Credentials

Credentials are required for entrance to the press box or access to the field (for photographers). To request season or single-game credentials, please contact the Southeast Missouri Sports Information Office by phone at (573) 651-2933 or e-mail at jhonza@semo.edu. Credentials can be picked up at the ticket booth on the south side of Houck Stadium.

Photographers

Please observe NCAA regulations and shoot from the designated areas. Photographers are not permitted to stand between the 25-yard-lines and must display their credentials at all times.

Gameday Parking

There is no media parking at Houck Stadium. Radio and television affiliates should contact the Southeast Missouri Sports Information Office for unloading information.

Postgame Procedure

The Southeast Missouri Sports Information staff will make requested student-athletes available to the media at the conclusion of each game. Coach Samuel's first postgame responsibility after meeting with the team is his live radio show. Samuel and selected student-athletes will address the media in the Houck Field House conference room. For interviews with opposing coaches and players, please make arrangements with the visiting sports information director before the end of the game.

Football E-Mail List

If you would like to be added to the Redhawk football e-mail list to receive breaking news about the team, please e-mail Jeff Honza. The official website, GoSoutheast.com, is the best source for up-to-date information about the team.

Interviews During the Week

Student-athletes and coaches are available after practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during the season. Please let the sports information office know if you plan to attend practice.

Houck Stadium Press Box

Press facilities are in the Houck Stadium Press Box located on the top of the south side of the stadium. The press box is a two-level facility, so please use caution when walking up and down the stairs.

Redhawks Radio Network

Erik Sean returns for his 12th year as the "Voice of the Redhawks." Sean is the Director of Sports Operations for Mississippi River Radio's eight radio stations in Cape Girardeau. He is a 10-time winner of the Missouri Broadcasters Association's Play-by-Play Award and three-time winner of the MBA's Sports Award. Sean will be assisted again this season by former Southeast quarterback Rick Wieser (color analyst) and KZIM/KGIR sports anchor and reporter Todd Bonacki (sideline) at all home games.

2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

A re-vamped Houck Stadium will serve as the home of the Southeast Missouri State University football team for the 81st-consecutive year in 2011.

This offseason, Houck Stadium underwent a huge makeover, as a new Field Turf playing surface, state-of-the-art Daktronics video scoreboard and new lighting were installed. The facility was also re-painted, giving the home to Redhawk Football a dazzling look.

In 2010, a school record 8,342 fans turned out to watch Southeast at home. That mark was an improvement from the Redhawks average home attendance of 5,835 in 2009. Southeast also had two crowds over the Houck Stadium capacity.

Houck Stadium was built in 1930 at a cost of $150,000 and remains a beautiful and picturesque stadium today.

The dedication game pitted Southeast and Southern Illinois University from nearby Carbondale, Ill., on Oct. 3, 1930. That game attracted a crowed of over 6,000, with SIU claiming a 12-6 victory. The referee of the inaugural game was James T. Blair, who served as the Governor of Missouri from 1957-61.

Houck Stadium was constructed on the site of an old rock quarry and was purchased in 1925 for $11,000 at the recommendation of then-college President Joseph A. Serena.

Ten thousand bags of Portland Cement, 23,000 feet of Oregon Fir seat lumber and 150,000 feet of Yellow Pine Form lumber were used in the construction, according to an ad in the Houck Stadium dedication program. The original stadium included 5,240 seats on the south side of the field.

The field and stadium were named in honor of Louis Houck, who served 39 years as a Regent for the University and President of the Board for all but three of those years.

Seating on the north side of the stadium was added prior to the 1963 season. The press box was later constructed on the south side in 1979. Approximately 400 chairback seats were added to a center section on the south side of the stadium in 1992.

In 2000, the initial Field Turf playing field was added and the exterior of the facility was resurfaced. Improvements were also made to the press box.

More upgrades took place in the fall of 2005.

Those included a paved parking area adjacent to the east end zone and new parking and landscaping areas surrounding the outside of the stadium.

A state-of-the-art dormitory was added to the west end of Houck Stadium within the last three years. The ground floor of that building houses a locker room and athletic training room which the football program uses on gamedays.

Eight of the largest single-game crowds at Houck Stadium have come in the last 11 years.

In 2010, a school record 11,126 fans watched the Redhawks defeat UT Martin on Oct. 30. Southeast also drew a crowd of 10,316 vs. Tennessee State on Oct. 9 for the fourth-largest single-game home attendance.

In addition, the Redhawks had over 10,000 fans for the Western Kentucky (10,222) and Murray State (10,028) in 2000, the Murray State (10,100) game in 2001 and Southern Illinois (10,100) matchup in 2005.

Southeast averaged over 8,000 fans per home game in 2000.

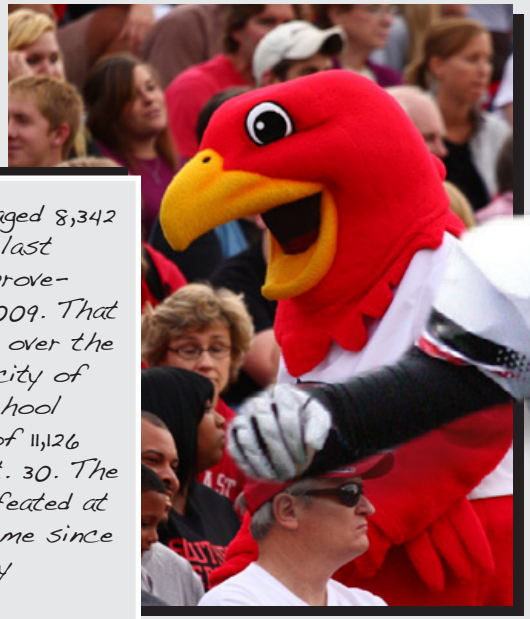

GAMEDAY WITH THE REDHAWKS

2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

Southeast averaged 8,342 fans at home last season, an improvement from 5,835 in 2009. That included two crowds over the Houck Stadium capacity of 10,000, including a school record home crowd of 11,126 vs. UT Martin on Oct. 30. The Redhawks went undefeated at home for the first time since joining the Ohio Valley Conference.

REDHAWKS AND NIKE
2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

The Southeast Missouri Department of Athletics entered into a five-year agreement with Nike on Oct. 6, 2010 -- the leading brand in collegiate athletics -- to be the official uniform, apparel and footwear provider for the Redhawks 15 sport programs.

"Nike has a long history of excellence in college athletics and our affiliation with the Swoosh enhances the overall image of the Department of Athletics, and most importantly, improves the overall experience for our student-athletes," said former Southeast Director of Athletics John Shafer. "The high-quality performance product provided by Nike gives our teams a competitive advantage. Our student-athletes, coaches and administrators are all extremely excited about this partnership."

Included in the deal are new home and away football uniforms. The Redhawks wear the same model uniforms worn by Ohio State, Florida, Missouri and other Bowl Championship (BCS) Nike programs. Southeast donned its new uniforms for the first time in 2010.

The Beaverton, Ore. based company provides uniforms, practice and training gear, headwear and footwear for all Redhawk sports. This agreement provides a mid-six figure savings for the Southeast Department of Athletics over five academic years. LIDS Team Sports administers the agreement.

"LIDS Team Sports is thrilled to have the opportunity to share its vision of quality, competitive pricing and unmatched customer service to Southeast Missouri State University through this new agreement," said Paul Brunelle, Director of LIDS Team Sports-Impact U. "We value this relationship and are honored to be partnered with the Redhawks."

NIKE, Inc., based near Beaverton, Ore., is the world's leading designer, marketer and distributor of authentic athletic footwear, apparel, equipment and accessories for a wide variety of sports and fitness activities. Since 1999, Nike has owned the top spot in the Collegiate Licensing Company's (CLC) collegiate apparel and royalties rankings.

SPORTS MEDICINE

2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

Prevention. Treatment. Rehabilitation. Education. Those are the four primary phases of athletic training, and the Southeast Missouri State University Athletic Training staff strives to fulfill all of those areas when working with the student-athletes on a daily basis.

Southeast student-athletes are offered the best care possible by the Athletic Training staff. Head Athletic Trainer, Alfred Castillo, directs the Sports Medicine department which includes four full-time athletic trainers, six graduate assistants and several student assistants. The staff serves student-athletes around-the-clock at numerous facilities on campus.

The athletic trainers begin treatments and rehabilitation starting as early as 6 a.m., and are available until the last student-athlete is through. There are currently four athletic training facilities on campus. The staff treats out of Rosengarten Athletic Complex, where the primary athletic training room is located. There are two other satellite athletic training rooms, including one at Houck Field House and one at the Show Me Center.

The Southeast Athletic Training rooms are equipped with stationary bikes, hand weights, therapeutic modalities, and the latest physical therapy equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athlete the best care, but also to aid in returning to competition as quickly as possible.

Southeast Athletic Training has strong working relationships with local physicians and the two hospitals located within Cape Girardeau. It is from these hospitals that the Athletic Training department is assisted by four orthopedic physicians.

The Southeast Athletic Training program prides and commits itself to providing the best comprehensive, personalized and efficient healthcare to its student-athletes. Delivery of healthcare focuses on the prevention and management of athletic-related injuries or illnesses, while adhering to the National Athletic Trainers' Board of Certification Standards of Professional Practice. Our high quality of athletic healthcare is provided in combination with the education of athletic training students.

The Southeast Athletic Training staff is under the direction of Alfred Castillo. Castillo and his staff serve student-athletes at a variety of facilities on campus.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

We are very proud of the tradition of excellence we are building here at Southeast Missouri State University and demand a lot from our student-athletes.

Honesty, integrity, unrelenting effort and attention to detail are the pillars of our training program. Simply put, our goal is to outwork every opponent we go up against, and learn to rely on one another to achieve a common goal. We may not be the fastest, strongest or most talented, but we certainly have the attitude that, together, we can take on the world.

In the weight room, we take a comprehensive approach to training. Programs are ground-based, founded on the Olympic Lifts (Clean, Jerk, etc.) and traditional strength training (Front/Back Squat, Dead Lift, Pressing and Pulling). The concept is simple. Find something heavy and move it in a way that mimics the actions of your sport as fast as you can.

In the training arena, we strive to take the foundational strength and power we have developed and refine it into sport-specific movements and skills. We start by emphasizing correct motor skill and muscle recruitment patterns in order to maximize athletic potential and minimize the risk of injury. We drill tirelessly on proper movement patterns so that agility and change of direction are razor sharp.

We spend a great deal of time on both explosive movements and body control to develop first step quickness, acceleration/deceleration, balance and coordination. Lastly, we condition our minds and bodies in a way that mimics game simulation.

It is our hope that through the countless lessons learned in sport and competition, we are helping to develop the leaders of tomorrow.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI REDHAWKS FOOTBALL

COMMUNITY SERVICE

2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

Student-athletes and coaches at Southeast are dedicated to giving back to the community that so generously supports them. Redhawk football student-athletes have opportunities to participate in a variety of community service activities. We are proud of the level of commitment shown by our student-athletes here at Southeast.

SUCCESS CENTER

2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

The Redhawk Success Center offers Southeast Missouri State student-athletes a place to study and develop as students and campus leaders.

The Redhawk Success Center is located in the Student Recreation Center, just south of Houck Stadium. The facility offers a computer lab with 18 computer work terminals, study areas and rooms for group meetings.

The area is under the guidance of Assistant Director of Athletics Brady Barke, with assistance from Director of Academic Services Sharon Burgard, Assistant Natalie Williams and Graduate Assistants Geoff Wester and Israel Kirk.

The beautiful facility has enhanced the outstanding work in the classroom already enjoyed by Southeast student-athletes. During the 2010 fall semester, the Southeast athletic programs combined for a 3.09 grade point average, its highest for a fall term. Eleven of the Redhawks 15 programs recorded a team GPA of 3.0 or better. In all, 186 student-athletes recorded at least a 3.0 GPA. Of that group, 23 finished the fall term with a perfect 4.0.

Tutors are available for all student-athletes as needed. In addition, both attendance and academic progress are monitored through regular checks with faculty.

A special course is required for all first time student-athletes at Southeast. The course, which offers three credit hours, is part of a comprehensive program developed to address study skills and life skills topics, and thus, enhance retention and academic success for student-athletes.

Entering student-athletes are evaluated for academic preparedness and assigned to appropriate categories. Student-athletes can also receive individualized academic programs which include meeting with a mentor at least bi-weekly to discuss academic progress.

The Success Center staff also works to get athletes involved in campus and community projects. This is done to provide a support structure and greater opportunity for academic success. Through the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, the Success Center gives student-athletes personal and professional skills in order to facilitate successful and productive futures.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Southeast Missouri State University Department of Athletics recognizes the University's responsibility for the advancement and transmission of knowledge and the preparation of leaders in all segments of society.

The Department of Athletics supports the educational objectives, academic progress and general welfare of student-athletes.

It offers assistance and encouragement for student-athletes to maintain appropriate academic progress and to achieve their individual educational goals.

It provides an atmosphere which supports equitable opportunity for all students and staff, including women and minorities. The Department of Athletics offers student-athletes opportunities to excel in their particular sport, while embracing the NCAA's principles of sportsmanship and ethical conduct.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI

REDHAWKS

SEASON PREVIEW

2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

Southeast Missouri is still raving about its storybook season a year ago and hopes the magic continues in 2011.

For the first time in school history, the Redhawks are defending Ohio Valley Conference Champions.

In 2010, Southeast went 9-3 overall and 7-1 in league play en route to its first conference title and NCAA Playoff appearance in the 104-year history of its program.

The Redhawks landed on the national radar and finished their historic campaign ranked 13th in the final Football Championship Subdivision Sports Network and Coaches Polls.

Tony Samuel earned 2010 Eddie Robinson, OVC Roy Kidd and American Football Coaches Association Region 3 Coach of the Year honors, and won the Fritz Pollard Award after leading Southeast to one of the greatest turnarounds in FCS history.

However, that was last year.

Now, Samuel sets to begin his sixth season with four new coaches and eight returning starters.

The Redhawks will also take the field at a re-vamped Houck Stadium which received a big makeover this offseason.

Brand new Field Turf, a state-of-the-art scoreboard with video capabilities and new lighting were installed to dress up the facility that has been home to Redhawk football for 81 years.

In addition to the improvements at Houck Stadium, renovations were made to the coaches offices, locker rooms and athletic training areas at the Rosengarten Athletic Complex.

Anyway you look at it, success breeds success and all the pieces are in place for the Redhawks to have another big season.

Here is a breakdown of this year's team:

Coaching Changes

Tim McGuire, who spent the last five years as Southeast's defensive coordinator, was promoted to assistant head coach and offensive coordinator.

McGuire takes over a Redhawk offense which led the OVC and ranked third in the nation in rushing last season.

First-year wide receivers coach Joel Beard joins the Redhawks after spending the last season as head coach at Minnesota State University Moorhead.

Meanwhile, Tyler Hennes will work with the quarterbacks in his first year as a graduate assistant coach.

Quarterback

Preseason All-OVC selection Matt Scheible returns for his final year at Southeast.

Scheible became the first Redhawk quarterback to earn First-Team All-Conference honors following a monster 2010 campaign.

Scheible has made 24-consecutive starts under center and currently ranks among Southeast's single-season and career leaders in several categories.

In 2010 alone, the dual-threat Scheible completed 109-of-182 passes for 1,246 yards and eight touchdowns. He also finished second on the team in rushing with 887 yards and seven touchdowns on 169 carries. Scheible ranked among the top-10 OVC leaders in passing average (6th, 103.8 ypg), pass efficiency (5th, 128.6 rating) and total offense (5th, 177.5 ypg). In addition, he threw only three interceptions, second-fewest in the league.

Derek Gibson, Tyler Peoples and Zach Levy, Trey Lewis and Scott Lathrop are behind Scheible at quarterback.

Gibson, Peoples and Levy did not see action in 2010.

Lewis was the SEMO Conference Player of the Year and Sikeston Standard Democrat Offensive Player of the Year after leading nearby Sikeston High School to a 13-1 record and second state semifinal appearance a year ago. He set individual school records in total touchdowns (40), passing yards (1,546) and total yards (2,957) as a senior, the first year he played quarterback. Lewis was equally impressive on the run, rushing for 1,411 yards and 24 TDs.

Running Back

Southeast will have some big shoes to fill at tailback following the loss of Henry Harris.

A consensus All-American and the OVC's Offensive Player of the Year, Harris ran for over 100 yards a school record 10 times in 12 starts. He averaged 5.7 yards per carry and scored multiple touchdowns on five occasions. Harris also broke the Redhawks single-season records in points scored (114), all-purpose yards (2,609), rushing attempts (305), rushing yards (1,735), rushing touchdowns (18) and total touchdowns (19).

Celestin ran the ball just four times for 15 yards in 2010, while McFerren redshirted as a true freshman.

Levi Terrell and Lewis Washington will push for the starting job.

Terrell spent the last two years at the University of Nebraska-Omaha, which cut its football program after the 2010 campaign.

He earned Second-Team All-MIAA honors after leading UNO with 960 yards and eight touchdowns on 162 carries.

Prior to that, Terrell was named First-Team All-MIAA and MIAA Freshman of the Year when he ran for 1,182 yards and seven touchdowns, despite missing the first four games of the season in 2009.

Washington was a First-Team All-District selection at Mansfield Summit High School in Arlington, Texas.

He carried the ball 187 times for 978 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior.

Southeast led the OVC and ranked third in the nation in rushing with 265.1 yards per game last season.

Receivers

The Redhawks return their top receiver in fifth-year senior Chantae Ahamefule.

Ahamefule, who has caught a pass in six-straight games, led the team in receptions (26), receiving yards (357) and receiving yards per game (29.8) last season.

D.J. Foster, Spencer Davis and Matt Bell will challenge.

Foster played in nine games and came on strong toward the end of last season. He caught three passes for 30 yards and a touchdown. Foster's first career touchdown reception came on a 19-yard pass play which gave Southeast a 21-19 lead early in the fourth quarter at Jacksonville State.

Davis is expected to be a threat after missing the entire 2010 season with a knee injury.

Bell saw action in eight games a year ago.

Tight End

Sophomore Art Mueller is a sure-handed target at tight end.

Mueller played in four games and made two starts before his season was cut short due to injury a year ago.

Transfers Marq Goodlitt and Tyler French will also look to contribute.

Goodlitt played at Citrus College, while French caught 17 passes for 189 yards in his only year as a starter at Phoenix College in 2010.

Offensive Guard

The offensive line will have some new faces after losing three First-Team All-OVC selections. Southeast had a banner year up front in 2010, paving the way for the nation's No. 3 rushing offense.

Starting with right guard, Chris Duggins appears to be the frontrunner after seeing action in 11 games last season.

Pete Niggemann, Carlos Beverly and Ethan Abernathy could also see time there.

Niggemann went through spring drills after transferring from Glendale Community College, and Beverly and Abernathy are true freshmen.

Colt McCauley, Armin Blagajcevic and Traven Mable will battle for the left guard spot.

Offensive Tackle

The Redhawks led the nation in sacks allowed last season, giving up a mere .50 per game.

Evan Conrad, who allowed only two sacks in 12 starts, is back at left tackle.

A Preseason All-OVC selection and the only non-senior offensive lineman to earn First-Team All-Conference honors a year ago, Conrad was rated among the Sports Network's FCS Preseason Top-10 offensive linemen entering 2011.

Chris Watson also returns after playing in nine games last season.

Dominic Maldonado, who sat out the 2010 campaign and missed part of the 2009 season with an injury, is the lead candidate at right tackle.

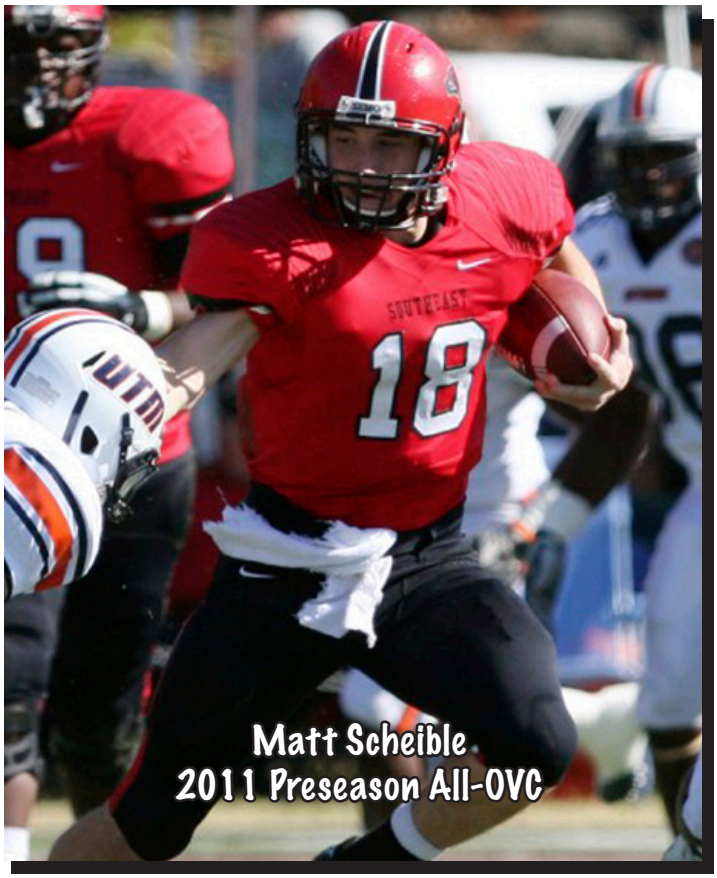

Maldonado played in eight games and made four starts prior to his injury in 2009.

Ben Schmidt moved to tackle after redshirting as a tight end last season.

Transfers Spencer Hilley and Conrad Schmid will also vye for playing time.

Hilley was a First-Team All-Jayhawk Conference and All-Region VI pick at Butler County Community College which has been ranked as the No. 1 National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) football program since 2000.

Schmid saw significant action at right tackle during the spring after coming to Southeast from Western Michigan.

Center

Southeast will have another big hole to fill at center after losing All-American and First-Team All-OVC honoree Sean Middleton.

Middleton, who started 33 games in his career, won the 2010 Rimington Award which goes to the top center in the FCS.

Transfers Ben Fulghum and Josh Jourdan are the top candidates.

Fulghum was a First-Team All-Jayhawk Conference and All-Region VI pick at Butler County Community College and Jourdan was a two-year starter at Los Angeles Harbor College.

Duggins, William Jelks, Corey Porter and Matt Shannon are other options.

Jelks played center during the spring after redshirting as a walk-on last season.

Porter, who signed with the Redhawks in May, was teammates with Trey Lewis at Sikeston High School. Porter is also the younger brother of Michael Porter, a guard/forward on Southeast's men's basketball team. Shannon sat out last season due to injury.

Fullback

Ron Coleman had a strong spring and will likely be the Redhawks starting fullback this season. Coleman redshirted in 2010.

Sophomore Josh Nicks is also back after playing in all 12 games a year ago.

Nicks rushed for three yards on three carries and registered three tackles on special teams.

Jackson native Brandon Beck and Christian Long increase the depth at fullback. Beck participated in Southeast's spring drills.

2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

Mohnsen, better known as Coach "Moose," joined the Redhawks staff in February. He most recently coached the defensive line at the University of Buffalo from 2006-09.

Mohnsen inherits a Southeast defense which allowed just 21.5 points per game last season, fewest in the Ohio Valley Conference. The Redhawks also led the league in interceptions (20) and turnover margin (+13), and ranked fifth nationally in turnover margin and 12th in turnovers gained (29).

Like Mohnsen, Cherokee Valeria is also new to the defensive staff.

Valeria begins his first season as defensive backs coach and will primarily work with the corners.

Valeria comes to Cape Girardeau after spending the last year as Director of Football Operations at Cal Poly.

The Redhawks return five starters on defense this season.

Nose Tackle

Southeast's defensive line combined for four takeways and 24 tackles for loss in 2010.

The Redhawks lost their First-Team All-OVC nose tackle J.J. Sanchez, but Frankie Davis, Quinn Perry and Josyah O'Keefe-Lopez are expected to fill the void.

Perry went through spring drills after transferring from Laney College, where he earned All-Northern California Conference honors.

Davis returns after collecting 17 tackles in 12 games a year ago.

O'Keefe-Lopez led the California Community College Athletic Association in sacks (3.0) and ranked fourth in tackles (36) at Citrus College last season.

Defensive Tackle

Fifth-year senior Steve Hendry headlines the defensive tackles.

Hendry shifts to the tackle spot after registering 18 tackles and one interception in 11 starts at left defensive end last season. He also ranked second on the team with three sacks.

Transfers Taylor Ramsey and Joe Malolo could also make an impact.

Blake Peiffer

Ramsey went through spring drills after joining the Redhawks from Ventura College.

Meanwhile, Malolo posted 80 tackles, 12 sacks and 18 tackles for loss as a two-year starter at Los Medanos College.

Returnee Nathan Jones is another who may see ample playing time at tackle.

Defensive End

Justin Love is back to anchor the right side, while Johnnie Morgan is among those contending for the starting role at left defensive end.

Love had 42 tackles in 11 starts and ranked fourth on the team in tackles for loss (4.0) a year ago. He also forced a fumble, recovered a fumble, had two sacks and five quarterback hurries. Love enters the year with 9.5 career tackles for loss, the most of any returning defensive player in 2011.

Morgan saw action in every game last season. He made 10 tackles, including three solo stops.

Trent Peterson and newcomer Alonzo Nevarez will challenge at left end.

Peterson made two tackles and recovered a fumble in nine games last season, while Nevarez registered 29 tackles and led his team in both sacks (4.0) and tackles for loss (7.5) at Citrus College in 2010.

Linebackers

A linebacker has led the team in tackles every year since 2006, and Southeast looks to continue that trend this season.

Blake Peiffer and Philip Klaproth are the most experienced of the group. Both played in all 12 games and combined for nine starts in 2010.

Peiffer, who started six games, was among the Redhawks top tacklers, ranking fifth with 59 stops.

Klaproth made three starts, adding 38 tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack. Klaproth has recorded at least one tackle in each of his 35 career games at linebacker.

Wisler Ymonice is another key returnee. Ymonice had 15 tackles in 12 games as a true freshman.

Others looking to contribute include Brian Fercho, David Smart, Derek Walker, Derek Gohn, Joey Lohmann, Elijah Jackson, Andy McNeel, George Neuhaus, Daniel Siehndel and Ashanti Watson.

Fercho played in nine games, while Smart (redshirted) and Gohn did not see action last season.

Walker, Jackson and Siehndel are walk-ons. Siehndel redshirted at Big Sky Conference member Northern Colorado in 2010.

Lohmann was the 2010 Naples Daily News Defensive Player of the Year after breaking Barron Collier High School's single-season (150) and career (330) tackles records.

McNeel was a First-Team All-Conference selection and two-year starter at Eureka High School.

Neuhaus became Niles North High School's first All-State player when he earned First-Team 7A honors last season. He averaged more than 100 tackles in each of his prep campaigns.

Watson signed with the Redhawks in July. He comes to Southeast from San Mateo College, where he helped lead the Bulldogs to a 10-2 record and NorCal title in 2009. Watson returned an interception 76 yards for the decisive touchdown in the conference championship game that year.

Safeties

Southeast led the OVC with 20 interceptions in 2010 and 11 of those picks were in the secondary.

The safeties are sparked by the return of Preseason All-OVC selection Tylor Brock.

Brock, who started 12 games at free safety, led the conference and tied for 16th in the nation with six interceptions last season. He tied a Southeast single-game record in interceptions and returned two of his picks for touchdowns. Brock also had 56 tackles and earned both Second-Team All-America and All-OVC accolades.

Branden Spann, Tamaris Surdock and Josh Freeman are also in the mix at free safety.

Spann played in six games and Surdock redshirted in 2010.

Freeman was a three-year starter at Poplar Bluff High School. He had 77 tackles and two sacks as a senior and finished his prep career ranked second in school history in sacks.

The Redhawks are in good shape at strong safety with the return of fifth-year senior Bryan Blanfort.

Blanfort received a medical redshirt after missing the entire 2010 season with a knee injury. He started 11 games and ranked second on the team with 79 tackles and a team-high 42 solo stops in 2009.

Senior Kris Cottner adds more experience to the position. Cottner saw action in 12 games and was in on eight tackles a year ago.

Newcomer Ben Kargbo played in six games and made two solo tackles before leaving the University of Buffalo prior to the start of his sophomore season. Kargbo has three years of eligibility remaining.

Starks redshirted last season.

Cornerbacks

Southeast lost both of its starting cornerbacks from last season.

Kweku Arkorful and Bradley Montgomery are the lead candidates for those spots entering the 2011 campaign.

Arkorful had 19 tackles, an interception and two forced fumbles in 11 games during his first year with the Redhawks last season.

Montgomery did not see action in 2010, but had a strong spring.

Sheldon McCullough and Cory Holmes also saw significant playing time last season.

McCullough recorded two tackles and one pass breakup in nine games, and Holmes had three tackles in 12 contests.

Jaren Butler, Sam Poole and Tim Hamm-Bey expand the depth at cornerback.

Butler made two tackles in four games a year ago.

Poole joins the Redhawks from O'Fallon High School, where he ranked 28th among the St. Louis Post-Dispatch Super 30 high school football recruits.

Hamm-Bey posted 33 tackles as a senior at Lindbergh High School in 2010.

Specialists

The Redhawks return both their starting kicker and punter in 2011.

Drew Geldbach is back to handle the placekicking duties. Geldbach ranked second among Southeast's single-season leaders in PATs after making 33-of-38 last season. He also made 12-of-17 field goals, including a career-long 53-yard kick on his first attempt at Murray State (Sept. 11). Geldbach kicked off 64 times and ranked second on the team in scoring with 69 points, as well.

Joe Vucic returns at punter. Vucic punted 46 times for 1,709 yards a year ago. Three of his kicks travelled 50 or more yards and he pinned opponents inside their 20-yardline 10 times.

Walk-on and Australia native Eddie Kocwa will help the kicking game.

Spencer Davis, who missed all of last season with an injury, is expected to be the Redhawks top return man. Davis scored eight touchdowns on punt returns as a prep at Hazelwood Central High School.

Brandon Gabbard enters his third year as Southeast's starting long snapper. David Smart and Derek Gohn are other options at that position.

Matt Scheible is projected to be the holder. Aaron King can also play there if the need arises.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI
REDHAWKS

COACHING STAFF

Samuel Revives Southeast Missouri Football Program

It normally takes five years to turn around a program, and everything came together for Southeast Missouri under head coach Tony Samuel in 2010.

Samuel entered the year with a Southeast team picked to finish eighth in the Ohio Valley Conference Preseason Poll.

Not much was expected of the Redhawks, who had won no more than four games in each of Samuel's first four seasons at the helm.

However, you could sense that success was brewing and it was only a matter of time until it boiled over.

It was a year for the ages as Southeast flipped a 2-9 record from 2009 to a 9-3 mark in 2010. The Redhawks also finished 7-1 in OVC play en route to their first-ever conference title and NCAA Playoff appearance in the 104-year history of their football program.

Samuel, who won the Sports Network Eddie Robinson, Fritz Pollard, Roy Kidd OVC and American Football Coaches Association Region 3 Coach of the Year awards, led Southeast to one of the greatest turnarounds in Football Championship Subdivision history.

"It was an amazing run and I'm proud of our guys," said Samuel. "It was really impressive to see what this team accomplished."

The Redhawks were a Top-25 team for the last nine weeks of the season and achieved their highest national ranking when they were voted seventh in the Nov. 8 Sports Network Poll.

As Samuel will attest, Southeast's magical journey to the national spotlight kicked into high gear when the Redhawks overcame an 18-point third-quarter deficit to stun then-No. 5 Southern Illinois on the road. It was a victory that sent shock waves through the FCS.

"It was a huge win for our program and definitely the biggest since I've been at Southeast," said Samuel. "The most gratifying thing was seeing the looks on our players' faces in the locker room after that game. From that point on, I knew our season was going to be something special."

Samuel coached four All-Americans (Henry Harris, Frank Knights, Tylor Brock, Sean Middleton), 10 All-Conference selections (Harris, Knights, Middleton, Brock, Matt Scheible, Bryan Curry, Evan Conrad, J.J. Sanchez, Justin Woodlief, Joshua Jackson), one Academic All-American (Sanchez), the OVC Offensive Player of the Year (Harris) and FCS Rimington Award-Winner (Middleton) during the historic 2010 campaign.

In addition, the Redhawks ranked among the top-five teams in the nation in sacks allowed (1st, 0.50/game), least interceptions thrown (t1st, 3), rushing offense (3rd, 265.1 ypg), fourth-down efficiency (3rd, 72.2 pct.), interceptions (4th, 20), third-down efficiency (5th, 47.3 pct.) and turnover margin (5th, 1.08).

Samuel's dazzling success certainly didn't go un-noticed.

A school record average of 8,342 fans turned out to watch Southeast at home in 2010, an improvement from 5,835 in 2009. That included two crowds over the Houck Stadium capacity of 10,000, including a school record home crowd of 11,126 vs. UT Martin on Oct. 30.

Increased football attendance generated a positive economic effect as local hotels and restaurants filled up with fans.

The resurgence also gave retailers of team apparel a major boost.

More importantly, Samuel's Redhawks landed in the national media, bringing plenty of noteriety to the city of Cape Girardeau and surrounding areas.

"The outpouring of support was awesome and it's always nice to get your name out there," said Samuel.

Southeast, which was one of 15 FCS teams with nine or more wins in 2010, saw its storybook season come to an end when it fell to eventual National Champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the NCAA Playoffs.

Two months later, Samuel signed a five-year contract extension to remain Southeast's head coach through the 2016 season.

"Five years ago, we hired the right coach," said Kenneth W. Dobbins, president of the University. "We are pleased with Tony's style and success and look forward to many more years with him as head coach."

With Samuel's new contract extension came a massive facility upgrade. The renovation project, which includes new lighting, Fieldturf and scoreboard with video capabilities at Houck Stadium, and renovated locker rooms, meeting rooms, coaches offices and athletic training areas at the Rosengarten Complex, will be completed prior to the 2011 season.

"There are a lot of great things happening here and we want to continue to build on this success," said Samuel.

Samuel, the ninth head coach in Southeast football history, was named to the position on Dec. 21, 2005.

In his first five years at Southeast, Samuel coached four First-Team All-Americans, 13 First-Team All-OVC selections, one Academic All-American, one OVC Offensive Player of the Year, three OVC All-Newcomer picks and one Rimington Award winner.

Samuel also coached Edgar Jones, who played four seasons with the Baltimore Ravens and most recently signed as a free agent with the Washington Redskins. Jones is currently one of three former Southeast players in the National Football League.

Samuel has coached at the NCAA Division I level for 29 years, working 16 seasons as an assistant coach and 13 as a head coach.

He made stops at Western Michigan, Stanford, Nebraska, New Mexico State and Purdue before taking over at Southeast.

Samuel spent the bulk of his coaching career on the Great Plains of the Midwestern United States.

A graduate of the University of Nebraska, Samuel both played and coached football at his alma mater.

He coached the linebacker and rush end positions under legendary head coach Tom Osborne for 11 seasons (1986-96). Samuel mentored six First-Team All-Americans and 12 future NFL players. Nebraska won two National Championships (1994, 1995), captured seven Big Eight/Big 12 Conference titles and played in 11 bowl games over that span.

As a player, Samuel was a member of Osborne's first recruiting class at Nebraska. He was a two-year starter at defensive end and played in four bowl games, including the Sugar, Fiesta, Astro Bluebonnet and Liberty Bowls. Samuel earned honorable mention All-Big Eight honors as a senior in 1977.

Cape Girardeau Mayor Harry Rediger presented Tony Samuel with a "Proclamation to the City," commemorating the achievements of the 2010 Southeast Missouri football team.

Samuel and five other members of his coaching staff have ties to the University of Nebraska.

Samuel went on to be the head coach at New Mexico State from 1997-2004, where he presently stands as the third-winningest coach in school history with 57 victories.

New Mexico State went 6-5 in 1999, recording its first winning season since 1992 and only its third in 32 years.

In 2002, Samuel's Aggie squad posted a 7-5 mark which represented the most wins in a season since 1967.

His teams won the Rio Grande Championship twice, and he led the Aggies to an undefeated home record in 2002. Samuel was instrumental in leading the 2003 New Mexico State squad to a No. 13 ranking in graduation rates among all NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly I-A) programs (76 percent).

Samuel then spent one year as the defensive ends coach at Purdue University (2005) before accepting the head coaching job at Southeast.

While at Purdue, Samuel coached Rob Ninkovich, the team's Most Valuable Player and Second-Team All-Big Ten defensive end.

Samuel received his undergraduate degree in education from Nebraska in 1981. He was elected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees in 2002.

Samuel is a native of Trinidad, West Indies, and moved to Jersey City, N.J. at the age of 10. He has four children, Travis, Serena, Phillip and Terryn, and one grandaughter, Madalyn.

Southeast Missouri All-Americans under Samuel

Henry Harris, RB (2010)
Sean Middleton, C (2010)
Frank Knights, G (2010)
Tylor Brock, FS (2010)

Note that Sean Middleton also won the 2010 Rimington Award, which goes to the top center in the Football Championship Subdivision.

Tim McGuire, who spent the last five years as Southeast's defensive coordinator, was promoted to assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in February.

McGuire last called a full season of offense when he was at Morningside College in 1982.

A native of Omaha, Neb., McGuire takes over a Redhawk offense which led the Ohio Valley Conference and ranked third in the nation in rushing (265.1 ypg) last season. Southeast also led the nation in sacks allowed with .50 per game.

McGuire guided Southeast's defense to a banner year in 2010.

The Redhawks led the OVC in scoring defense (21.5 ppg allowed), interceptions (20) and turnover margin (+13), while ranking second in total defense (317.1 ypg allowed), pass defense (164.8 ypg allowed) and pass defense efficiency (105.0 rating). Additionally, Southeast ranked fifth in the nation in turnover margin and 12th in turnovers gained (29).

Four Redhawks earned All-OVC honors on McGuire's defense last season, including First-Team free safety Tylor Brock who led the conference with six interceptions. Brock was also a Second-Team All-American.

McGuire was defensive coordinator at St. Norbert College in 2005 following a 12-year stint at Indiana State.

He was the Sycamores defensive coordinator from 1993-97 and head coach from 1998-2004. ISU's defensive units registered three shutouts and held opponents under 10 points on 10 occasions during McGuire's tenure. His 1994 squad ranked first in the Missouri Valley Football Conference (formerly Gateway Football Conference) and 17th nationally in total defense.

McGuire mentored seven All-Americans as head coach at ISU.

McGuire was also a head coach at Morningside College in Iowa (1981-82) and worked as an assistant at Navy, Northern Illinois, Kansas State and Nebraska-Omaha.

McGuire played offensive guard at Nebraska from 1971-74. He received a bachelor's degree in Mathematics from Nebraska and master's degree in Physical Education from Nebraska-Omaha. McGuire is a member of the American Football Coaches Association.

He and his wife, Judy, are the parents of four children, Lisa, Tim, Jr., Molly and Paul, and one grandson, Ayden.

Brian Mohnsen enters his first year as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Southeast.

A native of McCook, Neb., Mohnsen most recently coached the defensive line at the University of Buffalo from 2006-09. He also coached the defensive line at Minnesota State-Mankato.

At Buffalo, Mohnsen helped lead the Bulls to back-to-back Mid-American Conference East Division Championships (2007 Co-Champions, 2008 Outright Champions). Buffalo made its first-ever trip to a bowl game in 2008 (International Bowl). Mohnsen coached standout defensive ends Steve Means and Trevor Scott, and linebacker Ramon Guzman during his time at Buffalo. Means was named to Phil Steele's All-Freshman First-Team, Scott was drafted by the Oakland Raiders in 2008 and Guzman signed as a free agent with the Indianapolis Colts in 2006.

Mohnsen was defensive coordinator at Northwest Oklahoma State in 2004, where his defense ranked second nationally in total defense and pass defense, third in rushing defense and fifth in scoring defense.

Mohnsen spent 12 years at Nebraska (1992-2003), serving as director of the Cornhuskers video scouting department.

Mohnsen inherits a Redhawk defense which allowed just 21.5 points per game last season, fewest in the Ohio Valley Conference. In addition, Southeast led the league in interceptions (20) and turnover margin (+13), while ranking 12th in the nation in turnovers gained (29).

A former letterman for the Husker football team, Mohnsen graduated from Nebraska with a degree in secondary education in 1991. During Mohnsen's collegiate career, he has been part of three National Championships (1994, 1995, 1997) and 13 Conference titles. In addition, Mohnsen was teammates with current Southeast offensive line coach Brian Boerboom at Nebraska.

JOEL BEARD
WIDE RECEIVERS

First Season
Wisconsin-Stout, 2000

Joel Beard will enter his first season as the wide receivers coach at Southeast.

Beard spent the last year as head coach at Minnesota State University Moorhead. He was named to that position after serving as the Dragons offensive coordinator for three seasons and interim head coach for the final five games of the 2009 campaign.

A participant of the 2006 NCAA Football Coaches Academy, Beard was appointed wide receivers coach at MSU Moorhead in March of 2007. He was promoted to offensive coordinator by the start of that season.

Prior to MSU Moorhead, Beard spent six seasons coaching at the high school level.

He began his coaching career as head coach at Southwestern High School in Hazel Green, Wis., for the 2000 and 2001 campaigns. While at SHS, Beard helped the program achieve single-game records for passing yards and individual total offense.

Beard spent the 2002 season as wide receivers coach at his alma mater, UW-Stout.

The following year, Beard coached the wide receivers at Franklin High School. After that, he spent three years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/running backs coach at Nicolet High School.

Beard was a two-sport athlete at UW-Platteville, where he lettered in football and basketball.

He lettered four years in basketball and was a member of two national championship teams coached by Bo Ryan (currently head coach at the University of Wisconsin).

Beard established single-season passing records in attempts, completions and yards gained as a starting quarterback for the Pioneers his senior year.

Beard obtained a degree in psychology from UW-Stout. He and his wife, Sara, have a daughter, Nyha.

BRIAN BOERBOOM
OFFENSIVE LINE

Sixth Season
Nebraska, 1992

Boerboom's offensive line produced four First-Team All-Ohio Valley Conference picks in 2010. As a result, Southeast became only the second team in OVC history and first since 1956 to garner four First-Team offensive line selections.

In addition, Boerboom coached two All-Americans (Frank Knights, Sean Middleton) and the Football Championship Subdivision Rimington Award-Winner (Middleton) last season.

Boerboom's offensive line paved the way for the nation's No. 3 rushing offense in 2010. The Redhawks averaged 265.1 yards per game. The offensive line also led the nation in fewest sacks allowed, giving up just six in 12 games.

Originally from Colorado Springs, Colo., Boerboom joined the Southeast program from Great Bridge High School in Chesapeake, Va., where he was head coach since 2003. His teams led the district in passing yards every one of his years as a head coach.

He gained other experience as an assistant coach at Greenville College, Colorado College and several high schools in Colorado.

Boerboom has been an instructor at a number of summer camps, including N.C. State, University of Virginia, University of Nebraska, Illinois, Colorado College and F.C.A. football camp in Cuba, Mo.

Boerboom played college football at Nebraska, where he was a three-year letterman and two-year starter at offensive tackle. He was an All-Big Eight selection in 1991 and played in both the Fiesta Bowl and Orange Bowl under Tom Osborne.

In 1992, Boerboom became a member of the Cincinnati Bengals practice squad with whom he practiced, scrimmaged and played in preseason games. He also played for the Connecticut Coyotes of the Arena Football League in 1995.

Boerboom earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Nebraska in 1992 and master's degree in physical education from Trinity College in 2002.

He and his wife, Stacy, are raising seven children, Zach, Amber, Jake, Sarah, Jared, Mary and Nathan.

JUSTIN KRAMER
OT/TE/RECRUITING COORD.

Sixth Season
Southern Illinois, 2005

Justin Kramer is in his sixth year as an assistant coach at Southeast.

He coaches the tight ends and offensive tackles, and serves as the Redhawks recruiting coordinator.

Kramer coached one First-Team All-Ohio Valley Conference tackle in 2010. Evan Conrad, who is rated among the Sports Network's Top-10 Football Championship Subdivision players at his position this year, was the only non-senior offensive lineman to earn First-Team All-Conference honors for the Redhawks a year ago. Conrad is a Preseason All-OVC pick entering the 2011 campaign.

Kramer's offensive line paved the way for the nation's No. 3 rushing offense in 2010. The Redhawks averaged 265.1 yards per game. The offensive line also led the nation in fewest sacks allowed, giving up just six in 12 games.

As the team's recruiting coordinator, Kramer had a big hand in assembling this year's 25-member class which rates as the second-largest under head coach Tony Samuel.

Kramer initially joined the Southeast coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 2006, where he worked with the defensive line. He also served as the team's director of football operations for a year and a half.

A native of Liberty, Mo., Kramer played four years on the offensive line at Southern Illinois University. He was part of a remarkable turnaround at SIU, which saw the Salukis win three-straight conference titles and make the NCAA Playoffs on three occasions.

As a prep, Kramer played at Liberty High School, where he was named Second-Team All-State and First-Team All-Metro as a senior. Kramer started three years at left tackle and was an All-Conference selection every season for one of the most successful teams in the Kansas City metro area. In addition, he pitched for Liberty's baseball team which won the 2002 State Championship.

Kramer received a bachelor's degree in mass communication from SIU in 2005. His father, Brian, played college football at the University of Nebraska.

CHRIS NORRIS
RUNNING BACKS/SPECIAL TEAMS

Sixth Season
Nebraska-Omaha, 1999

Chris Norris enters his sixth year as the running backs and special teams coach at Southeast.

Norris coached his first Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year and First-Team All-American at running back when Henry Harris shattered numerous school records in 2010. Harris, who finished fifth in the overall voting for the Walter Payton Award, became Southeast's all-time single-season leader in rushing yards, all-purpose yardage, points scored, total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns.

Prior to that, a punter had earned All-American honors in four of Norris' first five years at Southeast.

Norris joined the Redhawks staff after spending three years under the direction of Steve Gilbert at Jacksonville University.

In his first year at JU, Dolphin running backs ran for a school-record 2,103 yards on 494 carries. Norris also coached Emmett Hunter, the Dolphins all-time leading rusher, to All-American honors in 2003. Prior to that, Norris spent three seasons in the same capacity at Tennessee State.

Norris began his college coaching career as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Northern State University.

In 1999, he helped lead the Wolves to a 9-3 record and No. 11 national ranking. Norris also coached at his alma mater, Papillion-La Vista High School from 1997-99.

Norris played four years as a fullback under head coaches Tom Osborne and Frank Solich at the University of Nebraska.

The Cornhuskers went 47-3 with four Big Eight Conference titles and one National Championship (1994) during his career. Nebraska also owned a 26-game winning streak in that span.

Norris earned a bachelor's degree from Nebraska-Omaha in 1999. He and his wife, Tracee, have a daughter, Breeze, and reside in Jackson.

SALIM POWELL
DEFENSIVE/SPECIAL TEAMS ASST.

Second Season
Southeast Missouri, 2009

Salim Powell begins his first year as the defensive and special teams assistant at Southeast.

Powell joined the staff as Director of Football Operations last year.

A native of Willingboro, N.J., Powell played cornerback for the Redhawks from 2006-09 and was a starter at his position the final three years of his career.

Powell registered 98 tackles and two interceptions in 44 games and 33 starts at Southeast.

He will assist a Redhawk defense which led the Ohio Valley Conference in scoring defense (21.5 ppg allowed), interceptions (20) and turnover margin (+13) a year ago. Southeast also ranked second in the league in total defense (317.1 ypg allowed), pass defense (164.8 ypg allowed) and pass defense efficiency (105.0 rating) that year. The Redhawks ranked fifth in the nation in turnover margin and 12th nationally in turnovers gained (29), as well.

Additionally, Southeast's defense produced four All-OVC players last season. First-Team All-OVC and Second-Team All-American Tylor Brock returns from that group in 2011. Brock is a Preseason All-Conference pick.

Powell was teammates with Marvin Anderson at both Southeast and Willingboro High School, and now they work together on the Redhawks coaching staff.

As a prep, Powell was an All-Conference and All-County defensive back, who landed a spot on the Super 100 All-State team.

Powell received a bachelor's degree in sport management from Southeast during the spring of 2010.

NICK STAUFFER
SAFETIES

Third Season
Southeast Missouri, 2008

Nick Stauffer enters his first year as the safeties coach at Southeast.

Stauffer worked as the Redhawks Director of Football Operations before moving to his on-field coaching position.

A native of Mansfield, Texas, Stauffer remained in the area following a stellar playing career as a linebacker at Southeast.

Stauffer was a First-Team All-Ohio Valley Conference selection after setting a single-season school record and ranking fourth in the nation with 150 tackles in 2008.

In an upset victory over nationally-ranked Tennessee State on Oct. 25, 2008, Stauffer had a career-high 21 tackles and added his first career interception in an overtime victory.

Stauffer finished his Southeast career with a total of 208 tackles, 15 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, three fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and one interception.

He will help coach a secondary which is coming off a big year in 2010.

The Redhawks led the OVC and ranked fourth in the nation with 20 interceptions, three of which were returned for touchdowns.

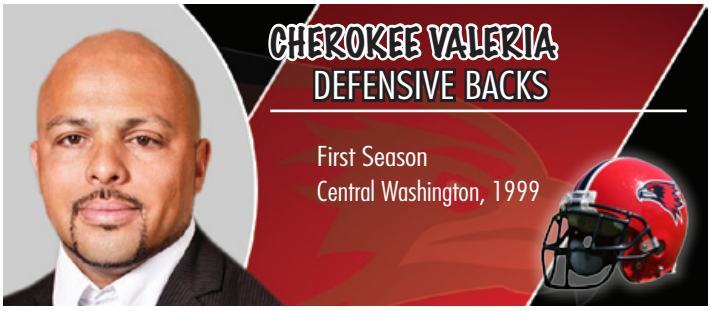

Tylor Brock earned First-Team All-OVC honors and Second-Team All-American accolades after tying Southeast's single-season record with six interceptions at free safety last season. Brock was rated among the Sports Network's Top-10 Football Championship Subdivision defensive backs and was named a First-Team Consensus Draft Services All-American this preseason. He garnered Preseason All-OVC honors, as well.

Stauffer will also be working with fifth-year senior free safety Bryan Blanfort. Blanfort returns after missing the 2010 season with a knee injury.

A native of Mansfield, Texas, Stauffer graduated with a bachelor's degree in secondary physical education from Southeast in 2008.

Brandon "Cherokee" Valeria is in his first season as the defensive backs coach, primarily working with the corners at Southeast.

Valeria was hired in March and was with the team during spring drills.

A native of Hilo, Hawai'i, Valeria comes to Cape Girardeau after spending the last year as Director of Football Operations at Cal Poly.

Prior to working at Cal Poly, Valeria spent three seasons as cornerbacks coach at Idaho State. He coached D.J. Clark of the Carolina Panthers during his time with the Bengals football program. Clark also earned All-Big Sky honors every year under Valeria's tutelage, and ranked third all-time at ISU in career interceptions. Valeria was also the cornerbacks coach for two years at Central Washington, his alma mater.

Valeria had a player rank among the nation's Top-30 in interceptions in four of the last five years dating back to his time at Central Washington. In 2005, the Wildcats won the Great Northwest Athletic Conference title after going 8-2 overall and undefeated in league play. Central Washington's defense ranked 11th nationally with both of Valeria's corners earning First-Team All-Conference honors that year.

As a player, Valeria was a wide receiver at Central Washington from 1993-97, and helped lead the Wildcats to the 1995 NAIA National Championship. He graduated with a degree in biology in 1999 and was later inducted into the Central Washington Hall of Fame with the 1995 team in 2006.

Valeria has also coached in minor league professional football, in the high school ranks and with the Everett Hawks of the National Indoor Football League. He was named the 2004 Northwest Region Assistant Coach of the Year by Minor League Football News after helping lead the West Sound Saints to the NWFL title game.

Valeria has a son, Ayosgi Uwasa (which means "Last Warrior" in Cherokee), and a daughter, T'Kia Li (which means "Message from God").

Tyler Hennes will coach the quarterbacks in his first year as a graduate assistant at Southeast.

A native of Mulvane, Kan., Hennes graduated with a bachelor's degree in social sciences from Emporia State in 2006.

Hennes played two years at Independence Junior College (2003-04) and later returned there to coach the wide receivers.

After that, Hennes coached the running backs for two years at Delta State (2008-09).

Hennes will help mentor Preseason All-Ohio Valley Conference quarterback Matt Scheible.

Scheible returns for his third year as the Redhawks starting QB. He completed 109-of-182 passes for 1,246 yards and eight touchdowns in 12 starts last season. Scheible also finished as Southeast's second-leading rusher with 887 yards and seven touchdowns on 169 carries. Some preseason publications projected Scheible to be the 2011 OVC Offensive Player of the Year.

Marvin Anderson is in his first year as director of football operations.

Anderson's responsibilities include all day-to-day operations, coordinating team travel and meal planning.

A native of Willingboro, N.J., Anderson played four years as a linebacker at Southeast from 2006-09.

He registered 97 tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and one interception during his playing career.

Anderson was teammates with Salim Powell at both Willingboro High School and Southeast Missouri, and now they work together on the Redhawks coaching staff.

Anderson received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Southeast.

YEAR IN REVIEW

Southeast Celebrates Championship Season in 2010

The 2010 Southeast Missouri State University football season was one for the ages and one that Redhawk fans will not soon forget.

The Redhawks turned an eighth-place Ohio Valley Conference preseason ranking into their first-ever Conference Championship and NCAA Playoff berth at any level of football in the 104-year history of their program.

Southeast flipped a 2-9 record from 2009 to a 9-3 mark in 2010. The Redhawks also finished at 7-1 in league play. The 6.5-game improvement ranks among the best turnarounds in both Football Championship Subdivision and OVC history.

"I'm proud of our guys. It was a heckuva season," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel following the team's loss to eventual FCS National Champion Eastern Washington. "It was really impressive to see what this team accomplished."

Samuel was named the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year, Roy Kidd OVC Coach of the Year and American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 3 Coach of the Year.

Southeast also had four All-Americans, 10 All-Conference selections, one Academic All-American and the OVC Offensive Player of the Year last season. In addition, Sean Middleton was the recipient of the Rimington Award, which goes to the top center in the FCS.

"It was an exciting year," said Samuel. "Obviously, we want to build on this success."

So, just what was the secret to the Redhawks storybook season? After all, Southeast essentially had the same team it did in 2009, with the exception of the seniors who left the program.

"We worked really hard in the offseason and decided as a team that we didn't want to lose anymore," said quarterback Matt Scheible. "We set goals and every member of this team committed to achieving them. It was an amazing run."

Scheible became the first quarterback in school history to earn First-Team All-OVC accolades after completing 109-of-182 passes for 1,246 yards and eight touchdowns in 12 starts. Scheible also finished as the Redhawks second-leading rusher with 887 yards and seven touchdowns on 169 carries.

Henry Harris

Harris, who did not rush for 100 yards one time in 2009, broke Southeast single-season records in points scored (114), all-purpose yards (2,609), rushing attempts (305), rushing yards (1,735), rushing touchdowns (18) and total touchdowns (19).

A consensus All-American and the OVC's Offensive Player of the Year, Harris ran for over 100 yards a school record 10 times in 12 starts. He averaged 5.7 yards per carry and scored multiple touchdowns on five occasions. Harris also broke the Redhawks single-game rushing record when he piled up 293 yards in Southeast's final home game of the season against Southwest Baptist (Nov. 6). Those 293 yards were most in a single game by any FCS player in 2010.

Harris led the nation in all-purpose yardage (217.4 ypg) and ranked third in rushing (144.6 ypg). He led the OVC in three categories, including rushing yards, all-purpose yards and scoring (9.5 ppg). Not to mention, Harris finished fifth in the overall voting for the prestigious Walter Payton Award. As a result, he became the first OVC player to finish among the top-five in the Payton Award balloting since 2005 when Tennessee State's Barrick Nealy placed fifth.

"It is exciting to be a part of history, but it's all about the team and getting wins," said Harris. "I give all the credit to our offensive line which was outstanding."

Southeast's offensive line, which entered the year with some question marks, paved the way for one of the nation's elite rushing attacks.

The Redhawks had four offensive linemen garner First-Team All-OVC honors, marking only the second time in league history and first since 1956 (Middle Tennessee) that one team had four First-Team offensive line selections.

"The offensive line, like Henry will tell you, played a big part in our success," added Samuel.

First-Team All-OVC picks Sean Middleton (C), Frank Knights (LG), Bryan Curry (RG) and Evan Conrad (LT) started every game for the Redhawks up front.

Middleton, Knights, Curry and Conrad were the driving force behind a Southeast offense which led the OVC and ranked third in the nation in rushing with 265.1 yards per game.

"We wanted to be physical and finish in the top-five in the country in rushing," said Southeast offensive line coach Brian Boerboom. "We had to have a certain mentality up front to do that. Our guys understood what we asked them to do and gave us the leadership we were looking for."

The offensive line also helped place the Redhawks among the top FCS teams in least interceptions thrown (t1st, 3 INT), sacks allowed (1st, 0.50/game), third-down conversions (5th, 47.3 pct.), fourth-down conversions (3rd, 72.2 pct.), fewest yards penalized per game (9th, 37.92 ypg) and fewest penalties per game (11th, 4.50/game).

Defensively, Southeast headed into the 2010 season with some unfinished business.

In 2009, the Redhawks finished last in the OVC on third down, with opponents converting 50.9 percent (84-of-165) of the time in those situations. Then-Southeast defensive coordinator Tim McGuire said that was an area that had to change.

"It was very important for us to improve our third-down defense," said McGuire. "We worked hard at getting off the field and giving the ball back to our offense."

Southeast significantly improved its opposing third-down conversion percentage and led the OVC in scoring defense (21.5 ppg allowed), interceptions (20), turnovers gained (29) and turnover margin along the way. The Redhawks' +13 turnover margin ranked fifth in the country.

"It was an awesome season," said linebacker Joshua Jackson. "We had a lot of guys step up and make big plays. Everything just came together."

Jackson, who was named Second-Team All-OVC, led the Redhawks with 85 tackles. He also had 3.5 tackles for loss, one sack, two forced fumbles and an interception which he returned for a touchdown against Eastern Washington (Dec. 4).

Fellow linebacker Justin Woodlief joined Jackson on the league's second-team.

Woodlief led the team in forced fumbles (3) and ranked second in both tackles (77) and interceptions (4). Woodlief earned All-Conference honors in each of his two seasons at Southeast.

All-American and First-Team All-OVC free safety Tylor Brock tied a single-season school record with six interceptions. Brock registered 174 interception return yards and ran back two of his picks for touchdowns.

Linebacker Darrick Borum, defensive tackle J.J. Sanchez and cornerback Aaron Grimes were other fixtures on the Redhawk defense.

Borum led Southeast in sacks (4.0) and tackles for loss (7.5), and Sanchez became the program's first CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-American.

Meanwhile, Grimes finished third on the team with 66 tackles in his only year as a starter.

"We played with a lot of emotion," said Sanchez. "We wanted to keep our offense on the field and I feel like we did a good job of that."

Southeast's magical 2010 season was arguably the best in school history.

After opening the year with a loss at Football Bowl Subdivision foe Ball State on Sept. 2, the Redhawks reeled off nine-straight victories. Southeast's nine wins tied a school record for most victories in a season, and the Redhawks polished off their first winning campaign since 2002 and only their third winning season since joining NCAA Division I in 1991.

Matt Scheible

Joshua Jackson

Southeast was one of 15 FCS teams with nine or more wins and achieved its highest national ranking in school history when it ranked seventh in the Sports Network Poll on Nov. 8.

The Redhawks went undefeated at home (5-0) for the first time since joining the OVC.

An average of 8,342 fans turned out to watch Southeast at home in 2010, an improvement from 5,835 in 2009. That included two crowds over the Houck Stadium capacity of 10,000, including a school record home crowd of 11,126 vs. UT Martin on Oct. 30.

The Redhawks took down a top-five opponent for the first time since joining the NCAA Division I ranks when they rallied from an 18-point second-half deficit to upset then-No. 5 Southern Illinois, 24-21, on Sept. 18. Southeast became the first Division I opponent to beat SIU in its brand-new, $25 million Saluki Stadium. The result sent shock waves throughout the FCS.

"Nobody expected that," said Samuel. "It was a great win for the program."

The win over SIU generated a buzz in the Cape Girardeau area that spread like a wild fire as the season progressed.

Increased attendance at football games generated a positive economic effect as local hotels and restaurants filled up with fans.

The Redhawks' resurgence also gave retailers of team apparel a major boost. T-shirts, sweatshirts, jackets and caps flew off the shelves.

"We've always said when you're losing, you're not selling," commented Laurie Taylor, assistant manager of the Southeast Bookstore.

More importantly, the Redhawks brought national noteriety to the city of Cape Girardeau when they landed in the national media.

Southeast made the Nov. 4 edition of the USA Today and Henry Harris made the Faces in the Crowd section of Sports Illustrated's Nov. 22 issue.

"It's always nice to get your name out there, but we have a lot of work to do," said Samuel.

Congratulations to the 2010 Southeast Missouri football team on a remarkable Championship season!

2010 OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Southeast Missouri 10
Ball State 27

September 2, 2010
Scheumann Stadium
Attendance: 10,753

MUNCIE, Ind. - Ball State scored 17 unanswered points in the third quarter to key a 27-10 victory over Southeast Missouri in front of a crowd of 10,753 at Scheumann Stadium.

Southeast and Ball State were tied, 7-7, at halftime before the Cardinals scored two touchdowns in a span of 4:32 early in the second half.

"We had a great first half and I thought our kids came ready to play," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "The third quarter was the difference. Overall, I was proud of the way we played."

Southeast had the ball first in the second half, but was forced to punt.

The Cardinals, after taking over on downs at their own 49, marched 51 yards in nine plays to take the lead. Eric Williams and Cory Sykes combined for 36 rushing yards, with Williams capping the drive on a 1-yard plunge at the 8:45 mark.

On the first play of the Redhawks next possession, Cedric Cox fumbled the ball into the hands of Robert Eddins at Southeast's 39-yardline. Eight plays later, Sykes scored his second rushing touchdown on a 12-yard run with 4:53 left.

Southeast was forced to punt again, but Briggs Orsbon came free up the middle to block Joe Vucic's kick.

The Cardinals were held to a 29-yard field goal by Ian McGarvey which extended their lead to 24-7 with 2:30 remaining in the third quarter.

Southeast's only points in the second half came via a 53-yard field goal by Drew Geldbach. Geldbach, who split the uprights on his first career field goal attempt, was the second Redhawk kicker to make a 53-yard field goal in as many years. Doug Spada also connected from 53 yards out at UT Martin on Sept. 26, 2009.

McGarvey's 17-yard field goal with 5:40 left in the game polished off Ball State's 27-10 season-opening win.

Ball State struck first in a run-dominated opening quarter.

Williams carried the ball six times for 31 yards to help get the Cardinals to the Southeast-18. Two plays later, Sykes took the handoff and scored on a 9-yard run to grab Ball State a 7-0 lead at the 8:55 mark. The Cardinals ran the ball on 10 of their first 11 plays of the season.

Southeast, like the Cardinals, also started strong.

The Redhawks took over on downs at their own 27-yardline and used two big third-down conversions to keep their first drive alive.

Henry Harris ran for a first down on a 3rd-and-2 and Matt Scheible completed a 10-yard pass to Harris on a 3rd-and-5. Scheible completed another pass to Harris, this time for 11 yards, to give Southeast a first down at the Ball State-11. On the next play, Mike Jones hit paydirt to tie the game at 7-7 with 3:21 remaining.

Jones' 11-yard run marked the Redhawks first touchdown against an NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly I-A) opponent since 2006 (at Arkansas).

Offensively, Ball State outgained Southeast, 259-142, on the ground.

Harris had a big night for the Redhawks, piling up 137 all-purpose yards. He had 50 yards on 11 carries and caught a career-high eight passes for 82 yards. Harris also added five yards on kick returns.

GAME 1

Southeast Missouri 30
Murray State 17

September 11, 2010
Stewart Stadium
Attendance: 7,014

MURRAY, Ky. - Matt Scheible ran for a career-high 134 yards and threw for 140 yards and a touchdown to lead Southeast Missouri to a 30-17 win over Murray State.

Scheible, who averaged 8.4 yards per carry on 16 attempts, became the first Southeast quarterback to rush for over 100 yards in a game since Victor Anderson finished with 118 at Cincinnati in 2007.

"Matt's perfect for the things we do and he handled himself well," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "It was a big win for us and there was disciplined football by both teams tonight."

Southeast scored 20 points in the second half en route to its first win in an Ohio Valley Conference opener since 2004.

Murray State and Southeast were tied 10-10 at halftime, before the Redhawks soared in the game's final two periods.

Drew Geldbach's 47-yard field goal gave Southeast a 13-10 edge on the Redhawks opening drive of the second half, but Murray State quickly regained the lead.

Duane Brady's 1-yard plunge put the finishing touches on an 8-play, 56-yard drive, and gave the Racers a 17-13 advantage with 9:11 left to play in the third quarter.

After that, Murray State would not lead again.

Scheible completed two big third-down passes on the Redhawks ensuing drive. One of those was a 26-yard toss to Edwards on a 3rd-and-8 and the other was a 2-yard touchdown pass to Bradley Brown on a 3rd-and-Goal. Brown's second career touchdown gave the Redhawks a 20-17 lead at the 4:43 mark.

Following a Murray State punt, Scheible broke free for a 60-yard run on the first play of Southeast's next possession. Seven plays later, Geldbach connected from 37 yards out to push the Redhawks lead to 23-17 early in the fourth quarter.

Scheible then avoided a sack and threw a 27-yard pass to Edwards on a 3rd-and-8 to set up the Redhawks final score. Harris' 33-yard touchdown run capped Southeast's longest drive of the night which covered 86 yards in seven plays.

Scheible completed 12-of-17 passes.

Southeast didn't turn the ball over. The Redhawks also piled up 431 yards of total offense (291 rushing) and committed just three penalties.

"It was definitely a team effort," said Scheible. "I had a lot of opportunities to run the ball and I took advantage of them. I was proud of how we played."

Harris posted the second 100-yard rushing performance of his career when he ran for 113 yards and a touchdown on 27 carries.

Meanwhile, Edwards caught five passes for 100 yards. It marked the third 100-yard receiving game of his career.

Southeast finished a game with two 100-yard rushers and a 100-yard receiver for the first time since joining the NCAA Division I ranks in 1991.

Additionally, the Redhawks had two ball carriers with 100 or more yards in a game for the first time in four years.

Defensively, three Redhawks had 10 or more tackles for the second-straight game. Aaron Grimes paved the way with a career-high 14 and had an interception, while Aris Bowen and Justin Love each followed with 10.

Josh Gipson added a big sack on a 4th-and-8 when Murray State was inside Southeast's 20-yardline late in the fourth quarter.

GAME 2

Southeast Missouri 24
#5 Southern Illinois 21

September 18, 2010
Saluki Stadium
Attendance: 13,078

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Henry Harris rushed for a career-high 142 yards and two touchdowns and scored the decisive TD on a 67-yard run late in the fourth quarter to propel Southeast Missouri to a stunning 24-21 come-from-behind win over No. 5 Southern Illinois.

Southeast beat a top-five opponent for the first time in school history since its move to the Football Championship Subdivision (formerly I-AA). The Redhawks also posted their first win over a ranked opponent since taking down then-No. 19 Tennessee State in 2008.

The Redhawks trailed, 21-3, with 3:46 remaining in the third quarter before rallying for 21 unanswered points -- including 14 in the fourth quarter -- to take down the Salukis in Carbondale for the first time since 2002. SIU is now 38-3 in regular-season games in Carbondale since 2003, with two of those losses coming from Southeast.

Harris scored both touchdowns in the fourth quarter. His first was on a 14-yard run which capped a 10-play, 74-yard drive with 8:22 left to play.

Southeast's defense stood strong on SIU's next possession, and as a result, forced the Salukis to punt.

The Redhawks, after taking over on downs at their own 25, used a 7-yard pass from Matt Scheible to Chantae Ahamefule to get to the 33-yardline. Harris then found a big hole up the middle and dashed 67 yards to give Southeast a 24-21 lead with 3:41 remaining.

Darrick Borum then helped put a halt to SIU's final drive of the night when he tipped Chris Dieker's pass on a 3rd-and-long. The ball fell into the hands of Tylor Brock and the Redhawks went on to run out the clock, putting an exclamation point on the biggest win of head coach Tony Samuel's Southeast career.

"This was a huge win for our program," said Samuel. "We never gave up. It was great for our guys to accomplish what they did. No question, this is the biggest win since I've been at Southeast."

Drew Geldbach's 34-yard field goal gave Southeast an early 3-0 lead with 3:02 left in the first quarter, before SIU scored 21 unanswered points.

Shortly after Geldbach's field goal, Steve Strother ran the ensuing kickoff back 91 yards for a touchdown to give SIU a 7-3 advantage. Paul McIntosh then hooked up with Matt Guinn for a 36-yard scoring strike with just under a minute left in the second quarter.

Shariff Harris' 3-yard run with 3:46 left in the second quarter pushed the Salukis lead to 21-3.

Harris averaged 8.4 yards per carry on 17 attempts en route to his second-straight 100-yard rushing performance of the season. It marked the first time Harris ran for over 100 yards in back-to-back games in his Southeast career. Harris' 67-yard run was also a career-long.

Scheible completed 12-of-19 passes for 163 yards.

Ahamefule caught a season-high seven passes for 94 yards and Miles Edwards caught two passes for 33 yards to lead the Redhawk receivers. Edwards now has 100 catches in his career.

Defensively, Aris Bowen paved the way with nine tackles. Borum added three tackles, including two for loss, a sack and a forced fumble.

Meanwhile, Brock recorded his first career interception.

Southeast Missouri 23

Attendance: 8,732

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Henry Harris ran for 196 yards and one touchdown to help Southeast Missouri hang on for a 23-21 win over Tennessee Tech in front of a Family Weekend crowd of 8,732 at Houck Stadium.

"Both teams played hard and it was a great game," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "We made some mistakes, but never gave up. We made the plays we needed to win the game."

After Tre Lamb hooked up with All-Ohio Valley Conference receiver Tim Benford on a 60-yard strike to pull TTU within three (17-14) at the 6:59 mark of the third quarter, Harris scored his only touchdown from a yard out to give Southeast a 23-14 advantage with 7:02 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Harris carried the ball five times for 52 yards and ripped off a 27-yard run to key a 7-play, 58-yard drive.

The Golden Eagles, who didn't go down quietly, scored again when Lamb hit Benford on a 19-yard touchdown pass to narrow the gap to 23-21 with 56 seconds left.

TTU then attempted an on-side kick, but Southeast recovered and ran out the clock to put its third-straight win on ice.

The Redhawks improved to a perfect 5-0 in home-openers under Samuel, who also picked up the 50th win of his career.

TTU struck first when Donte Gay broke free for an 11-yard run with 8:51 to play in the first quarter.

After that, the Golden Eagles would not lead again.

Miles Edwards tied the game when his 9-yard run capped an 8-play, 65-yard march at the 5:36 mark.

Drew Geldbach's 24-yard field goal helped the Redhawks cling to a 10-7 halftime lead.

Matt Scheible completed a 4-yard touchdown pass to Nathan Grass to extend Southeast's lead to 17-7 at the 7:08 mark of the third quarter. The TD marked the first of Grass' career.

Harris carried the ball 32 times and averaged 6.1 yards per carry en route to his third-straight 100-yard game. Harris is the first Southeast running back to rush for over 100 yards in three-consecutive games since Timmy Holloman did it in 2007.

Scheible had another strong game. He completed 13-of-18 passes for 114 yards and one touchdown. Scheible also ran for 82 yards on 20 attempts. He has now gone seven-straight games without throwing an interception.

In addition, seven different receivers caught passes for Southeast. Edwards paved the way with three receptions for 41 yards.

Defensively, Aris Bowen led the Redhawks with six tackles. Justin Love added four tackles, forced a fumble and had one fumble recovery. J.J. Sanchez recorded a big sack, as well.

Lamb completed 13-of-21 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns to lead TTU. Benford finished with eight catches for 177 yards and two TDs.

Southeast, despite turning the ball over twice, held a +15:10 advantage in time of possession. The Redhawks also ran 87 plays to the Golden Eagles 47.

Southeast registered 467 total yards on the night, including 353 on the ground. The Redhawks 69 rushing attempts were a single-game record.

Attendance: 8,007

CHARLESTON, Ill. - Southeast Missouri forced five turnovers and had four interceptions in a 28-13 win over Eastern Illinois at O'Brien Stadium.

Southeast won in Charleston for the first time since it has been in the Ohio Valley Conference.

"The defense was swarming," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "There was a lot of hard-hitting and I was proud of the way we played."

Tylor Brock accounted for two of Southeast's interceptions, one of which he returned for a touchdown to help the Redhawks pull away late in the third quarter.

"That play clinched the game," said Samuel of Brock's touchdown.

Darrick Borum picked off true freshman quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo on EIU's first drive of the game. Borum returned his first career interception 18 yards to the Panthers 45-yardline.

Henry Harris carried the ball on three of Southeast's next six plays and scored on a 2-yard run to give the Redhawks a quick 7-0 lead with 9:06 remaining in the first quarter.

EIU answered on its next possession when Jimmy Potempa ripped off a 43-yard run to give the Panthers a first down at the Southeast-14. Two plays later, Garoppolo threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to tight end Cody Bruns, bringing the score to 7-7.

Southeast was in striking distance again when it faced a 4th-and-1 at the EIU-5 in the second quarter. The Panthers, however, dropped Miles Edwards for no gain to take over on downs.

Cameron Berra's 33-yard field goal then gave the Panthers a 10-7 edge at halftime.

Harris ran back the kickoff 17 yards to the Southeast-40 and went on to dominate the Redhawks opening drive of the second half.

Harris ran the ball three-straight times for a total of 31 yards, moving Southeast to the EIU 29-yardline.

After picking up a first down on a 3rd-and-1, Harris dashed another 16 yards to get the Redhawks to the 1-yardline before Matt Scheible scored his first rushing touchdown of the season to grab Southeast a 14-10 lead with 11:35 left in the third quarter.

On the first play following a Southeast punt, Brock intercepted a Garoppolo pass and ran 48 yards for a touchdown to extend the Redhawks lead to 21-10 at the 6:05 mark. For Brock, it was the first interception and second defensive touchdown of his career.

Brock came up big again, this time when EIU faced a 4th-and-1 at the Southeast-25. Brock made a diving interception on a play action pass from Garoppolo at the Redhawks 3-yardline.

EIU managed to get to Southeast's 5-yardline, but was held to a field goal when Steve Hendry sacked Garoppolo for a loss of 10 yards. Berra's 32-yard kick capped an 11-play, 21-yard drive and narrowed Southeast's lead to 21-13 with 9:21 left in the game.

Abraham Woodard's first career interception ended EIU's last drive of the game and polished off Southeast's fourth victory of the season.

Offensively, Harris turned in another stellar performance. He ran for 179 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries. Harris also finished with a career-high 100 kick return yards en route to 286 all-purpose yards. Harris ran for over 100 yards in his fourth-straight game.

Houck Stadium
Attendance: 10,316

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Henry Harris and Matt Scheible each rushed for over 100 yards and scored a touchdown to lead No. 25 Southeast Missouri to a 19-17 win over Tennessee State in front of a sellout crowd of 10,316 at Houck Stadium.

Harris averaged 6.5 yards per carry on 29 attempts en route to 188 yards. He became the first in Southeast history to rush for over 100 yards in five-straight games.

Meanwhile, Scheible gained 128 yards on 16 carries. He also completed 5-of-11 passes for 49 yards and a touchdown. It marked the second time where Scheible ran for over 100 yards in a game.

"Henry and Matt continue to make big plays for us," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "We are playing with a lot of confidence right now. Things got tight at the end tonight, but we never gave up."

Southeast put up 19 points in the second quarter and that was the difference in the game, as TSU shutout the Redhawks and rallied for 14 unanswered points in the second half.

Scheible threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Cedric Cox to give Southeast a 19-3 halftime lead. For Cox, it was the second touchdown of his career.

Terrance Wright then scored both of the Tigers touchdowns in the second half. Wright hit paydirt on a 6-yard run with 5:19 in the third quarter and scored on a 9-yard run with 6:43 left in the fourth quarter.

TSU, trailing 19-17, faced a 4th-and-6 situation. However, the Tigers were penalized for a false start. The penalty ended TSU's final drive of the game.

After that, Southeast picked up a couple first downs before running out the clock.

Harris outgained the entire TSU team in the first half, averaging 6.8 yards per carry en route to 129 yards and one touchdown.

Scheible ran two yards for the game's first score with 5:43 left in the second quarter. Scheible's run capped a 12-play, 74-yard drive.

The Redhawks forced the Tigers to punt before scoring again on their next possession.

Scheible ran 31 yards for a first down on a 3rd-and-long. Five plays later, Harris broke free for a 29-yard touchdown to give Southeast a 12-0 advantage.

The sellout crowd marked Southeast's third-largest home attendance in school history. The Redhawks five-game winning streak is also their longest since joining the Division I ranks.

Harris and Scheible each rushed for over 100 yards in the same game for the second time this year. In addition, Harris added 84 kick return yards and had one 24-yard reception en route to a career-high 296 all-purpose yards.

Dante' Thomas led TSU with 118 yards on 22 carries, while Wright added 29 yards and two touchdowns on nine attempts.

Jeremy Perry completed 16-of-28 passes for 147 yards.

Southeast had 439 total yards to TSU's 299. The Redhawks outgained the Tigers, 390-152, on the ground. Southeast chewed up the clock, owning a 36:09 to 23:51 advantage in time of possession.

Defensively, Blake Peiffer led the Redhawks with eight tackles. Tylor Brock also posted his team-high fourth interception of the season.

#18 Southeast Missouri 41
Austin Peay 24

October 16, 2010
Governors Stadium
Attendance: 2,917

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. - No. 18 Southeast Missouri erupted for 28 points in the second half to key a 41-24 win over Austin Peay at Governors Stadium.

Southeast, which took its first lead of the game on a 1-yard run by Mike Jones with 1:21 left to play in the third quarter, scored 22 unanswered points in a span of eight minutes to take down the Governors.

The Redhawks came from behind to earn their sixth-consecutive victory and fifth-straight in conference play.

"We came out a little flat, but once we settled down, we were able to execute," said Southeast head coach Tony Samual. "We had a great second half."

Jones' fourth rushing touchdown of the season, which was set up by a 71-yard kickoff return by Henry Harris, ignited Southeast's second-half rout.

Southeast then put together an 11-play, 75-yard drive which culminated in a 1-yard touchdown run by Harris to give the Redhawks a 34-24 lead.

Tylor Brock picked off Jake Ryan and ran 67 yards to the APSU 2-yardline, and two plays later, Matt Scheible hit paydirt to put the finishing touches on the 41-24 win with 8:21 left.

APSU came up empty its last two possessions of the game. The Governors failed to convert on a 4th-and-5 and fumbled the ball on a punt return.

The Redhawks outscored the Governors, 28-10, in the second half to secure their fourth-straight road victory.

Southeast overcame its biggest first half deficit of the season after falling behind 14-0 in the first quarter.

Ryan White scored on a 13-yard run and Preseason All-OVC Player of the Year Terrence Holt ran 27 yards for a touchdown.

Harris' 10-yard touchdown run led to 13-straight points, as the Governors lead dwindled to 14-13 at the half.

Harris ran the ball seven times for 34 yards to key a 14-play, 72-yard march that ended on his first rushing touchdown with 6:10 on the clock. Matt Scheible also ran for 28 yards and completed an 11-yard pass to Aaron King before Harris' TD.

Southeast forced APSU to punt on the next possession and took over on downs at its own 20-yardline.

Scheible completed 5-of-7 passes for 29 yards to help move the Redhawks to the APSU 31-yardline, before Drew Geldbach made a 46-yard field goal to narrow the Governors lead to 14-10 with 37 seconds remaining.

Wesley Kitts fumbled on the ensuing kickoff and Southeast was in business again when Trent Peterson recovered at the APSU-36.

After two incompletions and a 6-yard rush by Scheible, the Redhawks called a timeout with four seconds left. Geldbach then came on to kick a 47-yard field goal as time expired.

Harris had another big showing, running for 152 yards and three touchdowns on 35 carries. He also registered a total of 308 all-purpose yards, including 156 on kick returns. Harris has rushed for over 100 yards six games in a row.

Harris became the first in both the OVC and the Football Championship Subdivision to get 1,000 (1,020) rushing yards this season. He also surpassed 2,000 (2,058) rushing yards in his career. Harris became just the sixth player in school history to rush for 2,000 career yards.

GAME 7

Eastern Kentucky 21
#13 Southeast Missouri 40

October 23, 2010
Houck Stadium
Attendance: 6,022

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Matt Scheible threw for 177 yards and three touchdowns, and rushed for 89 yards to lead No. 13 Southeast Missouri to a 40-21 win over Eastern Kentucky at Houck Stadium.

Southeast beat EKU for the first time in Cape Girardeau, ending a streak of nine-consecutive losses to the Colonels at Houck Stadium.

The Redhawks also pushed their winning streak to seven games, marking the first time since 1975 that Southeast won seven-straight contests.

Scheible completed a near-perfect 9-of-10 passes and did not throw his lone incompletion until late in the fourth quarter.

Southeast scored 20 points in the first 12:19 of the game to take an early 20-0 lead.

"It was a new experience for us to have this type of a game," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "It was a very physical battle up front."

The Redhawk defense forced a three-and-out and Southeast took over on downs at its own 20-yard-line.

On the ninth play of the drive, Scheible threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to Harris, capping the 80-yard march at the 7:19 mark. Harris, who had the first touchdown reception of his career, gave Southeast a 14-0 advantage.

After Abraham Woodard picked off Pryor on the Colonels next possession, Scheible threw a 51-yard touchdown pass to Chantae Ahamefule with 2:41 on the clock. Ahamefule caught his first touchdown pass in eight starts this season.

EKU narrowed Southeast's lead to 20-14 at the half after scoring two touchdowns in the second quarter. H.B. Banjoman scored on a 1-yard plunge and Pryor hooked up with Orlandus Harris on a 38-yard strike.

The Redhawks then held the Colonels to only 58 yards of total offense in the second half.

Nathan Grass hit paydirt on a 7-yard run to cap an 8-play, 60-yard drive on Southeast's opening possession of the second half.

Drew Geldbach's 32-yard field goal extended the Redhawks lead to 30-14 with 9:23 left in the third quarter.

Jeremy Caldwell ran the ensuing kickoff back 98 yards for a touchdown to cut Southeast's lead to 30-21 with 9:08 remaining, but that was the last of the Colonels scoring.

The Redhawks answered on their next drive when Scheible threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to Grass. That play polished off Southeast's longest drive of the game which covered 80 yards in 10 plays.

Geldbach's 30-yard field goal put the finishing touches on the 40-21 win.

Scheible matched his career-high of three touchdown passes.

Harris also ran for 109 yards and scored two touchdowns (one rushing). Harris posted his seventh-straight 100-yard rushing game.

Grass followed with 22 yards and a touchdown on four carries. He also added a touchdown reception.

Defensively, Southeast matched its season-high with four interceptions.

Southeast ran for 231 yards on 53 attempts against the Colonels.

GAME 8

UT Martin 17
#11 Southeast Missouri 24

October 30, 2010
Houck Stadium
Attendance: 11,126

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Matt Scheible threw for 108 yards and rushed for 68 yards and a touchdown to lead No. 11 Southeast Missouri to a 24-17 win over UT Martin (4-5, 3-3) Saturday in front of a school record crowd of 11,126 at Houck Stadium.

Southeast extended its winning streak to eight games. The last time the Redhawks posted eight-straight wins was 1955.

"UT Martin is not an easy team to beat. They have a great defense," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "This was a huge win for us. We made some adjustments and made the plays we needed to, to win the game."

The Redhawks shutout UT Martin in the first half and weathered a 17-point flurry by the Skyhawks in the game's final 30 minutes.

After Henry Harris scored on an 8-yard run to give Southeast a 17-7 lead with 11:56 remaining in the fourth quarter, AJ Williams ran back the ensuing kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown to make it a 17-14 game just 12 seconds later.

Southeast, however, kept its poise and answered with a 10-play, 60-yard drive which culminated in another 8-yard run by Harris with 4:36 left.

Cody Sandlin's 28-yard field goal marked the end of the scoring.

As has been the case when these teams meet, Southeast and UT Martin hooked up in another physical battle.

After both teams went scoreless in the first quarter, the Redhawks used two big pass plays to set up the game's first touchdown which came on a 7-yard run by Matt Scheible.

Scheible completed a 42-yard pass to Chantae Ahamefule on the first play of the drive. Two plays later, tight end Bradley Brown made a leaping 31-yard catch to give Southeast a 1st-and-Goal at the UT Martin-6. Scheible's rushing touchdown, which capped a 5-play, 83-yard march, gave the Redhawks a 7-0 lead with 13:11 remaining in the second stanza.

On the third play of UT Martin's next possession, Joshua Jackson deflected a Derek Carr pass into the hands of defensive tackle Josh Gipson. Gipson's first career interception gave Southeast a 1st-and-Goal at the Skyhawk 5-yardline, but the Redhawks later settled for a 24-yard field goal by Drew Geldbach to extend their lead to 10-0 at the half.

Southeast held an opponent to 58 yards of total offense in a half for the second-straight game. The Redhawk defense forced two turnovers and limited the Skyhawks to 58 yards on 26 plays in the first half.

UT Martin also had a strong defensive effort in the first half, bottling up Henry Harris for only 15 yards on 12 carries. For Harris, it was the second-fewest rushing yards he has had in a half at Southeast.

The Skyhawks didn't go down quietly, but hurt themselves late in the third quarter when two pass interference penalties in a span of three plays kept a drive alive that resulted in a Southeast touchdown.

Southeast and UT Martin were nearly even in rushing yards and total offense. The Redhawks held a 257-221 advantage in total yards, while the Skyhawks held a 154-149 edge on the ground.

Scheible completed 5-of-12 passes and averaged just under five (4.9) yards per carry on 28 rushing attempts.

GAME 9

Southwest Baptist 14
#9 Southeast Missouri 40

November 6, 2010
Houck Stadium
Attendance: 5,513

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - Henry Harris rushed for 293 yards and three touchdowns, and broke three records to lead No. 9 Southeast Missouri to a 40-14 win over Southwest Baptist at Houck Stadium.

Harris broke Southeast's all-time single-season rushing and all-purpose yardage records, and single-game rushing record to lift the Redhawks to their ninth-straight victory.

"It feels good to be a part of history, but it's all about the team and getting wins," said Harris. "I give all the credit to our offensive line which has been outstanding all year."

Southeast matched its school record for wins in a season (nine in 1955 and 1937) and finished undefeated at home for the first time since moving to the NCAA Division I ranks.

Harris, one of 21 seniors honored before the game, sent his fellow classmates out with a bang in the Redhawks final regular-season home tilt of the season.

Southeast and Southwest Baptist hooked up in a shootout early on, combining for 20 points in the first 2:30 of the game.

"Our offense had to control the ball and stay on the field," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "We ran a lot of plays and our defense forced some key turnovers. Overall, I was proud of the way we played against a dangerous Southwest Baptist team."

Matt Scheible scored the game's first touchdown on a 9-yard run during Southeast's opening drive of the game. Harris ran for 66 yards on four-straight carries before Scheible scored to give the Redhawks a 7-0 lead at the 13:00 mark.

Tylor Brock intercepted Steven Gachette's first pass and ran 39 yards for a touchdown to push Southeast's lead to 13-0 after Drew Geldbach missed the point after with 12:41 left to play.

Chris Culbreth then ran the ensuing kickoff back 85 yards for a touchdown to narrow the Redhawks lead to 13-7.

Harris' 17-yard run, which capped a 10-play, 59-yard drive, gave Southeast a 20-7 advantage at the 7:48 mark, but the Bearcats answered when Gachette threw a 35-yard touchdown pass to Sean Kelley (6:41).

After that, the Redhawk defense did not allow a point for the final three quarters of the game. Southeast outscored Southwest Baptist 20-0 in the final three stanzas.

Harris became the school's all-time single-season rusher when he ripped off a 47-yard run to start Southeast's second drive of the second quarter. Six plays later, Scheible threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Cedric Cox, giving the Redhawks a 27-14 lead at halftime.

Harris accounted for Southeast's last two scores of the game on 2-yard run in the third quarter and 10-yard run in the fourth.

Harris matched his career-high 35 carries and averaged 8.4 yards per attempt. He also ran for over 200 yards for the first time in his career and scored three rushing touchdowns in a game for the third time in his career.

Harris' 293 yards broke a Southeast single-game rushing record which stood for 41 years (Al Holmes, 254, vs. Truman State on Nov. 8, 1969).

Scheible completed 6-of-13 passes for 48 yards and a touchdown, and rushed for 39 yards and a TD on 11 carries.

#7 Southeast Missouri 27
#6 Jacksonville State 29

November 13, 2010
Burgess-Snow Field
Attendance: 20,237

JACKSONVILLE, Ala. - Alan Bonner caught a 17-yard touchdown pass with 11 seconds left to help No. 6 Jacksonville State escape with a 29-27 win over No. 7 Southeast Missouri at Burgess-Snow Field.

Bonner hauled in the game-winning score in the right corner of the end zone after CB Aaron Grimes slipped on the play.

The 2010 Ohio Valley Conference title game was everything it was hyped up to be.

"That was a heckuva championship football game. There's no question about it," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "Both teams battled toe-to-toe. They came up with the big play at the end."

Both JSU and Southeast, which met as nationally-ranked Top-10 teams for the first time ever, went down to the wire in a flair for the dramatic.

Trailing, 27-22, with 4:06 left to play, JSU went 57 yards in 11 plays to polish off its come-from-behind win.

The Gamecocks started their final drive at their own 43-yardline and used a huge 29-yard pass play from Marques Ivory to Jeffrey Cameron to get to Southeast's 29-yardline on a 2nd-and-31.

Ivory, after rushing for three yards, then threw a 9-yard completion to Calvin Middleton before hooking up with Bonner.

Southeast took its first lead of the game on D.J. Foster's first career touchdown reception at the 10:46 mark of the fourth quarter. Foster grabbed a 19-yard pass from Matt Scheible to give the Redhawks a 21-19 edge.

James Esco's 25-yard field goal, his third of the game, regained a 22-21 advantage for the Gamecocks with 6:43 on the clock.

Two big rushing plays, including a 41-yard run by Henry Harris and 14-yard run by Scheible set up Southeast's final touchdown which came on a 1-yard plunge by Harris with 4:06 remaining. The Redhawks missed the two-point conversion.

Both teams were nearly even in total offense, rushing yards and passing yards during the first half. Southeast held the advantage in total offense (187-181) and passing yardage (115-103), while JSU had the edge in rushing yards (78-72).

Barksdale carried the ball 20 times for 113 yards and Ivory completed 18-of-26 passes for 222 yards and threw the game-winning touchdown to lead JSU.

Harris, who broke Southeast's single-season records in rushing and total touchdowns, ran for 134 yards and a touchdown on 21 attempts. It marked Harris' ninth 100-yard performance of the year.

Scheible completed 13-of-22 passes for 145 yards and a touchdown.

"We were right there," said Scheible. "One of our goals was to win the conference title outright. Obviously, it hurts."

Defensively, Grimes (13), Blake Peiffer (11) and Kweku Arkorful (10) each registered double-digit tackles.

"It was a great game. We all wanted it so bad," said Peiffer. "We just have to keep our heads up."

The Redhawk defense also forced five fumbles and had three takeaways. Arkorful stripped the ball out of Bonner's hands on a punt return. That turnover led to Foster's touchdown in the fourth quarter.

#9 Southeast Missouri 17
#1 Eastern Washington 37

December 4, 2010

Attendance: 3,665

CHENEY, Wash. - Fifth-seeded Eastern Washington scored 23 unanswered points, including 20 in the second half, en route to a 37-17 win over Southeast Missouri in the second round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

EWU kicked a field goal with one second left in the first half, before breaking a 17-17 tie with 20 points in the second stanza. The Eagles will face North Dakota State in the quarterfinals next week.

"I'm proud of our guys. It was a heckuva season," said Southeast head coach Tony Samuel. "We played a real tough first half. It's no secret that we lost the game in the second half."

Bo Levi Mitchell, a transfer out of Football Bowl Subdivision SMU, completed a go-ahead 10-yard touchdown pass to Nicholas Edwards to give the Eagles a 24-17 lead with 4:56 left in the third quarter.

After Big Sky Conference Defensive Player of the Year J.C. Sherritt stopped Henry Harris on a 4th-and-1, EWU took over on downs at the Redhawks 43-yard-line.

Five plays later, Levi Mitchell hooked up with Greg Herd for a 10-yard strike to extend the Eagles lead to 31-17 with 13:40 remaining in the fourth quarter. Taiwan Jones ran the ball for 12 yards on two carries prior to the score.

The Redhawks caught a bad break on special teams when Cameron Zuber's punt went off of the foot of Sheldon McCullough. Jake Potter recovered and EWU was in business again, this time at the Southeast 39-yardline.

The turnover resulted in a 9-yard touchdown run by Mario Brown and the Eagles pulled ahead, 37-17, with 5:57 left.

Southeast's miscue was the first of four turnovers in the final nine minutes.

Matt Scheible was picked off twice and Josh Coleman fumbled on a punt return, but none of those mishaps led to any points.

EWU and Southeast exchanged field goals before heading into the locker room deadlocked at 17-17.

Drew Geldbach connected from 34 yards out with 43 seconds remaining and Mike Jarrett split the uprights from 39 yards away with one second on the clock.

Levi Mitchell completed 21-of-34 passes for 178 yards and two touchdowns and Jones rushed for 168 yards and two TDs on 25 carries to lead EWU. Jones also averaged 6.7 yards per carry on the day.

Defensively, the Eagles held Southeast to only 12 rushing yards and 26 yards of total offense in the second half. Sherritt registered a game-high 10 tackles.

Harris gained 108 yards and scored one touchdown on 20 attempts. It marked the 10th time Harris ran for over 100 yards in 12 starts this season.

Scheible completed 6-of-15 passes for 69 yards and ran for 54 yards on 14 carries.

Jackson posted a career-high 15 tackles and Justin Woodlief followed with 13 to lead the Redhawk defense.

Southeast finished with 268 total yards, including 199 on the ground. The Redhawks also had a season-high nine penalties for 106 yards.

The Redhawks ended their historic season at 9-3 overall.

2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

Entering its 64th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which will begin competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont will give the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. SIUE will begin regular season competition this season (2011-12) and be eligible for postseason the same year Belmont joins the league.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. She is currently one of just five females to be the head of a Division I conference, and one of just eight to lead a Division I conference all-time. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history past dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles (Turkey) Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958, Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961, Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

Through the past 63 years, 15 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 20 outright or shared football crowns, including both the 2007 and 2008 championships, as they compiled a 15-1 league record over that time period. Only one other Football Championship Subdivision school (UMass) has won more Conference titles than the Colonels. Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with nine, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois has claimed five football crowns (including the 2009 title) while Jacksonville State, Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri (which captured its first crown in 2010), UT Martin and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh. EKU was coached by former all-America quarterback Roy Kidd, who was in his 16th year at the helm of his alma mater and who skippered the Colonels to a second national title three years later. Following the 2002 season, Kidd retired after 39 years at EKU; upon retirement, he ranked sixth all-time among Division I coaches with 315 victories, earning him a spot in the College Football Hall of Fame. EKU's 19 FCS playoff appearances are the second for the most all-time (behind only Montana).

In addition to Kidd, other coaching legends in the OVC include Charles (Bubber) Murphy, who coached at Middle Tennessee from 1947-1968, Western Kentucky's Jimmy Feix (1968-83), Wilburn Tucker (1954-67) and Don Wade (1968-82) of Tennessee Tech, Bill Ferguson (1967-77) of Murray State, Guy Penny (1959-67) of Morehead State and Boots Donnelly (1977-78 at Austin Peay; 1979-1998 at Middle Tennessee). Current Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo has compiled 90 wins, while his program has been a member of the OVC which ranks him fifth all-time in league history while his 67 Conference victories are fourth all-time; Spoo will retire following the conclusion of the 2011 season, his 25th with the program.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford) and Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois). In 2008, former Tennessee State standout Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became just the fourth NFL First Round draft pick in OVC history when he was selected 16th overall by the Arizona Cardinals. He would break into the starting lineup halfway through his rookie season and started at cornerback for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. The OVC has had at least one former player named a NFL Pro Bowl selection in four of the past five seasons.

The 2007 season marked a return to scholarship football and the OVC for the Austin Peay Governors. Following the 1996 season the Governors dropped scholarship football and competed as both an independent (1997-00, 2006) and as a member of the Pioneer Football League (2001-05).

The 2007 season also brought new vernacular to the Ohio Valley Conference and the division formerly known as I-AA. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game the term I-AA was changed to NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in a decision by the Division I Board of Directors. The new label was chosen to communicate in a positive and clear manner the unique differences between Division I football categories (chiefly, the post-season opportunity) while still defining them within the Division I experience. The FCS includes programs that compete in an effort to participate in the NCAA championship postseason structure (one of 89 NCAA national championships) as opposed to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) which competes in an effort to participate in the postseason bowl system (the 35 NCAA-licensed events which includes the Bowl Championship Series).

In 2010 Southeast Missouri State, picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll, compiled a 7-1 Conference record on the way to its first OVC Championship since joining the league in 1991. Overall the Redhawks were 9-2 during the regular season and earned a berth in the FCS Playoffs, its first playoff berth at any level in the program's 104-year history. Southeast would lose to eventual national champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the playoffs. Head coach Tony Samuel capped the year by winning the Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award, given to the National Coach of the Year. Samuel was the second OVC coach to win the award (joining Murray State's Houston Nutt who won the award in 1995).

Football wasn't the only sport in which the OVC was quickly gaining respect. In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants. The Conference quickly proved worthy of that bid, as Morehead State defeated Marshall (107-92) and Wayne State (95-84) in the 1956 tournament.

Fifteen years later, former OVC member Western Kentucky became the first and only Conference team to reach the Final Four. The Hilltoppers defeated Jacksonville, Kentucky and Ohio State before losing to Villanova in double overtime. WKU went on to finish in third place after beating Kansas 77-75 in the consolation game.

Since that time, the OVC has recorded some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Tournament. Perhaps the most famous moment came in 1987, when Austin Peay came from fourth place in the regular season to win the OVC Tournament and earn the league's automatic bid. The Governors drew powerful Illinois, and were such big underdogs, that ESPN broadcaster Dick Vitale promised to stand on his head if APSU won the game. After a 68-67 victory over the Illini, and a narrow 90-87 overtime loss to eventual Final Four participant Providence in the second round, Vitale made good on his promise in a visit to Clarksville two months later.

Murray State added to the OVC's string of upsets in 1988 when it knocked off 14th-ranked North Carolina State, 78-75. The Racers' M&M Boys - Jeff Martin and Don Mann - combined for 39 points in the win. MSU nearly went on to the Sweet 16 that year, losing to eventual national champion Kansas, 61-58. A bank shot by Mann that would've given the Racers a one-point lead rolled off the rim with three seconds left. In 1990 as a No. 16 seed, Murray State took No. 1 seed Michigan State into overtime before falling 75-71; that game still marks the closest a No. 16 seed has come to knocking off a No. 1 in men's tournament action. More recently, Murray State has dominated the OVC Tournament, reaching the championship game every year in the 1990's. The Racers' 14 OVC Tournament Championships are the most among all OVC schools.

After former member Middle Tennessee State won a first round game in 1989, the league had a drought as no other OVC team won a NCAA Tournament game for the next 19 years. But Morehead State, coming off a thrilling double overtime OVC Tournament victory over Austin Peay, topped Alabama State 58-43 in the Opening Round game at Flyer Arena in Dayton, Ohio. The game was played in front of an Opening Round record crowd of 11,346; that crowd included many MSU fans who made the three-hour drive from Morehead for the game. The Eagles season would come to three days later when they lost to No. 1 overall seed Louisville, despite playing the Cardinals close for a majority of the game.

In 2009-10, Murray State made OVC history by winning a record 31 games (31-5) on its way to the league's regular season and tournament championship. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the No. 13 seed Racers topped Vanderbilt in thrilling fashion when senior Danero Thomas hit a jumper as time expired to lift MSU to a 66-65 victory. It marked the first OVC team to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament since 1989, and snapped a skid of 71-straight loses to Southeastern Conference foes (dating back to 2000-01). In the second round the Racers pushed eventual national runner-up Butler to the brink before losing 54-52.

In 2010-11 Morehead State would make it three NCAA Tournament wins in as many years for the league and got a bit of revenge for the 2009 tournament loss to Louisville in the process. After finishing second in the regular season and winning the OVC Tournament Championship, the No. 13 seeded Eagles were shipped to Denver to play its in-state foe Cardinals. MSU jumped out to a 15-2 advantage but were down four points (61-57) with just over a minute to play in regulation. After two free throws from two-time OVC Player of the Year Kenneth Faried, the Eagles held for one final shot attempt and senior Demonte Harper pulled up off a cross-over dribble to nail a 3-pointer with 4.3 seconds left that gave Morehead State a 62-61 lead. UofL had one last attempt but Faried blocked the Cardinals last shot, giving MSU the win, its first over Louisville since the 1956-57 season.

The OVC has now won NCAA Tournament games in three-straight seasons, something that has happened in the league only twice previously (1960-62 and 1987-89). Over that time period (2009-11) the OVC is one of just 10 conferences nationally to win a NCAA Tournament game in each season and one of only four non-BCS leagues (joining the Atlantic 10, Horizon and WCC) to do so.

During the 2010-11 year Faried, the nation's leading rebounder during the season, became the NCAA's Modern Era (since 1973) career rebounding leader, totaling 1,673 rebounds which passed Tim Duncan for the record (he is 11th all-time in NCAA history). Faried also finished his career with 86 double-doubles, second all-time to only Duncan. He is one of only six players in NCAA history to finish with 2,000-plus career points (2,009) and 1,600-plus career rebounds. Faried was drafted 22nd overall by the Denver Nuggets in the 2011 NBA Draft, becoming the first OVC player selected in the first round since Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers 1994.

Through its 63 years, 12 teams have won or shared the league's regular season men's basketball title. Murray State heads the list with a Conference-record 22 outright or shared basketball crowns. Other past champions include former member Western Kentucky (19), Morehead State (9), Austin Peay (8), Eastern Kentucky (6), Tennessee Tech (5), former member Middle Tennessee (5), Tennessee State (2), former member East Tennessee State (2), Southeast Missouri State (1), UT Martin (who won its first in 2008-09) and former member Akron (1).

Among the coaching greats in men's basketball have been Western Kentucky's E.A. Diddle, who retired with 759 victories and 10 OVC titles; John Oldham, who was a member of the very first All-OVC squad and went on to win seven OVC crowns during his coaching tenure at Tennessee Tech and Western Kentucky; Paul McBrayer, who guided Eastern Kentucky to 219 wins and three OVC crowns; and Cal Luther, who is the only person in Conference history to win men's basketball Coach of the Year honors at two league schools - Murray State and UT Martin. Current Austin Peay head coach Dave Loos became the winningest coach in OVC history in 2009-10, netting his 319th victory and passing Luther on the all-time list. Loos enters the 2011-12 season with 351 victories.

There have been an equal number of great players including Western Kentucky's Clem Haskins, who is the only three-time OVC Player of the Year. Several players have won

OVC Player of the Year honors twice: Western Kentucky's Jim McDaniels (1969-70 and 1970-71), Murray State's Les Taylor (1971-72, 1972-73), Jeff Martin (1987-88, 1988-89), Popeye Jones (1989-90, 1990-91) and Marcus Brown (1994-95, 1995-96), Austin Peay's Otis Howard (1976-77, 1977-78), Middle Tennessee's Jerry Beck (1980-81, 1981-82), Akron's Joe Jakubick (1982-83, 1983-84), Tennessee State's Carlos Rogers (1992-93, 1993-94), UT Martin's Lester Hudson (2007-08, 2008-09) and Morehead State's Kenneth Faried (2009-10, 2010-11).

The OVC also has the honor of being the only conference to boast the nation's leaders in scoring, rebounding and assists all in one season. That feat was accomplished in 1991-92 by Morehead State's Brett Roberts (28.1 ppg), Murray State's Popeye Jones (14.4 rpg) and Tennessee Tech's Van Usher (8.8 apg).

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft.

In the late 1970s, women's athletics began somewhat of a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982.

Women's basketball in the OVC has been dominated by Tennessee Tech, which has won or shared 17 regular-season titles and owns nine OVC Tournament crowns. In fact, the Golden Eagles have reached the championship game of the OVC Tournament 20 times in the past 30 years. Although Tennessee Tech remains the standard-bearer, five other teams have won 13 of the last 18 OVC Tournaments. UT Martin became the latest program to add its name to the list, capturing its first OVC Tournament title in 2011. Austin Peay leads the group with seven crowns including four-straight from 2000-03 and back-to-back titles in 2009 and 2010, while Tennessee State, Eastern Kentucky, Murray State and Southeast Missouri each have won titles during that span.

Several coaches have made their mark in the relatively short history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program before going on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Tennessee Tech coach Bill Worrell capped a stellar 20-year career in 2005-06 and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2007; he compiled a 408-190 record while leading the Golden Eagles to an unprecedented 16 OVC regular-season titles and eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including five straight from 1989-93. Eastern Kentucky's Larry Joe Inman, who retired at the conclusion of the 2007-08 season and was inducted into the OVC Hall of Fame in 2009, won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and EKU, and earned OVC Coach of the Year honors a record eight times - five times at EKU and three at MTSU. He finished his career with 480 career victories.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Brooke Armistead and Gerlonda Hardin from Austin Peay, Pam Chambers, Jerilynn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng, Janet Holt and Emily Christian from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy, Priscilla Blackford and Chynna Bozeman; Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays; Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris; and Murray State's Ashley Hayes.

Bozeman finished her collegiate career in 2010-11 by winning her second consecutive OVC Player of the Year award. Her 2,170 points ranks her eighth all-time in OVC history, her 377 made career 3-pointers is first in OVC history and sixth in NCAA history and her 1,096 career 3-point attempts ranks first in OVC history and second in NCAA history.

Morehead State center Brittany Pittman set new school, league and NCAA standards for blocked shots in 2008-09. Pittman swatted 164 shots during the season, setting a new NCAA single-season record (which has since been broken). During the campaign, only her second with the Eagles, she also set career block records for both Morehead State and the OVC (287).

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC will serve as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event will be held at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville.

Over its 63 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Trenton Hassell (Austin Peay), football player Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players George Sherrill (Austin Peay) and Jon Rauch (Morehead State). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and a NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six straight tournament crowns. Former EKU skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 28 years, 10 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regular-season titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006 and winning a NCAA Tournament match in 2010, the league's first NCAA victory since 2000.

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. Four other individuals - Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) and Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) – were back-to-back winners of the award.

In 2007, Eastern Kentucky's Jacob Korir won his fourth straight Conference cross country title becoming just the third OVC student-athlete and 13th athlete nationally to accomplish that feat. Korir was a three-time All-American in cross country, earning two top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championship. The Nairobi, Kenya, native was also named a track and field All-American twice during his career, was selected as the OVC Male Athlete of the Year in 2006-07 and received the NCAA post graduate scholarship in 2008.

In 2007 the Conference had two teams in the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament for the first time in league history, as former OVC member Samford earned an at-large selection while Southeast Missouri was the Conference's automatic bid.

In 2009 it was OVC softball that accomplished several firsts as UT Martin (tournament champion) and Jacksonville State (at-large) were each selected for the NCAA Championship. Jacksonville State would take it a step farther by winning the Knoxville Regional (beating No. 13 national seed Tennessee along the way) to become the first OVC softball program to advance to a Super Regional. Jax State would fall to No. 4 Alabama in that Super Regional but finished the season 43-16 (19-2 OVC) and ranked 21st nationally in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and 24th nationally in the USA Today/NFCA poll.

The league's baseball presence has continued to evolve since its inception. The OVC baseball tournament moved to a neutral site for the first time in 2001 with Paducah, Ky. and Brooks Stadium hosting the tournament in front of raucous crowds. The success of the tournament led to Jackson, Tenn. and Pringles Park – the home of the Seattle Mariner's Class AA affiliate – hosting the event for the first time in 2010; Pringles Park is under contract to host the 2012 championship as well.

The OVC also has made a statement in the NCAA Baseball Championship in recent years, with its teams involved in several memorable contests in the last decade. Tennessee Tech surprised Wake Forest in the opening round of the 2001 tournament and Southeast Missouri stunned host Alabama in the opening round of the 2002 championship. Five years later, Austin Peay captured the collegiate baseball world's attention by taking Vanderbilt, the 2007 No. 1 overall seed, to extra innings. Eastern Illinois pushed host Nebraska to the limit in 2008 followed by Tennessee Tech's memorable contest against host Clemson in 2009.

After not making the OVC Tournament field in either 2009 or 2010, Austin Peay, who was picked to finish seventh in the preseason poll, won the regular season and tournament championships to garner its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. In the first game of NCAA Regional play the Govs knocked off host and No. 1 seed Georgia Tech 2-1.

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year. A year later (2009) the league had a Major League Baseball First Round Compensation Round pick (Eastern Illinois' Tyler Kehrer who was No. 48 overall) and NBA Second Round pick (UT Martin's Lester Hudson) in the same season.

In 2010 a record 13 OVC baseball players were selected in Major League Baseball's First-Year Player Draft.

The playing field is not the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport. Since the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-America program began, the Ohio Valley Conference has had 202 student-athletes honored with the award, including 35 over the last three years (2008-09, 2009-10, 2010-11).

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the Conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement," a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Additionally, the OVC annually presents the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship. Most recently, the Conference has also implemented the OVC Institutional and Team Sportsmanship Awards, which are presented to one institution and 18 sport-specific teams voted by their peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin. Belmont University will become the league's 12th member on July 1, 2012.

Retired Jersey Numbers

40

Number 40 worn by All-American tackle Kenneth Dement was retired on Nov. 11, 1989. Dement, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame, started at Southeast from 1951-54, earning All-American honors in 1953 and 1954. Following his senior season, Dement was the first Southeast player ever drafted by a NFL team. He was drafted by the New York Giants, but opted to join the Marines.

58

Number 58 worn by Ken Iman, who played 14 seasons in the NFL, was retired on Oct. 4, 1974. Iman played at Southeast from 1956-59. He was signed as a free agent by the Green Bay Packers and spent four seasons with the Packers before being traded to the Los Angeles Rams. He was the Rams Most Valuable Player in 1972. Iman spent several years as an assistant coach in the NFL and currently serves as an assistant to the President of the Philadelphia Eagles.

67

Number 67 worn by Mike Wood was retired on April 23, 1978. Wood established a new NCAA record for career field goals during his senior season in 1977. He broke the old record of 51 on Sept. 17, 1977 with a 27-yard kick against Delta State at Houck Stadium. His NCAA record total of 64 stood for several years and is still the record at Southeast. Wood, who currently resides in St. Louis, played professionally with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Diego Chargers.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI
REDHAWKS

RISE OF THE REDHAWKS

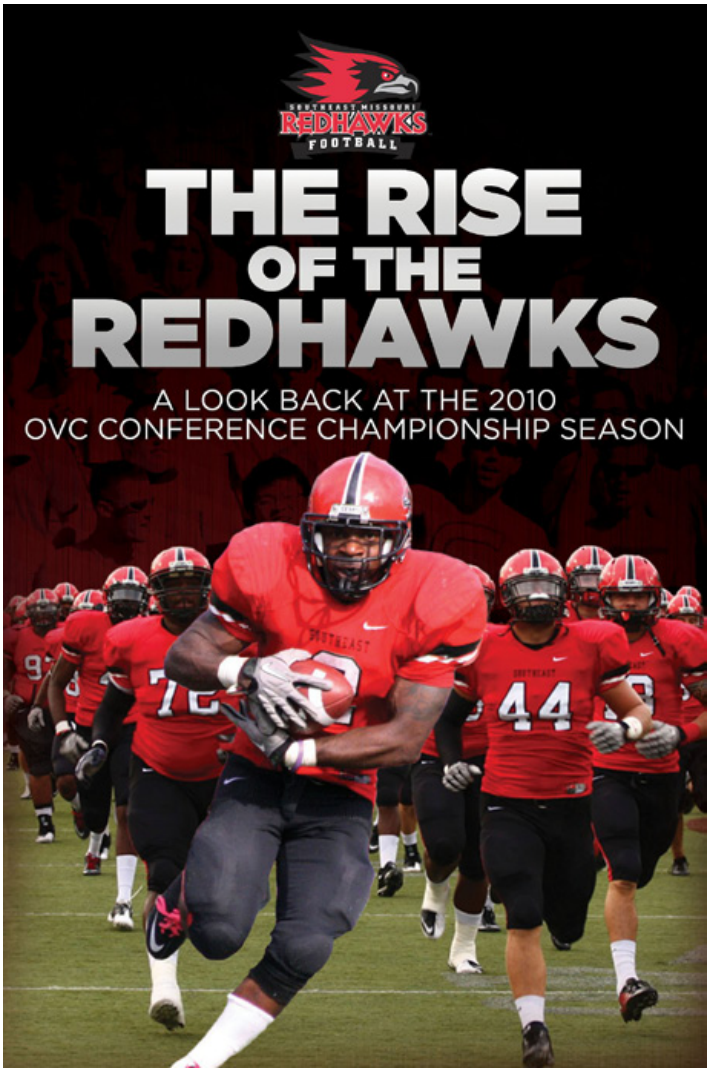

2011 SOUTHEAST MISSOURI FOOTBALL

The 2010 Redhawk Football team shocked the college football world by catapulting into the nation's elite and capturing its first-ever Ohio Valley Conference title and NCAA Playoff berth.

Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Tony Samuel and his team overcame the odds to become champions and capture the hearts and minds of Southeast Missouri fans everywhere.

Game 1 - Ball State 27, Southeast Missouri 10 (Sept. 2, 2010)

Southeast Missouri headed to Football Bowl Subdivision member Ball State searching for its first win against a Mid-American Conference opponent.

Southeast and Ball State kicked off the season in front of a crowd of 10,753 at Scheumann Stadium on a hot and humid Thursday night. Southeast trailed, 7-0, before Mike Jones ran for an 11-yard touchdown to tie the game with 3:21 left in the first half.

The Cardinals then scored 17 unanswered points in the third quarter to key their 27-10 victory.

Drew Geldbach scored the only points for the Redhawks in the second half when he made a 53-yard field goal on the first attempt of his career. Henry Harris caught a career-high eight passes for 82 yards out of the backfield.

Game 2 - Southeast Missouri 30, Murray State 17 (Sept. 11, 2010)

The Redhawks travelled to heated conference rival Murray State to open Ohio Valley Conference play.

A fired-up Southeast team went into Stewart Stadium looking to beat the Racers in back-to-back seasons for only the second time in school history.

The Redhawks and Racers dueled to a 10-10 tie at the half, before Southeast outscored Murray, 20-7, in the game's final 30 minutes.

Drew Geldbach's 47-yard field goal gave Southeast a 13-10 edge on the Redhawks opening drive of the second half.

Shortly after Murray State scored to regain a 17-13 advantage, Matt Scheible completed two big third-down passes to key the Redhawks next score.

Scheible threw a 26-yard pass to Miles Edwards on a 3rd-and-8 before tossing a 2-yard touchdown pass to Bradley Brown on 3rd-and-goal. Brown's second career touchdown gave the Redhawks a 20-17 edge and Southeast would not relinquish its lead.

Scheible's 60-yard run led to a 37-yard field goal by Geldbach to add to the Redhawks lead early in the fourth quarter.

Scheible then avoided a sack to throw a 26-yard pass to Edwards, setting up Southeast's final score. Henry Harris' 33-yard touchdown run capped the Redhawks longest drive which covered 86 yards in seven plays.

Scheible ran for career-high 134 yards, becoming the first Southeast quarterback to rush for over 100 yards in a game since 2007.

Harris also rushed for 113 yards and Edwards added 100 yards receiving, giving Southeast two 100-yard rushers and a 100-yard receiver in a game for the first time since it joined the NCAA Division I ranks.

Defensively, Southeast held the Racers to under 300 yards of total offense. Aaron Grimes turned in a career-high 14 tackles and had an interception to lead the way.

Josh Gipson chipped in a huge sack on a 4th-and-8 when Murray State threatened to score late in the fourth quarter.

Southeast ended a six-game losing streak on the road with its win over the Racers and prepared to take on one of the nation's top programs and border rivals in the Southern Illinois Salukis.

Game 3 - Southeast Missouri 24, #5 Southern Illinois 21 (Sept. 18, 2010)

Southeast crossed the Mississippi River to face regional-rival and fifth-ranked Southern Illinois during week three. The Redhawks were the first Division I opponent to play in the brand new state-of-the-art Saluki Stadium.

The Redhawks trailed, 21-3, with 3:46 remaining in the third quarter before rallying for 21 unanswered points -- including 14 in the fourth quarter -- to take down the Salukis in Carbondale for the first time since 2002.

Henry Harris rushed for 142 yards and scored a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown, including the game's decisive 67-yard TD run.

Southeast beat a top-five opponent for the first time in school history since moving to the Football Championship Subdivision.

Linebacker Darrick Borum had a huge game for Southeast, registering three tackles, two tackles for loss, a sack and one forced fumble.

The victorious Redhawks returned to Cape Girardeau later that evening, led by a police escort.

Game 4 - Southeast Missouri 23, Tennessee Tech 21 (Sept. 25, 2010)

After winning two of three road contests, the Redhawks returned to Cape Girardeau and the friendly confines of Houck Stadium to host Tennessee Tech in its home-opener on Family Weekend.

Tre Lamb hooked up with All-Ohio Valley Conference receiver Tim Benford on a 60-yard scoring strike to cut Southeast's lead to 17-14 with 6:59 remaining in the third quarter.

Henry Harris, who ran for 196 yards, would then score his only touchdown from one yard out to give the Redhawks a 23-14 advantage with 7:02 left in the fourth quarter.

Lamb later hit Benford again, this time on a 19-yard touchdown pass, to narrow the gap to 23-21 with 56 seconds left.

The Golden Eagles then attempted an on-side kick, but Southeast recovered and ran out the clock.

Harris carried the ball 32 times and averaged 6.1 yards per rush to help Tony Samuel earn his 50th career victory as a head coach. Samuel also stayed undefeated in home-openers.

Southeast ran a season-high 87 plays and held a 15-minute advantage in time of possession. The Redhawks also ran a single-game school record 69 rushing plays and finished with 467 yards of total offense against the Golden Eagles.

Game 5 - Southeast Missouri 28, Eastern Illinois 13 (Oct. 2, 2010)

The following week, the Redhawks would take to the road again to face the Eastern Illinois Panthers.

Southeast forced a season-high five turnovers and had four interceptions in a 28-13 triumph, the first victory for Southeast Missouri in Charleston since joining the Ohio Valley Conference.

Matt Scheible's 1-yard touchdown run gave Southeast its first lead of the game with 11:35 remaining in the third quarter.

Two possessions later, Tylor Brock picked off freshman quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo and ran 48 yards for a touchdown to extend the Redhawks lead to 21-10 at the 6:05 mark.

Southeast added one more touchdown on an 8-yard run by Henry Harris with 6:10 left in the fourth quarter to polish off the 28-13 win.

Brock accounted for two interceptions, while Darrick Borum and Abraham Woodard had one apiece.

A swarming Redhawk defense limited Eastern Illinois to 263 yards of total offense and gave up less than four yards per play.

Harris ran for 179 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries, and finished with 286 all-purpose yards.

Southeast had won three-straight games on the road for the first time since 1994.

Game 6 - #25 Southeast Missouri 19, Tennessee State 17 (Oct. 9, 2010)

After cracking the national polls for the first time in seven years, the 25th ranked Redhawks hosted Tennessee State in front of a sellout crowd of 10,316 at Houck Stadium.

Southeast exploded for 19 points in the second quarter. That effort was the difference in the game, as Tennessee State rallied for 14 unanswered points in the second half.

Matt Scheible threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Cedric Cox to give Southeast a 19-3 lead with 33 seconds left in the second quarter, and that score proved to be big in the end.

Terrence Wright scored two rushing touchdowns in the second half and his 9-yard run sliced Southeast's lead to 19-17 with 6:43 remaining in the fourth quarter.

That, however, wasn't enough as the Redhawk defense forced the Tigers to punt on their final possession.

Henry Harris and Matt Scheible each rushed for over 100 yards. Harris ran the ball for 188 yards on 28 carries, while Scheible picked up 128 yards on 16 attempts. Harris became the first in school history to rush for over 100 yards in five-straight games.

Game 7 - #18 Southeast Missouri 41, Austin Peay 24 (Oct. 16, 2010)

No. 18 Southeast Missouri travelled to Austin Peay for the Ohio Valley Conference Game of the Week looking to secure its first winning season since 2002.

The Redhawks erupted for 28 points in the second half to key a 41-24 win.

Mike Jones' 1-yard touchdown run gave Southeast its first lead of the game with 1:21 left to play in the third quarter, and the Redhawks exploded for 22 unanswered points in a span of eight minutes to bury the Governors.

Jones' touchdown was set up by Henry Harris' 71-yard kickoff return and the second-half rout was on.

Harris also scored twice from 1-yard out and Matt Scheible hit paydirt on a 4-yard run to complete Southeast's scoring.

Harris' 10-yard touchdown run and two field goals by Drew Geldbach kept Southeast within striking distance in the first half.

Harris had another big game, this time rushing for 152 yards and three touchdowns on 35 carries. He also finished with 308 all-purpose yards, including a career-high 156 on kick returns. Harris became the first in the OVC and Football Championship Subdivision to rush for over 1,000 yards on the season.

Game 8 - #13 Southeast Missouri 40, Eastern Kentucky 21 (Oct. 23, 2010)

The Redhawks returned to Houck Stadium for another key Ohio Valley Conference matchup against Eastern Kentucky.

Southeast scored 20 points in the first 12:19 of the game and never looked back.

Steve Hendry intercepted a T.J. Pryor pass on the first play from scrimmage, and two plays later, Henry Harris scored on a 4-yard run to give the Redhawks an early 7-0 lead.

Matt Scheible threw a 34-yard touchdown pass on Southeast's next possession. Abraham Woodard's interception led to a 51-yard touchdown pass from Scheible to Chantae Ahamefule.

The Redhawk defense held the Colonels to only 58 yards of total offense in the second half.

Nathan Grass later added two more touchdowns. Drew Geldbach then made two field goals to polish off the victory.

Scheible threw for 177 yards and three touchdowns and ran for 89 yards to lead Southeast to its first win over Eastern Kentucky at Houck Stadium.

Harris contributed 109 yards and two touchdowns on the day, his seventh-straight 100-yard effort of the season. Defensively, Southeast posted a season-high four interceptions.

Game 9 - #11 Southeast Missouri 24, UT Martin 17 (Oct. 30, 2010)

A raucous school record crowd of 11,126 gathered for No. 11 Southeast Missouri's Homecoming matchup against UT Martin.

Southeast shutout UT Martin in the first half and weathered a 17-point flurry by the Skyhawks in the game's final two quarters to hang on for a 24-17 win.

After a scoreless first quarter, Southeast took a 10-0 halftime lead with the help of a 7-yard run by Matt Scheible and 24-yard field goal by Drew Geldbach.

Joshua Jackson deflected a Derek Carr pass which landed in the hands of Josh Gipson at UT Martin's 5-yardline to set up Geldbach's kick.

Henry Harris closed out the scoring with a pair of 8-yard touchdown runs. Harris' second TD extended the Redhawks lead to 24-14 with 7:08 remaining in the game.

Southeast's defense came up big again, finishing with three sacks, four tackles for loss, an interception a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. The Redhawks allowed only 58 total yards in the first half alone.

Blake Peiffer and Darrick Borum paved the way with eight tackles each.

Offensively, the Redhawks did not turn the ball over for the second-straight game. Scheible completed 5-of-12 passes for 108 yards and rushed for 68 yards and a touchdown.

Southeast won on Homecoming for the fifth time in eight years.

Game 10 - #9 Southeast Missouri 40, Southwest Baptist 14 (Nov. 6, 2010)

No. 9 Southeast Missouri hosted Southwest Baptist in its final home game of the season, and the Redhawks sent their 21 seniors out with a bang.

Henry Harris ran for 293 yards and three touchdowns, and broke three records in the commanding 40-14 victory.

The win marked the Redhawks ninth in a row, matching a school record for most victories in a season. In addition, Southeast went undefeated at home for the first time since moving to the NCAA Division I level.

Harris broke Southeast's all-time single-season rushing and all-purpose yardage records, and single-game rushing mark in an epic senior day performance.

The senior from Memphis, Tenn., became the school's all-time single-season rusher when he ripped off a 47-yard run to start Southeast's second drive of the second quarter.

Harris' 293 yards broke a Southeast single-game rushing record which stood for 41 years. The 293 yards were also the most in a single-game by any player in the Football Championship Subdivision in 2010.

Both Southeast and Southwest Baptist hooked up in a shootout early on, combining for 20 points over the first 2:30 of the game.

Matt Scheible scored the game's first touchdown on a 9-yard run.

On the Bearcats next possession, Tylor Brock intercepted Steven Gachette's first pass and ran 39 yards for a touchdown to give Southeast a 13-0 lead.

Harris hit paydirt on a 17-yard run to cap a 10-play, 59-yard drive at the 7:48 mark of the first quarter.

Scheible threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Cedric Cox, extending the Redhawks lead to 27-14 at the intermission.

Harris then accounted for Southeast's final two scores of the game.

Harris broke multiple tackles and ran into the end zone on a 4th-and-goal in the third quarter, before scoring on a 10-yard run in the final period.

Southeast registered a season-high 454 total yards and outrushed the Bearcats, 445-171. The Redhawks owned more than a 20-minute advantage in time of possession.

The Redhawks learned later that night that they had clinched at least a share of the Ohio Valley Conference regular-season title when Jacksonville State lost to Eastern Kentucky.

That meant that Southeast could win the outright OVC Championship the following week with a victory over preseason conference favorite Jacksonville State. But, the Redhawks would have to travel to Burgess-Snow Field to face one of the best teams and greatest home field advantages in the OVC.

Game 11 - #6 Jacksonville State 29, #7 Southeast Missouri 27 (Nov. 13, 2010)

Riding a nine-game winning streak and sporting an undefeated record in Ohio Valley Conference play, the Redhawks notched their highest national ranking in school history and entered what turned out to be a dogfight for the outright OVC Championship against the No. 6 Jacksonville State Gamecocks.

Both Jacksonville State and Southeast Missouri met as nationally-ranked, Top-10 teams for the first time ever and the game was a classic nailbiter that wasn't decided until the final seconds.

Southeast took its first lead of the game on D.J. Foster's first career touchdown reception at the 10:46 mark of the fourth quarter. Foster hauled in a 19-yard pass from Matt Scheible to give the Redhawks a 21-19 edge.

After James Esco's 25-yard field goal regained a 22-21 advantage for the Gamecocks, Southeast used two big rushing plays to set up its next score.

Henry Harris broke free for a 41-yard gain and Scheible picked up 14 yards.

Harris then scored on a 1-yard plunge to give the Redhawks a 27-22 lead with 4:06 left to play.

The Gamecocks, however, converted on a 3rd-and-long with a 29-yard pass play from Marques Ivory to Jeffrey Cameron to get inside Southeast's 30-yardline on their last drive of the game.

Three plays later, Ivory threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Alan Bonner with 11 seconds on the clock to pull off the 29-27 come-from-behind thriller.

Harris, who broke Southeast's single-season records in rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns, ran for 134 yards and a TD.

Meanwhile, Scheible completed 13-of-22 passes for 145 yards and a touchdown.

The Redhawk defense also forced five fumbles and had three takeaways, with Aaron Grimes posting 13 tackles to lead the way.

When the team buses left Jacksonville, everyone assumed the Redhawks would have to settle for a shared title with the Gamecocks. Little did they know what would happen in the final week of the regular-season.

Week 12 - Bye Week (Nov. 20, 2010)

To secure a share of the Ohio Valley Conference Championship and the league's automatic bid to the Football Championship Subdivision Playoffs, all Jacksonville State would need to do is beat a 4-6 Tennessee Tech team on the road.

Through three quarters, it appeared the Gamecocks would march to the title, as they led 24-7 entering the fourth quarter.

Much to the surprise of everyone, including Jacksonville State, the Golden Eagles employed a no huddle, 2-minute offense the entire fourth quarter and scored 28 unanswered points to stun the Gamecocks 35-24.

2011 Southeast Missouri Football

With Tennessee Tech's improbable victory over Jacksonville State, the Southeast Missouri Redhawks were OVC Champions for the first time ever and clinched a berth in the FCS Playoffs. This was truly a historic moment for head coach Tony Samuel and his group of Redhawks!

NCAA Selection Sunday (Nov. 21, 2010)

A crowd of several hundred gathered at the Outback Steakhouse in Cape Girardeau to watch the 2010 NCAA Division I Football Championship Selection Show and learn who their Ohio Valley Conference Champion Southeast Missouri Redhawks would take on in the playoffs.

Southeast drew fifth-seeded Eastern Washington for a second round matchup on Dec. 4 in Cheney, Wash.

The Eagles high-powered offense featured Bo Levi Mitchell at quarterback, who transferred from Southern Methodist University in Conference USA, one of the nation's top running backs in Taiwan Jones and the most unique playing field in college football...a red synthetic turf field nicknamed "the inferno."

Game 12 - #1 Eastern Washington 37, #9 Southeast Missouri 17 (Dec. 4, 2010)

The Redhawks boarded a charter flight to make the nearly 2,000 mile trip to Cheney, Wash., and were greeted by over two feet of snow that had fallen on the Northeast Washington region earlier in the week.

For many Redhawks, this was the first time they had been on an airplane or seen this much snow. The trip to the playoffs was an experience in their college careers they will never forget.

Southeast Missouri's storybook season ended in a 37-17 loss to eventual national champion Eastern Washington in the second round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

The Redhawks played to a draw with the nation's top-ranked team, tied 17-17 at halftime and trailed by only seven points entering the fourth quarter.

Despite fighting until the final seconds, the Eagles scored 13 points in the fourth quarter to provide the final margin of victory and advance to the national quarterfinals.

Early on, Joshua Jackson intercepted Bo Levi Mitchell's pass on a 2nd-and-13 and ran 10 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 7-7 with 3:05 left in the first quarter.

Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year Henry Harris scored on a 1-yard run to cap an 11-play, 83-yard march and give Southeast the lead at 14-7 with 4:14 remaining in the second quarter.

Harris finished his career with 108 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries. Jackson had 15 tackles to lead the defense.

What a Year!

It normally takes five years to build a program and the Southeast Missouri football team will not soon forget all the success it achieved throughout the 2010 season.

What a run for the Redhawks, who flipped a 2-9 record from 2009 to a 9-3 mark in 2010. Southeast's remarkable 6.5-game improvement led to the program's first-ever Ohio Valley Conference title and NCAA playoff berth.

Southeast ranked as high as seventh in the country before being voted 13th in the final Sports Network and Football Championship Subdivision Coaches Polls. The Redhawks were a Top-10 team for five-consecutive weeks.

Numerous records were broken and Southeast saw a major spike in home attendance. Southeast averaged 8,342 fans per game, an increase of more than 2,500 from the 2009 average attendance. The Redhawks also finished undefeated at home for the first time since joining the NCAA Division I ranks.

The Cape Girardeau community rallied behind their beloved Redhawks and the story of Southeast's turnaround did not go un-noticed.

Henry Harris, who was named to several All-America teams and earned the OVC's coveted Offensive Player of the Year award, finished fifth in the overall voting for the Payton Award, which recognizes the FCS's National Player of the Year.

Head coach Tony Samuel, after earning the OVC Roy Kidd Coach of the Year and AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year awards, was named the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year.

Southeast posted its first winning season since 2002 and third winning season since joining NCAA Division I in 1991. The Redhawks tied a school record for most wins in a season and held a nine-game winning streak, which at the time, tied for the longest in the FCS.

The success Southeast endured on the field resulted in some outstanding accomplishments off the gridiron, as well.

J.J. Sanchez was a Second-Team ESPN/CoSIDA Academic All-American and Matt Scheible was a First-Team Academic All-District selection. Southeast also received the 2010-11 OVC Team Sportsmanship Award for football.

Congratulations Coach Samuel and the 2010 Redhawks on an outstanding season that will linger in the minds of Southeast Missouri fans for ages.

SE Missouri State rides fast track to 10th in poll

By Scott Gleeson
USA TODAY

In its first winning season since 2002, the Southeast Missouri State football team is on pace to have one of the best turnarounds in NCAA history.

Going into Saturday's game against Division II Southwest Baptist (Mo.), the Redhawks are 8-1, their third winning season since joining NCAA Division I in 1991. After going 2-9 in 2009, Southeast Missouri is among a group of teams with the fourth-best one-year turnarounds in Football Championship Subdivision history.

Preseason polls had them next to last in the Ohio Valley Confer-

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI

The college experience of a lifetime. The job of your dreams. A life that is amazing.

That is what most students and parents want from a college education. At Southeast, we want the same for you. We want you to learn your profession, gain the experience or internship you need, and get that first paycheck!

The growing—and changing—student body has had an impact on everything and everyone. The physical changes of the campus are the most visible. Two new residence halls. The River Campus. The polytechnic building. An information commons in the library. And so on.

Students and faculty are experiencing change of a different kind. Classroom activity has reached a new level of productivity, as students are brighter and more prepared than ever. Enrollment is at an all-time high. The impact on the honors program has been dramatic with more students than ever choosing to participate in and complete the honors curriculum. The number participating tripled in five years!

All of this means that Southeast has become Missouri's most academically competitive regional university.

2009—InsideCollege.com experts single out our honors program as an effective way to make a large school seem smaller with a more personal approach to learning.

2010—Computer science receives prestigious national accreditation.

2010—Southeast is named the safest campus in Missouri and among the safest in the nation by StateUniversity.com.

2010—Consumer watchdog group GetEducated.com ranks Southeast #1 on its list of "Top 10 Ranked Best Values Online MBAs–AACSB Accredited."

STATE UNIVERSITY

We have...

- Wired (and wireless) classrooms and best-of-class technology
- Internships and real-world learning offered in 100 percent of programs
- Study abroad opportunities that take you almost anywhere

We are...

- NCAA Division I Athletics
- Listed among the Midwest's top universities
- One of the safest college campuses in the nation
- Conveniently located 115 miles south of St. Louis
- A medium-sized university with more than 11,000 students
- Comprised of ten colleges and schools

We provide...

- Choices in the University Studies (general education) classes
- Some of the newest residence halls in Missouri
- 150 organizations that keep you busy after class
- Each student with two advisors—academic and career
- Fraternities and sororities that are productive and fun
- One of a kind student aquatic center in one of our two recreation centers

2011—U.S. News & World Report names Southeast a "Best Midwest Regional University."

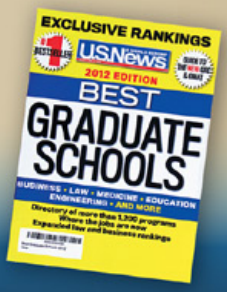

2011—Princeton Review again names Southeast as one of the "Best in the Midwest," representing only about 25 percent of the nation's four-year colleges.

2011—For seven consecutive years, Princeton Review includes Harrison College of Business on its list of "Best Business Schools."

2012—U.S. News & World Report lists both nursing and communication disorders on its list of top graduate programs in health.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI

Donald L. Harrison College of Business

Our increasingly popular business programs have made us one of the major colleges of business in the Midwest. The Donald L. Harrison College of Business is accredited by AACSB International—the gold standard of business school accreditation—an honor held by only 5 percent of institutions offering business degrees worldwide.

- Employers and students value our techno-savvy environment. In a recent survey of 98 nationally known business programs, Southeast ranked in the top 7 percent in learning to use and manage technology.
- Our entrepreneurial studies program is Missouri's most comprehensive, offering options for both BSBA and MBA degrees. The Douglas C. Greene Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship is one of the most comprehensive entrepreneurship-focused university centers in the Midwest.
- Southeast students have access to more than 30 international exchange and study abroad opportunities in London, Paris, Spain, Portugal and North Africa.
- One hundred percent of our students have the opportunity to participate in internship programs with companies nationwide.
- Doctoral level professors make learning interactive with classrooms that have Internet, cable TV, direct satellite feed and electronic presentation capability.
- St. Louis employers rate the "St. Louis Interview Days" as the best recruiting event in which they participate in the Midwest.
- Our accounting curriculum prepares students for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) designations. Students may go to work directly into an accounting field or go on to complete the 150 hours required by Missouri, and other states, to sit for the CPA examination. Our first-time pass rates on the CPA exam continue to be well above the national average.
- Business programs are housed in Dempster Hall, a wireless Internet environment featuring an electronic presentation lab and more than 400 networked computers with the latest software.

College of Education

If you are considering teaching as a profession, you are looking at the right university. For more than a century, Southeast has been preparing and sustaining some of the nation's brightest and best teachers. Moreover, we have a record of accomplishment to prove it.

- Most importantly, our education program is fully accredited by the National Council of Teacher Education (NCATE), which sets the highest standards for teacher education programs nationwide.
- In the 2010 reaccreditation process, 12 of the 13 specialty professional association reports submitted by the College of Education received national recognition, and four are being used as examples of best practices in education nationwide.
- Because you begin assisting and observing in area classrooms starting in your first year, you accumulate more teaching practice and knowledge than graduates from other universities.
- The American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU) featured Southeast as one of 20 national model programs.
- The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE) presented the college with the "Best Practice Award for Global and International Teacher Education."
- Southeast is one of only 33 institutions nationwide selected to be part of the White House Conference on Education, an honor no other Missouri institution has received.
- Our program was accepted into the prestigious Renaissance Group of Institutions.

STATE UNIVERSITY

College of Health and Human Services

Although there are diverse academic offerings in the College of Health and Human Services, all programs potentially lead to a career that significantly and positively impact the lives of individuals and families.

- Students in our nationally accredited nursing program consistently have a high pass rate on the state licensing exam and routinely enjoy a 100 percent placement rate after graduation.
- The recreation program is accredited by the Council on Accreditation for Recreation, Park Resources and Leisure Services.
- Our sport management program is one of 53 nationwide approved by the Sport Management Review Council and one of only a few in the Midwest.
- Students can participate in one of three state licensed centers—one for senior adults, a child enrichment center and our center for disabled adults.
- Air Force ROTC juniors and seniors can join the Professional Officer Corps, which allows you to assume commanding positions over members of the General Military Cadets.
- Our nationally accredited social work program requires students to complete 448 hours of field education under the supervision of experienced social workers.
- Southeast has a strong connection with the Law Enforcement Academy and has more than 30 years of partnerships in all branches of criminal justice at the federal, state and local levels. Our students intern with the U.S. Marshals Service; the ATF; the U.S. Secret Service; Federal Probation; Missouri Division of Probation and Parole; Missouri Youth Services and other law enforcement agencies.
- The dietetics program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Dietetics Education and the American Dietetic Association. Our graduates have a success rate of nearly 100 percent on the national exam to become a registered dietitian.

College of Liberal Arts

An education in the liberal arts gives you broad-based training for careers in business, the arts, media, education and the legal profession.

- Southeast's mass communication program is accredited by the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications (ACEJMC). Only one other institution in Missouri has this elite accreditation. Our public relations program is one of only 28 institutions—none in Missouri—that holds certification by the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA). Only 12 other institutions in the world have recognition from both ACEJMC and PRSA for their mass communication program.
- Students can work at two campus radio stations (NPR affiliate KRCU 90.9 FM and KDMC 103.7), the Arrow student newspaper and "U2" cable television station.
- Our certified historic preservation program is one of a few U.S. programs that offer a four-year degree and is among a small number to have full membership in the National Council for Preservation of Education.
- During the last five years, Southeast's pre-law students have exceeded the national LSAT average score, and their placement rate in law school approaches 100 percent.
- Students majoring in philosophy have a 100 percent acceptance rate to graduate and law school.
- Our students make politics come alive by working on political campaigns and by serving as interns. Each year approximately 30 students from a variety of majors around the University travel to Washington, D.C. to conference with some of the nation's top scholars at the Center for Strategic and International Studies.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI

College of Science and Mathematics

The foundation of success in Southeast's College of Science and Mathematics is a faculty of teacher-scholars supported by well equipped laboratories and the latest technology, which offer our students personalized study and research opportunities during their undergraduate studies.

- Our popular computer science bachelor's program is nationally accredited by the Computing Accreditation Commission of the Accreditation Board of Engineering Technology.
- Our popular marine biology program is one of the only inland programs in the U. S., creating an opportunity for students to combine a traditional college experience with the study of marine life because of our collaboration with the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory in Ocean Springs, Miss.
- Southeast's pre-med curriculum prepares students for the MCAT (Medical College Admission Test). Our students are accepted to medical school at a rate that is well above the national average.
- Our chemistry graduates consistently score at or above the 70th percentile on the Major Field Achievement Test in Chemistry.
- Our engineering physics program is nationally accredited by the Accrediting Board of Engineering and Technology (ABET), the sole accrediting body of engineering programs. Southeast is one of only 20 similarly named engineering programs nationwide with this accreditation.

School of Polytechnic Studies

Today's industrial and agricultural environment is dynamic and highly dependent on technology. The Otto and Della Seabaugh Polytechnic Building features modern classrooms and laboratory space, teleconferencing and interactive television capabilities, fully networked computer labs, and an industrial space for training and research.

- All of the bachelor of science programs in the Department of Industrial and Engineering Technology are nationally accredited.
- Southeast is a designated Center of Excellence in Advanced Manufacturing Technology.
- In addition to a 252-acre David M. Barton Agriculture Research Center, there is a 110-acre rice research station, a new irrigated turf plot facility, and a modern soil fertility laboratory.
- The School of Polytechnic Studies operates the 11,000-square-foot, climate-controlled Charles L. Hutson Horticulture Greenhouse.
- Our new cybersecurity program is the only one of its kind in Missouri. The U.S. Department of Labor estimates there will be 135,000 new jobs in this field by 2018–a 21 percent increase in Missouri alone.
- The innovative sustainable energy systems management major responds to world needs to address global warming, air pollution and ecosystem destruction.

Earl and Margie Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts

Classic beauty and modern technology converge at Southeast's River Campus—Missouri's only campus dedicated exclusively to art, dance, music and theatre. Overlooking the Mississippi River, a Cultural Arts Center and transformed Seminary Building are now home to the Earl and Margie Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts. With the coming of this magnificent facility, the number of new students planning to major in the visual and performing arts doubled in one year.

- Art students have five interconnected art studios for painting, drawing, printmaking, fibers and design plus two computerized looms, as well as two presses in the printmaking studio and a computer design lab with the latest hardware and software available.
- Students find internships and professional experience at the Berkshire Theatre Festival, the Lucille Lortel Theatre in New York, the McLeod Summer Theatre or the University of Connecticut Summer Theatre and more.
- In 2008, the Golden Eagles Marching Band performed at the Edinburgh Military Tattoo in Scotland becoming only the second American university marching band to perform there twice.
- In addition to performances throughout the season, featuring world famous guest artists, the Southeast Missouri Symphony Orchestra exchanged music as well as culture in China when they performed concerts in Shanghai and Beijing in 2009.
- The River Campus gives students the opportunity to show their work in a variety of first-class venues: the 950-seat Donald C. Bedell Performance Hall is a proscenium theatre with spacious stage and backstage areas. The 200-seat Wendy Kurka Rust Flexible Theatre can be configured in unlimited ways for "black box" productions. The 200-seat Robert F. and Gertrude L. Shuck Music Recital Hall features nearly perfect acoustics. a student/faculty art gallery features technology that allows for the display of 3-D animation, as well as painting, prints, ceramics and sculpture. The Rosemary Berkel and Harry L. Crisp II Museum has an interactive educational theatre, art gallery for changing exhibitions and a permanent display featuring southeast Missouri.

Living on Campus

Southeast offers students 11 residence halls from which to choose. Each room has Internet access and cable TV. Nine dining areas are available with a variety of options. And, with more than 150 diverse organizations, students find plenty of opportunities to get involved.

Dr. Kenneth W. Dobbins became the seventeenth president of Southeast Missouri State University on July 1, 1999 after serving as the University's Vice President of Finance and Administration from 1991 to 1993, and Executive Vice President from 1993 until his appointment as president. He previously held several positions in higher education administration at Kent State University in Ohio.

During his tenure at Southeast, academic programs have been enhanced, including establishment of a School of Polytechnic Studies and the Earl and Margie Holland School of Visual and Performing Arts which opened in Fall 2007 on the new River Campus. A comprehensive review of all academic and non-academic programs has been accomplished to maintain quality and minimize student fee increases in the face of significant state appropriation reductions. Southeast continues to be recognized nationally for many of its outstanding accredited academic programs. For the seventh year in a row, Princeton Review recognized the Master of Business Administration program on its list of "Best Business Schools." GetEducated.com listed Southeast #1 on the list of "Top 10 Ranked Best Values Online MBAs-AACSB-Accredited"; Southeast is recognized in the top tier of the Midwest best regional universities in U.S. News Best Colleges for 2011; and Southeast was again named among the "Best in the Midwest" by Princeton Review. Additionally, StateUniversity.com ranked Southeast the safest college campus in Missouri.

Enrollment has increased significantly since a 20-year-low in 1994 when some 7,900 students attended Southeast. In Fall 2005, enrollment topped 10,000 for the first time, and stood at more than 11,200 in 2010. Additionally, record enrollments in higher education have occurred in the University's 25-county service region during his tenure due to the establishment of new regional campuses in Sikeston and Kennett and a higher education center at Perryville serving place-bound students in and near those rural communities.

During Dr. Dobbins' presidency, more than $250 million in capital construction and building improvement projects have enhanced the University. The Seabaugh Polytechnic Building and the $50 million River Campus were constructed. An innovation center and business incubator to promote entrepreneurship and enhance the region's economy opened on the campus in 2005; Southeast dedicated its new, state-of-the-art David M. Barton Agriculture Research Center in 2009; two new 300-bed residence halls were constructed in 2002 and 2009; and the University currently is in the midst of $58 million in capital renovation, maintenance and repair projects including the renovation of the historic 105-year-old Academic Hall.

Dr. Dobbins has served a two-year term as president of the Missouri Council on Public Higher Education (COPHE), the organization for presidents and chancellors of Missouri's public colleges and universities. In 2007, he was selected to serve a three-year term on the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU) Board of Directors, an organization which represents over 420 public college and university members and more than 3.7 million students or 56 percent of the enrollment at all public four-year institutions. He was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the organization in 2008, and currently serves as chair of the AASCU Board. Also, for the past seven years, he has served as one of five faculty members for the AASCU New Presidents' Academy. He previously served three years as president of the Ohio Valley Conference and is currently a member of the Conference finance subcommittee. In addition, he is a vice president of the executive board of the Greater St. Louis Council, Boy Scouts of America, and in 2010, he was awarded the Silver Beaver Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a Boy Scout volunteer by a council.

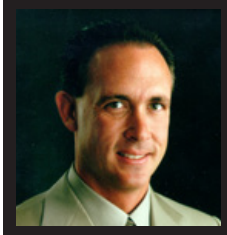

He earned his B.S. degree in accounting from the University of Akron (Ohio) in 1971 and served as a commissioned officer and civilian executive in the U.S. Air Force for almost 10 years. He received the M.B.A. degree in 1979 from Old Dominion University (Virginia), and the Ph.D. in higher education administration in 1987 from Kent State. He is also a Certified Public Accountant in Ohio.

Dr. Dobbins and his wife, Jeanine Larson Dobbins, Founder and Director Emeritus of the Missouri Statewide Early Literacy Intervention Program based at Southeast, have a son, Paul, and a daughter-in-law, Stacey, who are both Southeast graduates, and a grandson, Lincoln Kenneth Dobbins.

Cindy Gannon has been part of Southeast Missouri State University Athletics for more than 20 years.

In 2011-12, Gannon will serve as interim Director of Athletics in addition to continuing her role as Senior Woman Administrator. Gannon was named to the position for the second time in her career after John Shafer announced his retirement following three years of service.

Gannon officially began her duties as interim Director of Athletics on July 1 after completing her sixth year as Associate Director of Athletics and Senior Woman Administrator.

As Southeast's Associate Director of Athletics and Senior Woman Administrator, Gannon was in charge of event management, sports supervision, personnel recruitment and monitoring the department's compliance with gender equity, while serving as an institutional representative to the Ohio Valley Conference.

Gannon also led the efforts for the department's NCAA third-cycle recertification. This certification process evaluates the Athletic Department's commitment to three operating principles outlined by the NCAA, including governance and commitment to rules; academic integrity; and gender/diversity issues and student-athlete well-being. Southeast delivered a report on its progress to the NCAA in April.

Gannon has been the driving force behind other major events such as the Women's Walk and Dig for Life which continue to grow each year.

The Fourth Annual Women's Walk reached record numbers and raised $30,000 for the Redhawk Athletics Scholarship Fund in 2011.

Meanwhile, Dig for Life, which is a month-long campaign during the Redhawks volleyball season, brought in a record $22,000 a year ago. Gannon started this special foundation in 2000 after losing her mother to breast cancer. The campaign raises money to fund 200 local women for mammogram screening, who otherwise could not afford it.

In addition, Gannon recently finished her fourth year as a member of the National NCAA Division I Volleyball Committee.

A native of De Soto, Mo., Gannon started working at Southeast as a graduate assistant with the volleyball team. Three years later, she took over as head coach.

Gannon was at the helm of the volleyball program from 1989-2004, where she compiled a 366-211 record and led Southeast to eight OVC Championships and four NCAA Tournament Appearances. Gannon was also named OVC Coach of the Year four times.

Following her coaching career, Gannon remained at Southeast to work in athletic administration. She was last appointed interim Director of Athletics in October, 2008.

Recognized by not only her peers for her exceptional coaching, Gannon was a recipient of the Southeast Missouri State University College of Education Young Alumni Merit Award in 1998. She was recognized by her junior college alma mater when Mineral Area College selected her as an "Outstanding Alum." Gannon was also inducted into the De Soto High School Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009.

Gannon is a former member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) and National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA). In 2000, she chaired Southeast's Midwest Region and was a member of the AVCA Division I Top-25 Selection and All-America Committees.

Gannon received her undergraduate degree in physical education (1985) and master's in higher education (1987) from Southeast. She resides in Cape Girardeau.
