2010 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE VOLLEYBALL

Houck Fieldhouse

The Redhawks play on a SportCourt surface. The two-year old court was designed to reduce the wear and tear on joints and limbs.

Houck Fieldhouse can be configured to hold two full-size volleyball courts for camps and tournaments.

Since taking the helm of the Redhawks program, Renata Heard holds a 34-19 (.642 winning percentage) record at Houck Fieldhouse.

Houck Field House is the home of the Southeast Missouri State Department of Athletics and Athletics Ticket Office, and it is the original home of Southeast's championship basketball teams. The 40,000 square foot building was lost to fire and rebuilt in 1951. After the Show Me Center was completed, the field house was renovated in 1987 and 1995 to better accommodate women's volleyball and gymnastics competition. Brand new locker rooms for women's soccer and softball were added in 2007.

Today, Houck Field House seats approximately 1,000 fans for numerous athletics competitions throughout the year, including Redhawks women's volleyball and gymnastics. The Staff and coaching offices located inside Houck Field House include the volleyball, baseball, softball and tennis programs.

Strength and Conditioning

We are very proud of the tradition of excellence we are building here at Southeast Missouri State University and demand a lot from our student-athletes.

Honesty, integrity, unrelenting effort and attention to detail are the pillars of our training program. Simply put, our goal is to outwork every opponent we go up against, and learn to rely on one another to achieve a common goal. We may not be the fastest, strongest or most talented, but we certainly have the attitude that, together, we can take on the world.

In the weight room, we take a comprehensive approach to training. Programs are ground-based, founded on the Olympic Lifts (Clean, Jerk, etc.) and traditional strength training (Front/Back Squat, Dead Lift, Pressing and Pulling). The concept is simple. Find something heavy and move it in a way that mimics the actions of your sport as fast as you can.

In the training arena, we strive to take the foundational strength and power we have developed and refine it into sport-specific movements and skills. We start by emphasizing correct motor skill and muscle recruitment patterns in order to maximize athletic potential and minimize the risk of injury. We drill tirelessly on proper movement patterns so that agility and change of direction are razor sharp.

We spend a great deal of time on both explosive movements and body control to develop first step quickness, acceleration/deceleration, balance and coordination. Lastly, we condition our minds and bodies in a way that mimics game simulation.

It is our hope that through the countless lessons learned in sport and competition, we are helping to develop the leaders of tomorrow.

Sports Medicine

Prevention. Treatment. Rehabilitation. Education. Those are the four primary phases of athletic training, and the Southeast Missouri State University Athletic Training staff strives to fulfill all of those areas when working with the student-athletes on a daily basis.

Southeast student-athletes are offered the best care possible by the Athletic Training staff. Head Athletic Trainer, Alfred Castillo, directs the Sports Medicine department which includes four full-time athletic trainers, six graduate assistants and several student assistants. The staff serves student-athletes around-the-clock at numerous facilities on campus.

The Athletic Trainers begin treatments and rehabilitation starting as early as 6:00 a.m., and are available until the last student-athlete is through. There are currently four athletic training facilities on campus. The staff treats out of Rosengarten Athletic Complex, where the primary athletic training room is located. There are two other satellite athletic training rooms, including one at Houck Field House and one at the Show Me Center.

The Southeast Athletic Training rooms are equipped with stationary bikes, hand weights, therapeutic modalities, and the latest physical therapy equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athlete the best care, but also to aid in returning to competition as quickly as possible.

Southeast Athletic Training has strong working relationships with local physicians and the two hospitals located within Cape Girardeau. It is from these hospitals that the Athletic Training department is assisted by four orthopedic physicians.

The Southeast Athletic Training program prides and commits itself to providing the best comprehensive, personalized and efficient health care to its student-athletes. Delivery of healthcare focuses on the prevention and management of athletic-related injuries or illnesses, while adhering to the National Athletic Trainers' Board of Certification Standards of Professional Practice. Our high quality of athletic healthcare is provided in combination with the education of athletic training students.

Southeast Missouri State Athletic Training is under the direction of Alfred Castillo. He is entering his fifth season with the Redhawks.

Success Center

The Redhawks Success Center offers Southeast Missouri State student-athletes a place to study and develop as students and campus leaders.

The Redhawks Success Center is located in Student Recreation Center, just south of Houck Stadium. The facility offers a computer lab with 18 computer work terminals, study areas and rooms for group meetings.

The area is under the guidance of Cindy Gannon, Associate Director of Athletics, with assistance from Director of Academic Services Sharon Burgard and two graduate assistants - Geoff Wester and Israel Kirk.

The beautiful facility has enhanced the outstanding work in the classroom already enjoyed by Southeast student-athletes. During the 2009 fall semester, the Southeast athletic programs combined for a 3.12 grade point average, its highest for a fall term. Eleven of the Redhawks 15 programs recorded a team GPA of 3.0 or better. In all, 207 student-athletes recorded at least a 3.0 GPA. Of that group, 50 finished the fall term with a perfect 4.0.

Tutors are available for all student-athletes as needed. In addition, both attendance and academic progress are monitored through regular checks with faculty.

A special course is required for all first time student-athletes at Southeast. The course, which offers three credit hours, is part of a comprehensive program developed to address study skills and life skills topics and thus, enhance retention and academic success for student-athletes.

Entering student-athletes are evaluated for academic preparedness and assigned to appropriate categories. Student-athletes can also receive individualized academic programs which includes meeting with a mentor at least bi-weekly to discuss academic progress.

The Success Center staff also works to get athletes involved in campus and community projects. This is done to provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success for student-athletes. Through the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills Program the Success Center gives student-athletes personal and professional skills in order to facilitate successful and productive futures.

SEASON PREVIEW

2010 Volleyball Preview

The 2010 Southeast Missouri State volleyball team features a unique mixture of experience and youth with eight returning letterwinners and seven newcomers. The make-up of the returnees include four seniors, two starters and one All-Ohio Valley Conference selection.

In her sixth season at the helm of the program, head coach Renata Heard brings in her most highly-touted recruiting class. The group is considered one of the best in the nation by Prepvolleyball.com and features a pair of high school All-Americans, a first for the program.

SETTER

Kacie Ritter (Sr., 5-4)

Julie Shives (Fr., 5-8)

The 2010 season will mark the first year since taking over the program that Coach Heard will not have the duties of a veteran setter quarterbacking the Redhawks offense.

Freshman Julie Shives will be relied on to control the offense. Shives was an All-Conference and All-District selection her senior season at Hilliard Davidson High School in Hilliard, Ohio. She led the team in assists, aces and digs en route to leading her team to the Central District Championship game.

Shives has already built a repertoire with one of her teammates heading into the season. She was a teammate of fellow signee and prep All-American Andrea Baylin at the Club level. Together they teamed up to lead the Columbus Volleyball Academy to the Junior Olympics National Championships in 2009 and 2010.

CLAIRE KEATON

Depth will be provided by senior Kelly Benacka. Benacka is no stranger to filling in at the setter position. Last season, she started 13 matches while starter Sarah Barth recovered from a wrist injury.

Playing setter for the first time since high school, Benacka averaged 9.86 assists per set. She recorded three 50-assist matches during that span.

Cape Girardeau native Kacie Ritter will also provide depth. She previously played two years at Jefferson College and one season at Union University before joining the team in the spring.

Senior Meagan Webb will also add depth to the setter position.

OUTSIDE HITTER

Andrea Baylin (Fr., 6-I)

Paige Dossey (Jr., 5-10)

Berkley Idel (Fr., 5-II)

Brittney Kalinoski (So., 5-II)

Claire Keaton (Sr., 5-10)

Karlee Lursen (So., 5-9)

Colleen Yarber (Fr., 6-I)

The outside hitter positions return four letterwinners from a year ago, including one All-OVC selection. Claire Keaton returns as the lone starter on the outside, making 14 starts. A Second-Team All-OVC selection in 2008, she was hampered early in the 2009 season by a shoulder injury. The final nine matches of the season produced four of her five double-digit kill performances.

Paige Dossey moved back to her more natural position on the outside last season after playing the middle during her freshman campaign. She finished with 98 kills in 14 starts.

As freshmen, Karlee Lursen and Brittney Kalinoski each made contributions. Lursen made an impact early in the season, recording two kill-dig double-doubles in her first three matches.

Kalinoski appeared in 14 matches, including five starts. She played her best at the Georgia Tech Courtyard Classic against the likes of Ole Miss, Clemson and Georgia Tech. Her nine kills vs. Clemson was a season-high.

PAIGE DOSSEY

Three talented incoming freshmen will provide an immediate impact and challenge for playing time. Andrea Baylin heads the class. The Dublin, Ohio native was an honorable mention selection on the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA)/Under Armour Girls High School All-American Team and named to the Prepvolleyball.com All-American Team.

Baylin led one of the nation's top prep teams to the State Championship game and a No. 25 final national ranking by Prepvolleyball.com with a record of 29-1. She was a two-time First-Team All-State selection at Dublin Coffinan High School.

Colleen Yarber joined Baylin as a Prepvolleyball.com All-American Team selection, the first pair of prep All-Americans to sign with the Redhawks in program history. Yarber, a native of Smithton, Ill., led Freeburg High School to back-to-back state titles. She is a two-time All-Conference and St. Louis Post Dispatch All-Metro East Team selection.

Berkley Idel was a Second-Team All-State selection last season as one of the top outside hitters in Missouri. The Wildwood native played at St. Louis powerhouse Lafayette High School where she was named team MVP after leading the team with 326 total kills and a 4.06 kills per set average.

2010 Volleyball Preview

EMILY HUGHES

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

Emily Coon (Fr., 6-2)
Emily Hughes (Sr., 5-II)
Holly Reynolds (Jr., 6-0)

Emily Hughes followed a breakout 2008 season with a stellar 2009 campaign. The only Redhawk to play in all 115 sets and start all 30 matches, she led the team with 346 kills and a .270 attack percentage. Hughes was a two-time OVC Offensive Player of the Week selection and finished eighth in the league in attack percentage and kills per set (3.01).

Freshman Emily Coon will provide depth in the middle. At 6-2, she stands as the tallest player on the Redhawks roster. The native of Imperial, she led the Suburban Conference in kills and blocks as a senior at Seckman High School garnering First-Team All-Conference and All-District honors.

Junior college transfer Holly Reynolds will also help in the Redhawks frontline. The Jefferson College transfer was a First-Team All-Region selection her freshman year and was one of the team's top defensive players the last two seasons.

LIBERO/DEFENSIVE SPECIALISTS

Kelly Benacka (Sr., 5-8)
Berkley Idel (Fr., 5-II)
Samantha Lowman (So., 5-7)
Meagan Webb (Sr., 5-8)

The Redhawks will have a huge void to fill in the defense with the graduation of the program's all-time digs leader in Molly Davis. Davis anchored a back-row that helped the team rank second nationally in digs at 19.29 per set.

The return of Kelly Benacka will help. Prior to her switch to setter last season, Benacka played libero. Last year she finished second on the club with 323 digs for an average of 2.88 per set. She recorded 18 double-digit dig matches and three matches of 20 or more digs. She recorded just six receiving errors on the season and finished with 12 assist-dig double-doubles.

Senior Meagan Webb appeared in 21 matches last season on defense. She finished with 41 digs, including a career-best 14 against Tennessee Tech. She will again compete for that coveted role this season.

Also competing for the team's defensive specialist and libero positions is Samantha Lowman. Lowman saw limited action as a freshman due to a late-season injury, but returned in the spring healthier and more determined to contribute in 2010.

Setter Kacie Ritter will also be in the mix at the libero position. At Jefferson College, she was the team's starting libero, finishing with 580 digs in her two-year career. At Union University last season, she finished with 321 digs to rank fourth on the club.

Also look for freshman Berkley Idel to see action at libero.

THE SCHEDULE

Ten home matches, eight contests against teams that posted winning seasons in 2009 and three matches against teams that advanced to the 2009 NCAA Tournament highlight the Redhawks 29-match schedule.

The program begins the season with three-straight tournaments on the road, beginning at the Bradley Invitational on Aug. 27. The four-team field features Western Illinois, South Carolina-Upstate and the host school, Bradley.

The Redhawks continue their "Tournament Tour" at the JQH Invitational in Springfield, Mo. Traditional Atlantic Coast Conference power North Carolina highlights the field which also includes Ohio and host Missouri State.

The final tournament the Redhawks will compete in is the Saluki Invitational in Carbondale, Ill. Southern Illinois University will host the four-team tournament that features Mississippi State and South Florida.

The Redhawks kick-off OVC play and their home schedule with Eastern Kentucky on Sept. 24. The team will play six of their next eight matches in the friendly confines of Houck Fieldhouse.

Highlighted in the homestand are matches against OVC Tournament Champions Jacksonville State on Oct. 9 and a non-conference match against Atlantic 10 Champion and nationally-ranked Saint Louis University on Oct. 12.

The team then plays six of its next eight matches on the road before hosting Tennessee State and Austin Peay the weekend of Nov. 5, during its final homestand of the season.

The Redhawks conclude the season on the road with matches at Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech, before competing in the OVC Tournament on Nov. 18.

Did you Know?

She has two famous relatives: her brother Andrew Nowacki plays for the Edmonton Eskimos (CFL) and her brother in law Ronnie Heard played in the NFL for the 49ers and Falcons (retired).

She has two boxers, Remi and Rocky.

You would be surprised to know that she can speak three languages.

She would like to be on the "Amazing Race."

Her favorite athletes are Misty May and Michael Jordan.

Bob Marley is on her iPod, only because she has not updated it in over a year.

One word that best describes her is passionate.

On Feb. 2, 2005, Renata Heard was named head volleyball coach at Southeast Missouri State, replacing the program's longest tenured and all-time winningest coach Cindy Gannon.

The seventh head coach in the 36-year history of Redhawks volleyball, Heard took the reins of the program in the spring of 2005, after serving as both an assistant coach and graduate assistant coach for four seasons under Gannon. As an assistant, she served as the setters and passing game coach, as well as being responsible for the program's recruiting efforts. Coach Ren's familiarity with the program made the transition from assistant to head coach a smooth one.

When announced as head coach, Coach Ren was one of the youngest head coaches in the country. The perceived inexperience (due to her age) was quickly put to rest as she led the Redhawks to a 16-16 record, snapping a streak of back-to-back losing seasons.

The following season, Coach Ren led a young and inexperienced team to a pair of upsets in the 2006 Ohio Valley Conference Tournament. As the sixth-seeded team in the tournament, the team made their first appearance in the championship game since the 2002 season.

The 2007 season proved to be her most successful to date. The team captured their first regular season OVC title in seven years, finishing with a record of 20-12 including a 15-5 OVC record. The 20 wins were the most victories for the program since the 2002 season and the 15 league wins were the most since 2000.

Coach Ren was honored as the OVC's Coach of the Year for her team's performance that season.

During the 2008 season, the Redhawks finished third in the OVC standings with a record of 11-7. That marked the third time in four seasons under Coach Ren that the program posted 11 or more conference victories.

Last season the team was picked to finish third in the OVC preseason poll and was poised to challenge for the title after their best start since 1997. A rash of injuries to key players led to the club missing their first ever OVC Tournament under Coach Ren.

Coach Ren has coached two AVCA All-Region selections, two CoSIDA/ESPN the Magazine Academic All-Americans®, eight First Team and five Second Team All-OVC selections, three OVC All-Newcomer Team selections, one AVCA National Player of the Week and 28 OVC Players of the Week since arriving at Southeast.

Numerous players have ranked nationally in individual statistics under Coach Ren's tutelage. Last year, libero Molly Davis ranked 15th nationally in digs as the team finished second in the nation in digs per set. In 2005, standout setter Jamie Baumstark ranked 31st in the NCAA in assists per set. In 2006, Jessica Koeper ranked 41st nationally in kills per set.

In addition, she has worked as camp director for all Southeast volleyball camps, while coaching at various high school and collegiate camps throughout the United States and Canada.

The former Renata Nowacki was standout volleyball player at the University of Mississippi, where she earned her bachelor's degree in Exercise Science (2001). She went on to receive her Master's in Sports Administration from Southeast in 2004.

She ranks among Ole Miss career (5th, 2,023) and single season (4th, 1,378 in 2000) leaders in assists. She tied the school's single-match assists record of 73 against Auburn, while averaging 11.68 assists and 2.64 digs per game as a senior.

A native of Stoney Creek, Ontario, she married Grant Heard last summer. This past April the couple had their first child, Jayden. The family resides in Cape Girardeau with their boxers Remi and Rocky.

She would like to tour Italy, "minus the flying part."

One word that best describes her is headstrong.

She cannot live without her chihuahua, Pele and carbs.

She would like to have lunch with Phil Jackson, Rick Bayless and Bethanny Frankel.

Savanah Parra, a 2007 graduate of Ohio University, spent the last two seasons as an assistant coach at Bradley University.

At Bradley, she served as the defensive specialist and setter coach, along with assisting in recruiting. She was in charge of breaking down opponents film, as well as watching game film with Bradley players and critiquing previous matches. She was responsible for all team traveling, lodging, meals, transportation and practice scheduling.

Prior to Bradley, Parra was the graduate assistant coach at the University of Southern Indiana.

Savanah Parra played four years at Ohio University, and led the Bobcats to four conference titles. She sits in the Top-10 at Ohio for every setter and defensive category for season and career.

Aside from school records, Parra helped the Bobcats finish number one in the nation in kills and assists per game in 2005, along with a Sweet Sixteen appearance in the NCAA tournament. The Bobcats also finished second in the nation in assists per game, and finished in the top ten in 2006.

Parra earned Mid-American Conference Tournament MVP in 2005 to go with Midwest Region Honorable Mention accolades. In 2006, she repeated those honors and added MAC Setter of the Year to her resume. She was also named the 2006 Skip Vosler Athlete of the Year Award for "overcoming adversity and a successful return to sport."

Parra graduated with a Bachelors of Science degree while studying Hearing, Speech and Language Science. She minored in Psychology.

Coach Ren had this to say about Parra, "Savanah has a very good grasp on what it takes to be a champion and compete at a very high level. Her familiarity with the Midwest will make it an easy transition as she takes over the Recruiting Coordinator duties."

VOLLEYBALL

Nikki Buchholz will coach the middle blockers for this upcoming season. She served as a graduate assistant coach at East Stroudsburg University in Pennsylvania last season.

Buchholz graduated from Franklin Pierce University, a Division II school in New Hampshire, where she was a four-time All-Northeast 10 Conference player.

During her junior year, she was named to the All-Region Second Team in 2007. She was the first player to ever be named to an All-Region Team in Franklin Pierce's 20-year program history.

Her 159 total blocks led the Northeast-10 Conference, as did her 1.26 blocks per game.

At the completion of her four-year career at Franklin Pierce, Buchholz had guided the Ravens to four consecutive Northeast-10 Conference Championship appearances. She was also named conference player of the week five times and owns the school career record for kills with 1,271 and blocks with 493.

Aside from her statistics being atop of the record books, she was also a top-notch mentor. She was a two-time captain of the Franklin Pierce team that won 35 matches in two years under her leadership.

Buchholz also excelled in the classroom, as she graduated cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Mass Communications. She was a three time First Team Academic All-Conference selection.

"What impressed me most about Nikki was her passion for volleyball and coaching," said coach Heard. "She is a student of the game and I believe she will make an immediate impact on our middles. I look forward to working with both of them."

Mission Statement

DID YOU KNOW?

Her brother Michael pitches for the Oakland A's Triple-A affiliate, the Sacramento River Cats.

You would be surprised to find out that she is deathly afraid of ladybugs, and she loves watching movies with captions.

Her Ipod contains artists such as: Dave Matthews, Rascal Flatts, Carrie Underwood, Brad Paisley, Nickelback, Breaking Benjamin, Michael Buble', Train and the list goes on...

When asked what website was her homepage on her computer, she responded, "Ha.. Facebook!"

Her Gameday routine starts with a pregame meal, then hang out in the training room for a few hours (HA!) get dressed, watch the girls dance in the locker room, practice while listening to Rob Thomas, then game time.

She cannot live without her family, friends, volleyball, cell phone, and Chap Stick.

She would like to be on Hell's Kitchen or Cake Boss.

YEAR IN REVIEW

YEAR IN REVIEW

2009 Volleyball Review

HEAD COACH RENATA HEARD RECORDED HER 75th CAREER WIN vs. UT MARTIN

The 2009 Southeast Missouri State volleyball team started the season with great goals and expectations. Picked to finish third in the Ohio Valley Conference Pre-season Poll, the team had a much higher finish in mind. With nine returning letter winners including five starters, that goal appeared very attainable and their start to the season justified that.

The squad got off to its best start since the 1997 season, compiling a 3-3 record through their first two tournaments. Included in that start was a 2-1 record and the tournament title at the Memphis Invitational.

At the Memphis Invite, the Redhawks won their season-opener over regional rival Arkansas State, 3-1. The win over the Red Wolves snapped an eight-match losing streak in season openers. They followed with a dominating 3-0 win over host Memphis to set up a match-up with Evansville in the championship match. The Redhawks dropped a tightly contested match against the Purple Aces, 3-1 for their first loss of the season.

Despite the loss, the Redhawks still won the tournament title and had three players named to the All-Invitational Team led by the Memphis native Emily Hughes, who was named the Most Outstanding Player of the tournament. Setter Sarah Barth and outside hitter Karleigh DeLong also were named to the team.

Hughes and Barth added more hardware when they were named OVC Offensive and Setter of the Week respectively for their performances at the Memphis Invite.

Facing a tough tournament field at the Belmont Invitational, the team finished 1-2. Their win came against Samford, 3-0. That improved the team's all-time record to 9-0 against the former Ohio Valley Conference member.

Senior libero Molly Davis was named to the All-Tournament team after averaging 4.73 digs per set during the weekend. Among her highlights during the tournament was a season-high 31 digs against Samford.

The Redhawks then competed in the Georgia Tech Courtyard Classic in Atlanta, Georgia. In their opening match against Ole Miss, the team was dealt a huge blow when Barth went down with an injury. The Redhawks would eventually lose the match 3-1. In the loss, Davis made history with a school record 39 digs.

Without their starting setter, the offense struggled against host Georgia Tech and Clemson, finishing with a 0-3 record in the tournament.

Davis was a bright spot for the team during the tournament and was honored as the OVC's Defensive Player of the Week. DeLong garnered her second All-Tournament honors of the season as well.

The team then began OVC play with three-straight matches on the road. The team defeated Tennessee Tech in their OVC opener, improving to 13-6 all-time in OVC openers.

Junior Kelly Benacka played her first collegiate match as a setter, filling in for injured starter Barth. Against the Golden Eagles, she produced her first collegiate double-double with 56 assists and 21 digs.

After a road loss to Jacksonville State, the Redhawks closed their three-match road trip with a 3-0 win over UT Martin to improve to 5-7 on the season and 2-1 in OVC play.

The Redhawks dropped their home opener to Austin Peay, but followed the loss with a 3-2 win over Tennessee State.

Davis was awarded her third-straight OVC Defensive Player of the Week honor for her performances against the Lady Gobs and Lady Tigers.

The team then ventured back onto the road, but were met with two-straight OVC losses to fall to 6-10 overall and 3-4 in conference.

A five-match homestand awaited the Redhawks, but they dropped their first two matches, extending their losing streak to four.

That streak was snapped against SIU Edwardsville with a 3-0 win. That was followed by a 3-0 win over Eastern Illinois to give them a two-match winning streak.

Hughes sparked that winning streak by averaging 4.83 kills per set, a .500 attack

KARLEIGH DELONG WAS NAMED FIRST-TEAM ALL-OVC.

MOLLY DAVIS FINISHED 15th NATIONALLY IN DIGS PER SET

percentage and committing just one attack error in 56 total chances in those two matches. For her efforts she was named OVC Offensive Player of the Week for the second time.

The Redhawks concluded the homestand with a highly competitive 3-1 loss to non-conference rival SIU Carbondale.

The team then split a pair of OVC road matches highlighted by their 3-2 win at Tennessee State to claim a series sweep against their league rivals.

A loss against Murray State greeted the Redhawks at the start of a two-match homestand to drop them to 9-15 and 5-8 in the OVC.

That loss, sparked by the return of Barth to the starting line-up, started a season-best four-match winning streak.

During that span, Barth and DeLong each received OVC Setter and Offensive Player of the Week honors and pulled the Redhawks OVC record even at 8-8 and sixth in the OVC standings.

A 3-1 win over Eastern Kentucky on "Senior Night" at Notre Dame Regional High School capped the winning streak.

With the top six teams advancing to the OVC Tournament, the Redhawks needed just one win in their final two matches to clinch the coveted spot.

The team fell at Murray State, 3-1 and followed that with a crushing 3-2 loss at Eastern Illinois to end the regular season.

Standing in sixth place, the Redhawks had to sit and wait for Eastern Kentucky to play their final two matches of the season to determine their postseason fate.

The Colonels won their final two matches to knock the Redhawks out of the sixth and final tournament spot. That snapped a streak on 18-straight OVC Tournament appearances for the club.

Despite coming short in their team goals, the team had many individual achievements.

Davis was named First Team CoSIDA/ESPN the Magazine Academic All-American. It was the second-straight season she was named to an Academic All-American Team. She became the first player to achieve First Team honors since Lori Kramper achieved the feat in 1988. She is also just the second player in program history to be named Academic All-American multiple times joining Laura Dill who was a two-time Second Team selection in 1989 and again in 1990.

On the court, Davis finished 15th nationally in digs with 5.30 per set. She finished her career with 2,223 digs, becoming the only player in Southeast Missouri State volleyball history to have over 2,000 career digs.

DeLong was a First Team All-OVC selection, the second time in her career she achieved that honor. She was a Preseason All-OVC Second Team selection prior to the year and finished the season as the Redhawks leader in kills per set (3.43 kps) and points per set (3.93 pps). Both marks ranked third in the OVC.

Barth finished her Redhawk career with 2,846 assists, ranking seventh on the school's all-time charts.

As a team, the Redhawks finished second nationally in digs with a 19.30 per set average.

The team finished the season with a 13-17 record including an 8-10 record in OVC play. Through the team struggles and many obstacles that they faced in 2009, they showed great character and glimpses of a very bright future of the program.

THE REDHAWKS FINISHED SECOND NATIONALLY IN DIGS. THEY AVERAGED 19.30 DIGS PER SET DURING THE 2009 SEASON

Hall of Fame

Tuba Meto (1994-1997)

The starting setter for Southeast from 1995-1997, Meto led the Redhawks to a record of 105-43 during the span including a 62-6 record in OVC play. Southeast won the OVC title in each of her four seasons and made two NCAA Tournament appearances. She was the OVC Player of the Year in 1996 and 1997 and continues to play professionally in Turkey. She holds a spot in seven different Top-10 categories, including assists, and digs. She holds the All-Time assists record in a match with 82.

Krista Haukap (1997-2000)

Krista Haukap was inducted into the Southeast Missouri State Hall of Fame in 2010 after a dominate career in the late 90's. She recorded 36 kills against North Carolina in the NCAA Tournament, which is a Redhawk record. She owns the top spot in kills and total attempts in a career with 2,070 and 4,921, respectively. Uncoincidentally, the Redhawks went undefeated in the OVC in 2000, and had the winningest season in school history during her tenure.

DIG FOR LIFE

DIG FOR LIFE

Dig For Life

The Redhawks volleyball team and head coach Renata Nowacki presented a check for $12,600 to Saint Francis Medical Center prior to the Redhawks men's basketball game vs. Austin Peay on February 27 at the Show Me Center.

The Southeast Missouri State volleyball team announced the raising of $12,600 in their annual Dig for Life campaign, which assists in the early detection and treatment of breast cancer. The Redhawks and head coach Renata Heard presented a check in the amount raised to the Saint Francis Medical Center prior to the Southeast men's basketball game against Austin Peay on Saturday, February 27 at the Show Me Center.

The annual campaign runs during the month of October and coincides with National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Members of the Southeast volleyball team secured pledges per dig that were tallied through October home matches at Houck Field House. The money raised is then allocated to Saint Francis for the campaign's purpose of educating women in the Southeast Missouri area about breast cancer awareness, providing early detection opportunities and improving prevention efforts. The Redhawks produced a record 495 digs in seven home matches this past October.

"Dig for Life is a very awarding campaign for our team to be involved with," said Coach Heard. "We feel very fortunate to be able to provide women in the local area with mammograms and potentially play a key part in saving their lives."

The Dig for Life campaign was started in 2000 by former volleyball head coach and current Associate Athletic Director Cindy Gannon and sponsored by the Saint Francis Medical Center to help educate women about breast cancer. The campaign also raises money to provide mammograms for women. In 2008, Dig for Life was able to provide mammograms to nearly 200 area women who could not receive this screening due to lack of adequate health insurance, high deductibles, unemployment or inability to pay. Since its inception the program has funded over 1,000 free mammograms.

This past season the Poplar Bluff High School and Farmington High School girl's volleyball teams partnered with the Redhawks to help raise nearly $4,000 towards the campaign.

"I am so thankful to Saint Francis Medical Center, Coach Heard and the South-

Molly Davis recorded a team-best 134 digs in October and has been the team leader in digs during the Dig For Life campaign the last four seasons.

east volleyball team for all their efforts in the Dig for Life campaign,” said Gannon. “This program began in memory of my mother and thanks to the hard work and generosity of so many people, her memory lives on and we are potentially saving the lives of many women. I feel very fortunate to be associated with such wonderful and caring individuals.”

Since 2000, the Dig for Life has raised over $75,000 to support early breast cancer education and treatment efforts for women in the Cape Girardeau area.

Breast Cancer Beware – Dig for Life is Back

Join the Redhawks Volleyball team in their battle for better breast health.

How You Can Help

Funds are raised for every Redhawk dig during October home volleyball matches to support area breast cancer education, prevention and detection. You can help by pledging a dollar amount for each dig or by making a flat donation. Dig for Life has raised $75,000 for women's breast health since it began in 2000.

Call Dana Hukel of the Saint Francis Medical Center Foundation at 573-331-5994 to select a donation option.

Who You Will Help

Your Dig for Life donation will help provide free mammograms to Southeast Missouri women of all ages who may not have a screening due to lack of health insurance, high insurance deductibles, unemployment or inability to pay. The latest screening technology for breast cancer detection is available at Saint Francis Medical Center's Womancare. Digital mammography produces clearer tissue images for enhanced detection of abnormalities, lower radiation doses and shorter exam times. Call 573-331-5209 to schedule your mammogram.

THIS IS THE OVC
THIS IS THE OVC

Entering its 63rd year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference. For only the second time in a decade, the Conference expanded by adding Southern Illinois University Edwardsville as the league's 11th member in 2008. The move expanded the OVC's geographical footprint to the St. Louis market and marked the first change in membership since expanding to the state of Alabama (Jacksonville State, Samford) in 2003.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28. She is currently one of just five females to be the head of a Division I conference, and one of just eight to lead a Division I conference all-time. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history past dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles (Turkey) Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958, Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961, Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

Through the past 62 years, 14 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 20 outright or shared football crowns, including both the 2007 and 2008 championships, as they compiled a 15-1 league record over that time period. Only one other Football Championship Subdivision school (UMass) has won more Conference titles than the Colonels. Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with nine, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois has claimed five football crowns (including the 2009 title) while Jacksonville State, Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, UT Martin (which captured its first crown in 2006) and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh. EKV was coached by former all-America quarterback Roy Kidd, who was in his 16th year at the helm of his alma mater and who skippered the Colonels to a second national title three years later. Following the 2002 season, Kidd retired after 39 years at EKV, a one-school tenure unmatched in all of Division I. Upon retirement, he ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches with 315 victories, earning him a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame. EKV's 19 FCS playoff appearances are the second for the most all-time (behind only Montana).

In addition to Kidd, other coaching legends in the OVC include Charles (Bubber) Murphy, who coached at Middle Tennessee from 1947-1968, Western Kentucky's Jimmy Feix (1968-83), Wilburn Tucker (1954-67) and Don Wade (1968-82) of Tennessee Tech, Bill Ferguson (1967-77) of Murray State, Guy Penny (1959-67) of Morehead State and Boots Donnelly (1977-78 at Austin Peay; 1979-1998 at Middle Tennessee). Current Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo has compiled 88 wins while his program has been a member of the OVC; that currently ranks fifth all-time in league history.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals. He would break into the starting lineup halfway through his rookie season and started at cornerback for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. The OVC has had at least one former player named a NFL Pro Bowl selection in each of the past four seasons.

Football wasn't the only sport in which the OVC was quickly gaining respect. In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants. The Conference quickly proved worthy of that bid, as Morehead State defeated Marshall (107-92) and Wayne State (95-84) in the 1956 tournament.

Fifteen years later, former OVC member Western Kentucky became the first and only Conference team to reach the Final Four. The Hilltoppers defeated Jacksonville, Kentucky and Ohio State before losing to Villanova in double overtime. WKU went on to finish in third place after beating Kansas 77-75 in the consolation game.

Since that time, the OVC has recorded some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Tournament. Perhaps the most famous moment came in 1987, when Austin Peay came from fourth place in the regular season to win the OVC Tournament and earn the league's automatic bid. The Governors drew powerful Illinois, and were such big underdogs, that ESPN broadcaster Dick Vitale promised to stand on his head if APSU won the game. After a 68-67 victory over the Illini, and a narrow 90-87 overtime loss to eventual Final Four participant Providence in the second round, Vitale made good on his promise in a visit to Clarksville two months later.

Murray State added to the OVC's string of upsets in 1988 when it knocked off 14th-ranked North Carolina State, 78-75. The Racers' M&M Boys - Jeff Martin and Don Mann - combined for 39 points in the win.

MSU nearly went on to the Sweet 16 that year, losing to eventual national champion Kansas, 61-58. A bank shot by Mann that would've given the Racers a one-point lead rolled off the rim with three seconds left. In 1990 as a No. 16 seed, Murray State took No. 1 seed Michigan State into overtime before falling 75-71; that game still marks the closest a No. 16 seed has come to knocking off a No. 1 in men's tournament action. More recently, Murray State has dominated the OVC Tournament, reaching the championship game every year in the 1990's. The Racers' 14 OVC Tournament Championships are the most among all OVC schools.

After former member Middle Tennessee State won a first round game in 1989, the league had a drought as no other OVC team won a NCAA Tournament game for the next 19 years. But Morehead State, coming off a thrilling double overtime OVC Tournament victory over Austin Peay, topped Alabama State 58-43 in the Opening Round game at Flyer Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The game was played in front of an Opening Round record crowd of 11,346; that crowd included many MSU fans who made the three hour drive from Morehead for the game. The Eagles season would come to three days later when they lost to No. 1 overall seed Louisville, despite playing the Cardinals close for a majority of the game.

In 2009-10, Murray State made OVC history by winning a record 31 games (31-5) on its way to the league's regular season and tournament championship. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the No. 13 seed Racers topped Vanderbilt in thrilling fashion when senior Danero Thomas hit a jumper as time expired to lift MSU to a 66-65 victory. It marked the first OVC team to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament since 1989, and snapped a skid of 71-straight losses to Southeastern Conference foes (dating back to 2000-01). In the second round the Racers pushed eventual national runner-up Butler to the brink before losing 54-52.

Through its 62 years, 12 teams have won or shared the league's regular season men's basketball title. Murray State heads the list with a Conference-record 21 outright or shared basketball crowns. Other past champions include former member Western Kentucky (19), Morehead State (9), Austin Peay (8), Eastern Kentucky (6), Tennessee Tech (5), former member Middle Tennessee (5), Tennessee State (2), former member East Tennessee State (2), Southeast Missouri State (1), UT Martin (who won its first in 2008-09) and former member Akron (1).

Among the coaching greats in men's basketball have been Western Kentucky's E.A.

Diddle, who retired with 759 victories and 10 OVC titles; John Oldham, who was a member of the very first All-OVC squad and went on to win seven OVC crowns during his coaching tenure at Tennessee Tech and Western Kentucky; Paul McBrayer, who guided Eastern Kentucky to 219 wins and three OVC crowns; and Cal Luther, who is the only person in Conference history to win men's basketball Coach of the Year honors at two league schools - Murray State and UT Martin. Current Austin Peay head coach Dave Loos became the winningest coach in OVC history in 2009-10, netting his 319th victory and passing Luther on the all-time list. Loos enters the 2010-11 season with 331 victories.

There have been an equal number of great players including Western Kentucky's Clem Haskins, who is the only three-time OVC Player of the Year. Several players have won OVC Player of the Year honors twice: Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniels (1969-70 and 1970-71), Murray State's Les Taylor (1971-72, 1972-73), Jeff Martin (1987-88, 1988-89), Popeye Jones (1989-90, 1990-91) and Marcus Brown (1994-95, 1995-96), Austin Peay's Otis Howard (1976-77, 1977-78), Middle Tennessee's Jerry Beck (1980-81, 1981-82), Akron's Joe Jakubick (1982-83, 1983-84), Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers (1992-93, 1993-94) and UT Martin's Lester Hudson (2007-08, 2008-09).

The OVC also has the honor of being the only conference to boast the nation's leaders in scoring, rebounding and assists all in one season. That feat was accomplished in 1991-92 by Morehead State's Brett Roberts (28.1 ppg), Murray State's Popeye Jones (14.4 rpg) and Tennessee Tech's Van Usher (8.8 apg).

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft. Hudson became the first draft pick for the league since 2004 and only the third pick of the last decade for the OVC.

In the late 1970s, women's athletics began somewhat of a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (IAIW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982.

Women's basketball in the OVC has been dominated by Tennessee Tech, which has won or shared 16 regular-season titles and owns nine OVC Tournament crowns. In fact, the Golden Eagles have reached the championship game of the OVC Tournament 19 times in the past 29 years. Although Tennessee Tech remains the standard-bearer, four other teams have won 13 of the last 17 OVC Tournaments. Murray State became the latest program to add its name to the list, capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2008. Austin Peay leads the quartet with seven crowns including four straight from 2000-03 and back-to-back titles in 2009 and 2010, while Tennessee State, Eastern Kentucky and Southeast Missouri each have won titles during that span.

Several coaches have made their mark in the relatively short history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or IAIW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Eastern Kentucky's Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and ECU, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at ECU and three at MTSU. He finished his career with 480 career victories.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela

Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy and Priscilla Blackford; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; and most recently Murray State's Ashley Hayes who was the OVC Player of the Year in 2007-08 and 2008-09.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken). During the campaign, only her second with the Eagles, she also set career block records for both Morehead State and the OVC (287).

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC will serve as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event will be held at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville.

Over its 62 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Trenton Hassell (Austin Peay), football player Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players George Sherrill (Austin Peay) and Jon Rauch (Morehead State). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and a NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six straight tournament crowns. Former EKU skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 27 years, 10 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regular-season titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State was won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006 and winning a NCAA Tournament match in 2010, the league's first NCAA victory since 2000.

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. Four other individuals - Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) and Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) - were back-to-back winners of the award.

In 2007, Eastern Kentucky's Jacob Korir won his fourth straight Conference cross country title becoming just the third OVC student-athlete and 13th athlete nationally to accomplish that feat. Korir was a three-time All-American in cross country, earning two top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championship. The Nairobi, Kenya, native was also named a track and field All-American twice during his career and was selected as the OVC Male Athlete of the Year in 2006-07 and received the NCAA post graduate scholarship in 2008.

In 2007 the Conference had two teams in the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament for the first time in league history, former OVC member Samford earned an at-large selection while Southeast Missouri was the Conference's automatic bid.

In 2009 it was OVC softball that accomplished several firsts as UT Martin (tournament champion) and Jacksonville State (at-large) were each selected for the NCAA Championship. Jacksonville State would take it a step farther by winning the Knoxville Regional (beating No. 13 national seed Tennessee along the way) to become the first OVC softball program to advance to a Super Regional. Jax State would fall to No. 4 Alabama in that Super Regional but finished the season

43-16 (19-2 OVC) and ranked 21st nationally in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and 24th nationally in the USA Today/NFCA poll.

The league's baseball presence has continued to evolve since its inception. The OVC baseball tournament moved to a neutral site for the first time in 2001 with Paducah, Ky. and Brooks Stadium hosting the tournament in front of raucous crowds. The success of the tournament led to Jackson, Tenn. and Pringles Park - the home of the Seattle Mariner's Class AA affiliate - which hosted the event for the first time in 2010 and is under contract to host the 2011 and 2012 championship as well.

The OVC also has made a statement in the NCAA Baseball Championship in recent years, with its teams involved in several memorable contests in the last decade. Tennessee Tech surprised Wake Forest in the opening round of the 2001 tournament and Southeast Missouri stunned host Alabama in the opening round of the 2002 championship. Five years later, Austin Peay captured the collegiate baseball world's attention by taking Vanderbilt, the 2007 No. 1 overall seed, to extra innings. Eastern Illinois pushed host Nebraska to the limit in 2008 followed by Tennessee Tech's memorable contest against host Clemson in 2009.

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year. A year later (2009) the league had a Major League Baseball First Round Compensation Round pick (Eastern Illinois' Tyler Kehrner who was No. 48 overall) and NBA Second Round pick (UT Martin's Lester Hudson) in the same season.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 192 student-athletes honored with the award, including 25 over the last two years (2008-09, 2009-10).

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed.

Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

President Dr. Kenneth W. Dobbins

Dr. Kenneth W. Dobbins became the seventeenth president of Southeast Missouri State University on July 1, 1999, after serving in several positions in higher education administration both at Kent State University in Ohio and at Southeast.

During his tenure at Southeast, academic programs have been enhanced, including establishment of a School of Polytechnic Studies and the Earl and Margie Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts which opened in Fall 2007 on the new $50 million River Campus. The Donald L. Harrison College of Business has been recognized for the last five years by a Princeton Review publication as one of the best business schools in the nation and GetEducated.com, a consumer watchdog group that reviews and ranks online universities for cost, quality, and credibility has ranked Southeast Missouri State University #1 in the nation for affordability overall for its online MBA. The Department of Industrial and Engineering Technology recently received its initial ABET accreditation.

Enrollment has increased significantly since 1994 when some 7,900 students attended Southeast. In Fall 2005, enrollment topped 10,000 for the first time, and stood at more than 10,900 in 2009. Record enrollments in higher education have occurred in the University's 25-county service region during his tenure due to the establishment of new regional campuses in Sikeston and Kennett and a higher education center at Perryville serving place-bound students in and near those rural communities.

An innovation center and business incubator to promote entrepreneurship and enhance the region's economy opened on the campus in 2005; a University Technology Village is being planned on the 400-acre former University farm on Interstate-55 and the Department of Agriculture has relocated the farm to a new site; a comprehensive review of all academic and non-academic programs has been accomplished to maintain quality and minimize student fee increases in the face of significant state appropriation reductions; and capital construction projects totaling over $200 million have been completed to expand and modernize the University's physical plant.

Dr. Dobbins has served a two-year term as president of the Missouri Council on Public Higher Education (COPHE), the organization for presidents and chancellors of Missouri's public colleges and universities. In 2007, he was selected to serve a three-year term on the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU) Board of Directors. In 2008, he was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the organization, and currently serves as chair-elect of AASCU. For the past five years, he has served as one of five faculty members for the AASCU New Presidents' Academy. He previously served three years as president of the Ohio Valley Conference and is currently a member of the Conference finance subcommittee. In addition, he is a vice president of the executive board of the Greater St. Louis Council, Boy Scouts of America.

He earned his B.S. degree in accounting from the University of Akron (Ohio) in 1971 and served as a commissioned officer and civilian executive in the U.S. Air Force for almost 10 years. He received the M.B.A. degree in 1979 from Old Dominion University (Virginia), and the Ph.D. in higher education administration in 1987 from Kent State. He is also a Certified Public Accountant in Ohio.

From 1981 until 1991, Dr. Dobbins held several positions at Kent State. He came to Southeast in 1991 as Vice President for Finance and Administration, and served as Executive Vice President from July 1993 until his appointment as President six years later.

Dr. Dobbins and his wife, Jeanine Larson Dobbins, Founder and Director Emeritus of the Missouri Statewide Early Literacy Intervention Program based at Southeast, have a son, Paul, and a daughter-in-law, Stacey, who are both Southeast graduates, and a new grandson, Lincoln Kenneth Dobbins.

Director of Athletics Mr. John Shafer

All it takes is five minutes to see how determined John Shafer is to build on the success of the Southeast Missouri State University Athletic Department.

Shafer has been at Southeast a little over a year and a lot of exciting things have happened since he first took over as Director of Athletics on February 1, 2009.

Academics, administration, community service and competition are Shafer's main points of emphasis, and Redhawk athletic programs excel in those areas.

Academically, the Department's grade point average continues to improve. Currently, 55 percent of Southeast's student-athletes have a 3.0 or better grade point average. A total of 21 carry a perfect 4.0 GPA out of 331 student-athletes/spirit groups. Additionally, the Redhawk gymnastics team won its third-consecutive National Academic Team Championship in 2009.

Administratively, Shafer made his first big hire when he announced Dickey Nutt as the Redhawks head men's basketball coach on March 12, 2009. Nutt revitalized the program in his first year at the helm.

Shafer also moved his administrative staff to a new location. The Director of Athletics, ticket, business, compliance, sports information, development and event management offices are now centrally located. These departments were housed in two areas prior to the move.

More importantly, Shafer continues to address the need to control costs, find new ways to generate revenue and re-organize/modernize the Department of Athletics in order to be consistent with the best practices around the Ohio Valley Conference and across the country.

Compliance and facilities are also at the top of Shafer's list.

Shafer is providing more support in the compliance area which has enabled his staff to monitor and help coaches as it relates to following NCAA guidelines. In addition, he is constantly reviewing and monitoring facility upgrades. For instance, a new sound system was recently installed at Houck Stadium.

Shafer's tireless efforts have spread throughout the community, where his athletic teams are always visible.

The volleyball program raised over $12,000 in this year's Dig For Life campaign which assists in the early detection and treatment of breast cancer. The Department of Athletics also helped raise money for the American Red Cross Haiti Relief and Development Fund. In addition, Shafer helped raise over $10,000 for the Southeast Athletics Scholarship Fund at the 2010 Walk for Women's Athletics.

Shafer, 64, has worn many different hats throughout his career in college athletics.

He last served as a Director of Athletics at Eastern Kentucky University in 2003-04. In just one year, Shafer helped EKU establish a new academic record when 188 student-athletes were named Colonel Scholars. EKU also finished second for the Ohio Valley Conference Academic Award, as its men's programs nabbed the league's All-Sports Trophy and its women's teams garnered a share of that award. The Colonels, who won their first All-Sports Trophy since the mid-1990s, won conference titles in women's cross country and softball during that year.

Prior to his tenure at EKU, Shafer held a number of different positions in the Southeastern Conference. He was the Director of Athletics at Mississippi from 1998-02, Senior Associate Athletic Director at the University of Georgia from 1982-98, Assistant Athletic Director for Business at Vanderbilt from 1981-82 and Assistant Business Manager, Football Administrative Assistant and Assistant Baseball Coach at Auburn.

While Shafer was at Ole Miss, the Rebels became the only Division I school in the nation to go to a football bowl game, men's basketball "Sweet Sixteen" and NCAA Baseball Regional in 2001. Shafer began a capital campaign that raised more than $6 million for expansion and renovations to the school's athletic facilities.

At Georgia, Shafer worked under Director of Athletics and legendary football coach Vince Dooley. He coordinated and oversaw all men's and women's conference and NCAA events which the Bulldogs hosted. Shafer also served as the liaison between the Atlanta Olympic Committee and the University of Georgia for the 1996 Summer Olympics. Responsibilities for that position included scheduling, supervising ticket operations, preparing a budget of more than $23 million and managing its entire insurance program.

A native of Alexandria, Va., Shafer earned both his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation, and master's degree in physical education from Auburn. After earning All-SEC honors as a shortstop, Shafer went on to play professional baseball in the Kansas City Royals organization from 1969-70.

Shafer and his wife, Dianne, celebrated their 40th Wedding Anniversary last December. They have a son, Michael, daughter-in-law, Erin, and two granddaughters, Sophie (6) and Sumner (4). Michael, a 1994 graduate and former basketball player at William and Mary, is currently the head women's basketball coach at the University of Richmond.

Living on Campus

Living on campus is an integral part of the college experience. Students who live in one of Southeast's 13 residence halls eat their meals in one of nine dining areas, study in the lounges or computer labs, and sleep—when there's time!

Southeast's residence halls come in many different styles including community-style, suite-style, group living and apartments. Generally, students share a double room with a roommate. This arrangement gives new students opportunities to meet other students and to get to know the campus. Each floor or wing is staffed with a community advisor who is available to connect you to University resources.

You have many choices about where you will live including suite-style living with a private bath, walk-in closet and laundry facilities on each floor. Your residence has the necessary furniture, but the makeover begins when you make it your own with plants, posters, pictures, etc. Each room has access to long-distance telephone service, voicemail and 24-hour Internet access.

Dining on campus isn't just grabbing fast food and running—it can be a culinary experience! Students living in the residence halls can choose from dining areas open from early morning to midnight. There's always someplace to pick up a bagel, salad or pizza, or it can be an opportunity to enjoy a meal with friends and have a lively discussion about today's psychology lecture.

The University Center, Southeast's campus union, provides space for meetings, food service, a bookstore, computer labs and much, much more.

Many consider Southeast's residence halls to be the best in Missouri.

Enjoy a sub, a cup of cappuccino or a full course meal at one of nine dining and retail areas on campus.

At Southeast Missouri State University, we are committed to providing you with the programs and services you need to become a truly successful student.

Our academics combine the best of old traditions with technology of the future. Career training and broad-based liberal arts education emphasize writing and critical thinking, which are required in all occupations. In addition, hands-on learning opportunities and internships in every major prepare you for your first job.

With more than 1,600 undergraduate courses, we teach everything from the classics to robotics. This extensive curriculum offers unique opportunities—pre-medical students take fine arts courses; musicians confront computers; nutrition majors crunch numbers in statistics courses and scientists play the trombone.

Across the curriculum, technology enhances learning—in language labs, in the management of stock portfolios, in practicing the latest nursing techniques, in chemistry, in graphic design, in education, in sophisticated science labs and at the new River Campus.

You may choose from more than 200 areas of study and many programs that have additional, prestigious accreditations from national and international organizations. This is important because it means you can study a variety of subjects, choose from numerous majors, and meet people who are pursuing a range of interesting careers. Unlike a liberal arts institution or an engineering school whose mission is very specific, you can stay at Southeast and change your mind about your major or enhance your career potential by adding a double or even a triple major.

With an enrollment of nearly 11,000, our academic programs blend the advantages of a large institution with an emphasis on small class sizes that makes learning interactive and fun. Classroom activity has reached a new level of productivity, as students are brighter and more prepared than ever. Enrollment is at an all-time high. ACT scores are up. In addition, the number of students who qualify for (and receive) a Southeast merit scholarship has grown by 44 percent (340 to 490) in the last five years.

The impact on the Honors Program has been dramatic with more students than ever choosing to participate in and to complete the honors curriculum. All of this means that Southeast has become Missouri's most academically competitive public regional university!

U.S. News & WORLD REPORT

U.S. News & World Report (2009 edition) named Southeast as one of the "Best Master's-Granting Colleges" among only 21 other public Midwest universities.

Students say the most important reason they attend college is to get a better job. To prepare you for your career, all Southeast students have two advisors: academic and career.

Building on that combination, we take career preparation to a new level. With proficiency checks in place, we ensure you graduate with the knowledge and skills to land your dream job.

Here's how it works. You first complete a FOCUS assessment to match your interests with your skills and talents. Afterward, you sit down with one of a half-dozen career counselors to discuss your goals and options.

You learn to prepare a resume and cover letter, as well as how to find employers and conduct effective interviews. Later in your program, our team of professionals, including a full-time campus internship coordinator and a career specialist located in St. Louis, helps you identify internships and career opportunities.

Before you know it, you will graduate and earn that first paycheck!

The Bottom Line. Our proactive approach works and has attracted the attention of others in our state and around the country. Our students graduate with confidence and with the tools to start their careers.

Small classes are a priority at Southeast. Less than 1 percent of courses seat more than 50 students, with the majority of first-year courses capped at 25 to 30 students.

Donald L. Harrison College of Business

Our increasingly popular business programs have made us one of the major colleges of business in the Midwest. The Donald L. Harrison College of Business is accredited by AACSB International—the gold standard of business school accreditation—an honor held by only 10 percent of institutions offering business degrees worldwide.

Unlike many universities, our controlled class size lets you learn from faculty who provide personal attention to make your college career productive. Few universities our size—10,800 students overall—offer you a business program with only 21 students per professor in business classes. You get a virtually private education at a public university price.

The combination of expert faculty, the latest technology and our spacious business building combine to give you the best college experience. Teaching and learning extend beyond desktop computers to anytime, anyplace, anywhere via iPods, laptops and other wireless devices. Class materials are accessed through podcasting/vodcasting in MP3, MP4, RSS or Atom formats, with new technologies developing rapidly. Dempster Hall is a wireless Internet environment.

One hundred percent of our students have the opportunity to participate in internship programs with companies nationwide and are an important part of our curriculum. Active learning occurs throughout your time here. Students work on team projects with local and regional companies, manage a real-life financial portfolio, and visit the New York Stock Exchange or the Chicago Board of Trade, as well as participate in the International Business Study Tour.

College of Education

For more than a century, Southeast has been preparing and sustaining some of the nation's brightest and best teachers. Moreover, we have a record of accomplishment to prove it. Consider these accolades received over the years:

Our education program is fully accredited by the National Council of Teacher Education (NCATE), which sets the highest standards for teacher education programs nationwide.

The American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU) featured Southeast as one of 20 national model programs.

Our program was accepted into the prestigious Renaissance Group of Institutions.

The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE) presented the college with the "Best Practice Award for Global and International Teacher Education."

Southeast is one of only 33 institutions nationwide selected to be part of the White House Conference on Education, an honor no other Missouri institution has received.

Because you begin assisting and observing in area classrooms starting in your first year, you accumulate more teaching practice and knowledge than graduates from other universities. This approach gives you a distinct advantage in the job market. It also gives you confidence as you step into the classroom for your first job.

You experience a variety of teaching settings culminating with a full semester of student teaching during your senior year—not the traditional 8 or 9 weeks, but 16 full weeks of actual on-the-job training. This experience can be in one of more than 50 countries in Asia, Latin America, Africa, Europe, the South Pacific and the Middle East, or in a Native American school in the United States. Of course, you can request to student teach in your hometown or somewhere nearby.

College of

Health and Human Services

College of

Liberal Arts

A strength of the College of Health and Human Services is the fact that, although there are diverse academic offerings, all programs potentially lead to a career that significantly and positively impact the lives of individuals and families. The college is comprised of the following academic program areas:

Aerospace Studies is one of three such programs in Missouri. The Southeast Air Force ROTC has received the Air Force Outstanding Unit Award as one of the best ROTC units in the nation.

Communication Disorders provides students with a broad-based theoretical foundation in communication disorders. The graduate program in speech-language pathology is accredited by the Council of Academic Accreditation of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association.

Criminal Justice and Sociology has an internship program for criminal justice majors which provides students with an opportunity to observe professionals in their fields and with practical job experience. The Sociology Program offers both the bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees, as well as minors in sociology and criminology.

Health, Human Performance and Recreation offers a variety of programs that prepare professionals to make an impact on health throughout the lifespan.

Human Environmental Studies offers diverse programs to improve the quality of life of children, individuals and families.

Nursing offers students internships and clinical opportunities that give hands-on experience beginning their junior year. Our program is nationally accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education. Social Work prepares students for beginning generalist social work practice. The final semester is spent in field practicum actually working with clients. The Social Work program at Southeast Missouri State University is fully accredited by the Council of Social Work Education.

An education in the liberal arts gives you broad-based training for careers in business, the arts, media, education and the legal profession.

Southeast joined 112 other institutions worldwide in securing prestigious mass communication program accreditation by the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications (ACEJMC). Only one other institution in Missouri, the University of Missouri-Columbia, has this elite accreditation.

In addition, our public relations program is one of only 20 institutions—none in Missouri—that holds certification by the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA). Only nine other institutions in the world have recognition from both ACEJMC and PRSA for their mass communication program.

Our certified historic preservation program is one of a few U.S. programs that offer a four-year degree. Foreign Languages is recognized by the Association of Departments of Foreign Languages as one of the nation's 30 model programs for foreign language education.

Our pre-law program provides a comprehensive foundation to study law. During the last five years, Southeast's pre-law students have exceeded the national LSAT average score, and their placement rate in law school approaches 100 percent.

If you are a budding author or simply love English, you will be surrounded by a world of writing and publishing when you become part of a campus community of writer-publishers. Anthropology majors explore what it means to be a human in cultures past and present. Philosophy majors contemplate theories of past and present as they build a foundation for non-technical careers or for law school. Surveys indicate oral and communication skills are a high priority for employers in today's workplace. Gain these skills in communication studies and corporate communications through courses in debate, public speaking and interpersonal communication, as well as leadership and team building.

Science and Mathematics

Many of the jobs of tomorrow are yet to be discovered! Faculty and students are at the forefront of new technology, research and solutions to many of the world's health and wealth issues. Astronauts, biologists, chemists, computer scientists, engineers and health care professionals have a bright career outlook.

Personalized study and research are a feature of the biology curriculum. Pre-med is one of our most popular programs. Our curriculum is designed to prepare you for the MCAT (Medical College Admission Test). The results are definitive—our students are accepted to medical school at a rate that is well above the national average.

If you major in chemistry, you benefit from a degree program certified by the American Chemical Society. Southeast students consistently score at or above the 70th percentile on the Major Field Achievement Test in Chemistry.

Computer science and database management are among the most rapidly growing fields of the future, and our graduates enjoyed a 100 percent placement rate over the past five years.

The Department of Mathematics at Southeast, in addition to preparing students for careers in pure and applied mathematics, also offers strong preparation for math-related careers in business, government and teaching.

Our environmental science program is interdisciplinary with areas of emphasis in biology, business, chemistry, environmental health, geoprocessing and soils, and policy and communication.

Our engineering physics program is nationally accredited by the Accrediting Board of Engineering and Technology (ABET), which greatly improves your employment opportunities. ABET is the sole accrediting body of engineering programs

Polytechnic Studies

Southeast's School of Polytechnic Studies offers industrial and agricultural study. The Otto and Della Seabaugh Polytechnic Building features more than 80,000 square feet of classroom and laboratory space, an auditorium with teleconferencing and interactive television capabilities, fully networked computer labs, and an industrial space that serves training and research needs. You will learn with the latest high-tech equipment in 14 laboratories and in classrooms with multimedia instructional technology. A Technology Resource Center promotes interaction with area industries.

Agriculture students have labs such as the beautiful 252-acre David M. Barton Agriculture Research Center, utilizing the latest in row crop research and beef production technology. The 11,000-square-foot climate-controlled Charles L. Hutson Horticulture Greenhouse, a 110-acre rice research station, a new irrigated turf plots facility, a sustainable garden and a modern soil fertility laboratory also help students with hands-on learning.

Earl and Margie Holland School of

Visual and Performing Arts

Southeast's River Campus is Missouri's only separate campus dedicated exclusively to art, dance, music and theatre. Overlooking the Mississippi River, a Cultural Arts Center and transformed Seminary Building are now home to the Earl and Margie Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts.

Five interconnected art studios, two computerized looms and projected digital photography, as well as two presses in the printmaking studio give artists all that's needed for their creativity.

Performing in the Donald C. Bedell Performance Hall matches the standards of great theatres in New York and Chicago. Adjacent scene and costume shops, as well as dressing rooms, allow theatre and dance students to experience the broad world of theatre.

Music students enjoy 11 soundproof music studios and the Robert F. and Gertrude L. Shuck Music Recital Hall, a striking room with world-class acoustics.
