Bowl History

BURLEY BOWL

MEMPHIS	32
EAST TENNESSEE STATE	12

Memorial Stadium (8,000)
November 22, 1956

Johnson City, TN - In November of 1956 the University of Memphis received its second bowl bid in school history but this time University officials accepted the invitation and the team headed off to East Tennessee to participate in its first post season event.

In 1938, the Tigers received an invitation to play in the Prune Bowl in California and asked bowl officials for a financial guarantee to help cover the cost of transporting the squad across country. When the guarantee did not come through, the U of M opted to stay home.

In November of 1956, the Memphis squad finished the season with a record of 4-4-1 under head coach Ralph Hatley. Andy Nelson and Cotton Clifford served as team captains that year and had helped Memphis to victories in two of the final three games of the season.

During that three week span, the Tigers had back-to-back shutouts, defeating Western Kentucky, 42-0, and Arkansas State, 34-0.

November 22 was a cold and blustery day in Johnson City, Tennessee. Not suited for football or any other outdoor event, the day was highlighted by a light snow fall and spitting rain and sleet.

East Tennessee State tallied the game's first points on a 14-yard pass from quarterback Howard Tippett to halfback Bob Lindsey during the first period. The point after failed, as did most that day and the Buccaneers led 6-0.

The Tigers answered the ETSU score before the first quarter ended. Bob Schmidt blasted into the end zone from two yards out and following the missed PAT by Memphis, the score was tied 6-6.

Neither team could do much to defeat the weather and the first half ended with the score knotted, 6-6.

The University of Memphis took charge of the Burley Bowl football game in the third quarter on that frigid

Thanksgiving afternoon and finally smashed through to a 32-12 victory over East Tennessee State. A crowd of about 700 watched the Tigers win their first ever bowl game.

Memphis penetrated several times in the second quarter once losing the ball on the East Tennessee State 1-yard line on a fumble. But it was not until the second half that the Tigers found themselves.

After being held to a 6-6 halftime tie by a battling bunch of Buccaneers, Memphis shook off the effects of the biting cold and punched across three touchdowns in the third period for the margin of victory.

The first time Memphis received the ball in the third quarter, fullback Bobby Brooks sprinted right up the middle, veered to the left and went 45 yards for a touchdown. And before that decisive period ended, the Tigers also scored on a one-yard plunge by Eddie Gebara and a 64-yard screen pass from Bubba Leonard to Gebara.

Andy Nelson took a pitchout four yards for the final Memphis touchdown in the opening minutes of the fourth period. Leonard converted after the third and fourth touchdowns.

East Tennessee's last touchdown came mid-way in the fourth period when quarterback Joe Dixon ran in from one-yard out.

The Tigers ended the season with a 5-4-1 record, while East Tennessee State dropped to 4-5 on the season.

HALFBACK ANDY NELSON SERVED AS TEAM CO-CAPTAIN AND HELPED THE 1956 TIGER FOOTBALL TEAM TO ITS FIRST POST SEASON VICTORY IN THE BURLEY BOWL.

Pasadena, CA - A hard-nosed defense which caused numerous San Jose State mistakes and an explosive offense that capitalized on those mistakes led the Tigers to a 28-9 Pasadena Bowl rout over San Jose State before a sparse crowd of 15,244 in the Rose Bowl.

Memphis, making its first major bowl appearance ever, trailed 3-0 early in the opening period until a blocked punt by Tom Carlsen, who was named the defensive player of the game, gave the Tigers a lead they would never relinquish.

The Tigers received the opening kickoff and failing to move the ball, were forced to punt from its own 26-yard line. The Trojans drove the ball 19 yards and attempted a 42 yard field goal that fell short and was returned by the Tigers.

Following another failed drive, San Jose moved the ball to the Memphis 16-yard line before kicker Larry Barnes connected on a 33-yard field goal. It would be the only time that SJS would hold a lead in the game.

With :50 seconds remaining in the first quarter, Trojan punter John McMillan stood at his 15-yard line. Tiger defensive back Tom Carlsen blocked McMillan's punt at the 15-yard line and fell on the loose ball in the end zone for the score. Hal McGeorge added the point after and Memphis had the lead, 7-3.

The Tiger defense gained an air of confidence and stopped SJS on the ensuing series. Following a short Trojan punt, the U of M took over at midfield.

With quarterback Al Harvey leading the offensive attack, the Tigers moved into scoring position.

A 13-yard pass from Harvey to Dornell Harris, who was named the offensive player of the game, and runs by Harvey, Skeeter Gowen and Paul Wilson set up the Tigers at the nine yard line.

Harvey went the final nine yards on a run around right end. The 65-yard drive early in the second period gave Memphis a 14-3 lead at intermission.

The Tigers kicked off to begin the second half. San Jose State couldn't move but got a second chance when Paul "Skeeter" Gowen fumbled on Memphis' first offensive play. Bill Brown recovered on the Tiger 24 and a 14-3 U of M lead looked very precarious. The Spartans moved all the way to the Tiger 2-yard line. But on fourth down, the Tiger defense buckled down by meeting running back Joe Hicks at the line of scrimmage and slammed him to the Rose Bowl turf to end San Jose's only real threat.

The third period featured strong defensive play by both teams and when the quarter came to an end, the score remained 14-3 in favor of the Tigers.

The final stanza opened with San Jose in control of the ball but an interception and 27-yard return by the Tigers' David Johnson, his second of the game, put the ball at the Trojans 18 yard line. UM tailback Gowen wasted no time in increasing the UM lead as he raced 18 yards to the end zone on the first play from scrimmage. The scoreboard read 21-3 in favor of the Tigers.

Lightning struck immediately for Memphis. On SJS's first play following the Tiger score, back Larry Lloyd fumbled and Memphis' Carl Taylor recovered.

Five plays later, UM fullback Cliff Taylor punched the ball in from the one-yard line and Tiger fans rejoiced with a 28-3 lead and just ten minutes remaining to play.

Frustration mounted for San Jose State as the Memphis defense continued its strong play. Forced to pass the ball with time running out, Tiger cornerback Walter Daggett picked off the Tigers fourth interception of the afternoon to halt yet another Trojan drive.

San Jose's only touchdown was set up when a pass from center sailed over punter John Kidwell's head and was recovered at the Memphis 20-yard line. A quarterback keeper by Brad Metheany with 36 seconds left in the contest got the Spartans their only touchdown. The extra point attempt was wide to the left.

The victory over San Jose State marked the second bowl win for the Tigers' in school history. The game also marked the end of an era in Tiger football history. Head coach Billy J. Murphy stepped down from his coaching position following the bowl win and dedicated his time to being the University's athletic director.

The former Marine had compiled a record of 91-44-1 over his 14 seasons as head coach at Memphis.

NEW ORLEANS BOWL

MEMPHIS 27
NORTH TEXAS 17

Louisiana Superdome (69,767)

December 16, 2003

New Orleans, LA - The nation's longest bowl drought, 32 years, has ended and it ended in a big way for the University of Memphis Tigers. Memphis, which had not participated in a bowl game since the 1971 season, received a bid to the 2003 New Orleans Bowl to face Sun Belt Conference champion North Texas after closing out a stellar 8-4 season.

The city of Memphis was electrified. Excitement abounded and Tiger faithful began buying tickets and preparing for the trip to the "Big Easy".

Playing in the first bowl game of the 2003 postseason and before a national television audience on ESPN, the Tigers would be challenged to stop the nation's top running back in Patrick Cobbs of UNT. And the team would have to succeed without the services of its top tailback, DeAngelo Williams.

Following three days of fun and practice, game day finally arrived on December 16th.

Memphis won the coin toss and deferred until the second half, giving the Mean Green the ball.

UNT gave the ball to Cobbs six times on the opening drive but were forced to call on kicker Nick Bazaldua when the drive stalled at the Tiger 30 yard line. Bazaldua booted a 47-yard field goal and the Mean Green led 3-0.

But this night would belong to the bowl hungry Tigers and the North Texas lead would be short lived.

After UM receiver Chris Kelley returned the kickoff to the Memphis 34-yard line, junior quarterback and New Orleans native Danny Wimprine took over.

When rushes by Darron White and Derron Parquet failed to gain yardage, Wimprine went up top and connected with wide out Darren Garcia for 63 yards to the UNT six yard line. Three plays later, Wimprine kept the ball and raced seven yards into the end zone for the go ahead score.

The Tiger defense, having had a taste of the North Texas offense, returned to the field determined to shut down the Mean Green. Three plays later, punter Brad Kadlubar kicked the ball back to the Tigers.

But possible disaster struck as tailback Parquet was knocked out of the game with a shoulder injury. Memphis would be forced to put the ball in the hands of walk-on back

LaKendus Cole to win the game.

Midway through the second quarter North Texas was forced to punt and the Memphis offense got the ball at the UM 24. Powered by the running of Cole and the passing of Wimprine, the Tigers drove the ball to the UNT 10 yard line before Wimprine found Kelley in the end zone for the team's second score of the game. Stephen Gostkowski added the extra point and the Tiger lead was 14-3.

Lightning would soon strike again. On the ensuing kickoff, Memphis's Shaka Hill would strip the ball from returner Kevin Moore and Cato Mott would recover at the UNT eight yard line. After three plays, Gostkowski was called on and connected on a 21-yard field goal.

The Tigers went to the locker room with a 17-3 halftime lead.

The third stanza of the 2003 New Orleans Bowl became a defensive battle and both teams were unable to move the ball until the two minute mark.

The Mean Green, starting near midfield, marched 58 yards in six plays with Cobbs going the final 35 yards for their first touchdown of the night. Suddenly the score read Memphis 17, North Texas 10 as the third quarter ended.

But the Tigers were on a mission and this game would not be lost in the final period.

With 12:28 left in the contest, Memphis regained the ball at their own 38 yard line.

Wimprine, the Tigers' record setting signal caller, hit receiver Darron White for 20 yards and fullback Robert Douglas gained three on his first carry of the game. After a face mask penalty against UNT, Cole had gains of two yards and 14 yards to the Mean Green five yard line. On second and goal, the sophomore from Houston High in Memphis, burst up the middle for the touchdown and a 24-10 lead. It was Cole's first collegiate touchdown and gave Memphis an insurmountable lead.

North Texas fought hard and with 2:26 left in the game scored again on a Cobbs' run of two yards.

But the Tigers were undaunted and immediately pushed the Mean Green down field for yet another score. This one would ice the victory that had been so long awaited.

With Cole gaining yards on the ground and Wimprine connecting with receivers Mario Pratcher and John Doucette, Memphis moved within field goal range and Gostkowski brought on the celebration with a 42 yard kick.

As the final seconds ticked off the clock, the players gave head coach Tommy West the traditional cooler bath and then carried their coach onto the field on their shoulders.

New Orleans Bowl director Ron Maestri presented the Tigers the championship trophy at midfield and Memphis quarterback Danny Wimprine was named the game's MVP.

Wimprine finished the game completing 17-of-23 pass attempts for 254 yards and one touchdown and ran for another.

LaKendus Cole was presented the game ball by head coach Tommy West after rushing for 62 yards and one score in a reserve role.

Memphis would complete the 2003 season with a record of 9-4, marking the best finish by a Tiger team since the 1963 season.

Four University of Memphis football teams have gone undefeated since the Tigers first took up the sport in 1912. The most recent Memphis team to go through a season without a defeat was the 1963 squad which ended the year 9-0-1.

Memphis began its football program in 1912 and compiled a 1-2-1 record under head coach Clyde Wilson. The Tigers, then known as West Tennessee State Normal School, played Memphis University School to a scoreless tie in the first football game played at Memphis on October 5. The Tiger football squad notched its first victory three weeks later on October 26 against Bolton Agricultural, 13-0.

The first undefeated team was coach Zach Curlin's 1929 squad which posted an 8-0-2 record, scoring 146 points and limiting the Tigers' 10 opponents to a mere 27 points. Memphis, which was captained by Slick Headden and Joe Koch, captured the Mississippi Valley Conference Championship with that undefeated season.

Coach Allyn McKeen fielded one of the nation's highest scoring teams in 1938, a season which saw UM finish with a 10-0-0 record. Memphis scored 281 points during the year, while only yielding 35 points. The biggest margin of victory was a 68-0 thrashing of Cumberland College. The Tigers also defeated Arkansas A&M, 50-0, later in the season. Roland McMackin captained the 1938 Tigers.

The 1963 Memphis football team had only a scoreless tie with Mississippi between them and a perfect season. The Tigers finished with a 9-0-1 record, UM's most recent undefeated season to date. Unlike the 1938 team, which was noted for its offense, this team made its mark as a defensive club. There were five shutouts, and the five remaining teams scored only 52 points. The Tigers, captained by Richard Saccoccia, rolled up 199 points.

The 1963 squad had wins over Southern Miss (28-7), Tulsa (28-15), North Texas State (21-0), West Texas State (29-14), Mississippi State (17-14), Louisville (25-0), South Carolina (9-0), Chattanooga (13-0) and Houston (29-6).

Senior fullback Dave Casinelli led the NCAA in rushing and scoring during the 1963 season. Casinelli rushed for 1,016 yards and scored 84 points. He is the only Tiger back to win the national rushing and scoring titles. The legendary Tiger back continues to hold the Memphis record for yards rushing in a season and career.

Ray Jamieson is perhaps one of the most well known fullbacks in Memphis football history. The Cranston, Rhode Island, native came to Memphis in 1967 under head coach Billy J. Murphy and played through the 1971 season. Jamieson, a member of the All-Missouri Valley Conference team in 1968, rushed for 1,321 career yards and led the team in rushing during the 1968 campaign. The Germantown, TN, resident was drafted by the NFL Oakland Raiders in 1972 but suffered a career ending injury during an exhibition game.

Greg Sanders came to the University of Memphis in 1980 and played under both Richard Williamson and the late Rex Dockery. A quarterback when he signed, Sanders lettered for three years before earning his final letter as a defensive back. As a quarterback in 1981, he threw for 186 yards against Tulane and his 49.8% completion percentage led the team. He was moved to a cornerback position as a senior and contributed 55 tackles, two fumble recoveries and seven pass blocks. Sanders is an officer with the Memphis City Police Department.

Keith Spann was a standout defensive back for the Tigers from 1993-1997. Playing under head coaches Chuck Stobart and Rip Scherer, Spann logged 241 career tackles including 84 as a senior. He had 11 career pass interceptions which he returned for 267 yards including a 76 yard return to the one yard line that set up a touchdown and helped the Tigers defeat Tennessee. His 267 yards in interception returns is an all-time record at Memphis. Spann currently plays for the Memphis Explorers of the Arena 2 League.

Stan Weaver was a letterman punter and kicker for the Tigers from 1980 through 1983. He led the team in punting for three years, 1981-83, and is currently ranked 8th on the all-time career punting list. The Memphis native averaged 39.1 yards per punt as a senior and has a career average of 38.4 yards per punt on 192 kicks. He amassed 7,374 yards punting during his career. For the past ten years, Weaver has owned and operated Southern Graphics & Systems, a business that sells barcode and data systems to manufacturing companies.

LAST-SECOND WINS

A look at some of Memphis' come-from-behind victories with under one minute to play

1969

Memphis 15, N. Texas 13

Pete Weeks' 36-yard field goal with 38 seconds remaining lifted Memphis over North Texas State, 15-13, before 28,077 in the Tigers' home opener at Memorial Stadium. Stan Davis made it possible when he snagged a pass with one hand for 17 yards to move the Tigers into Eagle territory with time running out.

1975

Memphis 16, Tulsa 14

Bobby Williams kicked a 30-yard field goal with 10 seconds left to give Memphis a come-from-behind 16-14 victory over the Golden Hurricane in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The late score was set-up by a pass from Lloyd Patterson to wide receiver Chester Harris that went for 39 yards. Williams' heroics redeemed him from an extra point which he missed earlier.

1994

Memphis 17, Mississippi 16

With 11 seconds left in the game, quarterback Joe Borich rolled to his right and hit receiver Ryan Roskelly in the corner of the endzone to give Memphis a stunning 17-16 victory in Oxford. Trailing 16-11, Memphis got the ball back with 4:05 remaining and mounted a furious drive. Borich had another stellar play when he converted a 4th-and-15 and scrambled to the two-yard line. Memphis was 0-14 against Mississippi in Oxford before the 1994 victory.

Memphis 18, Cincinnati 16

Placekicker Ted Lane nailed a 19-yard field goal with two seconds remaining to give Memphis a hard-fought, 18-16, victory over conference rival Cincinnati. The Tigers, trailing 16-15, took over at the Cincinnati 48-yard line. After two unsuccessful plays and a sack on third down, quarterback Qadry Anderson was faced with 4th-and-19. Finding no receivers open, Anderson scrambled around in the backfield and then raced 21 yards down the sideline for a first down. On the next play, Jeremy Scruggs ran a miss direction 28 yards to the Cincinnati 8-yard line to set the stage for Lane.

Memphis 21, Tennessee 17

The most stunning upset in Tiger history occurred on November 9 when Memphis upset No. 6 ranked Tennessee at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium. Quarterback Qadry Anderson hit tight end Chris Powers in the right corner of the end zone with 34 seconds to play to shock a record crowd of 65,885. A key play on the drive was a 41-yard pass down the right sideline to Chancy Carr, who was pushed out of bounds at the Tennessee 16. The win, which was televised by CBS TV, was the first in 15 previous attempts against the Vols.

2000

Memphis 19, Arkansas St. 17

The U of M engineered a 58-yard drive late in the fourth period, culminating in a Ryan White 35-yard field goal with :49 seconds left in the game, to give Memphis a come-from-behind 19-17 win over Arkansas State in Jonesboro. Memphis trailed after a pair of fourth quarter Indian touchdowns. White booted four field goals during the game and was named the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Week for his effort.
