TIPOFF

- ♦ Delta State closed out its exhibition slate with a 74-40 loss to Division I Arkansas. DSU defeated its other exhibition opponent, Bethel University, 66-54, on Nov. 3. Devin Schmidt averaged 19 points in the two preseason tune-ups.
- ♦ The Statesmen travel to Livingston, Alabama this week for a two-day tournament, the Gulf South Conference/Sunshine State Conference Showdown.
- ♦ Delta State faces off with Eckerd College on Friday, Nov. 13 at 12 p.m. to kick start the tournament. DSU and Eckerd have met three times in the past, as Delta State holds the 3-0 series record and a 2-0 record against the Tritons at the GSC/SSC Showdown. Last season, DSU picked up an 89-77 win.
- ♦ Florida Southern College, the defending Division II National Champions, will face the Green-and-White on the second and final day of the tournament, Saturday, Nov. 14 at 12 p.m. The Mocs earned the 97-80 victory in last season's meeting.
- ♦ Junior guard Schmidt and senior Jack Madgen are within striking distance of some significant milestones. Schmidt, a 6-foot-4 guard, is only 108 points away from breaking into the top 10 all-time scoring list at Delta State, while Madgen needs 133 points away from the 1,000 point club.
- ♦ The Green-and-White will face off with four more non-conference games before entering into a grueling league schedule. Up next, DSU travels to Stephenville, Texas on Wednesday, Nov. 18 to take on Tarleton State, a 2014-15 Final Four squad. Tip-off is slated for 7:30 p.m.

- Known as one of the top defensive coaches in collegiate men's basketball

Jim Boone is in his fourth season (52-37) as head coach of the Delta State University Statesmen Basketball program. Boone (482-367), a native of Winfield, W.V., brings 29 years of collegiate coaching experience to Delta State, including stops at the NCAA Division I and II levels. His career record speaks to his success on the hardwood, but his real niche has been at the NCAA DII level where he has posted a blistering 375-189 mark as a head coach.

Prior to taking over as head coach of the Statesmen, Boone spent the 2011-12 season as head coach at West Virginia Wesleyan College, guiding the Bobcats to a school record 22 wins at the DII level and the program's first ever NCAA Regional Tournament Championship appearance.

Under Boone's leadership, the Bobcats (22-9) defeated perennial DII power Winston Salem State in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament this season before falling to West Liberty State. Boone began his career as a standout player at West Virginia State College where he was a four-year letterman. He earned his bachelor's degree in Accounting (1981) and followed that with a master's in Business Administration from the University of Kentucky (1982) with a concentration in Marketing.

His coaching career brought him back to his alma mater, spending three seasons as the head assistant coach from 1982-85. Boone made the jump to NCAA DI basketball in 1986, as an assistant at Charleston Southern University, where the Buccaneers won the Big South Conference Championship.

The championship experience led Boone to California University of Pennsylvania as head coach. Over the next 10 years, Boone led California (Pa.) to unprecedented success, including a 228-71 record. During his time with the Vulcans, Boone's squads claimed 31 wins and the No. 1 ranking in the country in 1992, two NCAA DII Final Four appearances, six regular season conference titles, and nine trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Boone (228-71) finished his time with a school-record 228 wins and a .763 win percentage. Boone was inducted into the California (Pa.) Hall of Fame in 2005.

From California (Pa.), Boone on the challenge of rebuilding NCAA Division I Robert Morris University, eventually leading the Colonials to the NEC Championship game in 2000. In 1999 and 2000, he led RMU to a record of 25-13 in the NEC and produced two of the best seasons in Colonials history.

Boone left RMU after 2000 to take on the task of turning Eastern Michigan University into a competitive DI program. In five seasons at EMU, Boone quadrupled the program's wins total and set several EMU attendance records.

Boone left EMU after the 2005 season to take his talents to Tusculum College, a member of NCAA DII and the South Atlantic Conference. In 2009, the Pioneers won a school-record 20 games and made its second-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament. He still holds the school record for conference wins over a four-year period. Boone recruited and coached two-time SAC Player of the Year and All-American Kyle Moore.

During his career, his teams have recorded 17 or more wins on 16 occasions, including six conference championships, four tournament titles and seven postseason appearances. From 1990-96, his California teams recorded over 20 victories for six consecutive years tallying an impressive 150-33 mark during that span. His 94-24 league record in the PSAC is still the best of any coach in that conference's history. He was named PSAC Coach of the Year on three occasions (1988, 1992, 1996) and NCAA Region Coach Year twice (1992, 1996).

He is married to the former Stephanie VanVranken, and they are the parents of two sons, Jimmy and Joey.

▶ WHAT OTHER COACHES ARE SAYING...

"Jim Boone is an outstanding person and coach. Someone will be very fortunate to have Coach Boone run their program. With over 400 wins, Jim is someone of courage, ability and a tremendous leader."

Mike Krzyzewski, Head Coach Duke University

"Coach Boone has established himself in the coaching community as one of the nation's premier teachers. I have tremendous respect for Coach Boone. He is an outstanding basketball coach, and his basketball programs are synonymous with excellence."

Herb Sendek, Former Head Coach NC State

"Basketball, as it is taught by Coach Boone, is a formula for success. Jim Boone does not just teach basketball, he teaches life lessons. He has developed a philosophy that exceeds the boundaries of offense and defense. Jim's programs have been yearly one of the nation's most successful on any level, and the primary reason, is because he brings an overriding purpose to everything he does. 'Commitment to Excellence' is the credo that Jim has used to oversee the values and principles that govern his teams."

Dale Brown, Former Head Coach Louisiana State University

"Coach Boone's knowledge of Motion Offense and his ability to teach it effectively is unparalleled. His teams are always fundamentally sound, extremely well coached and very, very good offensively."

Don Meyer, Head Coach Northern State University
