About Delta State

Dr. Brad Teague
Athletic Director

Dr. John Hilpert
President

Dr. Rose Strahan
Faculty Athletic Representative

Delta State University is a public institution, receiving primary funding from the state; however, it also seeks and receives support from private, federal sources, and tuition revenue. The University provides a comprehensive undergraduate curriculum, offering 15 baccalaureate degrees in 45 majors. It also seeks to meet the need for advanced training in certain fields by providing programs of study for nine masters degrees, the Educational Specialist degree and the Doctor of Education degree.

Serving as the cultural and educational center of the region, Delta State University is located in Cleveland. The Mississippi Delta, a 20-county area, in the northwestern part of the state, rich in various ethnic and cultural groups, provides approximately 80 percent of the University's enrollment. Between 10 and 15 percent of the students attend from other parts of the state, while slightly under 10 percent of the students reside outside the state. Accordingly, the University identifies the Delta as its primary public service region, while acknowledging the importance of research and service that also benefits the state and nation.

Delta State was created as Delta State Teachers College by Senate Bill Number 263, Chapter 284, entitled An Act to Create and Establish the Delta State Teachers College. Governor Henry L. Whitfield signed the bill on April 9, 1924. A physical plant (which was once the Bolivar County Agricultural High School) and certain other specified benefits were provided by the City of Cleveland and Bolivar County. The institution opened for its first regular session on September 15, 1925, with a faculty and staff of 11 and a student body of 97.

The first president, James (Jim) Wesley Broom, died during the first session of the University. He was succeeded by Dr. W.M. Kethley, who served as president from 1926 to 1956. Dr. James Milton Ewing became the third president on September 1, 1956, and he served until his retirement on July 31, 1971. Dr. Ewing was succeeded by Dr. Aubrey K. Lucas, who served from August 1, 1971, until June 30, 1975. Dr. Forest Wyatt became the fifth president in 1975 and served in that capacity for 24 years, retiring on July 1, 1999. Dr. David L. Potter succeeded Wyatt as DSU's sixth president on July 1, 1999. Dr. John M. Hilpert was named the seventh president in school's history on July 1, 2003.

The growth and expanding function of the institution were evidenced by its name change in 1955 to Delta State College. In 1969, Delta State was authorized to reorganize its academic structure into four schools within the institution. The School of Arts and Sciences and the School of Business were activated in 1969, while a School of Education and a School of Graduate Studies were implemented in 1970. A School of Nursing was authorized in 1977 and began functioning in 1978. Enrollment has increased to more than 4,000 students, and corresponding growth has occurred in physical facilities. On March 15, 1974, the institution was officially designated Delta State University.

The University, when created, was authorized to offer only the Bachelor of Science degree in Education. The first such degrees were conferred in June, 1928. Baccalaureate degree offerings, in addition to the originally authorized degree, now include degrees in the sciences, the arts, music, business, nursing and commercial aviation.

In 1965, graduate work for teachers in several fields of concentration was first offered, and the Master of Education degrees were awarded in May, 1966. In subsequent years, the Board of Trustees approved the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, Master of Business Administration, Master of Library Science and Master of Music Education. In August, 1972, the Board approved a graduate program leading to the Educational Specialist degree, which was initiated in the fall of 1972. In August, 1980, the Board approved the degree of Doctor of Education in Professional Studies. The first candidates were nominated in August, 1981, and the first degrees were awarded in May, 1984. In November, 1981, the Board in an effort to reduce the duplication of programs at the eight state-supported universities, deleted the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Library Science and Master of Science. In September, 1982, the Master of Science degree in Natural Sciences was initiated to replace the Master of Education degree in Biology and Physical Science. The Board approved the Master of Professional Accountancy degree in June, 1994, and the Master of Commercial Aviation degree in February, 1995. The Master of Social Work was approved in February, 1996, and the Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism was approved in December, 1997.

Delta's Official Mascot

Delta State University's athletic mascot, officially chosen by the student body in 1975 after years of unofficial use, is the Statesmen and Lady Statesmen.

The logo with the outline of the State of Mississippi and DSU laid diagonally through the middle of the graphic - was created and first used by coach Don Skelton during the 1988 football season. Since that time, the logo has represented all of DSU's intercollegiate athletic programs.

Prior to the use of the state logo, the "Statesmen" and "Lady Statesmen" caricatures, drawn by Ricky Noble, were used to represent and promote the DSU athletic program. Those caricatures are still in use today at the various DSU athletic venues.

Once primarily known as a teachers college, early DSU athletic teams were often referred as "Pedagogues" and later as "Greenies" in reference to the school's green and white uniforms. The "Statesmen" mascot is a tribute to the school's reputation as a leader in education.

Mike Kinnison - Head Coach

Mike Kinninson, who has an overall record of 316-85 and a 115-22 Gulf South Conference mark, is starting his eighth season at the helm of the Delta State baseball program.

Since taking over the program in 1997, Kinninson has kept the proud tradition of Delta State baseball alive. The former Delta State All-American has accomplished a great deal in his seven seasons, leading the Statesmen to the 2000 and 2003 GSC Tournament title, a runner-up finish in the 1999 GSC Tournament, seven GSC West Division crowns, five South Central Regional appearances and two NCAA Division II Baseball Championship Tournament appearances. He reached the 200 win plateau in five seasons, as the Statesmen posted records of 48-12 in 2000, 41-12 in 1999, 39-12 in 1998, 36-20 in 1997 and 50-11 in 2001. Last year the Statesmen captured their tenth consecutive GSC West Division title finishing with a record of 52-10, and hosted the NCAA South Central Regional games. Kinnison was recognized with the prestigous "Coach of the Year Honor," for his accomplishments for the second consecutive year.

Prior to succeeding Bill Marchant, Kinnison served as an assistant coach for three years. He played a key role in guiding the Statesmen to World Series berths and GSC Championships in 1994 and 1996.

The Benton, Miss., native was a standout at Delta State under coach Dave "Boo" Ferriss from 1977-1978 and currently holds many of the Statesmen records. Kinnison currently holds the record for games played in a single season (62) and is tied for first for single season doubles (25). Kinnison recorded a .343 batting average and 56 RBI serving as the catalyst for the team, sparking a second-place finish in the 1978 Division II College World Series.

Before returning to his alma mater, Kinnison coached in the high school ranks at Lee Academy (1979-1981), Jackson Prep (1982-1992) and Madison Central (1993). His prep coaching record is 292-83 (.779) with state titles at Jackson Prep in 1982, 1990 and 1991.

Kinnison earned his Bachelors and Masters degrees in Math Education from Delta State in 1977 and 1978, respectively.

Kinnison is married to the former Cindy Colbert of Grenada. They are the parents of two daughters, Mary Claire and Kate.

Assistant Coaches

Rodney Batts

Assistant Coach

Rodney Batts is in his third season as an assistant coach after serving the 1999 & 2000 seasons as a graduate assistant. His responsiblities include batting instruction and coaching the infield.

The former Delta State second baseman returned to his alma mater in 1998 after spending two seasons in the Philadelphia Phillies minor league system.

Batts hit .334 with 24 doubles, eight triples, 10 home runs, 86 RBI and 39 stolen bases during his DSU career from 1995-1996. He was a two-time All-Gulf South Conference selection under Bill Marchant and was named to the 1996 All-South Central Regional Tournament team. Batts etched his name in the Statesmen history books when he hit one of the most dramatic home runs in Delta State and Gulf South Conference history. A three-run home run with two outs in the ninth inning to defeat Alabama-Huntsville and deliver DSU the 1996 GSC Baseball Tournament title. The Statesmen went on to win the NCAA South Central Regional and finish fourth at the NCAA Division II Baseball Championship Tournament in Montgomery, Ala.

The New Hope native graduated from Delta State with a B.S. degree in Health, Physical Education and Recreation in 1998 and received his master's in HPE&R from DSU in 2000. Batts recently married Scotte Moore, who is the Senior Women's Administrator and Assistant Women's Basketball Coach at DSU.

Statesmen Aim To Repeat As GSC Champs

A Year of Firsts

Delta State University is coming off a season that was full of firsts. The Statesmen claimed their third straight 50 win season for the first time in the history of the program with a record of 52-10 and made a third consecutive trip to the NCAA South Central Regional for the first time. They were also the only Gulf South Conference team to claim the West Division title 10 years in a row, ultimately claiming their ninth GSC title in 2003.

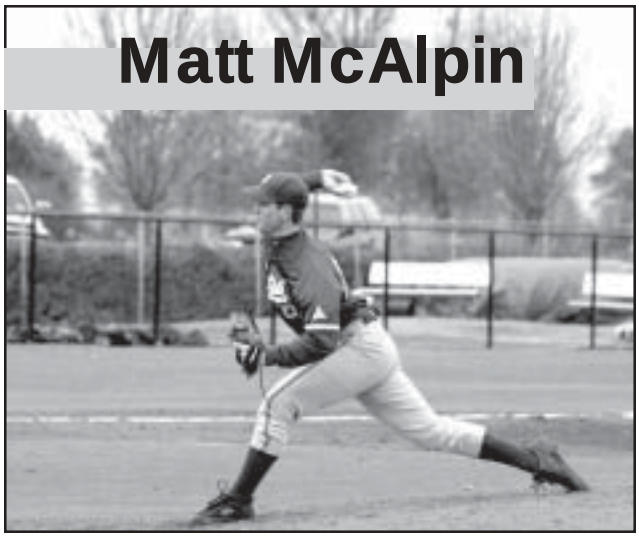
Although the Statesmen lost in the South Central Regional to Abilene Christian (Texas), the Statesmen finished No. 4 in the post season national rankings.

The quest for a fourth straight 50 win season, and ultimately the chance to defend the GSC title and a National Championship is in good hands with the 2003 GSC coach of the year Mike Kinnison and his troops. Kinnison comes into the 2004 season as the wininging active baseball coach in the NCAA at any level posting a .788 winning percentage.

This year's staff includes two new Graduate Assistants. Rick McCarty comes to Delta State from Murray State in Kentucky. McCarty will be in charge of the pitchers while Jeff Price from Mississippi State will handle coaching the outfield. Andy Dillard, a former third baseman for the Statesmen, will also be a graduate assistant this season.

The Statesmen's pitching staff will be the strong point to the success of this season. Leading the pitching staff is Matt McAlpin (Sr., Mize) who finished last season 11-3 with a 3.22 ERA and 66 strikeouts. McAlpin also claimed seven complete game wins with three complete game shout-outs. Josh Barton (Sr., Millington, Tenn.) will also return to the mound for the Statesmen this season. Barton ended the 2003 season 7-0 with a 2.73 ERA and 58 strikeouts. Brad Lightsey (Jr., Batesville) will also be a returning starter. Lightsey finished 2003 with a 7-2 record with 4 complete games and 3.48 ERA with 49 strikeouts.

Chris Reed (Sr., Jackson) will return in the bullpen for the Statesmen. Reed had fives saves with a 1.33 ERA along with a 3-1 record for 2003. Other pitchers that look to contribute this year are John Polles (Jr., Brandon) who is returning this year after having Tommy John surgery. Itawamba CC transfer Scott Ellison (Jr., Houston) looks to be an asset to the bullpen. "We have to fill the middle relief," said Kinnison.



The Statesmen are returning five starters for the 2004 campaign.

All-American outfielder Jud Thigpen (Sr., Cleveland), first basemen Keith Fitzgerald (Sr., Cleveland), third basemen Mark Broome (Sr., Clinton), shortstop Eric Patten (Jr., Cedar Hill, Texas) and Craig Newton (Jr., Vicksburg).

Thigpen was selected to the American Baseball Coaches Association All-America team and All-South Central Region first team as well as first team All-GSC laurels. Thigpen hit .379 on the season with 15 homeruns, 22 doubles and 76 RBI. Fitzgerald returns batting .356 last year with 49 RBI and 10 homeruns.

The infield is complete with Patten at short and Broome at third with the question mark being at second base. Junior College transfer Clay Smith (Jr., Paris CC, Mesquite, Texas) and Norwood Taylor (Jr., Mississippi State Delta CC, Greenwood) will compete for the spot. Patten ended last season batting .300 with a fielding percentage of .950. Broome returns to the line up hitting .347 last year and was second on the team in RBI with 52.

The outfield will see two new faces. Will Waldkirch (Sr., Franklin, Tenn.) will get the nod at left field to start the season. Thigpen moved from left field to center for speed purposes and Jeff State CC transfer Brett Donahoo (Jr., West Point) will be starting in right field.

Another question for the Statesmen is who is going to be the back up catcher. Two year starter Newton returns behind the plate this season. "Craig has great hands defensively," said Kinnison. Junior College transfer Bert Pickard (Jr., Mississippi State Delta CC) who was converted from third base to catcher and Drew Glass (Jr., Covington, Tenn.) will both be competing for the back up position.

The keys for the Statesmen hitting is for Patten and Broome to have good years as well as finding the right person to hit in the four and five spot behind Thigpen.

Coach "Boo" Ferriss & DSU Professionals

Delta State University baseball coaching legend Dave "Boo" Ferriss retired following the completion of 1988 season, but he continues to be a tireless supporter at all levels of baseball throughout the state.

The Shaw, Miss., native spent 46 years in baseball on the college and professional levels, including 26 seasons at Delta State.

A legend in national collegiate baseball coaching circles, Ferriss was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1988 in Atlanta, Ga.

Ferriss compiled a 639-387-8 record, all at Delta State and his coaching record ranks him among all-time national coaching leaders at the NCAA Division II level. His 1988 team was ranked 9th nationally in the Collegiate Baseball poll.

When Ferriss took over the baseball program in 1960 he started it from the ground level. The Statesmen played many of their games off campus and Ferriss coached without the benefit of an assistant. He directed DSU teams to the NCAA Division II Playoffs in eight of his last 12 years, including three trips to the NCAA Division II championships where the Statesmen finished third, second and third respectively in 1977, 1978 and 1982.

Gulf South Conference championships came in 1978, 1979, 1985 and 1988, with the Statesmen finishing second in 1981 and third in 1982. Forty-nine of his players earned All-Gulf South Conference honors.

Ferriss also earned several honors for his coaching accomplishments. In 1988, he received the United States Baseball Federation Service Award for his contributions to the game.

He has been named NCAA Regional "Coach of the Year" three times while also earning Gulf South Conference coaching honors three times. In 1978 and 1982 he was selected as "College Baseball Coach of the Year" in Mississippi and was runner-up in that category in 1985. His 1985 team was ranked No. 1 in the nation for several weeks in the NCAA Division II poll.

Under his direction, 20 Statesmen players earned All-American honors and 23 continued their baseball careers on the professional level. Twenty former players received Academic All-American honors and forty former players are now coaching in the high school and college ranks.

In addition to his DSU coaching duties, Ferriss also served at various intervals as Athleric Director and Director of the DSU Foundation.

Ferriss, a graduate of Mississippi State, was signed by the Boston Red Sox after his junior year of college, and the lanky right-hander broke into professional baseball with Greensboro (N.C.) of the Piedmont League in 1942.

After military service he joined the Boston Red Sox in 1945 where he spent 10 years in the organization (five years as a pitcher and five years as the pitching coach). He was named "Rookie of the Year" with a 21-10 record. and he defeated each American League team the first time he faced them and his first two major league starts were winning shutouts. In 1946, Ferriss was the American League's number one pitcher with a 25-6 record and he pitched the Red Sox to a 4-0 win over the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1946 World Series. His major league record was 65-30. Ferriss holds several major league records that includes the most consecutive home wins of 13 in 1946.

He is a 1989 inductee into the Delta State University Sports Hall of Fame and is a member of the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and the Mississippi State University Sports Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Mississippi Semi-Pro Baseball Hall of Fame in 1981 and to the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame in 2002.

The Gulf South Conference

The GULF SOUTH CONFERENCE (GSC) enters its 33rd year of excellence, continuing a tradition of growth and success that has brought it distinction as one of the elite NCAA Division II conferences. With 17 universities in six southeastern states, the GSC is the largest playing Conference in Division II.

GSC members feature comprehensive athletic programs that compete for 13 official conference championships: football, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, women's volleyball, men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's tennis and men's golf. In 2003, the GSC conducted a provisional championship in women's golf, which will continue in 2004.

We take pride in our 35 National Team Championships in 10 sports and the emphasis on academic success by our coaches and student-athletes. Christian Brothers University joined the list of GSC National Champions last year, capturing the 2002 Women's Soccer Championship, the league's first in soccer.

Originally known as the Mid-South Conference, the GSC was formed by six universities in the summer of 1970: Delta State, Florence State (now North Alabama), Jacksonville State, Livingston (now West Alabama), Tennessee-Martin and Troy State. Due to scheduling problems during the 1970-71 academic year, the only league sport was football. Jacksonville State won the league's first championship.

In 1971, the league changed its name to the GULF SOUTH CONFERENCE, added Southeastern Louisiana (SELA) and Nicholls State (increasing the membership to eight), and opened an office in Hammond, LA. The following year, Mississippi College and Northwestern Louisiana (NWLA, now Northwestern State) were admitted. NELA withdrew to go Division I two years later, followed by SELA and Nicholls State in 1979.

The conference continued with seven teams until 1981, when the presidents admitted Valdosta State. West Georgia joined in 1983. Eight years of stability ended in 1991 when Tennessee-Martin and Troy State went Division I, briefly dropping the GSC back to seven members, before the beginning of an expansion resulting in ten new members: Lincoln Memorial (1992-93); Alabama-Huntsville, Henderson State, Central Arkansas and Mississippi University for Women (1993-94); West Florida (1994-95); and Arkansas-Monticello, Arkansas Tech, Montevallo and Southern Arkansas (1995-96). Jacksonville State went Division I at the end of 1992-93. Mississippi College dropped to Division III at the end of 1995-96, and was replaced by Christian Brothers to keep the Conference at 16 schools. In July 2000, the GSC welcomed Harding University and Ouachita Baptist University, making it the largest NCAA conference at any level with 18 schools. The Conference membership decreased to 17 when MUW dropped its athletics program at the end of the 2002-03 season.

Former Commissioner Jim McCullough moved the GSC office to its present Birmingham location. The current Commissioner, Nathan (Nate) N. Salant, has been in office since October 1992. He is assisted by Sports Information Director Michael Anderson, Assistant Sports Information Director Tim Andrzejewski, Office Manager Mary Jean Box and part-time Assistant Andrea Nguyen. The Chairman of the GSC Board of Directors is Dr. Robert Brown, President of Arkansas Tech University. Joining him on the executive committee are past-Chair Dr. Frank Franz (Alabama in Huntsville) and Vice Chair Dr. Robert McChesney (Montevallo). The Supervisors of Officials are Billy Johnson (Football), John Caldwell (Basketball-West Division) and Mike Murphy (Basketball-East Division).

GSC in the Major League Draft: For the third consecutive year, the Conference landed at least five players in the Major League Baseball Draft. Six GSC players were selected in the 2003 First-Year Player Draft, led by Alabama-Huntsville pitcher Adam Bass, who was the first GSC player selected, going in the 10th round (306th overall pick) by Arizona. Delta State duo pitcher Dusty Hughes (11th round, 312nd pick, Kansas City) and shortstop Edwin Maysonet (19th round, 569th pick, Houston) were next to be selected. Southern Arkansas pitcher Brian Barr (22nd round, 651st pick, Cincinnati), UAH catcher Justin Barnes (32nd round, 940th pick, Detroit) and West Florida reliever Jeremy Noegel (34th round, 1,010 pick, Toronto) rounded the contingent.

Home of the Statesmen

Delta State baseball enters its 40th season of play in one of the finest collegiate facilities in the Gulf South Conference -- Ferriss Field.

The construction of the stadium, was completed in 1964, under the watchful eye Dave "Boo" Ferriss, who oversaw the transformation of the 6.63-acre parcel of land into DSU's present day field of dreams. The field was named in honor of Ferriss upon his retirement on June 18, 1988.

Delta State's all-time record at Ferriss Field is 677-201-2, and the Statesmen have posted an 142-18 mark under current head coach Mike Kinnison. During the "Boo" Ferriss era, DSU was 368-149-1 (.710). Under head coach Don Ward, the Statesmen were 36-17 (.679) and under Bill Marchant DSU was 131-34-1 (.789) Last season the Statesmen posted a 27-2 record at Ferriss Field.

In 1971, the State Building Commission authorized the expenditure of $85,000 to add lights to the facility, but Ferriss and other DSU administrators made the decision to build a covered grandstand, dugouts, a press box, concession stand and restrooms. The early renovations still provided the Statesmen fans with the comfort, convenience and true baseball atmosphere that Ferriss had envisioned during his coaching tenure. Prior to the 1999 season the bleachers were renovated and a new press box was built. Following the 1999 season Kinnison and his staff painted a yellow home run line on the top of the outfield fence and a red-brick backstop with netting was added in January of 2000. The improvements continued during the Fall of 2001 when chair back seats were added behind the backstop at field level.

In addition to the Ferriss Field, the Bryce Griffis Indoor Baseball Center was completed in the Fall of 2000 and benefits the Statesmen with year round training.

DSU Baseball Practice Facility

Bryce Griffis Center

The Bryce Griffis Baseball Practice Center is proof that dreams can come true. The indoor baseball practice center had been a dream of former Delta State legendary baseball coach Dave "Boo" Ferriss and through his tireless fundraising efforts the dream became a reality in December of 2000.

The facility is 10,400 square feet and includes a full-size infield area when the nets of the two batting cages are raised, two portable pitching mounds and retractable wall panels to allow expanded practice area. Throughout the practice area is a revolutionary artificial turf called "Agra Turf" that bust onto the athletic scene at the University of Nebraska, the University of Washington and at the Tampa Bay Devil Rays' Tropicana Field. A room in the center highlights former players and features the all-time accomplishments of the University's baseball program. The foyer of the building recognizes all of the donors to the project.

"We are extremely proud of the indoor practice facility," said DSU head baseball coach Mike Kinnison. "It is a tremendous asset to our program in recruiting and player development. Having a practice place at our disposal during inclement weather manes it is much easier to plan quality practices.

"I think it is a positive that when we have prospective players on campus that we can show them a facility that not everyone else has," added Kinnison. "They can see an opportunity here for them to develope completely."

Delta State University president Dr. David Potter announced that the indoor baseball facility would be named The Bryce Griffis Baseball Practice Center following the approval by the Board of Trustees of the Institutions of Higher Learning of the State of Mississippi at their January 2000 meeting.

Griffis of Starkville, president and owner of Sturgis Timber Company, made a lead gift to the baseball facility and an endowed gift to maintain it and Ferriss Field. In 1998, he established the Bryce Griffis Endowment Fund to provide monies to fulfill departmental and/or student needs, and in 1987 endowed a gift to the College of Business. A 1954 graduate of Delta State, Griffis lettered three years in baseball and football. He was recognized as the University's Outstanding Alumnus in 1986 and has continued to provide leadership through service as a member of the DSU Foundation Board of Directors and president of the Athletic Alumni Association.

Griffis has been a strong supporter of higher education, having served on the Board of Trustees of the Institutions of Higher Learning from 1980-1992, and as its president in 1986-87. He was appointed by former Gov. William Winter.
