REDHAWKS RUNDOWN

REDHAWKS HOST MIAMI (OH) FOR THEIR HOME OPENER

The Southeast Missouri women's basketball team returns to the Show Me Center for the first time in 2026-27.

Series History

SEMO and Miami (Ohio) have yet to meet, so this will be the first matchup between the two teams.

Year Three

Head coach Briley Palmer is back for her third season leading the program. She has a 20-43 career record at SEMO through her first two seasons and is coming off a season where the team went 14-18 and 8-12 in the OVC. Included in last season the Redhawks wrapped up the season on winning six of the last seven games.

Lucky No. 8

Last season, SEMO entered the OVC tournament on a four-game winning streak to earn the eighth seed in the OVC tournament. The Redhawks defeated the No. 5 seed Little Rock 68-65 and carried the momentum against No. 4 Morehead State winning 60-55. The Redhawks were the first 8 seed to make the semifinals of the OVC tournament. The run ended against the No. 1 seed Western Illinois in a close 74-66 loss.

Picked Sixth

SEMO was picked sixth in the OVC preseason poll. Southern Indiana was picked first with 122 points and 13 first place votes. SIUE was slated 2nd with 113 points and Western Illinois was picked third with 85. UT Martin (78) and Lindenwood (68) were fourth and fifth with SEMO getting 62 points. The poll wrapped up with Eastern Illinois in seventh (50), Morehead State in eighth (41) and Tennessee State in ninth (29).

The Squad

Lone Returner

Madison Ayers is the only returning player from the 2025-26 season. It is her fourth season being coached by coach Palmer and last season she played in 17 games, starting in nine and averaged 19.5 minutes per game. She averaged 4.4 points and one assist per game. She swiped 15 steals over the season. In her first start of the season against Lindenwood she scored a career high 16 points on 5-10 shooting and 2-5 from three-point range.

New Guards

The Redhawks brought in five transfers and two freshmen into the backcourt. Carrington Jones joined the team from Northwest Florida, Journee Harris was at Hill College, Jolie Bonderer stays in the Show Me state coming over from Central Missouri, Zoe Newland played at State Fair Community College and Karris Allen makes her third stop after playing last season at Southern Illinois.

The two freshmen include Hailey Buckman, a 6-foot guard from Rogersville, Missouri and Addi Owen who is a 5-foot-2 guard from St. Louis, Mo and Incarnate Word Academy.

New Forwards

The whole front court was revamped with five new forwards. The Transfer posts include Decarra Ward, a sophomore from Belmont University, Courtenay Lee, a senior from Georgia Southern and Yar Manyiel, a senior that played at LaSalle.

The two freshmen in the frontcourt include Faye Williams, the 6-foot-2 post played at Bartlett High School in Bartlett, Tennessee. She was a McDonalds All-American Nominee. Deborah Ayeni is a 6-foot-1 forward from Anoka, Minnesota.

Keep An Eye Out

Carrington Jones and Karris Allen were named to the OVC Preseason Watchlist. Jones is in her first season of Division I basketball after averaging 9.1 points on 51.7% shooting from the field at Northwest Florida. Allen is in her final season after averaging 4.1 points per game at Southern Illinois.

The Staff

The lone returning coach from the 2025-26 season is Jace Lance. Lance enters his second season at SEMO. Lexxus Graham is one of the new assistant coaches, and she joined the staff after one season at Western Kentucky University. Regina Garrett is the other new assistant. She was at South Carolina State University since 2023 and has seven years of Division I coaching experience.

De'Jovia Davis was also added onto the staff as Director of Basketball Operations. She comes from Old Dominion where she served in the same role for one season. Previous to ODU she was the DOBO at Kent State.

Home Opener Success

Head coach Briley Palmer is 2-0 in the teams' home opener as head coach. In her first season the Redhawks defeated Southern Illinois 70-58 to open the 2024-25 season at the Show Me Center. In the 2025-26 season, SEMO defeated Evansville 71-66 which was also the seasons Classroom on the Court game.

Furthermore, SEMO has won its last five home openers which dates back to the 2020-21 season in which the Redhawks hosted at-the-time No. 5 ranked Louisville which handed SEMO its last home opener loss.

Redhawk Debuts

Nine Redhawks made their debuts for the squad with four starting for the team. Carrington Jones, Decarra Ward, Yar Manyiel and Karris Allen were the new players to start the game. Freshman Hailey Buckman led the team with 32 minutes played in her first collegiate game; Zoe Newland scored eight points off the bench. Jolie Bonderer scored five points in her first game at the Division I level. Faye Williams and Courtenay Lee combined for five points, five rebounds in 24 minutes.

The Lone Wolf

Returner Madison Ayers notched her 10th start as a Redhawk and was all over the stat sheet. She scored eight points, which was tied for the team high, added three rounds, two steals and one block.

Homecoming

Miami head coach Glenn Box graduated from SEMO in 1998 with his bachelors degree in criminal justice.

BRILEY PALMER // THIRD SEASON

The 2025-26 season marks the third for Briley Palmer at the helm of Southeast Missouri Women's Basketball.

In 2025-26, Palmer led the Redhawks to a 14-18 overall record and a 8-12 OVC record. SEMO won the last four regular season games to qualify for the OVC tournament as the No. 8 seed and won the first two match ups in the tournament to be the first eigth seed to make it to the semifinals.

Coach Palmer earned her first NCAA Division I victory on November 25, 2024, with a 70-58 victory over rival Southern Illinois in the home opener at the Show Me Center. On the season, the Redhawks finished the campaign with a 6-23 overall record and a 4-16 mark in OVC play.

SEMO swept the season series with SIUE, defeated Tennessee State in Nashville, and defeated Western Illinois at the Show Me Center for the four victories in conference play in Palmer's first season at the helm.

Coach Palmer coached the second Ohio Valley Conference 'Freshman of the Year' in the program's history in guard Zoe Best as she joined Tesia Thompson (2017-18) as the only other Redhawk to win the award. She was also selected to the OVC's All-Newcomer team and was a second team All-OVC selection under Palmer's guidance.

Briley Palmer was hired as the ninth head coach in Southeast Missouri women's basketball history on May 15, 2024.

A native of Farmington, Missouri, Palmer enters her first NCAA Division I job after spending four years as head coach at Mineral Area College which is located less than two hours away from Cape Girardeau.

There, she compiled an overall record of 77-40, including a 25-5 mark and second-place finish in the Missouri Community College Athletic Conference (MCCAC) in 2023-24. The Lady Cards, who concluded the season ranked 24th, spent 10 weeks in the NJCAA Top-25 Poll and put together a 14-0 home record. Their 25 victories tied a school record for most in a season. In all, Palmer coached 28 players who went on to play Division I basketball during her time at MAC.

Palmer was an assistant at MAC for eight years before being named head coach. She was instrumental in the Lady Cards winning the Region 16 title twice. During the 2014-15 campaign, Palmer helped MAC claim its first-ever Region 16 Championship. The Lady Cards ranked as high as #13 in the NJCAA Poll her first year as an assistant coach.

She played at both MAC and Christian Brothers University. Palmer finished a two-year stint with the Lady Cards ranked third in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage. Following her final two seasons of college basketball at CBU, she remained there to be a graduate assistant for one year.

Palmer graduated from Farmington High School in 2007. She led Farmington to its first district championship, 24-straight wins and a final four appearance in the state tournament as a senior. Along the way, she earned All-Region, All-District and All-Conference honors her final prep season.

She and her husband, Jimmy, have two daughters, Dayton, and Nola.
