redhawks nearly pulled off a monumental comeback when they had Football Bowl Subdivision Kansas (Sept. 6) in week two.

Southeast scored 28 second-half points, including 21 in the fourth quarter before coming up short in a 34-28 loss at Memorial Stadium.

After falling behind, 24-0, at halftime, the Redhawks outscored KU 28-10 in the final two quarters. McRoberts accounted for two of Southeast's fourth-quarter touchdowns and registered a career-high 173 receiving yards against the Jayhawks.

A trip to No. 14 and regional-rival Southern Illinois (Sept. 13) was plagued by five turnovers as Southeast dropped a 50-23 decision at Saluki Stadium.

The Redhawks lost four fumbles and threw an interception with those miscues resulting in a total of 28 SIU points. Southeast lost to the Salukis for the fourth-straight year in the 82nd meeting between these longstanding rivals.

Southeast kickstarted a season-long three-game winning streak with a huge 24-23 win over No. 3 Southeastern Louisiana (Sept. 20).

Snyder threw a 2-yard game-winning pass to McRoberts on a slant route with four seconds left, sending the Redhawks to their first win over a ranked opponent at home since 2008.

Kicker Ryan McCrum earned First-Team All-OVC honors as the Redhawks leading scorer.

K | Ryan McCrum

Snyder made a huge play to extend the decisive scoring drive when he called his own number. On 3rd-and-10, Snyder busted up the middle for 15 yards on a gutsy quarterback draw before throwing a dart to McRoberts.

Another key play in that game came courtesy of the Redhawk defense.

Bryan Bennett threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Smiley, capping a 7-play, 90-yard drive that put SLU ahead 17-16 with 5:18 left to play.

The Lions then opted to go for two, but Wisler Ymonice blew things up when he tackled D'Shaie Landor short of the goal line. The failed two-point conversion loomed large for the Lions in the end.

Peter Lloyd's career night propelled Southeast to its first road win of the season, a 31-27 victory at UT Martin (Sept. 27).

In the first game without McRoberts, it was Lloyd who gave the Redhawks the boost they needed to get by the Skyhawks.

He finished with a career-high 10 catches for 179 yards and two touchdowns, while the defense made two big stops late in the game to nail down the win.

Lloyd hauled in the go-ahead 28-yard touchdown pass from Snyder with 9:04 remaining before Southeast's defense stopped UTM twice on fourth down. Hamm-Bey and Eriq Moore broke up a pass to halt those drives.

Southeast won its third-straight game decided by no more than seven points when it downed No. 20 Tennessee State (Oct. 4), 28-21, on Homecoming.

The Redhawks made a statement by putting up 360 yards of total offense against the FCS's top defense.

Lennies McFerren ran for 115 yards and a touchdown and McCrum scored eight points in the kicking game to highlight the effort.

McCrum's career-long 55-yard field goal put up the first points of the game as that kick marked the second-longest in school history.

Southeast's second win over a ranked opponent in three weeks was enough to land the Redhawks a spot in the Sports Network Top-25 Poll, its first national ranking since the end of the 2010 season. The Redhawks came in at No. 23 as one of four ranked OVC teams in the Oct. 6 poll.

No. 23 Southeast hooked up with Murray State (Oct. 11) in a double overtime thriller at Stewart Stadium.

The Redhawks forced a second overtime when McCrum booted a 52-yard field goal after Snyder was sacked for a loss of 13 yards.

MSU, however, responded with a 7-yard touchdown pass from KD Humphries to Janawski Davis to edge Southeast, 44-41.

Three more losses followed, including a 52-13 setback at home against Eastern Illinois (Oct. 18), a 33-21 defeat at Eastern Kentucky (Oct. 25) and a 27-26 loss at Tennessee Tech (Nov. 8).

Southeast did not score in the second half for the first time all season during its matchup with EIU.

Snyder threw for 245 yards and a touchdown, and rushed for 116 yards and another two scores, but it wasn't enough against No. 18 EKU.

Then, McCrum's 62-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Jordan Patrick allowing TTU to escape with a one-point victory.

The next week, Southeast ended its four-game losing skid when Snyder threw for a career-high 334 yards and a single-game school record five touchdowns to key a 42-7 win over Austin Peay (Nov. 15).

Snyder threw touchdown passes to four different receivers, completing 19-of-27 attempts along the way. He became the first Southeast quarterback to get over 300 passing yards in a game since Houston Lillard (331, vs. Missouri State on Sept. 20, 2008.

Twenty seniors suited up for their final game at Southeast when the Redhawks took the field against No. 3 Jacksonville State (Nov. 22).

JSU scored 21 first-quarter points en route to its 49-30 win in Southeast's season finale.

The Gamecocks racked up 612 yards of total offense, averaged 7.2 yards per play and converted 68.8 percent of the time on third down.

Snyder threw for 205 yards and three touchdowns on his way to breaking Southeast's single-season record in total offense.

McRoberts caught a game and career-high eight passes for 135 yards and a touchdown, his second-straight 100-yard receiving performance.

Defensively, the Redhawks had four double-digit tacklers led by Ymonice's 12 stops. Matt Starks and Daniel Siehndel followed with 11 apiece and Reggie Jennings added 10.

Kyle Snyder broke Southeast's single-season record in total offense with 3,243 yards.

Missouri Baptist 0
Southeast Missouri 77

August 28, 2014 • Houck Stadium • Attendance: 7,143

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Southeast Missouri began the Tom Matukewicz era with a 77-0 rout of Missouri Baptist in front of a crowd of 7,143 at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium.

The 77 points were the most Southeast scored in a game during its NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision tenure. The last time the Redhawks scored over 70 points was in a 72-3 victory over Quincy in their 2009 season-opener.

The game was delayed a half-hour due to lightning before a line of motorcycles revved up the Redhawks as they took the field for their season-opener.

Southeast scored on its first seven possessions and never looked back.

Kyle Snyder scored the first touchdown of the season for the Redhawks on a 1-yard run that was set up by a 61-yard punt return by Spencer Davis. Snyder's TD came with 11:58 left in the first quarter.

After MBU punter Tyler Hach fumbled the snap on a 4th-and-15, Southeast took over on downs at the Spartans 25-yardline. On the next play, DeMichael Jackson broke free a 25-yard touchdown run down the far sideline to push the Redhawks lead to 14-0 at the 7:33 mark.

Southeast forced MBU to punt again and proceeded to cap a 4-play, 84-yard march when Jackson caught a screen pass from Snyder and dashed 66 yards to make it 21-0 with 1:27 remaining.

The Redhawks tacked on another 28 points in the second quarter. Snyder threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Paul McRoberts and hit paydirt on a 5-yard run. Ron Coleman then scored on a 1-yard run and Joshua Wilson recovered a fumble in the end zone.

Coleman moved to ninth all-time at Southeast with his 14th career rushing touchdown.

Southeast continued to have its way with the Spartans, scoring twice more in each of the third and fourth quarters.

Central Michigan transfer quarterback Alex Niznak scored his first career rushing touchdown on a 1-yard run with 8:19 left in the third quarter.

Lewis Washington crossed the goal line on a 12-yard jaunt to push the Redhawks lead to 63-0 at the 4:07 mark.

Lennies McFerren and Chaffee native Tyson Estes ended the scoring in the final period.

McFerren busted loose for a 28-yard touchdown run and Estes scored his first career touchdown on a 1-yard plunge to polish off the victory.

Southeast racked up 516 yards of total offense and averaged 9.6 yards per play against MBU.

Snyder paved the way, completing 10-of-12 passes for 198 yards and two touchdowns. Additionally, he ran for 33 yards and two touchdowns on six carries, and completed passes to nine different receivers.

"Kyle did a good job of distributing the ball and he managed the offense well," commented Matukewicz.

Jackson finished with 148 all-purpose yards, including a game-high 82 on the ground.

Special teams wise, the Redhawks kicked a perfect 11-of-11 extra points, seven of which came from Ryan McCrum who made only eight all of last season.

Defensively, Roper Garrett turned in a game-high 10 tackles, one sack, two forced fumbles and 2.5 tackles for loss.

Wisler Ymonice followed with six tackles and an interception. The interception was the first of Ymonice's career.

Southeast had 11 tackles for loss, three sacks and limited MBU to just 81 total yards on the night.

The Redhawks improved to 9-15 all-time in season-opening games since joining the FCS.

Southeast Missouri 28
Kansas 34

September 6, 2014 • Memorial Stadium • Attendance: 36,574

LAWRENCE, Kan. - Southeast Missouri nearly pulled off a monumental comeback when it scored 28 second-half points, including 21 in the fourth quarter during a 34-28 loss to Kansas at Memorial Stadium.

Southeast trailed, 24-0, at halftime before outscoring KU 28-10 in the final two quarters.

Paul McRoberts caught six passes for a career-high 173 yards and accounted for two of the Redhawks fourth-quarter touchdowns. McRoberts' 173 yards were the most by a Southeast receiver since Miles Edwards had 208 vs. Southwest Baptist on Aug. 28, 2008.

KU scored 24 points in the first quarter and appeared to be on its way to a lopsided victory, but Southeast stormed back.

The ferocious comeback started when the Redhawks capitalized on a wild play to gain momentum early in the third quarter.

Tim Hamm-Bey blocked a 49-yard field goal attempt by Matthew Wyman. Reggie Jennings picked up the ball and pitched it to Eriq Moore. Ron Davis then wound up with the ball after it went off Moore's hands and ran 18 yards to the KU 37-yardline.

KU was flagged for a personal foul which tacked an extra 15 yards onto the end of the play, giving Southeast excellent field position at the Jayhawks-22.

Four-straight rushing plays followed and DeMichael Jackson scored the Redhawks first touchdown of the game on a 7-yard run to narrow KU's lead to 24-7 with 10:34 remaining in the third quarter.

Southeast's Darrius Darden-Box recovered an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff, but the Redhawks were forced to re-kick after being ruled offside. Immediately after the re-kick, Montell Cozart threw a 67-yard touchdown pass to Tony Pierson widening the Jayhawks lead to 31-7 just 17 seconds later.

Down, 34-7, Southeast opened the final quarter with a 37-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Snyder to Spencer Davis five plays into its drive. Davis made a nice catch in the back corner of the end zone in heavy coverage for his first TD reception of the season. Snyder also threw a 41-yard completion to McRoberts earlier in the drive to set up the score.

After Wyman missed a 49-yard field goal, Snyder threw a 68-yard touchdown pass to McRoberts on the very next play to slice KU's lead to 34-21 with 10:39 left in the game.

Southeast forced the Jayhawks to punt and took over on downs at its own 11-yardline.

Lennies McFerren made some big runs, including a 29-yard carry on a 2nd-and-11, helping get the Redhawks into KU territory. On 4th-and-1 at the Jayhawks-41, Snyder picked up a first down to keep the drive alive.

Following a false start penalty by Southeast, Snyder completed a 12-yard pass to McRoberts to give the Redhawks a 1st-and-10 at the KU-29.

Southeast later faced a 4th-and-7 at the Jayhawks 26-yardline after two more false start penalties. McRoberts then made a spectacular catch in between two defenders in the end zone, as the Redhawks pulled to within six (34-28) with 1:33 on the clock. McRoberts' TD closed out a 14-play, 89-yard march that consumed 6:36.

Nick Harwell recovered Southeast's onside kick and KU managed to escape.

Southeast did not have a first down and gained only 42 yards in the first quarter. The Redhawks also averaged 3.2 yards per play on its first four drives of the game.

Despite their slow start, the Redhawks (421) nearly caught up with the Jayhawks (457) in total yards.

Snyder completed 12-of-27 passes for a career-high 269 yards and three touchdowns. He had three interceptions, as well.

Along with his game-high 173 receiving yards, McRoberts completed the first pass of his career.

Southeast Missouri 23
#14 Southern Illinois 50

September 13, 2014 • Saluki Stadium • Attendance: 10,385

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Southeast Missouri had five turnovers in a 50-23 loss to regional-rival and No. 14 Southern Illinois in front of a crowd of 10,385 at Saluki Stadium.

Southeast lost four fumbles and had an interception in its second-straight loss. Those miscues led to a total of 28 SIU points.

The first half saw a combined five turnovers, including four by Southeast. The Redhawks fumbled three times and threw an interception.

Southeast quarterback Kyle Snyder fumbled on each of the Redhawks first two drives.

On 3rd-and-3 at the Southeast-46, Snyder lost the ball and Cory Lee recovered. Following a 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty by the Redhawks, SIU took over on downs at the Southeast 10-yardline.

Three plays later, Mark Iannotti threw a 6-yard touchdown pass to Adam Fuehne giving the Salukis a 7-0 lead with 11:36 left to play in the first quarter.

During the first play of Southeast's next possession, Snyder fumbled again when he was hit by Jordan Poole. D.J. Cameron recovered for SIU at the Southeast-48.

Nothing came of that miscue as Eriq Moore forced and recovered a fumble for Southeast at its own 9-yardline.

After the Redhawks punted, SIU scored its second touchdown, this time in just 44 seconds. Malcolm Agnew caught Iannotti's screen pass on the third play of the drive and ran 33 yards down the near sideline to put the Salukis ahead, 14-0, at the 7:25 mark.

Cameron recorded his second takeaway when he intercepted Snyder's third-down pass and ran 18 yards to the Redhawks 2-yardline. Agnew then hit paydirt on a 1-yard plunge, expanding SIU's lead to 21-0.

Ryan McCrum's career-long 43-yard field goal gave Southeast its first points at the end of an 11-play, 64-yard march with 1:12 remaining. Key plays of that drive included a 16-yard pass from Snyder to Paul McRoberts on a 3rd-and-long and a 26-yard pass from Snyder to Ron Coleman.

SIU kicker Thomas Kinney missed a 51-yard field goal attempt before Southeast's next possession culminated in three more points for the Redhawks.

Lennies McFerren gained a combined 29 yards on two carries to get Southeast to the SIU-36. The 9-play, 45-yard drive resulted in a 38-yard field goal by McCrum, cutting the Salukis lead to 21-6 with 10:50 left.

Three plays into SIU's ensuing drive, Tim Hamm-Bey picked off Iannotti and sprinted 56 yards to the end zone for Southeast's first touchdown. Hamm-Bey's big defensive TD quickly chopped the Salukis lead to 21-13 with a little under nine minutes on the clock. Hamm-Bey was the first Redhawk to return an interception for a touchdown since Darrick Borum and Branden Spann accomplished the feat vs. Tennessee Tech on Sept. 22, 2012.

SIU, however, used a big play of its own to answer right back.

The Salukis faced a 3rd-and-4 at their own 32 when their drive was extended due to a pass interference by Southeast. The penalty came back to haunt the Redhawks as Iannotti completed a 60-yard touchdown pass to Tay Willis. Willis caught the ball in stride and dashed down the far sideline, grabbing SIU a 28-13 lead at the 6:54 mark.

Southeast took over on downs deep in its own territory at the 6-yardline when Spencer Davis fumbled. Tyler Williamson recovered and Iannotti then threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to MyCole Pruitt immediately after a SIU penalty to give the Salukis a 35-13 advantage with 5:37 left.

Two plays after McFerren ran for five yards to keep the Redhawks drive alive on a 4th-and-1 at the SIU-44, the Salukis called timeout. Once play resumed, Davis ran for nine yards before Snyder hooked up with McRoberts on a 19-yard scoring strike to make it 35-20 at the half.

McCrum began the second half by splitting the uprights for his game-high third field goal, a 43-yarder with 10:36 left in the third quarter.

Exactly three minutes later, Iannotti tossed a 6-yard touchdown pass to McKinney, capping a 7-play, 83-yard drive to give SIU a 42-23 lead at the 7:36 mark. The 83-yard march was the longest drive of the night.

SIU capitalized on another Southeast turnover when Iannotti connected with Pruitt on a 16-yard touchdown pass just six seconds into the fourth quarter. A two-point conversion followed as the Salukis polished off their 50-23 win.

SIU outgained Southeast 465-357 in total yards.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

#3 Southeastern Louisiana 23
Southeast Missouri 24

September 20, 2014 • Houck Stadium • Attendance: 7,538

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Paul McRoberts caught a 2-yard game-winning touchdown pass with four seconds left and Southeast Missouri upset No. 3 Southeastern Louisiana, 24-23, Saturday night in a barn-burner at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium.

McRoberts secured a dart thrown by quarterback Kyle Snyder on a slant route to polish off Southeast's first win over a ranked opponent at home since 2008. Additionally, the Redhawks upended their highest ranked foe in Cape Girardeau since 2000 (No. 12 Illinois State).

Snyder made a huge play on a 3rd-and-10 when he busted up the middle for 15 yards on a gutsy quarterback draw. He picked up the first down at the 2-yardline before throwing the decisive touchdown pass.

Snyder made another key play at a time when it appeared as though Southeast's final drive was stalling. He threw a 16-yard completion to Spencer Davis on a 3rd-and-8.

The dramatic fourth quarter began with Bryan Bennett throwing a 4-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Smiley. Smiley's TD capped a 7-play, 90-yard drive to bring the Lions to within a point (17-16) with 5:18 left to play.

SLU then went for two, but Wisler Ymonice blew things up when he tackled D'Shaie Landor short of the goal line.

On the first play of Southeast's ensuing possession, Lennies McFerren fumbled and Josh Dakin recovered at the Southeast 38-yardline.

Six plays later, Bennett scored on a 22-yard run to give SLU a 23-17 lead with 2:53 on the clock.

After McRoberts scored his second touchdown of the night, Ryan McCrum had to win the game twice. His first extra point split the uprights, but the Redhawks were called for a holding penalty. McCrum then made his second attempt to send Southeast's sideline into a frenzy.

Both teams battled to a 10-10 deadlock at the half.

Ryan Adams got SLU on the board first with a 25-yard field goal at the 7:15 mark of the first quarter.

McFerren scored his fourth career rushing touchdown on a 1-yard run with 6:04 left in the second quarter.

Jeremy Myers hauled in an 11-yard touchdown pass from holder Cole Leblanc on a fake field goal to give the Lions a 10-7 edge with just under three minutes (2:58) remaining.

McCrum kicked a career-long 54-yard field goal to tie the game as time expired in the first half. The field goal was the second-longest in school history.

Snyder completed 16-of-31 passes for 141 yards and two touchdowns, and rushed for 95 yards on 17 carries.

McRoberts caught a game-high seven passes for 89 yards and two TDs. He is now third all-time with 17 career touchdown receptions at Southeast.

Meanwhile, Davis broke the Redhawks all-time career record in all-purpose yardage. He finished with 145 yards and now has 4,248 in his career, surpassing Kelvin Anderson (4,173 from 1992-94) for the new mark.

Defensively, Roper Garrett paved the way with 12 tackles, while true freshman Hunter Bledsoe followed with eight tackles and a fumble recovery.

Chad Meredith also added six tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss.

Bennett threw for 200 yards and a touchdown on 15-of-29 passes to lead the Lions. He was also sacked twice.

SLU outgained Southeast, 436-365, in total yards. Both teams were nearly even in rushing as the Lions had 225 yards to the Redhawks 224.

Southeast, which beat its highest-ranked opponent in school history, snapped an eight-game losing streak against ranked Football Championship Subdivision teams.

Southeast Missouri 31
UT Martin 27

September 27, 2014 • Graham Stadium • Attendance: 3,648

MARTIN, Tenn. - Peter Lloyd had a career-high 10 catches for 179 yards and two touchdowns and the defense made two big stops late in the game to propel Southeast Missouri to a 31-27 win over UT Martin at Graham Stadium.

In the first game without star wide receiver Paul McRoberts, Southeast needed someone to step up and Lloyd did so in a huge way.

A native of Caruthersville, Mo., Lloyd finished with over 100 receiving yards and made six of his catches in the first half alone. He then hauled in the go-ahead 28-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Snyder with 9:04 left to play before Southeast's defense polished off the victory.

Southeast's defense denied UTM on fourth down twice after Lloyd scored.

Jarod Neal completed a 48-yard pass to Rod Wright, giving UTM a 1st-and-Goal at the Southeast 5-yardline. Neal then threw four-straight incompletions against a smoldering Redhawk defense. Tim Hamm-Bey broke up the last pass of that series on the goal line.

After Southeast punted, UTM took over on downs at the Southeast 45-yardline with 3:19 left to play.

Following a 7-yard completion, an incomplete pass and a sack by Kendall Donnerson, the Skyhawks faced a 4th-and-4 at the Redhawks-39. Neal's pass, intended for William Tanner, was broken up by Eriq Moore and Southeast ran out the clock.

The massive defensive stand put the exclamation point on Southeast's first win in Martin since 2003.

A 60-yard completion from Neal to Wright on the second play of the game quickly gave UTM a first down at the Southeast 9-yardline.

Two plays later, the Redhawks forced a turnover when Ron Davis stripped the ball from Abou Toure and Terrance Hill recovered at the Southeast-1.

After the Redhawks were forced to punt, UTM scored the first points when Neal completed a 23-yard touchdown pass to give UTM a 7-0 advantage with 10:22 left to play in the first quarter.

Southeast countered four plays into its next possession with a 65-yard touchdown pass from Snyder to Lloyd. Lloyd was open down the middle of the field and Snyder hit him in stride on the Redhawks third-longest TD pass of the season. The score came in a short 1:15 as Southeast tied the game at 7-7 with 9:03 remaining.

UTM managed to get inside Southeast's 20-yardline, but settled for a 36-yard field goal by Jackson Redditt to take a 10-7 edge with just under four minutes (3:57) left.

The Redhawks took their first lead on a 1-yard quarterback keeper by Snyder that came three plays after a UTM pass interference penalty.

UTM and Southeast then traded touchdowns before the Redhawks went into the locker room with a 21-17 halftime lead.

Neal threw back-to-back 20-plus yard completions and hooked up with Kyle Kerrick on a 24-yard touchdown pass to regain a 17-14 lead with 10:57 remaining in the second quarter.

Snyder then scored from inside the 5-yardline for the second time when he hit paydirt from a yard out, securing the Redhawks second lead at intermission this season.

Southeast fumbled on its opening drive of the second half. Lennies McFerren took Snyder's handoff and lost the ball when he was hit by Ryan Isom. Tony Stewart recovered for UTM at the Southeast 28-yardline.

The Skyhawks, like the Redhawks, also fumbled on their first play of the second half, but retained possession. UTM later diced Southeast's lead to 21-20 on Redditt's 29-yard field goal with 11:47 left to play in the third quarter.

Southeast lined up in punt formation on a 4th-and-6 before Ron Coleman took Wade Wright's snap and dashed 26 yards for a first down at the UTM-30. Coleman's run set up a 47-yard field goal by Ryan McCrum as Southeast pulled ahead, 24-20, with 8:08 on the clock.

UTM went ahead once more, this time on a 35-yard pass from Neal to Tanner with 5:18 left in the third quarter.

Lloyd's 179 receiving yards marked both a Southeast and OVC single-game high this season. He averaged 17.9 yards per catch against the Skyhawks tonight.

Snyder completed 19-of-30 passes for 269 yards and two touchdowns, and ran for 14 yards and another two scores. He matched his career high in passing yards.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

#20 Tennessee State 21
Southeast Missouri 28

October 4, 2014 • Houck Stadium • Attendance: 8,089

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Southeast Missouri piled up 360 yards of total offense against the Football Championship Subdivision's top defense in a 28-21 victory over No. 20 Tennessee State at Houck Stadium.

Lennies McFerren ran for 115 yards and a touchdown, and Ryan McCrum accounted for eight points in the kicking game to polish off Southeast's second win over a ranked opponent in three weeks.

McFerren's first career 100-yard rushing performance ended with a 7-yard touchdown run that gave the Redhawks a 28-14 lead with 4:41 left to play in the fourth quarter. His big TD came on a 3rd-and-4.

TSU answered with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Michael German to Weldon Garlington, a play that capped a 71-yard drive. Garlington's touchdown narrowed the score to 28-21 with 2:11 on the clock.

Cameron Carter attempted an onside kick and Tyler Manne recovered at the TSU-46.

The Tigers, however, had one last chance after Alex Knight's 33-yard punt went out of bounds at their own 6-yardline.

Seven plays into the drive, Eriq Moore intercepted German's pass at the Southeast 5-yardline to nail down the Redhawks third-straight win.

Southeast did not turn the ball over and played extremely well on special teams. Its defense also did its part, particularly in the secondary, where the Redhawks broke up 12 passes.

The Redhawks took a quick 3-0 lead on a career-long 55-yard field goal by McCrum with 12:17 left in the first quarter. The field goal was McCrum's second over 50 yards this season.

Following a TSU punt, Southeast started its next possession at its 41-yardline. Kyle Snyder threw an 18-yard completion to freshman Adrian Davis and completed a 13-yard pass to Peter Lloyd, moving the Redhawks to the TSU-15. Snyder then ran the ball three-straight times and scored on a 6-yard rush to extend the Redhawks lead to 10-0 with 8:56 left.

Lewis Washington's 1-yard run finished off a 9-play, 80-yard drive to give Southeast a 17-0 lead with 9:04 remaining in the second quarter. Washington scored a rushing TD for the second year in a row against the Tigers.

TSU got on the board with a 2-yard run by Stephen Hopkins with 14 seconds left and went into the locker room down, 17-7, at the half.

Although the Tigers outscored Southeast in the second half, the Redhawks again won the fourth quarter, this time putting up 11 points in the final 15 minutes.

McCrum split the uprights with a 26-yard field goal at the 12:00 mark before McFerren's touchdown. Snyder's pass to Ron Coleman completed Southeast's first 2-point conversion this season.

McFerren averaged 5.5 yards per carry on 21 attempts to lead Southeast's offense. Snyder also completed 11-of-18 passes for 134 yards, while Lloyd added four catches for 58 yards.

The Redhawks gained 226 rushing yards against TSU's defense that entered the game allowing just 78 per contest. Southeast also scored the most points against the Tigers this season, a team giving up only 10.8 per contest. Not to mention, the Redhawk offensive line did not allow a sack against TSU, who leads the nation in that category.

Ron Davis led the Redhawks with 10 tackles, the second double-digit tackle performance of his career. Davis had six solo stops. Tim Hamm-Bey added six tackles, five pass breakups and a blocked field goal.

TSU kicker Lane Clark missed two field goals and had one blocked on his three attempts.

Southeast beat two ranked opponents in a season for the first time in school history.

#23 Southeast Missouri 41
Murray State 44

October 11, 2014 • Stewart Stadium • Attendance: 5,636

MURRAY, Ky. - KD Humphries threw for 297 yards and six touchdowns and tossed the game-winning 7-yard touchdown pass in double overtime to lead Murray State to a thrilling 44-41 victory over No. 23 Southeast Missouri at Stewart Stadium.

Ryan McCrum kicked a 30-yard field goal to give Southeast a 41-38 edge at the start of the second overtime possession.

MSU responded by getting to the Redhawks 7-yardline before Humphries' big play on third down. Janawski Davis caught the ball in heavy traffic to give the Racers their first Ohio Valley Conference win.

Before the dramatic finish, Southeast forced a second overtime period when McCrum booted a 52-yard field goal after MSU sacked Kyle Snyder for a loss of 13. It marked McCrum's third field goal over 50 yards in four games.

The Racers scored on their first possession of the game when Humphries threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Nevar Griffin. Griffin's TD capped a 4-play, 39-yard strike in 1:19 to give MSU a 7-0 advantage with 10:54 in the first quarter.

Eriq Moore's second interception of the season resulted in Southeast's first points which came on a 21-yard field goal by McCrum. Snyder picked up a first down on a 20-yard rush and later completed an 8-yard pass to DeMichael Jackson.

After that play, Jackson ran for five yards on three carries to get Southeast to the 4-yardline before McCrum's kick narrowed the Racers lead to 7-3 with 1:31 on the clock.

Following a MSU punt, the Redhawks began their next drive at their own 34-yardline and used a 33-yard completion from Snyder to Ron Coleman to get inside the Racers-15.

Snyder then threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Adrian Davis who made a great catch and stayed inbounds. Davis' first career touchdown gave Southeast its first lead at 10-7 with 12:48 left in the second quarter.

MSU faced a 3rd-and-10 -- after the Redhawks defense made two nice plays -- when Humphries hooked up with Davis for a 75-yard touchdown to quickly regain a 14-10 lead for the Racers. That score came in only 50 seconds.

McCrum, who missed a field goal for the first time this season when his 46-yard attempt sailed wide left, later made a 28-yard kick to pull Southeast within a point (14-13) at halftime.

Five plays into MSU's opening drive of the second half, Humphries threw a 49-yard touchdown pass to Griffin, pushing the Racers lead to 21-13. Griffin's touchdown came in 55 seconds.

Tim Hamm-Bey blocked Zach Bogard's punt that wound up going out of bounds at the Southeast-44.

An 11-yard completion from Snyder to Peter Lloyd and a 22-yard pass from Snyder to Darrius Darden-Box moved the Redhawks into the red zone. Snyder finished off the drive with an 11-yard run and Jackson completed the 2-point conversion to tie the game at 21-21 with 2:07 remaining in the third quarter.

MSU answered right back with a 5-yard touchdown pass from Humphries to DeQavious Walker that ended a 5-play, 75-yard drive. Humphries' fourth passing touchdown gave the Racers a 28-21 lead with 28 seconds left.

Lloyd returned the ensuing kickoff 31 yards to the MSU 38-yardline and then caught Snyder's 9-yard pass in the end zone to bring the game to its second tie at 28-28 with 13:22 left in the fourth quarter.

Southeast made a big defensive play during the Racers next possession when Roper Garrett sacked Humphries. Garrett's hard hit jarred the ball loose and Jon Slania recovered at the Redhawks-41.

The Redhawks capitalized on the turnover by chewing up 7:49 of clock time and keeping their go-ahead drive alive with a huge fourth down conversion.

On 4th-and-1 at the MSU-11, Coleman moved the chains when he picked up a first down with a 2-yard rush. Snyder threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to Davis. Davis' second TD gave Southeast its first lead at 35-28 at the 3:09 mark.

MSU, however, countered by marching 80 yards in 10 plays to send the game to overtime.

The Racers got to the Southeast-16 where they faced a 4th-and-2. After the Redhawks called timeout, Pokey Harris ran for a first down at the 13-yardline. Moments later, Humphries threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Griffin, knotting the score at 35-35 with 46 seconds left.

MSU and Southeast traded field goals on the first three overtime possessions before Humphries' game-winner.

Humphries completed 21-of-36 passes on the day. Griffin added a game-high 141 yards and three touchdowns on nine receptions to lead MSU, as well.

Jackson ran for 104 yards on 21 carries. Snyder threw for three touchdowns and rushed for another.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

Eastern Illinois 52
Southeast Missouri 13

October 18, 2014 • Houck Stadium • Attendance: 4,114

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Jalen Whitlow threw for 213 yards and had a hand in five touchdowns, Adam Drake caught seven passes for 110 yards and two scores and Shepard Little ran for 103 yards to lead Eastern Illinois to a commanding 52-13 win over Southeast Missouri at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium.

Southeast, which suffered its second-straight loss, was shutout in the second half for the first time this year. The Redhawks went the final 36:26 of the game without a point.

The Panthers put up 548 yards of total offense and forced five turnovers in a strong effort on both sides of the ball.

EIU struck first on its second drive of the game when Whitlow hooked up with Drake for a 50-yard touchdown pass. Drake got behind the defense and sprinted down the far sideline to the end zone. The big play gave the Panthers a 7-0 lead with 10:37 left to play in the first quarter.

Kyle Snyder completed a 22-yard pass to Peter Lloyd as Southeast moved into EIU territory. Three plays later, Ryan McCrum kicked a 51-yard field goal to cut the Panthers lead to 7-3 with 9:37 remaining. McCrum made his fourth field goal over 50 yards in five games.

EIU elected to go for it on fourth down during its next two possessions, but the Redhawk defense made two huge stops.

Matt Starks tackled Whitlow short of the first down marker on a 4th-and-9 at the Southeast-34 and Roper Garrett and Hunter Bledsoe stopped Taylor Duncan on a 4th-and-2 at the Redhawk-11.

A 38-yard field goal by McCrum then capped a 13-play, 68-yard drive as Southeast diced EIU's lead to 7-6 with 36 seconds.

EIU scored touchdowns on back-to-back drives and made a field goal to tack on 17 more points in the second quarter.

Whitlow scored rushing touchdowns from three and 13 yards out, respectively, to push the Panthers lead to 21-13 with 2:14 on the clock.

In between those scores was a 6-yard touchdown pass from Snyder to Spencer Davis that completed a 10-play, 72-yard drive at the 6:26 mark.

Nick Bruno's 45-yard field goal sent EIU into the locker room with a 24-13 halftime advantage.

Southeast started the second half with a turnover. Jourdan Wickliffe intercepted Snyder's pass on a 3rd-and-9, giving the Panthers good field position at the Redhawks 48-yardline.

Nothing, however, came from the mishap as a dropped pass by Drake on 3rd-and-long stalled EIU.

Southeast faked a punt and did not get a first down after Alex Knight completed a pass to DeMichael Jackson for two yards on a 4th-and-5. The unsuccessful play set EIU up at the Redhawks 25-yardline.

This time, the Panthers, with the help of a Southeast personal foul, scored on a 1-yard run by Duncan to widen their lead to 31-13 with 10:09 left to play in the third quarter.

After Snyder threw his third interception of the game, EIU was in field goal formation when an encroachment penalty by Southeast made it 4th-and-1 at the Redhawks 5-yardline.

The Panthers brought their offense back on the field and Whitlow completed a touchdown pass to Drake, extending EIU's lead to 38-13 with just under five minutes (4:57).

Southeast gained no more than eight yards on each of its first four drives in the second half before Peter Lloyd returned a kickoff 37 yards. Snyder completed an 18-yard pass to Adrian Davis and 5-yard pass to Mike Cyliax to get the Redhawks to the EIU-38.

Three plays later, McCrum's 52-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left for his third miss of the season.

EIU still wasn't finished, scoring twice more.

Whitlow hit paydirt on a 2-yard run, his third rushing touchdown of the game.

On the first play after Southeast downed a punt at the Panthers 4-yardline, Jimmy Lera took the handoff and dashed 96 yards for a touchdown on his second carry to put EIU ahead, 52-13, with 6:55 left.

Southeast Missouri 21
#18 Eastern Kentucky 33

October 25, 2014 • Roy Kidd Stadium • Attendance: 10,300

RICHMOND, Ky. - Kyle Snyder threw for 245 yards and a touchdown, and rushed for 116 yards and another two scores in Southeast Missouri's 33-21 loss to No. 18 Eastern Kentucky.

Snyder threw a 3-yard touchdown pass to Ron Coleman, pulling the Redhawks to within five (26-21) early in the fourth quarter. He also found the end zone on runs of three and four yards, respectively.

EKU struck first on a big special teams play when Jeff Glover blocked Alex Knight's punt at the 22-yardline. Glover scooped up the ball and ran to the end zone to give the Colonels a 7-0 lead with 7:18 left in the first quarter. It was the first punt Southeast had blocked in nine games this season.

Southeast quickly answered with a swift 9-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in Snyder's first rushing touchdown to tie the game at 7-7 at the 2:55 mark.

Another big play, this time a 49-yard pass from Jared McClain to Devin Borders, set up the Colonels next score.

Borders catch gave EKU a 1st-and-Goal at the Southeast-7. Three plays later, Dy'Shawn Mobley crossed the goal line on 4th-and-1 to extend EKU's lead to 14-7 with 32 seconds remaining.

After stopping Southeast on fourth down, EKU took possession at the Redhawks 49-yardline and marched 49 yards in six plays to tack on six more points.

Two defensive penalties by the Redhawks figured into the Colonels getting to the Redhawks 9-yardline before Mobley scored on a 9-yard run. Andrew Lloyd missed the PAT, leaving EKU with a 20-7 advantage with 10:39 left to play in the second quarter.

Southeast answered right back with another nice drive, covering 73 yards in 12 plays. Snyder completed an 11-yard pass to Adrian Davis before picking up a first down on a 15-yard carry. Snyder then scored on a 4-yard run to narrow the Colonels lead to 20-14 with six minutes.

The first half ended on a wild play when McClain's hail mary pass was intercepted by DeMichael Jackson. Jackson ran 27 yards and pitched the ball to Travis Sanders. Sanders picked up 14 yards before pitching the ball to David Coley. Coley ran another 22 yards down the far sideline before he was tackled at the EKU-33.

EKU and Southeast came up empty on their first possessions of the second half. Lloyd missed a 37-yard field goal and Snyder was intercepted in the end zone by Kiante Northington on a 3rd-and-3 at the Colonels 9-yardline. The turnover was Southeast's fourth in the red zone this year.

EKU capitalized on the turnover, going 80 yards in 11 plays. McClain's 27-yard pass to Borders widened the Colonels lead to double-digits (26-14) with 3:05 in the third quarter.

Southeast, which went scoreless in the third quarter, scored again on Snyder's pass to Coleman, cutting the lead to 26-21 with the 10:31 remaining.

Mobley then scored on a 13-yard run to secure EKU's 33-21 victory.

Snyder completed 23-of-34 passes and threw two interceptions. He averaged 6.1 yards per carry on 19 rushing attempts. Snyder is the first Southeast quarterback to rush for over 100 yards in a game since Scott Lathrop had 119 at Murray State on Nov. 17, 2012.

Jackson followed with 99 yards on 22 carries, while Peter Lloyd caught nine passes for 104 yards, his second 100-yard receiving game this season. In addition, Lloyd finished with 207 all-purpose yards.

Defensively, Terrence Hill and Hunter Bledsoe paved the way with 12 and 11 tackles. Sanders added a game and career-high three sacks, and the 63-yard interception return to end the first half tied for fifth-longest in school history. Sanders is the first Redhawks player to get three sacks in a game since 2004 (Matt Bohnert vs. UT Martin).

Mobley rushed for 111 yards and three touchdowns to lead EKU. McClain completed 15-of-18 passes for 203 yards and a touchdown, and Borders made four catches for 106 yards and a TD, as well.

Southeast outgained EKU, 484-364, with 239 on the ground. The Redhawks also had six penalties for 55 yards and the Colonels were penalized just once for five yards.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

Southeast Missouri 26
Tennessee Tech 27

November 8, 2014 • Tucker Stadium • Attendance: 9,820

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. - Jordan Patrick blocked Ryan McCrum's 62-yard field goal attempt and Tennessee Tech survived with a 27-26 victory over Southeast Missouri at Tucker Stadium.

TTU, which pulled ahead by a point on a 32-yard run by Willie Davis with 4:16 left in the game, needed a big defensive stop.

Kyle Snyder completed a 10-yard pass to Paul McRoberts and found him again for a 5-yard gain. Ron Coleman's 5-yard run on a crucial third down moved the ball to the TTU 41-yardline.

Then, the Golden Eagle defense dug in.

Snyder was tackled for no gain and sacked by Patrick and Terrel Rollins for a loss of four yards. On the following play, Snyder was hit as he threw his next pass which fell incomplete leaving Southeast with a 4th-and-14 at the TTU-45.

Southeast called timeout and lined up for a 62-yard field goal try with the wind at its back. McCrum's kick came off low and was tipped by Patrick.

Patrick's block ended a fourth quarter that saw a combined 24 points between the two teams.

TTU battled back to take its first lead on a 12-yard run by Jared Davis early in the final period.

DeMichael Jackson's 48-yard touchdown run polished off a 3-play, 76-yard drive in 1:01 and quickly regained a 23-20 edge for Southeast at the 13:42 mark.

The Redhawks forced TTU to punt after Jackson's score and used a 19-yard field goal by McCrum to take a 26-20 lead with 6:15 remaining prior to the wild finish.

Southeast's defense allowed only 17 rushing yards, forced a turnover and pressured the Golden Eagles into punting three times.

The Redhawks backed that strong effort by scoring the first 13 points of the game.

Southeast used runs of 20 or more yards on three of four plays to set up its first score.

Brendan Stewart began the march with a 23-yard run and Jackson picked up first downs on consecutive carries, including 24 and 20 yards. Snyder completed the drive with a 1-yard quarterback keeper on fourth down to give the Redhawks a 7-0 lead with 7:11 left in the first quarter.

Travis Sanders forced and recovered a fumble on the third play of TTU's next possession and the Redhawks took over on downs at the Golden Eagle-27. However, Southeast settled for a 43-yard field goal by McCrum to push its lead to 10-0 with 4:19 remaining.

After forcing a punt, Southeast covered 63 yards in 15 plays en route to another field goal by McCrum, this time from 32 yards out. The Redhawks chewed up nearly seven minutes before McCrum's kick stretched the lead to 13-0 at the 9:19 mark of the second quarter.

The first three TTU drives resulted in a fumble and two punts before the Golden Eagles got on the board late in the second quarter.

Davis completed a 40-yard pass to Brock McCoin. McCoin was brought down at the Southeast 4-yardline. Radir Annoor hit paydirt on a 2-yard plunge to narrow the Redhawks lead to 13-7 at the half.

TTU changed its gameplan in the second quarter, replacing starting quarterback Darian Stone with Davis. The adjustment was successful as Davis completed 14-of-24 passes for 216 yards and a touchdown, and ran for 51 yards and another score.

McCoin also contributed seven catches for 120 yards, while Cody Matthews had seven receptions for 86 yards and a touchdown to lead TTU.

Jackson ran for a season-high 172 yards and a touchdown on 22 carries for Southeast. It was his second 100-yard rushing game this season.

Snyder followed with 64 rushing yards and a touchdown, and completed 16-of-22 passes for 132 yards. He became the first Redhawk quarterback to go over 2,000 passing yards since 2008 (Houston Lillard).

McRoberts, who returned from a broken foot injury, caught seven passes for 95 yards in his first game since Sept. 20.

The Redhawks had four turnovers, as well.

Southeast, which outgained TTU, 480-396, posted a season-best 348 yards on the ground.

Austin Peay 7
Southeast Missouri 42

November 15, 2014 • Houck Stadium • Attendance: 2,049

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Kyle Snyder threw for a career-high 334 yards and a single-game record five touchdowns to lead Southeast Missouri to a commanding 42-7 win over Austin Peay at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium.

Snyder threw touchdown passes to four different receivers, completing 19-of-27 passes along the way. He became the first Southeast quarterback to get over 300 passing yards in a game since Houston Lillard finished with 331 vs. Missouri State on Sept. 20, 2008.

Snyder's five touchdown passes tied Jack Tomco (vs. UT Martin, 2002) for Southeast's single-game record. His strong effort also helped the Redhawks snap a four-game losing streak and improve to 4-1 at home this season.

Southeast scored on its first two drives to build an early lead.

After Dakota Vincil's 32-yard field goal sailed to the left of the upright, Snyder completed a 28-yard pass to Adrian Davis on the next play.

Four plays later, Snyder completed a 23-yard pass to Ron Coleman and polished off the 8-play, 80-yard march with an 11-yard touchdown pass to DeMichael Jackson. Snyder's last pass of the drive came off the hands of Paul McRoberts and landed in the arms of Jackson, as the Redhawks went ahead, 7-0, with 8:31 left in the first quarter.

APSU punted and Southeast took possession at its own 23-yardline. Immediately after a 1-yard run by Jackson, Snyder threw a 71-yard touchdown pass to Spencer Davis. Davis sprinted down the near sideline on the longest TD reception of his career.

Ryan McCrum missed a 39-yard field goal early in the second quarter. APSU then consumed 8:17 on its next drive, but had nothing to show for it.

Eriq Moore intercepted Trey Taylor's pass on a 4th-and-9 at the Southeast-29, but a pass interference penalty kept the lengthy drive alive.

APSU later faced a 3rd-and-Goal at the Redhawks 5-yardline when Moore intercepted Taylor again. This time, the play would stand as Southeast took over on downs at its own two.

Jackson carried the ball four times for 69 yards to key the Redhawks next score after the turnover. On the third play of the drive, Jackson broke free for a career-long 58-yard run and finished things off with a 2-yard run to widen Southeast's lead to 21-0 with 1:49 to play in the second quarter.

The 98-yard drive marked the Redhawks longest since Brandon Beck scored on a 5-yard run to end a 13-play, 99-yard march against Jacksonville State on Sept. 29, 2012.

Southeast continued to pick apart the Governors in the second half.

On the first play of the third quarter, Snyder hooked up with McRoberts on a 70-yard touchdown pass to increase the Redhawks lead to 28-0. The 70-yard touchdown reception was the second-longest of McRoberts' career.

Snyder then threw two more touchdown passes in the fourth quarter to put the game on ice. He threw a 13-yard strike to A. Davis and delivered a 15-yard pass to McRoberts for the final two scores.

APSU avoided the shutout when Damian Whitfield picked off Snyder and ran 12 yards to the end zone with 10:29 left in the third quarter.

Along with a 300-yard passer, the Redhawks also had two 100-yard receivers and 100-yard rusher. McRoberts caught six passes for 117 yards and two touchdowns, S. Davis caught four passes for 102 yards and a touchdown, and Jackson ran for 122 yards and a TD.

Southeast registered a season-high 531 yards of total offense, as well.

Defensively, the Redhawks forced three turnovers and did not allow a point. Wisler Ymonice paved the way with 12 tackles, while Reggie Jennings and Daniel Siehndel followed with 11 apiece. Moore and Kinzer each had an interception and Lloyd Laufili Time recovered a fumble.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. – Southeast Missouri ended its 2014 season with a 49-30 loss to No. 3 Jacksonville State Saturday at Missouri National Guard Field/Houck Stadium.

The Ohio Valley Conference champion Gamecocks jumped out to a 21-0 lead in the first quarter and finished with 612 yards of total offense. JSU averaged 7.2 yards per play and converted 68.8 percent (11-of-16) of the time on third down.

JSU went to work early, scoring three touchdowns in the first 7:32.

Eli Jenkins took off for a 26-yard run on the second play from scrimmage to get the Gamecocks into Southeast territory. Seven plays later, DaMarcus James scored from 13 yards out on a 3rd-and-1, giving JSU a 7-0 lead less than three minutes in.

After a Southeast punt, JSU had the ball at its own 27-yardline. On the third play, Jenkins tossed a 58-yard touchdown pass to a wide open Bo Brummell, pushing the Gamecocks lead to 14-0 with 10:10 left to play in the first quarter. That score came in a short 48 seconds and capped a 73-yard drive.

Jaylen Hill intercepted Kyle Snyder's pass at the Southeast-34. JSU then faced a 4th-and-9 when Jenkins delivered a 30-yard touchdown pass to Ruben Gonzalez. Gonzalez jumped to make the catch in the back left corner of the end zone with Reggie Jennings defending on the play.

DeMichael Jackson sent a jolt in the Redhawks when he gained 29 yards on four-straight carries to move Southeast to the JSU 46-yardline. Snyder took over from there, running for 19 yards on three carries.

After picking up another two yards, Snyder then threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Paul McRoberts. McRoberts' ninth touchdown reception of the season narrowed the Gamecocks lead to 21-7 with 2:39 remaining.

JSU marched 88 yards in nearly six minutes for its fourth-straight score. Jenkins' 26-yard pass on a 3rd-and-11 kept the drive alive. Once the Gamecocks got inside the Redhawks 30-yardline, James and Troymaine Pope shared carries to close out the drive. James' 1-yard fourth-down plunge extended JSU's lead to 28-7 at the 11:39 mark.

Southeast's ensuing 10-play, 65-yard drive resulted in a 25-yard field goal, as the Redhawks cut the Gamecocks lead to 28-10 at halftime. McCrum broke Southeast's single-season field goal record on that kick. He surpassed Mike Wood who made 17 field goals in 1976.

The Redhawks and Gamecocks traded touchdowns in a see-saw second half.

Tim Hamm-Bey picked off Jenkins and ran six yards to the Southeast 43-yardline. The Redhawks capitalized on the turnover when Snyder hooked up with Adrian Davis on a 19-yard strike to make it a 28-17 game with 10:59 left in the third quarter.

Snyder also completed 9-yard passes to Jackson and McRoberts, and a 5-yard pass to Tyler Manne before hitting Davis. For Manne, it was his first career reception.

JSU, however, answered right back with an 8-play, 75-yard drive that culminated in a 18-yard run by Pope to give the Gamecocks a 35-17 advantage with 7:35 on the clock. James had a 28-yard run to help set up Pope's third-down score.

Southeast responded with a touchdown of its own, this time a 2-yard rush by Jackson. Snyder threw a 44-yard completion to McRoberts for a first down at the JSU-4. Jaylen Hill was then penalized for pass interference after making contact with McRoberts on the next play before Jackson crossed the goal line.

After JSU called timeout during its next possession, Jenkins picked up a first down on a 3rd-and-9 to extend another drive. Jenkins threw a 36-yard touchdown pass to Dalton Screws three plays later. Screws sprinted down the near sideline to widen the Gamecocks lead to 42-24 with two minutes left.

JSU and Southeast each found the end zone once more in the fourth quarter.

Christian LeMay scored on a 1-yard run with 7:41 left to play and Logan Larson caught his first career touchdown pass on a 5-yard throw from Snyder with 3:32 remaining.

Pope and James each rushed for over 100 yards. Pope had 114 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries and James followed with 111 yards and two scores.

2015 OVC COMPOSITE SCHEDULE

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

Now in its 68th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 15 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged February 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Through the past 67 years, 15 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 21 outright or shared football crowns, which is tied for the most in Football Championship Subdivision history (with Massachusetts). Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with 10, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois has claimed seven football crowns and Jacksonville State has four, while Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri, UT Martin and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh. EKU was coached by former All-America quarterback Roy Kidd, who was in his 16th year at the helm of his alma mater and who skippered the Colonels to a second national title three years later. Following the 2002 season, Kidd retired after 39 years at EKU; upon retirement, he ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches with 315 victories, earning him a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame. EKU's now 21 FCS playoff appearances are the second for the most all-time (behind only Montana's 23 berths).

In addition to Kidd, other coaching legends in the OVC include Charles "Bubber" Murphy, who coached at Middle Tennessee from 1947-1968, Western Kentucky's Jimmy Feix (1968-83), Wilburn Tucker (1954-67) and Don Wade (1968-82) of Tennessee Tech, Bill Ferguson (1967-77) of Murray State, Guy Penny (1959-67) of Morehead State and Boots Donnelly (1977-78 at Austin Peay; 1979-1998 at Middle Tennessee). Following the 2011 season Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo retired after 25 years at the school (the last 16 as members of the OVC). In his time as an OVC coach he compiled 92 total victories (fifth-most in league history) and 68 OVC wins (fourth-most in league history) and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2012.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo and Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals. He would break into the starting lineup halfway through his rookie season and started at cornerback for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

The 2007 season marked a return to scholarship football and the OVC for the Austin Peay Governors. Following the 1996 season the Governors dropped scholarship football and competed as both an independent (1997-00, 2006) and as a member of the Pioneer Football League (2001-05).

The 2007 season also brought new vernacular to the Ohio Valley Conference and the division formerly known as I-AA.

Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game the term I-AA was changed to NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in a decision by the Division I Board of Directors. The new label was chosen to communicate in a positive and clear manner the unique differences between Division I football categories (chiefly, the post-season opportunity) while still defining them within the Division I experience. The FCS includes programs that compete in an effort to participate in the NCAA championship postseason structure (one of 89 NCAA national championships) as opposed to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) which competes in an effort to participate in the postseason bowl system (the 41 NCAA-licensed events which includes the Bowl Championship Series).

In 2010 Southeast Missouri State, picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll, compiled a 7-1 Conference record on the way to its first OVC Championship since joining the league in 1991. Overall the Redhawks were 9-2 during the regular season and earned a berth in the FCS Playoffs, its first playoff berth at any level in the program's 104-year history. Southeast would lose to eventual national champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the playoffs. Head coach Tony Samuel capped the year by winning the Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award, given to the National Coach of the Year. Samuel was the second OVC coach to win the award (joining Murray State's Houston Nutt who won the award in 1995).

For only the second time in league history in 2011, three teams shared the OVC football championship, as Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech finished with 6-2 records. The only other time in league history more than two champions were crowned at the end of the year was 1962 (when four teams shared the crown).

In 2012 Eastern Illinois became just the fourth football team in OVC history to go from worst-to-first in winning the OVC Championship. The Panthers were led by head coach Dino Babers who became just the fourth first-year head coach to win an OVC Championship (joining Boots Donnelly in 1977, Jason Simpson in 2006 and Dean Hood in 2008 – Jacksonville State head coach John Grass would become the fifth coach to achieve that feat in 2014). During the year Eastern Illinois junior wide receiver Erik Lora shattered the FCS single-season receptions record, hauling in 136 passes in 12 games; that mark was 13 more than the previous NCAA record and 44 more than the previous OVC mark.

In 2013 Eastern Illinois repeated as OVC Champions behind Walter Payton Award winner Jimmy Garoppolo. The quarterback became just the second OVC player to earn the National Player of the Year Award, joining former EIU signal caller Tony Romo (2002). Garoppolo passed for 5,050 yards (second most in NCAA single-season history) and 53 touchdowns (fourth in NCAA history) in leading the Panthers to a 12-2 record and berth to the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs. Garoppolo was drafted by the New England Patriots in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft, becoming just the fifth OVC player selected in that round and just the fifth OVC quarterback ever selected (and first since 1998).

The 2013 season saw the OVC snap a 19-game playoff losing streak dating back to the 2000 season. Tennessee State shutout Butler (marking the first OVC road playoff victory since 1986) to snap the streak while later that day Jacksonville State smashed Samford in the first round. A week later Eastern Illinois beat Tennessee State while Jacksonville State won at McNeese State to each advance to the quarterfinals; that marked the first time the OVC put two teams in the quarterfinals in the same season since 1991. Overall the four total playoff wins in the same season established a new OVC record.

Football wasn't the only sport in which the OVC was quickly gaining respect. In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants. The Conference quickly proved worthy of that bid, as Morehead State defeated Marshall (107-92) and Wayne State (95-84) in the 1956 tournament.

Fifteen years later, former OVC member Western Kentucky became the first and only Conference team to reach the Final Four. The Hilltoppers defeated Jacksonville, Kentucky and Ohio State before losing to Villanova in double overtime in the national semifinals. WKU went on to finish in third place after beating Kansas 77-75 in the consolation game.

Since that time, the OVC has recorded some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Tournament. Perhaps the most famous moment came in 1987, when Austin Peay came from fourth place in the regular season to win the OVC Tournament and earn the league's automatic bid. The Governors drew powerful Illinois, and were such big underdogs, that ESPN broadcaster Dick Vitale promised to stand on his head if APSU won the game. After a 68-67 victory over the Illini, and a narrow 90-87 overtime loss to eventual Final Four participant Providence in the second round, Vitale made good on his promise in a visit to Clarksville two months later.

Murray State added to the OVC's string of upsets in 1988 when it knocked off 14th-ranked North Carolina State, 78-75. The Racers' M&M Boys - Jeff Martin and Don Mann - combined for 39 points in the win. MSU nearly went on to the Sweet 16 that year, losing to eventual national champion Kansas, 61-58. A bank shot by Mann that would've given the Racers a one-point lead rolled off the rim with three seconds left. In 1990 as a No. 16 seed, Murray State took No. 1 seed Michigan State into overtime before falling 75-71; that game still marks the closest a No. 16 seed has come to knocking off a No. 1 in men's tournament action. More recently, Murray State has dominated the OVC Tournament, reaching the championship game every year in the 1990's. The Racers' 15 OVC Tournament Championships are the most among all OVC schools.

After former member Middle Tennessee State won a first round game in 1989, the league had a drought as no other OVC team won a NCAA Tournament game for the next 19 years. But Morehead State, coming off a thrilling double overtime OVC Tournament victory over Austin Peay, topped Alabama State 58-43 in the Opening Round game at University of Dayton Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The game was played in front of an Opening Round record crowd of 11,346 and included many MSU fans who made the three-hour drive from Morehead for the game.

In 2009-10, Murray State made OVC history by winning a record 31 games (31-5) on its way to the league's regular season and tournament championships. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the No. 13 seed Racers topped Vanderbilt in thrilling fashion when senior Danero Thomas hit a jumper as time expired to lift MSU to a 66-65 victory. It marked the first OVC team to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament since 1989, and snapped a skid of 71-straight loses to Southeastern Conference foes (dating back to 2000-01). In the second round, the Racers pushed eventual national runner-up Butler to the brink before losing 54-52.

In 2010-11 Morehead State would make it three NCAA Tournament wins in as many years for the league and got a bit of revenge for the 2009 tournament loss to Louisville in the process. After finishing second in the regular season and winning the OVC Tournament Championship, the No. 13 seeded Eagles were shipped to Denver to play the in-state foe Cardinals. MSU jumped out to a 15-2 advantage but were down four points (61-57) with just over a minute to play in regulation. After two free throws from two-time OVC Player of the Year Kenneth Faried, the Eagles held for one final shot attempt and senior Demonte Harper pulled up off a cross-over dribble to nail a 3-pointer with 4.3 seconds left that gave Morehead State a 62-61 lead. UofL had one last attempt but Faried blocked the Cardinals last shot, giving MSU the win, its first over Louisville since the 1956-57 season.

In 2011-12 Murray State put together one of the greatest seasons in OVC history, beginning the year 23-0 (an all-time OVC best) and being ranked as high as No. 7 in the coaches poll on Feb. 6. The squad was the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since Murray State was ranked in 1997-98; in addition the top 10 ranking was the first for an OVC team since the 1970-71 campaign (WKU). The Racers would top nationally-ranked Memphis and Saint Mary's during the season and win the league's regular season and tournament championships. MSU earned a No. 6 seed in NCAA Tournament, the highest-ever seed for an OVC team since the NCAA began seeding the field in 1979. The Racers would top Colorado State 58-41 in the second round before falling to Marquette in the third round. Murray State would win 31 games overall, tying the OVC all-time record the Racers set in 2009-10.

After the Murray State win in 2011-12, the league had won NCAA Tournament games in four-straight seasons, something that had never happened in league history (three-game winning streaks from 1960-62 and 1987-89 had been the previous best streaks). Over that time period (2009-12) the OVC was one of just nine conferences nationally to win a NCAA Tournament game in each season and one of only three non-BCS leagues (joining the Atlantic 10 and WCC) to do so.

In 2013-14 Murray State won five games to claim the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) and in the process became the first OVC men's basketball team to ever play games in the month of April.

The 2014-15 season saw five OVC men's basketball teams earn postseason bids, the most in league history. Those teams combined to win eight total games, the most ever by the OVC in one postseason. Entering 2015-16 OVC men's basketball teams have at least one national postseason tournament victory in seven-straight postseasons, an all-time league record.

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft.

During the 2010-11 year Faried, the nation's leading rebounder during the season, became the NCAA's Modern Era (since 1973) career rebounding leader, totaling 1,673 rebounds which passed Tim Duncan for the record (he is 11th all-time in NCAA history). Faried also finished his career with 86 double-doubles, second all-time to only Duncan. He is one of only six players in NCAA history to finish with 2,000-plus career points (2,009) and 1,600-plus career rebounds. Faried was drafted 22nd overall by the Denver Nuggets in the 2011 NBA Draft, becoming the first OVC player selected in the first round since Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers 1994.

Murray State guard Isaiah Canaan, a first-team All-American in 2011-12, capped his illustrious career in 2012-13 by becoming just the 17th player in OVC history to score 2,000 or more career points. Canaan, who was a key part of Murray State NCAA Tournament victories in both 2010 and 2012, earned a pair of OVC Player of the Year honors (2012 and 2013) during his career as well as being named OVC Freshman of the Year (2010), OVC Tournament MVP (2010) and OVC Male Athlete of the Year (2012). He was drafted by the Houston Rockets with the 34th overall pick (No. 2 pick of the second round) of the 2013 NBA Draft.

In 2014-15 Murray State became just the fifth OVC men's team to complete a perfect Conference season (16-0). The Racers were led by sophomore Cameron Payne who was named OVC Men's Basketball Player of the Year, OVC Male Athlete of the Year and earned third-team All-American honors from CBSSports.com. Following the season Payne declared for the NBA Draft, becoming the first sophomore in OVC history to do so and one of just four OVC players all-time to enter and stay in the draft with eligibility remaining. Payne was selected in the lottery by the Oklahoma City Thunder (pick No. 14 overall), making him just the ninth First Round NBA Draft pick in OVC history.

Through its 67 years, 13 teams have won or shared the league's regular season men's basketball title. Murray State heads the list with a Conference-record 24 outright or shared basketball crowns. Other past champions include former member Western Kentucky (19), Morehead State (9), Austin Peay (8), Eastern Kentucky (6), Tennessee Tech (5), former member Middle Tennessee (5), Tennessee State (2), former member East Tennessee State (2), Belmont (2 – including winning the titles in each of its first two years in the league), Southeast Missouri State (1), UT Martin (1) and former member Akron (1).

Among the coaching greats in men's basketball have been Western Kentucky's E.A. Diddle, who retired with 759 victories and 10 OVC titles; John Oldham, who was a member of the very first All-OVC squad and went on to win seven OVC crowns during his coaching tenure at Tennessee Tech and Western Kentucky; Paul McBrayer, who guided Eastern Kentucky to 219 wins and three OVC crowns; and Cal Luther, who is the only person in Conference history to win men's basketball Coach of the Year honors at two league schools - Murray State and UT Martin. Current Austin Peay head coach Dave Loos became the winningest coach in OVC history in 2009-10, netting his 319th victory and passing Luther on the all-time list. Loos enters the 2015-16 season with 391 victories.

There have been an equal number of great players including Western Kentucky's Clem Haskins, who is the only three-time OVC Player of the Year. Several players have won OVC Player of the Year honors twice: Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniels (1969-70 and 1970-71), Murray State's Les Taylor (1971-72, 1972-73), Jeff Martin (1987-88, 1988-89), Popeye Jones (1989-90, 1990-91) and Marcus Brown (1994-95, 1995-96), Austin Peay's Otis Howard (1976-77, 1977-78), Middle Tennessee's Jerry Beck (1980-81, 1981-82), Akron's Joe Jakubick (1982-83, 1983-84), Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers (1992-93, 1993-94), UT Martin's Lester Hudson (2007-08, 2008-09), Morehead State's Kenneth Faried (2009-10, 2010-11) and Murray State's Isaiah Canaan (2011-12, 2012-13).

The OVC also has the honor of being the only conference to boast the nation's leaders in scoring, rebounding and assists all in one season. That feat was accomplished in 1991-92 by Morehead State's Brett Roberts (28.1 ppg), Murray State's Popeye Jones (14.4 rpg) and Tennessee Tech's Van Usher (8.8 apg).

Women's basketball in the OVC has been dominated by Tennessee Tech, which has won or shared 18 regular-season titles and owns nine OVC Tournament crowns. In fact, the Golden Eagles have reached the championship game of the OVC Tournament 22 times in the past 33 years. Although Tennessee Tech remains the standard-bearer, five other teams have won 15 of the last 22 OVC Tournaments. UT Martin became the latest program to add its name to the list, capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011 and also winning championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Skyhawks became just the fourth team in OVC history (and first since Austin Peay from 2000-03) to win four-straight tournament titles.

Several coaches have made their mark in the history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at EKU and three at MTSU. In 2012-13 Inman came out of retirement to take the Tennessee State job; in 2014-15 he led the Lady Tigers to its first OVC Tournament Championship since 1995.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; Murray State's Ashley Hayes; and UT Martin's Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken). During the campaign, only her second with the Eagles, she also set career block records for both Morehead State and the OVC (287).

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

In 2013-14 Butler and Newsome capped their brilliant careers by ranking first and second in scoring in OVC history. Butler, the 2013-14 OVC Female Athlete of the Year, finished her career with 2,865 points, which ranked first in OVC and 16th in NCAA history. She also finished her career with 392 career 3-pointers (which was tied for the most in NCAA history following her career but now ranks second) and scored in double figures in all 129 career games which ranks fifth in NCAA history. Following the season Butler was signed by the WNBA's San Antonio Stars where she became the first OVC player to make an active WNBA roster. Newsome capped her career with 2,566 points, second only to Butler in OVC history.

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC served as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event was held April 6 & 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville and was played in front of sold-out crowds for both the semifinals and championship as UConn topped Notre Dame in a battle of undefeated teams to win its ninth national title.

Over its 67 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. Former Morehead State football and Eastern Kentucky track and field athlete Dallas Robinson competed with the U.S. bobsled team during the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Kenneth Faried (Morehead State), football players Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois) and Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players A.J. Ellis (Austin Peay) and Shawn Kelley (Austin Peay). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and a NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six straight tournament crowns. Former EKU skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 32 years, 11 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regular-season titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006 and winning a NCAA Tournament match in 2010, the league's first NCAA victory since 2000.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third-straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. Four other individuals - Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) and Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) – were back-to-back winners of the award.

Morehead State won its fourth-straight OVC regular season championship in 2013. Over that four-year period (2010-13) the Eagles compiled an impressive 67-3 league record.

In 2007, Eastern Kentucky's Jacob Korir won his fourth-straight Conference cross country title becoming just the third OVC student-athlete and 13th athlete nationally to accomplish that feat. Korir was a three-time All-American in cross country, earning two top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championship. The Nairobi, Kenya, native was also named a track and field All-American twice during his career, was selected as the OVC Male Athlete of the Year in 2006-07 and received the NCAA post graduate scholarship in 2008.

In 2011 the Eastern Kentucky men's cross country earned a national ranking in the USTFCCCA poll, climbing to as high as No. 17; the ranking was the highest for an OVC team since the polls began in the early 1980s. The EKU men would qualify for the NCAA Championship, becoming the first OVC team to reach the national championship meet since 1980. Eastern Kentucky finished 26th overall at the event as junior Soufiane Bouchikhi was 47th in a field of 252 runners. On the women's side Eastern Kentucky senior Lydia Kosgei became the first EKU woman to ever qualify for the NCAA Championship and went on to finish 37th at the national meet, marking the second-highest finish for a female in OVC history, and also earning All-American honors.

A year later (2012) the EKU men's cross country team was ranked as high as No. 11 nationally and finished 24th at the NCAA Championship. Wade Meddles led the team with a 38th place finish at the event while Bouchikhi was 40th. In 2013 Eastern Kentucky placed 15th at the NCAA Championship, the highest national finish for an OVC team since 1980. Soufiane Bouchikhi capped his career by winning his fourth-straight OVC Championship and earning National Runner of the Week honors during the season. Bouchikhi finished 26th at the NCAA Championship in 2013, earning All-American honors for the second-straight season. In 2014 EKU qualified for its fourth-straight NCAA Championship and finished 23rd overall.

In 2007 the Conference had two teams in the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament for the first time in league history, as former OVC member Samford earned an at-large selection while Southeast Missouri was the Conference's automatic bid.

Former Austin Peay standout and 2012 OVC Soccer Player of the Year Tatiana Ariza represented her native country of Colombia in both the 2012 Summer Olympics in London (earning a start against the United States) as well as the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup. In the 2015 event she assisted on the first World Cup goal in her country's history and in the following match helped her team to a 2-0 victory over France, giving Colombia its first-ever win at the event.

For the first time under the current format, OVC men's golfers qualified for the NCAA National Championship in back-to-back years in 2013 and 2014. Austin Peay's Dustin Korte advanced from the regional to the national championship in 2013 (finishing 116th overall) while APSU's Marco Iten won the Auburn Regional in 2014 to qualify for the National Championship (finishing 55th). In 2015 OVC three individual men's golfers competed in the NCAA Regionals (one automatic berth and two at-large berths) in addition to the Eastern Kentucky team; the three individuals were the most from the OVC to qualify in one year under the current format. The OVC also boasts two current PGA Tour professionals in Scott Stallings (Tennessee Tech) and Josh Teater (Morehead State).

In 2009 it was OVC softball that accomplished several firsts as UT Martin (tournament champion) and Jacksonville State (at-large) were each selected for the NCAA Championship. Jacksonville State would take it a step farther by winning the Knoxville Regional (beating No. 13 national seed Tennessee along the way) to become the first OVC softball program to advance to a Super Regional. Jax State would fall to No. 4 Alabama in that Super Regional but finished the season 43-16 (19-2 OVC) and ranked 21st nationally in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and 24th nationally in the USA Today/NFCA poll.

The league's baseball presence has continued to evolve since its inception. The OVC baseball tournament moved to a neutral site for the first time in 2001 with Paducah, Kentucky and Brooks Stadium hosting the tournament in front of raucous crowds. The success of the tournament led to Jackson, Tennessee and The Ballpark at Jackson (the home of the Seattle Mariner's Class AA affiliate) – hosting the event for the first time in 2010.

The OVC also has made a statement in the NCAA Baseball Championship in recent years, with its teams involved in several memorable contests in the last decade. Tennessee Tech surprised Wake Forest in the opening round of the 2001 tournament and Southeast Missouri stunned host Alabama in the opening round of the 2002 championship. Five years later, Austin Peay captured the collegiate baseball world's attention by taking Vanderbilt, the 2007 No. 1 overall seed, to extra innings. Eastern Illinois pushed host Nebraska to the limit in 2008 followed by Tennessee Tech's memorable contest against host Clemson in 2009.

After not making the OVC Tournament field in either 2009 or 2010, Austin Peay, who was picked to finish seventh in the 2011 preseason poll, won the regular season and tournament championships to garner its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. In the first game of NCAA Regional play the Govs knocked off host and No. 1 seed Georgia Tech 2-1.

In 2012 Austin Peay completed a "repeat squared" (back-to-back regular season and tournament championships) for the first-time in OVC history. The Govs would go on to top Indiana State and Cal State Fullerton at the Eugene Regional, before falling to host Oregon in the regional final. It marked the first time since the 2000 season (Middle Tennessee) that an OVC team had won multiple NCAA Tournaments games in the same season.

Austin Peay completed a "3-Peayt" by winning its third-straight OVC Tournament crown in 2013. Along the way the Govs garnered the first nationally-ranking by an OVC team since 2009 (climbing to as high as 21st nationally) and tied the OVC single-season record with 47 victories. The Govs earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Bloomington Regional, becoming the first OVC team in the current regional format (since 1999) to earn anything other than a No. 4 seed. The squad topped

Florida and Valparaiso to advance to the regional final for the second-straight season before losing to host Indiana. Govs senior closer Tyler Rogers was a big part of his team's success during the year, setting the NCAA single-season record for saves (23 – a mark that was later eclipsed during the College World Series).

In 2014, for the third-straight year, 12 OVC players were selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Of those 12 selections five came in the first 10 rounds, setting a new record for most OVC players picked in the first 10 rounds (eclipsing the old mark of three set several times). The 12 selections were once again just one off the record of 13 selections in 2010; overall the OVC has had 65 players selected over the past six years (2010-15).

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year. A year later (2009) the league had a Major League Baseball First Round Compensation Round pick (Eastern Illinois' Tyler Kehrer who was No. 48 overall) and NBA Second Round pick (UT Martin's Lester Hudson) in the same season.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 243 student-athletes honored with the award, including 51 over the last five years (2010-15).

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Retired Jersey Numbers

40

Number 40 worn by All-American tackle Kenneth Dement was retired on Nov. 11, 1989. Dement, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame, started at Southeast from 1951-54, earning All-American honors in 1953 and 1954. Following his senior season, Dement was the first Southeast player ever drafted by a NFL team. He was drafted by the New York Giants, but opted to join the Marines.

58

Number 58 worn by Ken Iman, who played 14 seasons in the NFL, was retired on Oct. 4, 1974. Iman played at Southeast from 1956-59. He was signed as a free agent by the Green Bay Packers and spent four seasons with the Packers before being traded to the Los Angeles Rams. He was the Rams Most Valuable Player in 1972. Iman spent several years as an assistant coach in the NFL and currently serves as an assistant to the President of the Philadelphia Eagles.

67

Number 67 worn by Mike Wood was retired on April 23, 1978. Wood established a new NCAA record for career field goals during his senior season in 1977. He broke the old record of 51 on Sept. 17, 1977 with a 27-yard kick against Delta State at Houck Stadium. His NCAA record total of 64 stood for several years and is still the record at Southeast. Wood, who currently resides in St. Louis, played professionally with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Diego Chargers.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

BRING YOUR BIG IDEAS.

And make them count.

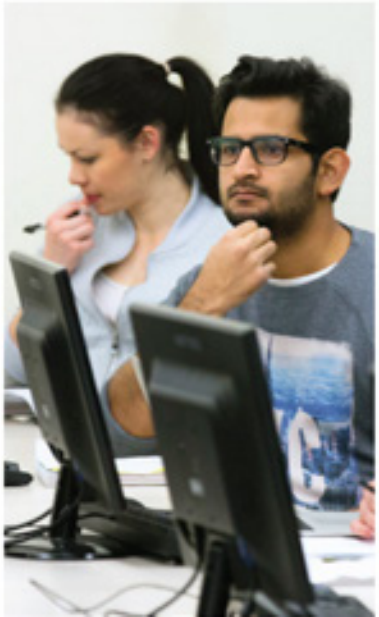

Your big ideas will be in good company here. Whatever you choose to study, chances are the program is at the head of its class. And if you're at the head of yours, you can join our honors program and elevate your learning experience even further.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI
STATE UNIVERSITY · 1873

SOUTHEAST BOASTS 20+ NATIONALLY AND INTERNATIONALLY ACCREDITED PROGRAMS, INCLUDING:

/ ATHLETIC TRAINING
/ BUSINESS
/ CHEMISTRY
/ COMPUTER SCIENCE
/ DIETETICS
/ EDUCATION
/ ENGINEERING PHYSICS
/ INTERIOR DESIGN
/ MASS COMMUNICATION
/ MUSIC
/ NURSING
/ SOCIAL WORK
/ THEATRE

GETTING INTO MEDICAL SCHOOL ISN'T EASY — WE JUST MAKE IT LOOK THAT WAY. SOUTHEAST'S PRE-MED STUDENTS ARE ACCEPTED TO medical school well above the national average.

Like our students, Southeast faculty members come from around the country, hailing from leading institutions such as:

- / Boston Conservatory of Music
- / Carnegie Mellon University
- / Harvard University
- / Pennsylvania State University
- / Purdue University
- / Texas A&M University
- / Tulane University
- / University of Florida
- / University of Michigan
- / Vanderbilt University
- / Yale University

THE DONALD L. HARRISON COLLEGE OF BUSINESS CONSISTENTLY MAKES THE PRINCETON REVIEW'S LIST OF

top business schools.

COME HERE AS A STUDENT.

And go anywhere as a teacher.

Southeast education graduates work as faculty members in school districts across the nation, and in more than 35 countries around the world.

1:21 faculty-student ratio

Full-time faculty

lead most classes, not teaching assistants — starting with freshman year.

REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE

ROLL UP YOUR SLEEVES AND GET DOWN TO BUSINESS.

Or education, public policy, communications or journalism — whatever your major, expect to learn a lot in class and even more in practice. And here, that practice happens on the latest technology and in real-world settings. You'll experiment and collaborate in just about all of your coursework. And you'll put new knowledge into action right from the start.

YOUR NEXT BIG IDEA could happen anywhere. But you'll give it legs and watch it run at Catapult Creative House, our student-run idea incubator and launchpad for innovation. Get to work in our creative labs, 3D modeling and printing gallery, and impact studio. It's where you'll turn your concepts into prototypes, your prototypes into products, and your products into sales.

THE BEST PLACE TO LEARN ABOUT U.S. POLICY is where it's actually being shaped. So you'll go to the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) in Washington, D.C., for part of our University Studies course. For four exhilarating days, you'll work directly with researchers and consultants who advise national leaders. And if you're really on top of your game, you may end up influencing the strategies you've come to study.

INTERNSHIPS

RÉSUMÉS ARE BUILT— NOT WRITTEN.

The workforce is just that: a force. And it's one you'll meet head on at Southeast Missouri State. We'll help you find internships (that's plural on purpose) and coach you through any challenges or questions that come your way.

SET OUT AND JOIN IN.

Earn your wings early. Chew your way into campus history. Share your musical gift. Meet your new brothers or sisters. Whatever you do — whether it's joining a club or carrying on a tradition — just know that you won't do it alone (except the chewing part).

SOCIAL FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

Representing the IFC, Panhellenic and NPHC Councils. Many of them call Greek Hill home. And in Fall 2016, a new Greek Village will open on campus, providing an expanded Greek community where thousands of students will make new memories of brotherhood and sisterhood.

180+ student groups

With organizations on campus from A (Adult Recess improv group) to Z (Zeta Phi Beta Sorority), there's something to meet every professional, social, recreational or religious interest. And if you can't find what you're looking for, form your own group.

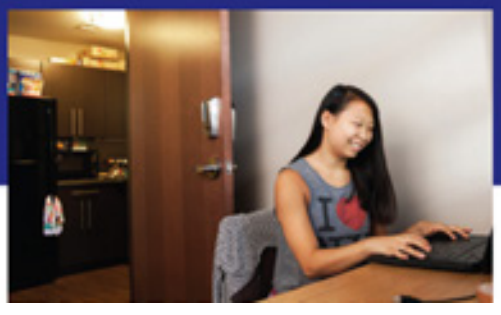

We honor our heritage by sticking to our traditions.
Some of them, quite literally. For years, students have been making the trek up Cardiac Hill (a tradition in its own right) to add their chewing gum to our infamous Gum Tree.

MAKE ART THAT INSPIRES.

And do it on a campus that's equally inspiring.

Dobbins River Campus Center

Inside this living-learning center, you can make a masterpiece, make dinner and make your bed without ever leaving the River Campus.

In addition to a residence hall, dining facilities and contemporary classrooms, the Cultural Arts Center offers professional-level theatres, costume and scene shops, music rehearsal and gallery space, and dance and art studios — each equipped to inspire ovation-worthy works of art.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

#9 Southeast Missouri 17
#1 Eastern Washington 37

December 4, 2010 • Roos Field • Attendance: 3,665

CHENEY, Wash. - Fifth-seeded Eastern Washington scored 23 unanswered points, including 20 in the second half, en route to a 37-17 win over Southeast Missouri in the second round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

EWU kicked a field goal with one second left in the first half, before breaking a 17-17 tie with 20 points in the second stanza.

"I'm proud of our guys. It was a heckuva season," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "We played a real tough first half. It's no secret that we lost the game in the second half."

Bo Levi Mitchell, a transfer out of Football Bowl Subdivision SMU, completed a go-ahead 10-yard touchdown pass to Nicholas Edwards to give the Eagles a 24-17 lead with 4:56 left in the third quarter.

After Big Sky Conference Defensive Player of the Year J.C. Sherritt stopped Henry Harris on a 4th-and-1, EWU took over on downs at the Redhawks 43-yardline.

Five plays later, Levi Mitchell hooked up with Greg Herd for a 10-yard strike to extend the Eagles lead to 31-17 with 13:40 remaining in the fourth quarter. Taiwan Jones ran the ball for 12 yards on two carries prior to the score.

The Redhawks caught a bad break on special teams when Cameron Zuber's punt went off of the foot of Sheldon McCullough. Jake Potter recovered and EWU was in business again, this time at the Southeast 39-yardline.

The turnover resulted in a 9-yard touchdown run by Mario Brown and the Eagles pulled ahead, 37-17, with 5:57 left.

Southeast's miscue was the first of four turnovers in the final nine minutes.

Matt Scheible was picked off twice and Josh Coleman fumbled on a punt return, but none of those mishaps led to any points.

EWU and Southeast exchanged field goals before heading into the locker room deadlocked at 17-17.

Drew Geldbach connected from 34 yards out with 43 seconds remaining and Mike Jarrett split the uprights from 39 yards away with one second on the clock.

Levi Mitchell completed 21-of-34 passes for 178 yards and two touchdowns and Jones rushed for 168 yards and two TDs on 25 carries to lead EWU. Jones also averaged 6.7 yards per carry on the day.

Defensively, the Eagles held Southeast to only 12 rushing yards and 26 yards of total offense in the second half. Sherritt registered 10 tackles.

Harris gained 108 yards and scored one touchdown on 20 attempts. It marked the 10th time Harris ran for over 100 yards in 12 starts this season.

Scheible completed 6-of-15 passes for 69 yards and ran for 54 yards on 14 carries.

Jackson posted a career-high 15 tackles and Justin Woodlief followed with 13 to lead the Redhawk defense.

Southeast finished with 268 total yards, including 199 on the ground. The Redhawks also had a season-high nine penalties for 106 yards.

The Redhawks ended their historic season at 9-3 overall.
