HITS ON HOUSTON

« The #HTownTakeover returns to action Saturday at 6 p.m. as No. 16/16 Houston (9-0, 5-0 The American) faces No. 25/25 Memphis (8-1, 4-1 The American) in a pivotal conference showdown on ESPN2. Houston is coming off a 33-30 win over Cincinnati while Memphis enters after its first loss of the season, 45-20, to Navy. Saturday's game will also air on KPRC 950 AM with pregame starting at 4:30 p.m.

« Saturday's game marks the first time a ranked Houston team has hosted another ranked opponent since facing Southern Miss in the Conference USA game on Dec. 3, 2011.

« The meeting pits The American's top two scoring teams as Memphis is No. 1 in scoring offense (44.6 points per game) while Houston is second (44.4). The Houston defense is second in the league in scoring defense (18.7) while Memphis is eighth (28.7).

« The No. 16 ranking in the AP poll is Houston's highest ranking since coming in at No. 7 in the 14th poll of 2011 when the Cougars finished the year 13-1. No. 16 in the USA Today coaches poll is the highest for Houston since ranking No. 6 in the 14th poll of 2011.

« Houston head coach Tom Herman became just first coach in Houston history with wins in his first nine games. He had shared the best previous start with John Jenkins who started 8-0 in 1990. Herman is the only new head coach in the nation still undefeated.

« Houston is one of six teams still undefeated and the only in The American. All six are in action this weekend.

« This season is the second in Houston history for the Cougars to start 9-0, the other in 2011.

« Houston, Baylor and Michigan are the only three teams nationally to defeat six opponents by 21 points or more.

« Ranking eighth in scoring offense (44.4 points per game) and 23rd in scoring defense (18.7 points per game), Houston and Oklahoma are the only teams in the nation to rank in the top 10 in scoring offense and top 25 in scoring defense.

« Herman has vowed Houston will be physical in the trenches and the numbers are reflecting it. The Cougars rank eighth nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 99.4 yards per game, while ranking seventh in rushing offense with an average of 273.0 yards per game. Houston is the only team in the nation to rank in the top 10 in both categories.

« Houston leads the nation with a +16 turnover margin and 25 turnovers forced, and is 12th with nine turnovers lost.

« Junior quarterback Greg Ward Jr. is third nationally with 16 rushing touchdowns and seventh nationally in scoring with 96 points while ranking eighth in points responsible for per game with 19.3 per game. Ward also ranks third nationally in completion percentage, 70.4 percent, hitting 164 of his 233 attempts.

« Ward is 11th nationally with an average of 327.2 yards of total offense per game. Ward is the only player nationally to average over 200 passing yards per game (235.1) and over 90 rushing yards per game (92.1). He ranks in the top 11 nationally in six different stat categories. He is the only player nationally with double-digit passing (13) and rushing (16) touchdowns.

« Senior linebacker Elandon Roberts is second in the nation in solo tackles (7.6 per game) and ninth in total tackles (11.0 per game).

« Junior linebacker Steven Taylor is 11th nationally with eight sacks and 20th with 13 tackles for loss.

« Cornerback William Jackson III is living up to his name as he is third nationally with 14 passes broken up.

« Houston was narrowly picked to finish second behind Memphis in the west division of The American in a poll of the league's media. 2015 marks the first season for divisions in The American and the first with a conference championship as the league's two division winners will square off on Dec. 5 at the home of the division winner with the best conference record. Each team plays five other opponents from its division plus three cross-division opponents. Houston plays the top two projected teams in the east, Cincinnati and UCF, along with UConn in cross-division games this season.

JACOLBY ROGERS

On Aug. 1, 2014, Houston announced the signing of 15-year old Jacolby Rogers.

Jacolby was diagnosed with Renal Disease in 1999 at the age of one. He underwent a kidney transplant six months later. Unfortunately, by the age of three his body had rejected the transplant, and he has been on dialysis since. Although his dialysis treatments are three times a week, every week, year round, he never complains and is a true fighter. His condition is chronic, and he is on a transplant list, waiting for a donor.

In signing his letter of intent to join UH, Jacolby agreed that his favorite football team is the Houston Cougars and that he will wear red on every Cougar Red Friday and every Houston gameday.

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

Each Monday during the season Houston hosts a media luncheon at the Carl Lewis Auditorium at the Athletics/Alumni Center. The luncheon begins at 11:05 a.m., as Houston head coach Tom Herman steps to the podium. A select number of players are on hand for interviews following Coach Herman.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for credentials are accepted online. To receive the link to the web site, e-mail David Bassity at dbassity@central.uh.edu or Jeff Conrad at jaconrad@central.uh.edu. Requests must be submitted by a sports director/editor at least eight days prior to the contest. Media must show government issued photo identification upon entering the stadium. If the name on the credential and the photo ID do not match, the credential is void.

PRACTICE

The first 30 minutes of Sunday and Tuesday practices are open to the media while all other practice sessions are closed to media and public unless otherwise posted. On days when post-practice interviews are conducted, media should gather around the corner from the outdoor turf at the Houston Football practice facility 10-15 minutes before the workout is complete. Late requests for interviews will be accepted at that time and members of the athletics communications staff will escort players to the media present at the practice facility at the appropriate time.

INTERVIEWS

- Head Coach Tom Herman will do general interviews following practice on Sunday and Tuesday along with his weekly press conference on Mondays at 11:05 a.m. in the Carl Lewis Auditorium.
- Assistant Coaches: Assistant coaches are available after Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday practices.
- Players: All interviews with players will take place at the media luncheon or after practices on Sunday and/or Tuesday. Media should request players at least 24 hours in advance.
- Post-Game: The Houston locker room is closed at all times. Head coach Tom Herman and selected student-athletes will be brought to designated postgame interview areas.

THE TOM HERMAN SHOW

The weekly one-hour radio show will take place each Wednesday from 7-8 p.m. CT and airs live on KPRC 950 AM. Join Houston head coach Tom Herman and host Jeremy Branham each Wednesday at Ragin Cajun restaurant at 4302 Richmond Ave. for the show.

HOUSTON FOOTBALL ON ROOT SPORTS

Houston Football Central airs Wednesdays at 6 p.m. on Root Sports. Coach Tom Herman is joined by host Kevin Eschenfelder as they break down Houston's previous game and preview upcoming games.

THE UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

TIER ONE UNIVERSITY • RANKED ONE OF THE BEST COLLEGES IN U.S.

- Founded in 1927, the University of Houston is the leading public research university in the vibrant international city of Houston. Each year, we educate more than 40,900 students in more than 300 undergraduate and graduate academic programs, on campus and online. UH awards more than 8,000 degrees annually, with more than 200,000 alumni.

- UH is located in Houston, Texas, the nation's fourth-largest city and the energy capital of the world. Our students regularly test their skills through internships with national and international companies based here, and our faculty routinely partner with businesses and government agencies through research.

- Our undergraduates choose from 120 majors and minors. At the graduate level, we offer 139 master's, 54 doctoral, and three professional degree programs. You may study online through our Distance Education program, or take noncredit courses through Continuing Education. Many of our academic programs rank among the nation's best.

- Our faculty and students conduct research through 25 research centers and in every academic department. UH research regularly breaks new ground and opens doors to new ways of understanding the world.

- University of Houston faculty are renowned scholars with real-world experience who work closely with each student. From the Tony Award to the Nobel Peace Prize and back to the classroom, UH faculty makes things happen on campus and around the world.

- With more than 500 student organizations and 16 intercollegiate sports teams, life at UH is active and lively. About 6,000 students live on campus in residence halls, apartments and townhouses.

- UH alumni total 224,000. Of that number, 63 percent live in the Houston area and 75 percent live in the state of Texas.

- The University of Houston is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award baccalaureate, master's, professional and doctoral degrees.

- In addition, the University is a member of the Council of Graduate Schools in the United States, the Conference of Southern Graduate Schools, the National Commission on Accrediting, the Association of Texas Colleges and Universities, the American Council on Education, the Association of American State Colleges and Universities, the Association of American Colleges, the Association of Urban Universities, and the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges. UH colleges, programs and professional associations also hold memberships and accreditations by additional agencies.

- When the Carnegie Foundation elevated the University of Houston to Tier One status in 2011, the designation made the university one of only three public Tier One research universities in the state of Texas, along with the University of Texas and Texas A&M.

TOM HERMAN

HEAD COACH

FIRST YEAR | CAL LUTHERAN '97

• Tom Herman was named head coach at the University of Houston on Dec. 16, 2014, just one week after being named the Broyles Award winner, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

• Herman has helped develop record-setting and explosive offenses in each of his 10 seasons as an offensive coordinator, including his three seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Ohio State where he helped the Buckeyes win the 2015 College Football Championship with third-string quarterback Cardale Jones under center for the Big Ten Championship win over Wisconsin and College Football Playoff wins over Alabama and Oregon.

• Herman's 2014 Ohio State offense finished the season ranked fifth in scoring offense at 44.8 points per game and ninth in total offense at 511.6 yards per game despite losing Heisman Trophy candidate Braxton Miller prior to the season. With freshman J.T. Barrett taking over the reins just prior to the season, Herman simply molded the quarterback into a formidable leader who finished fifth in Heisman voting and was named a FWAA Freshman All-American.

• The Buckeyes claimed the 2014 Big Ten Championship and a spot in the College Football Playoff semifinals with a 59-0 win over Wisconsin as Herman's offense rolled to 558 total yards with Jones under center after an injury to J.T. Barrett in the regular-season finale.

• The offense continued to roll in Ohio State's 42-35 College Football Playoff semifinal win over Alabama. Facing a defense that entered the game ranked fourth nationally in scoring defense at 16.6 points per game, Herman's offense exploded for 42 points and 537 total yards. The balanced attack yielded 256 passing yards and 281 rushing yards.

• The College Football Playoff Championship stage was not too bright for Herman's offense as the Buckeyes rolled up 538 total yards vs. Oregon, 242 through the air and 296 on the ground, in a 42-20 win over the Ducks. The 42 points marked the most scored on Oregon in the 2014 season.

• Herman's quarterbacks in 2014 ranked second nationally with a team passing efficiency rating of 167.72, while Barrett was second nationally with a rating of 169.8 and sixth nationally with an Ohio State record 34 passing touchdowns while also adding 11 touchdowns on the ground for a Big Ten record of 45 touchdowns responsible for. The Buckeyes' offense was sixth nationally with an average of 6.98 yards per play and second nationally with 46 plays of 30 yards or longer and 17 plays of 50 yards or longer.

• Barrett, the Big Ten's 2014 Griese-Brees Quarterback of the Year, was one of four offensive players to receive All-Big Ten honors in 2014 and was the third offensive player to receive a major Big Ten award under Herman's leadership as Carlos Hyde was named the 2013 Ameche-Dayne Running Back of the Year and Miller was named the Chicago Tribune Silver Football, the Graham-George Offensive Player of the Year and the Griese-Brees Quarterback of the Year in both 2012 and 2013.

• After leading the Big Ten in scoring in 2012 at 37.2 points per game and ranking 10th nationally in rushing at nearly 250 yards per game, Ohio State's offense under Herman went to a new level in 2013 by ranking third nationally in scoring with 45.5 points per game and fifth in rushing with 308.6 yards per game.

• The Buckeyes have been successful through the air as well. Among the 12 single season records to fall in 2013 were most touchdown passes (38) with top-five school totals in passing yards (2,846), attempts (368) and completions (238). Additional records were set in rushing yards in a season (4,321 yards, which also is a Big Ten Conference record), most total touchdowns (82) and most total offensive yards (7,167), yards per play (7.1) and yards per game (511.9).

• Miller finished fifth and ninth in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2012 and 2013, respectively. Additionally, he set the school record for total offense and was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien and Manning Awards in 2012 and in 2013 he led the Big Ten in passing efficiency.

• Herman, who was named the 2013 Rivals.com Big Ten Recruiter of the Year and national Top 25 recruiter, arrived in Columbus after spending three years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Iowa State.

• At Iowa State, Herman's well-balanced offense was very evident as Iowa State quarterback Austen Arnaud ended his career as the Cyclones No. 2 all-time leading passer with 6,777 yards and 42 touchdown passes, while running back Alexander Robinson finished his Iowa State career as the Cyclones' fourth all-time leading rusher with 3,309 yards.

• Herman spent 2007 and 2008 as offensive coordinator at Rice before heading to Iowa State. During his two seasons with the Owls, his offenses broke over 40 school records and, in his second season, the Owls won 10 games and went to a bowl for the first time since 1954.

• Rice ranked in the Top 10 nationally in 2008 in passing offense (5th; 327.8), scoring offense (T-8th; 41.6) and total offense (10th; 472.3). Two Rice receivers had more than 1,300 yards receiving that year. Tight end James Casey had 111 catches, and quarterback Chase Clement was the Conference USA MVP.

• Rice's spread attack completed nearly two-thirds (65.6%) of its passes, and its touchdown-to-interception ratio of 48-to-7 was an NCAA FBS best. The quick-strike Owls had 30 scoring drives of five plays or less in 2008 and 31 scoring marches of less than two minutes.

• Prior to Rice, Herman directed offensive attacks for two years (2005-06) at Texas State, where Bobcat squads led the Southland Conference in total offense. The 2005 Texas State club was eighth nationally in scoring and made a run to the FCS semifinals in the school's first appearance in the Division 1-AA playoffs. Herman also worked four years as an assistant coach at Sam Houston State, helping them to a pair of conference titles and trips to the FCS semifinals and quarterfinals.

• Herman received Big 12 experience at Texas (1999-2000) serving as a graduate assistant with the offensive line on the Longhorns' Cotton and Holiday Bowl teams, after receiving his coaching start in 1998 as a wide receivers coach at Texas Lutheran.

• Herman was born in Cincinnati and still has family there. He was raised in Simi Valley, Calif., and he played collegiately at California Lutheran, in Thousand Oaks, graduating in 1997 with a degree in business administration. He received a master's in education from the University of Texas in 2000.

• Herman and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter, Priya, and two sons, TD and Maverick.

THE OPPONENT

« In its fourth season under head coach Justin Fuente, Memphis enters Saturday's meeting at 8-1 and 4-1 in The American following its first loss of the season, 45-20, to Navy. The Tigers opened the year with wins over Missouri State (63-7), Kansas (55-23), Bowling Green (44-41), Cincinnati (53-46), USF (24-17), Ole Miss (37-24), Tulsa (66-42) and Tulane (41-13).

« Memphis is led offensively by junior quarterback Paxton Lynch who has thrown for 3,014 yards and 19 touchdowns against just two interceptions, completing 226 of his 327 attempts. Sophomore Dorland Dorceus leads Memphis with 449 rushing yards and seven touchdowns on the ground. Senior receiver Mose Frazier leads the Tigers in receiving with 52 receptions for 626 yards and three touchdowns.

« Defensively, the Tigers are led by sophomore linebacker Genard Avery with 49 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss and three sacks. Senior defensive back Reggis Ball leads Memphis with three turnovers - 2 interceptions and one fumble recovery.

« Saturday's meeting will be the 24th between Houston and Memphis with the Cougars owning a 14-9 series lead, including wins in each of the last five meetings by an average margin of 19.4 points per win.

ABOUT THE 2015 COUGARS

« Twenty-eight full or part-time starters return in 2015 for Houston. The 2014 leaders in rushing, passing, field goals, punting, tackles for loss, sacks and interceptions all return.

« The program welcomed an incoming class of 21 that is comprised of 18 high school student-athletes, one junior college transfer and two four-year transfers. Three of the 21 newcomers enrolled in the program in January for spring workouts - WR Chance Allen, QB Adam Schulz and WR Devin Smith.

« Houston's roster sports 49 upperclassmen and 56 underclassmen.

« Houston's all-time record sits at 413-351-15 since the program started in 1946.

« Houston has no players from the state of Tennessee on its roster. Memphis has nine players from the state of Texas on its roster.

« The Houston staff is showing its expertise at making halftime adjustments, outscoring its opponents 113-18 in the third quarter and 189-75 in the second half.

« Houston has the nation's fourth-longest active winning streak at 10 games behind Ohio State (22), Clemson (12) and Oklahoma State (11).

LAST TIME OUT

« Houston is coming off a 33-30 win over Cincinnati last Saturday that snapped a five-game losing streak to the Bearcats. The game marked the fifth game this season that Houston never trailed, jumping out to a 7-0 lead and never giving up the lead.

« The Houston defense recorded its sixth game of the season with at least three turnovers - intercepting Cincinnati's Gunner Kiel twice while recovering a Bearcat fumble in its own defense.

« Safety Trevon Stewart set a career high with three sacks for a loss of 23 yards, including one resulting in a Cincinnati safety.

« Cornerback Brandon Wilson gave Houston its third straight game with a defensive touchdown when he picked off a Kiel pass and returned it 51 yards to give Houston a 28-14 lead with 9:56 left in the third quarter.

« Redshirt freshman Joael Williams blocked a Cincinnati punt in the first quarter, marking the first blocked punt since Oct. 17, 2009 when the Cougars blocked a Tulane punt at Robertson Stadium.

« Junior quarterback Greg Ward, Jr. improved to 15-2 as Houston's starting quarterback. Ward moved into sole possession of sixth place in Houston history with 15 wins. Ward led the Cougars as he went 16-for-24 with 161 passing yards and 119 rushing yards. The game marked Ward's third 100-yard game of the season and third of his career. He is now in sole possession of the school record for most 100-yard rushing games by a quarterback in a single season.

« Kenneth Farrow ran for 106 yards and one touchdown in the game, his 11th 100-yard game of his career and fourth of the season. Farrow passed Paul Gipson (1966-68) for sixth in Houston career history with 2,874 rushing yards.

« Adrian McDonald forced a Cincinnati fumble late in the second quarter for his second forced fumble of the season and seventh of his career. He moved into a tie with Steve Bradham (1977-80) for fifth in school history on the career forced fumbles chart.

DEGREES IN HAND

« Five Houston seniors entered the season having already earned an undergraduate degree. Alex Cooper, Ben Dew, Earl Foster, Logan Piper and Adam Schulz all completed degree requirements prior to this season.

« Nine additional Cougars will complete their degree requirements this December: Kyle Bullard, Hayden Daniels, Marcus Dillard, Kenneth Farrow, Nolan Frese, Zach Johnson, Cameron Malveaux, Damien Parris and Luke Stice.

« Houston has scored in 194 straight games dating back to Sept. 30, 2000.

« Twenty-two of Houston's 55 scoring drives this season have been less than two minutes with 11 lasting less than one minute, the quickest just nine seconds with a one-play opening drive score vs. Tulane.

« Houston has 11 scoring drives of four plays or less including two two-play drives and two one-play drives this season.

« Houston has over 600 yards of total offense in four games this season. UH finished its season opener with 621 yards of total offense, the most for UH since Oct. 26, 2013. The Cougars bested the total with 689 yards vs. Texas State and 638 at Tulsa. Houston now has 74 games with 600+ yards in program history.

« Houston's 232 points in its first five games was the second-best five-game start behind the 249 points the 1989 Houston team scored in its first five games. The 1989 team is also the only other Houston team to match the 2015 team with 600+ yards of total offense in three of its first four games as it started the season with four straight 600+ yard games.

« Houston's seven rushing touchdowns vs. SMU is the most since Nov. 24, 2007 when Houston had seven vs. Texas Southern. The Cougars also posted six rushing touchdowns in their season-opening win over Tennessee Tech.

« With 33 points vs. Cincinnati, the Houston offense has posted 30+ points in each of its last 13 games, the first streak of its length in Houston history, topping the previous best of 12 games of the 2011 season. The Cougars have three games with 50+ points this season and five with 40+ points.

« Houston ranks 10th nationally in total offense with 525.1 yards per game and seventh nationally in scoring offense with an average of 44.4 points per game.

« Houston is seventh nationally with 60 plays of 20+ yards and sixth nationally with 31 plays of 30+ yards.

WON'T BACK DOWN

« Houston Vice President for Athletics Hunter Yurachek and head coach Tom Herman recently announced a new commitment to non-conference scheduling with a goal of two power 5 conference opponents and two group of 5 opponents each year to avoid scheduling FCS opponents.

« Houston's 2016 non-conference schedule is set with games vs. Oklahoma, vs. Lamar, at Texas State and vs. Louisville.

« The Cougars have just one spot to fill in 2017 and 2018 with home-and-home series with Arizona, Rice and Texas Tech already scheduled for both years. Houston wraps up its series with Oklahoma when they visit the Sooners in 2019. UH also has future series with Kansas (2019-2020) and Texas Tech (2021-2022) on the docket along with a return trip to Vanderbilt on Oct. 2, 2021.

THE WORD ON WARD

« Named Houston's starting QB vs. Memphis in 2014, Greg Ward Jr. returned to a position he saw action at in 10 games as a true freshman in 2013. After seeing action at receiver and punt returner in the final four games of 2013 and the first four of 2014, Ward returned under center in the fifth game of 2014.

« He is the only player nationally to average over 200 passing yards per game (235.1 yards per game) and over 90 rushing yards per game (92.1) while ranking 11th nationally in total offense with 327.2 yards per game.

« The junior is the only player nationally with double-digit rushing (16) and passing (13) touchdowns.

« Ward ranks in the top 11 in six of the NCAA's recognized stat categories: completion percentage (3rd), points responsible for (9th), points responsible for per game (8th), rushing TDs (3rd), scoring per game (8th) and total offense (11th).

« He is fifth nationally in scoring among non kickers with 96 points.

« The electrifying Ward is fourth nationally with eight rushing attempts of at least 30 yards and with 14 rushing attempts of at least 20 yards.

« Ward is third nationally this season, completing 70.4 percent of his passes, 164-of-233.

« With his 16 rushing touchdowns and 13 passing touchdowns, Ward is eighth nationally in points responsible per game with 20.3 points per game.

« Ward set the Houston single-season record for 100-yard rushing games by a quarterback when he picked up his third with 119 yards on the ground vs. Cincinnati. With the performance, he set the Houston career record for games with 100+ yards rushing and 100+ yards passing as it was his third of such game this year.

« He opened 2015 with his first career 100-yard rushing game with 101 yards and two TDs on 13 attempts vs. Tennessee Tech. He also threw for 275 yards and one TD on 21-of-28 passing vs. the Golden Eagles.

« Ward threw for a career-high four touchdowns vs. Texas State and ended the night with a career-best, and the seventh-best in UH history, single-game passing efficiency mark with a passer rating of 253.41. Ward is 15th nationally with a season passing efficiency rating of 161.1.

« With his four rushing touchdowns vs. SMU, Ward broke the Houston QB rushing touchdowns records for a single game and a season, snapping the previous record of nine from Case Keenum in 2007.

« Ward collected his third straight game with at least three rushing touchdowns with three scores on the ground at Tulane, the third-longest streak on the FBS level over the last 10 seasons. Ward has multiple rushing touchdowns in five games this season.

« With his one rushing touchdown vs. Vanderbilt, he took sole possession of the Houston single-season touchdown record, regardless of position, breaking the previous record of 15 set by running back Jackie Battle in 2006. Ward also took sole possession of the career rushing TDs by a quarterback with his 24th career score, breaking a tie held with Case Keenum.

« The junior ranks eighth on the Houston career rushing touchdowns chart with 24 career scores, two away from seventh.

« Ward broke the Houston QB career rushing yards record vs. Tulane with 77 yards as he now has 1,578 career rushing yards, surpassing the previous record of 1,338 yards set by Lionel Wilson from 1980-83.

« With 46 yards at UCF, he broke the Houston single-season record for rushing yards by a quarterback of 656 set by Lionel Wilson in 1981. Ward currently has 829 rushing yards on the season.

« He is 10th on the Houston career passing yards chart with 4,436 yards. Next is Gerald Landry (1983-86) with 4,512 yards.

« Ward moved into eighth on the Houston career total offense chart with 280 yards of total offense vs. Cincinnati. Ward now has 6,013 yards of total offense and is 37 yards away from passing David Piland (2010-13) for seventh on the chart.

« Cincinnati marked Ward's seventh game with multiple passing TDs while Vanderbilt was his 13th with over 200 yards passing.

« The Tyler, Texas, native has been responsible for a touchdown, either passing or rushing, in 17 straight games for Houston.

« The junior won his 15th game as Houston's starting quarterback with the win over Vanderbilt to move into seventh on the Houston career victory chart.

« Ward leads the Cougars with a .882 (15-2) winning percentage as starting quarterback. Gary Mullins ranks second in school history with a .833 (25-5) percentage. They are the only quarterbacks in school history with 10+ starts and a winning percentage over .800.

« Ward has broken 12 Houston or The American records this season while tying three others.

BACKING UP THE BACKFIELD

« Houston's backfield features a handful of talented backfield options in senior Kenneth Farrow and sophomore Javin Webb. The group lost senior Ryan Jackson with a broken collarbone vs. Cincinnati.

« The group is helping Houston rank seventh nationally with an average of 273.0 rushing yards per game and second nationally with 33 rushing touchdowns. The attack ranks second nationally in rushes of 20+ yards (34) and fourth nationally in rushes of 30+ yards (14).

« With his 1,037 rushing yards in 2014, Farrow was the 24th player in Houston history to rush over 1,000 yards in a season. He also became the 14th 2,000-yard career rusher in Houston history.

« Farrow led The American with seven 100-yard rushing games last season. He ended the year with four consecutive 100-yard games. Houston was 6-1 in Farrow's century-mark games.

« Farrow led The American with 14 rushing touchdowns including nine in the final four games. The 14 TDs ranked second on the UH single-season charts, just one away from the season record of 15 set by Jackie Battle in 2006.

« He was just four yards short of The American's 2014 rushing crown, trailing USF's Marlon Mack's 1,041 yards.

« He ranks seventh in UH history with 11 career 100-yard rushing games, five away from the career record set by Robert Newhouse (1969-71), after rushing for 106 yards vs. Cincinnati.

« The senior is second among active players in The American with his 11 career 100-yard rushing games and third in the league with four this season behind the five from Keenan Reynolds (Navy) and Marlon Mack (USF).

« Farrow is second on the Houston career rushing TDs chart with 32 career scores, chasing the record of 39 set by Bryce Beall from 2008-11.

« He's sixth on the UH career rushing yards chart with 2,874 yards. Next is Joffrey Reynolds (1999-02) with 2,947 yards.

« Jackson's career ends with five 100-yard games with Houston undefeated when he eclipses the century mark.

« Jackson crossed the goal line first for UH in its season opening win for his 15th career TD and gave him the first Houston TD of the season for the third consecutive year.

« He ended the year with 353 rushing yards and three touchdowns on 68 attempts. Jackson also had seven receptions for 79 yards and one kick return for 21 yards.

« Webb quickly established himself as another rushing threat for Houston with two touchdowns as part of his five carries vs. Tennessee Tech, finishing the night with 39 yards. The shifty sophomore led the backs vs. Texas State with 90 yards on 15 carries.

« With a combined 341 rushing yards vs. Tulsa, Farrow (159) and Greg Ward Jr. (182) posted the highest yardage by a duo since running backs Anthony Aldridge (225) and Jackie Battle (136) totaled 361 yards at SMU in 2006.

THIRD WARD TARGETS

« With the loss of five receivers combining for 77 career starts graduating, Tom Herman has turned to a number of new options at receiver. Junior Demarcus Ayers (11 career starts entering 2015) and sophomore Steven Dunbar (two career starts) owned the group's lone starts entering 2015.

« The 2013 American Athletic Conference Co-Special Teams Player of the Year, Ayers was second on the team in 2014 with 33 receptions for 335 yards and two touchdowns.

« The Lancaster, Texas, native jumped out to a strong start in 2015, with a career-high 10 receptions for 121 yards. Ayers added 44 rushing yards and returned three punts for 25 yards, totaling 190 all-purpose yards.

« Ayers had a career-best 126 receiving yards and two touchdowns on eight receptions, all in the first half vs. Texas State.

« After totaling 33 receptions for 335 yards and two TDs in 2014, Ayers has 61 for 769 yards and five TDs this year.

« He ranks 16th nationally and third in The American with an average of 6.8 receptions per game. Ayers is second in The American with an average of 85.4 receiving yards per game.

« Ayers has had a minimum of five receptions and 53 yards in every game this season including two 100-yard games.

« He ranks third in The American with an average of 127.1 all-purpose yards per game while ranking 10th nationally in punt returns with an average of 13.4 yards per return.

« Dunbar broke out vs. Tulsa in 2014 with a career-best seven receptions for 150 yards. All seven receptions resulted in Houston first downs, as 15 of his 20 receptions on the year resulted in a first down.

« The group was bolstered in June when Oregon transfer Chance Allen was ruled eligible immediately, entering 2015 as a junior with two seasons to play.

« Allen is currently second on the team with 34 receptions for 478 yards and three touchdowns, including a 49-yard TD reception on Houston's first offensive play at Tulane.

« Dunbar and Linell Bonner both pulled in their first career touchdowns in Houston's win at Louisville.

« The tight end returned in 2015 led by junior Tyler McCloskey who pulled in two receptions for 16 yards as a fullback in 2014. McCloskey eclipsed his yardage total vs. Tennessee Tech with two receptions for 19 yards and now has 11 receptions for 126 yards including his first-career touchdown vs. Cincinnati.

THE LINE ON THE LINE

« Houston lost two of its most experienced players along the line with the graduation of RG Rowdy Harper (52 career starts) and C Bryce Redman (34 career starts), both seniors. Following the season, 2014 LT Travis Cross was forced to end his playing career due to concussions.

« The line has taken significant hits this season with LG Ben Dew, LT Zach Johnson and RG Josh Thomas being lost with season-ending injuries.

« Colton Freeman, Marcus Oliver and Carter Wall each earned their first career starts vs. Tennessee Tech in the 2015 season opener.

« Depth has been provided with former defensive linemen Mason Denley and Kameron Eloh making their offensive line debuts this season. Denley provided depth vs. SMU before earning his first career start at Tulane at LG while Eloh made his offensive debut as a backup at Tulane and his first career start vs. Vanderbilt with Freeman out with a stinger.

« With Freeman suffering from a stomach bug at Tulane, true freshman Will Noble made his career debut vs. the Green Wave.

« Through nine games, the line has seen seven different starting combinations with 11 different linemen receiving starts.

TAKE IT AWAY, DON'T GIVE IT AWAY

« Since the start of the 2013 season, no program has taken the ball away from opposing offenses more than Houston with 98 turnovers forced in that time.

« Combined with the hiring of Todd Orlando as Tom Herman's first defensive coordinator, the program's outlook for forcing turnovers was promising. Orlando's Utah State defense ranked eighth nationally with 59 turnovers forced over 2013-14 and tied Houston in 2014 with 30 turnovers forced and 19 interceptions.

« UH has forced multiple turnovers in 35 of its last 43 games, and had a 34-game turnover forced streak end at the 2014 regular-season finale at Cincinnati. At the time, it was the longest active streak in the NCAA.

« Houston is again establishing itself in the turnover battle, leading the nation with a +16 turnover margin and 25 turnovers gained. Houston is 12th with nine lost.

« Houston has forced at least three turnovers in six games this season with four turnovers vs. Louisville, Texas State, UCF and Vanderbilt.

« Adrian McDonald led Houston with eight turnovers in 2014 - three fumble recoveries and five interceptions.

« Houston enters its showdown with Memphis riding a three-game streak of defensive touchdowns.

« William Jackson III gave Houston its first defensive touchdown of the 2015 season with a 35-yard return of an interception late in the first half of the Texas State win. Jackson added his second defensive touchdown with a 55-yard return of his third interception of the year vs. Vanderbilt.

« Brandon Wilson simultaneously opened Houston's scoring and ended UCF's first drive with a strip-and-score when he stripped UCF's Cam Stewart and returned the fumble 85 yards for a touchdown. He added his second defensive touchdown this season with a 51-yard interception return vs. Cincinnati.

« If you haven't picked up on it yet, Stewart and McDonald are turnover machines. Stewart led the nation in 2013 with a combined 10 turnovers - interceptions (4) and fumble recoveries (6) while McDonald led The American in 2014 with eight turnovers - five interceptions and three fumble recoveries.

« Eight different players have interceptions this season for Houston with McDonald leading the way with four while seven different players have fumble recoveries with including Tyus Bowser, Jerard Carter, McDonald and Stewart with two each.

« McDonald is second nationally among active players with 17 career interceptions as he took sole possession of the Houston career record with his 17th interception vs. Vanderbilt.

THIRD WARD DEFENSE

- « The 2015 Cougar defense leads The American and is eighth nationally in allowing opponents just an average of 99.4 yards rushing per game.
- « The Houston defense has not allowed a 100-yard rusher in 12 straight games.
- « The 2015 defense is the first since 1998 to hold its first three opponents to less than 100 yards rushing with Texas State rushing for 99 yards. Tulsa was the first team to eclipse the century mark, finishing the day with 130 yards. Houston has held five teams total under 100 yards. «In its season opener, the Houston defense held Tennessee Tech to just 29 yards rushing, the lowest output by an opposing team since holding UTEP to just 30 yards in an Oct. 21, 2006 win.
- « Houston ranks third nationally with an average of 6.0 three-and-outs per game behind just Clemson (6.33) and Alabama (6.11). Houston has 54 three-and-outs on 128 drives.
- « Over the last four games, the Houston defense has climbed 36 spots to No. 23 in scoring defense, giving up an average of 18.7 points per game. Entering the Cincinnati game, the Cougars had allowed a combined 17 points over three games, including no second-half points.
- « Houston held its first two opponents to a combined nine yards rushing in the first half, holding Tennessee Tech to -8 yards on three first-half attempts and Louisville to 17 rushing yards on 15 carries.
- « After allowing 232 yards to UCF in the first half, the UH defense allowed just 48 yards in the second half.
- « The defense held Vanderbilt to 185 total yards, its first time to hold an opponent under 200 yards since holding Texas Southern to 179 yards on Nov. 24, 2007, and Vanderbilt to 44 passing yards, the lowest total since holding Memphis to 64 yards passing on Oct. 30, 2010.
- « With Todd Orlando at the helm for two of the seasons, the Utah State defense ranked fourth nationally over the last four years, giving up an average of just 3.13 yards per rushing attempt. Orlando ranked eighth nationally among defensive coordinators entering the season with a third-down defensive percentage of 34.2 percent, allowing just 159 conversions on 465 attempts.

TACKLING MACHINES

- « Steven Taylor, who was Houston's second-leading tackler in 2014 with 76 stops, owns nine career games with double-digit tackles.
- « Trevon Stewart is fifth nationally among active players with 340 career stops and is one of just five players nationally with multiple seasons with triple-digit tackles.
- « Senior linebacker Elandon Roberts has led Houston in tackles in eight of nine games. The lone game he did not result in 13 tackles at Tulsa. Through nine games, Roberts has 99 tackles after totaling 33 stops through his first two seasons.
- « Roberts is second nationally with an average of 7.6 solo tackles per game and is ninth nationally with an average of 11 total tackles per game.

UP FRONT

- « Moving to a three-man front in 2015, the Houston defensive line has three players with starting experience - senior Tommie Mark (24 career starts), junior B.J. Singleton (20 career starts) and junior Cameron Malveaux (10 career starts).
- « The 10 career starts may be misleading for Malveaux as the Beaumont, Texas, native enjoyed a breakout spring under the new coaching staff, earning the program's spring MVP honors. The 6-6, 270 lb., defensive end had 15 tackles in 2014, but has increased that number (20 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks) in 2015 with an increased on-field presence.
- « Malveaux had a career-high 1.5 sacks in Houston's win at Tulsa.
- « Mark and Singleton were a part of a four-man defensive tackle rotation in 2014 and have the ability to play both at end and tackle in 2015.
- « Singleton picked up his first sack of the season with a six-yard sack vs. SMU.
- « Mark totaled a career-best six stops against UCF and is tied with the line's lead in tackles with 21, tying Malveaux.
- « The group was bolstered with the emergence of sophomore Nick Thurman. After seeing action in five games as a redshirt-freshman, the Dallas native provided a jump in the spring of 2015 at defensive tackle. Thurman added a half sack in Houston's win at Tulsa. He had a career-high five tackles and one tackle for loss along with his first fumble recovery vs. Vanderbilt.
- « Thurman tied for second on the team for tackles at Tulane with a career-high five stops, including one for a loss.
- « Thurman was one of three defensive linemen with a tackle for loss against the Green Wave, joined by Malveaux and Singleton.
- « Redshirt-freshman defensive lineman Jerard Carter recorded his first career fumble recovery in the second quarter of Houston's win at Louisville and followed it with his second recovery vs. SMU.
- « The group had three tackles for loss vs. Vanderbilt as Thurman, Malveaux and Mark all burst thru the line for stops.

ANYTHING BUT SECONDARY

« The secondary group has made a name for itself in the takeaway department over the last two seasons. And this season it returned 97 career starts with every starter from 2014 returning.

« The group had 19 of the 30 turnovers in 2014 and has 18 of the 25 turnovers this season with interceptions from Adrian McDonald (4), William Jackson III (3), Trevon Stewart, Brandon Wilson, Howard Wilson, Lee Hightower and Khalil Williams while McDonald (2), Stewart (2), Jackson and Brandon Wilson have fumble recoveries.

« Jackson, who was named a preseason All-American by Phil Steele, owns one starting corner role. In 2014, the rangy corner was second in The American with 10 pass breakups, while intercepting two passes, playing in man coverage.

« Jackson has two defensive touchdowns this season returning interceptions vs. Texas State (35 yards) and Vanderbilt (55 yards).

« Jackson had three PBUs at Tulsa while holding Keyarris Garrett, who entered the game third nationally in averaging 151.3 yards per game, to 85 yards.

« Including a career-high four PBUs at Tulane, he leads The American and ranks third nationally with 14 PBUs on the year. He is fifth on the Houston career chart with 31 career PBUs. Jackson is also fifth nationally among active players with 37 career passes defended - 31 PBUs and six interceptions.

« At free safety, Stewart has started 44 career games. The Patterson, La., native led the nation in 2013 with 10 turnovers (six fumble recoveries and four interceptions) and is fifth nationally among all active players with 340 career tackles.

« With his fumble recovery at Tulsa, Stewart tied the UH career fumble recoveries record with his eighth career recovery.

« Playing in his home state, Stewart had two sacks for a loss of 25 yards at Tulane.

« A missile from the defensive backfield, Stewart set a career high with three sacks for a loss of 23 yards including a safety vs. Cincinnati.

« A high school quarterback, McDonald led The American in 2014 with eight turnovers (five INTs and three fumble recoveries). McDonald recovered his seventh career fumble vs. SMU and ranks third on the UH career chart in the category. McDonald forced his seventh career fumble vs. Cincinnati, ranking fifth on the UH career charts.

« With his 17th career interception vs. Vanderbilt, McDonald took sole possession of the UH career record. He needs just 36 interception return yards to set a second Houston career record in that category as well.

« McDonald represented The American and the entire state of Texas as the only player from both categories to be named a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award.

« Senior Lee Hightower joined the group in 2014 and started the first six games opposite of Jackson before suffering a season-ending leg injury vs. Memphis, the same game, in which the junior recorded his first interception at Houston. Hightower made his second career interception at Tulsa, snuffing out a potential game-tying drive with the pick.

« Brandon Wilson made his first career start at BYU last season while Howard Wilson saw significant time at nickel back with three interceptions. Brandon Wilson now has 17 career starts including a current streak of 10 games while Howard Wilson picked off his fourth career pass in Houston's win over Texas State.

« Brandon Wilson picked up his fourth career touchdown, his second of the defensive variety, with 51-yard interception return vs. Cincinnati.

LOOK AT THE LINEBACKERS

« With the loss of Derrick Mathews (45 career starts) and Efreem Oliphant (29 career starts), junior Steven Taylor (19 career starts entering 2015) led the group into a new frontier with a change to the 3-4 defense.

« Taylor owns nine career games with double-digit stops and is the team's returning leading tackler from 2014 with 76 stops on the year. He also led Houston on the year with nine tackles for loss and four sacks. He opened strong in 2015 with three tackles for loss, with one sack, vs. Tennessee Tech.

« Taylor leads The American and is 11th nationally with eight sacks with back-to-back three-sack games vs. Tulsa and SMU.

« He is 19th nationally with an average of 1.4 tackles for loss per game including eight TFLs combined vs. Tulsa and SMU.

« Taylor had a career-high 16 tackles at Tulsa, registering 11 stops alone in the first half. Taylor also had a career-best four tackles for loss and three sacks in the win.

« Taylor picked off his third career interception, and his second in as many games, vs. Cincinnati.

« A captain in 2015, senior Elandon Roberts has 99 tackles this season after recording 33 in his first two seasons combined.

« Roberts led his team in tackles in each of the first three games before collecting a career-high 13 stops behind Taylor's 16 tackles at Tulsa. Roberts has had the team lead in tackles in every game since.

« Roberts is second nationally with an average of 7.6 solo tackles per game and is ninth nationally with an average of 11 tackles per game.

« Junior Tyus Bowser made the move from defensive end, where he earned three starts in his first two years, to outside linebacker and had sacks in each of the first three games of the season to extend a five-game streak with sacks dating back to 2014. Bowser now owns 12 career sacks and is ninth in The American with his 4.5 sacks.

« Bowser forced his second career fumble vs. Tulsa to end a Golden Hurricane drive with 4:32 left in the game and recovered his first career fumble vs. SMU. Bowser snuffed out a Cincinnati drive with his second fumble recovery in his own end zone.

« Sophomore Matthew Adams moved into the starting lineup last year after a season-ending injury to Mathews midway thru the year last season and ended the year with three starts, totaling 40 tackles, including 4.5 for a loss.

« With Adams suspended vs. Texas State, true freshman Emeke Egbule made a quick name for himself with three tackles including his first career sack.

HOUSTON - University of Houston junior quarterback Greg Ward Jr. threw for 275 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 107 yards and two more scores to lead the Cougars to a 52-24 win against Tennessee Tech and give Head Coach Tom Herman his first career win Saturday night inside TDECU Stadium.

Ward, who took over as the Cougars' signal-caller midway through the 2014 season, completed 21-of-28 passes and moved to 7-2 as a starter. The Tyler, Texas, native also enjoyed the first 100-yard rushing day of his career as the Cougars made their debut under first-year Head Coach Tom Herman.

Herman became only the third head coach in school history to lead the Cougars to 50+ points in their inaugural games, joining Kevin Sumlin (W, 55-3, vs. Southern, Aug. 30, 2008) and Bill Meek (W, 54-12, vs. Montana, Sept. 17, 1955). He also became the eighth Houston Football head coach to win his inaugural game.

Ward led a Houston offensive that racked up 627 yards of total offense, including 355 through the air. It was the most yards by a Houston team in a season opener since the Cougars posted 627 yards in a 62-13 2013 win against Southern at then-Reliant Stadium.

The Cougars jumped out to a 14-3 lead after the first quarter and never looked back in winning their second season opener during the last three seasons. Tennessee Tech moved to within 14-10 early in the second quarter when Brock McCain hauled in a 71-yard pass from Jared Davis.

However, Ward used his feet for a 41-yard touchdown scamper on the Cougars' next possession to regain a double-digit lead. After a 26-yard Kyle Bullard field goal pushed Houston's lead to 24-10, Ward hit receiver/reserve quarterback Kyle Postma on a 29-yard touchdown midway through the third quarter.

The Cougars continued to pour it on, eventually building as much as a 45-10 lead following Javin Webb's 14-yard touchdown run and reserve quarterback Adam Schulz' 1-yard rushing score.

Following a Tennessee Tech rushing touchdown midway through the final period, Webb added his second touchdown of the night with a 3-yard plunge.

Tennessee Tech wide receiver Brock McCain hauled in a 77-yard touchdown catch with two seconds remaining in the contest for the Cougars' final margin of victory.

Junior wide receiver Demarcus Ayers led the Cougars with 10 receptions for 121 yards for the first 100-yard receiving game of his career.

As impressive as the Cougars were on offense, the Houston defense was no less impressive. Houston limited Tennessee Tech to only 29 rushing yards on 33 carries.

Linebacker Elandon Roberts led the Cougars with nine tackles, including eight solo stops, and two stops for a loss of 13 yards. Linebacker Steven Taylor finished with seven solo tackles, including three for a loss of 16 yards, and safety Trevon Stewart added six tackles in the win. Senior strong safety Adrian McDonald hauled in an 11-yard interception for the 14th pickoff of his career.

Tennessee Tech quarterback Jared Davis threw for 312 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 16-of-26 passing. McCain was the Golden Eagle's leading target, hauling in nine receptions for 264 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

LOUISVILLE

LOUISVILLE, Ky. -- Greg Ward Jr. threw for three touchdowns, including a 15-yarder to Demarcus Ayers with 3:09 remaining to rally Houston past Louisville 34-31 on Saturday. Ward earlier hit Linell Bonner for a 22-yard TD during a wild fourth quarter that began tied 17-all before the teams erupted for 31 combined points. The Cougars ultimately got the final word in the back-and-forth contest thanks to their mobile junior QB and special teams, which partially blocked John Wallace's 53-yard field goal attempt with 54 seconds remaining to seal the signature win for first-year coach Tom Herman.

Houston (2-0) outgained Louisville 462-395 and recorded four turnovers and broke a three-game losing streak to the Cardinals (0-2). Brandon Wilson also returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown.

Ward combined for 334 yards on offense, completing 23 of 33 attempts for 236 yards with one interception. He also carried 21 times for 98 yards.

Kyle Bolin relieved freshman Lamar Jackson in the fourth and twice rallied Louisville with TD drives including his 29-yard scoring pass to Micky Crum with 6:25 remaining. But he couldn't complete a fifth rally as the Cardinals fell to 0-2 for the first time since 1998.

Bolin was 10 of 18 passing for 157 yards and led a touchdown drive ending with Jeremy Smith's 4-yard run for a 24-20 lead early in the fourth.

Jackson was 17 of 27 for 168 yards and a TD in his first start but threw two deep interceptions, one of which led to Kyle Bullard's 21-yard field goal for Houston. The Cardinals also lost two fumbles to the Cougars.

The Cardinals hoped to rebound from last week's 31-24 loss to No. 6 Auburn with a strong effort that would carry them into Thursday's Atlantic Coast Conference showdown against No. 12 Clemson. Louisville was a 13-point favorite but took nothing for granted after self-destructing at the start last week against the Tigers and having to battle back.

Self-inflicted errors doomed the Cardinals again, the worst thing that could happen with a dual-threat quarterback such as Ward.

Ward continually made Louisville defenders miss with nifty moves running the ball and maneuvered into position to find receivers. Houston's quick pace - reflective of Herman's philosophy that helped Ohio State win last year's national championship as offensive coordinator - also kept the Cardinals on their heels for much of the game.

A week after combining for 382 yards and three touchdowns in the Cougars' 52-24 rout of Tennessee Tech, Ward needed just 93 seconds to lead Houston toward a 7-0 lead on its first possession, capping the 51-yard, six-play drive with a 29-yard pass to Steven Dunbar.

Jackson showed a crowd of 50,019 glimpses of his dual skills that helped him beat out favorites Reggie Bonnafon, Will Gardner and Bolin for the start, but freshman mistakes showed throughout.

The freshman ran and threw for many of Louisville's 75 yards on its game-tying first-quarter drive, including his 1-yard TD run. But Louisville's offense stalled, leading coach Bobby Petrino to start Bolin in the fourth quarter.

TEXAS STATE

HOUSTON

59

HOUSTON -- Junior quarterback Greg Ward Jr. enjoyed the best day of his collegiate career Saturday evening as the Cougars dominated Texas State 59-14 at TDECU Stadium. With the win, Houston improved to 3-0 for the first time since 2013.

Ward did a little of everything well for the Cougars. The sophomore threw for 274 yards with a career-high four touchdowns on 17-of-21 passing and added a game-high 91 rushing yards on only 10 carries with a pair of touchdowns.

The Tyler, Texas, native also improved to 9-2 as the Cougars' starting quarterback and moved higher on Houston's career charts with an .818 winning percentage.

Ward led a Houston offense that rolled up 689 yards of total offense, including 366 yards on the ground. It was the most yards compiled by the Cougars in a game since posting 693 yards in a 56-49 loss to Louisiana Tech on Sept. 9, 2012.

Sophomore running back Javin Webb added 90 rushing yards on 15 carries.

When the Cougars went to the aerial assault, junior wideout Demarcus Ayers was the leading target, hauling in eight catches for career highs of 126 yards and two touchdowns. The Lancaster, Texas, native also broke off a career-long 53-yard run early in the fourth quarter.

Defensively, the Cougars forced four turnovers for the second straight game. Senior safety Adrian McDonald and senior linebacker Elandon Roberts led all players with 10 tackles apiece, while senior cornerback William Jackson III posted a 13-yard fumble return and returned an interception 35 yards late in the first half to give the Cougars a 42-7 advantage at the break.

In his first season at Houston, Head Coach Tom Herman became only the second coach in program history to lead the Cougars to a 3-0 record in his inaugural campaign. John Jenkins led the Cougars to an 8-0 start on the way to a 10-1 record in 1990.

It took Houston just five plays and 1:49 to march 85 yards for a touchdown on the opening drive of the game. Ward capped the drive with a 32-yard touchdown pass to Chance Allen, giving the Cougars a 7-0 lead on Allen's first career scoring reception.

The Bobcats evened the game with 1:47 left in the first quarter. Quarterback Tyler Jones capped the drive with a 4-yard touchdown run, capping a 10-play, 57-yard drive that tied the game at 7-7.

Ward wasted little time reclaiming the lead for Houston. On the second play of Houston's ensuing drive, the junior connected with Steven Dunbar on a 65-yard touchdown pass. The reception was the longest of Dunbar's career, and it gave Houston a 14-7 lead.

Houston struck again on their first drive of the second quarter. A 33-yard scramble by Ward set up the Cougars with a 1st-and-goal from the Texas State 2-yard-line. Two plays later, Houston's field general called his own number and scored from the 1-yard-line to make the score 21-7.

The Cougars scored again on their next drive after the Houston defense came up with a turnover. Ward started the drive with a 50-yard completion to Ayers and ended the drive with a 3-yard touchdown toss to the junior, and Houston held a 28-7 lead.

The duo linked up again for yet another touchdown on Houston's next drive. This time, Ward capped an 8-play, 69-yard drive with a six-yard touchdown strike to Ayers. With the touchdown, Houston's lead ballooned to 35-7.

The Houston defense got in on the scoring action on Texas State's next drive. Jones was intercepted by Jackson III, and the senior raced 35 yards for his second career touchdown. The score accounted for the final points of the half, giving Houston a 42-7 lead at intermission.

The stat sheet was as lopsided as the scoreboard at halftime. Houston racked up 428 yards of total offense in the first half, while Texas State had 217. The Cougars posted 18 first downs to Texas State's 10 and forced three turnovers while committing none.

An interception by Houston's Howard Wilson ended Texas State's first drive of the third quarter, and the Cougars cashed in with their first field goal of the day. Kyle Bullard ended a 6-play, 53-yard drive with a 24-yard field goal, and the Houston lead was 45-7.

Ward found the end zone for the sixth and final time midway through the 3rd quarter on his final drive of the game. The junior scampered into the end zone from nine yards out with 6:03 left in the period to stretch the advantage to 52-7.

Texas State got back on the board with 12:57 left in the game. Chris Nuttall scored on a 1-yard rush, capping a 13-play, 85-yard drive. The touchdown cut Houston's lead to 52-14.

The Cougars answered with 3:52 remaining. Senior running back Ryan Jackson found the end zone on a 25-yard rush, bumping the lead up to 59-14.

TULSA, Okla. (AP) - Greg Ward Jr. threw for 273 yards and ran for 182 yards with three touchdowns, breaking the school record for rushing yards by a quarterback, to help lead Houston to a 38-24 victory over Tulsa on Saturday.

Kenneth Farrow finished with 159 yards on 19 carries with two touchdowns, including a 44-yarder for the Houston (4-0, 1-0 American Athletic Conference).

All three of Ward's touchdown runs came in the first half, helping Houston to a 21-10 lead at the break. A Zack Langer 1-yard TD run for Tulsa late in the third cut the Cougars lead to seven (24-17) after three quarters. But the Golden Hurricane (2-2, 0-1) got no closer, as Farrow added both of his TD's in the fourth to push the game out of reach.

Dane Evans finished with 326 yards passing for Tulsa. Langer added 62 yards rushing and three TD's.

SMU

HOUSTON

49

HOUSTON - The University of Houston Football team dominated the rushing game Thursday night and improved to 2-0 in American Athletic Conference play with a 49-28 victory over SMU. With the victory, the Cougars improved to 5-0 overall in head coach Tom Herman's first season.

All seven of Houston's touchdowns were rushing touchdowns on Thursday night, with four coming from quarterback Greg Ward Jr. and three coming from running back Kenneth Farrow. Ward and Farrow are the first Houston duo since 2010 to each rush for at least three scores.

Overall, Ward once again was masterful in his control of the Houston offense. The junior was 16-for-18 passing, for 243 yards, and he rushed the ball 14 times for a team-high 82 yards.

Demarcus Ayers caught a Houston-best seven receptions for 91 yards, while Chance Allen caught three passes for 47 yards. On the ground, Ryan Jackson rushed for 53 yards on 10 carries and Farrow accounted for 40 rushing yards on 11 rushes.

The Houston defense steadily improved as the night went on, allowing just seven points after halftime. The Cougars forced three SMU turnovers overall and held the Mustangs (1-5, 0-2 American) to just 89 offensive yards after halftime.

Elandon Roberts led the Cougars with a career-high 15 tackles, including 14 solo stops and two tackles for loss. Brandon Wilson made eight tackles, as did Steven Taylor.

Taylor harassed the SMU backfield all night and finished with 3.0 sacks, matching his career high from last week's victory against Tulsa. Tyus Bowser and B.J. Singleton also came up with sacks.

Overall, Houston outgained the Mustangs, 457-399. The Cougars scored touchdowns on all seven of their red zone trips and posted 23 first downs.

Matt Davis led SMU offensively, competing 21-of-35 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns. Xavier Jones ran for a team-high 52 yards on 10 carries, while Courtland Sutton caught six passes for 48 yards and a score.

SMU received the opening kickoff and put point on the board the first they possessed the ball. A 10-play, 82-yard drive ended with Davis hitting Sutton on an 8-yard touchdown pass. The extra point gave the Mustangs a 7-0 lead.

Houston wasted no time issuing a response. The Cougars sliced through the SMU defense in just four plays before scoring a touchdown, with Ward running the ball in from 10 yards out. The score tied the game at 7-all.

The Mustangs scored another touchdown on their next drive. This time it was a 9-play drive, with Davis tossing a 9-yard scoring pass to Ryheem Malone. The Mustangs took a 14-7 lead.

After both teams traded punts, Houston tied the game just two plays into the second quarter. Farrow rumbled to the end zone from two yards out, capping a 7-play, 80-yard drive and making the score 14-14.

Midway through the second quarter, SMU retook the lead. This time, Davis called his own number, carrying the ball across the goal line from one yard out. The 8-play, 70-yard touchdown drive made the score 21-14.

The final two scoring plays of the opening half belong to the Cougars, who claimed their first lead with just :02 left before halftime. The tying score came thanks in large part to an SMU fumble that was forced by Taylor and recovered by Adrian McDonald on the SMU 12-yard line. Two plays later, Farrow plunged in from two yards out to tie the game at 21-21.

Just before halftime, Houston again turned the Mustangs over and capitalized with a score. This time it was Lee Hightower who knocked the ball loose and Jerard Carter who scooped it up at the Houston 43. The Cougars took over with just :44 seconds left, but they found the promised land, with Ward toting the ball in from two yards out on the final play from scrimmage of the half. Houston went into the locker room up, 28-21.

The touchdown was another milestone for Ward. It was his ninth rushing score of the season, tying the UH record for rushing touchdowns in a season, set by Case Keenum in 2007.

Houston led at the half despite being outgained in the opening 30 minutes, 310-226. But three SMU turnovers to Houston's none was the key stat of the half. Ward led UH with 27 rushing yards in the half while also going 9-for-11 passing for 149. Ayers caught five passes in the opening half for 69 yards.

Ward broke Keenum's record on Houston's second drive of the third quarter. The junior ran for a touchdown from 10 yards out to boost Houston's lead to 35-21. The touchdown was Ward's third of the night and his 10th of the season.

The Cougars scored their fourth consecutive unanswered touchdown late in the third quarter. Farrow carried the ball on five of the drive's eight plays, and he found the end zone for the third time on the final snap, a 1-yard score to make the score 42-21.

Farrow's touchdown was an historic score in its own right. With Ward also scoring three touchdowns on the night, the score marked the first time since Sept. 10, 2010 that two Cougars scored three rushing touchdowns each. Bryce Beall and Michael Haynes combined to achieve the feat in a 54-24 win over UTEP.

Ward made more history on Houston's next scoring drive. The junior signal caller ran for his fourth touchdown of the night, setting a personal high and giving the Cougars a 49-21 lead. With the score, Ward became the sixth player in UH history to rush for four touchdowns in a game.

As a team, Ward's touchdown gave the Cougars seven rushing scores on the night. That's a first for a Houston team since Nov. 24, 2007, a 59-6 drubbing of Texas Southern.

SMU got back on the board with time winding down in the fourth quarter. Davis scrambled away from pressure and threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Darius Joseph, making the score 49-28.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) - Houston can only hope its final six games as a ranked team this season go as comfortably as its first.

Greg Ward Jr. ran for three touchdowns and threw for another to help No. 24 Houston beat Tulane 42-7 on Friday night.

Playing as a ranked team for the first time since 2011, the Cougars (6-0, 3-0 American Athletic) won by at least 21 points for the fourth time this season. Houston took a half-game lead over Memphis and Navy in the conference's West Division.

Despite three starting offensive linemen sitting out with injuries and losing its starting center to illness early, Houston piled up 461 total yards, including 239 on the ground, and went 7 of 15 on third down.

Ward completed 17 of 25 passes for 222 yards and had 14 carries for 77 yards.

"This was the best defensive front four that we've played all year, including Louisville," first-year Houston coach Tom Herman said. "With the makeshift offensive line, they were getting good push. We were getting guys open."

"He was having a tough time finding some windows to throw and probably scrambled around a little bit because of that. When he does scramble, good things usually happen."

Tulane safety Darion Monroe agreed with Herman's assessment of Ward after failing to stop the quarterback time and again.

"He's good," Monroe said. "That's why he's getting votes right now for the Heisman. He does things with his legs that other quarterbacks can't do. If you blitz him and you miss him, he can go for a touchdown."

But as good as the Cougars' offense was Friday night, Houston's defense matched the performance.

Houston held Tulane (2-4, 1-2) to 262 total yards, forced 11 punts and held the Green Wave to fewer first downs (11) than penalties (12). Devin Powell completed 11 of 28 passes for 88 yards. He got the start for the Green Wave with Tanner Lee out after he sustained a concussion a week ago against Temple.

"We knew it was going to be a new quarterback coming into the game so we knew it was going to be a lot of quick passes," Cougars linebacker Elandon Roberts said. "His reading wasn't going to be all the way through, but we prepared for him like he was a starter."

Houston's sixth-ranked offense took just one offensive play to score. Chance Allen ran past a stumbling defensive back and Ward lofted a pass that hit the receiver in stride for a 49-yard touchdown.

Ward put the Cougars up 14-0 on the first play of the second quarter with a 12-yard run. Tulane's Nico Marley was called for roughing the passer on a third-and-14 play to keep the drive alive.

Tulane answered with Dontrell Hilliard's 3-yard touchdown run on a drive that featured Rob Kelley's 43-yard run on a fake punt.

Ward scored again on a 5-yard run on Houston's next drive, and Demarcus Ayers' 15-yard touchdown run on an end around made it 28-7 late in the second quarter.

Ward's third touchdown run of the game, a 2-yard scamper in the third quarter, and Ayers' 73-yard punt return capped the scoring.

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) - Even in a 59-10 victory, Houston got a little taste of adversity on Saturday.

"We train for adversity. We spend an inordinate amount of time on how to respond," said coach Tom Herman after the No. 21 Cougars (7-0, 4-0 AAC) came back from a sluggish start to dominate winless Central Florida.

"The human element is to freak out and try to do things you're not supposed to do . . . Trying to do something outside of yourself never works. Going back to fundamentals with a driven purpose works."

Kenneth Farrow ran for career-high 167 yards and three touchdowns, and after falling behind late in the first half, Houston scored 24 points in a span of 3 1/2 minutes, winning for the fifth time by 21 points or more.

"We were passive at first, but we came out strong after that," said safety Adrian McDonald. "We handled the adversity of being behind well. We made some adjustments. We made some big plays and then finished them off."

Houston won the second half 35-0 and handed UCF (0-8, 0-4) its most lopsided home loss.

"It was a tale of two halves as far as the game-planning went. We didn't fulfill it the second half," said UCF coach George O'Leary. "It's a 60-minute game; you can't just play 30 of it."

Brandon Wilson scored for the Cougars on an 85-yard return of a fumble just 74 seconds into the game, but that was Houston's only score in the first 27 minutes.

UCF, which entered the game ranked last offensively among 127 teams in the Football Bowl Subdivision, went up 10-7 on Matthew Wright's 48-yard field goal with 4:38 left in the first half. At that point UCF had outgained Houston by 216 yards to 74.

But the Cougars responded with a six-play, 72-yard drive to regain the lead on Farrow's 26-yard touchdown run with 2:27 left in the first half, and the rest of the game was all Houston.

Interceptions by William Jackson III and Khalil Williams set up another touchdown and a field goal in the final 50 seconds of the half. Houston quarterback Greg Ward Jr. scored on a three-yard run to make it 21-10, and after William's interception, a 34-yard field goal by Ty Cummings gave Houston a 24-10 lead on the final play of the half.

When Farrow opened the second half with runs of 20, 29 and 30 yards, the third for a touchdown, the rout was on. "It's really important for us to come out swinging and throw the first punch in the second half," Herman said. "We said we could run the ball and it showed the first few drives of that second half."

Tristan Payton scored UCF's touchdown on a 46-yard pass from Justin Holman, but the Golden Knights had four turnovers and gained only 105 yards after the first quarter.

Houston finished with 600 total yards, including 366 on the ground.

Farrow, who moved into seventh place on Houston's career rushing list with 2,686 yards, left the game after running 24 yards to his third touchdown of the game with 1:57 left in the third quarter. It was the 10th career 100-yard rushing game for the 220-pound senior running back.

18/19 HOUSTON

HOUSTON (AP) - Greg Ward Jr. and the Houston offense have captured all the attention for being able to score in bunches.

The Cougar defense showed Saturday night it deserved some attention as well.

Ward threw for a score and ran for another and No. 18 Houston's defense forced four turnovers in a 34-0 romp over Vanderbilt.

Ward rushed for a 5-yard score with three minutes left in the first and then found Demarcus Ayers for an 11-yard TD in the second quarter as the Cougars led 20-0 at the half. Ward finished 15 of 23 passing for 221 yards, as the Cougars reached 8-0 for the fourth time in school history and first time since 2011.

Kenneth Farrow carried 16 times for 82 yards and had a 15-yard rushing score near the end of the third quarter.

Missing four players who have started on the offensive line this season, Herman said the Cougars knew they were going to have to lean on the defense.

They outgained the Commodores 371-185 and the defense collected its first shutout since a 34-0 win over SMU on Nov. 29, 2013.

Ayers finished with five catches for 59 yards, and Chance Allen had three receptions for 95 yards for Houston, which earned its second win over a Power 5 conference this season after winning at Louisville 34-31 on Sept. 12.

Kyle Shurmur started for Vandy (3-5) and finished 3 of 11 for just 20 yards. Johnny McCrary didn't fare much better in relief, finishing 2 of 9 for 24 yards. They combined for three interceptions.

Ralph Webb rushed for 99 yards on 26 carries for the Commodores, who lost their seventh straight against a ranked opponent.

Vanderbilt didn't cross into Houston territory until 12:08 remaining in the third quarter.

Adrian McDonald set up Ward's rushing touchdown when he intercepted McCrary at the Vanderbilt 5-yard line. Steven Taylor picked off Shurmur and returned it 25 yards to the Vandy 12 to set up Ward's touchdown pass.

William Jackson, III extended Houston's lead to 27-0 with a 55-yard interception return for a touchdown with 3:28 left in the third quarter.

Ty Cummings had field goals of 22 yards and 37 yards in the first half.

Ward set Houston's single-season record for rushing touchdowns with his 16th, surpassing Jackie Battle's 15 in 2006. Ward also set the career record for rushing touchdowns by a Houston quarterback with his 24th, passing Case Keenum.

The win was Houston's sixth by 21 points or more this season, matching Baylor as the only FBS schools to do that.

#18/18 HOUSTON

33

HOUSTON (AP) After six weeks of easy wins, Tom Herman's No. 18 Houston Cougars found themselves in a tough game.

Under pressure from locked-in quarterback Gunner Kiel, who had a career high 523 passing and four touchdown passes already, with two minutes to go, No. 18 Houston needed to make a stand in the fourth quarter to preserve their undefeated season.

Herman's defense came through, forcing four straight incompletions on the final drive to preserve a 33-30 win over Cincinnati on Saturday and remain unbeaten.

The Cougars then held on to improve to 9-0 (5-0 American Athletic Conference) for the first time since 2011 - ahead of a potential matchup between undefeated teams when it plays Memphis Nov. 14.

Kiel's big day was dampened as Houston intercepted two of his passes and forced three turnovers while getting help with personal-foul penalties on two different scoring drives.

Tuberville helped put Cincinnati in a bad position when he was called for one of three personal foul's after his team was penalized on fourth and 1 - a play in which the Bearcats stopped Houston.

Houston kept the ball on the 1, and scored two plays later, the first of 16 straight points to open the second half.

Greg Ward Jr. led scoring drives on two of three Cincinnati turnovers, finishing 16 of 24 for 161 yards with two touchdown passes and two interceptions. He also ran for 119 yards on 16 carries.

Kiel was 28 of 51 and spread out his four touchdowns to three different receivers. He also threw two interceptions.

Kiel hit Chris Moore for two touchdown passes and one each to Nate Cole and Shaq Washington for Cincinnati (5-4, 2-3). Kiel's first interception was returned 51 yards by Brandon Wilson for a touchdown early in the third quarter.

The yards through air had Herman worried, but he said he's not overly concerned; even with top NFL prospect Paxton Lynch coming to town next week.

Cincinnati committed 11 penalties for 84 yards and Kiel was sacked in the end zone by Trevon Stewart for a safety with 4:54 remaining in the third.

The teams were tied at 14 at halftime, but the Cougars scored 16 straight points to take command.

On the first drive of the second half, the Bearcats appeared to have stopped Houston on the 1-yard line. But a facemask and three personal misconduct fouls, including one by Tuberville, gave the Cougars another chance. Two plays later, Ward hit Tyler McCloskey for a 1-yard touchdown pass.

Kiel's touchdown pass to Moore with 5:07 left in the game made it 33-30. Moore finished with 140 yards receiving.

Kenneth Farrow rushed for 106 yards on 30 carries and a touchdown to help Houston. He opened the scoring with a 2-yard run for an early first quarter lead. His first score was set up by Joel Williams' block of Sam Geraci's punt, putting the ball at the Bearcats 20 yard line.
