COACH KINNISON ON DELTA STATE BASEBALL...

Delta State University is a special place, made up of special people. Over the years, Statesmen Baseball has enjoyed a tremendous level of success on the diamond because of the dedication the players, coaches, fans, and alumni have put into this program. We will continue to build on that tradition, one game, one inning, and one pitch at a time.

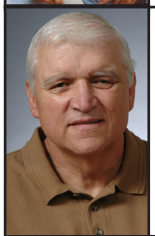

2004	The year that Delta State University claimed its first NCAA Division II National Championship.
2056	The Statesmen rank number one all-time in victories in the Gulf South Conference with 2,056 victories in program history.
981	In 23 seasons, coach Mike Kinnison has rocketed to 981 career wins to go along with five GSC Championships and the 2004 National Championship.
639	Number of victories claimed by coach Dave "Boo" Ferriss during his tenure (1960-66 and 1970-1988) as head coach.
636	Number of victories posted by the Statesmen in Gulf South Conference action. The number tops all member institutions.
33	Number of NCAA Division II Baseball Championship Tournament appearances made by the Statesmen.
15	The number of GSC championships claimed by DSU since the formation of the conference. No other school has more than five.
12	Number of College World Series appearances made the Statesmen baseball program, including five since 2000.

STATESMEN BASEBALL COACHING TREE

DAVE "BOO" FERRISS (26 years/639-387-8)

Coach Ferriss directed the Statesmen from 1960-66 and 1970-1988, building the program from the ground up. Over the next 26 years, Ferriss guided the Statesmen to three World Series appearances and four GSC titles. His foundation continues to reap rewards for the Statesmen today.

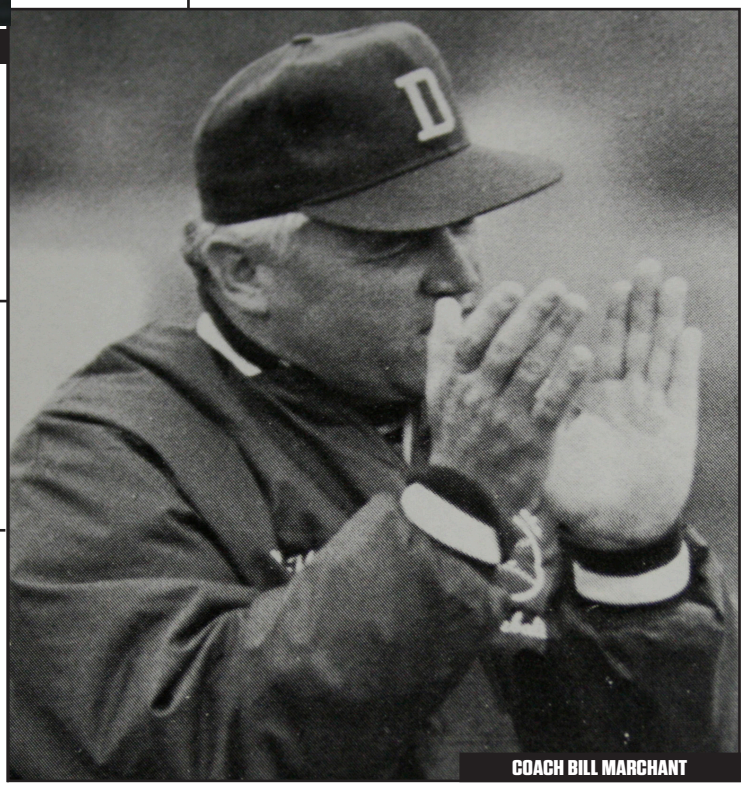

BILL MARCHANT (8 years/283-127)

Coach Marchant led the Statesmen from 1989-1996, claiming three GSC championships, and two NCAA Region titles. His 1994 and 1996 squads advanced to the College World Series. He served as the Director of Athletic Alumni from 1996-2012.

MIKE KINNISON (1997-2019/981-313-2)

Coach Kinnison took over the program in 1997. He owns one of the nation's highest winning percentage (.756). He has led DSU to six GSC titles, six NCAA Region titles, six College World Series appearances, and the 2004 NCAA National Championship.

1991 GSC CHAMPIONS

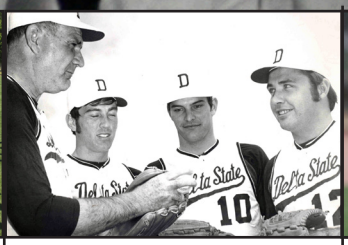

WINNING TRADITION

The Statesmen baseball program has enjoyed greater success on the diamond than any other program in the Gulf South Conference. DSU boasts 2,056 all-time wins, the most by any GSC member institution.

LOYALTY

Delta State Baseball would not continue to enjoy the successes it has over the years without the loyalty of former players, coaches, and fans. Their generosity has allowed DSU to expand facilities and win championships.

COACHING LEGACY

Delta State's traditions are built off the dedication of its former players. Since 1960, 148 former players have gone on to coach at the high school, college, or professional level.

ACADEMICS

Statesmen baseball is also focused on producing winners off the field. DSU boasts 27 Academic All-Americans, the fifth most in all of NCAA collegiate baseball and the tops in the GSC.

ZACH SHANNON • 2017 | 2018 ABCA NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

257	Delta State has produced 257 All-Gulf South Conference players since 1972.
170	Rawlings and the ABCA have recognized 170 Statesmen with All-Region honors since the 1972 season.
77	Number of Statesmen named All-American during their career at Delta State University.
6	Six Statesmen have been named National Player or Pitcher of the Year by Rawlings and the American Baseball Coaches Association since 1994.

THE BEGINNINGS

HENRY ALLEN

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

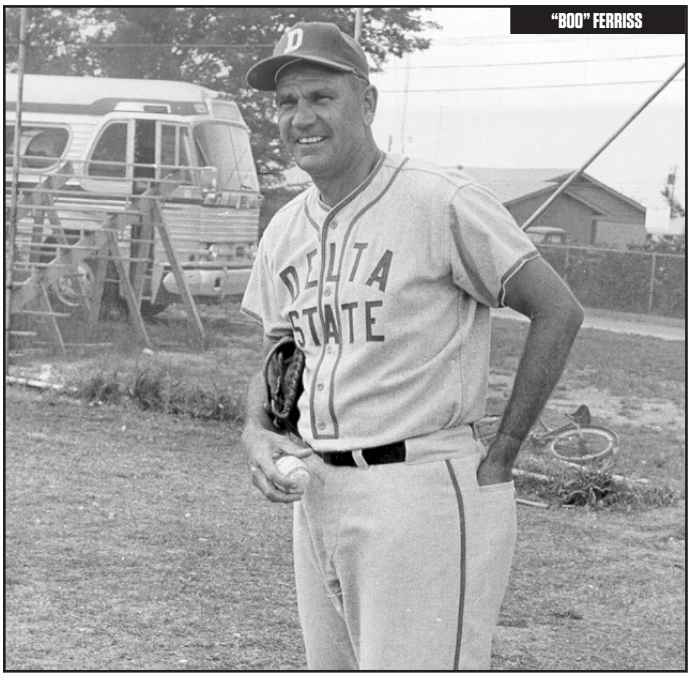

In the spring of 1933, Delta State Teachers College would square off with Northwest Mississippi Community College in the first-ever baseball game played by the Statesmen. DSTC won the game 12-1, but celebrations would be short-lived for coach Henry Allen's, squad. The Statesmen would finish the season 4-7, including six straight losses to end the year. DSTC fielded teams from 1933-1938 before disbanding the sport. DSTC managed an 18-36-1 record. It would be an entire decade before fans of Delta baseball would see the return of their beloved Statesmen.

QUIET RETURN

Delta State decided in the summer of 1947 to bring back baseball to the Cleveland campus during the 1948 academic year. University administration turned to Forrest Wyatt to lead the team. In the first season back since 1938, the Statesmen went 9-7 under Wyatt's leadership and baseball was back in the Delta!

TOUGH TIMES

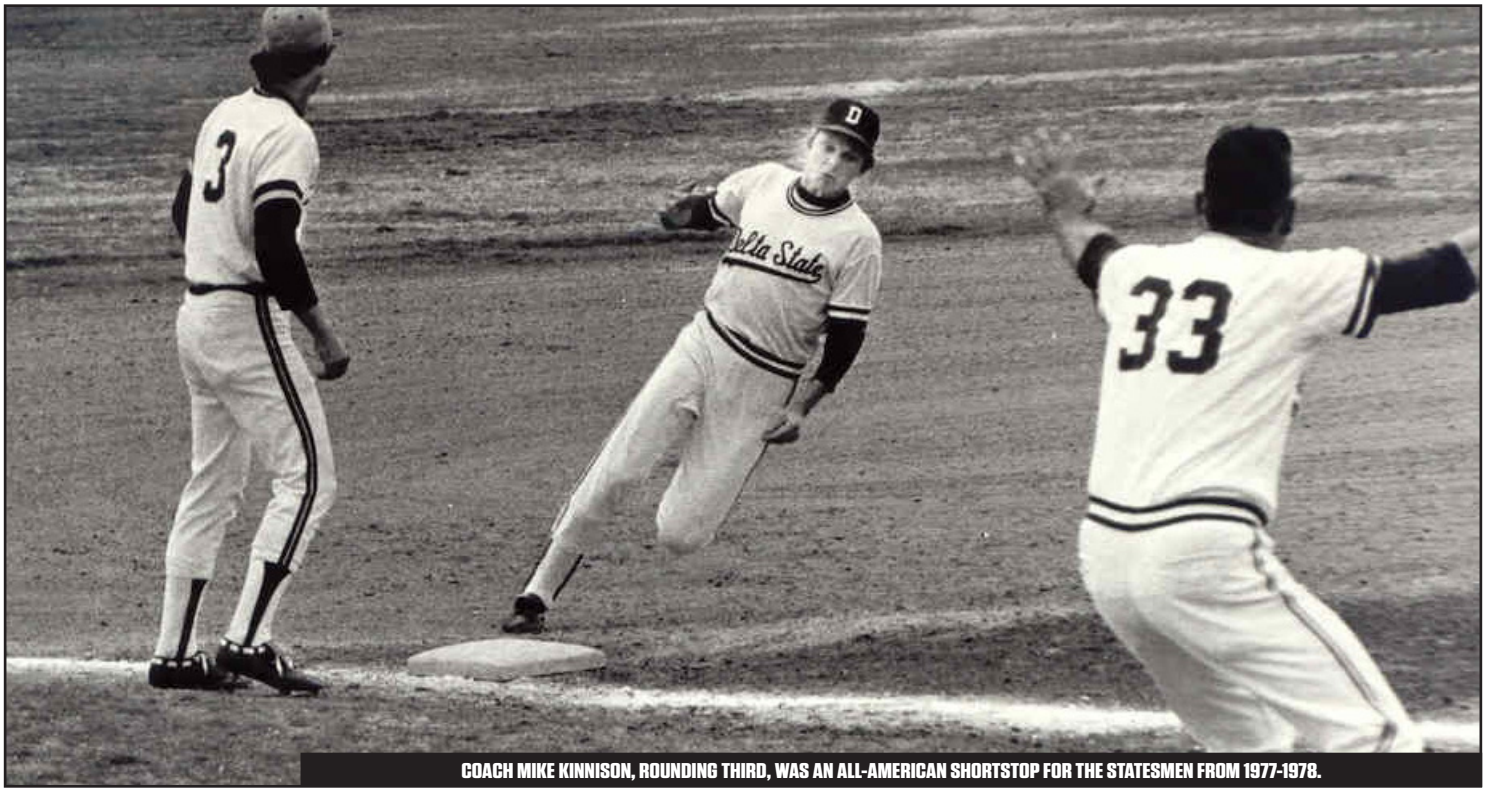

Winning was easy for the boys in green-and-white during the late 1940s and 1950s. From 1948 to 1959, the Statesmen won 75 games and lost 73. One could expect that Delta State's win-loss record might have been better had it not been for the country's military battles and the Mississippi Delta's rich tradition of military service. However, no one could imagine the future that lay ahead of the Statesmen and fans of Delta State baseball thanks to an extraordinary man named "Boo."

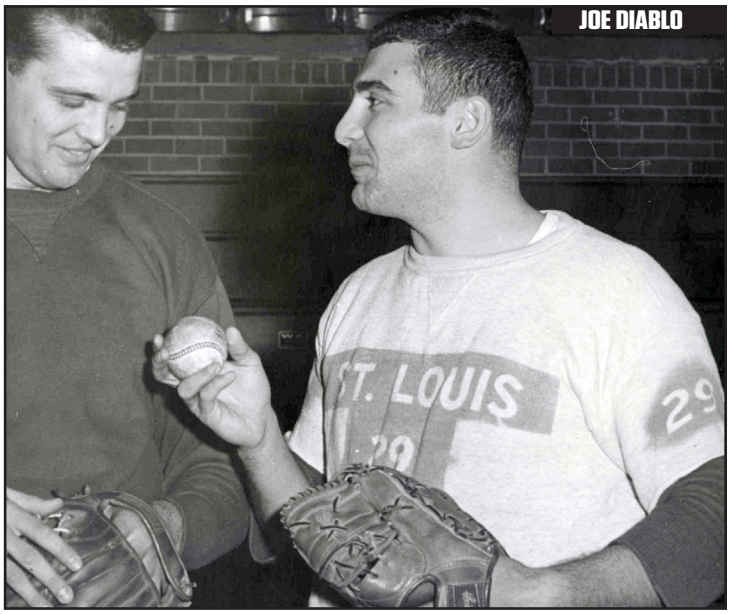

"BOO" FERRISS

FERRISS RETURNS TO THE DELTA

Dave "Boo" Ferriss grew up just 10 short miles from Cleveland, but his life has taken him across the globe. Once a hard-throwing pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, Ferriss took the reigns of the Delta State Baseball program in 1960, as the head coach and athletic director. Ferriss brought with him the knowledge he had gained as star with the Red Sox and the work ethic he had learned from his father. For the next 26 years, Ferriss built a Delta baseball dynasty that lives on today. In his 26 seasons as head coach, the Statesmen won 639 games, lost 387 and tied opponents eight times. DSU won five Gulf South Conference titles, made nine NCAA regional appearances, and advanced to the College World Series in 1977, 1978 and 1982.

COACH MIKE KINNISON, ROUNDING THIRD, WAS AN ALL-AMERICAN SHORTSTOP FOR THE STATESMEN FROM 1977-1978.

JOE DIABLO

SIGN OF THINGS TO COME

In 1967, the Statesmen made their first appearance in NCAA postseason play at the Mideast Regional held in Normal, Ill. The Statesmen finished third, losing to Hiram College (1-3) and defeating Kentucky Wesleyan (7-4). Don Ward topped the regional berth in 1968 with the program's first trip to the College World Series in Springfield, Mo. The Statesmen finished second to eventual national champion Chapman (Calif.). Since 1967, the Statesmen have made 26 NCAA postseason appearances, including 10 trips to the NCAA Division II College World Series.

O'ROURKE THE FIRST IN A LINE OF STATESMEN

Former Delta State University pitcher Dan O'Rourke (Clarksdale), who played for coach Gene Chadwick from 1949-51, became the first Statesmen in the professional ranks when he signed with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1951. A total of 69 Statesmen have played baseball professionally.

CARDINALS PICK DiFABIO No. 1

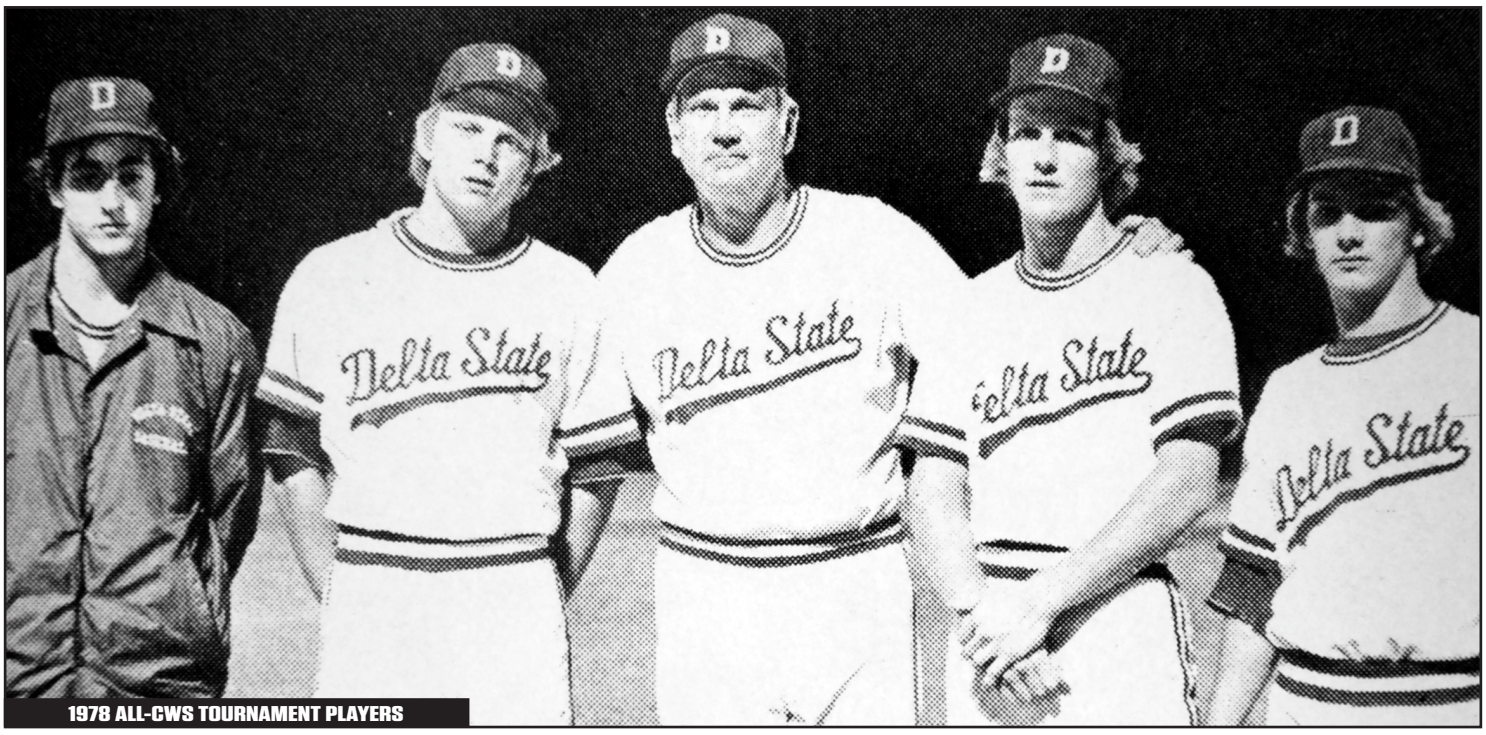

For nearly a century, baseball fans in the Delta have had a link to the St. Louis Cardinals. In 1965, that link grew stronger as the Cardinals drafted former Statesmen great Joe DiFabio No. 20 in the first-ever Major League Baseball Amateur Draft.

FIRST CONFERENCE TITLE

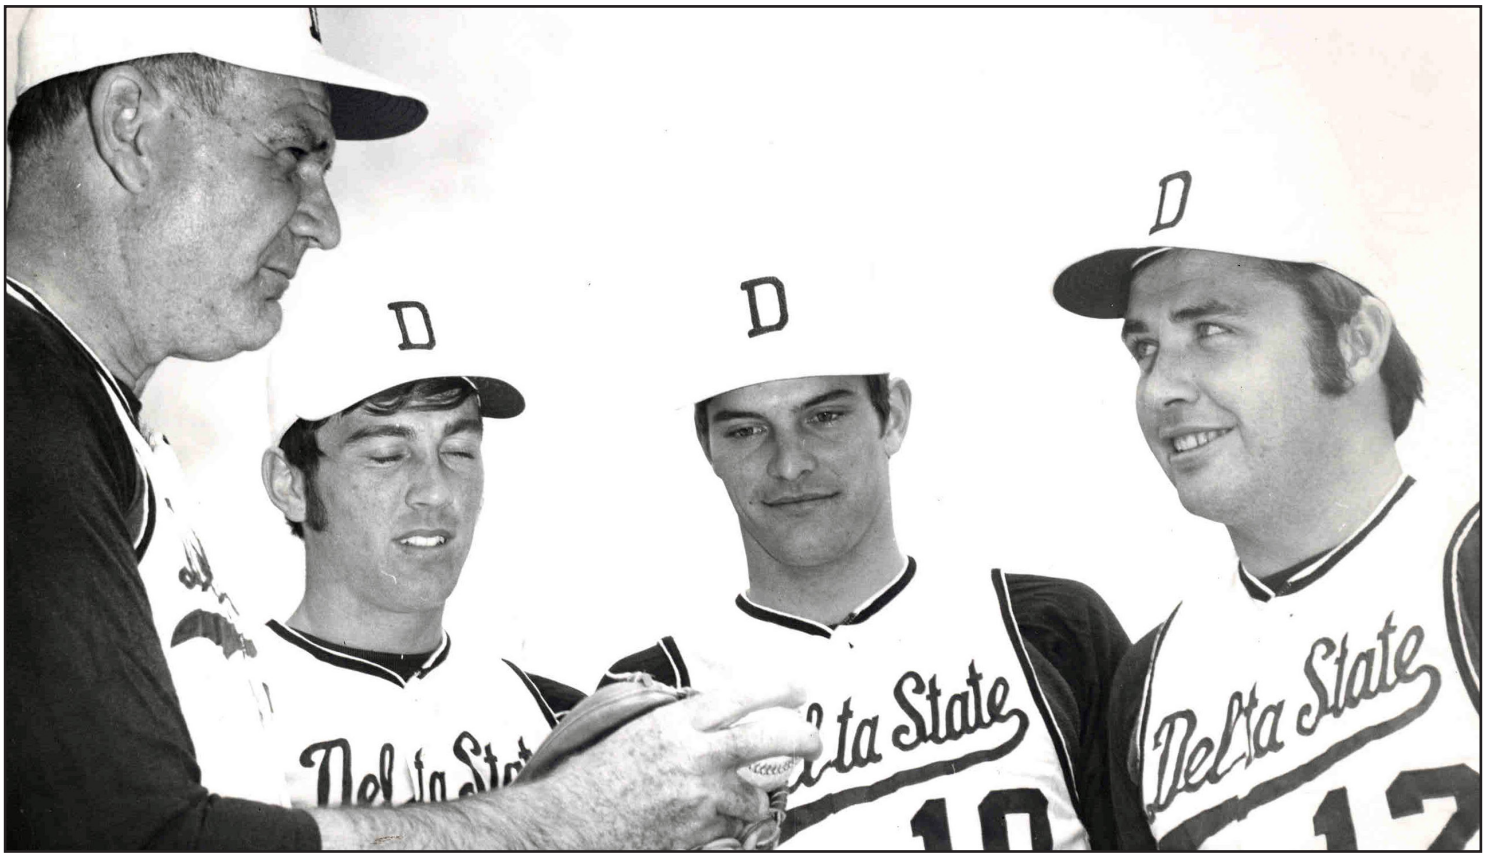

The Statesmen claimed the first of their Gulf South Conference-record 14 championships in the spring of 1978. Coach Ferriss' squad went 43-19 that year and 14-4 in league play. In the GSC Tournament, hosted by Delta State, the Statesmen defeated Troy University 8-6 (10 innings), and lost to Southeastern Louisiana 5-4 (10 innings), setting up a title showdown with West Alabama. The Statesmen downed the Tigers in convincing fashion to win the title by a score of 8-2.

NATIONAL PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Delta State University has a deep and rich tradition unlike any other. Since 1994, six Statesmen have been named National Player/Pitcher of the Year by Rawlings and the American Baseball Coaches Association. Bubba Dixon, a right-handed pitcher, became the first to receive the honor in 1994. Dixon went 16-3 with a 1.93 ERA that season. Dave Townsend followed suit in 1996, when the hard-throwing righthander received the Dick Howser Award. Townsend posted a 16-1 record with 2.33 ERA. In 2000, Dee Haynes slugged 22 home runs and drove in 87 RBIs and was awarded the honor for his accomplishments on the field. Jud Thigpen in 2004 became the last Statesmen to receive the honor. The Cleveland native hit .429 with 112 hits, 14 home runs, and 80 RBIs to lead the Statesmen to the national championship. Zach Shannon earned back-to-back ABCA National Player of the Year honors in 2017 and 2018. Shannon hit .434 with 19 home runs, 12 double and 88 RBI while leading to the DII CWS. Shannon followed with 31 homers, 14 doubles, and 93 RBI to capture the award in 2018.

1978 ALL-CWS TOURNAMENT PLAYERS

2004 NATIONAL CHAMPS

In eight previous trips to the College World Series, the Statesmen had finished no higher than second. That all changed in 2004, when coach Mike Kinnison, a former All-American shortstop for the Statesmen, led Delta State to its first NCAA National Championship with a 12-8 win over Grand Valley State. Bert Pickard was named Most Valuable Player of the 2004 CWS, and teammates Craig Newton (C), and Scott Ellison (P) were named to the All-CWS Tournament Team.

A COACHING LEGACY

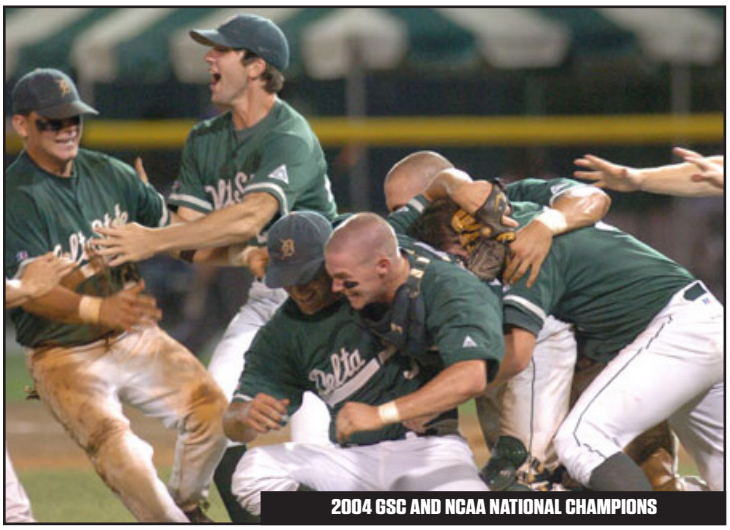

Since coach Ferriss took over the program in 1960, only four men have had the pleasure of coaching the Statesmen. Ferriss led the program from 1960-66 and 1970-88.

Don Ward served as head coach from 1967-69, leading the Statesmen to the program's first College World Series appearance in 1968 (Finished second) and to back-to-back NCAA regional appearances in 1967 and 1968.

Bill Marchant took over the program after coach Ferriss' retirement in 1988 and led the program for eight seasons (1989-1996). In his eight seasons as head coach, Marchant, a former Statesman himself, guided the program to a 283-127 record and four NCAA regional appearances. In that span, Marchant led the Statesmen to the 1991, 1994, and 1996 Gulf South Conference championships: A tragic accident cut short his coaching career, but Marchant would serve the University as director of athletic alumni until his retirement in the spring of 2015.

With Coach Marchant's retirement in 1996, University administration didn't have to look far for their next head coach, Mike Kinnison was already in the dugout as Marchant's top assistant.

In the 21 seasons since, Kinnison has become NCAA Division II's most successful head coach. He has led the Statesmen to five GSC titles, and in 2004 directed Delta State to its first ever NCAA Division II National Championship. He has compiled a 897-288-2 (.756) record heading into this season. His .756 winning percentage is tops among active NCAA DII head coaches all-time.

Dave "Boo" Ferriss

The crafting of a legacy

COACH FERRISS POSING AT HOME IN HIS OFFICE

FERRISS: A GIANT ON THE FIELD, BUT A MOUNTAIN OF A MAN

By Matt Jones

Most people simply know him as "Boo." He is Dave "Boo" Ferriss, Boston Red Sox Hall of Famer and legendary coach of the Delta State University Statesmen. Ferriss retired following the completion of the 1988 season, but he continues to be a tireless supporter at all levels of baseball throughout the state and especially his beloved Statesmen.

The Shaw, Miss., native spent 46 years in baseball on the collegiate and professional levels, including 26 seasons at Delta State.

A legend in national collegiate baseball coaching circles, Ferriss was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1988 in Atlanta, Ga.

Ferriss compiled a 639-387-8 record, all at Delta State, and his coaching record ranks him among all-time national coaching leaders at the NCAA Division II level. His 1988 team was ranked 9th nationally in the Collegiate Baseball poll.

When Ferriss took over the baseball program in 1960, he started it from the ground level. The Statesmen played many of their games off campus and Ferriss coached without the benefit of an assistant. He directed DSU teams to the NCAA Division II Playoffs in eight of his last 12 years, including three trips to the NCAA Division II championships where the Statesmen finished third, second and third respectively in 1977, 1978 and 1982.

Gulf South Conference championships came in 1978, 1979, 1985 and 1988, with the Statesmen finishing second in 1981 and third in 1982. Forty-nine of his players earned All-Gulf South Conference honors.

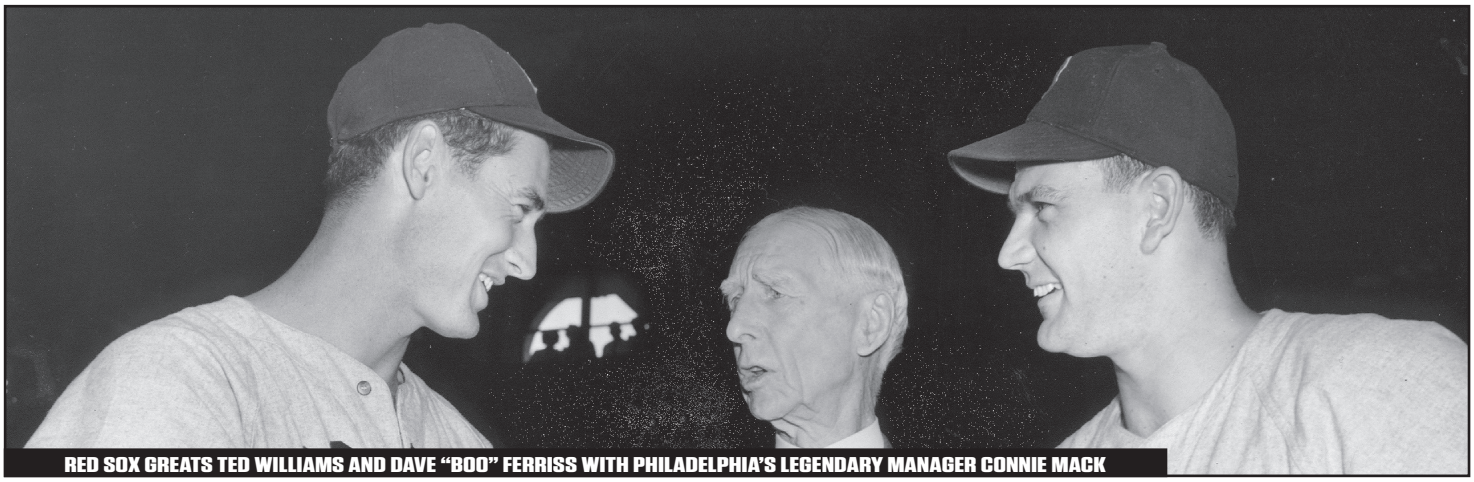

Ferriss also earned several honors for his coaching accomplishments. In 1988, he received the United States Baseball Federation Service Award for his contributions to the game.

He was named NCAA Regional "Coach of the Year" three times while also earning Gulf South Conference coaching honors three times.

In 1978 and 1982 he was selected as "College Baseball Coach of the Year" in Mississippi and was runner-up in that category in 1985. His 1985 team was ranked No. 1 in the nation for several weeks in the NCAA Division II poll.

Under his direction, 20 Statesmen players earned All-American honors and 23 continued their baseball careers on the professional level. Twenty former players received Academic All-American honors and forty former players are now coaching in the high school and college ranks.

In addition to his DSU coaching duties, Ferriss also served at various intervals as Athleric Director and Director of the DSU Foundation.

RED SOX GREATS TED WILLIAMS AND DAVE "BOO" FERRISS WITH PHILADELPHIA'S LEGENDARY MANAGER CONNIE MACK

DAVE "BOO" FERRISS

Ferriss, a graduate of Mississippi State, was signed by the Boston Red Sox after his junior year of college, and the lanky right-hander broke into professional baseball with Greensboro (N.C.) of the Piedmont League in 1942.

After military service, he joined the Boston Red Sox in 1945 where he spent 10 years in the organization (five years as a pitcher and five years as the pitching coach). He was named "Rookie of the Year" with a 21-10 record, and he defeated each American League team the first time he faced them while winning his first two major league starts with shutouts.

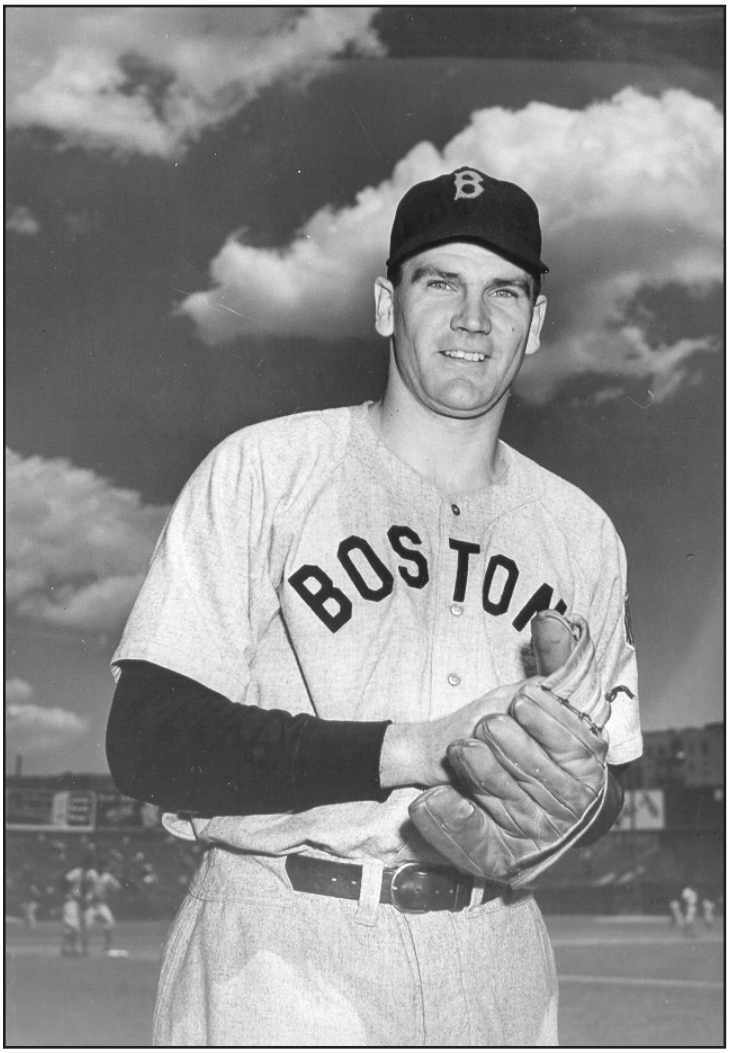

In 1946, Ferriss was the American League's number one pitcher with a 25-6 record and he pitched the Red Sox to a 4-0 win over the St. Louis Cardinals in game three of the 1946 World Series. His major league record was 65-30. Ferriss holds several major league records that include the most consecutive home wins of 13 in 1946.

He is a 1989 inductee into the Delta State University Sports Hall of Fame and is a member of the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and the Mississippi State University Sports Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Mississippi Semi-Pro Baseball Hall of Fame in 1981 and to the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame in 2002.

In the fall of 2003, the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame announced that it would be sponsoring a "Mississippi Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year" and the trophy would bear the name and likeness of Dave "Boo" Ferriss. Stephen Head, of the University of Mississippi, became the Ferriss Trophy's first recipient.

In the spring of 2007, legendary author and former Statesmen baseball walk-on John Grisham returned to Delta State for a special fundraiser for the Department of Athletics. Grisham regaled attendees with the story of his time as a walk-on at Delta State, and how Coach Ferriss put him on the right career path after failing to make the team. Grisham's visit left an indelible mark on the program and athletics, as over $125,000 was raised at the event.

Before his passing, Coach Ferriss continued to champion the cause of collegiate baseball across Mississippi and the U.S. He was a frequent speaker at civic clubs across the state, and he never misses an opportunity to watch his Statesmen play baseball.

A COACHING LEGACY

Delta State University Statesmen Baseball prides itself on the tradition of excellence passed down over the generations from coaches to players to their families.

Each year, a new generation of former Statesmen enter the ranks of alumni and many of those alumni go on to coach at the high school, collegiate, or professional levels. Delta State, like many of our nation's premier baseball institutions, has a long history of success and a great progeny of former coaches.

Many of our alumni have reached the pinnacle of success with championships, while others have simply instilled the love of baseball in their players hearts and minds.

Over the last 46 years, Delta State has seen over 148 former players and graduate assistants go on to be successful coaches and mentors.

THREE STATESMEN GREATS: FERRISS, MARCHANT, KINNISON

Ferriss Field

A Place We Call Home

TIM AND NANCY HARVEY STADIUM AT DAVE "BOO" FERRISS FIELD

THE HISTORY

Delta State Baseball enjoys one of the finest collegiate facilities in the Gulf South Conference -- Tim & Nancy Harvey Stadium at Dave "Boo" Ferriss Field.

Originally a bean patch, Ferriss Field was transformed into one of collegiate baseball's finest ballparks. The construction on the original stadium was completed in 1964 under the watchful eye of former head coach and Red Sox legend Dave "Boo" Ferriss, who oversaw the transformation of the 6.63-acre parcel of land into DSU's present day field of dreams.

It was no easy task, though. A big ditch used to be behind the infield. "We had to fill that in, and then it was nothing but just a big area of beans out here. I got a farmer friend of mine to bring his tractor, cut down the beans and went to work trying to carve out a baseball field," Ferriss said.

In 1964, the Statesmen played their first ballgame at the new field. Although there was a small backstop behind home plate with some bleachers behind it, the stadium looked nothing like it does today. There were no dugouts; players sat on benches. There was a small fence around the outfield, and the field remained unchanged until the early 1970s.

Seven years later in 1971, the State Building Commission authorized the expense of $85,000 to add lights to the field, so games could be played at night. "That was kind of becoming a trend in college baseball," Ferriss added.

Ferriss and other DSU administrators made the decision to build a covered grandstand, dugouts, a press box, concession stand and restrooms. The early renovations still provided the Statesmen fans with the comfort, convenience and true baseball atmosphere that Ferriss had envisioned during his coaching tenure. Prior to the 1999 season the bleachers were renovated and a new press box was built.

Although many improvements were made, there was still one key item missing.

"We didn't have that background wall," Ferriss said, pointing to the black canvas-covered wall surrounding the outfield. "There was a fence all around but those trees, when they came out like they are right now, that made for a good background. Our hitters picked up the ball good coming from the pitcher with those trees there and all the way around, and they made a pretty good background."

Well, that changed in 1978 when Ferriss convinced former Red Sox teammate and Hall of Famer Ted Williams to come to Delta State and conduct a hitting clinic. Before Williams had to leave, Ferriss drove him by the baseball field. When they came around the curve, Williams looked over at the field. "Just like a pitcher," Williams said to Ferriss. "No background wall for the hitters."

The outfield is bordered by a row of pine trees. They hadn't blossomed yet, so all Williams saw were tree limbs. Williams told Ferriss, he would have a better hitting team if he would build a background wall.

A couple of years later, Ferriss had a player on the team, Rusty Otts, who was good at building things. He knew Otts might be the one to help him get a background wall built. So with Ferriss sometimes handing him the boards, Otts built the background wall. Ferriss said Delta State graduate Bryce Griffis (who the indoor facility is named after) had a lumber business in Sturgis, Miss., and provided the lumber free of charge. After the wall was completed, it was painted green. Black canvas covers the background wall now, but the trees are still there today. The only difference is hitters don't have to rely on them as much for a background. The field was named in honor of Ferriss upon his retirement on June 18, 1988.

Following the 1999 season Coach Mike Kinnison and his staff painted a yellow homerun line on the top of the outfield fence and a red brick backstop with netting was added in January of 2000. Chairback seats were also added behind the backstop at field level in 2001.

Since 2003, the Statesmen have enjoyed the highest level of attendance of any NCAA Division II program in the nation. Delta State's all-time record at Ferriss Field is 981-285-4, and the Statesmen have posted a 441-92 mark at home under current head coach Mike Kinnison. During the "Boo" Ferriss era, DSU was 349-137-1 (.715). Under head coach Don Ward, the Statesmen were 36-17 (.679); and under Bill Marchant DSU was 131-34-1 (.789).

After Ferriss retired, he had pushed for a new service building to replace the old one, which was outdated and deteriorated. Ferriss went to one of his former players, John Crawford, from Starkville. The Crawfords provided a six-figure gift that made possible the service building that is located at the park today.

The Robert L. Crawford Center was completed in 2007 and serves as the main entrance and exit for the ballpark. The Crawford Center features an expanded concession stand, memorabilia stand and large restrooms. It also houses the "Dave 'Boo' Ferriss Museum." The Ferriss Museum is open before each home baseball game and by appointment.

On Dec. 15, 2014, Delta State University Athletics officially announced plans to renovate Ferriss Field following the 2015 baseball season. The goal for the project was $1 million, but the project was funded entirely by private donations.

In the summer of 2015, thanks to a charitable lead gift by former All-American Tim Harvey and his wife, Nancy, Delta State officially broke ground on a new all-brick grandstand, featuring chairback seats.

Replacing the current covered grandstand is a new elevated seating area with 500 chair-back seats. The new stadium features improved handicap access and seating, and the upper level features a new press box and the plan for two guest suites. A brick wall surrounds the outside of the new stadium seating area. New ground level dugouts that feature restrooms and storage areas replaced the old dugouts.

The stadium was designed by Larry Singleton of Singleton Architects of Jackson. Roy Collins Construction was chosen to build the venue under the direction of lead supervisor Steve Davis. Southern Bleacher of Dallas, Texas, was selected to install the new chairback seats.

DSU officially dedicated Tim & Nancy Harvey Stadium at Dave "Boo" Ferriss Field on Saturday, Oct. 3, 2015.

Greeting onlookers entering the stadium is a bronze statue of the man who put Delta State baseball on the map — Coach Ferriss.

Legendary Mississippi artist Kim Sessums of Brookhaven, who designed the C-Spire Ferriss Trophy for the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame, was commissioned to create the Ferriss statue. Sessums is renowned for his sculpture work, including legendary University of Mississippi head football coach John Vaught, evangelist Billy Graham, and storyteller Eudora Welty.

"We have much to be proud of," Ferriss said. "A lot of people have helped to make it what it is today. We've come a long way from that bean patch."

DAVE "BOO" FERRISS MUSEUM: "INNING-BY-INNING, A LIFE IN BASEBALL"

Delta State officially dedicated the Robert L. Crawford Center on Saturday, March 20, 2007 at the Statesmen baseball complex. Made possible through a generous gift by former Delta State baseball player, John Crawford; wife, Beth and mother, Mabel, the Crawford Center bears the name of John's father, Robert, who was an ardent supporter of the Statesmen program.

As the main entrance and exit point for all future Statesmen baseball games at Dave "Boo" Ferriss Field, the facility has allowed for expanded restroom and concession areas, an umpire's locker room, and a merchandising stand. Most significant, though, the Crawford Center houses The Dave "Boo" Ferriss Museum.

"Inning by Inning: A Life in Baseball, The Dave "Boo" Ferriss Museum" chronicles the former long-time Statesmen head coach's illustrious career – including photos and personal memorabilia from his early days at Shaw High School, to a young man at Mississippi State, to the height of his career with the Boston Red Sox, to his days at the helm of his beloved Delta State program.

Five large glass-enclosed display cases will feature much of Ferriss' vast memorabilia collection, including a wool uniform, gloves and an official Red Sox vs. St. Louis Cardinal World Series pennant.

University archivist Emily Erwin designed the museum space, including case layouts, floor plan and traffic flow. She partnered with University Relations' graphic designer, Laura Fleeman to design the panels that hang behind each case.

"We wanted to be very mindful of flow in our designs," Erwin explained. "We knew this space would attract a lot of attention from several different audiences, and we worked very hard to be sure traffic will flow smoothly without much congestion.

"The cases, themselves, will run in chronological order – inning by inning, if you will," she continued. "We document Coach's career just as it happened in real time."

STATESMEN BASEBALL FACILTIES

The Statesmen ran off an NCAA-record 46 straight wins at Ferriss Field from March 9, 2002-May 15, 2003.

ROBERT L. CRAWFORD CENTER

Opened in time for the conclusion of the 2007 season, the Robert L. Crawford Center is the latest addition to the already famous, Dave "Boo" Ferriss Field complex.

The Robert L. Crawford Center is the main entrance and exit point for all Statesmen baseball games at Ferriss Field. The facility features the "Dave 'Boo' Ferriss Museum," expanded rest room facilities, an umpire's locker room, concession areas and a merchandising stand.

The Crawford Center is the second building to open in the last three years for the Statesmen baseball program. In June of 2005, the J.A. "Bud" Thigpen, Jr. Baseball Annex was completed. The Crawford Center, Thigpen Annex and Dave "Boo" Ferriss Field combine to give the Statesmen the best facilities in all of NCAA Division II.

The facility was made possible by the generous donation of the John Crawford Family. John Crawford was a two-time All-American catcher for coach Ferriss at Delta State from 1977-78. He was drafted by the Detroit Tigers and spent a few years in their organization.

The facility is named in honor of his father, Robert L. Crawford. Mr. Crawford was a successful businessman and citizen of Houston, Miss.. His wife now resides in Saltillo and still stays in contact with coach Ferriss.

John Crawford is a successfull businessman in Starkville. His wife, Beth, is also a graduate of Delta State. They have three daughters.

"The Crawfords have been tremendous supporters of our program for years," said coach Ferriss. "They have supported us like few others, and I am excited this facility bears their name."

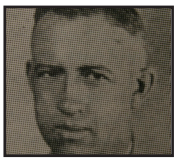

The "Ferriss Museum" features memorabilia from the life of DSU legend Dave "Boo" Ferriss, a Boston Red Sox Hall of Famer.

2004 GSC & NCAA NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Third time the charm for Statesmen!

By David Johnson

At 9:41 p.m., Saturday, May 29, 2004, in Montgomery, Alabama, the national championship trophy for college baseball finally found its way to a place that had been eagerly awaiting its arrival for the better part of 40 years. It carried with it the perspiration, aspirations, dreams, and desires of two generations of players and fans who knew deep in their hearts that someday - one day - it would be theirs.

A minute earlier, junior righthander Scott Ellison took a deep breath, squinted, and looked squarely in at catcher Craig Newton. Fate had placed the young pitcher from Houston, Mississippi, at center circle of perhaps the biggest moment in his school's rich and storied athletic history. And then it happened.

Ellison unleashed the 3-2 pitch to Grand Valley State designated hitter Matt Wright. Wright saw it coming right down the pipe. He clutched his bat and let loose a mighty swing. For a nano second, it was as if the air was sucked out of Paterson Field as nearly 2,500 people simultaneously held their collective breath. For just a hiccup the moment lay frozen, as Father Time, too, seemed to stop in recognition of the high tide of this carnival of dreams. Whiff. Thud. "Strike Three." Final score: Delta State 12, Grand Valley State 8. Cheers swelled and tears welled as the Statesmen rushed the field.

The customary celebration in the middle of the infield began with Newton, grinning ear-to-ear, taking Ellison down like a middle linebacker. Soon followed first baseman Bert Pickard, second baseman Clay Smith, shortstop Eric Patten, third baseman Mark Broome, center fielder Jud Thigpen, left fielder Will Waldkirch, right fielder Brett Donahoo and the rest of the Statesmen that with one swing of a bat had their names etched into eternity at their beloved university.

Then Mike Kinnison took us all by surprise. In a move that could rival the classiest moments ever in any sport, there was hardly a dry eye remaining when it became apparent what the destination of Kinnison's sudden and purposeful jolt from the throng of celebrating players toward the dugout was.

In a swift motion, trophy in hand, Kinnison leaped atop the first base dugout and climbed over the railing separating the playing field and seats at Paterson Field.

Twenty rows up sat the patriarch of the family that Delta State baseball is - Dave "Boo" Ferriss. "Anybody that knows our program knows that Coach Ferriss is the guy who laid the foundation for this program and is responsible for the success that we've had." the humble Kinnison would later say at the post-game press conference. But he didn't need to say anything to anyone pulling for the Green and White. This beautiful moment was fully understood.

Kinnison made his way through the plethora of applauding Delta State fans to where his mentor of many years waited. Together holding the national championship trophy, the two embraced as tears streamed down each of their cheeks. It was as perfect of a moment to be found in the annals of Delta State history.

The celebration continued at Paterson Field as the vocals of country music singer Alan Jackson rang out with the familiar lyrics of the hauntingly appropriate "Midnight in Montgomery" over the stadium's public address system. Only now, the hands of Father Time stood frozen at 9:41 p.m., and finally, after eight previous trips to the ball of baseball, midnight would not come for the Statesmen.

The team that had always been the champions of our hearts, was finally the nation's champion.

CAREER NOTES/MILESTONES:

- An already remarkable career on the diamond added another chapter on Monday, Nov. 12, 2018 as Delta State University President William N. LaForge tapped Statesman baseball head coach Mike Kinnison to lead the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. Kinnison, the sixth director of athletics in the school's history, replaces Ronnie Mayers, who is retiring on Dec. 31 after 42 years of service to the Statesmen and Lady Statesmen.
- Mike Kinnison compolete 23 seasons as head coach of one of the most storied programs in collegiate baseball. In taking over the program in 1997, Kinnison was following in the shadow of Coach Dave "Boo" Ferriss and Bill Marchant. However, Kinnison has casted a mighty shadow himself.
- Since 1997, Kinnison has accomplished an unbelievable career record of 981-313-2 (.758), averaging 42.4 wins per season. His all-time career record, including high school, is an astounding 1,271-396-2 (.768).
- 900 Wins: Kinnison captured his 900th career victory with a 3-2 win over Ouachita Baptist University on Feb. 9, 2018 at in Arkadelphia, Ark.
- 800 Wins: Kinnison captured his 800th career victory with a 20-0 win over Christian Brothers University on April 8, 2015 at in Memphis, Tenn.
- 700 Wins: His 700th career victory also punched DSU's ticket to the NCAA College World Series, as the Statesmen claimed a 10-7 win over Stillman College on May 21, 2012 in Tampa, Fla.
- 500 Wins: Kinnison collected his 500th career win at DSU in a 19-2 route of Arkansas Tech on April 22, 2007 at Tech Field in Russellville, Ark.
- Guided the Statesmen to the 2004 NCAA Division II National Championship with a 13-8 victory over Grand Valley State at Patterson Field in Montgomery.
- Inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame (2011) and Delta State Athletics Hall of Fame
- Led the Statesmen to a national runner-up finish in the 2012 NCAA College World Series in Cary, N.C.
- On March 20, 2011, Coach Kinnison tied his former coach and mentor Dave "Boo" Ferriss for the school's career wins mark at 639.
- Kinnison has guided the Statesmen to eight Gulf South Conference championships in 2019, 2017, 2016, 2012, 2008, 2004, 2003, 2000. He also led DSU to 11 GSC West Division titles when the league was split into divisions (1997-2009).

PROFESSIONAL NOTES

- The Statesmen boast more professional players, drafted and free agents, than any other program in the Gulf South Conference. Currently, five Statesmen are on active major or minor league rosters.
- Eli Whiteside became the first player in Delta State University history to win two MLB World Series Championships with the San Francisco Giants (2010 | 2012). Barry Lyons, a back-up catcher for New York, became the first Statesmen to win a World Series title with the New York Mets in 1986.
- Joe DiFabio became the first player ever drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals with the 20th overall pick in the 1965 MLB Draft, the first year professional baseball hosted an amatuer player draft.

NATIONAL PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

ZACK SHANNON • 2017 | 2018 RAWLINGS/ABCA NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

There is no denying that the Statesmen of Delta State University boast one of the strongest legacies in all of collegiate baseball. That legacy comes from a team-first mentality. However, four individuals have garnered the highest honor a player can receive — National Player of the Year. Bubba Dixon, pictured top right, was the first player in DSU history to be named a National Player/Pitcher of the Year. The Lucedale native went 16-3 with an ERA of 1.93 during the 1994 season. In 19 starts, he allowed just 93 hits and 43 runs in 144.1 innings pitched. Dixon went on to pitch in the San Diego Padres organization.

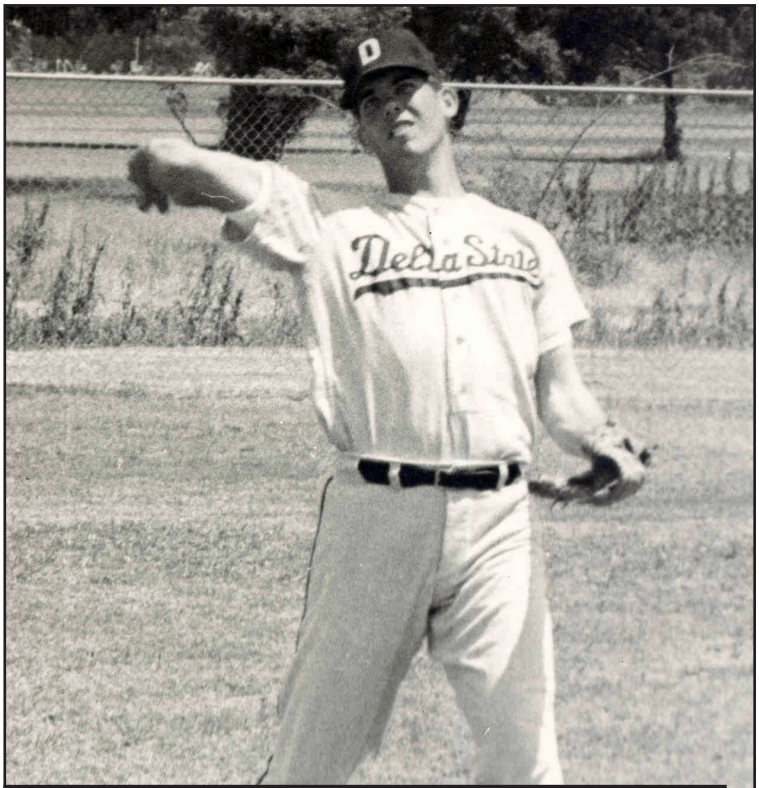

Dave Townsend, pictured second at right, became the second Statesman to claim National Pitcher and Player of the Year honors when he received the Dick Houser Award following the 1996 season. Townsend went 16-1 with an ERA of 2.33 in 20 starts. He made 22 appearances allowing 94 hits and 41 runs in 123.2 innings pitched.

Dee Haynes, pictured third at right, became the first Statesman position player to be named the American Baseball Coaches Association/Rawlings NCAA Division II National Player of the Year in 2000. The Columbus native batted .381 with 22 home runs and 87 RBI during the 2000 season. Haynes holds virtually every school offensive record. The two-time First Team ABCA All-American holds records for batting average (.405), RBI (253), home runs (69), doubles (59) and total bases (537).

Jud Thigpen took home the ABCA/Rawlings National Player of the Year Award in 2004. The Cleveland native guided the Statesmen to their first ever NCAA National championship en route to receiving the award. Thigpen batted .429 with 14 home runs and 80 RBI in 2004. In 65 starts in center field, Thigpen did not commit an error. The senior set a new school record for hits in a season with 112. Thigpen closed his career at DSU ranking in the Top 10 in virtually every statistical category. The Bayou Academy product signed as an undrafted free agent by the Colorado Rockies. As a rookie in the Northwest League, Thigpen made the most of the opportunity. He was named to the Northwest League All-Star team for his efforts. Thigpen also received the Redline Defensive Outfielder Award. In his last two seasons, Thigpen played 129 games without making an error.

Zack Shannon is the most recent Statesmen to take home the ABCA/Rawlings National Player of the Year Award in 2017. Shannon helped the Statesmen the GSC title and NCAA Regional titles and a to the NCAA Division II College World Series appearance. The Cincinnati, Ohio, native paced the GSC in batting average (.434), RBIs (88), RBIs per game (1.5), hits (95), home runs (19), total bases (166), slugging percentage (.758) and on base percentage (.498). Shannon led the nation in RBIs and ranked fourth in the NCAA in batting average, ninth in home runs, third in total bases, and eighth in slugging percentage. His 2017 accolades included: The Tino Martinez Award, GSC Player of the Year, NCBWA and D2CCA National Player of the Year and First-Team All-American, NCBWA, ABCA, and D2CCA South Region Player of the Year, First-Team All-GSC and NCBWA, ABCA, and D2CCA First-Team All-South Region.

RAWLINGS ABCA /CCA/NCBWA ALL-AMERICANS

JIM WHITEHURST • BECAME DSU'S FIRST ALL-AMERICAN IN 1968

Statesmen Baseball has produced more Rawlings/American Baseball Coached Association all-Americans than any other program in the Gulf South Conference. Over the last 40 years, Delta State University has placed 84 Statesmen on one of the three all-American teams recognized by the ABCA.

Jim Whitehurst, pictured above, became the first Statesmen in school history recognized by the ABCA as all-American in 1968. Whitehurst was a standout outfielder for coach Don Ward's club that advanced to the College World Series in Springfield, Mo. for the first time in school history.

To be eligible for the Rawlings/ABCA all-American, a player or pitcher must have received first team all-region status. Once named to the all-region team, a committee comprised of coaches from around NCAA Division II meet at the site of the College World Series to discuss and vote on that year's team. The Player and Pitcher of the Year in each region are guaranteed a spot on one of ABCA's all-American teams.

ACADEMIC FOUNDATION

Academics play a major role in the foundation of Delta State University Baseball. Since the program's inception, Statesmen baseball players have understood the importance academic success plays in their development as young men. Since the College Sports Information Directors Association began the Academic All-American program in 1970, Delta State has placed 27 Statesmen on one of the three teams, the only NCAA Division II school ranked in the all-time top 10.
