Southeast Missouri State University accepts the sanctions announced by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) in its investigation into the Southeast women's basketball program during the 2013-14 academic year.

Summary of the violations:

(1) A former assistant women's basketball coach had multiple impermissible in-person, off-campus contacts and communications with two prospective women's basketball student-athletes, who were twin sisters, and their family.

(2) The former assistant coach also provided the recruits and their family with at least $178 in school apparel and accessories at no cost.

(3) Further, the former assistant coach provided one of the recruits impermissible transportation and a meal.

A full list of penalties and corrective measures include:

- Public reprimand and censure for the university.
- One year of probation for the university from Feb. 12, 2016, through Feb. 11, 2017. • A two-year show-cause order for the former assistant coach from Feb. 12, 2016, through Feb. 11, 2018. If he seeks employment at an NCAA member school, he must be restricted from all recruiting activity.
- A reduction in the number of days the women's basketball coaches were allowed to recruit from 112 days to 74 in 2014-15. (Self-imposed by the university.)
- A reduction in the number of days the women's basketball coaches can recruit from 112 days to 91 in 2015-16.
- A limit of eight official visits during 2015-16.
- A $5,000 fine.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Credentials
Credentials are required for entrance to the press box or access to the field (for photographers). To request season or single-game credentials, please contact the Southeast Missouri Sports Information Office by phone at (573) 651-2933 or email at jhonza@semo.edu. Credentials can be picked up at the ticket booth on the south side of Missouri National Guard Field/ Houck Stadium.

Photographers
Please observe NCAA regulations and shoot from the designated areas. Photographers are not permitted to stand between the 25-yardlines and must display their credentials at all times.

Gameday Parking
There is no media parking at Houck Stadium. Radio and television affiliates should contact the Southeast Missouri Sports Information Office for unloading information.

Postgame Procedure
The Southeast Missouri sports information staff will make requested student-athletes available to the media at the conclusion of each game. Coach Matukewicz's first postgame responsibility after meeting with the team is his live radio show. Matukewicz and selected student-athletes will address the media in the Houck Field House conference room. For interviews with opposing coaches and players, please make arrangements with the visiting sports information director before the end of the game.

Football Email List
If you would like to be added to the Redhawk football email list to receive breaking news about the team, please email Jeff Honza. The official website, GoSoutheast.com, is the best source for up-to-date information about the team.

Interview Policies
Student-athletes and coaches are available after practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during the season. Please let the sports information office know if you plan to attend practice.

Press Box
Press facilities are in the Houck Stadium press box located on the top of the south side of the stadium. The press box is a two-level facility, so please use caution when walking up and down the stairs.

Gameday Information
Game notes, rosters, statistics and other information is available for the media in the Houck Stadium press box on gamedays. Weekly releases will be published online at GoSoutheast.com as early as Monday during game weeks.

LISTEN LIVE

Redhawks on TV

Southeast Missouri's football game at Murray State (Sept. 24) was selected as part of the Ohio Valley Conference's "Game of the Week" package. The OVC's eight-game football "Game of the Week" package will be carried exclusively on ESPN3 this fall. There are four other "Wildcard" selections which will be announced roughly 12 days before the contest. Those games will be played on Oct. 29, Nov. 5, Nov. 12 and Nov. 19. This year marks the fourth-straight season the league has produced the "Game of the Week" package in conjunction with WebStream Sports. Kevin Ingram will handle play-by-play duties and Bob Belvin will provide analysis. The Redhawks season-opener at Memphis (Sept. 3) will also air live on ESPN3 this year.

Radio Show

Southeast's football radio show will be on Tuesdays at Wings Etc. with selected shows at both the Cape Girardeau (3047 William St.) and Jackson (2003 E. Jackson Blvd.) locations this season. The radio show airs live from Noon-1 p.m., CT, on ESPN 92.9 FM and ESPN 1220 AM each week.

Television Show

"Redhawks Football with Tom Maukewicz" will be televised Monday nights at 10:30 p.m., CT, on the Heartland CW (WQWQ-TV) and Charter Cable Channel 12. It also airs on Cable Channel 11 and simulcast on digital channel 89 on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays at the following times: 8:30 a.m., 8 p.m. and midnight. The show is hosted by KFVS Sports Director Todd Richards.

OVC Digital Network

The 2016-17 season marks the fifth year for the OVC Digital Network which provides live games free on any device. Fans can watch Southeast Missouri's home and away OVC matchups free of charge online at OVCDigitalNetwork.com. The OVC Digital Network is the exclusive home for live web streamed athletic contests involving OVC schools.

OVC Digital Network on Roku Streaming Player

The Ohio Valley Conference has launched an OVC Digital Network channel via the Roku Streaming Player. Roku is a series of digital media player set-top boxes manufactured by Roku, Inc. Roku partners provide over-the-top content in the form of channels via a wired or Wi-Fi connection. In 2014, Roku streamed over 3 billion hours of content, up 72% from the prior year, and ended the year with about 7 million monthly active accounts. Roku currently offers a variety of streaming set-top boxes, streaming sticks and a co-branded Roku smart television. Roku users who download the free OVC Digital Network channel will be able watch all the OVC's live and on-demand content on their televisions free of charge with ease. The OVCDN is a partnership with SIDEARM Sports, which also hosts OVCSports.com.

HOUCK STADIUM

Houck Stadium will serve as the home of Southeast Missouri State University football for the 86th consecutive year in 2016.

Most recently, renovations were made to the press box before the 2015 season. Renovations included a new sound system, filming station and carpet among other things to enhance the overall interior and exterior look.

Prior to the 2011 season, Houck Stadium received a huge makeover, as a new FieldTurf playing surface, state-of-the-art Daktronics video scoreboard and new lighting (which meets television standards) was installed. The facility was also re-painted, giving the longtime home to Redhawk Football a flashy look. Southeast squared off against regional-rival and then-No. 17 Southern Illinois in the first game on the new surface. The Redhawks and Salukis played in front of a sellout crowd of 10,136 on Sept. 3, 2011.

In 2010, a school record average 8,342 fans turned out to watch Southeast at home. That mark was an improvement from the Redhawks average home attendance of 5,835 in 2009. Southeast also had two crowds over Houck Stadium capacity.

Houck Stadium was built in 1930 at a cost of $150,000 and remains a beautiful and picturesque stadium today.

The dedication game pitted Southeast and Southern Illinois from nearby Carbondale, Ill., on Oct. 3, 1930. That game attracted a crowd of over 6,000, with SIU claiming a 12-6 victory. The referee of the inaugural game was James T. Blair, who served as the Governor of Missouri from 1957-61.

Houck Stadium was constructed on the site of an old rock quarry and was purchased in 1925 for $11,000 at the recommendation of then-college President Joseph A. Serena.

Ten thousand bags of Portland Cement, 23,000 feet of Oregon Fir seat lumber and 150,000 feet of Yellow Pine Form lumber were used in the construction, according to an ad in the Houck Stadium dedication program. The original stadium included 5,240 seats on the south side of the field.

The field and stadium were named in honor of Louis Houck, who served 39 years as a Regent for the University and President of the Board for all but three of those years.

Seating on the north side of the stadium was added prior to the 1963 season. The press box was later constructed on the south side in 1979. Approximately 400 chairback seats were added to a center section on the south side of the stadium in 1992.

In 2000, the first FieldTurf playing field was installed and the exterior of the facility was resurfaced. Improvements were also made to the press box.

More upgrades took place in the fall of 2005. Those included a paved parking area adjacent to the east end zone and new parking and landscaping areas surrounding the outside of the stadium.

A state-of-the-art dormitory was built on the west end of the facility in recent years. The ground floor of that building houses a locker room and athletic training facility which the football team uses on gamedays.

Nine of the largest single-game crowds at Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium have come in the last 14 years.

During Southeast's Ohio Valley Conference championship season in 2010, a school record 11,126 fans packed Missouri National Guard Field at Houck Stadium to watch the Redhawks defeat UT Martin on Oct. 30. Southeast also drew a crowd of 10,316 vs. Tennessee State on Oct. 9 for the fourth-largest single-game home attendance.

In addition, the Redhawks had over 10,000 fans for the Western Kentucky (10,222) and Murray State (10,028) games in 2000, the Murray State (10,100) game in 2001 and the Southern Illinois matchups in 2005 (10,100) and 2011 (10,136).

Largest Houck Stadium Crowds

Opponent	Date	Attendance
UT Martin	10/30/10	11,126
Southern Illinois	9/6/03	11,100
Eastern Kentucky	10/2/99	11,015
Tennessee State	10/9/10	10,316
Western Kentucky	9/23/00	10,222
Southern Illinois	9/3/11	10,136
Southern Illinois	9/1/05	10,100
Murray State	10/20/01	10,100
Murray State	10/21/00	10,028
Murray State	9/1/79	10,000

ROSENGARTEN COMPLEX

The Rosengarten Athletic Complex houses Southeast Missouri's primary football locker room, athletic training room, equipment room, coaches offices and meeting workspace.

This facility was renovated prior to the 2011 season. Upgrades included new flooring, wooden lockers, chairback seating/ furniture, meeting room partitions, additional lighting and shower areas.

Most recently, brand new graphics and a film tower were added to the Rosengarten Athletic Complex.

A total of 115 custom-designed, wooden lockers give Southeast's football players the space, comfort and functionality they need. A lounge fully equipped with leather furniture, flatscreen televisions and computer stations serves as a nice place for the Redhawks to unwind after practice. Players also gather for meetings and film study sessions in their team meeting room, furnished with theatre-style seating and the latest video equipment.

The Rosengarten Athletic Complex also has two outdoor natural grass practice fields which Southeast uses for gameday preparation, camps and other activities.

Southeast's improvements to Houck Stadium and the Rosengarten Complex are another part of the Department of Athletics' collective effort to provide the very best facilities.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The Holcomb Success Center offers Southeast Missouri student-athletes a place to study and develop as students and campus leaders.

It is located in the Student Recreation Center, just south of Houck Stadium. The Holcomb Success Center offers a computer lab with 18 work terminals, study areas and rooms for group meetings. The facility houses the Southeast Academic Services staff and main weight room for Redhawk student-athletes.

The beautiful facility has enhanced the outstanding work in the classroom already enjoyed by Southeast student-athletes.

Last year, the Redhawks combined for a 3.10 cumulative grade point average in the fall and spring semesters. Sixty percent of all student-athletes recorded a 3.0 or higher GPA. Nine of Southeast's 15 intercollegiate athletic teams recorded a team GPA over 3.0. Additionally, Southeast student-athletes logged over 4,000 hours of community service during the 2015-16 academic year.

Tutors are available for all student-athletes as needed. In addition, both attendance and academic progress is monitored through regular checks with faculty.

A special course is required for all first time student-athletes at Southeast. The course, which offers three credit hours, is part of a comprehensive program developed to address study skills and life skills topics, and thus, enhance retention and academic success for student-athletes.

Entering student-athletes are evaluated for academic preparedness and assigned to appropriate categories. Student-athletes can also receive individualized academic programs which include meeting with a mentor bi-weekly to discuss academic progress.

The Holcomb Success Center staff works to get athletes involved in campus and community projects, as well. This is done to provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success. Through the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, the Holcomb Success Center gives student-athletes personal and professional skills in order to facilitate successful and productive futures.

2015-16 Notables

- Southeast Missouri's Department of Athletics recorded a cumulative 3.10 GPA during the 2015-16 academic year. Nine of Southeast's athletic teams achieved a GPA above 3.0. Those teams included baseball, women's basketball, women's cross country, gymnastics, soccer, softball, women's tennis, women's track & field and volleyball.
- In all, 197 individuals accumulated a 3.0 or higher GPA during the 2015-16 academic year, accounting for 60 percent of the student-athlete population.
- Fifty-eight student-athletes received their degrees.
- Southeast's women's cross country, gymnastics and volleyball teams were recognized for their outstanding perfromance in the classroom. The three programs were among 1,000 Division I sports teams to earn NCAA Public Recognition Awards for posting APR scores in the top 10 percent of their sport.
- Southeast finished fifth in the 2015-16 Ohio Valley Conference Commissoner's Cup, moving up two spots from a seventh-place finish the year before. The Redhawks won the OVC men's outdoor track & field title and both the league's regular-season and tournament crowns in baseball.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI'S FOOTBALL TEAM FINISHED THIRD IN THE OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE IN SINGLE-YEAR APR FOR THE 2014-15 ACADEMIC YEAR.

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

Student-athletes and coaches at Southeast Missouri are dedicated to giving back to the community that so generously supports them.

Redhawk football student-athletes have opportunities to participate in a variety of community service activities each year. Community involvement helps provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success.

We are proud of the level of commitment shown by our student-athletes and always encourage them to participate in community service projects here at Southeast.

Southeast student-athletes also have the opportunity to participate in the Redhawks BRIDGE Program. The mission of the Redhawks BRIDGE Program is to develop a comprehensive student-athlete development program by Building Responsible Individuals and Delivering Gainful Experiences. This program provides student-athletes with both leadership and life skills experiences through interactive programming that will prepare them to be successful in life after athletics. The leadership programming will teach student-athletes about Southeast's culture and allow them to learn, develop, and apply leadership skills. The life skills programming provides educational programs designed to assist student-athletes in identifying and applying transferable skills and experiences to prepare them to succeed outside of the athletic arena.

COMPETITIVE SUCCESS

Southeast Missouri's Strength and Conditioning program is committed to developing the total student-athlete through their experiences within a competitive training environment.

Southeast's weight room renovations at Student Recreation Center-South (located in the Holcomb Success Center) were completed in January, 2016.

Indoor turf, weights, equipment and lifting platforms were added as part of the renovation, which cost $500,000. The facility now has more space and equipment to handle Southeast's larger teams or multiple teams training at the same time. Branding and new lighting were also included in the overall project.

The newly-renovated weight room enhances training with the best equipment available and is able to accomodate larger teams or multiple teams training at the same time.

Training Principles for Southeast Athletes

1. Reduce the risk of injuries
   - If a student-athlete is injured, he/she will not be able to compete at practice or games.
2. Ensure the athletes are optimally prepared to compete
   - It is our responsibility to best manage all stressors that are placed on the student-athletes body in order to achieve the best results on the playing field.
3. Maximize athletic ability
   - We challenge each athlete, both physically and mentally, in order to achieve optimal results.

Exercises for Southeast Athletes are based on the following Principles:

1. Ground Based Movements
   - Athletes compete with their feet on the ground, and therefore, should train that way. The ability to produce force against the ground determines how fast athletes can run and how high they can jump.
2. Three-Dimensional Movements
   - Athletes must be able to stabalize themselves in all planes of movement. A fancy way of saying we use free weights (barbells/dumbbells vs. machines).
3. Multi-Joint Movements
   - Very rarely in sport do athletes isolate one single joint at a time. Athletes can train more muscle mass at the same time.

SPORTS MEDICINE

Prevention. Treatment. Rehabilitation. Education. Those are the four primary phases of athletic training, and the Southeast Missouri athletic training staff strives to fulfill all of those areas when working with student-athletes on a daily basis.

Southeast student-athletes are offered the best care possible by the athletic training staff. The Sports Medicine department includes five full-time athletic trainers, six graduate assistants and several student assistants. The staff serves student-athletes around-the-clock at numerous facilities on campus.

The athletic trainers begin treatments and rehabilitation starting as early as 6 a.m., and are available until the last student-athlete is through.

There are currently four athletic training facilities on campus. The staff treats out of the Rosengarten Athletic Complex, where the primary training room is located. There are two other satellite athletic training rooms, including one at Houck Field House and one at the Show Me Center.

The Southeast athletic training rooms are equipped with stationary bikes, hand weights, therapeutic modalities and the latest physical therapy equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athlete the best care, but also to aid in returning to competition as quickly as possible.

Southeast Athletic Training has strong working relationships with local physicians and two hospitals in Cape Girardeau. It is from these hospitals that the Athletic Training department is assisted by four orthopedic physicians.

The Southeast Athletic Training program prides and commits itself to providing the best comprehensive, personalized and efficient healthcare to its student-athletes. Delivery of healthcare focuses on the prevention and management of athletic-related injuries or illnesses, while adhering to the National Athletic Trainers' Board of Certification Standards of Professional Practice. Our high quality of athletic healthcare is provided in combination with the education of athletic training students.

PINK UP GAME

Southeast Missouri State University and Saint Francis Medical Center announced a new collaboration on August 12, 2015, taking the Redhawks' Pink Up efforts to a new level.

Led by head coach Tom Matukewicz, the Southeast football team introduced the Pink Up Jersey Auction. Pink jerseys will be worn during the Redhawks Pink Up game on October 29 against Austin Peay. Winners will personalize their winning jerseys with a name in honor or memory of a survivor or loved one, if desired. Following the game, these game-worn jerseys will be presented to the winning bidders. Winners also receive two game tickets and an invitation to a pre-game tailgate party -- all in honor of Pink Up.

"We are thrilled to team up with Saint Francis Medical Center to help make a difference in this community," said Matukewicz. "East year, we hope this effort raises awareness and money to fight this terrible disease. This is a life changing experience for our players, who have the opportunity to meet families that have lost loved ones to cancer."

Saint Francis launched Pink Up in 2010 to raise awareness of breast cancer in the community. During the campaign, residents are encouraged to "pink up" their homes and businesses in support of the cause. Pink Up proceeds provide free mammograms to area women who otherwise could not afford them.

Pink Up provides more than 400 free mammograms to local women each year, and has provided more than 2,600 free mammograms since 2000.

Breast cancer is the second-most diagnosed – and second-most fatal – cancer in women. One in eight women will be diagnosed with the disease in her lifetime, but early detection could save her life. Women age 40 and older should have a yearly screening and the Pink Up attempts to remove financial barriers for those who need the screening but cannot afford it.

Southeast's football program raised over $20,000 for breast cancer awareness through its first Pink Up Jersey Auction in 2015.

DAN CONNOLLY

REDHAWKS IN THE NFL

Although Southeast Missouri does not have any players currently active on NFL rosters, there have been several former Redhawks who had success in the professional ranks.

Dan Connolly announced his retirement on July 16, 2015 following eight seasons with the New England Patriots. Connolly played left guard, center and right guard during his time in New England. He was a team captain his final year, playing in 13 regular-season games and starting Super Bowl XLIX at left guard.

Health concerns convinced Connolly to leave the game, as he was diagnosed with four concussions during his NFL career and suffered a fifth in high school.

Connolly won his first Super Bowl ring when the Patriots beat the Seattle Seahawks, 28-24, in Super Bowl XLIX. It was the second Super Bowl Connolly played in during his career as a Patriot.

On Feb. 5, 2012, Connolly became the first Southeast player to play in a Super Bowl when he suited up for Super Bowl XLVI against the New York Giants.

Prior to that Super Bowl, Connolly and Southeast alum Edgar Jones met in the AFC Championship Game. Jones, who began that season with the Washington Redskins, was a member of the Baltimore Ravens at the time. Jones was initially signed by the Ravens as an undrafted free agent in 2007 and released on Oct. 22, 2010, before returning to Baltimore. He spent the 2013 season with the Dallas Cowboys and later finished out his pro career with the Cleveland Browns.

Eugene Amano had a nine-year playing career with the Tennessee Titans.

Meanwhile, former Southeast assistant coach Jon Gruden rose to the top of professional football in 2003 when he guided the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a Super Bowl title. Gruden was also head coach of the Oakland Raiders and is now an ESPN analyst who serves as a color commentator for Monday Night Football. Gruden coached at Southeast in 1988.

Marty Mornhinweg, another Southeast assistant, is presently in his second year as quarterbacks coach with the Baltimore Ravens. Before that, Mornhinweg was the offensive coordinator for the New York Jets. He has been in the NFL over 20 years. Prior to New York, Mornhinweg was the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles and head coach of the Detroit Lions in 2001-02. He also served in different coaching capacities with the Green Bay (1995-96) Packers and San Francisco 49ers (1997-2000). Five quarterbacks, including Michael Vick, Donovan McNabb, Brett Favre, Steve Young and Jeff Garcia have earned Pro Bowl honors under Mornhinweg.

Most recently, former Southeast defensive lineman Jon Robinson was hired as general manager of the Tennessee Titans. Robinson spent two years as Director of Player Personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and 12 seasons with the New England Patriots prior to his new position.

PRESIDENT CARLOS VARGAS

Dr. Carlos Vargas became the 18th president of Southeast Missouri State University July 1, 2015, after having served as acting president at Kutztown University of Pennsylvania.

During his first year in the presidency, Dr. Vargas' priority has been to listen and learn by visiting with all the University's constituencies, whether on campus, in the community, region, state, or throughout the United States and in foreign countries where Southeast alumni are located. Based on what he learned, President Vargas launched initiatives to marshal the resources, to leverage opportunities, and to address a variety of challenges and needs of Southeast Missouri State University.

President Vargas encouraged and supported the identification and development of innovative academic programs, including a new Unmanned Aircraft Systems program, a Geographic Information Science program, and a proposed engineering program presented to the Missouri Coordinating Board for Higher Education. He has continued to support the globalization of the campus through expansion of study-abroad experiences, extensive engagement of international students, and encouraging students on campus and abroad to explore cultural interaction. He championed the work of the President's Task Force on Diversity Education, and continued emphasizing the expectations for enhancement of the teacher-scholar model. Under President Vargas' leadership, regional partnerships and collaborations were solidified, including several joint initiatives with Three Rivers and Mineral Area Colleges.

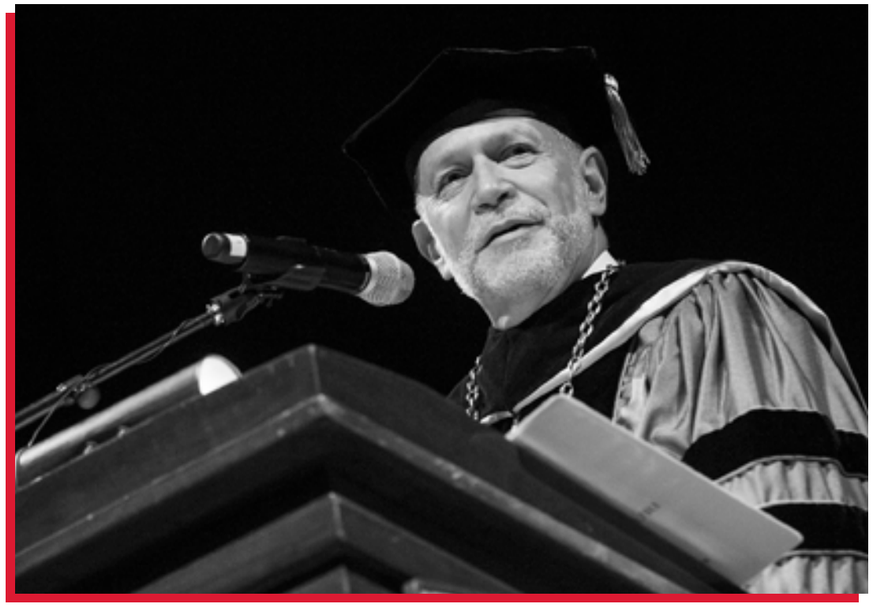

Prior to assuming the presidency at Southeast, Dr. Vargas served one year as acting president of Kutztown University. He served as the provost and vice president for academic and student affairs, and had been the school's chief academic officer since 2006.

Prior to his tenure at Kutztown, Dr. Vargas was at Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio, where he served as provost and vice president for academic affairs. He previously served in several roles at Kent State University (Ohio) for a total of 18 years, including founding director of the program on electron beam technology. He was also Kent's associate dean for research, interim assistant dean for research, and he served as interim assistant dean for the School of Technology. He started his tenure at Kent State in 1985 as a professor, and continued to teach until his departure from the university.

Dr. Vargas began his career in higher-education at the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM), from which he received a Bachelor of Science degree in physics. His initial appointment was as a senior associate researcher for the Institute of Geophysics, and he later held a similar position for the University's Institute of Physics.

He earned his Ph.D. in physics and aerospace science from the University of Michigan and he has Master of Science degrees from Michigan in both physics and aerospace science. He is married to Pam Vargas, who currently serves as director of Research and Grant Development at Southeast, and they have a son, a daughter, and one granddaughter.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR BRADY BARKE

Brady Barke, who had been serving as the Interim Director of Athletics since July, 2015, was named to the permanent position of Director of Athletics at Southeast Missouri State University on June 7, 2016.

Barke was among three finalists and more than 50 applicants for the position following a national search conducted by a search committee including representatives from the faculty, staff, students and the community.

Barke, senior associate to the president and secretary to the Board of Regents at Southeast, officially began his new role July 1.

"Brady brings with him a tremendous commitment to and knowledge of Southeast Missouri State University, along with the caliber of credentials to move our program forward and into the future," said Dr. Carlos Vargas, president of Southeast Missouri State University. "We believe his experience from the vantage point of both athletics and administration can help our athletics program move to the next level."

"I am extremely honored to have this opportunity to work alongside a great group of coaches and staff, talented student athletes, dedicated Athletics supporters, and a great University community," Barke said. "I believe I bring some unique strengths to this position, and I look forward to working with the University community to promote our programs and build upon our success."

While serving as Interim Athletics Director over the past year, Barke has spearheaded the renovation of the athletic weight room and developed plans to upgrade its academic space. He also has worked with University and Cape Girardeau City officials on an agreement for the installation of turf and renovations to Capaha Field.

Barke served as Interim Associate Director of Athletics for Compliance & Student Support Services before being named the Senior Associate to the President and Secretary to the Southeast Missouri State University Board of Regents in 2013.

He began his tenure at Southeast in 2008 as Assistant Director of Athletics for Compliance & Eligibility. Barke previously served as a governance intern with the NCAA national headquarters in Indianapolis, and as a law clerk with the Southern Illinois University-Carbondale Department of Athletics Compliance Office.

Barke has served as a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance (NAAC), chaired the NAAC Education Committee, and was a member of the NAAC Board of Directors. He has facilitated the NCAA Regional Leadership Academy, and served on both the NCAA Sports Wagering Task Force and the Olympic Sports Liaison Committee.

Barke has a juris doctorate degree from Southern Illinois University School of Law, an MBA from Southeast Missouri State University, and a bachelor of science degree in biology from Webster University. While a student at Webster, Barke was a member of both the basketball and golf teams and was inducted into the Webster Athletic Hall of Fame earlier this year.

He and his wife, Halley, are parents of three children, Mabrie, Jackson, and Kolbe.

REDHAWKS

COMING IN 2016

The Southeast Missouri football team will take the field in new uniforms in 2016.

Southeast's fresh Nike uniform sets consist of black jerseys and pants for home games and white jerseys and pants for away contests. The home jerseys include red numbers and trim around the shoulders, while the away jerseys feature black numbers trimmed in red, and black around the shoulders. On the front, all jerseys will continue to have Southeast embroidered above the number and the Redhawk logo at the V of the neck.

Southeast will keep its same helmets which are flat black with a red and white stripe down the center and Redhawk logos on the sides.

SEASON PREVIEW

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

SEASON OUTLOOK

Southeast Missouri has the pieces in place to turn the corner during its third year under head coach Tom Matukewicz in 2016.

Southeast returns a total of 17 starters and enters the season with 24 seniors, its largest senior class in four years. The Redhawks bring back eight starters on offense, seven on defense and their starting kicker and punter on special teams.

The Redhawks went 4-7 overall and finished fifth in the Ohio Valley Conference with a 3-4 mark in 2015.

Four of Southeast's losses were by a combined 14 points as the Redhawks ranked among the top three league teams in rushing offense (2nd, 182.9 ypg), kickoff returns (2nd, 20.6 ypr), punt return average (3rd, 9.6 ypr), kickoff coverage (2nd, 40.6 net avg), sacks (2nd, 31), fourth-down conversions (2nd, 60 pct) and turnover margin (1st, +10).

Southeast also has six returning All-Ohio Valley Conference performers, including quarterback Dante Vandeven (Freshman of the Year, All-Newcomer), running back Tremane McCullough (First-Team, All-Newcomer), guard Garret Baker (Second-Team), inside linebacker Roper Garrett (Second-Team), cornerback Mike Ford (Second-Team) and punter Alex Knight. Knight garnered a spot on both the Football Gameplan and Lindy's Sports All-America teams this preseason.

When you look at this year's team, Southeast has the makings for a strong season and all arrows point to progress, which Matukewicz expects to be out front in the third season of his rebuild.

"When I look back at the programs I've been a part of turning around in my career, year three or four was the time you'd start seeing signs of progress," said Matukewicz. "We have a good football team and have a lot of experience coming back. Consistency is going to be a big thing we attack this season. We've proven we can beat some pretty good teams, but haven't been able to sustain it."

Here is an extensive look at the 2016 Redhawks:

Quarterback

Local product Dante Vandeven is projected to again lead the offense after a gigantic rookie season which culminated in OVC Freshman of the Year and All-Newcomer honors.

Vandeven started the 2015 campaign at No. 3 on the depth chart and took over as Southeast's starting quarterback in the second half at nationally-ranked Indiana State.

He completed 155-of-250 passes for 1,568 yards and 11 touchdowns, and rushed for 292 yards and another six TDs in eight starts. Vandeven ranked 26th in the Football Championship Subdivision in completion percentage (62 pct) and became the Redhawks first true freshman quarterback to throw for over 1,000 yards in a season since 1999.

Junior transfer Jesse Hosket will push Vandeven for the starting role.

Hosket, who had a nice spring after enrolling at Southeast in January, joins the Redhawks from East Central Community College.

He threw for 1,504 yards and 16 touchdowns, while completing 61.3 percent (117-of-191) of his passes as East Central CC's starting quarterback last season. Hosket ranked fifth in the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges in passing and led the Warriors to a No. 10 ranking in the final National Junior College Athletic Association Poll.

VANDEVEN

Sophomore Anthony Cooper and freshman Colby Cornett are Southeast's other signal callers.

Running Back

Tremane McCullough stormed onto the scene in his debut at Southeast a year ago.

A First-Team All-OVC and All-Newcomer selection, McCullough ran for 1,028 yards and five touchdowns on 170 carries, averaging six yards per touch.

McCullough, who garnered Preseason All-OVC accolades, led the conference with six 100-yard rushing games and ranked second in rushing yards per contest (93.5). McCullough also rated 19th in the FCS in rushing yards per carry (6.1) and 24th in all-purpose yardage (134.2 ypg).

If McCullough gets 1,000 yards this year, he will become the first Southeast player to run for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons since Kelvin Anderson (1,016 yds in 1993; 1,005 yds in 1994).

McCullough also saw action at slotback in the spring and will continue to play both spots this fall.

Will Young showed a lot of promise in the spring and is in the mix at tailback.

Young played in five contests and had five carries for 20 yards and a touchdown after transferring to Southeast from Highland Community College a year ago.

Cameron Sanders and Brendan Stewart are next on the preseason depth chart at running back.

Sanders moved to running back from safety. He participated in nine games as a true freshman. Sanders also saw significant playing time on special teams where he returned a kickoff for a school record 99-yard touchdown.

Meanwhile, Stewart appeared in all 11 games and rushed for 83 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 26 attempts.

Missouri transfer Chase Abbington is the latest addition to the backfield.

Abbington played in 10 games and gained 39 yards on six carries for the Tigers last season. He was a four-star recruit out of Fort Zumwalt South High School and played at Hutchinson Community College before heading to Mizzou.

Receivers

Paul McRoberts, one of the best wide receivers in the FCS, departs after a remarkable four-year career at Southeast.

A three-year starter, two-time First-Team All-OVC pick and the program's first player ever invited to the Senior Bowl, McRoberts signed a free agent contract with the Los Angeles Rams following his time with the Redhawks. Although McRoberts' exit leaves a big hole to fill, there are a number of playmakers ready to step up.

Seniors Darrius Darden-Box and Tyler Manne, and Kristian Wilkerson will look to pave the way for the receiving corps.

Darden-Box played in every game and tallied two starts last season. He made 19 receptions for 137 yards and a touchdown as Southeast's fourth-leading receiver. Darden-Box added 191 all-purpose yards and returned his only blocked punt for a touchdown.

Manne had just one catch, but saw action in all 11 games as a return man and holder on special teams. He returned six punts for 14 yards.

Wilkerson, who redshirted as a true freshman, is Southeast's biggest receiver with a 6'3", 217-pound frame.

Adrian Davis, Tyler McLemore, Richie Eisenhart and Ryyan Wilkins are more possibilities.

Davis recovered from an ACL injury that limited him to five starts a year ago. He caught 11 passes for 89 yards and averaged over eight yards (8.1) per reception before his injury.

Last season, McLemore logged the most starts of any receiver returning to this year's team.

He started six of the 10 games he played, hauling in seven catches for 76 yards and a touchdown.

Eisenhart participated in three contests and Wilkins redshirted as a freshman.

Tremane McCullough and Jacquan Fuller are listed at slotback.

In addition to leading Southeast in rushing, McCullough ranked second on the team with 33 catches for 279 yards last season.

Fuller redshirted as a true freshman in 2015.

Tight End/Fullback

Junior Stephen Dunn and sophomore Marquette Murdock will battle for starting duties at tight end.

Dunn finished with one catch for 20 yards in 11 games and two starts last season, while Murdock had two catches for 25 yards in nine contests as a true freshman.

Logan Larson, Southeast's starting tight end in 2015, is the frontrunner at fullback. Larson posted six receptions for 65 yards in eight starts.

Zach Cox, Bud Hilburn, Broedy Wheeler and Lloyd Laufili Time join Larson at fullback.

Cox played in 11 games, mainly on special teams and Hilburn moves to fullback after redshirting as a freshman linebacker. Wheeler appeared in four contests.

MCCULLOUGH

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

Laufili Time, like Hilburn, also shifts to fullback after recording 19 tackles and two sacks at linebacker a year ago.

Offensive Line

Southeast returns four of its five starters on the offensive line under first-year assistant coach Ben Blake.

Blake takes over as the Redhawks offensive line coach after spending the last two seasons at the University of Sioux Falls.

Second-Team All-OVC pick and preseason all-conference selection Garret Baker and Michael Cooke are at the guard spots, Jake McCandless returns at center and Alex Snyder is back at right tackle.

Baker (22), Cooke (11), McCandless (33) and Snyder (11) have combined for 77 starts up front. McCandless and Baker started 33 and 16 consecutive games, respectively. McCandless is also a four-year starter and Baker begins his third season starting on the offensive line.

Sophomore Drew Forbes is expected to fill the other starting spot at left tackle. Forbes played in every game as a true freshman last season.

Gabe Phillips, Lawton Kietzman and Mitch Yant back up Snyder and Forbes at tackle.

Phillips saw action in two games, while Kietzman was primarily a tight end. Yant redshirted as a freshman.

Billy Dasher and Logan Misner add to the depth at center, and Giovanni Negron and Drew Swihart are behind Baker and Cooke at guard.

Dasher participated in three games, Negron played in one contest and Swihart redshirted as a freshman in 2015.

The Redhawk defense improved in many areas over the course of the 2015 season.

With the return of seven starters, a pair of returning All-OVC selections and three Preseason All-OVC honorees, Southeast looks for even bigger things on the defensive side of the football this year.

The Redhawks most noticeable jump was in turnover margin, where they led the OVC and ranked 11th in the nation with a +10 mark. Southeast forced a turnover in nine of 11 games, recovering 10 fumbles and notching 11 interceptions along the way. The Redhawks, who were last in the league in that category the year before, led the conference in turnover margin for the first time since 2010 (+13).

Southeast was also atop the OVC and ranked 15th in the FCS with 2.8 sacks per game. The Redhawks collected a total of 31 sacks for their third-highest single-season total behind the 1994 (38 sacks) and 1997 (33 sacks) teams.

Individually, linebacker Roper Garrett and cornerback Mike Ford each claimed Second-Team All-OVC laurels in 2015. Both Garrett and Ford, along with strong safety Eriq Moore landed on this year's Preseason All-OVC team.

Nose Tackle

Senior Marlon Hampton and junior Joshua Wilson have the most experience at the position.

Hampton played in 11 games and started each of the last six weeks of the 2015 campaign. He accumulated 31 tackles, 11 solo stops, two tackles for loss and three pass breakups. Hampton started a total of 15 games over the last two seasons, most of the Redhawk nose tackles.

Wilson turned in 13 tackles in seven games and five starts last year. He missed the other four contests with a knee injury, but returned in the spring.

Anthony Cheatum and Ryan Ochoa are other candidates.

Cheatum saw limited action, playing in four games and Ochoa redshirted during the 2015 campaign.

Defensive Tackle

Southeast will have a new look at defensive tackle following the departure of three-year starter Jon Slania.

Juniors Fletcher Evans and Fernando Whigham, along with redshirt-freshman Jermell Massey are vying for that spot.

Evans has the most experience of the group, having played in three contests a year ago.

Neither Whigham or Massey saw game action.

Defensive End

Seniors John Popovich and Travis Sanders are back at defensive end.

Popovich led the Redhawks with five sacks and contributed 6.5 tackles for loss in 11 games and eight starts last season. He also added 20 tackles, blocked a kick and ranked second on the team with five quarterback hurries. Popovich finished eighth in the OVC in sacks.

Sanders rejoined the Redhawks in the spring. He started two games at defensive end before suffering a season-ending knee injury vs. Southern Illinois (Sept. 12). Sanders had eight tackles and six solo stops at the time of his injury and was granted a medical hardship.

MOORE

GARRETT

Ryan Truvillion could see time there, as well. Truvillion redshirted as a true freshman in 2015.

Linebackers

Returning starters Roper Garrett and Chad Meredith spearhead the linebackers this season.

Garrett, who garnered Preseason All-OVC accolades, looks to end his career with a bang.

A second-team all-conference pick and team captain, Garrett started every game at inside linebacker and led Southeast with 106 stops. He finished as the Redhawks leading tackler for the second-straight season, while ranking second in sacks (4.5) and tackles for loss (10.0). Garrett notched double-digit tackles six times, ranked second in the OVC in tackles and was one of four league players with over 100 stops. Not to mention, he became the first Southeast player to get 100 or more tackles in a season since 2012.

Meredith was behind Garrett with 68 tackles in 10 games and six starts at outside linebacker. He led the team with 10.5 tackles for loss and ranked third in sacks (3.5). Meredith, who was awarded the Redhawks Defensive MVP honor, rated among the top 20 OVC individuals in tackles for loss (t8th), sacks (t11th) and tackles per game (t16th, 6.2).

Terrance Hill is expected to start at will linebacker.

Hill appeared in nine games and started one in 2015. He tallied 33 tackles and one fumble recovery to go along with 4.5 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks.

Kendall Donnerson is the lead candidate at the final outside linebacker spot in Southeast's 3-4 defensive alignment.

Donnerson recorded 32 tackles in 11 games last season. He had 18 solo stops, a sack and six tackles for loss. Additionally, Donnerson tied for first on the team with two forced fumbles.

Juniors Rider Garrett and Josh Kinzer solidfy the inside linebacker position.

Rider, the younger brother of Roper, played primarily on special teams last season.

Kinzer registered 26 tackles and 11 solo stops in 11 contests. He returned his only interception 28 yards at Eastern Illinois (Oct. 10).

Byron Wilson, Omar Pierre-Louis and Arsante Conners widen the depth at outside linebacker.

Wilson played in every game during his first year with the Redhawks in 2015. He had 27 tackles, two tackles for loss, a sack and two pass breakups.

Pierre-Louis started three games at safety and registered 33 tackles.

Conners redshirted.

Secondary

Southeast returns three starters in its secondary, including strong safety Eriq Moore, cornerback Mike Ford and free safety Ryan Moore.

A team captain, Moore landed a spot on this year's Preseason All-OVC team after finishing as the Redhawks third-leading tackler with 60 stops in 10 starts at strong safety last season. He averaged 5.5 tackles per game and returned a fumble for a touchdown.

In his first year starting at cornerback, Ford had 44 tackles and a team-high five interceptions en route to securing Second-Team All-OVC honors. He joined Moore on the Preseason All-OVC squad.

Moore (4) and Ford combined

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

for nine of the team's 11 picks in 2015.

Ryan Moore started all 11 games with 10 of his starts at cornerback last season. He ranked fourth on the team with 54 tackles and tied for second in solo stops (36). Moore also added three pass breakups, one interception and two forced fumbles.

Jamarl Holloway will likely be Southeast's other starting cornerback.

Holloway saw action in all 11 games and made one start at cornerback in his first year with the Redhawks last season. He accumulated 23 tackles.

Safeties Taron Divens and Rudie Frye, and corners Steve Durosier, Taj Jenkins and JJ Flye will help.

Divens, Durosier and Frye played mainly on special teams and Jenkins redshirted. Flye was limited to one game with a hand injury.

Kicking/Punting

The Redhawks are set in the kicking game with the return of starting punter Alex Knight and starting kicker Ryan McCrum.

Both Knight and McCrum have reached All-America status during their Southeast careers.

Knight was named to both the Lindy's Sports and Football Gameplan All-America teams this preseason. He also claimed a spot on the Preseason All-OVC unit.

A Second-Team All-OVC selection last season, Knight punted 64 times for 2,867 yards and placed 29 of his punts inside the 20-yardline. Eighteen of his punts went 50 or more yards and three of his kicks covered 60-plus yards. He led the OVC and ranked fifth in the nation with 44.8 yards per punt during his third season as the Redhawks starting punter.

Knight will look to move up in several punting categories on Southeast's all-time record lists this fall.

McCrum, a Third-Team Sports Network All-American in 2014, started all 11 games as Southeast's kicker a year ago. He made 9-of-16 field goals with a long of 50 yards. McCrum did not miss a PAT all season, going a 29-of-29 as one of only two kickers in the OVC to finish perfect in extra points. He ranked sixth in the OVC in points per game (5.1) and tied for fifth in field goals. McCrum kicked off 53 times for 3,251 yards and 14 touchbacks, as well.

Freshmen Jake Reynolds and Kendrick Tiller round out the kicking/punting depth.

Returns/Long Snapper/Holder

Cameron Sanders and Tremane McCullough are Southeast's kick returners and McCullough and Tyler Manne will likely handle punt returns.

Sanders and McCullough were first and second in kick returns, respectively, last season.

Sanders ran back nine kicks for 294 yards and a touchdown with an average of 32.8 yards per return.

McCullough returned nine kickoffs for 169 yards.

Manne was second on the team with six punt returns for 14 yards last season. He will assume his role as holder again in 2016.

Zach Stagner, Camden Boyle and Brandt Selesky are in the mix at long snapper.

2016 Schedule

Southeast's 2016 schedule includes 11 games, including five at Houck Stadium. The Redhawks will play three non-conference matchups and eight OVC bouts.

Southeast kicks off its season at Football Bowl Subdivision and American Athletic Conference member Memphis (Sept. 3).

UofM, which is under the direction of first-year head coach Mike Norvell, went 9-4 overall and played in the Birmingham Bowl last season.

The Redhawks return the trip across the Mississippi River to face regional-rival Southern Illinois (Sept. 10) and host Indiana State (Sept. 17, Family Weekend) on the backend of a home-and-home series.

Southeast starts its OVC campaign with three of its first four games on the road. The Redhawks play at Murray State (Sept. 24) and visit Eastern Kentucky (Oct. 8) and Tennessee Tech (Oct. 22) in that stretch. The Redhawks final road game is at UT Martin (Nov. 12).

The Redhawks home conference schedule includes matchups with Eastern Illinois (Oct. 1), Austin Peay (Oct. 29), Jacksonville State (Nov. 5, Homecoming) and Tennessee State (Nov. 19).

JSU, the two-time defending OVC Champion, lost to North Dakota State in the 2015 FCS National Championship. EIU also advanced to the FCS Playoffs.

COACHING STAFF

TOM MATUKEWICZ
HEAD COACH
THIRD YEAR / FORT HAYS STATE, 1997

TOM MATUKEWICZ BEGINS HIS THIRD YEAR AS SOUTHEAST MISSOURI'S HEAD COACH IN 2016.

Attitude, Effort, Passion and Discipline are the four cornerstones of Tom Matukewicz's process-driven Southeast Missouri football program.

In 2016, Matukewicz has a team that features 18 returning starters, six returning All-Ohio Valley Conference performers and 27 seniors, the Redhawks largest senior class since 2012.

Another nice recruiting class with more local talent adds to the strength of this year's squad, which has the pieces in place for Southeast to improve on its 4-7 record and fifth-place OVC finish from last season.

Southeast concluded the 2015 campaign ranked among the top three teams in the OVC in rushing offense (2nd, 182.9 ypg), kickoff returns (20.6 ypr), punt return average (3rd, 9.6 ypr), kickoff coverage (2nd, 40.6 net avg.), sacks (2nd, 31), fourth down conversions (2nd, 60 pct.) and turnover margin (1st, +10). The Redhawks 31 sacks were third-most in a season. In addition, Southeast led the league in turnover margin after ranking last in that category the year before. The Redhawks faced four ranked teams and lost four games by a combined 14 points last season, as well.

Individually, Dante Vandeven, Tremane McCullough, Paul McRoberts, Garret Baker, Mike Ford, Alex Knight and Roper Garrett earned All-OVC honors in 2015.

Vandeven was the league's Freshman of the Year, McCullough and McRoberts were first-team selections and Baker, Garrett, Knight and Ford were second-team picks. Vandeven, McCullough, Baker, Garrett, Knight and Ford are back this year.

A native of Silver Lake, Kansas, Matukewicz hit the ground running in his head coaching debut in 2014, leading the Redhawks to their most wins in a season since 2010.

Along the way, Southeast enjoyed two wins over ranked opponents, beating then-No. 3 Southeastern Louisiana and then-No. 20 Tennessee State. Southeastern Louisiana was the highest-ranked opponent Southeast had ever beaten and the 2014 campaign marked the first time the Redhawks knocked off two ranked opponents in a season.

After those wins, Southeast was No. 23 in the Oct. 6, 2014 Sports Network Poll, claiming its first Top 25 ranking since the end of the 2010 season.

Statistically, the Redhawks led the OVC in third down conversion percentage (45.7), fourth down conversion percentage (66.7) and sacks allowed (9).

Southeast was also sixth in the Football Championship Subdivision in sacks allowed, 13th in fourth down conversion percentage and 14th in third down conversion percentage.

As a team, the Redhawks scored 384 points, their most in a season since 2002.

The excitement of Matukewicz's brick-by-brick approach generated an increase of 1,024 at Houck Stadium in 2014, as well.

Matukewicz coached a total of 10 All-OVC performers, including one OVC Freshman of the Year (Vandeven), three first-team selections (McRoberts, McCullough, Ryan McCrum) and six second-team picks (DeMichael Jackson, Tim Hamm-Bey, Baker, Garrett, Ford, Knight) during his first two years as Southeast's head coach. McRoberts was also the Redhawks first player invited to the Reese's Senior Bowl.

Off the field, Matukewicz's program is highly visible in the community and often engages in random acts of kindness. He simply uses goodwill to teach his players valuable life lessons.

In 2015, Southeast partnered with Saint Francis Medical Center to announce a new collaboration, taking the Redhawks' Pink Up efforts to a new level.

Southeast's football team raised over $20,000 for breast cancer awareness through a Pink Up Jersey Auction. As part of the initiative, the Redhawks wore pink jerseys, each personalized with a name in honor or memory of a survivor or loved one, if desired. Game-worn jerseys were presented to the winning bidders after Southeast's 38-17 victory over Tennessee Tech on Oct. 31, 2015.

"We are thrilled to join Saint Francis Medical Center to help make a difference in this community," said Matukewicz. "We hope this effort raises awareness and money to fight this terrible disease. This is a life changing experience for our players, who will have the opportunity to meet families that have lost loved ones to cancer."

During Southeast's 2014 season-opener against Missouri Baptist, the Redhawk captains took a No. 14 jersey to midfield for the coin toss to honor the memory of Kaden Robert. Robert was a Kelly High School football player who died in an accidental shooting in June, 2014.

A week later, Michael Douglas, a 16-year old from Kansas, accompanied the Redhawks on the sideline for their game against the Jayhawks on Sept. 6, 2014. Douglas was diagnosed with an interstitial lung disease when he was a year old and has to use an oxygen tank. The teenager initially contacted wide receiver Mike Cyliax for an autograph last summer. Once Matukewicz heard the story, he wrote Douglas a letter and invited him to the game.

Southeast's football program generously donated to the Nolan Weber Believers 5K & Fun Run/Walk in nearby Jackson. Weber was a soccer player at Jackson High School who fought brain cancer for almost three years (doubling the life expectancy of what his illness normally came with) before he passed away. The contribution went to the Believing Beyond Nolan Weber Foundation that provides financial and/or spiritual/emotional support to children and their families battling cancer and other catastrophic illnesses.

Matukewicz also presented a check to the parents of Dominic Hooper -- a Scott City teen who tied in February, 2014 from injuries sustained in an ATV accident -- during the team's annual spring game.

A tireless worker, Matukewicz brings energy and passion unlike any other. His commitment to excellence and brick-by-brick mantra have the Redhawks soaring to new heights.

"It's all about a process," said Matukewicz. "It's about doing ordinary things with unordinary discipline. We're going to build a program that you're proud of."

Popularly known as "Coach Tuke," Matukewicz was introduced as Southeast's 13th head coach on Dec. 18, 2013. Matukewicz is used to transforming programs into winners and he did just that as an assistant coach at Northern Illinois and Southern Illinois.

While at NIU, Matukewicz helped lead the Huskies to the Mid-American Conference West title in 2010 and an outright MAC Championship in 2011. Matukewicz was the linebackers coach in 2011 after serving as defensive run-game coordinator for three seasons under then-head coach Jerry Kill.

Matukewicz reached the pinnacle of his NIU stint when he was interim head coach for the Huskies' trip to the 2010 Humanitarian Bowl after Kill accepted the Minnesota job at the end of the season. He led NIU to a commanding 40-17 victory over Fresno State in that game.

Matukewicz was responsible for coordinating the Huskies' run defense during his first three seasons at NIU. In 2010, the Huskies ranked 24th nationally and third in the MAC in rushing defense, allowing 126.5 yards per game. NIU also had the MAC's No. 1 total defense in 2008 and 2009.

In his first year in DeKalb, Matukewicz was part of a staff that turned NIU into the No. 1 scoring and total defense in the MAC, and one of the top 20 units in the country. The Huskies boasted the second-most improved scoring defense in the nation in 2008. That year, NIU allowed only 18 points per game, down from 30.8 the previous season. The Huskies ranked 17th nationally in total defense and was fifth in the country in pass defense.

Before that, Matukewicz spent seven seasons at SIU. As linebackers coach and run-game coordinator, he had a big hand in three Missouri Valley Football Conference championships (2003, 2004, 2005) and five NCAA Football Championship Subdivision playoff berths (2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007).

Matukewicz was named the 2007 FCS Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association after helping turn the Salukis into one of the top rushing defenses in the nation. SIU held its opponents to a rushing average below 135 yards per game every year from 2002-07. The Salukis had three of the top-10 rushing defenses in program history during that time.

Matukewicz's 2004 linebacker corps formed the heart of a defense which gave up just 101.7 rushing yards per game, led the nation in scoring defense and allowed 13.2 points per contest. Matukewicz made one more stop at the University of Toledo prior to accepting his first head coaching job at Southeast.

At Toledo, Matukewicz was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the 2012 and 2013 seasons.

In 2012, Matukewicz helped guide a defense that ranked among the top 25 in the nation in fourth-down conversion (9th), red-zone defense (10th), interceptions (18th) and turnovers forced (25th). The Rockets went 9-4 and earned a trip to the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Matukewicz's defense also featured the nation's leading tackler in linebacker Dan Molls. Molls had 166 tackles, earned First-Team All-MAC honors and became Toledo's first Academic All-American in eight years.

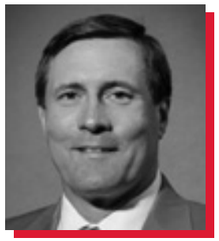

Matukewicz completed his undergraduate work at Fort Hays State. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1997 and then earned his master's degree in administration at Pittsburg State.

Matukewicz coached at Fort Hays State (1996-97), Pittsburg State (1997-99), Coffeyville Community College (1999-2000) and Emporia State (2000-01) prior to his NCAA Division I football tenure.

Matukewicz and his wife, Lenna, have two daughters, Georgia and Shelby.

What They Are Saying About Coach Tuke

"I knew it would only be a matter of time before Coach Tuke got his first opportunity to be a head coach at the Division I level. I know first-hand how he inspirationally led our football team to victory at the Humanitarian Bowl when we worked together at Northern Illinois University. The team played their hearts out for him and I know that will be the case at Southeast Missouri State University, as well. He is a man of integrity who will be a tremendous asset to the University and the entire community. I congratulate Tom and Lenna and wish them and their family the very best at Southeast Missouri State."

Jeff Compher
Director of Athletics
East Carolina University

"Tom is a great teacher and excellent motivator. He understands how to reach his players and push their buttons the right way. Tom genuinely cares about his team on and off the field. Tom will bring great enthusiasm every day and will be driven to win championships. You guys got a good one."

Dave Doeren
Head Football Coach
North Carolina State

"I was president at Northern Illinois University when Coach Tuke was a linebackers coach under Coach Kill. He is a fine coach and a great motivator of young men. He is a great recruiter and great leader. I knew he was going to be a head coach someday. When Coach Kill left NIU for Minnesota and we were going to the Humanitarian Bowl, we were in a dilemma. Jeff Compher, the athletic director at the time, had to make a choice who would be the head coach of the team in the bowl. Jeff suggested Coach Tuke, and boy that really worked out well. It was a very difficult situation to throw someone in like that. Coach Kill was beloved by his players and Coach Tuke stepped up and had a great victory over Fresno State. He is a fine man and has a great family. You really got a good coach."

John G. Peters
President Emeritus
Northern Illinois University

""Coach Tuke has been a very positive member of the University of Toledo Athletic Department staff. Tom will be an asset to Southeast Missouri State University as he will work extremely well with the football student-athletes in all facets of their development on and off the field. I congratulate Southeast Missouri State on this hire of an excellent leader that will be a valued member of the campus and community."

Michael O'Brien
Vice President and AD
University of Toledo

"I am excited for Tom. This is something that he has wanted to do for a long time. He is very well-prepared and will be a great fit for Southeast Missouri State University."

Coaching Honors
- 2007 FCS Assistant Coach of the Year

BRYCE SAIA

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR & OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS
THIRD YEAR / FORT HAYS STATE, 1996

Bryce Saia is in his third year as defensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri.

In addition to serving as Southeast's defensive coordinator, Saia coaches the outside linebackers and is the team's NFL liaison.

A native of Joplin, Missouri, Saia joined Matukewicz's staff on Jan. 2, 2014.

Last season, Saia's defense led the Ohio Valley Conference with a +10 turnover margin, leading the league in that category for the first time since 2010. The Redhawks forced a turnover in nine of 11 games and finished the 2015 campaign with multiple takeaways in each of their final four contests. Southeast was last in the OVC in turnover margin the previous year.

Saia's defense produced a pair of All-OVC performers in inside linebacker Roper Garrett and cornerback Mike Ford. Both earned second-team honors in 2015 and are back this season.

Southeast ranked second in the OVC in red zone defense during Saia's first year with the Redhawks in 2014. Opponents scored on 35-of-48 chances inside the Redhawks 20-yardline against Saia's defense. Southeast's .729 mark ranked just four percentage points behind Eastern Kentucky (.725).

Prior to Southeast, Saia spent two seasons as safeties coach alongside Matukewicz at the University of Toledo.

In 2012, he helped guide a veteran group of safeties led by senior Jermaine Robinson, who tied for the Mid-American Conference lead in interceptions. Robinson earned First-Team All-MAC honors, helping UT to a 9-4 record and berth into the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Before UT, Saia coached at Emporia State for three seasons, spending the first two as defensive backs coach before adding defensive coordinator to his duties in 2011. Saia spent two seasons with the Arizona Rattlers in the Arena Football League before initially joining the Hornets staff in 2009. He was the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator for Arizona, which advanced to the AFL playoffs in 2008.

Saia also spent four years coaching the defensive line at Southern Illinois under current University of Minnesota head coach Jerry Kill. The Salukis ranked either first or second in the Missouri Valley Football Conference in sacks and rushing defense during his tenure. In 2004, SIU had the top-ranked scoring defense in the Football Championship Subdivision.

From 1998-2003, Saia worked as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Coffeyville Community College. The Red Ravens led the Jayhawk Conference in total defense during the 2003 season and consistently ranked among the nation's top-10 defensive teams. Prior to CCC, Saia coached the linebackers at Butler County Community College in 1997.

Throughout his career, Saia has coached numerous Division I and NFL players, including Brandon Jacobs (New York Giants), Jonathan Joseph (Cincinnati/Houston), Reggie Nelson (Jacksonville/Cincinnati), Travis Fisher (St. Louis/Detroit) and Dashon Goldson (San Francisco/Tampa Bay).

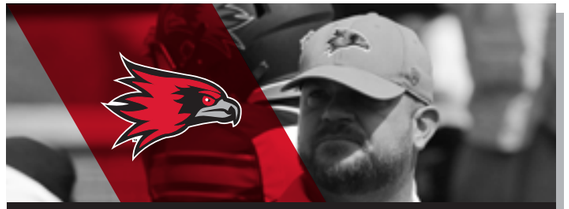

Saia's first coaching job was as a defensive assistant at Fort Hays State from 1994-96, where he received his bachelor of science degree. He later earned his master's degree from Emporia State. Saia played linebacker for his father Tom Saia, a member of the Junior College Football Hall of Fame, at Butler County CC from 1990-91.

Saia was a two-time high school All-State linebacker in Kansas, first as a junior at Buhler High School and again as a senior at El Dorado High School.

He has a son, Nicholas Cole.

JON WIEMERS

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR & QUARTERBACKS
THIRD YEAR / SAGINAW VALLEY STATE, 1998

Jon Wiemers begins his third year at Southeast Missouri.

Wiemers was promoted to offensive coordinator after spending two years as Southeast's offensive line and assistant head coach.

In 2015, Wiemers coached an offensive line that paved the way for the Ohio Valley Conference's second-best rushing offense. The Redhawks averaged 182.9 yards per game in 11 contests. Garret Baker, who started every game at left guard, earned Second-Team All-OVC honors under Wiemers.

His offensive line allowed only eight sacks in 2014, fewest in the OVC. The offensive line also had a big hand in helping the Redhawks lead the conference in both third and fourth-down conversions.

Southeast returns eight starters on offense in 2016, including quarterback Dante Vandeven. Vandeven won the coveted OVC Freshman of the Year Award after completing 155-of-250 passes for 1,568 yards and 11 touchdowns, and rushing for 292 yards and another six TDs in 2015. He ranked fifth in the OVC in passing average (174.2 ypg), seventh in pass efficiency (123.6) and fifth in total offense (206.7 ypg). He also ranked 26th in the Football Championship Subdivision in completion percentage (62 pct), 41st in completions (17.22/game) and 46th in points responsible for (12 ppg). Vandeven made the OVC All-Newcomer Team, as well.

Wiemers initially joined Southeast's coaching staff on Jan. 8, 2014.

Wiemers was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for one season at William Penn before joining the Southeast staff.

Prior to William Penn, Wiemers served a two-year stint as head coach at Arkansas City High School in Arkansas City, Kan. In 2012, Wiemers led Arkansas City to its first district championship and playoff berth in 16 years. He was named the 2011 Ark Valley Chisholm Trail League Coach of the Year after leading his team to its first winning season in 10 years.

Before that, Wiemers was offensive coordinator at both Coffeyville Community College (2009-10) and NCAA Division II Concord University in West Virginia (2007-08).

While at Coffeyville CC, he was part of teams which made two Jayhawk Conference playoff appearances and reached two bowl games (winning one). Wiemers' quarterbacks in 2009 and 2010 ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in all-time single-season passing, respectively.

Wiemers' longest tenure, however, was at Emporia State, where he served as a coach in several areas. He began his career as a graduate assistant in charge of the tight ends from 1999-2000 and moved to offensive line coach in 2001.

Wiemers was then offensive coordinator for his final three campaigns (2004-06).

Emporia State flourished with Wiemers on staff, as the 2002 and 2003 teams finished with identical 9-3 records which rank among the top-three in program history.

The Hornets won the Mineral Water Bowl title in 2002 and claimed the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association title and advanced to the national playoffs for the first time in school history in 2003.

Also an accomplished college player, Wiemers was a two-time All-Conference linebacker at NCAA Division II Saginaw Valley State (Mich.). He was a team captain and defensive Most Valuable Player, as well.

Wiemers graduated with a degree in history from Saginaw Valley State in 1998 and is working towards his master's.

He and his wife, Sandy, have two sons, Gage and Cooper.

BEN BLAKE
OFFENSIVE LINE
FIRST YEAR / CONCORDIA (WIS.), 2004

Ben Blake is in his first year as offensive line coach at Southeast Missouri.

Blake comes to Southeast from the University of Sioux Falls, where he spent the last two seasons in the same capacity.

At NCAA Division II USF, Blake helped lead the Cougars to a combined 20-4 overall record. Last season, the USF went 9-3 and tied for second overall in the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference with a 9-2 mark.

Blake's offensive line led the nation in sacks allowed, giving up only five in 12 contests during the 2015 campaign. The Cougars also ranked 11th nationally in third-down conversion percentage (48.2 pct.), 16th in both scoring offense (39.3 ppg) and first downs (285), and 19th in total offense (472.1 ypg).

USF finished the season ranked 17th and tied for 21st in the D2Football.com and American Football Coaches Association NCAA Division II Top-25 Polls, respectively.

In his first season at USF, Blake put together an offensive line, which proved to be one of the best in the NSIC. Starting just one senior, the Cougars offensive front played a key role on the nation's seventh-best and NSIC's highest scoring team. USF, which finished 11-1 and #16/18 nationally, ranked first in the NSIC and seventh nationally with 42.7 points (512) per game. Overall, USF produced 58 touchdowns, including 30 rushing (4th, NSIC) and 28 passing (t4th), a +11 increase in that category from the year before.

The Cougars were 17th in NCAA Division II and second in the NSIC in total offense with 483.2 yards per game. The offensive front, including first team All-NSIC selection Antonio Green (sophomore guard, allowed 1.5 sacks) and honorable mention All-NSIC tackles Terry Huber (sophomore, allowed 1.5 sacks) and Jesse Springer, (freshman) paved the way for a second straight 1,000 yard rusher in Nephi Garcia. USF was 32nd nationally and fourth in the NSIC with 213.3 rushing yards per game. Garcia was fifth in the league with 1,190 yards. USF, which also received 804 yards from quarterback Luke Papilion, averaged 4.6 yards per carry with 2,559 yards on 560 carries.

A Harlon Hill candidate, Papilion helped USF lead the NSIC and rank 14th in the nation in completion percentage (.640). The Cougars produced 292 first downs that were good for third in the league. In addition, the offensive line gave up one sack or less in four of the final five games of the season.

Blake, who has 13 years of coaching experience, served as the offensive line coach, run game coordinator and strength and conditioning coach at Evangel University (Mo.) for three seasons before going to USF.

In three years (2011-13) with Evangel, Blake coached seven all-conference selections on the offensive line, including first-team honoree Keith Wright in 2012, the Crusaders' first OL first-team selection since 2006.

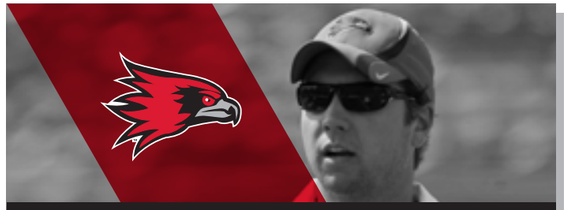

Prior to his stint at Evangel, Blake spent four years (2007-10) as the co-offensive coordinator at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Missouri. He also worked as an assistant coach at Highland Community College in Kansas for two years (2005-06) and was a graduate assistant coach working with the offensive line and tight ends at Concordia University-Wisconsin (NCAA-III) in 2004.

Blake graduated from Concordia University with an undergraduate degree in business management and minor in public relations. He also earned a Master's degree in business administration with a marketing emphasis.

He and his wife, Alyssa, have a daughter Gracie.

ERIC BURROW
RECRUITING COORDINATOR & SAFETIES
THIRD YEAR / MISSOURI, 2009

Eric Burrow starts his third year as Southeast Missouri's safeties coach and recruiting coordinator.

Burrow joined Southeast's staff on Jan. 6, 2014.

The Redhawks averaged 10 interceptions per season in Burrow's first two years helping with the secondary.

Southeast tied for fourth in the Ohio Valley Conference with 11 picks in 2015. Eriq Moore, who had four interceptions in 10 starts, returns for his senior season in 2016. Moore was also the Redhawks third-leading tackler with 60 stops a year ago.

Four of the Redhawks nine interceptions in 2014 came from Burrow's safeties. Moore led the team with three picks and two fumble recoveries, while Josh Kinzer added an interception.

Additionally, Southeast's safeties had six pass breakups and two forced fumbles a year ago.

Since coming to Southeast, Burrow has helped assemble three strong recruiting classes. The Redhawks signed 22 players as part of Tom Matukewicz's inaugural class in 2014 before seeing that number grow to 26 in 2015. This year's recruiting class includes 21 players.

In all, Burrow received 28 commitments from in-state players, including 25 within a two-hour radius of Cape Girardeau since joining the Redhawks staff.

Standouts Al Young (Cape Girardeau) and Nick Thompson (Malden) headline the local talent in this year's class.

A three-year starter, Young accumulated 992 rushing yards (8.4 ypc), 771 receiving yards and 27 touchdowns as a senior last season. For his career, he racked up 2,635 receiving yards and 38 receiving touchdowns, both school records. Young is all over Cape Central's record book and capped his prep career among state leaders in punt return yards, yards per catch and all-purpose yards. He led the Tigers to three-straight state semifinal apppearances for the first time and the program's only state championship berth.

Thompson started all four years as a linebacker at Malden High School. He led the Green Wave in rushing and was his team's top defender at linebacker. Thompson was named the 2015 Standard Democrat Defensive Player of the Year after anchoring a defense that allowed 21 points per contest and reached the Class 2 State Championship game.

A native of Independence, Mo., Burrow spent the two years at Toledo working closely with both Matukewicz and Redhawks defensive coordinator Bryce Saia. He was in charge of defensive quality control.

Burrow spent the 2010 football season as defensive graduate assistant coach at Emporia State, where he handled football operations and helped oversee the cornerbacks.

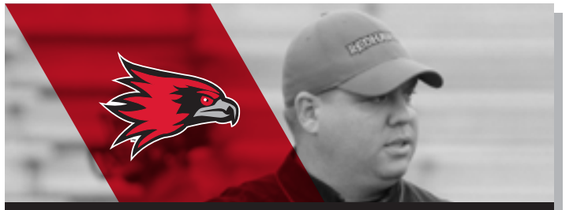

Prior to that, Burrow was graduate assistant for offensive quality control at the University of Missouri. He joined the Tiger coaching staff before the start of Mizzou's 2010 spring camp.

A 2009 Mizzou graduate, Burrow was responsible for assisting with day-to-day operations of the offensive coaching staff, including video breakdown, scouting, game planning, computer and video informational input, as well as providing various assistance with recruiting operations.

Burrow also served as a student assistant for four seasons (2005-08) and continued that role through his graduation from Mizzou in May of 2009, where he earned his bachelor's degree in fitness and nutrition.

He played football and basketball at Truman High School and also assisted with film and statistical analysis for his school's football program.

RICKY COON

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / DEFENSIVE LINE
THIRD YEAR / BETHEL COLLEGE, 2005

Ricky Coon begins his third year as Southeast Missouri's defensive line coach. Coon also recently added assistant head coach to his title.

The defensive line helped Southeast notch 31 sacks in 2015, its third-most in a season in school history. The Redhawks ranked second in the Ohio Valley Conference in sacks behind national runner-up and league champion Jacksonville State.

Southeast returns four players with starting experience in the trenches, including defensive ends John Popovich and Travis Sanders, and nose tackles Marlon Hampton and Joshua Wilson.

Sanders and Wilson missed parts of last season due to injury, while Popovich led the team with five sacks. Meanwhile, Hampton tallied 31 tackles in six starts.

Coon's defensive line had a big hand in Southeast averaging 23 sacks and 75 tackles for loss per season the last two years as a unit.

Coon spent the 2013 season as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Northwest Mississippi Community College.

Prior to that, he worked the 2012 campaign as defensive line coach at NCAA Division II Southwest Baptist University and gained six years of experience at the junior college level.

Coon was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Ellsworth Community College (2009-11), where 18 of his players received all-conference recognition and three were named National Junior College Athletic Association All-Americans.

He helped lead the Panthers to the 2009 NJCAA Region XI Championships, two Midwest Football Conference Playoff titles (2009, 2010) and two NJCAA bowl game appearances. In 2009, Coon's defensive unit set a school record for fewest yards allowed in a bowl game.

Before his three-year stint at Ellsworth CC, Coon was the defensive coordinator and head strength and conditioning coordinator at Highland Community College from 2007-08. Coon's defensive units finished among the NJCAA's Top-20 teams each of his last two seasons and, statistically, were the best two defenses in school history. A total of seven defensive players received all-conference accolades during his two years.

Coon worked as academic coordinator and defensive line coach at NCAA Division II Northern State in 2006.

A native of Wichita, Kansas, Coon started his career as defensive line coach and strength and conditioning coordinator at his alma mater, Bethel College.

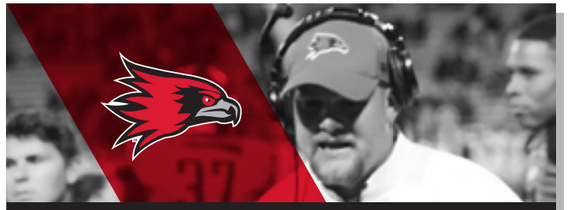

He was a two-time all-conference defensive lineman at Dodge City Community College and Bethel College. Coon also had the privilege of playing two seasons of professional football in the Arena Football League for the Wichita Stealth (AF2) and Wichita Aviators (APFL).

Coon was hired at Southeast on Jan. 8, 2014. He previously worked with current Redhawks offensive line coach Ben Blake at Highland Community College during the spring of 2007.

Coon is married to the former Amanda Sanchez. Together they have four children, Taryn, Zane, Gunner and Bryson.

TYLER FRENCH

INSIDE LINEBACKERS
FIRST YEAR / SOUTHEAST MISSOURI, 2013

Tyler French will coach the inside linebackers during his first year as a full-time assistant in 2016.

French spent the last two years as a graduate assistant, primarily working with the defense in 2015 and serving as an offensive assistant in 2014.

Southeast's linebackers have consistently been a dominant part of the Redhawks defense.

This year, French's inside linebackers are headlined by returning starter Roper Garrett.

Garrett led the Redhawks in tackles for the second-straight season in 2015. He notched 106 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks and 42 solo stops in 11 starts. Garrett ranked second in the Ohio Valley Conference in tackles and was one of only four players in the league to get over 100 tackles. A Second-Team All-OVC honoree, Garrett also rated 10th in the conference in sacks and tackles for loss, and became the first Southeast player to finish with 100 or more tackles in a season since 2012 (Blake Peiffer). Additionally, he turned in a total of six double-digit tackle performances.

During the 2014 campaign, Southeast was third in the OVC in scoring offense with 32 points a game. French also helped the Redhawks achieve a 141.1 pass efficiency, good for second in the conference. Southeast's offense produced two All-OVC players that year and the Redhawks upended two ranked opponents in a season for the first time in school history.

Before entering the coaching profession, French completed a two-year playing career as a tight end at Southeast.

A native of Scottsdale, Arizona, French transferred to Southeast from Phoenix College.

He played in all 11 games and started six, making eight receptions for 60 yards in 2011. French scored his first career touchdown on a 7-yard pass late in the first quarter during the Redhawks season-finale vs. Murray State (Nov. 19).

After redshirting due to an injury the next year, French started 11 of 12 games his final season in 2013.

As a prep, French was a three-year starter at Dobson High School. He had 25 catches for 325 yards and five touchdowns en route to claiming First-Team All-State and All-Region honors as a senior. French posted eight receptions for 108 yards and one touchdown as a junior. French was also a member of the wrestling team.

MATT MARTIN

WIDE RECEIVERS & SPECIAL TEAMS
THIRD YEAR / EMPORIA STATE, 2006

Matt Martin heads into his third year at Southeast Missouri.

Martin is the Redhawks special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach. He takes over the wide receivers after spending two years overseeing Southeast's running backs.

The Redhawks have established themselves as one of the best special teams units in the Ohio Valley Conference under Martin's leadership.

Southeast's kicking game went from worst to first in the OVC during the 2014 campaign.

The Redhawks topped the league in field goals made (18) and PAT kicking percentage (.978) that year after finishing last in each of those categories the previous season. Southeast also tied for second in the OVC in punting (36.9 ypp).

In 2015, Southeast returned two punts and one kickoff for touchdowns, and led the league in punting with 39.2 yards per punt. Alex Knight, who secured Second-Team All-OVC honors, was the conference's top punter.

Martin also coached First-Team All-OVC and All-Newcomer selection Tremane McCullough during the 2015 campaign.

McCullough stormed onto the scene and staked his claim as the Redhawks top rusher. He ran for 1,028 yards and five touchdowns on 170 carries, averaging six yards per touch. McCullough led the OVC with six 100-yard rushing games, racking up a season-high 220 yards vs. Murray State. He became the first Southeast running back to get over 1,000 yards in a season since 2012 (Levi Terrell). He ranked second in the OVC in rushing yards and rushing yards per game (93.5). In addition, McCullough ranked nationally in rushing yards per carry (19th, 6.1 ypc), rushing yards per game (24th) and all-purpose yardage (20th, 134.2 ypg).

Martin joined Southeast's coaching staff on Jan. 8, 2014.

During his first year, Martin coached a pair of All-OVC performers, including kicker Ryan McCrum.

McCrum, who returns as Southeast's starting kicker this season, was a Third-Team Sports Network All-American and Fred Mitchell Award finalist that year. He led the Redhawks in scoring and topped the OVC in both field goals and scoring (kick). McCrum also broke Southeast's all-time single-season record with 18 field goals made.

Martin spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Emporia State. He coached the wide receivers for four years and served as the team's special teams coordinator his last three seasons.

In 2013, Martin coached four All-Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association performers, including wide receivers Ray Ray Davis (first-team) and Austin Willis (second-team), kicker Eli Kuhns (honorable mention) and return specialist Deveon Dinwiddle (honorable mention). Davis and Kuhns also earned Don Hansen All-Super Region 3 accolades.

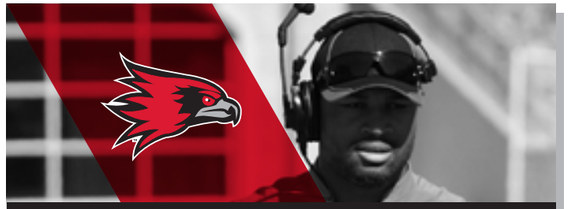

Prior to that, Martin coached All-American Shjuan Richardson in 2012. Richardson finished his career ranked second in single-season receiving yards at Emporia State.

Martin spent four years in the early part of his coaching career on the defensive side of the football. He worked two seasons at Nebraska-Kearney as the Lopers outside linebackers coach before returning to his alma mater in 2010.

Martin began coaching as a graduate assistant at Emporia State, overseeing the safeties. As a player, he was a four-year letterwinner for the Hornets and a two-time captain for the 2002 Mineral Water Bowl and 2003 MIAA Championship teams.

GHAALI MUHAMMAD-LANKFORD

RUNNING BACKS
FIRST YEAR / WYOMING, 2013

Ghaali Muhammad-Lankford sets to begin his first year as running backs coach at Southeast Missouri.

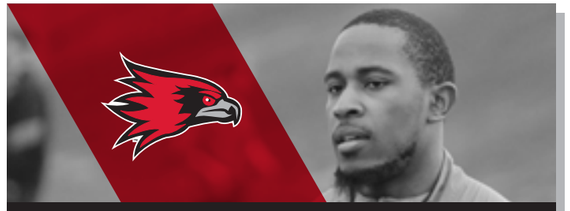

Muhammad-Lankford joined Southeast's staff on Feb. 2, 2016. He previously worked as an offensive graduate assistant at Missouri, where he assisted then-wide receivers coach Pat Washington with all daily coaching responsibilities. Muhammad-Lankford helped create game plan ideas for weekly opponents and assisted with recruiting among other duties.

Before Missouri, Muhammad-Lankford helped coach the running backs at the University of Wyoming in the same capacity during the 2013 campaign. He coached the kick returners, coordinated game plans for the running backs, assisted with all special teams, created scouting reports and managed the scout teams during practices. In addition, Muhammad-Lankford was in charge of the running back meetings, drills and signaling to running backs on gameday.

A native of St. Joseph, Muhammad-Lankford played four years (2009-2012) at Wyoming. He was the Cowboys leading rusher before suffering a season-ending injury in 2011. A year later, Muhammad-Lankford led Wyoming with 106 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and four fumble recoveries as a linebacker his senior season.

Muhammad-Lankford received his undergraduate degree in communications at Wyoming in 2013 and is working on his master's in positive coaching.

SALIM POWELL

CORNERBACKS

SIXTH YEAR / SOUTHEAST MISSOURI, 2010

Salim Powell heads into his sixth year on the Southeast Missouri coaching staff.

Powell will coach the cornerbacks in 2016 after spending three years overseeing the wide receivers and two working with the defensive line and special teams.

Two-time First-Team All-Ohio Valley Conference wide receiver Paul McRoberts was under Powell's tutelage.

McRoberts signed as a free agent with the Los Angeles Rams after a remarkable four-year Southeast career. A three-year starter, McRoberts made 175 catches for 2,435 yards and a school record 29 receiving touchdowns. He started each of the final three seasons of his career and averaged 13.9 yards per catch and 62.4 receiving yards per game in 39 games and 28 starts. McRoberts finished his career among Southeast's all-time leaders in receiving touchdowns (1st), receiving yardage (3rd), pass receptions (2nd), total touchdowns (t2nd, 30) and points scored (t6th, 180).

In addition, McRoberts tied for fifth in the OVC in career receiving touchdowns and caught a touchdown pass in 18 of his last 24 games as a Redhawk. He had eight 100-yard receiving games, ranking eighth all-time in school history in that category. McRoberts caught nine touchdown passes in his sophomore, junior and senior seasons. His 76 receptions and 940 yards in 2015 were most in a season during his career.

Southeast returns both of its starting cornerbacks for Powell in 2016.

Mike Ford earned Second-Team All-OVC accolades in his first year starting at cornerback last season. He led the Redhawks and the conference with five interceptions. Ford also tallied 44 tackles, a team-high seven pass breakups and ranked ninth in the Football Championship Subdivision in interceptions per game.

Moore was fourth on the team with 54 tackles in 11 starts a year ago. His 36 solo stops were also good for second-best.

As a player, Powell registered 98 tackles and two interceptions in 44 games and 33 starts as a cornerback at Southeast.

In his first year coaching, Powell assisted a Redhawk defense which led the OVC in scoring defense (21.5 ppg allowed), interceptions (20) and turnover margin (+13) in 2010. Southeast also ranked second in the league in total defense (317.1 ypg allowed), pass defense (164.8 ypg allowed) and pass defense efficiency (105.0 rating). Southeast also ranked fifth in the nation in turnover margin and 12th nationally in turnovers gained (29).

Powell was selected to participate in the inaugural American Football Coaches Association 30 Under 30 Coaches' Leadership Institute on Jan. 10, 2016.

The AFCA created this institute to provide advanced education and training to 30 of America's top young coaches who will be the future leaders of their profession. This program will stress the importance of ethics and professionalism, as well as the qualities of great leadership.

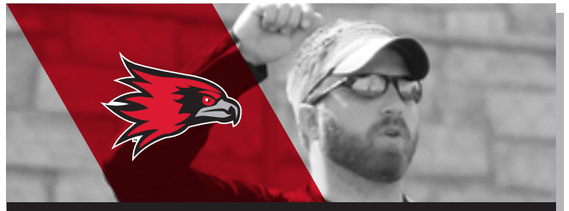

A native of Willingboro, N.J., Powell played cornerback for the Redhawks from 2006-09 and was a starter at his position the final three years of his career.

As a prep, Powell was an All-Conference and All-County defensive back at Willingboro High School. He was part of the Super 100 All-State team.

Powell received both his bachelor's and master's degrees at Southeast.

JOE UHLS

FULLBACKS & TIGHT ENDS / OPERATIONS

FIFTH YEAR / SOUTHEAST MISSOURI, 2012

Joe Uhls is in his fifth season with Southeast Missouri's football staff.

Uhls has worked with the Redhawk football team for a total of seven years. He coaches the tight ends and fullbacks in addition to serving as the program's director of operations. He is in charge of the day-to-day operations, team travel and all other duties assigned by head coach Tom Matukewicz.

On the field, Uhls has coached a pair of tight ends who have seen action in every game each of the last two seasons.

Logan Larson caught six passes for 65 yards in 11 games and eight starts, while Stephen Dunn added one reception for 20 yards in 11 games and two starts a year ago. Both return in 2016, with Dunn at tight end and Larson shifting to fullback.

Newcomer Marquett Murdock also saw significant playing time under Uhls last season.

Murdock made two catches for 25 yards in nine games as a true freshman.

Two other returnees, including Zach Cox and Broedy Wheeler widen the depth at fullback for Uhls this year.

In 2014, Larson and Ron Coleman were the tight ends who appeared in every contest.

Coleman notched 10 receptions for 221 yards and a touchdown, and Larson followed with two receptions for 15 yards and one TD.

Uhls graduated from Southeast with a degree in General Studies in 2012. He attended Cape Central High School and is the grandson of former legendary Southeast head baseball coach Joe Uhls.

Uhls was a student assistant with the offense for two seasons before taking over as Southeast's director of operations.

He and his wife, Mara, reside in Cape Girardeau.

YEAR IN REVIEW

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

2015 REVIEW

Southeast Missouri's second year under head coach Tom Matukewicz resulted in an overall record of 4-7 and fifth-place finish in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Southeast ranked among the top three in the OVC in rushing offense (2nd, 182.9 ypg), kickoff returns (20.6 ypr), punt return average (3rd, 9.6 ypr), kickoff coverage (2nd, 40.6 net avg), sacks (2nd, 31), fourth-down conversions (2nd, 60 pct) and turnover margin (+10).

The 2015 Redhawks produced seven All-OVC selections, including quarterback Dante Vandeven, wide receiver Paul McRoberts, running back Tremane McCullough, guard Garret Baker, linebacker Roper Garrett, cornerback Mike Ford and punter Alex Knight. Vandeven was the league's Freshman of the Year, McRoberts and McCullough each claimed first-team honors and Baker, Ford, Garrett and Knight were second-team picks.

A native of nearby Jackson, Vandeven started the season at No. 3 on Southeast's depth chart. He took over as the Redhawks starting quarterback in the second half at nationally-ranked Indiana State and started the final eight games of the season. He entered that game late in the third quarter and led Southeast to 21 fourth-quarter points and a near road upset of the Sycamores. Included in the comeback was a touchdown pass with no time on the clock that brought the Redhawks to within a point (although the ensuing two-point conversion attempt came up short).

Overall, Vandeven completed 155-of-250 passes for 1,568 yards and 11 touchdowns, and rushed for 292 yards and another six TDs. He became Southeast's first true freshman quarterback to throw for over 1,000 yards in a season since 1998 (Bobby Brune). He ranked 26th in the nation in completion percentage (62 pct.), 41st in completions (17.22/game) and 46th in points responsible for (12.0/game). Vandeven, who was also named to the league's All-Newcomer Team, was the second Southeast player to win the Freshman of the Year award since its inception in 2004. He joins former quarterback Scott Lathrop who won the honor in 2012.

McRoberts earned first-team honors for the second-straight year. He made 76 catches for 940 yards and nine touchdowns, averaging 12.4 yards per catch. McRoberts broke Southeast's all-time career record in receiving touchdowns (29) and had four 100-yard receiving games. He finished with a season-high 169 yards and two touchdowns on eight catches against Murray State, a game where he came in at No. 5 on ESPN SportsCenter's Top-10 plays. McRoberts made his debut as a punt returner, where he led the team with 162 yards on 14 returns, and ran back a punt 69 yards for a touchdown. He ranked 13th in the Football Championship Subdivision receiving touchdowns and 17th in receiving yards. McRoberts finished his outstanding Southeast career with 2,435 receiving yards, third-most in school history.

McCullough stormed onto the scene and staked his claim as the Redhawks top rusher. He ran for 1,028 yards and five touchdowns on 170 carries, averaging six yards per touch. McCullough led the OVC with six 100-yard rushing games, racking up a season-high 220 yards vs. Murray State. He became the first Southeast running back to get over 1,000 yards in a season since 2012 (Levi Terrell). McCullough had 33 catches for 279 yards out of the backfield, as well. He ranked second in the OVC in rushing yards and rushing yards per game (93.5). In addition, McCullough ranked nationally in rushing yards per carry (19th, 6.1 ypc), rushing yards per game (24th) and all-purpose yardage (20th, 134.2 ypg). He joined Vandeven on the league's All-Newcomer Team.

Baker started all 11 games at left guard, helping lead a Southeast offense that put up 279 points, the Redhawks fifth-most in a season.

For the second year in a row, Garrett led the Redhawks in tackles. He notched 106 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks and 42 solo stops in 11 starts. He ranked second in the OVC in tackles and was one of only four players in the league to get over 100 tackles in 2015. Garrett was also 10th in the conference in both sacks and tackles for loss, and became the first Redhawk to get 100 tackles in a season since 2012 (Blake Peiffer). Garrett posted a total of six double-digit tackle games along the way.

Ford led the OVC with five interceptions during his first year as a starting cornerback. He had 44 tackles, two tackles for loss, a team-high seven pass breakups and a sack. Ford was ninth in the FCS in interceptions per game.

Knight topped the OVC and ranked fifth in the nation with 44.8 yards per punt. He punted 64 times for 2,867 yards and dropped 29 of his kicks inside the 20-yard line. Knight had 18 of his punts travel 50 or more yards and three of his kicks sail 60-plus yards.

Southeast faced a ranked opponent in two of its first three weeks of the 2015 campaign.

The Redhawks kicked off the season with a 34-3 loss at #24 Missouri (Sept. 5).

Mizzou scored the first 17 points of the game and never looked back.

Knight established new career-highs in punts (10), punting yards (497), 50+ yard punts (5) and punts inside the 20 (6). Knight's 60-yard punt in the second quarter against the Tigers marked the second-longest of his career.

Ryan McCrum kicked a 42-yard field goal with five seconds left to give Southeast its first win of the season, a 27-24 victory over regional-rival Southern Illinois (Sept. 12).

McCrum missed three-straight field goals before kicking the game winner in come-from-behind fashion. Defensively, the Redhawks forced seven turnovers (four fumbles, three interceptions) against the Salukis.

Southeast nearly upended #23 Indiana State (Sept. 19) on the road during week three.

A 21-point fourth-quarter comeback fell short when the Redhawks missed a two-point conversion with no time on the clock in a heartbreaking 29-28 loss.

Vandeven relieved starting quarterback Tay Bender late in the third quarter and orchestrated all three of Southeast's fourth-quarter scoring drives. He completed 12-of-17 passes for 115 yards and a touchdown, and ran for 28 yards on four attempts.

McRoberts caught a game-high seven passes for 100 yards and caught a 26-yard touchdown pass as time expired.

Southeast played host to NCAA Division II Shorter University (Sept. 26) the next week.

The Redhawks led by a touchdown after three quarters, but Shorter scored 12 points in the final 15 minutes to stun Southeast, 26-21.

Shorter's tricky triple option offense had Southeast on its heels and piled up 406 yards of total offense with a 6.1 yards per play average.

McCullough rushed for 166 yards and Brendan Stewart scored a pair of rushing touchdowns to lead the Redhawks.

Southeast regrouped to beat Murray State, 27-10, at Houck Stadium a week later.

The Redhawks held MSU to only one touchdown, stopped the Racers three times on fourth down and ended three of MSU's drives in the red zone. In the end, that was the difference.

Vandeven threw for 221 yards and two touchdowns en route to getting his first career win as Southeast's starting quarterback. McCullough ran for 220 yards, as well.

Eriq Moore and Chad Meredith led the Redhawk defense with 11 and 10 tackles, respectively. Meredith also had two sacks and three quarterback hurries in his big performance.

Southeast scored 21 second half points, but it wasn't enough in a 33-28 road loss to Eastern Illinois (Oct. 10).

The Redhawks trailed by 20 points with 6:34 left to play in the third quarter before mounting their comeback. Southeast, however, simply ran out of time.

Needing a touchdown, the Redhawks managed to get to the Panthers 43-yard line with 15 seconds remaining. Vandeven then threw three consecutive incompletions before his hail mary was batted down in the end zone as the Panthers hung on.

Tied, 10-10, at halftime, Southeast went scoreless in the second half during a 27-10 Homecoming loss to #14 Eastern Kentucky (Oct. 17).

The Redhawks were behind, 17-10, when EKU faked a punt on a fourth-and-9 at Southeast's 38-yard line. That final play of the third quarter resulted in punter Keith Wrzuszczak completing a 16-yard pass to Barton Mann. That was the turning point in the game as the Colonels scored a touchdown five plays later.

EKU then added 10 more points in the fourth quarter to seal the win.

McRoberts made his debut as a punt returner against the Colonels running back three punts for 37 yards.

Fresh off its bye week, Southeast hosted Tennessee Tech (Oct. 31) in its Pink Up game to support Breast Cancer Awareness.

The Redhawks scored 17 third-quarter points, all on special teams, to key a 38-17 victory over the Golden Eagles.

Southeast kicked a 50-yard field goal and scored a pair of touchdowns in a span of 5:18 to blow the game open.

Darrius Darden-Box blocked a punt and returned it seven yards for a touchdown.

McCrum accounted for the field goal and McRoberts returned a punt 69 yards for a touchdown. McRoberts' special teams touchdown came exactly two weeks after he made his debut as a return man.

McCullough rushed for 138 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries, averaging 8.1 yards per touch.

Southeast wore special pink jerseys donning names of individuals affected by cancer as part of its special Pink Up initiative.

McRoberts broke the school's all-time career record in receiving touchdowns and McCullough ran for 150 yards to lead Southeast to a commanding 44-15 victory at Austin Peay (Nov. 7).

The Redhawks shutout APSU in the second half and scored 23 unanswered points en route to snapping a six-game road losing streak.

McRoberts' record-breaking touchdown reception came on a 2-yard pass from Vandeven with 7:34 left to play in the third quarter.

Defensively, Southeast forced two turnovers and held the Governors under 100 yards rushing (82).

No. 1 Jacksonville State piled up 617 yards of total offense in a 56-28 win over Southeast Missouri at Burgess-Snow Field.

The Redhawks scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Cameron Sanders returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown for one of the TDs, as his return was the longest for a touchdown in school history.

Vandeven completed 19-of-39 passes for a season-high 239 yards and a touchdown, and ran for 29 yards and another score on 13 carries.

McCrum's 42-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left with 53 seconds left and UT Martin escaped with a 28-25 win in the season-finale.

After ranking last in the OVC with a -9 turnover margin in 2014, Southeast led the league in that category with a +10 mark. The Redhawk defense forced a turnover in nine of 11 games and finished the 2015 campaign with multiple takeaways in each of their final four contests. In addition, Southeast tallied 31 sacks.

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Southeast Missouri opened the 2015 season with a 34-3 loss to #24 Missouri in front of a crowd of 64,670 at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field.

Mizzou, which shutout Southeast in three quarters, scored the first 17 points of the game and never looked back.

Maty Mauk, who improved to 15-4 as a collegiate starting quarterback, threw touchdown passes on two of the Tigers first three drives.

Mauk hooked up with J'Mon Moore on a 27-yard strike to cap a quick 5-play, 64-yard march in just 1:15, giving Mizzou an early lead.

After a Southeast punt, Mauk went to work again, engineering a 5-play, 54-yard drive. His second touchdown pass, a 23-yard toss to Nate Brown, extended Mizzou's lead to 14-0 with 4:49 left to play in the first quarter.

Freshman Drew Lock made his debut under center during Mizzou's first drive of the second quarter.

Lock started strong, completing 4-of-5 passes for 51 yards. His 22-yard pass to Moore on 3rd-and-4 kept the drive alive that resulted in a 39-yard field goal by Andrew Baggett.

Southeast put together its only scoring drive of the game late in the first half. The Redhawks covered 76 yards in 16 plays before Ryan McCrum kicked a 35-yard field goal to make it 17-3 at the intermission.

Mizzou assembled a 10-play, 76-yard drive to start the second half, but settled for a field goal. Mauk completed a 25-yard pass to Moore to move the Tigers to the Southeast-20.

Five plays later, Mauck completed a 5-yard touchdown pass to Sean Culkin. The catch, however, was negated after Culkin stepped out of bounds before securing the ball in the back of the end zone.

Baggett's 23-yard field goal split the uprights immediately after the penalty to stretch the Tigers lead to 20-3 with 10:55 remaining in the third quarter.

A big play on special teams allowed the Tigers to add to their lead.

On 4th-and-10, linebacker Kentrell Brothers blocked quarterback Tay Bender's pooch punt. Aarion Penton scooped up the ball and ran 41 yards to the end zone, raising Mizzou's lead to 27-3 with 22 seconds left in the third quarter.

Lock threw a 78-yard touchdown pass to a wide open Tyler Hunt for Mizzou's final score. That play polished off the Tigers longest march which consisted of five plays and 92 yards in less than two minutes.

Mauk completed 12-of-22 passes for 181 yards and two touchdowns and Lock threw for 138 yards and a touchdown to lead Mizzou.

The Tigers outgained Southeast, 417-201, with 319 of their yards coming through the air.

Bender played well in his first career start as the Redhawks QB. He completed 12-of-22 passes for 56 yards and ran for a game-high 69 yards on 14 carries. Bender did not throw an interception, as well.

Paul McRoberts, who hauled in his 100th career catch late in the first quarter, finished with four receptions for 40 yards.

Offensively, Southeast did not have a play go for more than 21 yards.

In just his third career start, Chad Meredith led the Redhawks with a career-high eight tackles. Eriq Moore also recorded the fifth interception of his career when he picked off Mauk at the Southeast 6-yardline.

Southeast's defense accounted for a total of three sacks and eight tackles for loss, while holding Mizzou under 100 rushing yards (98).

Punter Alex Knight established new career-highs in punts (10), punting yards (497), 50+ yard punts (5) and punts inside the 20 (6). Knight's 60-yard punt in the second quarter marked the second-longest of his career.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - After missing three-straight field goals, Ryan McCrum kicked a game-winning 42-yarder with five seconds left to send Southeast Missouri to a 27-24 win over Southern Illinois in a slugfest at Houck Stadium.

The 83rd meeting between these regional-rivals went wire-to-wire and Southeast came from behind to pull off its first win over SIU since 2010.

McCrum's rare three missed field goals came from 42, 38 and 39 yards out, but he delivered when it mattered most.

McCrum made a 39-yard field goal and Mike Ford returned the first of his game-high two interceptions 21 yards for a touchdown to grab Southeast an early 10-0 lead.

Mark Iannotti's 18-yard touchdown pass to Daquan Isom put SIU on the board with 5:17 left in the first quarter, completing a 10-play, 86-yard march.

After an Alex Knight punt, SIU took over on downs at its own 42-yardline.

On the next play, Kendall Donnerson jarred the ball loose from Connor Iwema. Eriq Moore recovered and ran 42 yards to the end zone, pushing Southeast's lead to 17-7 at the 2:50 mark.

SIU answered with two touchdowns to take a 21-17 lead at the half.

Iannotti had a hand in both of those of long drives. He first scored on a 3-yard run to cap a drive that covered 75 yards in 10 plays and later threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to Darrell James at the end of a 5-play, 79-yard march in a quick 31 seconds.

Austin Johnson's 46-yard field goal widened SIU's lead to 24-17 with 12:45 remaining in the third quarter and that would be the last of the Salukis scoring.

After Iannotti's incomplete pass on a 4th-and-9, Southeast began its ensuing possession on its 36.

Tay Bender completed a 20-yard pass on a 3rd-and-7 to move the Redhawks into SIU territory. Three plays later, Bender threw a 15-yard pass to Lewis Washington for another first down, this time on a 3rd-and-5.

DeMichael Jackson's 8-yard run then moved Southeast to the SIU-13 before Bender threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Paul McRoberts, bringing the game to a 24-24 deadlock with 2:27 left.

SIU, after starting its final drive of the game at its own 6-yardline, went three-and-out. Derek Mathewson's 42-yard punt was fair caught by Tyler Manne at the SIU-49. A roughing the kicker penalty by Southeast was declined and the Redhawks remained in good field position at the same spot.

With 42 seconds on the clock, Bender quickly threw a 6-yard pass to Adrian Davis. Bender was sacked for a loss of three yards on the next play.

Moments after Southeast called timeout with 31 seconds remaining, Bender completed a 14-yard pass to Jackson and a 7-yard pass to McRoberts to set up McCrum's game-winner.

Jackson ran for a career-high 186 yards and averaged 6.2 yards per carry on 30 attempts, and Bender completed 16-of-29 passes for 159 yards and a touchdown to lead Southeast.

McRoberts added four catches for 51 yards, moving to 10th all-time with 1,586 career receiving yards at Southeast.

Defensively, the Redhawks were outstanding again.

Southeast forced seven turnovers (four fumbles, three interceptions) on the night. Its seven takeaways were the most in a game since the Redhawks had six against Mars Hill College on Sept. 8, 2012. As a result of its stout defensive effort, Southeast won the turnover battle by a stifling +7 margin.

Ford paved the way with two interceptions, a touchdown and eight tackles. He was fully extended and managed to stay in-bounds along the near sideline on a leaping catch for his other pick late in the third quarter.

Donnerson also had eight tackles, a sack and two forced fumbles, while Roper Garrett turned in a team-high 13 tackles. Garrett, Eriq Moore and David Coley had one fumble recovery apiece, as well.

GAME 3

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. - A 21-point fourth quarter comeback fell short when Southeast Missouri missed a two-point conversion with no time on the clock in a heartbreaking 29-28 loss to #23 Indiana State.

True freshman and nearby Jackson native Dante Vandeven, who relieved starting quarterback Tay Bender late in the third quarter, threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Paul McRoberts that narrowed ISU's lead to 29-28 as time expired.

McRoberts moved to the inside of his defender and jumped up to get the ball before lunging across the goal line. Southeast elected to go for the win, but Vandeven's pass sailed out of McRoberts' reach, allowing the Sycamores to escape.

Vandeven kept the Redhawks final drive alive by completing an 11-yard pass to Darrius Darden-Box on a 4th and 9 before throwing his first career touchdown following three-straight Southeast timeouts.

A poised Vandeven marshaled three scoring drives in the last 9:29 of the game when Southeast trailed, 21-7.

Tremane McCullough's 18-yard run capped a 10-play, 57-yard march that pulled the Redhawks within a touchdown at the 9:29 mark.

After ISU punted, Southeast went to work at its own 34. Vandeven ran six yards to pick up a big first down on a 3rd and 6 before McCullough gained 28 yards on three carries.

Moments after Lewis Washington hit paydirt on a 1-yard run, Vandeven converted a two-point conversion with a pass to Darden-Box, giving the Redhawks a 22-21 lead.

ISU countered when Matt Adam completed a 33-yard touchdown pass to Gary Owens on 4th and 3. Adam threw for 69 yards on a perfect 4-of-4 passes and rushed for another six yards on two carries during a 6-play, 75-yard drive that regained a 29-22 lead for ISU with 41 seconds.

Southeast mounted its late ferocious comeback after ISU clearly had the momentum.

The Sycamores scored three times in a third quarter, where Southeast threw two interceptions in the end zone.

After a personal foul penalty tacked 15 yards onto the end of a 5-yard completion from Bender to McRoberts, Southeast had a first down at ISU's 16-yard line.

On the next play, All-Missouri Valley Football Conference cornerback Travis Starks picked off Bender and ran 100 yards to tie the game at 7-7 with 11:15 left to play. For Bender, it was his first interception of the season.

Southeast then punted and ISU took over on downs at its own 15.

Adam threw for 43 yards and ran for 16 to set up Marlon Fleming's 13-yard touchdown run that gave the Sycamores their first (14-7) at the 5:34 mark.

Vandeven moved Southeast to the ISU 33-yard line on his first drive under center. Seven plays in, Marcus Gray picked off Vandeven in the end zone.

ISU covered 80 yards in eight plays after the turnover and stretched its lead to 21-7 on a 9-yard run by Owens, concluding the third quarter.

Southeast used a dominating defensive effort to hold ISU scoreless in the first half.

The Redhawks held the Sycamores to 143 total yards, including just 73 on the ground.

On the fifth play of the game's first drive, Eriq Moore intercepted Adam on a pass that was tipped twice.

Both teams were scoreless until Bender broke the drought late in the first quarter. He faked a handoff and ran 80 yards up the middle for a touchdown, grabbing Southeast a 7-0 advantage with 2:23 left to play.

Bender's TD run was the longest by a Redhawk quarterback, surpassing Matt Scheible's 71-yard rush vs. Eastern Illinois on Oct. 1, 2011. The run also tied Southeast's fourth-longest rushing play in school history.

Vandeven completed 12-of-17 passes for 115 yards and a touchdown, and ran for 28 yards on four attempts.

McRoberts caught a game-high seven passes for 100 yards, posting the fifth 100-yard receiving game of his career.

McCullough added a game-high 114 yards on 18 carries with an average of 6.3 yards per touch.

GAME 4

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Shorter University ran for 300 yards and used a big fourth-down stop with a little over three minutes left to get by Southeast Missouri, 26-21, at Houck Stadium.

Southeast began its final drive at its 10-yard line with 6:11 remaining after B.J. McCoy scored his second touchdown on a 3-yard run.

Tremane McCullough ripped off a 53-yard run to get the Redhawks to the SU 28. Brendan Stewart rushed for four yards following a false start penalty. Dante Vandeven then threw an incomplete pass and was dropped for a loss of four yards.

Southeast called timeout with 3:09 on the clock before Vandeven's next pass on fourth-and-13 was incomplete.

SU ran for a pair of key first downs, including one on a third-and-7 and another on fourth-and inches the last time it had the ball. The Hawks took a knee to run out the clock right after Aaron Bryant moved the chains on fourth down.

SU had Southeast on its heels all day with its tricky triple option offense and the Redhawks simply had no answer.

The Hawks chewed up the first 8:46 of the game, covering 78 yards in 15 plays during their first scoring drive.

McCoy led the charge with 39 yards on eight carries and rushed four times inside the 5-yard line before Bryant scored on a 3-yard run to give SU a 7-0 advantage with 6:14 left to play in the first quarter.

Vandeven, who made his first career start at quarterback, engineered an 11-play, 54-yard march that ended with his own 5-yard run to tie the game at 7-7 with 1:56 on the clock. It marked Vandeven's first career rushing touchdown.

Southeast took the lead when Stewart scored his first career touchdown on an 8-yard run. His TD came four plays after McCullough broke free for a 48-yard run and put the Redhawks ahead, 14-7. That score would stay the same at the half.

McCoy's 37-yard touchdown run finished off an 8-play, 87-yard drive and tied the game at 14-14 with 9:55 remaining in the third quarter.

The Redhawks countered when Stewart scored his second touchdown on a 5-yard run to regain a 21-14 lead at the 4-minute mark. McCullough picked up 31 yards on six attempts to set up the TD that polished off a 13-play, 85-yard drive in 5:57.

That, however, was Southeast's last score as SU added two fourth-quarter touchdowns to put the game away.

Bryant completed an 18-yard pass to Cody Simpson to give the Hawks a one-point (21-20) lead. Kenny Langford's PAT went off the right upright.

McCoy ran for 159 yards and two touchdowns on 23 carries, averaging just under seven yards per touch (6.9) to lead SU. Bryant contributed 41 rushing yards and completed 6 of 8 passes for 109 yards and a TD.

SU piled up 409 yards of total offense and gained 6.1 yards per play.

McCullough rushed for a game-high 166 yards on 18 carries and Stewart ran for 40 yards and two touchdowns on eight attempts to lead Southeast. McCullough, who gained over 100 yards for the second-straight game, averaged 9.2 per rush.

Vandeven completed 13 of 17 passes for 104 yards and ran for 28 yards and a TD on six carries. He also threw an interception.

Six different receivers caught a pass for Southeast, with Adrian Davis paving the way with three for 34 yards. Peter Lloyd also had three, while Paul McRoberts, Darden-Box and McCullough followed with two each. Lewis Washington was the other with a reception. Additionally, quarterback Tay Bender did not play the second half due to an injured left shoulder. Bender had 11 yards on three carries before he exited the game.

Defensively, Roper Garrett registered 11 tackles, including 1.5 for a loss of four yards. Garrett went his third-straight game with double-digit tackles and recorded 10 or more for the eighth time in his career. He also went over 200 career tackles.

Rushing (Att.-Yds.-TD): SU - McCoy, B.J. 23-159-2; Carr, Kartez 6-71-0; Bryant, Aaron 22-41-1; Quarterman, M. 5-15-0; Sutton, Maurice 2-15-0; TEAM 1--1-0. GAME 5

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Southeast Missouri held Murray State to only one touchdown in a 27-10 victory during its Ohio Valley Conference opener at Houck Stadium.

Southeast's defense dominated a high-powered MSU offense that entered the night averaging 467 total yards. The Redhawks stopped the Racers three times on fourth down and ended three of their drives in the red zone. In the end, that was the difference.

The Redhawks forced two turnovers, including one on MSU's opening drive of the game.

MSU moved the ball all the way to Southeast's 1-yard line before the Redhawks tackled offensive lineman Chris White short of the goal line on consecutive carries. On the next play, KD Humphries completed a pass to Drew Rutland, who fumbled the ball out of bounds inside the front left pylon for a touchback.

After MSU came up empty on fourth down again, the Racers put the game's first points on the board.

Humphries picked up a first down on a 9-yard run and then threw three-straight completions to quickly get the Racers to the Southeast 22. Three plays later, Roman Clay scored from seven yards out to cap an 8-play, 75-yard march, giving MSU a 7-0 lead with 1:59 left in the first quarter.

Southeast scored the next 10 points with a 25-yard field goal by Ryan McCrum and a 24-yard touchdown pass from Dante Vandeven to Paul McRoberts to take a 10-7 halftime lead. McRoberts' touchdown capped a 12-play, 99-yard drive, the Redhawks longest of the season.

The Redhawks quickly added to their lead on their first drive of the second half.

Tremane McCullough ran for 60 yards on four carries and hit paydirt on a 3-yard run to polish off a nice 8-play, 82-yard drive in 3:36. McCullough's second rushing touchdown of the season extended Southeast's lead to 17-7 with 11:26 left in the third quarter.

Connor Mitchell's 21-yard field goal narrowed Southeast's lead to 17-10 at the 5:10 mark, accounting for MSU's only points in the final two quarters.

Back-to-back highlight-reel catches by McRoberts led to another touchdown for Southeast with 24 seconds left in the third period. McRoberts bobbled a 44-yard pass from Vandeven downfield and made an outstanding reception as he was hitting the ground.

He then went up to grab an 8-yard pass from Vandeven and got one foot down in the back corner of the end zone to push Southeast's lead to 24-10.

McCrum's second field goal, this time from 30 yards out, put the finishing touches on the Redhawks 27-10 win.

McRoberts, who had only two catches a week ago, finished with a season-high eight for 169 yards and two touchdowns. It was his first multiple touchdown game this year and he fell just four yard shy of his career-high in receiving yards.

McCullough, who has rushed for over 100 yards in three-straight games, piled up a game-high 220 yards on 27 carries, averaging 8.1 per rush. He had 146 of his yards in the second half alone, becoming the first Southeast player to rush for over 200 yards in a game since Levi Terrell coincidentally gained 215 at Murray State on Nov. 17, 2012.

Vandeven completed 16-of-221 passes for 221 yards and two touchdowns en route to earning his first career win as Southeast's starting quarterback.

As a team, Southeast tallied a season-high 495 yards of total offense.

Defensively, Eriq Moore and Chad Meredith paved the way with 11 and 10 tackles, respectively. Meredith also turned in two sacks and had three quarterback hurries in his big performance.

Southeast improved to 8-17 all-time in OVC-openers, starting league play with a win in back-to-back years for the first time in school history.

GAME 6

CHARLESTON, Ill. - Southeast Missouri scored 21 points in the second half, but came up short in a 33-28 loss to Eastern Illinois at O'Brien Field.

Southeast trailed by 20 points with 6:34 left to play in the third quarter before mounting another big comeback. The Redhawks, however, simply ran out of time.

Paul McRoberts' 8-yard reception, one of two fourth-quarter touchdowns for Southeast, cut EIU's lead to 33-28 with 5:30 left in the game.

The Redhawks forced the Panthers to punt on their ensuing possession and Mike Bernier's 54-yard kick was downed at Southeast's 5-yard line.

Southeast had one last chance with 34 seconds left and quickly went to its star wide receiver. Dante Vandeven completed three of his first four passes to McRoberts to get the Redhawks into EIU territory.

McRoberts jumped to make a spectacular one-handed 36-yard catch in double coverage and followed that up with a 9-yard reception as Southeast suddenly faced a second-and-1 at the Panthers 43-yard line (15 seconds).

Vandeven, under pressure, threw three consecutive incompletions as time expired. His hail mary pass on fourth down was knocked away by Bradley Dewberry in the end zone, allowing EIU to hang on.

It was a tale of two halves for Southeast, which started slow.

The Redhawk offense sputtered to just 76 total yards in the game's first two quarters. EIU immediately keyed on Southeast tailback Tremane McCullough, holding him to a mere five yards on his first nine touches.

EIU scored on the opening drive of the game when Devin Church hit paydirt on a 3-yard run. Jalen Whitlow broke free for a 21-yard scamper to give the Panthers a first-and-goal at the Southeast 6 before Church found the end zone to grab EIU a 7-0 advantage with 12:30 left to play in the first quarter.

A 37-yard punt return by Shepard Little and 27-yard run by Church gave EIU another first-and-goal, this time at the Redhawks 8-yard line. The Panthers settled for a 20-yard field goal by Nick Bruno to extend their lead to 10-0 with 51 seconds.

Bruno added a second field goal when his 39-yard kick capped a 14-play, 58-yard drive to put EIU ahead, 13-0, with 5:28 in the second quarter.

After moving the ball to EIU's side of the field just one time in the first 30 minutes, Southeast needed a big play and would get it right before the half.

Following a 38-yard punt by Alex Knight, Whitlow threw a pass behind receiver Tray Mitchell. The ball went off Mitchell's arm and into the hands of Josh Kinzer who ran 28 yards to the end zone, slicing the Panthers lead to 13-7 at the 1:16 mark. It was the second pick of Kinzer's career and third defensive touchdown for Southeast this season.

Southeast went three-and-out to start the second half.

EIU marched 69 yards in seven plays to up its lead to 20-7 when Whitlow completed an 11-yard pass to Addison Bounds with 10:52 remaining in the third quarter.

Ryan McCrum missed his fifth field goal of the season with an attempt that soared wide left and EIU scored shortly after that.

Whitlow again hooked up with Bounds who was wide open downfield on a play that went for 65 yards, as EIU built its largest lead at 27-7 with 6:34 in the third quarter.

The Redhawks used completions of 15 and 38 yards from Vandeven to McRoberts to get into the red zone. Vandeven later threw an 8-yard pass to Lewis Washington, who stretched the ball over the goal line to shrink EIU's lead to 27-14.

Southeast forced EIU to punt and scored on its second-straight possession.

McCullough was tackled for a loss of one on a third-and-goal at the Panthers 7-yard line. An unsportsmanlike conduct penalty by the Panthers resulted in a new set of downs for Southeast at the EIU 4. Vandeven scored from a yard out on fourth down to make it a 27-21 game with 13:39 to go in the fourth quarter.

A 33-yard pass from Whitlow to Paul Gossage and a pass interference penalty by the Redhawks keyed EIU's next scoring drive that ended on a 6-yard pass from Whitlow to Church. EIU held a 33-21 lead with a little under nine minutes after coming up empty on its 2-point conversion.

Vandeven completed three-consecutive passes after being sacked for a loss of 10 yards, and threw a 24-yard pass to McCullough on a fourth-and-5. Darrius Darden-Box picked up 25 more yards on a reverse to put Southeast in striking distance with a first-and-goal at the EIU 10. Vandeven's 8-yard pass to McRoberts trimmed the Panthers lead to five at the 5:30 mark and that was as close as Southeast would get.

GAME 7

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Southeast Missouri had just 191 total yards and only 52 in the second half during a 27-10 loss to #14 Eastern Kentucky in front of a Homecoming crowd of 7,589 at Houck Stadium.

Southeast was tied with EKU, 10-10, at halftime, but ran into a buzzsaw in the second half.

EKU scored 17 unanswered points in the game's final two quarters, becoming the second team to shutout the Redhawks in the second half this season.

Bryan Green caught a 29-yard touchdown pass from Bennie Coney to give EKU its first lead of the game at 17-10 with 11:22 left to play in the third quarter.

Coney later threw a 7-yard pass to Joel Brown (14:20) and Lucas Williams kicked a 32-yard field goal (2:02) in the fourth quarter to polish off the 27-10 win.

Defensively, the Colonels held Southeast to a mere 31 rushing yards, allowing just one yard per attempt. EKU added three sacks for a loss of 18 yards and had 10 tackles for a loss of 35.

Southeast was behind 17-10 when EKU faked a punt on a fourth-and-9 at the Redhawks 38-yard line. The final play of the third quarter, the turning point in the game, resulted in punter Keith Wrzuszczak completing a 16-yard pass to Barton Mann.

Five plays later Coney threw his second touchdown.

Paul McRoberts gave Southeast a big spark with a career-high 10 catches for 93 yards in the first half alone. McRoberts, however, did not have a reception in the final 30 minutes.

McRoberts tied the school's all-time career touchdown reception record when he scored on a 3-yard pass from Dante Vandeven to give Southeast a 7-0 lead with 5:34 remaining in the first quarter.

McRoberts jumped to make a great catch on a fourth-down fade in the corner of the end zone. It was his 26th career touchdown reception, as he now stands tied with Willie Ponder (2001-02) at the top of the list.

Adam Lane's 6-yard run tied the game at the 13:06 mark before Ryan McCrum kicked a 20-yard field goal to put the Redhawks ahead, 10-7, with 8:53 left in the second quarter.

Williams' 27-yard field goal then brought the game to a 10-10 deadlock at intermission.

McRoberts made his debut as a punt returner for Southeast, running back three punts for 37 yards. His first career return went for 29 yards.

Vandeven also completed 24-of-36 passes for 160 yards.

Defensively, freshman Stephon Williams and Roper Garrett led the Redhawks with eight tackles each. Williams finished as the team's leading tackler for the second-straight week.

Madon had a career game at tight end, notching six catches for 117 yards, while Coney threw for 275 yards and two touchdowns.

EKU finished with 404 yards of total offense.

Trey Thomas and Tyrell Curry turned in eight tackles apiece while Noah Spence followed with seven. Spence also had a game-high 3.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks.

Southeast dropped to 12-13 in Homecoming games since joining the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision in 1991.

GAME 8

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Southeast Missouri scored 17 third-quarter points, all on special teams, to key a 38-17 victory over Tennessee Tech afternoon at Houck Stadium.

Southeast, which wore pink jerseys donning the names of individuals affected by cancer as part of its Pink Up initiative, topped this special day by getting its second Ohio Valley Conference win.

After holding a 14-10 lead at halftime, Southeast scored a pair of touchdowns and kicked a 50-yard field goal in a span of 5:18 on special teams to blow the game open in the third quarter.

TTU was in punt formation at its own 26-yardline when Darrius Darden-Box blocked Jonathan King's kick at the 15-yardline. The ball took a couple bounces off the turf before Darden-Box scooped it up at the 7-yardline and ran to the end zone.

Southeast took a 21-10 lead at the 7:48 mark on the big play.

Ryan McCrum, who missed from 47 yards out in the second quarter, kicked a 50-yard field goal to widen Southeast's lead to 24-10 with 4:15 remaining.

Then, Paul McRoberts, returned a punt 69 yards down the near sideline for a touchdown to put the Redhawks ahead, 31-10, with 2:30 on the clock. McRoberts' special teams touchown came exactly two weeks after he made his debut as a punt returner.

Southeast later tacked on one last touchdown when Dante Vandeven scored on an 8-yard run with 2:24 left in the fourth quarter to polish off its commanding 38-17 victory.

Offensively, Tremane McCullough ran for 138 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries. McCullough averaged 8.1 yards per rush and dashed 81 yards for his third rushing touchdown this year. The rushing play marked the fourth-longest in Southeast history, as McCullough posted his fourth 100-yard game of the season.

Vandeven completed 11-of-21 passes for 125 yards and ran for 91 yards and two touchdowns. McRoberts contributed a game-high four catches for 56 yards and ran back four punts for 83 yards. His 69-yard punt return for a touchdown was the longest in the OVC this season and third-longest in school history.

Southeast piled up 360 total yards, including 235 on the ground. The Redhawks' 38 points marked a season-high.

The Redhawk defense had three takeaways, including two interceptions and a fumble recovery. Southeast also had a season-high seven sacks for a loss of 42 yards.

Chad Meredith had a game-high 2.5 sacks to go along with his seven tackles, while Mike Ford and Eriq Moore each had a pick. Moore moved into a tie for 17th at Southeast with his seventh career interception. Brad Ivey led the team with nine tackles and Terrance Hill turned in eight tackles, a sack and recovered a fumble.

Special teams wise, the Redhawks blocked a kick this season for the first time and returned their first blocked punt for a touchdown since Oct. 19, 2013 (at Eastern Illinois). Additionally, McRoberts became the first Southeast player to return a punt for a touchdown since Chris NesSmith (44 yds) accomplished the feat vs. Tennessee State on Oct. 5, 2002.

Brock McCoin, one of the top receivers in the OVC, started at quarterback for TTU. McCoin completed 13-of-27 passes for 192 yards and ran for 96 yards on 27 carries.

Jay Rudwall led the Golden Eagles with 11 tackles.

Rushing (Att.-Yds.-TD): TTU - McCoin, Brock 27-96-0; Vanlier, Ladarius 12-45-0; Annoor, Radir 4-25-0; Carter, Dorian 6-18-2. GAME 9

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. – Paul McRoberts broke the school's all-time career record in receiving touchdowns and Tremane McCullough rushed for 150 yards to lead Southeast Missouri to a 44-15 win over Austin Peay at Governors Stadium.

Southeast, which shutout out APSU in the second half, scored 23 unanswered points en route to snapping a six-game road losing streak.

McRoberts' record-breaking touchdown reception came on a 2-yard pass from Dante Vandeven and gave the Redhawks a 31-15 lead with 7:34 left to play in the third quarter. It marked the 27th of his career, as he surpassed Willie Ponder (26, 2001-02) for the new mark.

After that, Chad Meredith and Will Young scored their first career touchdowns to to polish off the Redhawks second-straight win.

Roper Garrett sacked Trey Taylor for a loss of eight yards on a third-and-6. Taylor fumbled on the play and Meredith scooped up the ball and ran a yard to the end zone. Meredith's score was the fourth touchdown for the Redhawk defense this year.

Following a fourth-down stop, Southeast took over on downs in excellent field position at the APSU 35-yard line. Five plays later, Young hit paydirt on a 5-yard run to push the Redhawks lead to 44-15 with 2:03 remaining in the fourth quarter. Young ran for 23 yards on three carries to key Southeast's final drive.

Southeast trailed, 12-7, with 11:42 left in the second quarter before using a 25-yard touchdown pass from Vandeven to Tyler McLemore to regain a two-point edge. McLemore's first career touchdown reception capped an 8-play, 75-yard march.

APSU went three-and out on its ensuing possession and the Redhawks went to work at their own 43.

Vandeven ran for 12 yards and threw a 14-yard completion to Lewis Washington, helping move Southeast into the red zone. Tay Bender kept the drive alive when he ran six yards to pick up a first down at the Governors 3-yard line. Bender then scored on a 3-yard run to give the Redhawks a 21-12 lead at the 3:49 mark.

Logan Birchfield (20 yards) and Ryan McCrum (44 yards) exchanged field goals in the final minute of the second quarter before Southeast headed into the locker room with a 24-15 lead.

Vandeven completed 19-of-28 passes for a season-high 161 yards and two touchdowns to lead Southeast. His 4-yard touchdown run gave the Redhawks their first lead of the game. Vandeven surpassed 1,000 passing yards (1,103) in six starts this year.

McCullough averaged just under eight yards per carry (7.9) and the 100-yard game was his fifth of the season.

McRoberts added a game-high eight receptions for 61 yards. He is now third all-time with 155 career pass receptions at Southeast. McRoberts was one of eight different Redhawks with a catch.

Southeast outgained APSU, 404-261, and picked up 220 yards on the ground.

Defensively, the Redhawks forced two turnovers and held the Governors under 100 yards rushing (82).

Garrett paved the way with 11 tackles, two sacks, three tackles for loss and a forced fumble. The Redhawks tallied five sacks and posted 12 in their last two games.

GAME 10

JACKSONVILLE, Ala. - No. 1 Jacksonville State piled up 617 yards of total offense in a 56-28 victory over Southeast Missouri at Burgess-Snow Field.

Troymaine Pope (137) and Christian LeMay (124) each rushed for over 100 yards and two touchdowns, while Eli Jenkins threw for 194 yards and three touchdowns and Josh Barge caught seven passes for 108 yards and two TDs to lead JSU.

The Gamecocks won the Ohio Valley Conference title for the second year in a row and ran their conference winning streak to 16 games, now the longest in the Football Championship Subdivision.

Southeast trailed JSU, 21-7, at halftime before the Gamecocks scored five more touchdowns and tacked on another 335 yards in the final 30 minutes.

JSU put up 35 points in the second half, including 21 in the third quarter.

Tremane McCullough scored on a 7-yard run and the Redhawks got a big boost on special teams when Cameron Sanders ran back a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown with 10:10 left in the fourth quarter. Sanders' kickoff return was the longest in school history.

Darrius Darden-Box then scored his first career touchdown on a 15-yard pass from Dante Vandeven to cap Southeast's scoring.

Southeast marched 62 yards on eight plays during the opening drive of the game. That drive, however, stalled at JSU's 15-yard line when Vandeven fumbled after being sacked by Brandon Bender. Monty Young recovered for the Gamecocks.

The Redhawks tied the game at 7-7 when Vandeven scored on a 3-yard run with 10:36 remaining in the second quarter.

After that, JSU countered with 28 unanswered points to blow the game open.

Pope carried the ball 17 times and averaged 8.1 yards per rush, while LeMay averaged 20.7 yards on six attempts. Both of LeMay's touchdowns were in the fourth quarter, consisting of 42 and 51 yards, respectively.

The Gamecocks finished with 399 rushing yards, the most any time has had against Southeast this season.

Defensively, JSU held the Redhawks to 332 total yards and recorded four sacks and 12 tackles for loss to go along with its takeaway.

Vandeven completed 19-of-39 passes for a career-high 239 yards and a touchdown, and ran for 29 yards and another score on 13 carries.

McCullough had six catches for 104 yards and Paul McRoberts made 10 receptions for 93.

Roper Garrett and Stephon Williams led Southeast's defense with 12 and 10 tackles, respectively. Williams also contributed 1.5 sacks.

Southeast also had two sacks, a fumble recovery and one interception on the day.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Ryan McCrum's 42-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left with 53 seconds left and UT Martin escaped with a 28-25 victory over Southeast Missouri at Houck Stadium.

Southeast trailed, 28-10, before scoring 15 unanswered points to pull to within three.

After stopping UTM on a fourth-and-5, the Redhawks started their final drive at their own 15. Dante Vandeven kept the drive alive when he completed an 11-yard pass to Paul McRoberts on fourth down.

Vandeven hooked up with McRoberts, this time for 23 yards, to move Southeast to the UTM 34. A 9-yard pass from Vandeven to Tyler Manne got the Redhawks to the 25-yard line and an incomplete pass followed that.

Southeast then called timeout before McCrum came on and missed his seventh field goal of the season.

McRoberts, who finished his outstanding college career with 10 catches for 127 yards, scored both of Southeast's touchdowns down the stretch.

He scored on a 29-yard reception with 5:45 left in the third quarter and a 6-yard reception with 12:03 remaining in the fourth. Vandeven converted the 2-point conversion when he completed a pass to Logan Larson to make it a 28-25 game.

UTM, which was ahead 14-3 at halftime expanded its lead to 28-10 with a pair of third-quarter touchdowns.

Jarod Neal threw a 10-yard strike to Caylon Weathers at the 12:15 mark and later threw a 20-yard touchdown pass to Rod Wright with 8:53 left to play.

McRoberts closed out his Southeast career with 175 receptions for 2,435 yards and 29 touchdowns. Today marked his eighth 100-yard receiving game as a Redhawk.

Tremane McCullough ran for 101 yards and a touchdown on 14 carries, averaging 7.2 yards per touch. McCullough went over 1,000 yards (1,028) this year, becoming Southeast's first 1,000-yard rusher in a season since Levi Terrell had 1,349 in 2012.

Meanwhile, Vandeven completed 21-of-39 passes for 226 yards and two touchdowns. He threw three interceptions, as well.

Defensively, Roper Garrett paved the way with a game-high 14 tackles, while Marlon Hampton added a career-high 10. Garrett ended the season with a team-high 106 tackles. He is the first Redhawk to get 100 tackles in a season since Blake Peiffer accomplished the feat in 2012.

Neal completed 16-of-29 passes for 164 yards and three touchdowns and Trent Garland ran for 138 yards and a touchdown on 26 carries to lead UTM.

The Skyhawks outgained Southeast, 411-373, with 247 of their yards on the ground. There were also a combined 18 penalties for 181 yards between the two teams.

Southeast honored its 12 seniors prior to its season finale.

THIS IS THE OVC

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

OVC HISTORY

Now in its 69th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 16 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged February 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Through the past 68 years, 15 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 21 outright or shared football crowns, which is tied for the most in Football Championship Subdivision history (with Massachusetts). Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with 10, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois has claimed seven football crowns and Jacksonville State has five, while Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri, UT Martin and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh. EKU was coached by former All-America quarterback Roy Kidd, who was in his 16th year at the helm of his alma mater and who skippered the Colonels to a second national title three years later. Following the 2002 season, Kidd retired after 39 years at EKU; upon retirement, he ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches with 315 victories, earning him a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame. EKU's now 21 FCS playoff appearances are the second for the most all-time (behind only Montana's 24 berths).

In addition to Kidd, other coaching legends in the OVC include Charles "Bubber" Murphy, who coached at Middle Tennessee from 1947-1968, Western Kentucky's Jimmy Feix (1968-83), Wilburn Tucker (1954-67) and Don Wade (1968-82) of Tennessee Tech, Bill Ferguson (1967-77) of Murray State, Guy Penny (1959-67) of Morehead State and Boots Donnelly (1977-78 at Austin Peay; 1979-1998 at Middle Tennessee). Following the 2011 season Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo retired after 25 years at the school (the last 16 as members of the OVC). In his time as an OVC coach he compiled 92 total victories (fifth-most in league history) and 68 OVC wins (fourth-most in league history) and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2012. In 2016 former Murray State head coach Frank Beamer (1981-86) was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame; he introduced his wide tackle six defense to the OVC and compiled a 43-23-2 record with the Racers before leaving for his alma mater Virginia Tech where he won 280 games of 29 seasons.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo and Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals. He would break into the starting lineup halfway through his rookie season and started at cornerback for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

The 2007 season marked a return to scholarship football and the OVC for the Austin Peay Governors. Following the 1996 season the Governors dropped scholarship football and competed as both an independent (1997-00, 2006) and as a member of the Pioneer Football League (2001-05).

The 2007 season also brought new vernacular to the Ohio Valley Conference and the division formerly known as I-AA. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game the term I-AA was changed to NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in a decision by the Division I Board of Directors. The new label was chosen to communicate in a positive and clear manner the unique differences between Division I football categories (chiefly, the post-season opportunity) while still defining them within the Division I experience. The FCS includes programs that compete in an effort to participate in the NCAA championship postseason structure (one of 90 NCAA national championships) as opposed to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) which competes in an effort to participate in the postseason bowl system (the 41 NCAA-licensed events which includes the College Football Playoff).

In 2010 Southeast Missouri State, picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll, compiled a 7-1 Conference record on the way to its first OVC Championship since joining the league in 1991. Overall the Redhawks were 9-2 during the regular season and earned a berth in the FCS Playoffs, its first playoff berth at any level in the program's 104-year history. Southeast would lose to eventual national champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the playoffs. Head coach Tony Samuel capped the year by winning the Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award, given to the National Coach of the Year. Samuel was the second OVC coach to win the award (joining Murray State's Houston Nutt who won the award in 1995).

For only the second time in league history in 2011, three teams shared the OVC football championship, as Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech finished with 6-2 records. The only other time in league history more than two champions were crowned at the end of the year was 1962 (when four teams shared the crown).

In 2012 Eastern Illinois became just the fourth football team in OVC history to go from worst-to-first in winning the OVC Championship. The Panthers were led by head coach Dino Babers who became just the fourth first-year head coach to win an OVC Championship (joining Boots Donnelly in 1977, Jason Simpson in 2006 and Dean Hood in 2008 – Jacksonville State head coach John Grass would become the fifth coach to achieve that feat in 2014). During the year Eastern Illinois junior wide receiver Erik Lora shattered the FCS single-season receptions record, hauling in 136 passes in 12 games; that mark was 13 more than the previous NCAA record and 44 more than the previous OVC mark.

In 2013 Eastern Illinois repeated as OVC Champions behind Walter Payton Award winner Jimmy Garoppolo. The quarterback became just the second OVC player to earn the National Player of the Year Award, joining former EIU signal caller Tony Romo (2002). Garoppolo passed for 5,050 yards (second most in NCAA single-season history) and 53 touchdowns (fourth in NCAA history) in leading the Panthers to a 12-2 record and berth to the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs. Garoppolo was drafted by the New England Patriots in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft, becoming just the fifth OVC player selected in that round and just the fifth OVC quarterback ever selected (and first since 1998).

The 2013 season saw the OVC snap a 19-game playoff losing streak dating back to the 2000 season. Tennessee State shutout Butler (marking the first OVC road playoff victory since 1986) to snap the streak while later that day Jacksonville State smashed Samford in the first round. A week later Eastern Illinois beat Tennessee State while Jacksonville State won at McNeese State to each advance to the quarterfinals; that marked the first time the OVC put two teams in the quarterfinals in the same season since 1991. Overall the four total playoff wins in the same season established a new OVC record.

In 2015 Jacksonville State ascended to No. 1 in both major Top 25 polls, becoming the first OVC team to be ranked No. 1 since the 1999 season. The Gamecocks would go on to complete its second-straight 8-0 Conference mark and won three playoff games to become the first OVC team to advance to the Division I National Championship Game since 1982 (Eastern Kentucky). JSU lost to North Dakota State in the title game but finished the year 13-2 overall and ranked No. 2 in the final Top 25 polls. Head coach John Grass became the first OVC coach honored as the AFCA National Coach of the Year while quarterback Eli Jenkins was named the FCS ADA National Quarterback of the Year, finishing the year with 2,788 passing and 1,161 rushing yards (one of just three Division I quarterbacks – FBS or FCS - to achieve those numbers during the year).

Football wasn't the only sport in which the OVC was quickly gaining respect. In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants. The Conference quickly proved worthy of that bid, as Morehead State defeated Marshall (107-92) and Wayne State (95-84) in the 1956 tournament.

Fifteen years later, former OVC member Western Kentucky became the first and only Conference team to reach the Final Four. The Hilltoppers defeated Jacksonville, Kentucky and Ohio State before losing to Villanova in double overtime in the national semifinals. WKU went on to finish in third place after beating Kansas 77-75 in the consolation game.

Since that time, the OVC has recorded some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Tournament. Perhaps the most famous moment came in 1987, when Austin Peay came from fourth place in the regular season to win the OVC Tournament and earn the league's automatic bid. The Governors drew powerful Illinois, and were such big underdogs, that ESPN broadcaster Dick Vitale promised to stand on his head if APSU won the game. After a 68-67 victory over the Illini, and a narrow 90-87 overtime loss to eventual Final Four participant Providence in the second round, Vitale made good on his promise in a visit to Clarksville two months later.

Murray State added to the OVC's string of upsets in 1988 when it knocked off 14th-ranked North Carolina State, 78-75. The Racers' M&M Boys - Jeff Martin and Don Mann - combined for 39 points in the win. MSU nearly went on to the Sweet 16 that year, losing to eventual national champion Kansas, 61-58. A bank shot by Mann that would've given the Racers a one-point lead rolled off the rim with three seconds left. In 1990 as a No. 16 seed, Murray State took No. 1 seed Michigan State into overtime before falling 75-71; that game still marks the closest a No. 16 seed has come to knocking off a No. 1 in men's tournament action. More recently, Murray State has dominated the OVC Tournament, reaching the championship game every year in the 1990's. The Racers' 15 OVC Tournament Championships are the most among all OVC schools.

After former member Middle Tennessee State won a first round game in 1989, the league had a drought as no other OVC team won a NCAA Tournament game for the next 19 years. But Morehead State, coming off a thrilling double overtime OVC Tournament victory over Austin Peay, topped Alabama State 58-43 in the Opening Round game at University of Dayton Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The game was played in front of an Opening Round record crowd of 11,346 and included many MSU fans who made the three-hour drive from Morehead for the game.

Southeast Missouri State REDHAWKS

OVC HISTORY

In 2009-10, Murray State made OVC history by winning a record 31 games (31-5) on its way to the league's regular season and tournament championships. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the No. 13 seed Racers topped Vanderbilt in thrilling fashion when senior Danero Thomas hit a jumper as time expired to lift MSU to a 66-65 victory. It marked the first OVC team to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament since 1989, and snapped a skid of 71-straight loses to Southeastern Conference foes (dating back to 2000-01). In the second round, the Racers pushed eventual national runner-up Butler to the brink before losing 54-52.

In 2010-11 Morehead State would make it three NCAA Tournament wins in as many years for the league and got a bit of revenge for the 2009 tournament loss to Louisville in the process. After finishing second in the regular season and winning the OVC Tournament Championship, the No. 13 seeded Eagles were shipped to Denver to play the in-state foe Cardinals. MSU jumped out to a 15-2 advantage but were down four points (61-57) with just over a minute to play in regulation. After two free throws from two-time OVC Player of the Year Kenneth Faried, the Eagles held for one final shot attempt and senior Demonte Harper pulled up off a cross-over dribble to nail a 3-pointer with 4.3 seconds left that gave Morehead State a 62-61 lead. UofL had one last attempt but Faried blocked the Cardinals last shot, giving MSU the win, its first over Louisville since the 1956-57 season.

In 2011-12 Murray State put together one of the greatest seasons in OVC history, beginning the year 23-0 (an all-time OVC best) and being ranked as high as No. 7 in the coaches poll on Feb. 6. The squad was the first OVC team to be nationally-ranked since Murray State was ranked in 1997-98; in addition the top 10 ranking was the first for an OVC team since the 1970-71 campaign (WKU). The Racers would top nationally-ranked Memphis and Saint Mary's during the season and win the league's regular season and tournament championships. MSU earned a No. 6 seed in NCAA Tournament, the highest-ever seed for an OVC team since the NCAA began seeding the field in 1979. The Racers would top Colorado State 58-41 in the second round before falling to Marquette in the third round. Murray State would win 31 games overall, tying the OVC all-time record the Racers set in 2009-10.

After the Murray State win in 2011-12, the league had won NCAA Tournament games in four-straight seasons, something that had never happened in league history (three-game winning streaks from 1960-62 and 1987-89 had been the previous best streaks). Over that time period (2009-12) the OVC was one of just nine conferences nationally to win a NCAA Tournament game in each season and one of only three non-BCS leagues (joining the Atlantic 10 and WCC) to do so.

In 2013-14 Murray State won five games to claim the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) and in the process became the first OVC men's basketball team to ever play games in the month of April.

The 2014-15 season saw five OVC men's basketball teams earn postseason bids, the most in league history, and a year later (2015-16) that number was eclipsed with six teams making national postseason tournaments. Entering 2016-17 OVC men's basketball teams have at least one national postseason tournament victory in eight-straight postseasons, an all-time league record.

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft.

During the 2010-11 year Faried, the nation's leading rebounder during the season, became the NCAA's Modern Era (since 1973) career rebounding leader, totaling 1,673 rebounds which passed Tim Duncan for the record (he is 11th all-time in NCAA history). Faried also finished his career with 86 double-doubles, second all-time to only Duncan. He is one of only six players in NCAA history to finish with 2,000-plus career points (2,009) and 1,600-plus career rebounds. Faried was drafted 22nd overall by the Denver Nuggets in the 2011 NBA Draft, becoming the first OVC player selected in the first round since Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers 1994.

Murray State guard Isaiah Canaan, a first-team All-American in 2011-12, capped his illustrious career in 2012-13 by becoming just the 17th player in OVC history to score 2,000 or more career points. Canaan, who was a key part of Murray State NCAA Tournament victories in both 2010 and 2012, earned a pair of OVC Player of the Year honors (2012 and 2013) during his career as well as being named OVC Freshman of the Year (2010), OVC Tournament MVP (2010) and OVC Male Athlete of the Year (2012). He was drafted by the Houston Rockets with the 34th overall pick (No. 2 pick of the second round) of the 2013 NBA Draft.

In 2014-15 Murray State became just the fifth OVC men's team to complete a perfect Conference season (16-0). The Racers were led by sophomore Cameron Payne who was named OVC Men's Basketball Player of the Year, OVC Male Athlete of the Year and earned third-team All-American honors from CBSSports.com. Following the season Payne declared for the NBA Draft, becoming the first sophomore in OVC history to do so and one of just four OVC players all-time to enter and stay in the draft with eligibility remaining. Payne was selected in the lottery by the Oklahoma City Thunder (pick No. 14 overall), making him just the ninth First Round NBA Draft pick in OVC history.

Austin Peay made history in winning the 2016 OVC Men's Basketball Tournament as the Governors became the first No. 8 seed to claim the championship. APSU had to win its two regular season games just to qualify for the event and then won four games in four days to capture its fifth tournament crown. Along the way the Govs topped a No. 5 seed, No. 4 seed, No. 1 seed and No. 2 seed and were paced by MVP Chris Horton who averaged 22.5 points, 14.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists/game during the event including a 37-point, 21-rebound and 30-point, 16-rebounds performance during the run.

In 2016, former Belmont All-American and 2012-13 OVC Co-Player of the Year Ian Clark became the first former OVC player to advance to the NBA Finals since former Tennessee State star Anthony Mason played for the New York Knicks in 1994. Clark was part of a Golden State Warriors team that won a NBA record 73 regular season games.

Through its 68 years, 13 teams have won or shared the league's regular season men's basketball title. Murray State heads the list with a Conference-record 24 outright or shared basketball crowns. Other past champions include former member Western Kentucky (19), Morehead State (9), Austin Peay (8), Eastern Kentucky (6), Tennessee Tech (5), former member Middle Tennessee (5), Belmont (3), Tennessee State (2), former member East Tennessee State (2), Southeast Missouri State (1), UT Martin (1) and former member Akron (1).

Among the coaching greats in men's basketball have been Western Kentucky's E.A. Diddle, who retired with 759 victories and 10 OVC titles; John Oldham, who was a member of the very first All-OVC squad and went on to win seven OVC crowns during his coaching tenure at Tennessee Tech and Western Kentucky; Paul McBrayer, who guided Eastern Kentucky to 219 wins and three OVC crowns; and Cal Luther, who is the only person in Conference history to win men's basketball Coach of the Year honors at two league schools - Murray State and UT Martin. Current Austin Peay head coach Dave Loos became the winningest coach in OVC history in 2009-10, netting his 319th victory and passing Luther on the all-time list. Loos enters the 2016-17 season with 409 victories.

There have been an equal number of great players including Western Kentucky's Clem Haskins, who is the only three-time OVC Player of the Year. Several players have won OVC Player of the Year honors twice: Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniels (1969-70 and 1970-71), Murray State's Les Taylor (1971-72, 1972-73), Jeff Martin (1987-88, 1988-89), Popeye Jones (1989-90, 1990-91) and Marcus Brown (1994-95, 1995-96), Austin Peay's Otis Howard (1976-77, 1977-78), Middle Tennessee's Jerry Beck (1980-81, 1981-82), Akron's Joe Jakubick (1982-83, 1983-84), Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers (1992-93, 1993-94), UT Martin's Lester Hudson (2007-08, 2008-09), Morehead State's Kenneth Faried (2009-10, 2010-11) and Murray State's Isaiah Canaan (2011-12, 2012-13).

The OVC also has the honor of being the only conference to boast the nation's leaders in scoring, rebounding and assists all in one season. That feat was accomplished in 1991-92 by Morehead State's Brett Roberts (28.1 ppg), Murray State's Popeye Jones (14.4 rpg) and Tennessee Tech's Van Usher (8.8 apg).

Women's basketball in the OVC has been dominated by Tennessee Tech, which has won or shared 18 regular-season titles and owns nine OVC Tournament crowns. In fact, the Golden Eagles have reached the championship game of the OVC Tournament 22 times in the past 34 years. Although Tennessee Tech remains the standard-bearer, five other teams have won 16 of the last 23 OVC Tournaments. UT Martin added its name to the list capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011 and also winning championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Skyhawks became just the fourth team in OVC history (and first since Austin Peay from 2000-03) to win four-straight tournament titles. In 2016 Belmont won its first-ever OVC Tournament Championship.

Several coaches have made their mark in the history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at EKU and three at MTSU. In 2012-13 Inman came out of retirement to take the Tennessee State job; in 2014-15 he led the Lady Tigers to its first OVC Tournament Championship since 1995. Entering the 2015-16 season he has 535 victories.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; Murray State's Ashley Hayes; and UT Martin's Heather Butler and Jasmine Newsome.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken). During the campaign, only her second with the Eagles, she also set career block records for both Morehead State and the OVC (287).

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

In 2013-14 Butler and Newsome capped their brilliant careers by ranking first and second in scoring in OVC history. Butler, the 2013-14 OVC Female Athlete of the Year, finished her career with 2,865 points, which ranked first in OVC and 16th in NCAA history. She also finished her career with 392 career 3-pointers (which was tied for the most in NCAA history following her career but now ranks second) and scored in double figures in all 129 career games which ranks fifth in NCAA history. Following the season Butler was signed by the WNBA's San Antonio Stars where she became the first OVC player to make an active WNBA roster. Newsome capped her career with 2,566 points, second only to Butler in OVC history.

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC served as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event was held April 6 & 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville and was played in front of sold-out crowds for both the semifinals and championship as UConn topped Notre Dame in a battle of undefeated teams to win its ninth national title.

Over its 68 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. Former Morehead State football and Eastern Kentucky track and field athlete Dallas Robinson competed with the U.S. bobsled team during the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Kenneth Faried (Morehead State), football players Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois) and Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players A.J. Ellis (Austin Peay) and Shawn Kelley (Austin Peay). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and a NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six straight tournament crowns. Former EKU skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 33 years, 11 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regular-season titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006 and winning a NCAA Tournament match in 2010, the league's first NCAA victory since 2000.

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third-straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. Five other individuals - Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) , Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) and Murray State's Scottie Ingram (2014-15) – were back-to-back winners of the award.

Morehead State won its fourth-straight OVC regular season championship in 2013. Over that four-year period (2010-13) the Eagles compiled an impressive 67-3 league record.

In 2007, Eastern Kentucky's Jacob Korir won his fourth-straight Conference cross country title becoming just the third OVC student-athlete and 13th athlete nationally to accomplish that feat. Korir was a three-time All-American in cross country, earning two top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championship. The Nairobi, Kenya, native was also named a track and field All-American twice during his career, was selected as the OVC Male Athlete of the Year in 2006-07 and received the NCAA post graduate scholarship in 2008.

In 2011 the Eastern Kentucky men's cross country earned a national ranking in the USTFCCCA poll, climbing to as high as No. 17; the ranking was the highest for an OVC team since the polls began in the early 1980s. The EKU men would qualify for the NCAA Championship, becoming the first OVC team to reach the national championship meet since 1980. Eastern Kentucky finished 26th overall at the event as junior Soufiane Bouchikhi was 47th in a field of 252 runners. On the women's side Eastern Kentucky senior Lydia Kosgei became the first EKU woman to ever qualify for the NCAA Championship and went on to finish 37th at the national meet, marking the second-highest finish for a female in OVC history, and also earning All-American honors.

A year later (2012) the EKU men's cross country team was ranked as high as No. 11 nationally and finished 24th at the NCAA Championship. Wade Meddles led the team with a 38th place finish at the event while Bouchikhi was 40th. In 2013 Eastern Kentucky placed 15th at the NCAA Championship, the highest national finish for an OVC team since 1980. Soufiane Bouchikhi capped his career by winning his fourth-straight OVC Championship and earning National Runner of the Week honors during the season. Bouchikhi finished 26th at the NCAA Championship in 2013, earning All-American honors for the second-straight season. In 2014 EKU qualified for its fourth-straight NCAA Championship and finished 23rd overall and in 2015 earned its fifth-straight bid and finished 17th overall. EKU is only the second OVC team to ever qualify for five-straight NCAA Championships (ETSU being the other); currently the Colonels are one of only 10 teams in the country to qualify for the national championships each of the last five years (2011-15).

In 2007 the Conference had two teams in the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament for the first time in league history, as former OVC member Samford earned an at-large selection while Southeast Missouri was the Conference's automatic bid.

Former Austin Peay standout and 2012 OVC Soccer Player of the Year Tatiana Ariza represented her native country of Colombia in both the 2012 Summer Olympics in London (earning a start against the United States) as well as the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup. In the 2015 event she assisted on the first World Cup goal in her country's history and in the following match helped her team to a 2-0 victory over France, giving Colombia its first-ever win at the event.

For the first time under the current format, OVC men's golfers qualified for the NCAA National Championship in back-to-back years in 2013 and 2014. Austin Peay's Dustin Korte advanced from the regional to the national championship in 2013 (finishing 116th overall) while APSU's Marco Iten won the Auburn Regional in 2014 to qualify for the National Championship (finishing 55th). In 2015 OVC three individual men's golfers competed in the NCAA Regionals (one automatic berth and two at-large berths) in addition to the Eastern Kentucky team; the three individuals were the most from the OVC to qualify in one year under the current format. The OVC also boasts three current PGA Tour professionals in Scott Stallings (Tennessee Tech), Josh Teater (Morehead State) and Danny Willett (Jacksonville State).

In April 2016 Willett won The Masters Championship in Augusta, Georgia. The former JSU standout, who was the 2006 OVC Freshman of the Year and the 2007 OVC Championship Medalist, entered the final round tied for fifth, three shots behind 2015 champion Jordan Spieth after rounds of 70-74-72. In the final round Willett fired a 5-under par round of 67 to finish at 283 (-5) and top the field by three shots. He became just the eighth player in Masters history to win the event in his first or second start and just the second Englishman to win the event.

In 2009 it was OVC softball that accomplished several firsts as UT Martin (tournament champion) and Jacksonville State (at-large) were each selected for the NCAA Championship. Jacksonville State would take it a step farther by winning the Knoxville Regional (beating No. 13 national seed Tennessee along the way) to become the first OVC softball program to advance to a Super Regional. Jax State would fall to No. 4 Alabama in that Super Regional but finished the season 43-16 (19-2 OVC) and ranked 21st nationally in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and 24th nationally in the USA Today/ NFCA poll.

In 2016 the OVC Softball Championship was held at a neutral site for the first time, as it was played at Choccolocco Park in Oxford, Alabama. Large crowds filled the stands to see Jacksonville State win its fifth OVC crown.

The league's baseball presence has continued to evolve since its inception. The OVC baseball tournament moved to a neutral site for the first time in 2001 with Paducah, Kentucky and Brooks Stadium hosting the tournament in front of raucous crowds. The success of the tournament led to Jackson, Tennessee and The Ballpark at Jackson (the home of the Seattle Mariner's Class AA affiliate) – hosting the event for the first time in 2010.

The OVC also has made a statement in the NCAA Baseball Championship in recent years, with its teams involved in several memorable contests in the last decade. Tennessee Tech surprised Wake Forest in the opening round of the 2001 tournament and Southeast Missouri stunned host Alabama in the opening round of the 2002 championship. Five years later, Austin Peay captured the collegiate baseball world's attention by taking Vanderbilt, the 2007 No. 1 overall seed, to extra innings. Eastern Illinois pushed host Nebraska to the limit in 2008 followed by Tennessee Tech's memorable contest against host Clemson in 2009.

After not making the OVC Tournament field in either 2009 or 2010, Austin Peay, who was picked to finish seventh in the 2011 preseason poll, won the regular season and tournament championships to garner its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. In the first game of NCAA Regional play the Govs knocked off host and No. 1 seed Georgia Tech 2-1.

In 2012 Austin Peay completed a "repeat squared" (back-to-back regular season and tournament championships) for the first-time in OVC history. The Govs would go on to top Indiana State and Cal State Fullerton at the Eugene Regional, before falling to host Oregon in the regional final. It marked the first time since the 2000 season (Middle Tennessee) that an OVC team had won multiple NCAA Tournaments games in the same season.

Austin Peay completed a "3-Peayt" by winning its third-straight OVC Tournament crown in 2013. Along the way the Govs garnered the first nationally-ranking by an OVC team since 2009 (climbing to as high as 21st nationally) and tied the OVC single-season record with 47 victories. The Govs earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Bloomington Regional, becoming the first OVC team in the current regional format (since 1999) to earn anything other than a No. 4 seed. The squad topped Florida and Valparaiso to advance to the regional final for the second-straight season before losing to host Indiana. Govs senior closer Tyler Rogers was a big part of his team's success during the year, setting the NCAA single-season record for saves (23 – a mark that was later eclipsed during the College World Series).

In 2016 six OVC teams reached the 30-win plateau for the first time in league history; the previous single-season high had been four teams.

In 2014, for the third-straight year, 12 OVC players were selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Of those 12 selections five came in the first 10 rounds, setting a new record for most OVC players picked in the first 10 rounds (eclipsing the old mark of three set several times). In 2016 13 OVC players were selected in the draft, tying the all-time record established in 2010; overall the OVC has had 78 players selected over the past seven years (2010-16).

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year. A year later (2009) the league had a Major League Baseball First Round Compensation Round pick (Eastern Illinois' Tyler Kehrer who was No. 48 overall) and NBA Second Round pick (UT Martin's Lester Hudson) in the same season.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 250 student-athletes honored with the award, including 58 over the last six years (2010-16).

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Retired Jersey Numbers

KENNETH DEMENT

Number 40 worn by All-American tackle Kenneth Dement was retired on Nov. 11, 1989. Dement, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame, started at Southeast from 1951-54, earning All-American honors in 1953 and 1954. Following his senior season, Dement was the first Southeast player ever drafted by a NFL team. He was drafted by the New York Giants, but opted to join the Marines.

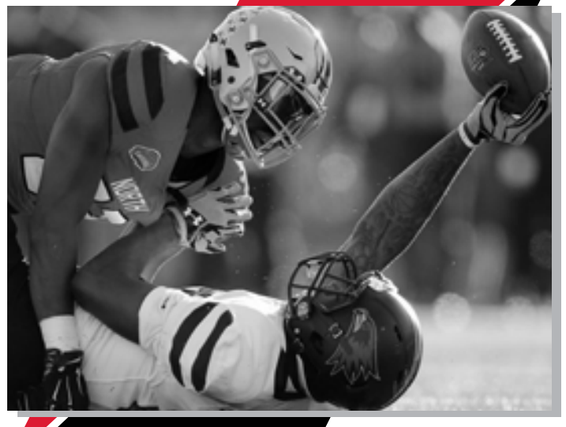

58
KEN IMAN

Number 58 worn by Ken Iman, who played 14 seasons in the NFL, was retired on Oct. 4, 1974. Iman played at Southeast from 1956-59. He was signed as a free agent by the Green Bay Packers and spent four seasons with the Packers before being traded to the Los Angeles Rams. He was the Rams Most Valuable Player in 1972. Iman spent several years as an assistant coach in the NFL and currently serves as an assistant to the President of the Philadelphia Eagles.

67
MIKE WOOD

Number 67 worn by Mike Wood was retired on April 23, 1978. Wood established a new NCAA record for career field goals during his senior season in 1977. He broke the old record of 51 on Sept. 17, 1977 with a 27-yard kick against Delta State at Houck Stadium. His NCAA record total of 64 stood for several years and is still the record at Southeast. Wood, who currently resides in St. Louis, played professionally with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Diego Chargers.

Wide receiver Paul McRoberts became the first Southeast Missouri player to get an invitation to the Reese's Senior Bowl. McRoberts, who signed as an undrafted free agent with the Los Angeles Rams, caught four passes for 46 yards and a touchdown, and returned one punt for 27 yards. He played on the South All-Star team which beat the North All-Stars, 27-16, on Jan. 30, 2016 at Ladd-Peebles Stadium in Mobile, Alabama.

2010 OVC CHAMPIONS

What a run for the Southeast Missouri football team which flipped a 2-9 record from 2009 to a 9-3 mark in 2010.

Southeast's remarkable 6.5-game improvement resulted in the program's first-ever Ohio Valley Conference title and NCAA playoff berth.

The Redhawks ranked as high as seventh in the country before being voted 13th in the final Sports Network and Football Championship Subdivision Coaches Polls. Southeast was a Top-10 team for five-consecutive weeks during its historic season.

Numerous records were broken and the Redhawks saw a major spike in home attendance. Southeast averaged 8,342 fans per game, an increase of more than 2,500 from its 2009 average attendance. The Redhawks also finished undefeated at home for the first time since joining the NCAA Division I ranks.

The Cape Girardeau community rallied behind their beloved Redhawks as the story of Southeast's turnaround did not go un-noticed.

Henry Harris, who was named to several All-America teams and earned the OVC's coveted Offensive Player of the Year award, finished fifth in the overall voting for the Payton Award, which recognizes the FCS's National Player of the Year.

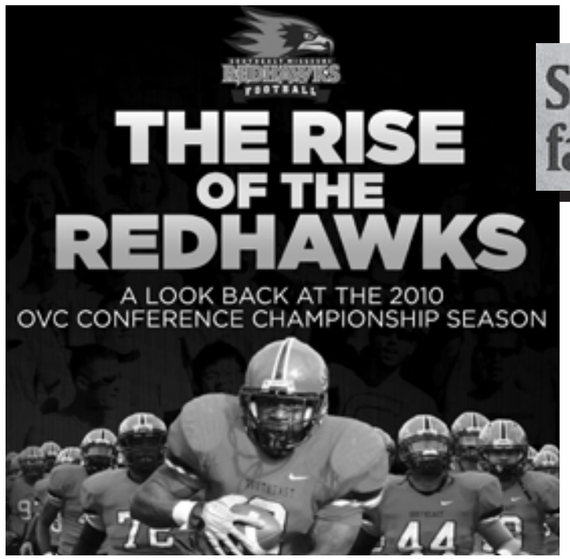

Head coach Tony Samuel, after earning the OVC Roy Kidd Coach of the Year and AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year awards, was named the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year.

Southeast posted its first winning season since 2002 and third winning season since joining the FCS in 1991. The Redhawks tied a school record for most wins in a season and held a nine-game winning streak, which at the time, tied for the longest in the FCS.

The success Southeast endured on the field produced some outstanding accomplishments off the gridiron, as well.

J.J. Sanchez was a Second-Team ESPN/CoSIDA Academic All-American and Matt Scheible was a First-Team Academic All-District selection. Southeast also received the 2010-11 OVC Team Sportsmanship Award for football.

2010 NCAA PLAYOFFS

#9 Southeast Missouri 17
#1 Eastern Washington 37
December 4, 2010 • Roos Field • Attendance: 3,665

CHENEY, Wash. - Fifth-seeded Eastern Washington scored 23 unanswered points, including 20 in the second half, en route to a 37-17 win over Southeast Missouri in the second round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

EWU kicked a field goal with one second left in the first half, before breaking a 17-17 tie with 20 points in the second stanza.

"I'm proud of our guys. It was a heckuva season," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "We played a real tough first half. It's no secret that we lost the game in the second half."

Bo Levi Mitchell, a transfer out of Football Bowl Subdivision SMU, completed a go-ahead 10-yard touchdown pass to Nicholas Edwards to give the Eagles a 24-17 lead with 4:56 left in the third quarter.

After Big Sky Conference Defensive Player of the Year J.C. Sherritt stopped Henry Harris on a 4th-and-1, EWU took over on downs at the Redhawks 43-yardline.

Five plays later, Levi Mitchell hooked up with Greg Herd for a 10-yard strike to extend the Eagles lead to 31-17 with 13:40 remaining in the fourth quarter. Taiwan Jones ran the ball for 12 yards on two carries prior to the score.

The Redhawks caught a bad break on special teams when Cameron Zuber's punt went off of the foot of Sheldon McCullough. Jake Potter recovered and EWU was in business again, this time at the Southeast 39-yardline.

The turnover resulted in a 9-yard touchdown run by Mario Brown and the Eagles pulled ahead, 37-17, with 5:57 left.

Southeast's miscue was the first of four turnovers in the final nine minutes.

Matt Scheible was picked off twice and Josh Coleman fumbled on a punt return, but none of those mishaps led to any points.

EWU and Southeast exchanged field goals before heading into the locker room deadlocked at 17-17.

Drew Geldbach connected from 34 yards out with 43 seconds remaining and Mike Jarrett split the uprights from 39 yards away with one second on the clock.

Levi Mitchell completed 21-of-34 passes for 178 yards and two touchdowns and Jones rushed for 168 yards and two TDs on 25 carries to lead EWU. Jones also averaged 6.7 yards per carry on the day.

Defensively, the Eagles held Southeast to only 12 rushing yards and 26 yards of total offense in the second half. Sherritt registered 10 tackles.

Harris gained 108 yards and scored one touchdown on 20 attempts. It marked the 10th time Harris ran for over 100 yards in 12 starts this season.

Scheible completed 6-of-15 passes for 69 yards and ran for 54 yards on 14 carries.

Jackson posted a career-high 15 tackles and Justin Woodlief followed with 13 to lead the Redhawk defense.

Southeast finished with 268 total yards, including 199 on the ground. The Redhawks also had a season-high nine penalties for 106 yards.

The Redhawks ended their historic season at 9-3 overall.

THIS IS SOUTHEAST

BRING YOUR BIG IDEAS.

And make them count.

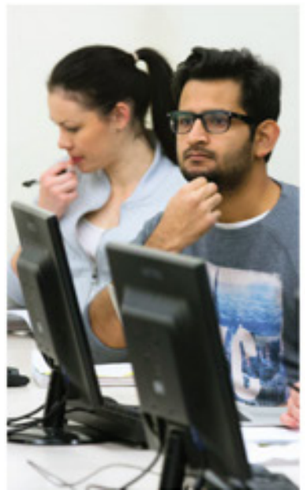

Your big ideas will be in good company here. Whatever you choose to study, chances are the program is at the head of its class. And if you're at the head of yours, you can join our honors program and elevate your learning experience even further.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY · 1873

SOUTHEAST BOASTS 20+ NATIONALLY AND INTERNATIONALLY ACCREDITED PROGRAMS, INCLUDING:

- / ATHLETIC TRAINING
- / BUSINESS
- / CHEMISTRY
- / COMPUTER SCIENCE
- / DIETETICS
- / EDUCATION
- / ENGINEERING PHYSICS
- / INTERIOR DESIGN
- / MASS COMMUNICATION
- / MUSIC
- / NURSING
- / SOCIAL WORK
- / THEATRE

GETTING INTO MEDICAL SCHOOL ISN'T EASY — WE JUST MAKE IT LOOK THAT WAY. SOUTHEAST'S PRE-MED STUDENTS ARE ACCEPTED TO medical school well above the national average.

Like our students, Southeast faculty members come from around the country, hailing from leading institutions such as:

- / Boston Conservatory of Music
- / Carnegie Mellon University
- / Harvard University
- / Pennsylvania State University
- / Purdue University
- / Texas A&M University
- / Tulane University
- / University of Florida
- / University of Michigan
- / Vanderbilt University
- / Yale University

THE DONALD L. HARRISON COLLEGE OF BUSINESS CONSISTENTLY MAKES THE PRINCETON REVIEW'S LIST OF

top business schools.

COME HERE AS A STUDENT.

And go anywhere as a teacher.

Southeast education graduates work as faculty members in school districts across the nation, and in more than 35 countries around the world.

1:21 faculty-student ratio

Full-time faculty

lead most classes, not teaching assistants — starting with freshman year.

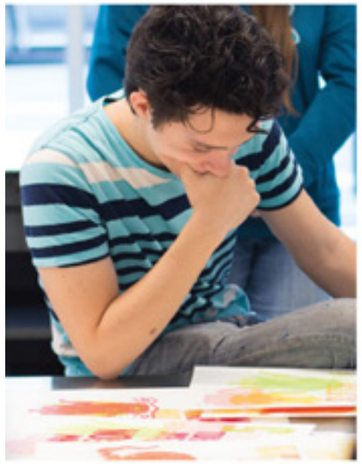

REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE

ROLL UP YOUR SLEEVES AND GET DOWN TO BUSINESS.

Or education, public policy, communications or journalism — whatever your major, expect to learn a lot in class and even more in practice. And here, that practice happens on the latest technology and in real-world settings. You'll experiment and collaborate in just about all of your coursework. And you'll put new knowledge into action right from the start.

YOUR NEXT BIG IDEA could happen anywhere. But you'll give it legs and watch it run at Catapult Creative House, our student-run idea incubator and launchpad for innovation. Get to work in our creative labs, 3D modeling and printing gallery, and impact studio. It's where you'll turn your concepts into prototypes, your prototypes into products, and your products into sales.

THE BEST PLACE TO LEARN ABOUT U.S. POLICY is where it's actually being shaped. So you'll go to the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) in Washington, D.C., for part of our University Studies course. For four exhilarating days, you'll work directly with researchers and consultants who advise national leaders. And if you're really on top of your game, you may end up influencing the strategies you've come to study.

INTERNSHIPS

RÉSUMÉS ARE BUILT— NOT WRITTEN.

The workforce is just that: a force. And it's one you'll meet head on at Southeast Missouri State. We'll help you find internships (that's plural on purpose) and coach you through any challenges or questions that come your way.

SOCIAL CLUBS AND OPPORTUNITIES

SET OUT AND JOIN IN.

Earn your wings early. Chew your way into campus history. Share your musical gift. Meet your new brothers or sisters. Whatever you do — whether it's joining a club or carrying on a tradition — just know that you won't do it alone (except the chewing part).

SOCIAL FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

Representing the IFC, Panhellenic and NPHC Councils. Many of them call Greek Hill home. And in Fall 2016, a new Greek Village will open on campus, providing an expanded Greek community where thousands of students will make new memories of brotherhood and sisterhood.

180+ student groups

With organizations on campus from A (Adult Recess improv group) to Z (Zeta Phi Beta Sorority), there's something to meet every professional, social, recreational or religious interest. And if you can't find what you're looking for, form your own group.

We honor our heritage by sticking to our traditions.
Some of them, quite literally. For years, students have been making the trek up Cardiac Hill (a tradition in its own right) to add their chewing gum to our infamous Gum Tree.

MAKE ART THAT INSPIRES.

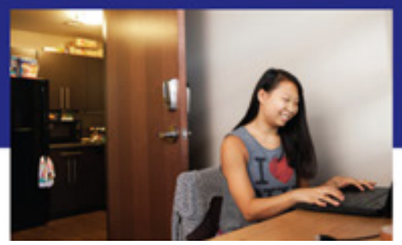

And do it on a campus that's equally inspiring.

Dobbins River Campus Center

Inside this living-learning center, you can make a masterpiece, make dinner and make your bed without ever leaving the River Campus.

In addition to a residence hall, dining facilities and contemporary classrooms, the Cultural Arts Center offers professional-level theatres, costume and scene shops, music rehearsal and gallery space, and dance and art studios — each equipped to inspire ovation-worthy works of art.

Built on the banks of the Mississippi, our River Campus is the only one in Missouri dedicated entirely to the arts. But you don't have to be a student in the Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts to appreciate it. Come catch a performance. Explore the latest exhibits. Or just enjoy the breathtaking river views.

Five venues for exhibiting your talent — including theatres, a recital hall and galleries — set the stage for more than a hundred different events each year.

Among our student-produced musical performances, you'll hear everything from the classics to the contemporary — including Brahms' Double Concerto in A Minor and Andrew Lippa's The Addams Family.

Southeast makes it affordable to do what you dream of doing, and we're recognized as one of the country's institutions with the least indebted students.
