ON TAP: Following Friday's 1-0 victory over Fairleigh Dickinson, Boston University (12-5-3) will look to earn its second win of the 2008 NCAA tournament when it visits the No. 3 national seed St. John's (16-2-3) on Tuesday (Nov. 25) for a 5 p.m. start time. Currently riding a 10-game unbeaten streak, the Terriers have not been on the road since defeating UMBC, 1-0, on Oct. 25.

Nov. 25) for a 5 p.m. start time. Currently riding a 10-game unbeaten streak, the Terriers have not been on the road since defeating UMBC, 1-0, on Oct. 25.

SERIES HISTORY: The second-round NCAA matchup represents the fifth meeting between the two teams in a series that is tied, 2-2, after the Red Storm defeated BU, 1-0, at home back on Friday, Sept. 12, when Ale Ivo knocked in a free kick from Tadeau Terra at 73:15. In 2004, the Red Storm defeated the Terriers in the second round of the NCAA's, 3-1, after BU advanced past Dartmouth in the first round. Before that contest, the Terriers last defeated SJU, 2-1, in the first round of the 1993 NCAA's in Queens, N.Y. The first game occurred in 1980, which BU won, 2-0.

REPEAT SESSION: The meeting between BU and St. John's (16-2-3) marks the second consecutive season that the Terriers have faced a non-conference opponent two times in the same year. In 2007, 24th-year head coach Neil Roberts and his squad traveled to UMass for the first round of the NCAA's after earlier in the year visiting the Minutemen's campus. In the 2008 America East tournament, BU defeated Vermont and Binghamton for the second time this year.

OH TO THE RESCUE: During the regular season, the Terriers' offense relied on junior Shaun Taylor, as he scored nine goals and added two assists to help lead them to the America East regular season title. Since the start of the postseason though, senior Jin Oh has been the sparkplug, first recording a goal against Vermont and Binghamton to earn AE tournament most outstanding player honors. He then followed those two performances by scoring the game's lone goal against Fairleigh Dickinson off an assist from Matthew Shea.

SCOUTING THE TERRIERS: Entering the NCAA's ranked 55th in scoring with a 1.63 goals per average, the Terriers have outscored opponents, 16-3, in the past 10 games. A total of 10 players have at least recorded two goals during the year with another posting one of his own. Junior Tom Strackhouse and Oh are second on the team with four goals. Michael Bustamante is currently 11th in the NCAA for assists per game (0.53) after posting his ninth of the season against Vermont in the AE semifinals. Aaron O'Neal is third on the team in points with six assists and two goals.

Anchored by first-team all-conference back Dan Schultz, the BU defense entered the NCAA's ranked 28th in the nation with a 0.47 shutout percentage and 32nd with a 0.81 goals against average. Senior keeper Hrafn Davidsson has earned eight solo shutouts, including one against then-No. 3 Connecticut, and two combined with junior Joe Cullaro. Following his second shutout of the postseason, Davidsson currently holds a .781 save percentage and 0.80 goals against average (GAA).

SCOUTING THE RED STORM: The 1996 NCAA champion suffered just their second loss of the year in the Big East tournament championship when St. John's dropped a 1-0 overtime decision to South Florida. SJU started the year 8-0-2 with wins over BU, Virginia, Connecticut and Brown before losing to Louisville, 2-1, in a road conference game. The team then went 8-0-1 prior to its defeat to the Bulls on Sunday, Nov. 16 in Tampa, Fla. 18th-year head coach Dr. Dave Matur and the Storm have not dropped a home game since losing to DePaul, 1-0, back on Oct. 27, 2007.

The not-so-secret key to SJU's success this year has been the play of its defense, led by Big East Defender of the Year Joel Gustafsson and goalie Neal Kitson, who earned all-conference third-team honors. They helped the team tie a school-record 15 shutouts and post the nation's top GAA at 0.36. Kitson also leads the NCAA with a 0.920 save percentage. Louisville is the only team to have recorded two goals against the team this season.

Offensively, the Red Storm is ranked 73rd in scoring at 1.52 goals per game, but the number can be deceiving as the No. 2 team according to the latest RPI poll has participated in a conference this year that features 15 teams in the top-100 in GAA and five in the top-15. Nelson Becerra leads the team in points with 18 off seven goals and four assists.

UP NEXT: The winner of Tuesday evening's game will advance to the round of 16 and face off against the winner of Cal Poly/UC Irvine on Saturday (Nov. 29) or Sunday (Nov. 30) in a location that will be determined following the conclusion of both games.

BU CAPTURES THREE LEAGUE AWARDS: The 2008 America East regular-season champion was honored with three major annual awards, which were determined in a vote by the league's head coaches. Freshman Michael Bustamante was named Rookie and Midfielder of the Year, while head coach Neil Roberts and his staff were selected as the Coaching Staff of the Year. Additionally, BU received seven all-conference team accolades, more than any other team.

Bustamante, who earned America East Rookie of the Week honors on October 13, finished the regular season tied for third among league leaders with eight assists, including a league-best five in America East play. He earned the program's second-straight rookie of the year honor after Aaron O'Neal received the award in 2007.

Also a unanimous first-team all-conference honoree, Bustamante joins UMBC's Matt Watson, New Hampshire's Chris Banks and Vermont's Lee Stephane Kouadio as the only players to earn multiple accolades in the same season.

Roberts led BU to its ninth regular-season title during his tenure. Roberts, who also received Coach of the Year recognition in 1991, 1994, 2001, and 2004, is assisted by Scott Black, Francis Okaroh and Dan Colwell.

Senior back Dan Schultz joined Bustamante on the America East All-Conference First Team. Junior forward Shaun Taylor received a second-team selection along with junior midfielders Samuel Appiah and Richy Dorman. In addition, Bustamante and midfielder Colin Henry made the all-rookie team.

A FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING: Midfielders Jon Jonsson and Richy Dorman entered the year having already played a combined 57 games without a single goal. This season, both men have scored two goals with each of them recorded as the game-winner. Jonsson scored his first in a 4-2 win against Colgate and added his second in the regular-season finale against Hartford. Dorman posted one against New Hampshire and then another in the AE semifinal against Vermont to help BU advance to its first title game since 2004.

ACADEMIC STUD: The lone captain on the team, Dan Schultz has been a leader not only on the field but also in the classroom. An economics major, he recently received ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-America third-team honors. He became the first Terrier since Ola Olsen in 1994 to earn a national academic award. The senior was also named to the America East All-Academic squad.

POSTSEASON HISTORY: For more than two decades, the Boston University men's soccer program has annually demonstrated it ranks among the nation's more prominent teams.

As a direct result of its success, the program has enjoyed a rising level of recognition and respect. In 1994, after posting the nation's only unbeaten regular-season record (16-0-1), the Terriers were ranked number one in the final regular-season poll. The club advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament for the sixth time in program history.

Overall, Boston University has made 14 trips to the NCAA tournament. Under Head Coach Neil Roberts, the Terriers have made 13 appearances, including five straight from 1993 to 1997.

The club's rise in stature can be traced back to the latter half of the 1970s, when four-time leading scorer Mike Pilger and three-year starting goalie Howie Friedman led the club on a climb to the top of the regional ladder.

In 1977, the Terriers made their first appearance in the ECAC tournament, where they suffered a first-round loss to Oneonta State, 3-2. The following year, BU returned to the ECAC Championship, and defeated Army, 3-2, in overtime of the semifinals, before losing to Massachusetts by an identical 3-2 overtime score in the finals. Returning to the ECAC tournament in 1979, the Terriers culminated a season-ending 14-game unbeaten streak by defeating New Hampshire, 2-0, in the semifinals, and Oneonta State, 2-1, in overtime to claim their first ECAC title.

Having introduced itself as a regional contender the previous decade, BU began to acquaint itself with the national scene in the 1980s.

The 1980 campaign marked the first time in the 32-year history of the sport at Boston University that the Terriers received a bid to the NCAA tournament. After suffering a humbling 6-0 loss at the hands of national-power Connecticut in their NCAA debut, the Terriers gained an opportunity for vindication in 1985.

Under the guidance of first-year head coach Neil Roberts, Boston University overcame a 4-14-2 campaign in 1984, to post a stellar 14-4-1 slate in 1985. Included in the victories was a 2-1 overtime win over UConn, as the Terriers won the New England Championship in the opening round of the NCAA tournament. Then, in the second round, they were eliminated by Hartwick, 1-0, in a penalty kick shootout.

In many respects, the 1985 season marked a transition for BU soccer. No longer just a regional contender, the Terriers returned to the NCAA tournament the following year, and have made 10 additional appearances since then.
