PARKER FIELD @ McCOOL STADIUM

- ▶ One of the Gulf South Conference's oldest and most historic venues, Travis E. Parker Field at Horace L. McCool Stadium has served as the home of the Statesmen since it opened in 1970. Delta State has enjoyed tremendous success at Parker-McCool under its last four coaches, posting an impressive 83-31 record.
- ▶ Formerly known as Delta Field and Travis E. Parker Field, the 8,500 seat stadium was completed in time for the 1970 season. In 1984, the field was renamed to honor former Mississippi Institutions of Higher Learning Board of Trustees member, Travis E. Parker, a tireless supporter of Delta State University and the Delta area communities.
- ▶ In 2007, DSU honored long-time coach and administrator Horace McCool by naming the stadium in his honor. McCool was 76-48-3 in 14 seasons as head coach of the Statesmen and was instrumental in running the Department of Athletics as Director of Athletics. During his time as AD, McCool helped revive Lady Statesmen basketball, which blossomed into a national power under the legendary Margaret Wade.
- ▶ The current facility replaced the "old" Delta Field, which is located between Sillers Coliseum and the Hugh Ellis Walker Alumni-Foundation House on the Delta State campus. The Statesmen have enjoyed a 247-125-15 mark at home.
- ▶ The two-level press facility includes booths for radio, film, coaches, and working press, as well as to a snack kitchen and restroom. The press box is completely enclosed, with the exception of the second-level film deck, and is climate controlled for year-round comfort and convenience.
- ▶ Parker-McCool has gone through several recent renovations, including the installation of artificial turf in the summer of 2014, a press box revitalization project in May of 2013, and the addition of a new scoreboard/video board in the fall of 2008. Past additions have included the chairback seats in 1993 and the creation of a picnic area in the southwest corner of Parker Field in 2001.
- ▶ In the summer of 2014, Delta State began construction on a new visitor's concession stand and bathroom on the southeast corner of Parker-McCool.
- ▶ In his first season as head coach of the Statesmen, coach Todd Cooley led Delta State to a perfect 4-0 record at Parker-McCool. The Nashville, Arkansas native is the first head coach since Ron Roberts to go undefeated at home in his first season at DSU.
- ▶ Delta State has an 8-2 (.800) record in NCAA Division II postseason play.
- ▶ The Statesmen went 2-0 at Parker-McCool in the 2000 NCAA playoffs en route to the national championship. DSU defeated Valdosta State (49-12) and North Dakota State (34-16) at home with road wins over Catawba (20-14) and Bloomsburg (63-34) in the NCAA title game.
- ▶ Trevar Deed set a DSU postseason record with 16 receptions for 203 yards and four touchdowns in a 55-34 loss to North Alabama in the second round of the 2008 NCAA Division II playoffs at Parker-McCool.
- ▶ In DSU's 45-7 victory over Shaw University in the first round of the 2007 NCAA playoffs, senior linebacker and Harlon Hill finalist Michael Eubanks set a new NCAA DII single-game sack record with five versus the Hawks.

HORACE MCCOOL

W-L: 76-48-3

McCool is the winningest coach in the history of Delta State football. His winning ways had longevity to them as well - McCool is one of only two coaches in the history of the program to have a tenure of greater than ten years. DSU honored McCool by naming the stadium in honor of coach McCool. Travis Parker Field at Horace McCool Stadium was renamed on October 6, 2007.

RON ROBERTS
W-L: 47-16

Ron Roberts became the 17th head coach in DSU football history in April of 2007 after serving as defensive coordinator in 2006. In his first season at the helm, DSU claimed its third GSC championship and its first out-right. DSU advanced to the second round of the NCAA playoffs as well. In 2008, the Statesmen repeated the feat, claiming the GSC title and advancing to the NCAA Division II Quarterfinals. In 2010, Roberts guided the Statesmen to their third GSC title in four seasons and finished national runner-up after falling 20-17 in the NCAA DII Championship to UM-Duluth. In five seasons, Roberts has compiled a 36-13 record.

GULF SOUTH CONFERENCE COACH OF THE YEAR

2014	Todd Cooley
2013	Todd Cooley
2008	Ron Roberts
2007	Ron Roberts
1998	Todd Knight

AFCA NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

2014	Joel Williams (Asst. Coach of the Year)
2000	Steve Campbell

▶ ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER: During the five-year tenure of Ron Roberts, the Delta State University football program experienced new heights of success on the gridiron. From 2007-2011, the Visalia, Calif., native, led the Statesmen to four Gulf South Conference championships, four appearances in the NCAA Division II playoffs, a 2010 NCAA national runner-up finish, and back-to-back Super Region II titles in 2010 and 2011. His 47-17 record ranks third on the school's career wins list, while his .746 winning percentage trails only that of Steve Campbell (27-8/.771).

▶ CAMPBELL NAMED AFCA NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR: After leading the Statesmen to a 14-1 record and a 63-36 victory over Bloomsburg to capture the NCAA Division II National Championship, Steve Campbell was named American Football Coaches Association National Coach of the Year.

▶ COOLEY NABS GSC COACH OF THE YEAR: Delta State head coach Todd Cooley accomplished something no other coach in DSU history has done, winning Gulf South Conference Coach of the Year honors in each of his first two seasons. The Nashville, Ark., native guided the Statesmen to a 7-3 finish in 2013 and a 9-2 mark in 2014, including a berth in the NCAA Division II playoffs.

GULF SOUTH CONFERENCE HONORS

FLORENCE, Ala. - Many former Delta State University greats have been honored as finalists for the prestigious Harlon Hill Trophy. First awarded in 1986, the Harlon Hill Trophy is awarded annually to the nation's best NCAA Division II football player. Nominating and voting on these players is conducted through the sports information departments at the 156 NCAA Division II football playing institutions.

Named after the late Harlon Hill, a talented wide receiver for then Florence State Teacher's College (now the University of North Alabama) and the NFL's Chicago Bears, the trophy was designed and built by Herff Jones, Inc. which is also responsible for the design of the Heisman Trophy and the Congressional Medal of Honor.

In 2014, Tyler Sullivan finished ninth in voting for the Harlon Hill Trophy after leading the Statesmen to a 9-2 record and a share of the Gulf South Conference title. DSU received the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Super Region II Playoff, before falling to West Georgia in the second round.

Micah Davis was only the second Statesmen to be apart of the final three. Davis made national attention after leading Delta State to a national runner-up finish in 2010.

He followed that campaign up with another tremendous year on the field, leading the Statesmen to the No.1 ranking in the polls after putting together a 97-yard drive to tie the game in regulation before leading the winning drive in overtime to defeat No.1 North Alabama. Davis and the Statesmen earned a No.1 seed in the region and advanced to the NCAA Semifinals before falling to the eventual National Champion, Pittsburg State.

In 2007, Delta State University All-American linebacker Michael Eubanks became just the second defensive player in the trophy's 21-year history to be named one of the top three finalists for the coveted award. UNA's Ronald McKinnon, a Harlon Hill Trophy winner, is the only other defensive player to earn the honor.

Eubanks, a Cleveland native and 2007 graduate, concluded his senior season with 90 tackles, 27 tackles-for-loss, and 12 sacks. His sacks and TFLs led the GSC and ranked among the nation's top five. He set the new NCAA Division II career sack record November 17, 2007 versus Shaw University in the first round of the NCAA playoffs. The speedy outside linebacker recorded a school and conference record five sacks that day to eclipse the old mark.

In 2005 and 2006, Delta State's Scott Eyster, the all-time leading passer in school and GSC history, was named one of the top eight finalists, but fell just short of a top three invite. In 1996, Tregnel Thomas was a national finalist, but he too fell just short.

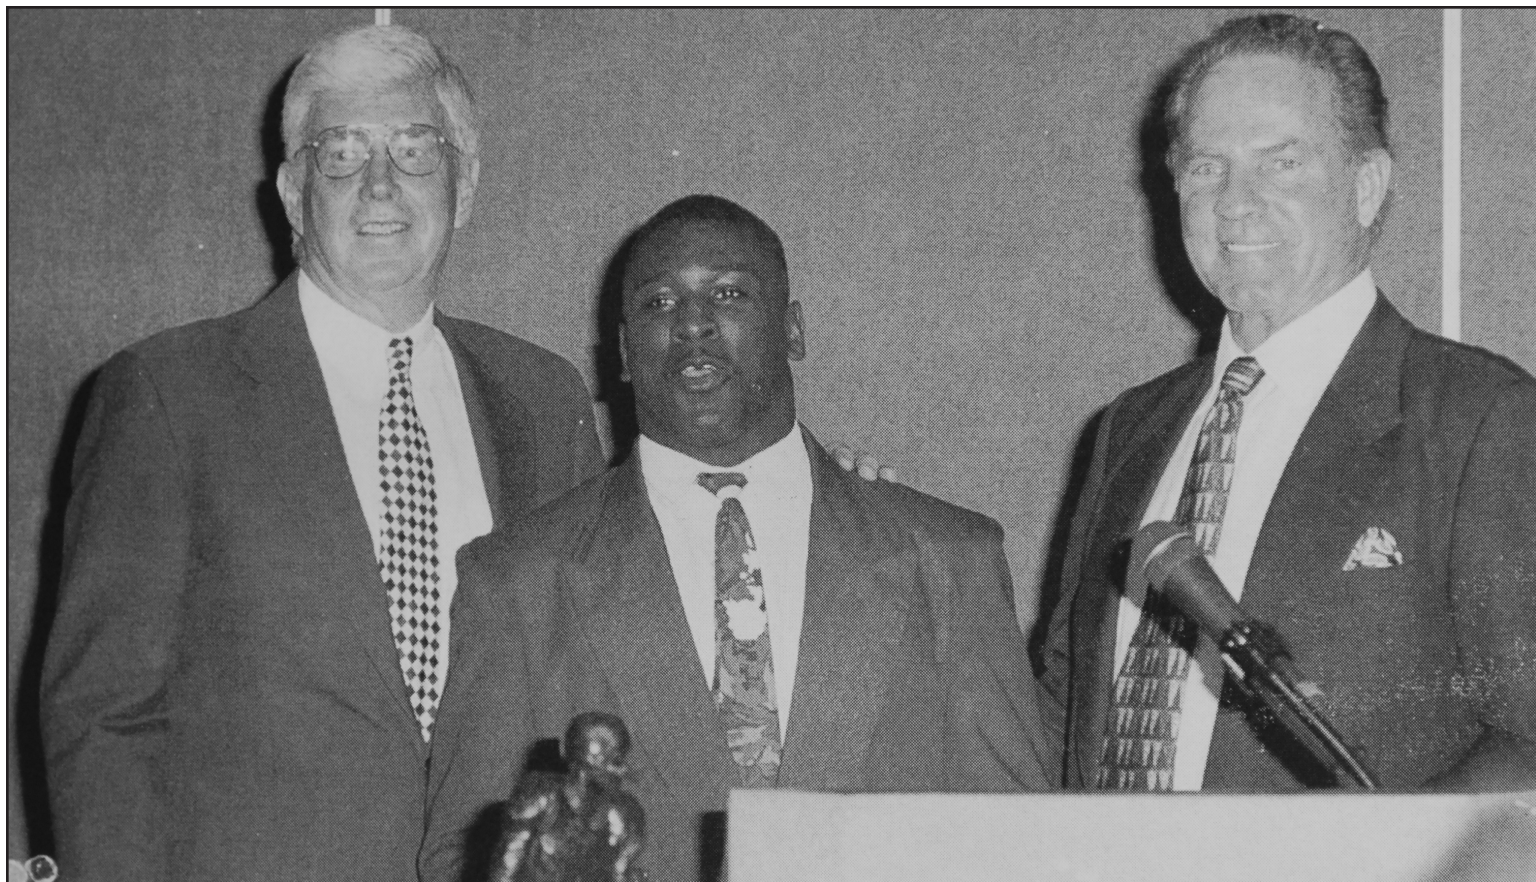

In 2004, All-American wide receiver Ellis Debrow and in 2000 quarterback Josh Bright drew national attention, but they were not a finalist.

HARLON HILL TROPHY FINALISTS

Founded and organized exclusively by the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum since 1996, the CellularSouth Conerly Trophy is awarded annually to Mississippi's top college football player as determined by a panel of 60 media voters representing radio, television and print outlets in small, medium and large sized markets across the state.

The award, named after the late Charlie Conerly, is an original bronze sculpture sculpted by the late Bruce Brady, a nationally acclaimed artist from Brookhaven, MS. The original Conerly Trophy is on permanent display at the Museum. The Conerly Trophy recipient is presented an exact replica that is a lost wax casting thrown at a foundry in Texas.

The Conerly Trophy is presented at a banquet held following the final regular season game. Past banquet sites are Jackson, Clarksdale and Tunica. The three finalists are present at the dinner with the winner announced at that time.

Former Delta State great Tregnel Thomas, a 5-foot-7 running back from Pascagoula, became the first Conerly Trophy winner in the award's history in 1996. Thomas blistered Gulf South Conference and NCAA opponents for 1,604 yards rushing and 11 touchdowns.

Josh Bright repeated the feat in 2000 after leading the Statesmen to the NCAA Division II National Championship. Bright, a 6-foot-5 quarterback from Batesville, rushed for 1,495 yards and passed for 1,292 yards. He also rushed for a school-record 21 touchdowns.

Scott Eyster, a 6-foot-3 quarterback from Hammond, La., became the first four-time finalist in Conerly Trophy history in 2006. The record-setting quarterback finished his career as the all-time leading passer in Delta State and Gulf South Conference history, while establishing a new record for career total offense. He ranks second all-time in NCAA history in career passing yards and career total offense. Eyster was a finalist in 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006. No other player in Mississippi history has even been named a finalist three times. He concluded his career at DSU with 13,889 yards passing and 116 touchdown passes. He holds every major career and season passing mark in Delta State history.

Micah Davis made back-to-back trips to the Conerly Trophy presentation in 2010 and 2011, when he was named among the final three.

STATESMEN IN THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Delta State University has placed nine players into the National Football League since the 1957 season. Former All-American Aubrey Rozzell became the first Statesman to play in the NFL after signing as an undrafted free agent in 1957 with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Rozzell's career was cut short due to injury and the talented linebacker embarked on a successful coaching career.

Jack Gregory, a standout on the football and track-and field teams, holds the distinction of being Delta State's most accomplished professional. During his 12 year career, Gregory was named to the Pro Bowl twice with the New York Giants (1972, 1975). In 1972, the Okalona, Mississippi, native was runner-up for Defensive Player of the Year after leading the NFL in sacks. Gregory was inducted into the DSU Sports Hall of Fame in 1984 and a 2000 inductee into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame.

Wide receiver Aubrey Matthews spent 11 seasons in the NFL with Atlanta, Green Bay and Detroit. The Moss Point, Mississippi, native recorded 160 receptions for 2,112 yards and nine touchdowns in his career. His best season came in 1987 with Atlanta, catching 32 passes for 537 yards and three touchdowns. He helped lead Detroit to the playoffs four times, including the 1994 campaign where he caught 29 passes for 359 yards and three touchdowns.

Anthony Maddox spent four seasons in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars and Houston Texans. The 2002 NCAA Division II National Defensive Player of the Year was a fourth round draft pick by the Jaguars.
