'06 REVIEW

The Tigers climbed as high as No. 15 in the NSCAA poll, opening the 2006 season with an 8-2-0 record. Goalkeepers Tyler Strom and Michael Goodlett split time throughout 2006. Senior Kevin Walsh emerged as the Tigers' leading scorer, accompanied by Tripp Harkins, Shaun Goulding and Brian Farrell.

'07 OUTLOOK

Memphis returns all but one starter from 2006 season. Three of last year's freshman gained valuable experience in considerable time on the field and are poised to make significant contributions this season. Goalkeeper Michael Goodlett started 12 games in goal, Brian Farrell started all 18 games, as did defender Rick Alleman. These younger players will complement three seniors 2004 C-USA championship team and five juniors who have grown under the tutelage of Coach Grant in the atmosphere of dominance the Tiger program has created over the last few years. Junior Michael Coburn returns to the defense after an injury-riddled '06 season. Grant brings in five recruits

A WINNING TRADITION

Three seniors in 2007 have never experienced a Tiger season without cracking the top 25 in national polls. Jared Britcher, Adam Montgomery and Tyler Strom each played on the 2004 C-USA championship team and have seen the program improve each year.

TRANSFER, WALK-ON CAPTAINS

Two seniors will captain the 2007 squad: Kevin Walsh and Jared Britcher. Walsh transferred from CBU following his sophomore season and led the Tiger offense in 2006 with 10 goals and 7 assists. Jared Britcher made the team his freshman season as a walk-on and subsequently earned a starting position. He has 11 goals and 8 assists credited to his career totals. Britcher also is a two-time Academic All-American. "He's the model student-athlete," said a grinning Coach Grant.

PRESEASON SUCCESS

Coach Grant used everybody this pre-season. Jared Britcher led scorers with 2 goals. Sean Goulding and Jordan Lynn each had 1 goal and 1 assist.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

#7 Gerard Voutier—a great ball handler and passer, Voutier creates opportunities for the Cardinal offense

RICHE GRANT
Head Coach

Richie Grant enters his ninth season leading the Tiger soccer program in 2007. In his tenure as a head coach, Grant consistently has shown the ability to recruit athletes from across the South and to complement them with talent from Europe to put together strong teams.

The two-time Conference USA Coach-of-the-Year earned his 79th win at the University of Memphis last season, and his .561 winning percentage is the highest in the program's history. Since his arrival at Memphis in 1999, Grant has failed to reach the .500 mark only twice. He led the team to its first conference title in 2004 and the first NCAA tournament since 1993. Since the 2004 season, the Tigers have been recognized as one of the premier teams in the nation, cracking the top 20 each year.

Immediately following the conference championship, proof of the team's overall strength was solidified in the form of a nationally ranked offense. Grant's fourth in seven years. The 2005 Tigers led C-USA and were third in the nation in goals per game (2.56) and were second in C-USA in goals (46), assists (43) and points (135). Two forwards from the 2005 squad were drafted by Major League Soccer (MLS) franchises.

The 2004 campaign also marked a new era of defensive dominance for Memphis Soccer. The defensive unit set school records for goals allowed and goals against average (0.70), which was ninth best in the country. The following season, goalkeeper Tyler Strom led C-USA with an .815 save percentage.

The 2006 campaign showed the same kind of promise. The Tigers opened the season with 8 wins in their first 10 matches and reached the No. 15 rank in the Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) poll.

Prior to Memphis, Grant turned around the soccer program at Lambuth University in Jackson, Tenn. In his four years at Lambuth, he led the Eagles to consecutive Mid-South Conference titles and an NAIA Region XI championship while posting a 53-29-2 record.

In his 12 years as a head coach, Grant has accumulated 132 wins and a .590 winning percentage. In his eight years at Memphis, he is 79-61-8.

As a player, Grant was a three-time NAIA All-American defender and was twice named the NAIA District V Player-of-the-Year at Green Mountain College in Poultney, Vt., where he received his bachelor's degree in leisure resources and facilities management in 1993. Grant then went on to play for the Minnesota Thunder, a semi-pro team that competes in the A-league.

After one season with the Thunder, Grant took a coaching position at Bloomsburg University in Pennsylvania and earned his master's degree in communication studies while working as an assistant coach from 1993-95.

Grant earned his NSCAA Advanced National Diploma in 1997 and then his NSCAA Premier Diploma in 2002. He served as the head coach of Tennessee's Under-23 Olympic Development Team in 2001. He is currently in his seventh year at the helm of the Tennessee U-17 ODP squad. Grant served as the head coach of the U-17 Super Clubs national all-star team, which toured England in the summer of 2001 for a week of matches against top international competition.

Grant is married to Memphis assistant women's soccer coach Jodi Grant and has four siblings. His two sisters live in England, and his two brothers reside in Ireland. His parents, Richie and Annette, live in Dublin, Ireland.
