WHAT OUR HATS REPRESENT

Delta State wears a solid green hat and a white and green hat with the Old English D which started during the Coach Bill Marchant era that spanned eight seasons. The black hat/green bill with a blocked D was worn during the Coach Ferriss era that spanned two stints over 26 years.

OFFICIAL NICKNAME

Delta State has one official and one unofficial mascot. Since its inception, Delta State's athletic teams have officially been known as the STATESMEN and LADY STATESMEN because of the role State Rep. Walter Sillers, Jr. played in the location of the school in Cleveland. Sillers was speaker of the Mississippi House of Representatives for 20 years. DSU Athletics requests for fans and media to refer to us as Statesmen and Lady Statesmen officially.

However, since the late 1980s, the student body has embraced a mascot that depicts a piece of okra wearing boxing gloves and brandishing a fierce expression. [12] The "Fighting Okra" grew out of humor among students about the improbability that anyone would find a "Statesman" particularly frightening. In the mid-1990s, a student vote was taken, resulting in the university taking on "The Fighting Okra" as an UNOFFICIAL mascot. The "Fighting Okra" was featured in the "Okraphobia" episode of the Food Network show Good Eats.

The popularity of "The Fighting Okra" grew so much that many myths started on how the mascot came to be, the most popular of these stating there was a stubborn okra plant at first base on the baseball field that grew back every time it was cut. The true origin of the fighting okra mascot was a discussion between basketball and baseball players in the "Court of Governors" dormitory. The Statesman mascot was temporarily prohibited from participating in athletic activities after a physical altercation with the Mississippi College's Choctaw mascot at a basketball game. Basketball player Houston Williamson was lamenting the fact that "Fighting Statesmen" was not particularly frightening to their opponents. All present agreed that an alternative mascot would have to be mean and green. After a lively discussion and many suggestions, baseball pitcher Bob Black suggested that okra was green, fuzzy, and tough. The DSU baseball team began using the chant "Okra! Okra! Okra! Okra!" at DSU basketball games.

➔ GSC PRESEASON COACHES POLL: The Diamond Statesmen are picked to finish second in the conference according to the GSC Preseason Coaches Poll. Cummins transfers to DSU after two seasons at Pearl River Community College in Poplarville, Miss. He batted .293 with five doubles and six home runs and drove in 26 runs in 45 games played in 2021. RODNEY BATTS

HEAD COACH | 3rd SEASON | COLUMBUS, MISS. | DELTA STATE 1998 & 2000

THE BATTS FILE:

- ▶ Rodney Glenn Batts
- ▶ Born Oct. 13, 1973
- ▶ Columbus, Miss.
- ▶ Delta State B.S. '98 | HPER
- ▶ Delta State Masters in HPER | 2000
- ▶ All-American Shortstop

Rodney Batts is in his third season at the helm of the Delta State University baseball program and his 15th season overall. Batts has a 53-35 mark as the Statesmen skipper and is 191-127 for his career.

In his second season, Batts led the Statesmen to a 28-20 record and a 21-14 mark in GSC play, guiding the Statesmen to a runner-up finish in the GSC Tournament and a berth in the NCAA South Regional in Pensacola, Fla.

The Columbus, Miss., native was officially introduced as Delta State's 10th head baseball coach by Director of Athletics and coaching mentor Mike Kinnison on Tuesday, July 2, 2019.

Batts, who is just the third head baseball coach in the last 57 years, joins a distinguished list of former Statesmen who were given the opportunity to lead the program, including Don Ward, Bill Marchant, and Mike Kinnison, who Batts is replacing in the dugout. All three previous alumni head coaches led the program to at least one appearance in the NCAA College World Series.

Batts returns to his alma mater after five seasons as the head coach at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College. During his five seasons in Perkinston, Miss., the Bulldogs won 119 games, including 75 in the last two seasons, and made back-to-back appearances in the NJCAA Region 23 Tournament in 2018 and 2019. In 2019, MGCC went 29-18 on the diamond, including a 16-12 record in MACJC play. The Bulldogs swept Meridian Community College 10-8 and 10-8 to advance to the Region 23 Tournament.

Batts, a former All-GSC second baseman, played for the Statesmen under Bill Marchant from 1995-1996. He hit .334 with 24 doubles, eight triples, 10 home runs, 86 RBIs and 39 stolen bases during his DSU career.

Batts etched his name in the Statesmen history books when he hit one of the most dramatic home runs in Delta State and Gulf South Conference history - a three-run home run with two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning to defeat Alabama-Huntsville and deliver DSU the 1996 GSC championship. The Statesmen went on to win the NCAA South Central Regional and finish fourth at the NCAA Division II Baseball Championship Tournament in Montgomery, Ala.

After being drafted in the 22nd round by Philadelphia and spending two years in the Phillies organization, the Columbus, Miss., native returned to the Statesmen as a graduate assistant coach in 1999.

In 2001, Kinnison named Batts a full-time assistant coach and for the next 13 seasons helped guide the Statesmen to a remarkable 583-171-2 record while capturing four GSC titles and the 2004 NCAA Division II National Championship. The Statesmen made nine NCAA postseason appearances during his time as an assistant, including five trips to the College World Series.

Fifteen Statesmen were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft from 2001-2014, including 6th round selections Eli Whiteside (2001 | Orioles) and Brent Leach (2005 | Dodgers), and 11th round selections Dusty Hughes (2003 | Royals) and Brett Durand (2007 | Marlins).

Batts graduated from Delta State in 1998 with a degree in Health, Physical Education and Recreation and later earned a master's degree in HPER in 2000.

He is married to former Lady Statesmen basketball standout Scottie (Moore) Batts of Senatobia, Miss. The couple has two sons, Austin and Reid.

THE FERRISS LEGACY

Dave “Boo” Ferriss, a member of the Boston Red Sox and Mississippi Sports Halls of Fame, is the patriarch of the Statesmen baseball program. During his 26 years as head coach, Ferriss established a lasting legacy of success on the field, in the classroom, and within the community.

The Shaw, Mississippi, native spent 46 years in baseball on the collegiate and professional levels, including 26 seasons at Delta State. A legend in national collegiate baseball coaching circles, Ferriss was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1988 after compiling a 639-387-8 record at Delta State. At the time, his coaching record ranked among the all-time national leaders at the NCAA Division II level for victories.

When Ferriss took over the baseball program in 1960, he literally had to begin in the dirt. The Statesmen played many of their games off campus due to a lack of a quality facility and Ferriss coached without the benefit of an assistant. Over the next three decades, Ferriss turned the meager program into a national power – directing the Statesmen to the NCAA Division II playoffs in eight of his last 12 years, including three trips to the NCAA Division II championships, where they finished third, second and third, respectively in 1977, 1978 and 1982.

Gulf South Conference championships came in 1978, 1979, 1985 and 1988, with the Statesmen finishing second in 1981 and third in 1982. Forty-nine of his players earned All-Gulf South Conference honors and academics were always at the forefront of his teaching style, as 95% of his players went on to earn their degrees.
