Overall, Boston University has made 15 trips to the NCAA tournament. Under Head Coach Neil Roberts, the Terriers have made 14 appearances, including five straight from 1993 to 1997.

The club's rise in stature can be traced back to the latter half of the 1970s, when four-time leading scorer Mike Pilger and three-year starting goalie Howie Friedman led the club on a climb to the top of the regional ladder.

Mike Pilger

In 1977, the Terriers made their first appearance in the ECAC tournament, where they suffered a first-round loss to Oneonta State. The following year, BU defeated Army, 3-2, in overtime of the semifinals, before losing to Massachusetts by an identical 3-2 overtime score in the finals. Returning to the ECACs in 1979, the Terriers culminated a season-ending 14-game unbeaten streak by defeating New Hampshire, 2-0, in the semifinals, and Oneonta State, 2-1, in overtime to claim their first ECAC title.

Having introduced itself as a regional contender the previous decade, BU began to acquaint itself with the national scene in the 1980s.

The following is a closer look at the games, individuals and teams that have provided Boston University with a rich tradition of NCAA tournament memories.

1980

THE BEGINNINGS

The 1980 season marked Boston University soccer's first step into the national spotlight. Under the direction of head coach Ron Cervasio, the Terriers qualified for the NCAA tournament and completed the year with a 14-3-1 mark. Although they dropped a 6-0 decision in the opening round against Connecticut, the Terriers could still take pride in earning their first bid, which was gained in part by an eight-match mid-season winning streak that featured a victory over North Carolina State. Standouts on the squad included John Primiano, the Terriers' first All-American since 1971, and co-captain Paul Fisher, whose eight goals and two assists paced the offense.

1985

GREAT STRIDES

The 1985 Terriers won 14 contests and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals, although they were just one year removed from a disappointing 4-14-3 campaign. Neil Roberts, in his first season as head coach, guided the team to a school-record nine-match winning streak and put together a defense that posted 12 shutouts. The Terriers knocked Connecticut out of the NCAAs, registering a 2-1 win decided on penalty kicks. Eddie Tadlock scored in regulation for the victors, while Mike Emenalo, who led the team with 14 goals and six assists, won the game with his penalty-kick tally. In the quarterfinals, the Terriers were nipped by Hartwick, 1-0.

1986

WINNING BIG

In many ways, the 1986 season is remembered as the most successful in program history. The Terriers not only made their second-straight appearance in the NCAAs,

MIKE EMENALO

FRANCIS OKAROH

but also set a school record for wins by finishing 16-2-3. When they entered the tournament, they were ranked number one in New England and number five nationally, however, their tournament success of 1985 was not duplicated. Facing Harvard, the Terriers could not make a first-half goal by Ben Okaroh stand up and were felled by a 2-1 count. John Glynn, playing in his lone season with the club, was the scoring leader with 12 goals and one assist, while Francis Okaroh ranked second with 11 goals and two assists. Both Okaroh brothers were named to the All-America team. Other highlights from the year included a 10-0-2 start and goalkeeper John Moe's school-record 0.54 goals-against average.

1988

NEW ENGLAND'S FINEST

The Terriers worked their way to a 15-4-3 season and won the New England Chamampionship by defeating Connecticut, 3-1, in the first round of the tournament. Mike Bertos, who equalled a school record with 17 goals, put the Terriers on the board first, and Tim Horton and Jorge Zapata also tallied in a victory that sent the club to Indiana for a second-round contest. The Terriers were defeated by the eventual national champions, 3-1, in Bloomington. This was an offensive-minded club all season long, with the result being an unprecedented 53 goals in 22 matches. It was also a year that saw Mike Emenalo erase a 25-year-old mark and become the University's all-time scoring leader, ending his distinguished career with 36 goals and 32 assists.

1990

DEFENSE DOMINATES

The Terriers opened the new decade by earning their fifth NCAA tournament bid in the last 11 years. Led by goalkeepers Jeff Hooper and Brad Rubin and defensive anchors Jeff Schultz and Phil Dunn, the Terriers never allowed more than two goals in a game, and recorded seven shutouts. Offensively, Tim Horton, Emma Okonkwo and Christophe Verhaegen were the top goal scorers, while seven players registered 10 or more points. Tim Horton's magic gave the Terriers a first-round victory. The junior tallied three goals within 15 minutes in the second half to lead the Terriers to a miraculous 3-2 come-from-behind victory over Boston College in the Terriers' first-ever home NCAA tournament match. Traveling to meet top-ranked Evansville in the second round, BU battled the Purple Aces through 90 scoreless minutes, before the hosts scored the game-winner at 102:17.

1991

CLIMBING TO THE TOP

Firmly establishing itself as one of the nation's premier soccer programs, Boston University made its second-straight trip to the NCAA tournament and fifth in the past seven years. Fielding an experienced, senior-dominated lineup, which included starting goalie Brad Rubin, co-captains Phil Dunn and Jeff Schultz, defensive back Chris Brumbaugh, midfielders Dave Silke and Peter Verplancke and striker Tim Horton, the Terriers cruised to an overall mark of 15-5-1, a final New England ranking of number one and a national ranking of 11th. The Terriers drew Yale in the opening round, and took a quick 1-0 advantage on a goal by Emesih Okereke. Yale tied the affair shortly after the intermission, but Tim Horton put the Scarlet and White back in front midway through the second stanza. However, Yale scored a pair of goals within a span of 59 seconds to take the lead for good at 70:23.

1993

THE BIG UPSET

After capturing their first-ever North Atlantic Conference Tournament crown, the Terriers earned their seventh NCAA tournament appearance, where they proceeded to stun previously unbeaten St. John's (18-0-3) in the opening round. Trailing 1-0, Bjarte Skuseth, from Gisle Sørli, pulled the club even before Emesih Okereke put the Terriers ahead in the closing minutes of the half. Robert Forde turned aside three shots to preserve the win, and send the upstart Terriers to Oneonta, N.Y., for a second-round date with Hartwick. Boston University took a 1-0 lead on Chris Vincent's first-half goal, but the momentum turned moments before the half, when the Terriers received a red card and were forced to play the remainder of the contest shorthanded. The Warriors netted the equalizer five minutes following the break and, despite Forde's eight-save performance, Hartwick scored the game-winner in the 108th minute. Ola Olsen (5-8—18) and

TIM HORTON & EMESIH OKEREKE

Emesih Okereke (7-4—18) shared the leading scorer honors, while Forde tied a school record with 11 shutouts, and senior captain Steve Walker received All-America Second Team recognition.

1994

NUMBER ONE

The most successful season in the 45-year history of Boston University soccer, the 1994 campaign witnessed the Terriers advance to the NCAA tournament for the eighth time, register an overall mark of 19-1-1, and capture the number-one ranking in the final Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America national poll. After posting a 16-0-1 final regular-season mark, and standing as the nation's only undefeated team, the Terriers downed Maine and New Hampshire to capture their second consecutive NAC tournament crown. In the ensuing NCAA tournament, the club eliminated Harvard, 2-0, before falling to Brown, 3-2. Trailing 2-0 at the half, the Terriers staged a near-impossible second-half comeback while playing a man down, and tied the game in the 84th minute of play, but Brown regained the advantage in the 88th minute. The Terriers established seven team records, including marks for wins (19) and unbeaten streak (20), while senior goalie Robert Forde established the career shutout mark (31), and freshman Nick Bone equalled single-season marks for goals (18) and points (43). Forde and Ola Olsen received All-America recognition.

1995

BACK AGAIN

For the third straight year, and fourth time in the past five years, Boston University earned an invitation to the NCAA tournament. The bid served as a pleasant conclusion to an uncharacteristically inconsistent year. After opening the year in impressive fashion against stiff national competition at a pair of tournaments, the Terriers stumbled when confronted with regional opposition.

THE 1980 TERRIERS

1993 AMERICA EAST CHAMPIONS

However, the side played well in conference action, and secured its third consecutive league tournament championship. The NCAA tournament pitted the Terriers against Brown and, similar to the match in 1994, the club conceded a pair of early goals before rallying in the second half. Nick Bone pulled the club within 2-1, but BU was unable to net the equalizer.

1996

THE UNDERDOG

After securing the last spot in the four-team America East tournament on the final day of the regular-season, the Terriers quickly dispatched of Hartford and Northeastern to claim their fourth-straight conference championship. Advancing to the NCAA tournament for the sixth time in the past seven years, and 10th time in program history, the Terriers drew a Harvard team which was ranked among the top 10 nationally and entered the tournament sporting a 15-game unbeaten streak. However, it took the Terriers just 52 seconds to answer the challenge. Nick Bone scored his school-record 45th career goal off a Dean Smith feed on a corner kick to provide the Terriers with a 1-0 advantage. Just over 10 minutes later, Sigurd Dalen doubled the margin with an unassisted goal. The advantage held until midway through the second half, when Harvard netted a pair of goals in a span of 1:16 to pull even in the 72nd minute. With time winding down, the game appeared headed for overtime, before Harvard netted the game-winner in the 89th minute.

OLA OLSEN

1997

FIVE IN A ROW

The Terriers continued their string of America East tournament titles and NCAA tournament appearances. After finishing second in the league standings, BU eliminated Vermont in the semifinals and top-seeded Hofstra in the conference tournament title game en route to their fifth straight championship. In the NCAA play-in game, Christian Steen's header in the 88th minute of play provided the Terriers with a 1-0 win over Long Island. Keith Poole registered the shutout with two saves. The Terriers then journeyed to Dartmouth to take on a Big Green team they had tied, 1-1, in double overtime earlier in the year. The Terriers fell behind, 1-0, at the half. Dartmouth increased its lead to 3-0 with a pair of goals in less than five minutes (65:19 and 70:37) before the Terriers' Dean Smith scored on a free kick at the 71:37 mark to cut the deficit to 3-1. Dartmouth then scored at 83:05 and 87:26 to close out the scoring and end the Terriers' hopes of advancing to the second round.

2004

BACK TO THE TOP

After a six-year hiatus from the NCAA tournament, BU bounced back in a big way by moving on to the second round of the NAAs for the first time since 1994 and the sixth time in program history. Following a disappointing four-game losing streak to open the season, the Terriers went on to finish the regular season with a 9-7-1 record, having only been beaten three times in the final 13 games. From there, BU went into the America East tournament as the No. 1 seed and posted a 2-0 shutout over Stony Brook in the semifinals. In the conference championship game, the Terriers topped defending champion Binghamton by means of a penalty kick shootout to gain a bid in the NAAs. Drawing Dartmouth in the first round, BU played to a 2-2 tie through 110 minutes of play for the second time in its last two games, before beating the Big Green, 4-3, in the penalty kick shootout. From there, the Terriers traveled to Queens, N.Y., where they fell to St. John's, 3-1, in the second round.

2007

BY INVITATION ONLY

The Terriers earned their first at-large bid to the NCAA tournament since 1991. BU began the year 2-3-0 but finished out the regular season 4-0-3 to put up a 9-6-4 mark going into the national tournament. One key win among those nine was a 1-0 defeat of then-No. 10 Brown - BU's lone victory over a ranked team that year. It also marked the Bears' only blemish on their regular-season record. After falling in penalty kicks for the third straight year in the America East tournament, the Terriers regrouped to play in the first round of the NCAA tournament. BU faced UMass for the second time in 2007 - the Minutemen had claimed a 1-0 win in Amherst on September 29. Senior defender Derek Puerta scored BU's only goal in a 2-1 loss to UMass in the opening round. The Terriers had another opportunity with 42 seconds remaining but it bounced off the right post. The Minutemen went on to advance to the College Cup.

2008

STEAMROLLER

The Terriers started the season slow with a 0-3-1 record against four nationally ranked teams but found themselves motivated with the 0-0 draw against then-No. 3 Connecticut. They slowly built momentum with a 3-2-1 record in the next six games and then would take control of their season with a seven-game unbeaten streak to capture the regular season title. As the number one seed, BU won the league tournament at home with senior Jin Oh scoring the first goal against Vermont and then the game winner against Binghamton. The championship's most outstanding player continued his strong play in the first round of the NAAs at Nickerson by notching the lone goal with 40 seconds remaining in the first half to give BU a 1-0 shutout victory over Fairleigh Dickinson. Advancing to the second round for the seventh time overall, BU faced the difficult task of trying to upset No. 3 seed St. John's on the road. The squad held tough during the first 82 minutes and even led in shots, 5-2, at halftime. However, they could not withstand the Red Storm's 13 shot offensive barrage in the second half, as St. John's recorded a goal at 82:24 to walk away with the 1-0 victory. The loss snapped a 10-game unbeaten streak that included seven shutouts by goalie Hrafn Davidsson and also marked the second consecutive year that a College Cup participant eliminated the Terriers.

2015

BY INVITATION ONLY

Despite returning just three starters from 2014, the Terriers earned their second at-large NCAA bid over the previous eight years with the help of a 12-5-3 record and RPI ranking of 28 after just missing out on the NAAs in 2014 with a 12-4-4 record and #38 RPI. The NCAA appearance marked BU's first as a member of the Patriot League. It was also the first time since 2002 that the PL had a program earn an at-large bid. Owning a six-game unbeaten streak from Sept. 24-Oct. 24, the Terriers had several strong wins, including five top-65 RPI victories against American (#37), Harvard (#38), Albany (#53), Colgate (#59), UMass Lowell (#64) and Navy (#95). After coming up just one point shy of a second PL regular season title and suffering a PL semifinal loss to American, they entered the NCAA road game at American Athletic Conference runner-up UConn led by PL Goalkeeper of the Year Matt Gilbert, PL Defender of the Year David Asbjornsson and PL Rookie of the Year Magnus Benediktsson. All-PL First Team member Felix De Bona gave BU the early lead with a 30th minute goal, but the Huskies tied the game in the 54th minute before pulling away with goals in the 76th and 83rd minutes, respectively.

DEREK PUERTA

2023

TERRIER SWEEP

For the first time since joining the Patriot League in the summer of 2013, the Terriers swept the regular season and tournament titles. They went 7-1-1 in conference play to earn the top seed and hosting rights for the first time since 2014 and then claimed back-to-back shutouts to hoist their first PL tournament trophy. BU started the season with a 2-1 home win over UAlbany and would go on to finish unbeaten at Nickerson Field, 8-0-2, for the first time since 1994 (10-0-1). The Terriers ended the season ranked in the top 100 in 11 different NCAA statistical categories, including 30th in shutout percentage (.400) and 35th in goal differential (13). Recipient of BU's first PL Offensive Player of the Year award in nine years, Eitan Rosen tallied a team-high 22 points (10G, 2A), highlighted by the game-winning goal against Lafayette in the PL title game en route to PL Tournament MVP recognition. He also scored the first goal in the NCAA first round game at Syracuse before the defending nationally champions rallied to eliminate BU, 3-1. Francesco Montali repeated as PL Goalkeeper of the Year with eight shutouts and 0.83 goals against average before being selected in the Major League Soccer (MLS) Super Draft by the Philadelphia Union. Griffin Roach also repeated as PL Defender of the Year and added BU's first All-America award in 17 years.

Jin Oh celebrates the game-winning goal in the 2008 America East championship game.

Head coach Kevin Nylen (2020-pres.) receives his first Gatorade bath after the Terriers eliminated Lafayette in the 2023 PL title game, 1-0. Coincidentally, former head coach Hank Steinbrecher (1981-84) originated the idea of the Gatorade bath when he left the Terriers to serve as director of sports marketing for the parent company, Quaker Oats Company.
