WARDROPE SCORES TWICE IN 3-0 WIN OVER VICTORIA

LANGLEY, B.C. – Trinity Western started their 2022 Canada West campaign emphatically on Friday, defeating Victoria 3-0 at the Chase Office Field.

The Spartans (1-0-0) were able to bounce the Vikings (0-1-0) courtesy of a brace from first-year Charis Wardrope (Maple Ridge, B.C.), and a goal from Theresa Hicks (Surrey, B.C.) edged TWU to victory.

Hannah Miller (Langley, B.C.) earned a clean sheet in the match, only having to stretch out for one save in the match as Jessica Vance (Coquitlam, B.C.) and Danielle Cooper (Surrey, B.C.) put together a strong performance in the center back slots.

AS IT HAPPENED

The first half of the match bore no goals as Victoria keeper Kayley Lidstone stretched out to make big saves whenever she faced a test.

It didn't take long for the Spartans to burst out of the half as Wardrope put her first of two goals in the back of the net, courtesy of a Tilly James (North Vancouver, B.C.) feed.

Wardrope would add her second marker in the 80th minute after Sophie Crowther (New Westminster, B.C.) earned her first assist of the season.

The match ended with Theresa Hicks (Surrey, B.C.) capitalizing on a scramble at the mouth of Victoria's net, ending the match at 3-0.

NOTABLE

- It was a magical debut for Charis Wardrope, whose first Canada West markers were scored in only 45 minutes of play after coming on as a second half substitute.
- TWU outshot Victoria 16-1.
- The Spartans haven't lost to Victoria since Oct. 20th, 2018, moving their consecutive streak of victories to seven against the Vikes.
- The last time TWU lost a regular season match in Canada West play was on Oct. 6, 2019 against Calgary (2-1 L).

QUOTABLE

TWU Head Coach Graham Roxburgh

"Pleased to win, and pleased with the performance other than 10 minutes when we let our frustration get the better of us – making it a game. I thought we had some fantastic attacking movements, we were just unlucky that the finish wasn't there, or their keeper made a save. Tilly [James] hit the crossbar, there were a couple scrambles in front of the net, we just couldn't find that final touch.

"We knew that we'd generate some chances if we kept winning the ball back in the second half. Tilly's run down the right wing and being able to find Charis sealed the deal for us. Nice opportunistic goal for Charis, and really pleased to see Theresa [Hicks] score late, making the score line what it should have been."

UP NEXT

The Spartans are set to take on the Canada West runner-up UBC Thunderbirds on Saturday (7 p.m., PT).

CW Hall of Fame

NAME: Nikki (Wright) Stephenson

UNIVERSITY: Trinity Western

CATEGORY: Student-Athlete

SPORT: Women's Soccer

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Central role in 3 national championships
- Two-time Canada West champion
- CW Player of the Year
- CW & U SPORTS Rookie of the Year
- All-Canadian, two-time CW all-star

BIOGRAPHY:

Nikki Stephenson is the newest member of the Canada West Hall of Fame, the conference announced Tuesday. The soccer striker attained the ultimate goal of a Canadian university athlete not once, but three times in her five-year career at Trinity Western. She wore four national gold medals around her neck, as one came in a red shirt (injury) year.

Stephenson's star status as a Spartan was evident from the first beat. She took over the Canada West soccer scene, leading the conference in goals (12) and points (18) in her rookie season. Stephenson went on to earn the CW Rookie of the Year and esteemed Player of the Year awards, the latter of which is a rarity for a first-year athlete. The national governing body also recognized the Spartan as the U SPORTS Rookie of the Year.

Her dominant play continued into the postseason, where the CW and U SPORTS first-team all-star took home a U SPORTS tournament all-star nod.

Stephenson cemented her all-star status in the following seasons, with another selection to the CW team. She helped the Spartans repeat as national champions, a feat much easier read than done.

A captivating player to watch, Stephenson went on to win yet another national title with Trinity Western before hanging up her collegiate cleats in 2014.

"Nikki was one of the most impactful and dangerous players our program has ever had in its 25 plus years. Her ability to threaten teams with both her pace, power and sheer will to win was so special. She took her athleticism and pace and turned it into becoming a very dynamic and gifted soccer player. Throughout her career, she continued to grow into a player that could change the outcome with a special finish, a great run and cross, or just her overall competitiveness. She truly is one of the greats of our program's success. She possessed a drive and hunger and an explosiveness that brought her individual accolades throughout her career, and more importantly led to the Spartans becoming a formidable force throughout her career and beyond. It was very special to watch her grow into a complete player, but also to see her grow personally and to become an impactful part of our program's history on and off the field," said Stephenson's coach Graham Roxburgh.
