Alyse Hasty, a 5-foot-10 outfielder from St. Louis, Mo., became the first Lady Statesman in history named to the National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-American Team. The former four-time All-GSC selection and two-time West Division Player of the Year received the honor in 2006 following one of the greatest single seasons in school history. Hasty batted .417 with 17 doubles, 18 home runs and 65 RBIs. She also stole 59 bases.

Brittany Tillery, a 5-foot-8 outfielder from Starkville, Miss., wrapped up her career in 2009 as one of the all-time greats at DSU. The two-time NFCA All-Region pick finished her four years ranked third in career batting average (.358), second in hits (233), seventh in RBIs (107), fifth in home runs (17), second in runs scored (172) and third in stolen bases (96). She holds the record for games played with 241.
